Prayer guide for Tishri 5779

The First Month of the New Year

Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word.

*The Biblical day begins at sundown, and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day. Genesis 1:5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day...

The Hebrew month of Tishri is the seventh month of the spiritual calendar and the first month of the Physical calendar. It means the month of "Completeness, and Fullness". It is represented by the tribe of Ephraim who was sent out to "be fruitful and multiply". To do so Israel had to be strong before the LORD to complete the task set before you. September 11 – October 9, 2018.

Unlike last month it is one of the highest times of celebration beginning with the feast of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement and the Glory of Tabernacles, the season of God coming to dwell with man. Jewish historians note that Christ was born during this season and they expect HIS return on Tabernacles in the future. It is also considered the time of creation.

We have made the discussion to spend more time in prayer now through the elections. Due to that there is a lot more prophetic word and prayer each day as to begin the New Year. In conjunction with that it is the season of "GOD dwelling with man" so buckle up we are in interesting times.

Again I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, New American Standard and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Lana Vawser, The National Day of Prayer, Rebbetzin Tziporah Heller, Keren Hannah Pryor, Cindy Jacobs, Mark Taylor, Ben Lim, Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, LaRue Adkinson, and myself with additional quotes from sermons and the book "A Time To Advance" by Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler.

There is so much to say about this month that multitudes of books have been written. To begin let's look at just some of the important events that have taken place during this month in history.

3760 bc: (Tishri 1) Adam and Eve Created

1313 bc: (Tishri 10) Moses returns from final trip at Mount Sinai

826 bc: (Tishri 8) Dedication of Solomon's Temple begin

2 bc: (Tishri 29) Christ the Messiah is born. In addition to other substantiations, this date can also be substantiated by the Great Pyramid of Giza which forecasted the event when it was built more than 2,000 years prior to Jesus' birth

1939 ad: (Tishri 6) The murder of Jews began in Poland by the Nazis

2020 ad: Potential future event of the Rapture!*

Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar].

Rosh Hashanah is the head of the year. In the same way that the head directs the actions of the body, the first day of Tishri, Rosh Hashanah, is the head of the year spiritually. It is the anniversary of the day that God created man. All the other creations, which receive their life force from God, who is sometimes called "soul of the universe," have no possible means of responding to Him. We can respond with our voice, the shofar, our dedication and more importantly obedience and love.

Yom Kippur is the heart of the year. It is a day of forgiveness and reconciliation in which we can fearlessly enter the forest within us to explore the deepest parts of our lives, the areas that are too shadowy for us to see or even want to see. When we examine ourselves honestly, inevitably we will find that we have at times blocked out our ability to see more than life's superficial side. No one is perfect, and in fact one of the greatest problems that we have is that we have to at least fool ourselves into believing in our own perfection. We rationalize, reframe, and deny away our spiritual and moral failures.

On Yom Kippur, we can look deeper and more honestly at ourselves. We will find that underneath all the layers there is goodness, purity, and yearning. God imbued this day with the power to let us tear aside all the curtains, and see ourselves not as we have become, but as we want to be. We would never be able to achieve this level of redefinition on our own. Yom Kippur is a day in which God channels down forces that opens up the doors for us. We can be brave and honest enough to walk through the doors joyously, or we can close our eyes to their existence. God won't force anyone to open the door.

Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

Barely a few days pass, and Tishri shows another aspect of the internal workings of reality. Sukkot arrives, and we celebrate our newly won closeness to God by moving into a sukkah, a shack-like structure with no permanent roof. For a full week we reverse most of what we do the rest of the year. Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

We let our sensitivity to the spiritual bond that we have with every Jew regardless of who he is find expression in the four species of plants that the Torah commands that we take and bless. The lulav (palm branch) which has a taste but no smell, is compared to a Jew who is intellectual aware of the Torah's truth, but doesn't let it flow down to affect his deeds. The etrog (citron) has both taste and smell and is compared to one who is fortunate enough to have both knowledge and good deeds express his personality. The hadassim (myrtle) has smell and no taste, symbolizing a person with deeds but nothing to back it up with intellectually. Finally the aravot, (willow) which has neither taste nor smell, which we hold with the same devotion as the etrog which has both, is the icon of one who lives in a world in which there is no consciousness and no deeds. He too is part of our people, and we need to love him unconditionally just as much as he needs our unconditional love.

Tishri's last holiday, Simchat Torah, says it all. There is a world out there. We want to learn it, love it, and navigate it. We will never allow ourselves to content our minds and hearts with its outer contours. We'll walk its spiritual alleys and streets, and we'll follow the instruction book that reveals the blueprint that is the core of its being. We'll let our spiritual and physical joy at having a map that reveals it all take us over. (Rebbetzin Tziporah Heller).

IT CORRESPONDS TO THE TRIBE OF EPHRAIM

Tishri corresponds to Ephraim, the seventh tribe to travel when moving camp in the wilderness. The singular characteristics of a tribe are often reflected in an outstanding leader who represented the tribe during the course of biblical history.

The first, and foremost, leader who emerged from Ephraim was Yehoshua ben Nun. Joshua – the servant and closest disciple of Moses. He was a beautiful example of a moon to Moses' sun. The Sages of Israel describe how "Moshe's countenance was like the sun, and Yehoshua's was like the moon... he only reflected what he received from Moshe" (Bava Batra 75a).

This also is a beautiful description of Yeshua the Messiah. Jesus reflected the Father's glory and he shared the Word of truth and life given him by the Father, as we read in these verses from the gospel of John:

"... the One who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from Him." (8:26).

Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me..." (8:54).

In turn, as we lift our lives before the Throne of Mercy on Rosh HaShanah, we remember that we are to reflect the light of the Son. He has brought us from darkness into the light of the Kingdom of God, and we now are enabled to carry that light into the darkness... for the Father's glory. (Keren Hannah Pryor).

WE LOOK TO THE FUTURE THIS MONTH!*

Keeping with the Lord's harvest theme -- the harvesting of souls -- some believe that this could potentially be the time of the rapture in the future. Symbolically, it is possible that the 7 days of festival could represent the seven years of tribulation and at the same time seven years of marriage supper celebration in heaven (feast of 7 days = 7 years per Bible prophecy). The blowing of the trumpet at the beginning of the celebration is analogous to the trumpet that will sound when the rapture occurs, followed by a 7-year period where simultaneously there is the marriage supper celebration occurring in heaven (indicated by the seven feasting days in Nehemiah 8:18), and the seven years of tribulation on earth.

Another key point which backs up this belief is that the rapture and marriage supper need to occur before the war at the end of the 7-year-tribulation period when Christ's Second Coming occurs, which coincides with what Jude 1:14 says ("And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands (myriads) of his saints") and what Revelation 19:14 tells us about Christ coming with all the saints by his side (believers): "And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean." And that occurs AFTER the marriage supper explained in Revelation 19:8: "And to her (Christ's bride, the church, the saints) was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. Therefore, the rapture must occur first, then the marriage supper, and then Christ's second coming with the saints by his side.

This is also the time of the year when the fall harvest occurs. Mankind's redemption revolves around a theme of harvest. Christ's resurrection was the beginning of the first fruits (beginning of harvest). Passover commemorates the Exodus from Egypt as well as marking the beginning of the harvest season. Not all Christians realize that there also were others who were resurrected after Christ, representing additional first fruits (Matthew 27:52-53 – And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose. And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.) In addition, there are writings from the 1st century that say there were about 12,000 people who were resurrected after Christ and witnessed during the days between Christ's resurrection and when he was translated to heaven, where they saw Jesus and witnessed that he resurrected them as well. Also among the 1st century writings are the published reports and letters of Pilate the Governor who reported about the dead who arose and witnessed.

Possible future date related to the 4th millennial temple, shown by the vision of the future 4th millennial temple (described in the prophecy by Ezekiel 40:1-2. In Israel, the 3rd temple is currently being planned.

Day 1 of Rosh Hashanah (Feast of Trumpets)

...In the seventh month, on the first of the month, there shall be a sabbath for you, a remembrance with shofar blasts, a holy convocation. -Leviticus 16:24

Rosh Hashanah occurs on the first and second days of the Jewish month of Tishri so the celebration continues.

In the Biblical Hebrew culture, there were two days of the Feast of Rosh Hashana, because this was the day that the High Priest would set the sacred calendar on the hearing of two witnesses at two different times coming in and saying they saw the new moon. However, if it was cloudy the first day, they had a second day to have it done. Thus, no one knew of that day or hour the two witnesses would come in and say they had seen the new moon. This is a key to understanding biblical terms and times.

Rosh Hashanah

ראש השנה

Level: Basic

- Significance: New Year
- Observances: Sounding the shofar (ram's horn trumpet)
- Length: 2 Days (Some: 1 Day)
- Customs: Dipping apples in honey; Casting off "sins" into a river
- Greeting: L'shanah tovah! (For a good year!)

The name "Rosh Hashanah" (Hebrew: ראש השנה) means, literally, "head of the year" or "first of the year." Rosh Hashanah is commonly known as the Jewish New Year. This name is somewhat deceptive, because there is little similarity between Rosh Hashanah, one of the holiest days of the year, and the American midnight drinking bash and daytime football game.

There is, however, one important similarity between the Jewish New Year and the American one: Many Americans use the New Year as a time to plan a better life, making "resolutions." Likewise, the Hebrew New Year is a time to begin introspection, looking back at the mistakes of the past year and planning the changes to make in the new year, continuing through the Days of Awe and Yom Kippur. It is the first of the High Holidays or Yamim Noraim ("Days of Awe"), celebrated ten days before Yom Kippur. Rosh Hashanah is observed on the first two days of Tishri, the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar. It is described in the Torah as יום תרועה (Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar]).

Shabbat Shuvah ("Sabbath [of] Return" שבת שובה) refers to the Shabbat that occurs during the Ten Days of Repentance between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Only one Shabbat can occur between these dates. This Shabbat is named after the first word of the Haftarah (Hosea 14:2-10) and literally means "Return!"

Leviticus 23:24-25

Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation. You shall not do any laborious work [on that day], but you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD.

It's a time to pray and repent!!!!

Mark Taylor's prayer

If you would please join me and take your positions in a place of humility and a contrite heart, lying face down, or in a kneeling position before the Lord. If you are not physically able to do this God will honor you right where you are with whatever you are able to do even if you are laying in a bed right now.

Prayer of Repentance

Father in the name of Jesus we come before your throne as your Army, with humble and contrite hearts on this day of repentance. Father as we step onto the battlefield of righteousness, we walk in a spirit of unity, with one heart, one mind, and one accord, to disarm and take away any legal right the enemy may have over your people, and your country called the United States of America. Father we decree and declare we will take back what belongs to you, through this act of target focused repentance that we are engaged in.

In the name of Jesus we repent for not having a humble heart, walking in pride, having haughty spirits, and attitudes, thinking because we are in leadership we don't have to repent. Father we repent for not walking in a spirit of repentance daily and for not discipline others to do the same, knowing that an effective warfare starts with target focused repentance. Father in the name of Jesus we repent for engaging in friendly fire, attacking others in the Body of Christ, shooting our own wounded because we may not agree with that person. We repent for our arrogance, murdering others with our words when your word says "thou shall not murder". Father in the name of Jesus we repent for having a religious, legalistic, and critical spirits, creating chaos, aiding the Kingdom of darkness, and committing spiritual treason by dividing the brethren. In the name of Jesus we repent for not operating in a spirit of unity; love, mercy, and grace, allowing our love to grow cold, and not showing the same love, mercy, and grace, that you have shown us. We ask that you would health divide in your people, give us the strength, the maturity, and the discernment to push away everything that is separating us from you, from one another, and from operating as the one true army you have chosen us to be.

In the name of Jesus we repent for having an intellectual knowledge of you, but truly not knowing your ways. Father forgive us for the spiritual arrogance this has created, operating out of our intellect, versus out of your spirit, honoring you with our lips but our hearts are far from you. We repent for aiding the Kingdom of Darkness and committing spiritual treason by having an escapism mentality, taking ourselves out of the fight and for influencing and leading others astray down this same path.

In the name of Jesus we repent for having a spirit of cowardice, always taking a defensive posture and not going on the offensive when you gave us all the power over all the enemy. Father we decree and declare this day, that as your Army, we will go on the offensive from this day forward, no longer in retreat, but taking the fight to the enemy. We repent for taking ground for your kingdom but not leaving anything in place to hold that ground, allowing the enemy to come back in 7 fold worse, only having to fight harder to reclaim the ground that we freely gave away. Father we decree and declare this day as your Army that we will take ground for the Kingdom of God and we will hold that ground at all costs. We repent for not discipline people, and the next generation, to hold that ground we have taken, and to continue the fight. Father we ask in the name of Jesus that you would give us a spirit of courage and boldness with the intensity that has never been seen in the history of mankind, to take back this country and this earth for your kingdom. Lord Jesus you said we would not only do the things that you did, but even greater things we shall do. Father we decree and declare that the time is now for this to take place, we ask for greater power, and authority, to do the things you have called us to do in these end times.

In Jesus Name Amen

Day 2 of Rosh Hashana, (feast of Trumpets)

Revelation 12:1-2

Last year at this time we witnessed a great occurrence in the heavens that according to NASA has never happened before and mathematically will never happen again. Revisit the month of Elul on September 25 to reacquaint yourself with where we are.

And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

A NEW LEVEL OF EMPOWERMENT!!! YOU WON'T MISS OUT!! Lana Vawser

I have felt the Lord's heart strongly for those who are now stepping into the 'new things' the Lord has opened before them.

This is a season of incredible promotion and divine surprises. There are many new avenues, new pathways, new doors and new blueprints, but in the release of the "new things" God is releasing and leading His people into, I saw many feeling pressure, overwhelmed and even some fear.

If that's you, this word is for you.

For those of you who are feeling the pressure and feeling your capacity is being stretched intensely and the "new things" before you, as exciting as they are, and the "new pathways" the Lord is leading you into, there is also a sense of feeling overwhelmed or even fear that surrounds it. I heard the Lord say:

"There is a new level of empowerment upon you!!!!!"

Instantly I heard 2 Corinthians 12:9:

"But he answered me, "My grace is always more than enough for you, and my power finds its full expression through your weakness." So I will celebrate my weaknesses, for when I'm weak I sense more deeply the mighty power of Christ living in me." - (The Passion Translation)

You will experience His power and grace in ways you never have before. You are going to experience the strength of God in you to accomplish all that He is leading you into. I saw that the feeling of pressure, opposition and feeling overwhelmed is stealing joy and causing many of you at times, wanting to withdraw.

I prophesy over you today, not only is the Lord going to restore your joy in the new places He is leading you into and what He is asking you to put your hand to, He is also going to demolish fear in your life through the power of His love.

GET READY TO EXPERIENCE HIS POWER LIKE NEVER BEFORE

You are going to experience the power of God in your life and through your life in a way you have never experienced before. So much in this season the Lord has been speaking to me about it being an EXPONENTIAL season.

EXPONENTIAL DEFINITION: "An increase becoming more and more rapid" - Google

This is an EXPONENTIAL season. There is SIGNIFICANT increase. There is SIGNIFICANT acceleration and momentum taking place. A lot of pressure the enemy is placing upon these new pathways and new lands the Lord is leading you into, is to cause you to retreat, but now is the time to STAND and continue to move forward KNOWING that you are moving into these new places with Jesus. He has already gone before you (verse) and there is EXPONENTIAL INCREASE awaiting you in these new places.

"Listen carefully, I am about to do a new thing, Now it will spring forth; Will you not be aware of it? I will even put a road in the wilderness, Rivers in the desert." (Isaiah 43:19)

As I felt this incredible sense of empowerment and the strength and power of God being released in your life to accomplish all He is asking you to and to move into what He is leading you into, I heard Ephesians 3:16-19 so loudly in my spirit:

"And I pray that he would unveil within you the unlimited riches of his glory and favor until supernatural strength floods your innermost being with his divine might and explosive power." - (The Passion Translation)

YOU WON'T MISS OUT, YOU WILL HAVE AND WALK IN MORE THAN YOU HAVE HAD BEFORE

The Lord spoke to me that in this season of change, with the Lord bringing these changes and new beginnings, the Lord spoke to me that you will NOT miss out in this new season and new beginnings. Yes, things won't look the same, but you will have and walk in more than you have had before.

I saw the whispers of the enemy attempting to lure God's people into discouragement and despair. "Things are changing, look what you have to leave behind"

But I want to prophesy and decree over you today:

"GOD IS GOOD! His plans for you are GOOD and so much better than you could ever imagine. He is leading you to INCREASE and a place of greater JOY! A greater place of breakthrough, of partnering with Him to see His Kingdom extended and His Glory fill the earth. This is the season for you to take your place in greater ways. There isn't grief in what He is leading you into, there is GREAT JOY!!!"

Hallelujah!!!

Tishri 4 – September 13, 2018

Revelation 21:5-8 Amplified Bible (AMP)

The question becomes are you ready to become new?

⁵ And He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also He said, "Write, for these words are faithful and true [they are accurate, incorruptible, and trustworthy]." ⁶ And He said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the one who thirsts I will give [water] from the fountain of the water of life without cost. ⁷ He who overcomes [the world by adhering faithfully to Christ Jesus as Lord and Savior] will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son. ⁸ But as for the cowards and unbelieving and abominable [who are devoid of character and personal integrity and practice or tolerate immorality], and murderers, and sorcerers [with intoxicating drugs], and idolaters and occultists [who practice and teach false religions], and all the liars [who knowingly deceive and twist truth], their part will be in the lake that blazes with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

"5779 Will Be a GOOD Year!"

Joni Ames, Rock Hill, SC

We're in a very interesting season of transition in the world today. It may take every ounce of faith and patience you can muster to make it through. Many are cracking under the pressure. Don't let that be you.

Battling the World's Agenda

All around us we see strife, division, anger, and debate. We can't even turn on the TV to get a break. You can be watching a program to be entertained and help you get your mind off things, and the world and its problems slams you in the face there too. Everyone thinks they have to chime in and have their agenda be heard.

If you are trying to accomplish what God has spoken to your heart, you'll need to put on the whole armor of God. Don't let the toxic talk of others destroy your vision. You must rely on and trust God more than ever. If He told you something and it's not for the masses, share it with as few as possible. Thus you can avoid unnecessary conflict and maintain your peace and level thinking.

"It will be crucial to press in and know the time and season each of us as well as the world is in."

If a door closes, don't waste time hanging out and crying around it. Be joyful and believe God. He opens doors no one can close, so move on in faith and anticipation until you get to that open door. When you reach it, uncommon favor will surround you and cause everything you have need of to fall into place. So don't waste time moaning about the ones that closed.

5779/2019: A GOOD Year

We're going into the new year of 5779 (Rosh Hashanah) on the Jewish calendar (September 10th). Pay attention to your dreams from now until the official start of the new year Yom Kippur (September 19th). God will be revealing what He has ahead for you in them.

We are still in the 5770s, and the number 70s is ayin. This is a time of being awakened and eyes being opened. The 9 in 5779 (and our upcoming 2019) is significant. It speaks of birthing, harvest, and fruitfulness. In the Jewish Torah, the nine is called tet. Tet is connected to the Hebrew word tov, meaning "good."

I believe 5779/2019 going to be a good year. It will be a time of birthing God's promises for you. It will be a time of recovery as you experience the harvest of your labors and a time of fruitfulness as you experience God's goodness. But in the process, you may also experience some warfare. Don't let the enemy get to you. Don't give up before you get to the open door God has for you. And don't stop short of it, accepting an Ishmael. Through faith and patience you will inherit God's promises to you. Trust Him, not the naysayers. Keep moving forward.

In 5779 Cultivate the "Nines"

Let the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit, reign in and through you. Exhibit love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (see Galatians 5:22-23). As you do, His fruitfulness in your endeavors will abound.

The Church will begin to rise in greater measures in these fruits and we will also see an increase in the operation of the nine gifts of the Spirit: wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, miracles, prophecy, discerning of spirits, tongues, and interpretation of tongues (see 1 Corinthians 12:8-10).

A Time to PRAY

The year that is opening to us is one of foundation and preparation for the year 5780 ahead. Start praying for it now. The number 80 is pey and means "pray." The world-wide prayer move will accelerate. Great prayer will be needed to make it through.

The sons of Issachar had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do (see 1 Chronicles 12:32). It will be crucial to press in and know the time and season each of us as well as the world is in.

Another pictograph of nine appears to be a coiled snake if you glance at it one way, or a woman's pregnant stomach if you look at it another. It's an interesting pictograph as it can represent both good and evil.

It will be a year of testing and transformation for us as we go through some of what's ahead. Will we crumble and become like the enemy? Or will we allow the testings to purify us and transform us to exhibit and birth the attitude and heart God desires?

There are nine beatitudes spoken about in the Bible. The Lord spoke to me about the beatitudes as attitudes He desires us to reach. These are the attitudes God wants us to have in this new year (see Matthew 5:3-11).

We must remember that worship is our war-ship that overrides warfare. It brings confusion to the enemy's camp. Spending more time worshipping the Lord will be a strategic part of walking in victory this coming year and staying on top of the circumstances.

The Suddenlies of God will continue to come forth. Don't give up on your God-dreams. Live them. Walk them out. It's going to be a GOOD year!

A Higher Season: Cindy Jacobs

Hello! As I have been seeking the Lord for a word to encourage your heart, this is what I received: this is a higher season. There is such an anointing on those words - a higher season.

Many people reach a place in their lives where they get stagnant. But the Lord would say to you, "I don't wish you to be stagnant. I want you to be ever advancing My kingdom. I want you to be ever advancing in your destiny. Some of My children reach a place of spiritual stagnation - you are not growing personally, you're not growing in your destiny, you're not moving towards a destiny. And you just say, 'Well, that's all there is.'"

The Lord is really speaking this to me very strongly even for retirees. The Lord has given you a time of positioning to a new level. You are not to be stagnant, saying, "I'm going to retire and just do anything I want." Now I know that may not seem like good news to some of you. But the Lord says, "I want you to be productive. I have made you to be productive. And if you're not productive, you're gonna go down."

The Lord also shows me that this is even a higher season for little children. In past generations, not much was spiritually expected of children because they were just little kids. But the Lord says, "No, this is a higher season for children. It's a season of dreams and visions."

The Lord shows me that there is an acceleration, like a rocket booster. If you will allow the Holy Spirit to come, God wants to accelerate you to a new thing; there'll be a divine acceleration underneath you to cause you to go to this higher season.

Father, I thank You in the Name of Jesus that we're not going to go backwards in our lives; we're not going to reach a point of stagnation where we don't advance because God has called us to advance. I pray for those who are in that place, even feeling discontent and saying, "But, Lord, if You would just show me what to do, I would do something."

The Lord says, "If you will take one step, if you'll volunteer, or take one step, and just do something in your life, I'm going to give you two steps and three steps and four steps."

I know some of you would say, "Well, that's not where I've been. That's not the height of the position where I've been or what I can do." But the Lord says, "This is a season where I would cause My people to volunteer in the day of power. If some of you will do that, look around. I'm going to take you to a higher season. When I come, I will say, 'Did you reach the higher season, or were you just content with a good life or the acceptable life, but not the perfect life in Me?' So reach out because I want to give you the perfect life and a new season, a higher season."

The Ten Days of Awe! Robert Heidler

The ten days starting with Rosh Hashanah and ending with Yom Kippur are commonly known as the Days of Awe (Yamim Noraim) or the Days of Repentance. This is a time for serious introspection, a time to consider the sins of the previous year and repent before Yom Kippur. They are also known as days of Teshuvah which means "to turn" and "to return", it means "repentance". Repentance means to return to GOD.

One of the ongoing themes of the Days of Awe is the concept that G-d has "books" that he writes our names in, writing down who will live and who will die, who will have a good life and who will have a bad life, for the next year. These books are written in on Rosh Hashanah, but our actions during the Days of Awe can alter G-d's decree. The actions that change the decree are "teshuvah, tefilah and tzedakah," repentance, prayer, good deeds (usually, charity). These "books" are sealed on Yom Kippur. This concept of writing in books is the source of the common greeting during this time is "May you be inscribed and sealed for a good year."

Among the customs of this time, it is common to seek reconciliation with people you may have wronged during the course of the year. The Talmud maintains that Yom Kippur atones only for sins between man and G-d. To atone for sins against another person, you must first seek reconciliation with that person, righting the wrongs you committed against them if possible.

Another custom observed during this time is kapparot. This is rarely practiced today, and is observed in its true form only by Hasidic and occasionally Orthodox Jews. Basically, you purchase a live fowl, and on the morning before Yom Kippur you waive it over your head reciting a prayer asking that the fowl be considered atonement for sins. The fowl is then slaughtered and given to the poor (or its value is given). Some Jews today simply use a bag of money instead of a fowl. Most Reform and Conservative Jews have never even heard of this practice.

The 10 day period is a "countdown to glory". Every time you hear a trumpet blast the spirit awakens to the LORD.

Here are some things to do during the Days of Awe!

- 1. Praise Him and Read HIS WORD!
- 2. Let GOD Reveal our cycles! Have they been destructive or productive.
- 3. Ask GOD to Reveal any Sins in Your live!
- 4. Draw close to the LORD!

Mark Taylor Prayer of Repentance:

Father in the name of Jesus as your people we repent for not being the spiritual and moral compass that you have called us to be, for this country, and the entire world. Father we repent for being more concerned about the 4 walls of our churches, versus the congregations, and the lost. We repent for being more concerned about being politically correct versus being truth seekers and truth speakers. Father we repent for walking in the fear of man versus the fear of God. We repent for staying inside the 4 walls of a building, and not taking your gospel to the streets, and bringing in a harvest that is ready to be gathered. We repent for allowing defilement in our pulpits. Father we repent for allowing freemasonry, secrets, and homosexuality into our pulpits, and allowing its influence into your houses of prayer, and calling it church. We repent for allowing immorality into our pulpits and its influence into our congregations.

We repent for the divorce and the abortion rate in your houses of prayer to be the same as the world. Father we repent for houses of prayer being in covenant with that entity called Baal, thru that demonic contract called the 501c3. We repent for taking a bribe for a tax right off, and staying silent for 30 pieces of silver, opening the door for the demonic influence in our houses of prayer. We repent for being incorporated as your houses of prayer, allowing the state and the government to be the head of our ministries, versus you lord Jesus. Father we repent for separating ourselves from you and your body. We repent for not ruling and reigning because we freely gave up that right for those 30 pieces of silver. Father we repent for having a slavery mentality, forgive us for not governing when instead wanting to be governed over. Father we repent for staying silent while prayer was taken out of schools, and allowing the enemy to come into our educational system. Father we repent for staying silent while Roe vs Wade was passed.

We repent on behalf of the Body of Christ, the American people, the leadership and the land, for the atrocity called abortion. Father we repent for allowing these aborted babies to become the food source for Baal, and allowing Baal to become the strong man over America. We repent on behalf of the people, the leadership, and the land, for the child sacrifices, the pedophilia, and the child sex trafficking that is taking place in our country on our watch. Father we repent for taking that blood money from the 501c3 that even the Pharisees knew not to take. Father we repent for the murdering of your prophets and the saints, for being drunk on the blood of the prophets and the blood of the saints.

Father we repent for sacrificing your people on the altar of mammon, because we are more interested in money, big fine homes, and cars, versus the sanctity of life, and speaking out on the issues that matter to you lord. Father I now ask that the spirit of the fear of the lord would come over your people now, and that it would bring your people to an everlasting fear and awe of you. We repent for cursing your America saying she should burn, when you wish that none would perish. Father we repent for not speaking life into your America to complete her destiny.

Amen

Daniel 10:5-7

Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz: His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

"We Are in a Season of Unleashing Unlimited, Creative Glory!"

Nate Johnston, Gold Coast, Australia

For many months now I keep dreaming about Kingdom creativity being birthed RIGHT NOW that will change the course of history. It has caused me to awaken, in a deeper way, to the urgency of the hour to release the NEW from the heart of God to the world. I also realized I need to shift my mindset regarding the HOW in which this creativity is going to be released. God is reinventing us all right now and causing us to come up higher in our approach to how we reach the world and personally awakening us to the fullness of our purposes.

Creative Glory that Will Change the Story

The most repetitive theme of my dreams has been around books and written resources. On at least 4 occasions I have dreamed about books from the library of Heaven being emptied on Earth to those who have been seeking His face and hungry for the more. I have even seen book themes to come by certain writers in a language that didn't make sense to me, but I knew it was the Lord releasing a depth of understanding to the mysteries of the Kingdom that these scribes were able to receive and articulate. I saw Kingdom books becoming New York Times bestsellers and outselling other well-known, secular books.

In one dream I saw a map, and the Lord was showing me guidebooks that would be wilderness manuals for those who have been in the wilderness. The anointing that is coming upon the written Word is increasing and God is entrusting it to those who can wield the pen with purity and integrity in the days ahead.

Cross the Threshold

As we crossed the threshold of 8.8.18 God highlighted a Scripture to me, "I am convinced that any suffering we endure is less than nothing compared to the magnitude of glory that is about to be unveiled within us." (Romans 8:18)

Many have been in a barren season, where the trials have been endless and many felt like their dreams died within them. "8" in Hebrew (Chet) represents a new era, new beginnings, a new day, and a doorway of revelation. (Chet is the symbol of the door.) We have crossed the threshold into an era of new beginnings and a new day to BRING FORTH new revelation and what is inside of us. Like the Scripture says, "...NOTHING will compare to the magnitude of glory revealed in you" (Romans 8:18 emphasis mine)!

No Longer Barren

The enemy knows we are in the beginning of a harvest and He doesn't want you and I to produce. He is scared of a generation rising that carries creative Kingdom solutions for a broken world. So he makes it his sole preoccupation to keep you barren so you don't produce. He wants you to abort what you are carrying and works against your creativity by preventing conception, which only happens through intimacy.

I hear the Holy Spirit saying, "Come and be overshadowed again. Come and let's rekindle our love." It's a call to the secret place where conception takes place and every area of stagnancy in you will suddenly spring back to life.

We are in a time of grace to move into new territory and occupy for greater Kingdom influence. I believe, even right now as you are reading this, that your womb would leap and remind you of the reason you are alive and awaken the forgotten dreams inside you. Creativity is territory.

Renaissance Revolutionaries & Creative Glory

What's the purpose of this creativity? Its purpose is to change the shape of the cultural climate completely by revealing Jesus. I keep hearing, "Can a city be saved in a day?" *Yes it can. Joseph carried a creative solution for a nation that affected many generations to come. The Renaissance period between the 14th and 17th centuries was an Age of Enlightenment, where creativity was the catalyst that burst the banks of expected influence and completely reformed the rest of society and even religion. Right now, God is calling out His Renaissance Revolutionaries to allow Him to birth His ideas and creative expression through them that will alter history itself and extend the Kingdom.

Something is dramatically shifting and changing. There is a sound being released from the creatives that will dethrone principalities over regions and cities and usher in a revival that doesn't just refresh the Church but it awakens the world to the beauty of Jesus!

There are songs that are yet to be sung and innovations that are yet to be discovered. There are ideas, strategies, languages and themes from Heaven that are just waiting to be pulled upon by these revolutionaries that are hungry enough to withdraw from their inheritances.

I feel such a weight on this word and a responsibility upon us as sons and daughters to dream with God and bring forth in this season.

Tishri 9 - September 18, 2018

A sound from heaven holds all things together, even time.

Jeremiah 31:35-37

Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever. Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

Daniel 10:6

His body also was like beryl [with a golden luster], his face had the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and his feet like the gleam of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words was like the noise of a multitude [of people or the roaring of the sea].

Daniel 10:9

Then I heard the sound of his words; and when I heard the sound of his words, I fell on my face in a deep sleep, with my face toward the ground.

Hebrews 1:1-5 Authorized (King James) Version (AKJV)

1 God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, ² hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; ³ who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; ⁴ being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. ⁵ For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement)

The Day of Atonement

Yom Kippur (Hebrew: יום הכיפורים or יום כפור), Also known as Day of Atonement, is the holiest day of the year for the Jews. Its central themes are atonement and repentance. Jews traditionally observe this holy day with a 25-hour period of fasting and intensive prayer, often spending most of the day in synagogue services. Yom Kippur completes the annual period known in Judaism as the High Holy Days (or sometimes "the Days of Awe").

Leviticus 23:27-30

²⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁷ "Also the tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall humble yourselves [by fasting] and present an offering by fire to the LORD. ²⁸ You shall not do any work on this same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God. ²⁹ If there is any person who will not humble himself on this same day, he shall be cut off from his people [excluding him from the atonement made for them]. ³⁰ If there is any person who does any work on this same day, I will destroy that person from among his people.

Here's a look at the Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

September 18-19, 2018 – Yom Kippur will begin at sundown on September 18 and end at nightfall on September 19.

The Day of Atonement is considered the most important and sacred of Hebrew religious holidays. It falls on the 10th day of the Jewish lunar month of Tishri.

Other Facts:

The dates in the Jewish calendar known as the "10 days of repentance" begin with Rosh Hashanah (New Year's) and end with Yom Kippur.

On Yom Kippur, Jews atone for their sins from the past year. They ask for forgiveness from God and from other people.

It is a day of fasting, repentance and worship. In addition to refraining from eating and drinking, observant Jews do not bathe on the holiday, they do not wear leather shoes or gold jewelry and they do not engage in spousal intimacy.

The services during Yom Kippur are held continuously through the day and include readings from the Torah and the reciting of penitential prayers.

Yom Kippur services conclude with closing prayers and the blowing of the shofar, a ritual musical instrument carved from the horn of a ram.

The Day of Atonement coming at the end of a Jubilee Cycle is a very special day. Why? Because it also witnesses the blowing of the Trumpets of Jubilee!

Now we ask ourselves the obvious question. Since this special tenth Jubilee cycle will also mark the terminus of the future 70th Week, and since we have good evidence that the 70th Week, the final seven years of this age, will terminate right on the Day of Atonement will that epic future Yom Kippur actually fulfill the 6th of the Seven Moed, Seven Appointed Times, Seven Feasts of Israel? Will that future Day of Reckoning, the Day of Atonement be a special day in Holy History? Will it in fact be that epic future blockbuster day when the trumpets will sound to announce the coming Jubilee of Messiah? We are to always be excited about the Year of Jubilee. The question becomes where are we now? Do not panic the 120 Jubilee of Jesus is in the year 2020!

Now we are at the end of the 50th year when all Jubilee transactions had to be completed. It's the 70th year of Israel's re-inhabitation and the first time a President of the United States has ever fulfilled his promise to recognize Jerusalem as the capitol of the nation.

US FORMALLY ACKNOWLEDGES JERUSALEM AS THE CAPITAL OF ISRAEL

On May 14, 1948, as the Jews of Palestine declared the establishment of a Jewish state, called Israel, U.S. President Harry Truman granted immediate recognition on behalf of the United States, becoming the first head of state to do so.

On May 14, 2018, 70 years later, President Donald Trump will move U.S. Embassy operations to Jerusalem from Tel Aviv, where it has been since 1966.

MIKDASH WEBSITE:

In honor and praise of Israel's 70th Independence Day, the "Nascent Sanhedrin", The "Mikdash Educational Center" and the "Temple in Zion" organizations have minted a new TEMPLE COIN: The biblical verses on the coin declare the proclamation of Cyrus, king of Persia, and the word of the Lord "And He – HASHEM, the Lord of the World – charged me to build Him a house in Jerusalem." This declaration took place exactly 70 years after the people of Israel were sent in to exile. The prophet Jeremiah "promised that with the passing of seventy years, "I will bring you back to your place. The Coin expresses our joy and gratitude that the American Embassy will be transferred to Jerusalem in honor of Israel's Independence Day. It is the fulfillment of the Trump Declaration recognizing the centrality of Jerusalem as the Capital of the State of Israel

INCOME FROM SALE OF THE COIN WILL BE USED FOR THREE MAJOR PURPOSES

- BUILDING THE TEMPLE
- PRACTICING PROCEDURES FOR THE SACRIFICIAL RITUALS
- PREPARING SPIRITUALLY, RITUALLY AND EDUCATIONALLY FOR TEMPLE SERVICES

Isaiah 9:6-9 Amplified Bible (AMP)

For to us a Child shall be born, to us a Son shall be given; And the government shall be upon His shoulder, And His name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

There shall be no end to the increase of His government and of peace, [He shall rule] on the throne of David and over his kingdom, To establish it and to uphold it with justice and righteousness, From that time forward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

Christ the Suffering Servant

Isaiah 53: 1-12

53 Who has believed [confidently trusted in, relied on, and adhered to] our message [of salvation]? And to whom [if not us] has the arm and infinite power of the LORD been revealed?

² For He [the Servant of God] grew up before Him like a tender shoot (plant), And like a root out of dry ground; He has no stately form or majestic splendor That we would look at Him, Nor [handsome] appearance that we would ^[a]be attracted to Him.

³ He was despised and rejected by men, A Man of sorrows and pain and acquainted with grief; And like One from whom men hide their faces He was despised, and we did not appreciate His worth or esteem Him.

⁴ But [in fact] He has borne our griefs, And He has carried our sorrows and pains; Yet we [ignorantly] assumed that He was stricken, Struck down by God and degraded and humiliated [by Him]. ⁵ But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was crushed for our wickedness [our sin, our injustice, our wrongdoing]; The punishment [required] for our well-being fell on Him, And by His stripes (wounds) we are healed. ⁶ All of us like sheep have gone astray, We have turned, each one, to his own way; But the LORD has caused the wickedness of us all [our sin, our injustice, our wrongdoing] To fall on Him [instead of us].

⁷ He was oppressed and He was afflicted, Yet He did not open His mouth [to complain or defend Himself]; Like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, And like a sheep that is silent before her shearers, So He did not open His mouth.

⁸ [b] After oppression and judgment He was taken away; And [c] as for His generation [His contemporaries], who [among them] concerned himself with the fact That He was cut off from the land of the living [by His death] For the transgression of my people, to whom the stroke [of death] was due?

⁹ His grave was assigned with the wicked, But He was with a rich man in His death, Because He had done no violence, Nor was there any deceit in His mouth.

¹⁰ Yet the LORD was willing To crush Him, causing Him to suffer; If He would give Himself as a guilt offering [an atonement for sin], He shall see His [spiritual] offspring, He shall prolong His days, And the will (good pleasure) of the LORD shall succeed and prosper in His hand. ¹¹ As a result of the anguish of His soul, He shall see it and be satisfied; By His knowledge [of what He has accomplished] the Righteous One, My Servant, shall justify the many [making them righteous—upright before God, in right standing with Him], For He shall bear [the responsibility for] their sins.

¹² Therefore, I will divide and give Him a portion with the great [kings and rulers], And He shall divide the spoils with the mighty, Because He [willingly] poured out His life to death, And was counted among the transgressors; Yet He Himself bore and took away the sin of many, And interceded [with the Father] for the transgressors.

A Journey to Heaven: Wade Butler

On Saturday evening last month I had a vision from the LORD.

Our good friend and the head of my intercessory team Esther Sartor had joined my wife Frances and me in prayer for a visitation from the LORD. I knew the LORD is no respecter of persons and we all have access to the Throne of Grace, but I have never stood before him prior to this. I have seen multitudes of Angels and a few demons but never the LORD.

To begin with let me give you some background on how and why we were there.

Seven years ago Dr. Bruce Cook before he moved to Seattle drove from Austin to Houston to tell me the LORD had instructed him to come and give me the Keys to the treasuries of Heaven. This was truly a GOD send to me but immediately I was thrust in a war for my life like never before. I have worked on several very large projects around the world but nothing developed and I was unsuccessful in receiving the funds needed to accomplish anything. I kept waiting for a call from the Chinese or African leaders for finances to “change the world” per say. My proposal has been approved in five of the seven African nations I applied to and China. The proposal garnered me an Honorary Doctorate of Humanities last year from a leading African University with recognition from UN leaders. Twelve weeks ago the call came in the middle of the night. Unfortunately the struggle continued to get the financial release even from those on the call. I had sought the LORD on many occasions as to why didn't the funds come through? I just could not see or hear what HE was saying.

In prayer the Lord showed me the reason I wasn't seeing and hearing clearly. I called out to HIM, asked forgiveness for not seeking HIM first and immediately I was seeing again.

As we entered into prayer HE immediately brought me up through the BLOOD past the Cross into the courts of the Treasury of Heaven. Like Paul I now understand better 2 Corinthians 12:2 I know a man in Christ who—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, [only] God knows—such a man was caught up to the third heaven.

When I realized where I was and WHO I was with I melted into the ground at HIS presence. It felt like I was dying as if my very flesh was peeling from me. At first all I could bear to look at was at HIS feet, they shown bright as the sun with HIS GLORY. As I looked up I could see HIS magnificent robe of purple flowing from HIS shoulders to HIS feet. HE wore a crown more beautiful than any on earth. As I gazed upon HIM I could not look in HIS eyes. I apologized to HIM for my weakness and stated that I had confessed to every sin I knew of and HE said, “It's OK it happens to many”. I asked what HE meant and HE said, “Many carry their forgiven sins as baggage behind them allowing the enemy to bring them up over and over again.” I did not realize that was my situation and HE said, “look behind you”. There behind me was a very large suitcase full of past forgiven sins. As soon as I saw the baggage it was gone as far as the east is from the west.

HE reached out and lifted me up by my hand and immediately I was ok, in clean linen. We were outside the Temple. HE escorted me through the out skirts of the Temple past the Holy of Holies through a gate guarded by Angels into a rotunda. I said LORD how can I be here. He responded; “that without HIM I could not be there”. The Rotunda was more of a room the size of a football field with no roof. It was filled with six magnificent columns on either side made of precious stones with doors between them. Each door opening was twelve feet wide with two doors twelve feet tall.

The doors were ancient.

Over each door was a name that I could not read. I would ask what was behind each door but HE never told me; HE knew the door I wanted to open. Suddenly in my right hand was a set of keys, ancient and large. HE would allow me to take a step toward each door and a KEY would light up. I never opened any doors but chose the big doors at the end of the room. They looked like Cathedral doors in Italy, twenty four feet tall, a rounded to a point at the top, twelve feet wide split down the middle. The look was ancient with intricate carvings. All doors were guarded by magnificent Angels but this room had the biggest most glorious of all the others.

We took two steps and the doors came to HIM. Once again I fell at the door and Jesus lifted my hand with the key and placed it in the lock and the door slowly opened. The GLORY was so bright that at first I said LORD I cannot see. HE said, "Look again" and I beheld treasures beyond belief, skyscrapers, businesses, churches, vehicles, air transportation, people, Angels holding riches impossible for man to carry.

I could not stay more than several minutes; the very presence of HIS Glory in there was overwhelming me.

We stepped out and I asked what was all in there and HE said: "The answer to every prayer ever prayed for provision". I asked why this room was so different but before HE answered I realized that could not stay any longer, the very presence of HIS Glory in there was overwhelming me.

We stepped back outside and HE showed me the reason that this room was so magnificent. I looked up at the top of the door to see the name inscribed. All of the sudden every name in the rotunda became clear. This room sign read "LOVE". I looked at our LORD and HE said, "Most of MY children seek the answer to needs as riches. I answered every prayer." I asked why were the answers still there. HE responded; "Because the answers to their prayers were not riches, not silver or gold but, "MY LOVE". The greatest gift of MY Treasures is "LOVE". "In there you will find everything you need plus the funds you seek, Go tell MY children to seek MY LOVE and everything else will be supplied according to their needs from MY RICHES in Glory". Philipians 4:19 And my God will liberally supply (fill until full) your every need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Scripture began pouring through me!

1 Corinthians 12:4-11 Amplified Bible (AMP)

4 Now there are [distinctive] varieties of spiritual gifts [special abilities given by the grace and extraordinary power of the Holy Spirit operating in believers], but it is the same Spirit [who grants them and empowers believers]. 5 And there are [distinctive] varieties of ministries and service, but it is the same Lord [who is served]. 6 And there are [distinctive] ways of working [to accomplish things], but it is the same God who produces all things in all believers [inspiring, energizing, and empowering them]. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit [the spiritual illumination and the enabling of the Holy Spirit] for the common good. 8 To one is given through the [Holy] Spirit [the power to speak] the message of wisdom, and to another [the power to express] the word of knowledge and understanding according to the same Spirit; 9 to another [wonder-working] faith [is given] by the same [Holy] Spirit, and to another the [extraordinary] gifts of healings by the one Spirit; 10 and to another the working of [a] miracles, and to another prophecy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people], and to another discernment of spirits [the ability to distinguish sound, godly doctrine from the deceptive doctrine of man-made religions and cults], to another various kinds of [unknown] tongues, and to another interpretation of tongues. 11 All these things [the gifts, the achievements, the abilities, the empowering] are brought about by one and the same [Holy] Spirit, distributing to each one individually just as He chooses.

1 Corinthians 13: 1-3, 8-13 Amplified Bible (AMP)

The Excellence of Love

13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love [for others growing out of God's love for me], then I have become only a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal [just an annoying distraction]. 2 And if I have the gift of prophecy [and speak a new message from God to the people], and understand all mysteries, and [possess] all knowledge; and if I have all [sufficient] faith so that I can remove mountains, but do not have love [reaching out to others], I am nothing. 3 If I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it does me no good at all.

8 Love never fails [it never fades nor ends]. But as for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for the gift of special knowledge, it will pass away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part [for our knowledge is fragmentary and incomplete]. 10 But when that which is complete and perfect comes, that which is incomplete and partial will pass away. ¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things. ¹² For now [in this time of imperfection] we see in a mirror dimly [a blurred reflection, a riddle, an enigma], but then [when the time of perfection comes we will see reality] face to face. Now I know in part [just in fragments], but then I will know fully, just as I have been fully known [by God]. ¹³ *And now there remain: faith [abiding trust in God and His promises], hope [confident expectation of eternal salvation], love [unselfish love for others growing out of God's love for me], these three [the choicest graces]; but the greatest of these is love.

Revelation 5:12

As we were about to leave I heard a loud voice saying, "Worthy and deserving is the Lamb that was sacrificed to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing."

We turned to leave and I reached back to shut and lock the door when HE said, "The door is now open, you cannot shut it. What I have opened no man can close." The door to the treasury of the Kingdom of GOD is open for all to partake of.

Immediately we were outside. I wanted to ask HIM a thousand questions but HE said to me, "It is time for you to rest, we will visit again soon" and I was back setting at my table, shortly after I was sick for four hours.

The following Tuesday I visited with a pastor friend to discuss what had happened to me and he could tell me every step I took. He had been there, experienced nearly the exact same thing and described every detail. I asked him if he was ill afterwards. He said for two days. Esther also saw every moment I was there and Frances took notes as we described it all. Glory, it was not me that opened the door it was the LORD, and they are open for all..... We are in the time of the transfer. Seek HIS LOVE!

Isiah 58: 1-12

Observances of Fasts

58 "Cry aloud, do not hold back; Lift up your voice like a trumpet, And declare to My people their transgression And to the house of Jacob their sins. ² "Yet they seek Me day by day and delight [superficially] to know My ways, As [if they were in reality] a nation that has done righteousness And has not abandoned (turned away from) the ordinance of their God. They ask of Me righteous judgments, They delight in the nearness of God.

³ "Why have we fasted,' they say, 'and You do not see it? Why have we humbled ourselves and You do not notice?' Hear this [O Israel], on the day of your fast [when you should be grieving for your sins] you find something you desire [to do], And you force your hired servants to work [instead of stopping all work, as the law teaches]. ⁴ "The facts are that you fast only for strife and brawling and to strike with the fist of wickedness. You do not fast as you do today to make your voice heard on high. ⁵ "Is a fast such as this what I have chosen, a day for a man to humble himself [with sorrow in his soul]? Is it only to bow down his head like a reed And to make sackcloth and ashes as a bed [pretending to have a repentant heart]? Do you call this a fast and a day pleasing to the LORD?

⁶ "[Rather] is this not the fast which I choose, To undo the bonds of wickedness, To tear to pieces the ropes of the yoke, To let the oppressed go free And break apart every [enslaving] yoke? ⁷ "Is it not to divide your bread with the hungry And bring the homeless poor into the house; When you see the naked, that you cover him, And not to hide yourself from [the needs of] your own flesh and blood?

⁸ "Then your light will break out like the dawn, And your healing (restoration, new life) will quickly spring forth; Your righteousness will go before you [leading you to peace and prosperity], The glory of the LORD will be your rear guard.

⁹ "Then you will call, and the LORD will answer; You will cry for help, and He will say, 'Here I am.' If you take away from your midst the yoke [of oppression], The finger pointed in scorn [toward the oppressed or the godly], and [every form of] wicked (sinful, unjust) speech, ¹⁰ And if you offer yourself to [assist] the hungry And satisfy the ^[a] need of the afflicted, Then your light will rise in darkness And your gloom will become like midday.

¹¹ "And the LORD will continually guide you, And satisfy your soul in scorched and dry places, And give strength to your bones; And you will be like a watered garden, And like a spring of water whose waters do not fail. ¹² "And your people will rebuild the ancient ruins; You will raise up and restore the age-old foundations [of buildings that have been laid waste]; You will be called Repairer of the Breach, Restorer of Streets ^[b] with Dwellings.

Tishri 14 – September 23, 2018 Sukkot 1

Sukkot (Hebrew: סוכות or סוכות, sukkot, or sukkots, Feast of Booths, Feast of Tabernacles) is a Biblical holiday celebrated on the 15th to the 22nd day of the month of Tishri (late September to late October). It is one of the three biblically mandated festivals Shallot regalia on which Jews were commanded to make a pilgrimage to the Temple in Jerusalem.

Zechariah 14:16

And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

"What is the Feast of Tabernacles / Booths / Sukkot?"

Answer: The Feast of Tabernacles, also known as the Feast of Booths and Sukkot, is the seventh and last feast that the Lord commanded Israel to observe and one of the three feasts that Jews were to observe each year by going to "appear before the Lord your God in the place which He shall choose" (Deuteronomy 16:16). The importance of the Feast of Tabernacles can be seen in how many places it is mentioned in Scripture. In the Bible we see many important events that took place at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles. For one thing, it was at this time that Solomon's Temple was dedicated to the Lord (1 Kings 8:2).

It was also at the Feast of Tabernacles that the Israelites, who had returned to rebuild the temple, gathered together to hear Ezra proclaim the Word of God to them (Nehemiah 8). Ezra's preaching resulted in a great revival as the Israelites confessed their sins and repented of them. It was also during this Feast that Jesus said, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water" (John 7:37-39).

The Feast of Tabernacles takes place on the 15th of the Hebrew month Tishri. This was the seventh month on the Hebrew calendar and usually occurs in late September to mid-October. The feast begins five days after the Day of Atonement and at the time the fall harvest had just been completed. It was a time of joyous celebration as the Israelites celebrated God's continued provision for them in the current harvest and remembered His provision and protection during the 40 years in the wilderness.

As one of the three feasts that all “native born” male Hebrews were commanded to participate in, the Feast of Tabernacles is mentioned multiple times in Scripture, sometimes called the Feast of the Ingathering, the Feast to the Lord, or the Feast of Booths (Exodus 23:16; Deuteronomy 16:13). As one of the pilgrim feasts (when Jewish males were commanded to go to Jerusalem), it was also the time when they brought their tithes and offerings to the Temple (Deuteronomy 16:16). With the influx of people coming to Jerusalem at that time, we can only imagine what the scene must have been like. Thousands upon thousands of people coming together to remember and celebrate God’s deliverance and His provision, all living in temporary shelters or booths as part of the requirements of the feast. During the eight-day period, so many sacrifices were made that it required all twenty-four divisions of priests to be present to assist in the sacrificial duties.

We find God’s instructions for celebrating the Feast of Tabernacles in Leviticus 23, given at a point in history right after God had delivered Israel from bondage in Egypt. The feast was to be celebrated each year on “the fifteenth day of this seventh month” and was to run for seven days (Leviticus 23:34). Like all feasts, it begins with a “holy convocation” or Sabbath day when the Israelites were to stop working to set aside the day for worshiping God. On each day of the feast they were to offer an “offering made by fire to the Lord” and then after seven days of feasting, again the eighth day was to be “a holy convocation” when they were to cease from work and offer another sacrifice to God (Leviticus 23). Lasting eight days, the Feast of Tabernacles begins and ends with a Sabbath day of rest. During the eight days of the feast, the Israelites would dwell in booths or tabernacles that were made from the branches of trees (Leviticus 23:40–42).

(Feast of Tabernacles)

The Feast of Tabernacles, like all the feasts, was instituted by God as a way of reminding Israelites in every generation of their deliverance by God from Egypt. Of course, the feasts are also significant in that they foreshadow the work and actions of the coming Messiah. Much of Jesus’ public ministry took place in conjunction with the Holy Feasts set forth by God. Most scholars would agree that the Feast of Tabernacles is symbolic of Christ’s Second Coming when He will establish His earthly kingdom.

There are also those who believe that it was likely during the Feast of Tabernacles that Jesus was born. While we celebrate Christ’s birth on December

25, most scholars acknowledge that this tradition was begun in the fourth century AD by the Roman Catholic Church and that the exact day of Jesus' birth is believed to be September 29th. The Feast of the Tabernacles includes the fact that it would be unlikely for shepherds to still be in the field with their sheep in December, which is in the middle of the winter, but it would have been likely they were in the fields tending sheep at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles. The strong possibility that Jesus was born at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles is seen in the words John wrote in John 1:14. "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth." The word John chose to speak of Jesus "dwelling" among us is the word tabernacle, which simply means to "dwell in a tent."

Many believe it is very likely that John intentionally used this word to associate the first coming of Christ with the Feast of Tabernacles. Christ came in the flesh to dwell among us for a temporary time when He was born in the manger, and He is coming again to dwell among us as Lord of Lords.

The Feast of Tabernacles begins and ends with a special Sabbath day of rest. During the days of the feast all native Israelites were "to dwell in booths" to remind them that God delivered them out of the "land of Egypt" and to look forward to the coming Messiah, Jesus Christ, who would deliver His people from the bondage of sin. This feast, like all of the feasts of Israel, consistently reminded the Jews and should remind Christians as well that God has promised to deliver His people from the bondage of sin and deliver them from their enemies. Part of God's deliverance for the Israelites was His provision and protection of them for the 40 years they wandered in the wilderness, cut off from the Promised Land. The same holds true for Christians today. God protects us and provides for us as we go through life in the wilderness of this world. While our hearts long for the Promised Land (heaven) and to be in the presence of God, He preserves us in this world as we await the world to come and the redemption that will come when Jesus Christ returns again to "tabernacle" or dwell among us in bodily form.

Isaiah 61 Amplified Bible (AMP)

Jesus lifts up those who are Afflicted, it's our job also...

61 *The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, Because the LORD has anointed and commissioned me To bring good news to the humble and afflicted; He has sent me to bind up [the wounds of] the brokenhearted, To proclaim release [from confinement and condemnation] to the [physical and spiritual] captives And freedom to prisoners, ² To proclaim the favorable year of the LORD, And the day of vengeance and retribution of our God, To comfort all who mourn, ³ To grant to those who mourn in Zion the following: To give them a turban instead of dust [on their heads, a sign of mourning], The oil of joy instead of mourning, The garment [expressive] of praise instead of a disheartened spirit. So they will be called the trees of righteousness [strong and magnificent, distinguished for integrity, justice, and right standing with God], The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.

⁴ Then they will rebuild the ancient ruins, They will raise up and restore the former desolations; And they will renew the ruined cities, The desolations (deserted settlements) of many generations. ⁵ Strangers will stand and feed your flocks, And foreigners will be your farmers and your vinedressers.

⁶ But you shall be called the priests of the LORD; People will speak of you as the ministers of our God. You will eat the wealth of nations, And you will boast of their riches. ⁷ Instead of your [former] shame you will have a double portion; And instead of humiliation your people will shout for joy over their portion. Therefore in their land they will possess double [what they had forfeited]; Everlasting joy will be theirs.

⁸ For I, the LORD, love justice; I hate robbery with a burnt offering. And I will faithfully reward them, And make an everlasting covenant with them. ⁹ Then their offspring will be known among the nations, And their descendants among the peoples. All who see them [in their prosperity] will recognize and acknowledge them That they are the people whom the LORD has blessed.*

¹⁰ I will rejoice greatly in the LORD, My soul will exult in my God; For He has clothed me with garments of salvation, He has covered me with a robe of righteousness, As a bridegroom puts on a turban, And as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

¹¹ *For as the earth brings forth its sprouts, And as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, So the Lord God will [most certainly] cause righteousness and justice and praise To spring up before all the nations [through the power of His word].

Matthew 1:18-23 Amplified Bible (AMP)

Conception and Birth of Jesus – “GOD Tabernacles with man”

¹⁸ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child by [the power of] the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ And Joseph her [promised] husband, being a just and righteous man and not wanting to expose her publicly to shame, planned to send her away and divorce her quietly. ²⁰ But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, descendant of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the Child who has been conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. ²¹ She will give birth to a Son, and you shall name Him Jesus (The LORD is salvation), for He will save His people from their sins.” ²² All this happened in order to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet [Isaiah]: ²³ “BEHOLD, THE VIRGIN SHALL BE WITH CHILD AND GIVE BIRTH TO A SON, AND THEY SHALL CALL HIS NAME IMMANUEL”—which, when translated, means, “GOD WITH US.” (Tabernacles)!

John 7:2-10 Amplified Bible (AMP)

Our LORD honors the feast by teaching at it

7 After this, Jesus walked [from place to place] in Galilee, for He would not walk in Judea because the Jews were seeking to kill Him.² Now the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles (Booths) was approaching. ³ So His brothers said to Him, “Leave here and go to Judea, so that Your disciples [there] may also see the works that You do. ⁴ No one does anything in secret when he wants to be known publicly. If You [must] do these things, show Yourself openly to the world and make Yourself known!” ⁵ For not even His brothers believed in Him. ⁶ So Jesus said to them, “My time has not yet come; but any time is right for you. ⁷ The world cannot hate you [since you are part of it], but it does hate Me because I denounce it and testify that its deeds are evil. ⁸ Go up to the feast yourselves. I am not going up to this feast because My time has not yet fully come.” ⁹ Having said these things to them, He stayed behind in Galilee.

¹⁰ But [afterward], when His brothers had gone up to the feast, He went up too, not publicly [with a caravan], but quietly [because He did not want to be noticed]. ¹¹ So the Jews kept looking for Him at the feast and asking, “Where is He?” ¹² There was a lot of whispered discussion and murmuring among the crowds about Him. Some were saying,

"He is a good man"; others said, "No, on the contrary, He misleads the people [giving them false ideas]." ¹³ Yet no one was speaking out openly and freely about Him for fear of [the leaders of] the Jews.

¹⁴ When the feast was already half over, Jesus went up into the temple [court] and began to teach.

¹⁵ Then the Jews were perplexed. They said, "How did this man become learned [so versed in the Scriptures and theology] without formal training?" ¹⁶ Jesus answered them by saying, "My teaching is not My own, but His who sent Me. ¹⁷ If anyone is willing to do His will, he will know whether the teaching is of God or whether I speak on My own accord and by My own authority." ¹⁸ He who speaks on his own accord seeks glory and honor for himself. But He who seeks the glory and the honor of the One who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness or deception in Him.

¹⁹ "Did not Moses give you the Law? And yet not one of you keeps the Law. Why do you want to kill Me [for not keeping it]?" ²⁰ The crowd answered, "You have a demon [You are out of Your mind]! Who wants to kill You?" ²¹ Jesus replied, "I did one work, and you are all astounded. ²² For this reason Moses has given you [God's law regarding] circumcision (not that it originated with Moses, but with the patriarchs) and you circumcise a man [even] on the Sabbath. ²³ If, to avoid breaking the Law of Moses, a man undergoes circumcision on the Sabbath, why are you angry with Me for making a man's whole body well on the Sabbath? ²⁴ Do not judge by appearance [superficially and arrogantly], but judge fairly and righteously."

²⁵ Then some of the people of Jerusalem said, "Is this not the Man they want to kill?"

²⁶ Look, He is speaking publicly, and they say nothing to Him! Is it possible that the rulers really know that this is the Christ? ²⁷ But we know where this Man is from; whenever the Christ comes, no one will know where He is from." ²⁸ Then Jesus called out as He taught in the temple, "You know ME and know where I am from; and I have not come on my own initiative [as self-appointed], but He who sent Me is true, and Him you do not know." ²⁹ I know Him Myself because I am from Him [I came from His very presence] and it was He [personally] who sent Me." ³⁰ So they were eager to arrest Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His time had not yet come. ³¹ But many from the crowd believed in Him. And they kept saying, "When the Christ comes, will He do more signs and exhibit more proofs than this Man?"

"Rosh Hashanah 5779: Prepare for the More! 7 Prophetic Decrees"
Ben Lim, Los Angeles, CA

Appointed Times of Manifestation

There's something supernatural about times and seasons. These are portals on Earth's timeline that are made available for the more. It's important to be aware of the times that we are living in. I believe the Lord is aligning the Church to be so in-tune with His timing that we will not miss a beat of His heart. I believe some will be so accurate and so on-point that they won't miss a word, but will hit the bullseye on the target. Truly, being born of the Spirit means that we can discern the correct times of the hour.

On God's calendar, there are specific times where certain things are appointed. For example in Acts 3:21, it says that there are "...times of the restoration of all things." It's always a time for restoration, but there are specific times when a certain grace is made even more available to receive that blessing!

We can see through the timeline of history that the Church, over the last few decades, has received certain graces served in different generations. For example, the 70s experienced the grace of faith, healing, and evangelism. In the 80s the Church experienced the grace for teaching. In the 90s it was the grace for church-growth. In the early 2000s, we saw the grace for signs and wonders. Now, in the 2010s, we are and will experience the grace for prophetic evangelism and for glory.

"The enemy is about to pay you back for all that has happened to you. Whatever warfare or destruction you have gone through, you will be receiving double for your trouble!"

There are certain graces that the Lord has been preparing to release but He's been wisely building up His people, generation by generation, and statute by statute. The Lord is a wise builder and He has been building you up for such a time as this.

And now the Lord is about to release something new in this Rosh Hashanah season. I believe there are great blessings and revelations given, as we pay attention to the appointed feasts of God, as set apart and ordained by the Lord.

Opportune Times

"See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil." (Ephesians 5:15-16)

That word redeem in the Greek is: "exagorazo" which means to "buy up" the time or to "ransom" the time. Essentially, make the most of the time and fully take advantage of what is at hand, recognizing the prospect of the future gain. The Lord wants us to pay careful and close attention to what He is doing and to what is happening on the earth. The moans and the groans of the earth have certainly been heightening and intensifying.

The Signs of the Times

I am not a "doom and gloom" preacher and I do believe I have a great and healthy end-times eschatology, but there are certain things going on in the earth today that were not occurring just a few years ago. We are living in such tremendous times of great opportunity, yet great opposition. We are living in times of such great wealth of knowledge, yet a lack of wisdom; with such quick connections, yet lacking a depth of truth. We are in times of great acceleration and destruction for some.

Rosh Hashanah – 5779

Rosh Hashanah literally means "Head of the Year," or the beginning of the year. It is the Hebraic new year. It is coming soon upon us and on the timeline of the Gregorian calendar, it is September 9-11th, 2018!

As appointed by God, there are time portals... portals of glory which are opened up for a certain amount of time during specific times of the year. This is a time where debts are canceled and settled and assets are restored. This is a time where you can reset and restart once again. The economy of Israel is refreshed and the agriculture of the land is relaunched once again.

Realignment

There is a realignment taking place with the purposes of God. Unusual times demand unusual responses. Unusual times are not for the ordinary, but are for those who take heed to step up into the extraordinary. There are measures that are made available for us, but to those who have an ear to hear, they will step up into the more because of the shift of this realignment.

New seasons will always bring realignment whether you like it or not. So I encourage you to get ready and be prepared for it because you do not want to miss out on all that the Lord has for you! Prepare yourself and get ready because there is a lot of glory that is about to be released on the earth!

Restoration

There is restoration in the name of Jesus. There is restoration in the Blood of Jesus. Many people have been going through attacks, trials, and tribulations. The enemy has been trying to scatter your flock and divide your company. But the Lord is about to come through with massive restoration and recompense! Recompense belongs to the Lord!

Restitution "If a man delivers to his neighbor money or articles to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house, if the thief is found, he shall pay double." (Exodus 22:7)

"Yet if he is caught, he must pay sevenfold, though it costs him all the wealth of his house." (Proverbs 6:31)

Preparing for the More!

Because the Lord is wanting to pour out even more, we must cleanse ourselves and get ready in a spirit of humility and repentance. It's time to get clean and to make things right before the new is released. We do this by repenting to one another, forgiving one another, asking for forgiveness from others, and by clearing the air with your brothers and sisters. This is an essential key to receiving the more of God. We must make room for the more by doing justice within our own selves. Do what's right and the Lord will bless you!

Seven Rosh Hashanah Decrees

As we are nearing Rosh Hashanah, I want you to release these prophetic decrees over your life!

1) I decree that I am the head and not the tail! The Lord, my God, is bringing me up and is turning things around in my life. I will be ahead of the rest and I will be coming up in Jesus' name.

2) I decree and declare that I am about to taste and see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living! I am about to taste of the sweetness of the Lord. He is turning all of my bitter into sweet. I will fully experience the promises of His Word!

3) I decree a restoration of all that was lost and stolen from me and my family. Whatever the thief tried to take from my finances, my health, my ministry, and my business, I take it back now and I receive my restoration today in Jesus' name.

4) I decree a spirit of restitution to take over in Jesus' name! The enemy will pay back seven times over and even more. I decree and declare that I am ready to receive the restitution and the honor that is for the shame and for the arbitration.

5) I decree a renewing and a renewal of all things. I am coming into the new. The Lord is making me new for I am a new creation. I am coming into a new shift and alignment in the Spirit. "I am making all things new," says the Lord! (See Rev. 21:5.)

6) I decree that I am entering into the best year of my life yet. This is going to be my year. I am going to have the best times of my life and the most outlandish encounters and experiences with the Holy Spirit. 5779 is my year, in Jesus' name!

7) I decree that I am entering into the greatest breakthrough of all. I am the shofar of the Lord. I am the trumpet of the Holy Spirit. The Lord is about to release a blast of breakthrough into my spirit and out of me in Jesus' name! I will shout and praise aloud of the works of the Lord!

L'Shana Tova and get ready for the New Year and the new glory!

I HAD A VISION AND I SAW MANY OF GOD'S PEOPLE IN WORSHIP AND THEIR BODIES BEING SUPERNATURALLY HEALED!! by Lana Vawser

Recently I had a vision and I saw many of God's people who were struggling with sickness, unexplained symptoms in their bodies and physical pain, and they were "bent down" underneath the heaviness of these infirmities.

As my worship music was playing and I was worshipping Jesus I watched in this vision as God's people who were 'bent down' underneath these infirmities and attacks lifted their hands in worship to Jesus both in private and corporate settings, I watched the fire of God and the oil of His presence begin to fall. The fire of God was falling and consuming all things that were not of Him, and the oil of His presence was bringing significant healing.

As their worship rose to the Lord I watched bodies SUDDENLY coming into alignment. I watched as cells were being restored and reignited with life. I watched as major turnarounds in physical bodies were taking place.

I heard the words:

"SICKNESS WILL BOW TO THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST"

Many have been plagued with physical issues for a lot of their lives, and many have now been battling with sickness and 'one thing after another' in their physical bodies lately. I want to encourage you, God has His eyes on you and there is a miracle waiting for you.

There is a miracle turnaround waiting for many. Many of you have faced the same ailment over and over again, I prophesy to you in the name of Jesus Christ that this sickness, this ailment will bow to the name of Jesus Christ.

GIFTS OF HEALING AND HEALING MINISTRIES BEING BIRTHED

The Lord showed me that many have been attacked all of their lives with physical issues and sickness and it has intensified of late.

The Lord showed me many fearful hearts over what they are experiencing in their bodies and anxiety over what physical issues they have been dealing with. If that's you, I want to encourage you, the Lord has His hand over you. You are hidden in Him. As you make the Lord Most High your dwelling place, no evil shall befall you (Psalm 91). I felt the Lord wants to encourage many of you feeling fearful that He is your strong tower, He is your shelter and your ever present help. His massive arms are wrapped around you. He is your protection!

The Lord is about to turn things around. He is about to take all the years that you have struggled with these physical issues and pain and He is going to bring major recompense for MANY.

The Lord showed me many of you that have been assaulted over and over in your physical body and a spirit of infirmity, the Lord is breaking it, and I saw gifts of healing and healing ministries being birthed. There will be a significant increase of the supernatural healing of God through your hands and decrees as you pray for others. The enemy is going to be paid back severely for his attacks in your physical bodies through this miraculous turnaround breakthrough and the fruit of healing that is going to manifest in the lives of COUNTLESS others.

Many of you have felt abandoned by the Lord in the pain and in the sickness. You have wondered where He is and has been. He's been right there with you, holding you and strengthening you. Now you shall see the power of God displayed in and through your physical body in a way that you have never seen before.

Many of you have had whispers of the enemy, whispers of fear of death and foreboding fear, but I hear Psalm 118:17 over you:

"I will not die; instead, I will live to tell what the LORD has done."

Get ready to see a supernatural display of His power, creative miracles of healing and supernatural turnarounds in your physical body as you worship Him.

Stay in worship friends, it's key!

Conception and Birth of Jesus

¹⁸ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child by [the power of] the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ And Joseph her [promised] husband, being a just and righteous man and not wanting to expose her publicly to shame, planned to send her away and divorce her quietly. ²⁰ But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, descendant of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the Child who has been conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. ²¹ She will give birth to a Son, and you shall name Him Jesus (The LORD is salvation), for He will save His people from their sins." ²² All this happened in order to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet [Isaiah]: ²³ "BEHOLD, THE VIRGIN SHALL BE WITH CHILD AND GIVE BIRTH TO A SON, AND THEY SHALL CALL HIS NAME IMMANUEL"—which, when translated, means, "GOD WITH US." ²⁴ Then Joseph awoke from his sleep and did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and he took Mary [to his home] as his wife, ²⁵ but he kept her a virgin until she had given birth to a Son [her firstborn child]; and he named Him Jesus (The LORD is salvation).

John 1:34 Amplified Bible (AMP)

³⁴ I myself have [actually] seen [that happen], and my testimony is that this is the Son of God!"

Revelation 12:11

And they overcame and conquered him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, for they did not love their life and renounce their faith even when faced with death.

THE TRUMPET by BILL BURNS

Rejoice, you people of the Lord! It is the Feast of Trumpets, a time in which I will speak to you. It is a time of the power of MY word. It now becomes your time of blessing. This is the spiritual season in which I have chosen to reveal My presence in a more profound way. Therefore, put the past behind you and get ready for this new season. 2 Peter 1:19-21 And so we have the prophetic word confirmed, which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts; knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

SMALL STRAWS IN A SOFT WIND by MARSHA BURNS

Pay attention because I am going to show you what it takes to fulfill your destiny. This is a time when you, My people, are more aware of your distance from Me. You realize that your religious culture has let you down and that what you do outwardly to serve and worship Me is meaningless and unfulfilling. I will teach you that true worship and service is being what you were created to be and not what society dictates. Only then will you experience a true anointing, says the Lord. Matthew 6:5 "And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men."

Tishri 21 - September 30, 2018 Sukkot 8,

Zechariah 7:8-10

And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother: And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

"Get Ready for a New Era, Movement and Trend—How to Prepare for the Shift" Ray and Renaid Almgren, Monroeville, PA

When I first met my husband Ray, he had this old, white, Mercury Tracer hatchback car that smelled like sweaty socks. The Tracer was a 5-speed and Ray, at the time, was an extremely slow driver. When he went to shift gears, I felt like we were going even slower or backwards because the car would go back and then forward as he shifted. (Funny enough, I used to rock forward trying to get the car to move forward faster.) My point in all of this is that in the times when God is shifting us to another level forward, it may seem like we are going backwards at first.

Moving to a New Level

We are coming into a time when everything is going to speed up spiritually; where God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, is going to birth the unbelievable, the trend-setting, and the "new" of God. The Daniels, the sons of Issachar, the Josephs, the Deborahs, and the Isaiahs are going to arise. They will birth prayer movements, know exactly the time we are living in, and have profound answers on what to do. The creators, or as my friend Helen Calder says, "The builders and architects," will arise. Some will birth new technology with advanced ideas on moving ministry forward, almost ahead of the times.

New prophetic movements will come with unbelievable clarity, prophesying life back into what has died or been stolen by the enemy. Women will come forth to blaze new trails and bring unity to cities and nations. The arising will prepare for the glory to come for the greatest move of God ever.

But right now, many feel as though they are in a holding pattern; or that their life or ministry is regressing instead of moving forward. For some, hopelessness and disappointment have tried to settle over you. David, in Psalm 25:2 (AMPC), said, "O my God, I trust, lean on, and am confident in You. Let me not be put to shame or [my hope in You] be disappointed; let not my enemies triumph over me." Verse 3 again talks about disappointment, "Yes, let none who trust and wait hopefully and look for You be put to shame or be disappointed..." Even David prayed not to be disappointed or hopeless and we too must pray and let our faith define us and move us forward.

It's Pruning Time

Many times during our shift season God prunes our branches. "Any branch in Me that does not bear fruit [that stops bearing] He cuts away (trims off, takes away); and He cleanses and repeatedly prunes every branch that continues to bear fruit, to make it bear more fruit, to make it bear more and richer and more excellent fruit" (John 15:2 AMPC). The places where our ministry or our lives are not bearing fruit God prunes. This could include relationships where people are no longer aligned with the destiny God is preparing for you. It may mean doors shutting so God can lead you in another direction. Jobs and assignments may change, finances may be rearranged, opportunities can shut down, places of worship and fellowship may move; all of which prepare us for the shift and increase.

How to Prepare Yourself for the Shift

To prepare on a personal level, as we move into the fall feasts, set your heart to seek God and He will release wisdom, revelation, and understanding for the next season for the year 5779. Also, always keep your heart full of faith with expectancy, praying about everything, even the very smallest thing. God cares about every part of your life and continually goes before you preparing the way (see Job 36:5).

Be willing to change. Ask God to remove any preconceived ideas so you can fully align with His plans for your life. We have all watched prophets, ministries, speakers, and business people operate, but what God has in this next season may be different for you and completely out of the box. As James Goll says, "God doesn't like boxes."

Allow the word of God to be the plumb line for your life. Psalm 12:6 (AMPC) says, "The words and promises of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times over."

Last, but not least, stir up passion. Awaken love for God; loving Him with all your heart, mind and soul as it is the key to everything you do, say, and think.

Matthew 5:17-19

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Pat Francis: There is Power in the Blood of Jesus

"Then he showed me Joshua the High Priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right side to accuse him." (Zech. 3:1).

The name Satan means adversary and the name Devil means accuser or slanderer. His name describes his nature, purpose, and method of operations.

He accuses people in three ways:

1) Through people. He inspires human accusers to use their voice to share his accusations and deception. He looks for vulnerable vessels to use for his purposes.

2) In their minds. He shares messages of confusion; brings to remembrances past failures; inspires guilt and condemnation; and tries to move us into self-condemnation. When your own heart condemns you, your battle becomes internalized and self-perpetuating.

3) Before God. He tries to block our prayers and cause delay.

God has promised, however, that we will overcome all the enemy's accusations: "Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down. They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death." (Rev. 12:10-11).

The blood of Jesus Christ, your Good Shepherd, is more powerful than all accusations, past failures, guilt and condemnation. Be free.

Kingdom Declaration:

There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Matthew 25:1-31 Amplified Bible (AMP)

Parable of Ten Virgins, are you prepared?

25 "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. ² Five of them were foolish [thoughtless, silly, and careless], and five were wise [far-sighted, practical, and sensible]. ³ For when the foolish took their lamps, they did not take any [extra] oil with them, ⁴ but the wise took flasks of oil along with their lamps. ⁵ Now while the bridegroom was delayed, they all began to nod off, and they fell asleep. ⁶ But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! The bridegroom [is coming]! Go out to meet him.' ⁷ Then all those virgins got up and put their own lamps in order [trimmed the wicks and added oil and lit them]. ⁸ But the foolish virgins said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.' ⁹ But the wise replied, 'No, otherwise there will not be enough for us and for you, too; go instead to the dealers and buy oil for yourselves.' ¹⁰ But while they were going away to buy oil, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast; and the door was shut and locked. ¹¹ Later the others also came, and said, 'Lord, Lord, open [the door] for us.' ¹² But He replied, 'I assure you and most solemnly say to you, I do not know you [we have no relationship]'. ¹³ Therefore, be on the alert [be prepared and ready], for you do not know the day nor the hour [when the Son of Man will come].

Parable of the Talents, are you using yours?

¹⁴ "For it is just like a man who was about to take a journey, and he called his servants together and entrusted them with his possessions. ¹⁵ To one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability; and then he went on his journey. ¹⁶ The one who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he [made a profit and] gained five more. ¹⁷ Likewise the one who had two [made a profit and] gained two more. ¹⁸ But the one who had received the one went and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

¹⁹ "Now after a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. ²⁰ And the one who had received the five talents came and brought him five more, saying, 'Master, you entrusted to me five talents. See, I have [made a profit and] gained five more talents.' ²¹ His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little, I will put you in charge of many things; share in the joy of your master.'

²² "Also the one who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have [made a profit and] gained two more talents.' ²³ His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little, I will put you in charge of many things; share in the joy of your master.'

²⁴ "The one who had received one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a harsh and demanding man, reaping [the harvest] where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter seed. ²⁵ So I was afraid [to lose the talent], and I went and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is your own.'

²⁶ "But his master answered him, 'You wicked, lazy servant, you knew that I reap [the harvest] where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter seed. ²⁷ Then you ought to have put my money with the bankers, and at my return I would have received my money back with interest. ²⁸ So take the talent away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.'

²⁹ "For to everyone who has [and values his blessings and gifts from God, and has used them wisely], more will be given, and [he will be richly supplied so that] he will have an abundance; but from the one who does not have [because he has ignored or disregarded his blessings and gifts from God], even what he does have will be taken away. ³⁰ And throw out the worthless servant into the outer darkness; in that place [of grief and torment] there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].

The Judgment

³¹ "But when the Son of Man comes in His glory and majesty and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory.

Tishri 26 - October 5, 2018

What did HE do?

This is what I mean: the Law, which came into existence four hundred and thirty years later [after the covenant concerning the coming Messiah], does not and cannot invalidate the covenant previously established by God, so as to abolish the promise.

Ephesians 1:1

Paul, an apostle (special messenger, personally chosen representative) of Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed), by the will of God [that is, by His purpose and choice], To the saints (God's people) who are at Ephesus and are faithful and loyal and steadfast in Christ Jesus:

Have you found HIM?

John 1:41

He first looked for and found his own brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah" (which translated means the Christ).

John 2:11

This, the first of His signs (attesting miracles), Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed His glory [displaying His deity and His great power openly], and His disciples believed [confidently] in Him [as the Messiah—they adhered to, trusted in, and relied on Him].

John 3:28

John 12:11

because on account of him many of the Jews were going away [from the teaching and traditions of the Jewish leaders] and believing in Jesus [following Him as Savior and Messiah].

John 12:42

Nevertheless, even many of the leading men believed in Him [as Savior and Messiah], but because of the Pharisees they would not confess it, for fear that [if they acknowledged Him openly] they would be put out of the synagogue (excommunicated);

From now on I am telling you [what will happen] before it occurs, so that when it does take place you may believe that I am He [who I say I am—the Christ, the Anointed, the Messiah].

The Suddenlies are coming again
Luke 2:13-26 Amplified Bible (AMP)

¹³ Then suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host (angelic army) praising God and saying,

¹⁴ "Glory to God in the highest [heaven], And on earth peace among men with whom He is well-pleased." ¹⁵ When the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds began saying one to another, "Let us go straight to Bethlehem, and see this [wonderful] thing that has happened which the Lord has made known to us." ¹⁶ So they went in a hurry and found their way to Mary and Joseph, and the Baby as He lay in the manger. ¹⁷ And when they had seen this, they made known what had been told them about this Child, ¹⁸ and all who heard it were astounded and wondered at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹ But Mary treasured all these things, giving careful thought to them and pondering them in her heart. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, just as it had been told them.

Jesus Presented at the Temple

²¹ At the end of eight days, when He was to be circumcised, He was named Jesus, the name given [to Him] by the angel [Gabriel] before He was conceived in the womb.

²² And when the time for their purification came [that is, the mother's purification and the baby's dedication] according to the Law of Moses, they brought Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord [set apart as the Firstborn] ²³ (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "EVERY firstborn MALE THAT OPENS THE WOMB SHALL BE CALLED HOLY [set apart and dedicated] TO THE LORD") ²⁴ and [they came also] to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord [to be appropriate for a family of modest means], "A PAIR OF TURTLEDOVES OR TWO YOUNG PIGEONS."

²⁵ Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout [carefully observing the divine Law], and looking for the Consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him. ²⁶ It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed).

"5779: Get Ready for Suddenlies, Shifts and Surprises"

Torrey Marcel Harper, New York, NY

As we come to the close of the Hebraic year 5778 into 5779, we are just a few months away from 2019. The Lord began to impress on my heart that we are in a crucial time of decision making and preparation for an unprecedented time of harvest, and for many a time of launching.

God is inviting His sons and daughters to seize this moment in time. We are in a time where Holy Spirit is saying, "It's not time to stare at the open door or opportunities, but it's time to step through and occupy the door to possess your inheritance." Over the next few months, God says, "Get ready for suddenlies, shifts, and surprises!"

Yes, dear friend, God is working behind the scenes even in moments when things look like they are opposite or contrary to what God has promised you. God says, "This is an hour of suddenlies!" In this time, God is accelerating things that have been on hold and in waiting mode. The Lord says, "It's time to believe again and set your eyes on Me, for this is an hour of miracles in every area of your health, your finances, your vision, and even your family."

"This is an hour I desire to heighten your discernment to choose wisely and not out of the fear of failing..."

God is stirring the waters of His presence and bringing you into a time of head-scratching signs and wonders. Yes, this is your hour for the suddenlies of Heaven to be poured out. "You will not be delayed nor denied," says the Lord. 2 Thessalonians 3:1 reads, "Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run swiftly and be glorified..."

"I Am Breaking the Lack. It's Harvest Time"

God says, "This is an hour of fulfillment and a season of the culmination of prophetic words and dreams that I have given you. I am opening new doors of opportunity and Kingdom relationships, and I'm releasing fresh vision to advance and move forward. This is an hour to shift," says the Lord. "I am breaking open new ground and new territory that you may access and occupy the new things I'm doing."

The Spirit of the Lord says, "This is an hour in which you must refuse to be distracted by what is going on around you. Stay attuned to MY voice and leading. Buckle up," says the Lord, "I am taking you on a journey with ME. It's time to shift in your heart and thinking. Yes, shift from the old wineskin into the new and fresh move of MY spirit."

God says, "I'm placing a new heart on the inside of you, marked with wisdom, understanding, innovation, and creativity. Yes, I'm even breaking the back of lack in your life. It's harvest time," says the Lord.

Stepping into Abundant Grace and Favor

"This is an hour of launching into the deep plans of My heart," says the Lord. "Yes, where you have been comfortable, it's time to leave your safety zone. Where you have been afraid to step out into what and where I've called you, it is time to step out of the boat and walk on the waters with Me," says God. "Where you have been working tirelessly in your own strength and effort, yet haven't seen results, it's time to cast your net on the other side."

Prepare for the increase. It's time to shift. It may be into a new career, a relocation, a desire to further your education or even write or publish a book. It may be your personal ministry or even your personal family life. God says, "Do what you need to do in order to step into this next season of My abundant grace and favor."

"He said to them, 'Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, because of the quantity of fish." (John 21:6)

Not only is it a time of suddenlies and shifts, but it is also a time of surprises. God says, "Don't be moved by the tactics and noise of the enemy, although great warfare may rise around you." God says, "I've given you My grace to rise up in power and authority. Get ready because you are not fighting alone. My angelic host is doing battle on your behalf. You will not be stopped."

"No weapon formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue which rises against you in judgment you shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is from Me," says the Lord." (Isaiah 54:17)

It's a Time for Great Impact – Do Not Be Afraid of Failure!

"In this season, I'm preparing you for the unexpected, unbelievable and undeniable. Do not fear for I am with you," says the Lord. In this season of surprises expect new opportunities to arise. God says, "I am presenting multiple choices to you in this hour that will not only set you up to walk in My glorious plans, but it will impact your family, city, church and, for some, the world at large."

"For as many who are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God." (Romans 8:14)

"This is an hour I desire to heighten your discernment to choose wisely and not out of the fear of failing," says the Lord. Failure is not an option for you. Those who are willing to move in faith and forge ahead will reap of the fullness in this hour. God says, "In this season of surprises, new relational accountability and divine partnerships are coming to the forefront." People who you would never have imagined to connect with in times past are converging together for His holy purpose. God is going to place you around the dreamers who are ready to make moves. You are shifting from potential to productivity and from the prophecy into the promise. "This is an hour for My movers and shakers to rise up together and go forth," says the Lord.

Let the Joshua's and Caleb's of this generation go in together and possess the land. "I am raising up My bold and fearless ones," says The Lord. "I am moving your prayers from the tipping point into the hour of the turnaround. Yes, it is time for the turnaround in your life, in your family and in your nation. This is the season of suddenlies, shifts, and surprises. I am breaking forth on your behalf like the dawning of a new day."

Let the awakening begin, let the harvest break open. "Awake, MY glory! Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awaken the dawn" (Psalms 57:8).

"The time is here, the time is now for Suddenlies, shifts and surprises," says the Lord.
