

October 30, 2019: Chaplain Wade Butler

I am repeating this letter to all those who follow the Prayer Guide and Calendar, I would like to share with you some of the reasoning of the publication and answer some questions that are posed to me each month.

Many people receive this who are not members of the Republic and probably will never become part of the "Patriot Movement" for many reasons, yet they are lovers of truth and followers of the LORD. The guide started out several years ago at the request of Roger Waters and President Jim Geiger in coalition with me. We prayed and HS gave me direction as to how to start a work. It has now become a work of passion and deliverance for me and the many who read it each month.

The research that goes in it is extensive and I am truly grateful for the time spent in study in the different authors, publications and sources of the WORD of GOD. It has taken a different direction from the first year and has grown to more than scripture verses. It is packed full of; prophesy, sermons, art and background material that most people will never take the time to research on their own nor have the resources of input to obtain as much of the truth as can be found. Often it goes against the grain of conventional churches and denominations because we follow the Hebrew calendar. He never changed HIS timing, we did. I would rather follow HIM and know what I was adopted into. Sometimes authors are used multiple times because they are in what we call the "zone" of the Holy Spirit. In other words they are hearing from the LORD!

It has become a lengthy compilation each month and to quote a good friend of mine, "Are you trying to write a book each month"? The answer is no, but the LORD has volumes to share that we need to glean from as we listen to what HE is saying for the day. A dear friend of the ministry has a goal of reading a book per day not including the volumes of publications she reads and consumes plus producing her own weekly broadcast on "Why Liberty Matters" for the nation, (Dr. Marlene McMillan).

The many authors are used as an avenue of getting the word out and hopefully adding to their followers. We do not take donations or contributions other than an occasional donation to cover postage to those who need a hard copy. Keep it on your computer and read it daily.

Each month is packed with Revelation of what GOD is saying so; buckle up, hold on and take a journey with me, a day at a time. You would be surprised how often the word, article or prayer has an effect on, or was for you that very day. There is a theme this month, the Flood. The rain is coming the former and the latter!! I pray that you will be moved, inspired and changed to HIS image! Be Blessed, Chaplain Wade Butler

The Second Month of the New Year

Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word.

The Biblical day begins at sundown, and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day. Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day... Cheshvan is the eighth month of the Hebrew Calendar yet it is the second month of the Spiritual Calendar. The number "8" represents eternal revelation and "New Beginnings". It is considered the time of the "Messiah".

In modern times, this month has become known as Cheshvan or Mar-Cheshvan, which seems to have originated at the time that Jews came back to Israel after the Babylonian Exile. The prefix Mar (which means bitter) is a reference to this month having no festivals or rejoicing, but much suffering for Jews throughout the ages. Also during this month, God brought down the Flood and drowned the world (except for Noah and those with him on the ark.) Mar also means drop and refers to the first rains (the Yoreh), which fall in Cheshvan.

This new month that follows the holiday laden month of Tishrei is quite different in mood and pace of life. It certainly lacks the drama of the preceding two months of Elul and Tishrei, the sense of awe and anticipation that the holidays always bring to us and the emotional depths of majesty, self-analysis and finally joy that mark the previous months.

In fact, Mar Cheshvan is the only month of the Jewish year that has no special days, neither feast nor fast, (though there is a custom of fasting for three days within that period to "atone" for frivolity during the holidays – a custom no longer universally observed) that occur within its time frame. It is so to speak, a month of rest after the rigors and tensions and efforts of the two preceding months.

It is as though the Jewish destiny has seen fit to give us a month off, a time to return to ourselves and our daily lives, to place into daily practice the great lessons afforded us by the challenges of the two previous months. It is as though God says to us, so to speak, "My children, let Me see how you put into your daily lives the holiness and commitments that you accumulated during the months of holidays and the preparation for them."

Sense: Smell

The sense of smell is the most spiritual of all senses. The Hebrew word for "smell" (ריח) is cognate to the word for "spirit" (רוח). The Hebrew elders teach us that smell is the one and only sense that "the soul enjoys and not the body." As noted, in Hebrew, "soul" is a permutation of Menasheh.

The sense of smell is the only sense (of the five senses) that did not participate, and thereby was not blemished or polluted, in the primordial sin of man in the Garden of Eden. It is the sense which saved the Jewish people in the time of Mordechai and Esther, who are called Mor veHadas ("myrrh and myrtle," the two primary sources of fragrance).

And he shall smell with the awe of God—"he shall judge by smell" (rather than by sight or hearing. Isaiah 11:3:) By his sense of smell (his "holy spirit") the Mashiach will know how to connect each Jewish soul to its Divine root, and thereby identify its tribe (branch) in Israel.

Other facts: King Solomon completed the seven-year building of the Sanctuary during Cheshvan and there should have been a festival. Though all Israel waited for G-d's command concerning this dedication, G-d waited until the next Tishrei (11 months later) before he finally commanded the dedication.

Mar Cheshvan in Jewish history and tradition

??11 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2105 BCE) – Methuselah dies at age 969

??11 Mar Cheshvan (circa 1553 BCE) – Death of Rachel while giving birth to Benjamin

??17 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2105 BCE) – Great Flood began, Noah and his family enter the ark

??17 Mar Cheshvan (circa 960 BCE) – First Temple completed by King Solomon [2] (it was not inaugurated until the following Tishrei however)

??20 Mar Cheshvan (1938) – Kristallnacht: 1,400 synagogues and numerous copies of the Tanakh are purposefully and systematically set on fire and allowed to burn in Nazi-occupied Germany

??23 Mar Cheshvan (137 BCE) – Hasmonean holiday commemorating the removal from the Holy Temple of altar stones which were defiled by the Greeks

??27 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2104 BCE) – Great Flood ends (Genesis 8:14)

By the power and sense of Menasheh, all of the pain of this world will transform and metamorphose into the pleasure of the Messianic era.

17 Mar-Cheshvan (circa 2105 BCE) Prayer for Rain

In Israel we add a request for rain to our prayers starting from the 7th day of Cheshvan. We see rain as the physical manifestation of life force at its very source. Everything that lives depends on water to survive. Our bodies are close to 86 percent water. The spiritual source of life, God's compassion and creativity, is manifested concretely through His gift. In fact the Hebrew word for "physicality," gashmiut, literally means "raininess," the word for rain being "geshem". The rain we see is the source of being and becoming. We have to be mindful enough to see it as, and not to fall into the trap of thinking that it is the source of having and consuming. When we open our minds to see the rainfall for the blessing it is, each time it rains, our awareness is altered. The Talmud tells us that rain is an enormous statement of God's presence in the day to day world, just listen to the comparisons that Talmud presents to us.

1. A rainy day is greater than the day the Torah was given
2. A rainy day is greater than the day the heavens and earth were created.
3. It makes salvation multiply
4. It tells us that our sins are forgiven
5. Whatever we own is blessed
6. It is greater than the day when the exiled Jews return to Israel.
7. Even the armies are stopped by its force.

Why is rain considered to be greater than the most significant moments in all of history? In what sense is it's source of inspiration and blessing?

The answer is that we were put in a physical world with all of its temptations and inherent concealment of God's presence. Our role is to light a candle in a dark place, and let the goodness that it reflects illuminate the entire world. Rain gives everything material life. God is as much there as He is in the realms of being. There is one critical difference. In the higher realms of being, and in the more dramatic moments of history, it took very little soul searching for us to know God. When the world is in its less dramatic mode, far more is required for us to have an authentic relationship to the world's Creator.

In Cheshvan we have choices to make about our relationship to the real world, the ordinary days and months that we have yet to face. We have to make commitments to not flinch in the face of the mundane things we see, and the simple choices we make.

Cheshvan is a time of great opportunity. Let's close our eyes, swallow the phrase "just be normal" with a cup of water to wash it down, and fight the good fight, the one in which goodness, in its highest sense, always prevails.

Genesis 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, on the seventeenth day of the second month of Cheshvan, on that same day all the fountains of the great deep [subterranean waters] burst open, and the windows and floodgates of the heavens were opened.

Genesis 7:13 On the very same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark, Genesis 7:15 So they went into the ark with Noah, two by two of all living beings in which there was the breath and spirit of life. Genesis 7:16 Those which entered, male and female of all flesh (creatures), entered as God had commanded Noah; and the Lord closed the door behind him. (Photo by Pixaby).

“GODS KINGDOM”. What exactly is it? Chuck Pierce:

In The Apostolic Church Arising, a recent book Robert Heidler and I wrote together, we explain the characteristics of the Kingdom, which many do not understand. Often people relate the concept of kingdom to worldly structures, but that is not the highest level of Kingdom rule. When you begin with the way God set up His Kingdom, the world will not be able to conform you to a lower expression of kingdom.

Here are the characteristics of a Kingdom-minded entity advancing in the earth: ??Kingdom has a government.

We see the importance of government in the Kingdom in the Yeshua Movement of the 1960s. God brought multitudes into His Kingdom, but there was no government in place to secure the harvest. Though many came in, much of that harvest was lost. Kingdom must have a supernatural government: We must understand Lord Sabaoth, the Lord of Hosts. We must understand how Jehovah-Nissi sends His government into war.

Kingdom is ruled by a king.

We must not forget that our King has sovereign rule over His government. He can promote you or sit you on a shelf for a year. We submit to earthly rulers, but when we understand all authority structures, we can maneuver in them as representatives of the Kingdom of God.

Kingdom has administration.

Kingdom administration is different from the church administration to which we have been accustomed. Administration can be difficult to grasp, but it is vital: To come into all that God wants, we must understand the Church's role in the Kingdom. You cannot express Kingdom by doing as Israel did at the end of the book of Judges, when all the people "did what was right in their own eyes." People who refuse to discover their places or positions in a new season can-not operate in the ultimate Kingdom expression God desires for them.

Kingdom has a culture

If we conform to the cultures around us and never learn Kingdom culture, we will fail. We have lived at a lower level than what God wants for us because we have not expressed the culture of the Kingdom. Kingdom culture is higher than those of the world.

Kingdom is good news.

Kingdom is an alignment with the One who is giving us access from the throne. He who died for us and overcame all powers and principalities is now mediating for us to display His authority in the earth. This is good news for the world. If we do not demonstrate God's rule in the earth realm, we are not being the ambassadors God is calling us to be. Because Kingdom requires a corporate response, our gifts must align and be ordered before certain demonic forces can be overcome.

Kingdom is connected through generations.

Though the Kingdom of God is within us, God is a tri-generational God. For a new generation to arise successfully, they must understand the history from where they have come and connect to the generations that come before and after. In our culture, young people are usually focused on establishing their own lives; the danger is that they can miss Kingdom authority. One of the cries of my heart is for the next generation to grasp the meaning of Kingdom.

God's heavenly Kingdom is not based on worldly patterns.

This causes some people to be confused about salvation. I think more people are saved than we realize, but not all of them enter into Kingdom. A heart for God does not equal expressing Kingdom in the earth. If you do not understand Kingdom, you become judgmental and critical as you see people striving to work out their salvation.

God's Kingdom is beyond man's natural thoughts.

The Bible says that the Kingdom cannot be comprehended by the natural mind. You have to get Kingdom from a supernatural dimension; it must be revealed. Ask the Lord to bring you into a higher level of Kingdom understanding.

Kingdom cannot be obtained by ambition.

Remember when the "Sons of Thunder" tried to do just that? Even their mother was ambitious. This is not a good thing. Nor is it when wives or husbands try to force a spouse into a more spiritual place. Ambition is a mean demon. This is what Judas had; he was and the Kingdom, but his ambition shifted him out of the eternal structure that he had been offered and into a role that led to destruction.

Kingdom should never be postponed.

When GOD is ready, He will move. The culture shock of between kingdoms can get you in a mess, however. We have to ask the Lord to keep us abreast of the way HE is moving and learn how to represent Kingdom properly.

Kingdom has provision.

Kingdom supply structures will be one of the greatest changes we see in this shift, and we must understand them. We have garments and mantles that dress us, for we put on Christ daily.

The Kingdom: “The Apostolic Church Arising

Kingdom has a territory.

To establish the any territory, you must first develop the presence of GOD. This is why David's kingdom, which operated around the Ark of the Covenant, came closest to reflecting the pattern of Heaven. God's presence was established in the Tabernacle of David because God was enthroned on the praises of Israel. If you put church above Kingdom you will you will develop the "gathering" structure as your priority rather than the "presence" structure. You will not be driven by God's presence; instead) you will end up program driven to meet the needs of the people will still have to move into the presence of God to succeed.

Kingdom has an atmosphere.

Unless God's presence is established, you will not move forward. Beginning with God's presence is more difficult, because it cannot be understood from the world's perspective. The World understands gathering to meet people's needs. A church can look not much different from the world – gathering for fellowship, enjoying each other and meeting people. But if you are presence driven, meeting needs is not a driving motivation. This is the key to the seven mountains of human society; we move from God's Kingdom into the structures of the world.

Kingdom has prophets.

God ordains people who rep-resent Him in every aspect of His authority. David had recorders and scribes, and so do I. At our ministry, Glory of Zion, they record everything we do, as well as significant dreams, because I value God's word and its expression.

Kingdom has war units.

God's Kingdom people war against demonic forces. This is the difference between Kingdom and our traditional concept of church. You can "go to church" without ever going to war, and you can have great fellowship with people but never war with them. At Glory of Zion, we have war units who will gather for intercession at 3:00 a.m. if God calls us to war during that watch. This is a military unit meeting with God to gain strategy to overcome the enemy.

Kingdom has gatekeepers.

Some gatekeepers can be challenging. I have had gatekeepers check my name tag before letting me into a conference! But this is the function of gatekeepers: They question who is coming in and out of the gate. In this way they fulfill what Yeshua prophesied in Matthew 16 about the gates of hell by binding, forbidding or permitting. This is how we exercise authority when the Lord is executing His Kingdom plans in the earth.

Kingdom has treasurers.

The greatest warfare is in the treasury; therefore we establish those who can serve as treasurers. They have to understand and be accountable for key information and resources.

Kingdom has music and sound.

I love "free for all" dance, but at times the dance has to represent an order. If you have expressive corporate dance, it must be interpreted just like tongues. If sound and dance are not interpreted, then there is something lacking in Kingdom demonstration.

Kingdom has people who serve as the priests and Levites did.

The sanctuary would not be cared for were it not for the Levites. At Glory of Zion, we have one of the most incredible Levitical structures in the world. If it did not function so efficiently, we could not do what we do. Recently, one of our retired widows dusted everything in the sanctuary. God notices this and makes sure the Levites are cared for properly. You do not have to worry about being taken care of in Kingdom rule.

Kingdom has chief ministers.

I am extremely thankful for the chief ministers God has established at Glory of Zion, who minister and help others minister. They have gone through much and have testimonies of overcoming. Kingdom has power. A new power and anointing is being infused from heaven into those representing the Kingdom in earth. This power produces demonstration and causes a manifestation of glory.

"Seasoned Abrahams & Isaacs, You Are Not Forgotten - a Generation of Jacobs Needs You" Anita Alexander, Gold Coast, Australia

We are in a multi-generational Abraham, Isaac and Jacob move. To the Abrahams (ages 70 and above) and Isaacs (ages 40-70), God has kept you for such a time as this. Don't be discouraged, don't feel forgotten or like you have missed it, for your time is coming now.

Oh yes, this is a multi-generational move that the Lord wants to use to express Himself and bring the Kingdom through. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob generations are needed for the complete sound of the Kingdom to have its fullness, to shake what needs to be shaken, to shift what needs to be shifted, and to release on Earth what needs to be released.

Abraham and Isaac, "The Vision Is for an Appointed Time!"

I hear and feel the yearning and cry of many hearts in the Abraham and Isaac generations who feel they have not yet fulfilled or seen come to pass what the Lord has promised or called them to. I feel the Lord wants to encourage you from Habakkuk 2:3:

"For still the vision awaits its appointed time; it hastens to the end—it will not lie. If it seems slow, wait for it; it will surely come; it will not delay."

Many of you feel that you've missed it and you're too old now, or maybe some of you are even questioning if you ever heard God in the first place and maybe it was all "pipe dream" stuff. But the Lord would say, "The vision is for an appointed time!"

He does not lie, and it has not been delayed, for it says in Genesis 21:2: "And Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age at the time of which God had spoken to him."

Some things that the Lord has promised have been destined to manifest in your later years, for if you had accomplished everything in your early years, you would have kicked up your feet in your later years, feeling satisfied into retirement.

The Lord says, "I have kept you back for a season. You can't retire, for what you carry is for now not then. The reason why there are still unfulfilled mandates and unfulfilled promises is so that you will continue to pull on Heaven, and cry out! And as you cry out, you are crying out for a generation. Your holy dissatisfaction of unfulfilled promises is causing a pulling, and the Jacobs need you to pull!"

Yes, this generation of Jacobs needs the Abrahams and Isaacs to help them complete their mandate. You get to be a part of helping this generation of Jacob's accomplish their mandate through you fulfilling your mandate! So pull on the mandates and promises of long ago and watch them come to pass.

All Generations Working Together

The Lord says, "In these times and days I need all generations working together for the full release of what I desire to bring on Earth. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob must work together to release the fullness of My heart. For Jacob needs the wisdom and experience of Abraham, and Abraham relies on Jacob's zeal and energy to run for the Kingdom. Isaac bridges the two, and the three together bring a complete picture. And as each of their voices are heard, they bring a complete, unified sound of the Kingdom that culminates a frequency that will bring the birthing of the Kingdom in this hour."

You aren't forgotten; you haven't missed it; you aren't behind. The Lord has kept you, like Abraham, to fulfill that which He has spoken in your later years because this generation needs you! Abraham and Isaac, Jacob needs you!

Spiritual Warfare Strategies When Praying For Nations And Regions

By: Helen Calder

Father, holy is Your name. We pray that Your kingdom would come and Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

"This, then, is how you should pray: 'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven...'"
(Matt 6:9-10)

Our primary focus in prayer should always be on what Father's intention is, and what Heaven is doing, rather than what the demonic realm is doing. There will be times, however, when the Holy Spirit reveals a major stronghold or principality over the area, region or nation that we are praying for—or when spiritual warfare is clearly evident.

5 Spiritual Warfare Strategies when Praying and Interceding for Regions
Of all the spiritual warfare principles that I have learned along the way, these five are the most enduring:

1. Seek God for His Instruction

Throughout the Bible, warfare and breakthrough took place in many different ways. There was no set 'formula' to win a battle. The most important thing a leader could do was to seek God and listen for God's instruction unique to that battle. And it is the same today. For those of us in prayer leadership, this is the hook that all spiritual warfare strategy hangs from. The Holy Spirit may lead you in one or all of the following ways—or He may give you a different strategy altogether. Overcoming in spiritual warfare begins with intimacy with God.

2. Identify the Enemy—and Father's Intended Destiny

When God intends for us to engage in spiritual warfare, He will reveal specific insights as to what is happening in the spiritual realm. Often a principality or stronghold will be evident by how it manifests. This information is useful, because where there is a battle there is bounty. The enemy is after the souls of people, but also wants to destroy some specific attribute that Father intends to release and redeem in the region. For example, a spirit of division is robbing people of unity—and with it, the ability to achieve something great that can only be achieved when united. Lust is robbing a people of purity—and by extension is seeking to destroy families, as well as enslave the souls of individuals through addiction and abuse. When we see from the perspective of the cross, we can see past the demonic stronghold, to the Father's intention and destiny for a region.

3. Release the Power of Praise

The power of praise cannot be overestimated. Praise puts our focus on our Almighty God, where it should be—and it is also a powerful spiritual weapon. (Ps 149:6-9) In 2 Chron 20, we read of how a powerful enemy army was supernaturally routed when King Jehoshaphat sent out praisers ahead of his army.

We also see the power of praise in the NT: When the early church was confronted with opposition and threats from the leaders of the Sanhedrin, their immediate and first response was to praise and magnify God. From that prayer meeting, God's power was released to further the Gospel. (Acts 4) When spiritual conflict in Phillipi resulted in the arrest of Paul and Silas, their response was one of praise and singing. The power of God shook the dungeon, opened doors, loosed chains, procured their release, brought salvation and enabled the continued advance of the Gospel. (Acts 16)

4. Move in the Opposite Spirit

'For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.' (Eph 8:12-13)

A principality over a region fortifies its position by obtaining agreement—and therefore power—over the hearts, minds, actions and words of people. For example, a spirit of poverty in a region is reinforced by a mindset of poverty, by words and media that confess lack, along with actions and political decisions that cater to poverty. These things then become a stronghold. By moving in the opposite spirit, we are used of the Holy Spirit to create a zone where God's Kingdom is manifested and the stronghold begins to be dismantled. Light breaks into the darkness. This is not only an act of warfare; it also helps us shake off any influence an ungodly regional mindset may have had over our own lives.

Moving in the opposite spirit is not something we do in our own strength; it is initiated and empowered by the Holy Spirit. For example, having identified a spirit of poverty, the Holy Spirit may lead us to renounce poverty and its way of thinking. We can ask Father to release His generosity through us, and He may give us a specific strategy to do so.

5. Declare Father's Intention

"Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." (Matt 18:18)

Yeshua spoke of binding and loosing. One word picture used by Yeshua is one of tying up the enemy so that he cannot hold onto his possessions or carry out his plans. (Matt 12:29) This is not about speaking indiscriminate prayers of binding and loosing, but an invitation to see what Heaven is doing and to participate in God's govt. To loose means to allow, unlock and release what Heaven is permitting. To bind means to disallow and command to cease, what Heaven is disallowing.

Power to overcome the enemy and break down strongholds is released when we speak, pray and prophesy in agreement with Father's intention for a region or nation. In Eph 6:17, the Apostle Paul tells us to 'take up the sword of the Spirit, which is the word (rhema) of God.' In our context of spiritual warfare, this sword could be seen as God's 'now' word and intention for a nation.

Finally, we can also remember that in the NT God's primary strategy for overcoming the Kingdom of darkness in nations, is the vigorous preaching of the Gospel of Yeshua Christ—always accompanied with prayer.

"Entering Into 5780! Here Are 3 Steps Into This Generational Era"

Joey LeTourneau, McCloud, CA

As we've just entered the Jewish new year of 5780 along with a new decade, we've entered what I believe is a "Generational Era."

This is a time period where we will begin to actualize Malachi 4:5-6, the turning of the hearts of the fathers to the children and the children to the fathers. The new will fulfill (and honor) the old, and the young will be empowered by those who have gone before them.

The walls of misunderstanding between generations will be torn down; fear of those ahead or behind will be overcome, and a "family structure" that empowers the "seed" will come into design to create a multiplication that ushers in a true Kingdom government into our midst.

I see the Hebrew mark of "tav" (the last letter in the Hebrew alphabet) over this mutual generation, a mark which in its ancient form looks like a cross or an "x." "Tav" means "marked" or "sealed." This is not just one generation that is chosen, but a time of generations coming together, a mark upon multiple generations that are sealed and anointed together to fulfill God's Word during this time in the world.

The Family Structure

In 2 Samuel 7:11 David's desire to build God a house is confronted with a new reality. Despite his pure motives to build God a house, God, through Nathan, essentially tells David, "No, I will make you a house." This has become a life verse for me, as God is teaching David a different way to build.

"House" has two meanings here: 1. A physical structure. 2. A family structure. David wanted to build God a physical structure, but God wanted to build David into a "family structure"—a heritage, a lineage—from his seed.

The Lord went on to tell David: "When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish His Kingdom. He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of His Kingdom forever" (2 Samuel 7:12-13).

Notice that Solomon, David's son, would be the one to build God a house, and yet this was not to take away from David or disqualify him, but rather to fulfill him. God was making David into a superior form of a house.

God used the generation after David to set up a throne that would have David's name on it forever. David didn't establish that, his lineage did. Solomon got to actually build the physical structure, but it is the throne of David, the line of David which would birth Christ, that the whole family would be set upon. David was fulfilled through those who came after him.

"Unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it; unless the Lord guards the city, the watchman stays awake in vain...Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb is a reward. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth. Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them; they shall not be ashamed, but shall speak with their enemies in the gate." (Psalm 127:1, 3-5)

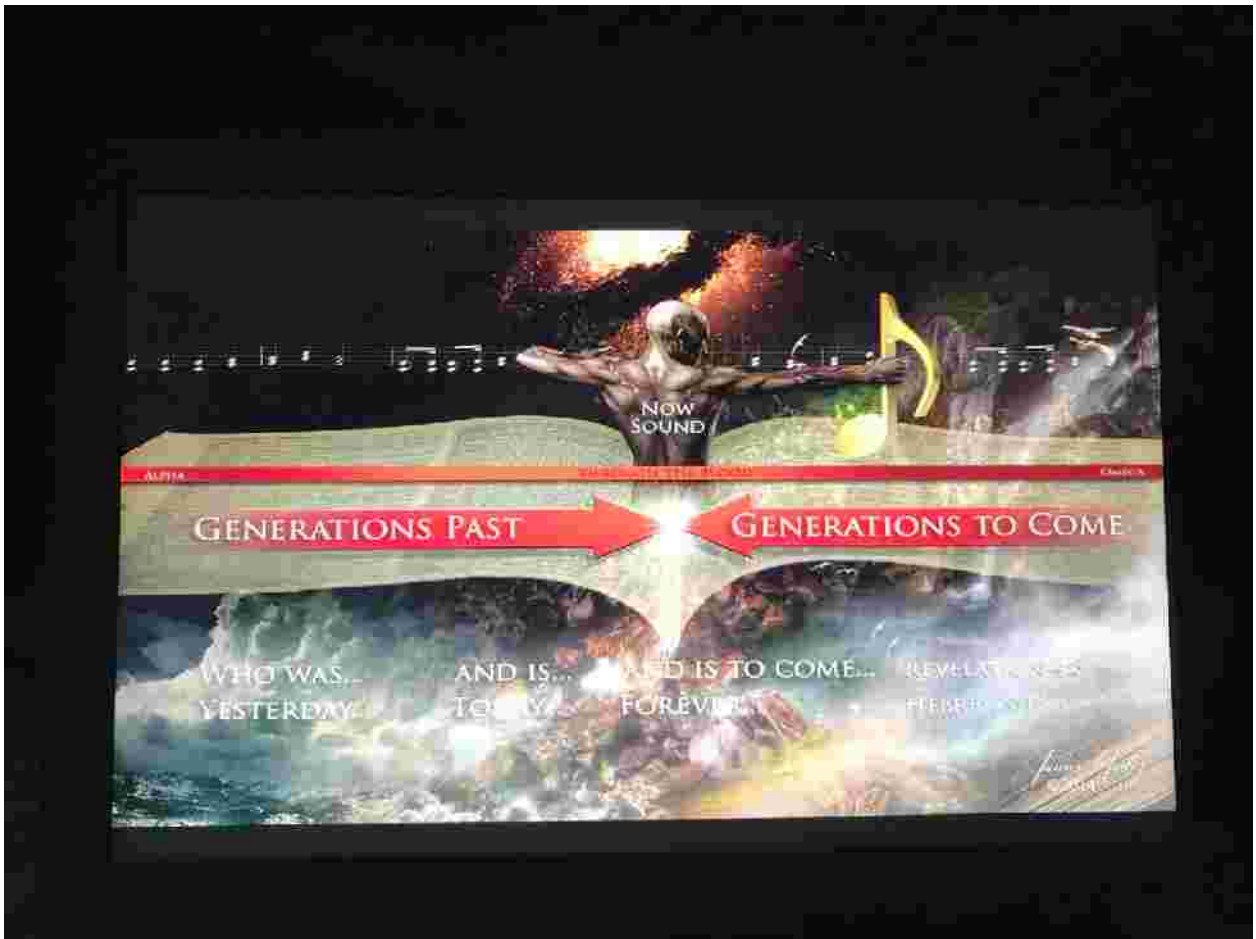

I see God building this "family structure" like never before, and the generations together will help lead and prepare the way.

Like David, we are often more accustomed to building through physical structures (buildings, organizations, ministries, programs, etc.). But ever since the Garden, through Abraham and his promised seed—the 12 sons/tribes of Jacob, Boaz and Ruth, Yeshua and the Spirit of Adoption—God has consistently established His government and new moves through family.

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder..." (Isaiah 9:6)

Right now is no different. Culture and the world need a living example of those who overcome insecurity and fear, who see through the lies of misperception, who believe in one another's God-given differences and who honor and empower each other's unique place and purpose within the family.

It's the greatest house we could build, but truly, it's the one that God is making us into right now.

Here are 3 steps into a Generational Era:

1. Restore Hope

How can you be or represent renewed hope for the generation that is before you, or the one after you?

If you are 30 years old and under, I challenge you to find someone—a leader, a parent or someone who is in the generation before you—and restore hope by honoring them and what they mean to your generation. Let them know how important they are and how much you need them to go forward into your destiny. Let your life and your honor of them be a place of revived hope for them, and an example to others.

If you are over 30, find someone in the generation younger than you who needs to be believed in and give your belief away freely, with no strings attached. Let them really feel it without measure! Let them know how important they are to the time we are entering; point out strengths they carry, even in ways you may not understand yet. Whatever you do, help them feel believed in!

2. Rebuild Identity

I talked about this a little more in depth in my "Generational Blessing" word in July, but there is much more to dive into. The truth is, both generations (younger and older) long to have their unique identity within the family of God rebuilt and their place in this "tav generation" understood.

Many in the previous generation have not given the younger generation a true father's blessing because they were not given one themselves. And many in the younger generation are like Esau, who after giving away his birthright saw/felt what Isaac gave Jacob and let out a loud and bitter cry, "Bless me, too, father!"

You can't hear this cry with your physical ears, but your heart can hear it everywhere if you truly tune in through the Father.

There is a generation crying out for fathers and mothers to step into the "role of Isaac" in their lives and bless them forward in their identity journey with God—"from Jacob to Israel" (Genesis 32:22-30).

3. Empower Purpose

My wife and I have often talked about not only being equally yoked in our faith, but being equally yoked in our purpose too. So it is in the family of God, where not only must we learn to empower each other in our unique purpose and calling, but we must learn to find purpose together in what God is doing in the world right now.

This step is two-fold:

1. Empower each other to discover your own unique purpose and help one another begin to live it out towards the world. We each carry something so different, often something that doesn't seem to fit, that requires someone to come and champion it forward in our lives. Be this champion for each other, for those before you and behind you.

2. Ask yourself how your purpose, united together with the other generation, fits into the greater purpose God is releasing on the earth right now. How can you build together? How can you break down walls together? And, how can you, together, help others take these same 3 steps into the generational era that is upon us?

David didn't build God the physical structure he wanted to, but God sure made David into a pretty special house. Which house will be the legacy of your life?

Together, let's make sure this time in history is remembered as an era when the generations chose to build something with and through one another to help offer Yeshua His full reward.

There can never be too much encouragement. Yet that is an area in which many believers fail to deliver and follow through. In a world full of judgment and criticism, Christians can get caught up in the tides of giving verdicts before they realize they have done so. Be about reinforcing the good in others. Give kudos to those around you for their acts of righteousness. Inspire others with kind and reassuring words. Speak words of life.

Hebrews 3:13 (NOG) "Encourage each other every day while you have the opportunity. If you do this, none of you will be deceived by sin and become stubborn." Kevin Robinson

There is peace and safety in submitting to those in authority in every situation. Submit with a joyful heart and it will be a peaceful balm over you and all involved. Allow for peaceful submission in every situation and circumstance so you may be covered under My wing of protection and blessing. You are the apple of my eye, and I have poured into you a wealth of knowledge and wisdom intended for My Kingdom.

Pat Francis: The LORD is your Shepherd

"My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me." (John 10:27).

We often go through problems without knowing the voice of God. There is a battle in our minds as we try to sort out our thoughts, conscience, imaginations, and emotions. God, however, is willing to speak to you every day and even every moment. The Holy Spirit of God in you is gently speaking and guiding you. We are growing in the knowledge of God and to know His voice. His voice is gentle, loving, and kind towards you.

The Word of God speaks to you. The more you know His Word, the more you will hear His voice speaking His Word in your heart. He will bring the Word to your remembrance whenever you need it and whenever you listen for it. His Word will guide you, correct you, encourage you, comfort you and instruct you. As you read His Word, listen to His voice. As you hear His voice, be willing to obey.

As you listen to the voice of your Shepherd, He promises you His guidance, provision, and protection. "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one can snatch them out of my hand." (John 10:27-28). Yeshua Christ, your Shepherd loves you.

Kingdom Declaration:

The LORD Yeshua is my Shepherd who is guiding, providing, and protecting me.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY "IT IS THE FAITH OF ABRAHAM" by Lana Vawser

Recently as I was sitting with the Lord I heard the Lord say "Lana, it's the FAITH OF ABRAHAM".

Immediately I knew that in this new era the Lord was increasing the body of Christ into a level of faith unlike anything we have walked in before. There was an invitation from the Lord to walk in greater realms of faith and trust in Him and His Word.

Two Scriptures resounded loudly to me as I sought the Lord.

"No unbelief made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised." (Romans 4:20-21)

"Now the Lord said to Abram, "Go from your country[b] and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. 2 And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing." (Genesis 12:1-2)

The Lord showed me these two Scriptures clearly The call from the Lord to Abram (before the Lord changed his name to Abraham) to leave his county and go to the land the Lord would show him, then later in Romans 4 the testimony of Abraham's faith to stand strong in what the Lord had spoken and not doubt, living with a deep conviction that God was able to do what He had promised.

As I meditated upon these two Scriptures the Lord showed me the invitation upon us as the body of Christ in this new era to step into UNWAVERING FAITH. To step into that place of such deep conviction in the reality and revelation of who God is and the power of His Word that NO DOUBT or UNBELIEF would cause the people of God to waver concerning the promises of God in their lives and for their cities and nations.

There is a deep, deep work of the Holy Spirit taking place right now in the hearts of believers to wholeheartedly abandon ourselves to Him and to His Word with complete trust in Him and His Word.

In Genesis 12:1-2 Abram did not know where the Lord was sending Him. There was an invitation from the Lord to leave what he knew and move into the new territory the Lord had for him and to move forward in complete trust and faith in the Lord and His guidance.

There will be times in this new era where the Lord will call you to step out and you may not have the 'ten steps' or even the 'final destination' before you, but you will move forward in complete trust and obedience to the Lord and His Word and He will lead you into a land of greater increase, a place of greater fullness and manifestation of your destiny and inheritance.

As you take Him at His Word and move in rapid and radical obedience to Him in this new era, you will be ASTONISHED at what the Lord is going to do. It's an UPGRADE and the power of God demonstrated IN and THROUGH your life like you have never seen before.

THIS IS THE ERA OF FRESH COMMISSIONING

The Holy Spirit is doing a deep work in the hearts of His people teaching us what it means to live by faith, to walk by faith and not by sight (2 Corinthians 5:7) And in those places where the Lord will call us "out of the boat" and into new lands that require a greater level of faith and dependence upon Him, there are FRESH COMMISSIONINGS that will take place in those situations.

In the fresh commissioning's and new assignments that the Lord has for the people of God in this new era in order to walk into it and to carry what He is releasing the Lord is dealing with double-mindedness and unbelief. The fire of His Spirit is falling upon the body of Christ and a deep repentance is and will continue to take place for unbelief and in the purging a major impartation of faith will take place

The Lord is causing His people to fall in love with the Word of God again and to reintroducing the people of God to His power and the power of His Word. In this deep work that God is doing He is causing a people that yield and embrace the fire of His purging to arise with an unshakeable faith that will not be moved or swayed. These ones will arise with such great faith and conviction, living in the reality of Matthew 4:4 that they will move into these new assignments and fresh commissioning's from the Lord to see the power of God move mountains and giants slayed.

THEY ARE THE REFORMERS!!!!

It is IMPERATIVE to embrace the fire of God in this new era and allow Him to uproot unbelief and shine His light on the areas of the heart that are out of alignment. In the place of deep intimacy with the Lord and the awakening to first love there is an invitation of the Lord to be "all in" and to "count the cost" in this new era to carry the fire and what God is releasing. The sound of BE YIELDED is resounding louder than ever. The sound of HUMILITY is resounding louder than ever.

In the place of CONSECRATION to the Lord in this new era and being fully abandoned there is a MAJOR work of the Spirit of God taking place in the lives of His people, that those who embrace all He is doing will be lifted up by the hand of the Lord to bring REFORMATION. The Lord is sounding the shofar. The Lord is sounding the alarm. This is not a time to "sit back" this is a time to RISE UP!

This is a time to CONSECRATE OURSELVES because the King of Glory is coming. A wave of His Spirit and fire bringing a move of holiness in the Church unlike we have ever seen.

The yielded ones will arise in this new era with the favour of God upon their lives that will be ASTONISHING to bring RADICAL REFORMATION by the Spirit of God to the Church and to the earth in ways that have never been seen before. These reformers will arise from EVERY area to influence EVERY area. This isn't about being "good enough" or "doing everything right" it's about the POSITIONING OF THE HEART! It's about being YIELDED. The invitation is being extended to all, but it requires laying everything down again and offering your life as a living sacrifice to Him again (Romans 12:1)

There is an urgency of the hour. We are stepping into the greatest era with the Lord that we have ever seen. There is a MIGHTY preparation by the hand of God taking place right now in the Church and we must yield to His way and His process of preparation. The days ahead are exciting as we see the Lord come as the LION and radical reformation take place in the Church and the earth. The signs, wonders and miracles will be like we have never seen. The harvest will be explosive. The re-introduction to His power and the fear of the Lord that is going to be seen and restored will leave the Church shaken and rearranged. God is purging the Church, removing the game playing, the impurity and the worship of self and truly positioning the body of Christ for the Majesty of God to be revealed and the King of Glory to step in.

The Church to truly walk in a level of faith unlike anything we have ever experienced. It's time to get ready. An unstoppable army IS and WILL arise in the earth unlike the world has seen, and they are laid down lovers who know His way and yield to His fire, living in deep intimacy with Him as friends of God to see the Glory of God extended across the entire earth.

"For as the waters fill the sea, the earth will be filled with an awareness of the glory of the LORD." (Habbakuk 2:14)

The friends of God who delight in His way and believe Him at what He says will arise in the earth in this new era like never before, walking by faith and not by sight and decree a thing and see it established. (Job 22:28) A New Season of Crossing Over

"Prophetic Words for the Nations" by Curt Landry, Grove, OK

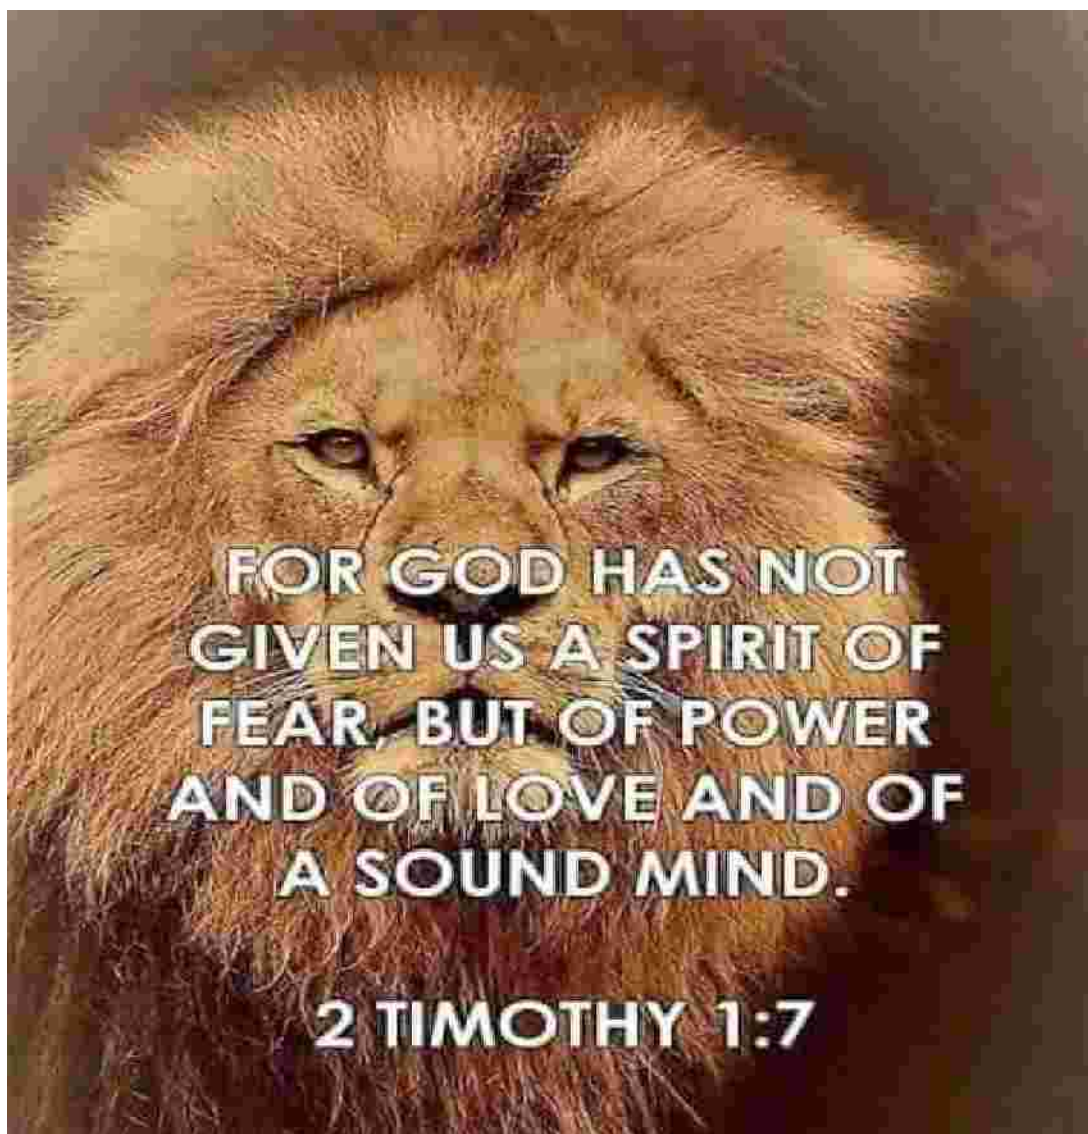

"United States of America—The Lion of Judah is Stepping in and Breaking Delays!" Lord, prepare our hearts for major change in our government. Lord, prepare our hearts to be able to trust You with things that we don't understand. Amen.

I heard the Lord say, "I'm going to reposition and realign this government. I'm the only One who knows the hearts of the men and women who are serving. In this season, don't speak against any of My children—right or left. For I will give salvation and a way out to each. They will either choose life or choose death. If they choose death, I will remove them from their position of authority." "There are some who have been held back, as they are in the wrong position for the mantle that I am releasing now. Some have even threatened to quit and retire early. But I will visit them in the night hours with fresh anointing's and fresh assignments. Just as a child is discouraged when he has special abilities and is held back by a traditional system, I have those in My government who are 'special children' who need to be raised up now. There are some who I will retire as well. They have served, and now they will be put to the side for the younger ones to rise up."

John 8:12 Then spake Yeshua again unto them, saying, "I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life".

The path is lit by the GLORY of HIS presence. Walk on it.....

Cindy Jacobs : The Lord says, "In this new season of crossing over, there's going to be warfare."

Just as when they crossed over the Jordan and had to take the city of Jericho and had to face the giants, you are facing some giants. These giants aren't pleasant - we don't like to face giants - but know this, you are conquering your territory. You are going to a new place. It's not like you're doing warfare for warfare's sake. It's not like you're standing still. You are making progress, so don't get sad or depressed. Don't think that what is happening to you is something that is just a natural thing. No, you are fighting a supernatural battle. So what you can do is maintain your joy. Understand this is the year of joyful increase, and whatever the devil has done, God is going to turn it for good. So start thanking the Lord about your situation.

My car recently got hit in a hit and run, so I had to choose to thank God that He is going to somehow work good through that. The things that Satan means for evil, God works for good. I know that's true.

So I want to say to you, "What is your territory?" Know that you're going towards your destiny; you're going through a promised land. Many times those promised lands are manifested through a dream that God will give you, or a passion, or something you should be doing. Sometimes God wants you to take care of something that vexes you.

I always say - what vexes you? What irritates you? What causes you to say, "Why doesn't somebody change that?" If you've said that, you are part of the change, or else you wouldn't notice it. Other people don't notice those things, but you notice those things. There are things that make you sad, things that make you say, "Why doesn't somebody stop human trafficking? Why doesn't somebody bring justice to our judicial system or prison system? Why doesn't somebody help the people at the border?" You are called to do these things.

So get up! Shake off the disappointments; shake off the things the enemy is trying to do. Don't stay back in the former times of your life. Know you are a conqueror; you're going to defeat every giant that is coming against your dream. You're going to take the territory, you're going to buy the building, you're going to be able to go to school, you're going to be able to pay your bills, and you're going to be able to pay your debts, pay off your house. Your children are going to be able to go to school. Just set your face like a flint. Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might, and understand that giants must fall.

Ancient Paths and Time of Transition, Doug Addison, Los Angeles, CA.

"You make known to me the path of life; You will fill me with joy in Your presence, with eternal pleasures at Your right hand." (Psalm 16:11 NIV)
The Lord is opening the path of life to you and bringing a long-awaited release of supernatural joy. Even though things may appear difficult on the outside, God is working behind the scenes and creating a path for you. Watch for pathways of life and joy to open in the midst of struggles and trials. Don't look at the surface, as God is working beneath it all to bring you into a new season.

Encounter on Yom Kippur

On the Jewish holiday of Yom Kippur (September 19, 2018), I was awakened with a prophetic dream and I had an encounter with the Lord about the coming year. As I woke up, I heard the Lord say, "This is the doorway to the new year you are entering into. You will not be able to take things from the past into this new season. It is going to be a narrow time of transition, but it is going to be worth it all."

The Ancient Path and Narrow Gate

When I got up that morning, I had an encounter with God. "This is what the Lord says: 'Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, ask where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But you said, "We will not walk in it"' (Jeremiah 6:16 NIV).

As I entered into the spirit with this encounter, I was standing with the Lord at a crossroads. There were several different directions and roads we could take. The Lord said, "These are the choices and paths that are available to My people for this year." He asked me to choose my pathway of life. As I looked, many of the pathways and roads were well-traveled and looked familiar. But I saw one that led up a mountain and there was a sign that was almost hidden that read, "Ancient path." It was very narrow and did not look easy. The Lord saw that I was drawn to the ancient path and He nodded in agreement. Then He said, "I have offered the ancient path to many people, but they have said, 'No, we will not walk in it. It's too uncomfortable and looks narrow and difficult.'"

We started on the journey up the mountain along the ancient path. I was surprised how easy it was once we started. I felt light and had no difficulty at all, but we had to walk single file because the path was very narrow. When we got to the top, there was a narrow gate.

"Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it." (Matthew 7:13–14 NIV)

The Lord said, "This year, I am opening up the ancient paths that will lead to this narrow gate. This gate and narrow road will lead you to new life, but only a few find it." I looked around and there was hardly anyone choosing this path. I wondered why, because it was full of new life and I could think, see and hear clearly.

Key to the Way of Holiness

I had already chosen the ancient path and passed through the narrow gate. Now the Lord was waiting for me. My Bible then opened to this Scripture: "And a highway will be there; it will be called the Way of Holiness; it will be for those who walk on that way. The unclean will not journey on it; wicked fools will not go about on it." (Isaiah 35:8 NIV)

I was standing next to the Lord and He handed me a key and said, "This is a key to the gate that leads to the Way of Holiness." I looked and in front of me was a golden gate that led to what looked like a highway in Heaven. This was a heavenly encounter, so it seemed to be partially on Earth and partially in Heaven. The Lord said, "I am calling many of My people to walk on the highway of holiness. But they must first choose the ancient path, go through the narrow gate and then discover the Way of Holiness. These are the ones who have laid down their lives and died to their own desires. These are the ones who have suffered but are now going to step into new life."

I was shocked that there were very few people on the Way of Holiness. I knew many people had talked about holiness, but few had obtained it because it was not through works or doing the right things. It was about learning to love others over themselves. Watch for God to open ancient paths for you. This year, be willing to take the narrow path over the wide one. Get ready to cross into a time of new revelation and restoration.

"The Two-Fold Blessing God Wants to Give You and Your Family!"
Demontae Edmonds, Virginia Beach, VA

Recently, I read about the life of Jacob and walked away with a greater understanding of the workings of God. One of the most intriguing and insightful passages of Scripture is discovered in Genesis chapter 32. Jacob meets a man in Genesis 32:24 who "...wrestled with him until daybreak."

We know from the Word of God and teachings that this man was an angel of God. In the encounter, Jacob refused to let the man go without receiving a blessing from him. "I will not let thee go, except thou bless me!" exclaims Jacob (see Genesis 32:26). The angel agrees to his request and issues a blessing to Jacob.

What comes to mind when you hear the word "blessing"? For many, material items such as a house, a new vehicle, new job, or money may be the first thoughts that appear in one's mind. For some, the imagery of a priest pronouncing over them a few "holy" words in Greek or Latin may come to mind. But for Jacob, the blessing he received was something greater. It is the same blessing that Father God desires to give us.

A New Name

Let's examine the blessing that the angel of God released to Jacob. Genesis 32:28, "And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel..." Jacob meant "swindler" but this new name, "Israel," meant "prince." (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

The name was not as important as what it represented. God was signifying to Jacob by this angel that God recognized the transformation of character and maturity that had taken place in Jacob's life.

Jacob may be described as self-centered, deceitful, and a con-man when he was a young man. However, in Genesis 32 we find Jacob now older—a mature man possessing the qualities of integrity, godly character, and faithfulness to God.

The angel's blessing for Jacob was a profound symbolic statement. It represented a right of passage and moment of demarcation in Jacob's life. The name change was God's way of saying that He was washing away Jacob's old identity and the stigma attached to it.

Many of us have lived past lives of sin, wrong doing, bad decision making, and past behaviors that brought shame and guilt. God is the author of faith. Satan will often try to exploit our past to bring condemnation upon us.

Thanks be to God that Yeshua has already done greater for us than the angel did for Jacob! Colossians 2:14, "Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His Cross..."

In Biblical and ancient times a name represented one's identity. God had already blessed Jacob with wives, children, cattle, wealth, and servants. Genesis 30:43, "And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses." However, I'm sure he still struggled with knowing his past misdeeds and bad reputation.

There are many individuals who have academic degrees, professional achievements, wealth, and an abundance of material goods, but still feel that something is missing in their souls.

Many celebrities and entertainers who are famous and wealthy have still expressed feeling "empty." The greatest blessings that satisfy one's soul, the inner you, can only come from God.

Romans 14:17, "For the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost."

Double Restoration

God's greater blessing was to identify the great internal work that had been done in Jacob's heart and soul over many years. Jacob had suffered wrong doing from a relative and employer, being cheated himself, and experiencing hardships. In addition, Jacob became a fugitive on the run from his own brother. He would have suffered from being alienated from his immediate family. God used all of these experiences to mold, create, and transform him into a new person.

Romans 8:28, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose."

Jacob is a testimony of God's ability to change a man's character and inner nature. Also, it is a powerful story of restoration. God blessed Jacob with two powerful restorations. I believe these are two blessings He desires for all of the children of the Kingdom of God.

In chapter 32 of Genesis, Jacob encounters the angel who pronounces a new name for him. The first blessing was a restorative act for Jacob's wounded soul. Psalms 23:3, "He restoreth my soul..." The second restorative act happens in the following chapter, Genesis 33. Jacob is reunited with his brother Esau who forgives him of swindling him out of his birthright and blessing.

God desires to reward our faithfulness to Him and faith toward Him with a two-fold restoration. First, the liberation of our souls from any soul wounds, trauma, or mental bruising. Second, the transfer our family into the same blessings of God that we enjoy.

For many, this means firstly that God desires to restore broken family relationships. Acts 16:31, "And they said, 'Believe on the Lord Yeshua Christ, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house.'"

God's plan of redemption is a family plan.

Lessons Learned

Oftentimes we focus too much on external blessings and overlook the internal blessing of a change of heart and divine nature that God wants to work in us. Many of us have been guilty of placing too much focus and wasted too much energy on circumstances or people that affect our lives. Although we should pray to God about these things.

God's real focus is YOU. He is trying to change our hearts and natures to be more like His. Harboring unforgiveness, bitterness, resentment, estranged family relationships, pride, arrogance, lack of humility, sin, deception, unfaithfulness, and other forms of iniquities in one's heart and life are signs that God still greatly needs to do a heart and identity change in one's life.

God appears to Jacob again in Genesis 35:10: "And God said unto him...'Thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name': and he called his name Israel (PRINCE)." (emphasis mine).

Oftentimes, even once God has changed us, old mindsets, habits, environments, or people try to pull us back into our old nature. God will often orchestrate circumstances to reinforce who we have become in Him and advance us further along on our spiritual journey.

The Holy Spirit will help us as we walk into our new identities in Christ and lead us into a restoration of our own souls and families.

John 14:16-17, "And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him: but ye know Him; for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you."

Let's Pray:

Father God, I stand on the promise of Your Word found in Psalms 23 that You "restoreth my soul" and "leadeth me in the paths of righteousness."

Lord, I repent of any actions I may have taken that opened doors in my life to the enemy. I thank You for the sacrifice of Your Son, Yeshua Christ. I thank You that every declaration of the enemy written against me is invalid because it's been nailed to Calvary's Cross. Because of this, I denounce condemnation, guilt, and shame.

In place of shame I decree I shall have double honor according to Isaiah 61:7.

Father, I thank You that Heaven is divinely orchestrating situations and circumstances for the salvation of my family and loved ones. In Yeshua name, I speak that every broken family relationship is being repaired by the love of God. I ask that a spirit of forgiveness and meekness be poured out upon my immediate and extended family.

Father, cause all of us to walk in the identities that You have ordained for us to walk in and fulfill your will in the earth.

In Yeshua' mighty name I thank You, Father, for receiving my prayer

"Be Expectant! Watch as You See and Hear Many Suddenlies"

Alane Haynes, San Diego, CA

There has been a clear and tangible shift with the onset of 5780, a defining movement into suddenlies. Recently, many things have happened in my personal life that bear witness to this. Things that I have been believing for are now happening – suddenly, healings; suddenly, creative miracles; suddenly, open doors; suddenly, divine appointments; suddenly, restoration of family members.

I heard the Lord say, "I have released a cleansing wind and those who have hungered for more of My presence and have obeyed the leading of My Spirit are now hearing, seeing and sensing My presence as never before. The veil has been lifted and an immediacy released."

I looked up "immediacy" in Merriam Webster's Dictionary. Holy Spirit highlighted a few of the less common definitions to me:

- 1) "Occurring, acting, or accomplished without loss or interval of time."
- 2) "Existing without intervening space or substance."
- 3) "Being next in line or relation."
- 4) "Acting or being without the intervention of another object, cause, or agency."
- 5) "Present to the mind independently of other states or factors."

I heard Holy Spirit say that those things which exist outside of time and space that are next in line for God's perfect timing, are coming forth independently. God says, "NOW is the time!" It's NOW time moving in NOW faith, intersecting time and space. Suddenly as it is in Heaven, so it is on Earth.

Suddenly – Doors Opened!

Keep praying and praising! There is a shaking; doors are opening; a mighty Kingdom expansion is coming forth!

"But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed." (Acts 16:25-26 NKJV)

Some months ago, Holy Spirit showed me what would be a ministry opportunity impacting many and affecting a whole region. I have been praying, declaring and standing on what He revealed, trusting His timing and His ways, and giving Him praise. Right after Rosh Hashanah 5780, the door opened and God is bringing this forth to manifest as we enter the calendar year 2020. Believe! Doors are opening; much angelic intervention and new assignments will bring forth God's purposes!

I am hearing God say, "Listen closely to the sound of the new season; I have released an opening over what has been veiled. Believe and receive a new level of discernment and sensitivity to the movement of My Spirit in every area of your life. You have exercised your senses well, but now receive from the place where I dwell. With My Spirit you will see, hear, taste, touch and smell. As you obey, you will see the devices of darkness quelled and their power dispelled."

Suddenly – Healing!

There is a mighty move of healing and creative miracles for this season. Believe and speak in faith!

"And suddenly, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came from behind and touched the hem of His garment. For she said to herself, 'If only I may touch His garment, I shall be made well.' But Yeshua turned around, and when He saw her He said, 'Be of good cheer, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And the woman was made well from that hour." (Matt. 9:20-22 NKJV)

This woman heard of Yeshua healing many; she believed and spoke it to herself. Yeshua said that her faith made her well! We have a more sure word of prophecy in the resurrection power of the Lord Yeshua Christ, and the timing of God says that NOW, for this season, lay a hold of it and do not let go! Keep laying claim to what God has put in your heart; speak it forth and praise Him for what is being brought forth!

"We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts." (2 Pet. 1:19 KJV)

Recently, we received such a miracle! In my husband's field of work he is on his feet all day, and he has been in this line of work 50 years. He began to experience great pain some years ago. The doctor said that two bones had grown together and compressed the nerve, and that he would eventually need surgery.

BUT GOD! As we prayed for healing, my husband heard the Lord say, "I am the Lord that healeth thee." Soon after, I knew the veil had lifted. Faith rose and we prayed again. God moved and my husband has been pain free for over six weeks! Faith in God's Word, in alignment with His perfect timing, causes immediacy and suddenlies occur.

Suddenly – Provision Supplied!

I heard the Lord say, "Trust My goodness; ask and receive, for all things are possible for those that believe!"

"Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them." (Mark 11:24 NKJV)

We experienced two recent instances where all hope seemed lost, but God provided above and beyond what we could have asked or imagined. The first was a situation where it seemed a ministry would be ending due to overwhelming need for people to step up into leadership roles. We prayed and God responded with an overflow.

I hear Him saying, "What seems the enemy is overthrowing will soon be overflowing with My bountiful goodness. What has been removed makes room for the more that I have in store."

The second was a similar situation, but at my husband's workplace. They were very short staffed and it was causing my husband great stress mentally and physically. We prayed in faith and God brought resources from unexpected places. What seems impossible is actually the opportunity for God to move and show His great ability.

I hear Him say, "I see and I have heard you groan; I tell you, bring your prayers to My throne, and you will see blessing that comes from My hand alone!"

Suddenly – Restoration of What Seemed Lost!

Now is the time, for the restoration of all things is at hand!

"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that He may send Yeshua Christ, who was preached to you before, whom Heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began." (Acts 3:19-21 NKJV)

Multiple situations with family members and close friends are bearing witness to this. Holy Spirit is moving among us to bring repentance from dead works into a "right now," moment-by-moment living, and powerful relationship with the living God! He is revealing areas in our minds and hearts where we are not living in faith, where we are grieving His Spirit by not believing and trusting. We are in a state of immediacy where we can redeem the time; where we can see relationships shifted in a moment's time and restored to the original intent for family bloodlines.

I declare to you: Faith rise up! For I hear the Lord saying, "Your precious ones are in My sight; keep trusting Me and you will see what was wrong made right. My Spirit is moving and My messengers sent, to bind healing to souls that the enemy rent. The veil has been lifted, lies are being exposed, and you will see the enemy deposed."

"Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill Heaven and Earth? saith the LORD." (Jer. 23:23-24 KJV)

The Lord says, "Be expectant; your senses alert to the moving of My Spirit. Watch as you see and hear many suddenlies. Many will encounter Yeshua suddenly, as Saul on the road to Damascus. Prodigals will suddenly be restored to their senses – suddenly, many healings; suddenly, dead restored to life; suddenly, storms cease; suddenly, the nets of provision are full; suddenly, a sound from Heaven and many are filled with the Holy Spirit."

From God's release of immediacy comes suddenlies, bringing restoration to all that seemed lost.

I hear the Lord saying, "I am opening doors, and will make the path clear; stay in faith so you can hear. Obey quickly and others will see I am near; trust in Me overcomes all fear. I am your God and will bring provision; in faith you will find the proper position. Do not fear or dread in the days to come; for I AM the overcoming ONE!"

"These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." (John 16:33 NKJV)

"For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world – our faith." (1 John 5:4 NKJV).

Christians and the Trance Realm By: Jennifer LeClaire

Trances are not merely the domain of shamans, New Agers, and DJs with pumping beats. A trance is not hypnosis, although hypnotized people do experience a trancelike state. Trances are not relegated to the realm of witches and warlocks, though these dark agents do use trances to enter into astral projection, a counterfeit of the biblical concept of being transported in the Spirit.

The enemy always works to counterfeit what God is doing, and because of this many have feared to even learn of the trance realm. The reality is trances are biblical, and we need to understand what the Bible says about them. What is a trance? Before we go any further, it's helpful to see various definitions that will lay a foundation for your faith. Noah Webster's 1828 Dictionary defines trance this way, "An ecstasy; a state in which the soul seems to have passed out of the body into celestial regions, or to be rapt into visions." A trance is a state of one who is "out of himself," according to Easton's Bible Dictionary.² The word trance comes from the Greek word ekstasis, from which the word ecstasy is derived.

According to The King James New Testament Greek Lexicon, ekstatis means "a throwing of the mind out of its normal state, alienation of mind, whether such as makes a lunatic or that of a man who by some sudden emotion is transported as it were out of himself, so that in this rapt condition, although he is awake, his mind is drawn off from all surrounding objects and wholly fixed on things divine that he sees nothing but the forms and images lying within, and thinks that he perceives with his bodily eyes and ears realities shown him by God."

I suppose it's hard to describe it if you've not experienced it, but Smith's Bible Dictionary goes a little deeper, saying a trance is: "The...state in which a man has passed out of the usual order of his life, beyond the usual limits of consciousness and volition, being rapt in causes of this state are to be traced commonly to strong religious impressions. Whatever explanation may be given of it, it is true of many, if not of most, of those who have left the stamp of their own character on the religious history of mankind, that they have been liable to pass at times into this abnormal state."

The International Bible Encyclopedia defines trance this way: "The condition expressed by this word is a mental state in which the person affected is partially or wholly unconscious of objective sensations, but intensely alive to subjective impressions which, however they may be originated, are felt as if they were revelations from without. They may take the form of visual or auditory sensations or else of impressions of taste, smell, heat or cold, and sometimes these conditions precede epileptic seizures constituting what is named the aura epileptica."

What the Bible Says About Trances

We only see trances mentioned five times in the Bible, but that is more than enough to set a principle of a way God moves on us and speaks to us. By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word is established (see Deut. 19:15). We'll start with the Old Testament, where we see two mentions of trances and then move to the New Testament, where we see trances mentioned three times.

Balaam's trance

Balaam, the false prophet who a king tried to hire to curse Israel, went into a trance. We read about that in Numbers 24:1-4: And when Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and the spirit of God came upon him. And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said: He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open (KJV). Notice when he fell into this trance, his eyes were open. He was not asleep, but it seemed he was in a sleeplike state, not moving.

Peter's trance

Peter fell into a trance that opened his eyes to preach the Gospel to the Gentiles. Let's look at the entire account in Acts 10:10–17: Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a trance and saw heaven opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth. In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. And a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat." But Peter said, "Not so, Lord! For I have never eaten anything common or unclean." And a voice spoke to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed you must not call common." This was done three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again. Now while Peter wondered within himself what this vision which he had seen meant, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate. Notice, Peter saw a vision in the trance. Many people who fall into trances report having seen visions. Some others can't even describe what they have seen or didn't see anything.

Paul's trance

Paul fell into a trance in Acts 22:17–21 in which the Lord gave him a warning and a commission to preach the Gospel to the Gentiles. I was in a trance and saw Him saying to me, "Make haste and get out of Jerusalem quickly, for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me." So I said, "Lord, they know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believe on You. And when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by consenting to his death, and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him." Then He said to me, "Depart, for I will send you far from here to the Gentiles." Notice, that Paul got instruction in the trance, just as Peter did. Trances, like any other supernatural encounter, are purposeful.

...SO A BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE
WAS WRITTEN BEFORE HIM
FOR THOSE WHO FEAR THE LORD
AND WHO MEDITATE ON HIS NAME.

What Happens in Trances?

I've never fallen into a trance, but I (Jennifer) know people who have—and it's totally biblical. We only see people falling into trances a few times in the Bible, but there is enough evidence from the Word of God and from modern expressions to back up this scriptural supernatural experience.

Maria Woodworth-Etter, a powerful voice from the late 1800s and early 1900s who was moving in the supernatural before Asuza Street or the Charismatic movement made its mark on church history, was known for trances.

Indeed, Woodworth-Etter was a Pentecostal forerunner. She saw great outpourings of God's Spirit in the Midwest before entering the West Coast to win souls for God. In Oakland, California, she bought an eight thousand-seat tent in 1889 and packed it out with people hungry to watch God move. He didn't disappoint. Healings, signs, wonders, and miracles were commonplace in Woodworth-Etter's meetings.

Of course, miracles always draw crowds and critics, and it was no different for this female pioneer. However, she didn't see the attacks from fellow healing evangelist John Alexander Dowie coming. Dowie, himself moving in miracles, at first praised Woodworth-Etter but soon accused her of propagating a great delusion because people were falling into trances left and right under her tent. He called it "trance evangelism." Woodworth-Etter also drew attention from the media. The Salem report documents her falling into a trance on March 24, 1904, and she "had to be laid on the platform for over an hour." The Indianapolis Star also reported "Woodworth-Etter Goes into a Trance" in a 1904 edition. In 1913, The Boston Globe reported, "Took No Money for Healing; Mrs. Etter Gave God Credit for Cures."

There are accounts of Woodworth-Etter falling into a trance at a St. Louis meeting and standing like a statue for three whole days as attendees of the World Fair looked on in amazement. It's not clear if the trance actually lasted that long, but she was known to fall into trances that left her frozen for hours at a time—and so did many others who attended her meetings.

"People fell into trances, experienced visions of heaven and hell, collapsed on the floor as if they'd been shot or had died," reports Revival Library. "Thousands were healed of a wide variety of sicknesses and diseases and many believers, even ministers, received mighty baptisms of the Holy Spirit."

Often, unbelievers who came in to disrupt the service were encountered by the power of God and themselves fell into a trance. Reporters ridiculed her, her husband lashed out at her in a public letter, she lost the support of well-known ministers in her day, but she continued preaching the Gospel and people continued getting saved—and falling into trances. Woodworth-Etter pointed people to scriptural references of trances and believed it was the power of God.

Criticized in her day, she goes down in Pentecostal history as a pioneer, a forerunner who withstood strong persecution to steward the glory of God in her meetings. We need more like Woodworth-Etter in this hour.

In the Weekly Evangel, Robert J. Craig, an early Pentecostal leader and pastor of Glad Tidings Temple in San Francisco, honored her and encouraged ministers to study her life and ministry: "If the Pentecostal ministry would study her life and count on God, expecting the supernatural to be revealed in each meeting, what a mighty agency ours would be in the hands of God."

Amen. And think about it for a minute. What would happen if skeptics of the gospel entered a Holy Ghost meeting and fell into a trance and saw visions of hell? Maybe trance evangelism isn't such a bad idea.

How to Enter the Trance Realm

You can't choose to enter an ecstatic realm trance any more than you can choose to have a God-inspired dream. Look at the biblical examples. Balaam didn't ask God to bring him into a trance. Peter did not ask God to bring him into a trance. Paul did not ask God to bring him into a trance. It was a God-ordained suddenly that they couldn't have expected and one that left a mark on them. Usually, people who fall into God-given trances are emotional or have strong memories about the experience.

Given biblical precedent and the reality of demonic agents who seek to enter trances for wicked purposes, I (Jennifer) don't believe we should ask the Lord to put us into trances. God does tell us to pursue spiritual gifts, but a trance is not a gift like the nine gifts of the Spirit, which was the context by which the Holy Spirit inspired Paul to inspire us to pursue them. If we seek supernatural experiences for the sake of supernatural experiences, the devil will oblige. At the same time, we do not want to quench the spirit through fear, unbelief, or doubt. Be open to anything God wants to do for you, give to you, or take from you and you'll experience everything He has for you in the right time and the right season.

Pray this prayer with me, "Father, thank You for teaching me about the trance realm. I am open and ready for any realm You want to show me, but I do not want to go where You aren't taking me. Help me not to be deceived by false encounters and demonic realms. Open my eyes only to what You want to show me, in Yeshua's name."

SMALL STRAWS IN A SOFT WIND by MARSHA BURNS:

You are not alone, nor are you on your own. You have the Helper, My Spirit, who will interact with you where you are to guide and protect you. You must not be afraid, but go forth with the assurance of supernatural preservation. Stay in the shelter that has been provided for you, says the Lord. Psalm 91:5-9 You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day, nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. Only with your eyes shall you look, and see the reward of the wicked. Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge, even the Most High, your dwelling place.

THE TRUMPET by BILL BURNS:

I have provided the wells that produce salvation, so make sure that you are abiding in the waters that I am providing for you. Get in and stay in the living waters. John 4:10 Yeshua answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

SMALL STRAWS IN A SOFT WIND by MARSHA BURNS:

To many who have lost your joy because you are overwhelmed with darkness and dissatisfaction, I say this to you: It is time to lift yourself to new spiritual heights where you no longer think only about the miseries of life. I want you to find a place of joy in the Spirit. It is not My will that you live in despair without hope. Put your faith and hope in Me, says the Lord. Romans 14:17 for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

THE TRUMPET by BILL BURNS:

It is time to move forward into the light of this season. Open your spiritual eyes, and you will see. Before you lies the path that will take you into that which I am now making available. Awaken and come with Me. Adventure awaits!

SMALL STRAWS IN A SOFT WIND by MARSHA BURNS:

Seeds of generosity that you sow at My behest will reap an extraordinary harvest of favor, grace, and prosperity. Give with an open heart and without expectation of gratitude or reciprocation. Be My hand extended and take no credit for yourself, says the Lord. Only then will you reap the benefits of kindness. Luke 6:38 "Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you."

THE TRUMPET by BILL BURNS:

It is time for My people to receive more of My spiritual influence. It is time for you to see and understand that which I will show you. Therefore, when you hear the cry of My Spirit to look up, do so! Allow your spirit to ascend. Come up, and I will empower you, says the Lord. Revelation 4:1 After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this."

SMALL STRAWS IN A SOFT WIND by MARSHA BURNS:

It is My desire that you access greater power in the Spirit, but you must go higher. Watch for things that will keep you bound to the past, for you must let them go. You cannot live in the past and embrace new beginnings. There are many spiritual delights awaiting you. Prepare yourself for spiritual expansion, says the Lord. Philippians 3:13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead.

I am sending help. You need help. You seldom ask for it because you don't really think you need it. You are accustomed doing things by yourself, but this event has become larger than you imagined. Stop and take stock. You will see clearly that you need help. There are those who are standing by who can do what you need and are ready. Don't resist. Be a good receiver and hold out a hand for help.

Romans 12:5 (AMP) "So we, numerous as we are, are one body in Christ (the Messiah) and individually we are parts one of another [mutually dependent on one another]." Bev Robinson

You wonder if the grieving will ever stop. The pain and anguish you have experienced, and with which you continue to be familiar, has you in somewhat of a downward spiral of depression. "What's next?" you ask. Let me comfort you. Envision My loving embrace encompassing you. I validate your feelings. I was once where you are concerning Lazarus, so I can completely understand how you feel. My peace and joy I give to you now.

John 11:35 (NASB) "Yeshua wept." Kevin Robinson

Today is a day for miracles! Let heaven open today and let all that is stored up for My people come forth. Begin to declare and believe that heaven is on earth TODAY! I am a good Father who has good gifts for My children. Simply lift your hands toward heaven. Shout and believe. Watch miracles, signs and wonders as they come to you from the heavenly realm. I am a good Father and I send miracles.

God Still Moves

What shall we do with these men? For the fact that a noteworthy miracle has taken place through them is apparent to all who live in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. – Acts 4:16 NASB

Even though he grew up in a Christian home, James Finley rejected the Gospel as a young man. Yet in 1801 when he was 20 years old, he was intrigued by what he heard about the revival that was taking place in Cane Ridge, Kentucky.

Many had reacted to this camp meeting with skepticism. As Finley recalled, some pastors preached sermons describing this meeting as “the wildest fanaticism.” Christians were urged “not to go near these places,” for fear they might be “sympathetically affected.”

But Finley, like others, wanted to see for himself. When he arrived, he witnessed a “vast crowd” of about 25,000 people. The noise was “like the roar of Niagara.” Ministry was everywhere – preaching, singing, worship, prayer. Overcome by “a strange supernatural power,” he became so weak he had to sit down.

There was no doubt that God was present doing powerful things. Finley later wrote, “My hair rose up on my head, my whole frame trembled.” That meeting changed his life.

Many people throughout time have refused to believe that powerful moves of God can take place and that He still can perform miracles. Many are reluctant and skeptical. But others come with an open heart, ready to believe. The Bible assures us that God still is at work and miracles still take place. Don't give in to doubt. Seek His presence. Worship Him. Believe that all things are possible.

Prayer

Father, I hunger for Your presence. I pray for a powerful move of Your Spirit. Change lives. Bring a powerful revival. In Yeshua' name, amen.

Cheshvan 17: 5780 – Saturday – November 15, 2019

17 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2105 BCE) – Great Flood began, Noah and his family enter the ark. (circa 960 BCE) – First Temple completed by King Solomon [2] (it was not inaugurated until the following Tishrei however).

Matthew 24:36-51 Amplified Bible (AMP)
Chaplain Wade Butler

The earth was covered with HIS wrath, a flood was coming. It had never even rained at that time. The question is what the earth will be like when HE comes. The WORD says it will be like in the times of Noah. We are already like those days, homosexuality, murder, disobedience, hate and sexual sins run rampant. Listen to the sound of the wind in the trees, it will be no different, there will be a suddenly and only HIS Bride will be ready as HE prepares Her for the day.

Matthew 24:36-51 Amplified Bible (AMP)

36 "But of that [exact] day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son [in His humanity], but the Father alone. 37 For the coming of the Son of Man (the Messiah) will be just like the days of Noah. 38 For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the [very] day when Noah entered the ark, 39 and they did not know or understand until the flood came and swept them all away; so will the coming of the Son of Man be [unexpected judgment]. 40 At that time two men will be in the field; one will be taken [for judgment] and one will be left. 41 Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken [for judgment] and one will be left.

Be Ready for His Coming

42 "So be alert [give strict attention, be cautious and active in faith], for you do not know which day [whether near or far] your Lord is coming. 43 But understand this: If the head of the house had known what time of the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. 44 Therefore, you [who follow Me] must also be ready; because the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not expect Him.

45 "Who then is the faithful and wise servant whom his master has put in charge of his household to give the others [in the house] their food and supplies at the proper time? 46 Blessed is that [faithful] servant when his master returns and finds him doing so. 47 I assure you and most solemnly say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions. 48 But if that servant is evil and says in his heart, 'My master is taking his time [he will not return for a long while],' 49 and begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards; 50 the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour of which he is not aware, 51 and will cut him in two and put him with the hypocrites; in that place there will be weeping [over sorrow and pain] and grinding of teeth [over distress and anger].

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'STRIKE THE GROUND' by Lana Vawser Ministries

Recently I heard the Lord say "STRIKE THE GROUND!" and the sense surrounded me strongly that this was the FINAL STRIKE.

I felt the Holy Spirit say that many have been in such an intense battle of late and many have been 'hit' again in many directions. The Lord showed me that many are facing an increase in the things standing against their promise in the last few weeks. He showed me that many were feeling like suddenly the manifestation of His promise feels even further way than ever. I saw many in a fight over their promise, fighting hard against fear, discouragement, despair, confusion.

The Lord spoke to me that there is a FINAL STRIKE happening in two dimensions. There is a FINAL STRIKE of the enemy hitting many harder than ever in the area of their promise and to cage them in discouragement and despair because this is actually the FINAL STRIKE to see the breaker manifest.

There is a major shift taking place in the spirit in the earth right now and in the lives of His people. The enemy wants to cage you in fear, in unbelief, in doubt, in despair and discouragement. Whatever it takes "STRIKE THE GROUND AGAIN!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"

STRIKE THE GROUND AGAIN AND THE LAND WILL BE YOURS

I heard the Holy Spirit say "Strike the ground again and the land will be yours"

The Lord showed me that there is a MAJOR battle going on in the spirit right now over OWNERSHIP. The Lord wants to give you new land; the Lord wants to lead you into your inheritance and into your new territory and for you to occupy it.

This battle over territory is because this new territory that you are stepping onto and into is going to be your place of greatest FULLNESS and alignment. There is a significant impartation waiting for you in your land of inheritance and your new territory, your place of promise and the enemy is trying to keep you from it, but it will NOT happen as you STRIKE THE GROUND.

I AM CANCELLING THE FALSE STARTS, REVIVING YOU AND ESTABLISHING YOU TO NOT BE UPROOTED AGAIN

In the spirit I heard the sound of a car starting and as it went to start it then suddenly cut out. I kept hearing this happening over and over again and it reminded me of what happens when a car battery is going flat.

I asked the Lord what He was saying and He whispered "I am cancelling the false starts. I am reviving My people and establishing them to not be uprooted again and to accelerate in the wind of My Spirit, empowered, further than they have ever been. This is their season to run with Me."

I was suddenly surrounded by Amos 9:15:

"I will plant them on their land, and they shall never again be uprooted out of the land that I have given them," says the Lord your God. (English Standard Version)

The Lord spoke again:

"STRIKE THE GROUND AGAIN!! Can you hear the sound of inheritance?"

The Lord is releasing the deeds of ownership in the Spirit. The things that have YOUR name on it, the promises of the Lord, the territories, the new ventures, the new lands that you will occupy. He is releasing them now and the battle is over that ownership, so can I encourage you, RISE UP, STAND UP and STRIKE THE GROUND AGAIN with your prayers, with your decrees, use your authority, for you are about to be led into what is YOURS, what HE has spoken is yours, and NOT be moved from it again. That is WHY the battle is so intense because THIS TIME YOU WILL OCCUPY!

There is a mighty move of His Spirit upon you in the striking of the ground. The DAM is about to break and the tidal wave of His Spirit is about to move in such acceleration, bringing the greatest alignments of your life and release you into the new level of acceleration, empowerment and increase that He has for you in this new era.

There is FULLNESS like you've never known upon you. You will FLOURISH in Christ in the new territory He has for you.

STRIKE THE GROUND AGAIN, THERE IS MAJOR FINANCIAL PROVISION BEING RELEASED TO BUILD WITH HIM LIKE NEVER BEFORE

The Lord showed me that there is MAJOR financial breakthrough and provision that is being released to build with Him like never before. The Lord is going to release the provision for the vision that He has released. The provision He is releasing will enable the people of God to build the blueprints He has released and other Kingdom ventures that He is going to reveal and others that have been put on the back-burner because of lack of finances. The Lord is going to show Himself strong as provider to build what He is building to see His Kingdom extended like never before in the blueprints He has released.

Ask for wisdom (James 1:5) in the stewardship of the provision and as you follow the wisdom of God there will be mighty demonstrations of MULTIPLICATION like you have never seen.

"The Glory Is Coming with Earthly Chaos and Heavenly Order"

Larry Sparks, Dallas, Texas

My Encounter in Israel

In April 2019, I had the honor of serving as a ministry leader on a trip to Israel hosted by Sid Roth. It was my second time being in the Holy Land, and quite truthfully, I had no idea what to expect. All of the marketing language leading up to the trip used the phraseology, "An Appointment in Israel." More than catchy PR, I believe this was a prophetic summons...

Time prevents me from detailing all of the encounters we had with the Lord while in the Holy Land, but one of the most unusual was while laying in bed, simply scrolling through my phone. Nothing particularly spiritual about the setup to this experience, and yet, God walked in the room and touched me powerfully.

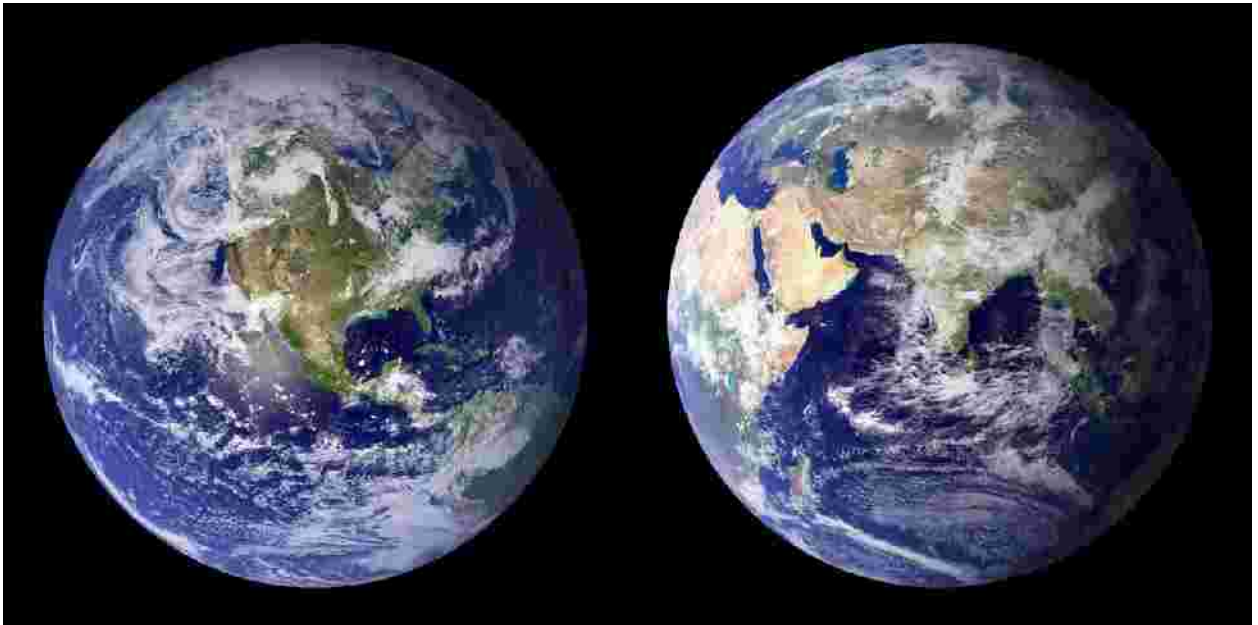

I stumbled upon a worship song I had never heard before. I couldn't even tell you the title or lyrics, but all of a sudden, it was as though the lightning of God struck me. I felt something like spiritual lightning strike my body and I began to shake violently as if I was being electrocuted. Although it was intense, I knew it was the Lord. I just didn't know what He was up to.

The power of God surged through me, and ultimately, knocked me off the bed and onto the floor. As I tried to get up, I felt like I was being pressed down—like my body was too heavy to move. Only in retrospect do I realize that God was depositing something into me, since unusual and intense supernatural encounters are often signposts that we are receiving major deposits from God. This is why they are often so intense; God Himself is literally putting something into you (or awakening something within you).

I wasn't on the floor all that long, but when I did get up, I was quite confused. I had no idea what God was actually doing, as it seemed like quite the random experience. That week, as a group, we enjoyed encountered after encounter with God, from a Holy Spirit-filled boat ride in the Sea of Galilee to a supernatural Passover Seder that closed out the week.

It was an hour or so after the encounter, however, that I sat at the hotel desk and started going through several chapters of the Bible that I believe the Holy Spirit was highlighting to me. Most of that week, there was one verse I could not escape from... Furthermore, I believe that if we as a Church community and as individual followers of Messiah Yeshua adhere to the simple principle in this passage, we would absolutely witness the manifestation of God's powerful presence released into the earth through a glory-filled people.

All the Earth

So, let's start at the end, work our way back, and seek to discover the protocol to experiencing His glory.

God has a target: all the earth. Throughout the whole of Scripture, God reveals His agenda, which is obviously driven by His heart of love. His agenda is to fill the whole earth with His glory. Such statements can be seen throughout the Old Testament, but the real inauguration of their fulfillment came on the Day of Pentecost.

Joel prophesied of a day when all flesh would experience the outpouring of the Spirit. Not all church. Not all religious people. Not even all Pentecostals and Charismatics. God's agenda for the ages is to fill the entire planet with His glory.

Practically, how will this happen? Simple. It begins with the sons and daughters of God giving their lives to accommodate His movement in the earth.

Two Scriptures have been burning in my spirit on the subject of God's glory and the hour in which we are living:

"David arranged for Asaph and his fellow Levites to serve regularly before the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, doing whatever needed to be done each day." (1 Chron. 16:37)

"Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship." (Rom. 12:1 NIV)

You may not think these two passages of Scripture have any level of relationship, but trust me, they do.

How do we "serve regularly before the Ark" of God's presence, doing whatever needs to be done each day? We continually offer up our lives as living sacrifices. We are here to please God, not ourselves. And yet, it's in laying down our lives to serve His story that we will experience a fulfillment and satisfaction beyond comprehension. How?

When we live for ourselves, we are living small lives because we are at the center of everything we do; when we live for God and the unveiling of His glory in the earth, we are participating in something that is epic, monumental and world-changing.

God is seeking living people who continually offer up their lives as living sacrifices to Him, recognizing their lives are not their own, they have been bought with the precious Blood of Yeshua, and they are giving their lives to participating with the movement of God in the earth.

The glory realm of God is exclusive. Yes, highly exclusive. But the invitation to enter into this realm is extended to all Believers. It's exclusive because all Believers do not receive or accept this invitation to come and give up their lives so that His life would be revealed and released in the earth. May we be such a people. Not perfect; perfection is not possible. But may we be a process-able people, ever yielded and submitted to the Master. When we live this way, we become attractive to the fire of God.

For many years, the Church has been waiting for anointed leaders and ministers to lay hands on us, impart a supernatural gifting, and empower us for greater levels of ministry or effectiveness. The season is shifting.

I prophesy this is the hour in which God Himself is going to fall upon His people; He will begin laying hands on His people, commissioning them as ambassadors and agents of reconciliation into every sphere of influence.

God Is Making His Appeal Through You!

For I hear the Lord say, "I am making My appeal through you! Yes, you are filled with My Spirit, not for conferences and events, but you are filled up so you can be spilled out. You are filled up to be poured out. You are filled and empowered so you can run towards every person, place and sphere of society that is unredeemed.

"As one filled with My Spirit, you should be drawn to everything unredeemed. My Blood has made provision for every person, place and thing to be redeemed—brought back to Myself. My Blood has paid the price, but I have filled you, I have commissioned you, I have empowered and appointed you to serve as My agents in the earth to facilitate this process."

The Lord is calling us to be agents of reconciliation, bringing everything that is disconnected from God back into relationship with Him and agreement with His original purpose.

"...And God has given us this task of reconciling people to Him. For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, no longer counting people's sins against them. And He gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation. So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making His appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, 'Come back to God!' For God made Christ, who never sinned, to be the offering for our sin, so that we could be made right with God through Christ." (2 Corinthians 5:18-21 NLT)

Our assignment is to boldly proclaim: "Come back to God!" For the prodigals who have run away from home, come back to God! For spheres of influence like the Arts, Entertainment, Science, Education and Medicine that were meant to revealed the wisdom, beauty and goodness of God, come back to God! For the ones who are hopeless through life, not knowing their purpose, and furthermore, believing they have no hope and are condemned to a life of separation from God because of their sins: Come back to God!

When a people filled with glory step onto the scene, they push back darkness and simultaneously confront everything that is disconnected from God. Glory reminds people and creation itself of its original state—a state that the Blood of Yeshua has made full provision to bring us back into.

A Vision of the Coming Glory

During our Supernatural Passover Seder in Israel (April 2019), Ana Werner and I both had a stirring in our spirits. As the meeting escalated and became anything but traditional, I had this vision of God falling upon every person in that building (roughly 400).

If the scene in my head would have come to pass, it would have been earthly chaos (AKA: heavenly order). I saw the weighty kabod glory of God falling on each person, increasing and intensifying. I saw people falling on their backs and people falling on their faces, depending on how the Spirit was touching them. I saw tables crashing down, chairs flipping over, and people being absolutely overwhelmed by God.

This didn't happen as I saw in my mind. But it's coming. These scenes will become increasingly common, not because a powerful minister went around laying hands on everyone, praying for spiritual impartation. No. I see the greatest days of glory ahead for us as the people of God individually and corporately offer their lives as living sacrifices to God, basically saying: "Lord, use me. I submit and yield to You. It's on Your terms, not mine."

What will happen as we do this?

"...fire flashed down from Heaven and burned up the burnt offerings and sacrifices, and the glorious presence of the Lord filled the Temple." (2 Chron. 7:1 NLT)

The fire of God always gloriously fills temples that present sacrifices. What happens when the temple becomes a sacrifice? A people filled with glory that embrace and fulfill the mandate of God to fill the earth with His glory

Do You Qualify? The 5 Prerequisites for Promotion: Gloria Copeland with George Pearsons.

Feeling like you'll never move to the next level in life? Find out if you're meeting the prerequisites for the promotion you've been dreaming of.

Are you living the same day over and over again?

Maybe it seems like you wake up and carry on pretty much the same way every day, without any exciting changes or life-altering increase. Yet, you have stirrings, dreams and visions for what you want in this life. And you keep waiting for your breakthrough—your tipping point.

Here's the deal...

You are the tipping point.

If you're feeling stuck, it's because you were made for continual promotion and advancement in this life. This year should not look the same as every other year. Increase in your job, finances, ministry or family should regularly be occurring. But you have to own your part in seeing God's supernatural promotion.

It's time to skip the middleman and start getting promoted quicker, easier and beyond what the world says is possible. Instead of waiting around for something to change, trying to make our own way, or convincing the world to promote us, we need to make a way for God to move.

As Gloria Copeland says, "You must be worthy of being promoted. You have to give God something to work with." You must qualify.

Your promotion is within reach. And it's in your hands. It all starts with working to live by these five prerequisites for promotion.

Prerequisite No. 1: Have a Servant's Heart

"Truly I am your servant, Lord." –Psalm 116:16 (NIV)

When you're focused on promotion, you're focused on yourself, right? It can be tough to shift the focus off your own dreams and desires and over onto others, but that's exactly what you need to do to qualify for a BIG promotion from God.

Gloria Copeland says, "Promotion begins on the inside. Having a servant's heart is vital to your promotion."

Joseph went from the pit to the palace by serving his master, his prison master and his fellow prisoners, and more importantly, his God. He could've spent time thinking about how he had been given a dream by God, what a hard worker he was, and how he deserved promotion, but he didn't. He had a servant's heart, and that's why he enjoyed one of the greatest promotions we see in the Bible.

David is another model example of how to receive life-changing promotion. He began at the bottom—a lowly shepherd boy. No one had high thoughts of him or big plans to advance him in any way. In fact, in the world's eyes, he was nothing special.

He had seven brothers who were all seemingly better looking, smarter and more qualified. God chose to promote David, in part, because he had a servant's heart. He served his father and King Saul faithfully, in spite of the mistreatment and continual attacks on his life. More importantly, he served God.

His servant's heart opened the door—and kept it open—for a life-changing promotion from shepherd boy to king.

What can we learn from Joseph and David's servant's hearts?

1. They remained faithful and honorable in the lowest of positions. Even when God told them their true destinies, they didn't resent not arriving there instantly.
2. They were not impatient about being promoted. They kept their focus on serving others and honoring God.
3. They didn't give up or become weary in well-doing.

If you are not where you want to be today, or maybe even far from it, do not despise where you are. It's in the dry and hard places that your promotion is secured. Keep moving in the will of God, and the will of God will promote you.

Prerequisite No. 2: Humility

“Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.” –James 4:10 (NKJV)

Having a servant’s heart will require humility, but walking in humility goes far beyond that. If you want to be promoted in your job, finances, ministry, family or any other area—all pride has to go.

You may be thinking, I don’t have a problem with pride. Keith Moore has this to say to you: “If you don’t think you have trouble with pride, you’re confused. You have flesh, don’t you? Then you have pride to deal with.” Pride is something every single person has to combat. But make no mistake, you must combat it.

Pride isn’t just an unkind attitude—it’s a dream killer. It will rob you of everything you’re believing for and halt your miracles (James 4:6). That’s why the enemy wants to tempt you into it (it’s what caused his fall, after all). He knows he can devour you when he can get you to be like him—proud, defiant and rebellious.

You qualify for promotion when you work on having a humble spirit. In fact, the Bible tells us to be “clothed with humility” (1 Peter 5:5, KJV). This isn’t a one-time deal, either. It’s a daily effort.

What does humility look like?

Humility thinks of others first.

Humility is content behind the scenes.

Humility doesn’t push its way to the front.

Humility willingly submits.

Humility graciously receives correction.

Humility makes adjustments.

Humility doesn’t ruin an apology with an excuse.

Humility expects nothing and appreciates everything.

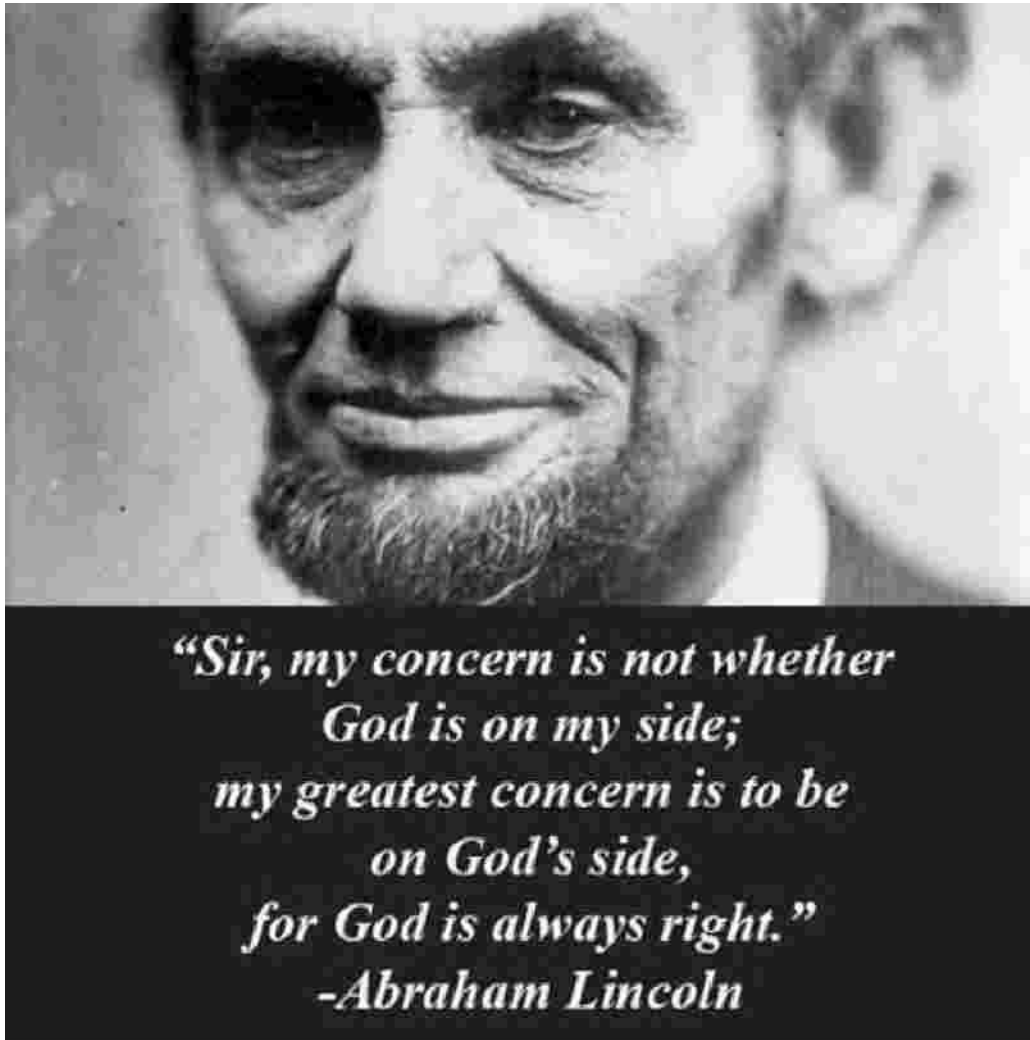

Humility accepts responsibility and doesn’t shift blame.

Humility is easy to live with, work with and be with.

To get to this place, as Keith Moore says, “Pride has to die!” If you think you can do this on your own, that’s pride, too. You need correction. If you can begin to see correction as a gift, you’ll be on the expressway to humility.

That means allowing God—and even people—to correct you. Even if someone doesn't handle it as delicately as they could, you need to learn to receive correction from people. When you don't, that's your flesh rising up and telling you to feed your pride.

If you want to see promotion in your life, ask God to help you become someone who lives and walks with humility. Gloria Copeland says, "Pride sets you up for a fall. Humility will set you up for honor."

Prerequisite No. 3: Diligence

“Diligent hands bring wealth.” –Proverbs 10:4 (NIV)

Just like humility, diligence is the door to promotion. You can't qualify without it. Are you diligent?

A diligent person is...

1. Conscientious in his work or duties
2. Industrious, hardworking, meticulous, thorough
3. Someone who does more than what's expected
4. Dependable, punctual
5. Constant, stable, focused

Does this describe you? Are you meeting the prerequisite for promotion by being diligent?

The Bible tells us a bit more about who diligent people are and what they receive:

1. Diligent people are hard workers. Proverbs 10:4 (TLV) says "Lazy hands make a man poor, but diligent hands bring wealth." Prosperity and promotion come to the hard worker.
2. Diligent people thoughtfully plan. They aren't hasty in their decisions, but think ahead and plan well. Proverbs 21:5 says, "The plans of the diligent lead to profit as surely as haste leads to poverty" (NIV).
3. Diligent people serve great leaders. Proverbs 22:29 says, "Do you know a hard-working man? He shall be successful and stand before kings!" (TLB). Diligent people are not overlooked for long, and they end up in the highest places.
4. Diligent people are resourceful and care for what they have. This means they are good stewards! Proverbs 12:27 says a "diligent man makes good use of everything he finds" (TLB). Pastor Ricker Renner used to drive by the homes of associate pastors to inspect their garages. He felt he could see their hearts by the way they cared for their homes.
5. Diligent people become great leaders. Proverbs 12:24 says when you work hard, you will become a leader. That's promotion! Joseph and David are proof of this truth.

If you want to be promoted in life, work hard. Be diligent as a Christian, a spouse, a parent, a friend, a financial steward, a minister and an employee. Get qualified for promotion!

Prerequisite No. 4: Faithfulness

"A faithful man who can find?" –Proverbs 20:6 (KJV)

Every prerequisite we've discussed so far is nonnegotiable. And so is faithfulness. It seems to be a lost art, these days, doesn't it? Perhaps that's why we don't see people advancing when they should.

Remember David? He was the most faithful among all of King Saul's servants. That's what God is looking for.

Faithful people are located and promoted by God. That's what happens when you live out the prerequisites for promotion. Promotion will chase after and overtake you!

Let's look at the Bible characteristics of a faithful person.

1. Faithful people can be trusted by those they serve.
2. Faithful people keep a confidence—they don't reveal secrets or go around talking about matters that should be kept quiet (Proverbs 11:13)
3. Faithful people are loyal. They don't cheat, steal or abuse their positions.
4. Faithful people are truthful and honest. They don't lie or bend the truth (Proverbs 14:5).
5. Faithful people are reliable and dependable. They show up on time, and they do what they say they will do (Proverbs 25:13).

Faithfulness is a prerequisite for promotion. "He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much" (Luke 16:10, KJV). When you are faithful where God has placed you, He will know He can trust you with even more. "A faithful man will abound with blessings" (Proverbs 28:20, ESV).

Prerequisite No. 5: Integrity

"The just man walks in his integrity; his children are blessed after him." – Proverbs 20:7 (MEV)

Many people don't realize the connection between integrity and promotion. Galatians 6:7 tells us we reap what we sow, so if you connect the dots, it's easy to see: Sowing integrity will produce a harvest of promotion.

Honesty is valued highly in our society—it is a nonnegotiable with God. There is a greater demand for integrity from Christians because of who we represent. Second Corinthians 8:21 says, "We are careful to be honorable before the Lord, but we also want everyone else to see that we are honorable."

Your life is a letter anyone can read by looking at you (2 Corinthians 3:2). That's what many believers don't understand. We are being watched—read like a book. The world hears every word we speak and sees every action we take. Our lives are a testimony to the unsaved about who our God is, and we have a responsibility to represent Him accurately.

To qualify for promotion, you must live your life with integrity—down to the tiniest detail.

How does the Bible define integrity? Psalm 15:1-5 breaks it down for us:

1. Live a blameless life. Do what is right, even when it looks like it could be to your disadvantage.
2. Keep your word, no matter what. Show up when you say you're going to show up. Do what you say you'll do. Give what you say you'll give.
3. Do the right thing.
 1. Return things you borrowed (like rental cars) in better shape than when you got them.
 2. Return excess change accidentally given to you.
 3. Go back to pay the right amount when you were undercharged.
 4. Return the shopping cart to the proper place.
 5. Give your employer the full amount of work agreed upon.
4. Refuse to gossip or speak poorly about others.
5. Lend without charging interest.
6. Refuse to be bribed.

Sadly, it is a rare thing to see people with integrity anymore. That's why so many people are stuck in the same place for so long. Those who will prosper will be those with the most integrity—those who are dependable. God has His part, and we have ours. Our part is walking in integrity.

If you've been waiting for promotion, developing your character and meeting these five prerequisites is key. Remember, it is God's will for you to be promoted! As long as you are in line with His Word, you don't have to fight, beg or beat the system. He will get you to the place you need to be.

Pat Francis: A spirit of faith

"It is written: 'I believed; therefore I have spoken.' With that same spirit of faith we also believe and therefore speak." (2 Cor. 4:13)".

A spirit of faith is an attitude of faith; a personality of faith, and a lifestyle of faith. A spirit of faith believes for the impossible and reaches for the unreachable. A spirit of faith speaks words of faith. Yeshua taught His disciples how to develop and nurture a spirit of faith.

A spirit of faith:

- 1) Develop and nurture faith in God. "Have faith in God," Yeshua answered." (Mark 11:22). When your natural power is not enough to give you the victory and accomplishments to go greater in God.
- 2) Believes all things are possible. Yeshua' response to a doubting father who was asking for a miracle "Everything is possible for him who believes." (Mark 9:23).
- 3) Speak words of faith. Paul instructed his spiritual son Timothy, feed and keep your life strong with words of faith. "If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Yeshua Christ, nourished in the words of faith and of the good doctrine which you have carefully followed." (1 Tim.4:6).
- 4) Listens for instructions. God often gives instruction for practical actions to activate supernatural miracles, "Then he (Yeshua) said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."(Luke 17:19)
- 5) Work towards a miracle. "For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also." (James 2:26). Do something new for new results. Step towards your miracle (do research, make phone calls, write, email, plan, etc). Develop, Believe, Speak, Listen, Act and Nurture a spirit of faith.

Kingdom Declaration:

For with God all things are possible. I live by faith and is working my faith.

Pat Francis: Be faithful with thanksgiving

"Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise; give thanks to Him and praise His name." (Ps. 100:4)

We are encouraged to nurture a spirit of thanksgiving as it is both medicine to the body and medicine to the soul. Paul also encourages us: "Let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful." (Col. 3:15).

I heard of a doctor who would prescribe in certain cases of neuroses what he called his "thank-you cure." When patient came to him discouraged, pessimistic and full of their own woes, but without any symptoms of a serious ailment, he would give this advice: "For six weeks I want you to say 'Thank you' whenever anyone does you a favor, and to show you mean it emphasize the words with a smile." He found often that the most miserable patient would come back with a new outlook on life. People had suddenly become more kind and friendly.

In a world with economic, safety, health and religious insecurities we can be secure in the Kingdom of Yeshua Christ. "Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe." (Heb.12:28). With a thankful heart, lift yourself into the Presence and Atmosphere of Glory and receive God's goodness and love that is waiting for you. Be faithful with thanksgiving and the world will suddenly become a better place. Be thankful.

Kingdom Declaration:

I choose to be thankful for what I have rather than focusing on what I do not have.

The Destiny of Nations, Family Revival & the Voice of Healing"

Nate and Christy Johnston, Gold Coast, Australia

A few nights ago, I had a dream that I was flying into the United States on what felt like an assignment from the Lord to go to different cities to pray and wake up what was spoken over those regions. The plane I was flying in was a private jet that was assigned for this special mission and had "22," "2222" and "222" written on it in various ways.

My first stop was California, so as soon as the plane landed I stepped onto the soil and fell into a heap in travail and prayer, coming into agreement with Heaven for the state and the nation. Then I felt a wave of intercession arise for families around the earth and saw God send a revival to homes and families. Suddenly, it felt like warm oil was flowing over me and I heard a sound, so I asked, "What is that sound?" I heard, "It's the voice of healing coming back!"

When I woke up, I was deeply stirred and felt this was a word for California and the United States, as well as a corporate, global word for the nations and families.

The Greatest Prayer Movement

The plane in my dream was representative of a specific ministry call and mandate to pray over different regions, cities and nations, but what was God desiring to be released? Isaiah 22:22 says:

"I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open."

This is the authoritative, governmental unlocking of Heaven's intentions and the shutting of what is ungodly that God has given to this generation to access and activate.

In my dream when I landed, I instantly went into travail and prayer, singing and worshipping, crying out and prophesying. I could sense a deep spiritual connection to the land and it felt like I was praying and waking up the words, prophecies, and destiny of the region and bringing remembrance to them. Many places and cities are pregnant with promise but there have been few "midwives" that are stewarding this call to CONTEND with Heaven over them.

As I was praying over this, I heard the Lord say that we are stepping into a new prayer movement unlike anything we have yet seen. It isn't just a movement of a few called, it is the mobilization of the Church to arise and bring the earth into complete order. It's the call of God's people to bring the earth into ALIGNMENT with Heaven, and right now we are beginning to see the side effects from this.

As God's people align, plots of the enemy and hidden agendas will be exposed; God will keep using the unlikely, set in power, to bring this forth. This is a time when those who are in power, who are in the way of God's plan for nations, will be removed, and it will be God's people praying that will accomplish it.

This rising prayer movement is an intentional and strategic move to precede the greatest outpouring and harvest we will ever see. Just as prayer and travail preceded many great moves of the Spirit, so shall this movement precede many revivals around the earth and mass outpourings leading to the greatest harvest of souls!

Resurgence of the Voice of Healing and Influence of Media

The sound I heard in my dream was unlike anything I have ever heard. It was like a voice carried on the wind, and the Lord said, "This is the voice of healing coming back!"

Revelation 22:2 says, "...down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations."

After World War II, there were two major movements that revived the American Church and touched the world. One was the evangelical movement of Billy Graham and the other was the healing revival experienced by William Branham, Oral Roberts, A. A. Allen and Jack Coe. This was known as a healing, signs and gifts, salvation and deliverance, Holy-Ghost, miracle revival that saw the rise of healing revivalists traveling the earth, praying for the sick, and seeing God do miraculous things.

During this time, Gordon Lindsay was led by the Lord to start a publication/magazine called "The Voice of Healing" that chronicled this rise of revival. It swept the earth with testimonies, miracles, and the power of God, causing the Church to be stirred for the miraculous. This movement never ended but was carried on through many whom God raised up, and is even carried on to this day.

I believe we are about to see the voice of healing come back again in a powerful way to the whole Church and also to the media mountain!

The interesting thing is that 2020 will be 70 years from the time that over 1,000 healing revivalists gathered together to be commissioned and released into the earth. I believe we are in a kairos time where God is stirring the pool and causing us to awaken to the mandate of signs, wonders and miracles that will move hand in hand with the great harvest of souls!

The Time of Family: Legacy Begins Now!

There is nothing that God does globally (macro) that doesn't affect the micro, and so when God moves in the nations there is no doubt He is also moving in homes, families, marriages and individuals. The trickle-down effect of this season has been felt everywhere. The transition may be felt individually but it's the trickle down from what God is doing in the nations.

In my dream, I went into prayer over families and when I woke up I continued praying and was overcome with God's heart for families. This is truly the hour of family in the Body of Christ. Where the enemy has warred against the wholeness of the family, God is bringing alignment and wholeness.

For generation upon generation the enemy has sought to destroy family and strike chaos at the very core of where identity and acceptance is developed. His plan has been to destroy and annihilate the very place God has created to be the epicenter and beginning of true encounter and revival.

For years I have been prophesying over this, but what I felt in the dream was not a slow healing or change, it was a SUDDEN OVER-TURNING and a movement that would sweep the earth. I saw this movement and it carried healing, and reconciliation, but it also was a breaker of cycles and demonic strongholds that have held sway over families and family lines.

Then I heard the word "LEGACY" and I knew this movement was going to bring a swift overturning to the issues many families have faced for hundreds of years—poverty, sickness, disease, marriage issues, addiction, perversion, and other demonic agendas—and set a new legacy for families.

Even now as I'm writing this, I feel the Lord healing and beginning this. Lord, release healing and BREAKTHROUGH power over families, homes, and marriages right now, in Jesus name! Sons and daughters, you are coming home. Husbands, you are returning to Jesus. Legacy begins now!

"California Shall Be My Forerunner"

Lastly, I knew when the Lord placed California in my dream it was significant. I felt the need to prophesy over this great state, but when I asked the Lord why it was California that I landed in, He said, "California shall be My forerunner!"

Now, in the natural, both culturally and politically, this doesn't add up, but I need to prophesy what I heard and the destiny of this state. I also heard, "Hanging in the balance" and knew that what God wants to do in this state needs to be contended for, right now.

Something is shifting but we need to put weight behind it in prayer and action. Church, rise up and pray! Rise up and GO! Seize the moment and partner with Heaven to see things align and come into place.

California, you are the golden state. The place that God's heart burns for. Many have left you and abandoned you saying that God has forsaken you, but they are wrong—He is thinking about you more than ever. His heart is burning, yearning and longing for you to REVEAL the gold you carry to the earth.

You are a forerunner of revival, healing and creativity, California, not the forerunner of the enemy's evil plans. You are the forerunner of truth, not the think-tank of lies and hidden plots. I call you into your FULLNESS of destiny and declare that your time to arise and shine is NOW, in Jesus' name!

8 Proclamations for 5780 & Beyond By: James Goll

Often at the head of the new Hebrew year, the Holy Spirit speaks concerning things to come. As I have prayed and sought the face of God, I have been given a series of revelations concerning the new era we have entered as of 5780 and beyond. In this period of time, we are not just crossing from one year to the next, but from one era or decade to the next.

I have chosen the title "8 Proclamations for 5780 & Beyond." Let me unpack this one phrase at a time. 8, of course, is the number of a new beginning. 5 is the number of grace and 7 is the number of completion. So, by grace we are completing past assignments and we are moving into a new decade in the Kingdom of God. We are crossing over from one side of the river where promises are revealed to the other side where promises are manifested.

I agree with others that we are shifting from an emphasis of the "Year of the Eye" to the "Year of the Mouth." But since my expertise is not in Hebrew numeric symbolic interpretation, I feel to stay in my lane of prophetic teaching, encounter and revelation. With that in mind, here are the proclamations I have been granted.

Proclaim for All to Hear

We do not use the words "proclaim" or "proclamation" often in our ordinary speech. We prefer the synonymous words such as "announce" or "publish" or "invite" or "declare." Let's revive proclamation as one of the best ways we can be prophetic in these days. Let's "cry out", "pronounce", "herald," or even "decree."

Here are two primary scripture references on this subject.

"I will proclaim the name of Lord, Oh, praise the greatness of our God! He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is He." Deuteronomy 32:3-4 NIV

"What I tell you in darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in your ear, proclaim upon the housetops." Matthew 10:27 NASB

This principle was driven home to me forcefully one day when I was alone, waiting quietly upon the Lord. The voice of the Holy Spirit came to me saying, "It is time to make a worldwide impact by calling forth the watchmen to the prophetic power of proclamation." This has been like the final piece of a puzzle for me, and it shifted me into ministering out of a higher vision. Let's release greater impact through the prophetic power of proclamation.

8 Proclamations for 5780 & Beyond

1. It is a Time of Fresh Restoration of Righteousness.

Righteousness is both a gift and an outworking in our lifestyle and character. This movement will be based in part out of Psalm 24, "Who can ascend to the hill of the Lord? But he who has clean hands and a pure heart." It will be a time when "the Spirit comes with conviction."

2. It is a Time of Divine Interruptions.

God is going to interrupt our schedules, our meetings and our appointments with His presence. The Holy Spirit is going to interrupt our good program-based agenda's with interruptions of His Divine presence. Watch out, here comes God as the Divine Interrupter and Divine Intruder!

3. It is a Time when Divine Order will be Established.

Out of a season where there is the open Conflict of Thrones resulting in Chaos and Confusion, the enemy will overplay his hand. God will use this backdrop to have the final word. This has ramifications on many fronts from family to government.

4. It is a Time of Sacred Assemblies and Consecration.

Out of need, there will be a movement of unity where there will be city-wide, state or provincial, and national gatherings to seek the face of the Lord. There will be more public rallies of repentance and prayer combined with the call to "GO therefore" over the next three years and beyond than in any previous time in church history.

5. It is a Time of Cleansing from Old Disappointments.

We cannot carry this baggage into the new era. Therefore, the Holy Spirit is initiating a movement of cleansing from old disappointments so we can come into the new with a fresh slate and without remorse, guilt and shame so we can be the Hope Ambassadors He intends.

6. It is a Time when the Thief and the Robber are Exposed and Caught.

I have been given dreams where a security breach has occurred and is being exposed. Two dark demonic entities then came and appeared before me and their names were "thief and robber." These enemies will be exposed and captured. Then the voice of the Lord came to me saying, "It is time for my revolutionary midnight riders to appear on the scene. They will shine the light in darkness and expose the deeds of darkness."

7. It is a Time when there is Revelatory Teaching on Power and Authority.

As part of our equipment needed for the new era, the Holy Spirit will be teaching us on the difference between Power and Authority and the necessity for both. The theme of the Authority of the Believer in Christ Yeshua will be revisited.

8. It is a Time for the Beginning of the Great Harvest.

This new era in Christendom is the beginning of the Great Harvest. Please note: I did not say the Final Harvest. But we are crossing the threshold into the Greatest Harvest we have ever known. It is time for the "Greatest Show on Earth" of signs and wonders and open displays of God's lavish love.

3 Necessary Requirements

Let me close by giving you three simple requirements that are necessary to walk in this new era and to see these proclamations fulfilled.

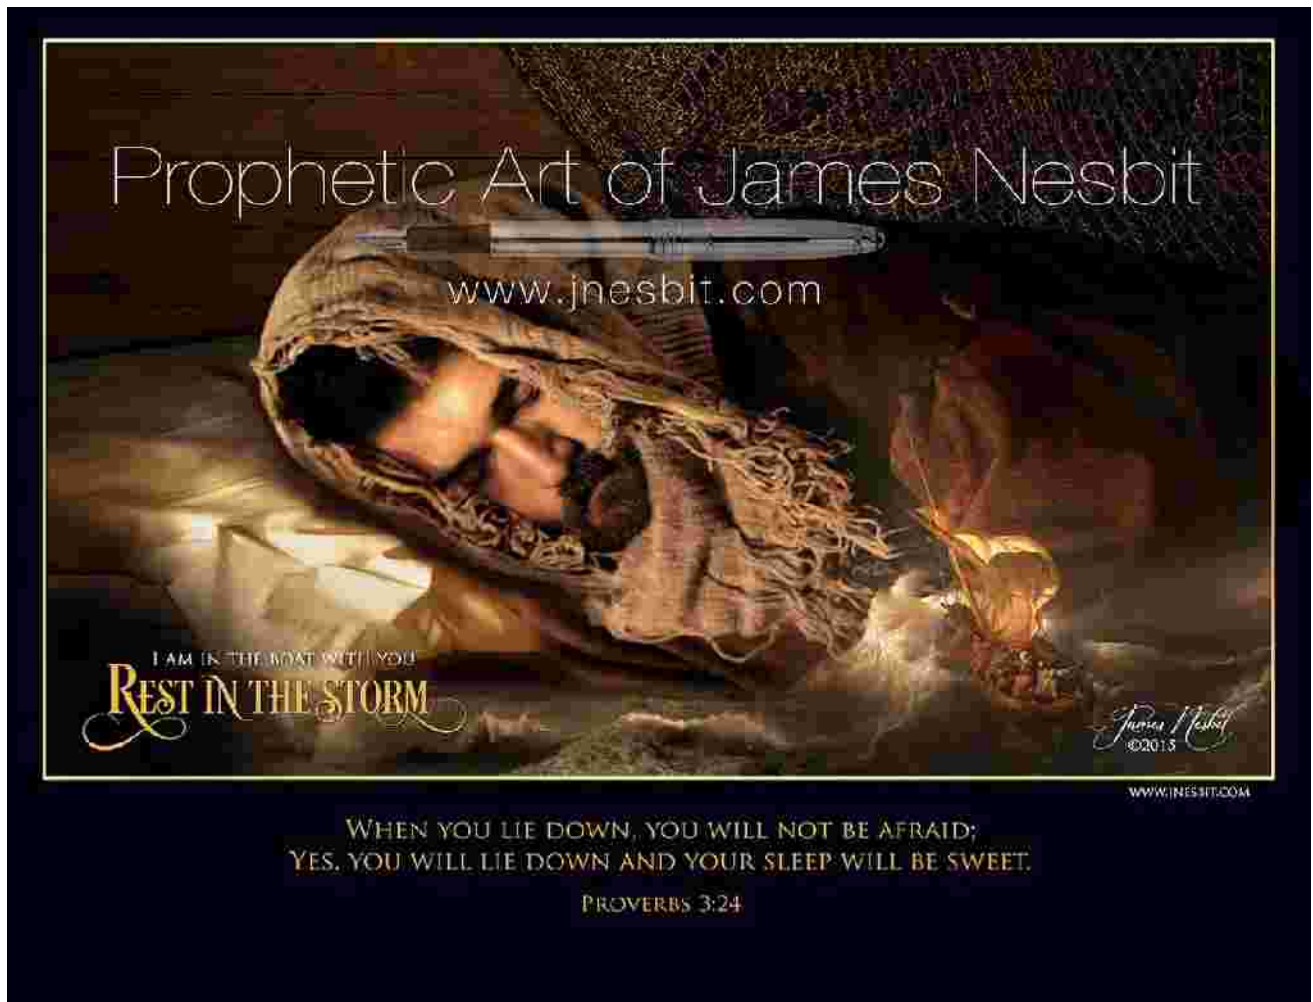

1. Greater Focus
2. Greater Flexibility
3. Greater Wholeness

I trust this exhortation has stirred you to greater Faith, Hope and Love. We see in part and know in part. This is a portion of what I see, hear and know for the new Hebrew year of 5780 & Beyond!

Cheshvan 25: 5780 – Sunday – November 23, 2019

Pat Francis: World Peace begins with Yeshua

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." John 14:27.

In a world of turmoil and uncertainty, the superpowers such as the United Nations, NATO, World Bank, and powerful nations have failed to make, give, and keep peace. The great thinkers of the world meet at different summits without solutions to terrorism, environmental decay, struggling economies, food shortage, and increasing poverty.

God calls himself the 'Prince of Peace'. He owns peace and He gives it to humble hearts. World peace can only come when one by one we choose the Prince of Peace as our Source of peace. God's peace is not circumstantial. It is a peace that flows from His heart to ours with faithful love, great wisdom, and unlimited power.

Peace is silent trust, determined patience, and quiet love. The Peace of God transcends all understanding and with the power to guard your heart and your mind in Christ Yeshua. (Philippians 4:7).

Today receive the peace of Yeshua Christ and as His peace floods your soul, share it with someone else so that one by one we can create world peace.

Kingdom Declaration:

Yeshua Christ is the King of peace and the Savior of the world.

Pat Francis: The LORD is Peace

"But the Lord said to him, "Peace! Do not be afraid. You are not going to die. So Gideon built an altar to the Lord there and called it The LORD is Peace." Judges 6:23,24.

Gideon was a man who was discouraged. He and his family had suffered incredible losses at the hand of oppressive ravaging warriors called the Midianites. Gideon and his family were fighting for survival. He was frustrated, angry and confused about God, the enemy, and himself. God appeared to him at the height of his anger and lovingly gave him hope for CHANGE.

God gave Gideon four things:

1) Hope. It is never too late for God to intervene regardless of how long or how hard the circumstance is or even how frustrated and angry you are. God is not intimidated by your anger. He loves you. As your Prince of Peace, He will calm raging storms of fear, anger, and shame in your heart.

2) Strength. God will give you His strength to get out of poverty, oppression, and depression. Gideon would have to work hard and fight for his new life, but God would help him all the way.

3) Peace. The antidote for a heart filled with strife, torment, and self-condemnation is peace. As a father and husband, Gideon blamed himself as he watched his family suffer, but The LORD became his Peace.

4) Faith. God restored his faith and confidence in God and in himself.

As Gideon listened to the words of encouragement from God, faith filled his heart. His heart was changed from depression to determination, from passiveness to passion, and from weakness to strength for victorious warfare for himself, his family, and Israel. He determined to succeed and he did, with the help of the LORD who became his Peace.

Kingdom Declaration:

My God is my LORD of Peace who gives me the power and peace for overwhelming victory.

Pat Francis: Your Heavenly Father loves you

"One day Yeshua was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.' He said to them, "When you pray, say: 'Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come.'" Luke 11:1-2.

God many times in the Bible refers to us as children, sons, daughters and family. The disciples so admired the prayer life of Yeshua, that they asked Him to teach them how to pray. He gave them the opportunity to address God as 'Father'. In a world that is lacking of good fathers and nurturing parents, God is looking to father and parent His human family.

We read the story of a man who had to make a selfless sacrifice to save his little eight month old daughter. He gave her half of his liver previously and was now ready to also give her one of his kidneys. As he and his wife prepares mentally, emotionally, and spiritually for another surgery with all its risk, pain and concerns, their thought was: "We see the kidney transplant operation as the light at the end of the tunnel." This a perspective of love.

Your Heavenly Father did not just give you His organs but He gave you His Son to die a cruel death on the cross for your salvation and freedom. In love the Father watched His Son tortured while thinking of you with His light in your heart as the light of the world. "Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13. God gave you life. Be secure in the love of your Heavenly Father.

Kingdom Declaration:

The love of my God is the glory in my heart and the power that flows through my veins.

Yeshua love you

"Yeshua said, 'Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.' And they divided up his clothes by casting lots." Luke 23:34

The last words of a dying person usually reflect their attitude of heart and lifestyle. General William Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, was to be the keynote speaker at his international convention. He became ill and could not attend so he dictated a one-word telegram that would be his last sermon. His final message was this: "Others!"

Yeshua' final message as He was dying on the cross was a prayer for 'others', including you and me. He prayed for our forgiveness. The heart of God is love, mercy, and forgiveness. God loves the world and that includes you. Do not allow guilt or fear to destroy your confidence in God's love. Yeshua came to Earth so that you could go to heaven. He died so that you could have eternal life. He was nailed to the cross so that you might go free. His final message to the world was, "I forgive you." Today be free and rest in His amazing grace and unchanging love.

Kingdom Declaration:

Nothing and no one can separate me from the love of Yeshua Christ

2 Peter 3:5-7 Chaplain Wade Butler

For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. Scripture says in Genesis 6-8 that Noah found favor in YHVH and was instructed to build an ark. He and his family finished the ark and on the 17th day of the 2nd month, (Cheshvan), Noah and his family, and 2 x 2 of all living things that are unclean, and 7 x 7 of all clean animals entered the ark, and the flood rains began.

Summary: Noah was a righteous man and walked with God. Seeing that the earth was corrupt and filled with violence, God instructed Noah to build an ark in which he, his sons, and their wives, together with male and female of all living creatures, would be saved from the waters. Noah entered the ark in his six hundredth year, and on the 17th day of the 2nd month of that year "the fountains of the Great Deep burst apart and the floodgates of heaven broke open" and rain fell for forty days and forty nights until the highest mountains were covered 15 cubits, and all life perished except Noah and those with him in the ark. In Jewish legend, the kind of water that was pouring to the earth for forty days is not the common, but God bade each drop pass through hell of Gehenna before it fell to earth, and the 'hot rain' scalded the skin of the sinners. The punishment that overtook them was befitting their crime. As their sensual desires had made them hot, and inflamed them to immoral excesses, so they were chastised by means of heated water. After 150 days "God remembered Noah ... and the waters subsided" until the ark rested on the mountains of Ararat. On the 27th day of the 2nd month of Noah's six hundred and first year the earth was dry. Then Noah built an altar and made a sacrifice, and God made a covenant with Noah that man would be allowed to eat every living thing but not its blood, and that God would never again destroy all life by a flood.

Cheshvan 27: 5780 – Monday – November 24, 2019

27 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2104 BCE) – Great Flood ends (Genesis 8:14) Genesis 8:11
The dove came back to him in the evening, and there, in her beak, was a fresh olive leaf. So Noah knew that the water level had subsided from the earth.

The Refining "Preparing Our Dwelling Place" Ricci Wilson

One week when our team was in prayer, I had a vision of the intercessors—they were praying against a wall. [I wish we were all in the same room so you could see me as I try to explain what I would actually act out for you if we were together.] I saw a very large wall that was pressing against the intercessors, but they anchored themselves in, preparing to fight! They placed one foot to the back, and with their front knee bent so they could lean into the battle, pushed against the wall with all they had. What was pushing the wall back against them? Pure darkness—it was being pushed back at them by pure darkness, with the intercessors on one side and the darkness on other.

What was “the wall”? Righteousness—it was wall of righteousness that God has establishing for our nation. As we prayed and prayed, I could see clearly the efforts put forth by the intercessors, each sweating profusely as they were working very, very hard to get this wall leaning forward so it was not leaning against us. I also sensed strongly that this wall had to be pushed through by the intercessors on behalf of our nation. I cannot begin to tell you how crucial it was that the prayers be successful.

Suddenly, the wall moved upright! (Listen closely here.) When this happened, I saw the darkness, and I saw fear hit the darkness! At that very moment, the faith of the intercessors rose up and they began, with all of their might, to push and push and push against this wall! I knew it was the intercession of the saints, pressing, pressing, and pressing against this barrier. I could visibly see it as we made headway against the darkness. The closest visual image I can provide is that of Iwo Jima when the soldiers were surrounding the flag, all working together to plant the flag! In the statue, every soldier is leaning into it with all they have because they want to be a part of this great moment.

I asked the Lord what it was that He was showing me, and while the answer did not come immediately, I prayed over it during the next several days. This week (the week of this message), He answered. The Lord told me that through the intercessory work we did in March, we’d brought that wall to a place where it was upright, and we were on even ground. As the intercessors continue to pray, we are affecting the darkness that tries to bring righteousness down. Often we feel like darkness is just caving in on us and there is a non-stop battle that we experience. The truth is, we are making tremendous headway against the darkness.

God is a God of promise and He promised us in His Word, “If My people will humble themselves and pray, repent from their wicked ways, I will heal their land! I will heal their land!” He is a God of promise! So, here we are, many months later, and every week we have three or four praise reports of abortion clinics closing or states taking critical action to protect these precious lives. I was at the airport when I got the first report and it’s continued. We are making headway in terms of abortion! We must continue the fight friends, dialing back the time on abortion, so that we are not dealing with abortions at 30 weeks, at 26 weeks, at 24 weeks, but we are turning back the time, more and more time, protecting those who cannot stand for themselves, until it is finally overturned.

The fight we are in is a long fight; we must press in and press on. You can go to our website and see victories from the Gatherings as well from time together in our corporate prayer calls. [Go to the Gathering of the Eagle page on our website to read, "Victories from the D.C. GOE."] You can also find news articles wherein victims of human trafficking are freed, because God is freeing the children of this nation! Why? Because we came together, we humbled ourselves and we prayed, and He is healing our land.

Why do I share this with you? Because this year, God is taking us into new places in Him. He has taught us to "know no bounds" and to refuse to limit God in our walk with Him! He's refining us at deeper levels than ever before—remember, 2018 was the year of refining. Now, I see Him bringing together a new breed of believers! The new breed of believers possesses a faith unlike anything I have seen before. They will be anchored in their God and walk in the light of the Lord Yeshua Christ so deeply that He will emanate from them. He has given us promises and we must hold onto His promises. Why? Because He is releasing those promises!

Isaiah 28:2 Amplified Bible (AMP) Chaplain Wade Butler

2 Listen carefully, the Lord has a strong and mighty agent [the Assyrian]; Like a tempest of hail, a disastrous storm, Like a tempest of mighty overflowing waters, He has cast it down to the earth with His hand

Isaiah 28:18-23 Amplified Bible

18 "Your covenant with death will be annulled, And your agreement with Sheol (the place of the dead) will not stand; When the overwhelming scourge passes through, Then you will become its trampling ground. 19 "As often as it passes through, it will seize you; For morning after morning it will pass through, by day and by night, And it will be sheer terror to understand what it means." 20 For the bed is too short to stretch out on, And the blanket is too narrow to wrap around oneself [and likewise all their preparations are inadequate]. 21 For the LORD will rise up as at Mount Perazim, He will be stirred up as in the Valley of Gibeon, To do His work, His unusual and incredible work, And to accomplish His work, His extraordinary work.

22 Now do not carry on as scoffers, Or the bands which bind you will be made stronger; For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts [a decree] Of decisive destruction on all the earth. 23 Listen and hear my voice; Listen carefully and hear my words.

The Earth was dried up from the flood and Noah, his sons, and his wife walk out of the ark

Genesis 8:14-19

And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried. And God spake unto Noah, saying, Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee. Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth. And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him: Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

Psalms 93:3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

Genesis 9:1-15 Amplified Bible (AMP)

9 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth. 2 The fear and the terror of you shall be [instinctive] in every animal of the land and in every bird of the air; and together with everything that moves on the ground, and with all the fish of the sea; they are given into your hand. 3 Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you; I give you everything, as I gave you the green plants and vegetables. 4 But you shall not eat meat along with its life, that is, its blood. 5 For your lifeblood I will most certainly require an accounting; from every animal [that kills a person] I will require it. And from man, from every man's brother [that is, anyone who murders] I will require the life of man.

6 "Whoever sheds man's blood [unlawfully], By man (judicial government) shall his blood be shed, For in the image of God He made man. 7 "As for you, be fruitful and multiply; Populate the earth abundantly and multiply in it."

8 Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, 9 "Now behold, I am establishing My covenant (binding agreement, solemn promise) with you and with your descendants after you 10 and with every living creature that is with you—the birds, the livestock, and the wild animals of the earth along with you, of everything that comes out of the ark—every living creature of the earth. 11 I will establish My covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the water of a flood, nor shall there ever again be a flood to destroy and ruin the earth.”

Covenant of the Rainbow

12 And God said, “This is the token (visible symbol, memorial) of the [solemn] covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations; 13 I set My rainbow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth. 14 It shall come about, when I bring clouds over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the clouds, 15 and I will [compassionately] remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and never again will the water become a flood to destroy all flesh.”

Proverbs 8:22-30

The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth: While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth: When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth: Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

Revelation 11:15-19 Amplified Bible

The Seventh Trumpet—Christ’s Reign Foreseen

15 Then the seventh angel sounded [his trumpet]; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, “The kingdom (dominion, rule) of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever.” 16 And the twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God, fell face downward and worshiped God, 17 saying, “To You we give thanks, O Lord God Almighty

[the Omnipotent, the Ruler of all], Who are and Who were, because You have taken Your great power and the sovereignty [which is rightly Yours] and have [now] begun to reign. 18 And the nations (Gentiles) became enraged, and Your wrath and indignation came, and the time came for the dead to be judged, and [the time came] to reward Your bond-servants the prophets and the saints (God's people) and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and [the time came] to destroy the destroyers of the earth."

19 And the temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple, and there were flashes of lightning, loud rumblings and peals of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm.

There have been a lot of questions and talk about our continued reference to We are moving into a new Kingdom age-this is a time to shift! So how do we pray? Thy Kingdom come Thy will be done and press in to each area!!!!

Cheshvan 29: 5780 – Thursday – November 27, 2019

Pat Francis: No risk, no rewards

"Then Peter said, 'Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give you. In the name of Yeshua Christ of Nazareth, walk.' Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and instantly the man's feet and ankles became strong." Acts 3:6,7.

Peter had just recovered from his public failure for cowardly denying that he knew Yeshua. He was lovingly forgiven by Yeshua and restored with the disciples to launch Christianity. After being filled with the Holy Spirit along with the other disciples in the upper room, he went in the street and saw a crippled beggar asking for money. To Peter this was an opportunity to prove the power of Yeshua Christ that would flow through him to heal a crippled man. It was a risk because of his past failure and weakened reputation but he decided to put his faith in God and speak the words of faith. The crippled man was healed by the Name of Yeshua to the Glory of the Father. No risk, no rewards.

I read some time ago: "To laugh is to risk appearing a fool. To weep is to risk appearing sentimental. To reach out to another is to risk involvement. To expose your feelings is to risk rejection. To place your dreams before the crowd is to risk ridicule. To love is to risk not being loved in return. To go forward in the face of overwhelming odds is to risk failure. But risks must be taken because the greatest risk of all is to risk nothing. The person who risks nothing does nothing, has nothing, and is nothing. He may avoid suffering and sorrow, but he cannot learn, he cannot feel, he cannot change, he cannot grow, and he cannot love. Chained by his certitudes, he is a slave. Only the person who risks is truly free."

Yeshua took a risk by coming to earth to save the world, knowing that many would reject Him. Now we must take risks to love others, heal the sick, help the poor, and share the good news that Yeshua Christ is Savior of the world.

Kingdom Declaration:

I pray and obey to share and show the love of Yeshua Christ to the world.

Read the Bible in One Year: Psalm 94-96; Romans 15:14-33.

Cheshvan 30: 5780 – Friday – November 28, 2019

I HEARD THE LORD SAY "I AM WILLING"... HOPE'S VOICE WILL RESOUND THIS WEEK! Lana Vawser,

Today I heard the Lord say "I am answering the cries in the hearts of many of My people who have become weary and disillusioned and are crying out "Lord, are you willing?" I am answering this question "I AM WILLING" and I am restoring hope, and INDEED I WILL DO IT"

Luke 5:12-14 was burning on my heart after the Lord spoke this.

One day, while Yeshua was ministering in a certain city, he came upon a man covered with leprous sores. When the man recognized Yeshua, he fell on his face at Yeshua' feet and begged to be healed, saying, "If you are only willing, you could completely heal me."

13–14 Yeshua reached out and touched him[a] and said, "Of course I am willing to heal you, and now you will be healed." Instantly the leprous sores were healed and his skin became smooth. (The Passion Translation)

The Lord began to show me many in the body of Christ who have become disillusioned specially in the area of healing (physical, emotional, mental) and areas where they have sat on a promise for so long from the Lord and it has been such a long time of not seeing any movement or breakthrough and in fact the area where the Lord gave the promise, get worse. Hope deferred has set in and many have been struggling in secret before the Lord "God, are you even willing to heal me? Do you even want to move in this situation, in my body, in my life?"

Friends, that is the voice of hope deferred, that is the voice of weariness that is the voice of discouragement and disappointment. The Lord is bringing His comfort to you. He knows that the battle has been long. He knows how hard it has been. He has not only been with you, but He has wept with you in the pain and the struggle but knowing that a greater day awaits you.

I feel the heart of God right now for those of you in this place; He wants you to know that OF COURSE He is willing. He gave it all at Calvary to make the way for eternal life, to make the way so you can walk in deep relationship with Him, to walk in His healing, in freedom and in the abundant life He purchased for you (John 10:10)

The battles have intensified, the struggles have increased, but that is NOT an indicator that you're breakthrough is further away, it's actually an indicator that you are closer than ever. The Lord is not only going to move FOR YOU and you will see a mighty demonstration of His power in your body and your circumstances, He is going to heal your heart. He is going to remove the hope deferred that has made the heart sick and He is going to lead you deeper into the place of promises fulfilled.

Hope deferred makes the heart sick,

But when desire is fulfilled, it is a tree of life. (Proverbs 13:12 AMP)

When hope's dream seems to drag on and on, the delay can be depressing. But when at last your dream comes true, life's sweetness will satisfy your soul. (Proverbs 13:12 - The Passion Translation)

HOPE'S VOICE WILL RESOUND THIS WEEK

I heard the Lord say that for many "HOPE'S VOICE WILL RESOUND THIS WEEK".

Things will SHIFT this week. Things will MOVE this week. Things will SHAKE this week. Things that OPPOSED will BOW this week. Hope's voice is going to RESOUND this week. A MIGHTY restoration of HOPE will flood your hearts this week. A breath of fresh air will be released to you this week by the Spirit of God. It will not be by your own hands or something "you can do" it is going to be by the hands of God. God is going to show you this week just how WILLING He is. Be expectant! MANY hearts are going to SHIFT this week and the SOUND of HOPE will begin to resound again. You will watch hope deferred drain out of your heart as the Holy Spirit ministers to you and you will feel the first signs of NEW LIFE, RESTORATION, HOPE and JOY flutter in your heart again.

PAY ATTENTION TO YOUR DREAMS THIS WEEK

I heard the Lord say "Pay attention to your dreams this week". Expect the Lord to visit you in the night hours this week and minister to you Ask for it. Expect it.

I heard the Holy Spirit say "There will be divine TRAILERS released this week"

This week in dreams God is going to be releasing "divine trailers" of what is to come, what is about to unfold, what many are about to step into and this is going to begin the divine "ball rolling" of hope, excitement, joy and healing of the heart getting ready for the new land and assignments that He has for you

I then heard the Lord say "THE SCRIPT IS GOING TO CHANGE THIS WEEK"

When the Lord spoke this I felt this was a two-fold word. The "script" of how things have been and things that have been written that have been in opposition to the promises of God and what He is speaking is going to SUDDENLY change. The revelation and manifestation of God's power is going to SUDDENLY change the SCRIPT. Suddenly things are going to shift in the script.

I also felt the word "SCRIPT" was being used by the Lord to highlight "SCRIPTS" that are given by doctors of medicine to when you're sick or battling disease/infirmity so I knew the Lord was speaking about physical health.

I then had a vision where there has been so much physical infirmity and disease many have been battling without any signs of breakthrough, I saw Yeshua stand before them and He handed them HIS SCRIPT and it said "SHIFT!!!!" There is going to be SHIFTS in physical bodies and health this week for many. He is changing the SCRIPT decreeing there is a divine SHIFT that is about to take place by His hand in your body.

He's changing the SCRIPT to SHIFT!

In Conclusion

*I want to thank the many authors who contributed to this month, most importantly the SPIRIT OF GOD as well as Dr. Chuck Pierce, Dr. Robert Heidler, Dr. Linda Heidler, Lana Vawser, Dr. Pat Francis, James Nesbit, Pixaby, Judaism 101, Marsha Burns, Gloria Copeland, Veronica West the Elijah List, Anita Alexandra, Helen Calder, Joey LeTourneau, Bev and Kevin Robinson, James Bohlin, Curt Landry, Cindy Jacobs, Doug Addison, DeMontae Edmonds, Alane Haynes, Jennifer LeClaire, Bill and Marsha Burns, Inspiration Ministries, Larry Sparks, George Pearsons, James Goll, Ricci Wilson, Nate & Christy Johnston, and myself. The WORD is primarily from the King James and the Amplified Bible. Additionally I could not bring this together without John Rockwell.

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Republic Study and Prayer guide is just that a prayer guide consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not receive any contributions for this publication as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors.
