

Tishrei 5783: The New Year, The Year of the Camel and Divine Provision!
Chaplain Wade Butler

In a recent open Heaven experience, I was in a vicious battle with many other warriors fighting powers of darkness in an exceptionally large church located in Washington DC. The battle was raging all around us, the building was on fire and eventually collapsed on top of us. I was buried under fiery rubble, ashes, mud, and blood. All that was above the mess was the right side of my face and my right hand still holding onto the bloody sword. I cried out "Lord let me rise up one more time," the cry could be heard throughout the debris. Suddenly I was on my feet again as were the other warriors, all of us washed clean and ready to fight again. (See Tishrei 20).

At that point I heard the HS say turn towards the capitol building, the church has fallen so now will the wicked government. The battle is for the soul of our nations, our families, and our destinies. Believe me the enemy knows who you are and is hell-bent on destroying you and all you call dear every day. He and his armies have no moral compass like we have built into us by our LORD. He comes to kill, steal, and destroy every day, all the time. Do not believe he has a soft spot because he does not. A special team of seven warriors have come together to battle at a different level than we normally do. It's not that we are special in any way other than that we were called to the fight. And the heat is on.

This is the month of devout prayer, repentance, and release. The daily words in this calendar are packed full of power.

Take the time to read and study. Pray without ceasing and release the Angel armies.

The Amplified, King James, New American Standard, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word and begin on the new moon each month.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophesy. The answer is to ask the LORD how did this relate in the bible for then and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me to pray Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. (See last page.) Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heidler, and many other contributing authors which are included.* 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

It's been four years in June since we started publishing the Republic Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1 the very first words GOD speaks is "In the beginning" and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon". From that point on the nation of GOD was to look at the Moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The Biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last 7th, 1,000 years of days would be the time being the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle has only 29.5 days or 354 days per year whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous years is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon". The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast and season.

Chuck Pierce: Here are just a few of the words given for the season we are entering into.

The Feast of Tabernacles begins October 10th and ends on the evening of October 18th. Tabernacles is a time to enjoy the Lord and celebrate His goodness. Leviticus 23:40 says, "Rejoice before the Lord your God for seven days." Deuteronomy 16:14-15 says, "Be joyful at your feast for the Lord your God will bless you and your joy will be complete." When this Feast was outlined in Leviticus 23:39-43, it not only remembered the Exodus from Egypt when the Israelites wandered in the wilderness, living in tents, enroute to the Promised Land, but also celebrated the abundance of God's blessings in connection with the ingathering of the fall harvest. This is a wonderful time to gather with friends and family and rejoice over the Lord's goodness and provision.

The Feast of Tabernacles is a celebration of God's glory. This is a time to remember past experiences of His glory, to seek His face and experience His glory now, and a time to call out to God for a fresh outpouring of His glory in the new year. One week a year, God asks His people to tabernacle with Him. God promised a special blessing for those who would do this. Part of celebrating Tabernacles is to bring an offering as an expression of thanks to God. Deut. 16:16-17 says, "No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed: Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed you." When we express our thankfulness in giving, it opens our heart to receive even more.

Tabernacles is a time to celebrate the fact that God tabernacles with His people. He wants His glory to be a normal part of our experience. He tabernacled with Israel in the wilderness. He tabernacled on earth in Yeshua, and He continues to tabernacle with us today through His Spirit! As you celebrate Tabernacles, call out to God for His glory to come and dwell with you.

Contending for Joy!

The Lord has a purpose to move any desolation into a new level of abundance. From the beginning, when God saw the Earth in confusion and chaos, He planned for a people who would move from chaos into multiplication. He spoke! Chaos subsided and abundance began. This is the essence of spiritual life. When Yeshua, Yeshua of Nazareth, defined why He came or was sent to Earth, He said in John 10:10, "... I came that they might enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, until it overflows)." Many Christians, even those that are seeking to understand their earthly purpose, never realize that the One who was sent to redeem them purposed them to "enjoy life." Prior to this portion of the verse, we find Yeshua declaring, "I AM the Door! Anyone who enters in through Me will be saved (will live). He will come in and he will go out [freely] and will find pasture. The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy." (AMP). This is meant to help you enter the Door (called Christ) into a new dimension of abundance.

We have approximately 75 people that work for this ministry. Several years ago, I was sitting in my office in a quandary because I knew I needed to give a Christmas bonus for those who had served so faithfully all year long. I know that the holidays can be a tremendous blessing, but very stressful as well. I heard the Lord remind me of one of the key verses that have directed my life – the one I quoted above from John 10. However, His voice illuminated deep within my spirit with the portion of that scripture that says *I came that you might ENJOY LIFE.

I knew I had to move by faith. Faith comes from hearing ... hearing when the Spirit of God speaks to us. Faith's counterpart is presumption. Therefore, one must be sure they have heard the voice of God. The Spirit of God spoke to me and said, "Enjoy those who have served, and bless them." I knew I was to take what we did not have and bless each one who had served. Joy began to overwhelm me. By the next morning, all that I had given (which was a substantial amount) was already on the way through the mail. The real miracle was that something changed in me. Anxiety from trauma that I had carried for years, and years and years had lifted. That old, bad friend was gone, and the joy of the Lord had replaced that portion within my soul and spirit.

We have been in great warfare. Warfare is conflict, and in the midst of the conflict we can lose our joy. Joy produces strength. When we do not sense the life of Christ flowing through us, we need to ask the Lord, "What has happened to my passion? In the midst of my circumstance, Lord, did I just get tired and quit withstanding?" In truth, we can pray until we are green. We can do all sorts of religious activities. But if we do not resist the enemy in the midst of that trial (the temptation toward passivity and all other temptations), and if we don't allow the trial to bring the working of the Cross into us, then we won't really enter into the passion and fullness of life that the Lord intends. Having God's passion as we walk in wisdom and revelation is the key to protecting ourselves from becoming outwitted by the enemy.

Yeshua, Himself, prophesied that a triumphant people, filled with Father's revelation, would arise, and prevail against Hell's gates. This people will do exploits! They will take resources and multiply or change them into a new form to be used today. These people are an apostolic people. They are a modern people, yet look very much like those who crossed over the Jordan River 476 years after God spoke them into existence when He communicated to their Father, Abraham. The Gates of Hell will not be able to withstand this people. We are a people that will build a new prototype for today and unlock a Kingdom mentality that hell cannot withstand.

Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar].

Rosh Hashanah starts on September 25, 2022. It is the head of the year. In the same way that the head directs the actions of the body, the first day of Tishrei, Rosh Hashanah, is the head of the year spiritually. It is the anniversary of the day that God created man. All the other creations, which receive their life force from God, who is sometimes called "soul of the universe," have no possible means of responding to Him. We can respond with our voice, the shofar, our dedication and more importantly obedience and love.

Yom Kippur is the heart of the year. It is a day of forgiveness and reconciliation in which we can fearlessly enter the forest within us to explore the deepest parts of our lives, the areas that are too shadowy for us to see or even want to see. When we examine ourselves honestly, inevitably we will find that we have at times blocked out our ability to see more than life's superficial side. No one is perfect, and in fact one of the greatest problems that we have is that we have to at least fool ourselves into believing in our own perfection. We rationalize, reframe, and deny away our spiritual and moral failures.

On Yom Kippur, we can look deeper and more honestly at ourselves. We will find that underneath all the layers there is goodness, purity, and yearning.

God imbued this day with the power to let us tear aside all the curtains, and see ourselves not as we have become, but as we want to be. We would never be able to achieve this level of redefinition on our own. Yom Kippur is a day in which God channels down forces that opens the doors for us. We can be brave and honest enough to walk through the doors joyously, or we can close our eyes to their existence. God will not force anyone to open the door.

Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

Barely a few days pass, and Tishrei shows another aspect of the internal workings of reality. Sukkot arrives, and we celebrate our newly won closeness to God by moving into a sukkah, a shack-like structure with no permanent roof. For a full week we reverse most of what we do the rest of the year. Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

We let our sensitivity to the spiritual bond that we have with every Jew regardless of who he is find expression in the four species of plants that the Torah commands that we take and bless. The lulav (palm branch) which has a taste but no smell, is compared to a Jew who is intellectual aware of the Torah's truth but doesn't let it flow down to affect his deeds. The etrog (citron) has both taste and smell and is compared to one who is fortunate enough to have both knowledge and good deeds express his personality. The hadassim (myrtle) has smell and no taste, symbolizing a person with deeds but nothing to back it up with intellectually. Finally, the aravot, (willow) which has neither taste nor smell, which we hold with the same devotion as the etrog which has both, is the icon of one who lives in a world in which there is no consciousness and no deeds. He too is part of our people, and we need to love him unconditionally just as much as he needs our unconditional love.

Tishrei's last holiday, Simchat Torah, says it all. There is a world out there. We want to learn it, love it, and navigate it. We will never allow ourselves to content our minds and hearts with its outer contours.

We'll walk its spiritual alleys and streets, and we'll follow the instruction book that reveals the blueprint that is the core of its being. We'll let our spiritual and physical joy at having a map that reveals it all take us over. (Rebbetzin Tziporah Heller).

IT CORRESPONDS TO THE TRIBE OF EPHRAIM

The month of Tishrei is the month of Ephraim, the second son of Joseph. Ephraim went before the firstborn Manasseh, sort of like Jacob and Esau. This is the month to be fruitful and multiply.

The first, and foremost, leader who emerged from Ephraim was Joshua – the servant and closest disciple of Moses. He was a beautiful example of a moon to Moses' sun. The Sages of Israel describe how "Moshe's countenance was like the sun, and Yehoshua's was like the moon... he only reflected what he received from Moshe" (Bava Batra 75a). This also is a beautiful description of Yeshua the Messiah. Yeshua reflected the Father's glory, and he shared the Word of truth and life given him by the Father, as we read in these verses from the gospel of John:

"... the One who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from Him." (8:26).

Yeshua answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me..." (8:54).

In turn, as we lift our lives before the Throne of Mercy on Rosh HaShanah, we remember that we are to reflect the light of the Son. He has brought us from darkness into the light of the Kingdom of God, and we now are enabled to carry that light into the darkness... for the Father's glory. (Keren Hannah Pryor).

Ephraim — "be fruitful and multiply"

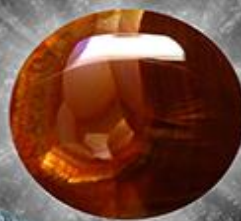

Characteristics: The 7th month and all sevens are important: "completion, fullness." The month of the "Fall Feasts" – Returning to God and experiencing His Glory. The month to "touch" – Mt. 9 — Remember the woman who pressed through to touch Him. The month linked with awakening and removing that which would keep you from returning.

In the Bible, Tishrei is “the month of the strong” or “the month of the ancients.” With respect to the reckoning of years, Tishrei is the first month of the year. In the reckoning of the months, Tishrei is the seventh month, the month of completion and perfection.

Tishrei is the month of “fall feasts,” when we are to return to God and experience His glory.

WE LOOK TO THE FUTURE THIS MONTH! *

Keeping with the Lord's harvest theme -- the harvesting of souls -- some believe that this could potentially be the time of the rapture in the future. Symbolically, it is possible that the 7 days of festival could represent the seven years of tribulation and at the same time seven years of marriage supper celebration in heaven (feast of 7 days = 7 years per Bible prophecy). The blowing of the trumpet at the beginning of the celebration is analogous to the trumpet that will sound when the rapture occurs, followed by a 7-year period where simultaneously there is the marriage supper celebration occurring in heaven (indicated by the seven feasting days in Nehemiah 8:18), and the seven years of tribulation on earth.

The Seasons of the Word

The Times of Tishrei: Introduction, Kevin D. Vincent

Tishrei is the month in the Biblical calendar when three feasts are celebrated: Trumpets, Yom Kippur, and Tabernacles. The first of these is celebrated on the first day of Tishrei. It is also called New Year or Rosh HaShanah (although the Biblical first month is actually Nisan). These feasts of Tishrei are prophetic of the age when the Messiah comes and begins to reign.

Christians see this as the Second Coming, but Jews see it as the first coming. Both refer to the same Messiah and the same time.

It is the purpose of this study to highlight the scriptures that speak of the Messiah and His coming through a series of daily prayer guides matching the days of Tishrei. At the end of this study and prayer I hope that the reader will have a better understanding of the Times of Tishrei and their future fulfillment.

Christians have, by and large, neglected to observe these feasts of Tishrei. Consequently, they have also not given proper attention to the very clear teaching in Scripture of the Messiah's return. Jewish people have always observed the three feasts, but it is my impression that many fail to realize the significance of the feasts themselves.

The Tanach, called the Old Testament by Christians, contains very specific details about the course of Gentile world history. It is a simple matter to look at the prophecies and check them against actual, verifiable events accepted by historians everywhere. World events have confirmed prophecy in the past. Given the fact that such prophecies are fulfilled we can have confidence in the prophecies yet to be fulfilled. I feel that the month of Tishrei is that time of the year when we should be focusing on those prophecies.

It is not enough to read about such prophecies. It is necessary to read the actual prophecies themselves and meditate on them. With this in mind this study matches 26 of the 30 days of Tishrei with four Biblical books. Daniel is pre-eminently the book of end times prophecy in the Tanach/Old Testament. Some of its visions were given to Gentiles to be interpreted by a Jewish prophet, Daniel, in exile in a gentile land, Babylon. The twelve chapters of the book of Daniel are covered in days one to twelve in Tishrei. The remaining days of Tishrei are allocated to chapters from the book of Zechariah. Each chapter from the books of Daniel and Zechariah is matched on an opposing page by a chapter from Matthew or Revelation. The latter book, sometimes called the Apocalypse, consists of revelations about end times given to John, a Jew also in exile in a gentile country – the island of Patmos.

Although there is not an exact chronological match of sequence between the Old Testament chapters selected and those of the New Testament the commentary points out similarities and connections and makes clear the pattern.

My hope is for readers to become excited by the precision of the word of God to the extent that they will trust the prophecies for their future fulfillment. Daniel describes the times of the Gentiles and shows that these times will come to an end and then the Messiah will set up His kingdom and reign from Jerusalem. God's plans for Jew and Gentile shall be fulfilled.

When Ezra and Nehemiah returned from the exile in Babylon and began rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem they also began to read, from morning to midday and in public, the Book of the Law of Moses (Nehemiah 1.1-2) before the assembled people. The day they started this was the first day of the seventh month, that is, on the feast of trumpets. The result of this reading was that people rediscovered the Word of God and believed it. Let us today also read the Word and believe it.

10 Days of Awe

Preparation for Revelation. This day is called New Year's Day and is observed as such in Israel but in the Bible it is called the Feast of Trumpets. The feast points to the regathering of Israel by God to their land for blessing. This regathering is connected with a trumpet call in Isaiah 27.13: "So it shall be in that day, the great trumpet will be blown; they will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria, and they who are outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount in Jerusalem."

The name "Rosh Hashanah" (Hebrew: ראש השנה) means, literally, "head of the year" or "first of the year." Rosh Hashanah is commonly known as the Jewish New Year. This name is somewhat deceptive, because there is little similarity between Rosh Hashanah, one of the holiest days of the year, and the American midnight drinking bash and daytime football game. There is, however, one important similarity between the Jewish New Year and the American one: Many Americans use the New Year as a time to plan a better life, making "resolutions." Likewise, the Hebrew New Year is a time to begin introspection, looking back at the mistakes of the past year and planning the changes to make in the new year, continuing through the Days of Awe and Yom Kippur.

It is the first of the High Holidays or Yamim Noraim ("Days of Awe"), celebrated ten days before Yom Kippur.

Rosh Hashanah is observed on the first two days of Tishrei, the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar. It is described in the Torah as יום תרועה (Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar]).

Shabbat Shuvah ("Sabbath [of] Return" שבת שובה) refers to the Shabbat that occurs during the Ten Days of Repentance between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Only one Shabbat can occur between these dates. This Shabbat is named after the first word of the Haftarah (Hosea 14:2-10) and literally means "Return!"

Yeshua and Rosh Hashanah

Rosh Hashanah is known as the Day of Judgment. At the final judgment spoken of in Revelation 20:15, we read that "anyone whose name was not found recorded in the Book of Life was thrown into the lake of fire." The book of Revelation tells us that the Book of Life belongs to the Lamb, Yeshua Christ (Revelation 21:27). The Apostle Paul maintained that the names of his fellow missionary companions were "in the Book of Life." (Philippians 4:3)

Tishrei in Hebrew History

- 1 Tishrei (c. 3760 BCE) – Adam and Eve were created, according to one opinion in the Talmud.
- 8 Tishrei (c. 946 BCE) – 14-day dedication of Solomon's Temple begins.
- 10 Tishrei (c. 1313 BCE) – Moses returns from a final trip to Mount Sinai, bearing a second set of tablets and a message of forgiveness for the Golden Calf.
- 10 Tishrei The beginning the Yom Kippur War.

Bob Koch: Drawing Near to God

The Sin Offering of Two Goats

Leviticus (Vayikra) chapter 16 explains the duties of the Kohen Gadol (High Priest) on "Yom Kippur" or "Day of Atonement." The actual name is Yom ha'Kippurim, literally translated as, "Day of the Coverings." (see also Lev 23:26-32). Verse one is interesting because it juxtaposes the deaths of Nadav and Avihu, two of Aharon's (Aaron) priestly sons, with the command to Aaron beginning in verse two regarding the duties and sacrifices the High Priest must perform for himself and Israel on Yom ha'Kippurim. In particular, we will focus on the sin offering of the two goats: one "to YHWH" and the other one "to Azazel."

The reason for the deaths of Nadav and Avihu was originally given at Lev 10:1. We are told they died because they overstepped their authority by entering ha'Kadosh (the Holy Place) and offering unauthorized fire and incense on the Alter of Incense. HaShem declared they thereby, "drew too close" to His presence. The two sons died when fire came forth from Him as a consequence.

The Hebrew word used for "they drew too close" is "b'qarbah'tahm from the root word "qarab" (Strong's #H7126) which is "to draw near." This word is from the same three-letter root as "qorban" (Strong's #H7133), which is usually translated as "offering." But this translation does not convey the real essence of the biblical offerings. For that we need to go back to the root.

When making an offering to HaShem, we are to identify with the sacrificial animal (the "korban") and the intention for that particular sacrifice. This is to facilitate the idea in our subconscious that we are to consider ourselves to be a "korban chai" or "living sacrifice" in order that we may "draw near" to HaShem. (Rom 12:1). We are also to understand the design of the tabernacle (mishkan), as well as the implements located within, serve the same function, i.e. to be microcosmic examples of various aspects of a human being in service to YHWH.¹ (See Ex 25:8-9 TNK; 2Cor 6:16 NT)

¹ "The Mishkan beams are described as featuring a head (rosh), a hairline (pe'ah),³ a side-chamber (z.ela),⁴ hands (shetei yadot), and legs/thighs (yerekh) (Ex. 26:15-27; 36:20-32). The anthropomorphic description of the beams is topped off with the instruction to use "standing acacia wood," a z.ei shittim omedim, for their construction (ibid. 26:15).⁵ It should be noted that although this form of imagery is utilized on an individual basis in the descriptions of other Mishkan vessels, it is specifically within the context of the Mishkan beams that all of these lexical units combine, forming a complete set. If one were to draw a crude picture based on this unique collection of terms, the result would bear an uncanny resemblance to an erect human being...". The Mishkan As a Microcosm of the Human Condition, by Geula Twersky

This is why everything in the Torah, especially all things related to the Tabernacle (and/or Temple) and the sacrificial system still have deep spiritual relevance today to all those who worship YHWH and seek to “draw near” to Him in spirit and in truth. The deaths of Nadav and Avihu were a warning to Aaron (and his successors) never to take coming into HaShem’s presence as something mundane or casual – especially when he is being used as a conduit for Israel. He is instructed NOT to enter into the Holy of Holies anytime he pleases but that if he does choose to enter at times other than on Yom ha’Kippurim, he must scrupulously complete all the exact same sacrifices and personal preparations to make himself ready mentally, physically and spiritually. (Lev 16:2-6; 11-14)

This is a lesson for all of us about the attitude we are to have when we are preparing to “draw near” to YHWH with our prayers and supplications, especially on Yom ha’Kippurim. In our modern times, the sense of awe and reverence that was experienced in the Biblical times is sorely lacking, so we must make an effort to not become overly familiar or casual with the Living God. This informality may unintentionally result in a desensitized consciousness or in mechanical, rote prayer.

Israel was “chosen” by God to be a “kingdom of priests” and a “holy nation.” Consequently, the people were to be responsible for achieving an elevated spiritual mindset when approaching YHWH at the Tabernacle and, later, at the Temple. In the NT, we see this higher priestly consciousness in Yeshua, his brother Ya’aqov, Yochanan ha’Matvil (John the Immerser) and others. That is one reason why Christians claiming to be awaiting Yeshua are admonished “...to walk in the same way as he walked,” scrupulously following YHWH’s instructions (i.e. the Torah) and having the same elevated priestly consciousness when “drawing near” to Him. (1John 2:6) A faithful follower of YHWH, the God of Avraham, must internalize that He is BOTH our Father AND our Elohim (God), just as Yeshua and his disciples did (John 20:17, 17:3, Matt 4:10, etc.).

The central part of the High Priest’s Yom ha’Kippurim service was the offering of “two he-goats for a sin offering...” (sa’iy: he-goat). (Lev 16:5) In verse five, the two goats are described in Hebrew as “a sin offering...” (“chata’at”; f. singular), not as “two distinct sin offerings.” Interestingly, nowhere else in the Torah do we find a sin offering, individual or corporate, that consists of more than one animal. Here, the single chata’at concept is manifested using two animals to express the one sin offering in two different ways.

The two virtually identical goats were chosen by two lots: one goat was marked “to YHWH” and the other “to Azazel.” (Lev 16:8) The goat designated “to YHWH” was sacrificed; the one designated "to Azazel" (a rebellious power in the Judean desert) was set free in the wilderness. Many Jews and Christians are confused as to the purpose of each of these two goats.

Let's first discuss the goat "to YHWH." We are told that the goat to YHWH would go to its death as a legitimate sin offering (chata-at). However, this was not an ordinary sin offering where the blood of the offering was sprinkled outside of the Tabernacle or Temple to cover the sinner's unintentional transgression(s). Upon the High Priest's slaughtering of the Yom ha'Kippurim goat, its blood was accepted into God's sanctuary where it obtained a new exalted status. The blood was sprinkled on the Ark Cover (Mercy Seat) itself which is associated with the tablets of Moses ("the ten sayings") that was kept inside.

He shall then slaughter the people's goat of sin offering, bring its blood behind the curtain, and do with its blood as he has done with the blood of the bull: he shall sprinkle it over the (ark) cover and in front of the cover. Thus *he shall purge the Shrine of the impurity and transgression of the Israelites, whatever their sins; and he shall do the same for the Tent of Meeting, which abides with them in the midst of their impurity." (Lev 16:15-16 JPS)

The High Priest sprinkled the blood to cleanse the ark cover behind the curtain in the Holy of Holies, "the Shrine" (Sanctuary or Holy Place) with Menorah, Table for Showbread and Alter of Incense, the Tabernacle / Tent of Meeting itself, the floor of the Holy of Holies and the Shrine, and the horns of the alter just outside the tent (or the entrance to the Temple).

*Thus, the stated purpose of the blood of the goat is to "purge" or "cleanse" the various instruments of atonement and holy places from the uncleanness it had acquired over the past year (i.e. spiritual defilement) due to the transgressions of all the children of Israel, priests and lay people alike. (Lev 16:15-19) The blood of the goat "to YHWH" was NOT for the forgiveness of the people's sins.

As to the goat "to Azazel," the Torah says:
When he has finished purging the Shrine, the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, the live goat shall be brought forward. Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities and transgressions of the Israelites, whatever their sins, putting them on the head of the goat; and it shall be sent off to the wilderness through a designated agent. Thus the goat shall carry on it all their iniquities to an inaccessible region; and the goat shall be set free in the wilderness. (Lev 16:20-23 JPS)

We are told that this goat did not cross the threshold of the Sanctuary, but that Aaron laid both his hands on its head and confessed all the transgressions of Israel – “whatever their sins” (intentional and unintentional) – thereby putting them on the head of the goat. The goat then carries their sins away into an inaccessible place the wilderness (outside the camp so to speak) where he is then “set free” and the sins are no longer remembered by YHWH. Unlike a normal sin offering, there is no blood for the remission of the people’s sins, no altar and no fire to burn the flesh of the sacrifice upon “the fires of God” (ish’shei YHWH). (Lev 4:35; 5:12)

By contrast, the goat to Azazel was not touched by the knife of the Sanctuary. It was not killed but was left unchanged. It was left unscathed by God and ostracized from His presence, outside the Sanctuary and banished from the land of the living by being sent to the wilderness. The word “wilderness” is “ha’midbarah” which is in the present tense. This is God telling us that the goat wandering aimlessly in the wilderness is ongoing until it dies there. The goat represents a self-centered life that, in the end, dies alone in the wilderness, away from the presence of HaShem.

What is an Azazel? Jastrow’s Dictionary of the Targum vol 2 (p.1060) defines “ahz” as: “to be strong; firm; vehement.” It can also be read with different vowel points as “aiz” or “azaz”: a “goat.” Az’al means: “to go off” (ibid vol 1 p.37). In Modern Hebrew, “az’al” describes one who is off doing his own business. A goat is powerful and can be stubborn and aggressive. However, if trained properly, a goat can use these attributes for productive purposes. Again, the personalities of the sacrificial animals mirror the attributes of people.

This is why God uses specific animals for specific sacrifices. When a person is ruled by their “yetzer ha’ra” (inclination towards sin), succumbs to the animal (goat) nature and sensual desires, one is considered to be an “Azazal” because one has used one’s power to sin – to go off and do one’s own thing. HaShem has therefore denied them any access to His Sanctuary; they cannot “draw near.”

Both goats are classified as a “korban chat-at” (sin offering) but represent two different sub-classes. This is not about some archaic ritual that happened in Israel a few thousand years ago. The Torah is trying to teach us that each of us is a “sa’ir” (goat). Each of us has the power to resist any demands made upon our will. The moral works of our lives depend up the way we use that power. We can become “goat to Azazel” where we can use our power in obstinate refusal to obey the voice of God, thereby surrendering to destructive influence of the yetzer ha'rah. Or, we can identify with the "goat to YHWH" and make sure that our body, "the temple of the living God," is always cleansed and ready to house His Presence that we may "draw near" and serve Him in spirit and truth.

"And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell IN them (Heb. b'tow'cham)." Exodus 25:8

"For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said: "I will dwell IN them (Gr. en autois) and will walk among them..."". 2Cor 6:16

Rosh Hashanah, Adam and Eve were created,
according to one the Talmud
April Klaassen Brown Sat, Sep 24 at 10:55 AM

In a recent time of significant transition, I heard the Holy Spirit say to me "Come back to the Burning Bush, wait for me, I have a vision and a quest for you."

What does this mean, I asked. I was told to come back to where my original anointing began, which had started with my biological parents on my First Nation reservation. I asked about the Vision and Quest (Vision Quest) and I want to share with regards to First Nations, it is described as 'a rite of passage, a vision quest helps one to develop survival skills, gain maturity and connect with nature and ancestors.' I would like to re-describe what I believe is the original God appointed meaning for this, 'a specific time to seek the Creator's instruction, where in to further develop spiritual skills, gain maturity and also be able to hear through the Holy Spirit, his wisdom and the wisdom of those who have gone before, that great cloud of witnesses or as the Holy Spirit has shown me those who are called the "Council of Wisdom". This is intended to gain Wisdom, Guidance and Instruction of the Holy Spirit for 'times' ahead. Nature is simply a quiet place where one is able to hear without distraction. It really is what we as 'Christians' do in a fast time. Seek clarity and hear from the LORD.

In this time of waiting for the Holy Spirit to speak, I experienced interference from the enemy which is expected at times. It was more difficult this time to gain ground as the spiritual atmosphere in my reservation was still steeped with ancient traditions which have been grossly perverted by the enemy. There was also the spiritual presence of death, destruction through various substances of drugs, alcohol and then also a spirit of murder. I also sensed deep isolation, a deep sadness, deep pain, confusion, anger, rage and yet a deep determination just below the surface to be above all that, to heal and become stronger as people you created.

Now I do want to reiterate that this reservation I was born on is no different than many other Native American / First Nations reservations, but I know that all of these reservations have been greatly prayed for, for freedom from the enemy. I honor all those whom the Holy Spirit has called to pray for, minister and contend in the spirit for "us" to get where the Holy Spirit needs us to be in his Kingdom and rise to the calling, He has set for First Peoples here in the Americas. This is also though, for the Nation as a whole, for all of us called to walk in the ways of Yahweh.

What I heard the Holy Spirit speak in my time of waiting on him:

- 1) We are in deep warfare, there has been no greater warfare throughout the ages as is now.
- 2) Do not be afraid or discouraged, there will be an increase even in this warfare but only for a 'time'. Remember Yeshua carries the Victory Flag for all.

3) I want to fine tune the warfare skills / giftings / and instructions for those contending from their strongholds.

Zechariah 9:12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of Hope: even today do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

Jeremiah 29:11-13 For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

4) I am going to lead those who have heard my voice and give specific instructions for deeper battlefield medicine for our Nations. This battlefield medicine is to regain / restore our 'lands'.

5) Call down the battlefield strategies / call down the Kavod Glory upon those being used by the enemy / call down Wisdom for battle leaders / Call down business battle strategies

6) In the season ahead, I am going to focus on women / to restore / heal / raise up Esther's / Deborah's / Huldah's to take their places. The focus is now toward the wives of those in leadership that he is taking them into a time of preparation and healing of restoration just as Esther was in the Bible that he is doing according to the Lord's time. Esther was in preparation a year before she went before the king. The favor of God is so strongly upon the wives / women now so that when they come before the King; the scepter of the Lord comes out to them, and they can request up to half the kingdom. That's what Esther was given. So that is what each of you are to take for your wives / women as you pray for them. Bless them, that they are an important part, equal to you in what you do. The Lord is focusing his attention upon the wives / women right now.

7) There is greater release of the appointed and destined anointing for this next season now. A release of the greater vision, of greater wisdom, of greater knowledge of the Glory of God. Opened books of Kingdom knowledge so that we may look at and understand them quickly, but also, we will hear with greater clarity, as we move into new positions that you are elevating us to and through the open gates. This is so that we can carry your Glory deeper and deeper into our Nation and over our Nations in Yeshua's name.

8) Communications lines now be open and place the voices of the Kingdom into alignment and into place for our Nation of Canada, for our Nation of the United States of America, for our Nation's as America the Great. We declare Psalm 24, lift up your heads oh gates, that the King of Glory now come in. There will be further doors and open communications for each and every one of us. That there will be openings, openings, openings, doors that were not open before now open, voices that have not been heard yet now be heard.

Ears that have not heard yet now hear. Eyes which have not seen yet now see. Come back to the burning bush, I have placed in your lives. Come back to the Holy Ground, spend time with me there and I will speak to you, assignments, and instructions.

Above all again we say, Hashem, let your Kingdom come, let your Will be done on earth now in the situations of this new season, as in Heaven. We bless your name, we declare it to be set and so in the name of Yeshua Ha'Mashiach, Amen.

Prophetic Word: EBS Warning for the USA September 22,2022
Respectfully Submitted Barry Wunsch

Holy Spirit woke me up and immediately began to speak to me. With fear and trembling, this is what He said, nothing more nothing less:

Barry the next few days are going to be critical. The world as you know it is about to change forever. There is going to be an event. (I saw an attack coming, but it was not as it appeared)

Obey the EBS (Emergency Broadcasting System) when it comes. Barry, tell my people to stay inside as instructed. It will be clear when it is safe to come out.

Things are going to run very hot for a few days. I have had to hide my people away before; this is not the first time. Watch the northeast. USA, Those who have been asleep are soon to be wide awake.

The enemy has ramped up his game but has nothing on me. Barry, tell my people not to fear but to celebrate as it unfolds. You will see my hand at work as I pull the carpet out from under them.

The great awakening is upon you. This is not to bring fear to my people, but rather show them the path I have for them. These are days of Biblical importance. Do not take your eyes off of me lest you come into fear and unbelief. Have I not told you, have I not given you warning? What is about to happen will change the nations forever. The powers of darkness have nothing to lose, and time is not on their side. For as this year comes to an end and a new one begins you shall enter into a new Era. These shall be the worst of days, and these shall be the best of days. You are about to know me as never before.

I am calling on my remnant to stand up like never before. Draw near to me and I will draw near to you. All creation is calling out for the manifest sons and daughters to arise, so it is on this day and in this hour that I call you forth!
Arise! Arise! Arise!

Take your place and take your stand! This is the hour; this is the time!
Be empowered and released by the fullness of my spirit! There is nothing that cannot do together! So let your faith arise and you enemies be scattered! Holy is the word of the Lord!
HOLD THE LINE! HOLD THE LINE! HOLD THE LINE!

Love is the Way Forward: Terry Friesen

As remnant believers in Christ, I saw that from the Father's view that we are sin free because the blood of Christ covers us. Our foundation is secure. The Father was affirming this foundation so that I did not become confused with what He showed me next.

He brought me to Galatians 5:22,23 – the fruit of the spirit – against such there is no law – inversely this means there is a law against certain things, just not the fruit of the spirit. I saw the Lord with the church in His hand like an arrow pulled to its fullest extent. He was preparing to release us as an arrow into the heart of the world and was fine tuning our positioning so that once we are released, we would hit the bullseye.

I saw in a vision that as believers our inner life could look like stealth submarines operating deep inside us. It is stealth because it is hidden from others. I see that it has a propulsion system moving us forward on the right and on the left. In the middle between both propellers was the receptacle for a fuse that could be changed and upgraded. This fuse determined the amount of power that could flow to the propellers moving us forward. More power, more movement. The capacity of the fuse was directly related to the capacity of the love in the vessel. If a great power surge was released and the love fuse not sufficient, the fuse would blow. It's the Father's goodness and love that limits the power we walk in and the speed of our progress to coincide with the capacity of His love we carry.

I then saw a deep water well inside believer's that relates to their inner life with the Lord. As long as the well is full of water and fully supplied, the static pressure of the water keeps everything intact. But the Father has been forming gold inside of you deep below the surface. Even though character formation has been underway, you may not have yet experienced the life that it gives. I see the water level dropping and the flow of life decreasing so that we need to draw life from a deeper place. In the vision, as the water level dropped below the newly formed gold, I saw life start to come out of each one of these newly formed gold deposits. In some, I saw the water level drop until the well was completely empty and their normal supply of life completely dry up. In these cases, they drew life by faith straight from the Father who is connected at the very deepest part of who we are. Once this new flow of life was established, the water level began to rise and the normal flow of internal provision returned, but not at it once was. This new flow was supported by the flow of new life from each one of these gold character deposits. In different times and season the normal flow of our life will be interrupted, not to punish us, but to cause us to draw forth life out of newly formed character and deposits the Lord has planted in us. It is His gift of grace that causes us to activate these new wells of life.

In the world system we sometimes ask ourselves why some people are successful when they operate in ungodly ways. When they do so they employ the spirit of this world to engage the spirit of this world. An ungodly bribe will work in a scenario where an ungodly bribe is the world's way of doing business. In other words when we operate according to the Kingdom of God, we encounter some resistance in the world that the ungodly may not. We have committed to walk according to the Kingdom of God and therefore we are at odds with the world system.

We are coming into the time of God's Kingdom, which will increase in the land, and the world system will decrease, so we will start to see greater success just by virtue of our alignment. So, stay the course of walking in the fruit of the Spirit even if you haven't experienced the success you expected. If you are in alignment with the Kingdom, success will start to naturally occur as the atmosphere around you also aligns to the Kingdom of God.

As was presented earlier regarding our inner wells, the gold deep within us represents the character and love of the Father. The Lord is seeking to release new life in us that constitutes a greater quality and texture of love so that we can enter into the greatest adventure of His Spirit that we can handle. It is His love for us that holds some things in our destiny back until we are ready and prepared to walk in it. To enter too soon is to put at jeopardy the very promise we seek to walk in.

I saw believers walking up to doors of transition and I saw the doors opening according to the quality and texture of the love in the believer. For example, behind any given door could be multiple possible outcomes, each one "good" in their own right, but each one variable to the opportunity that existed. The quality and texture of the love evident in the believer determined the reality that resulted on the other side.

It is important to understand this is not a punitive factor but rather a liberating and edifying factor. The Lord chooses to propel us forward into our destinies to the degree we are ready and able to bare up under the weight of what is on the other side.

As I proceed through the transition door that is in front of me, I will enter the path that parallels the quality and texture of love formed in my life. This new path will accomplish many things and prepare me for the next door of transition that will in turn lead me once again. The difference is knowing the Lord's value system and how this affects the operation of His Kingdom. We are admonished to consistently choose the fruit of the Spirit, chief of which is love, so that we are well positioned and propelled forward. The Father is upgrading our fuse so that the power of His Spirit and our propulsion system can operate in greater measure. At the end of this vision, I saw the Lord plug a greater fuse into the stealth submarine. It not only supplied the capacity to carry greater power and speed, but it also caused torpedoes of love to be launched out of the front of the sub. These love torpedoes glided through the spirit realm and broke up ungodly structures standing in the way of our progress. The love you carry has an outworking in the spirit that is designed to level enemy structures and prepare the way for great victory.

In this, we also have the advancing Kingdom of God. This means that when we walk in the Kingdom, we will start to produce fruit in ever increasing ways. Those who experienced great resistance in past seasons will start to experience a wind at their backs and start to produce great fruit. Stay the course – don't abandon in doing well but continue to grow in the quality and texture of His love as you seek the daily guidance of Holy Spirit. Love is the way forward.

The Lion of the Tribe of Judah will take Centre Stage: Terry Friesen Aug 28, 2022

Sunday morning, I was visiting a church in a nearby community. I encountered the presence of Holy Spirit in a significant and pronounced way. This has happened every time I have been in this church. I started by asking the Father about this presence and twice received the ability to see into the spirit. I saw a portal that was already open and above the church. It is clear there is an open heaven atmosphere that is present and has already been established.

The Lord started to speak to me about the positioning of the body of Christ. We have obtained great victories in the heavenly realm and now it is time to experience those same victories in the earth realm. As I prayed, I asked about our earthly foundations. In many cases I could see debris connected to past seasons within the body of Christ. I asked Father, what should we do? It was clear He wanted to plumb the wells of revival once again, but rather than digging through the past and into the foundations of what has been laid, He directed my thoughts forward. The path He will lead the church on will be seeded with the elements of the past that need to be overwritten. Much good has been done in past seasons but some items need to be re-written, and this will be done as the body walks faithfully forward. The path forward will result in revival wells once again producing life giving water as seasons of faith and love overwrite past seasons of carnality. We honor the past seasons and those who faithfully served the Lord, but we also recognize the new thing the Lord wants to do in our midst.

I asked what this new path would look like? The Father showed me that the season of the prophet has largely accomplished its work. The prophetic has been established and seeded into our spiritual atmosphere so that in the spirit it is proficient. The body of Christ will continue to grow and develop in the gifts and offices of the prophetic, but our spiritual atmosphere, in the Kingdom of God, has what it needs to be proficient and well formed. I then saw that the season was changing, and the focus would now shift from the prophetic to the Lion of Judah.

I saw the eye of the Lord and the eye of the eagle move from centre stage to make room for the Lord in the capacity of the Lion of Judah. He was standing at attention and ready to roar. As He did, I could see the power of His love and the fire of His presence go forth and impact the church and the world. As the love of the Father and His passion for this world takes center stage, the prophetic will now take a supporting role. A role that supports the release and advance of His love through His people.

This roar will shake the world systems and make room for the body of Christ to advance and occupy. This roar will also propel us forward in the fullness of the love of the Father. The release of the Father's love deep within us will re-orient us so that we will know the Father's heart towards our world. Once we feel His love flow through us into the world, we will know the will of the Father deep inside. Many of the questions we have for the Father, and many of the reasons we seek prophetic words will be answered by our knowledge of His love. This new lens of love that we will look through, will redefine how we interpret the voice of God and how we hear. The gift and service of prophecy will remain and flourish, but it will be in service of His love expressed through the Lion of Judah.

Once the Lion of Judah roared, and the revelation of such had been established at centre stage, I saw a large contingent of angels assembled all around. Each one held a heralding trumpet in their hand. The Lord focused my attention on those angels facing the east. They raised their trumpets, and they blew them announcing into the spirit realm that the Lion of the Tribe of Judah was at centre stage in the heart of His church. In response to this heralding sound, I saw eagles flying from the east. They were carrying a multitude of resources the church needed to carry out their mission. The eagles, the prophetic, were responding to the positioning of the Lion of Judah at centre stage.

Dutch Sheets: Know Your Enemy
Who Is Zephon?

As I think about the insights and strategies given to us in the World Seers Series dream, I am amazed at what Holy Spirit has done to prepare us. He began speaking to me about the passage of scripture that first mentions the principality, Baal-Zephon (Exodus 14), on July 4th weekend (2021). Since that weekend, I have written at least three posts teaching on this spirit and how God dealt with him during Israel's Exodus. I have been reviewing those posts and looking at the passage again. I feel that some review would help you, as well.

Let me begin by saying we are not, and will never become, preoccupied with demons. To do so would cause, not only imbalance, but would lead to deception and error. We never take our cues from satan. It is also true, however, that we are not supposed to ignore or be ignorant of him and his activities. Yeshua did not ignore demons. He only did what the Father told him to do - via Holy Spirit - but Father often led Him to resist them or cast them out.

We are told to do the same (Mark 16:17), and instructed in 2 Corinthians 2:11 to not be ignorant (Greek agnoeo - "without knowledge of; ignorant; ignore") of the way satan thinks and operates (noema - "thought, purpose, plot, scheme, plan, device"). The verse tells us if we obey this warning satan will not be able to take advantage of us (pleonekteo - "gain the bigger portion of; take advantage of"). This is a strong warning; ignorance can be deadly. So again, we are not preoccupied with satan or his kingdom; but neither will we be ignorant of his schemes and plans.

Here is a portion of a post I did on July 7 of last year (2021), explaining who Zephon is and how God dealt with him during the Exodus:

In Exodus 14, the Red Sea was rolled back for Israel and Pharaoh's army was destroyed. The first two verses inform us,

"Now the Lord spoke to Moses, saying, 'Tell the sons of Israel to turn back and camp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea; you shall camp in front of Baal-zephon, opposite it, by the sea,'" (Exodus 14:1-2).

God wants us to know that HE chose the place for this encounter. To many of the Israelites, as well as to Pharaoh and his army, it looked as though Israel was confused, disoriented, and wandering aimlessly in the desert. And they were, in fact, now hemmed in, trapped by mountains, the sea, and Pharaoh's army.

Baal-zephon was one of the Egyptian gods. It was believed that he reigned in power and was lord over the sea. He was the only Egyptian god Yahweh had not yet judged and exposed during the 10 plagues and Israel's deliverance. Scott Lancer, in an article for Associates for Biblical Research, (Confronting Baal Zephon: The Spiritual Message of the Meeting of Israel and the Armies of Egypt) says, "Let us remember that God had been triumphing over not only Pharaoh and the Egyptians, but also the supposed power of their gods. The plagues were a drumbeat of victory as the gods of Egypt were one by one, displayed to be impotent and powerless. And even more importantly, Yahweh wanted the Egyptians to know that He is the Lord," (Exodus 14:4).(1)

Pharaoh no doubt believed that this god was more powerful than Yahweh. He supposed that Baal-Zephon had led them into a trap and was now going to cause Israel to be destroyed in front of the place named for him.

Yahweh had other plans. His plan was to demonstrate that HE was the Lord of the sea. His authority, released through the extension of the rod He had given Moses, controlled the sea, not Zephon. Yahweh would lead His people THROUGH, not around, the sea the Egyptians believed was under the control of Zephon. And instead of the Israelites being destroyed, it would be Pharaoh and the Egyptian army - in front of the headquarters of their supposed god!

July 4th weekend, the Lord spoke to me that this is where we are in America. Many prophets have used the analogy of Israel and the Red Sea to describe the church during this season: our backs are to the wall, it appears that the god of this world has outsmarted and overpowered ours, and it looks as though satan has taken over the nation.

But Yahweh, once again, has other plans. He will release His authority over this nation, just as He did over Israel at the Red Sea and demonstrate that He is the Lord! Baal has long tried to rule America, but the orchestrated plan of God to overthrow his influence in our nation began in 2007 (The Call Nashville 07/07/2007) and continues to this day. Yahweh is about to expose the evil plans of the god of this world and his allies. He has allowed them to gain ground temporarily in order to expose their deception, anti-Christ ways, leftist ideals and even idiocy. But He will strike in His zeal, power, and determination to reap the coming great harvest. God must have a strong America that honors Him in order to accomplish this, and He will have that. Do not doubt this. AMERICA SHALL BE SAVED!!!

Yahweh said in Exodus 14:4, before springing His trap, "And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will chase after them, and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord." This is exactly what happened. "Honored" is the Hebrew word kabad, which is the word for glory. God actually said He would glorify Himself as He dealt with Pharaoh and this false god. And some scholars believe when Yahweh said the Egyptians would know He was the Lord, this was not simply a statement about proving He was in charge. It was, rather, a demonstration of His grace to the Egyptians, who were deceived and in bondage, following false gods who could not save them. And when God shows Himself strong in America, He will be honored and glorified. Millions of people will realize the folly of their ways, and that Christ is their Redeemer.

Pray with me:

Father, You are an all-wise planner. You see the end from the beginning and know exactly what to do to get there. You have been preparing us for this moment in time; because of this we are ready to overthrow the spirit of Baal that has ruled our nation. We know You are passionate to see this accomplished - You always operate in compassion and desire to save.

Holy Spirit, You are a great and brilliant strategist, and You're the best Helper ever. As we listen to and obey You, we cannot lose. You have orchestrated events in our nation, preparing to overthrow the rule of this spirit, Zephon. You know him well. You have defeated him before. And the blood of Christ has sealed his fate.

Cause the Ekklesia to now arise and partner with You in this great endeavor. Bring a sense of urgency to the praying church. Cause them to know this is intended to be our finest hour. Indeed, You have spoken this to us prophetically. You have called it the greatest Kingdom campaign ever. Awaken us to this and to the urgency of the times. We ask this in the name of our Captain, Christ. Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that the church is arising and will deliver America from the control of Baal.

Yom Kipper
"Strategic and Pivotal Falls During Rosh Hashanah" Amanda Grace, Fishkill, New York

All praise be to the Most High God, King of kings, Lord of hosts, Maker of Heaven and Earth. The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof! And to His Kingdom there is NO END. All glory and praise to the Lord of hosts!

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "Is MY arm too short that it cannot save MY children? Is My power too limited that it cannot intervene? Fear not, for I AM WITH YOU. Be not dismayed, for I AM YOUR GOD. BEHOLD, I WILL STRENGTHEN YOU; I WILL UPHOLD YOU with My righteous right hand," says the Lord of hosts.

A Bypass and a Fall

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "The heart of the nation has become diseased. The CHAMBERS are filled with decay and filth and a BYPASS IS NEEDED AND REQUIRED," says the Lord. "And BYPASS I will," says the Lord. "For I the Lord your God DO NOT submit to man's laws and man-made governments," says the Lord. "I am not under their jurisdiction. However," says the Lord, "they shall certainly be under Mine. For there is a time and season for everything under Heaven," says the Lord of hosts, "a time to rise up and a time to fall.

"There shall be a string that attaches strategic falls in this hour," says the Lord. "Rosh Hashanah...one of the most strategic and pivotal falls and removals shall take place during this time," says the Lord of hosts. "For a dark horse is coming forth and leadership shall be overthrown and challenged. One shall even be a coup and reported as such...a political coup so strategic in its planning and timing that you shall see leaders around this country, I the Lord speak of – you shall see them fumble their words and visibly quake. For the winds of change are blowing across Europe," says the Lord. "The winds of change have begun to go forth in the United States of America."

Areas of Blue Shall Turn Red

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "The bell shall ring; the hour shall reach midnight, where you see a large shift in positions in this nation, for elections shall not be such. For sticky fingers shall be caught before the elections and arrests made," says the Lord of hosts, "that will further drive the people to take a stand. And areas of blue shall turn red, BUT not the mixed shade of red that has blue streaks running through it," says the Lord, "BUT RED.

"A RED FLAG, A RED FLAG," says the Lord of hosts, "JUST WATCH FOR NOT ONLY THIS NATION BUT A LARGE, RED FLAG TO OCCUR IN YOUR NATION THAT GIVES AWAY THEIR POSITION, as a group of three shall fall," says the Lord of hosts.

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "They may attempt to arrest. HOWEVER, I THE LORD OF HOSTS SHALL ARREST THEM IMMOBILE. THEY SHALL BE MADE IMMOBILE – A SICK BED OF THEIR OWN MAKING."

Watch for Lightning Strikes and Strange Occurrences in Israel

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "The time of the shofar – the time of the trumpet," says the Lord. "There shall be complete upheaval in Israel as it is indeed a new year. And a new way shall be made for a NEW leader to arise in Israel, assisted by one familiar with that seat, as lightning strikes in Israel shall hit in KEY areas, as well as unusual pressure and weather that shall indicate what is moving in the spirit; as I the Lord thy God am getting ready to completely cut open the entrails of their government and spill out and flush out what has been IMPACTED and blocking what I the Lord God have decreed and written on a scroll and sent it into the earth – into Israel," says the Lord of hosts.

"And that scroll has been read by the holy angels, and the instruction is being carried out, as I the Lord thy God am causing a crack in the brotherhood that has a grip on Israel. There shall be a crack and then total division as they turn on each other over the slightest comment that shall be made – the spark that ignites the fire," says the Lord of hosts. "And MY HOLY FIRE is set to burn near the Temple Mount. What man would call 'strange occurrences' will occur around the Temple Mount as a sign that what lies underneath is shifting. And there shall be a discovery brought to the surface from that location, as even the Wailing Wall shall lose a piece as an indication that I the Lord am tearing down their stronghold that they have built.

"And those who have turned on their own people, who are stealing the silver and the gold, who have been moving it from vaults into another neighboring country, shall be caught RED HANDED," says the Lord of hosts. "Watch and see as these things come forth and are brought to pass."

Justice Is Served

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "The papers will NOT be in order. The cords of the wicked shall be frustrated; their briefs shall be frustrated. Their case shall not be in order and shall be missing key documentation. And as they push more and more to bring forth an indictment, it shall turn, and that indictment shall fall upon members of the Department of Justice, as it is so named.

"I the Lord thy God have sent holy angels to write the words 'JUSTICE IS SERVED' upon the doorposts and areas [of] those attempting to hunt down not only political opponents, but ones who have seen what they are doing. And it has been written above the posts and the doors and the control rooms and the legal areas. And now I shall send My angelic army forth to look for that writing, and where it resides – those shall be struck and removed. Sudden retirement and sudden falls from position shall occur, as I the Lord am sweeping MY JUSTICE through the Department of Justice.

"And you shall see an emergency at the Pentagon as their plans for an even greater terror to the American people and those speaking truth fall short. And the Pentagon is shifting," says the Lord of hosts. "Watch the embassy in this hour. Your own government is going to willfully and purposefully – through proxies – attack the embassies as a distraction and a message that your people are not safe overseas. HOWEVER," says the Lord, "the blood of Benghazi, and what is attempted at the embassies, shall explosively come to the surface as their plans are unraveling, as even the Department of Transportation is involved in moving weapons undercover in what appears to be construction trucks," says the Lord of hosts.

Another Leader Shall Fall

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "YOM KIPPUR, THE DAY OF ATONEMENT," says the Lord. "Another leader strategically connected within much of Europe shall fall in complete scandal and disgrace, as the time of grace has thinned and a changing of the guard is occurring worldwide," says the Lord of hosts.

A Word to Italy

"Italy," says the Lord! "Italy, stop attempting to breathe life into an old Roman," says the Lord. "Those with serpent-like roots, stop attempting to resuscitate Rome and the empire," says the Lord. "For Italy is having secret meetings – the leadership – with those who want one world order and commerce and religion. They have deep channels and ways within their government where they are funding terrorist organizations and attacks and holding hands with the godless, with the red flag – with a Turkish flag. They are authoring worse than an Iran deal," says the Lord. "They are BROKERING, and they are involved in other elections in other countries as well.

"As eyes are on China and their allies, Italy has been doing much rewiring and moving of assets, including with Syria," says the Lord.

Watch Kuwait

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "Watch Kuwait as a part two will be attempted of what a corrupt and diseased Bush did long ago. That BUSH is soon to be uprooted," says the Lord of hosts, "for their meetings and plans and blueprints for leadership shall hit a SNAG as their members fall off the wagon, and some will just fall and suffer a break. For they are fumbling around in darkness and feeding the BEAST that wants to control and put a chain around the neck of the eagle," says the Lord. "However, there is a weak link: that chain is VERY compromised, and it shall break at its core, for iron does not mix with clay," says the Lord of hosts.

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "Watch what washes up on shore. Just watch," says the Lord.

Walk in Truth

The Lord of hosts says, "My people perish for lack of knowledge. The knowledge of the truth will set you free. Walk in truth, not parallel to truth BUT TRUTH, for many have taken the truth and dug channels off of it where they are mixing truth with fallible information.

"Do not allow yourself to be confused in this hour, for I the Lord thy God still have much work to do in leadership that is set to make a U-turn and come back. For I the Lord require obedience and humility and resolve and discipline of the mouth for this next term. I require it, and I the Lord God have raised that standard; and leaders who are marching toward the highest seats in the land shall meet that standard, or they shall see the road closed to them," says the Lord of hosts.

"My instruction is most crucial in this hour, NOT BRAVADO," says the Lord. "The bravado shall smooth its tone and delivery, as I the Lord will make a way where there seems to be no way. And they may attempt to surround and indict and fight; however, I the Lord am breaking their ring, and a way of deliverance shall be executed miraculously.

"Those around these leaders think they know, or they are "in the know"; HOWEVER, if they are not seeking Me about such matters, they are truly in the dark. And the devil will take potshots at such, as even the most brilliant strategist will not see the way I the Lord thy God shall make. For only those seeking Me to SEE WHAT I SEE SHALL SEE THIS WAY FORM," says the Lord.

The Untouchables Shall Suffer Major Strikes

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "I AM GOD; THERE IS NO OTHER. THE UNTOUCHABLES SHALL SUFFER MAJOR STRIKES AS THOSE RUNNING THE ENGINES OF SOCIAL MEDIA AND SILICON VALLEY ARE CUT OFF AT THE KNEES, FOR THEY HAVE CREATED QUICKSAND AND HAVE STEPPED INTO SUCH.

"STOCKS SHALL PLUMMET, BOTS SHALL FAIL, ALGORITHMS SHALL CRASH AND GO AWRY, AND THE MAIN FRAME AS WELL," SAYS THE LORD. "FOR THE FRAME IS COMPROMISED, AND THOSE WHO HAVE OPENED THEIR EYES FROM WITHIN ARE SET TO WEAKEN THE CORE OF THEIR CORRUPTION AND PLANS."

A Total Tilling of the Ground in England

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "I the Lord thy God shall and will have My way in this nation. I am sparking a total tilling of the ground in England, and a total rearranging of the crown and its points," says the Lord. "For what has been in the vault of the royals shall be unlocked and in this hour called forth, and the true tale shall be told of their exploits and involvements, including those who passed long ago; including the 'opposing' of brothers – the true reason shall come forth," says the Lord, "as all the soil must be broken up for new seed to drop into darkness first and then spring forth into the light."

I Am Calling My People Under My Wings

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "I am calling MY people under My wings to take refuge, for they are manufacturing yet another crisis in a different way – a way that has a twist to try and RETAIN CONTROL and prevent the people from being heard. Resources – electric – watch what they do, as while they are attempting to execute a sudden breach, then a break, then a complete fall," says the Lord of hosts.

"However, the nation and My children NEED to learn a grave lesson for this nation to be restored, as the Church needs to do their due diligence, as well and walk in truth and teach people truly how to be soldiers and servants; for they are being taught to be takers and bondage makers, and this must stop," says the Lord. "It must stop!"

A Church Shall Be Shaken Before the End of the Year

"One of the largest Churches in the nation – the leader will soon step down in shame, for iron and clay have mixed; darkness and light have mixed and have created a deep dark, hardened mess deep within its walls, and the truth shall be pulled forth, for I have sent MY servants to do such. And that Church shall be shaken in a way that it splits, as half or more of the people are desperately seeking a shepherd and they are getting a show, and the bread they are fed is dry and brittle and too much sugar – not enough essential substance," says the Lord. "Watch for this to occur before the end of the year," says the Lord of hosts.

Promotion in the Middle of Instability

The Spirit of the Lord says this day, "Promotion in the middle of the instability you see in your nations...promotion for My faithful. It is intense, and it shall be pressurized as you are promoted and marched through a new open door that you shall see unlock shortly, My children. Walk through it in faith knowing I AM WITH YOU, EVEN UNTIL THE END OF THE AGE. FOR I HAVE POSITIONED YOU FOR SUCH A TIME AND AM PRUNING BACK THOSE WHO DO NOT BELONG IN YOUR LIFE; FOR THE ENEMY SHALL NO LONGER USE THEM AS A HOST TO OPPOSE YOU, FOR THEY ARE BEING BROKEN OFF AND THROWN INTO THE WILDERNESS UNTIL THEY UNDERSTAND WHO THEIR SOURCE IS SUPPOSED TO BE.

"The spirit of entitlement and jealousy is being bound and muzzled and will no longer speak such harshness against MY children, as the time has come to put in order what has defiantly remained corrupt. This shall be a harsh re-aligning for some who did not heed the warnings, and that grace period has thinned, and there shall be a very large adjustment.

"Go forth knowing I am going before you, My children; I am protecting you. Now is the time to fast and pray and keep your eyes and hearts and minds on the things of God that are above, and you shall see vindication and victory in this hour. Thus says the Lord of hosts, in the name of Yeshua Christ who sits at MY right hand, amen."

It Will Be Just As He Promised"
Andrew Towe, Chattanooga, TN

Get ready for a supernatural strength to TAKE OVER the land. It is time for world-wide revival and for you to reclaim what God has promised. Don't back down and give in to despair. God's plan is in motion.

I heard the Lord say, "The enemy has brought discouragement and weariness upon many of My children. Some are at the place of giving up. Prophecy to their dried and scattered bones, saying, 'You will live and rise again. Soon you will take over the land, and it will be just as I promised. I am bringing you out of the dry and parched desert. YOU WILL TASTE THE RAIN OF HEAVEN.'

Awakening Seeds of Long-awaited Harvest

"My supernatural rain will awaken seeds and cause them to suddenly bring forth a long-awaited harvest. Weary warriors will receive strength and transition from a state of lifelessness to an elevated place of influence.

"Warn them, though, not to be deceived. The spirit of deception is attempting to grip them and cause them to miss what I am doing. You must keep your ear tuned to My voice. Refuse to listen to anything contrary to what I have spoken. Draw near, for I am calling you to another level of intimacy with Me. The cloud of My glory will release an abundance of a rain of wondrous breakthroughs. Keep your heart pure and committed unto Me. The time is now."

"Therefore, be careful to obey every command I am giving you today, so you may have strength to go in and take over the land you are about to enter."
(Deut. 11:8, NLT)

You Will Drink the Rain of Heaven in the Land of Promise

God is drawing His people to a place of consecration and obedience. You will be strengthened to TAKE OVER the land that God has promised you. Passivity has passed for the Church. God's people must live awake, alert and moving in a forward motion. It is not the time to give ground to the enemy. It is time for you to take over.

"For the land you are about to enter and take over is not like the land of Egypt from which you came, where you planted your seed and made irrigation ditches with your foot as in a vegetable garden. Rather, the land you will soon take over is a land of hills and valleys with plenty of rain – a land that the LORD your God cares for. He watches over it through each season of the year!" (Deut. 11:10-12, NLT)

Take note that the Scripture text above says, "For the land you are about to enter and take over is not like the land of Egypt..." In other words, the land God had prepared for His children was not like the place of bondage where they had to dig irrigation ditches, giving themselves to hard labor due to the fact that there was very little rain in Egypt. God brought them into a place where there was "plenty of rain." The King James Version described it as a land that "drinketh water of the rain of Heaven" (Deut. 11:11).

Listen up! God is promising that you too will drink the water of Heaven in the land that He has prepared for you.

The Spirit of Deception Has Been Exposed! Don't Believe His Lies

God gave a warning to the children of Israel that if they became deceived and turned away from Him and worship other gods, it would cause Him to shut the up the sky and hold back the rain. "But be careful. Don't let your heart be deceived so that you turn away from the LORD and serve and worship other gods." (Deut. 11:16, NLT)

Dictionary.com defines deception as "the act or practice of deceiving – lying, misleading, or otherwise hiding or distorting the truth."

An example of the deception that God spoke of was demonstrated in the Garden of Eden. There, the spirit of deception first overtook Eve and then Adam.

Satan convinced her to believe that eating the fruit God had forbidden would cause her to be more like God. The deception resulted in them no longer being permitted to dwell in the garden that God had prepared for them. Moreover, it brought a curse upon the ground to where they had been driven.

Refuse to allow circumstances, news reports, the economy, false prophets or any other lying voice to deceive you. The spirit of deception that has attempted to rule in this hour is now exposed. Reject his lies and fill yourself with God's Word. Everything God promised you will come to pass.

"God is not a man, that He should lie; neither the son of man, that He should repent: hath He said, and shall He not do it? or hath He spoken, and shall He not make it good?" (Num. 23:19, KJV)

"So shall My word be that goeth forth out of My mouth: it shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." (Isa. 55:11, KJV)

A New Realm of Dominion

You will drink the supernatural rain of Heaven. You are entering into a new realm of dominion. You are not a victim of your circumstances. You are more than a conqueror.

God has given you the keys to the Kingdom of God. Victory is yours!

"No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us." (Rom. 8:37, NLT)

The Apostolic Inheritance of California"
Jennifer A. Miskov, Anaheim, California
As California Goes, So Goes the Nation

For those who have eyes to see, there is a powerful prophetic destiny over California. As the saying goes, "As goes California, so goes the nation." The influence that comes from California has the power to impact the world. Just imagine what would happen if the entire state of California was on fire with revival, it could transform the world.

I never realized "calling out the gold" in a region could be so controversial; however, it must be done, and the truth must be told. California is an anointed land of revival. It is a land where revivalists are born and where many are launched into their destinies.

I freely admit that I was born and bred in Southern California, and I truly LOVE this state because I am able to see it through Heaven's redemptive lens. I grew up under John Wimber's ministry in the Vineyard; enjoyed the in-depth Bible teaching of Calvary Chapels; intersected with Heidi Baker when I was a student at Vanguard University (and later was ordained by her); and later spent seven years under Bill Johnson's ministry in Redding before returning full circle back to Southern California.

All that to say, I don't believe it's an accident that God placed me here for such a time as this. And whether you are from California or not, I pray this small offering will shift your perspective to see and call out the gold in this apostolic state and inspire you to dig to find the gold in your own region as well.

"Hot Furnace"

The origin of the name "California" is derived from a Spanish phrase meaning "hot furnace." California truly is a furnace with revival fire ready to catalyze another great awakening. God's heart for California is for redemption and alignment in accordance with its truest identity and destiny. God's heart is burning to touch the nations through yielded lovers fully surrendered to His call. This land is pregnant with yet another great awakening.

Calling Out the Gold in California

California is a place where apostolic, Holy-Spirit revival movements are birthed. When I use the term "apostolic," I am referring to something that has great influence, is exponentially multiplied, releases impartation and is exported around the world. Not only are there deep wells of revival in California that have watered the world with rivers of living water, but there is also an apostolic anointing on the economics, media and even physical land.

Aside from looking at anything spiritual, California alone – if it was a country – would have the 5th biggest economy in the world ($3.1 trillion). Some of the big-name companies that have influenced the world started or found their home here: Apple, Facebook, Wells Fargo, McDonald's and more. The technology that influences our generation is housed in this state.

Hollywood, the pioneer for media that shapes the world, found fertile soil in California. Disneyland, "The Happiest Place on Earth," was also born here. Whatever gets birthed or makes its home in California, knowingly or unknowingly, is tapping into the apostolic nature of this land. What people plant here has the potential to grow exponentially and be exported around the globe, whether good or bad.

Even in the natural, this land yields a great harvest. This state is the fifth largest supplier of food and other products to the entire world, and it's the largest provider of food to the nation. The climate and diversity of the land allows for over 400 different crops to be grown here. California produces and exports more almonds than any other place in the world. It is also the fourth largest producer of wine in the world and is estimated to provide nearly 90% of the wine in the U.S.A. It also leads the nation in providing strawberries. And the list could go on.

California is unique in other ways. It has the highest population of any other state. California also has the highest point (Mount Whitney – 14,505 feet), and the lowest point of 282 feet below sea level (Death Valley) of any other states on the mainland. The Golden Gate Bridge that was built in San Francisco in 1937 was, at the time, the world's longest and tallest suspension bridge in the world. It was said to have been an impossible feat.

California's Spiritual Inheritance

Aside from the significance and influence this state has in economics, natural resources, media and technology for the world, there is also a great spiritual inheritance in this land. California is a place where revivalists are born, and a place where budding revivalists come and are then birthed and launched into their apostolic destiny. Many Holy Spirit movements that have impacted the world found their beginnings in California. This land of pioneers has seen spiritual pioneers paving the way for us.

Carrie Judd Montgomery (1858-1946) pioneered some of the earliest healing homes in our nation when she moved from New York to California. She established the Home of Peace healing home in Oakland, CA in 1893, over 20 years before John G. Lake's healing rooms. Her ministry was catalytic to launch missionaries, revivalists and healing homes across the nation.

The Azusa Street Revival, which birthed American Pentecostalism, has impacted more in our generation with encounters of the Holy Spirit than any previous generation. This apostolic revival movement that is still impacting us today began in a little home with a handful of people in Los Angeles in 1906.

Aimee Semple McPherson (1890-1944) left her hometown in Canada and came to California when her ministry was launched. She was the first evangelist on the radio in 1922 and pioneered the first Christian radio station in 1924. She built her Angelus Temple in Los Angeles in 1923 and launched her apostolic movement International Church of the Foursquare Gospel in 1927. From her ministry base, she fed more people in the Great Depression in Los Angeles than the Red Cross.

Billy Graham (1918-2018) was relatively unknown until he ventured to California to do a tent meeting in Los Angeles in 1949. When publisher William Randolph Hearst sent a telegram to all his newspapers to "puff Graham," the newspapers gave him free publicity, he extended his meetings for weeks and the evangelist Billy Graham became an overnight celebrity.

The Yeshua People Movement, with mass baptisms of hippies at Corona Del Mar, was in part catalyzed by a hippie preacher named Lonnie Frisbee (1949-1993), who allowed himself to be used by the Spirit in his day. He not only impacted the Yeshua Movement, but he was also catalytic for the Calvary Chapel Movement and the Vineyard Movement.

John Wimber (1934-1997) launched the Vineyard Movement to new heights, spreading healing, signs and wonders, intimate worship and a heart for the poor around the globe from Anaheim, CA.

Heidi Baker (1959-present), who has since gone on to transform the nation of Mozambique, was born in Orange County, went to Vanguard University (fruit from the Azusa Street Revival) where she met her husband Rolland, and through pioneering Iris Global, she has touched nearly every nation in the world.

This is only the TIP of the Iceberg. I don't have time to share about Keith Green, who established The Greenhouse in L.A. where he lived with his family, and then opened their home to those in need. They later opened other houses and launched their ministry to help drug addicts, prostitutes and those in need. His music shaped a generation.

Henrietta Mears was a Sunday school teacher at Hollywood Presbyterian Church from 1928-1963 who impacted Bill Bright, who launched Campus Crusade for Christ, Jim Rayburn of Young Life, Billy Graham and more.

Chuck Smith launched the Calvary Chapel movement from Costa Mesa, CA. Loren Cunningham founded Y.W.A.M. (Youth With A Mission) in 1960 in his parents' California home. Trinity Broadcasting Network, which has released Christian media around the globe, was founded in 1973 in Southern California.

Bill Johnson led Bethel Church in Redding, CA in releasing impartation of the revival culture there around the globe. Lou Engle birthed TheCall while in California. The list of revivalists and/or global apostolic ministries that have been birthed in California could go on and on.

There Is an Inheritance Waiting

I have only just scratched the surface here, but I do notice a pattern. This is a land of apostolic inheritance. The wells of revival are deep in this land. These waters are freely available for all who can choose to honor the past and see the gold. This land is pregnant, yet again, with another great awakening.

I pray your perspective, prayers and understanding of California has shifted and become more aligned with Heaven's perspective. May God not only reveal the gold from this state to you, but also the gold in your home region, your family and even deep inside yourself.

14-day dedication of Solomon's Temple begins
Bruce & Linda Dietler - Kansas
Rainy-day People

The stars are beginning to fall. Queen Elizabeth II, Great Britain's longest ruling monarch has died. Tributes have come from national leaders the world over. Bouquets of flowers have been strewn at the gates of Buckingham Palace by well-wishers; others have expressed their loss in significant ways, while thousands more, on the evening her death was announced, took up silent vigil in tribute outside the palace standing for hours in the rain.

Rain may represent many things at different times in different situations. It may signify sadness, rejection, despair, or it might represent relief from heat and drought, a life-blessing from God, or still, purification from sin, or revival of life, re-growth and refreshing. In times of great grief, the downcast soul might receive it as tears of compassion and grace and the purity of God's great love falling from Heaven as He joins Himself with us in our loss or sorrow. At other times it might represent a cleansing of the past and bringing of hope for renewal and new birth of better things to come. Rain creates not only physical change, but also mental and spiritual change. To all who stand in the rain, it brings the body's senses - physical and emotional - to the forefront, tending to shut out the external noise and chaos of the world as all focus becomes immediate and personal. Standing in the rain might bring introspection and clarity of thought, and to the Christian, lit might bring to mind the Word of God and/or the presence of the Holy Spirit, as we are to be "washed by the washing of water by the Word." (See Ephesians 5:26)

The show of affection for Queen Elizabeth during the silent vigil in the rain stands in stark contrast to another such rainy-day gathering documented in the Bible.

Following the destruction of Jerusalem by the Babylonians and the subsequent overthrow of Babylon by the Medes and Persians, King Cyrus of Persia issued the decree to restore God's temple in Jerusalem. The call was answered by Zerubbabel, who, along with 50,000 others, returned to the ruined city to accomplish the task. Due to the resulting political strife and infighting among various factions in the region, the project was delayed for many years before construction was allowed to continue. It was not until 80 years after Cyrus' original decree that Ezra, the Priest, journeyed to Jerusalem to instruct the inhabitants in the Law of God. Ezra was a ready scribe who had prepared his heart to seek the law, to do it, and to teach others. (See Ezra 7:7,10)

During the Babylonian captivity and subsequent years in Israel, without established temple worship or godly leadership, many of God's people had intermarried with the inhabitants of the land, had neglected worship of the true God, had forgotten or ignored His ordinances and had committed various abominations.

Ezra was commissioned to set magistrates and judges in the land and to teach the laws of God to "all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not." (See Ezra 7:25) This commission also authorized that "whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment." (See Ezra 7:26) "And they (Ezra and the priests) made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem; and that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away. Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain." (Ezra 10:7-9)

This great gathering was not because of endearment or honor for God by the people, but rather, for fear of being excommunicated from society and having all goods confiscated. It was not the overwhelming desire of God's people to seek the law and learn His ways. Over time, this had now become a largely secular society: the ways of God had been forgotten, forsaken, or just ignored. As the word of God was read by Ezra to the people, they were made accountable to follow His commandments and separate from their foreign wives and separate even from the children of these unions.

Great anguish swept over the congregation, but they ultimately agreed to follow the law as delivered to Moses.

As Christianity in American society has seemingly been losing ground in recent decades relative to atheism, humanism or other belief systems, it is tragic that many within the Body of Christ, will seek the Lord only under duress. History is repeating itself. Yet it is still God's desire that we seek Him out of love with our whole heart, mind and strength, and that from that heart of love we would choose to commune with Him, honor and serve Him all of our days, regardless of gain or loss in the process. I believe the Lord would say to us, "Will you not love me such that you would be willing to stand out in the rain for hours to hear My true word and learn of My ways, even more so than does a secular crowd, willing to show respect for a dead earthly monarch? How are you willing to sacrifice in order to hear from Me?"

In Deuteronomy 5:27-29, the congregation of Israel in the wilderness, not wanting to hear from God themselves, tells Moses to go up and hear from God and we'll do whatever He says. The Lord responds to Moses that He is pleased with what the people have said, but "O, that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them and with their children forever!" God was pleased with their words, but He knew their hearts, and He knows ours as well. The nation wasn't wanting to stand in God's presence, but rather, they'd let Moses do it for them! How many in the present-day Body of Christ are willing to let the pastor hear from God so they didn't have to? It is easier, after all, and besides, that's what we pay him for!

Throughout biblical history we see time and again where God's people would turn from the Lord to follow their own ways and as a result be overcome by their enemies. God would then raise up a prophet or a deliverer to restore them to Himself. Gideon, Sampson, Elijah and others readily come to mind.

It is said of Rehoboam, King of Judah after Solomon's death, that "he did evil because he did not set his heart to seek (inquire of, yearn for) the Lord with all his desire." (2 Chronicles 12; 14 Amp) Many other examples could be cited, but the fact is, each individual has a vital part to play in seeking, serving and growing in the Lord. Yes, it is important that we listen to the voice of the prophets and follow them, but it is equally important that we seek the Lord ourselves, and that with all our heart. As "disciples" of the Lord, that is, as disciplined followers of Him, it should be our greatest desire to commune with Him, to seek and to serve Him, and to be like King David: men (and women) after God's own heart.

Proverbs 16:15 tells us that "the king's favor is as a cloud of the latter rain." That favor is available to all who seek Him. The early rains will come upon the land to satisfy the parched and thirsty soil of our heart and prepare it for the seed of God's word -- and the later showers will follow to refresh and bring forward the ripening crop to maturity.

The rain of the Holy Spirit is falling upon the dry ground of the earth. It is not coming as just a small cloud the size of a man's hand, but rather, a massive outpouring which will quench the thirst of all who seek His presence. God's refreshing, renewing presence is being poured out in abundance upon all who will receive it. The rain is falling. Are you willing to stand in the rain to receive all God has for you, regardless of the cost?

For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants. (Isaiah 44:3) I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. (Hebrews 8:10-11) "Lord," I said, "is that really You speaking? He isn't here; he's in heaven." In retrospect, it's comical to try and explain something to the Lord, but I felt I needed to state the obvious. "He's dead, Lord." I reiterated. "I can't bring him back to pray with him."

The response was simple, "But his prayers are not dead." That idea rocked me. Now, if you had asked if I thought the man's prayers had died with him, I would have said "no," but might have wondered if it was a trick question. The Lord continued, "Until this generation comes into agreement with what this man asked Me to do, I can't answer his prayer."

This greatly impacted me, as I realized God hadn't said, "I won't," as in "didn't want to." He had clearly said that without this generation's agreement, "I can't answer his prayer." The idea of God saying He couldn't do this really messed with me. I had to know more. I began to ponder Hebrews 11, remembering the heroes of faith listed there along with some of their amazing exploits. However, we often forget that some of those faith heroes did not see the fulfillment of their promises. This has always seemed somewhat contradictory to me. When God searched history to accent great lives of faith, He chose to list some that did NOT receive the fulfillment of their God-given promises. These people went to the grave with unrealized promises from God, yet they had truly believed, even making it into the great Hall of Faith. Clearly, they weren't deficient in their walk of faith; why then did they die without seeing the promises fulfilled?

The last verse of Hebrews 11 gives us the amazing answer. "Because God had provided something better for us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect" (Hebrews 11 :40 NASV). The Greek word translated as "perfect" also means, "to finish; to complete; to mature; to reach the intended goal." They did not receive the fulfillment of their promises because God wouldn't allow them to be complete without us. That is incredible! We, today, play a role in these individuals' callings and assignments. Think about the ramifications of this: without us, God can't finish what He began through these saints; what He started through them cannot mature or reach its intended goal until we grab the baton and run our leg of the race. That is mind-blowing!

God gave these individuals promises, but He didn't give them timelines. He did not tell them He would bring the fulfillment in their lifetimes, although I'm sure most of them expected Him to do so. The eternal God, who transcends time, speaks promises that are sometimes more reflective of His nature and relationship with time than ours. At times, He makes promises to people, knowing full well He will deliver on those promises through their children, grandchildren, or spiritual descendants. I wonder what I may be finishing for a pastor or teacher from a few decades ago? Or perhaps even for some flag waving patriot warrior?

The generations are far more interconnected than most of us realize. In God's mind, accomplishing something through our descendants is the same as doing it through us. Our comparatively shortsighted approach assumes every promise He makes will take place momentarily or at the very least before we die! We can't fathom that a transcendent God might not share our urgency about the 80-year window we think of as life. Meanwhile, God feels no pressure and understands that if He fulfills His promises through our offspring, the accomplishments were for us, as well as for them.

Conversely, the opposite is true. The Scriptures tell us that the credits and blessings from what we accomplish now can be reaped by our descendants. Hebrews 7:9 states that the descendants of Levi paid tithes through their great, great grandfather Abraham. They didn't actually sow the tithe - grandpa did. But they shared the reward. I wonder what blessing we're experiencing today that someone else paid for! As mind-stretching as this can be, there is an aspect of our spiritual walk that stretches beyond the boundaries of our window on earth. We can connect spiritually with things that occurred before us, and we can contribute to things that will happen in the future. Our prayers know no bounds, as long as we are open to thinking about time from God's perspective, rather than our own.

But Holy Spirit wasn't finished instructing me in this prayer session. He had a seven-word phrase with which He intended to rock my finite mind. These seven words stretched my thinking yet again and have resonated in me ever since: "I need the synergy of the ages."

"You need WHAT?" I immediately responded. It is obvious by now that this prayer time was wreaking havoc on my preconceived concepts and paradigms! Holy Spirit was making me think outside of my God-limiting boxes.

What is synergy of the ages? I quietly wondered. Synergy is a fascinating concept. Think of it as a multiplication of power through combined effort. In almost all cases in the physical world, one plus one equals two. But not when people work together. When two or more people combine their efforts and strengths, power is multiplied - not just added. God so loves unity and agreement that He created a phenomenon through which power multiplies when we simply work together! Synergy doesn't operate only in the natural realm; it also takes place in the spirit realm. Prayer is one example. Spiritual synergy takes place when two or more agree in prayer. The result is that through multiplied power, much more is accomplished than would have been had we prayed alone. Leviticus 26:8 teaches us about the power of multiplication, "Five of you shall chase a hundred. and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand, and your enemies shall fall before your sword" "Something unusual and supernatural takes place through agreement - synergy. When we agree in prayer, our power grows exponentially.

Synergy also occurs when generations connect. Honoring our parents multiplies our years on earth (Ephesians 6:1-3), while disconnecting from them brings forth curses (Malachi 4:6). Spiritual mantles, another word for callings and giftings, multiply in effectiveness through generational synergy (2 Kings 2:9). God's plan is always for the present generation to build on the strengths of the previous. This is the synergy of the ages - multiplied power through generational agreement and honor.

In AI Sanders' book Crisis in Morality! He compares descendants of an atheist, Max Jukes, to the offspring of a well-known preacher of that same era, Jonathan Edwards: Max Jukes married an ungodly girl, and among their descendants were 310 who died as paupers, 150 as criminals, 7 as murderers, 100 as drunkards, and more than half of the women were prostitutes.

Jonathan Edwards lived at the same time and married a godly girl. An investigation was made of 1394 known descendants of theirs. Of these descendants, 13 became college presidents, 65 college professors, 3 United States senators, 30 judges, 100 lawyers, 60 physicians, 75 army and navy officers, 100 preachers and missionaries, 60 authors of prominence, one a vice-president of the United States, 80 became public officials and 295 college graduates, among whom were governors of states and ministers to foreign countries. Amazing!

When Holy Spirit spoke to me that day, I was already aware of synergistic prayer. I knew I could agree in prayer with the person next to me and multiply power (Matthew 18:19). I just didn't know I could agree with the generation behind me! Generational synergy - the synergy of the ages - was nowhere on my radar.

Time is so much more connected than we realize. The Second Great Awakening isn't over; it is just on pause until the third wave hits. Billy Graham's evangelism isn't finished; thousands of flaming evangelists are about to grab his baton. And freedom's torch hasn't gone out; its embers simply await the fresh wind of Holy Spirit. Reach back and move forward!

Pray with me:

Father, our shortsighted vision - in both directions - causes us to overestimate our role and underestimate that of others. We are but a link in the chain, a runner in Your great relay race. Heaven's great cloud of witnesses is hoping we grab the baton. We commit to You today that these forefathers of ours will not have run in vain. Cause a force deep in our DNA to respond to this challenge. Like a salmon being drawn by an invisible force back to the place of its birth, may Your eternal purposes arise in our hearts, causing us to reach back, grab hold, and run ahead. We are an eternal company, joined in spirit, united in purpose. Send now another wave of revival, another blast of Your breath, another surge of Kingdom power. Revive us again. We are confident this is coming - we are agreeing with You, not begging You. We are Your family, partners, and friends - not hirelings. Onward, upward, and forward is our determined aim. Your pleasure is our reward.

In Christ's authority, we pray. Amen

THERE IS WARFARE IN YOUR WORSHIP
ROMA WATERMAN, MELBOURNE, VIC, AUSTRALIA

I heard the Lord say, "There is warfare in your worship."

He then said to me, "For many think the solutions from Heaven are only found in revelation in the oratory, well-written sermons and speeches coming from dynamic speakers with charisma."

"As much as I love the Word being preached with power, I also love My Word being DELIVERED WITH PRAISE. So do not dismiss the sound of worship coming from surrendered hearts in making rivers in the desert and pathways across the rocky plains! For there is a move about to come where no words need to be spoken; but a sound will be released that resonates with closed portals in the thin places, and at the sound they will OPEN, and I will rain down from Heaven."

I saw little voices that didn't think they had much to offer singing in surrender, and the weighty, thick presence of the Lord falling upon the room. I saw set lists being pushed to the side in favor of unknown melodies, and simple words of love and adoration taking over whole meetings. I saw that as the song was released with no agenda, healings began to take place in people's bodies. I saw Yeshua walking through the room and literally standing in front people, giving His full attention to their prayers and deepest cries of the heart. (Some will even have visions of this as He releases miraculous healings with signs and wonders.)

I see a new wave of worship that is marked by holiness, with worshipers understanding the cost and giving up all to live a marked life. They do not care for hit songs; they care about a sound HITTING THE MARK. They are not interested in being known and seen by the many because they have the attention of the One.

I heard the Lord say, "I share this with you to show you what is to come, but to also give you PERMISSION. For I do not want My warfare worshipers to be swayed by the opinions of man or an organization. I want My worshipers to be as bold as lions, wise as serpents and gentle as doves. And this wisdom can only come as you let go of the expectations of man and walk off your map," says the Lord.

There is warfare in your worship!

10 Tishrei (c. 1313 BCE) – Moses returns from a final trip to Mount Sinai, bearing a second set of tablets and a message of forgiveness for the Golden Calf.

Tabernacles begins, Historians report Yeshua was born on the first day of Tabernacles either 2 or 3 BC. Regardless of the year, Rejoice, HE was born unto us and one day in the future it is believed HE will return on that corresponding day. So indeed, listen for the might rushing wind, a new era will begin!

"The Winds of Change Are About to Blow!"
Nate Johnston, Dallas, TX

Recently, I woke up just after midnight and felt to pray and go stand outside. As I did, I heard God speak so clearly: "The winds of change are about to blow!" The strange thing is that it was eerily quiet – like completely silent with no wind; almost like catching the stillness of waters for the minutes in between tides. Then I heard it again: "The winds of change are about to blow!"

The Sound of a Rushing Mighty Wind

The next morning, we woke up to the most chaotic winds that I have seen in a long time, with trees bending around our yard and anything not secured flying around. I knew God woke me up the night before to show me what was about to come... "And suddenly there came a sound from Heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting." (Acts 2:2) Suddenly, there came a sound of a rushing mighty wind... Out of nowhere, the winds are about to blow and cause those who have been in waiting to be SENT and RELEASED into the new thing. Suddenly the winds will blow; those who have been empty will be filled to overflowing and the new chapter will begin.

A New Chapter Begins

The winds of change are the winds of the government of Heaven that are being released to usher in the new wineskin and fresh move of the Spirit. They are the winds of awakening which are being sent to revive tired and weary warriors who have died on the battlefield of the last move. They are the winds which are being sent to restore dry bones to life and to awaken a mighty army that has been in slumber. They are the winds that have been released to put the fire back into the bellies of those who have grown cold.

They are the winds that have been sent to uproot those who have been stuck in limbo, and in the wilderness, to reposition them to where they will thrive. They are the winds of breakthrough – suddenly breaking through once menacing obstacles. They are the winds of a new beginning and a new chapter for the Church. They are the winds of new blueprints and mission orders that are being handed out to those who just can't do the old thing anymore.

They are the winds of change that are being sent to commission God's new era "change agents." And they're here! Can you feel them. Get ready for change. Not the kind of change that scatters, but the kind that plants. Not the kind that unsettles, but the kind that establishes and settles scores.

At first, it may look like chaos in the natural, but God is bringing that which has been out of sync and out of alignment back into order. It will look messy and unfamiliar, but it will be the catalytic event that will mark many for the days to come. So get ready for your new mission orders. Get ready for your weather to change out of nowhere as God now finishes what He started.

Recompense and a Turning

As I write this, I feel an intense recompense on the winds. They are the winds of God TURNING situations around that have been against you – the mounting injustices and demonic taunts surrounding you at every point, trying to keep you bullied and confined to a corner. The winds are here to deliver you from the hand of the enemy where he thought he had you in checkmate.

The winds are also here to set people free who have been walking in spiritual blindness. Suddenly your eyes will be opened, and you will lay down the cards the enemy set you up to play which were a diversion from your path. You can't play culture's game and follow the Spirit at the same time, so watch as God suddenly changes the hearts of those who have been mixed up.

The winds are going to QUICKEN God's plans in the nations of the earth, so look for areas where evil has been thriving, and watch as God begins to take back the keys and send people into key roles. The winds of change are the changing of the guard, so look for those whom God re-mantles for the days ahead. Their message has been changing; their focus has been changing. And now watch as God suddenly picks them up and plants them in their new assignments.

It's Time for Your Weather to Change

We are entering an hour, a moment of action, where we are to set the captives free and push back against the darkness that has been usurping our influence and territory. We are getting our keys back!

Hearts will come alive again – you will come alive again! Watch as the winds of change purge from your heart the pain, trauma, and deep-seated grief that has been wallowing in your soul. It's time for your weather to change and for the winds to come and stand you back up after a season of crawling and barely surviving.

So I pray today this over you: Holy Spirit come! Revive us, renew us, and lead us out of the rut into the place where You are going, in Yeshua' name!

"God is Exposing Corruption and Will Save the US Constitution - Through President Trump"
Kathie Walters, Macon, GA

Dreams Over America and President Trump

About 12 years ago, I had a dream of seeing a battleship. It was as if I was in a plane above the ocean and as I looked down, there was a huge battleship laying on its side in the middle of the ocean. It was the "US CONSTITUTION," and I felt sure it was going to sink. The side that was upturned (exposed) was covered in rust. I know Bob Jones used to tell me that rust represented "corruption."

Then I saw a hand come down from Heaven with a huge paint brush and a large can of that grey anti-rust paint and He (God) began to paint the anti-rust stuff on the side of the ship. Then I thought it would be OK. I woke up thinking, "God will rescue the Constitution."

I had a second dream about 6 years ago, and again I was high up, like in a plane, looking down and the "US Constitution" was still lying on its side in the water. It was still rusted, but I saw the figure of a man in "overalls" and he was standing on the rusted side with this can of that anti-rust paint (like I saw in my first dream) and he was painting over the rust. So again, I thought, "Good, the Constitution will be OK."

Then I wondered "who" that man was because he was in a dangerous place standing on the rusted side. The rust (corruption) could cave in on him, so I prayed that he would be able to apply that anti-corruption paint safely. Then it was as if the camera zoomed in, and I saw who the man in the overalls was Donald Trump! I was a bit amazed as I only knew of him from seeing a couple of apprentice shows (this dream was six years ago).

When I first heard that Trump was considering running for President, I was a bit surprised because he was not a politician, but then I remembered the man in the overalls who was helping with "repairing the corruption."

I didn't think about it anymore until I was in New Zealand ministering and was very busy. One night at a hotel, I suddenly awoke at 3am and was wide awake. I made some tea and turned on the TV. It was a whole program about the Trump family; I didn't know any of his family. So, I started watching; they showed his whole family, even his grandkids.

As I started watching this show about the Trump family, this beautiful aroma came into my hotel room and filled the whole room. It was like sweet Almond oil. I smelled it and breathed it in the entire time the program was on for an hour. When the show finished the Almond oil aroma just drifted away. It was so awesome that from that day, I knew that although Trump didn't "look the part," he was called to make upright the "US Constitution." God told me He will protect the Constitution because He wrote it.

Niagara Falls and an Outpouring of His Spirit

I also want to add this dream I had years ago because last Wednesday, when I was reading some of Kenneth Hagan's great books about the NAME OF YESHUA, I got up from my chair to go to my bedroom. I was also thinking about the Senator who was shot in the ballpark last week. I was thinking about the hatred that seems to be gripping people and I thought, "Only an outpouring of God's Spirit can wash that away." Then I felt this great waterfall, like Niagara Falls, was going to be released. It felt like it was pouring into my house and following me up the stairs.

Then I remembered an encounter I had about 12 years ago at Joy Strang's house. I was going to speak, and Rebecca was playing the piano, worshipping, and I was suddenly taken away by Holy Spirit. I was standing in the water up to my knees. The water was rushing around me, and I could hear this huge thunderous noise. I looked up and I was standing in the water that was coming over the falls (I was away from them a distance). But this invisible force was drawing me nearer and nearer to the falls when the Lord said to me (speaking of the falls), "How would you like to get under that?" I said, "Well, I will die for sure." God said, "Not if you're dead already." Well, the good news is that you were crucified with Christ, so you are qualified to receive!

Last Thursday night as I was heading to bed, I thought about the hatred that seems to be in the political arena, as the Senator was shot recently in the ballpark. I thought, "Oh God, only a great outpouring of Your Spirit can really do anything. As I said that it felt like "Niagara Falls" was coming into my house. I ran up the stairs. I texted Sid Roth about the word/encounter (Niagara) and then next thing I knew, Fox News was showing a lady on a high wire over the Falls. Nik Wallenda's wife, Erendira, hung over Niagara Falls by her teeth!!!

Through these encounters of Niagara Falls, let's pray that God is sending an outpouring of His Spirit, His Niagara Falls, to America in this crucial time!

Five Heavenly Responses to Current Earthly Circumstances"
Sara Whitten, Kerrville, TX

As we've watched current events unfold, there is a temptation to feel powerless. The truth is that behind every negative headline and evil agenda, there is a redemption plan of the Lord. Recently, the Lord has been highlighting five responses or postures for the Church that partner with the "working all things for good" that He is doing behind the scenes.

A Return to the Gold Standard

As we've watched inflation soar, the Lord has reminded me how, in the natural, inflation is caused by deviating too much from the "gold standard." Spiritually, this is a time in which God is returning us to a "gold standard." There are many concepts that have crept into our theology (both individually and corporately) over the years which are not backed up by "gold" – the Word of God. There is a revival He is bringing that is a hunger for His Word. There are plans in the hearts of some of His people, and even the birthing of books and resources, which will be instrumental in diving deeper and reigniting passion for reading and studying His Word.

A Creative Surge Is Coming

We've also witnessed the massive contention over families, both with attacks on the identity and sexuality of our children as well as the hard-fought battle of abortion. Because the Lord uses mothers and fathers as well as the family as the basis for creating life in the natural, this reveals that the larger attack is against all that God is creating and birthing. The heavenly response to this attack is going to come in the form of a wave of creativity. The recent overturning of Roe v Wade symbolized a protective move of Heaven over all the Lord is wanting to create. Prepare to see new innovations, ideas, inventions, and creative solutions being made through Believers that the Lord is raising up.

A Smashing of Idols and a Wave of Healing

In recent years, through all that surrounded the pandemic, an idol of health and safety has been created through fear of death. Sacrifices to this idol have included sacrificing connection with others, freedom to travel and more. As a response to this, the move of Heaven is bringing a huge wave of healing, which is happening now – healing meetings, revivals, testimonies and waves of supernatural manifestations of healing that can only be done through the Lord.

This will be a vehicle through which the Lord will draw many to His heart by showing His comfort and love. God will remind the world that He and He alone is the God of healing and the God who sets us free from bondage to fear, isolation and stagnation.

A New Unity After the Threshing

It may seem that contention, polarity and disunity are growing and growing, but the Lord has revealed that this is actually a threshing into unity. Just like a crucial conversation involves some conflict before a resolution is solved, issues are being aired which look only like conflict, but the result of these will actually be a stronger unification of the Church body in places we have been passive or disjointed.

A Multigenerational Work

Finally, God has repeatedly reminded me of instances in which errors are repeated due to a lack of knowing history. In the same way that we see biblical cycles of flourishing and falling into disobedience when the people forgot the Lord, we are being called to greater continuity and remembrance.

There are revivals the Lord is wanting to bring that are not new revivals but new levels of revivals that He has already started in generations past. We need to know the full picture of the puzzle we are adding on to. In order to do this, God is putting on hearts a desire to connect intergenerationally. There is an immense wealth right now in elders in the faith. We may glean from the testimonies, history and wisdom of the revivals the Lord has been building through their lives in order that we may create a more cohesive, intergenerational work that grows bigger and continues longer. Watch for open doors in mentorship, connecting with other generations and works of media aimed specifically at equipping future generations.

While there is much turmoil, when we lift our eyes to see the heavenly agenda happening behind the scenes, we can be encouraged! There is much to hope for and much to partner with if we will step in the opposite spirit of the world and step into the Holy Spirit's flow in these areas.

NEW SEASON, NEW WINESKIN, NEW SHOES: IT'S TIME TO RUN!
DIONNE WHITE, WACO, TEXAS

I hear in my spirit, "Ready, set, gooooo!" as the shot of a starting gun goes off. The time is quickly coming, and, for many, it is now upon you - when you will run and not grow weary, when you will walk and not faint! The pain of the past season in your walk will fade away very quickly as you put on your new running shoes. You are coming into a season of running and walking with joy and ease, and you will do it with others! You are coming into a season of running with your tribe - the ones that God destined you to run with. This is a company that is like hearted, like minded and like focused; they are like family.

You have been obedient and have waited a long time for this — to find your people and be able to fulfill the call on your life with others for the glory of God. Can you feel it? Can you smell it? It's like the feeling and smell of a spring rain! It's fresh, it's new, yet it feels and smells like 'home'...a place of belonging, a place of purpose, a place of laughter and comfort. It's the new wine that's being poured out! It is a place of VICTORY.

The load you carried will be no more. The pain and ache in your feet from your walk will be no more. The squeezing and the pressure will now be released. You will not run alone anymore. You will not carry alone anymore. The Lord has corrected and directed your path into new fields of favor. With new shoes on your feet, you will walk in great authority and power, running the distance by faith. As you go, I can see the clearing ahead. You have waited to see the promise on the horizon; it's coming!

I declare: All fog is lifting. All the distractions are lifting. You will even feel it in your body; a lightness will return as the spirit of heaviness flees! I see scales coming off your eyes so that you can see. The enemy has tried to bind you and blind you with his schemes, to distract you with insults, offenses, systems and programs, but you have not been ignorant to his strategies. You have gained wisdom and keen site - even in the blindness of the past seasons, where the enemy tried to block your view and sabotage your call.

It's time! The chains are falling OFF. The bit and bridle of the enemy are falling OFF. The old shoes are coming OFF. The burdens of others are falling OFF - OFF I SAY! You will receive the yoke and burden of Yeshua as you run in your new shoes and are fueled with the new wine. This is the race you've been waiting for! This is the one you have trained for and the Lord has prepared you for! It's time; off to the starting block you go!

The Lord is pleased with you. You have not given into the enemy or fainted in your flesh. You have submitted to His teachings. You have sat with Him. You have let Him into those areas of your heart you once protected. He has searched you and He knows you! He has seen your path, the pain, the betrayals, the control and the disappointments; but now He says, "Enough!"

The rigorous training has ended, and the race must now begin. GO, DO, RUN, BUILD. Do it all for His glory. He is cheering you on from the sidelines! You have been trained and are well equipped, and He will continue to teach and lead you as you go. As you go, others will come to join you on your journey to help fulfill the purposes of the Lord assigned to you and them.

It is time. Put on your new shoes. GO, DO AND RUN! The future is glorious! Finish the race.

Tishrei 14, 5783: Sunday October 9, 2022
Veronika West: "NATIONS ARE NOW IN THE NINTH HOUR";
"FEAR NOT! I WILL PUT YOU IN THE CLEFT OF THE ROCK FOR NOW MY GLORY IS PASSING BY"

So, on 22/9/22 the Holy Spirit again spoke to me concerning the Prophetic Significance of the Number (9) and the Word: "A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE" was swirling in my Spirit PRAYER IN TIME SAVES A NATION FROM JUDGMENT'. While this word was given to me at the time for my own Nation, I believe that this Prophetic Word is a NOW WORD FOR THE NATION'S.

I kept hearing Holy Spirit say, "NATIONS ARE NOW IN THE NINTH HOUR" as I prayed fervently for the Nations and being sensitive to everything the Spirit of Revelation was saying I was suddenly led to DANIEL 9: 1-19 and again I heard these words 'STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE' and the number (70) SEVENTY came up before me and I heard these words 'Watch! and pray as a time of even greater shaking brings an even greater awakening yes!; for this must take place that nations may come into perfect alignment with my kingdom purposes, watch as a divine reordering begins I say go up to higher ground and watch as my hand shakes, shakes, and shakes the nations in the valley of decision, ha! have I not said I shall have what I am looking for I shall not be mocked but nations shall surely be moved shifted and rearranged boundary lines shall be reordered landscapes shall be forever changed fear not! I will put you in the cleft of the rock for now my glory is passing by'.

As I heard those words, I was led to take verse by verse and pray to the God of Mercy and forgiveness for the Nations even as Daniel Prayed at the end of a 70 Year Rule. I believe God is revealing this morning both a prophetic timeline and more importantly a powerful prophetic strategy for the hour, JOIN ME I'm praying the Prayer of Daniel 9:1-19 for your Nation.

Daniel 9:1-19

1 In the first year of Darius son of Xerxes (a Mede by descent), who was made ruler over the Babylonian kingdom

2 In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the Scriptures, according to the word of the LORD given to Jeremiah the prophet, that the desolation of Jerusalem would last seventy years.

3 So I turned to the Lord God and pleaded with him in prayer and petition, in fasting, and in sackcloth and ashes.

4 I prayed to the Lord my God and confessed: "O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with all who love him and obey his commands,

5 We have sinned and done wrong. We have been wicked and have rebelled; we have turned away from your commands and laws.

6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 Lord, you are righteous, but this day we are covered with shame -- the men of Judah and people of Jerusalem and all Israel, both near and far, in all the countries where you have scattered us because of our unfaithfulness to you.

8 O Lord, we and our kings, our princes and our fathers are covered with shame because we have sinned against you.

9 The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him;

10 We have not obeyed the Lord our God or kept the laws he gave us through his servants the prophets.

11 All Israel has transgressed your law and turned away, refusing to obey you. "Therefore, the curses and sworn judgments written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against you.

12 You have fulfilled the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing upon us great disaster. Under the whole heaven nothing has ever been done like what has been done to Jerusalem.

13 Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us, yet we have not sought the favor of the Lord our God by turning from our sins and giving attention to your truth.

14 The Lord did not hesitate to bring the disaster upon us, for the Lord our God is righteous in everything he does; yet we have not obeyed him.

15 Now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand and who made for yourself a name that endures to this day, we have sinned, we have done wrong.

16 O Lord, in keeping with all your righteous acts, turn away your anger and your wrath from Jerusalem, your city, your holy hill. Our sins and the iniquities of our fathers have made Jerusalem and your people an object of scorn to all those around us.

17 Now, our God, hear the prayers and petitions of your servant. For your sake, O Lord, look with favor on your desolate sanctuary.

18 Give ear, O God, and hear; open your eyes and see the desolation of the city that bears your Name. We do not make requests of you because we are righteous, but because of your great mercy.

19 O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For your sake, O my God, do not delay, because your city and your people bear your Name." "Seventy (70) has a sacred meaning in Scripture that is made up of the factors of two perfect numbers, seven (representing perfection) and ten (representing completeness and God's law). As such, it symbolizes perfect spiritual order carried out with all power. It can also represent a period of judgment"

Veronika West: DIVINE IRRITANT; A PEARL OF GREAT PRICE
SET WITHIN THE VICTORS CROWN! Repeat from 2021.

Ha! I suddenly heard the Spirit say, "Daughter tell the Nation of America TO FEAR NOT, For Joe Biden is but grain of sand in my Hand that I am using in this hour, as a DIVINE IRRITANT to produce a Pearl of great Price that will be set within a VICTORS CROWN that will sit upon the head of a Prodigal Nation that has RETURNED TO ITS SENSES,..REPENTED and been FULLY REFORMED AND RESTORED BACK TO ITS TRUE IDENTITY AND KINGDOM AUTHORITY AND DESTINY"!!!!

As I heard those words, the Spirit of Revelation whispered, "LISTEN! FOR THE SOUND OF A TRUMPET BLAST WILL HERALD THE CROWNING OF A NATION THAT HAS OVERCOME IN GREAT VICTORY"!!

EmPowering the enemy through agreement by reason:
Sharon Kaseweter, Oregon City, Oregon

The word of God states in Matthew 18:19 "Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven."

Agreement is a powerful tool that can be used for lightness or darkness. There are many idioms regarding Bad company corrupting good character! The Bible discusses it in depth in many chapters. Search agreement biblical, and you'll see them!

In the beginning the Creator God was in agreement with The Word and Holy Spirit to create the earth! The fallen angels came into agreement with Lucifer before he was satan, and all fell with him!

If that doesn't tell you a thing or two about agreement, I'll keep going!

So, we see there is good agreement and there is not so good agreement. One agreement will profit us, and one agreement could destroy us! "Watch who you keep company with" is a warning we have heard since childhood from our parents! They knew a thing or two about agreement maybe without even understanding what they knew! They just knew that bad company corrupts good character!

In order for God to be able to work in our life for the good we must come into agreement with all that he says in the word of God, so too, for the enemy to be able to work in our life we must come into agreement with what he says!

Satan knows all about agreement and one of his goals is to get us to come into agreement with what he's doing, for example the doctor says you've got so-and-so , you have a choice to say what the word of God says about so-and-so and come out of agreement or you can come into agreement with so-and-so by accepting it!

Yeshua NEVER Came into agreement with Satan's schemes! it's that simple, it's really that simple!

So now we have a little idea about agreement, let's take it one step further, shall we?

Reason Is defined in Websters dictionary as "A declaration made to explain or justify action, decision, or conviction". Agreement is bad enough let alone reasoning with it! Just as agreement can be used for lightness or darkness so can reason, and it will solidify the agreement like a double barrel shotgun!

Reason can be used to excuse a bad choice for whatever explanation you can come up with! It still isn't going to "pass muster" with heaven if you know what I mean. I don't see where Yeshua reasoned with the darkness in the Word of God, I do see where he cast them out Immediately if not sooner Without fail!

We should take a lesson from the Son of God! It would surely behoove us to read the Scriptures regarding agreement!

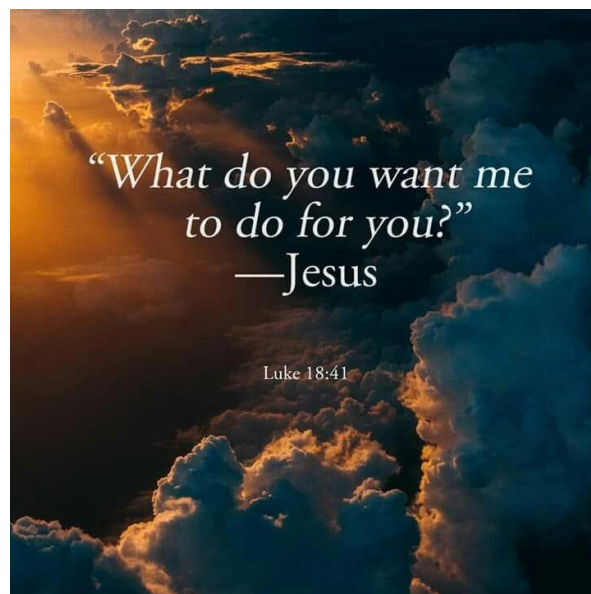

The Lord was showing me something one day years back regarding reason., and when the end of the lesson had come, the words he spoke have never left me "Those who reason justify, those who justify, sin"! We sin against God and heaven itself when we reason with hell and justify our reasoning. Again, Yeshua never did!

Ask the Lord where are you have Come into agreement with satan by reason and given him the upper hand in your life.

Since you're the one who came into agreement you are the one who must break agreement, and your choice to do so will be honored by heaven and hell! I think there needs to be a saying on a T-shirt "I don't come into agreement with that" on the front and "or that either" on the back! That's my motto.

Coming or going we can't afford to come into agreement with what is not aligning with heaven itself, and much of what is going on in the world is counter to God's plan. Sometimes we actually might find it necessary to vocalize those words since silence can be compared to consent!

If you want what Yeshua has you have to do what Yeshua did and Yeshua never came into agreement with hells diagnosis! EVER!

I know this is not a popular preach but I don't think Yeshua cared what was popular or not, I think he cared what was the truth or not. Because only the truth will set us free!

If the world held a popularity contest Yeshua would've been the biggest loser. What an honor, I will gladly stand in that line. Will you!

It's imperative to understand one of the reasons we were given free choice, what we do with our gift determines our destiny and Satan knows it. So whenever a negative diagnosis or situation or a condition is in your path do not reason with it and break agreement with it immediately!

Heaven has countless resources for anything that comes against you, never forget that.

Here's an example of reason through agreement. People go to the hospital and fill out the questionnaire regarding their parents and grandparents health and then the doctor says you're prone to this or prone to that and you feel like you have no choice but to come into agreement with it, Which is a trap of the stealthiest kind, Because if you don't it's a lie, which is the biggest lie because the Bible says no weapons formed against you shall prosper, greater is he that is in you than he that is in this world, and you will overcome by the blood of the lamb and the word of your testimony, All written in the word of God for our consumption! If we but choose to eat of it! That's why it says we are to be wise as serpents and harmless as doves, Satan the serpent is very devious in his wisdom but, God is always many, many steps ahead of his devil.

Ten years ago I went to the doctor and had an ultrasound for a situation I was experiencing, when the test results came back the doctor called me on the phone and said "this is what you have you and need to get in immediately" and I said to the doctor right then "I do not come into agreement with your diagnosis because the word of God says, He sent his word and healed me and delivered me from all destructions". According to "Psalms 107:20" The doctor without hesitation said, "that's exactly what you should've done Sharon, wow" and I never had a complication. I stood my ground when I staked my claim!

Beloved one, if you have found yourself coming into agreement by reason with anything that is not identified as coming from heaven why don't you just break that agreement and see what happens If you think about it, you have nothing to lose and everything to gain!

If we were to judge God by reason based on what we see in this world God would be the biggest loser! That's why we must not come into agreement by reason. God says it; therefore it is, and it can be nothing less or more.

Let's pray, father of lights faithful and true, holy and just, noble and praiseworthy and of virtue, you said for us to come before your throne of grace and find grace and help in our time of need! You are the unending Faithful One, the Unyielding Loving One, and the All Encompassing Present One! We can do nothing without you and everything with you.

Show us through the Holy Spirit where we have come into agreement by reason and honor our prayer as we break agreement and shun reason!

According to second Corinthians 10: 4-5 We take every thought captive that exalts itself above your name right now and we cast it down and lead it into captivity to the obedience of Yeshua Christ!

Help us to identify it quickly in our lives when it's in our path and to shut it down expediently!

In Yeshua's All mighty name, amen and amen

Wake Up Church and Use Your Sword!"
Scott Allen, Kennesaw, GA

While praying and repenting of various things, I was caught up into Heaven and saw Yeshua standing directly in front of me with a grin on His face. He held out, in both hands, a gleaming sword and said, "Do you want your sword back?" I hadn't realized I'd lost it, but I somehow, I had. I replied, "Yes, Lord." Then I held out both my hands and He laid the sword in them. It was so beautiful and strong! I wondered what this was about.

A Portal into the Mountain of Religion

Yeshua then escorted me over to where there was what looked like a large 8-foot diameter mirror with gold frame around it. But as we got closer, I realized this was not a mirror – it was a portal! Yeshua pointed into it and said, "Look." I stepped closer and saw in it the earth below. Then, in closer detail, I saw a huge, tall, stony mountain, and heard the Lord say, "This is the mountain of RELIGION on Earth. Watch and see."

Angels of Light Dispatched Like Missiles

Millions of "angels of light" had been dispatched from Heaven and were shooting into the mountain of RELIGION like missiles, with big flashes of light and booming sounds like thunder! I knew that a great exposure of darkness to the light of God was going on, both now and in the days just ahead.

Yeshua continued, "All the religions of every culture are on this mountain, and they are now being impacted by waves of My angels of light. But take a closer look. I want to show you My Church...My body of Believers."

Choose This Day Whom You Will Serve

The scene changed and I saw the interior of a large mainstream church with ornate pews and dimly lit lights. Dark caskets were lying in most of the pews, and one was very close to me on the floor of the main aisle. Written in bold, white letters on the side of each casket were the words "DEAD WORKS."

Suddenly, the angels of light hit the church! Bright light from Heaven flashed all over the dark caskets which shook each time with their impact. It got so intense that the lids on the caskets flung open. In each one lay a Christian who had at some point received Yeshua into their heart.

Then I heard the Lord speak over them, "WAKE UP, CHURCH! CHOOSE THIS DAY WHOM YOU WILL SERVE...DEAD WORKS OR ME!"

Immediately, a lot of the people opened their eyes, sat up and stepped out of their caskets with a new resolve to follow the Lord (including me)! Others still lay there, trying to decide. I could hear many of their thoughts, like, "I like my church. I like my pastor. I like my friends here. And I'm comfortable here. It's a good place to worship and fellowship. I don't want to change. I feel safe here. It's too messy out there. I don't want to deal with all the evil."

The ones who had gotten up out of their caskets suddenly transformed! The full armor of God appeared on them in shining glory (Ephesians 6)! Each one became a mighty warrior of the Kingdom, looking straight ahead at Yeshua with both of their hands firmly holding their sword of the Spirit (Ephesians 6:17). Each one seemed to be thinking, Reporting for duty, Lord!

The Greatest Outpouring of the Holy Spirit and an Army of Warriors Armed with Love

A time passed for everyone to choose. I don't know how long it was. But when the Father determined the time for repentance was over, He gave the order. He released the greatest outpouring of the Holy Spirit ever, like a mighty wave, onto the entire world! Those who decided to stay in their caskets floated away and disappeared at the onrush of these mighty waters. The warriors who left their caskets behind to follow Yeshua were sucked up into the huge wave of the Spirit and surfaced on top! Each one faced forward, fully armed with a firm grip on their swords of the Spirit...ready for battle, and their greatest weapon was love!

Then I heard the Lord say, "It is a time of war, and My Church is not ready. The devil has come in like a flood attempting to establish a premature one world government. They are trying to change "times and laws" (Daniel 7:25), but WE will not let them. I will have My great harvest at the end of the age (Matthew 13:39-43). My Spirit will be poured out on all flesh (Joel 2:28). The knowledge of the glory of the Lord will cover the earth as the waters cover the sea (Habakkuk 2:14). My Bride will be without spot or wrinkle (Ephesians 5:27). All of this is coming upon you now and in the days ahead."

"You are in Me and I am in you. We are seated on My throne together. My sword is in your mouth! Use it! Decree with Me: RISE UP, CHURCH! COME OUT OF YOUR DEAD WORKS! PUT ON THE FULL ARMOR OF GOD, AND WE WILL PUSH BACK THE DARKNESS TOGETHER!"

Arise and Become! Crossing Over in Transition"
Dr. Sandie Freed, Bedford, TX

Doesn't it appear like we are all having to embrace a continual change? According to statistics, most people don't like change at all. We might think we do, but when it gets right to the point of embracing anything new, it becomes uncomfortable. The point is this: We like to know where we are going. We may need to experience something different, but we want to know what that "different" looks like, right?

Unfortunately, our soulish issues (fear, insecurity, worry, anxiety, fear of failure, etc.) arise when we are led to untraveled and unfamiliar paths. When we are uncertain or unclear during times of transition, we feel unstable. Many falter during transition due to the temptations of the soul (the flesh).

However, dear ones, as God's Kingdom advances, more transitioning and changing is required. Trusting the Lord is mandatory for an advancing army if victory and breakthrough are to be experienced. He alone knows the strategy needed for each of us at this time. Keep reading – I'm going somewhere with this, and I know that what God has shown me will empower you as you shift into greater fulfillment.

What the Great I Am Says About You

Many times, in our mind, we can envision ourselves finally arriving and experiencing our breakthrough. Whether it is our healing, a financial shift, our kids coming home, our children delivered from addictions, our fulfillment, etc., our breakthrough keys involve trusting the Lord in all things – especially in His directives, so that we get from "here" to "there." We are in a shift, but to get there we must change and transition. We all want to get to "there," right?

Where is this place you may ask? I'm referring to your land – your land of promise. The Israelites had their Promised Land. Today, we study it as Canaan, the land of the giants that would have to be overthrown, and a land of rest that God had promised His children. Today it doesn't necessarily represent a literal land (although for some of us it could); mostly it is a promise.

Our "land of promise" is the soil of our lives in which God was planted His Word (His seed), and that soil produces the promise that has been sown into it by Him. It could have come in the form of a Scripture that God spoke to your heart, a prophetic word given to you, or in the form of a dream or a minister through which God spoke. Regardless of how you heard it or received it, it was a promise from God in seed form, which was released into the land of your heart to produce your "there"!

In this season, much is being revealed concerning our spiritual identity. We must remember who we really are. We are who He says we are. Let that sink in. Yes, the great I AM says, "You ARE"! You are who God says you are, and only the I AM can get you there. What I mean by this is that He always persuades us that we are His sons. Romans 8:14 reminds us of this truth: "For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God."

The word "sons," here, refers to all of us, both male and female. In biblical times, it was a son who would receive the family inheritance and not a daughter. But in Christ, we each have been given a royal inheritance – all being "sons" of a loving Father. As children of our natural parents, it may have been difficult to trust them, but our heavenly Father is trustworthy and faithful. Our natural parents may have let us down, but God never does!

Because of His faithfulness, we can stand firmly on His promises. His promises include divine protection, direction, provision and His continual presence in our lives. He truly is the Promise Keeper – the One we can fully trust, especially during times of change and transition.

Transition and Crossing Over – AGAIN!

The other week I spoke to our church concerning Joshua chapter 1, when the Lord was instructing Joshua to arise and cross over the Jordan River. It was another transition time for him, as well as for the entire nation of Israel. But, for Joshua to follow God, he had to first rise before he could take any steps in the right direction of destiny.

When we experience difficult seasons, we get down and depressed, and often a spirit of hopelessness overtakes us. But again, if we want to move forward, we have to arise, trust and follow God! Every transition time requires an arising time.

Joshua chapter 1 tells us that it was a difficult time for Joshua and for all of Israel. Why? Because Moses was dead. He went up a hill one day and never returned. Joshua and the people of Israel were so devastated. They mourned and lamented this loss for thirty days (Deuteronomy 34:8). Can you imagine their thoughts? Questions like these must have gone through their minds:

- Who is going to lead us now?
- No one is as powerful as Moses!

- Who can compare to the man, Moses, the one that God has used to speak to us all these years?
- Who will intercede for us now? Who will feed us or give us water?
- Moses was the only one who could hear from God for us. Who can we possibly trust now?

Moses, their previously anointed leader, was dead, and now they had a new leader and a new direction. Change. Transition. They were afraid! Yet, it was Joshua who was anointed by God to lead His people forward. He was chosen by God to fill the shoes of Moses. He had previously been Moses' servant and assistant but was now the point man. His transition required that he rise and embrace an identity transition to step into a territorial transition. It is the same for us today.

Arise and Become!

I have been prophetically speaking into the revelation of our spiritual DNA and identity for a long time now. Without repeating what has been proclaimed about our spiritual identity, let me be blunt for the sake of this article: We must arise and become! This is our only way to cross over in this season!

The Lord understood Joshua's challenge! Because Joshua was probably intimidated, unready and uncertain, the Lord told Joshua three different times to be strong and courageous. He needed to regain the strength and courage that he had once had! If you recall, around forty years prior, when sent as spies into the Promised Land, it was Caleb and Joshua who returned with a good report, saying that they were well able to take the land. Even though Joshua saw giants in the Promised Land, he fully trusted in God to give them the victory!

However, during the next forty years in the wilderness, he endured the death of an entire generation. He now faced the challenge of raising up an entirely new generation of warriors who didn't even know how to fight! He needed courage because to look at their situation in the natural, it would appear somewhat hopeless. Joshua had performed zero miracles, and there was no outward demonstration of God's glory and power upon Joshua's life. How would Joshua convince the people to listen and follow his lead?

Think now about all that Joshua may have been thinking and telling God: Lord, these people are going to compare me with Moses! I am not a Moses! Moses was an awesome leader, God. Don't You recall all he did?

- Moses had an awesome rod! ALL I HAVE IS THIS SWORD.
- Moses turned the Nile into blood.
- You used him to proclaim plagues in Egypt.
- He led Your people forth in the Exodus.
- He parted the Red Sea, and they crossed over on dry land.
- He brought forth water from a rock – from a ROCK! And more...
- God! I don't think I can do all that!

Joshua knew He couldn't fill Moses' shoes. Everything was changing and they were in huge transition. It was the beginning of a new season. The old was gone the new was there.

He Promises His Presence

How did Joshua get the strength to arise? How did He rise with the courage that was needed to lead an entire nation into new territory? It was because of this: God promised to be with him!

If you carefully study Joshua 1, you'll notice in verse 5 that God assured him, "...Just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you or forsake you."

In verses 6-9 God charged Joshua with these directives:

- 1) Be strong and be courageous
- 2) Be obedient
- 3) Follow His directives
- 4) Do not be afraid or dismayed

In verse 9, God said these words that sealed the deal for Joshua: "...for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go." Joshua would lead God's people because He became strong and courageous. He became obedient. He became a leader who trusted and followed. Joshua became who God said he would be as His leader: strong, courageous, obedient and one who followed His directives. But, even more importantly, He trusted God in the transition, because as God was faithful with Moses, He was now promising to be faithful with him.

It is the same with us today. We are in transition in so many ways, but the main transition we are experiencing is the process of becoming who God says we are! If we are believing to be healthy, we are trusting God for our healing. But it's more than that! It about becoming the healed one!

Transitioning from a place of sickness to a land of health may require a miracle, yes. And aren't we thankful for that? Absolutely. But ultimately, it is a transition, a change and a transformation process of fully becoming ALL that God intends for us to become!

You've Not Been This Way Before!

In Joshua 3, we read that it was time for them to cross the Jordan. As God directed, the priests carrying the ark of God were to go first over the Jordan. The ark was symbolic of God's presence; so the Lord was demonstrating to His people that His presence was going before them, as He had promised to be with them. Joshua told the people, "...When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the Levitical priests carrying it, you are to move out from your positions and follow it. Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before..." (Joshua 3:3-4).

The people were to fix their gaze on the ark of the covenant, for God redirected the focus of their journey from their uncertainties to His constancy. He was saying this: "I know you haven't done this before, but if you keep your eyes on Me, I'll show you the way."

His Presence Is More Important Than His Presents

It was God's way of saying, once again, "As I was...so I will be." The God "who is and who was and who is to come" (Revelation 1:4) still promises the same for us today. If His presence goes with us, how can we fail? Where He goes, His glory goes. For so many decades we have focused on His gifts – His "presents" (gifts to the Church) – and yet it is His presence in which He is asking us to trust. For years, we have focused on our "land." But, if we will keep our eyes fixed on His presence and cry out for it, He will give us the land! We may have never been this way before, but we can enter the rest of knowing this: "As I was...so I will be..."

My Prayer for Us

Father God, empower us to seek after You and Your divine presence. You promised Joshua that You would lead him and that You would be with him. You promised to be with him just as You were with Moses. That promise empowered Joshua to be able to rise, take courage and become Your leader. Lord, we each believe that in our time of transition, as we cross into our new territory and full destiny, You are with us! You will empower us to become who You say that we are.

We take courage and arise, knowing that Your presence goes before us. We honor You, trust You and love You. As we remain fixed on You, we trust that You will never leave or forsake us, and all that You have promised to do, You will surely do. As we all transition, we are determined to be strong and courageous and advance Your Kingdom. In the mighty name of Yeshua I pray, amen!

DEAD SITUATIONS ARE BEING RESTORED TO LIFE
ABBY DUPLAGA,

Recently during prayer, the Lord led me to read and meditate upon Ezekiel 37:1-14. He was ministering to me personally through these scriptures, but I believe there was something that He was revealing more corporately for the Body of Christ. I knew it was for more than just me.

I believe He is revealing that resurrection power is coming upon the lives of many or will be coming upon the lives of many. For those who have been looking at a situation and have been feeling lost, scattered, displaced or disconnected, God is releasing His power to bring life again. By His Spirit, His breath of life, there will be resurrection! Not by might, not by power, but by His Spirit (Zechariah 4:6). It will be a work so miraculous that there will be NO DOUBT that it was anything but the Lord.

As Ezekiel spoke these words of the Lord, there was a natural response (or response in the natural realm) to his activation: "Then He said to me, 'Speak a prophetic message to the winds, son of man. Speak a prophetic message and say, "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come, O breath, from the four winds! Breathe into these dead bodies so they may live again.'"

"So, I spoke the message as He commanded me, and breath came into their bodies. They all came to life and stood up to their feet - a great army." (Ezekiel 37:9-10 NLT)

Continue to speak and decree and declare the word of the Lord over whatever your situation may be; speak life, speak hope, speak resurrection, speak healing, speak deliverance, speak Yeshua! The power of life and death is in the tongue (Proverbs 18:21).

God is breathing upon seemingly dead situations to bring miraculous resurrection by His Spirit and for His glory!

"Then He said to me, 'Son of man, these bones represent the people of Israel. They are saying, "We have become old, dry bones - all hope is gone. Our nation is finished." Therefore, prophesy to them and say, "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O My people, I will open your graves of exile and cause you to rise again. Then I will bring you back to the land of Israel. When this happens, O My people, you will know that I am the LORD. ""' (Ezekiel 37: 11-13 NLT)

I also sensed He is bringing sons and daughters' home.

"I will put My Spirit in you, and you will live again and return home to your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I have done what I said. Yes, the LORD has spoken!" (Ezekiel 37:14 NLT)

May you soon have a testimony and know the Lord as Resurrection!

"God Is Making Room for You to Bloom!"
Christa Elisha, Oxford, Ohio

Crossing over into September this year, the Lord reminded me of a season of preparation I went through with Him a number of years ago. I believe the season I walked through is a word for the Body of Christ today.

I was in a time where I felt the call of God so big it was as if I was carrying a 14-pound baby and I didn't know how or when to give birth. At the time, I was a full-time hairstylist struggling to balance work, life, church and relationships. I was desperate for revival and for a community that was as passionate as I was to see the greater works of the Spirit.

Not only was I carrying this heavy calling, but I was also in a process of taking inventory of my heart and character so that when the time was right, I would be able to steward whatever ministry God had impregnated my spirit within a way that would rightly represent Yeshua, making Him irresistible to the lost. I just wanted to introduce people to His love, but in order to do that I had to repent of all the ways I did not reflect His love well, which required MUCH repentance.

Looking at all the sin, shortcomings and selfishness in my life was very humbling and painful. The more I saw my true heart motives through examining the fruit of my life compared to Christ in Scripture, the more rotten I felt. Have you ever felt that way? I feel like there are many of us in the Body of Christ who are in the same place, saying, "God, I stink! I stink as a parent. I stink as a spouse. I just stink!" If that has been you, I want to encourage you: God is making room for you to bloom!

Pruning the Garden of Our Hearts

I want to share a vision that the Lord gave me for you. I saw Yeshua dressed as a gardener with large pruning shears which represented the Bible. He was tending to a beautiful rose bush that had grown out of control. There were wild branches that had been eaten up by locusts and other pests – hardly alive but taking nutrients away from the branches that were thriving with vibrant blossoms.

Yeshua lovingly and strategically snipped off unfruitful branches here and there, tossing them into a firewood pile. I watched Yeshua lean in to smell the roses with deep breaths that obviously brought Him great pleasure. That's when the smell of this rose bush hit me like a wave of the most fragrant perfume I had ever smelled before! It almost knocked me over and was so strong I could taste the sweetness of it on my tongue!

He then turned and spoke to me, "My people are going into a pruning and purging season to prepare them for the days ahead. Many are experiencing the momentary affliction that comes as I cut away what is hindering them from their maximum growth and potential. I am also freshly circumcising hearts in this season who have grown hard as a result of spiritual warfare, false accusations, hope deferred and the cares of life.

"As My remnant surrenders to the process, they will experience a clearing away of all the clutter, demonic chatter, parasitic relationships, unfruitful thoughts and behavior patters, and the spirit of heaviness that has been weighing them down.

"I am cutting ungodly soul ties with unhealthy people who have been a 'drain' on them mentality, emotionally, physically and spiritually, so that new, symbiotic, mutually life-giving relationships can blossom. I am cutting away many of the last season's assignments and I am making room for new plans and purposes to be birthed; for the new growth to spring forth; and for, overall, more fruitfulness in their lives. This does not come from focusing on sin, but by abiding in Me by faith through grace.

You Are Growing!

"I am near to My people in this pruning season, and I desire greatly for all to draw near to Me and pull strength from the power of My Spirit working in them. Then their roots will go down deep into My love, making them unmovable and unshakable. They will see that they are My rose – the theme of My love song! Their surrendered life is a fragrant perfume and a sweet-smelling sacrifice to Me.

"I am removing and restoring everywhere the locust and the cankerworm devoured. It will be as if they were never there! Come to Me and allow Me to prune and purge what is stunting your growth. Allow Me to make room for your true calling to super bloom! You don't stink. You are just growing!"

"I Saw the US Capitol Building Laid Like a Coffin"
Charlie Shamp, Moravian Falls, NC
Word released on September 20, 2022:

Shaking the Foundations

I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "Do not fear at this time where evil seems to prosper. I am bringing you to victory. There is a shaking of the foundations in America unlike you have ever experienced in the past. I am removing every mask of deception, dismantling satanic structures and demolishing demonic altars.

Destroying the Stranglehold on America

"There will be two significant deaths that shall come; they will mark an end of the injustice they have sown. This will be a sign that I will not tolerate the spirit of python in your nation! I'm destroying the stranglehold that Hell has placed upon you, America.

"Do not seek to speak to the fallen dust from which man has come. Do not argue with the dark carnality and corruption of sinful man. Do not entangle yourself in the war of the flesh in Washington DC.

Speak to the Wind - Prophecy to the Dry Bones!

"Speak to that which I have given to you. Speak in the Spirit to the wind; speak My Word to the earth. Prophecy to the dry bones and they will live! Prophecy to the spiritual wells of revival covered over and call them forth to flow again.

One Who Has Stood as a Prophet in the United Nations

"For there will come one that has stood in the United Nations as a prophet for Me. They will say, 'This man is not a puppet; we cannot pay him to do as he is told. How were we unable to remove him? Make him silent, for he goes against that which we want to achieve.' I say, too, he is not a politician, but My prophet. I have sent him as one crying in the wilderness.

The World Forum Will Not Prevail Over God's Heavenly Plan

"For, America, you have become a wilderness to Me - one filled with wild beasts and a jackal. In seasons past, they worshiped their god Baal in secret, but now they worship him openly and mock Me. Your world forum will not prevail over My heavenly plan. I will strip and strike down world powers and reveal your weaknesses before many. You have created places so evil that torches give off no warmth when they are lit. I am clearing the board! I am tearing down idolatrous men. I am smashing altars of self-worship in your midst."

The US Capitol and the Plumbline

I saw the US Capitol building area laid like a coffin with a man resting in it. I then saw the Lord put the plumbline in Congress.

I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "I will dismantle the destroyer. I will destroy death in this nation. I will uproot the oppressor. I will bring My plumbline in this nation, so look past the visible. Read beyond the headlines. Feel the labor pains intensifying. The birth pains are increasing. Just as a diamond is created through intense pressure and time, I am birthing the most radical of spiritual revolutions in the backdrop of intense warfare in this season!"

"In a Dream, I Heard: Stock Up on Food"
Elaine Tavalacci, Staten Island, NY

"In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, while slumbering on their beds, then He opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction." (Job 33:15-16)

Today I'm going to share a prophetic dream that I had last week. First I want to say that Yeshua will always provide for His people, whether it is by natural means or supernatural provision. I also want to say that "anything" can be averted with prayer.

Those of you who read my blog, "A Word in Season," know that I am not an alarmist. I rarely share things about the end times or eschatology, although I love to hear others teach and prophesy about it. However, I feel led of the Holy Spirit to share this dream that I had. Please note: I didn't sense any fear or urgency in this dream, but it was somewhat of a warning.

I always share the prophetic words that the Holy Spirit gives me to bring edification, exhortation and comfort. I usually don't mention what the enemy is doing because I feel that his game plan is obvious to most of us, and it doesn't need it to be confirmed. I am grateful for those who are called to release apocalyptic words and teaching. Not all dreams are from God, but when you receive a dream from God, you won't have a doubt in your mind that it was inspired by the Holy Spirit. Also, by the mouth of two or three witnesses, every word will be established (2 Corinthians 13:1).

"But he who prophesies speaks edification and exhortation and comfort to men." (1 Corinthians 14:3)

A Dream of Bob Jones

In my dream, I was looking out at a beautiful meadow of lush, green grass with hills and valleys. I was wondering how I'd be able to get down the hills because they were pretty steep.

Then the dream switched over to another scene where I was driving down a street with an old friend (Bob) who passed on two years ago. I pulled up to a house and the late prophet Bob Jones came to the door. Bob Jones was a reputable seer/prophet who was known to have an amazing prophetic gift. He was standing inside the door with a yellow t-shirt and dark pants. He called out to me, inviting me to come in the house, and without hesitation I went inside.

He said that the Holy Spirit told him to go to his door because I was coming to his house. My friend didn't come in with me, but Bob Jones' wife Bonnie was also in the house. I told him that I hadn't pulled my car over to the curb and asked him if it was OK for me to leave my car parked in the middle of the street. He replied, "Yup, that's OK." Then I looked outside the window, and my car wasn't there. It wasn't stolen, it just seemed to vanish. I wasn't concerned about the car, I just wanted to hear what the Holy Spirit had to say.

Bob then asked me if I wanted to go into his portal area. I said, "Yes, of course." It was just a corner in the room with light-colored walls.

I sat there, expecting Bob to prophesy to me. I was also sitting next to a young man who was tall and fair skinned with black, straight hair (he could have been an angel). This man began to prophesy over me and said, "Stock up on food," and I was thinking to myself, Oh no, someone else told me to do that. Then he repeated a second time, "Stock up on food." That was all he said.

As I was waking up from this dream, I actually tried to pull myself back into the dream to hear what Bob had to say, but I woke up. I didn't have any fear when I woke up, and I felt the peace of God.

Portals

For those of you who are not familiar with prophetic symbolism, Bob often spoke of portals which are simply places where you meet with God. When we speak of an open portal, it signifies that there is an open Heaven where you experience His presence in a powerful way. Some of you experience this in your homes, with prayer groups or in meetings. It's a place where God manifests His glory and His presence fills the room.

I feel that some of you are going to begin to experience this in your personal times with Yeshua. Jacob experienced a portal in his dream in Genesis 28, when he saw a ladder with the angels of the Lord ascending and descending.

Stock Up On Food!

The next few days after this dream, I received several confirmations about stocking up on food. I came across a video on YouTube from Bonnie Jones, who is the widow of Prophet Bob Jones, and I was amazed at what I saw. A few months ago, she had a prophetic dream in which the Lord told her to release this message to the people about stockpiling nonperishables. She said that the Lord woke her up at 3:00 AM and said, "There is going to be a downfall of the economy. Purchase nonperishable foods now." She wrote it down and went back to sleep.

That morning, she got up and He spoke to her again, saying that the time is growing closer to where we won't be able to buy groceries in the store. We are having food shortages now, but it's going to get worse. The Lord told Bonnie that she must be prepared and warn others. She had no idea of the timing. People have been giving warnings for a while, and others have not taken it to heart. She said that she wasn't saying this to scare anyone, but we need to stockpile nonperishables now and be ready for a drought. She said that she wasn't sure if it will be a natural drought or a spiritual drought, but it probably will be both.

Yes, the Lord will provide for us, but He's telling us to make preparations.

Another thing is that the prices of food are going to continue to rise due to inflation. We've heard several prophets warning us for years now. Heidi Baker said awhile ago that she saw wealthy people in food lines because food was so scarce in the USA. Bob Jones, Rick Joyner, John Paul Jackson and other prophets also warned us. Again, I want to say that Believers have the authority to shift anything with prayer.

The Miraculous Provision of God

"Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap, which have neither storehouse nor barn; and God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds? And which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature? If you then are not able to do the least, why are you anxious for the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith?" (Luke 12:24-29)

You may be thinking, Didn't the Lord promise that we are coming into a great awakening? Yes! And we are about to see the greatest move of the Holy Spirit that the world has ever experienced. We will see the lame walk, the blind receive their sight, the lepers cleansed, the dead raised, and masses of people saved.

In this time of global shaking, the Lord will pour out His Spirit on all flesh just as He promised in Acts chapter 2. He's telling us to be wise, and keep our lamps filled with oil. We are about to experience the miraculous provision of God, and we will certainly see the glory of the Lord in the land of the living.

"Pray – Don't Give Up!"

By Steve Loopstra, Director, Your servant in Christ Ministries

Luke 18:1 (NLT). One day Yeshua told his disciples a story to show that they should always pray and never give up.

Let me ask you a personal question. Are there things in your life that you have desperately asked the Lord for, not received an answer and given up? I want to take you to another amazing passage that teaches us that sometimes we need to pray and not give up. In Matthew 15.

"There was a judge in a certain city," he said, "who neither feared God nor cared about people. A widow of that city came to him repeatedly, saying, 'Give me justice in this dispute with my enemy.' The judge ignored her for a while, but finally he said to himself, 'I don't fear God or care about people, but this woman is driving me crazy. I'm going to see that she gets justice, because she is wearing me out with her constant requests!' " Then the Lord said, "Learn a lesson from this unjust judge. Even he rendered a just decision in the end. So don't you think God will surely give justice to his chosen people who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? I tell you, he will grant justice to them quickly! But when the Son of Man returns, how many will he find on the earth who have faith?"

Cry out to Him, that is the term that Yeshua used to describe the attitude God is looking for those who are seeking justice from Him.

So I want to think with you about some of the things that we see in this passage that perhaps we need to consider. Let's explore these things together and look at some other examples of those who would not give up.

Cries of desperation

And behold, a woman of Canaan came from that region and cried out to Him, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed." Matthew 15:22

This Canaanite woman had recognized who he was and came to him and cried out for mercy. She was confronted with a situation that was way beyond her ability to deal with it, and she came to Yeshua with the only thing she had left... a cry of desperation! There are times when we have cried and may be crying out for mercy to the Lord. Something has gotten hold of us, or our family, and we feel that we have no power to overcome it. Something that is beyond our ability to deal with it. Don't be afraid to cry out to the Lord from your desperation. Or perhaps we are hungry for more of Him. Have you ever been that hungry for more of God? For more of His intimacy with you? More of His manifest presence in your life, your family, your situation? Because when He comes in His manifest presence, He changes everything.

This woman was willing to break whatever barriers were in front of her... being a woman, being a Canaanite woman to come to Yeshua, her only and last home... and He gave her what she cried out for. Can that be said of you? Do you have something to cry out to Him about... right here and now? She buried whatever shame might have been in this situation of coming to Yeshua and He delivered.

Does God ignore us?

But wait! The next thing we read seems to counteract that. The next verse says, "He answered her not a word" – This is an amazing verse! Yeshua was ignoring her. We are used to thinking in terms of Yeshua being right there to answer our prayers, relieving our distresses, and yet here, he seemed to be ignoring her. Why? There was more that He had in mind than just relieving her of her distress. He wanted to reveal what was in her heart. This is kind of like what we find in Leviticus 8:2 - And you shall remember that the LORD your God led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you and test you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.

Yeshua was testing her resolve, testing how desperate she really was. I'll be honest and tell you that I don't understand all of this. I'm like you and would rather read how Yeshua just immediately said, OK, here we go! But He didn't do that. He waited. Have you ever wondered why the Lord sometimes delays His answers to your pleading, you're crying out to Him?

We are actually quite fickle people. We cry out, seemingly in desperation, and then when we don't get what we want we either move on to something else or we get offended because we weren't given whatever we wanted right away.

Yet, Yeshua had some other things in mind for her, and for those watching. Sometimes it seems like Yeshua ignores us... or so we think. He never ignores us, but He had greater plans, greater desires for us as we cry out to Him.

The Scorn of others

And His disciples came and urged Him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries out after us." There are those times in our prayers of desperation when other people get bothered at us because of our persistence. They are like Job's wife: "Why don't you just curse God and die" in other words: just give up and get on with things. You are an irritation to us with your persistence. There are those who can't stand that we are pursuing God with all our hearts. They would rather we just go away. Have you ever been in such a situation when others around you get irritated with your persistence in your crying out to God? They say, just accept this as God's will and move on with your life. Like the disciples said... she was bothering them. Sometimes the opinions or the lack of patience of others can come against our crying out to God. Be careful you do not listen to the voices of the impatient, the detractors. We are to always pray and not give up. Right? Learn from this woman of Canaan.

Deflected blessings

But He answered and said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." There are times in our prayer lives when it seems like the Lord does not want to give us the things that we are asking for. That may be true, and we need to be sensitive to that. But there are other times when He is testing our hearts, He is looking away as it were to see if we will continue to pursue Him, to pursue His blessing, like Jacob: "I won't let go until you bless me."

Sometimes it seems, or we feel that maybe we are just not the right kind of person to get our desperate cries answered. Others seem to get the blessings and the answers a lot easier than we do. Others don't have to clamor after the Lord for the things that they want, or so it seems to us. Don't let your blessings get deflected by what seems like a "no." Yeshua was not saying no to this woman, He was again seeing how much she wanted an answer... Yeshua is telling us, remember? To Pray and not give up. He wanted to see if she would give up if her attention was drawn to something else... that only the lost sheep of Israel. But she was not about to let that stop her... there was more on the line for her than that. Pray, and don't give up.

Desperation

Then she came and worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, help me!" The word here literally means that she prostrated herself before Him. She literally laid herself out before Him. Have you ever been so desperate for Him, for His touch for His answer that you laid yourself out on your face to worship Him no matter what?

The key here is that she worshipped Him, and He recognized that. Sometimes if we are honest, we put so much stock in the thing we are asking for that it is almost like we are worshipping that. Desperation brings us to the place that the only thing for us to do is to worship Him. No matter what else happens, He is still worthy of our worship and adoration. Worship, it's a key that opens amazing doors.

Humility

But He answered and said, And she said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table." This seems like a strange response from the Lord. Is He calling her a little dog? Is He that cruel? Her answer is really the clarification for us. Here is a picture of humble submission to the perfect justice of God. She knew He was good, her master, and was humbling herself before His as her master. Have you come to that place? Listen to Isaiah 57:15 - For this is what the high and lofty One says—he who lives forever, whose name is holy: "I live in a high and holy place, but also with him who is contrite and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.

Answer

²⁸Then Yeshua answered and said to her, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

She was broken before Him, submitting herself to His Lordship over her and her situation, and He answered her. The Lord looks for such hearts: 2 Chronicles 16:9 -- For the eyes of the LORD range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him.

Here's the challenge for us, to be like this Canaanite woman and press through all of the objects all of the roadblocks, all of the objections of others, and in humility, and desperation, worship Him and cry out to Him, and watch how He answers the cry of our hearts. May the Lord strengthen each of us to pray and not give up.

Opposition and chatter of this year: Nate Johnston

"This is where you see what all the opposition and chatter of this year has provided for you. This is where you see the new doors, new favor, and new territory that has come because you chose to fix yourself in me when the arrows were flying. This is where I turn your mourning into dancing and soul depletion into a surge of strength. This is where I take the sheet off the NEW THING that I have been longing to reveal to you, the new people, and the legacy assignment that has been in contention. This is where you shake off EVERYTHING, the slander, the behind-the-scenes accusations, the limiting, stifling, muzzling, the cutting and wounding words, the tatters of your last seasons mantle, and the heavy yokes that have been wearing you thin and you STEP IN to the wide open space I have been preparing for you!"

IT'S TIME TO TRANSITION OUT OF THE HOLD

For weeks now I keep hearing the Lord say "It's time to come out of the hold! Time is up! It's time to leave that place and move on!"

I knew right away that this "hold" was referring to the hold or stronghold David hid in twice throughout his life, and that many have been in for some time now. This hold was the place of survival from the storm and the hard seasons of life—seasons of rejection, persecution, deep grief, discouragement, attack, hope deferred, and trauma. The hold can feel like a reprieve for a moment and a shelter of sorts. It can also be a place where God refreshes and resuscitates you, but it's also the place the enemy tries to bombard you with lies, and chatter, and keeps you in apathy if you aren't aware of it.

I felt that this hold was the place of forfeit for many who have fought a good fight but have felt like they don't have any strength left to press forward into the fulfillment of the promise. The hold is a place of limbo and transition as people wait for their next orders, direction, and assignments. The hold is a place of deliverance where God uncoils the snake around your neck and removes the daggers from your back. The hold or wilderness can be a momentary dwelling during the thick season of battle but it can also be a place of spiritual death to those who overstay their season.

David fled to the cave of Adullam (The hold) when Saul was trying to take his life, but while he was safe from Saul it became a place of victimhood and bondage. The hold ended up becoming a stronghold!

"And everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was bitter in soul, gathered to him. And he became commander over them" (1 Samuel 22:2)

But the hold was also the place where David momentarily hid to receive the instruction and plans from the Lord of how to defeat the Philistines.

"When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went down to the stronghold. So David inquired of the Lord, "Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hands?" The Lord answered him, "Go, for I will surely deliver the Philistines into your hands." (2 Samuel 5:17 & 19)

But when it was time, God used a prophet to tell David, "Ok David it's time to leave that season and that place you have been in!" And I feel the Spirit of God brooding over us right now that it's time to leave the hold!

"Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not remain in the stronghold; depart, and go into the land of Judah." So, David departed and went into the forest of Hereth" (1 Samuel 22:5)

The place of limbo, the waiting, and the holding pattern is over!

"I AM WITH YOU IN YOUR SEASON OF TRANSITION"
HELENE NORDBOE, GOTHENBURG, SWEDEN

In different seasons of life things shift. Maybe you're changing workplaces or homes; or you sense a shift in your ministry or in other areas of life. Transition is a part of life that will occur several times in life, and we can either welcome it or fight against it.

I am a mother of four daughters. Every pregnancy and delivery has been different. With our first born, I prepared myself and studied about delivery, mentally trying to prepare myself for what I was about to go through. When the contractions started, I thought, This isn't too bad; I can handle this. However, as the time passed by and the pain increased, I wanted the pain to stop. I told the midwife that I'd had enough and wanted to go home. I wanted to quit before I had the baby in my arms.

This has happened in different times of transition in my life as well. When I would feel a shifting, I would start to walk toward it with joy and expectation, trying to prepare for what was next. However, during the transition, I would get surprised and feel unprepared for the warfare that I had to go through to see my breakthrough. I would prepare for a smooth transition but find myself in a huge battle, having to fight my way through.

Our transitions are necessary, and we can either welcome them or fight against them. In a season of transition, it is easy to become frustrated by the process when feeling stuck or not knowing the next step. The enemy wants to abort our new season, our prophetic words and our breakthroughs. He wants to rob us from walking in the new levels of authority that come with the transition and does not want us to advance in the Kingdom. This is why we need to wage war and learn how to fight and push our way forward with the Word of God and our prophetic words. Soon we will see our breakthrough.

Transition is a process that we are not meant to stay in; we are to press on into the future. In our time of transition, we have to let go of the familiar and step out into the unknown. Someone once said that you will never reach the other side if you never leave the harbor. If we keep holding on to what is secure and comfortable, we will not see what's on the other side of the transition. We have to dare to take leaps of faith in order to move forward.

You might recognize that you are in, or have come out of, a transition time that is rough. The Lord says to you, "DO NOT GIVE UP! Learn how to fight your way through. Pick My Word up and start to fight with that Word. I am in your season of transition, and you need to keep your focus on Me. Do not grow weary in the battle. Turn your frustration into a battle cry. Even if you do not see the outcome yet, your breakthrough is near.

"You are birthing the next season. I am preparing you in the middle of this transition for the new chapter of your life, making you ready for the next step. Keep your heart and your mind in position so you can hear the clear instructions from Me."

I Will Quickly Turn the Tide on the Wicked"
Donna Rigney, Salt Springs, Florida

On September 9, 2022, while sitting alone in prayer, I heard Father say very clearly, "As a result of My children's prayers, declarations and worship, champions are arising throughout the world to lead the sheep who were quietly being led to the slaughter. They will be leading them in a righteous revolution; and the masses will no longer believe the lies of the corrupt, nor will they sit silently by and allow elections to be stolen – nor the righteous to be prosecuted unjustly."

Looking into the spirit, I saw myself walking beside the Lord, on the top of a high mountain. In the distance, I saw bombs exploding in the air; a war was being fought. Yeshua explained that this was the time He spoke about when He was on the earth – that there would be wars and rumors of wars, but it wouldn't be the time of the end. He explained: "Because men have free will, they have put wicked people in positions of leadership and are now suffering as a result of their poor choices. This will change! No longer will people, through deception or laziness, let the wicked rule. Determination will fill them to put honorable people in office, and they will make sure elections are honest."

"Yes, I am raising up those who will champion the cause of righteousness in all sectors of society. They will take back the seven mountains of influence that the enemy has been ruling over. Yes, these champions have been made" ready by My Spirit. Many have been hidden on the backside of the desert, and they will be released in this hour to lead the charge to restore righteousness to this world. Sick of the rule of the wicked and tired of the oppression that evil rulership has brought on their lives, people will eagerly follow these champions, some sacrificing all to do that.

"This is a good hour you are about to enter into. Though it will be very disruptive, it will bring forth that change that We told you is coming fast upon the world!"

"Yes, there are many champions of righteousness and truths that are already hard at work; and their reward will be great, and their efforts will produce more than they imagined they would, because My Spirit has been working in concert with them."

(I knew that Steve Shultz and many of the prophets and intercessors; Donald Trump and those who work with him; and Clay Clark and many others were these champions of faith!)

A Great Shaking Is Coming!

On August 24, 2022, Father told me of His plans for the future, and they are GOOD! He declared: "Just as George Washington left his military command to become commander in chief, My faithful warriors will be given positions of importance. Because they have proven their worth by their faithfulness and loyalty, they will all be promoted and will be used mightily in the move of My Spirit that is about to break out. Miracles, signs and wonders will accompany them as they launch out to lead the troops to take this lead back for Us and establish My Kingdom on the earth!"

"Healers, evangelists, workers of miracles, teachers, mentors, deliverers, pastors and apostles will all arise; and they will be delighted as they fulfill their calling easily! By My Spirit – not by their power or their might – they will see their purposes fulfilled!"

"A great shaking is coming to the earth, and it shall be of My doing! All that is wicked will be removed during this shaking. Just as during a violent windstorm the rotten fruit is shaking off the trees, and the good, strong, sturdy fruit remains, so too will the wicked fruit of the enemies of Mine be shaken to the ground and disposed of during this impending storm. Dancing in the streets will accompany this overturning of wickedness! Celebrations will break out worldwide!

"My angels will gather all the rotten fruit that falls to the ground and bring it where I send them to take it. Some will be brought to prisons – others brought to garbage dumps where they cannot influence any; and many will be brought to a dry desert place. All will experience loss. The loss they inflicted mercilessly on others will come into their lives, and they will know firsthand what the loss felt like that they ruthlessly dished out."

Confirming Scripture:

"...our land will be filled with His glory... Yes, the LORD pours down His blessings. Our land will yield its bountiful harvest." (Psalm 85:9, 12)
Great Change Is Coming!

On August 17, 2022, while sitting alone with Yeshua, I heard Father declare:

"Daughter, great change is coming! The changes a caterpillar makes while turning into a butterfly are really great! From crawling in the dust and dirt to soaring to the heights and resting in a flower garden – from ugliness to great beauty – are the changes a caterpillar makes by My plan. It is a sign to you of the great changes you will see in your lives and all around you."

"No one knows fully what I have planned for the days and years ahead, but it is good! Over and above what you could think or imagine will the changes be that we bring to Our children and their land. Many have prayed, humbled themselves, turned from their wicked ways and sought My face, so now I will heal their land! If Sodom and Gomorrah had only ten righteous, they would have been spared destruction. Because there is a remnant who truly love and seek Us, I will not only spare their land destruction, I will bring great transformation and heal their land."

"My glory poured out from Heaven on mankind will birth this change that is coming! My glory causes those who are grueling in the dirt – discouraged and oppressed – to soar, rejoice and know no limitations!" (See Genesis 18:20-33.)

The Rock of Revelation

On September 9, 2022, Yeshua led me in the spirit to come and sit on a large rock that was situated on another high mountain. This boulder was immovable! As we sat together, Father appeared. He was enormous and towered over us; His loving approval poured off of Him onto us. Father explained that this immovable rock that we were sitting on represented all the prophetic words, visions, visitations and Scriptures He has spoken to and through us. Safety was assured, as I sat beside Yeshua on the "Rock of Revelation."

Father said, "Daughter, this is why it is so important to guard the words you receive from Us from the thief, who would attempt to steal them from you through his sly attacks that bring unbelief. Yes, as he sows seeds of doubt in My children, he is scheming to destroy the Rock of Revelation that all of My children have been given. This is why My Holy Spirit leads My children to declare and decree these words, so that their faith grows in these truths and is not stolen. Each decree and every declaration release My hosts to implement My words and My promises. Hold tight to these revelations, and no matter how the world about you is shaken, you will not be moved but will stand secure!"

Confirming Scripture:

"...He said to the woman, 'Did God really say, "You must not eat from any tree in the garden"?' (Genesis 3:1)

Satan stole the Rock of Revelation from Adam and Eve with the same tactics he uses today to rob us of the truths and promises God has spoken to us personally. E.g., "Did God really say_____? Was that God or your own thoughts?"

God Will Quickly Turn the Tide on the Enemies of His Children

On September 2, 2022, while in my time of prayer, I heard Father say: "Days and nights are filled with terror when the wicked rule! When I rule, light, love, glory and goodness rule over the land – both day and night. For far too long the wicked have ruled, but now I will end their reign of terror!"

"I am coming to rescue My children! You have heard Me, daughter! I am coming very soon to rescue My children. The assault has been relentless and even more destructive than you have been aware of; for behind the scenes many wicked traps have been laid for My children. Death and destruction have been loosed from Hell to the earth by the alignment of wicked men and women with satan and his evil hordes.

"But there are those who love Us with all their hearts, minds and strength, and who do serve Us; and because they have stood in the gap for their land, I will come and bring justice and judgment quickly! Yes, I say quickly, just as I quickly destroyed Pharaoh and his army when they were bent on destroying My children when they left Egypt. I will quickly turn the tide on the wicked – My way!"

Restoration Is Coming!

On August 28, 2022, during worship at our church service, I had a magnificent vision: I saw an enormous eagle flying over the USA. It was almost as large as the nation. From its talons hung a massive container crate that had the word "RESTORATION" written across it. As I looked very closely at this scene, I saw people all over the USA worshipping God with their arms stretched out to Heaven while they were singing of the goodness of God.

From very high above this scene, I saw a dazzling, bright, white light and a large eye in that light. This eye was looking down at the eagle and our nation. It was the eye of God, and the dazzling light spread out to the farthest reaches of the USA. Father God was watching us closely and stretching His arms out to hug us and draw us close to His heart. I knew He was showing me that this is what is coming – restoration – because He has seen and heard our devotion! Our trust is in Him.

Father explained: "My eyes are on you, My children. I see your devotion, and I am watching over you to restore all the enemy has stolen. He will be made to give you back seven times what he stole – even seven times your joy, peace, strength, health, opportunities and success. All that is good that he took is going to be given back. Get your arms stretched out, ready to receive by faith and trust what I will be showering down on you."

A Heavenly Picture of Restored Lives

On the morning of September 11, 2022, while at Church during worship, I saw a vision of Yeshua and Father sitting on Their thrones in the throne room in Heaven. On either side of Them were gathered multitudes of magnificent vases. These vases were all unique and embossed with elegant designs. Each one of these vases had been broken into many pieces and were all put back together by what looked like gold solder. The more broken they were, the more gold that they had on them, and the more ornate was their design. All of the vases were empty but were now being filled with God's glory.

I knew these vases represented God's children who had been wounded and broken and were now restored by Him, because they had surrendered their lives to Him, and they were His. I saw many angels bringing more restored vases into the throne room and assembling them beside Father and Yeshua.

Father explained: "As each of My children turn to Me and leave their broken, sinful lives behind, I restore them and re-create their lives so that they are better and more beautiful than they were when they gave them to Me. As they sit in heavenly places with Me in My throne room, I flood them with My glory so that they can bring My transforming glory with them wherever they go."

Five Types of Warriors Are Being Called to the Front-Line
Betty King, London, UK

As you know, the Song of Songs is a prophetic book reflecting the relationship between Yeshua and the Body of Christ. In recent days, the Lord has been drawing my attention to Song of Songs 4:4, which speaks prophetically of the Body of Christ, using the language of warriors. It reads:

"Your neck is like the tower of David, built for an armory, on which hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men."

In this season, God is raising up men and women to manifest His glory with the strength, skill and devotion of warriors. They have gone through a period of preparation and have learned consistency, and now the Spirit of God is awakening a new passion within them, and they are becoming carriers of His presence. The landscape has changed. In the days ahead you will see these men and women used powerfully for deliverance and revival. Five types of warriors are being called to the front lines of the battle.

The Flamethrowers

The first group of people that God is raising up are the flamethrowers. These people have been appointed by God to burn away false signs of harvest. Too often in the Body of Christ, there have been declarations of things that God is about to do and of a great harvest that is about to come, yet no fruit or produce is seen. For a moment, it looks as though things are about to ripen, but when you go to grab ahold of it, it disintegrates in your hand. What has looked like wheat is really grass, and many give birth to wind. The cause of this is unaddressed foundational issues in the characters and attitudes of the people.

God is raising up the flamethrowers to burn up the lingering issues, attitudes and entanglements that must be removed from His field so that it can bring forth the thirty, sixty and a hundredfold (Matthew 13:8).

The Underwater Divers

The next group are those who will submerge themselves in the deep things of God to rescue what has been lost. In Scripture, God declares to us, "I will give you the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places..." (see Isaiah 45:3).

These people will go deep into spiritual waters to salvage the treasures and riches of movements that were born in the Spirit but were not maintained in the Spirit and so became shipwrecks. They will recover and restore the souls of many that lost their way or were sabotaged, and they will retrieve valuable ideas that were once appointed to bring about transformation but were lost due to storms of life. They will bring sunken promises back onto shore and resurface the ax heads that are needed for the work of ministry, as the prophet Elisha did.

The Grounds men

These individuals are the boots on the ground, the beautiful feet that will bring the good news and proclaim peace (see Isaiah 52:7). They will build bridges and stand in the gap, restoring relationships. These are healers that will heal by telling the truth, removing misunderstanding and bringing about unity and reconciliation. Through their ministry, the strengths of all the different parts of the Body of Christ will come together and the armies of the Lord across the earth will align and cooperate.

The Snipers

This group of people are not only like watchmen, whose eyes are open and alert to their surroundings and to what is taking place in the Body of Christ, but they are also able to act with incredible accuracy to take out the things that would become a hindrance or distraction to the move of God.

They will detect and eliminate whatever the enemy is relying on to cause trouble, and address what needs to be addressed without causing collateral damage or unnecessary casualties of war. With their support, the forerunners will be able to run without the hindrances of the enemy.

The Air Force

These men and women are the truth bombers who will release the Word of God with power and impact! They are carrying the explosive power of the Spirit of God and, in the right place and at the right time, will be detonated for mass revival and deliverance, changing the landscape forever. They have been anointed and prepared for an appointed time to bring about the victory!

All of these people are the men and women (sons and daughters) who will be raised up in this hour as a fresh apostolic mantle falls on the Church. If you know that you are one of these men and women, I speak to you today and tell you to arise and break your chains. Arise! The Bible says to pray without ceasing, so pray! Seek the face of God so that you can stand and deliver in the days ahead. Seek God and see what He will do!

Arise and Shine! God Is Giving Cities!"
Ella Onakoya, London, United Kingdom

Recently, the Lord gave me a dream where I was invited to speak at a church with a large number of Believers. They were waiting in expectation for what the Lord had to say.

Casting Down Idols to Walk in Glory

I was ushered to a seat in the church, and my heart grew in expectation as I started to hear the message I was to share in my heart. I heard these words: "I will give you the city. Arise and shine for your light has come (Isaiah 60:1)." This was a glorious message, but Genesis 31:34 was highlighted in my heart as the Scripture to share with this message.

In the dream, I was surprised, as I knew the Scripture did not match with what I was given to share. I wondered why the Lord would give me a verse that seemed to have nothing to do with it.

I woke up before I shared the message at the church. After I woke up, I looked at Genesis 31 :34 to see what was in this verse. Intrigued, I read, "Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them in the camel's saddle and sat upon them. Laban felt all about the tent, but did not find them."

I asked the Lord what this could mean. Why would I be given what seemed to be two conflicting messages to share? I had a message of a glorious awakening for the Church, where the Lord wanted to give the Church "the city"; then I had a message from Scripture that clearly had to do with idolatry.

As I meditated in prayer, it was impressed upon my heart that the two messages were not, in fact, conflicting; they went together. The Lord revealed that there is some idolatry in the Church which needs to be removed and repented of so that the fullness of the glory can manifest.

The Bible verse, Genesis 31:34, is about Rachel (Jacob's wife) stealing her father Laban's idols. Rachel sat on the idols to hide them so that Laban would not find the idols as she and Jacob escaped from him. When Laban overtook them and asked who took his idols, Rachel continued to hide the idols and would not reveal that she had them.

Unfortunately, Jacob, who was unaware that it was his wife who stole the idols, made a curse that whoever stole them would die (Genesis 31:32). Sadly, Rachel did die at childbirth (Genesis 35:16-19). Because she hid the idols, she was not able to fulfill her full destiny on the earth.

What Is an Idol?

In our present day, idolatry is not restricted to physical images but has a much wider context. Idolatry (or other gods in our hearts) is every thought, idea, culture, mindsets or anything that we exalt above God. God is wanting us to release these idols to Him in repentance and to exalt Him alone in our hearts.

When He takes the highest place in our hearts, the fullness of revival that we seek will come.

God is wanting to take His rightful place where "church," for many, should no longer be church as usual, but a meeting place where the perfect will of God is exalted in all we do. God's Church is not meant to be a kingdom made with hands, but a body of Believers whom God indwells to release His Kingdom on Earth as in Heaven. Whenever we exalt our own ideas or anything else that is precious to us (i.e. gifts, family, leaders, etc.) above God Himself, it becomes idolatry.

A Joel 2:17 Moment

The Lord desires for us to walk in the greatest glory, but we must not hide our idols as Rachel did, but instead repent of them.

We are in a Joel 2:17 moment, where there is a clarion call to the Church to seek the Lord with all of our hearts. Joel 2:17 is to be our heart's cry to God in this hour: ". Spare Your people, LORD. Do not make Your inheritance an object of scorn, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'" Where the fire of God is present, the idols of this age will fall.

Testimony: Idols Removed!

Do you have a call on your life to possess a place or city for the Kingdom of God that has idolatrous strongholds? This testimony will encourage you. Receive and walk in the fire of God's glory that will cause these strongholds to fall!

A few years ago, I was on a ministry trip where I was to stay with one of the leaders in the church. When I arrived, the leader explained that the room I was to stay in had been occupied but that a place was available for me at her distant friend's house.

When we arrived at her friend's house, we found various demonic-looking masks around the house that emanated evil. Upon seeing this, the leader, who had been unaware of what was in the house (since they were not close friends), assured me that she would drive me to a pastor's house to stay. I was about to agree not to stay in that house, when I heard the Lord tell me to stay.

This was out of the norm for me, as I was always very careful to stay in a place filled with the presence of God when I was ministering, or wherever I lived. I would also encourage others to remove demonic images from their homes (which is the right thing to do), but in a place where I had no authority or permission from the owners of the home to do so, God was about to teach a useful lesson on walking in "dominion" authority!

I obeyed God, and for two weeks I stayed in this house of unbelievers who were living an immoral lifestyle, with demonic masks present in almost every room. However, the Lord encouraged me to be fearless and that an atmosphere of worship and prayer would cause the evil presence to have no effect on me. In my room, the presence of God kept increasing as I worshiped throughout the day and night and prayed. I walked in love with those in the house who were not saved. They began to comment that whenever I came out of the room where I slept, I emanated a "holy presence." The presence of God stifled the demonic activity in the house while the Holy Spirit started to convict them.

One night, they came with me to a conference where I was ministering, and they gave their hearts to the Lord and repented before Him! I started to disciple them as they began to hunger and ask questions about the Lord. Before I left, I saw one of them gathering the demonic masks in a black bin bag to remove them! Dagon Will Fall Before the Carriers of the Ark of God I hear in my heart that Dagon will once again fall before the carriers of the ark of God. (Dagon was a Philistine god that fell before the ark of God in 1 Samuel 5:4). The gods of this age will once again fall before the presence of God, released by the sons and daughters of God who carry His glory. Idols of whatever form are not to be hidden, cherished or worshiped. They have to be removed for the glory so that we can possess our inheritance.

The Lord clearly wanted idols removed from that home, and He wanted hearts to be saved. The keys that the Lord used to do this were faith, worship, a lifestyle of prayer and the power of the Gospel.

I also hear in my heart, "The power of corporate prayer from pure hearts will pull down idolatrous strongholds in government levels in the nations that had been hindering the manifestation of the moves of God. The saints of God are to carry and release the Jeremiah 1:10 mandate to uproot and pull down what is not of the Kingdom and build and plant what is of God's Kingdom."

Saints, let us seek the Lord and invite Him to shine His light on our hearts so that structures that are not of Him will be removed, as this is the time for His glory to be revealed in us and to take the cities He has given to us.

God's Cry to Return

"I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places, yet you did not return to me." - Amos 4:6 ESV

God's people had drifted away from Him. They violated His Word and embraced foreign gods. They oppressed the poor and crushed the needy. His continual cry was that they return to Him, a request repeated five times in this chapter. Yet in each case, they did not return.

He sent rain on one city and one field but not another. Yet they did not return. They had problems with their food, experiencing blight and mildew. The locusts devoured their gardens, vineyards, and trees. They did not have the bread they needed. Yet they did not return (vs. 8-9).

God was forced to send the kind of plagues that struck Egypt. Yet they did not return. He had to overthrow some in the same way He overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. Yet they did not return (vs. 10-11).

Throughout the chapter, we feel His love and desire to bless His people. It pained Him to allow them to experience problems. Yet they continued to go their own way and refused to return.

God still desires to bless us. If we have drifted away, He calls us to return. If we have sinned, He calls us to repent. If we need direction, He calls us to seek Him. Ask God to sift through your life, your thoughts, your time, and your resources. If you have drifted away, make it a priority to return to Him. Be forgiven, cleansed, and in tune with Him.

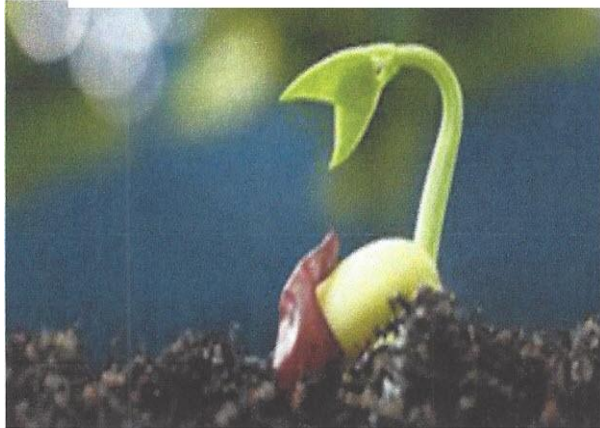

Reflection Question: Write a prayer asking for forgiveness for specific sins in your life.

Prayer

Father, thank You for loving me. Help me respond when You call. Keep me clean and pure. In Yeshua' name, amen.

The Lord Is Building His House"
Sylvia Neusch, Round Rock, Texas

The Lord is building His House in this hour. Foundations are being repaired and reconstructed where needed. Some structures are being leveled while others are being erected with rapid speed. In all this construction and movement, alignment with the heart and intention of Heaven is paramount for the Bride of Christ as she marches forward into this new era. "

Unless the LORD build the house, they labor in vain who build it." (Psalm 127:1)

The exhortation is clear in this verse. Whatever "house" we are seeking to build must have the breath of God in it and on it in order for it to be fruitful. That which has been born out of "vain labor" is going to be exposed in the light of His fiery presence in the coming days.

"For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Yeshua Christ. Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is." (1 Corinthians 3:11-13)

We are already entering a time of built things being tested by fire. I believe the intensity of the fire will only increase as God pours His Spirit out over all the earth. The contrast between counterfeit and that which is birthed out of the Spirit of God will become more and more evident as the water level of the outpouring increases. Individuals who try and take credit for growth that only God can bring will appear foolish.

Paul issued a similar warning to the Corinthian church that was embroiled in jealousy and quarreling over which leader was the greatest. Paul skillfully threw water on their childish fire with these words:

"I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God has been making it grow. So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow." (1 Corinthians 3:6-7)

God used Paul to zero in on the hearts of those in the Corinthian church, not to shame them, but to cause them to mature into who Christ had called them to be. He wanted them to know that God uses us to help build, but He alone is the One to make things grow. There was absolutely no benefit or point in exalting human leaders.

A Recalibration of Hearts

God is zeroing in on the heart of His Church once again in this hour. The intent is to rebuild, redeem and resurrect the Church to rise to her full stature. He is reminding us that Yeshua Christ is not only the Chief Cornerstone, but the very foundation on which we are to build. He is not only reminding us of Whom we are to build on, but that what we build and how we build are tremendously important as well.

I believe God wants us to dream with Him and dream big! But, He is recalibrating hearts to dream dreams that build His Kingdom and not our own. The Spirit is relentlessly persistent that our significance be found in the steadfast and astounding revelation that we are beloved sons and daughters of the Father. The deeper this revelation abides in our hearts, the less need we have to build and promote a kingdom that exalts us or someone else over Him.

God is sifting, shaking, recalibrating and realigning His Church to know that our greatest fulfillment and joy comes with deep surrender.

"Then Yeshua said to His disciples, 'If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.'" (Matthew 16:24-25)

The willingness to lose one's life for the sake of the Kingdom is the gateway each soul must walk through in order to truly find life. The enemy tries to derail us in this journey just as He tried to derail Yeshua when He was tempted by satan in the wilderness. The enemy offers shortcuts that appeal to the flesh; they are shiny and glitter with self-exaltation. God lovingly points us toward a different path that says,

"Lose your life in order to find it." In His time in the wilderness, Yeshua modeled for us how to respond to the enemy's attempts to hijack our journey with Him. Yeshua recalled and spoke forth what He knew to be truth spoken from His Father's mouth. Deeply assured of His Father's love, He chose to trust instead of seeking immediate gratification.

The orphan spirit will try and cause many to miss the way. The Father despises the lies of the orphan spirit and its attempts to separate His children from Him. That is why I believe we are going to see an increase of encounters and revelation flooding the earth, depositing the love of the Father into orphan hearts in every nation, tribe and tongue.

The orphan spirit is no match for the passionate love that the Father and Son have for their rightful family. Those who have heard the Father's voice echoing in their hearts, "This is My beloved son (or daughter); I am well pleased with you," will find the grace to choose surrender, because they trust the heart of their Father.

Built to Reign and Overcome

In a critical moment of prophetic revelation, Yeshua released to His disciples His heart for a powerful Church that would be built on the Rock of Revelation - that He was the Messiah and Son of the living God. "And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My Church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it. I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven; whatever you bind on Earth will be bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on Earth will be loosed in Heaven." (Matthew 16:18-19)

The Church Yeshua describes in Matthew 16 is no wimpy Church. This Church would have the authority to use the keys of Heaven, binding and loosing to bring Heaven to Earth as they were led by the Spirit. This was not a defensive-postured Church, but a mighty, ground-taking, offensive-postured Church that the very gates of Hades would not be able to overcome.

I am convinced that we are stepping into a greater dimension and revelation of the Church's authority as described in Matthew 16. This word was originally released to Peter who had the revelation that Yeshua was the Messiah and Son of God. Our authority is to rest and be built upon this foundation as well. Every other foundation will be faulty and fail to produce the fruit that will only flow from the powerful revelation that Yeshua Christ is King of kings and Lord of lords, and all authority in Heaven and on Earth has been given to Him. We are in exciting and significant days as the Spirit of God moves upon the Church right now. It is a time to seek His face, being quick to align with His purposes, strategies and plans for now and the coming days. The Lord is truly building His House in this hour, and what a joy it is to surrender to Him and see His Kingdom advance in all the earth.

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in Me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from Me you can do nothing." (John 15:5)

Training

"Have nothing to do with pointless and silly myths train yourself in godliness training of the body has limited benefit, but godliness is beneficial in every way, since it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come." - 1 Timothy 4:7-8 CSB

A survey conducted before World War I found that 95 of officers in the British army had never read a military book of any kind. As this suggested, many army leaders had little of the training they needed when they went into battle. They didn't know what to expect or how to respond. They didn't grasp strategy, planning, or troop motivation. A post-war analysis described how this lack of training produced leaders who were willfully intolerant of change and incapable, for the most part, of innovative thought or action."

Training is central to being a soldier, but it's also vital to the Christian life. To be equipped for spiritual warfare, to understand our enemies, and to be prepared, we must learn how to be victorious. Like the study of British leaders, the Bible urges us to be readers. Then we may know the Wdrd and practice the insights we find there. We must seek God's help to be prepared.

The Bible particularly urges us to be trained in godliness. This means having the right attitude toward God, not taking Him for granted, but being serious about applying the principles in His Word. The Bible also warns us to be careful about what we allow into our minds. We can be distracted if we focus on things like "pointless and silly myths. We need God's discernment and His training.

Ask God to help you prepare for life's challenges.

Reflection Question: What's your plan to spend more time reading and meditating on the Bible?

Prayer

Father, give me insights into Your Word. Help me be prepared for the battles I will face. In Yeshua' name, amen.

"President Trump Impeached? God Says, 'No, This is Foolishness!'"

Hank Kunneman, Omaha, NE

With all the talk of "impeachment and accusations" here is a prophetic word that the Lord is saying with His perspective. In this day when it is often difficult to know who or what to believe, we must not forget the Lord does nothing in the earth unless He reveals His secrets to His servants, the prophets (Amos 3:7). The true function of the prophetic gifting is to serve others with Heaven's perspective by answering the call to come up higher, seeing things from the Throne Room like the Apostle John in Revelation 4:1.

Prophetic Word given by Hank Kunneman on March 19, 2017:

The Spirit of God says, "The bickering, the back-biting and division will become a thing that will be settled in the United States!"

"There is a day and there is a way that is coming fast to this nation, the United States. Did you hear what I said to you?" says the Spirit. "There is a way and there is a day that is coming to this nation. The bickering, the backbiting, the division shall become a thing that will be settled, and there is a shift that is taking place in the United States, and I am rising up upon this land and I am healing it and it is in the process.

"Do not think those who are speaking loudly, and loudly they are speaking, but they are not speaking by Me; and they have gathered in a place away from the White House, and they gather, and they meet in secret.

"But oh I stand in the midst of them, and I hear what they say and I am watching the trouble that they are trying to create for this nation and for this administration, and I say, 'It shall not have its way!'

"For you will raise up from this place away from the White House and you will say, 'Impeach, impeach, impeach!' and you will seek to stir this up as a proverb in the land. No, this is foolishness!

"And so as I open the ground and I swallowed up those and that which was troubling a nation called Israel in the days of Moses and Korah, this will be swallowed up too. For there is a way, My way. And there is a day where the healing balm shall flow upon this land, and I shall unite it."

Tishrei 30, 5783: Tuesday September 25, 2022

Overcomer Blessing: Sylvia Gunter

"I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know. his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is like the working of his mighty strength, which he exerted in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms" (Eph. 1:18-20).

You are identified with the death, burial, and resurrection of Yeshua. You live in the risen and ascended Christ every day because God raised you up with Him. He is your life in all His resurrection power (Phil. 3: 10).

Because of what Christ did, you are hidden in God and sealed by the power of the Holy Spirit. Choose to live from the reality of the finished work of Christ's resurrection and ascension. All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Yeshua, and you are seated with Him at the right hand of the Father, established in His authority (Eph. 2:6). You live in His power and dominion over spiritual forces of darkness. You reign in life through Christ.

Be blessed to understand your true position in Christ. The Spirit of Christ Yeshua is present every day in you so that you can live always from your spirit, not allowing the soul or body to take over.

You are a covenant child of God Most High. He is the God of all grace, God of the impossible. You have the privilege of coming into agreement with Him in your spirit, soul, and body. You are intended to live in honor and authority in Yeshua's name. You are on kingdom business. Be blessed to represent your King everywhere you go.

The Thief Is Exposed

"The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life and have it to the full." (John 10: 10).

Yeshua exposes Satan and his 'only' agenda:

1) To Steal. He steals our relationships, our time, our money, our energy, opportunities and then ultimately tries to steal our faith in God.

2) To Kill. He tries to kill our hope with repeated disappointments, disillusionment and betrayal. Hopelessness is a major cause of depression. "Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life." (Prov. 13:12, NKJV).

3) To Destroy. One of the enemy's weapons of mass destruction is deception. Where truth is veiled, it leads to destruction: "And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God." (2 Cor. 4:3,4).

Satan is called the ruler of this age and all ages - agricultural, industrial, information and digital ages. In every age, he seeks to steal hearts as a major soul collector, kill mankind's desire for God and to destroy the dignity, privilege, and power of mankind as the true rulers of this world by the Spirit of God.

Satan is mighty but not Almighty. He is limited. God remains Sovereign God over the beginning and ending of all things and ages. God's salvation for you comes with His protection from evil, preservation from schemes and peace to rule in your heart.

Kingdom Declaration:

I have the abundant life of Yeshua Christ with all its benefits, protection and glory.

Why Fight for What Is Right?

If we want a stable society, a healthy economy, a happy populace and a secure country we better fight for what is right. Our Forefathers set the example, they stood up against the most powerful empire in the world and won a respite. Why do I say respite? Because the empire was not going to give up that easily. They would do it another way. They would send infiltrators to take control of the fledgling nation from within. The person with the best bird's eye view of this ongoing process was, in fact, George Washington who warned us about this in his last farewell address when he warned:

"cunning, ambitious, and unprincipled men will be able to subvert the Power of the People and to usurp for themselves the reins of Government; destroying afterwards the very engines which have lifted them to unjust dominion. The spirit of encroachment tends to consolidate the powers of all departments in one, and thus to create whatever the form of government, a real despotism"

-- George Washington, Farewell Address, 1796

So, why did they fight for the concept of liberty? And, who planted this idea in their heads? Was it being taught from the pulpits of the American Colonies? And, if so, why is it no longer being taught from American Pulpits? Could it be that our "seminaries" were infiltrated by the same bad actors that President Washington warned us about above?

The short answer is Yes, our churches have been infiltrated to the degree that most every "Christian" is fed a constant stream of "don't get involved, because you can't make any difference anyway" or "let's focus on the church and evangelism, the rest will work its way out." Do you really think that that was the message being delivered to the pulpits of America in the early days? If you do, you would be badly mistaken. So why should the American People care about our government?

First of all, in this country, the People are supposed to govern themselves, unlike any other nation that ever existed. So, when someone quotes the verse² about obey those who have the rule over you (higher powers) and try to say to blindly obey them then they do not understand our form of government. We are supposed to be "self-governing." Does that mean we are free to promote lawlessness? The short answer is no, especially since the People, themselves formed a binding covenant with God Almighty when we appealed to heaven for help in establishing liberty upon this land via the Declaration of Independence.

In short, the American People made God the HIGHER POWER in this country, not any other entity; that includes our government. Our government officials are supposed to be the servants of the People, not the other way around.

Start getting involved. If you understand the implications of what I have just shared with you then you will begin to understand that it is not only your right to fix your own government, but also your duty.

As I have stated before, it was never the intent of the Founders for the American People to be governed by force instead of by the consent of the governed; But that is exactly where we find ourselves today. The American People find themselves surrounded by an unimaginable mountain of so-called laws and mandates that were not written for their benefit, but for the benefit of the oligarchs in control. The American People have lost confidence in the ability the current government's ability to govern lawfully and peacefully. It's past time to Implement the Northwest Ordinance to RESET America.

² Romans 13:1

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.
