

Chaplain Wade Butler
Cheshvan 5783

There is not a day that goes by that I don't discover something new the LORD is doing. This month is no different. If you keep up with Dutch Sheets Give Him 15 you may know that Dutch, his brother Tim, and Chuck Pierce shared about the magnitude of Angels on earth and more importantly who they are; the Seraphim, those mighty ones who minister around the Throne continually to Yahweh. The gentlemen all have seen them.

The greatest revelation I have experienced lately came in an open heaven vision when Yeshua greeted me and said come to me. As I stepped toward HIM, HE took me into HIM and I could see through HIS eyes, taste through HIS mouth, and feel through HIS hands. We walked in an orchard, and HE picked a pear and bit into it. I could taste the sweetness, feel the juice run down my chin and smell the aroma of the freshness. "He said taste and see that I AM good." We walked through the veil of Heaven and earth, and HE said, "tell my sons and daughters I did not send the Seraphim, I brought them to earth. I am here.' It is a dimensional step from earth into Heaven." You have a destiny, call on ME, decree, declare, praise and worship onto ME and watch what I do in the days ahead. You are in a new season, a new time."

"SHOUT FOR JOY! I AM COMING TO DWELL AMONG YOU"
DAWN BAKER

Recently, I heard the Holy Spirit say, "I AM COMING! Tell them; they must know. I always herald My coming through a voice." 'I am coming...TO DWELL.' "Yes!" He shouted. "I am! The world is going to know Me for Who I am! It's My goodness that draws man back to Me. I am a good Father, not an abusive one. I NEVER sit in the heavens watching you to condemn you! I am NOT desiring to harm My mankind. All I've done is to restore man back to Me. I made a way. Relationship is restored, but trust is developed through process worked overtime. I've proven you by fire to be entrusted with souls. It's My harvest! I've had you decree, 'The earth is the LORD'S and all who dwell in it!' Now, you are going to see exactly what you've longed for all of your life. The world will see and know ME for Who I am! I AM coming!"

"Shout for joy and be glad, O Daughter of Zion, for I am coming to dwell among you," declares the LORD." (Zechariah 2:10)

Everyone has a call on their life. It is our job to discover it. That discovery leads to incredible journeys with the LORD where he will show you all you need to know if we simply trust HIM. In doing so we get on the path to our Identity which allows us to find our Destiny and in turn we can get a hold of our Inheritance. I refer once again to Jeremiah 33:3 'Call to ME and I will answer you, and tell you [and even show you] great and mighty things, [things which have been confined and hidden], which you do not know and understand and cannot distinguish.

We are in troubling times; the demonic no longer even try to hide themselves. They are out in the open spouting vile evil, doing what they do; Kill, Steal and Destroy. Just look around, dare watch the news or the assassination of Amy Barrett's character. The greatest misfortune is we as the church have been dulled down and allowed them to take over our government, schools and even our churches.

It is a time for the Bride to suit up for War.

When the LORD told me to be the Chaplain to the Republic HE gave me a specific responsibility, "Train my Bride". I knew this was going to be a difficult task that I did not know if I could do even though I have pastored for many years and have been in the trenches for many more. Along the way I have seen things that people should not have to witness; death, sin beyond understanding, and the supernatural both good and bad. Mostly I've taken it in stride but sometimes it can be overwhelming. Many wonderful people have walked with me like Jean and David Hertler, the Rockwell's, Matt Friesser, Sharon Kaseweter, Steve Loopstra, Jim Geiger, Stephen Denison, Brian Falls, Berry Wunsch, Terry Friesen plus many others. Denominational churches do not prepare their people for the war we all eventually face. That is why I sought out the Apostles, Prophets and Seer-Hearers. I have never liked surprises, particularly of the warring kind. If you are going to have a wedding it ought to be fun, full of joy and happiness.

When the enemy interrupts your life, you need to be prepared. The bride needs to have combat boots on, a pistol strapped to her garter and an AR15 behind her veil. The groom needs a Laser Sword under his tux and be trained as a Jedi for the LORD.

There is so much evil everywhere we look. It is all about good versus evil. We know who wins however the outcome our enemy will keep on trying to destroy life, our nation and anyone who professes the LORD. Once again, 2 Chronicles 7:14 ¹⁴ If My people, who are called by My name, shall humble themselves, pray, seek, crave, and require of necessity My face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land. (Amp CE).

Am I saying gun up; do what you have to do to be safe? I am saying be PRAYED UP

The Amplified, King James, New American Standard, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word and begin on the new moon each month.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophesy. The answer is to ask the LORD how did this relate in the bible for then and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me to pray Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. (See last page.) Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heidler, and many other contributing authors which are included.* 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

It's been four years in June since we started publishing the Republic Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1 the very first words GOD speaks is "In the beginning" and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon". From that point on the nation of GOD was to look at the Moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The Biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last 7th, 1,000 years of days would be the time being the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle has only 29.5 days or 354 days per year whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous years is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon". The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast and season.

Throughout this month you will see the word "Key" in many prophetic words. It is a month of Key decisions, directions, and destinies. Take a look at the word from Chuck Pierce and team for the month!

I Am Going to Turn You Like I Turn a Key!"

Chuck D. Pierce, Corinth, TX

One of the wars in the year ahead is over digging new wells. Therefore, our focus for prophetic empowerment is preparing to dig! In the Word of God, a well can refer to a spring, a fountain (a living fountain fed by a spring) and also a pit or prison.

There is great power in coming together, particularly when we celebrate Firstfruits and honor the Lord with the first of our time and increase! When we choose to gather and seek Him first at the beginning of each month, we receive the Lord's anointing on our "whole lump."

The month of Cheshvan is reserved for the anointing, so this is a "key time" to assemble and receive the prophetic revelation that will enable us to move from blessing to blessing, until blessings overtake us.

A "Key" Word

This is a time of great movement! A prophetic portal formed during worship on Sunday, and a fresh stream of revelation broke forth. As we press beyond our Tabernacles season, declare that you are advancing with a new turning, a new exchanging, a new wind, a new movement and a new giving!

Prophetic Word received on Sunday, October 16, 2022:

God says: "I am going to turn you like I turn a key! I'm going to turn you just like I turn a key and cause your eyes and ears to open up.

"Keep your eyes open when you turn. As you keep your eyes open, I'm going to cause that shift in your whole body to cause a shift to be turned around, so that you can be like the key that turns the lock that opens the doors.

"I am exchanging keys! Satan has used a key of death against you, but I am the God of death, Hell and the grave.

"I am giving you a key to exchange for the death structure that is working against you. This key may appear as an old jail-like key chain, but it will sparkle and drip with gold. Old places of captivity in your life and bloodline are being unlocked by My glory.

My Second Wind Is Blowing in This hour

"You've been distanced but come to Me. Come visit Me at My well, and I will show you how to look through My eyes at each other. As you love Me, you will love each other, and that is an army invincible.

"For the enemy has even come to wear out the saints, but I am the God who is about to blow a second wind. Even as it is with an athlete – when that athlete senses that he can no longer finish that race, I come with a second wind to bring strength and to bring energy so that athlete can meet the goal that is set in front of him.

"I'm coming with a second wind of My Spirit, and I'm about to blow on you in a new way. Let the weak say, 'I am strong,' for the strength of the Lord will cause you to finish the race that is set before you. My second wind is blowing upon you now in this hour."

A Dance of Joy Will Hide Your Tracks from the Enemy

"I'm changing your footprint on the earth. When you are not in joy, you walk and you trudge in a straight line, and you cause furrows in the earth. These lines are very easy for the enemy to follow. But when that turns to joy and you begin dancing, you create footprints all over the earth in circles, up and down and back and forth. The enemy is not able to see which way you are going and which way you are moving when you move in joy and dance."

The Portals Will Open!

"The shift has begun and the wind has begun to blow. I have My Judah – the company of Judah – at the line across this nation, and the portals will be open, and My glory will be seen upon My people like never before."

Decree That Your Well Will Fill Up!

"I so loved the world that I gave... There's a new giving that's coming up and out of My people, and it's the generosity of the sound of love that I'm getting ready to penetrate this world with like never before."

"Open up the gate of your heart and let the wellspring of love flow through. As you choose to give in this season, decree that your well will fill up and you will drink from it all year long."

"I have created a new 'opening up' of resources and supply lines for My people in the natural, and in the spiritual. Continue to praise Me and I will open them up supernaturally in more and more ways."

(Word of the Lord spoken by Brian Kooiman, Norma Urrabazo, Chuck Pierce, Jamie Spears, Mark Waldrep, Barbara Wentroble, Lisa Lyons, Pasqual Urrabazo, Susan Shaulis and Eleanor Roehl).

This is a time where we must ascend to new heights in worship. Let's continue ascending through this prophetic portal and reflect the blueprint of Heaven in the earth.

Take a look at the season we are entering into from the teaching of Robert Heidler.

Cheshvan: The Judgement of the Nephilim and the revelation of "New Beginnings".

Who were the Nephilim? They were the sons and daughters of the watcher Angels that were originally assigned to the Earth to train the human race of the things of Heaven. They had physical form and ranged from nine feet to fifty feet tall. They had bodies, ate, knew the secrets of Heaven and were both male and female. Zec 5:9.

Mythology was based on truth; the Greek demi-gods Hercules, Perseus and Andromeda were the children of the fallen watchers mating with humans and are well-known figures in Greek mythology and history.

They saw the daughters of man as attractive and desired them. Because of their sin God judged them and they became demons now from satan's kingdom of darkness. The Nephilim or the fallen ones. They were here before the flood and after the flood Gen 6:4 You may ask how could this be? It was because Father had not shut the doors between the second heaven and earth until the resurrection. Matt. 24:36-34 The flood wiped out most of the Nephilim and their offspring yet after the flood the fallen returned to do it again so when Israel was conquering the promised land Father told them to wipe out entire races of mankind due to their interaction therefor stopping the seed from passing on.

Demons can:

- Attack mankind. Luke 13
- Infest mankind, burrowing into personalities.
- And invade mankind through being involved in witchcraft, satan worship and music.

Manasseh is the tribe represented this month and was the most blessed of all the tribes of Israel yet at the same time rebelled against GOD and became one of the "Lost Tribes" of Israel. Manasseh was Joseph's first born son adopted by Jacob and due to sin the tribe experienced a twenty-seven-century exile until 2017 when the lost tribe returned to become once again a "Tribe of Israel". Therefor "New Beginnings" have once again come to Israel. Now it's time for America to return!

Prayer guide for Cheshvan 5783

The Second Month of the New Year

Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word.

*The Biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day. Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. Cheshvan is the eighth month of the Hebrew Calendar, yet it is the second month of the Spiritual Calendar. The number "8" represents eternal revelation and "New Beginnings". It is considered the time of the "Messiah".

In modern times, this month has become known as Cheshvan or Mar-Cheshvan, which seems to have originated at the time that Jews came back to Israel after the Babylonian Exile. The prefix Mar (which means bitter) is a reference to this month having no festivals or rejoicing, but much suffering for Jews throughout the ages. Also, during this month, God brought down the Flood and drowned the world (except for Noah and those with him on the ark.) Mar also means drop and refers to the first rains (the Yoreh), which fall in Cheshvan.

This new month that follows the holiday laden month of Tishrei is quite different in mood and pace of life. It certainly lacks the drama of the preceding two months of Elul and Tishrei, the sense of awe and anticipation that the holidays always bring to us and the emotional depths of majesty, self-analysis and finally joy that mark the previous months.

In fact, Mar Cheshvan is the only month of the Jewish year that has no special days, neither feast nor fast, (though there is a custom of fasting for three days within that period to “atone” for frivolity during the holidays – a custom no longer universally observed) that occur within its time frame. It is so to speak, a month of rest after the rigors and tensions and efforts of the two preceding months.

It is as though the Jewish destiny has seen fit to give us a month off, a time to return to ourselves and our daily lives, to place into daily practice the great lessons afforded us by the challenges of the two previous months. It is as though God says to us, so to speak, “My children, let Me see how you put into your daily lives the holiness and commitments that you accumulated during the months of holidays and the preparation for them.”

Sense: Smell

The sense of smell is the most spiritual of all senses. The Hebrew word for “smell” (ריח) is cognate to the word for “spirit” (רוח). The Hebrew elders teach us that smell is the one and only sense that “the soul enjoys and not the body.” As noted, in Hebrew, “soul” is a permutation of Menasheh.

The sense of smell is the only sense (of the five senses) that did not participate, and thereby was not blemished or polluted, in the primordial sin of man in the Garden of Eden. It is the sense which saved the Jewish people in the time of Mordechai and Esther, who are called Mor veHadas (“myrrh and myrtle,” the two primary sources of fragrance).

And he shall smell with the awe of God”—“ he shall judge by smell” (rather than by sight or hearing. Isaiah 11:3;) By his sense of smell (his “holy spirit”) the Mashiach will know how to connect each Jewish soul to its Divine root, and thereby identify its tribe (branch) in Israel.

Other facts: King Solomon completed the seven-year building of the Sanctuary during Cheshvan and there should have been a festival. Though all Israel waited for G-d's command concerning this dedication, G-d waited until the next Tishrei (11 months later) before he finally commanded the dedication.

Mar Cheshvan in Jewish history and tradition

11 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2105 BCE) – Methuselah dies at age 969

11 Mar Cheshvan (circa 1553 BCE) – Death of Rachel while giving birth to Benjamin

17 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2105 BCE) – Great Flood began, Noah and his family enter the ark.

17 Mar Cheshvan (circa 960 BCE) – First Temple completed by King Solomon [2] (it was not inaugurated until the following Tishrei however)

20 Mar Cheshvan (1938) – Kristallnacht: 1,400 synagogues and numerous copies of the Tanakh are purposefully and systematically set on fire and allowed to burn in Nazi-occupied Germany

23 Mar Cheshvan (137 BCE) – Hasmonean holiday commemorating the removal from the Holy Temple of altar stones which were defiled by the Greeks

27 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2104 BCE) – Great Flood ends (Genesis 8:14)

NUN

Another view point. The Month of Cheshvan According to the Book of Formation (Sefer Yetzirah).

Introduction:

Cheshvan (in Hebrew: חֶשְׁׁׁוֹן), or as it is also known, Mar-Cheshvan, is the eighth of the twelve months of the Jewish calendar.

Letter: Nun (נ)

The letter nun is considered to be the letter of Mashiach, as is said (with reference to Mashiach): "Before the sun, his name is Ye-non [from nun]" (Psalms 72:17). As a verb-root, nun means "to reign." As a noun, it means "the heir to the throne" (from nin).

Cheshvan, the eighth month, is the month of Mashiach, because eight signifies the eternal revelation of the supernatural (the consummate state of rectified nature being the secret of the number seven). Whereas in our present reality, the "harp" played by King David and used in the Temple has seven strings, the harp of Mashiach possesses eight strings. Just as 8 transcends 7, so does 50 (the numerical value of nun) transcend $49 = 7^2$.

In our present reality, the nun is bent over, confined by the boundaries of nature. With the coming of Mashiach, the nun will "straighten out" (the shape of the final nun – ן), and will break through the boundaries of nature also descending ("below the line") into the subterranean realms of reality in order to reveal there God's all-encompassing Infinite light.

Mazal: Akrav (Scorpio – the Scorpion)

Our sages teach us that the scorpion (עֶקְרָב) is the deadliest member of the general category of poisonous creatures whose archetypal figure is the primordial snake of Eden. The Hebrew word for "scorpion," derives from the word meaning "heel" (עֶקֶב) as is said: "And you [the snake] shall bite him [man] at the heel" (Genesis 3:15). Thus, the scorpion symbolizes the consummate "bite" of the snake at the heel of man.

While the poison of the snake is considered "hot," the poison of the scorpion is considered "cold." The Mashiach is the one and only soul who can overcome, kill, and ultimately revive the primordial snake (in order to convert it to good). (The soul of Mashiach and his continuous state of consciousness manifest the ultimate rectification of "heat," "burning" solely in his love for God and Israel, as well as that of "cold"- absolutely “cold” to the false vanities of this world.) This is the secret of the well-known gematria that “Mashiach” (מָשִׁיחַ) equals “snake” (שָׁנָה).

Indeed, the Mashiach is also numerically related to the scorpion since “Mashiach” (358) plus 14 is equal to 372, the value of “scorpion.” 14 is the value of David (דָּוִד) and the 14th letter of the Hebrew alphabet is nun, the letter of the month of Cheshvan. Furthermore, the root-letters of Cheshvan are chet-shin-nun and they permute to spell “snake.” One final point about the relationship of Cheshvan to the Mashiach who rectifies the snake is that whereas the snake is crooked and bent the nun in the word Cheshvan is “straightened out” as it is the final nun, as above.

Tribe: Manasseh

Manasseh is the firstborn of Joseph. Deriving from the word “to forget” (literally “to leap, up and away”), Manasseh suggests the power of the Joseph to make us forget the hardships, trials and tribulations of this world, with the coming of Messiah. By the power and sense of Manasseh, all of the pain of this world will transform and metamorphose into the pleasure of the Messianic era.

Of Moses it is said that, “He is the first redeemer and he is the final redeemer” (See Shemot Rabbah 4:2; Zohar 1:253a; Sha’ar HaPesukim, Vayechi; Torah Or, beginning of Mishpatim). In his first lifetime (as “the first redeemer”), Moses did not attain the 50th gate of understanding—the understanding of God Himself, as it were, and His deepest intention in the creation of the universe. 50 is the numerical value of the letter nun, the letter of Cheshvan. But, when Moses will return as Mashiach—the final redeemer—he will be given forever the 50th gate, the nun of Mashiach, the secret of Manasseh (Moses with an additional nun).

In the Zohar we are taught that when Moses first passed from this world he received the 50th gate and was subsumed, as it were, in the Mishnah (מִשְׁנָה), another permutation of Manasseh (and Moses plus an additional nun). Through the study of Mishnah today (in the time of exile) we reveal the soul of Israel and thereby merit the redemption of Moses-Mashiach and the universal revelation of the 50th gate of understanding.

17 Mar-Cheshvan (circa 2105 BCE) Prayer for Rain

In Israel we add a request for rain to our prayers starting from the 7th day of Cheshvan. We see rain as the physical manifestation of life force at its very source.

Everything that lives depends on water to survive. Our bodies are close to 86 percent water. The spiritual source of life, God's compassion and creativity, is manifested concretely through His gift. In fact the Hebrew word for "physicality," gashmiut, literally means "raininess," the word for rain being "geshem". The rain we see is the source of being and becoming. We have to be mindful enough to see it as, and not to fall into the trap of thinking that it is the source of having and consuming. When we open our minds to see the rainfall for the blessing it is, each time it rains, our awareness is altered. The Talmud tells us that rain is an enormous statement of God's presence in the day-to-day world, just listen to the comparisons that Talmud presents to us.

1. A rainy day is greater than the day the Torah was given
2. A rainy day is greater than the day the heavens and earth were created.
3. It makes salvation multiply
4. It tells us that our sins are forgiven
5. Whatever we own is blessed
6. It is greater than the day when the exiled Jews return to Israel.
7. Even the armies are stopped by its force.

Why is rain considered to be greater than the most significant moments in all of history? In what sense is its source of inspiration and blessing?

The answer is that we were put in a physical world with all of its temptations and inherent concealment of God's presence. Our role is to light a candle in a dark place, and let the goodness that it reflects illuminate the entire world. Rain gives everything material life. God is as much there as He is in the realms of being. There is one critical difference. In the higher realms of being, and in the more dramatic moments of history, it took very little soul searching for us to know God. When the world is in its less dramatic mode, far more is required for us to have an authentic relationship to the world's Creator.

In Cheshvan we have choices to make about our relationship to the real world, the ordinary days and months that we have yet to face. We have to make commitments to not flinch in the face of the mundane things we see, and the simple choices we make.

Cheshvan is a time of great opportunity. Let's close our eyes, swallow the phrase "just be normal" with a cup of water to wash it down, and fight the good fight, the one in which goodness, in its highest sense, always prevails.

Hebrew teacher and friend, Bob Koch

What is the Primary Purpose of the New Testament Reference to Isaiah 7:14?

Christians believe the most important thing we learn from the reference to Isa 7:14 in Matt 1:22-23 is that it presents the prophetic Hebrew Scriptural foundation for the Graeco-Roman (GR) Church dogma known as "the virgin birth." Regardless of your personal view on its validity, do we need this doctrine to be true in order to prove or believe Yeshua is the promised "haMelech ha'Mashiach (Anointed King) who will rule from David's throne in Jerusalem in the Olam HaBa (World to Come)? If this is such a critical issue, why didn't Isaiah mention that the "Suffering Servant" of chapter 53 needed to be born of a virgin to make his death efficacious? As a "Prophet like Moses," or the non-Levitical High Priest, why would Messiah need to be born of a virgin? I'm not writing this piece seeking to prove or disprove the GR Church's virgin birth creed, but I have been pondering what may be an important question: Could Matthew be trying to give us another and more essential message by citing the Isaiah verse?

The following is how most Christian bibles translate Isa 7:14:

"Therefore, the Lord Himself shall give you a sign: behold, the virgin (Heb. almah) shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

The first thing we need to address is the definition of the Hebrew word, "almah" (Strong's #H5959) which the Greek usually renders as "parthenos" (Strong's #G3933). But almah can be translated as "a young woman, a virgin or a maiden" and this may be reflected in the Greek words used in the Septuagint (LXX) to signify the virginal or post-virginal state of the young woman. In Isaiah 7:14, the Greek LXX translates almah as parthenos, i.e. "a virgin." It does the same at Gen 24:43 when referring to Rebekah.

Importantly, the earliest Hebrew copy of Isaiah that we have is the Dead Sea Scrolls, dated to the first few centuries BCE. The Israeli Antiquities Authority, Geza Vermes and other Hebrew scholars translate almah in the DDS version of Isa 7:14 as "young woman."

In Ps 68:25, Ex 2:8, Prov 30:19 and elsewhere, the LXX renders the Hebrew almah into "neanis" which simply means a "young woman" or "maiden" who may or may not be a virgin, not "parthenos" (Strong's AB #G3494.1; neanis: Gr. νεανίς). In the aforementioned Psalm, almah refers to young women playing tambourines; Prov 30 speaks of not understanding how a man has his way with a young woman. There is no need for these to be virgins and the LXX agrees. At Ex 2:8 almah refers to Moses's younger sister, Miriam, who was living at home and obviously still a virgin; however, the LXX still rendered it neanis, not parthenos. English translations of the LXX and the Hebrew usually translate it as "girl, young girl or maiden." The Greek NT we find

"neanis" at 1Tim 5:14, where it refers specifically to the "younger widows" at 1Tim 5:11. These women are certainly not virgins.

Another Hebrew word that refers to any "young woman" (without reference to her virginal status) is "na'arah," (Strong's #H5291). We know that this definition is correct because in Deut 22:23 and v.28 a woman is referred to as both a "na'arah," a young woman and a "betulah," a Hebrew word that specifically only means "a virgin" in every instance in the Hebrew Scriptures (Strong's #H1330).

If a young woman (na'arah), a virgin (betulah), is betrothed to a husband, and a man finds her in the city and lies with her...

If na'arah always referred to a virgin, wouldn't it be superfluous to add she was also a betulah unless Moses wanted to clarify that the young woman to whom he was referring was still a virgin? Whenever we see betulah in the LXX, it's always rendered as parthenos (Gen 24:16; Ex 22:16; Lev 21:13-14; etc.)

Let's look at Isa 7:14, in context. The time is circa 732 BCE (give or take); it's about 700 years before the birth of Yeshua. The chapter begins by setting up the background of the prophecy. King Ahaz ruled Judah, Rezin was king of Syria and Pekah was king of Israel. Ahaz was afraid because the other two kings had conspired together to destroy Jerusalem, Judah's capitol, but they couldn't yet mount an attack. God sent Isaiah to Ahaz to allay his fears (Isa 7:4). God told Isaiah to instruct Ahaz to ask for any sign and He would grant it so he would know that God was with him (Isa 7:11) but Ahaz refused. Isaiah was angry with him for insulting YHWH, but he told him God was going to give him a sign of His own choosing anyway. That sign is stated in Isa 7:14.

"Therefore, YHWH Himself shall give you a sign: behold, the young woman (almah) shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

Shockingly, many Christians only know this one verse of Isaiah chapter seven. But this is NOT the entire sign God gave to Ahaz! If God had only told Ahaz that a virgin would have a child and call him Immanuel, how would that be a sign to allay his fears of the city being destroyed by the two kings? After all, context is everything in biblical exegesis, isn't it? One must read the next two verses to know the complete prophetic "sign." So, "here's the rest of the story" from verses 15-16:

"Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings."

Doesn't a simple reading of these two verses show we are still in the same context as v.14? We are told the "son" that is to be born in v.14 is the "child" of v.15-16. He is to be named, "Immanuel" which is "with us is God." This name alone would act to comfort

Ahaz by reminding him that God will deliver him from his enemies. God tells Ahaz that, before this child knows the difference between refusing evil and choosing good (i.e. only several years old maximum), Ahaz's two enemies will be dead. Thus, the "sign" to Ahaz was that the birth of this child would begin the countdown to destruction for Judah's enemies. And, according to historians, Kings Rezin and Pekah were no longer a threat within just a few years of the prophecy. The only conclusion we can reach is that the child of Isa 7:14-16 had to have been born in that time frame.

Perhaps the inclusion of this prophesy in Matthew has more to do with the naming of the child than it does with how the child came into the world. In Israel, the naming of a child, certainly one who was to be "a prophet like Moses," was more than just a name; it indicated a function or characteristic. The name gave a hint as to the work that child was to perform as God's "shaliach" – "emissary" or "agent." We saw that the first child was named Immanuel and its significance, in context. This was true for many others as well: Isaiah was "Ysha'yah" which means "Salvation of Yah [YHWH]"; Daniel was "Dani'yael" which is "God is my Judge"; etc. Miriam and Yosef were told to name the child "Yeshua" (Aramaic) which is a short form for "Yehoshua" (Hebrew) and means "Yahu [YHWH] is Salvation" because "he will save his people from their sins." (Matt 1:21, Luke 1:31) The name "Jesus" has no meaning in Hebrew or Aramaic.

(The Greek alternate "Jesus" was only used in later translations with no reference to a spiritual meaning. Just as the times and seasons were changed by Constantine and the Popes to take the foundations away from the Hebrew roots so was HIS name. In an open vision with the LORD, I asked Him what name should we use? HE replied, "My name is Yeshua or Yehoshua, I respond to Jesus because so many of my son's and daughter's do not know my true name!" WB)

Of course, it's the name Yeshua that would ultimately have very significant spiritual meaning. Part of his work in his first coming had to do with fulfilling his role as the "Suffering Servant" of Isaiah 53 or what is also sometimes referred to as "Messiah ben Yosef." The name "Yeshua" was perfect because he became God's agent of salvation – exactly as his name signifies.

I'm going to end this drash (commentary) with a translation of a Yom Kippur prayer that was sadly taken out of our prayer books about a century ago. It's entitled, "Az Mi'lefnay B'reishit" which is roughly translated, "Then, before He created anything." Literally, it says, "Then, from before, 'in the beginning'." This is a reference to the Jewish mystical belief that God created seven things in His mind or plan before he created the foundations of the heavens and the earth. One of them was the agency of Messiah, which embodied the blueprint of permanent salvation and the final institution of God's earthly kingdom. The concept of "preexistence" in Hebrew teaching is wrapped up in YHWH's thought or plan of action for His creation. The following version of the prayer is from my grandmother's Yom Kippur Machzor (prayer book).

Hear, O Israel, the Lord is our God, the Lord is one. Our God is a Unity; he is our Father, Our King, and our Saviour; and through his infinite mercy will cause us to hear the second time in the sight of all living, the expression, "to be your God."

Before he created any thing, he established his dwelling (the temple). The lofty armoury he established from the beginning, before any people or language. He counselled to suffer his divine presence to rest there, that those who err may be guided into the path of rectitude. Though their wickedness be flagrant, yet hath he caused repentance to precede it, when he said, "Wash ye, cleanse yourselves." Though he should be exceedingly angry with his people, yet will the holy One not awaken all his wrath. We have hitherto been cut off through our evil deeds, yet hast thou, O our Rock, not brought consummation on us. Our righteous anointed is departed from us: horror hath seized us, and we have none to justify us. He hath borne the yoke of our iniquities, and our transgression, and is wounded because of our transgression. He beareth our sins on his shoulder, that he may find pardon for our iniquities. We shall be healed by his wound, at the time that the Eternal will create him (the Messiah) as a new creature. O bring him up from the circle of the earth. Raise him 'up from Seir, to assemble us the second time on Mount Lebanon, by the hand of יְיָ.

Our Lord, and most mighty God, how excellent is thy name in all the earth. The Eternal shall be King over all the earth; in that day the Lord alone shall be acknowledged, and his name shall also be one.

Baruch Yah!

I am in You and You are in ME: Sharon Kaseweter
Oregon City, Oregon

In a surprise encounter with Yeshua, he confirmed the following revelation.

Daddy does not see us in our fragile estate, He sees us through His Son Yeshua and we are all in every sense of the word "fit"!

Our creator Father sees our spiritual man as perfect lacking nothing, completely sound and whole in every aspect.

He's wondering why we're asking for healing when he's already healed us on the cross through his son, "By His stripes we were healed" we just have to see our self through his eyes as he sees us and our physical man will aline with our spiritual man!

I believe he wants us to envision our spirit man to look how we want our physical man to look!

Envision your spirit as muscled, tanned and toned with beautiful straight white strong teeth, clear eyes with perfect vision, fresh glowing elastin skin, and a strong bone structure. That's how he sees us! Not to mention our insides and all our organs, and systems he himself created to function in perfection!

Think about the scripture in 1 Corinthians 2:9 But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him"—

Everything heaven did was for us!!

So could that verse possibly be referring to us in the here and now?

In leu of the encounter, I think the answer is a resounding Yes!

In the Lord's prayer it states "On earth as it is in heaven" well what is going on in heaven that isn't going on the in earth? How about divine perfection in every aspect, area, situation etc. In heaven there are no negative outcomes, there is no sickness and there is zero lack and bondage! Satan is an expert at pulling us out of Jesus, he draws us out by causing us to look at our surroundings instead of looking into Jesus. Do you see the error here beloved ones? Yeshua only did what he saw his Father do! If you're in Him you will only do what He does and see how He sees!

Satan makes things look really dire and causes us to gawk at the situation with mouths agape, when Jesus never did that! Jesus knew who he was up against, and he knew how to stand in the face of the enemy's tactical deployment! We must condition ourselves as good soldiers to be aware of the tactical on the enemies' part and have our own operation in play!

What if when the enemy comes around with his deceptions, we sink our heels in and become steeled in our belief system that God, the one who died for us in the form of his son on the cross, is right there waiting for us to ask for his assistance to defeat that old devil!

I want to give you a powerful visual to help you do that next time you are caught off guard!

In the vision I am referring to at the head of this letter I saw Yeshua suspended before me in a very deep red robe in an answer to my question "How do you want me to see

Your blood"? He was immediately before me before I could even finish the question as he already knew what I would ask. He opened his arms which parted the rich red garment and revealed a pure flowing whiteness.

I knew that was an invitation to come into him, so I ran right into my Savior and knew in a instant it was no longer me and him or Him and I, it was now us, we were now existing! What followed was pure amazement as we experienced everything together as one!

According to John 14:10-11 Yeshua is in the father and the father is in Yeshua

Acts 17:28 In Him we live and move and have our being

John 17:21 that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in ME and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

Jesus Yeshua is like unto the ark in Noah's time. Noah and his family and all the animals ran into the ark, and they were saved! None of the elements on the outside of the ark could get to them, it's the same with going into Yeshua and living life from within!

I pray for everyone reading this to receive the invitation From Yeshua to "come on in" and begin to live from the inside out! Receive the fullness of ALL heaven has to offer! It's no longer you and Yeshua, it's Y'all!
He's waiting

Prophetic Word through the vessel Kat Kerr - October 16, 2022

"This day your God has come to visit you, Do you think that I have ignored what has been going on! For Holy! is what I am Holy! is what I bring Holy! is what I speak the power is Holy! The Word is Holy! The Blood is Holy!"

"Are you holy?! Are you ready for the greatest days of your life?!"

Show who and what you believe in?! Who you are! My Son has made you free. My heart is with you! My hand is with you! My power is in you! For you will walk and talk just like Me You should desire to be just like Me Live like Me! Operate like Me! You are made in Our image!
An image that cannot be changed It cannot be won against!
It cannot be stopped!"

"For those will be like dust who's spoken against Me. My Son! Holy Spirit! These days My anointed! My appointed! They will regret for all of eternity! what they have chosen this day, For their words will be dust. Their power will be dust! Their money will be dust! Their property will be dust! Their position will be dust! And their memory of greatness they so desire shall be like dust under your feet."

"We have already won, But we're going to show them without question we have won! This country is free You are free! This world is free!
They didn't make it! They didn't plan it! And they don't get to run it!"

"This day I send My fire! That comes from My throne! To sweep across this world to expose every hidden person, Every hidden lie, Every hidden plan, Every hidden corruption. The money they have stolen!
They will not be successful Theirs will not be what remains on this earth for they will not even be remembered."

"But the Blood of My Son will scream out! all over this world
Those who have shed it for Me, My Son, Holy Spirit, the Living God, the Godhead! The Throne of God! The world of God! We all cry out for Justice is coming! in great measure They can't hide from it They can't stop it! They won't be able to stand it! And many will take their self to Hell! rather than face the judgment That is their choice! I will not stop it."

Some have gone beyond the stage of mercy Crossed over the line of mercy So they shall have no mercy, For the bowls are full of prayers. Of worship. Asking for Justice. Liberty, Freedom! Hope! This day I release from Myself! To flood every home in this world The Presence will flood them Hell is trembling even now! The gates of Hell will not prevail! The plans of Hell The words of Hell The lies of Hell The deception of Hell The corruption of Hell The defilement of Hell Has been wasted For nothing is stronger than the Blood Nothing is stronger than the Word Nothing is stronger than a believer who knows who they are And is not afraid to say it!

For what you are about to see is the Body the remnant stand up And speak into the atmosphere My plans! My will! My way! For I say "Victory is already here" satan has lost, and lost, and lost, and failed and failed, and failed. This will be the biggest failure he's ever had! The world will know it!
The wicked will know it! The just will know it!'

"This is the season of knowing and understanding, Receiving revelation and living it! For you were called to live Heaven culture on this earth. To operate in spirit force as the Army of the Living God! No fear! No lack! Powerful weapons that man does not understand. Even satan does not understand them. The one thing he can't copycat Is joy Is celebration! Creation of what brings life, he is not in charge! And he's picked weak, sick, defiled people to follow him That foundation has already crumbled in the spirit They will have nothing to stand on No place to run to, No place they can hide from My justice Even the fake news will have to tell the truth For they will say these very words:

"We don't want to say this. We tried to prove it wasn't true.
That it was a lie. But Trump won the 2020 election.
He is the President of the United States of America."

"And I will give him his four more years There will not need to be an election to cause that to happen For I have already spoken from the Courtroom of Heaven Even into the unknown space. Into the spirit realm, the physical realm. Those words have already been spoken!
You can write it down that it will be proven that Trump who was my chosen person is my chosen person to sit in the seat of the Whitehouse
Who will wipe up this mess like a mop bucket! So, there's no trace of it."

"I'm about to speak to those who are around him who will have no voice to him! If they do not say what I say they will no longer be there! And those in the Republican Party who are lying. They will lose their place, And I will put in that place powerful men and women of My picking, And justice will be given in the courtrooms on earth! Like it is in Heaven!"

For hope has been sent And I speak these words from a person of hope I chose If you don't like her pink hair, get over it! For she has obeyed

"She has been willing at all times, no matter what I have asked of her she has done it She has said it She planned it She has bought it She's written down My Words for what she will do for the next 150 years. There are those I have appointed to remain and live! Until I personally come to take them No one can harm them No one can stop their words, For they live holy on purpose Holy is powerful.

It is redeeming It is a joy A celebration to live that way That you have nothing hidden You have not spoken words that need to be struck down, But they're written down in Heaven!"

I HEARD THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD SAY, "NOTHING WILL STOP WHAT IS ABOUT TO BE REVEALED TO THOSE THAT ARE FULLY SURRENDERED TO ME. OUT OF MY MOUTH GOES FORTH BURNING LAMPS, AND SPARKS OF FIRE LEAP OUT. I WILL VISIT MY PEOPLE WITH AN OUTPOURING THAT WILL STRIKE LIKE THUNDER. I WILL SPIRITUALLY SHAKE NATIONS LIKE AN EARTHQUAKE. I WILL COME SUDDENLY AND WITH A GREAT NOISE WILL I MOVE ACROSS THE LAND. I WILL COME LIKE A STORM, YES A GLORY STORM THAT WILL NOT BE STOPPED! I'M COMING WITH MY FLAME TO DEVOUR THE LAND. PREPARE YOURSELVES, MAKE READY YOUR HOMES; A TIME OF VISITATION IS ABOUT TO COME."
-PROPHET CHARLIE SHAMP

"I thank you this day for coming, For the hunger you have The desire you have To live justly To live perfectly To love extravagantly, Love is the greatest weapon I ever made Hell cannot defeat it. It will never be wiped out, But this day is different This day I send My life to each and every one of you When hands are laid on you this day.

You receive My Life on the inside of you The Life of your Father To flow through you, to others who need help You will live in a cloud of this Life! And one day you walk into your home and see that cloud It will go with you wherever you go., No sickness No lack No confusion

No pain No deception No attacks of the enemy Will be able to come after you,
But you will crush darkness and push it back, And people will know you belong to Me You came from Me I was your home We'll be together forever
You will not need time But you will live forever."

Roger Waters: Cheshvan 3, 5756, October 27, 1995

I woke up that morning with huge expectations, I looked out the window at the bright October sunlit sky of Salem Virginia. I was at the Rehab unit at the Veterans hospital. I was released from UVA just two weeks before, and I was looking at getting out of my wheelchair into a walker. But first, I had to go down the parallel bars and back one time on my own.

At first look, that was scary. On June 11, 1995, I fell 128 feet, and wound up at UVA awake, but with 36 broken bones, and an 11 ½ hour surgery that night. Needless to say, walking on legs that have not been used for 3 -1/2 months would be tuff, but then I served a god that invented tuff.

My purpose here was simple, according to my rehab nurse Brenda, I was to walk down the bars and back, no matter how fast or slow it was on my own, then they would order me a walker. Now to you, if you are walking with no aids on your own legs, you might not think about it much, but to a guy that was told if he lived, he would never walk, but then I lived.

Then they told me that I would never walk, yet my God told me way back on June 13th 1995, that he had a ministry for me that did not require a wheelchair. Now we go back to Isaiah and that little thing of who's report will you believe, may I remind you, there are only two reports, YHVH's and the rest.

Cheshvan is a month that is with no biblical holidays, no feast days, nothing, you know why? Because it is all about Yashua. It is the month that he will raise the Kingdom over to the Father, and it is the month that the circular boundaries will be laid out in a straight line so when Yahshua does return, he will break though it to descend below the line into the world where His illuminating light will blind all that are not covered with His blood and they shall die as they stand on the feet.

So, my task was now upon me, I had one week to accomplish what every doctor said I couldn't do. So I got up, got into my wheelchair, and raced my roomie down to where we ate chow. Then I went on to Rehab by 9 am. When I wheeled myself into the room, there was Brenda waiting on me. She had this picture, and she placed it right into my face, and she said, "See, here it is, you know what to do right?"

I said, "I can't use that?" She said, "Why?" I smiled and said, "It's on paper, I want the real thing". Brenda was a funny lady, but in a serious way. Her job was not to be my friend, but to make me strong again, and to make we walk again. I knew that, and I also knew everything I was about to do today was going to happen in pure faith. My right leg hadn't worked right for 111 days.

This is when all those stupid things go flying in and out between your ears, you know, what if I can't, what happens if I fall, no, no, you don't want to fall do you? And I knew that if all I did was center on the negative, negative is what I will get, and fast, while the whole time Satan is laughing his butt off. Well, I told myself, here is the deal. I know that Gary is right in front of me, and he has these friends, thousands of them, all standing there around me, and there is no way even one small miniature demon can break through. I will not allow it, I will not think it, or speak it.

They had me stand up at the end of the bars. They placed this strap around my waist, and there was a nurse in front of me, and behind me. I turned my head to Brenda and said, "Ok, get a cup of coffee and sit down, I will be right back." For a flash in my memory, I remembered what Gary told me, he said, "That if I only could see the other end, I would never worry, because with the Creator, I will always have the victory, I will always be on the winning side".

I looked down at my right foot, I thought, "Ok right foot, today, your job is simple, one or two inches in front of the left foot, then we can sit and re-evaluate tomorrows job description." I began to strain, I wanted to lift my foot up just enough to move my foot forward just a few inches. I had all week to go down and back in the bars but step one was getting my right leg working.

I gripped the bars with both hands so tight, my arms were shaking. I was scared, I didn't want to not make it happen. Then I heard this little soft voice in my spirit say, "Who said anything about you doing it." Then he said, "Relax, be calm, and let me show you the power inside you that you have because of me."

I exhaled, and a tear dropped from my left eye, and I heard all these people clapping. I thought someone else had made strides or something. I looked down, and my right foot was on the floor just four inches ahead of my left foot. I had moved.

A smile came across my face, I now was tearing up like crazy. I just saw something happen that every doctor said would never happen. They were ready to cut my right leg off, and look now, its working.

There was nothing I did there, I couldn't. There was nothing any nurse did, there was only the Presence of the Holy Spirit, so thick, so powerful, so dominating, that even the nurses said they smelled sweet perfume in the room. Now I knew what just happened.

Sometimes we all need a kick-start, a re-do, and sometimes we need to change out the old and replace it with new. Sometimes the Creator will do for us what we can't do, just to show us that he is still there. Sometimes he does something that to us is so huge, so mighty, we can't shut up about it for months. Now, for me, it's been 27 years.

On Friday of that week, I got to the end of the bars and back, and out wheeled this brand new walker, complete with a seat attached to it. I had accomplished my goal, but not me only, no I had my newest best friend with me, he had been around for a while, he had seen a lot of things, and he was beginning to teach me a lot of those things.

His name is Holy, Holy Spirit, and he knows the Creator personally. He even told me that if I had any questions, just ask, that he would show me either the answer or where to find it. After 27 years, that relationship has not ended, faltered, or skipped a beat. He is always there for me, and I am there because of Him. I now understand why King David said that his cup runs over, because it was constantly getting re-filled every day.

Remember when you read this, this month isn't about you or me, its not about any great thing here on Earth, this month is all about Him, Yahweh, and Yahshua, for this is the month of the final miracle, when the entire Kingdom of God on this earth becomes the Kingdom of Heaven for eternity inside New Jerusalem. Shalom.

God's Key to Taking the South" Demontae Edmonds, Atlanta, GA

Prophetic Word for Atlanta, Georgia

On January 2021, at the Head of the Year service for The Life Center in Atlanta, Georgia, the Lord had me release a prophetic word concerning the strategic importance of the Atlanta, Georgia region. God had me say that the city would be the "Pearl of Justice" and be used to help bring social change and social justice to the state and southern region. He also had me say that it would be a "beacon of light," as key legislation would come forth from the state, and "massive movements" of change would cause other states to adopt the same laws and try to "reproduce" what was being done in Georgia with their own territories.

I saw the voice of key Church and political leaders "multiplying and echoing" from the state of Georgia. God said that there was an "Antioch anointing" upon the city and it would be an international prophetic voice.

Lastly, I shared that I saw a glory portal which would open up, and there would be a great release of the tangible glory of God, causing power-filled meetings in stadiums and arenas. I said, "It has been strategic that the Lord placed the busiest airport in the world in this city and in this territory!"

The Enemy Knows Something Is Close but Has No Power

Recently, our intercessory team and ministry were stirred up to pray for God to pour out His Spirit in a greater way than ever before in the Atlanta, GA region. A few days after giving the team these prayer assignments, my wife, two daughters and I almost died in a head-on collision.

A crazy driver sped through a red light doing 70 mph and hit us head on. Our vehicle was damaged and totaled but our lives were spared. We had just come from a church that we were renting to hold an upcoming service in which we were believing God to pour out mightily. Immediately we sensed, along with other prophetic voices, that it was an attack from the regional demonic principality to stop part of the assignment of God over this region.

That same night, a pastor sent me a prophetic word that "Daddy Seymour" (William Seymour), who was the recognized leader of the Azusa Street Revival, had prophesied this in 1909: "100 years from now, there will come a revival that will make this one look pale in comparison." This means that the Body of Christ has already entered the window of prophetic fulfillment. But I find it no coincidence that William Seymour passed away on September 28, 1922 – 100 years ago! Wow!

The Prophetic Summit Word

That same night, a dear friend and prophet, Dr. Black, sent me a video of another beloved man of God (Apostle Greg Hood) speaking about revival. He had given this word just days before on September 23, 2022. (Screenshot of Dutch Sheets, Greg Hood and Tim Sheets at the 2022 Prophetic Summit)

At the 2022 Prophetic Summit, Apostle Greg Hood prophesied about God moving during the last quarter of 2022 and beyond. He was flanked by notable prophetic voices and apostolic leaders, Dutch and Tim Sheets, as he released this prophetic utterance:

"I will begin to move in Atlanta, and I'm IGNITING A REVIVAL there,' says the Lord your God, 'that will begin to ASTONISH THE NATIONS! It will begin to even shift the movement of the altars of the enemy out of commission in that state, says the Lord!"

As I shared this with my ministry team, they were stirred even more and came under a heavy conviction to begin to seek God more fervently for revival in the Atlanta region.

What Bob Saw

Apostle Greg's prophetic word and the visions that God had shared with us previously reminded me of a powerful and unusual vision that the legendary seer, Prophet Bob Jones, had on July 15, 2005, while at a conference in Cincinnati, Ohio. Bob Jones had a vision of a gigantic man who had fallen asleep, lying on his back and dormant, but was waking up. The giant's man name was Gulliver, like the main character in the 1800's satirical writing Gulliver's Travels.

In the vision, the man was lying upon different parts of the United States of America. Gulliver's head was lying in Cleveland, Ohio on a place called "Jacob's field." The heart of the man covered Columbus, Ohio. Cincinnati, Ohio was the place where his reproductive organs were. The right hand of the man stretched out to Indianapolis, Indiana and his left hand to Philadelphia. His right foot was in Nashville, TN and his left foot was in Charlotte, North Carolina.

The giant man suddenly began to arise in the power of God and break off the yokes that held him captive. He planted both of his feet in Atlanta, Georgia. Bob prophesied, "God means to take Ohio, then move over to Indianapolis and up into Illinois, crossing over into the east and finally standing completely upright in Atlanta." Bob also prophesied that to take Atlanta, Georgia would be to TAKE THE SOUTH!

According to Bob's prophecy, it seems that the city of Atlanta has a strategic importance in opening the gateways to other states and cities in the southern region of the United States. Also, both of Gulliver's feet were planted in Atlanta, Georgia. I believe that Atlanta is still the strategic spiritual key city to taking the South!

The Revival Scroll

My wife Jessica had an open vision the other morning upon waking up. In the vision, she saw a list numbered 1-20 written on parchment. Only three numbers on the list were highlighted. It was a catalog of God's great revivals. It seemed to her that God had ordered the list of revivals according to the level of His presence and glory present, and the impact it had on the earth.

Number six on the list was "Wales." The Welsh Revival was one of the largest revivals during the 20th century, which happened in Wales in 1904. The impact of this revival spread to other nations, especially across Europe. Many believe that the prayers of the Welsh for America were a determining factor in the outpouring that happened just two years later in Azusa Street. During this revival, in less than one year, more than 100,000 souls received Jesus as Lord, and many of them went to the mission field or back into their own respective nations to spread God's fire. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

Next, highlighted in the vision, was number three, which read "Azusa." The Azusa Street Revival, as it is commonly termed, was a powerful outpouring of God's Spirit that took place in California starting in 1906. There was a great emphasis on the restoration of the baptism of the Holy Spirit, speaking in tongues and the presence of God. People traveled from all around the world to have their hearts set ablaze by the fire of God present at these tremendous meetings. Unusual manifestations and unprecedented, creative miracles took place at these meetings which lasted about eight years. This revival was the key contributor to the spread of Pentecostalism globally.

Finally, my wife saw the number one spot and it read "Atlanta"! God did not provide details within this vision, but we both felt it was a prophetic promise that God wanted to fulfill the prophetic words over this city and pour out something GREATER than Azusa Street or Wales. HALLELUJAH!

Prayers for Atlanta

1. Pray that the Lord will release an outpouring of God in Atlanta that will "astonish the nations" according to the word of the Lord.
2. Pray that even as the Civil Rights Movement was ignited and headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, God's Spirit and movement of revival and outpouring will be ignited there.
3. Pray for the upcoming election, that the will of God will prevail on all levels of government.
4. Pray that God-anointed vessels of honor will stand in the power and presence of God to reap the harvest of souls in this region.
5. Pray that demonic altars and strongholds in the Atlanta region – especially in the areas of media, government, and entertainment – will be demolished.
6. Pray for an unprecedented magnitude of glory to be poured out upon the region!
7. Pray that mighty warrior angels in masse will be released to bind up demonic forces and remove spiritual blindness from the minds of those who have not yet believed the Gospel.
8. Pray that Jesus will be glorified in the Atlanta region.

Pray! Decree and Command Mountains to Move!"

John Belt, Oklahoma City, OK

The Spirit is emphasizing our need to decree and "command" things to be removed, changed and brought to life in this season.

There is a fresh emphasis on this currently as God is breaking His people into new territories, greater purposes and greater expansion into new spiritual landscapes and blessings in this Jewish new year. It is not only prayer that we need. We also need to be commanding things into existence and out of existence. Like Jesus, we are called to walk in the fullness of His power and authority. Just as Jesus walked in power and authority, so must we as well.

Demonstrating Christ Through Faith

"So Jesus answered and said to them, 'Have faith in God. For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, "Be removed and be cast into the sea," and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. Therefore, I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.'" (Mark 21:22-24)

In Luke 18:8, Jesus poses this question: "...when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?" This seems to indicate that faith will be rare to find when He returns. "And without faith it is impossible to please God..." (Hebrews 11:6). Faith is a commodity we can't afford to lose. For us to demonstrate the fullness of who Jesus is, we need our faith to be fully active and engaged on this earthly plane.

The purpose of the Son of God manifested was to destroy the works of the devil (1 John 3:8). With this being our assignment as well, our authority is not negotiable. Faith is expressed through our actions – what we say and do.

Speak to the Mountain

In our lives we encounter obstacles, challenges, trials and tests (James 1:2). Within every trial is a test as well – to see how we will respond and walk it out. 1 Peter 4:12 teaches us not to think it is strange when we encounter trials. This is normal, giving us the opportunity to shine through overcoming and winning. Many times, the things that seem to get in the way are simply what God uses to grow us, to help us be all that He has made us to be.

When you encounter something difficult, are you going to just sit back, be passive and let it happen, or are you going to confront it? Jesus uses the picture of a mountain as something we can speak to, commanding it to be removed. He is encouraging us to use our God-given authority to shift things – to get things out of the way that are hindering us. When we speak to the mountain, "Be removed and cast into the sea," it will obey us. The spirit of religion strips us of authority, leaving us with empty, powerless prayers of form and formality.

Jesus wants us to know that prayer has life-changing effects. Prayer is where we communicate with God from the earthly plane to the heavenly plane of God's realm. He continues to encourage prayer but then also is shining light on the reality of speaking INTO the earthly plane of where the hindrance is coming from. It is not enough to just pray. We also need to speak commands as Jesus did.

Jesus Demonstrates His Authority

"Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. And Peter, remembering, said to Him, 'Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered away.'" (Mark 11:20-21)

This conversation began with Jesus' disciples asking Him how the fig tree withered so quickly. It was a divine setup, where Jesus created an opportunity to inform His disciples on the realm of the authority, they should walk in. He was essentially saying to them, "Walk as I walk, do as I do, pray as I pray and walk in authority as I walk in authority."

Here are some examples of Jesus' authoritative commands:

- He spoke to the storm (Mark 4:39).
- He commanded Lazarus to come forth (John 11:43).
- He taught with authority (Matthew 7:29).
- He commanded the paralyzed man to pick up his mat and walk (Mark 2:9).
- He spoke the word and the centurion's servant was healed (Matthew 8:8-13).
- He commanded the little girl to arise (Luke 8:54).

The people noticed that Jesus was not like the religious leaders because He taught "as One who had authority" (Matthew 7:29). That was a clear, distinguishing difference about Jesus. He knew the Father and walked in power and authority, which was an outflow of His depth of relationship with God.

For us it is no different. We are called to abide in Christ, and His words abide in us. We can ask and it shall be given. We can also speak with authority, commanding those things to be removed that are hindrances to God's Kingdom and purposes.

Binding and Loosing

It is also worth noting that Jesus said this in Matthew 18:18: "Assuredly, I say to you, whatever you bind on Earth will be bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on Earth will be loosed in Heaven."

Not only do we have authority to remove obstacles, we also have the authority to bind or tie up things that are against the will of God, and loose Heaven and all associated resources on Earth. In the Greek, the word "bind" means "to fasten with chains." It is the same word that is used in regard to the woman whom satan had "bound" for 18 years of her life with an oppressive physical condition, which Jesus healed in the synagogue.

"The Lord then answered him and said, 'Hypocrite! Does not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or donkey from the stall, and lead it away to water it? So ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom satan has bound—think of it—for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?' And when He said these things, all His adversaries were put to shame; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him." (Luke 13:15-17)

We see a direct correlation here of Jesus using the principle of "binding" and "loosing" on someone who was bound by oppression. What we can draw from this is that our authority should be used most liberally in setting people from the chains of darkness, as well as loosing them into the fullness of liberty in Christ. Anything that is in opposition to the Kingdom of God is subject to the authority that we have been given in regard to every aspect of life, both personally and for others.

It begins with us personally experiencing the fullness of freedom that Jesus paid for; then it is to overflow into the lives of others as we live as conduits of His glory – as we exercise our authority in Christ. This is what Jesus died for; not for people to have a ticket to Heaven but that they would live in the fullness of freedom obtained through

His sacrifice – free from every oppressive thing and filled with the glory of Heaven through His Spirit.

The Day it Rained Forever

"As much rain fell in eight hours as normally falls in a month" noted one observer. As a result, Venezuela has suffered landslides and much loss of life. In Pakistan as well, cyclone-generated extreme flooding resulted in the loss of over 2000 miles of roadways and the deaths of over 1000 persons. Cyclones, hurricanes and massive flooding have lashed many nations of the earth in recent days, but none of these has had the devastating consequences of that which resulted in Johnstown, Pa. on the afternoon of May 31, 1889. This has been termed by one author as "the day it rained forever."

May had been an extremely wet month, and it had been raining heavily in the previous two days, including all night long on the 30th. It had let up just long enough for Johnstown to have its Memorial Day parade, but now many of the streets of Johnstown, which had been built on a flood plain at the fork of the Little Conemaugh and Stony Creek rivers, were under 2-7 feet of water as a result of the overflowing rivers. As flooding happened fairly often in southwestern Pennsylvania, most residents didn't think this time would be much worse than other times. Unfortunately, it turned out to be one of the heaviest rainfalls of the 1800s.

The South Fork Dam was massive in size. Made of packed-down earth 918 feet across the valley and seventy-two feet in height, it held back Lake Conemaugh, which was over three miles long, a mile wide and 60 feet deep. The rock used in construction was ten feet thick at the top of the dam and 220 feet thick at the base, and many of the rocks used weighed over ten tons. Obviously, this dam was built to last, but it didn't.

The dam had been poorly maintained over the years, and every spring there was talk that the dam might not hold, but it always had. This time, however the lake had risen more than two feet just overnight, and it proved to be too much for the structure. As the water level crested over the dam around three in the afternoon, it burst, sending twenty million tons (3.6 billion gallons) of water tearing down the narrow Conemaugh Valley at over 40 miles per hour, leveling everything in its path. People who saw it coming said it looked like a moving, boiling black mountain of junk. The "terrible wave" picked up houses, trees, and even trains on its way down the valley. It flattened a railroad bridge and swept away two other towns before reaching Johnstown. Now carrying fourteen miles worth of debris, the wave decimated the town. Four square miles of downtown Johnstown was completely obliterated, including about 1600 homes, 280 businesses, and much of the Cambria Iron Company. The resulting devastation was unimaginable.

With a population of thirty thousand souls now desperately trying to escape the wave, many couldn't. Those who had not escaped and yet remained alive after the initial onslaught clung to roofs, debris, and the few buildings that remained standing. Others who weren't killed instantly were swept down the valley to their deaths. Just when it seemed like it couldn't get worse, it did. All that wreckage piled up behind the Pennsylvania Railroad's Stone Bridge. People who managed to survive so far became trapped in the huge pile of debris, all wrapped in a tangle of barbed wire from the destroyed Gautier Wire Works. Then the debris pile, which was 40 feet high and 30 acres across, caught fire!

The account is told of one family who did manage to survive. The father was cutting wood in the yard when he heard the approaching roar. Instinctively, he at once yelled to his children to get up into the loft of the barn. They obeyed immediately, and though the family and their barn were swept away, they did survive. Had the children chosen to argue or debate with their father, they would not have.

In this, the biggest natural disaster of the nineteenth century, 2,209 people lost their lives, and there was over $17,000,000 in property damage. Until the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001, it was the United States' greatest loss of civilian life in a single day.

Even with the severity and devastation of the Johnstown flood, however, it does not begin to compare with the tragedy of the flood of Noah's day. This event, described in Genesis 6-8, occurred in approximately 2472 B.C. (4500 years ago), covered the entire earth and cost the lives of everyone on earth (estimated at between 500 million and 9.5 billion people) but Noah and his immediate family.

The Genesis account attributes the cause of the flood to the wickedness of mankind, which was subsequently addressed by God through means of the flood. God was grieved (pained, saddened, made sorrowful) in His heart by man's wickedness. As Noah found grace (favor) in the eyes of the Lord, he was instructed by Father God to build an ark to rescue his immediate family and all land-dwelling animal species. "And all that God commanded him, so did he." (Genesis 6:22) "By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. (Hebrews 11:7)

The Genesis 7 account records that it rained for 40 days and 40 nights, and that the water remained on the land for 150 days before it began to abate. In all, Noah and his company were on the ark for just over one year, after which Noah disembarked and built an altar to the Lord and worshipped Him with burnt offerings.

Lessons from the Flood

First and foremost, just as God's heart was grieved by the wickedness of the people of the earth, He had to be immensely pleased with Noah's immediate, unquestioning obedience to His command to build an ark of safety. As God had judged the character of all others, so too, did He judge Noah and found him righteous, willing and obedient. God is very much looking for such in our own day!

Noah immediately responded to God's leading and recognized that it would have to be God working with and through him, rather than his own ability, that would accomplish the seemingly impossible task that God had put on his heart. He simply said, "Yes, Lord" and went to work for 75 years! Even as Abraham believed God and it was accounted to him for righteousness (see Galatians 3:6), so too did Noah before him. Now think about the implications of disobedience. The stakes are very high. If Noah hadn't obeyed and acted when the Lord told him to act, his entire family and all the animals would have perished. There are great implications for us here as well. Because Noah obeyed all of the Lord's commands (not some) he was spared.

Genesis 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, on the seventeenth day of the second month of Cheshvan, on that same day all the fountains of the great deep [subterranean waters] burst open, and the windows and floodgates of the heavens were opened.

Genesis 7:13 On the very same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark, Genesis 7:15 So they went into the ark with Noah, two by two of all living beings in which there was the breath and spirit of life. Genesis 7:16 Those which entered, male and female of all flesh (creatures), entered as God had commanded Noah; and the Lord closed the door behind him.

There is no biblical record that Noah was other than a herdsman or tiller of the ground, and yet he undertook the monumental task of building a ship 450 feet long, seventy-five feet wide and forty-five feet high with three decks and a total volume equivalent of over 570 railroad stock cars. Noah's ark was constructed on a 1:6 ratio. Naval architecture reveals that this is the most stable ratio for an ocean-going vessel. It could have easily survived even big ocean waves and would be next to impossible to capsize. What Noah didn't know about construction, God did, even directing that the ark was to be made from "gopher wood"! Various sources describe this as likely cypress or some other resinous wood, or even laminated wood. Either would be extremely durable.

Because of Noah's obedience and willingness to fully submit to the Lord's plan for his life, God would establish His covenant with Noah. Thus, God would defend him, supply for all his needs and be his constant source of strength for all time. This pre-figures the role of Christ, in that all who are "in Him" are in blood covenant with Him and can depend on Him to carry us through every flood or storm of life.

Noah was likely about 525 years of age when he began construction, he was in his 600th year when the rains began to fall, and he then lived to the age of 950. Advanced age is not a limiting factor when God calls us to a task! Obedience is the key. Remember also, Moses didn't begin his greatest life's work until age 80, and then he worked and followed God for 40 more years. There's still hope for us all!

The animals came from all over the world, but it was not Noah's assignment to gather them. Noah focused on the task that the Lord gave him – building the ark. God took care of the rest. Like Noah, we need to walk in obedience to the task God has given us and let Him take care of the rest. He is well able to make the "glorious connections" to fulfill other needs for any project, and He will.

Genesis 8:1 says that "God remembered Noah." That is to say He "kept him in mind". He did not forget Noah while the ark was adrift for over five months. We are God's children: He knows us intimately, He loves us, He knows "where we are", and He cares for us even when we feel like we are lost at sea.

Genesis 7:16 notes that "the Lord shut him in." God closed the door! We often pray for God to open doors, but we also need to be aware that closing doors can also be a "God thing". This is often for our protection. If Noah walked back out of the door, he would have drowned. If the Lord didn't close the door and instead left it open, everyone would have drowned. We need to learn to be grateful for closed doors, stop trying to pry closed doors open, and celebrate that some doors become closed.

After the ark finally came to rest on the mountains of Ararat, Noah couldn't leave the ark for another five months as the waters abated and the land dried out. I can imagine him thinking repeatedly, "When, Lord, when? Can't we get this over with?" We also frequently do likewise in our times of distress, not taking into account that with God there is always the matter of timing. God's timing is His own, and it is always perfect. We need to allow patience (perseverance) to have its perfect work. (see James 1:4) Perseverance is a virtue we often discount.

The first thing Noah did after disembarking the ark was to build an altar and sacrifice burnt offerings to the Lord. Noah's heart attitude was one of gratitude to God for His deliverance, for His keeping power and for His provision for a new life. 1 Samuel 15:22 records, "And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams." God was surely pleased with the worship offering, but much more so was He pleased with the attitude of unquestioning obedience to His voice.

It was only after Noah showed himself faithful and obedient that God established his eternal covenant with Noah and all future generations and sealed it with the sign of a rainbow. Genesis 8:21-22 records, "And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more everything living, as I have done. While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

It is so critical for us to "believe that (God) is and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him" (Hebrews 11:6), to have faith, to walk righteously, and to obey the Lord speedily and completely. God desires to bless us and give us a future and a hope as we faithfully follow Him. We must make the good choice to submit fully to Him. When we do this, even if the flood comes, we will be spared. In Noah's case, the flood did come, but his obedience to the Lord allowed him to avoid the flood's destruction.

A flood (figuratively) may be coming at some point in our lives, and we can choose to get into the "ark" of safety or get swept away in the floodwaters. Our Father God wants to save all, but all do not have ears to hear or a heart to obey. We must listen, listen, listen carefully for the voice of the Lord now. Obey immediately and completely. Start building now. Be prepared for all eventualities. Our God will not fail us!

Lana Vawser: YOUR TEARS WERE SEEDS SOWED, YOUR ARMS ARE NOW BEING FILLED WITH BLESSINGS AND A HARVEST OVERFLOWING!!!

"Those who sow their tears as seeds will reap a harvest with joyful shouts of glee. They may weep as they go out carrying their seeds to sow, but they will return with joyful laughter and shouting with gladness as they bring back armloads of blessings and a harvest overflowing." - Psalm 126:5-6 (The Passion Translation)

The Lord brought this Scripture before me and I have been sitting on it and seeking the Lord's heart. As I sat with the Lord, I heard Him say: "There have been MANY tears sown as seeds in this season. There have been MANY tears that have been cried and I have collected each one. There have been many tears sowed in obedience, in faith and in worship of who I am and My goodness while the battle has been raging. I have seen it all. I have seen the intense season of weeping that many have endured. In the intense season of weeping, I have drawn My people deeper. I have invited them to come deeper into My heart to know the stability of My Word and My goodness. The anchor of My nature and the power of My name. For in the intense weeping, there has been a maturing and a fortification that I am bringing to My people. A strength that cannot be stolen as they lean into Me. For the time has come for the weeping they have endured to come to an end, and the season of harvest to be released. For many have felt like they endured much for nothing, but the OPPOSITE is true. There have been sacrifices, there have been tears in the night hours, there have been many nights of incredible depths of intercession, but NOTHING is wasted. NOTHING is wasted. I have collected all the tears, they have been sown as seeds and now there is significant shifts taking place. There has begun POWERFUL demonstrations of the power of My name and My blessing. This will continue to manifest rapidly. There is nothing that has been wasted. In the fire, in the battles, in the opposition, I have been building in My people the revelation of the power of ACTIVATED FAITH and the POWER OF PRAISE. My people are coming up higher into the awakening of living in their truly reality and that is My realm, and every Word that flows from My mouth."

THERE HAS BEEN WEEPING IN THE LACK, NOW THERE SHALL BE WEEPING IN THE OVERFLOW!!

The Lord continued to speak:

"For many have been in the place of such deep weeping in the lack, in the place of lack of breakthrough and momentum but I have decreed that now there shall be WEEPING IN THE OVERFLOW. For there is such abundant harvest that is beginning to be reaped amongst My people that is going to bring forth tears of JOY, laughter and glee. Many areas where the enemy has come hard against My people and there has been so much weeping, now I have decreed that My blessing, breakthrough, harvest and blessing released by the power of My Spirit will cause the enemy to flee in fear as he is again reminded of his defeat."

STRETCH YOUR ARMS WIDER, THE OVERFLOWING HARVEST IS MORE THAN YOU HAVE EVER CARRIED!!

There is FIERCE and VIOLENT repayment, restoration and recompense that God is releasing in this season. He has been releasing it for quite a while now, but the Lord showed me a MAJOR TAKE OFF and increase of momentous ACCELERATION of major repayment, restoration and recompense being released to God's people. There is a whole other level of acceleratory repayment and restoration happening.

For the Lord said to me:

"NOW it is going to make sense to My people even more than it EVER HAS why the battle has been so fierce, WHY the enemy has come against them so strongly to take their land. This is not just another shift of repayment and recompense, the shift that has been taking place recently is MOMENTOUS. In the heavens I am THUNDERING "The greatest demonstration of OVERFLOWING HARVEST is upon My people."

The sense surrounded me so strongly that the Lord is calling His people to get DEEPER into the Word, get DEEPER into the promises that are yours in Christ because the Lord is wanting you to EXTEND, ACTIVATE and ANTICIPATE!!! I heard the Lord saying over and over "EXTEND, ACTIVATE AND ANTICIPATE" and it was all rooted in FAITH.

The Lord went onto say:

"FEAR has come against My people SO intensely in the weeping and battles looking for their agreement with lies so he can attempt to prevent the extension, activation and anticipation of major breakthroughs contained in the truth of My Word, but his attempts are falling to the ground as a MAJOR WIND of My Spirit is BLOWING across the body of Christ bringing healing, freedom and deliverance. Deep refreshment and renewal is being released to My people and MAJOR harvest and breakthrough that is igniting a whole new level of FAITH and the ACTIVATION of FAITH within My people."

Extend, activate and anticipate the move of God in your life to significantly increase right now. Your expectation and what you place your faith in is POWERFUL. I know many of you are weary, I know many of you are discouraged in the battle you have endured, but I want to encourage you that the Lord is decreeing that you are now returning with JOYFUL laughter, shouting with gladness as you bring back armloads of blessing and harvest overflowing.

I heard the Lord say:

"You are COMING OUT not the SAME WAY you WENT IN!!!!!"

"You are coming out of the captivity you have felt in the season of weeping. You are coming out in freedom, RESTORED and WEEPING in joy and gladness." I saw the Lion of Judah standing over you and your home and He roared LOUDLY. As He roared I heard the decree of His heart over you: "The lion (enemy) has come against you to steal, kill and destroy, constantly seeking to devour you, (John 10:10, 1 Peter 5:8) but here I am, the Lion of Judah and I am roaring over you right now that a NEW SEASON OF ACCELERATED WEEPING IS UPON YOU! You shall weep MORE NOW than you ever have, but your weeping shall be different. Your weeping is weeping at the MIGHTY MIRACLES that I am doing in and through your life. You are not coming out the same way you went in. You are coming out with ARMLOADS of blessings and harvest overflowing!!!!!! You are coming out and into the greatest season of JOYOUS WEEPING that you have ever experienced. I am ROARING OVER YOU!!!! This IS your season of restoration, recompense and renewal. It's HERE!!!!!"

"And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord." (Luke 1:45)

YOUR DRY SPELL IS OVER: I WILL ESTABLISH YOU LIKE AN OAK TREE
BESIDE RIVERS OF LIVING WATERS!
KATIE DUNSTAN, NSW, AUSTRALIA

Posted by the Australian Prophetic Council (October 19, 2022):

Traveling in outback of Australia, we crossed over a bridge, and my eyes were drawn to a huge tree planted in a dry riverbed. Immediately, I heard the Lord say, "I will establish you like an oak tree beside rivers of supernatural living waters." "They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of His splendor." (Isaiah 61:3)

The Lord is speaking to many of you who have felt dry and thirsty, like a dry riverbed in drought - a bare land that thirsts for refreshing spring rains.

I AM POURING OUT MY SPIRIT UPON YOU "GET READY! I am POURING OUT MY SPIRIT upon you. The dry wasteland in your heart and your life is taking a turn for the better. For I turn what was meant for evil around for the good of those who love Me. The supernatural tide is turning - not just like spring rains, but it will be like a DOWNPOUR as I POUR OUT My Spirit upon you." God says, "...I will pour out My Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions" (Acts 2:17).

LEAN IN AND DRINK

I hear and strongly feel the Lord's tender, loving heart guiding you as He says, "Lean in and drink - drink deeply from Me; I AM the well that never runs dry." "But whoever drinks of the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become IN THEM a SPRING OF WATER WELLING UP TO ETERNAL LIFE." (John 4:14, emphasis mine)

This was Jesus speaking to the Samaritan woman who came to the well to draw water. The woman's response was, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty..." (John 4:15).

I hear the Lord extending this invitation to you again this day. I hear Him saying, "Your dry spell is over – DRINK! DRINK of My Word. Drink from MY FOUNTAIN!" What is your response to Him this day?

"In that day the mountains will drip new wine, and the hills will flow with milk; all the ravines of Judah will run with water. A FOUNTAIN will flow out of the LORD's house and will water the valley of acacias." (Joel 3:18)

This is an invitation for you to drink deeply of the living God. Activate the 'outpouring' in this word by hungering and thirsting after His Word, worshiping in His presence for longer, and by going deeper, for there is refreshing in the presence of the Lord.

"I will make rivers flow on barren heights, and springs within the valleys. I will turn the desert into pools of living water, and the parched ground into springs." (Isaiah 41:18)

"Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland." (Isaiah 43:18-19)

"...As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for You, my God." (Psalm 42:1)

Dutch Sheets: The Song

One of the great dream stories of our day bears a striking resemblance to part of God's dream journey.

As a contestant on Britain's Got Talent, Susan Boyle pursued her lifelong dream of a successful singing career. At forty-seven, her age, pleasant but non-striking appearance, and shyness caused the judges and crowd to initially be condescending and dismissive of her. Perhaps you saw later how her introduction and opening interview were met with mock smiles and derisive nods by the panel of judges. A few chuckles even arose from the crowd as this misguided dreamer shared her dream.

Then Susan began to sing.

Mouths flew open, applause exploded, and a star - or should I say a dream - was born.

On the surface, the title of her flagship song, "I Dreamed a Dream," taken from the musical Les Misérables, seemed perfect for the dream-come-true story of this middle-aged phenom. The irony, however, is that the song is really quite depressing. It is the story of a person who has completely given up on dreaming and the song ends with the line, "Now life has killed the dream I dreamed."

What a disheartening statement. How tragic and sad and how oft repeated. But the story didn't end there for Susan Boyle - she robbed the song of its meaning! This amazing lady defied all odds and rode one of the world's most famous "dead dream" songs to her own dream. Incredible. A song about the loss of a dream has now brought inspiration to millions.

A dirge birthed a dream.

God sang one of those songs. His dream had barely begun when the Father of Lies, the dream-stealer, misrepresented His heart to Adam and Eve. "God's holding out on you," was Satan's accusation. "You should come out from under His controlling oppression so you can really dream some big dreams." (see Genesis 3:1-7)

What a perversion of truth!

God had already invited Adam and Eve into the most amazing dream partnership ever. He had just created time for them (there's a brain teaser), had fashioned the earth and its incredible bounty for them to steward and enjoy, and had begun the process of relating to them as His family, friends, and co-dreamers. Paradise and unimaginable bliss awaited these first two humans and their eventual family.

Tragedy struck, however, when Adam and Eve bought into satan's dream-stealing lie. Immeasurable pain ensued, and God's dream became a nightmare. As in Les Misérables, life had tried to kill His dream. It looked as though the Creator's dream was dead before it had fully begun. From all appearances, the dream-stealer had won.

But God is an incurable dreamer and refused to give up on His dream! He had, in fact, already planned for this potential setback and was ready with an audacious and incredible plan for the redemption of the dream. It was brilliant, spellbinding, and, though successful, very painful.

When God sent His Son to rescue the dream, Christ stepped onto the stage of life and began singing. And what amazing songs He sang. Songs of love, peace, and healing rolled off His lips and out from His hands. Lepers were cleansed, and rotting skin was replaced by healthy tissue. Sightless eyes were filled with wonder as they saw the world around them for the first time. Outcast prostitutes felt clean and pure again, paralytics walked, and dead people lived again.

But suddenly, like the high-pitched screech on a beginner's violin, a horrible sound was heard. Love's music stopped, and hate's song began. Redemption's song was replaced with a dirge, much like the song Susan Boyle sang.

What horrible lyrics were heard as the Author of life and Giver of hope was beaten and tortured. Satan was the songwriter and it seemed that hell itself became the orchestra. In the person of His Son, God's very own blood and mangled flesh - along with history's ultimate injustice - was paraded before His taunting abusers. Mocking laughter and derisive jeers from satan's kingdom celebrated the apparent final death of God's dream.

But for the Prince of Darkness, something began to go horribly wrong. The Son of God persevered in singing death's dirge, and as He did, the hideous lyrics were overpowered by His love, power, and purity. In heaven's gallery, a glimmer of hope began to emerge. Could it really be? Yes, the impossible was happening! Through Jesus's shed blood, death was losing its sting, the grave its victory, the destroyer his hold on humanity.

Death's dirge was birthing a dream!

In the greatest turning of the tables in human history, God was stripping the dream-stealer of his power and using his own song to do it! Death lost, life won! When Christ shouted, "It is finished," the music changed, death's song died, and dream's song was reborn. Not only God's but ours.

I know many of you have seemingly had your dreams stolen by life. I want you to keep reading. I want you to dream again. I want you to know that God Himself had His dream stolen but refused to give up. And just as He recaptured His dream, He knows how to turn your dirge into a dream song.

Never forget, there was a point in time when the comforting words, "What can wash away my sin? Nothing but the blood of Jesus," would have been horrifying beyond belief by all of heaven. Yet God turned the words into an eternal anthem of hope.

At the Royal Palace of Tehran, in Iran, you can see one of the most beautiful mosaics in the world. The ceilings and walls flash like diamonds in multifaceted reflections. But to create this priceless work, the architect had to rob destruction of its power. Originally, when the palace was designed, the architect specified huge sheets of mirrors on the walls. When the first shipment arrived from Paris, they found, to their horror, that the mirrors were shattered. The contractor threw them in the trash and brought the sad news to the architect. Amazingly, he ordered all of the broken pieces collected, then smashed them into tiny pieces and glued them to the walls where they became a mosaic of silvery, shimmering, mirrored bits of glass.(1)

The Architect of life has designed some wonderful dreams for you. If you've been broken, through that brokenness, He wants to create a mosaic of His glory and present you to the world as a testimony of His grace and love. Joseph kept dreaming in his prison and ultimately reflected the mosaic of kingly wisdom and godly virtue (see Genesis 28-50). David kept dreaming, even as an outcast living in the caves of Adullam, and eventually revealed what a man after God's heart looked like (see 1 Samuel 18-31).

God has plans and designs for you, as well. For some, they'll be new dreams; for others, they will be broken dreams reconstructed by the Master Dreamer Himself as He transforms your dirge into an anthem. Allow Him to reconstruct, restore, or even recreate His dream inside of you so you can, once again, sing His song and reflect His glory.

You were born to dream.

Pray with me:

Father, You were determined to allow nothing to conquer Your dream. You have proven that life conquers death, good conquers evil, and You will ultimately win. Thank You for sending Jesus to become one of us in order that we could become a member of Your great family.

We pray today for those who have seen their dreams shattered, stolen, or lost. Let them know You are He who heals broken hearts and restores our dreaming nature. When Your ways are followed, You bring forth beauty, in Your time. Heal those experiencing hope deferred and give them the help they need to dream again.

We pray once again for the fulfillment of Your dream of a billion souls saved in our generation. Pour out Your Spirit in Asia, Africa, Europe, Australia, Canada, South America, North America, and every inhabited island of the sea. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, we command into the earth now, in the name of Jesus.

Our decree:

We declare for every shattered dream; God has a mosaic of beauty in mind.

"NEW AND ANCIENT WAYS OPENING UP; WE ARE LIVING KEYS, STANDING BEFORE ANCIENT DOORS IN THIS HOUR"

As I looked at those Doors, I knew I was looking at The Doors of Kingdom Revelation, and what was behind those Ancient Doors, were the hidden secrets and the deeper mysteries of His Kingdom that have been preserved and reserved for such a time as this.

Now, as I stayed looking, suddenly I saw New Keys being released, but as I looked and looked again at the Keys, to my amazement (now this is hard to describe), but I saw that the "Keys" were God's Righteous Remnant — "Living Keys, carrying the authority of The Key of The House of David upon their shoulders" Isaiah 22:22 !

"Everything in the Heavenly Realm is Living Ancient Doors and Living Keys": Veronika West

The Father spoke so clearly to me a few weeks ago again about a Divine Convergence now taking place, where His New and Ancient Ways would be revealed and released, to His Righteous Remnant in the days ahead.

Now I want to share a very powerful and poignant Vision I had a few days ago in my prayer time, that brought another layer of insight and understanding of what is being made available to us as we enter into this New Kingdom Era. So, as I was seeking God in prayer concerning the direction of The Hub, and how we are to align ourselves in worship, suddenly I was taken into a deeper realm and dimension in The Spirit, where I saw Ancient Doors standing before The Nations of the earth. As I looked at those Doors, I knew I was looking at The Doors of Kingdom Revelation, and what was behind those Ancient Doors, were the hidden secrets and the deeper mysteries of His Kingdom that have been preserved and reserved for such a time as this.

Now, as I stayed looking, suddenly I saw New Keys being released, but as I looked and looked again at the Keys, to my amazement (now this is hard to describe), but I saw that the "Keys" were God's Righteous Remnant — Living Keys, carrying the authority of The Key of The House of David upon their shoulders. Gold crowns adorned their heads, robes of shimmering purple covered their backs, and some carried a silver Sceptre in their hands. As these Kings and High Priests stood before the Ancient Doors, suddenly the Doors flew wide open and Radiant Light broke forth upon their feet and faces.

Suddenly, I could see Angels — multitudes of Angels — standing before them, dressed in all the radiant colors of the seven colors of the rainbow, and I heard these Words, "Come up here. Come up higher! Come and see what must now take place!"

As those Words echoed loud and clear, I saw that as their feet crossed over the Threshold of The Ancient Doors, I saw what looked like a beautiful and glorious Table, suddenly appearing before them. A Banqueting Table was laid out before them, but as I drew closer in the Vision, I could see that this was no ordinary table, but it was a Banqueting Table fully adorned by Ancient Scrolls.

Suddenly I heard these Words, "Come eat and drink at The Banqueting Table of My Glory and Revelation! Come buy and eat and without money and without cost!" As I heard those Words, suddenly I saw the Kings and High Priests move towards The Table and the Angels — dressed in radiant multicolored garments of Light — began to serve them.

I watched, as just like with the Prophet Ezekiel, they opened their mouths wide and began to eat the Ancient Scrolls that were laid upon The Great Banqueting Table. Then suddenly, "sounds" — new and ancient sounds and never heard before melodies of glory and mystery — filled the atmosphere, and the multitudes of Angels began to sing with loud voices.

Now I can't describe in words what I heard, but as I listened, suddenly with a loud voice, The Spirit of Revelation spoke these words to me, "Beloved, watch and listen! For I tell you, eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, the things which I have prepared for those who love Me."

When I heard those Words, suddenly I came out of the Vision, and I could taste sweet wine upon my tongue, and I heard The Spirit say these words again, "Watch, as I begin to Reveal and Release the New and Ancient Ways, for that which I have preserved and reserved for such a time as this, is now being unveiled to The Nations of the earth. Look, for I have saved the best for last! Again, I say these are the days of the New and Ancient Ways being revealed to My Righteous Remnant!

Behold, do you see it? Arise and walk in it, and you shall prosper and find rest for your souls!" Listen Friends," Everything in the Heavenly Realm is Living" — Ancient Doors and Keys. Let me try and expound a little on what I shared earlier on The Ancient Doors and The Keys. Please understand that there are some things we see in the realm of The Spirit that are extremely difficult to explain in words.

While in a Vision or Dream Encounter, often times the one receiving it understands what is taking place, because The Spirit of Revelation gives understanding and a supernatural knowledge to grasp what is happening, but then to explain in natural terms can be a challenge. While in my most recent Encounter, when I was being shown The Ancient Doors, and what I called the "Living Keys" — which I knew and saw by revelation that they were The Righteous Remnant, the Servant Kings and High Priests of God, those who are The Redeemed of The LORD.

These Ancient Doors are also alive — Living Doors! Everything that I am shown in The Realm of The Spirit possess life. It's living and has its being in the life of the one that created all things. Everything in The Spirit has life. These Ancient Doors were alive. These "Living Doors", have their being within The Ancient of Days, (like wheels within wheels within wheels). I hope that makes sense. He is The Door. All Glory and Revelation reside in Him, (doors within doors within doors).

Now, as The Living Keys stood before The Living and Ancient Doors, so there was, what I can only describe as “a Spiritual Recognition”, (I’m using simple terms, similar to a facial recognition on your mobile phone, that would recognize your facial dimensions and open up.) So it is and was with The Ancient Doors. As The Living Keys stand before The Ancient Doors, there is a Supernatural and Divine Recognition that takes place, that causes The Ancient Doors to swing wide open, (but here is the what’s important to understand) these Living and Ancient Doors that are found in the deeper Realms of The Spirit, will only open to those who are walking in their true Kingdom Identity and Authority.

True Kingdom Identity and Authority is required to enter in. Only those who know who they are and have yielded fully, totally, to The King of kings, can have access to these deeper realms of hidden secrets and mysteries. These Ancient Doors are found in the deeper places, in the deeper and higher levels of His Glory Realm, hence, I saw Servant Kings with crowns upon their heads, shimmering purple robes, and some had Scepters in their hands.

These sons and daughters were walking in an Establishment Kingdom Identity. They ruled with the Authority of The Key of The House of David. They were Living Keys. The Living and Ancient Doors would swing wide open as these Servant Kings and High Priests stood before them, because they had their being deeply rooted in the revelation of who they were in Christ, and they ruled out of that place. Walking in this level and understanding of their Kingdom Identity, is what gave them access to enter in and sit feasting at The Table of Greater Revelation and Knowledge of Christ.

Even The Banqueting Table was living, the Scrolls that adorned the Table were Living — Living Revelation — He is The Bread of Life. The Servant Kings and High Priests were sitting and feasting, eating The Living Scrolls, eating of Living Revelation, that brought Divine Wisdom and Knowledge of Christ!

So friends, I am hoping I explained it a little clearer, and pray by God's Grace that you can understand what I'm sharing and imparting here to you, by the Revelation and Understanding I have received in these Encounters. it's absolutely vital that we keep in mind, Authority flows out of an Established Identity, and True Kingdom Identity gives us unhindered access to greater measures and levels of Glory and Revelation! This is why Satan will endeavor to keep you blind to your true Identity, because he knows that this is key, The Key, to giving you access to receive greater and greater levels of Revelation, Understanding and Wisdom. Satan will seek to distort your Identity in order to stop you from ever accessing the deeper mysteries and hidden secrets, because he knows that when you do, they become powerful weapons in which to bring utter destruction and the ultimate death blow to the kingdom of darkness! Blessings to you all.

America the Beautiful - It's Go Time!"

Barry Wunsch, Red Deer, Alberta

It's "Go Time"!

Prophetic word received on October 5, 2022:

I was taken into an open vision where I saw Donald Trump being moved quickly into a helicopter by a group of security guys. Something big was going down and they had to get him moving and moving fast. I saw that there had been a critical event where they had to get him to a safe and secure place for what needed to be done.

This was a moment that all had waited for. There was no stopping it from here. Although it felt like a crisis moment, this team was prepared and ready for what they had to do. This was not a dress rehearsal. It was go time.

I watched as jets filled the sky in a full-on scramble. This was much larger than the United States of America. This was going to affect the nations henceforth. All that was at play would soon be clearly seen.

I saw Joe Biden carrying a briefcase that fell right open, releasing documents and evidence on the ground. As the wind blew, these papers were caught up in a whirlwind and blown into the airwaves for all to see and hear. There would be no denying this. History was being written right before our eyes.

There were those who would try to defend or dismiss what had just been released, but try as they might, it would be impossible to hide or spin this. Every attempt they made to do so made them look worse, and the hole they were digging got bigger.

As I watched, I saw this wind – this Holy Spirit wind – hit the January 6th committee hearing. It blew so hard that the voices of the accusers could not be heard as they brought false accusations to Roger Stone and Donald Trump.

The wind took the documents on the desks and, in the same way, strew them across the air and destroyed them in front of all the world. Vindication was approaching. You could see the dust on the horizon as the hosts of Heaven came in to do what they do best: the Lord's bidding, bringing truth, righteousness and justice for America the beautiful.

Word for Florida: I watched as the state of Florida turned into a golden key that would be used to unlock the nation. The enemy will not prevail in any way with what has tried to destroy in Florida. Florida shall be stronger than ever, more unified than ever and more powerful than ever. Florida, you have paid a great price for this nation and the destiny of this country, and as you rebuild, great shall be your reward!

Holy is the word of the Lord.

Do Not Fear the Days Ahead as Things Unfold

Prophetic word received on October 10, 2022:

I awoke with the strong presence of the Lord in my room this morning, and as soon as I did, He spoke to me:

"Barry, tell My people that in these days there will be wars and there will be rumors of wars. Barry, tell My people this should not come as a surprise. Let Me remind you again; let Me refresh your memory, for as surely as the sun rises in the East and sets in the West, so shall the Son of Man be lifted up in every nation. It will be father against son, brother against brother, neighbor against neighbor.

"And as always, there are those who just won't believe; but that doesn't make it so. For in My loving mercy, I have told you time and time again, yet many continue to mock Me and mock My ways. Do as you may but rest assured, everyone shall pay an account one way or another. It is My desire that no one perish but all would have everlasting life.

"For you are in the days of the Great Awakening. The harvest is at hand. I will give shelter and salvation to those who call upon My name. I will lead them and I will guide them and all that they need shall be theirs. For all of Heaven and Earth has groaned for the days that are upon you.

"Are My prophets perfect? Certainly not. But I have brought them forth in this hour. I have called them by name. They are called to lead in this hour, and lead they shall, despite all Hell coming at them! I have released the fear of the Lord upon My prophets in this hour. The fear of man they shall know not, for it is unto Me that they shall hold account. It is I that will hold their feet to the fire!

"There is nothing new under the sun, so know this – hear it from Me: Where there is the real, there will be the false. There is no doubt about that. For in this day, I will bring renewed discernment to My people. And by the end, I will sift it all out. There is no exemption for this office.

"So, do not be deceived and do not lose heart, for I am a good Father that cannot lie. My word will not be silenced! Nor will I be mocked! Watch and pray over My word. Hold it up before Me as in the days of old. Call unto Me for I hear your prayers. Listen for My whispers in your heart, for My word is a lamp unto your feet and a light unto your path! Draw near unto Me while I can be found, and I will lead you all of your days.

"Do not fear the days ahead as things unfold, for I am exposing all to unveil My glory – My resurrection life – throughout the nations. For I am the God of justice, righteousness and redemption. As you turn to Me and away from every wicked way, I will hear your prayers and heal your land!"

Holy is the word of the Lord.

Warning for Shepherds and Leaders: Is It Your Altar, or Mine?

Prophetic word/encounter received on September 16, 2022:

I had a supernatural dream and encounter where I was taken into a church and into a board meeting; but it was more of a business meeting to run the show rather than to care for people and shepherd them like the way it was supposed to be. Jesus walked into the room and cut through the 'plastic' and into the heart in a moment, not mincing words. He did not say much, but what He did say was very pointed and undergirded with love.

"Is it your altar, or Mine? Is it your Church, or Mine? Did you lay down your life and shed your blood for My children and their redemption? They are My children – not yours. Have you forgotten where you came from?"

"You permit and insist on playing dirty, hurtful political games – jealousy, envy, gossip and backbiting abounding over [you] and behind [you], backstabbing and inflicting those I brought for you to care for and to shepherd. Why do you use them like a commodity to build your own kingdom?"

"You get close enough to get your hands in their pockets to build your own kingdom. You grease them with fake words of affection to get them to perform for you. You run from accountability – out the side door at the end of the show so they can't get close – hiding away in silos...not as the family I have called you to be. You don't have boundaries, you have walls. There is no love in that."

"Why is it a one-way street only going your way...holding your distance with intention? Why are you hurting the very ones that you have been entrusted to care for, shredding and rejecting them with your words, actions and apathetic indifference? Carefully consider your ways. Carefully weigh your accounts and actions."

"If you are stubborn and continue in your ways, you will have no fire on your altar and your favor shall be diminished; and you will be like a barren woman, and what you have will be taken away as swiftly as it came.

"So, listen closely on this day and hear My word and weigh it before Me and your flock. Render your heart before Me today and hear My plea; turn back to Me and my ways, for there will be a great reward, or a great price to be paid. For I have called you for far more than this. Do you not perceive it?

"You have asked for My fire, and it surely is here to burn away everything that impairs you from coming into your destiny. The choice is yours."

Holy is the word of the Lord.

God's Spirit Pouring Into the First Nations

Prophetic word received on October 10, 2022:

I heard a war drum. I heard the call to gather. I heard the drum reverberate throughout the land. This was a call to gather that had never been released like it was on this day. I saw it resound through reserves. I saw it resound through cities and towns and onto the waters, every shoreline, every island and every mountain top. I watched as this frequency touched all of creation. Wildlife stopped to listen to the call and the sound being released. I watched as bears, eagles, deer, moose, elk and other birds and animals stopped and turned, fixed on the call.

I was taken to the drum; it was in a meadow where I saw a warrior angel dressed in First Nations regalia sitting at it. As he played, I watched angelic hosts come in from the North, the South, the East and the West. These angels looked fierce, like nothing I have ever seen! I would not want to come against them!

They circled the drum in the middle of the meadow, dancing and worshiping the Lord God Almighty. As they gathered and the sound grew, the Spirit of God was released across the nations.

Then the slumbering giant began to stir! I saw this giant that had been sleeping in the mountains begin to awaken as the sound stirred its spirit. The giant was soon wide awake and had rubbed the sleep out of its eyes; it was refreshed, and its feet were ready to go!

As it stood up, I saw that it was adorned in royal First Nations regalia with a chief's headdress and war bonnet on its head. As he rose and lifted his hands to the Father in response, it was not long before he was on his knees. I watched as the Spirit of God was poured into the First Nations. There was a supernatural encounter by the Spirit of God that was pouring out healing deep inside this First Nations giant – healing, deliverance and restoration. It was incredible.

The giant was frozen in this time of outpouring, with oil saturating every inch of it! The regalia was so drenched in holy oil, it ran off onto the ground where this First Nations giant stood; and every step it made, the oil was spread across the land.

"Behold, one and all, the release and the awaking of the First Nations are upon you! Behold them and the gift they are unto the Body! For there is a movement being released upon the land with power and authority that will destroy every bondage that has kept the nations bound.

"Watch as they take their place! Watch as governments and legislators shake apart as this sleeping giant awakes! Watch as regions come to life! Watch as I redeem all that the enemy has stolen! This is the day that you have been waiting for! Restore! Restore! Restore!"

Holy is the word of the Lord.

YOU ARE BEING REPOSITIONED FOR PROMOTION!
ROMA WATERMAN, MELBOURNE, VIC, AUSTRALIA

A few days ago, the Lord cut across my thoughts and said, "When I reposition, it's always for promotion."

Some of you feel you've been pushed to the side. Some of you feel like you were headed one way and the plan unexpectedly changed. You're wondering what's next. Repositioning isn't always because you were doing something wrong, it can simply be the timing of God. It might feel abrupt and even hurt a little...

As He moves and shifts people, it's because He is setting things up! So don't be concerned with the shifting. Surrender to Him and let Him lead the steps. Sometimes He is trying to reposition us, but we can be so stubborn that we can't see He is doing it for our good and the good of the Kingdom plan.

He repositions for promotion - but promotion looks different in His eyes. This is not about fame, money or worldly success, and this is not about BEING IN THE LIMELIGHT, but rather being UNDER THE SHADOW of the Most High - completely wrapped up in wanting to be in the center of His will so that He can be glorified.

So if you feel a shift, even one that feels like "being pushed out," know that with every reposition there's a promotion waiting in the spirit.

O Lord, we surrender our plan for Yours. We want to move with the wind of Your Spirit. We don't want to be stubborn when You're calling us deeper. This is not about us; this is all about You - lead and we will follow!

Acts 17:28: "For in Him we live and move and have our being..."

THE TRUMPET by BILL BURNS

Are you ready and willing to position yourself to persevere in such a way as to receive all that I have for you? Use this opportunity to lay hold of the promises that have been spoken of. Faith will bring the promise to bear in the lives of those who are hearers and doers in this season. Let the blessings come. Let them magnify and bring glory to Me, and all things will work together for the good of those who love Me and are called according to My purposes.

THE TRUMPET by BILL BURNS

Come and see. Open your eyes to see the wonderful works I'm about to do within the body of Christ. Believe and receive the blessings that are being released in this season. Become all that I have called you to be. Position yourself to overcome discouragement, doubt and unbelief, says the Lord.

The stage is being set; the people's hearts are being prepared.
Revival is coming, coming through the First Peoples!

April Klaassen Brown

I believe the Holy Spirit would have this shared with you. Have been praying as the Holy Spirit has had each of you in my spirit quite heavily.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers' diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. Luke 4:40

37 A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped. 38 Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, "Teacher, don't you care if we drown?"
39 He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind died down and it was completely calm. 40 He said to his disciples,
"Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith? 41 They were terrified and asked each other, "Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!"
~ Mark 4:37-40

(Not saying anyone has 'fear' except to remind, we can only have the reverential fear of the LORD)

(Peace =Shalom), which is made up of two words

eirene=the biblical concept of peace (shalom; eirene) indicates inner satisfaction, contentment, serenity and fulfillment contingent upon a harmonious and integrated relationship with God through Jesus Christ. It is a state of being as well as an attitude. This concept of peace is deeper than the English conception of peace which conjures up a passive attitude – the absence of conflict, hostilities and violence.

saipao=from siope silence, i.e. a hush, properly, muteness, i.e. involuntary stillness, or inability to speak essentially telling the weather to come back to a state of tranquility but the spirits behind that weather causing the storm to "shut up", causing them to be unable to literally speak.

This is what Jehovah Shalom Hosts do, you can release them to do this on your behalf.)

Hashem (God's favorite name for himself) Adonai (Master), we call upon the appointed and destined Seraphim for our family, our bloodlines and our situations, to use the Master('s) and Master Keys according to Isaiah 22:22 to shut down and lock out forever the assignments, evil agendas, and all that is NOT of the Holy Ghost for us, everything from our previous generations and current situations which are preventing our full prophetic destinies and assignments

We also ask now on the other hand to unlock and open whatever many doors or portals which you would have us run through to our prophetic destinies and through which also the Glory Of God would rush through and deluge us with your Wisdom and Every 'thing', you now have, everything which the enemy had impeded us and our generations from. We receive, accept and retain all you greatly bless us with in Yeshua's name.

(This what Tim Sheets has been sharing about recently)

Below is a prayer, the Holy Spirit helped me write (and that Peter and I have been declaring.)

I had a reminder of the vision of the huge vault with Fynn and Stone beside it, where we didn't have the code yet to get into. What I then saw as we were declaring out these verses, the Seraphim were unlocking the required code through us. I also saw the many 'safes' which have now been delivered to those whom require them. (Terry said as the Holy Spirit had me pray with him earlier, that he saw 20 doors they ran through, not just one, Wade was told he had 5 doors to go through)

I sense also the Holy Spirit has he has stopped time for us as in Joshua 10, (which J Gregory has confirmed for us before also) and that we are now 'to surpass' the enemy, be ahead of the enemy agenda.

A place to Rest / To Dream [To Envision/Have Vision] To Create.

We declare and decree we will sleep deeply, soundly getting enough deep sleep to rejuvenate our cells and body functions and hear the voice of God through Holy Spirit anointed dreams. In the power of the Holy Spirit, we declare and decree the complete ability to rest in peace, capacity to dream and with the power to create.

We are blessed with profitable professions, high end businesses, fruitful crops and livestock.

We are surrounded by safety on every side, above, beneath and entirely, through this blessing.

We OWN these blessings DEBT FREE; NEVER, NEVER, NEVER again living in lack.

WE are blessed and graced in great generosity and Godly compassion.

We are trustworthy, wise, excellent honorable stewards of great wealth, blessed with strong Godly integrity and character.

We are the head, not the tail, we are above not beneath. We are the first, not the last. We are strong in the Lord.

We refuse to be people of little faith. We believe BIG, ask BIG and thank BIG. We know God is more than enough.

We hold to these powerful promises from you to us with all our might:

Psalms 89:34 My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

Jeremiah 33:3 Call to me and I will show you great and unknown things you have not known.

Deuteronomy 2:22 He reveals the deep and hidden things; he knows what lies in darkness and light dwells in him.

Deuteronomy 33:3 Surely it is you who love the people, all the holy ones are in your hand. At your feet they bow down and receive instruction.

Proverbs 16:3 Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established.

Proverbs 24:3 By wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established

Romans 13:8 Owe no man anything, but to love one another...

Proverbs 11:24 Give freely and become more wealthy; be stingy and lose everything.

Proverbs 11:25 The generous will prosper; those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed.

Proverbs 22:9 Blessed are those who are generous, because they feed the poor.

Proverbs 28:27 Whoever gives to the poor will lack nothing, but those who close their eyes to poverty will be cursed.

Proverbs 3:9, 10 Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the best part of everything you produce. Then he will fill your barns with grain, and your vats will overflow with good wine.

Proverbs 8:18-21 I [wisdom] have riches and honor, as well as enduring wealth and justice. My gifts are better than gold, even the purest gold, my wages better than sterling silver! I walk in righteousness, in paths of justice. Those who love me inherit wealth. I will fill their treasuries.

Proverbs 14:24 Wealth is a crown for the wise; the effort of fools yields only foolishness.

Proverbs 13:22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the sinner's wealth is laid up for the righteous

Psalms 35:27 "Let the Lord be magnified, who takes pleasure in the prosperity of His servant".

1 Timothy 5:8 But if anyone does not provide for his relatives, and especially for members of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Samuel 2:8 He raises up the poor from the dust; he lifts the needy from the ash heap to make them sit with princes and inherit a seat of honor. For the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and on them he has set the world.

2 Corinthians 9:6 The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

Deuteronomy 8:18 You shall remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your fathers, as it is this day.

Deuteronomy 28:11 And the Lord will make you abound in prosperity, in the fruit of your womb and in the fruit of your livestock and in the fruit of your ground, within the land that the Lord swore to your fathers to give you.

Isaiah 61:7 Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion; instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot; therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; they shall have everlasting joy.

Joshua 1:8 "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success."

Luke 14:28 "For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it?"

Philippians 4:19 And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Proverbs 22:7 The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is the slave of the lender.

Proverbs 21:20 Precious treasure and oil are in a wise man's dwelling, but a foolish man devours it.

Proverbs 28:8 Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and profit gathers it for him who is generous to the poor.

Psalms 112:3 Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.

Psalms 128:2 You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands; you shall be blessed, and it shall be well with you.

Psalms 37:4 Delight yourself in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Proverbs 8:18 Riches and honor are with me, enduring wealth and righteousness.

Philippians 4:19 And this same God who takes care of me will supply all your needs from his glorious riches, which have been given to us in Christ Jesus.

2 Corinthians 9:8 And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

Proverbs 3:3-6 Let not mercy and truth forsake you; bind them around your neck. Write them upon the table of your heart, and so find favor and high esteem in the sight of God and man. Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

Proverbs 4:17 The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom. Though it cost all you have, get understanding.

Philippians 4:6-7 I will not fret or have anxiety about anything, but in every circumstance and in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, continue to make my requests known to God. God's peace which transcends all understanding, shall garrison and mount guard over my heart and mind in Christ Jesus.

Romans 15:13 May the God of Hope fill you with all Joy and Peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with Hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 23 chapter

In Yeshua's name, Hosts of Heaven, make it so.

I am sending this out to the group to pray over and hear what the Holy Spirit speaks to you about or allows you to see. I believe again, this be a group effort in a prayer time, but it could also just be in our own spheres, I believe corporately.

God Says: Do Not Fear - I Am Building Goshen!"

Nate Johnston, Dallas, TX

It Is an Hour to Crush the Enemy Under Your Feet!

Earlier in the year, I had a dream where I was being pursued and chased by a demonic principality. In its wake, the earth was being stirring up into chaos, famine, financial recession and tormenting fear. I was running but it was hot on my tail, and I was doing everything I could to dodge its grasp. I felt surrounded and hopeless; everything inside of me was feeling like this was the end, and life as we knew it was over.

Suddenly I heard the voice of the Lord say, "What are you running from? Do you not see what I am doing in the earth right now? Do you not see through the storm? Do you not see through the chaos? And even in the war being waged at your doorstep, I am giving you eyes to see. The hour that is upon the Church is not an hour of fear, nor is it an hour to run, but it is an hour to turn around, pursue the enemy on your tail, crush him under your feet and reveal My glory in the earth!"

An Apocalypse of God's Glory

That's when I heard this unusual word. The Lord said, "For many would say that this is the apocalypse; but this is not the apocalypse of the world but *the apocalypse of My revealing. This is the apocalypse of the revealing of My presence and My glory and of My sons and daughters in the earth."

(The Greek word "apocalypso" means to "reveal"; "to uncover, lay open what has been veiled or covered up"; "disclose, make bare"; "to make known, make manifest." In this context, it signifies the revealing of Jesus!)

"For the creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed." (Romans 8:19)

Three Cycles of Seven & the Shmita

After I woke up, I was praying into what I had just seen in the dream when the Spirit came upon me. I saw three 7-year periods of time. Biblically, the number seven signifies perfection and completion. It is the divine will of God. The number seven is a cycle of time where things come to an end and new things begin again. I believe what I was seeing was the 7-year cycles that would begin and end on Rosh Hashanah (the Head of the Year or the first of the year), which is the time of contemplation and celebration of a new Jewish year.

Interestingly, we just had two events collide which were both the ending of a Jewish year and the ending of a Shmita cycle. A Shmita is the "Year of Release," which is more widely known as the sabbatical year – six years of toil (both spiritually and physically) followed by the Shmita, which is a year of rest and completion, readying for the new.

"For six years you shall sow your land and gather in its yield; but the seventh year you shall let it rest [tishm'tenah] and lie fallow [u'nitashta], so that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the wild animals may eat. You shall do the same with your vineyard, and with your olive orchard." (Exodus 23:10-11, emphasis added)

"In the Shmita year, debts are to be forgiven, agricultural lands to lie fallow, private landholdings to become open to the commons, and staples such as food storage and perennial harvests to be freely redistributed and accessible to all." – Haberman Institute for Jewish Studies

I believe the Shmita prophetically speaks of the Lord's protection from the devourer and His provision no matter what is taking place in the world.

Prophetic Cycles Broken Down

The first 7-year period I saw was from 2015 to 2022, which started at Rosh Hashanah 2015 and ended on Rosh Hashanah 2022. (Photo via Flickr)

I saw that this cycle would be:

- a period of the Church being shaken
- a period where everything that could be shaken would be shaken
- a time of intense resistance and delay against the new
- a time of exposure of the demonic assignments of Jezebel, witchcraft and religion
- a time of the wineskin bursting
- a period of the Church beginning to be sifted and purified
- a period where God would shake every false thing from the Church, revealing the true Church and the remnant that had been waiting for this moment
- a time of pioneering
- a time of the Church shifting out of old mindsets and into new ways of thinking
- a time of the heads of many snakes being exposed – snakes that had kept the Church in a box – where God would reveal them to cut them off once and for all

The second 7-year period I saw was from 2022 to 2029. I saw that this cycle would be a season for:

- repositioning, reawakening, engagement, mobilization and preparation
- the government of God and the Church to step into its governmental role in the earth in many mountains of influence
- the Church to pull its head out of the sand and become a voice in the earth
- blueprints and strategies to be revealed
- building and constructing what God has given the Church to build and construct – the vision and plans for coming years

- the Church to step into a time of unity, where brands will be dissolved and the powerless Church will crumble; where empires will fall, making way for the Spirit-yielded Church to emerge with a powerful voice and roar in the earth

The third and final cycle that I saw was what the two previous cycles had been leading up to. This final cycle is the 7-year period of:

- the clashing of kingdoms
- great enforcement of the enemy's agenda in the earth, and a time of greater glory
- hidden things and things done in secret no longer being kept hidden
- the plots and plans of men possessed by the enemy emerging, where they will attempt to enforce and bring them into effect; but also a time of amazing favor, provision and ridiculous harvest
- God showing off His Bride in a powerful way
- God's people not fearing the intimidation of the enemy (because while it looks menacing, I saw, clear as day, these giants and their plans falling)
- the enemy's plans coming undone, where he will overplay his hand which will lead right into the harvest of harvests

The Mantle of Joseph

Then, a few days later, the Lord began to speak to me about the mantle of Joseph. He said to me, "Nate, in this hour, the mantle of Joseph is going to be released over My Church and over My Bride. I'm going to call people into many different places of strategic influence.

"There are those that I'm going to use to prepare the Body of Christ for these times of great, global shaking. These are those that will build and construct and gather for these times. And, just like when Joseph was in the prison and then was suddenly called to the palace, I'm going to do the same thing for many of those that I'm calling into this mantle – those that have been in a place of imprisonment, a place of dormancy, a place of being stifled, and have been shut down and muzzled.

"But in a moment, I'm going to call them to strategic influence, because the pharaohs' of the earth (while not godly) recognize that they need something, and they need someone who carries the Spirit of the living

God and the wisdom to be able to get them out of the bind that they're in. And just like when Pharaoh called Joseph to the palace, I'm going to press on the hearts of pharaohs and earthly kings, and they will search out these 'Josephs' and bring them into a place of influence in the earth.

"And these Josephs – they will carry the wisdom for this time. They will carry the insight and they will carry the know-how to build and construct what needs to be built and constructed to defy and counteract the plans of the enemy, just as Joseph did in Genesis. He was able to interpret the dream of Pharaoh and see the seven years of plenty coming and the seven years of famine coming; the seven skinny cows and the seven fattened calves.

"I'm going to use these Josephs to be able to prepare for what is coming, and they will build Goshen," says the Lord. "For right now, many around the world are in fear, and the Body of Christ has been pushed into a corner and has been confused; [they] have lost their future and have lost the fight. They have been burying their heads in the sand and waving their white flag, but they need to know there is nothing to fear because their future is Goshen!"

"Have I not already prepared it?" says the Lord. "Have I not already called these people into places of influence? You do not have anything to fear!"

The Lord would say, "You need to keep going forward; you need to not stop. Why did your dreaming stop? Why did your plans stop? Why did you drop your mantle? Why did you drop your instrument? Why did you drop your pen? For you need to keep going forward, unafraid.

"I am paving and clearing the way, right now. I'm shaking off and breaking off the fear and the survival mentality – that mentality that has been over the Church, that entered through years of shaking...the years of chaos and unrest. And I'm putting on them the mantle of praise, and they're going to forfeit the spirit of heaviness," says the Lord.

For the Lord would say, "Right now I am building Goshen! So pick up your tools and your mantle and step back into hope, for the days ahead are your best days!"

What Is Goshen?

Goshen was a plot of land given to the Israelites from Egypt that bordered Canaan, which is prophetic of how we are in the world but not of it. It's the promise of Kingdom immunity and protection even amidst worldly systems and famine and the fruit of sin. The name Goshen means "drawing near" and is a call to come out of the world, mixture and compromise, and to create a greater connection and dwelling with God.

"You shall live in the region of Goshen and be near me – you, your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and all you have." (Genesis 45:10)

Goshen is your promise of finally settling in the land God has given you after being a nomad for so long.

"Now the Israelites settled in Egypt in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there and were fruitful and increased greatly in number." (Genesis 47:27)

Goshen is the promise of being fruitful and increasing no matter what is taking place around you. Goshen was the place where God made Israel into a great nation and it's where God will establish, plant and build you. Goshen was protected from the plagues of Egypt, which speaks prophetically of how we will be protected from the storms and fluctuations of earthly governments and systems.

Goshen is a heart posture of intimacy and being set apart unto the Lord. Goshen speaks prophetically of territory and occupation in the enemy's camp. Goshen is an anointing to be blessed and flourish in all seasons.

I Am Building Goshen!

Lastly, I just want to share what I keep seeing throughout this year. There has been this strong, sudden cry and call on the hearts of God's people to build and establish "out of the box" gatherings, hubs and places. There has been a strong cry to get up, pack up and leave to find these places. People are readying their families to physically move locations so that they can sow their lives into these places where God is calling many to build. Relocation is taking place; God is pulling people out of dead environments and into Goshen environments. They are being pulled out of places that are void of the prophetic decree, a future and a hope (Jeremiah 29:11) and being put into places of vision, movement and action. They are coming out of the false and into authenticity.

Feet are stirring and beginning to move! Because of this, many have had blueprints drop in their laps and have been feeling the pull to establish communities and places of God's presence. To these people, the Lord would say, "This is what I want you to build; I want you to build storm houses which will be a place safe from any storm." They will be like Joseph's storehouses, but they will be storm houses, because they'll provide protection from the storm for many.

They will be the ones who not only prepare the Church in terms of financial provision, food and shelter – as well as safety from the things that the enemy would try to shake in the days to come – but they will also be the ones who will disciple and raise up people to know how to be effective during these times. They will raise up an army of people who will fight back against the kingdom of darkness; they will raise up a people who are effective in the times that they are living in.

Let Hope Fill Your Heart Once Again

At the beginning of this new Jewish year of 5783, Goshen is your promise of stepping into an epoch. It is a time to be excited about, not dread like the news, media and many fear-mongering people. Fear has not helped you; it has BOUND you. But right now, the Lord is breaking the yoke of heaviness and despair that has been over you for so long. It's time to let hope fill your heart once again, and to fill your sails with fresh wind to break out of the confinement you have been in. It's time to embrace the protection and provision of the Lord and confidently move forward, knowing that He is your breaker leading the way for you (Micah 2:13), and your rear guard.

Soon you are going to look back on the last few years and not see confusion, painful heart healing, awkward confrontation and the failure and standstill in your previous plans. You will see how much God was sneakily delivering you from wrong situations and relationships; outdated assignments; idolized doors and vision; limited mindsets; heart issues and trauma. You will see how He was untangling you from every web that had been wrapped around you for years.

"Can't you see that I have been REBUILDING you?" says the Lord. "Now watch as, from this place, I lay the bricks of the movement I have always longed for you to see but that you couldn't while you still had your hand on the old plow. So pick up fresh hope, shed the fear and build the years of Goshen with Me!"

You've Passed the Test! It's Time for Reward!"

Andrew Towe, Chattanooga, TN

The Key to Your Next Season

I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "The camels, forming caravans loaded with blessing and provision, have been dispatched. Look for them with great expectation, for they carry the key to your next season.

"I have seen how My children have endured seasons of great loss, disappointment and heartbreak, but that season has changed, and the camels are here. Tell My people to prepare themselves, for I will demonstrate My resurrection power by bringing life to dead promises. I have commissioned a Genesis 24 release over My sons and daughters. Tell them to declare, 'The camels are here.'"

Loaded with Blessings and Provision: God's Promises Are Coming to Pass

As the Lord spoke this to me, I quickly began to study Genesis 24. The chapter starts by describing Abraham as old and how the Lord had been faithful, blessing him in every way (Gen. 24:1). There was only one thing Abraham lacked – a bride for his son Isaac.

Abraham called for his head servant to help him find Isaac's wife. Abraham had him take an oath that he would not allow Isaac to marry one of the local Canaanite women. He requested that his servant go to his homeland among his relatives and find a bride for Isaac.

"The servant asked, 'But what if I can't find a young woman who is willing to travel so far from home? Should I then take Isaac there to live among your relatives in the land you came from?'

"'No!' Abraham responded. 'Be careful never to take my son there. For the LORD, the God of Heaven, who took me from my father's house and my native land, solemnly promised to give this land to my descendants. He will send His angel ahead of you, and He will see to it that you find a wife there for my son. If she is unwilling to come back with you, then you are free from this oath of mine. But under no circumstances are you to take my son there.'" (Gen. 24:5-8, NLT)

The servant was concerned that a young woman might not be willing to move the vast distance away from her family, but Abraham knew God would help his servant find a bride for the chosen son. God's will was for Isaac to remain in Canaan, so the Lord's promise to Abraham would be fulfilled, which was that his descendants would possess the land.

As with Abraham, God's promises to you will come to pass! He has not forgotten you. Get ready for God to bless you with the resources you need to stay in His perfect will so that you might enjoy the fulfillment of His word coming to pass in your life.

"Then he loaded ten of Abraham's camels with all kinds of expensive gifts from his master..." (Gen. 24:10, NLT)

Take note of the special role the camels play throughout this story. They were loaded with blessings and provisions. I also heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "I am transferring abundant blessing to you. You are entering a set time where I will show off My goodness with elaborate manifestations of My promises."

You've Passed the Test!

The story goes on to tell how the servant arrived in the town where Abraham's brother lived and prayed for God to use the camels as a sign of confirmation toward her identity.

"This is my request. I will ask one of them, 'Please give me a drink from your jug.' If she says, 'Yes, have a drink, and I will water your camels, too!' – let her be the one you have selected as Isaac's wife..." (Gen. 24:14, NLT)

God had also brought Rebekah to a crossover moment. She was literally watering her future, and her seed of service caused favor and elevation. Rebekah passed the test.

"When she had given him a drink, she said, 'I'll draw water for your camels, too, until they have had enough to drink'" (Gen. 24:19, NLT).

Notice that Rebekah's excellence in doing an average task qualified her for the blessing she was about to receive. The Lord says, "You, too, have been in a season of testing. I have seen your faithfulness in the mundane tasks you have performed, and now I will trust you with more. It is time for reward."

"And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah..." (Gen. 24:53, KJV)

Raised to a Higher Level – The Camels Are Coming!

The camel's God has sent to you will bow low before you and lift you to a higher level. God says, "You will not have to strive to be raised up. I have assigned the camels to bring elevation and unexpected blessings into your life. Camels bend low to give ease for mounting. In this coming season, your destiny will be released with ease, for I am giving you divine connections, unexplainable favor and authentic influence."

"And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and behold, the camels were coming." (Gen. 24:63, KJV)

"And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death." (Gen. 24:67, KJV)

God promised Abraham that the blessing of his seed would come through Isaac. Rebekah was the key to the fulfillment of God's promise. Moreover, Isaac loved her. You are going to love what God is doing next for you.

The Lord proclaims to you that, like Isaac, you are coming into your next season, which will be one of comfort, elevation and fulfillment of promises. He has witnessed your grief as you have experienced great loss, hurt and pain. He is bringing GREAT change! The next season is upon you.

God says, "The camels are here! Begin to call them forth into your life. They are all around you, but now is their time to fulfill their assignment. There is a great transfer that is coming for My children."

A Great Tsunami of Change is Coming

On Jan 28, 2022, I had a dream in preparation for what is coming. I was standing on top of a very tall mountain. This mountain was on an island and the island signified the world as a whole. As I looked in the distance, I saw small waves coming towards the shore. As they hit the island, they made small impressions on the shorelines and the buildings that were close to the shore. Then out of seemingly nowhere a tsunami wave such as I have never seen before was at the island's edge. It was absolutely massive, and it was on all sides of the island.

The wave hit the island so quickly no one seemed to be prepared and it covered the entire island and climbed even to the top of the mountain. In the dream I knew I was positioned at the top because I had been preparing for years for this coming revival. I climbed up as high as I could to watch the shoreline and scout the horizon for the coming wave.

As I looked down on all sides of the island, I could see as the wave crashed into us and recede, but nothing escaped its effect. Everything was wet and dripping with this revival water. I could see everyday structures crushed and pushed over, water pouring out of them. I saw heavy equipment on all four corners of the island that had been working furiously to prepare channels for the coming wave of revival, but the wave was so large it overwhelmed their efforts. The water landed many miles higher than the greatest channels of preparation.

Nothing would be the same, everything would have to be rebuilt, but differently. From my position at the top of the mountain I didn't experience a direct hit from the wave, but I felt disoriented because of the magnitude of the event. I had been looking for and preparing for years but my preparation wasn't enough. I was overwhelmed to the core.

A great revival is even now being birthed and this great wave will hit the entire earth. We must prepare, we must try to be ready.

Since having this dream, I have prayed into the circumstances surrounding it. We see great change around us and can discern the small waves are now hitting the shores. We are preparing for the great tsunami of revival we've heard about for many years.

On July 14, 2022, I attended a virtual prophetic prayer time with some fellow sojourners. As our time was coming to a close one of my friends jumped in quickly: Terry before you go, the Lord just showed me that you have been climbing a great mountain because you see a great tsunami wave coming. You are encouraging others to get ready, and some are listening, others are not.

The Lord quickly brought my attention back to the dream I had on Jan 28, 2022. The time of the great tsunami is now approaching.

Three nights later on July 17, 2022, I awoke in the middle of the night only to recognize an angel of the Lord was standing beside my bed. This angel physically grabbed me around my torso as I lay in bed and great energy came out of his hands and into my body. He then spoke: "I am infusing you with the capacity to navigate the great tsunami of change that is coming upon the earth".

We have experienced significant change and disruption the last several years as the earth groans and waits for the sons and daughters of God to be revealed, but the greatest changes are still to come. We have heard about and are anticipating the great revival that will hit the shores of our world, but we need to know this will be preceded by a tsunami of change beyond our comprehension.

The Lord is not just coming to bring revival, He is coming to reform the earth and every structure that has been build, including us. This will apply to governmental structures, financial structures and more. In fact, structures in all 7 mountains of influence will undergo great changes as they succumb to the tsunami of God's glory in the earth.

This wave of great change will also affect every living person on the face of the earth in some way. The Lord is, and has been, preparing us for many years for this new move of His Spirit. He is even now teaching us a new way to walk.

This change will be so great that our definition of Christianity will begin to change. In the western world our faith is largely based on our intellect and our ability to understand. In many ways our faith is limited to and subject to our ability to understand. We have been defined by what we think, by what we believe.

On Dec 5, 2018, I had an extended encounter with the Lord. He woke me in the middle of the night and quickly began talking to me, "A new flow of My Spirit is coming that will be so great we will need to learn to live life differently. Many have been training for this for years."

In our old model the Lord would speak to us, and we would obey. In the new model His life will flow through us and out of us even before we are able to completely understand what it is He is doing. It will bypass our mind gate and instead come forth from our inner man.

He also said that the ways of the world will slowly lose their ability to produce (earthy) fruit, but the ways of the Kingdom of God will increase in their fruitfulness. What you have done before in the kingdom that lacked fruit would now produce fruit.

A Sneak Preview Into 2023" Elaine Tavalacci, Staten Island, NY

The Lord says: "I am going to give My prophets, seers and those with prophetic gifts a 'sneak preview' of what is to come."

A sneak preview is a special showing of something such as a movie, play or product, before it becomes available to the general public. The Lord has been showing His prophets that we are on the brink of a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The river that we are about to step into is deeper than we've ever known before. We will receive extreme words for an extreme time.

Extraordinary Spiritual Encounters and Visions

The Holy Spirit is giving some Believers visions, while others are receiving spiritual encounters like those He gave to the prophets of old. One such prophet was Ezekiel. The Lord used Ezekiel in an unusual way, giving him visions, transportations and other encounters. He was called to judge, rebuke and call God's people to repentance.

In Ezekiel 1, he saw the heavens open and visions of God. He then saw a whirlwind "...coming out of the north, a great cloud with raging fire engulfing itself" (verse 4). A bright light was radiating from it that appeared as the color amber, glowing in the midst of fire.

He saw four living creatures in the likeness of a man. Each one of them had four faces and four wings. Their legs were straight, their feet were like calves' feet, and "...they sparkled like the color of burnished bronze" (verse 7). Ezekiel described this phenomenal experience as the Lord opened his eyes in the seer realm.

We are going to experience extraordinary spiritual encounters in the days ahead. Every Believer will learn the unique language of the Holy Spirit, and the specific ways that He speaks to us individually as well as corporately.

Mountain-Moving Faith and the Creative Power of Our Words

In Ezekiel 37, the Lord transported him in the spirit and showed him a valley of dry bones. He was told to prophesy to the dry bones and they would come back to life. As Ezekiel prophesied, there was a rattling noise; the bones came together, and sinews and flesh came upon them, but there was no breath.

Then the Lord said, "Prophecy to the breath"

(the rûah), and when he did, "...breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceeding great army" (verse 10). In the same way, we will soon discover the authority and creative power of our words.

"And He said to me, 'Son of man, can these bones live?' So I answered, 'O Lord GOD, You know.' Again He said to me, 'Prophecy to these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: 'Surely I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath in you; and you shall live. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.'"" (Ezekiel 37:3-6)

Jesus has given us authority to speak things into existence as the Holy Spirit directs us. Some of you are about to receive mountain-moving faith, just as Jesus taught: "For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things will be done, he will have whatever he says" (Mark 11:23). Some of you will begin to speak to things that are impossible or immovable in the natural, and you will see the Lord's divine intervention.

An Abundance of Rain, the Healing River and the Four Living Creatures

In Ezekiel 47, the Lord brought Ezekiel back to the door of the temple and showed him water flowing from under the threshold. The water was coming in from every side. It goes on to say that there was a man (representing Jesus) who was measuring the depth of the waters which went from ankle deep to a massive river that couldn't be crossed in the natural. Everywhere that this river flowed brought life. Everywhere that this river flowed brought healing.

The Lord is about to release an abundance of rain that will fill the rivers to overflowing and break down dams of division. He is about to bring many streams together for this great outpouring, and we are going to experience His glory in an unprecedented way. Many things will transpire and multitudes will be swept into the Kingdom of God. Many people will experience breakthroughs of significant proportions, and there will be great miracles that will accompany this outpouring.

There are many similarities and parallels between the book of Ezekiel and the book of Revelation. In Revelation 4:1, the apostle John saw a door standing open in Heaven, and he heard a voice like a trumpet speaking to him, saying, "... 'Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this.'" Immediately, he was in the Spirit and described in explicit detail what he saw in Heaven.

John also saw four living creatures, but they were different from the spiritual beings that Ezekiel saw. The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature like a calf, the third living creature had a face like a man and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. The four living creatures (zōon), each having six wings, were full of eyes all around and even under their wings. Day and night, they never stop saying, "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Who was and is and is to come!" (Revelation 4:8). I believe that the Holy Spirit is also going to open our eyes to see angels as well as the living creatures, which are not the same.

"After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in Heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, 'Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this.' Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne set in Heaven, and One sat on the throne." (Revelation 4:1-2)

In Revelation 22, the apostle John had a similar vision to Ezekiel's. He also saw the healing river of God proceeding from the throne, and "[i]n the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations" (verse 2).

"And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations." (Revelation 22:1-2)

Transformation That Leads to the Deeper Place

In Ezekiel 2:8-3:4, Ezekiel was handed a scroll that had lamentations, mourning and woe written on both sides. The Lord told Ezekiel to open his mouth and eat the scroll that was given to him, and then go speak to the house of Israel. He opened his mouth, ate the scroll and it then became sweet like honey in his mouth.

In Revelation 10:8-11, the Lord told John to take the little scroll out of the angel's hand (who stood on the sea and the earth) and eat it, and when he did, it was as sweet as honey in his mouth but bitter to his stomach. The Lord then directed him to prophesy to the people, nations, tongues and kings. The Holy Spirit may use some of you to release a word of correction which may seem harsh but necessary, and when it is received by the recipient, it will become sweet and transform their life.

The Lord says, "My anointing will be evident on the prophets and the seers in this season to bring correction, direction and transformation; but I am also calling every Believer into a deeper place. Now is the time to step out in faith into a place that you have never been. There is a dimension that is available to you; and as you step into this river, you will experience a new level of My glory. You will find that the glory of this latter house will be greater than the former house, and in this place, I will bring peace."

THE TIME HAS COME FOR THE BREAKING OF A NEW DAWN
REBEKAH HUDSON, PINEVILLE, LA

A new dawn is upon God's people. The Son is rising upon His vessels on Earth. The night has passed, and the time has come where we see the new daybreak in our lives. This new place is uncharted, yet we have been given a map embedded within us. It is the Holy Spirit leading and directing us. This new place does not feel like the last place, for it is God who has brought you into the new area to navigate with Him.

This is a place where your heart has been tried, revived, strengthened and aligned to all the purposes connected to your destiny. The promises of the Lord are moving quickly in your lives. It is one promise after another. You will begin to see manifestation after manifestation in your life. The Father's Kingdom business is moving exuberantly in His people. For it is the land of plenty, the land of fruits, the land of living vegetation, where all things live and thrive. For it is the Lord who sends the rains there and nourishes.

As you embark on this journey with the Lord, be attentive, be obedient and be humble. For what He is releasing is "remarkable" and "extraordinary." Others will experience the manifold ways of the Lord through His chosen people for this great move of His glory. While darkness, evil-doers and mockers ramp up their agendas, the plans of the Lord will cause the wicked to shudder, tremble, run and hide. The light of His glory is all-consuming, all-powerful and will topple the dark schemes set forth in motion. God's people will advance forward like never before, making the way for the Lord's return. Sons and daughters are being baptized in fresh fire, to carry His glory into all of Earth. We are entering into a wonderful awakening and the harvest is ripe. Let us keep our focus on where God is leading us -though we are in the boat and it seems like "Where do we go from here"? Trust and know this, we receive all that we need to accomplish His will in Earth. All God needs from us is our "Yes."

"If you follow My decrees and are careful to obey My commands, I will send you the seasonal rains. The land will then yield its crops, and the trees of the field will produce their fruit. Your threshing season will overlap with the grape harvest, and your grape harvest will overlap with the season of planting grain. You will eat your fill and live securely in your own land. I will give you peace in the land, and you will be able to sleep with no cause for fear. I will rid the land of wild animals and keep your enemies out of your land." (Leviticus 26:3-6 NLT)

GOD WILL BARE HIS HOLY ARM!

KATHI PELTON, PORTLAND, OREGON

"The LORD will lay bare His holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God." (Isaiah 52:10)

We have now entered into the Hebrew New Year 5783. Strong's Concordance number 5783 is the Hebrew word "ur," which means "to be exposed or bare."

We have been witnesses of many things on Earth being laid bare and exposed over the past couple of years. These have included agendas that have been planned in the company of demons by those who govern and lead nations; yet, they unashamedly carry on.

As we have entered this Hebrew New Year, what I now see is a different type of exposure and 'baring.' It is the baring of God's holy arm before the nations, and an exposure of His sovereignty before all the earth. I saw it like a sword being drawn from its sheath for all to see.

Isaiah 52:10 says that when God bares His holy arm, "...all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God." All the ends of the earth! Have we now entered the time that marks the great harvest of all the earth? I believe that we are going to see His holy arm cause a rapid move of salvations throughout the world.

Keep your eyes on the Middle East because the Arab people are receiving dreams and visions of Jesus, and many of the sons of Ishmael are receiving Him as their Messiah. Nations and people who have not know that Jesus is truly the Savior of the world will come to salvation as He bares His holy arm. This harvest will bring in the fullness of the Gentiles so that we will see the eyes of His Jewish people unveiled to see Jesus their Messiah.

I do not know what this will look like or how exactly this will transpire, but I do know that we have now moved into the "era of the King." There is no king but Jesus, and His rule will be made known from this time forward.

The queen or king of the commonwealth is called the "Sovereign," but we will now see who the true and only Sovereign is! He is the Sovereign King and He will reign in righteousness, truth, justice, mercy and authority. The whole earth belongs to Him, and those who exercise evil from their seats of authority will have to face His holy arm and the double-edged sword in His hand. He will bring retribution and mercy to His people. We are in a Ziklag time! This is where King David and his men returned to the place called Ziklag only to find that all their families (wives and children) had been captured by the enemy. David and his men were so distraught that they lost all hope and courage. But David strengthened himself in the Lord and asked God if he and his men could pursue the enemy to recover their families. God said, (see 1 Samuel 30:8). So David and his men shook off their despair and not only recovered every family member, but they also came back with all the spoils and wealth of their enemy.

We are shaking off despair and the sense of hopelessness from the areas where modern-day spiritual enemies have stolen from our family lines. God is saying, "Pursue and recover all!" His holy arm and sword are going with us to not only recover family, but to see a transfer of wealth; it will be taken from the enemy and put into the hands of the righteous.

Though many things will continue to be shaken, as God's people, we stand on the unshakable foundation of Christ. We will look upon the shaking and recognize the holy arm of the Lord as it is laid bare before the nations. Many will be saved, and many will be rescued from captivity.

As the clash of kingdoms continues to shake the kingdoms of this world, keep your eyes on our King. He is victorious and we will recover all. We know that this is our sure hope: "...The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever" (Revelation 11:15).

For the pioneers who have been contending for the breakthrough of a major promise: This is a critical moment. Protect your vision right now. Be careful who has access to your heart. The foxes love to come just as you are about to step out into new territory and have fresh wind in your sails. This is a time of God connecting dots and bringing pieces together so really guard this moment like a mother hen protecting her egg. Don't fall prey to false fires, smoke and mirrors, triggers from old wounds, and words and attacks sent to distract you. Protect your walls and fortify yourself in potential blind spots. Cut off all access points of the enemy trying to bring confusion and chaos. Sever ties to the wolves in sheep clothing. Forgive often. Keep your heart in peace. Worship over needless scrolling. Laugh as you fight back. Prophecy in song. Live on your knees and watch as God FULFILLS what he started. Nate Johnston

It Time for a new Sound Oct 15, 2022: Terry Friesen

This morning I awoke in a tight space. I could feel the Father's presence all around me but at the same time I could feel constriction in my soul. I could sense that by an act of my will I could simply break through the constraints around me and move forward, but could there be more?

As I waited in this place on the Lord, before I exercised my authority to break free, I could sense He wanted to do something more. How many of us during the last season have found ourselves in a tight place? We have continued to praise God and exercise the authority we have been given in Christ but much of the world around us remains enslaved in restrictions and contradictions. We are not yet experiencing the level of freedom we know is in our DNA.

As I waited, I could hear a faint sound in the spirit. I didn't hear it with my natural ears but my spiritual ears. It was a sound coming from deep inside me. As this sound grew, I could tell it was of the Lord, so I yielded myself in partnership with it. It was a sound that resonated at a frequency of great truth. If I had to describe it in simple terms it was the sound of the victory of Lord Jesus coming from deep within me. As this sound grew my soul started to echo the same.

We have been formed and fashioned in the image of Christ. We have been made into an instrument of our God. We have been designed in such a way that when the Holy Spirit blows through us, we resonate at the frequency of His victory and make a sound that glorifies our Father in Heaven.

As this sound grew in intensity, I could start to hear the words that accompanied it. "You are awesome God, you are creator God, you are worthy God, you are victorious God." The descriptive words of exaltation kept coming, a multitude of ways in which our God is recognized for who He is.

As this sound started to build, I could feel it shake me from the inside out. It shook the spiritual and natural world around me. This victory that Christ won for us was now being released inside of me and spilling out into the world around me. As it increased it became a thunderous roar. This roar of the Lion of Judah inside me was no longer hidden and in a place of timidity but rather was being released to affect seen and unseen structures of the enemy in the world around me.

This summer at a church where I had the opportunity to minister, I prayed some people after the service. One lady in particular asked for prayer. When I pray for people, I prefer to let Holy Spirit decide the agenda, so we waited and rested in the Lord's presence. I could see that this lady was a worshiper. I could see into her spirit person what looked like a pipe organ with several flutes, or pipes. They originated in her spirit but were formed into that place where she and the Lord are joined together.

I asked her, do you love to worship? It was the great joy of her life. I could see that she made beautiful music to the Lord, but I could also see that only two of the many pipes had ever been used. This was the time. The Lord was going to release new sounds of worship in her life. As Holy Spirit blew through her in worship, through this capacity that had never been used before, she would make a new sound unto the Lord. I could see her in that future time and place. The sound that was coming from her was a sound of Heaven's reality and she was overcome that such a beautiful fragrant sound and offering would come from her. It was a sound that would glorify her Father in Heaven.

We have entered into a new time and season where the Lord is going to release a new sound on the earth. Much of this new sound will come through us His children. It isn't enough that we eke out a constrained, modest freedom in which to live our lives.

Jesus paid for more than what the world wants to limit us to. It is time for His sound to flow through us and make room for us and His Kingdom in this place. We are to shake the very foundations of the enemy in this world with a sound that resonates with the victory Christ has already obtained.

As this thunderous sound came from my spirit man, I could see around me structures that once appeared solid become liquified and translucent. They were no match for the victorious sound of our King. The frequency and tone of this new sound was superior to the sound of the familiar world around me. This new sound resonated with a quality and texture that the enemy structures and worldly structures could not stand against.

Joshua 6:20 "So the people shouted, and the trumpets were blown. When the people heard the sound of the trumpet, they raised a great shout, and [Jericho's] wall fell down in its place, so that the [Israelites] went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city." (AMPC).

The rams' horns (trumpets, shofars) and shouts were the sound of the Lord coming through His people releasing the victory of our God into the spiritual fortifications and natural fortifications and the walls came down. We are the shofar; we are the trumpet. The Lord makes His overcoming melodious sound through us His children. The god of this world and our enemy has known it is time for the children of God to release a victorious sound and has tried to cover our mouths, to eliminate our voice, our sound. He has sought to mask us up to prevent this sound from coming forth.

Genesis 1:3 "And God said let there be light; and there was light". (AMPC)

This same voice, this same breath that said, "let there be light", is the same breath that breaths through us. Our God is still Creator God. This same breath will breathe through us, His children, to bring His Kingdom and restore His creation.

Isaiah 61:4 "And they shall rebuild the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former desolations and renew the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations." (AMPC)

In the days ahead we will start to hear a sound and see the effects of this sound. It will be a sound that renews our souls and renews the world around us. We were not designed to hide as we wait to escape this current set of circumstances, we were designed to display the Glory of God in such a way that the world will come clamoring desperately looking for the victory we carry. In recent years the Lord has given me a recurring vision where I see Him pick me up like an instrument and breath through me to produce a sound.

"Lord, we say yes. We yield ourselves for your greater purposes. We seek all the freedom you promised us and claim the victories you have already won through your sacrificial, overcoming work on the cross. We say Father, blow through us. Release the wind or Your Holy Spirit in our lives so that we make a new sound. A sound that will liberate the world around us and glorify you in this place."

"Allow Me to Carry You Over the Thresholds of Transition"
Kathi Pelton, Portland, Oregon

Be Still

Transitions are hard. If you've ever been a woman giving birth or been with a woman while she was giving birth, you will know that the time of transition can be extremely intense. During the birth of my first baby, I fought against the pain and pressure that came during transition. It was overwhelming and I did not know how I'd get through it. As I fought against the pressure, I only accomplished prolonging it and experiencing greater pain.

During the birth of my second baby, as transition began to come upon me, the Lord reminded me of how I fought against the pain and pressure the first time. He whispered to me, "Focus on Me and let Me carry you through this time." I very intentionally turned my focus from the unknown and the pain in order to get as still as I could and allow God to carry me across the threshold of birthing my baby. It was an amazing difference—so much shorter and far less painful!

There is a familiar verse in the Bible that talks about this: "He says, 'Be still, and know that I am God...'" (Psalm 46:10). There is a supernatural and spiritual peace that occurs when God calls His Bride to be still and trust in Him. Suddenly, she makes room for Him to move through her posture of stillness and trust. Most people have a propensity to take action (out of a reaction) when life feels out of our control; but there is a better way.

Reaction vs Response

Transitions can feel out of control because they can be intense as we step into the unknown. Familiarity is absent, which can be disorienting and even frightening. But, if we begin to take the lead (out of reaction) rather than trust in Him (out of a spiritual response), things get messy. Reactions will begin to build a spiritual altar of fear and self-protection rather than create a memorial of abiding trust.

Crossover times, which are marked and anointed with a trust that causes us to be still, give Him room to take the lead and make clear the way ahead. Peace marks the way, and we are carried over.

Let Him Carry You Over the Threshold

Many years ago, our family was in one of the most significant transitions of our lives, and I found my soul reacting to the unfamiliar and unexpected like an out-of-control train. It was like the time of transition when birthing my first child—I was fighting it and making the entire process so much more painful and terrifying. During this time, the Lord took me into a vision that gave me deeper understanding of how to walk through my transition and over the thresholds of life.

In the vision, I was dressed as a bride and was standing next to my Bridegroom, Jesus. We were approaching the threshold of crossing into our life as husband and wife. As I approached the threshold, I was shocked to hear demons waiting there, shouting lies about my future, about what was ahead, about doom and disappointments... There was great warfare against my soul and against my hope and trust.

Just then, Jesus stopped me and said, "My bride, allow Me to carry you over the thresholds of transition, because it is the stillness and abiding trust in Me that will give you peace, rest and joy. You will be carried in the arms that provide intimacy, protection and agape love. I am all that you need, and I have all that you need for what is ahead."

His words helped my fearful heart to get still so that He could pick me up and carry me over the threshold. As He carried me over, I saw that there was a great battle that I was being carried above while I rested in the arms of Jesus. Had I rushed ahead or gone forward in my own wisdom or strength, I would have faced an army of resistance that the enemy had set against me. I would have walked out onto a battlefield that God wanted to protect me from. Because I allowed Him to carry me, I was lifted over it and the enemy was put under the feet of Jesus.

If you are in a time of transition, trust Him and let Him carry you over. Turn your fearful reaction into a faith-filled response and yield to His loving arms.

Verses to Help You in Your Pause

Here are a few encouraging verses to help you in your pause, rest and stillness:

- "The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still." (Exodus 14:14)
- "My heart is not proud, LORD, my eyes are not haughty; I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me. But I have calmed and quieted myself, I am like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child I am content." (Psalm 131:1-2)
- "For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, 'In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength'..." (Isaiah 30:15)

May you let His strength become your strength as you enter into quietness and trust. Let LOVE carry you.

Becoming Carriers of His Manifest Presence"

Steve Porter, Rochester, NY

I was sound asleep, but in my dreams, I was wide awake. Oh, listen! It's the sound of my lover knocking, calling! 'Let me in, dear companion, dearest friend, my dove, consummate lover! I'm soaked with the dampness of the night, drenched with dew, shivering and cold.'" (Song of Solomon 5:2)

We can capture the Lord's beautiful heart and, in turn, be blessed with the free gift of His relentless love. It's a remarkable thing to know the heart of God. It's amazing that we, as the very creations of God, can capture the affection of our Creator. It amazes me that although God created the world with a spoken word—although He created us out of dust and then breathed life into us, making us out of nothing—He loves us with a deep affection found nowhere else.

To know the heart of God is to know an all-consuming, unending love. Did you know that at this very moment, His affection is toward you—that the Lord Jesus longs and desires to manifest Himself to you in a very personal way? In fact, right now the Father says over you, "Not only do I want to manifest Myself to you, but I want to be your closest friend!" Scripture says He actually inclines His ear to hear what's on our hearts.

"Because He turned His ear to me, I will call on Him as long as I live."
(Psalm 116:2)

The Bridegroom Is at the Doors of Our Hearts

In 2007, I wrote a prophetic message about a vision the Lord gave me where I saw the dining table of the Lord in heavenly places. Only a few people were gathered around the table. Invitations had gone out to many people that night, but few were willing to exit their warm beds and meet with the Lord in the secret place.

In my vision, I fell at the feet of the sweet Master in deep grief, because I was one of those who had often refused to arise. I chose the comforts of a warm bed rather than an audience with my Beloved. He picked me up off my knees and boldly affirmed me with eyes that were so full of love that I was quaking inside.

He didn't condemn me but rather forgave me of my prayerlessness, gently calling me to come away with Him when He called. His voice was like the sound of many waters that encouraged me to answer the call to come away with Him.

The Lord sadly announced that only a few of His choicest servants had gotten up that night to be with Him. This vision demonstrates how He walks each night and calls many to come away and dine with Him, breaking the bread of sweet fellowship, where He shares His heart and the deep secrets which He can only entrust to a rare few.

The Bridegroom Jesus—the heavenly Lover of our souls—is at the door of our hearts this very moment, seeking admission into the innermost chambers of our being. He is knocking, calling out to us longingly, "...Let Me in, dear companion, dearest friend, My dove... I'm soaked with the dampness of the night, drenched with dew, shivering and cold" (see Song of Songs 5:2).

If we open up to Him and let Him enter in, we will experience the wonder of His holy presence filling us to overflowing. We will be transformed by His love and filled with His fullness. Oh, what a blessed hope! What an awesome privilege to know that at any moment we can welcome Jesus in and be captivated by His eternal love.

"The secret of the Lord is with those who fear Him, And He will show them His covenant." (Psalm 25:14)

Special Messengers of His Manifest Presence

Have you ever noticed those in the Body of Christ who have an extra special touch of God on their lives? There's just something about them... It's in the words they speak or the songs they sing, and it separates them from all the others. I don't know what it is, or how we can know, but there's a witness in the spirit when we meet someone who's been with the Lord, demonstrating a very special touch of His presence on their lives. You can sense it in your spirit. This is a very rare thing; only a few are willing to pay the price for it.

When the Lord finds someone willing to lay at His feet and listen to His heart, He will share amazing things that will astound others. They carry an unusual level of the anointing, a special presence that flows from their lives.

I spent three years at Pinecrest Bible Training Center in Salisbury Center, NY back in the early 90s. It was a very special place where the presence of the Lord rested continuously—an open Heaven that had been cultivated from years of welcoming the presence of the Lord in every area of the campus. There was a special habitation of His presence there—a resting place for the Lord.

Wade Taylor was the founder of the school and took a special interest in me as a student. I remained under his guidance until he passed away in 2012. He was a true spiritual father.

Wade carried a special presence of the Lord and taught, by example, the importance of waiting on the Lord's manifest presence for those sweet encounters. He spent much time living out this principle of waiting on the Lord in the secret place. Many of his fellow teachers followed his example. I knew teachers that prayed for five hours before they even entered the classroom. As they walked in to greet the students, there was glory and presence that entered with them. Many classes were so moved upon by the Holy Spirit that all we could do as students was sit there in sweet solace drinking deeply of His well that never ran dry, weeping and seeking the Lord.

It was through Walter Beuttler that Wade Taylor first experienced the Lord's manifest presence. He would often tell stories of his encounters with the Lord and how the Lord had revealed Himself to him in powerful ways. These stories served as a testimony of the Lord's abiding presence and His desire to be close to His children. They also provoked us to seek the Lord for ourselves, that we might also experience His manifest presence.

It was because of Walter Beuttler that Wade Taylor began his journey of cultivating a personal, experiential knowledge of the Lord. Through both of their examples, we were able to see that it is possible to have an intimate relationship with the Lord and that He is always present with us. Because of this, we are eternally grateful for Wade Taylor and Walter Beuttler and their impact in our lives.

Hattie Philletta Hammond was another one of the Lord's remarkably anointed servants. Hattie was born in Williamsport, Maryland, in 1907, and ended up becoming one of the most powerful speakers in the Pentecostal movement by the 1930s. Her message inspired total abandonment and consecration to God. She had something special and rare, and it was evident as she shared from the pulpits around the world. Even as she called out the name of Jesus in her meetings, a beautiful presence was released. Often in her meetings, the scent of roses could be smelled.

Special messengers of God always have an air of mystery about them. They have a presence that is different from other people. When you are around them, you can feel the Lord's presence more strongly. People are drawn to them, even if they don't know why. These people have a special anointing on their lives. The Lord uses them in powerful ways to reach people who are straying too far away from Him.

I have been privileged to know some of these special messengers throughout different stages of my life. I have seen, firsthand, the Lord use them in amazing ways. I have seen people burst into tears as they enter the room from the overflow of glory cultivated in the secret place. I am so thankful for the impact that these special messengers have had on my life and the lives of so many others.

When you carry the holy presence of the Bridegroom Jesus, you have the ability to change the atmosphere of any room you walk into. His sweet anointing breaks through the heaviness of this world and brings hope, joy and love.

As His Bride, we are called to be a light in the darkness and a carrier of His manifest presence. When His presence is manifested through us, the Lord has the power to transform lives and set captives free. It's not about us but about Him being glorified through us. As we yield our lives to Him, He fills us with His Spirit and equips us to do the impossible.

Let us walk in confidence, knowing that we are not alone but that He goes before us, behind us and all around us. We are never without His presence!

23 Mar Cheshvan (137 BCE) – Hasmonean holiday commemorating the removal from the Holy Temple of altar stones which were defiled by the Greeks

"LET THE DEAD THINGS GO AND FALL INTO ME!"
TYLER MEDINA, LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

"FALL, FALL, FALL, FALL!" These are the words God spoke to me the other morning as I was leaving my house. As I walked to my car, I noticed dead leaves that had fallen from trees beginning to cover the ground. God said, "This is the season of FALL. I've called My Body to be trees of righteousness, and in this season, I am going to shake every dead leaf and branch off the tree."

I believe, by the spirit of God, that 2023 will be a monumental shift for many in the Body of Christ. It will be a year of overtaking and overthrowing; it will be a year of restoration; it will be a year of divine alignments and assignments; it will be the year that God supernaturally positions many of you in the places where you have been called.

He is aligning fathers to sons and sons to fathers. He is raising up an army of troops who are going to storm Hell and destroy the kingdom of darkness. But God spoke to me and said that before we reach this place, we must endure the season of FALL! He said, "This is the season where the things contrary to My heart and purpose for you are going to die and FALL to the ground. This is the season when you are going to FALL into the deeper dimensions of My glory and deeper in love with My heart. This is a season of cultivation, pruning and fine-tuning for the days ahead. This will be a season when you begin to feel the pieces of your life FALL together.

"If you embrace what I am doing you will not FALL short! For I am doing a new thing, and when you embrace it, you will rise on wings like eagles, soaring into the next dimension of what I have for you. Cling to Me, My beloved, and any last parts of your heart that you know need to be surrendered to Me... let them FALL dead as you FALL into Me! There is a beauty that comes from letting the dead things FALL, so let them go!"

The Realm of the Impossible"

Rosangela Atte, Maple Ridge, BC, Canada

In the early morning of October 1, 2022, I went into a vision. I saw myself standing, and behind me stood an angel. I was looking at the scene from the outside in, as if watching a movie. As I performed my daily activities in the vision, I was completely unaware of his presence, but he was completely concentrated on my every move and every word that came out of my mouth.

As I watched, I had the knowledge that this angel had been there to aid me, guide me, act on my behalf and work with me, but I knew his time with me had come to an end. All of a sudden, another angel that looked different than the first one came into the scene and stood behind him.

The angel with me extended his right arm behind him as the new angel passed him a scroll. This was done the same manner as when a Track and Field athlete passes the baton to his teammate in a relay race. As soon as he had the scroll in his hand, the angel that was with me flew off faster than lightning!

A Changing of the Guard

As I watched this scene unfold, I asked the Lord, "Lord, what am I witnessing here?"

He said, "What you are seeing is a changing of the guard. The angel that was with you was assigned to you in the last season to help you accomplish your past assignment and has now been assigned to someone else.

"As you step into this new season of upgrade, you will need angelic reinforcements of higher rank to assist you in your new, weighty assignment. This assignment carries more revelation, more responsibility, more authority and more influence; but it will also require more faith, more obedience, more trust and more consecration from you to see it fulfilled.

The knowledge you need to fulfill your new assignment is contained in the scroll that each one of My angels is given when dispatched to a new post.

The Realm of the Impossible

"The ANGEL OF IMPOSSIBILITY is a type of angel that will assist you in accessing the realm of the IMPOSSIBLE – a dimension that is only accessed by completely letting go... You need to let go of the past, the present and what you think the future will look like, because what I am about to do through you and with you has never been seen before. This is the knowledge that has been sealed and stored for such a time as this.

"There is so much knowledge, assistance and power at your disposal, but you need to activate it by speaking and acting according to My will. If you dwell in My presence, My desires become your desires, and when you dwell in Me, and My words dwell in you, you may ask whatever you wish and it will be done for you.

"You see, we all work together. You dwell in Me; My words dwell in you, and when you speak them out, My angels hearken to My words and they carry them out. But if you speak something that is contrary to My words, they cannot carry it out, because they are created to listen and respond to the word of God!

"I am calling you to THE REALM OF THE IMPOSSIBLE, where the things you speak materialize before your eyes, because you speak MY WORD by which everything was created – where your imagination and dreams have no limits!

"Shed your carnal mind; become like a child again! Learn to live from your heavenly seat at the right hand of Jesus and you will be part of the greatest move of My Spirit the earth has ever experienced!"

What an incredible reality to know that we can cooperate with the angels assigned to us to accomplish the will of God on the earth! I don't know about you, but I don't want to miss any opportunity to work with Heaven – to see miracles, signs and wonders displayed on the earth by being obedient!

The Manifestation of the Sons of God

We are the whole of creation is groaning for the manifestation of the sons of God! the sons of God! We have the power and authority to manifest the impossible by speaking His words! May we fully walk into our identity and destiny in Him every day of our earthly lives, as we partner with Heaven to bring Heaven's reality to Earth!

Daniel 12:3-4 (AMP): "Those who are [spiritually] wise will shine brightly like the brightness of the expanse of Heaven, and those who lead many to righteousness, [will shine] like the stars forever and ever. But as for you, Daniel, conceal these words and seal up the scroll until the end of time. Many will go back and forth and search anxiously [through the scroll], and knowledge [of the purpose of God as revealed by His prophets] will [greatly] increase."

John 1:1-5 (NKJV): "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it."

Hebrews 1:13-14 (NLT): "And God never said to any of the angels, 'Sit in the place of honor at My right hand until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.' Therefore, angels are only servants—spirits sent to care for people who will inherit salvation."

Psalms 103:20-21 (AMP): "Bless the LORD, you His angels, you mighty ones who do His commandments, obeying the voice of His word! Bless the LORD, all you His hosts, you who serve Him and do His will."

Atmosphere Will Change as You Declare God's Goodness"

Helen Calder, Melbourne, Australia

Have you ever considered that one of the most powerful declarations you can make, is very simple?

The Lord is good, and His mercy endures forever! (see Ps. 136:1)

I believe the Lord is emphasizing this word again as a glorious battle cry through His people! If you can relate to feeling a restriction in the atmosphere, or melancholy, this word of encouragement is for you.

For the atmosphere of the Kingdom is "righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit" (see Rom. 14:17), and you are about to breathe freely of Heaven's fresh air again.

A Battle Cry That Helped Win an Impossible War

A "battle cry" is a call or shout that rallies an army—one that can precipitate an advance! For example:

- When Joshua led the Israelite army against Jericho, their battle cry was one final shout of victory (see Josh. 6:20).
- Later, when Gideon led his small band against the Midianites, this was their cry: "The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon!" (Judg. 7:20).

Then, there was the unusual case of King Jehoshaphat of Judah. He sent a choir ahead of the army singing, "Praise the LORD, for His mercy endures forever," (see 2 Chron. 20:21).

Judah didn't have to engage in that battle, even though the odds were against them! As God moved, their enemies turned against each other.

The Cloud of Glory Followed

God's goodness and His mercy come together in this power-packed statement. And it's one that you can declare: The Lord is good, and His mercy endures forever (see Ps. 136:1)!

This is the declaration of praise that preceded the cloud of God's glory filling the temple. As the Lord's weighty presence filled the room, the priests could not stand to minister (see 2 Chron. 5:13-14). It's also the cry of the psalmist in the face of warfare (see Ps. 118).

Know That God Is Good "All the Time"!

The enemy wants you to doubt the goodness of God in your circumstances. Yet, in the face of the storm and the greatest of threats, you can proclaim, "My God is good, and He is full of mercy toward me." And you will know that God's goodness is not dependent upon people, feelings or circumstances, for "good" are your Father's identity—it's who He is!

When Moses asked God, "Show me Your glory," God said, "I will make all of My goodness pass before you" (see Ex. 33:18-19).

Knowing God's Goodness Brings Security

Today, receive healing to your heart and mind as you contemplate His kindness. For God's goodness and kindness are unstoppable! There is never any time, or any moment, when He's not good and kind. You can rest secure in God's goodness, for He never changes and is always good. Your Father is always kind and He is watching over you.

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd" (see John 10:11). This truth is your assurance, your security and the rock that you stand on: The Lord is good, and His mercy endures forever!* (see Ps. 136:1).

Declaring God's Goodness!

The story of how King Jehoshaphat trusted the prophet's word and sent the choir before the army encourages us today, knowing that:

- in the face of pressure—in the face of obstacles—you have a simple declaration of praise at hand
- you may speak this confession quietly, yet it's a lion-like roar in the spiritual realm
- a word of truth silences demonic whispers; it dispels dark messages with a breath of life

I praise You, My God. For You are good and Your mercy endures forever!

His Goodness and Mercy Are in Your Future!

His goodness is active right now, in your present! For His Spirit is within you, along with all His fruit of kindness and goodness (see Gal. 5:22).

These words of David are a battle cry for someone today: "Yet I am confident I will see the LORD'S goodness while I am here in the land of the living..." (Ps. 27:13).

Secure in Christ, God's goodness is in your future—both in this lifetime and in eternity. Throughout all your life, God's goodness and mercy will be like a mighty river, and you will be swept up in its current (see Ps. 23:6).

A Practice of Blessing

Maybe it's time to pray through your home, workplace or any areas where there has been a specific challenge, especially if the atmosphere has been affected either long-term or recently.

Declare the goodness and mercy of God and see, by faith, the enemy fleeing! Thank God for redeeming what has gone before and speak a prophetic word of blessing, in Jesus' name. A fresh wind of worship is here.

To those building legacy right now over building empires

Few will recognize or see what you are building because it's an underground mission. It's call to build low and slow while the rest of the ministry world is building fast and publicly.

It's a calling that takes place behind the stage and often doesn't look glamorous. It's the call to build the family over the organization. It's moving away from the hustle and building what is organic and homegrown. It's the call to establish deep roots that extend beyond your lifetime and building a future for the generations to come.

It's a call to address generational strongholds, cycles, and injustices and break bloodlines and establish healthy ones. It's the call to set new foundations and prioritize health and wholeness over public image and reputation.

It's the call to reverse the messes of the institution that built empires at the cost of leaving orphans in its wake.

It's the call to forfeit the plans and goals that produce immediate results for the building and pioneering of what takes many years to show above the surface. And many are in the tension of this call because they no longer feel the pull of the conference circuit or the appetite for the lifestyle they once valued. It feels in many ways like you are going in reverse or have lost your favor, but this couldn't be further from the truth.

The father has thrown his mantle around your shoulders, and you have begun to burn the old plow and begin this new path.

If this is you then you need to know today that you are not lazy, rebellious, in error, or strange for feeling this call - this is the call of mothers and fathers to establish the FAMILY, set the table, and call in the lonely and lost.

This is the call to raise up your family well, pioneer even healthier marriages, discover Gods design in covenant relationships and house of acts community, as well as raise up a generation that know how to represent the kingdom well.

In a time where the anti-family culture of the world has begun to invade the church God has called many to the frontlines to REBUILD & RESET the definitions and design of Gods house so we can be a force to be reckoned with.

So, keep going! Keep building! Keep forging forward on the unpopular path!

27 Mar Cheshvan (circa 2104 BCE) – Great Flood ends (Genesis 8:14)

RESCUE: By Michael Shuttlesworth

Have you ever called out to GOD for help?

Have you ever felt hopeless, abandoned, unworthy, unloved or so desperate that you felt there was no help or answer?

Do you feel that way now?

Psalm 91:14-15

"Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. He will call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him.

There has been a moment in my life where I truly felt that way, when it seemed that my world was crashing in around me and it brought me to my knees. If you have ever felt that way or even feel that way now, there is hope! Yes, hope in the Lord. I don't really want to go into the details of that moment in time, but suffice it to say, that to me I felt alone and abandoned. Yes, I knew the Lord and knew that he loved me, but being human and vulnerable at that time, Satan took the advantage and made me to feel desperate and hopeless.

I was not strong enough during this time to recognize the evil attack on my faith, and in this moment, I lost hope and felt despair. Hopefully, you have never had this happen to you, but for those of you who have gone through this or knew someone who has, then I know that you understand. It wasn't until later in life that I finally realized that GOD is always with me. He told me that there was never a moment you were forgotten, though you felt broken, or your innocence was stolen, I heard your whisper for help, I heard your SOS and I sent out an Army to find you in the darkest of moments... I will Rescue you!

Psalm 34:19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all.

I remember watching a movie where this woman was brought into prostitution at an early age. Her mother died and she felt alone and became hardened, she accepted her fate as a means of survival. She knew the Lord when she was little but experienced so much evil that her heart became like a trap and forgot what true love really was. One day she met a young man, who fell smitten with her. Since he lived alone on a farm, he wanted to have a family and asked GOD to bring him the right woman. When he found out that she was a prostitute, he did not run but simply said, Lord you sure have a sense of humor!

He spent much of his savings, to spend time with her, simply to talk and get to know her. She thought he was crazy, and why would he want to marry her? She pushed him away constantly, knowing that she would never know true love. The story goes on and finally he wins, and she marries him, but she could not give him children, because of her past. So, she runs away, so that he could find a nice woman who could give him a family. But he never gave up on her and hoped GOD would bring her back.

In the end of the movie, she finally reached out to GOD to help Rescue her from her past and her captor. GOD answered her prayer in her darkest moment, brought her back to the man who loved her and gave her children! You see, GOD is always with us and hears our call for help no matter how bad the situation seems.

"You are the voice that calms the storm inside me, you are the castle walls that stand around me, all this time my guardian was you. You are the light that shines in every tunnel, there in the past you will be there tomorrow, all my life your love was breaking through. It's always been You!

Who stood with me in the fire, it was you, it was always you. Who pulled me out of the water and who carried me on their shoulders, it was always You!"

The words to this song, have always moved me and helped to remind me that GOD has always been that invisible force that kept me going. GOD was always there to pull me up, to carry me when I thought I could not go on! This fallen world seems to be getting worse, and we are all watching it crumble around us. A world where good is evil and evil is good, a world filled with evil and despair, it is so easy for us to see nothing but hopelessness.

But GOD wants us to know that we are never alone, he will send out his Army to find you and Rescue you and all we need to do is ask!

In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I cried for help. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry to him reached his ears. Psalm 18:6

My word of encouragement to you, is know that GOD is not deaf or uncaring, he see's and knows all that we are going through in life. No matter how dark and foreboding your situation appears, our savior is right there behind you, ready to pick you up or send out his Army to protect you from all your enemies. The power and majesty of GOD is shown through his love and grace, never underestimate what he can do and all you have to do ask.

May GOD be with you and protect you. AMEN

Dreaming with God

Without question, God is the most misunderstood person that has ever existed. Since the destiny of anything is inseparably linked to its creator, we can never fully accomplish our purpose until we understand the heart and motive of our Creator. I want us to look at this for the next few days, doing so in the context of God's dreaming heart, and our dreaming nature.

You may not be aware of it, but you have a dreaming nature. I'm not speaking of night dreams and visions; I'm referring to desires, plans, hopes, and dreams regarding your future. You inherited this part of your nature from your Creator and heavenly Father. God is a dreamer, and He created us in His image and likeness so our hearts could relate to His, and in order for His dreaming heart to have millions of expressions. You were designed to dream, and you must dream - both for yourself and for God. If you don't dream, He can't experience all of His dreams and you'll never achieve the destiny He planned for you.

A life without dreams is like a GPS without a satellite. The GPS might operate, but it would lead you nowhere. That's a horrible destination! Without God-given dreams to guide you, you will travel life's highway, searching for a destination you'll never find. Divinely inspired dreams, on the other hand, will guide you to the destiny He intended for you.

Your Designer dreamed dreams for you before you were even born, then skillfully wove them into your DNA as you were created, along with the ability to find and fulfill them. If you don't discover God's dreams for you, you'll either waste your life running in the wrong races and crossing wrong finish lines or, like many people, having no finish line at all. Other individuals stop running altogether, wandering through life as though it were a maze, hoping they will stumble upon the right exit. What a tragedy. Your Creator doesn't intend for life to be a roll of the dice. You CAN find His plans and dreams for you and pursue them with confidence.

I want to help you through this series. The inspiration for it began twelve years ago on a personal retreat, as did a new phase of my own dream quest. The Lord used several things to launch me into this new season: prayer, His Word, a song, the right setting, and a movie. Yep, a movie.

The Ultimate Gift is one of my favorite movies. It's the story of Red Stevens, an older and extremely wealthy businessman who had contracted a terminal disease and was trying to decide where to leave his billions. It seemed his children were money-hungry, self-indulgent, and irresponsible, as were his grandchildren.

All but one.

Jason seemed like all the rest, but Red had seen something else in him, buried under the outer layer of pain, laziness, and his party-driven lifestyle. Red knew that under this stained veneer was great strength and noble character, so he decided to leave his fortune to Jason - IF he passed a series of tests, which Red would present personally and posthumously by video. These tests would be difficult and time-consuming, some of them lasting for weeks. Jason would only learn of the next challenge after successfully completing the previous one.

At first, Jason resisted - the old man's money could go to charity - he wasn't going to play the game. But after much thought, he decided to give it a try, just to get the money. What he didn't know was that each challenge was designed not only as a test, but as a character builder and teaching tool. Red called them "gifts, a series of gifts."

Throughout the movie, it is fascinating to watch the transformation in Jason. He learns the value of hard work, loyalty, giving, family, and several more essential qualities needed for a successful and responsible life. Toward the end, he sits down to see the next video, giving him still another assignment. Grandpa, though now gone, knew when making the videos that if at this point they were still being shown to Jason by his wise and discerning business partner, Jason had passed the previous tests and could be trusted with wealth.

Almost.

When this next video begins, Red says, "It's time for you to learn to dream, Jason." Like the character in the movie, I was riveted to the television. What a concept, the test of dreaming. Jason was given a very large sum of money, though it was actually a small portion of the inheritance and told to do anything he wanted with it. And just in case you decide to watch the movie, that's where I'll stop.

The timing of watching this movie - I had taken it with me on a personal retreat - was perfect. I was in a season of reflection, analyzing the past and considering the future. As part of this process, I planned a week alone to think and pray. The place Ceci found for this was more than perfect. The altar and cross out back reminded me of Moriah, a special place of dreaming mentioned in Scripture (Genesis 22).

Perhaps you aren't aware of Moriah and its rich biblical history. It is the mountain where Abraham took Isaac to offer him as a sacrifice. God stopped him, of course. He had only wanted to test Abraham's obedience and paint a picture of Himself offering His Son on the Cross centuries later. Moriah was the actual place where this would occur! There, on that momentous mountain, Abraham and God dreamed together. Abraham dreamed of the day he would have so many descendants they would become a great nation. God dreamed of the day He would recapture His dream of family. But I'm getting way ahead of myself.

As the week progressed, I found myself being drawn into a thoughtful analysis of my life. What had I accomplished? Which of these accomplishments were truly worth the time and effort? How many would stand the test of eternity? As painful as some of it was, I was trying to be brutally and utterly honest. What dreams had I pursued under the banner of "for the Lord," when my heart had deceived me, and they had actually been "for me"? Many dreams passed the test, some failed. It was painful, but good.

Finally, on that life-changing day several years back, Holy Spirit shifted my focus from the past to the future. He began speaking to me about dreaming, just as Red did to Jason. "What are your dreams for the future?" He asked, pulling my innermost thoughts from my heart to my conscious mind.

I thought. I journaled. Hopefully, with a little more clarity of heart and a few decades of added perspective, I dreamed with greater depth and less selfish ambition than I had in my younger years. Over the past four decades, climbing the ladder of success had gradually been replaced by plumbing the depths of His heart. Accomplishments were now measured more by heaven's approval than earth's applause, making a name had given way to making a difference. At least I hoped so.

Eventually, the Lord steered the conversation in a direction that caught me completely off guard. "Now, I'd like to dream a little," I heard Him say. "Would you like to hear some of My dreams?" I listened and I wept. God was trusting me with His dreaming heart. That day remains one of the most holy of my life. I built an altar of remembrance that day - not one made of rocks and mortar, this altar was in my heart.

My goal for this series of posts is that you, too, connect with the dreaming heart of God. If I can enlist you in His dream program by connecting you to His dreaming heart, you'll never again be satisfied with the subnormal existence of a nondreamer, or the self-limiting, mundane life of an earthbound one. You were created to dream with God, and doing so in partnership with Him is one of Yahweh's greatest gifts to us.

Pray with me:

Father, help us to understand Your heart as a father and friend, not just as the all-powerful God. Raise up a generation of dreamers who will dare to dream with You. Show and impart to us Your heart for the lost, the hurting, the lonely, and the deceived.

Help us to break out of earth-level dreams only, and break into heavenly dreams, eternal dreams. Deliver us from shallow thinking and selfish ambition. Release passion for the saving of nations. Grip individuals with Your heart for the young, the old, the poor, and the rich.

Help us to see revival - not as an event or series of events - but as heaven's response to Your great passion. It is love's response to earth's need, a father's heart to a prodigal earth. GIVE US YOUR PASSIONATE HEART TO HEAL AND SAVE! In Christ's name, we ask You to do this, Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that we will dream with God, and because of this, a portion of our dreaming will be eternal in nature.

THE SUDDENLY OF ALL SUDDENLIES!
JO ELLEN STEVENS, CONNERSVILLE, IN Prophetic word received October 9, 2022:

"I will send My messenger, who will prepare the way before Me. Then SUDDENLY the Lord you are seeking will come to His temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come," says the Lord Almighty.
(Malachi 3:1, emphasis mine)
For days, the Lord has been saying to me, "YOU ARE ENTERING INTO THE TIME OF THE SUDDENLIES!"

He showed me how WWII was six years long, but suddenly it was over, and America was at peace and had peace for many years! It was suddenly a time of innocence and prosperity. He showed the Israelites in bondage for four hundred years and suddenly He raised up Moses and brought them out of bondage! Then He showed me David and his reign of warfare, which was necessary, but He would not allow him to build the temple; but suddenly Solomon was king, and it ushered in a new day of peace!

I hear the Lord saying:

"There is a time of suddenly coming to your country, your families and your churches, that you will say, 'It was like this one day, BUT SUDDENLY IT IS LIKE THIS!' A mark in time, an event or events that will thrust My people into the suddenlies that they have not yet known!"

"Eye has not seen nor ear heard the things that I am preparing for those that have waited on Me! I SAY TO YOU, YOUR WARFARE SHALL SUDDENLY BE ACCOMPLISHED AND YOU WILL ENTER INTO A TIME OF PEACE, BUT NOT YET, BUT SOON AND SUDDENLY."

"Listen, My dear ones, you have never ever been this way before, neither in your personal lives nor in your country! Say to the righteous that it shall be well with them, for they have waited for Me! Say to the righteous that I will restore, suddenly, the fortunes of My people and say to them that, like Israel when they came out of Egypt, there will not be any feeble among them!"

"There is a suddenly coming that is the suddenly of all suddenlies! For I am about to show the world that I am God! And this SUDDENLY will bring about revolution, revelation, and restoration to the whole earth!" says the Spirit who is able to accomplish all of this.

Childlike Faith and Treasures of the Deep"

Wanda Alger, Winchester, VA

On a recent day, I was struggling to maintain my focus and attention on the things at hand. Though I take my responsibilities seriously, and deeply care about the people I reach, there is something else that always tugs on my spirit. It is that unseen realm where I know all truth, goodness, purity, and freedom reside. It is that realm of the Spirit where there is absolute peace and total victory over the darkness.

I think about the many others who feel the same battle in finding some equilibrium in these challenging times. Being assaulted on a daily basis with conflicting reports and so many unknowns, something inside of us just longs to be free from it all. I begin to wonder if the struggle is as real as it feels, or merely an exaggeration of my own unsettled thoughts.

You Don't Come from Here

As I sit at my desk and contemplate these things, out of nowhere I hear a voice:
"YOU DON'T COME FROM HERE."

He speaks right in my ear, as if He had just walked in the room, and stands directly behind me, crouching down to be sure I hear Him. It is not a rebuke or correction but an affirmation of what my spirit has already been telling me: We don't come from "here." We've been created for something much higher and much grander.

As I ponder His words, something stirs inside of me. A deep longing begins to rise up and I am suddenly taken back to my very first memory of meeting the One who has just spoken:

I was lying on the grass on a beautiful summer day as a six-year-old child, looking up at the sweeping blue sky and the billowing clouds, and immediately KNEW I had come from "there." I felt so close to that unseen realm, I could almost touch it. I somehow knew that was where I came from and that's where I belonged. The One who created this broad expanse had also created me – and we were intricately knit together. I felt so close to that reality, I could almost wrap myself in the clouds as a blanket. It was so otherworldly and yet, strangely, it felt like home. Little did I comprehend at that moment how that day would mark me.

"For ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see His invisible qualities – His eternal power and divine nature..." (Romans 1:20 NLT)

As I continue to sit at my desk, reflecting on what I have just heard, the Lord and I begin an inward conversation. I see the battles before us and the dark forces that are determined to keep us Earth-bound. Though my spirit longs to be free and soar above it all, the enemy has been relentless in pulling us down to his level, keeping us fixated on that which we cannot control. Distracting us with the lesser things, he hopes to blind us to the higher things.

The Lord continues to speak to my spirit about His plan concerning these warring realities and His purpose for us who believe. The more He speaks, the more my spirit grows in the comprehension of His words and tears of relief begin to flow. I am once again reconnected to the Source of my hope and longings, and a clarity of purpose begins to emerge. The longer He lingers, the greater my desire is to live from THIS reality of absolute freedom and liberation of soul and spirit. All of the earthly arguments and debates that have been raised against His unseen Kingdom seem to melt in this simple yet profound knowledge of His creative design.

The Child Within Holds the Key

And then...at some point in this intimate conversation, I suddenly realize who He has been speaking to. He has not been speaking to the adult at the desk – my "mature" and grown-up self that has gained a semblance of understanding through years of trials and testing. No. He has been speaking to that child within. Somehow, He reached right into my spirit and drew out that six-year-old girl and reminded her of those first moments of revelation and pure faith in Him. Those moments when all became possible, and nothing was greater than His overriding presence and power. He reminds me of the child within that holds the key to apprehending the treasures of His Kingdom.

"At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, 'Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?' And calling to Him a child, He put him in the midst of them and said, 'Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.'" (Matthew 18:1-4 ESV)

I now realize the message He is sending – not just to me but to all who have been yearning for deliverance from this counterfeit matrix. To all who have been praying for freedom from Leviathan's pride and control on the earth, God is showing us His secret weapon. It is a simple childlike faith that can overcome the world.

Eternity was planted in our hearts from the moment we were conceived (Ecclesiastes 3:11), and this absolute assurance of His preeminence over all of creation lies hidden in each one of us; and it has great power over the serpent from the deep.

"The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them... The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's

den. They shall not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea." (Isaiah 11:6, 8-9 ESV)

This passage is not just a picture of a world at peace, but the power of one who knows their God. It is not those considered smart or strong by human standards that have the winning edge in this battle for truth. It is those with a childlike faith who have never stop pursuing the wonder and awe of all that is unseen; who dare to believe that the impossible can still happen.

A child doesn't have to try and believe. They simply believe. Those who possess this quality cannot be poisoned by the unbelief of the disappointed or the cynicism of the deceived. They bypass the arguments and disregard the doubts because they've been captured by an eternal reality that outlasts them all. They've met their Creator, and they absolutely trust Him.

Childlike Faith and Treasures of the Deep

It is this childlike faith that the Father is calling up; a calling to remember those first moments when we KNEW that He alone was God; a calling to embrace that revelation of His greatness and dare to believe in His absolute goodness even in the face of the most hideous evil. Where the adult in the room questions and debates, the child simply runs into place. It is this unshakable trust in our Master Creator that can nullify the spirits of control and destroy the deceptive lies. The king of pride has no choice but to bow in the presence of such pure and simple faith.

There are treasures of the deep that the Lord wants to give us – hidden truths, incredible revelations, and untold provision for the days ahead. It is the joy of His heart to share the abundance of His Kingdom and reveal the fullness of His glory to all who simply believe.

The only secret in this journey is to understand what is already inside of you. The secret to unlocking the treasures of His Kingdom is to enter in as a child.

IN CONCLUSION

Please go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Republic Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors. Please see their webpages and post on Elijahlist.com.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Brian Kooiman, Norma Urrabazo, Chuck Pierce, Jamie Spears, Mark Waldrep, Barbara Wentroble, Lisa Lyons, Pasqual Urrabazo, Susan Shaulis, Eleanor Roehl, Inspiration Ministries, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Roger Waters, John Belt, Katie Dunston, Roma Waterman, Andrew Towe, Rebekah Hudson, Kathi Pelton, Steve Porter, Tyler Medina, Rosangela Atte, Nelsen Calder, Michael Shuttlesworth, Jo Ellen, Wanda Alger, Veronika West, Bruce & Linda Dietler, Barry Wunsch, Dutch Sheets, Kat Kerr, Terry Friesen, Demontae Edmonds, Nate & Christy Johnston, April Klaassen Brown, Sharon Kaseweter, Lana Vawser, James Nesbit, Bible Gateway, John & Janet Rockwell, Wade & Frances Butler with additional quotes from sermons and the book "A Time To Advance" by Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler Plus "The Passover Prophecies" by Chuck Pierce.

Blessings and enjoy, Dr. Wade K. Butler, Chaplain

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, "Study to show yourself approved".

2 Timothy 2:15 Study and be eager and do your utmost to present yourself to God approved (tested by trial), a workman who has no cause to be ashamed, correctly analyzing and accurately dividing [rightly handling and skillfully teaching] the Word of Truth.

Why Fight for What Is Right?

If we want a stable society, a healthy economy, a happy populace and a secure country we better fight for what is right. Our Forefathers set the example, they stood up against the most powerful empire in the world and won a respite. Why do I say respite? Because the empire was not going to give up that easily. They would do it another way. They would send infiltrators to take control of the fledgling nation from within. The person with the best bird's eye view of this ongoing process was, in fact, George Washington who warned us about this in his last farewell address when he warned:

"Cunning, ambitious, and unprincipled men will be able to subvert the Power of the People and to usurp for themselves the reins of Government; destroying afterwards the very engines which have lifted them to unjust dominion. The spirit of encroachment tends to consolidate the powers of all departments in one, and thus to create whatever the form of government, a real despotism".

-- George Washington, Farewell Address, 1796

So, why did they fight for the concept of liberty? And, who planted this idea in their heads? Was it being taught from the pulpits of the American Colonies? And, if so, why is it no longer being taught from American Pulpits? Could it be that our "seminaries" were infiltrated by the same bad actors that President Washington warned us about above?

The short answer is Yes, our churches have been infiltrated to the degree that most every "Christian" is fed a constant stream of "don't get involved, because you can't make any difference anyway" or "let's focus on the church and evangelism, the rest will work its way out." Do you really think that that was the message being delivered to the pulpits of America in the early days? If you do, you would be badly mistaken. So why should the American People care about our government?

First of all, in this country, the People are supposed to govern themselves, unlike any other nation that ever existed. So, when someone quotes the verse¹ about obey those who have the rule over you (higher powers) and try to say to blindly obey them then they do not understand our form of government. We are supposed to be "self-governing." Does that mean we are free to promote lawlessness? The short answer is no, especially since the People, themselves formed a binding covenant with God Almighty when we appealed to heaven for help in establishing liberty upon this land via the Declaration of Independence.

In short, the American People made God the HIGHER POWER in this country, not any other entity; that includes our government. Our government officials are supposed to be the servants of the People, not the other way around.

Start getting involved. If you understand the implications of what I have just shared with you then you will begin to understand that it is not only your right to fix your own government, but also your duty.

As I have stated before, it was never the intent of the Founders for the American People to be governed by force instead of by the consent of the governed; But that is exactly where we find ourselves today. The American People find themselves surrounded by an unimaginable mountain of so-called laws and mandates that were not written for their benefit, but for the benefit of the oligarchs in control. The American People have lost confidence in the ability the current government's ability to govern lawfully and peacefully. It's past time to Implement the Northwest Ordinance to RESET America.

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers are ordained of God.
