

Biblical Month of "Nissan 5783", Chaplain Wade Butler

It is a good thing HE is here with us and is coming soon. I was telling Barry Wunsch last week that I have never seen the sons and daughters in such warfare. Accusations coming from saints' former friends attacking the sons and daughters of GOD without true provocation foundation in the word or the protocol of GOD. It is sad that the enemy uses Father's children to devour one another without fear or concern of the consequences of their actions.

So, look at the accusers and check their fruits in this season. Christ was accused falsely therefore look to HIM. He will bring it all to light. Wade Butler.

ELAINE TAVOLACCI, STATEN ISLAND, NY

"I am sending a fire to ministers who have laid down their lives and surrendered all for the Kingdom."

The other morning, the Holy Spirit showed me a dam breaking with a raging torrent of water gushing through. I understood what this spiritual metaphor represented. A dam is a barrier to obstruct the flow of water and is usually built across a stream or a river. Any body of water that is confined by a dam is restricted and unable to flow. The river of God has been obstructed and restrained from flowing freely, but the dam has been broken, and we are beginning to see the river of God flowing once again.

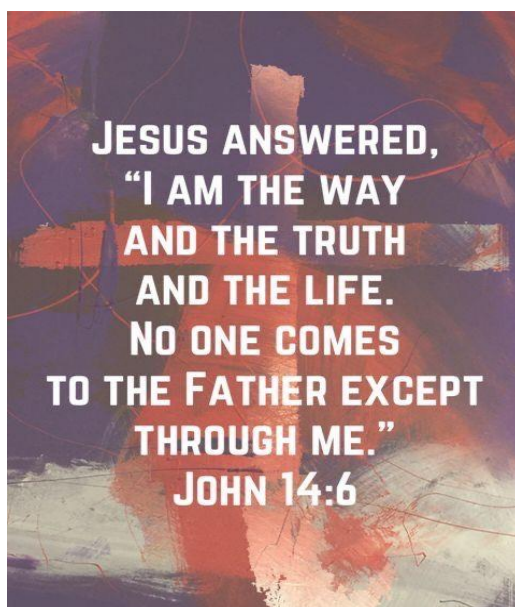

In 2 Samuel chapter 5, when David had become king of Israel, the Philistines heard of it and rose up against David. David asked the Lord, "Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hands?" The Lord replied, "Go, for I will surely deliver the Philistines into your hands" (see 2 Samuel 5:19). So, David went to Baal Perazim and defeated the Philistines. He then said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water." Therefore, he called the name of that place Baal Perazim, which means "Lord of the breaks" (see 2 Samuel 5:20)." 'God has broken in upon [parats: "to break through or down," "to burst out," "to breach"] my enemies by my hand like the breaking forth [perets: "breach," "gap," "bursting forth"] of waters.'

Therefore, they called the name of that place Baal Perazim." (1 Chronicles 14:11, emphasis added)

The Lord is sending a breakthrough to the Believers who persevered through tests and trials and stood their ground through it all. Rivers of living water are about to flow into your lives and ministries once again. The Holy Spirit is beginning to move in the dry places. It's the driest wood that ignites first. Yeshua is about to open rivers in desolate heights, and fountains in the midst of valleys. He will turn the desert into pools of water and the dry land into streams.

There is a breakthrough coming to the fivefold ministers. The Lord says, "I am sending a fire to ministers who have laid down their lives and surrendered all for the Kingdom. Through difficult times, they continued to count the cost and pay the price. They are those who will be set ablaze to go forth to fan the flames and stoke the fire in others. They won't allow anything to annihilate their zeal because they are strong in Me and will do exploits.

"The walls are breaking down, and the rivers are being released into the churches. There is a move of the Holy Spirit that won't be quenched in the days ahead. They will no longer be stagnant and dry but will experience a flow that they've never known before. Angelic activity is being released from the third Heaven that no man or demon can quench. Do not fear the days ahead but know that I am releasing My glory in a magnitude which no human or devil can stop," says the Lord of the breakthrough.
Psalms 107:35-36 (TPT): "But He also can turn a barren wilderness into an oasis with water! He can make springs flow into desert lands and turn them into fertile valleys so that cities spring up, and He gives it all to those who are hungry."

Chaplain Wade K. Butler, Nissan 5783: March 23, 2023 -May21, 2023

It is amazing how much Judaism has influenced our world. In every area we are influenced greatly. We may not always agree or appreciate the Hebrew people yet without the Hebrew people we would not have much of our scientific accomplishments, modern medicine, transportation, education, art, music, entertainment, government and even the latest signs of the times. Most importantly HIS WORD which never changes. Isaiah 61:4 (AMPC) ⁴ And they shall rebuild the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former desolations and renew the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.

This letter to those who are new at following the daily devotional and Calendar, I would like to share with you some of the reasoning of the publication and answer some questions that are posed to me each month. To begin with we follow the example of "One new man", Jew and Gentile following the Messiah. Because of that we relate the Hebrew calendar timelines because our father did not change the seasons, man did. We need to learn about our roots. So, join us.

Many people receive this who are not members of the Republic. President Trump talked about, and most will probably never become part of the "Patriot Movement" for many reasons, yet they are lovers of truth and followers of the LORD. After seeing what corruption and sick works the "demon"-cratic party have committed even liberals are stepping away because of the evil.

This month as always is packed full of; prophesy, sermons, art and background material that most people will never take the time to research on their own nor have the resources of input to obtain as much of the truth as can be found. Often it goes against the grain of conventional churches and denominations because we follow the Hebrew calendar and the prophetic. He never changed HIS timing, we did. I would rather follow HIM and know what I was adopted into. Sometimes authors are used multiple times because they are in what we call the "zone" of the Holy Spirit. In other words, they are hearing from the LORD!

Each month is packed with Revelation of what GOD is saying so; buckle up, hold on and take a journey with us, a day at a time. This month is about discerning, decreeing, declaring, and COMMANDING the WORD spoken!!!! Go boldly into the Gates with thanksgiving and into Courts with PRAISE! And above all hold on to His Promises!!

Nissan: The Month of Passover

This month shall mark for you the beginning of the months; it shall be the first of the months of the year for you. Exodus 12:2

The upcoming New Year begins this Thursday and is listed in the calendar as “New year for Kings Shekalim, Festivals, and Vows.” This title for the date is a reference to the description of the beginning of the month of Nissan in the Mishnah (oral law), which lists the first of Nissan as one of the four new years in the Jewish calendar.

The King’s Calendar tracks all the activities that took place in the First and Second Temples and which will be performed again when the Third Temple is built. This includes the Biblical feasts that are observed today, but the calendar also has many surprises, holidays and events that are only observed when a Temple stands in Jerusalem.

In 2018 the third temple calendar began representing the building of the Third Temple, not all of the holidays are biblical in origin. The holidays pertaining to the modern state of Israel such as Israel Independence Day and Memorial Day appear on the calendar, as does Jerusalem Day.

In Jewish history and tradition

1. 1 Nissan (3761 BC) – Creation of the World
2. 1 Nissan (1638 BC) – Death of Abraham
3. 1 Nissan (1533 BC) – Death of Isaac
4. 1 Nissan (1506 BC) – Death of Jacob
5. 7 Nissan (1416 BC) – Joshua sends two spies to Jericho.
6. 10 Nissan (1417 BCE) – Death of Miriam, 39 years after the Exodus.
7. 15 Nissan (1713 BC) – Birth of Isaac
8. 15 Nissan (1456 BC) – The Exodus from Egypt
9. 17 Nissan (24th century BC) – Noah's Ark came to rest on mountains of Ararat.
10. 19 Nissan Yeshua is Crucified
11. 21 Nissan (1456 BC) – The sea splits, allowing Israel to escape the Egyptian army.
12. 24 Nissan Yeshua has Risen
13. 26 Nissan (1386 BC) – Death of Joshua
14. 28 Nissan (1415 BC) – Conquest of Jericho by Joshua.

The month of Nissan

As the first month of the year, Nissan is particularly packed. The Pascal offering is supposed to be performed on the 14th of the month, along with the Fast of the First Born, which is still observed today on the day before Passover. The calendar also notes that the barley for the Omer offering is reaped on the evening of the last night of Passover.

Passover

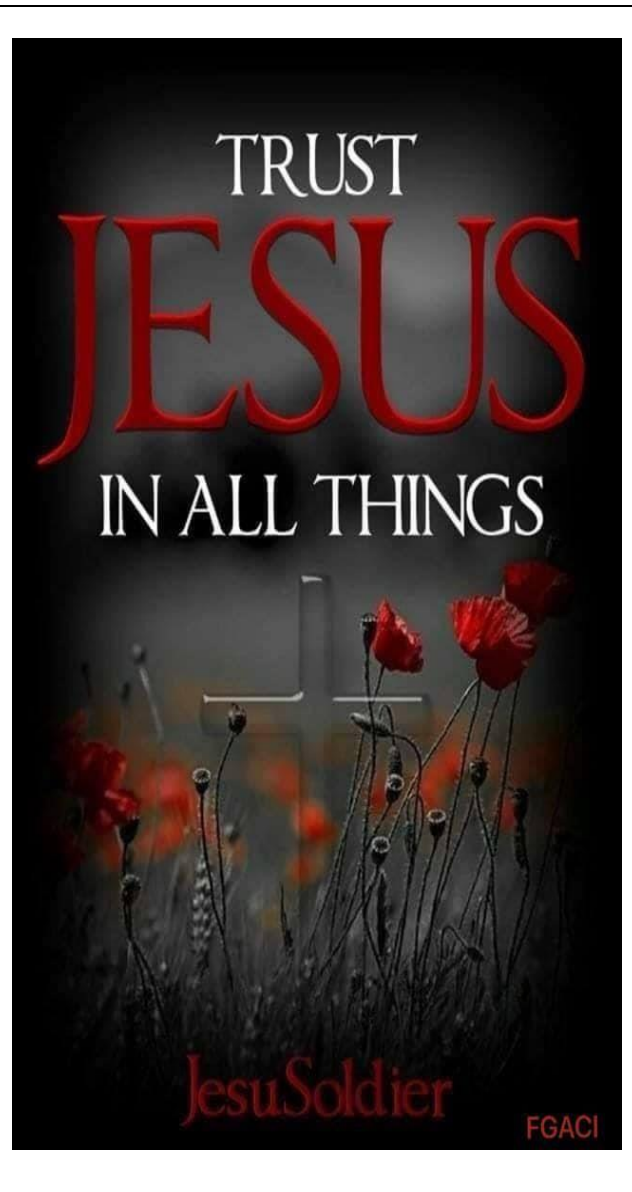

It is in this month that we celebrate the eight-day holiday of Passover, from the 15th through the 31th of Nissan. It commemorates the Jewish people's miraculous redemption from slavery in Egypt, and the birth of the Jewish nation.

We observe the anniversary of the Exodus each year by removing all leaven from our possession for this week, eating matzah and telling the story of the redemption to our children. By following the rituals of Passover, we have the ability to relive and experience the true spiritual freedom that our ancestors achieved.

It is mentioned in the Talmud that according to one tradition, the three patriarchs of the Jewish people—Abraham (1948–2123 from creation, 1813–1638 BCE), Isaac (2048–2228 from creation, 1713–1533 BCE) and Jacob (2108–2255 from creation, 1653–1506 BCE)—all were born and passed away in the month of Nissan.

Awakening from Above: The Month of Nissan and Passover

Nissan is called the Month of Miracles. On Pesach, Hashem displays transcendental miracles, and descends, so to speak, to take us out of our lowliness and slavery. This is called an 'awakening from above', for it is an unearned gift of kindness flowing down to us from Heaven. During the Seder, the joy of freedom that has been suppressed and hidden deep within us is released. As we sing Hallel, we reveal our joy and gratitude openly.

	This is the month of Passover. It is in this month that we celebrate the eight-day holiday of Passover, from the 15th through the 24th of April. It commemorates the Jewish people's miraculous redemption from slavery in Egypt, and the birth of the Jewish nation. "It is the month of redemption. In which we were redeemed from Egypt, Jacob received the blessings, Isaac was born and was tied up on the altar, it is the month we will be redeemed in, and it is the beginning of salvation." It is the time that the Lamb of GOD was offered as a onetime sacrifice for the sin of all man. "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16.
--	---

Sense of the Month: Speech

The 'sense' or faculty corresponding to Nissan is speech. Just as Hashem created the world with speech, so do we create our world, or at least our experience of the world, with speech. A slave is someone who has no voice, nor the power to create his or her reality. We can only experience freedom when we can refer to ourselves as free. The word Haggadah means 'telling.' During the Seder we speak at length about our Redemption from collective and personal 'slavery'. Thus, each year we receive the ability to proclaim our freedom on higher and higher levels.

It is called the time of "The New Year of Kings". Recognize what our KING did in HIS sacrifice on the cross as the LAMB of GOD that takes away the sins of the world.

The archetype of kingship, King David, is a descendant of Yehudah. Kingship also alludes to speech, for a king rules over his people through his words, which are received as commands: "for the word of the king is his rule." The Talmud says that Nissan initiates the "New Year of Kings". It is thus a new beginning for the power of leadership, for speech, and for expressing thanks. Because of the Redemption in this month, "it is our duty to thank, laud praise, glorify, exalt, adore, bless, elevate, and honor the One who did all these miracles for our ancestors and for us."

Time of the Year: Spring

Nissan is the first month of spring. When it arrives, something about the increasing light, the warmer air, and the sprouting vegetation, may enhance our feeling that life is a gift and a blessing. Deeper within this instinctual feeling is the recognition that life is given to us whether we 'deserve' it or not. This is a deep level of humility, and it brings forth a tremendous sense of gratitude. During the eight days of Pesach, as we eat matzah, the bread of humility, we should strive to internalize this idea. Life is a miraculous gift descending from above. It cannot be earned, only humbly received. According to one opinion, Nissan is when human life was created.

Tribe of the Month: Yehudah or Judah

Nissan is associated with the tribe of Judah, or Yehudah which means "praise" or 'to give thanks'. Judah would always be the first in battle or Judah goes first, therefore Nissan is Judah's month, the month of praise for what the LORD has done and is doing. It is the month of "Redemption and Miracles". As children of GOD, we need to give thanks for the Redemptive work of Calvary and our FATHER'S great love for you.

NISSAN-ABIB

FIRST MONTH
REDEMPTION

STONE:
BLUE TOPAZ

TRIBE
JUDAH

JUDAH MEANS PRAISE

THE MONTH OF THANKING GOD FOR DELIVERANCE

CHARACTERISTICS: REPENTANCE, REDEMPTION, AND BEGINNING OF MIRACLES

THE "FIRST OF MONTHS" OF THE HEBREW YEAR
AND OUR PASSOVER MONTH

CONSTELLATION: ARIES THE RAM (LAMB)
CELEBRATE THE PASSOVER LAMB AS HEAVEN AND EARTH CONNECT

BOOK OF JOHN

This Pesach season, may we experience the newness and freshness of life? May this year be a year of creativity and generosity and new beginnings! May we become leaders, humble and kind leaders, who 'skip over' the apparent ego in others. May the LORD bless us to witness the beginning of the miracle of all miracles, the Redemption of all humanity from all levels of slavery.

UNDERSTANDING THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE HEBREW MONTH OF NISSAN

Nissan is a month of redemption and the month of Passover. As we gain an understanding of God's timing, we learn to "redeem" time.

Say this: "My blessings are not going to pass me by because I do not know the timing of them."

We know what time it is! It is time for our faith to go to work and see redemption manifest. That unredeemed stuff is about to shift. Nissan is a month of deliverance, restoration, revolution. It is all appropriated into our lives BY FAITH. This is a month where we connect our faith to our speech.

There's the "catch." But it can be as simple as speaking our thankfulness to God for our deliverance before we see it. Saying then seeing.

- When I speak, my faith is heard.
- My words have the power to impact reality.
- The first words I speak in the morning set my day.
- My words have the capacity to bring change.

A man of God wrote a book I am reading about "Redeeming your Timeline." It falls into the category of redemptive when it has to do with our past, our destiny, our purpose or the purpose of a territory, business, ministry, etc. So, when we talk about redemptive prophesy in the month of redemption, we release faith in a cycle of redemption as in no other timeframe. Wow.

That's a realm of covenant blessing that we must become aware of and walk in. Knowing about this incredible timing issue with God puts us in position for His blessings to overtake us.

Yeshua did not die for us to live sick and tired, almost free, just getting by and unhappy. We can break out of that with knowing and applying faith to the principles found each month in God's calendar.

Passover goes from the 15th to the 24th of the Hebrew month Nissan, and this year, that translates to sunset on April 14th at sunset until sunset on April 24th, 2022. It is a celebration designed by God. It's given to increase our faith and prepare us to enter into the fullness of His blessing. When we remember God's work of redemption and declare the power of redemption in lives, something always happens. Put your faith on that something always happens.

Passover or Pesach commences on the evening of the 15th of the Hebrew month of Nissan. Note that in the Jewish calendar, a holiday begins on the sunset of the previous day, so observing Jews will celebrate Passover on the sunset Wednesday the 14th of April.

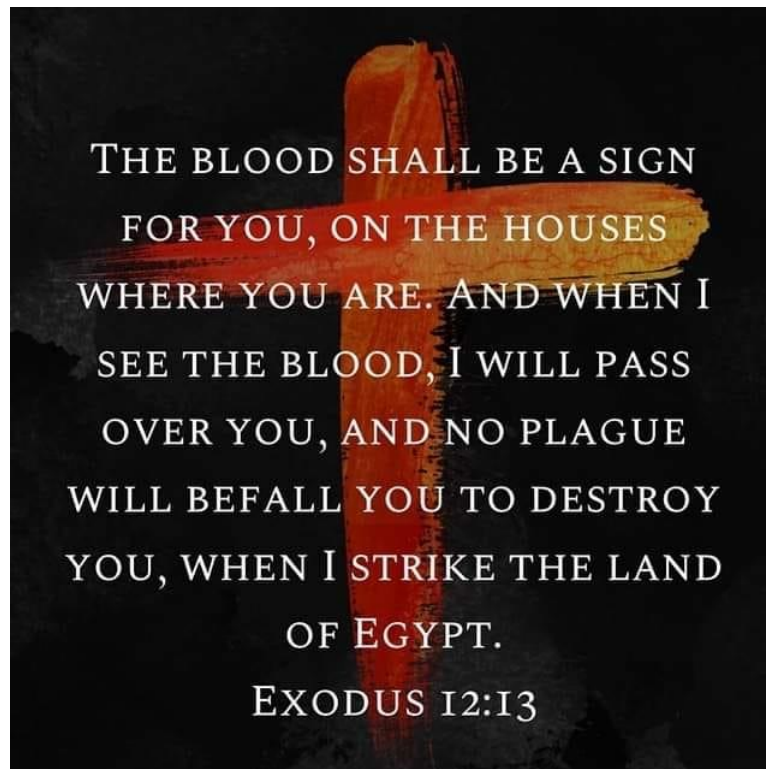

For those unfamiliar with the meaning behind the sacred holiday, Passover is a time to celebrate and honor the liberation of the Israelites from over 400 years of slavery in ancient Egypt. The Hebrew word Pasach means to jump or pass over, and the holiday's name originated from the Jewish miracle in which God passed over the house of the Israelites during the tenth plague, sparing their first born sons, according to My Jewish Learning. For the first two nights of Passover, families and friends gather to eat a special meal called a seder. As Rabbi Norman R. Patz explained to Reader's Digest, "The word 'seder' means order. The Passover meal is an ordered meal, which includes reading the haggadah, the text that tells the story of the Israelites exodus from Egypt."

In the narrative of the Exodus, the Bible tells that God helped the Children of Israel escape from their slavery in Egypt by inflicting ten plagues upon the ancient Egyptians before the Pharaoh would release his Israelite slaves; the tenth and worst of the plagues was the death of the Egyptian first-born.

The Israelites were instructed to mark the doorposts of their homes with the blood of a slaughtered spring lamb and, upon seeing this, the spirit of the Lord knew to pass over the first-born in these homes, hence the English name of the holiday.

When the Pharaoh freed the Israelites, it is said that they left in such a hurry that they could not wait for bread dough to rise (leaven). In commemoration, for the duration of Passover no leavened bread is eaten, for which reason Passover is called the feast of unleavened bread in the Torah. Thus matzo (flat unleavened bread) is eaten during Passover and it is a tradition of the holiday.

Called the "festival [of] the matzot" (Hebrew: חג המצות hag hamatzot) in the Hebrew Bible, the commandment to keep Passover is recorded in the Book of Leviticus:

In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month (April 8· 2020 this year) at dusk is the LORD's Passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD; seven days ye shall eat unleavened bread. In the first day ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work. And ye shall bring an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days; in the seventh day is a holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work. (Leviticus 23:5–8)

The biblical regulations for the observance of the festival require that all leavening be disposed of before the beginning of the 15th of Nissan an unblemished lamb, known as the Korban Pesach or "Paschal Lamb", is to be set apart on Nissan 10 and slaughtered at dusk as Nissan 14 ends in preparation for the 15th of Nissan when it will be eaten after being roasted. The literal meaning of the Hebrew is "between the two evenings". It is then to be eaten "that night", Nissan 15, roasted, without the removal of its internal organs with unleavened bread, known as matzo, and bitter herbs known as maror. Nothing of the sacrifice on which the sun rises by the morning of the 15th of Nissan may be eaten but must be burned. The sacrifices may be performed only in a specific place prescribed by God (for Judaism, Jerusalem, and for Samaritans, Mount Gerizim).

The biblical regulations pertaining to the original Passover, at the time of the Exodus only, also include how the meal was to be eaten: "with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD's Passover" Exodus 12:11.

The biblical requirements of slaying the Paschal lamb in the individual homes of the Hebrews and smearing the blood of the lamb on their doorways were celebrated in Egypt. However, once Israel was in the wilderness and the tabernacle was in operation, a change was made in those two original requirements (Deuteronomy 16:2–6). Passover lambs were to be sacrificed at the door of the tabernacle and no longer in the homes of the Jews. No longer, therefore, could blood be smeared on doorways.

The biblical commandments concerning the Passover (and the Feast of Unleavened Bread) stress the importance of remembering:

- And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt; and thou shalt observe and do these statutes" (Deuteronomy 16:12).
- Exodus 12:14 commands, in reference to God's sparing of the firstborn from the Tenth Plague: And this day shall be unto you for a memorial, and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever.
- Exodus 13:3 repeats the command to remember: Remember this day, in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, for by strength the hand of the LORD brought you out from this place.

Nissan 1, 5783: Thursday March 23, 2023

Rolling, Rising and Resurrecting!
*Taking Back Kingdom Authority!

A word from Monday, March 13, 2023

Dear Advancing Ones:

This is a week of movement! If we are going to press through into the new, then we need to roll away whatever the enemy is using to hold us down. Yesterday's Celebration Service was such an incredible time of rising up to manifest our Kingdom identity and authority. I knew the apostolic prophetic teaching gift of Isaac Pitre was key for a "resurrection" Sunday. The revelation he shared is setting an ascension course for Passover. If you were not able to enter into the worship and rise up into a heavenly perspective, I encourage you to watch the replay and declare, "I have been raised up, together with Yeshua!".

New From Isaac Pitre: Take Back Your Kingdom Authority!

Pick up your heavenly mantle with these kingdom keys to overthrowing the powers of darkness!

Rise Up with a New Authority!

This is a time to free yourself, so you gain access for the future. God is ready to bring us in so we can go to war again. As you meditate on this portion of revelation that was released in yesterday's Celebration Service, I declare you will rise in your Kingdom authority!

"You've been hiding out. You've been pulling away, but I know where you are, and I'm pulling you back in a new way. This is My time to pull you into place. Quit backing away and resisting; be pulled in and let Me put your piece inside the vision for the future. This is a time of placement.

"I will be burning the night fires this week. So, when you see Me nudge you, go to the night fire and gather toward Me and that will break the apathy that you have been in. I will call you to a night fire this week, for there will be a new dance that I put in you. You have pulled away and grown stiff, but when you come to the night fire, I will activate your dance in a new way.

"I Am re-forming My front line, and by Passover, I will know who goes through first and who leads the way. Come near to Me and let Me evaluate you these coming weeks. I need a front line to advance! You have anxiety in your heart about the troop that you're in and the ones causing trouble in your troop. Quit focusing on the ones in your troop causing trouble and begin to seek Me for the one that will come in from outside of the troop into the troop. As I reform the troop, I am relieving the anxiety of the troublemaker (the Judas) in your troop. There is one out there that I am calling in to replace that one causing concern. Relieve anxiety of the one in the troop and begin to seek Me for the one outside that's going to come in.

"For the state of California: Take teams through those wine vineyards and decree the wine for the new will be made. Break that spirit that is trying to weigh the wine down. The spirit of Mammon has entered the wine fields, but I Am ready for a confrontation!

"There is a new territorial authority I am releasing to My people this hour. I have given you territorial authority within the boundaries that I have assigned to you. Don't bow down to the enemy that would try to come and take back what he thought he owned. Know I have put keys in your hands, and these are keys that will unlock your territory. This is an hour when a new authority is being released to My people, territorial authority. See the boundaries I have assigned to you and know this is an hour to move forward and watch Me release My Glory in a new way. This is not the end -- this is the beginning of a new day for My people.

"I Am re-landscaping the portion that I have given you. Watch as I design the landscape. It will be occupied with My Glory, but watch for I am re-creating the area that I'm giving you authority in. Watch Me change your territory, and you rise up in a new way.

"I Am calling you to change your garment this season, for the places you will walk will need to have favor. Take off the garment of heaviness and wear favor. You've agreed with false humility far too long. If it is in your boundaries, then it belongs to you. Wear favor this hour! The desires of My gatekeepers are being aligned. Receive the Jael anointing being put upon you so that you war for your family." (Chuck D. Pierce, Kevvy Phillips, Barbara Wentroble, Shatece McLeod, Chad Foxworth)

Blessings,

Chuck D. Pierce

Nissan 2, 5783: Friday March 24, 2023

Veronika West

Touch not MY Anointed

I heard the Spirit say, "WATCH! For the trickle comes before the Tidal Wave"!
Now I see The Spirit of The Fear of The LORD moving upon "marked places"
-;

But I hear these Words, "Watch! For a simultaneous move of My Spirit is now taking place in The Nations!"

I see the mighty Lion of Judah "marking territory". God is making a Divine Distinction in this hour, between that which is Holy and His, and that which is defiled and of the devil. These "marked places" will become places of Divine Visitation. Some will be places where a visitation of His great Favor, Fire and Glory will fall, and yet other places will receive a visitation of his Judgment and Justice.

"MARKED PLACES" WILL BECOME MEETING PLACES WHERE NEW AND ANCIENT WELLS WILL BEGIN TO BURST FORTH AND WHERE NEW WINESKINS WILL BE CREATED,

The Spirit of The Fear of The LORD is now moving in ways never seen before. There will be Divine Dismantling's, Displacements and severe Destruction seen in marked places across the earth.

This is a "time of unprecedented suddenlies" and yet Supernatural Signs, Wonders and the greatest of Miracles in other places.

WARNING; THE ASBURY AWAKENING AND OUTPOURING; "TOUCH NOT THE ARK, TOUCH NOT MY GLORY" !!

I have received many emails from folk asking for my views on what is taking place in Asbury, and I have felt to hold my tongue, Pray fervently, and Watch what God is doing, and this morning as I was again before the Father speaking to Him, I heard the Spirit say, "WATCH AND PRAY, FOR NOW THE WINNOWING WINDS OF MY SPIRIT ARE BLOWING FORTH UPON THE THRESHING FLOOR, I SAY TOUCH NOT THE ARK, TOUCH NOT MY GLORY" !!

As I heard those words, the Spirit of Revelation quickened to me, 2 Samuel 6:7
“When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark of God, because the oxen had stumbled. 7And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and God struck him down on the spot for his irreverence, and he died there beside the ark of God”!

Ps: Uzzah was struck dead because he touched the Glory. The greatest danger in a moment of Visitation is that we become too familiar with the Glory, and we dare to touch the Ark, we become flippant, too familiar and the Fear of God leaves the room, the Asbury Outpouring will be quenched as quickly as it began if man dares to put his hands upon what God is doing.

At this time, I am in a prayerful position of Watching, Waiting and Welcoming a greater manifestation of Awakening and Harvest, I’m praying for Divine protection over this Outpouring, and I’m asking Holy Spirit to Come and Have HIS WAY!!

I will share more in time what God is saying to me, “I SAY TOUCH NOT THE ARK, TOUCH NOT MY GLORY”!!

Nissan 3, 5783: Saturday March 25, 2023

"HOLY FIRE IS ABOUT TO FALL" TYLER MEDINA, LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

Word of the Lord: "My fire is coming to consume and purify your heart. Holy fire is about to fall upon you and all those who long for Me. It is the fire of cleansing that I have reserved for those who love Me. You have passed through fire before and it left you strong. That was My fire of testing. For all who desire Me will be tried by fire.

"You have walked through the fire of misunderstanding and remained at My side through it all. But this fresh fire I will release to the earth is a fire that will cling to your soul and make you whole. It is fire power, the power you need to bring My glory to the cities of the earth. This is what I am about to impart.

"Many who have resisted My fire will fall away in the coming days. Have I not said that My angels are swift winds and My priests a blazing fire? Do I not send you out as flames to consume the hearts of men?

"Do not put out the Spirit's fire or resist the power and gifts that I give you. For My Spirit fire will conquer cities and bring them to the feet of Yeshua, My King. Every day passes and becomes a memory, but My living presence is eternal, for I dwell among the eternal flames of fire. Torches of fire burn before My throne, the seven spirits of God. They have been sent out into all the earth to baptize My people with power and anoint My servants.

"Embrace the fire I give to you, and you will receive power to endure and overcome the evil of this age. You have not yet seen what I will do with a generation that burns holy for Me."

Hebrews 1:7 (The Passion Translation): "And about His angels He says, 'I make My angels swift winds, and My ministers fiery flames!'" Therefore, we must learn...

"The Fruits of Waiting on God"
Steve Porter, Rochester, NY

"For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside Thee, what He hath prepared for him that waiteth for Him." (Isaiah 64:4 KJV)

"For since the world began, no ear has heard and no eye has seen a God like You, who works for those who wait for Him!" (Isaiah 64:4 NLT)

Waiting in Faith

When we choose to wait on the Lord, He begins working in us to produce fruit greater than we could ever expect or understand. It is through faithful expectancy that our hearts open up in anticipation of what God has prepared for us—even if it's beyond the realm of our capacity. Isaiah 64:4 says that when we choose to commit ourselves to waiting on God, instead of yielding to our fleshly desires, we shouldn't be surprised at the miraculous outpouring that follows. Waiting in faith, with confidence and expectation for God to work, is the most powerful thing we can do. Those who choose to leave fear and struggle behind them and just choose to trust that God has something great in store for them will ultimately be blessed.

When we take those precious, still moments in the presence of God, something incredible begins to happen. We can trust that there is a future hope being made available to us as we set aside all strain and focus on the Lord. As we wait—trusting God with confidence and expectation—we open ourselves up to new possibilities that we would have otherwise never known. The Bible reminds us of what God has prepared for those who wait for Him. It is truly remarkable how faithfully God responds to our waiting! "...blessed are all they that wait for Him" (Isaiah 30:18 KJV).

Blessed Beyond Measure

When we wait for God, He works on our behalf in extraordinary and mysterious ways. It's His way of taking us deeper into the knowledge of Him and His Spirit. We may never understand just how much God is doing as we wait, but through faith we can trust that His timing is perfect and that something beautiful awaits us once the waiting has ended.

Isaiah 30:18 reminds us to be grateful for this incredible opportunity to pause and reconnect to God—even when the present feels uncertain or the future unknown. Indeed, those who wait on Him will be blessed beyond measure!

When the Lord awakens us, it is a beautiful invitation to enter His inner chambers and draw near to Him. We can do this by simply taking moments of stillness. This attitude of quiet adoration, worship, and admiration will draw us closer to God's heart. We have been promised that those who wait for the Lord—even in their silent moments—will receive Him. Through our times of beholding Him in quiet waiting, we can open our hearts more fully to the Lord so that He can increase His beloved presence.

Finding Fruit That Remains

The words of Psalms 62:1 remind us that we should take every opportunity to pause and allow God's Spirit to flow in us, for as David said, "...Thou hast visited me in the night..." (Psalm 17:3). The Lord is eagerly anticipating a chance to be generous and kind. All who patiently await His presence will find the fruit that remains!

In conclusion, the fruit that comes from waiting on God is unmatched. We find that while we wait in His presence, we can discover Yeshua—the greatest treasure. By stepping away from the hustle and bustle of our everyday lives and taking time to just be still and present, we open ourselves up to wholly new revelations and answers to prayers. We experience a deeper level of intimacy and connection to His Spirit, something that can never be replaced by anything else in the world.

Remember that waiting on God is not doing nothing; it is stepping away from activity of our everyday lives and taking time to just be still and present with the Lord with an open heart. If we are willing to quiet ourselves and wait, venturing into His arms to find out what gifts lie hidden, it will be an opportunity too sweet not to grasp!

Nissan 4, 5783: Sunday March 26, 2023

Roger Waters Chief Justice Republics for the united States: Passover Season

On the 10th day of the 1st month, we call Nisan, each household was to take a lamb from the flock, separate it for four days, be a pure and clean lamb, and keep it clean until the 14th day. That is the night and day of the full moon, the middle of the month. They are to kill it between evenings, on the 14th day, and eat all of it, and not allow any to be left, and then burn.

They are not to eat it raw, or eat or drink the blood, but place the blood on the door stop and posts into the house, because the Father will send the death angel into the land and will kill all the firstborn of every family, every animal, and everything that flies in the air.

Never mind the fact that the Messiah rode a donkey into Jerusalem right up to His Father's house, the Temple that sat on the Holy Mountain, Moriah, where Abraham was to sacrifice Isaac. That happened on the 10th day of Nisan of that year. From that time on, the Messiah was separated from the rest of the flock, Israel, and would be for the next four days, because on the 14th day of Nisan, it was Passover.

We all know the story of the crucifixion, the burial, and the Resurrection, and we know that 40 days later, the Messiah ascended back to his home, Heaven, and for 10 days here on this earth, all three, Father, Son, and Spirit, were all together in heaven, leaving this earth completely unprotected from a spiritual on slot from Satan, which never happened. The world only had these 11 men that saw something so amazing, so unreal, they saw a dead man risen, who had been dead for three days.

According to Hebrew culture, and Rabbi teaching, the soul does not leave the body for 3 days, thus the Messiah had the promise of Psalms 16:10, where the Father would not allow his body to see corruption, and he would not be left in hell, or the grave. He wasn't, he was crucified on Passover, died on the stake, or cross, at the 3rd hour, or 3 pm, he was taken off the cross and carried to the tomb around 5 pm, placed inside the tomb around 6 pm, and the big round stone was rolled to seal it up, and guards placed by the romans, just before sundown.

At sundown, it became Unleavened Bread, with the Messiah in the ground physically, and in Paradise in the spiritual. For three days he was there, and according to Matthew 12:40, he was to be buried for three days and three nights, or a total of 72 hours, and we know he rose on First Fruits, the first day of the week, or Sunday, which on the Hebrew calendar, is sundown Saturday night.

So, take Saturday at sundown, and go backwards three days and three nights, (Saturday at sundown to Friday at sundown is 1 day and night, Friday sunset to Thursday sunset is 2 days and nights, and Thursday day and night to Wednesday day and night, is 3 days and nights), so the Messiah was crucified on a Wednesday around 9 am, hung on the cross for 6 hours, and died on Wednesday afternoon at 3 pm. Not on a Good Friday.

Good Friday is a pagan Roman holiday, not a YHVH Holy Day. Constantine changed all that back in 327 AD at the 1st council at Neecea. Rome changed Passover to Good Friday, did completely away with Unleavened Bread, and changed First Fruits to Easter. Then they added a holiday called Lent, which is the worship and seeking after Nimrod, who married his mother, and was killed by a wild boar, and his body torn into shreds.

His mother/wife, Semiramis, found 39 parts to his body, but could not find his reproductive organ, thus, Rome built an Obelisk, a tall structure that has a top of it such as the one in Rome at the Vatican, and the Washington Monument. Semiramis herself claims she was hatched from an egg in the Euphrates River, thus she called herself the Queen of Heaven, while after Nimrod died, she claimed that his body became the evergreen tree, because it never dies in the winter, and his spirit went to Sol and became Ba'al, the Sun God. Sol is the scientific name for our sun.

Now Rome teaches that Christ died on Friday afternoon, around 3 pm, buried and rose at Sunrise Sunday morning. Now that at best is only 37 hours, which is only half of the time that the bible tells us what Christ did say in Matthew 12:40. So Rome has now been proven to be a liar about the Crucifixion and resurrection, so question #1 is this, do you follow and worship as Rome does, or do you follow the scriptures and what our heavenly Father says?

There are many doctrines out there that say they are the right doctrine, and they all claim to be Christian, when in fact there is only one true doctrine, and it was written and put together many years before this nation was even born. It has withstood the time of everything since then, and it was in print just after Jamestown was settled here in the new world, called the Authorized King James Bible, 1611. Jamestown was settled on May 13th, 1607.

What we have here is a failure to see and accept the truth for the most part of the 501c3 churches here in America. They play and fine tune their own denominational doctrine and leave out the one they are supposed to use and teach, along with the God they are supposed to worship through all that. They create an oxymoron by stating they worship the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, but then they never follow the laws or the statutes put in order by the Creator, YHWH.

They worship every pagan holiday but follow only one Biblical Feast Day set down in law by God, and that is Pentecost, but that is only because Rome never changed it. So effectively, the 501c3 American church only seems to follow Rome's Law, and not God's. So, question #2 is a simple one, Why does the American church worship all the Pagan Holidays, and only 1 of 7 Holy Days?

How many people over the years may have died and missed heaven because they were following a pagan holiday, yet go to a church where that church encouraged that pagan day for worship? In today's world, most so-called Christians have no clue as to what is truth and what is not. Question #3, do you go to a church that encourages the following and worshipping of pagan holidays?

In Revelation 20:11-15, we have in scripture where at the Great White Throne Judgment and we have books that are opened besides the Book of Life, what books are they? We have the book of deeds, the book of words, and the book of actions. Then we have the Lambs Book of Life, and if your name is not in that book, you have had it.

My personal experience is that I died on the operating table at UVA on June 11, 1995, at 7:35 pm, for around 3 minutes. I had a vision, and in this vision, I was standing with a transparent body, with no pain, no hot or cold, and no flesh and bone. I saw many others standing in this room, with walls of polished stone, glittering with flashing lights of many colors.

Within the masses of all these souls, I asked the one next to me, where are we, and what is this place? He told me that we were at the great white throne judgment. I knew right then and there I was not ready for this, I began to shake, but then I was distracted by what looked like angels with no wings. They were quick in their movements, they all had a book in their hands, and their hoofed feet were about a foot off the floor.

They would zip across the room until they got in front of a soul, open the book, then say something and zip off. Then one came in front of me, looked me right in the eye, looked in his book, and then looked me in the eyes again, and said, "I have looked, and your name is not written in the book", then zipped off. My name was called and the huge Cherubs with 4 wings came to get me, and that is when I woke up on Tuesday afternoon.

You see, Passover is for our Salvation, and our Healing by His stripes. The main reason for Passover however is for the Messiah to build a bridge between Heaven and Earth. The Messiah was to create a way for Heaven and Earth to be connected, and our Salvation is like an effect of that. This covenant is that no man can break, just not accept it, and go to hell, and face the Great White Throne Judgment, then the Lake of fire.

In 1 Corinthians 5, vs 7-8, it states that we are to purge out the old Leaven and bring in the new, and we are to keep the Feast. In Leviticus 23:14, it states that Passover, Unleavened Bread, and First Fruits, or the Spring Feast, are to be kept because it is a Statute for all generations. If you are a believer, and you believe in Christ, then you are grafted into the Hebrew ways and laws, and these feasts days are to be kept by you, because they are laws.

In Revelation 13:11-18, it talks about the 2nd beast, which is the False Prophet. It is this guy that makes an image to the 1st beast, and then turns on the people and creates a mark for all to take. This mark is what separates the masses from those who are true believers of YHVH, Yahushua, and His Spirit.

However, today many are asking, why is the war in the Ukraine so important, because it is setting up Ezekiel 38 and 39, the Gog and Magog war, and it is a cover for Chrislam. So, you ask, what is Chrislam? so, let's look.

On February 4, 2019 Pope Frances signed documents along with Sunni Imam Sheikh Ahmed al-Tayeb, and the World Council of Churches. These documents bring together

Catholics, Protestants, Muslims, and Hindu's, all stating they believe the same god. This brings in the One World Religion, along with the One World Currency, and the One World Government.

They almost have all the buildings ready to inhabit for work and business. It is in Abu Dhabi, and it's called the Abrahamic Faith's House. Rick Warren and Joel Osteen brought paperwork to the signing with the Pope in 2015, and in 2017, the Pope signed paperwork with the Muslims. These Buildings are the St. Francis Church, the Imam Al Tayeb Mosque, and the Moses ben Maimon Synagogue.

It is supposed to open for business around Easter 2022, which is Sunday, April 17th, whereas Passover is on the New Moon, begins on Thursday night at Sundown the 15th. Remember, there must be at least 5 days of the Spring Feast, so First Fruits, or Resurrection day 2022 is the 23rd of April.

The purpose of Passover is for the sin offering, yours and mine, not through an animal, but through the Only Son of the Creator, the Word become Flesh and Blood and lived with us, died on Passover and rose on First Fruits. He didn't just wash away our sins but flushed them away into the pipes that leads to fire, while we can live in perfection, in love, and in His grace, mercy, and forgiveness.

He did love the world, and it will also be redeemed in the new age before New Jerusalem descends to earth. See, we do not go to heaven for ever, because Heaven comes to earth, the new one. But first, the old earth must be cleansed, and sin must be done away with, thus, His way of doing that is called the 70th Week of Daniel, and the last 42 months, followed by the day of His wrath, known by the title of the Day of the Lord.

On our calendar, this all kicked off on September 23, 2017, when the woman in the sky, (Virgo), gave birth to a king, (Jupiter), with the moon at her feet, clothed with the sun, and 12 stars as a crown on top of her head. Next, all hell will break loose on planet earth, because the red dragon, Satan was released on the earth, along with 1/3rd of all the angels, and he knows he has only a short time. We are living in that time right now. How is your Heart? Do you need a Heart transplant, or have you already had one? Now is the time. Only you and the Father knows the truth, and His truth shines on forever.

Nissan 5, 5783: Monday March 27, 2023

First Things First

By Steve Loopstra, Director of Your servant in Christ Ministries

When I was a teacher in a bible school in Switzerland, as we would start a class on a book of the Bible, I would start by saying, "Now we are going to study the most wonderful book of the Bible." At first, I would get strange reactions from the students, then, when the next class started on a different book, I would say, "Now we are going to study the most wonderful book of the Bible" and they would say, I thought you said the other one was the most wonderful, and I would respond, "Whatever book of the Bible you are reading or studying at the moment IS the most wonderful book of the Bible!" I believe that with all my heart. I love the Word of God for so many reasons, but just one of those many reasons is the fact that no matter how deeply you dig, there's more!

But one of those most wonderful books of the Bible is the book of Ephesians. One of the countless reasons I love the book of Ephesians is that it lists the blessings God has already achieved for us. He has already blessed us, Paul writes, with EVERY spiritual blessing in heavenly places (Ephesians 1:3). What this tells us is that everything God has provided for us is already ours!

Look at these first powerful verses in Ephesians 1:

May God our Father and the Lord Yeshua Christ give you grace and peace. All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Yeshua Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ. Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes. God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Yeshua Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure. So we praise God for the glorious grace he has poured out on us who belong to his dear Son. He is so rich in kindness and grace that he purchased our freedom with the blood of his Son and forgave our sins. He has showered his kindness on us, along with all wisdom and understanding. God has now revealed to us his mysterious will regarding Christ—which is to fulfill his own good plan. And this is the plan: At the right time he will bring everything together under the authority of Christ—everything in heaven and on earth. Furthermore, because we are united with Christ, we have received an inheritance from God, for he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan.

Paul uses consistently in this passage the Greek aorist tense and that is significant because it indicates completed action in the past. Paul places the emphasis squarely on what God has already done for us rather than what He has accomplished in us. What He has done and is doing in us is based upon what He has already done for us. Let me give you some examples.

Don't get lost here. Pay attention. The objective undergirds the subjective. In other words, the saving work of God in Christ is an objective fact. It never changes. Our subjective response to the gospel may be fickle and uncertain at times, but what God has done for us always undergirds what He does in us. We sometimes get lost in the subjective, but we must keep anchored in the fact that what God did for us in Christ, in all its dimensions never changes. Never, no matter our circumstances or challenges, or feelings.

Secondly, therefore, facts supersede feelings. I'm not saying anything against the proper feelings. God made us to feel, joy, intimacy, sadness, etc., but the fact of what God did for us in Christ is more important than our feelings toward the work of God in our lives. Feelings come and go; we all understand that on a daily basis! But the facts remain and are unchanging.

Next, consider this, imputation precedes impartation. What God has imputed to us is foundational to what He imparts to us. The work that God counts to our credit makes possible the work that He effects for our benefit. In other words, What He does for us precedes what He does in and through us.

Consider this as well, standing outweighs state. What do I mean by this? Our standing in Christ is permanent. Standing is defined as, our rank or status, especially with respect to social, economic, or personal position or reputation. Our standing in Christ is based on the work of God for us in Christ, so it can never be threatened. No matter what lies the enemy might throw your way! Our state may vary according to circumstances. We, at least used to say, "This is the state I am in right now." meaning this is my condition in these circumstances. For example, "I am in a state of panic." We grieve one day and rejoice the next. But our standing in Christ does not alter. This is so important for us to understand because we are more and more living in a culture, and even a "church" culture that bases our current state. So, we need to keep ourselves focused on the standing that God has given to us in Christ in all those varying circumstances.

This may sound a bit strange but consider this; the indicative undergirds the imperative. What in the world do I mean by that? The indicative describes what is, the imperative describes what ought to be. God's statement about who we are always undergirds His commands about what we should do. Until we know who we are in Christ, we cannot do what we should, in the way it should be done. Just take for example, the "Great Commission" to go into all the world and make disciples. This "things we are to do – go into all the world" is totally undergirded by the fact of who we are. We are disciples, imitators, ambassadors of Christ.

Here's one for you. Kerygma predates charisma. This very simply means that the kerygma (the preaching of the word) leads to repentance, or should, and new life, and the charismata, the signs, wonders and gifts of the Spirit confirm the preached word. This is the way God set it up to function. We seek first to put forth the Word of God, and the signs will confirm the word. Make sense?

How about this? Promise precedes precept. The promises direct our attention primarily to the Lord, and then with our eyes focused on Him and His enabling power, we can obey His precepts. We can so easily get this turned around and seek after obedience without understanding the promises that He has given us for life. We attempt to do the "precepts" without faith in the promises that are found in Him, and when we do that, we set ourselves up for failure. Another way of putting this would be that principles undergirds practice. Understanding and believing the principles laid down in God's Word give us a basis for putting into practice the commands which the Scriptures contain. Don't let yourself get those turned around. Remember, First things First!

Just a couple more thoughts on this important topic.

Relationships transcend fellowship. God is a God of relationship. Our relationship with God is totally dependent on what He did for us in Christ by adopting us as His children. Our fellowship is contingent on our day-by-day walking in this light. The relationship is unchanging. Why? Because it is based on Him. Our fellowship may vary dramatically in sweetness according to our degree of yieldedness to the Lord. I can't emphasize enough the important to understand the power of our relationship with the Lord above all the other "stuff" that we can come up with.

Finally, listen carefully. Faith outweighs fervor. Why? Because faith is fundamental. All through Scripture we are taught and given examples of this. Faith is there day and night. Fervor comes and goes like the morning mist. Paul in Ephesians especially shows that first we have the objective facts of what God has done for us in Christ, and second comes the subjective experience.

As I have seen from my limited contacts and studies, this was very much a part of the outpouring that started in Asbury, Him first, Him above all, His Word foundational. Then the other things can take their proper place. And praise God this move of God is spreading across the country and around the world. But it is very easy for us to lose sight of these fundamental truths in all of the "happenings."

This is very important for us to learn and keep in our hearts and minds in these days ahead. With all of the turmoil, the outright evil that will continue to rise, we need to get first things first.

Nissan 6, 5783: Tuesday March 28, 2023

Terry Friesen: The Government of God

Below you will read of three separate encounters, or periods of the Lord's instruction. Each one speaks to His strategic plan and intentionality towards what is happening on the earth. Please note how specific and relevant His plan is.

Apostolic Council

In the summer of 2020, I was praying, and the Father caught me up in an encounter. I was brought into a place between Heaven and earth. On my left I saw the earth positioned below; on my right I saw the Father seated on His throne above. Before me I saw a great number of thrones in the heavens positioned between the Father and the earth. On each throne was seated a person, both male and female. I could tell as I observed that each one that occupied these particular thrones were alive on the earth at this very moment. They were seated in the Heavens because they had been tasked with authority and an assignment.

The thrones extended to the right and to the left in great number. So great that I could not see the end of the line in either direction. I heard in my spirit the words Apostolic Council. As I observed I could see that each one had been seated in this place due to the finished work of Christ and His authority. I am unsure if they, in their earthly state, would be aware of their position on this council. Their position was in Christ but also a matter of heart, not physical stature. They were arranged in a circle with each one positioned with equal stature and equal responsibility. One was not higher or lower than the next.

As I intently watched the scene unfold before my eyes, I could see the heartbeat of each person seated on the council. Every heart was beating at a different rhythm and speed. Then, the beat of each heart started to slowly align with each other until they were beating in perfect unison. It was at this point Holy Spirit directed my attention to the Father. Each heart on their thrones was now beating in unison with the Father's heart. They shared His tempo, His rhythm, His beat.

As I witnessed this scene it was as if everyone was preparing for something to happen. All of a sudden, I saw something start to stream from the Father. It was the most beautiful combination of light, color, and substance. I could tell it had a specific shape and as it came closer, I was able to clearly observe its design. I saw before me a long vertical strand of DNA. It wasn't just any strand of DNA but the Father's DNA. I saw His DNA descend through the very center of the Apostolic Council as it moved towards the earth. The entire scene came into focus and the Apostolic Council was operating like a birth canal of sorts. It was standing between Heaven and earth exercising the authority given to it through the finished work of Christ.

This aspect of the Father's DNA was enroute to earth and nothing would ever be the same again.

I spent several days pondering this encounter and its implications. I was struck with the strategic planning of our Lord. We know something needs to change in the earth in order for the church to overcome, and the bride to be revealed without spot or wrinkle. It is said the world will know us by our love, that we will shine as the bright morning sun. But how and when?

In response to my thoughts, 2 weeks later I was given a dream to reinforce what I had scene. In the dream I was walking along a road that I recognized, having a conversation with someone that I know. I heard a loud thunder and looked up into the sky. I saw what looked like a tear in the heavens and the most beautiful substance that looked like a strand of DNA coming towards me. As it hit me, as it hit the earth, I fell backwards, and the power of this DNA strand buffeted against me. I awoke in shock from what I had just experienced.

The Lord gave me this encounter during a season when He was speaking to me about His governing authority on the earth. In Christ we have authority and we have been commissioned to exercise this authority as part of our position as sons and daughters in Christ Yeshua. I believe the DNA strand that I saw was a representation of His Glory. The manifestation of His presence. It is a very piece of His person that once dwelled in the temple in the Old testament and now dwells in us through His Holy Spirit. The scene I saw represents an increase of, and possibly new aspects of His nature that are now to be revealed in the earth through us His body.

Sub-Council

In the summer of 2021, I was on a prayer walk. I was praying about personal financial needs and is often the case I was strongly encouraged to release my needs to the Lord and instead focus on His agenda. As I walked, we prayed through a series of situations and our time was coming to an end. Once again, I was brought by way of vision into a situation that was new to me. Before me was a table and there were 5-6 people seated around the table. I wondered why the number wasn't certain at 5 or 6, but it seemed to fluctuate between 5 and 6. I believe the people being tasked to sit at this table were still in the decision-making process and it had yet to be decided.

I heard the Lord's instruction to this group. They were a sub council to the Apostolic Council I had witnessed the prior year and were positioned in a place of authority under their headship. I believe that when this sub council exercises its authority, they will be in a relationship with one to another and will convene in some fashion for this purpose. The responsibility of the group was to legislate in the spirit realm the flow of money and finance over the region of North America. I knew the Father was forming many sub councils to govern the affairs in the realm of the spirit of every region on the earth. They would be tasked to exercise God's authority in the earth and govern what takes place.

The Lord instructed, no longer will the ways of mammon have a free reign. You are to speak forth My edicts to direct the rules in the spirit realm that govern what happens in the natural regarding finance. The council was to declare that those who walk according to the Kingdom of God will prosper and that those who walk according to the kingdom of darkness will have their financial resources shrivel and die. Essentially this sub council was tasked to speak out and reinforce the truth and principles that are active in the kingdom of God and speak into the spirit realm against those principles in which the kingdom of darkness operates. They were tasked to speak with power and therefore enforce the very words of our Lord.

After this encounter I was certain that groups or sub councils will exist. Whether there will be one such council over North America or whether there will be many ecclesiae that arise to stand and declare the Lord's edicts over finances I do not know. The principle remains that the Kingdom of God will increase and be backed by those in authority to speak forth with power, and the kingdom of this world is on notice and will shutter in its wake.

I find it interesting that I started by asking about my personal financial needs, was directed to what was on the Lord's heart, and this session ended with Holy Spirit addressing North American financial needs which will affect me. I find the Lord speaks more when I am about His business than when I am concerned about myself, and when He does, He always speaks at a level far higher than my needs. Indirectly He often answers my questions by showing me what is important to Him and His Kingdom.

Country Governance

In the summer of 2021, the Lord continued to speak to me about His governmental rule. I was directed at length to pray for the removal of any ungodly governmental authorities in Canada along with their corresponding satanic structures. I was then tasked to declare the establishment of Kingdom structures and Godly government. I was to pray focus, intent, and the release of harvesting angels to bind up the tares in our governmental system, then to resource those who have been prepared and trained to fill the void.

As I was praying, I heard a specific word that Holy Spirit was raising up 500 across Canada in places of spiritual authority to administrate activities for the Kingdom of God over Canada. Again, they would be tasked to speak with authority the edicts that will rule the spiritual realm for God's Kingdom and against the works of the enemy.

As I consider the encounter I had regarding Canada, I do not know if this relates to 500 individuals, or 500 ecclesia governing bodies.

Summary

I do not believe I was brought into these 3 encounters with the intention to mobilize resources and groups to fill the gaps. It was very clear this selection and activity would be under the governance of the Holy Spirit, by the authority of Yeshua Christ at the will of the Father. I do not believe the specifics are as important as the general realization that the Father has a plan. He has a plan to advance His Kingdom, His Government, and His people.

This plan has been underway since the fall in the garden and at each point throughout human history. It is also clear that we are at a pivotal time in history and at a pivotal time in the cooperation of heaven and earth to fulfill the Father's plan. His body of believers are being called up and each one is to play their part in the unfolding of the Father's plan.

I would also like to comment regarding prayer and the posture I have taken to confront darkness. I don't have any delusions that I am the only one walking in this direction. I am one of a great many that are praying. Also, I will not pray such bold and confrontational prayers unless I am directed specifically by the Lord to do so in a posture of submission to His authority.

Nissan 7, 5783: Wednesday March 29, 2023 Dutch Sheets: A Deluge Is Coming

Today's post, submitted by my brother, Tim Sheets, is very encouraging. Let the words penetrate your heart; they contain many seeds. Reread them. Pray them. Prophecy them over your families, homes, congregations, cities, and nations. Tim shares:

"Something very significant is beginning to accelerate throughout the earth. Holy Spirit has repeatedly prophesied that His movements will begin to rise in the earth realm. These movements will flow together in a mighty way, the likes of which have never been seen. I recently had a vision of a tsunami wave of revival that continually grew stronger and stronger. I believe this will be a Holy Spirit outpouring even greater than that which occurred in the book of Acts. In this outpouring Holy Spirit will be poured out upon all flesh, as prophesied in Joel 2:28. I can feel the synergy, wind and anointing of the Holy Spirit upon these words.

“Joel 2:28 says ‘Your sons and daughters will prophesy.’ Prophecy is the Hebrew word ‘naba’ and it means ‘to speak God’s message under Holy Spirit influence, to represent God’s plan, will or His ways in words or songs.’(1) This revival and awakening will be saturated with the sounds of God’s holy Word through spontaneous worship and prayer.

“In Joel 2:23, Joel prophesied that an era of outpouring would come when the former and latter rains will occur at the same time. Rain is sometimes used to represent revival or outpourings of the Holy Spirit in Scripture, as it is here. The springtime rains were referred to as the planting rains because they grew the seeds. The harvest rains, which were seven times greater, would ripen the harvest for reaping. Joel prophesied there would be a time when these rains occurred simultaneously. I believe we are in that time: an era of outpourings seven times greater than occurred in the book of Acts will take place, causing the harvest of a billion souls to be reaped, as has been prophesied.

“The Ekklesia has cried out for revival. We have prayed and decreed for the fire of God to fall and His mighty wind to blow. We are starting to see the beginnings of this. The revival at Asbury University in recent weeks has been absolutely amazing. Revival has also started to spread to other universities and college campuses. We are seeing desperate students, hungry for the presence of God. As a result, many are being saved, delivered, healed, refreshed and renewed.

“I believe this is just the beginning. We are stepping into supernatural, God-planned events. The revival currently taking place will spread and accelerate, becoming a worldwide Kingdom revival. People being forced to travel in order to experience revival is not God’s plan. What is happening will spread throughout the land and become too widespread for hell to stop.

“Recently, during one of my prayer times, I became deeply burdened to pray for the younger generation. As I did so, I was impacted emotionally to the point of weeping. As I prayed and wept, I received a prophetic download from the Holy Spirit. The timing of this turned out to be significant, which initially I only mentioned to two people - my wife, Carol, and my brother, Dutch. I didn’t want to interject myself into something that was holy and precious, I simply wanted to pray into it, which is what I have done.

“However, I know the timing was not a coincidence and, more importantly, I believe it confirms what is occurring in this season. I received this download between 9:30 A.M. and 10:30 A.M. Wednesday morning, February 8th. The Asbury University revival began at 10 A.M. that same day during their chapel service. My intercession and the word I received was given to me at the exact time this outpouring began, though I wouldn't hear about the revival breaking out until the next day. I knew Holy Spirit had given me a confirming word that revival would spread through the earth.

"Through my tears I wrote the following as Holy Spirit spoke to me that morning:
'Behold and understand the mysterious wisdom of the Godhead destroying the works of the forever loser. See Their vision for a new era unfolding. The earth realm has seen the entrance and actions of King Yeshua for two millennia. This has occurred at levels and in ways never before seen, or even anticipated, by the loser and his fallen ones. The King's personhood and His ministry of redemption, salvation and grace have been presented in the earth realm; His Kingship has been declared above all powers.

"Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Enabler and Communicator has been presented in the earth realm, filling the heirs with the presence and power of His person.

"Now see new expressions, new discoveries, new dimensions, greater revelation and amplified levels of the Father's heart to those made in His image and likeness. Now see His fathering anointing released into the earth in glorious measures. Now see the greatness of Father's heart as it hovers over and says to a fatherless generation, I want you. I will be your Father. You will not be fatherless. You will not be confused. You will not be lost. You will know My love is set upon you.

"You will not be orphans; you will not be aimless. I will mentor you. My family will welcome you, care for you and embrace you. You will not be lost. I will take you in. There are rooms in My house for you. There's a seat at My table for you. My fathering nature, My fathering heart, will heal you.

"My hovering presence will realign and define you. I will transform you. My heart of love for you will bring clarity to your purpose. You will not be without identity. You will be a son; you will be a daughter, you will be an heir, My heir. I will father you. My family will train you. I will love you to your destiny. I will clear the lies, the confusion, and I will bring your true identity."

"Holy Spirit said new levels and new expressions of Father's heart will now be presented, much of it pointed at the young generation. His fathering anointing poured into the earth realm will break the yoke of abandonment. This will cause the hearts of the fathers to turn to the children and their brokenness will be healed. Millions will become free and know the great love of the heavenly Father.

"In summary, 'the era of transforming shifts will now begin. Father is going to reveal His greatness to the world. Earth's harvest will be reaped as 'a new era church' is found to be about the Father's business. God's family will grow exponentially, and hell won't be able to stop it.

"I have no doubt God gave me this word, not only as confirmation of this growing revival, but as a prayer assignment. It is vital that we cover this move and outpouring in prayer."

Pray with me:

Lord, pour out Your Spirit on all flesh, just as You said. Do so throughout our nation, especially on college campuses. We thank You for the outpourings of Your Spirit we have already seen, for the lives that have been changed. But we know this is only the beginning of a mighty revival.

Abba, release Your "father heart" to bring healing and transformation to the young generation around the world. Release Your love to them, awakening them to a divine, holy destiny. End their confusion of purpose, gender, morality, who You actually are, and what love really is. You said You would give them a seat at Your table - we ask for this. What we are asking is for Your "father heart" to explode upon an entire generation. We decree that as You so, prodigals will come home. Fan the flames and let this revival spread across the land.

We know that Holy Spirit is now supervising this new movement of unprecedented rain. He is breathing life, preparing to release miracles, healings, signs and wonders on the earth. The heavens are pregnant with this rain. A revival greater than Acts is beginning to flow to us and through us.

Finally, we ask for the troops of heaven, Your great angels, to fight alongside us. Holy Spirit, implement this major shift of the Kingdom of God in our nation. We decree that Your Kingdom has come and continues to manifest, Your will is being done. Send Your oil, Your fire, Your wind, and rain. Do this, Father, for the eternal well-being of millions, the passion and pleasure of Your Son, and the glory of His great name. Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that new levels and expressions of Father's heart will now be presented to the young generation around the world, and that God will pour out His Spirit on all flesh.

Nissan 8, 5783: Thursday March 30, 2023
In the Days of Promise, Beware of the Ishmaels"
Kim Potter, Dayton, Tennessee

Could This Be?

Hearing the ding of my phone, I picked it up to see who was texting me at such a late hour. Consequently, it was my sister, and she shared about a property with me that had just come on the market. While pulling up the information, I was shocked. This beautiful church, built in 1887, had always been my favorite church building in our town. It was stunningly beautiful.

My first question was, "Could this be?"

For several years, I had been praying diligently for property for A New Thing Ministries. Considering the recent outpourings of the Spirit of God, I thought, Could this be a place to gather and worship? Could this be the next step for this ministry? I thought back to the day before when my daughter Breanne and I were driving through town. I said to her, "If I could have any church in this city, it would be that one." Hours later, it was on the market. How could that be?

And how could it not be God?

I sat down and penned a letter to our prayer partners asking them to pray with me to see if this was indeed the next move God had for our ministry. I wrote the email, but I didn't send it. Something deep inside stopped me. Although it all looked absolutely perfect and timely, I hesitated. Something didn't feel right.

In the Days of Promise, Beware of the Ishmaels

I sat down and began to pray and remember. I remembered my vision of what I saw for A New Thing Ministries. It was not a vision for a church – even this beautiful one. It was a vision for a retreat center for the weary, a place where people who had faced tremendous challenges could come and spend a few days and become refreshed in the presence of the Lord. The more I meditated on the vision I had carried for many years, the more I knew this was not the next step for us. Frankly, it made me a little sad – I so loved this building! But then God spoke to my heart and said, "In the days of promise, beware of the Ishmaels."

You may recall the story. God promised Abraham a son. He waited and waited for that son. When the son didn't come in the time he expected, he went in another direction and Ishmael was born. He was not the son of promise; that son was yet to come, just as God had promised.

The problem was that Abraham and Sarah got ahead of God and decided to do it their own way. From this decision came Ishmael. You see, they trying to help the situation did not produce the promise; it produced a counterfeit. That's what happens when we don't seek God's face and continue to wait on Him for what He has promised us.

God is not a man that He should lie. His first word is His final word.

Write the Vision and Don't Settle for Less

Habakkuk 2:2 says, ".Write the vision and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it."

I encourage you to do this: write out your vision. Once it is written out and deep within your heart, beware of Ishmaels. What do I mean by that?

I am saying, don't settle for something less than what you are praying for. If the enemy can, he will convince you that God is not going to do what you asked; therefore, it's better if you settle for a little less than what you desire.

For instance, if you are believing God to help you become debt free, and you see a way to pay off your vehicle BUT it puts more debt somewhere else, don't do it. That's not God's best. Or, if you are praying for the salvation of a child and he seems to be a little better – not really saved but acting better – DO NOT STOP PRAYING AND CRYING OUT FOR HIS ULTIMATE SALVATION.

Don't settle for less. Or (and this is a big one), if you are believing God for a spouse and someone comes along who appears perfect, even though they may not believe the way you do, pray and seek the face of God. God does not want you unequally yoked; it will only cause pain. Do not settle for less than God's best. Beware of Ishmael.

A Good Thing or a "God Thing"

In my decades of serving God, I have noticed this one thing: When I am believing for a promise, an Ishmael often comes just before the promise manifests. It has happened to me more times than can count. In the past, I embraced the Ishmael, and it only led to disappointment. This is one of the enemy's tactics – avoid it. He is trying to get you out of the perfect will of God.

Refuse to go there. Instead, stand firm until you see the manifestation of the promise of God.

Seek His face and make sure it is His plan before you. Allow peace to guide you. If you do not have utter peace, stop, and listen for God's voice. I apply this rule in everything I do, because the things that seem to be good, when I take time to stop, listen and meditate on God's Word – often those things fall away. I am not interested in a good thing; I only want a GOD thing. This church, as beautiful as it was, was not my God thing.

A funny thing happened. Days later, someone called and asked me to go look at this property with them. I did. As I walked into the church, it was proof that it was not for me. Yes, it was stunningly beautiful but, for me, God wasn't there, and if He isn't there, I didn't want any part of it. He simply confirmed what I already knew in my heart and in my spirit: this wasn't my next move.

My friend, we ARE in a time of promises being fulfilled. Please, please beware of Ishmaels.

Nissan 9, 5783: Friday March 31, 2023

A Call to Protect the Newly Birthed Revival!"

Donna Rigney, Salt Springs, Florida

[Editor's Note: Below are the notes in the order that Donna Rigney shared them on her interview, which aired on March 15, 2023.]

A New Normal Is Coming!

On March 13, 2023, the Lord declared: "The wealth of the unjust shall pour out on the just! What the enemy planned to do – to destroy the banking industry and rob My children of their savings – will fail. Instead, We shall go into the camp of the enemy and plunder his ill-gotten wealth and return it to those it truly belongs to – My faithful children!"

"This is the hour of the extermination of the rats, both in the natural and in the spirit. Rats pillage, destroy and bring diseases. These rats have been scurrying about in secret, but now My light is shining on them, and they and their wicked deeds are being exposed." (While the Lord was speaking this to me, I saw many rats roaming about, and a very large rat get its head cut off.)

"When My glory comes, there is always a big shake up. Normal isn't normal in the glory! What people are used to is turned upside down, so a 'new normal' will happen. In Our 'new normal' the enemy will lose his throne! He has established many false thrones all over the world; these will be seen for what they are and will be demolished.

"Where lies reigned, now truth will be enthroned. Hatred and violence and lawlessness will be replaced by love and righteousness. Injustice will be evicted, and justice will get its seat back. No longer will wicked thrones rule over the land. One by one, I will be dismantling them and reestablishing righteous rule.

"Where you have seen wicked rulers steal the thrones of the God-ordained righteous, this is but a sign of what has been happening in the spirit realm. Both in the spirit and in the natural realm, the wicked shall lose their thrones!"

"Not just in the governments of nations and cities and states will this exchange happen, but in families, businesses, and even churches. There will be a great changing of the guard. My word has been spoken, and it will not return void!"

Confirming Scriptures: Micah 2 and 3.

A Child's Impressive Dream About Donald Trump and Joe Biden

In years past, the Lord told me that in this great end-time revival, He would be using the children powerfully. He said that many of them would dream dreams, see visions, prophesy, heal the sick and preach His Word. They would astound the adults who heard them.

On March 11, 2023, a dear friend of mine, who lives off the grid in Alaska, told me that her 11-year-old daughter, Rose, had a very impacting dream. In the past, Rose was taken in the spirit to Heaven, and while there, Yeshua told her that one day she would preach for Him. A few days ago, Rose dreamed that Donald Trump came to live in her house. He took the bedroom on the right. Joe Biden was there too. He had the room on the left. Many people began voting. A vast multitude of votes came in for Donald Trump. A helicopter came and picked up Joe Biden. He left the house in shame, with his face covered, because so many people hated him. He went away into hiding.

Her dream continued: There were no vaccines left in the world. All of them were burned up and the world was free of them.

Spring Will Bring a Wonderful Change!

On Monday, February 13, 2023, Father spoke a very impacting and hopeful word to me: "Winter is almost over, and spring shall spring forth with new life for all! Hope will arise! Where death entered My children's members, life will take over and chase death – winter – away. Spring shall bring forth the long-awaited respite and transformation that My children have prayed and believed for."

"A great cleanup will happen, just as when winter ends; there is a cleanup time to get rid of what died during the rigors of winter. This is what you will see happen in the spirit realm, as well as in the natural. Those things that died, or tried to bring death, will be taken away and thrown in the refuse heap. Piles of trash will mount up, and regions filled with life will arise! Watch and see what We will do! None can or will stop Us, just as none can stop the changing of the seasons in the natural realm. I have spoken. Spring shall bring a great bursting forth of new life!"

A Great Shift Is Coming!

On February 24, 2023, Yeshua declared: "Life is going to get better and much more enjoyable. That is why I came – to give My friends a full life...a life filled with joy, expectation, hope and delight! My will shall be done. For far too long the enemy's plan has been unfolding to steal, kill and destroy; now My will shall unfold!"

"No one and nothing can, or will, stop Us from accomplishing all We have declared. Those who tried to usurp authority and bring to pass their plans will be eliminated. All they poured out that was wicked shall be overturned and overthrown and replaced by all that is good and pure."

"Look with eyes of faith and see it before it materializes in the natural realm. This will feed your faith as you allow Us to open your spiritual eyes to see Our will before it comes from Heaven to Earth."

Confirming Scripture: John 10:10.

On February 26, 2023, Father spoke to me a very surprising word: "I am equipping My army with the greatest weapon! Like a subatomic bomb is My glory in the spirit against the forces of darkness that would steal, kill, and destroy. My troops will go forth, armed and ready for battle. They will not be harmed!"

"Friendly fire has been launched against My forces, but even that was to no avail! Tell My children to be of no fear, for I do go before and behind them, as they take ground for Me. Love and My Word, working together in concert, will take down many a Goliath! As they go forth, wielding My words with love and great faith, My glory will manifest, and victory after victory will be theirs."

A Call to Protect the Newly Birthed Revival!

On Saturday, February 18, 2023, Father continued to speak to me about the revival that is breaking out worldwide.

Father reminded me how He rescued the Israelites that were enslaved in Egypt by raising up Moses to go and deliver them out of bondage. Father paralleled this revival as His response to the cries of His people for deliverance from the oppression we've been under, just like He did when the Israelites cried out to Him for a deliverer in the biblical times of Moses.

He wants this revival that has just broken out to be like the call on Moses' life as a deliverer of Israel – a nation enslaved by wicked rulers who were trying to decrease their population. In the same way, He is raising up a revival to bring deliverance from those who are depopulating this world, oppressing the people, and enslaving many through excessive taxation, oppressive mandates and overpriced goods. His revival and the great outpouring of His glory is the rescue event He is releasing – just as He promised! He will overcome evil with an abundance of His goodness!

Father showed me that there are lessons we need to learn from those whom He appointed to protect His deliverer, Moses. Our God is raising up His people to protect this revival that's being birthed, just like He raised up Miriam and the midwives in Egypt – those whom God appointed to protect His newborn deliverer, Moses:

1. The midwives. Though Pharaoh commanded the midwives to kill all the newborn male babies, they feared God and would not kill the babies as they were being born. God blessed the midwives, prospered them and gave them their own families, because of their faithfulness and their courage.

2. Miriam. To save his life, Moses' mother put her baby boy in a basket in the river where the Egyptian princess bathed. When the princess saw baby Moses, she wanted to keep him. Miriam, Moses' older sister, watched from the shore and immediately came forward and offered to find someone who would nurse Moses for the princess. She acted quickly and used great wisdom. In this way, Miriam was instrumental in getting her mother to nurse Moses for the princess until he was weaned. Once Moses was old enough, he went to live with the princess in the palace.

When Moses was an adult, He was called by God to return to Egypt to fulfill his destiny by delivering Israel from slavery in Egypt. While on their journey, after they crossed the Red Sea on their way to the Promised Land, Miriam led the nation in a powerful time of worship and thanksgiving. She was an anointed prophetess and a songwriter.

Miriam's name means "beloved" and "bitter." She was beloved by God but became bitter toward her brother, Moses. As time went on, Miriam became jealous of her younger brother, and influenced her other brother, Aaron, to turn against Moses and Moses' wife. She allowed jealousy, gossip, and bitterness to influence her life and to rob her of her calling. Because of her sins, she got leprosy, but was healed when Moses prayed for her.

We are called, like the midwives and Miriam, to protect this newborn child of revival that is being birthed to deliver our nation and the world. We must respond like the midwives – in the fear of God – and do only what Holy Spirit leads us to do, without delay. We must use wisdom, like the midwives and Miriam, and we will be blessed and prosper and have our own families or ministries!

However, there is a strong warning for us in this account in Scripture. We must avoid the sins of Miriam: jealousy, gossip, bitterness, and offense. Her downfall cost Miriam a case of leprosy and, after she was healed through Moses' intercession, she was cast outside the camp for seven days. We must guard our hearts, stay humble and abide in His glory, from which our holiness comes.

Nissan 10, 5783: Saturday April 1, 2023
Dutch Sheets: American Church: Find Your Voice

Today's post is a little strong. The following few paragraphs contain an overview of God's plan for humankind and the earth. It also includes Satan's plan and attempts to thwart God's intentions. It ends, however, with a challenge to the American church. Where most of you are concerned, I'm preaching to the choir. But you can help me pray, and you can help circulate the post.

God and Government

The concept of government is first introduced to us in Genesis 1:26-28, when Yahweh assigned the responsibility of governing the earth and all it contains to Adam - humankind. Yahweh's Kingdom (which means "the domain of a King") includes all creation, everywhere - heaven, the heavens, earth, and hell. He rules overall. He assigned the governing of this colony of His Kingdom, the earth, to us humans.

Government/authority flows from God - from His nature, the essence of who He is. He IS the King, the Lawgiver, and Judge (Isaiah 33:22). And His laws, precepts, guidelines, etc, are based on love and truth, righteousness, and justice (the foundations of His throne - Psalm 89:14). Truth is not something God has to think about or consider; He

IS truth (Isaiah 65:16; John 14:6). He doesn't try to love; He IS love (1 John 4:16). He governs from who He is!

He Releases His Will Through Family and Delegated Government

The authority to govern/rule Earth was delegated by Him. The story of the Bible is that: 1) God added a family to His Kingdom, created an amazing home for them - earth - and 2) delegated His rule/government of this home to His family. This government/authority was to be exercised according to His nature, ways, will, and truth - at every level: personal, home, family, cities, and nations. God's design is that ALL government be a conduit of His truth, righteousness, ways, will, and love.

We know this plan was interrupted at the Fall. Satan stole God's family temporarily, and with it came the dominion/rule of their home. The story of Scripture then became how God would redeem and restore these two things. The war on earth is over family and government: who will own the people, and who will rule the earth?

Yeshua, of course, was God's answer. He made it possible for all people to become part of God's family again and recovered Adam's/our lost authority for us. But satan is a thief and usurper. He still attempts to rule people and places, using humankind's ignorance, sin, and rejection of Christ. Believing and receiving the gospel removes us from satan's authority and back into God's family. The understanding of and exercising Christ's authority/government in our lives enforces our freedom from satan's authority.

As Christ's family, and having been delegated His authority, we are also called and privileged to extend His redemption and freedom to others. We do so, not by demanding or dictating, but by proclaiming His gospel, declaring His truth, and binding satanic/demonic schemes, plans, and actions. As the power of Holy Spirit is released from us, it opens people's eyes to the gospel and God's truth, allowing them to believe in Christ. This allows even their land, possessions, livelihoods, cities, and nations to also be freed from satan's government/authority/rule (see Deuteronomy 28).

The Scriptures Are All about Government

As one of the two primary issues on earth, it is logical that "government" would be one of Scripture's dominant themes. It is mentioned extensively throughout the Bible. Earthly "kingdoms" are spoken of 36 times, and earthly "kings" are spoken of 108 times. "Rule" or "ruler" is mentioned 155 times, God is mentioned as "Lord" thousands of times, and His "kingdom" more than 80 times. There are other governmental terms we could list, such as dominion, authority, govern, leader, etc., which are used dozens of times. Suffice it to say, God is government, the source of government, and releases His will and ways through delegated governing authority - at every level.

The Church Ignores It

AND YET...many in the church think government is to be ignored. "Get people saved," they say, "but issues of government don't belong in the church. Well, we should pray for it [which most don't], but don't talk about it, make a stand regarding it, or try to influence it." Getting a church to take time in a service for more than a perfunctory prayer or mention of government, elections, laws, etc., is like trying to raise the dead. Getting pastors to make a public stand on BIBLICAL issues being decided on by the government, such as life, marriage, gender, sexual sin, and more, is even harder. The church doesn't acknowledge the overwhelming amount of Scripture involving government, preferring to ignore it. And it conveniently hides behind manmade laws.

Many pastors actually disagree with portions of God's Word; others are ashamed or embarrassed by parts of it, and still, others are simply ruled by the fear of man. Therefore, most believers are ignorant of God's word. Pastors need not be mean-spirited or condemning to preach and teach truth regarding these and other issues. It can and should be done with grace, mercy, and love. But truth must be taught; it is God's Word.

America In Crisis

As a result of not doing so, America hangs in the balance of life or death. In a recent Fox News interview, (1) Newt Gingrich issued a wake-up call. Referencing the meetings this week between Putin and Xi - while the Biden administration, which he compared to a "situation comedy," ignores them and downplays any significance - Gingrich said that in his opinion, "This is the most dangerous time in our history since Washington crossed the Delaware Christmas night in 1776...This is not a game. The threat to our civilization is so great that we really need a dramatic change."

Mr. Gingrich also said, "Xi gave four different speeches to his people last week on preparing for war. People should take him seriously and understand how determined, how aggressive, and how competent Xi is." He compared Xi and Putin to "the Axis powers of Italy, Germany, and Japan in the 1930s that wanted to take on Democracies. Unlike in the 30s, we have a President that is dedicated to weakness, dedicated to confusion...America is in an enormous crisis, with a news media that doesn't want to cover the truth. This is the moment when America truly is what Mao called America "a paper tiger." It's a very sobering and very frightening moment in American history."

The church might want to find her voice.

I've said before that regardless of the overall church's abdication, God will save America through a remnant. I truly believe this. But I also believe this could have occurred much more quickly - and still could be sped up - had a larger percentage of the church been praying and taking action. And the pain we are experiencing, and will for two more years, could be substantially less. To those of you who are praying - thank you! Please persevere.

Pray with me:

Father, in Christ's name, on behalf of the church of America, we ask You to forgive us for not representing You and Your ways as we should. We have been complacent, willfully ignorant, and fearful of speaking out against the promotion of sin and evil. But an awakening is occurring; please breathe on this and cause it to increase. Awaken the church to the fact that we are Your voice, the speakers of Your Word and truth, on the earth. Revive this truth in us.

Send Your fire to the pulpits of America again. We preachers in America repent for watering down Your truth. We repent for ignoring portions of Your Word and operating under the fear of man. We should have hearts like Joshua, Caleb, Paul, Finney, Wesley, Whitfield, and other warriors from the past. Again we pray, send Your fire!

And Father, as the dragon and bear align, led by principalities and world rulers of darkness, thwart their evil plans to rule the world. We must reap a great harvest for You. You told me You HAD to have America in order to reap this harvest. You said we could close the doors to these forces, not with our hands/works, but with our words. So, in the name of Yeshua, we call America back to You. We release Your Kingdom authority to bind these evil plans and release the power of Holy Spirit to oppose them. We release Your will for revival and awakening. We call forth Your fire. All that You have promised, we will see and experience.

Our decree:

We decree that lethargy and complacency in the church are being broken and replaced with revival fire!

Nissan 11, 5783: Sunday April 2, 2023
"Spiritual Law and Grace": Fred Mosely J.D., LL.M.

How many of you have heard it said, or you may have said, "I'm not under law, but under grace." Before going further into this article, let us visit the Garden of Eden and identify The Laws of Life present in the garden. We all know that this was before The Law of Moses or the Mosaic Law.

Adam and Eve were under the Law of The Spirit of Life. They were created to live for eternity. Other laws that can be identified that were established in the garden were the following: The Law of Notice and Warning, The Law of Provision, The Law of Sowing and Reaping, The Law of Resistance and Non-resistance, The Law of Prayer, The Law of Faith, The Law of Accountability and Responsibility, The Law of Health, The Law of Agreement, The Law of Reward, The Law of the Gift, The Law of Mercy, The Law of God's Sovereignty, The Law of Authority, The Law of Escape, The Law of Success, The Law of Work, The Law of Worship, The Law of Forfeiture, The Law of Imputation Among Others.

These laws have under them lesser and included laws. This is a pattern that mankind today uses in its laws. They have a major category and minor categories that flow therefrom.

Example: Aggravated murder has lesser and included under it: murder, voluntary manslaughter, involuntary manslaughter, and neglect homicide.

All fall under the major category of aggravated murder, but are lesser and included offenses. The same is true with Spiritual Laws also referred to as Kingdom Laws or the Laws of Life. There are lesser and included laws under each major category.

Let's go back to the garden. I think we have established that Adam and Eve were subject to certain Spiritual Laws which we listed above which were prior to the Mosaic. Mankind disobeyed and then was brought immediately under The Law of Sin and Death (which had been held in abeyance). The Mosaic was later given to man in his fallen state. Man had to have Laws given to him in a physical form, that he could see, to make him aware of the consequences of sin.

What Yeshua did for us in his death, burial, and resurrection (paid our penalty) thereby bringing us out from under The Law of Sin and Death and restored us to be under The Law of Spirit of Life in Christ Yeshua.

Now let's go back to The Laws of Life looking at them from the perspective of lesser and included laws (greater and lesser laws). Just as man in his legal system draws from this Spiritual pattern of primary and lesser included laws, so is the case in the Spiritual realm.

So, then I would submit to you that grace comes under a Law of Life and that Law of Life is The Law of The Spirit of Life in Christ Yeshua. Grace is a lesser and included law under the Law of The Spirit of Life in Christ Yeshua. Grace could be referred to as The Law of Grace. It falls directly under the predominant Law of the Spirit of Life bringing forth our salvation.

Other lesser and included laws under the Law of The Spirit of Life in Christ Yeshua are love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, faith, meekness, temptress, etc.

Yeshua said in Matthew 5:17 "Think not that I come to destroy the law or the prophets; I have not come to destroy but to fulfill". In John 1:17, we are told "For the law was given by Moses, but grace came by Yeshua Christ".

Nissan 12, 5783: Monday April 3, 2023
The Way: Bruce & Linda Dietler - Kansas

Several years ago, while listening to a Christian radio broadcast, my ears locked onto the words of a poem as they were spoken. I was immediately impacted by its simple and yet profound content and for the vivid word picture that it planted in my brain. That poem was composed by the 19th century English poet, William Dunkerley, writing under the pseudonym of John Oxenham. The poem is titled The Way.

"To every man there openeth A Way, and Ways, and a Way,
And the High Soul climbs the Highway, And the Low Soul gropes the Low,
And in between, on the misty flats, the rest drift to and fro.
But to every man there openeth A Highway, and a Low.
And every man decided the way his soul shall go."

The poem's message transcends the ages; simply, that we have choices in life. We make choices every day, often not realizing the potential life affecting impact each might have. Take the highway or the low way; take the right path or the wrong path; or flounder somewhere in-between. The ability to make proper choices is a gift from God, and we are presented with opportunities to do so on a daily basis.

Choices

We must consciously choose to hearken unto God's voice; choose to step out in boldness, courage and obedience to take ground for His Kingdom; choose to step out and trust in the One who brings the victory; choose either legalism brought by the law of sin and death, or liberty brought through the law of life in Christ Yeshua. We choose either to speak words of death, doubt and unbelief or words of life. We likewise choose whether or not to renew our minds by the word of God, that we might present our bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is our reasonable service (Romans 12:1). We choose to walk either in the natural realm or walk in the realm of the super supernatural!

The Bible is replete with hundreds of such examples; I will highlight but a few. Adam and Eve were given a choice between two trees from which they could partake. They listened to the lies of the devil, chose badly, and were cast out of the garden.

The Lord spoke to Abram saying, "Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. So, Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran" (Genesis 12:1,4).

Abram chose to obey the voice of the Lord, though he was already prosperous and of advanced age and though he would have to leave behind the land of his fathers. He chose the highway, and as a result, the blessings of the Lord manifested in His life. Lot, on the other hand, chose the low way of the fertile plain and the bright lights of the city (My, can't the low way look attractive?). He chose badly, and his family suffered unspeakable consequences.

The word of the Lord came unto Jonah saying, "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me" (Jonah 1:1,2). Jonah, however, caught a ship going in the opposite direction, and he too suffered severely for his poor choice.

The Book of Numbers speaks of how the 12 spies witnessed the incredible abundance of the promised land and how it was all God had said it would be. But rather than taking the highway of trusting His promise that He had already given them the land, because they feared the giants, their fear overrode their confidence in God's ability to overcome even the greatest of obstacles. As a direct result, the entire congregation of Israel wandered "to and fro" in the desert for forty long years.

Joshua challenged the congregation of Israel, "If it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." (Joshua 24:15). That choice is ours as well: we can serve the Highest God, the gods of this world, or our flesh.

Yeshua offered the Galilean fishermen opportunity to follow Him and become fishers of men. Choosing the highway, they immediately dropped their nets and followed Him. He offers that same choice to believers in our day.

Heflin Prophecy

A number of years ago, during a time of great personal struggle, we received a phone call from ministry friends in California through which the Lord directed us to attend a Pentecostal Camp Meeting outside of Richmond, Va. Since we live 1400 miles from Virginia, it would have been easy to dismiss the Lord's direction, but we chose to obey. While there, we received a very specific, encouraging word through Wallace Heflin, brother of Ruth Ward Heflin, which boosted our faith, and which has been a tremendous continuing strength to us over the intervening years. Though this prophecy was specifically for our family, I believe anyone in the Body of Christ seeking to walk in God's highway can directly relate. May it be an encouragement to you.

That prophecy said in part: "The enemy would come to try to stop, to try to block, to try to oppose. He would put many snares in thy paths. He'd put roadblocks and detours trying to hinder and to stop. But I say unto thee, I give unto thee a new strength and a new power this day, and thou shalt run, and run with the word, and run with the message, and that anointing shall empower thee to just leap over all those things the enemy would try to place in front of thee. For it is thy faith and thine anointing within thee that shall deliver and set thee free, saith the Lord. It is thy faith in that anointing within that shall carry thee to the other side, and thou shalt look back at the enemy pursuing, and thou shalt laugh for thou hast escaped his clutches, and thou hast escaped his snares. For the deliverance and the victory that I give unto thee, it is sure, saith the Lord. And thou can stand upon that word and stand in thy glory, and thou shalt do it, saith the Lord. There have been many ropes that have wrapped around about thee. The bondages of the enemy have been many and varied, but with the stroke of My powerful hand

I've destroyed them saith the Lord. And thou shalt know that thou shalt not continue to walk up the side of the mountain with great strain, but thou hast reached the pinnacle of the hill and thou shalt find the ease in the going down the other side, saith the Lord."

The devil does not want us walking the Lord's highway, and he will put roadblocks, snares, ropes and bondages in our way, but his power is broken in the name of Yeshua, the name above all names. Though scripture says, "God's ways are higher than our ways, and His thoughts than our thoughts" (Isaiah 55:9), His ways are available to us, though we must choose to ascend to walk in those ways. The prophet, Haggai likewise challenged the people, "Consider your ways" (Haggai 1:7). The Lord is speaking to hearts in our day and in this season. He is calling His body to "come up hither," to take the high way and to be caught up into His glory. We must respond to His invitation.

How to Walk the High Way

It is easy to say, "Just do it!" but our flesh will likely fight us all the way. Jeremiah 17:9 says, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked." Likewise, "The carnal mind is enmity against God" (Romans 8:7). In our fleshly nature, we cannot hope to consistently take and keep to the highway. But God has provided the resource we need; that is Holy Spirit, our paraclete, the One called alongside to help. Yet even many Spirit-filled believers fail to consistently follow God and walk the highway. Why is that? The answer is because we must be continuously filled with the Holy Spirit.

Jude 1:20 admonishes us, "But ye, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith praying in the Holy Ghost." We must "edify" ourselves, literally charge up our battery constantly, by praying in the Holy Spirit. This is a most important part of the armor of God provided to us to attain victory. Only as we do so will we have power to overcome all the works of the evil one and the power to consistently walk the highway. It is Holy Spirit in His fullness operating within us who provides the motivating, purifying power that will keep us on the highway.

Individuals who are saved but not filled with Holy Spirit, or those who are filled but who do not receive the full counsel of the word of God, will more than likely find themselves walking a compromised lifestyle with a secular worldview, following the lusts of the flesh. "I'm O.K.," they will say as they drift about on the misty flats with limited conviction and no power to ascend.

The unsaved, either as an act of the will or through lack of knowledge, will likely grope the low way, until they are shown a better way, and may be quite comfortable there, either not caring or not knowing to lift their eyes to see that there is a higher way. During my college days, being the spiritual person I am, I believed I was a Christian because I was born in America and was not Jewish! I had attended a denominational church for many years and had not been shown a higher walk.

Become Transfigured

In Mark 9:2, Yeshua took Peter, James, and John up into a high mountain apart by themselves, and He was transfigured before them, and His face did shine as the sun. The world needs to see the Body of Christ transfigured and shining before them. God is calling His Bride to come up higher. We will see His glorious plan for us made manifest as we choose His glory over the glory of the world and as we choose His fullness over the crumbs the world has to offer. The bride must prepare herself (Rev 19:7). With Holy Spirit as our helper, we must choose to be those leaders, pioneers, pacesetters, mighty warriors, the ekklesia, and world changers the Lord has called us to become. We must choose to step out in the power and authority the Master has placed at our disposal, just as we must choose to ascend the mountain of the Lord and live in His presence. As we choose to walk the Lord's highway in the power and presence of Holy Spirit, we too will become transfigured before the world. His light will arise upon us and be seen in us! As we do, I believe we will see many choosing to walk the highway of the Lord. Glory be to God!

Nissan 13, 5783: Tuesday April 4, 2023

"Trust Me in the Process"

Lyn Packer, Christchurch, New Zealand

The new year has been underway, and life is already throwing surprises at us. Yet, in the midst of that, God is speaking to us, encouraging us, strengthening us, giving us much-needed wisdom, and more.

Recently, I've been hearing the Lord say, "Trust Me in the process." As I thought about what He said to me and prayed into it, I believe that God is saying, "Trust that the plans I have for you are for good and not evil, to give you a future and hope. Trust My goodness, trust My wisdom, trust My nature and character. I am trustworthy. Trust that I can see what you don't and trust that, in My love, I will not abandon you and leave you to face things or go through them alone."

In my life I've discovered that trust is based on knowing a person, and faith in someone is based on that person's trustworthiness. God's character is trustworthy and that's why we can have faith in Him. What a comfort and a hope that is when we are in a year full of unknowns! Because God is trustworthy, we can trust Him in the process. For me this has been a key lesson for life and ministry.

Wanting the Promise without the Process

Process is vital to our personal formation, and the formation of anything we do in life – in business, giving birth naturally or spiritually, raising our families, ministry, gaining victories, or manifesting promises from the Lord. So often, we want the promise without the process; the resurrection without the Cross or death; the provision without the need; the birth without the labor. We want the easy way, the miraculous intervention; yet in life it rarely works that way, and that is on purpose. The process is vital for our development and for the manifestation of dreams and prophetic promises.

Adversity and challenges come in life, and God does not waste them when they do. He promises to make all things work for good in our lives (Romans 8:28). God knows what He aims to birth and establish in and through our lives as He makes use of what life presents to us, and as we trust Him in the process. Your past and present are part of the formation process that has led to now, and your future will be the fruit of what you have allowed to be fashioned within you during the process. That process, and our moving through it successfully, is what produces in us confidence, authority and expertise in an area.

If you've had a prophetic word spoken over you, then you will know that prophetic word started a process where God not only worked to see the word come to pass in your life, but He also worked on you. This happened so that you would become the person who could carry the authority that came through the learning process which took place as you waited for the fulfillment.

In Psalm 105:19, we read this of Joseph: "Until the time that his word came to pass, the word of the LORD tested him." Joseph's prophetic revelation took him into a process that would eventually manifest in the fulfillment of that word. That process weighed, tested, and proved his trust in God in the adverse circumstances he faced along the way. It also tested and proved his character. It tested who he was in good times and hard times; what internal beliefs would manifest outwardly in his life and character and what would be proved false. It was the process, the testing, that formed and proved who He was and who God was in his life.

Becoming Like Yeshua

In all that is happening in the world, many of us have questions regarding what may seem like the delay of a promise, provision, healing, etc. Earlier, I referenced Romans 8:28, where God promises to work all things for our good. In the very next verse, He says that His plan is for us to be conformed to the image of Christ – to become like Yeshua!

The Lord is saying, "Trust Me in the time of process, because I am doing a work in you of both earthly and eternal value. My plan is to bring you into all I envisaged for you – to do a renewing, re-forming work in you in the process, making you like Christ; bringing you more and more into manifesting the reality that you are made in My image and likeness."

The process is vital to the promise. Rest in the fact that even though you may not see the whole picture, God does. He knows what He is doing in you, and what He will do through you to bless others during the process. He knows what's on the other side, what will be birthed and established in your life, and in others. In it all, He promises to give you wisdom and to be there with you!

Nissan 14, 5783: Wednesday April 5, 2023

"Keys to Spiritual Hunger"

Wade E. Taylor, formerly Nanjemoy, MD

"Then shall the Kingdom of Heaven be likened to ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish." (Matthew 25:1-2, Treasury of Scripture)

When considering this passage of Scripture, we may attempt to identify those who are foolish, rather than looking at ourselves. The only way we can point a finger at someone is to point three fingers at ourselves. If we will apply this verse to ourselves, it can be said that each one of us is half wise and half foolish. Thus, we cast the deciding vote as to where we will be found in "that day" – either among those who are wise, or among the foolish.

"While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom comes; go you out to meet Him. Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go you rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut." (Matthew 25:5-10, Treasury of Scripture)

The Oil of the Lord

The desire and intention of the Lord is that we will be found among the wise, thus the exhortation that those who are wise should take "oil" with them (renew their strength). This oil results from an active, on-going devotional life by which we receive from the Lord a supply of His grace.

"Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength (receive grace); they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." (Isaiah 40:30-31, Treasury of Scripture, emphasis added)

The "oil" (grace) enables us to respond quickly to His word of direction and purpose, or to His word of correction. When corrected, we can tell whether the chastisement is coming from the Lord to bring correction, or whether it is condemnation from the enemy. A word from the Lord may be sharp and cut, for the Word is as a two-edged sword, but it will present to us an understandable way through. As we submit to its intent, we will be drawn closer to the Lord.

The Word of the Lord always encourages and leads to life. On the other hand, the enemy will condemn us and tell us that we have really missed it, and we'll never be spiritual. He will place tormenting thoughts within us, that we may as well give up. The word of the enemy always discourages and leads to death.

The Five Wise Virgins vs. the Five Foolish Virgins

There were ten virgins. The word "virgin" tells us that they have spiritual potential but have not yet unconditionally submitted themselves to His purposes. Ten, the number of completions, tells us that the Lord will fully prepare us for the "marriage supper of the Lamb," if we will respond rightly to Him.

The wise rejected the tendency toward spiritual indifference and discouragement. They began to seek the Lord and to spend quality time in His presence. They asked for and quickly responded to the dealings of the Lord, that they might be changed and become pleasing to Him.

The foolish, however, remained satisfied with surface blessings and responded to the Lord according to their emotions, seeking only their present comfort and satisfaction. Each one of us has these tendencies within us – five (one-half) wise, and five (one-half) foolish. Thus, our vote will determine the way we will go.

There is an application of this principle to our everyday life experience. The wise, having oil, were able to respond to the needs of others that arose along the daily path of life. The foolish, not having oil, were not prepared and had nothing to offer. Therefore, when the time came to enter, they were not ready because they had neglected the process of preparation.

Our relationship to the Lord must be based on a practical, active friendship with Yeshua, including Him in everything we face in life. The foolish were only interested in seeking present fulfillment and satisfaction. They were curious about the "time" when Yeshua would appear at the door, but they were not prepared when it suddenly came. (Photo via Flickr)

"I Will Fill Their Treasures"

Five actively sought to do something about their circumstances, and five were indifferent and passive. If, in all things, we daily seek to please the Lord, and daily we set apart time to have fellowship with Him, and daily we let Yeshua know that we love Him and greatly appreciate His working in our lives, we will have the required oil that will enable us to enter ("I will fill their treasures").

"I love them that love Me; and those that seek Me early shall find Me. That I may cause those that love Me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures." (Proverbs 8:17, 21, King James Version)

We cannot overcome a problem by struggling against it, but rather by displacing it with the thoughts of the Lord. These are available to us, as we commune with Him. If we are having a problem with our thoughts, we should begin to meditate on His presence and repeat the "words" of the Lord, especially in the Sermon on the Mount.

"His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things: enter you into the joy of your lord." (Matthew 25:23, Treasury of Scripture)

The wise will be rewarded by the Lord because they willingly, in anticipation, do these things, but the foolish will not.

Nissan 15, 5783: Thursday April 6, 2023

Pesach 1: 1st Day of Passover

Teach us to count our days so that we will become wise Psalm 90:12

"IF ONLY YOU KNEW!"
VERONIKA WEST, IRELAND

I hear the Spirit say, "My warrior Bride, lay hold of this truth: your enemies are under your feet – yes! Your foes were utterly defeated and destroyed, even before the battle began. Ha! You must come up higher, you must stay seated in heavenly places, if you are going to see with greater clarity, understanding and wisdom.

"Have I not said, 'It's not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit'? Surely you don't believe that I would leave you alone and on your own, unequipped and without the weapons you need to push back and annihilate your adversaries? No! For surely, I have given you all authority in My Word and all power through My Spirit to subdue kingdoms. But you must listen and obey. You must hear and you must do what I have commanded you, or else utter defeat and destruction are a sure certainty.

"Do you not yet fully understand that the battle is not against flesh and blood? The fight is not against worldly governments or mere men, or even earthly circumstances. The real battle you are in is in the unseen realms. It's against the rulers, the authorities, and the powers of a dark world, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. "So, arise, put on the full armor and advance forth into battle as a mighty warrior, and lay claim to what is rightfully yours through inheritance. Receive by faith that which has already been done for you, and let the victory, triumph and finished work of the Cross become a manifest reality in your life.

"So, lift up your voice and cry unto Me in this hour of great upheaval and turmoil, and in the midst of an unrelenting fight – not in fear, doubt and unbelief, but in joy, hope and radical expectation of the sudden and supernatural breakthrough and the deliverance that has been made available to you, RIGHT HERE AND RIGHT NOW. I SAY, 'TAKE IT!'

"Therefore, offer up a sacrifice of praise and let the fruit of your lips bring forth thanksgiving unto My name. Let the sound of your worship be like the sound of many trumpets that will drown out and silence the tormenting voices of the demons that seek to intimidate, manipulate, distract, and derail your Kingdom destiny.

"Look up! Behold, walls! Walls are now crashing down. This is your Jericho moment. This is the hour for accelerated advancement. Do not shrink back now. Do not retreat back into the cave, for it's time to pursue, overtake, and recover all.

"I call you MIGHTY CONQUERORS. What or who can hinder your advancement when My name is upon your lips? With an arsenal of angel armies going before you and behind you, and with all My power and presence at your full disposal, what devil or demon dares to stand in your way?

"If only you could see beyond the veil, My beloved. IF ONLY YOU KNEW, with an unwavering assurance, what I have formed and fashioned for you – what I have prepared for My righteous remnant. Ha! It's a glorious future of even greater victories and greater rewards. I tell you the truth, hearts and minds cannot even begin to imagine what I have prepared and what I am about to do in these last days for those that LOVE ME," says God.

"Watch, for the den has been prepared and the bloodthirsty lions lie in wait"!!!

But as I prayed and warred in the spirit, suddenly The Spirit of God spoke to me saying, "Watch and pay attention! Pray, pray, pray for the nation of America and for President Donald Trump, for it shall be like in the days of Daniel, when My faithful servant was thrown into the lions' den.

Watch! For they shall come together, and they shall conspire with one another to destroy that which I have decreed and that which I have declared over the land and they shall look to catch him out. They look to grab hold of him, to utterly destroy him, for surely, I tell you, the den has been made ready and the hungry lions now lie in wait," says The Spirit of God.

"Watch and pray! Call a Fast, for they shall come together as one from the left and from the right. Yes! There will be those who shall come from the right, who shall say, "How can this be?" But I tell you, many hearts will be turned cold by a strong spirit of lies and deception. Yes! Even a spirit of murder dwells in the midst of them, for they have hatched a plan and they have put together a plot to overturn and overthrow that which has been established.

But listen, stay vigilant in this hour! Watch and pray! For surely, I tell you again, just as the day they threw Daniel into the lions' den, so they shall they come together in great unity and authority in this day to throw a praying president into the den of hungry lions.

Tell My People, if they will look to Me and cry out to Me in this hour, I shall send My angels of protection into the midst of them.

Yes! Into the storm of rising lies and false accusations and into the midst of the roaring lions, and their bloodthirsty mouths shall be shut closed, and that which was conceived in the womb of darkness shall not come to full term but shall surely be fully aborted and brought to nothing," says The Spirit of God.

"Now watch! For I stand over My Word to perform it in this hour and in this day, for the nation of America shall see My Glory and they shall see My Hand move in mighty and yet more mysterious ways in the days ahead, for I have set My Seal upon My Servant and a Mantle of Kingship, and he shall become My Trumpet for Righteousness and Justice in the land, and no man shall touch My anointed and live!" says The Spirit of God.

Nissan 16, 5783: Friday April 7, 2023

Pesach II: 2nd Day of Passover

Johnny + Elizabeth Enlow

"God's Essence is HIS Love"

God is brilliant and relatable in the way He has given us the areas of our lives that we daily engage with, connect with, and care the most about (the seven areas of culture) as a framework to receive His kingdom and the essence of who He is on earth. God's kingdom involves God's better way of doing everything and the solving of every problem. God's essence is His love. In the simplest way to describe Him—He is love. Our lives are ultimately a journey to discover and understand what love looks like—what God as love looks like in each of these areas of culture—as His kingdom, His better ways and solutions are coming to earth. Because there's no fear in love and perfect love casts out all fear, we will know that the kingdom has fully come, and that God is properly being displayed in each area of culture when we're able to experience that area of culture and our conclusive takeaway is, "I felt loved."

"RISE: A Reformer's Handbook for the Seven Mountains" by Johnny + Elizabeth Enlow

"God's essence is His love. In the simplest way to describe Him—He is love.

Our lives are ultimately a journey to discover and understand what love looks like—what God as love looks like in each of these areas of culture—as His kingdom, His better ways and solutions are coming to earth."

Nissan 17, 5783: Saturday April 8, 2023
Pesach III: 3rd Day of Passover
I Am Calling My People to Restore the Altars"
Conrad Lampan, Silverdale, WA

Recently, I was blessed to minister at Covenant Church in The Dalles, OR, then at the Breakthrough Conference at Living Waters Ranch in Challis, ID, and later on at Bridge of Hope in Libby, MT. After preaching in the morning sessions, I felt the prompt of the Holy Spirit to make an altar call to come and commune with Him. I did, and it was an amazing sight, as almost all the people in the room came to the altar; some kneeling, some standing, and some prostrating before His Majesty.

At the session in ID, I felt the prompt of the Holy Spirit again to call the musicians and play the strings as we walked among the people at the altar. It was just awesome. The anointing was flowing; everybody was being touched by the blessed Holy Spirit.

This Is What the Nation Needs

Then God started to speak, and He said: "This is what the nation needs. This is what I am doing right now. I am calling My people to restore the altars.

"I am calling My people to come through the altar of repentance and proceed to the altars of prayer, and into the Holy of Holies.

"However," He continued, "those three altars will happen at once, when My people come to the altar to seek My face. There is repentance and there is grace poured; there is prayer and there is Heaven's reply; there is awe and fear in the innermost Presence, and there is the embrace of the Father.

"The restoration of the altars I am calling My Church to activate means that Yeshua Christ will be, once more, at the center of My Church's activities, and the focus will shift from Earth to Heaven.

"Then and only then," He said, "the focus of Heaven on Earth will become a certainty – a reality, and an unquestionable presence of God, leading to holiness, will come like a wave that will permeate society and change the nation.

"My Church – every church, in every locality – needs to realize that when Yeshua died and was resurrected and went up to sit at the right hand of God, those who believe become the people of eternity. Those who believe are not part of the world anymore, and it will be only then – when My Church realizes that the place of abode and the place of primary action is in the heavenly places in Yeshua – that Christians, all around the world, will become the most effective force to bring change."

The Holy Spirit said, "Only those with a close connection with Heaven are able to bring forth the changes that the nation desperately needs. And that close connection will become active and evident in action as My people restore the altars.

"I am not restoring the altars Myself; I am calling My people to restore the altars. And when they do, they will find that I have been waiting there all along, ready to bless them and, through them, bless the nation, when they make themselves ready to become the channel of grace and heavenly glory that the Father always had in mind when He sent Yeshua Christ."

It's Not About Calling Heaven, but About Bringing Heaven

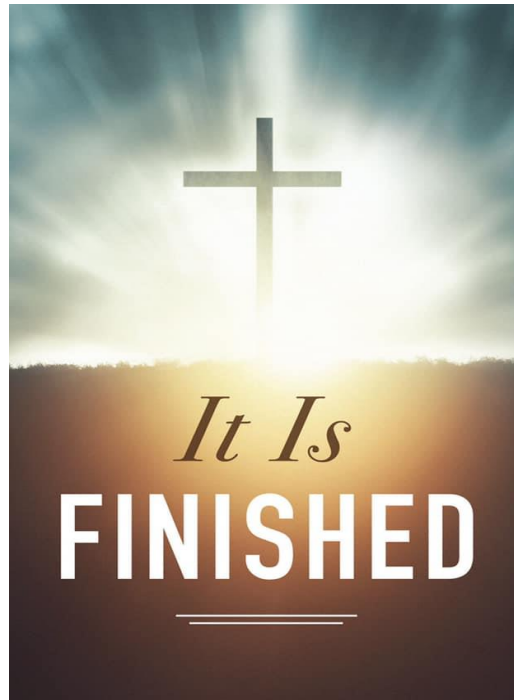

I have been to many revivals around the world through many years, and I have researched revivals in the history of the Church, from the Book of Acts and on. As a result, I have found this common principle of action by the Holy Spirit: Yeshua is at the center, and the altars are open. In a true revival, people run to the altars – literally run!

When God's people, who have been washed by the Blood of the Lamb, make that connection the Holy Spirit is prompting us all to make, I believe we are going to see change happen. Instead of standing in the world calling Heaven to do something, we will stand in His presence and bring Heaven in.

In other words, it is not about calling Heaven but about bringing Heaven. This means your involvement with the Holy Spirit; it means not just detached Kingdom values but the extension of the Kingdom. We must realize that the preaching of the Kingdom is the only factor of change, and the only expectation of hope.

After all, that is exactly what Yeshua did, and the apostles. Why would we do otherwise?

Nissan 18, 5783: Sunday April 9, 2023
Pesach IV: 4th Day of Passover

Inspiration Ministries: Take My Life

"I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him." – Romans 12:1 NLT

Frances Havergal was a precocious child. Born in England in 1836, she started reading when she was three. The daughter of a hymn writer, she memorized much of the Bible. She also developed a passion to spread the Gospel.

This passion was stirred when she visited a home where some were unconverted. Others were "converted but did not have joy." How she wanted them all to know God as she did!

She prayed, "Lord, give me all in this house!" God answered that prayer, and all 10 household members committed their lives to Him. Moved by this experience, she wrote "Take My Life, and Let It Be," a hymn that described the dedication she felt toward God.

She wrote, "Take my life, and let it be consecrated" to Him. She prayed He would take her life and let it "flow in ceaseless praise," that her hands would "move at the impulse of Thy love," and that her feet would "be swift and beautiful for Thee."

Her prayer was that she only would sing "for my King" and her words would "be filled with messages" from Him. She committed all her resources to Him, vowing, "not a mite would I withhold."

God looks for those with this kind of total commitment. Remember, you owe everything to Him. He has given you opportunities to serve Him. Commit your life to Him. Believe Him to do remarkable things through you!

Reflection Question: Compose a prayer of consecration to the Lord.

Prayer

Father, let my life be consecrated to You. Use my hands, my feet, my words, and the resources You have given me. In Yeshua' name, amen.

Today's Bible Reading

Romans 12

Nissan 19, 5783: Monday April 10, 2023

Pesach V: 5th Day of Passover

Ladies Night, The Banquet Table

Lana Vawser: I HEARD THE LORD SAY

"I HAVE TREASURES IN STILLNESS AWAITING YOU"

Recently as I sat with the Lord, I heard the Lord say, "I have treasures in stillness awaiting you."

There was such a strong sense from the heart of God that this is a time to really position ourselves to wait upon God, to linger in His presence and to really spend time soaking in the secret place. I could feel a warning from the heart of God that was thundering loudly, "Do not be eager to rush".

There was such an invitation from His heart to be immersed in His presence and to embrace and cultivate stillness before Him: for there are treasures that are awaiting His people that are so precious, so sacred and so much deeper than they have ever received or experienced before.

As I continued to sit with Him, I saw that these treasures in the stillness were flowing from His heart. There was a precious revelation that the Lord was releasing right now: these deep revelations and secrets of His heart were bringing forth transformation, life, breakthrough, insight, wisdom and depths of intimacy with Him that had not been walked in before.

I then had a vision of many, and they were living in this place of embracing and cultivating stillness before Him, and Glory was filling the places where they waited upon Him. His Glory, Majesty and Awe of who He is was exploding as they waited, as they lingered.

At that moment I was suddenly taken back to a Scripture the Lord spoke to many years ago that He said would be very important and key in the new era that would come forth, that we have now entered.

"And so, the Lord used to speak to Moses' face to face, just as a man speaks to his friend. When Moses returned to the camp, his attendant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart from the tent." Exodus 33:11 (AMP)

I heard the Lord speak again, "Do not lose the stillness. Cultivate the stillness, for treasures in stillness await you."

It struck me deeply again. Stillness and His people lingering before Him, waiting upon Him, without agenda, without presumption or assumption, just being with Him, and lingering in His presence and NOT running ahead, NOT rushing, just "being" is VERY heavily upon His heart right now.

A dream I had many years ago then flooded back to me at that moment where I heard the Lord say, "Where are those who will linger? Where are those who will linger? For those who will linger, I will entrust with the secrets of My heart."

This is not a time to rush ahead. This is a time to prioritize the stillness before Him, however that looks for you. This is a time to prioritize the place of lingering in His presence and waiting upon Him.

I was so aware that the stillness He was inviting us into was not only spaces in our lives carved out to just be still before Him, but it was also a heart posture. It was a deeper awareness of His presence, of His nearness, of His voice. It was a stillness of heart that was turned towards Him to hear His voice, to sense His leading, it was a surrendered place of stillness before Him that embraces Him, His way and leading.

That sense surrounded me strongly again, "Do not rush ahead, do not run ahead." It is imperative in this hour to be surrendered in stillness to His way, to His agenda, to His pace, to His timing and to His direction.

There is a weighty beautiful sacredness of what is being poured out right now that is to be stewarded with such an open hand, such a stillness of heart to allow Him to have His way — whatever that looks like. Waiting on Him for as long as it takes for Him to speak, Him to reveal, Him to lead and direct. His Glory is increasing and will continue to increase as we wait upon Him in the stillness.

I then heard Proverbs 25:2 SO loud:

"It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, But the glory of kings is to search out a matter." (AMP)

"God conceals the revelation of His Word in the hiding place of His glory, but the honor of kings is revealed by how they thoroughly search out the deeper meaning of all God says." (TPT)

The invitation God is releasing right now in the stillness to receive a deeper revelation of what He is speaking is so weighty.

There's a stillness in the weight of His Glory and the invitation to hear, see and understand what the Spirit of God is speaking and to truly position ourselves to seek and search it out in the place of stillness before Him. In waiting upon Him in this hour, the greatest revelation of His Word, His voice and encounter with His heart will burst forth in your life.

He is re-introducing Himself in deeper, more glorious ways to His people and the unveiling of His Glory, Majesty and Awe of who He is, is going to change everything. Lastly, I heard the Lord say, "There have been many living in a place of stillness that has felt like they are stuck. A place of stillness feeling like there is no momentum in their life. A place of stillness that has felt like a deep level of dryness that they have felt like they are withering and not thriving. Say to these ones, there has been a strategic attack of the enemy upon many lives right now to silence them, to steal their vision and hearing and to cause them to want to give up, but I am roaring over these ones. My ROAR is reawakening their senses. Where witchcraft and the attacks of the enemy have come so strongly to steal from them, as I ROAR, My ROAR is bringing the divine RESTORE. I am restoring ALL and MORE. I will increase their vision. I will INCREASE their hearing of what My Spirit is saying. These ones have remained deeply faithful to Me. They have continued to seek My heart and continued to draw close to Me and are so tender-hearted towards Me. The enemy came SWIFTLY to steal from them, but I say NO MORE. My roar is reawakening and restoring and breaking this attack of the enemy that has felt like it has almost taken them out, but I have been close to them and persevered and strengthened them. NOW they shall arise stronger than ever. Now they shall arise in a divine comeback that will cause the enemy to cower. These ones will now arise and move into a season of DIVINE STILLNESS in My presence where they are encountering Me and My Glory on a level that is unprecedented: and they will receive revelation of My Word, insight and divine strategy for this hour in what I am doing and speaking and see the deep secrets of My heart that I pour out upon those who are embracing and cultivating stillness and lingering. It's time to be saturated in My Glory."

Beauty for Ashes- Hope and Healing in Yeshua Christ

Did you know, An oyster that has not been wounded in any way does not produce pearls? A pearl is a healed wound.

Pearls are a product of pain, the result of a foreign or unwanted substance entering the oyster, such as a parasite or a grain of sand. The inside of an oyster shell is a shiny substance called "nacre." When a grain of sand enters, the nacre cells go to work and cover the grain of sand with layers and more layers to protect the defenseless body from the oyster. As a result, a beautiful pearl is formed!

The more pearls, the more valuable, God never allows pain without a purpose. What if your greatest ministry to others comes out of your greatest hurt or deepest wounds? The hard things we may be going through now are really nothing in comparison to the glory that will be revealed in us later. (Romans 8:17-18)"

Nissan 20, 5783: Tuesday April 11, 2023
Pesach VI: 6th Day of Passover
Sharon Kaseweter: Rest

Since we're talking about peace, let me chime in about a close relative, rest. But before we go any further, I have a question for you. Is it possible to rest on your feet? Well, let's find out. Did you know one of God's biggest characteristics is rest. In Genesis 1 it says "On the seventh day He rested" we also know it as the sabbath day or day of rest. The word alone paints a relaxing picture, doesn't it? When we think about rest, we probably don't think on the lines of identity but just maybe, it's time we start. In the fall of mankind, we lost very valuable parts of our true identity, care to guess what one of them was? Go to the head of the class, if you said rest.

In the cataclysmic garden catastrophe, we exchanged our true identity of rest for the false identity of guilt. Not much relaxation in guilt now is there, (example, the guilty flee when none pursue) but there it is right under our noses all the live long day. We don't come by rest easily and it's because we are wearing someone else's clothes, well kind of...let me explain.

When we sinned and fell from Daddy God's grace, we lost our glorious clothing only to put on the dirty garments of guilt and condemnation, which we thought would hide us... but no, they only served to imprison us! Jail clothes anyone!

Unfortunately, after a while we became so convinced that those were our real clothes we just gave in to the lie and schlepped around in them, fig leaves and all. Little truth about sin, it's impossible to hide it from our Heavenly Daddy and He would really rather you came clean.

Ok back to rest...

In the fall of mankind, we lost our innocence and our true identity of rest, and in the process, our glorious covering. Then taking on the false identity of fear and death, we became afraid, traipsing around the garden in our fashion statement foliage, trying to hide from the very one who lovingly created us, our Heavenly Father who came to visit us in His garden.

We now wore full-time the stained garment of sin, the stigma of guilt, our own scarlet letter, which separated us from our truest love. This is a very serious matter because it's one of the reasons why Yeshua came to earth to die on the cross. His desire for us to be reconciled to the Father was greater than His defending of His own life. He was the perfect example of how a child of God was to live life and He needed for us to fully understand who we authentically were, no matter the cost.

When Yeshua was walking out His earthly ministry, He showed us repeatedly who He knew himself to be by His words and actions. When he spoke it out it came to pass!

In Him we have our true identity as sons and daughters of God. Yeshua revealed who He and God the Father were by His obedience to the mission "they" were on together! It was to save mankind from the dark and evil powers that ruled the world due to the fall. (a real-life thriller)

One of the many things He did to show us who we were was by co-laboring with us in His ministry and letting us see firsthand, we can do that too.

Obedience goes a long way.

One of the biggest things He wanted us to know about ourselves was... there's that word again, rest! He was trying to gently pound into our hard-little heads the beautiful truth that rest was ours to have, but we, because of our dirty garments of guilt and condemnation, couldn't get our minds to grab ahold of that basic yet elusive truth.

We, for so long, had worn someone else's clothes we began to act like them, and sadly forgot who we truly were. In Christ alone we take on our true identity of Love and life, It's Yeshua spirit-life in us that activates our destiny journey. It's literally where the saying "be all you can be", originates from!

When we look at the goings on in the world the one prevalent thing that sticks out like a sore thumb is lack of rest brought on by fear, which we now hopefully understand is not our true identity. Yeshua wanted so deeply for us to understand and own this gift from the Father that He defied torrential storms at sea and allowed them instead, to rock him to sleep.

The word of God in Hebrews 4: 9-11 says that we are to "Labor to enter into rest "LABOR?"! OK so it takes some work on our part and that work is going after our true identity. It's simply a matter of removing those filthy garments and allowing Yeshua to adorn us in our perfect ones. Oh, the joy that floods my soul! Here is where our part comes in.

When Yeshua was led by Holy Spirit (some translations say He was chased) into the wilderness to fast forty days and nights, I believe it was for the purpose of showing the flesh who was boss. He knew He could not carry out the earthly mission that was branded into His DNA, if the fleshly part of Him was alive and kicking ...so he killed it.

(Note to self) All throughout the bible the number 40 serves as a death sentence. It was only AFTER his 40-day fast that he performed his first miracle at the wedding in Cana, turning the water into wine.

A notable feat to be sure, and greater things will we do in His name.

In John 14:12-14 Yeshua himself tells us that we will do even greater things than He did. It's for real, or He wouldn't've spoken it. Hopefully by now you're getting some idea of what it looks like to walk in your true identity. Acts 17:28 says, if you're reading out of The Passion translation, that in Him we have our being or identity. Ask yourself this question, did Yeshua ever need healing? I think you'll answer with an emphatic and resounding NO! Why though?

Because the sinless Son of the Most High could not get sick and neither could we back in the garden. When we say we're "sick of this or sick of that" we really are, sin made us "sick" in more ways than one, but by Yeshua stripes (whipping) we were, are healed!

Taking a look back, we see that our true identities were stolen by none other than satan, the thief himself. A very jealous Angel slithering around Gods garden in a serpent suit. We also see we need the word of God, which is actually Yeshua, the Living word, that by His stripes, we, our true identities, were healed. It was completed before it even began. God knows the end from the beginning...He's God!

In a very true sense Yeshua came and recovered what was stolen from us in the garden debacle, now it's up to us to deal with the flesh, just as Yeshua did during the 40 day fast. Ask Heavenly Father to show you what He knows you need to fast, trust me it'll be worth it, and He will give you the strength to carry it through. He wants it for us more than we could ever want for ourselves, because one of the fruits of fasting the flesh is sensitivity to the spirit.

The spirit is willing, the flesh is weak.

So, what if we don't actually need healing, what if we only need our true identities because all things heaven is already there! The takeaway for me is that we can do nothing to the degree that Daddy wants of us when our flesh has any say. So rest isn't an action as much as it's a position!

We must surrender All to Yeshua And now you know the "rest" of the story!

So, it takes 40 days to kill the flesh, hmm. Activation to receive peace and rest, Break all agreements with anxiety which is a rest robber. "Be anxious in nothing but by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving make your requests known to God then the peace of God which surpasses understanding will guard your heart and mind in Christ Yeshua", Philippians 4:6

Come into agreement with Daddy God for your peace according to His will for you in Christ Yeshua. "My peace I leave with you, peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid", John 14:27

Take every thought prisoner, that steals your peace. "Casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ" 2 Corinthians 10:5

Change your way of thinking. "Be not conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind that you may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God".

A prayer for walking in Gods perfect peace

Heavenly Father I come to you in the name of your precious and beloved Son, Yeshua. I have dealt with sin in this area and now I accept, by faith in Yeshua, the Perfect Peace available to me through His selfless sacrifice. I choose to believe and expect what I have asked for, as I know it is Your will for my life. So now I will rest in Your faithfulness over my life.

In Yeshua matchless Name, Amen

Nissan 21, 5783: Wednesday April 12, 2023
Pesach VII: 7th Day of Passover
Celebration Is a Weapon of Choice in 2023"
Mandy Woodhouse, Brisbane, Australia

My friend and I were recently discussing the difference between worship and praise, and she dropped a line straight from the Holy Spirit: "Praise is a heart posture of celebration."

"I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth." (Psalm 34:1 ESV)

To CELEBRATE simply means to give honor or praise publicly. Sometimes, we "celebrate" publicly through holidays and times of remembrance, such as birthday parties or Christmas. The Hebrews were and are masters at this, as they diligently and intentionally take time to come together to celebrate all that the Lord has done (see Leviticus 23).

As I chatted with the Lord about this concept of praise and celebration, I went into a vision that brought my heart great encouragement.

Fireworks/Party Popper Vision

In the vision, there was a grand celebration and a gathering of many people of God. The skies were lit up with fireworks, and no expense was spared on these extravagant, colorful explosions. I saw that as the people of God celebrated, fireworks went off, and thus each explosion became a dagger that pinned together the lips of demons in the area, and the voice of the enemy could no longer be heard!

I then saw the people of God grab party poppers and begin to pull the little strings on the poppers, causing the streamers and confetti to exit suddenly. The streamers were not made of paper but made of ABSOLUTE TRUTH and GOD'S GLORY. There were so many party poppers going off under the fireworks that the air was thick with a sound that superseded the soul and emotions of each person at the celebration. The sound of celebration cut through any anxiety or fear in the atmosphere. The ABSOLUTE TRUTH, coming forth from each popper, divided the lies so that the people of God were able to see the external spirits of anxiety and fear that had been assigned to them.

The sound of celebration caused the inner world of these people of God to align with His absolute truth and not be distracted by the external feelings of fear.

The Lord then brought me out of this vision and reminded me of a dream I had last year, where some of my personal items had been bugged. It was as if there were surveilling and spying spirits in these personal effects, and I never felt safe; yet the Holy Spirit did not allow me to dispose of these items.

In the dream, my husband and I were aware that our things were bugged, but as we began to praise Yahweh and honor Him loudly, our celebration of our Lord was loud enough to drown out the sounds of everything else. The louder and more child-like we praised, the more we noticed that the "bugs" were leaving. This brought great comfort and peace to my heart.

"Through the praise of children and infants You have established a stronghold against Your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger."
(Psalm 8:2 NIV)

Celebration Is a Weapon

Celebration is a posture of the heart and also a weapon. It is not in the language of the devil, so it brings intimidation to the enemy's camp.

The Lord brought to my remembrance my pre-teen years playing softball. For several years, I was on a team whose coach took the approach of honoring each team member for even the little, personal victories during games. If we won a game or had a personal victory, the coach would award us a little star that we were to iron onto our uniforms.

We were also taught to encourage one another with our words while on the field, which was very different from the chants of intimidation that came from other teams, and we learned to celebrate the wins even before we had actually won the game. This often-caused great confusion for the rival teams, as we always came with uniforms covered in stars and a great air of celebration – even when we were up against the best rival team in the league. Our team was taught to celebrate everything, so when a curveball would come at us, we were not rocked. Soon we became undefeated in the league because of our confidence and ability to celebrate!

"God's high and holy praises fill their mouths, for their shouted praises are their weapons of war!" (Psalm 149:6 TPT)

I felt an URGENCY on this word that although you may be thrown curveball after curveball over the next few months, and although it feels counterintuitive, it is imperative that you learn to CELEBRATE. Learn to praise. Learn to remember what the Lord has done and honor Him publicly if necessary. Come what may, there is victory because of Yeshua.

"Now when they began to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated." (2 Chronicles 20:22 NKJV)

The Lord's Celebration

I also saw the Lord standing over His people like a proud Father, rejoicing over them. I saw Him handing out stars – better than the ones I would have received in softball; I saw walls of captivity and fear in people's minds and emotions crashing down as they celebrated with Him. His love was quieting His people internally, and they were able to shout His praises externally.

"The Lord your God in your midst, the Mighty One, will save; He will rejoice over you with gladness, He will quiet you with His love, He will rejoice over you with singing." (Zephaniah 3:17 NKJV)

Nissan 22, 5783: Thursday April 13, 2023

Pesach VIII: 8th Day of Passover

God's Great Glory Will Chase Away Evil!"

Donna Rigney, Salt Springs, Florida

The Antidote for Spiritual Sickness!

On February 8, 2023, Father explained: "My glory will sweep away all that is evil, and only My goodness will remain! People have become nauseated by the excesses of wickedness that they have become subject to and are ready for a great exchange!"

"I will release the antidote for this spiritual sickness – My glory – and joy, peace, love, patience, kindness, self-control, faithfulness, gentleness and goodness will be restored to the land. Your world will no longer be a barren place, but a fruitful land. Like a rich, plush valley fed by flowing streams will your land become, by the power of My Spirit. Just believe that what We say, We will do, and you will see My glory manifest worldwide!"

"What you have seen and experienced – what My glory has done in individuals' lives who were cloaked in My glory – you will see done for the masses, as My glory is poured out worldwide! I don't exaggerate, nor do I ever lie. I said, in the last days, I would pour out My Spirit on all flesh. 'All flesh' means just that; all flesh will be overshadowed by My glory."

On February 10, 2023, Father continued to speak to me about the glory:
"Those who spend time in My presence, daily, will shine like the stars in the days ahead. Deep darkness covers the earth, but those who carry My light will chase that darkness far away for good!

"Daughter, raise up many who will shine with My glory and who let Us transform them into Our likeness. Challenge them to run to the heights, to leave everything behind without looking back, to be totally sold out for Us in order to advance Our Kingdom on Earth... Their rewards will be great! I do reward those who diligently seek Us."

"Yes, it is the diligent seekers, not the casual seekers, that will find Us and see Our wonders. These are those who will walk in Our power and display Our goodness for all to see, just like My apostles did. They left all to follow My Son, and received all of My Spirit, My power and My presence. They bore an abundance of fruit, and this fulfilled each one; delight filled their lives. This same delight and fruitfulness are coming fast upon those who are truly Mine!"

Confirming Scriptures: Philippians 3:12-20; Luke 18:18-30; Matthew 6:25-34.

Strategies to Sustain Revival!

On Thursday, February 16, 2023, Father gave me a clear directive about the work He assigned us to do during this time of revival: "You are heading a militant arm of My Kingdom. Like Deborah, your assignment is to lead the troops to battle so that My will shall come forth! Revival fires are blazing throughout your nation, because so many have gathered and prayed for My best blessings to pour out on your land.

"Stay in your lane, at your post, and you will see even more answered prayers! The masses will fall prostrate before Us and will repent and truly turn from evil to Us and to goodness. You are leading the troops to win many great battles. Victory will come forth and multitudes will come into My Kingdom. Stay at your post. My grace is upon you to do all We ask of you."

"Champions are leading your nation. Just as Jehoshaphat's worshipers led the nation to defeat the armies arrayed against them, these champions are leading your nation to defeat the vast array of wickedness assembled against you. And just as easily as Jehoshaphat's worship team defeated all those attacking them and won a tremendous victory; you will continue to see a total victory.

"Yes, the wealth of the unjust will be retrieved. There will be a great transfer of wealth as the plunder from the wicked is gathered and disbursed to My oppressed children."

Confirming Scripture: 2 Chronicles 20:11-30.

On Sunday, February 19, 2023, Father declared how imperative it is in this hour for His people to be intimate with Him: "Equipping My saints is paramount in this hour, for I need an army of harvesters to arise with healing in their wings. The masses shall come seeking Me and longing for My touch. Only those who truly know Me and walk with Me will be able to demonstrate My power and release My glory."

This Revival Will Not Be Stopped!

While I was sitting alone with Father on Monday morning (February 20, 2023), He continued to speak to me about this revival that recently broke out in February: "I will open up other revival centers for My children to gather to encounter My presence, to hear My words, and to feel My touch directly. My sleeping Bride is being awakened so that she can, and will, fulfill her true destiny: a mighty conqueror of the forces of evil, an ambassador of her King and God, a truth teller, a sold-out lover of her God.

"A limitless work will be accomplished by My revived Bride! And this world will rejoice as it is transformed by My Spirit and My Bride walking together through the land. Shining My light in the darkness, expelling demons, and setting the captives free will she joyfully do in the fullness of Our authority, as she wields the sword with the precision of one who is trained by the expert Marksman – Holy Spirit!

On Tuesday, February 21, 2023, Father spoke to me about the wonders that are coming: "More glory – much more glory – shall be poured forth on you, and on this world. You have just experienced a foretaste. Get ready because the avalanche – the great tsunami wave – of My glory is coming quickly! You truly haven't seen anything yet! 'Astounding' will be what everyone declares when they encounter My glory. This whole world will be changed by My goodness pouring forth on it. The enemy has attempted to pollute My creation by pouring his evil over it. Ha! My great glory will chase away his evil!"

On February 23, 2023, with great determination in His voice, I heard Father say: "More fire will fall from Heaven on you and yours – and on your world! Yes, not just on your state or your nation, but on this world Our fire will fall! The lukewarm and icy-cold will be set on fire, and those who have faithfully carried a blazing torch of love for Us will be ignited even brighter.

"No one will escape this fire. It will consume the chaff of wickedness and burn away the dross of evil and compromise. Yes, My fire is igniting the young ones first, but very rapidly it will spread to all ages, all people, and to all nations. This is My will – for all mankind to be saved and set on fire for Us! Many have stood at their posts and diligently believed, prayed and declared Our words. Now We will perform those words that were Ours!

"Yes, the enemy will try to stop this move of God, but he can't! Once an avalanche starts, or a tsunami is set in motion, no one can stop it. Only I have that power; no man – no demons have that power. It is set in motion and will only gain momentum. My people have prayed, turned from their sins, and I am healing their land. The more evil was exposed, the more My children prayed! My sleeping Bride is awake and at her post; now you will see Us act!

"Faith, not fear, is spreading all over the world! Yes, it was the enemy's attempt to kill faith – by pouring out fear all over the land – that backfired. That fear caused the masses to run back to Us, and We turned that fear into faith by Our perfect love! Faith has come alive! Perfect love casts out fear!"

Confirming Scriptures: Psalm 1, 2; Job 42:10. (Just as Job prayed for his friends and double was restored to him, we have prayed for this world, and God is saying, "You will be restored double too!")

He Uses the Surrendered Ones!

On March 4, 2023, Father explained to me that there are three essentials that we need in order to receive the glory, and two byproducts that come from abiding in His glory. These are those five essential ingredients, before and after receiving His glory:

1. Humility – a great understanding of the truth about ourselves and about God. With humility, we know that apart from Him we can do nothing, but through Him we can do all things.

2. Hunger – a great yearning for Him. Those who admit they need Yeshua will come to Him hungry, and He will satisfy that hunger.

3. Honor. A great love and respect for the Godhead is essential and will lead us to worship. Worship flows forth from a heart filled with honor. Worship is like a magnet that draws God from Heaven to the earth.

4. Holiness will be the byproduct of receiving His goodness – His glory!

5. Habitation will be ours as we live in His glory! He said, "I will never leave or forsake My children who love Me!"

Father continue to speak to me about the awesome wonders that are coming in the outpouring of His glory! He explained to me that we are in the hour of multiplication.

He reminded me of the story about the little boy in Scripture who gave his meager lunch to Yeshua. There were 5,000 hungry men sitting before Yeshua, and Yeshua told His disciples that He wanted to feed them. A little boy came forward and volunteered his five barley loaves and two small fish. Yeshua blessed the bread and the fish and had His disciples pass them out. All the people were fed, and after everyone ate, there were 12 baskets filled with leftovers.

The little boy surrendered all of his lunch to Yeshua. Father explained that as we surrender all to Yeshua, and we give our little bit of who we are, and the gifts and revelations He has given us, He will touch and multiply them so that there is enough to feed everyone He sends our way. Just spending time in His glory, listening to Him and receiving His love will bring about this great multiplication!

The more surrendered we are to Him, the more He will multiply our gifts, and He will pour out a great abundance upon us as well!

During our Friday evening service, I saw this truth of multiplication manifest. Our son, John, was ministering alongside me. Holy Spirit directed me to have John call up individuals for a prophetic word, while I went through the seated congregation releasing the glory on each person.

As I was doing this, Holy Spirit touched each word John was releasing, and those who were seated were receiving these words for themselves, as well as those whom he was directly speaking to. God was multiplying the prophetic words, so everyone was receiving words spoken right to their hearts. Many people wept, some shook, and others were filled with laughter as the glory and the prophetic words were being released.

In the spirit, I had a vision and saw, hours later, that when the people left, they were carrying baskets of words they received – like the boy who had 12 baskets of leftover bread and fish to take home. They were all well nourished by the Bread of Life, with plenty to take home to share with others.

Confirming Scripture: John 6:9-13.

Nissan 23, 5783: Friday April 14, 2023
WALK IN THE SPIRIT: Robin Main

Walking with Yeshua (Yeshua) requires that we walk in Spirit and Truth like He did.

This means that we each have to personally crucify our own flesh with its passions and desires: "I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things that you wish. And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit" (Galatians 5: 16-17,24-25 NKJV).

Galatians 5:18 also tells us "But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law;" and then, gives us a list of the works of the flesh that reveal conditions for anyone (including believers) for not inheriting the fullness of the Kingdom of God. "Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in times past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of God" (Galatians 5:19-21 NKJV).

Our Beautiful Lord and Savior has made it so easy for us. He simply requires humility and honesty. We cannot explore the depths of the mystery of oneness with Yeshua, if we are unwilling to humble ourselves and sincerely ask Him: Do I have any of these works of the flesh in my life? Be sure to remain in a humble and teachable state as you wait on His reply. If he shows you something, that's when you deny yourself this work of the flesh take up your cross (i.e., crucify this work of the flesh in you), and follow Him (Matthew 16:24-26). Remember, that anything that you are unwilling to look at, deny yourselves, and crucify in Christ is the very thing that you are exchanging for the total redemption of your soul.

Don't forget that we are bringing ourselves as a living sacrifice (Romans 12:1-2). I know that this may sound like Christianity 101, but it is always wise to practice the fundamentals of anything important. Every single soul is being called home at this time. Home is where His heart is. Yeshua's heart is our home. This is the place where we walk with Yeshua as one. We just have to be there. "Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Yeshua. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Yeshua has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For what the Law could not do, weak as it was through the flesh, God did: sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh, so that the requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit." (Romans 8:1-4 NASB).

There's a repeated theme in Scripture that many are overlooking in this Kingdom Day: To walk according to the Spirit, or to walk in the Spirit, we must not be walking according to the flesh. Therefore, we have to choose to be humble and teachable in order to be able to see our current reality. Once we truly see our current reality and we humbly react as His heart and Word leads, we will be set free (John 8:32).

It's this walking with, in and through the Spirit of the Living God that elevates us to the place that is not under the law. It's the place where people with an ever-renewing heart and spirit live and move and have our being in Christ alone (Ezekiel 36:26; Acts 17:28).

Give em heaven!!!

Nissan 24, 5783: Saturday April 15, 2023

Nate Johnston

The days of building empires is over.

There is no more juice left in that wineskin. The grace period to keep prioritizing bricks and mortar over sons and daughters is over.

The heart of God is brooding over family and if you are looking for what God's pulse is on right now - that is it.

Not fake family. Not plastic, inauthentic, religious cliché family, but real family. We have been so good at building structures and administratively creating perfect organizations, systems, and people management but have lost the very heart of the father.

If you are wondering what to build - build a family, repair family, champion the family. FIGHT for the family. That's why the enemy is warring so hard after the family and the values of kingdom family because he sees that it is the future. He sees that it is the key that unlocks harvest and an army of uncompromising burning ones.

The tide of culture is right now warring against the family, but we get to be the wave that pushes it back. The days of the enemy tearing down our homes is over. It's been an injustice and one that God is correcting. That's why religion can't be our idol and ministry our mistress. We have to protect the home.

We can't be lovers of the boardroom more than the family room. We can't keep sacrificing our children on the altar of "doing kingdom." We can't keep letting Disney raise our kids while we are off doing fire-tunnels. We can't keep letting Netflix and computer games numb our kids to the reality of the spirit.

We must build the altar in the home again. We have to lead our families into the presence and into real encounter. This is a change of gears season where God is anchoring us back to what really matters. That's what you have felt an internal shift of priorities and your appetite has changed. That's God showing you where He wants you to move.

It's a season of stepping into a different flow, off the hamster wheel and into the slipstream of the spirit. It's a season of less is more and you will be so surprised by what God produces with your yes to the less. It's a season of taking back the family mountain for the kingdom and stripping false kings of their titles and evicting them from their thrones. It's a season of finally coming into a stability and an establishing for families who have been in the long hallway of transition for many years. He is planting you so he can make you into a pillar and a shade and refuge for so many others. This is the birthing place of revival, and this is what the pioneering was all for. This is the season we are moving away from the manicured to the messy. The ducks in a row to the completely reliant on the spirit. But the fruit will speak for itself. Empires have successfully created clones and obedient servants but have failed to raise friends of God that know His voice.

Family is restoring everything that religion has defiled. We are on a take back mission and the lost are coming home. The isolated and those camped out on the fringe, rejected, outcasted, and those who don't fit the criteria of the system. They are coming home. The table is being spread and the prodigals are already beginning to run. And we have to be ready with a ring and a robe. It's that time. He is getting you ready. Right now, He is severing all unhealthy attachments and ties to you. He is setting the record straight over your home.

The generational dysfunctions you grew up in are no longer yours to continue in. This is a season that God begins a new thing in your home. Kingdom legacy is beginning. He has started a new blood line that begins with you right now in this moment.

I prophesy:

Legacy begins here and now. This is where it changes.

Our kids will not grow up tormented, demonized, gender-confused, addicted, or unsure of who they are. They will be sons and daughters of God who know their identity, and purpose, pursuers of Gods heart, and restorers of those who are broken.

Our marriages will not be attacked any longer, assassinated, broken down, and destroyed. Our marriages will be holy and set apart. Not like the worlds ways but built upon the rock - in YESHUA name!

Nissan 25, 5783: Sunday April 16, 2023

"In This Spring Season, the King of Hearts Is on the Move"

Sylvia Neusch, Round Rock, Texas

I heard in my spirit recently, "The King of Hearts is on the move." For a number of months now, I have felt the Holy Spirit's heightened activity in my heart and have witnessed it in the hearts of others as well. It is a time of increasing awareness of His movement in our lives, and His continued work to conform us into the image of His Son, Yeshua.

"And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into His image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit." (2 Corinthians 3:18)

A Time of Submitting Our Hearts to Him

In times of outpouring and revival, the glory level increases around us. We may feel, see and experience Him in greater ways. We may have a greater awareness of His presence in our corporate meetings. In these times of increasing glory and presence, we will also have a greater awareness of those things in our lives that are not in alignment with His Kingdom. This is not a time to move into self-condemnation or self-abasement; rather, it's a time to submit our hearts and lives to His grace and mercy and receive His cleansing and realignment of our lives to His. It is His goodness that leads us to repentance.

I believe we are in such a time, right now. As the glory level continues to increase, things are beginning to come to the surface in hearts and lives. As Believers, we are brand-new creations, no longer bearing a sin nature. However, Scripture makes it clear that we can still sin, even though we have been made the righteousness of God in Christ Yeshua.

"If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness." (1 John 1:8-9)

As the Holy Spirit continues His work among us, we should not be surprised as things begin to bubble to the surface in the hearts of those around us. This is a key time for the Church to walk in unconditional love, forgiveness, grace and mercy.

It is also a time to receive His cleansing and breakthrough anointing in our hearts, releasing it to others around us. Patterns that may have taken months of deliverance and counseling are going to begin to be broken in a moment, through powerful encounters with Him. Prodigals are going to return to their faith in great numbers as well.

The baptism waters are going to be stirring and active in this time. Don't miss the freedom He is offering, step into His waters of deliverance. Breakthrough after breakthrough is going to happen in the waters of baptism. The old is going to be buried in the waters of baptism, and new life, healing and deliverance will be the testimony of many.

Spring Cleaning in the Kingdom

Recently, during a worship service, I heard the Holy Spirit say, "I'm cleaning out the closets." Just the day before, I had spent some time cleaning and organizing our master closet. As I surveyed the piles of things I had sorted on the floor, I realized that I just didn't need these things anymore. I had an unusual urge to purge and get rid of the unneeded things, to simplify and keep only the things that I needed.

Just as He spoke to me in that worship service, I believe the Holy Spirit is doing a similar thing in His Church right now. We are being challenged to simplify and streamline our lives with Him. We may find Him asking, "What is most important right now? What things are not beneficial? What things do you need to get rid of to give Me your full devotion?"

His work is uniquely personal and individual in each heart. Some are being called to a higher level of health consciousness in their bodies. For others, addictions are being exposed and uprooted in their lives. Many are sensing the need to turn from things that have become idols in their hearts, repenting and turning from those things that have held their affections. These are just a few examples of the deep work that the Holy Spirit is doing in hearts in this hour, and it will only increase in the days to come.

Yes, it is a season of spring cleaning in the Kingdom! Traditionally, spring cleaning is defined as a thorough cleaning of a house or room, typically undertaken in spring. Spring cleaning seems to be a bit of a lost art, but in generations past it was a time to go from room to room in your house, doing a very thorough cleaning.

I feel I must emphasize that the "spring cleaning" that the Holy Spirit is orchestrating is out of His heart of love for us and all of mankind. His movement is always unto redemption, new growth and transformation on every level. He is moving on our hearts to get rid of the clutter and to make room for the wonderful, new things that He has prepared for us.

When our hearts hold on to things that do not bring Him honor, we are living short of who He has called and created us to be. He is calling us up higher to step into who we are as the sons and daughters of light. He is preparing the soil of our hearts so that all He has sown, and is sowing, will fully take root and grow, yielding a bumper crop full of His righteousness.

Increased Glory and Increased Warfare

As to be expected, along with the increase of God's glory and Kingdom activity, there has been an increase of spiritual warfare. It is a time to go in low, walking in humility and grace. It is a time to be quick to forgive, slow to speak and slow to anger. We must be intentional about not giving the enemy any toehold of access into our lives.

The enemy is an impostor. Scripture tells us that he "prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8). Notice that it says "like" a lion. The impostor is being exposed in this hour, and the King of our hearts – our Lion of Judah – is rising to roar over the hearts of His Bride, the Church. His roar is calling us up higher and awakening our spirits to hear and be in tune with all He wants to do.

We must fight smart in this hour, and Paul has given us divinely inspired words to walk by concerning our warfare:

"For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ." (2 Corinthians 10:3-5)

We will do well to resist the urge to fight our spiritual battles according to worldly wisdom or tactics. We have a choice as to how we will act or respond in the many situations that come our way. Our senses need to be on high alert to detect the enemy's evil schemes. We can send the enemy's camp into confusion by our godly responses.

What exciting days we are living in as the Bride of Christ! We have front row seats to seeing and participating in the earth being filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord. May He have His full way with His Church and the many hearts who call Him Father. May the Lamb receive the reward of His suffering, the greatest harvest ever to be seen!

Nissan 26, 5783: Monday April 17, 2023

A Deeper Disciple Study

I Got The Music In Me

By Mark Binder

When we are young and grab a hold of music as an inspiration to help us to be serene and emotionally upbeat, it has a profound impact on us for the rest of our lives.

Through innocence, the songs we hear, learn, and sing are key in what style of music we are drawn to explore. As time goes on, this song "library" grows and grows.

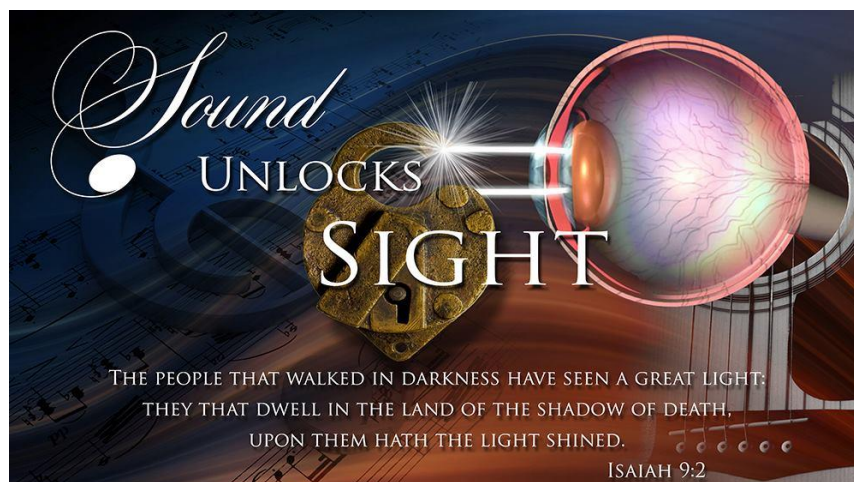

Whether it is a library full of diverse styles of music or just one or two, we own it, and it becomes ours and part of what makes us unique, as our Creator intends us to be. So much so that during deep emotional times, certain songs can help us to overcome deep trying times in our lives. Our songs speak to our Spirit, and they become Spirit Songs, usually more powerful than when first listened to. Although, by grace sometimes it is most powerful upon first encounter -when we need help the most.

I remember when I was in my early teens and listened to the radio as part of doing a job my parents asked me to do, or maybe it would be riding in the car. When the DJ played one of my favorite songs, the day always became better, more Spirit driven. And the one thing that made that experience even better is when those around you were feeling the same upbeat in their Spirit too, a synergistic positive change, if you will. Praise God for the musicians and radio DJ's that worked to brighten the lives of so many of us needing a spiritual uplifting. The times we are living through require a recharging of the Spirit from time to time.

In my later teens, I purchased a component stereo system set up to play and record 33 LP's. The choice of selecting music to enhance a mood or bring out a feeling was profound to me and gave me much more control, and more songs per time slot than radio, where they often took breaks from playing songs. The sky was the limit for the freedom of song selection plus playing a whole side of an album set the mood for a more relaxing time. I should mention that my favorite type of music was, and still is, classic rock and roll done in a tasteful manner.

And I should also mention that the frequency standard to tune the instruments in America was 440 Hz (the A above middle C). It seemed to me back then that when playing albums on the record player, increasing the speed of the turntable just a little bit made them sound much better (mine was adjustable). How could that be? I had no clue until much later in life when through research it was discovered that 440 Hz is an incomplete frequency. And when the speed was increased slightly to say 444 Hz it became complete, whole. In fact, 444 Hz is called the King David frequency today thanks to a bright young man named Michael Tyrrell who journeyed to Israel and encountered a young man who revealed this to him. Before this discovery there were 6 solfeggio tones, now there are 7. The 7 solfeggio tones are 396, 417, 444, 528, 639, 741, and 852. In Biblical numerics, 7 means spiritual completeness or perfection. God has his name all over this discovery.

David played a lyre (kinnor), a portable harp, for King Saul to ease his suffering as he was tormented by a tormenting spirit God put in place after the spirit of the Lord had left him (1 Samuel 16). The tones he played at 444hz were soothing to Saul and gave him peace for a short time. In fact, David's lyre rarely left his side, so much so that when he became King he was known by his people as the King who ruled with the lyre, even carrying it to war. It was his scepter, and always near him. No wonder why he wrote so many Prophetic Psalms.

Wow it became clear to me, what resonated in me by speeding up the turntable, the 440 Hz became 444 Hz. It now made sense. My Spirit was telling me that it made the music natural, complete, whole. The cassette recordings I made for listening to on the go, were also at the whole frequency of 444 Hz. Praise God for taking a negative and tuning it into a positive. And thanks to the Whole Tones Team for educating me and making available so many wonderful Whole Tones tunes in the 7 spiritually complete solfeggio tones for all to experience. I can't wait for the frequency of heaven to be revealed for the future eighth whole frequency (the number of new beginnings) when God reveals it.

And so, by God's example we can take the negatives and change them into positives, as we are part of this world, but not of this world. Sometimes the smallest change in details is all that is needed. Perhaps there is a song that is near and dear to your heart that has a negative word or two in the lyrics and now makes it less than upright. No problem, make it yours again by changing the word to a positive one when you sing along to the song. BOOM, you own it once again. Not only that, you can take almost any song and turn it into worship & praise song by making a few changes as well. Words, and how we use them, are powerful and can reverse the curse just as easily as speaking one.

I hope this writing has been helpful. It has helped me to overcome a small detail. And small details can have big rewards in our kingdom quest. Be blessed because God loves us, especially when we have a song in our heart, like King David.

Nissan 27, 5783: Tuesday April 18, 2023
Faith and Patience to Complete Your Mission"
Brian and Candice Simmons, Wichita, KS

Our "heavenly Joshua" is more than enough to empower us to overcome every stronghold. There is never a lack of power available for your life. What releases the powerful life of Yeshua into us? Faith. But you say, "Why am I not seeing more victory? I have faith in His promises. I have faith in His power to fill me and use me." Yes, but do you have patience?

"So don't allow your hearts to grow dull or lose your enthusiasm but follow the example of those who fully received what God has promised because of their strong faith and patient endurance." (Hebrews 6:12 TPT)

In other words, don't be disappointed by the process, for the Scripture verse says that it's by faith and patient endurance that we inherit the promises. The word "dull" is taken from a root word meaning "illegitimate child". The implication is that we must not see ourselves as a child of illegitimacy but as a child of intimacy.

We are God's beloved children and must keep our relationship with Him fervent and passionate, even if it seems our progress is slow. Now we're ready for the next strategic key for the Joshua generation.

A Little at a Time

Upon our salvation, we've received every blessing Heaven contains in Yeshua Christ. Yet, there's still a growth process that we all must go through. It takes time to mature into the fullness of Christ's likeness.

Because the process seems to be prolonged, some grow dull, feeling like Father

God has forgotten them, rather than understanding the preparation process that we all must experience.

Don't let the process rob you of joy! Keep on going for Him no matter how you feel. Encourage yourself in the Lord and press in for more. You must remain hungry for more. Hunger for what you see in the lives of other Christians around you who have been serving Him for years. If you are faithful, you will soon get there. Each breakthrough will prepare you for the next.

For forty years, Israel wandered and rejected the process of growing in faith and patient endurance. For that reason, they could not enter into their inheritance. Now a new generation is rising, a Joshua generation, and they must not repeat the failures of a previous generation. Remain faithful, my friend, no matter how long the process. Yeshua is worth it all!

God has a part, and we have our part. We can't do His part, and He won't do ours. We must embrace His wonderful promises and step out in faith. For instance, here's a wonderful promise given to Joshua, which I believe we can take for ourselves:

"Every part of the land where you march, I will give you, as I promised Moses."
(Joshua 1:3 TPT)

He'll give you every place that you set your foot upon. How powerful it is when we choose to partner with the God of the universe. For nothing is impossible with Him, and likewise, nothing is impossible for you as you go forward at His command.

Faith will demolish your strongholds; it is the victory that overcomes the world! Stepping out with more faith equals possessing more of your inheritance. The promises God has given you for your family, your finances, and your future depend upon your faith to activate them. Step out and claim them today.

You Must Be Strong

"Be strong and brave" were the words Joshua heard God Himself speak to him. This generation needs to hear this. We all need to hear it. Be strong, don't give up, and don't worry about momentary problems. It'll be alright. It'll work out, and you'll be okay. So be strong and brave!

"You must be strong and brave." (Joshua 1:6 TPT)

"I repeat, be strong and brave! Do not yield to fear nor be discouraged, for I am Yahweh your God, and I will be with you wherever you go!"
(Joshua 1:9 TPT)

Joshua was facing a lot of handicaps. He basically took a youth group into the Promised Land to fight against giants. Can you imagine? They had no weapons or military experience, and the walls of the city were high. But God kept telling them to be strong and courageous. All they had was God, and He is always more than enough. He is a majority. So, don't worry. You, too, have God and His strength. The Almighty has this, and so do you. Almighty and family!

There are unique tasks that this generation must rise to. The Joshua generation of this era must go in and topple those strongholds that Moses couldn't. Moses didn't knock down Jericho's walls, but Joshua and his followers did. We must be strong where others may have failed to finish.

Not only do we need to listen to the preceding generation, but there are things that only the Holy Spirit can teach us. And if we have good mentors, they'll teach us to hear the Holy Spirit for ourselves because the Holy Spirit will take us further than any man can. True spiritual enlightenment and revelation are the specialties of the Holy Spirit. Men can open a door for us, but we must go past them to fulfill what God has for us. Only then can we complete our mission for our own generation.

Let's Pray

Lord, sometimes I feel so weak. I know that I could never enter into Your fullness without Your strength. I lay my weakness before You. I exchange my weakness for Your strength. I want to rise and not fall. I want to do exploits for You and Your Kingdom. Empower me today with strength and might in my inner being. I trust in You alone, my Lord and my God. Amen.

Nissan 28, 5783: Wednesday April 19, 2023

Dear brothers and sisters in our Lord Yeshua, part of the growing repentance remnant, cleansing as His Bride, getting ready for His soon return as our Bridegroom,

A move of the Holy Spirit is taking place now in many nations, Here's an account of His Presence in Scotland some years ago: This is from Pastor John in the UK: strengthenthefaithful@gmail.com

"The One Who called you is Holy, therefore you also must be holy in all your conduct". (1st Peter 1 v15).

The true story is told that in 1949, just before Christian revival broke out on the Scottish Isle of Lewis, a supernatural event occurred in a prayer group, an event so dramatic, those present never forgot it. The prayer group had been praying that the Lord would reveal Himself to those who cared little about spiritual matters, in order for them to see their great need to repent and take God seriously.

*They had been praying for some time when one of them, called Kenneth MacDonald, opened his Bible and started to read Psalm 24. "Who may ascend the hill of the Lord? Or who may stand in His holy place? Only those who have clean hands and a pure heart." He put the Bible down, paused for a moment and said, "It seems that it is useless for us to gather here night after night pleading with the Lord as we are doing, if our own hands are not clean and our hearts are not pure." Then after a few moments he cried out with a loud voice "O God, are my hands clean? Is my heart pure?"

Instantly, a sense of God's absolute Holiness flooded the whole room. The manifestation of His Eternal Holiness was so overwhelming that several men briefly fainted. One man called John Smith said, it was at that* moment we realized that the holiness of God and people taking God seriously were inextricably linked. God had shown Himself, and when He did, it was a revealing of His holiness.

Some months later a growing awareness of God's holiness began to spread across many parts of the Island. It was this sobering awareness lasting from 1949 until 1952 that caused thousands of individuals to turn to the Lord in repentance and accept His pardon, which had been bought at the cross. As the awareness of His holiness grew, people became increasingly grateful for His free offer of salvation and in turn willingly repented and committed themselves to obeying Him from then on.

*In Scripture, the holiness of God is clearly and very dramatically taught. (See Acts Ch5 vs1-11). It explains that God is both infinitely loving and infinitely holy, like two sides of the same coin. In His infinite love, God has freely offered forgiveness of sin by sending His Son to the cross, but such pardon is utterly conditional upon true repentance and a willingness to follow Christ from then on. This explains New Testament warnings like; "How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?" (Hebrews Ch2 v3), "Pursue holiness, without which no one will see the Lord." (Hebrews Ch12v14) and "If the righteous person is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and sinner." (1st Peter Ch.4v18). Understanding the holiness of God leads to repentance and taking spiritual matters seriously.

The holiness of God will be dramatically revealed at the Second Coming of Christ when He returns to judge the world, so Scripture warns Christians not to neglect their walk with Him but rather grow and mature in their faith. With this in mind the Church has often produced "practical helps and guides" to encourage Christian maturity. These devotional aids encourage a depth of spirituality because all too often a clear conscience is simply a sign of a bad memory rather than the result of living a genuinely godly life.

To encourage " Christian maturity" simply email me to request a free copy of Take the Repentance Route- it can be used as a devotional, or as a key outline for your prayer group interested in growing in Christ through removing no longer needed old sin patterns.

Even in disasters, such as this cyclone disaster in Malawi, where over 190 have died already, pastors, having earlier repented and now with the Holy Spirit, are finding the SHALOM of Yeshua Christ and at the same time boldness to minister to their communities with a new urgency. Please help, as the Lord leads, with a compassionate heart.

Disasters are allowing those shepherds with His Shalom to preach and bring many into the Kingdom.

Here is our prayer for these bold men of God, in the midst of disasters:

"Heavenly Father, in Yeshua' Holy Name, please open new doors even with this catastrophe. Open new opportunities for our brothers in Christ to preach Your Goodness even in the face of the cyclone. We know that You are the Rock. We see that death can happen at any time; each person on the planet thus needs to be already TODAY for Your Kingdom, Lord. We honor that You have One Key to open that door: dying to self, repentance, real conversion as it is found in Your Eternal Word, including in Matthew 4:17; Mark 1:15; Mark 6:12; Luke 13: 1-5, Luke 24:47, Acts 3:19, Acts 20:21, Revelation 3: 19-21. May our brothers have Your Voice to carry Your Gospel throughout the nation of Malawi and to other nations as they contact even global media. Please turn this disaster into Your Victory, Lord! In Yeshua' Holy Name, Amen and Amen."

Every day we receive requests for funds for food, medicine, and basic logistics for repentance training from pastors preaching repentance who we determine have real needs. We help as we can. The requests exceed the donations. We look to you: no church, no denomination, no other ministry is behind us. With any donation you will receive" fruit that will abound to your account." Philippians 4:17

God bless you,

Pastor Jeff Daly
National Day of Repentance

Nissan 29, 5783: Thursday April 20, 2023

Expect to See God's Glory!

By Francis Frangipane

Light Shines in the Darkness

It is not enough to know God exists. If we will live in the awareness of the heavenly, we must be freed from the boundaries of the earthly. To awaken faith, the Holy Spirit will take us through times when the presence of God cannot be clearly discerned. The Lord's goal during these times is to bring to maturity our spiritual senses.

Therefore, do not accept that God has permanently hidden Himself from you, though during trials it may seem so. He is teaching us to see in the dark and to hear in the silence. He is making Himself known to our inner man so that, regardless of outer circumstances, we can continually be led by His Spirit.

To see God, beloved, it is imperative that our vision become spiritual and not just sensory. To hear God, we must learn to tune out the clamor of our fears and earthly desires. The outcome of this inner spiritual working is an increasing perception that nothing is impossible for God. The time of darkness, though it comes as an enemy, actually compels us to seek God more earnestly; we learn to even more revere God's light. Never mistake temporary darkness for permanent blindness, for today's training is the very process that opens us to see God's glory. Ultimately, we will discover the truth of what Isaiah wrote, that "the whole earth is full of [God's] glory" (Isa. 6:3).

Lord, Open Our Eyes!

Did not Moses endure "as seeing him who is invisible" (Heb. 11:27 KJV)? Indeed, the Bible was written by individuals who actually beheld the glory of God. To see the glory of God is our call as well. Our spiritual vision is not an imaginary device of the mind, but that which comes from the living union of the Holy Spirit with our hearts. Did not our Lord promise that the "pure in heart . . . shall see God" (Matt. 5:8)? And is it not reasonable to expect that, if Christ truly dwells within us, we ought to perceive life with unveiled minds? Just as it is written,

"But we all, with unveiled faces, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit" (2 Cor. 3:18).

Yes, if we remove the veils of sin, shame and self-absorption, if we persist in seeking God, staying focused upon His Spirit and Word, we should expect to see the glory of the Lord. Such open perception is biblical and should be pursued! Yet there are those who say access to greater spiritual realities is a false hope and a heresy. I say, beware of the leaven of the unbelieving Christian. For such people would have you accept religion without vision as though to see God's glory was sin.

Consider how many in the Bible actually saw the glory of the Lord: Abraham saw the Christ's glory while he was in Mesopotamia. Isaiah beheld Him in the year King Uzziah died. Ezekiel fell before the Living One by the river Chebar. David, Habakkuk, Solomon, and Zechariah all saw the glory of the Lord (Acts 7:2; Isa. 6:1; Ezek. 3:23; 2 Sam. 6:2; Hab. 3:3; 2 Chron. 7:1; Zech. 1:8). Moses beheld Him, then Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the seventy Hebrew elders as well. Exodus tells us these men actually "saw the God of Israel." The Bible describes this incredible scene, saying that "under [God's] feet there appeared to be a pavement of sapphire, as clear as the sky itself " (Exod. 24:10). The concluding thought is staggering; it reads, "And they saw God, and they ate and drank" (Exod. 24:11).

Think of it: They beheld God! Could anything be more wonderful? Is there not a jealousy within you for that experience --- to actually gaze upon the God of Israel?

Be assured, to behold the Lord's glory is not only scriptural but typical, especially during the pivotal decades between ages (which is where we are today). The fact is, over six million Israelites saw God's glory on Mount Sinai. Young men, old women, and little children --- people of every age and physical condition --- all saw "the glory of the Lord [as it] rested on Mount Sinai." These same people actually "heard the voice of God" speaking to them (Deut. 4:33)!

Yet, that unveiling of glory did not stop at Sinai. The entire Hebrew nation followed a cloud of glory by day and was illuminated by a blazing pillar of fire-like glory at night. This happened not just once or twice but every day for forty years! How much more shall the Lord of glory manifest Himself to us at the end of the age?

If you are a God-seeker, except for times of darkness when the Spirit refines your spiritual senses, you should expect to see the glory of God! There should be an anticipation that, any day now --- as you enter your prayer room or go for a walk, or in a dream --- the Spirit of God is going to appear to you in some marvelous and life-changing way.

Nissan 30, 5783: Friday April 21, 2023

Things Will Never Be the Same!"

Barry Wunsch, Red Deer, Alberta The Shaking Has Begun!

"Barry, tell My people that this is only the beginning! This is only the start! For what I am pouring out now is only a taste of what is yet to come! For I am releasing a people who will not participate in the religious games. They couldn't care less about what it looks like or putting on a show! These ones will not prosecute the things of the Spirit for their personal gain. They shall refuse the platform to build personal kingdoms. For it is I who judge the motives of the heart, and many will be disqualified, for they are addicted to center stage when it belongs to Me! For I inhabit the praises of My people, and O how I long to be intimate with them.

"I am calling My prodigals home! I am calling My people to gather in unity! There are many that have not stood at My altar for fear of getting hurt by the brethren – afraid to trust, afraid of another knife in the back! This has to stop!

"The sifting and the shaking in My Body has only just begun! As I pour out My Spirit, as I bring revival, rest assured, you won't have to kick and spur to make it happen when I am behind it! You won't need a foot pump to make it grow, for I will send My rain!

"There are pastors and leaders who are far from Me, trying to manage things their own way, afraid of the mess and uncertainty of what they cannot control. They have restricted My altar for far too long. To these ones, I am calling you back to your first love, and to step aside for Me to move. It is much easier when you let Me do it!

"Let Me help you open the eyes of your heart. Let Me help you open your ears of understanding. You often gather together in prayer, but it turns into something else. Why would you partner? Why would you participate with the accuser of the brethren? Why would you bring accusations and build on suspicions against your brethren? Do you not know that I shed My Blood for all? Do not forget that the ground at the foot of My Cross was level for all! Turn from those ways and love one another! Fight for the good! Do not get trapped again, for it is for Me to judge!

"There is no need to be jealous of your brothers and sisters! I have given each one gifts, each and every one different than another. It is by My design. When you reject them, you reject Me! So, on this day, I have given you grace to let it all go. It is My heart's desire that you walk in unity – unity in diversity, not unity in conformity! It has always been My prayer that we be one as the Father and I are one! And, yes, they will know you by your love! So, walk with Me today in love, in truth, in repentance and forgiveness, and My blessing and anointing shall be poured out among you!"

Holy is the word of the Lord.

Broken Arrow

Prophetic vision received on June 4, 2022:

I was taken into this vision during a regional leadership gathering. In the spirit, I heard war drums in the distance. There were different drums from different tribes and tongues. I saw a land gathering of First People's tribes – teepees and leaders gathering. It felt like "wartime". Then I saw an outcome of the meeting with a broken arrow. This is a symbolic act that is done to break the intention of going to war, putting aside a quarrel for the greater good. It is like burying the hatchet. My sense was that we were coming into a national unity to join the fight for the greater good.

A Dream of Government Leaders

Prophetic dream and word of the Lord received on February 23, 2023:

In a dream, I was taken into a military base in Colorado Springs. I was brought part way in (flying in a helicopter), and then taken up a road through a restricted, gated and fenced area into a mountainside. I was taken into a mission control room full of staff, computers, monitors and large screens. Things were on high alert. They were monitoring movement on east and west coasts, as well as other nations. There was a high-level collaboration with other bases and authorities. All hands were on deck and on standby.

There was a big issue in the room; they did not have and/or trust their commander-in-chief, Joe Biden, and his administration. I could see Obama behind a curtain trying to call the shots. He had a yellow and blue Ukraine phone on his desk, as well as a blue phone to the WEF (World Economic Forum). He had different officials coming and going and briefing him as to current unfolding statuses.

There were generals in the room who were in command, and under the direction and command of Donald J. Trump. I was shown a table of these generals who were collaborating with Donald J. Trump as they discussed and carefully planned the next steps. This had been in the works for some time, which was clear due to the complexity of all at play. Things were very close to being in place to make the big move, one we have been waiting for!

I saw a roster with over 300 nations involved behind the scenes. When they moved, they were going to move together. They were about to pull the carpet out from under the Cabal once and for all! Hope filled the air! The target was in the cross hairs. I knew by the Spirit that when the time was right, it would be a sure, solid victory. The Father was on their side...justice served all!

As they took action and old things began to fall, I saw the release of all sorts of things. I watched as new technology in finance, agriculture, medicine, energy, transportation and communication was released and rolled out! This was a new day! The shift from poverty, starvation, health, and control to quality of life was mind blowing.

Holy Spirit then spoke to me, "Barry, tell My people that soon things will never be the same. Tell My people that their deliverance is quickly approaching! Things are not as they appear, so do not lose heart. For before you know it, victory shall be shouted from the rooftops! I have the best of the best in strategic positions for this very hour! For I have heard every prayer, night and day, day and night, that has cried out unto Me. And just as in days gone by, I shall again move on your behalf, and I shall bring freedom, healing and deliverance unto you.

"And just as in days of old, I will pour out My Spirit upon My sons and My daughters, and they shall walk in My authority and their true identity! I am turning the tables! I am flipping things over! Watch as the dominoes begin to fall. They will soon realize that I was far ahead of them! For every move they make brings more to light for all to see. The harvest that is to follow shall be like nothing you have ever seen or imagined. Can I change a nation in a day? Yes, I can!

"The revival fire is lit! The winds of change are blowing strong. Angels that gather have been released. The angelic hosts have been sent out. The Ecclesia is taking its place. Stay strong! Stay the course! Give fear and unbelief a kick. They are not your friends. Gather together with Me, and I will not resist. I will fill you, refresh you, strengthen you and launch you into all I have for you. Trust Me as we enter into this new day together. It will be the best days of your lives!"

Holy is the word of the Lord.

A Visitation to the Children

Word of the Lord received on July 2, 2022:

"Barry, tell My people that I am releasing a visitation upon the children. There are gatekeepers who have tried to keep Me out of the schools. Let it be known that they do not have a chance against what I am about to release through the children. For I am preparing and releasing a revival among the little ones: little apostles, little prophets, little evangelists, little pastors, and little teachers. They will open gates into family restoration.

"They will bring My love into the schools. They will be deliverers. They will be saturated in My love and compassion. They will be peacemakers. They will be given dreams and words for teachers. They will lay hands on the sick and they will recover."

"Study to show yourself approved."

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, "Study to show yourself approved".

2 Timothy 2:15 Study and be eager and do your utmost to present yourself to God approved (tested by trial), a workman who has no cause to be ashamed, correctly analyzing and accurately dividing [rightly handling and skillfully teaching] the Word of Truth.

CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Inspiration Ministries, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Rabbi Dov Ber Pinson, Pat Francis, Sharon Kaseweter, Nate & Christy Johnston, Steve Loopstra, Veronika West, Lana Vawser, James Nesbit, Robin Main, Bruce and Linda Dietler, Terry Friesen, Bible Gateway, Roger Waters, John Rockwell, Wade & Frances Butler, Dutch Sheets, Mark Binder, Jim Carpenter, Fred Mosely, Francis Frangipane, Elaine Tavalacce, Isaac Pitre, Keevy Phillips, Barbara Wentroble, Shatece McLeod, Chad Foxworth, Tyler Medina, Steve Porter, Kim Potter, Donna Rigney, Lyn Packer, Wade E. Taylor, Johnny & Elizabeth Enlow, Conrad Lampon, Mandy Woodhouse, Sylvia Neusch, Brian & Candice Simmons, Jeff Daley, Barry Wunsch with additional quotes from sermons and the book "A Time To Advance" by Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler.

Blessings and enjoy, Dr. Wade K. Butler, Chaplain