

Tishrei 5783 into 5784: The New Year,
5784: Kingdom Arise in the Year of Abundance &
Creative Order"
Chaplain Wade Butler

Several weeks ago, our LORD said come up here to the group I was praying with, and we were swept up, not to the Third Heaven but rather above the earth to see what HE was seeing.

The world is on fire. Half of Africa, a major portion of Canada and the US are blazing from manmade fires set to destroy areas for evil reasons. I asked what are you saying about this disasters LORD? He said, "Watch what I am about to do". Instantly we were hovering over Greece and He asked, "What do you see?" My response was olive trees of and not fires but The Humanistic mind set and secular humanism. He Said, "watch" and His Breath like an all-consuming fire instantly evaporated the fires of Human thought and mindsets.

Next, He took us over Canada, just above Vancouver, British Columbia. He again asked, "What do you see?" I replied, the seat of human trafficking on the west coast along with Seattle. Again, instantly golden, and royal blue rain drops began to fall and put out the fires of perversion. Yet I realized it was not rain but reign, HIS Reigh that fell over the land.

Then we were immediately over Maui looking at the destruction of manmade evil intent and He asked, "What do you see here?" I replied, The double mindset of the governments of man. He then said, "Take hold of MY Septer and strike the seal of the military base hidden from man." At that strike an earthquake shook the governments of the world resulting in destruction of all the nations rulers and laws. "Watch as I do this thing and new life is birthed across the nations as I burn away the dross of mankind." The vision ended.

We are at war for the hearts and souls of our lands throughout the world. This is the month of devout prayer, repentance, and release. The daily words in this calendar are packed full of power. Take the time to read and study. Pray without ceasing and release the Angel armies.

Take the time to read and study. Pray without ceasing and release the Angel armies.

The Amplified, King James, New American Standard, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word and begin on the new moon each month.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophesy. The answer is to ask the LORD how did this relate in the bible for then and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me to pray Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. (See last page.) Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heidler, and many other contributing authors which are included.* 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

It's been five years in June since we started publishing the Republic Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1 the very first words GOD speaks is "In the beginning" and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon". From that point on the nation of GOD was to look at the Moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The Biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last 7th, 1,000 years of days would be the time being the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle has only 29.5 days or 354 days per year whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous years is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon". The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast and season.

Chuck Pierce: Here are just a few of the words given for the season we are entering into.

The Feast of Tabernacles begins September 30th and ends on the evening of October 6th. Tabernacles is a time to enjoy the Lord and celebrate His goodness. Leviticus 23:40 says, "Rejoice before the Lord your God for seven days." Deuteronomy

16:14-15 says, "Be joyful at your feast for the Lord your God will bless you and your joy will be complete." When this Feast was outlined in Leviticus 23:39-43, it not only remembered the Exodus from Egypt when the Israelites wandered in the wilderness, living in tents, reroute to the Promised Land, but also celebrated the abundance of God's blessings in connection with the ingathering of the fall harvest. This is a wonderful time to gather with friends and family and rejoice over the Lord's goodness and provision.

The Feast of Tabernacles is a celebration of God's glory. This is a time to remember past experiences of His glory, to seek His face and experience His glory now, and a time to call out to God for a fresh outpouring of His glory in the new year. One week a year, God asks His people to tabernacle with Him. God promised a special blessing for those who would do this. Part of celebrating Tabernacles is to bring an offering as an expression of thanks to God. Deut. 16:16-17 says, "No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed: Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed you." When we express our thankfulness in giving, it opens our heart to receive even more.

Tabernacles is a time to celebrate the fact that God tabernacles with His people. He wants His glory to be a normal part of our experience. He tabernacled with Israel in the wilderness. He tabernacled on earth in Yeshua, and He continues to tabernacle with us today through His Spirit! As you celebrate Tabernacles, call out to God for His glory to come and dwell with you.

Contending for Joy!

The Lord has a purpose to move any desolation into a new level of abundance. From the beginning, when God saw the Earth in confusion and chaos, He planned for a people who would move from chaos into multiplication. He spoke! Chaos subsided and abundance began. This is the essence of spiritual life. When Yeshua, Yeshua of Nazareth, defined why He came or was sent to Earth, He said in John 10:10, "... I came that they might enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, until it overflows)." Many Christians, even those that are seeking to understand their earthly purpose, never realize that the One who was sent to redeem them purposed them to "enjoy life." Prior to this portion of the verse, we find Yeshua declaring, "I AM the Door! Anyone who enters in through Me will be saved (will live). He will come in and he will go out [freely] and will find pasture. The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy.” (AMP). This is meant to help you enter the Door (called Christ) into a new dimension of abundance.

We have approximately 75 people that work for this ministry. Several years ago, I was sitting in my office in a quandary because I knew I needed to give a Christmas bonus for those who had served so faithfully all year long. I know that the holidays can be a tremendous blessing, but very stressful as well. I heard the Lord remind me of one of the key verses that have directed my life – the one I quoted above from John 10. However, His voice illuminated deep within my spirit with the portion of that scripture that says *I came that you might ENJOY LIFE.

I knew I had to move by faith. Faith comes from hearing ... hearing when the Spirit of God speaks to us. Faith's counterpart is presumption. Therefore, one must be sure they have heard the voice of God. The Spirit of God spoke to me and said, "Enjoy those who have served, and bless them." I knew I was to take what we did not have and bless each one who had served. Joy began to overwhelm me. By the next morning, all that I had given (which was a substantial amount) was already on the way through the mail. The real miracle was that something changed in me. Anxiety from trauma that I had carried for years, and years and years had lifted. That old, bad friend was gone, and the joy of the Lord had replaced that portion within my soul and spirit.

We have been in great warfare. Warfare is conflict, and in the midst of the conflict we can lose our joy. Joy produces strength. When we do not sense the life of Christ flowing through us, we need to ask the Lord, "What has happened to my passion? In the midst of my circumstance, Lord, did I just get tired and quit withstanding?" In truth, we can pray until we are green. We can do all sorts of religious activities. But if we do not resist the enemy in the midst of that trial (the temptation toward passivity and all other temptations), and if we don't allow the trial to bring the working of the Cross into us, then we won't really enter into the passion and fullness of life that the Lord intends. Having God's passion as we walk in wisdom and revelation is the key to protecting ourselves from becoming outwitted by the enemy.

Yeshua, Himself, prophesied that a triumphant people, filled with Father's revelation, would arise, and prevail against Hell's gates. This people will do exploits! They will take resources and multiply or change them into a new form to be used today. These people are an apostolic people. They are a modern people, yet look very much like those who crossed over the Jordan River 476 years after God spoke them into existence when He communicated to their Father, Abraham. The Gates of Hell will not be able to withstand this people. We are a people that will build a new prototype for today and unlock a Kingdom mentality that hell cannot withstand.

Rosh Hashanah starts on September 15, 2023 at 6pm. It is the head of the year. In the same way that the head directs the actions of the body, the first day of Tishrei, Rosh Hashanah, is the head of the year spiritually. It is the anniversary of the day that God created man. All the other creations, which receive their life force from God, who is sometimes called "soul of the universe," have no possible means of responding to Him. We can respond with our voice, the shofar, our dedication and more importantly obedience and love.

Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar].

Yom Kippur is the heart of the year. It is a day of forgiveness and reconciliation in which we can fearlessly enter the forest within us to explore the deepest parts of our lives, the areas that are too shadowy for us to see or even want to see. When we examine ourselves honestly, inevitably we will find that we have at times blocked out our ability to see more than life's superficial side. No one is perfect, and in fact one of the greatest problems that we have is that we have to at least fool ourselves into believing in our own perfection. We rationalize, reframe, and deny away our spiritual and moral failures.

On Yom Kippur, we can look deeper and more honestly at ourselves. We will find that underneath all the layers there is goodness, purity, and yearning.

God imbued this day with the power to let us tear aside all the curtains, and see ourselves not as we have become, but as we want to be. We would never be able to achieve this level of redefinition on our own. Yom Kippur is a day in which God channels down forces that opens the doors for us. We can be brave and honest enough to walk through the doors joyously, or we can close our eyes to their existence.

God will not force anyone to open the door.

Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

Barely a few days pass, and Tishrei shows another aspect of the internal workings of reality. Sukkot arrives, and we celebrate our newly won closeness to God by moving into a sukkah, a shack-like structure with no permanent roof. For a full week we reverse most of what we do the rest of the year. Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

We let our sensitivity to the spiritual bond that we have with every Jew regardless of who he is find expression in the four species of plants that the Torah commands that we take and bless. The lulav (palm branch) which has a taste but no smell, is compared to a Jew who is intellectual aware of the Torah's truth but doesn't let it flow down to affect his deeds. The etrog (citron) has both taste and smell and is compared to one who is fortunate enough to have both knowledge and good deeds express his personality. The hadassim (myrtle) has smell and no taste, symbolizing a person with deeds but nothing to back it up with intellectually. Finally, the aravot, (willow) which has neither taste nor smell, which we hold with the same devotion as the etrog which has both, is the icon of one who lives in a world in which there is no consciousness and no deeds. He too is part of our people, and we need to love him unconditionally just as much as he needs our unconditional love.

Tishrei's last holiday, Simchat Torah, says it all. There is a world out there. We want to learn it, love it, and navigate it. We will never allow ourselves to content our minds and hearts with its outer contours.

We'll walk its spiritual alleys and streets, and we'll follow the instruction book that reveals the blueprint that is the core of its being. We'll let our spiritual and physical joy at having a map that reveals it all take us over. (Rebbetzin Tziporah Heller).

IT CORRESPONDS TO THE TRIBE OF EPHRAIM

The month of Tishrei is the month of Ephraim, the second son of Joseph. Ephraim went before the firstborn Manasseh, sort of like Jacob and Esau. This is the month to be fruitful and multiply.

The first, and foremost, leader who emerged from Ephraim was Joshua – the servant and closest disciple of Moses. He was a beautiful example of a moon to Moses' sun. The Sages of Israel describe how "Moshe's countenance was like the sun, and Yehoshua's was like the moon... he only reflected what he received from Moshe" (Bava Batra 75a). This also is a beautiful description of Yeshua the Messiah. Yeshua reflected the Father's glory, and he shared the Word of truth and life given him by the Father, as we read in these verses from the gospel of John:

"... the One who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from Him." (8:26).

Yeshua answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me..." (8:54).

In turn, as we lift our lives before the Throne of Mercy on Rosh HaShanah, we remember that we are to reflect the light of the Son. He has brought us from darkness into the light of the Kingdom of God, and we now are enabled to carry that light into the darkness... for the Father's glory. (Keren Hannah Pryor).

Ephraim — "be fruitful and multiply."

Characteristics: The 7th month and all sevens are important: "completion, fullness." The month of the "Fall Feasts" – Returning to God and experiencing His Glory. The month to "touch" – Mt. 9 — Remember the woman who pressed through to touch Him. The month linked with awakening and removing that which would keep you from returning.

Tishrei is the month of “fall feasts,” when we are to return to God and experience His glory.

Keeping with the Lord's harvest theme -- the harvesting of souls -- some believe that this could potentially be the time of the rapture in the future. Symbolically, it is possible that the 7 days of festival could represent the seven years of tribulation and at the same time seven years of marriage supper celebration in heaven (feast of 7 days = 7 years per Bible prophecy). The blowing of the trumpet at the beginning of the celebration is analogous to the trumpet that will sound when the rapture occurs, followed by a 7-year period where simultaneously there is the marriage supper celebration occurring in heaven (indicated by the seven feasting days in Nehemiah 8:18), and the seven years of tribulation on earth.

month is actually Nisan). These feasts of Tishrei are prophetic of the age when the Messiah comes and begins to reign.

Christians see this as the Second Coming, but Jews see it as the first coming. Both refer to the same Messiah and the same time.

It is the purpose of this study to highlight the scriptures that speak of the Messiah and His coming through a series of daily prayer guides matching the days of Tishrei. At the end of this study and prayer I hope that the reader will have a better understanding of the Times of Tishrei and their future fulfillment.

Christians have, by and large, neglected to observe these feasts of Tishrei. Consequently, they have also not given proper attention to the very clear teaching in Scripture of the Messiah's return. Jewish people have always observed the three feasts, but it is my impression that many fail to realize the significance of the feasts themselves.

The Tanach, called the Old Testament by Christians, contains very specific details about the course of Gentile world history. It is a simple matter to look at the prophecies and check them against actual, verifiable events accepted by historians everywhere. World events have confirmed prophecy in the past. Given the fact that such prophecies are fulfilled we can have confidence in the prophecies yet to be fulfilled. I feel that the month of Tishrei is that time of the year when we should be focusing on those prophecies.

It is not enough to read about such prophecies. It is necessary to read the actual prophecies themselves and meditate on them. With this in mind this study matches 26 of the 30 days of Tishrei with four Biblical books. Daniel is pre-eminently the book of end times prophecy in the Tanach/Old Testament. Some of its visions were given to Gentiles to be interpreted by a Jewish prophet, Daniel, in exile in a gentile land, Babylon. The twelve chapters of the book of Daniel are covered in days one to twelve in Tishrei. The remaining days of Tishrei are allocated to chapters from the book of Zechariah. Each chapter from the books of Daniel and Zechariah is matched on an opposing page by a chapter from Matthew or Revelation. The latter book, sometimes called the Apocalypse, consists of revelations about end times given to John, a Jew also in exile in a gentile country – the island of Patmos.

Although there is not an exact chronological match of sequence between the Old Testament chapters selected and those of the New Testament the commentary points out similarities and connections and makes clear the pattern.

My hope is for readers to become excited by the precision of the word of God to the extent that they will trust the prophecies for their future fulfillment. Daniel describes the times of the Gentiles and shows that these times will come to an end and then the Messiah will set up His kingdom and reign from Jerusalem. God's plans for Jew and Gentile shall be fulfilled.

When Ezra and Nehemiah returned from the exile in Babylon and began rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem they also began to read, from morning to midday and in public, the Book of the Law of Moses (Nehemiah 1.1-2) before the assembled people. The day they started this was the first day of the seventh month, that is, on the feast of trumpets. The result of this reading was that people rediscovered the Word of God and believed it. Let us today also read the Word and believe it.

10 Days of Awe

Preparation for Revelation. This day is called New Year's Day and is observed as such in Israel but in the Bible it is called the Feast of Trumpets. The feast points to the regathering of Israel by God to their land for blessing. This regathering is connected with a trumpet call in Isaiah 27.13: "So it shall be in that day, the great trumpet will be blown; they will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria, and they who are outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount in Jerusalem."

The name "Rosh Hashanah" (Hebrew: ראש השנה) means, literally, "head of the year" or "first of the year." Rosh Hashanah is commonly known as the Jewish New Year. This name is somewhat deceptive, because there is little similarity between Rosh Hashanah, one of the holiest days of the year, and the American midnight drinking bash and daytime football game. There is, however, one important similarity between the Jewish New Year and the American one: Many Americans use the New Year as a time to plan a better life, making "resolutions." Likewise, the Hebrew New Year is a time to begin introspection, looking back at the mistakes of the past year and planning the changes to make in the new year, continuing through the Days of Awe and Yom Kippur.

It is the first of the High Holidays or Yamim Noraim ("Days of Awe"), celebrated ten days before Yom Kippur.

Rosh Hashanah is observed on the first two days of Tishrei, the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar. It is described in the Torah as יום תרועה (Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar]).

Shabbat Shuvah ("Sabbath [of] Return" שבת שובה) refers to the Shabbat that occurs during the Ten Days of Repentance between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Only one Shabbat can occur between these dates. This Shabbat is named after the first word of the Haftarah (Hosea 14:2-10) and literally means "Return!"

Yeshua and Rosh Hashanah

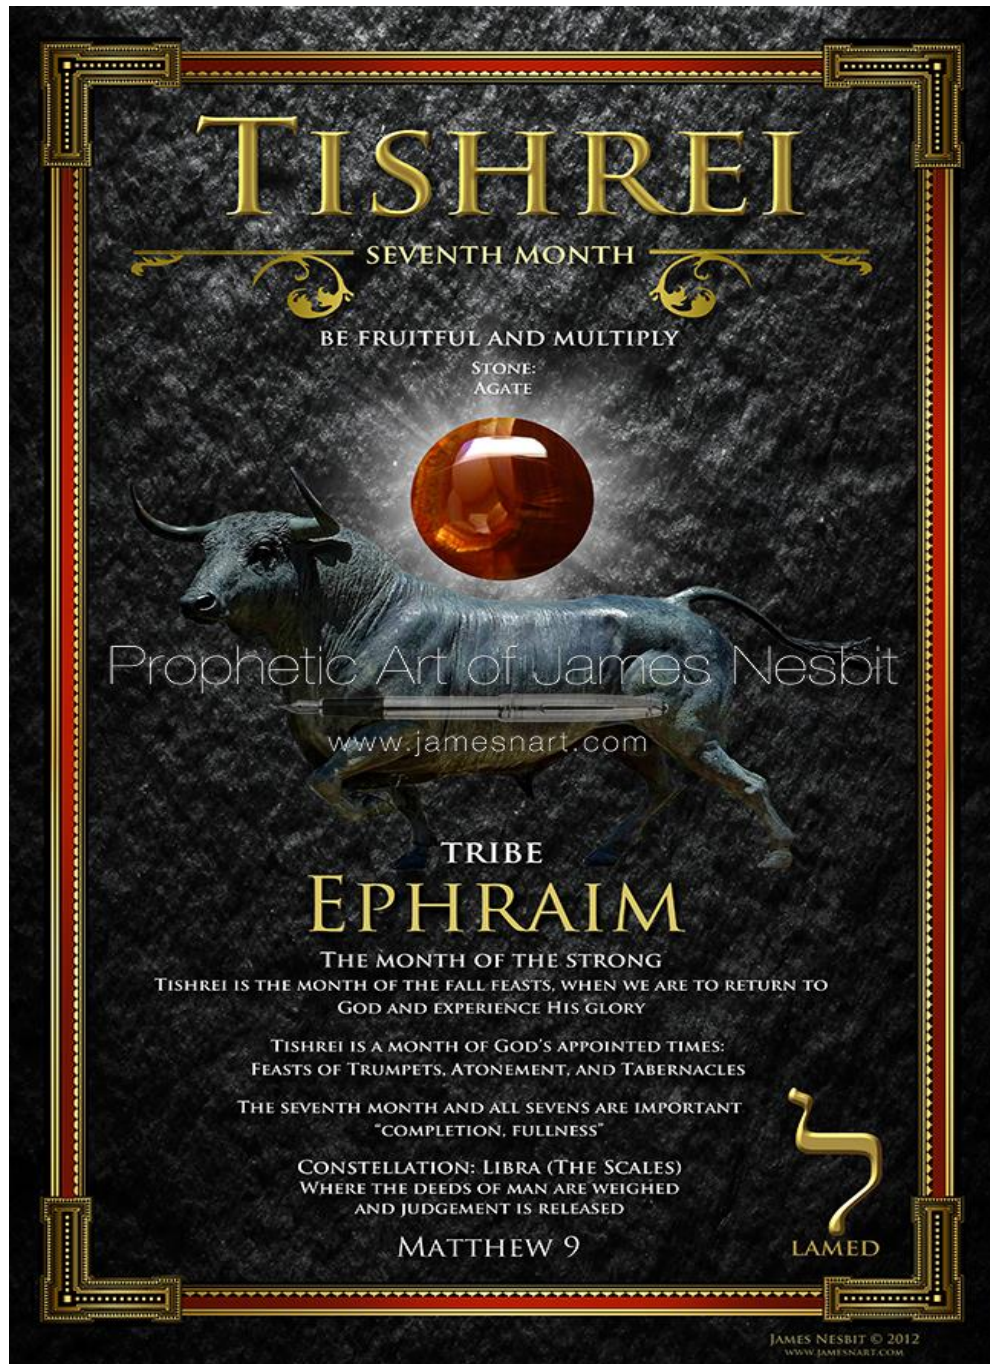

Rosh Hashanah is known as the Day of Judgment. At the final judgment spoken of in Revelation 20:15, we read that "anyone whose name was not found recorded in the Book of Life was thrown into the lake of fire." The book of Revelation tells us that the Book of Life belongs to the Lamb, Yeshua Christ (Revelation 21:27). The Apostle Paul maintained that the names of his fellow missionary companions were "in the Book of Life." (Philippians 4:3)

Tishrei in Hebrew History

- 1 Tishrei (c. 3760 BCE) – Adam and Eve were created, according to one opinion in the Talmud.

On Tishrei 1 -- the sixth day of creation -- "G-d said: 'Let us make Man in Our image, after Our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth...'" (Genesis 1:26). "G-d formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul" (ibid., 2:7). "And G-d took the man and placed him in the Garden of Eden, to work it and to keep it" (2:15). "And G-d said: 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helpmeet opposite him' ... G-d caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; and He took one of his sides, and closed up the flesh in its place. And G-d built the side which He had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. And the man said: 'This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.' Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother, and cleaves to his wife; and they become one flesh" (2:18-24).

- 8 Tishrei (c. 946 BCE) – 14-day dedication of Solomon's Temple begins.
- 10 Tishrei (c. 1313 BCE) – Moses returns from a final trip to Mount Sinai, bearing a second set of tablets and a message of forgiveness for the Golden Calf.
- 10 Tishrei The beginning the Yom Kippur War.

Yom Kippur - The Attested Purposes of the Two Goats

A Hebrew Roots Perspective

by Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch)

1 Tishri 5784; Sept 16, 2023

Drawing near to God

The high holy day of "Yom Kippur" or the "Day of Atonement" is observed on the tenth day of the seventh month of Tishri (9th day at sunset to 10th day at sunset). Its actual name is, "Yom ha'Kippurim," literally, "Day of the Coverings." (Lev 23:26-32). Leviticus chapter 16 explains the duties of the High Priest on Yom Kippur. In particular, we will focus on the sin offering of the two goats: 1. the "goat to YHWH" whose blood cleansed the holy places, objects and apparatuses from the people's defilement; 2. the "goat to Azazel" that provided bloodless atonement for all the people's iniquities and transgressions.

If you read the entire chapter of Leviticus 16, you will note that verse one juxtaposes the deaths of Nadav and Avihu, two of Aaron's priestly sons, with the command to Aaron beginning in verse two regarding the duties and sacrifices the High Priest must perform for himself and Israel on Yom Kippur. This is no accident. Nadav and Avihu died because they overstepped their authority by entering ha'Kadosh (the Holy Place) and offering unauthorized fire and incense (Lev 10:1). YHWH (the LORD) declared they thereby, "drew too close" to his Presence without authorization. The two sons died when fire came forth from God and killed them.

The Hebrew word used for "they drew too close" is "b'qarbah'tahm" from the three-letter root "qarab" (k-r-b; Strong's #H7126) which is "to draw near" or "to approach." This word is from the same root as "qorban" (Strong's #H7133), which is usually translated as "offering." But this translation does not convey the real spiritual essence of the biblical "qorbanot" (offerings). For that one must know the root.

When making an offering to YHWH, one was to identify with the sacrificial animal (the "qorban") and internalize the intention for that particular sacrifice. This was to facilitate the creation of the image in the offeror's mind that he was to consider himself to be a "qorban chai" or "living sacrifice" in order that he may "draw near" to the Presence of the LORD (Rom 12:1; the offeror can be male or female).

We are also to understand that the design of the Tabernacle (Heb. Mishkan), the implements and holy objects located within it, served the same function, i.e. to be microcosmic examples of various aspects of a human being in service to the LORD (Ex 25:8-9; 2Cor 6:16).¹ This is why everything in the Torah, especially all things related to the Tabernacle (or Temple) and the sacrificial system still have deep spiritual relevance today to all those who worship YHWH and seek to “draw near” to him in spirit and in truth.

The deaths of Nadav and Avihu were a warning to Aaron (and his successors) never to take coming into the LORD’s Presence as something mundane or casual – especially when being used as a conduit for Israel. He was instructed not to enter into the Holy of Holies anytime he pleased but that if he did choose to enter at times other than on Yom Kippur, he must scrupulously complete all the exact same sacrifices and personal preparations to make himself ready to enter the Presence of YHWH – mentally, physically and spiritually (Lev 16:2-6; 11-14).

This is a lesson for all of us about the attitude we are to have when we are preparing to “draw near” to YHWH with our prayers and supplications, especially on Yom Kippur. In our modern times, the sense of awe and reverence that could be experienced in the Biblical times is sorely lacking, so we must make an effort not to become overly familiar or casual with the Living God. This informality may unintentionally result in a desensitized consciousness or in mechanical, rote prayer.

Israel was “chosen” by God to be a “kingdom of priests” and a “holy nation”; to lead by example. Consequently, the people were to be responsible for cultivating an elevated spiritual mindset, especially whenever approaching the LORD, and particularly at the Tabernacle and, later, at the Temple. In the NT, we see this higher “priestly” consciousness in Yeshua, his brother Ya’aqov (Jacob / James), Yochanan ha’Matvil (John the Immerser) and others. That is one reason why disciples claiming to be faithfully awaiting Yeshua are admonished “...to walk in the same way as he walked” (1John 2:6). Therefore, a faithful follower of YHWH must first acknowledge and internalize the teachings of Yeshua when drawing near to the Presence of the LORD: that YHWH is “the only true God” who is both “my Father and your Father, my God and your God” (John 17:3, 20:17, Matt 4:10, 6:9, etc.).

The “sin offering” of the two he-goats

The central part of the High Priest’s Yom Kippur service was the offering of “two he-goats for a sin offering”; Heb. sa’ir: a he-goat (Lev 16:5). The two goats are therein described in Hebrew as “a [single] sin offering...” (Heb. “chata’at”; f. singular), not as “two distinct sin offerings.” Interestingly, nowhere else in the Torah do we find a single sin offering, individual or corporate, that consists of more than one four-legged animal.

beams is topped off with the instruction to use ‘standing acacia wood, a z.ei shittim omedim,’ for their construction (ibid. Ex 26:15). It should be noted that although this form of imagery is utilized on an individual basis in the descriptions of other Mishkan vessels, it is specifically within the context of the Mishkan beams that all of these lexical units combine, forming a complete set. If one were to draw a crude picture based on this unique collection of terms, the result would bear an uncanny resemblance to an erect human being.... The Mishkan As a Microcosm of the Human Condition, by Geula Twersky

The two virtually identical goats were chosen by lots: one goat was marked "to YHWH" and the other "to Azazel" (Lev 16:8). The goat designated "to YHWH" was sacrificed; the one designated "to Azazel" (thought to be a rebellious desert power) was set free in the wilderness. Many Jews and Christians do not know the stated purpose and spiritual significance of each of these goats.

Let's first discuss the goat to YHWH. We are told that the goat to the LORD would go to its death as a legitimate sin offering (chata-at). However, this was not an ordinary sin offering because: 1. there was no transference of sins to the goat via the laying on of hands by the Priest as in a traditional sin sacrifice; 2. the blood of the offering was not sprinkled only outside of the Tabernacle or Temple to pardon the penitent's transgression(s).

He shall then slaughter the people's goat of sin offering, bring its blood behind the curtain, and do with its blood as he has done with the blood of the bull: he shall sprinkle it over the (ark) cover and in front of the cover. Thus, he shall purge the Shrine of the impurity and transgression of the Israelites, whatever their sins; and he shall do the same for the Tent of Meeting, which abides with them in the midst of their impurity." (Lev 16:15-16 JPS)

On Yom Kippur, the High Priest slaughtered the goat to the LORD and its blood was accepted into God's Sanctuary where it obtained a new exalted status. The blood was sprinkled on the Ark Cover (Mercy Seat) behind the curtain in "the Shrine" (i.e. "Holy of Holies"), the Menorah (Seven-branch Candle Stick), on the Table for Showbread and Altar of Incense, the Tabernacle / Tent of Meeting itself, the floor and the horns of the Altar of Sacrifice just outside the tent (or the entrance to the Temple). The stated purpose of the blood of this goat was to "purge" (i.e. cleanse) everything associated with "the Shrine" and the "Tent of Meeting" (later, the Temple) from the uncleanness (i.e. spiritual defilement) that had been acquired over the past year due to the "impurity and transgression of the Israelites," priests and lay people alike (Lev 16:15-19).

As for the goat to Azazel, the Torah says:

When he has finished purging the Shrine, the Tent of Meeting, and the Altar, the live goat shall be brought forward. Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities and transgressions of the Israelites, whatever their sins, putting them on the head of the goat; and it shall be sent off to the wilderness through a designated agent. Thus the goat shall carry on it all their iniquities to an uninhabited land; and the goat shall be set free in the wilderness. (Lev 16:20-23 JPS)

We are told that this goat did not cross the threshold of the Sanctuary. Aaron laid hands upon him and transferred all of Israel's sins to the goat, the same ritual that was performed for a regular individual sin offering (chata'at). But the goat to Azazel was left physically unscathed by God. Unlike a normal sin offering, the sacrifice of the goat to Azazel did not involve the knife of the Sanctuary nor was any blood poured out for the atonement of the people's sins. Furthermore, no Altar of sacrifice and no fire were employed to burn the flesh of the sacrifice upon "the fires of YHWH." Yet all the people were forgiven for all their iniquities and sins (Lev 4:35; 5:12). The stated purpose of the scapegoat's removal from the camp to was to carry away all the people's sins to an uninhabited land in the wilderness. This act qualified him as the agent through whom the LORD made bloodless vicarious atonement.²

The following observations regarding the purposes of the two Yom Kippur goats are from the Or HaChaim, a renowned Torah commentator, legal scholar and Jewish mystic:

Torat Kohanim on verse 16:16. "He shall make atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleannesses of the children of Israel and their transgressions, etc." The verse speaks of the sin of defiling the Temple and its sacrifices which are being atoned for by the male goat whose blood is sprinkled inside the Sanctuary onto the dividing curtain. All other sins listed in the Torah, both the relatively minor ones as well as the most severe ones, both intentionally committed ones as well as those committed unintentionally, even those for which judicial execution of the sinner is mandatory, etc., will be atoned for by the scapegoat." Thus far Torat Kohanim. The wording in the Talmud is as follows: "The scapegoat carries on it all the sins of the Jewish people, the intentional sins, (both serious ones and relatively minor ones), as well as unintentionally committed trespasses." The atonement for sins committed by the priests is also attained by means of the scapegoat as we know from Menachot 92 and Shavuot 13. The exact quote from the Talmud there reads as follows: "Rabbi Yehudah says that the priests also attain their atonement by means of the scapegoat." After G'd has informed us of all this you have sufficient reason to understand the purpose of the two male goats. Between them they carry away the accumulated pollutants which have polluted the souls of the Israelites during the preceding year. G'd is willing to accept as a sacrifice the animal whose function it is to atone for the defiling of the Temple precincts and the various animals therein which became contaminated before being offered on the altar. He does not abhor that sacrifice. G'd is not willing to accept the animal which carries the burden of all the other sins of the Israelites and He consigns that animal to death in a place far removed from the sacred precincts of the Holy Temple. He commanded Aaron to place his weight on that scapegoat prior to dispatching it to its death, seeing that Aaron acts as the plenipotentiary of the Jewish people. He could do so seeing we have the principle that a man's messenger can take the place of the one who has authorised him to be his messenger. When the Torah writes: "he shall place them on the head of the live scapegoat, the verse makes it plain that Aaron transfers all the pollutants which have contaminated the souls of the Jewish people to the scapegoat by means of placing his weight on that animal's head. The Torah simply informed us that the scapegoat is G'd's appointee for carrying the sins of the Israelites away to a barren land.³ (Emphasis mine)

² Interestingly, the Hebrew word for "wilderness" is, "ha'midbarah" and is in the present tense. This is God telling us that the goat wandering aimlessly in the wilderness is ongoing (Lev 16:20-23 JPS).

What is an Azazel? Jastrow's Dictionary of the Targum, Vol 2 (p.1060) defines "ahz" as: "to be strong; firm; vehement." It can also be read with different vowel points as "aiz" or "azaz": a "goat." Az'al means: "to go off" (ibid. vol 1 p.37). In Modern Hebrew, "az'al" describes one who is off doing his own business. The goat represents a self-centered life that, in the end, wanders alone in the wilderness, away from the Presence of the LORD.

A goat is powerful and can be stubborn and aggressive. However, if trained properly, a goat can use these attributes for productive purposes. The personalities of the sacrificial animals mirrored the attributes of people. This is why God used specific animals for specific sacrifices. When people are ruled by their "yetzer ha'ra" (inclination to sin), they more easily succumb to their animal (goat) nature and sensual desires. They are considered to be "Azazel" because they have used their God-given creative power and their free will to sin – to go off and "do their own thing." The LORD therefore denies them any access to His Sanctuary; they cannot "draw near."

Conclusion

Both Yom Kippur goats together are classified as a single "korban chat-at" (sin offering) but represent its two different purposes: 1. the blood sacrifice of the goat to YHWH was for the cleansing and purging of the Holy Places, objects and implements due to defilement by the people over the past year; 2. the transfer of the sins of the people to the goat to Azazel was for the bloodless cleansing and purging of all their sins by removing the sin-bearer from the camp to wander in the wilderness as the LORD's agent of atonement.

The Yom Kippur Temple service is not about some archaic ritual that happened in Israel a few thousand years ago. The Torah is trying to teach us that each of us is a "sa'ir" (goat). Each of us has the power to resist any demands made upon our will. The moral and ethical works of our lives depend upon the way we use that power. We can become a "goat to Azazel" where we can give over our power to the destructive influence of our "yetzer ha'ra" (inclination to sin). Or, we can identify with the "goat to YHWH" and make sure that our body, "the temple of the living God," is always cleansed and prepared for his Presence to dwell in us. In this way, we may “draw near” to serve the LORD by the obedience of faith thereby actuating and empowering our “yetzer ha’tov” (inclination to do good).

"And let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell in them (Heb. b'tow'cham)." Exodus 25:8

"For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said: "I will dwell in them (Gr. en autois) and will walk among them..."". 2Cor 6:16

Tzom Kal (Have an "easy fast").

Baruch YHWH (Blessed is the LORD),

Bob

Here's what you need to know about Rosh Hashanah 2023

By Benjamin Gladstone August 31, 2023

Editor's note: With the 2023 High Holidays upon us, we're refreshing and republishing older stories about the holiday season for readers to enjoy with updated information. This story was originally published on September 5, 2019.

Rosh Hashanah is one of the most important holidays on the Jewish calendar. Often known as the “Jewish New Year,” it opens the High Holidays season. Even many Jews who do not celebrate other holidays or observe other Jewish laws or practices still take off work and school to attend religious services and see their friends and families at this special time.

For anyone who is considering celebrating Rosh Hashanah this year, or is just looking to learn more about Jewish traditions, we've pulled together some basic facts to help you understand the meaning of this holiday.

When does Rosh Hashanah start?

Rosh Hashanah, Hebrew for "Head of the Year," is one of the most important Jewish holidays. It takes place on the first two days of the Hebrew month of Tishrei (September or October on the Gregorian calendar) for most traditional Jews, but only on the first of Tishrei for Reform Jews.

Rosh Hashanah 2023 begins the evening of Friday, September 15 and ends in the evening of Sunday, September 17. (In the Reform Jewish tradition, Rosh Hashanah will end instead on the night of September 16.)

The specific times of sunset and nightfall will vary from locale to locale.

What is Rosh Hashanah?

The holiday of Rosh Hashanah comes from the Torah, the Hebrew Bible, which commands Jews to blast the shofar (ram's horn) and cease "work at your occupations" on that date (Leviticus 23:24-25). Many of Rosh Hashanah's more specific laws come from the Talmud. Rosh Hashanah also marks both the start of the new Jewish year and the beginning of the ten-day period known as the "Days of Awe," a spiritual time of repentance that concludes with Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

The most prominent theological aspect of Rosh Hashanah is the belief that God judges each individual Jew on the first day. According to Jewish tradition, God determines the fate of each Jewish person for the coming year primarily on the basis of their actions over the previous year. Everyone, however, has the opportunity to ameliorate a negative judgment in three ways.

One way is teshuvah, which literally means "returning" but is usually translated as "repentance" – a Jew performs teshuvah by feeling regret for a sin, apologizing to God and/or to the person against whom they have sinned, and pledging sincerely not to commit the sin again. Another way is tefillah – prayer. Finally, Jews can also earn leniency through zedakah, which literally means “justice” or “righteousness.” In practice, zedakah usually refers to charitable giving, but it could also conceivably be interpreted as participation in pro-justice work.

How is Rosh Hashanah celebrated?

Rosh Hashanah is celebrated with many traditions, some of which are required by Jewish law and some of which are popular customs. Work is forbidden, and Jews typically spend much of the day in synagogue, worshipping, listening to the prescribed portions of the Torah and the Book of Neviim (“Prophets”) and hearing blasts from the shofar.

One of the most important Rosh Hashanah mitzvot (“commandments” in Jewish law) is that every Jew hears a sequence of blasts from the shofar. The shofar is a hollowed-out ram’s horn reminiscent of the story of the ’Aqedah, the “Binding of Isaac,” during which Abraham ultimately sacrifices a ram whose horn is caught in a thicket in place of his son Isaac (Genesis 22:13). The story of the ’Aqedah is chanted aloud during Rosh Hashanah services.

Rosh Hashanah traditions

Rosh Hashanah is meant to be a time of relaxation, celebration, and feasting. It is customary to eat sweet foods on Rosh Hashanah as a symbolic way of ushering in a sweet new year. Jews dip apples and round challot (Jewish bread) in honey and sometimes also eat honey cakes and other sweet desserts. (More Rosh Hashanah menu ideas here.)

There are also several Rosh Hashanah practices that relate to repentance. One such practice is Tashlikh, during which Jews cast bits of bread, which represent their sins, into water. The bread is either swept away by the flow of the water or consumed by fish.

Jews also repent by begging God for mercy in special late-night/early-morning services called Slihot. During Slihot, Jews make the case to God that their sins should be forgiven by invoking the thirteen divine “Attributes of Mercy” and reminding God of various biblical episodes during which Jewish prayers were answered. In the Ashkenazi tradition, Slichot are recited from the Saturday night before Rosh Hashanah, but Sephardi and Mizrahi Jews traditionally recite Slichot for the entire month leading up to Rosh Hashanah as well.

Jews often also use Rosh Hashanah and the Days of Awe as an opportunity to informally apologize to loved ones, friends, and others whom they have wronged over the previous year.

Rosh Hashanah greetings

There are several greetings, which are commonly used both on Rosh Hashanah itself and in the days before and after the holiday.

The most basic is l'shanah tovah, which means "for a good year," or simply shanah tovah, "a good year."

A slightly fancier version of that greeting is shanah tovah umetukah, which means "a good and sweet year."

If you really want to show off, you can even say the full extended version, which in English translates to "may you be written and sealed for a good year." This phrase is a prayer that God will write the name of the person you are greeting in the "book" of people who are to have a good year on Rosh Hashanah and will seal their name in that book on Yom Kippur. In Hebrew, this more complicated phrase changes depending on to whom you are speaking. If you are greeting someone who uses the pronouns he/him/his, say: l'shanah tovah tikateiv v'teihateim. For someone who uses the pronouns she/her/hers, say: l'shanah tovah tikateivi v'teihateimi. When speaking with multiple people or someone who uses the pronouns they/them/theirs, say l'shanah tovah tikateivu v'teihateimu. If the person to whom you are speaking uses a different set of pronouns, you can either politely ask if that person has adopted any particular system of Hebrew pronouns or simply say shanah tovah umetukah.

In the afternoon of Rosh Hashanah and through the rest of the Days of Awe, Jews also sometimes greet each other with gemar hatimah tovah, which means "a good final sealing." This greeting, however, is more common on Yom Kippur.

In America, some Jews simply wish each other a "happy new year" in English.

For some people, Rosh Hashanah is a profoundly spiritual experience and a time of religious awakening and redemption. For many, it is an annual opportunity for personal growth and self-improvement, for recommitting to religious, moral, justice, and interpersonal goals. For others, it is mainly a chance to see family, or to unload mental burdens by apologizing and forgiving.

Whatever you want to get out of Rosh Hashanah this year, we hope that the information presented above will help you find it.

Roger Waters: The Dress Rehearsal

Tishri Day 1

Leviticus 23:24 – Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of the trumpets, a holy convocation.

I sat by my window, looking out as the people were walking to and fro, buying and selling, speaking and listening, gearing up for the Fall Feasts. My dad was trying to explain to me all about Rosh Hashanah, but me being just 16, I understood it all too well. I grew up in the city, and I saw all the going On's that took place.

As a family of four, my mom and dad, my siter and me, we read the Torah every day during certain times of the year, and in the spring, on Passover, we all get to read the story of Moses and the exodus from Egypt, and how our Elohim saved all of his people by way of 10 events that took place when Pharoah hardened his heart against Moses.

In the fall we read about the Gathering in Jerusalem, when all the dads from all the land bring their tithes and offerings into the Storehouse for the Levites to count and take care of for their food, grain, and sacrifices. But lately we have heard stories of the higher Levites who work up on the Temple Mount area were taking the best of all the sheep and then sacrificing the worst of all to YHVH, and their only excuse is that it is better to sacrifice something and make the God of Abraham happy.

But from what my dad read to me and my sister, that is not what YHVH said in times past. He said that obedience was better than sacrifice. They, oh, you know, those Levite Priest were working the Temple in sin, and I just don't think the God of Abraham is any to happy with them.

As I sat there and looked out, I could see the bright clear blue sky, that bright yellow sun, and as I looked over on the Horizon, I could see the little sliver of the moon coming up. I asked my dad if he now what part of the day it was, and he said that it was about time.

We live high up, we are two stories up, and we can see around, but now it was time to move to the roof, and see the who thing unfold, as Dad said he would explain it plain and simple.

We could look around the city, and see the guards on top of the wall, and we could see the gates that were open, and there were flocks of people waiting outside the walls, waiting to get in. Dad began to speak, and he said, "Son, in about a few ticks of time, you will hear the shofars beginning to blow. That is when two different witnesses see the new moon, and they report it to the High Priest.

Now there are two days of Rosh Hashanah, because in our part of the world, it rarely gets cloudy, but if it did, we may not see the new moon today and must wait until tomorrow to look for it. But today we will see it. Now look over there in that direction, and watch closely. Keep looking, keep looking, Oh Ok, there it is. Look, look at all the people running to the High Priest. That's funny, watching them trip over their robes, and trip over their sandals.

OK, very soon now, OH Here it comes, do you hear it, the Shofars are blasting, they are sounding. Now my son, there is a name for this that is happening right now, this is called the Tekiah. It comes from the days of Moses, and it is a cry of YHVH's People to Him. There are 100 blasts of the shofar, and there are three distinct sounds, Tekiah, Shevarim, and Teruah. It is one long blast, then shorter blasts together, then nine short bursts of sound like a staccato blast. All in all, this night, at sundown, with the new moon in the sky, and the New Year begins, this is the First Shofar".

I listened as I could hear it. I listened after it was done, then I ask dad, OK dad, but what does it mean? He said, "It means to prepare, to be ready, because we never know when the Messiah will show up". Then he told me that this was the only feast day that uses the shofar as much as this.

I was amazed. What a sound, all these sounds going forth. Then it happened. As I was watching them blow the sounds of the shofars, I saw them, I saw them standing on the top of the walls of the city, they were there, thousands of them, I could see their faces, they were like shooting flames of fire, their eyes, were so bright that it looked right into your soul.

I noticed the wings, each one had four wings, two were for worshiping and touching others, and two were for flying. When the Levites blew their shofars, these beings blew theirs. I saw a burning ball of fire dancing in the sky, back and forth it went, stopping then starting again, then it came right at the city, it got so bright it seemed like my eyes were burnt out of my head. That is when I saw the city coming from heaven, down to our place, our city. It was so beautiful, so royal, that all I could do was cry, and then it all went away.

Those four winged creatures were gone, the bright light, and the city wasn't there. I started to cry, and dad asked me what had happened. I told him everything. Then I asked him, do you think I am crazy?

He looked at me, grabbed my hands and told me that what I just saw was a dream from the Throne Room, from YHWH himself. I had a question; he gave me an answer.

But what did it all mean, I mean we are here at Rosh Hashanah right, the Gathering of the elect? This is when all of Israel is to come to Jerusalem for Rosh Hashanah right? Why did I see this happen, what did it mean? That night I got my answer.

In my dream, I saw the city of Jerusalem, and as it zoomed in, I saw me looking out over the city from my rooftop. I saw the people running to the high priest after seeing the new moon, I saw the people on top of the walls blowing the shofars, but then I saw those other creatures standing alongside the people, and these huge four winged creatures began to blow their shofars, and all of the universe heard that sound, the first trump. Then it fast-forwards to the next day at sundown, when they repeated all over again, but this time it was called the last Shofar. I looked and watched as this bright light began to dance all over the sky, it was picking up people, just snatching them from all over the land, and it was like they were being gathered together. But the big ball of light quickly turned into a weird green color, almost looked like weeds growing in a garden that had just been picked and plucked up by the roots.

I watched closely as to what happened to this light. I left, and as it was leaving another came to take its place. This one broke into thousands of pieces, and they went from one end of heaven to another, and from the east to the west, and from the north to the south, then just as quickly as they had left, they returned with hundreds of thousands of people.

This all came to a new city coming from Heaven onto the earth, right over the top of old Jerusalem. This looked like a New Jerusalem. Bright, shiny, and clean with no light coming from it except just one light. It came from the center of the new city, a light not at all like anything I had ever seen before. But I saw it. The second day of Rosh Hashanah, the last shofar, and now the gathering.

I was seeing something playing out. I didn't understand it at all, but I also knew that YHWH of Heaven would spell it all out to me, otherwise he wouldn't have shown it to me. There was a knock on our door, it was Andrew, who wanted to go down to where John the Baptist was baptizing people, and they left to go there.

While there and listening to John speak, we saw this man come walking to John down in the water, he just walked past other people, and took his hood off, and John yelled out so loudly, Here is the Son of YHVH, who comes to save the world. We watched the Baptist dunk this man, and he rose up out of the water, and began to walk away, and that is when we all heard it, a voice, speaking in ancient Hebrew dialect, "This is my Son, I am so pleased with Him". Andrew looked at me, I looked at Andrew, and we took off at the same time.

We caught up with him and asked him if we could follow him for the day, He said that he needed to go talk with His Father, and we could catch him back outside of Jerusalem the next new moon.

This is my report, on the 2nd day of Tishri, the year 3785. My name is John, otherwise in Hebrew, I am called Yochanan.

What Is the Feast of Trumpets?

Ashley Hooker

Throughout the Old Testament there are many feasts mentioned. One such feast is the Feast of Trumpets. This was a celebration ordained by God for the Israelites. It was a time when they were to remember what God had done for them. The Feast of Trumpets was a beautiful day that is celebrated even today. Let's unpack this special feast and understand what it is, and how Christians today should respond to the Feast of Trumpets.

What Is the Feast of Trumpets?

The Feast of Trumpets is first spoken of in Leviticus 23:23-25. At this time, the Israelites had been brought out of Egypt and Moses received the covenant from God. The Israelites had built the Tabernacle, and God gave instructions to be told to the Israelites by Moses.

We find the Feast of Trumpets listed as one of the holy days for the Israelites to keep. God tells Moses the exact time the Israelites are to celebrate, and how the people should celebrate. During the feast, the people would bring various offerings to the Lord. In Numbers 29:1-6, we read about these offerings. Here we can find specific instructions about what to offer and how to offer it.

This feast was a call to stop work and remember the Lord. The people were to hold the feast on the first day of the seventh month and you were to present a fire offering to the Lord. Throughout the day, the Israelites could hear the sound of a trumpet or shofar, hence the name Feast of Trumpets.

No daily work was completed on this day. It was a sacred time. The Feast of Trumpets was an outward expression of the feeling of anticipation the Israelites had. The Lord had shown himself to Moses at Mount Sinai, and the people anticipated the Lord showing himself again.

This feast is also a beautiful picture of the second coming of Christ, and Jews around the world continue to celebrate the Feast of Trumpets today.

What Does This Mean for the End Times?

In almost all religions, we debate the end times. We live in expectation of an end to this life and we want to know what is going to happen. Regarding trumpet sounds, Scripture is clear. We will hear trumpets in the events of the end times.

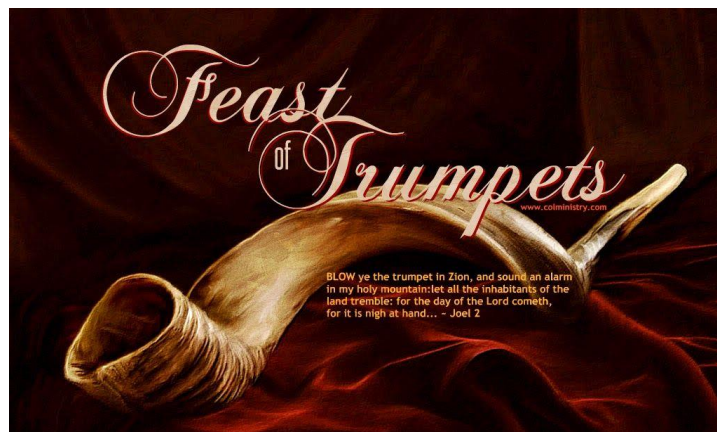

In Revelation, beginning in chapter eight, we read about trumpets in the hands of angels. There are seven angels and there will be seven trumpets. As each angel sounds a trumpet, an event will occur. These events include portions of the Earth burning, stars falling from the sky, water becoming bitter, and locusts harming people.

When the seventh trumpet has sounded, the kingdom of the world will have become the Kingdom of God. Rosh Hashana, or the Feast of Trumpets, is an Old Testament picture of what the rapture will be like.

In the New Testament, Paul refers to the trumpet sound of the rapture in 1 Corinthians 15:51-52. The apostle Paul is telling us that as the last trumpet sounds, the dead will rise and we will be changed. There is no mention of a definitive date, though. We must understand that trumpets will signal the people of God to gather and be ready to meet our Savior.

Just as trumpets were sounded to call God's people together, the trumpets sounded at the end times are a call for God's people to remember. They are calling for all people to repent of their sins. They are the sound of anticipation for the return of our Lord.

Should Christians Celebrate the Feast of Trumpets?

Just as Christians celebrate Christmas and Easter, I think we should consider celebrating the Feast of Trumpets. We should take any chance to celebrate the greatness of our God.

Christians can learn much from the Jewish traditions and festivals laid out in the Bible. Often, we think the Old Testament has little significance in the way we express our love for God. In the case of the Feast of Trumpets, there are beautiful symbols that Christians should embrace.

The celebration of the Feast of Trumpets represents several key thoughts that Christians should hold sacred. First, we should see the feast as a recognition that God is Lord over all the Earth. This holy day is a sanctified reminder of that fact.

Second, preparing for the Feast of Trumpets reminds us to be ready for the Lord's return. The sound of the shofar is a call to prepare.

Third, Christians should recognize the prophetic significance of this day. It is a time when the ways of the world are set aside. Our focus shifts and is solely on the Lord.

Lastly, Christians can celebrate the Feast of Trumpets with a joyful heart, knowing our God is a God of new beginnings. Even though this is the Jewish new year, Christians can celebrate that our God can and does make us clean and new. He is the God that will come back for His people and create a new heaven and earth. It is a time where we can express our gratefulness for the God that sent His one and only son to save us from our sins.

Christians are called to be prepared for the coming of Christ throughout the entirety of the Bible. Rosh Hashana or the Feast of Trumpets is a celebration of that call.

Today, Christians should consider this celebration in their own walk with the Lord. It may not look the same as the Jewish celebration, but it can be a special time for you and your family to stop everything and focus on God. We can use this celebration along with each day to be ready for the return of Christ.

Feast of Trumpets*

5784: Kingdom Arise in the Year of Abundance & Creative Order"

Candice Smithyman, Orange Park, FL

The Kingdom is arising! On Rosh Hashanah (which began on September 15 at sundown and ends on September 17 at sundown), we enter into a new Hebrew year, 5784. We declare the King is coming! These numbers stand for grace (5), perfection (7), new beginnings (8) and creation (4). I believe we are entering into a year in which the King is calling His Kingdom to creative order and miracles in Christ. Watch as God takes you to next levels of order and creativity in the Kingdom in the earth!

Amazing, Creative Miracles and Divine, Creative Order

Get ready to see God do some amazing things this year! Remember, the year 5783 was about the resurrection, 5782 was about the double glory, and 5781 was about opening our mouths in the decade of Pey (the 80s). The numbers 81, 82, 83, 84 – all are in the 80s. Pey (which has the numeric value of 80) means to open your mouth and prophesy! You see, you prophesied the beginning, you prophesied double, you prophesied the resurrection, and now you are stepping into the place of creative miracles and creative order in the power of the Kingdom. Yes! You are going to see some amazing, creative miracles happening this upcoming year. If miracles are to arise, then creative order is evident! The Church is going to step into the abundance of the Kingdom!

On Rosh Hashanah, we declare the Kingdom is arising and God is coming to bring creation into its divine order!

The Sons and Daughters Are Here!

Whenever the enemy is attacking, he always reveals a counterfeit of the real thing that God is doing. Have you noticed all the talk on gender issues? Why? Because the enemy is revealing that the true sons and daughters of the King are about to stand up and declare they are made in the image of God, and He is their Creator and Sustainer. God wants this for the whole world, and His heart is to see life transformation come to all. But He needs the Kingdom kids to arise and be who they are called to be. We are the example of the Kingdom in the earth! If we do not arise to reveal the King, then who will?

Genesis 1:26-28 (KJV) reads, "And God said, Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So, God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth."

We were called the sons and daughters and made in His likeness, and then called to rule in the earth. The sons and daughters will begin to align in this year and call forth those who are uncertain of who they are and what they have been called to do. The enemy has sounded the alarm that the sons and daughters are here, and that is why there has been so much alarming news and so much craziness. It is because we are here, and now is the time to roll!

Declaring the Coming King!

The trumpet blows in Zion on September 15 at sundown. Let us be the ones declaring the coming King (Joel 2:15)! That is one thing which is most important about Rosh Hashanah – we declare the King and our likeness to Him!

Let the earth cry out, because we, the sons and daughters, have arisen to the call of the King and are here to declare and prophesy "Pey" in 5784 – that this is the year of getting creation in order! As we get in order with the King, all of the earth will then align with Him! This means the lost will be saved, and the confused who have been living in lack will have their blinders removed so that they can SEE and recover their sight!

Establishing a New Foundation

God is shifting the Church to live in the realms of Kingdom and abundance. Now, I know that the Church was always supposed to have been there, but let me tell you, there are keys from Heaven that are being deposited into the earth. They are rich keys to help us understand that we have ascended with Christ, we are seated with Him in heavenly places, and that from this place, we can walk in Kingdom authority. It's not just Kingdom authority to cast out devils, cleanse lepers and bring healing into the earth, although that's a part of it. It's also revealing, expressing and walking in abundance as the Lord continues rebuilding and establishing a new foundation.

The foundation of the apostles and the prophets is what the Church is being built on. He is activating the Kingdom! Ephesians 4:11-13 says, "And He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the Body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ."

You have re-entered the Garden of Eden and now live in the realm of abundance. If you don't live in abundance, the enemy will trick you into returning to the soulish realm of lack. You cannot create in lack, only in abundance. There is no lack in your garden.

Living from the Realm of Abundance

As some men and women struggle with gender identity issues, a way to help others overcome this is to speak life in every place where lack resides, learn how lack manifests and then SEE above it. If Yeshua had to recover His sight (the Greek word "anablepo") before doing a miracle to feed the 5,000, then you and I, as Christians, need to do the same thing (Luke 9:16).

Yeshua gave us access in the spirit realm. You must hover in abundance.

Genesis 1:1-2 says, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

Male and female were created in the image of God and called to subdue and dominate. The bondages of sin, death and the grave are broken, and we have freedom. See, you were freely given access to the realms of Heaven and abundance, and you are called to co-create with God there. It is time for us to SEE, HEAR and SPEAK the Kingdom, but we must know the difference, ourselves, between Kingdom living and earthly lack.

Church, arise on September 15, as the King is coming for a Bride that knows how to live in abundance and can call forth His creative order in the earth!

When Yeshua died, was buried, resurrected and then ascended to Heaven, sin, death and the grave were defeated, and you were launched into abundance and the dominion of the King. Our everyday position is one of fullness and prosperity, as in nothing missing or broken – shalom, peace. You walk with the ABUNDANCE of CHRIST!

I declare and call into order right now every person who believes they were falsely created for lack. Come into alignment with who you are in Christ! I declare, in 5784, you will live in fullness and co-create with the eyes and ears of Heaven in abundance first, in Jesus' name! May the blinders be removed so you can SEE and walk in the heavenly places now.

Rosh Hashanah*

Roger Waters

Rosh Hashanah – 3789

The law of the Torah tells us that we are to celebrate the new year on Tishri 1, as found in Leviticus 23. Speak to the children of Israel saying, in the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of shofars, a holy convocation. Now the convocation is the calling of people together for a large formal assembly.

So here we are in the year 3789, during the fall harvest, where hundreds of families are gathering together here outside Jerusalem. The Romans hate these feast days as they see them as stupid and non-sacred, and so they look forward to arrest some of us if we just get out of line a little bit, because they thrive on the torturing of the Hebrews. Our forefathers were slaves to Egypt, and now we are slaves of the Romans. But fear not, our Messiah will one day show up, and he will set things straight for us, and put down these Roman's rule of evil.

Down in the Sanhedrin we have this guy named Saul, who is nothing more than a man on a quest to kill every person who follows anyone who claims to be an enemy of Rome. Rome will leave us alone as long as we follow their laws, and leave our laws alone, which mainly spits in Elohim's face. We seem to not have a choice, although we always have a choice on everything.

By the way, my name is Jacob, I wrote to you last year at this time concerning events of the Fall Feast of Rosh Hashanah. This year we have a very strange event happening. There is this guy named Yahshua, he has this group of men and a few very young people that follow him, everywhere he goes. It is said that this guy claims to be a son of the most high, but that can't be true, I mean how can this guy, born poor, and living off the land be from a lineage of the gods?

He is claimed to heal people, to even have raised some from the dead, a little boy and girl. He is no god, he hasn't shown anyone here in Jerusalem anything strange, or miraculous. Rome must not think that either, because they haven't rounded him up yet, or had him killed for treason against Rome. Buy hey, he is just a man who has stirred up a dust storm around the whole land of Galilee, and then leaves the area and goes on the run until others report about his being somewhere else.

I can't dwell on things that are of no important use, we are waiting for our Messiah to show up, which will be around the 22 days of the Fall Feasts. Isaiah writes the way he will die, and Zacheriah wrote about the way he will be born, and there are many scriptures that explain what he will do, and the Rabbi's teach that well.

Let me introduce you to a good friend of mine. I have Zora, son of Ezekiel sitting next to me, and he has a very important job to do on this day, he is one of the 10 top Shofar blowers when the New Moon is spotted, and the High Priest proclaims the Fall Feast has begun. He is the leader of those important people. He is always watching, and We get to talk to him right now.

"So Zora, how does one become a major important blower of the shofar during this Feast Day?" He said, "From the time I was a little child, I was always putting something to my lips and blowing on it, my mother put a toy shofar and I began to blow it well."

He then said, "Let me add to that, I grew up over the next 10 years learning the very expert ways of blowing it. I learned from the best, and being a Levite, I have access to the Rabbi's and to those who work the Temple Mount area, and I made it to just being a blower of the shofar to becoming the leader of the group, and let me say, I am the best Israel has right now, so I am on top if you will."

Well, it's getting on to around the time for the new moon to make its appearance, and I must go to the Eastern Gates, to watch and make sure the animals used for all the sacrifices are allowed in correctly and safely. I will get back to you shortly, bye for now.

1 hour later.

OK folks, I am in play, I am on top of the Northern Wall, over the Sheep's Gate. I am looking around, and there are many people who are walking to the walls to get in when these gates are opened for the people. Wait, what is this, why is there a holdup, who is that talking to people and why are so many people listening to him, boy I sure hope the Romans down see this, they will not be happy.

I better get down there and see what is going on. Waite one, ok?

10 minutes later.

OK, I am here by the gate as they will open it up for me to walk outside the city until they open the gates again. I am walking over to this guy, and I see him, there he is, oh, wait a minute, who is that? He looks so familiar, oh, that is that guy that thinks he is the Messiah. Let me see if I can get a word from him, just wait one, ... "Sir, Sir, what is your name?"

This guy looked right at me and asked, "Who wants to know?". I said, "Jacob, one of the top security people here for the Temple Mount area." He said, "I am glad you asked, my name is Yahshua, son of Joseph of Galilee, but born in Bethlehem, and the only way to my Father in Heaven."

He began to explain heaven to all of us, like he had been there before. It was the strangest thing I had ever heard. He never missed a beat, just started talking, and never stopped for some time. He always explained himself, and he always took people's questions. He loved to talk with people, he never talked at them, but he always listened to them, their situations, their problem, and even when they were happiest, he listened to them all.

He laid hands on some, and I saw with my own eyes how they were healed. I have heard of this from him, but now I see it. How does one say it didn't happen when you stood right here and saw it take place? How can you see a miracle take place then say it never happened, I mean I just watched them happen, it oh, wait, he is not in the synagogue is he? This may be huge, as the Rabbi's teach us there is a place for time for everything. You teach scripture and God inside the Synagogue, not out on the street. This Yahshua is teaching it out in the street. Oh no, here comes the Roman Guards on horseback. They are not looking like they are coming for playtime either.

OH NO, the leader is Sephora, a very mean man, someone who looks to be on the verge to just kill someone. He is a Roman Leader, as he has 100 men under him. He stopped, right in front of this Yahshua. He is getting off his horse, now he is walking over to Yahshua. Oh, wow, I hope we don't see anything gory here.

Sephora said, "I am sorry but are you this Yahshua everyone is talking about?" Yahshua said, "I am." Sephora then said, "I am a man who has many under him, my people listen to me, they do what I say, they carry out my orders to the smallest detail, and I have heard that you are much the same, the same way, am I right?"

Yahshua said, "I am as you say, but my people that I am teaching are young in these ways, they are learning kingdom rules and ways." Sephora looked right at Yahshua, and asked, "I wish that you could hear me now, for I have a son who is very sick, has been for many years, and no doctor has been able to cure him, and I hear that you heal the sicknesses, and even raise the dead. I hear of all you do, but now I am in need, I believe what people say about you because you never raise a hand, you never raise your voice, and you always care for the people, which in my opinion is the signs of a great man, a true man, and a great leader. If you just say the word, Healing will come.

Yahshua looked around at all the people, then said, "Have you seen what this man just said, so much faith, so much in need, and all he has done is asked, and shown his faith that if asked for, it shall be given. I have not seen that much faith in all of Israel ever." Yahshua looked right at the Roman, and said, "Your son is healed."

I looked at Yahshua, he looked at me and said, "The people are living in fear, they need leaders, and those who are willing to lead. My Father and I are one, we operate the same because I am of him, I say nothing on my own, I do nothing on my own. My words are true and straight, they can heal, and they can judge, I am the law, I am the Word, and I am he that has come to save the world, and the people in it, all one has to do is ask for me and I will come to them. I am the Way, the truth, and the Life, I am the door, and I am the healer, I will bring what Israel needs, and Israel need a lot right now. I am the only way to the Father, no other can do that, and I am the Resurrection, that even if one dies, he still has life in me. Do you believe this?"

His eyes were full of conviction. His face never moved, his body never wavered, and he stood there looking at me, how do I answer him? I said, "I want to believe", and Yahshua said, Then believe you shall next spring, on Passover and First Fruits. You will believe then, many will, even those that are with me now, they will believe as well.

The crowd began to shout, the New Moon was seen by many people, I looked at Yahshua and said, The New Year, it has begun", then the shofars began to sing with sound, the doors opened up, and the people began to walk through it, and I looked for Yahshua, he was going through the gate, and he turned back and looked at me and said something I have never heard in all my years, he said, "I am the sheep that will give his life for the world, all eyes will see on that day what will happen. I am He that has come, not even those who are with me know who I am yet.

I watched as he walked into the sheep's gate. He turned and looked at me and smiled. He opened up to me, told me things no one else knew, why? Who am I, who was I to hear those things. I watched again; he was gone. Why did he say, next spring? That is Passover, what does this have to do with anything? I was at a loss, who was this Yahshua anyway, he couldn't have been this Messiah we were waiting on could he?

I will wait till next spring to find out.

Pursuing the Heart of God

By Steve Loopstra, Director, Your servant in Christ Ministries

We live in a day, in a culture that seeks the easy, the quick, the superficial over those things that cost time, or attention. Our favorite cultural phrase could very well be, "I don't have time." We have been conditioned and trained in this for decades.

"Convenience" began to be applied years ago to those things, especially around the house that could save you time and labor, so that you had time and attention for other things. Convenience cooking, convenience shopping (the supermarket was the latest in convenience shopping), convenience appliances, and we could add countless others. The 1950's was a decade driven by the demand for convenience and many of the modern products we use today are food innovations of the 1950's.

This appeal for convenience crept into every area of our lives, yes, even into the life of the Church and our own Christian walk. Put in a cassette, or then a CD, or then a podcast and you didn't have to take the time and attention to read the Bible yourself. I remember the days when it was considered not in good taste to use a cell phone in a worship service. Now, few bring a "real" Bible to church. Convenience and its partners, "Hype" and "lowest common denominator" have affected how we worship. Smoke machines, and multi-media are the expected "norm" in many churches of today.

Yet in the midst of all of this, many have lost, or never even been taught one of the primary purposes of those who belong to the Savior. I imagine that very, very few in today's churches would ever be able to know what once was the "gold standard" of the Christian life... It is number one in the Westminster Shorter Catechism:

What is the chief end of man? Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy Him forever.

The chief end of man is not to find out how to get the most out of life, or any number of other distractions that fill our lives today. The chief end of man is to glorify God, and then this part is just as important... to enjoy Him forever. Let me ask you a personal question. When is the last time you truly dug deep into what that means? How do we go about enjoying God... forever? What does it mean to "enjoy God"? I have the sense that most who even call themselves Christians would have a hard time understanding the simple fact that we are to "enjoy God!"

Let me posture just one way we can learn to enjoy God forever. And there are more than I even am aware of, and I believe that we will be discovering those as we are in His presence for all eternity. But let's start right here, and now. You don't have to wait for eternity to start. Here is what I would like to challenge us with in this time:

PURSUE HIS HEART!

Come with me as we look at just a little of what pursuing His heart might look like.

The first place to begin in pursuing the heart of God is His Word. There is no substitute. Peter instructs us in 2 Peter 1:20-21 - Above all, you must realize that no prophecy in Scripture ever came from the prophet's own understanding, or from human initiative. No, those prophets were moved by the Holy Spirit, and they spoke from God.

The Bible has its origins in the heart of God, so if you want to pursue the heart of God, if you want to know His heart and His ways, you must read and study the Word of God for yourself. Do not give in to reading commentaries or listening to someone else's podcast. You must dig into the Word of God for yourself. Psalm 1, verses 1 & 2 speak to the importance of meditating on the Word - Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners, or join in with mockers. But they delight in the law of the LORD, meditating on it day and night.

You have probably heard this before, but it bears repeating. Meditation is like a cow chewing its cud. She eats the grass and chews on it, then swallows it into the first compartment of the stomach, then it comes up to chew on again and goes into the second compartment, then it comes up again, and then is swallowed into the third compartment, and again regurgitated and chewed on and into the fourth compartment.

Yes, a cow has one stomach but with four compartments. So, when you read the word of God, bit off a portion enough for you to “chew on” a while. Who wrote this? What were the circumstances? What was his or her response? What can I learn from this? Then you let that settle, and then come back and meditate some more on it, and then again, and allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you personally about what He wants to teach you from this part of His Word. Yea, I can hear someone saying, “how can I find time to do that? I just don’t have time. Did I mention that before? If you want to truly pursue the heart of God, it will take time and attention. Remember what the Lord told Joshua: Study this Book of Instruction continually. Meditate on it day and night so you will be sure to obey everything written in it. Only then will you prosper and succeed in all you do.

Let me also suggest another avenue of pursuing the heart of God. Remember when the Pharisees came to Jesus and asked Him this question?

But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees with his reply, they met together to question him again. One of them, an expert in religious law, tried to trap him with this question: “Teacher, which is the most important commandment in the law of Moses?” Jesus replied, “‘you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments.”

David was called a man after God’s own heart and even with all his failures. And why? Because He was a man who was in love with God with all His heart. I don’t have time here, but just go and carefully read the psalms of David and you get that right away. He was a man who pursued the heart of God and loved the Lord with all his heart. Just read Psalm 27 and you get a sense of this passionate pursuit of the heart of God. The one thing I ask of the LORD— the thing I seek most— is to live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, delighting in the LORD’s perfections and meditating in his Temple.

I have had the amazing honor and privilege to be a part of some amazing times of prayer with Wade, and Sharon, and Matt and John and others, and it’s like in every one of those times, I discover something new about the loving heart of God. And I know it’s for me! And I know that His heart is for others. This is not a fantasy, it is the greatest reality in all the world, and it was proven in the person and work of the Lord Yeshua, His birth, life, teachings, death, resurrection and ascension. And when I come away from those times, I am always totally overwhelmed at His deep and infinite love. And when you understand His love for you, and you fall in love with Him, as David did, then you have no trouble having a hunger to pursue the heart of Him whose very nature is love.

My prayer for myself, and for you, and for each one I am able to minister to, is that we might make it the passion of our lives to pursue the Heart of God. And when we do that, my friends, all those other things will fall into their proper place. Amen? Amen!

God Is Preparing You for Overflow!"

Anne Jackson, Bedford, TX

During the month of September, God is opening up unexpected doors and opportunities for people to step into unexpected or abandoned dreams. He is teaching His people to operate from a place of rest and experience the gift of rest. He is preparing His children to live from a place of abundance and extravagant generosity. Partner with God in giving from joy and asking God for a heavenly perspective.

Unexpected Opportunities

"Many are the plans in a person's heart, but it is the Lord's purpose that prevails." (Proverbs 19:21)

In this season, God is leading people in ways they never expected. Many of you will experience former passions or things you gave up years ago coming back seemingly out of the blue. Perhaps it was a career you laid down or a dream you gave up. You may even ask, "Is this who I am anymore?" But there is grace and ease to step into the new thing.

You'll recognize that it's the Lord because of the level of ease on this particular opportunity. This isn't always the case; sometimes the Lord leads us into intensity and difficulty, because that is where we'll experience the most breakthrough. However, if you find that God is bringing up old passions, or you suddenly have the opportunity to minister to others with a gift you laid down, lean in. Paul Manwaring says, "God wastes nothing—He gets you ready." And in this season, God is bringing back things that you thought didn't matter.

If you've been pursuing the Kingdom, if you've been about God's business, if you are looking for ways to help and serve others, then expect God to open doors for you. God is orchestrating your steps and He will open up doors to minister to others, while also making sure that you are taken care of in the process. Although what's coming in this season may look different than what you've been doing, it is still absolutely aligned with who God created you to be. God will take care of the opportunities, connections, and finances; it's simply your job to say "yes."

Receive the Gift of Rest

"It is a waste of time to get up early and stay up late, trying to make a living. The Lord provides for those He loves, even while they are sleeping." (Psalm 127:2)

Many people are living burnt out and exhausted, and have been running on empty for far too long. The exhaustion and overwhelm you have been facing on a daily basis have been wearing you thin. In a fast paced society, it's easy to live disconnected from your bodies and push too hard for too long. However, this is a season where God is inviting people into a Sabbath rest. Rest doesn't mean you never work. Rather, when you work from rest, you experience the power of God's grace coming in and helping you.

God is saying, "I can do more in your resting than I can in your striving." When you take time to rest, you allow yourself to experience God meeting you and filling in the gaps. It's time to allow God to show up and provide for you even when you are resting. If you've been experiencing burnout and exhaustion and stressor after stressor, receive the gift of rest. Experience God's faithfulness over your life.

Rest isn't lazy; it's holy, and it's also a commandment in Scripture. God is going to give you a revelation of what it means to rest in Him and what it means to work from rest. This truth will revolutionize your life for the better, but you must break up with the idea that burnout is holy. Rather, it's time to intentionally rest. Go on long walks, get outside, lay in the sun, sip tea, and let yourself stare out the window. As you invite the Holy Spirit into your work and rest, you will experience the joy and healing that comes from resting in His presence.

Get Ready for Overflow

"Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you." (Luke 6:38)

God is preparing His people for abundance and overflow. He is highlighting areas where poverty and fear-based mindsets have run the show for too long. And He is exposing the beliefs and spiritual agreements that have kept His children in lack and struggle. Right now, He is preparing His people for abundance. If you have been feeling like you'll always be stuck in struggle, like you'll never have enough and that you won't be fully taken care of, it's time to shift your thinking and ask God for "abundance" mindsets.

Following God doesn't mean that you'll never struggle, but you weren't created to live in poverty and lack when you have been adopted into the family of God. Rather, as a child of God, you have access to the miracles, resources and provision of Heaven. If you're encountering fear around being provided for, ask God for a heavenly perspective. There is no such thing as lack in the Kingdom of God.

As an act of faith, prepare your life for overflow. What does preparation look like? Perhaps it's signing up for a class on faith, or agreeing to go on a ministry trip, or another step of faith. What does it look like to live from a belief that more than enough is available to you? Make declarations of faith and provision over your circumstances, and watch as God molds you and shapes you into someone who can hold His overflowing blessings.

Extravagant Generosity

"...God loves a cheerful giver." (2 Corinthians 9:7)

Generosity is one key tenet of believing in abundance. As God is walking His people out of lack mentalities and orphan ways of thinking, there's an invitation to walk in extravagant generosity. Those who know they are deeply loved and taken care of are generous with their time, energy and resources. Ask God how you can be generous with what you have, even if you still feel like it's not enough. It's a spiritual principle that generosity invites abundance and provision.

We don't have to be generous. Nor is generosity a way to manipulate God into giving us more. Rather, we are generous because God is generous. Generosity is in His nature, and we want to be like our Father. With that being said, generosity invites breakthrough, invites provision and invites abundance. If you're needing breakthrough in one area, begin to give or serve in that specific area. Watch what God does with your generous spirit and give from joy. Scripture says, "A generous soul will prosper, and he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed" (Proverbs 11:25). In the process of giving, you will also receive.

Declarations:

- I am following God as He opens doors before me.
- I am learning to live from a place of rest.
- I relinquish poverty mindsets and live from abundance.
- God is teaching me to be extravagantly generous!
- God is preparing me for overflow!

September - The Month of Birthing!"

Yvon Attia, Miami, Florida

The Birthing of Overdue Promises

As the month of September was approaching, the Lord highlighted this powerful verse, Isaiah 66:9: "'Would I ever bring this nation to the point of birth and then not deliver it?' asks the LORD. 'No! I would never keep this nation from being born,' says your God." At that moment, the word "birthing" leapt off the page. I began hearing God speak in the spirit dimension and confirm that the ninth month (September) is a month of birthing. Overdue promises, callings and destinies are about to be birthed. Furthermore, the Holy Spirit highlighted that God, the Holy Spirit Himself, will be the one doing the delivery.

Stealth Pregnancies

I felt a strong prompting to go back and read the context of that verse, and something strange was highlighted to me. When someone goes into labor, there are visible signs and symptoms which must first take place. Generally speaking, backaches and contractions must first take place. Contrary to this, Isaiah prophesied to those who had returned from exile—those who are empty, broken and feeling defeated—and he said to them:

"Before the birth pains even begin, Jerusalem gives birth to a son. Who has ever seen anything as strange as this? Who ever heard of such a thing? Has a nation ever been born in a single day? Has a country ever come forth in a mere moment? But by the time Jerusalem's birth pains begin, her children will be born." (Isaiah 66:7-8)

In other words, birthing will happen without visible signs—whether we feel it or we don't. Birth pains are the side effects of the curse. When sin came into the world, God said to the woman, "...I will sharpen the pain of your pregnancy, and in pain you will give birth..." (Genesis 3:16). Yet, in Christ, the curse has been broken, and we have become the righteousness of God (2 Corinthians 5:21).

Medically speaking, a stealth or cryptic pregnancy—regardless of a specific religious belief—generally refers to a situation where a woman is unaware of her pregnancy until later stages, or even until labor begins. This can happen to women who have irregular periods, minimal pregnancy symptoms, are in denial, or from a lack of awareness about pregnancy signs. Stealth pregnancy can be a complicated experience emotionally, mentally and physically for the individual involved, as it often involves unexpected changes and decisions regarding prenatal care, parenting and future plans.

In our walk with God, we are "pregnant" with the promises of God through His Spirit. This is a profound and awe-inspiring reality. Just as a cryptic pregnancy refers to a pregnancy that remains hidden and unknown, most faithful followers of Christ will experience a similar journey of carrying God's promises without realizing it initially. This spiritual pregnancy also occurs when God plants His seeds through the Holy Spirit and we become born again Believers.

The seeds of the Kingdom are seeds of hope, purpose and blessings within our hearts.

Sometimes these promises may not be immediately recognizable, but as we nurture our faith, seek God's guidance and cultivate a deeper relationship with Him, we gradually become aware of the divine promises and life growing within us. It is through praying in the Spirit, studying God's Word, and surrounding ourselves with the prophetic Christian community that we can fully embrace and give birth to the promises God has bestowed upon us.

I heard the Lord say, "Many of My children are having 'stealth pregnancies.' Their promises are still hidden or undisclosed. They are still in a period of gestation, development or preparation. They have not yet realized it, nor is it being recognized by others. Just as a woman carries a child within her womb, not knowing that she is pregnant, many of My children are carrying My divine purpose, calling and anointing; yet it's not immediately evident to them, nor to those around them. My children are unaware that what I'm doing in their lives is significant, and yet they might be in a 'silence' or 'stillness' season. I'm working in them first, before they birth and see My promise in their lives.

"It is a time of hidden preparation where the Holy Spirit is at work, shaping and equipping the Believer for a future manifestation of God's power and purpose. It is essential for them to remain faithful, prayerful and sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit during this stealth pregnancy, as it ultimately will lead to a time of revelation and the birthing of God's plans and blessings in their life."

Supernatural Birthing

What's interesting is that the Lord began to highlight that the birthing will take place in a supernatural way.

Isaiah 54:1 says, "Sing, O childless woman, you who have never given birth! Break into loud and joyful song, O Jerusalem, you who have never been in labor. For the desolate woman now has more children than the woman who lives with her husband,' says the LORD." The word "desolate" is defined as "a place that is completely deserted, empty, rejected, bleak, devoid of life and excitement, etc." Now, when you refer to a woman as desolate, it can mean that she is empty, alone, deserted, rejected, and in a place of ruin and disappointment.

The biggest question is, "How will this happen?" Isaiah answers this question by telling us, "For your Creator will be your Husband; the LORD of Heaven's Armies is His name! He is your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, the God of all the earth" (Isaiah 54:5). God is not only doing the birthing (or the delivery); He is also the one who is planting the seed, by the power of His Holy Spirit. Mary experienced the same situation, and when the angel proclaimed to her that she would become pregnant, her question was, "How?"

"The angel replied, 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the baby to be born will be holy, and He will be called the Son of God.'" (Luke 1:35)

Birthing in the Spirit and Birthing in the Flesh

Birthing will be happening in the two dimensions—in the dimension of the spirit, and the dimension of the flesh. Jesus said to Nicodemus, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit" (John 3:6). Those who carry the fruit of the Spirit (love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control) will birth spiritual promises, callings and destinies. Those who carry the works of the flesh (sexual immorality, impurity, lustful pleasures, idolatry, sorcery, hostility, quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, dissension, division, envy, drunkenness and reveling) will birth destruction.

1 Thessalonians 5:3 states such a powerful truth: "When people are saying, 'Everything is peaceful and secure,' then disaster will fall on them as suddenly as a pregnant woman's labor pains begin. And there will be no escape." This will be the fate of the wicked.

What God Is about to Birth, No One Can Abort

God said, "Age will not matter." God is not a respecter of age.

The angel of God said to Mary, "...your relative Elizabeth has become pregnant in her old age! People used to say she was barren, but she has conceived a son and is now in her sixth month. For the word of God will never fail" (Luke 1:36-37).

What God is about to birth in the spirit no one can kill. When Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, gave the order to the Hebrew midwives to kill the baby boys of the Hebrews as they deliver them, they refused to obey the king's command, and they allowed the boys to live (Exodus 1:12-17).

Birth Time Is at Hand!

As I continued in the Word, Romans 9:9 was highlighted to me. It sounded like a double confirmation for September: "For God had promised, 'I will return about this time next year, and Sarah will have a son.'"

As I was in prayer, I heard the Lord say, "What you are carrying is from Me, and you will give birth to it, and I, the Lord your God, will be doing the delivery. Birthing time is at hand. You are going into labor. Overdue promises, callings and destinies will be birthed. Birthing will happen in the dimensions of the spirit and the dimensions of the flesh. Those who are carrying the work of the flesh will sink in the pit they made. In the net they hid for you—their own foot will be caught in it. But as for you, you will be birthing the promises I have promised you. The promises you have forgotten about, I did not forget about.

"You are thinking, how will this happen?

"My Spirit will overshadow you and will perform the birthing and the delivery. Therefore, I say to you, 'You are entering a month of supernatural birthing.'

"But you say, 'Oh, Lord, I do not feel it!'

"Symptoms and signs of labor will not appear, for every curse which caused pain or delay has been broken. Before you start feeling the pain of labor, the birthing will be accomplished. You will open your eyes and see the salvation of the Lord. What you are birthing will not die. No one will be able to stand against it. Those who do will be standing against Me.

"Many will find it strange and will not believe, thinking, How can such a strange phenomena happen during a time of crisis and instability? Who has ever seen anything as strange as this? Whoever heard of such a thing? But this is My promise to you: Your promises will be birthed, and your visions will be fulfilled. I will give you a river of peace and prosperity, and the wealth of the nations will flow to you."

"Just Like That - The King of the Camels Is Here!"
Edie Bayer, Houston, TX

On a recent morning, while in prayer, the Lord showed me a vision of camels coming straight at me, head-on. It was a slow stampede of camels! Soon they collided with me and were actually walking over me! They were all around me, surrounding me on every side, and there was no way for me to get away from them.

Then I heard the voice of the Lord say, "The camels aren't coming. They're already here."

As the flow of camels continued toward me without stopping, I heard, "Wake up and realize they're here. They're all around you."

The camels were very friendly and started licking my face, like a dog would give kisses!

The King of the Camels

I looked out in the distance over the backs of this endless flock, over the sheer multitude of camels, and saw a rider upon the back of one. I assumed it was a sultan, but when I looked again, I saw that it was Jesus! He rode toward me, wearing a gold crown – the King of the Camels!

While He was still a good distance away, with an expansive motion of His hands in my direction, He said, "I release them, and I keep them. NOW, I release them!"

"...whatever you bind on Earth shall have been bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on Earth shall have been loosed in Heaven."
(Matthew 16:19)

It's Like That!

During a short afternoon nap, in that place between asleep and awake, the Lord showed me another quick vision.

Just north of where I live is a stretch of highway that suddenly changes from two lanes into four lanes. This enables a massive amount of bottle-necked, choked-up traffic to diverge and spread out over multiple lanes, eliminating all blockages, and allowing acceleration and the free flow of previously restrained vehicles. In an instant, this freeway opens wide, with absolutely no warning at all! It just SUDDENLY HAPPENS!

He showed me this section of highway in a nanosecond, just a snippet of a vision, and said, "It's like that."

"He brought me out to a wide-open place. He rescued me because He was pleased with me." (Psalm 18:19)

Gimel, Gamal, and Conozco

During this same short nap, the Lord dropped both the Hebrew letter "gimel" and the Spanish word "conozco" into my spirit.

The Hebrew letter "gimel" looks like the image of a camel! In fact, gimel is super close and often related to gamal, which, according to Strong's 1581, actually does mean camel in Hebrew.

More importantly, Strong's 1580 also gives gamal this definition: "to bestow on, deal bountifully, do good, recompense, requite, reward, ripen, benefit, and yield."

Is it any wonder that camels have come to be associated with rewards and provision? They are the gimel and gamal of God!

Now, I haven't taken Spanish since high school, but somehow, upon waking, I instinctively knew that conozco meant "I KNOW." However, just to be safe, I looked it up. Surprisingly, I discovered that conozco has about a dozen usages, all with the root meaning "TO KNOW" – like meeting someone for the first time, or being acquainted with something, all the way up to knowing someone intimately, or mastering a topic!

How It All Fits Together

So... How is conozco connected to camels and a four-lane highway? Leave it to God's sense of humor to be able to pull so many diverse and completely unrelated pieces together to make an amazingly glorious picture of His lovingkindness toward us...not to mention His generous nature!

Contained within the MANY meanings of conozco (or "TO KNOW"), from start to finish, the Lord is taking us from being vaguely acquainted with the concept of camels as the provision of God, all the way to KNOWING all about camels from first-hand, personal experience! For years, we have all heard, "The camels are coming," but we are NOW going from just hearing and hoping to being surrounded and overtaken by them – just like the camels in the vision! The King of the Camels has already released them! (Photo via Pexels)

"ALL these BLESSINGS will COME UPON you and OVERTAKE you if you obey the LORD your God." (Deuteronomy 28:2, emphasis mine)

In fact, His "God kisses" (symbolized by the camels licking my face) are running us over, just like the blessings of God, because they are already here! We won't be able to get away from them!

The four-lane highway He showed me means that ALL blockages have been removed – that the gimel and gamal of God have gone from throttled back and choked down to expansive, wide open, free flowing and accelerated...NOW!

If you are like the bulk of the Body of Christ, you have been awaiting the arrival of your camels. I am telling you now, they are HERE! Obstacles are gone, impediments are dissolved...nothing is standing between us and the realization of our God dreams – the dreams that HE GAVE US! The best part is that it is NOW!

"And I will say: Make a way: give free passage, turn out of the path, take away the stumbling blocks out of the way of My people." (Isaiah 57:14)

Yes, "It's like that," He said!

Swing Wide the Gates!

This is a week to swing wide the gates and invite the King to establish the way into 5784! We want Him to lead us and be the "Head" at Head of the Year! In this Pey decade of decreeing, we want our speech to form the pathway to miracles and harvest. Yesterday's Celebration Service was such an amazing time of prophetic declaration and understanding the power of the spoken word. If you were not able to hear Robert Heidler and I teach on "Reflecting on Every Year of Pey as We Approach the Gate," I strongly encourage you to do so before "The War Over Your Door of Promise" begins on Thursday. I declare you will receive and move forward with the prophetic anointings of REVELATION, SEER, WATCHMAN, and HARVESTER!

A New Breath! A New Chapter! A New Day of Declaration!

As I shared yesterday, Proverbs 8:34-35 are powerful verses to declare: "If you wait and guard the door of My Entrances and long to hear a Word for every day --- JOY will break forth within you and the Fountain of Life and Favor will pour forth around you!" Our Celebration Service was filled with the Spirit of Prophecy. Here are a few words you can meditate on and speak forth into your atmosphere as we prepare for Head of the Year.

"This is the time that I Am going to give you victory over that python spirit that has come to stop the breath of God from flowing through you. There are those with breathing issues that I Am getting ready to heal because the breath of God is stronger than the attack of the enemy. Where that python thing has come and tried to choke it out and tried to stop you from the purpose and destiny I have for you, this is the time that you will have victory over that, for My power is stronger than the power of the enemy! Let the breath of God come even as it did in the days of the early church. When the breath of God entered them, they became powerful in the Spirit! There is a new breath coming to you. You are not in that last season, and shortness of breath has to go! Let My breath come and energize you for this season! This is the time to call forth Lazarus out of the grave! For you have said it is too late and too far gone, but I Am releasing a cry out of My people -- the same cry that I released when I said, 'Lazarus, come forth!' Out of your spirit in this hour and this day, I Am releasing a cry that says, 'Lazarus, come forth!'

"Cast down your agendas and wad up your outlines. The yellow pad that you have used is useless this season because I Am coming. I Am coming in a way that you least expect to show you that I Am the Author and Finisher of your life and of your book. Take your topic sentence and cast it under your feet. Remove your topic paragraph and stop that chapter because I have come to refine and redeem what you have written. The enemy has whispered in your ear long enough, but today, the still small voice behind you will break the whispering of the evil one and will light a path before you. Redemption and recovery are in your hand -- claim it and claim it now! The last chapter of your life has not been written. I Am writing a new chapter, a new history. I Am going to cause you to rise up and write. What I showed you so long ago that you thought would never happen, it's because you had not gotten into that chapter of your life. But I Am opening the door, and I'm opening the pages to the next chapter. So this is not the time to hold back, this is the time for fresh new vision. I Am going to cause you to see what you saw so long ago but thought it was too late -- that you had missed the best that I had for you. The best is not behind you, the best is in front of you! Let Me take My pen and let Me write the new chapter for your life. And know that I Am going to water you and the horse you rode in on. You come drink first, and then bring all your horses to let them drink deeply, because I Am going to fill it all up." (Barbara Wentroble, Tim Moore, Keith Pierce, Chuck Pierce)

"WORSHIP! PRAISE! BREAKTHROUGH!"

CHUCK D. PIERCE, CORINTH, TX

(Article released on September 4, 2023.)

Dear Advancing Ones:

Worship is your warfare, and praise is your weapon! If you haven't yet seen your way forward, then it's time to decree that your breakthrough is coming! Yesterday's [Sunday, September 3] Celebration Service was an incredible explosion of worship, praise and prophetic declaration, breaking open our path to 5784. You are anointed to speak what the Spirit of God is saying and to refute and break agreement with every lie of the enemy... I declare you will say and express what God is saying to get you to and through your door of promise!

YOUR BREAKTHROUGH IS HERE!

This is time to decree breakthrough! As we activated our spiritual weapons of praise, worship and giving, the Spirit of God began to speak through this prophetic portal. Here is a portion of what came forth yesterday [September 3]. I encourage you to meditate on and speak forth these words into your atmosphere.

"You have said, 'My release is tied up!' But I say it has a quick 'untying' when you pull the right string. I am showing you the string to pull this week that will unravel what has been tied up – what you need to advance in days ahead. Today is a day to awaken. Today is a day to listen. Today is a day to hear. I am the Lord who teaches you to profit, and yet you have refused My teaching because of your doubt and unbelief to change your situation. Awaken and hear and see the teaching that I have laid before you to bring forth a profitable release that will change not only your life, but My Kingdom's life. I am a God who sows and reaps. I am a God that gives the release. I desire to do exceedingly abundantly above all you can even imagine, but you must receive My teaching to profit.

"Don't fear the storm that's coming. Don't fear the storm that's coming, because I'm the one who's sending the storm so I can step in your pile and fertilize your field. As you are dealing with the storm that I am sending by My east wind, I am coming to teach you not just to profit, but to recover all! As I send the storm, I am going to cause the fields to rejoice. Quit praying for rain when I am sending a storm to blow and change your life. A storm is the only thing that's going to cut the puppet strings that are controlling the narrative and situation. I am sending a storm to deal with a controlling spirit that is not allowing My people to profit. Breakthrough is here through the storm!

"Today is the day to sow into beyond...to go beyond the storm, beyond the crossroads, beyond the breakthrough - because in faith, the breakthrough is here! There are teachings you have believed that are causing lumps in your dough, and yet I have bread for you to make for the harvest. I am sorting through the dough to remove the lumps and make things smooth so that you can continue to prepare the bread for the harvest.

"You have a shout that can break through that worry and anxiety! The enemy has duped you to make you think you can't break through. Quit worrying and jump into faith! You have access to weapons that you're not using! You can break through anything if you use the weapons that are inside you. Praise Me! Praise Me, and I will break through on your behalf! Praise Me! The Breaker is here!" (Word of the Lord from Chuck Pierce, Keith Pierce, Keevy Phillips, Anne Tate, Kerry Hansher, Brian Kooiman, and Shatece McLeod.)

In a Season of Upgrades!"

Alane Haynes, San Diego, CA

I have been experiencing many distractions and what has seemed to be "problems to be dealt with" for months. In the midst of this, I heard the Lord say, "Upgrades." In fact, I had said this myself, flippantly, at one point, when talking about all the things I had to deal with. But I didn't take it to heart, because I was still annoyed and irritated. When the LORD said it, revelation came and the annoyance lifted, because I saw HIM in the midst of it!

The Substance That Leads to Upgrades

"Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it?" (Isa. 43:19, KJV)

God is good and He is always working to bring us into the new, but we don't always recognize it in the process. Sometimes we think it's the devil trying to hinder us from moving forward. No, the devil is always trying to get us out of having faith in the truth – that God is with us and He is trying to bless us! Trusting God leads to the upgrades. Moving forward in faith, with eyes on Him, is the substance that brings upgrades.

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Heb. 11:1 KJV)

In the Greek, the word "substance," here, means: a setting or placing under; that which has foundation, is firm; that which has actual existence; a substance, real being; concretely, essence; assurance (see Strong's Concordance, Blue Letter Bible). Your faith is the foundation that supports the new thing God wants to do in your life! It is the substance that brings it into being!

Ears to Hear and Eyes to See

When there are multiple things breaking, malfunctioning, etc., stay in peace and pay attention! Seek the Lord to hear what He is saying, and see what He is doing in your midst. There is a theme!

As a prophet, I often experience things that represent significant changes God is bringing to the Body of Christ. I pray you have ears to hear and eyes to see what He is doing in your life, and that you will shift easily as you perceive Him in the midst of it all!

In our case, there were three things that received upgrades regarding our communication systems: our phones, my computer, and the transformers for our outdoor lights.

The Upgrade of Our Communication Operating System

God is bringing you into His upgraded communication operating system – a higher place of operating from the finished work of Christ. There will be a strong interference in the spiritual atmosphere as we move forward, and I hear the Lord saying that He is increasing our ability to better receive from Heaven with accuracy, and to speak it forth in the earth with power! He is upgrading your communication with greater illumination by the Holy Spirit!

The Upgrade and Transformation of Relationships

This season of trials and upgrades has borne out in our two-house churches as well. The enemy has been working overtime to disrupt and divide, but the Spirit of truth and the love of God are prevailing to bring transformation. There is a deeper intimacy and stronger bond than ever before, and He is bringing increase in numbers.

He is always working to redeem and restore to His divine purposes. "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure" (Phil. 2:13 KJV).

Christ is the overcoming One, and we must lay hold of Him and obey the leading of His Spirit. Expect to see upgrades in relationships! There is an upgrade to your perception – to see with His eyes and hear through His heart. God is causing these things to rise to the surface because there is a better and more fulfilling way. Trust Him. Ask for wisdom; He will pour it out!

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him." (Jas. 1:5 KJV)

The Hidden Is Being Revealed

I had to take a closer look at our homeowner's insurance policy because the rate had skyrocketed. As it turned out, the small print of our old policy had an astronomical deductible for certain events. We were in such a hurried place three years ago that we hadn't even looked closely at the policy. We have now upgraded to a new policy that is much more reasonable financially. What I hear the Lord saying in this is that things which have been overlooked or hidden are being revealed to bless you long term! Have faith in God in the midst of the process of dealing with the details; He is bringing upgrades!

New Crowns

My husband and I both had to have our dental crowns replaced. The old ones were leaky, and some had deep decay. Likewise, there is a leakage that happens in our spiritual life when we rely on our old ways – crowns of our own righteousness, rather than the crown of righteousness we have through Christ (2 Tim. 4:8). God is removing the crowns we've worn that are based on our works and accomplishments, and the worldly/fleshly/soulish identity and value judgments we have of God and other people, because of our old mindsets that have been instilled by things we think we know, or belief systems based on our experiences or cultural influences.

We are to wear the crown of Christ's righteousness and have His righteousness be the basis of our new identity.

Crowns are a symbol of authority and rule – our authority based on what Jesus has given us – and our rule is enforcing HIS rule. As kings and priests unto GOD (Rev. 1:6), this crown is a crown of holiness unto the Lord (Exod. 39:30), a pure crown of gold (Psa. 21:3), and of anointing (Lev. 21:12).

Another crown that is being offered to us is one that comes from laying hold of wisdom. There is wisdom in trusting in the Lord always, in believing the testimonies of others who have overcome, in stepping out in faith, and in believing God's Word and the principles found therein. There is a beautiful crown awaiting, and others laid up for those that persevere until Jesus returns.

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore, get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honor, when thou dost embrace her. She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee." (Prov. 4:7-9 KJV)

Teeth represent sharpness and devouring power, according to Kevin J. Conner's book, Interpreting the Symbols and Types. We are in a spiritual war, and God is using all of our trials to make us sharper and better able to accurately wield His power!

"Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff." (Isa. 41:15 KJV)

I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "I am removing your old crowns – the old that 'looks good' and 'feels right,' but there is hidden decay...those things of the flesh: dead works, carnal mindsets, self-motivated accomplishments wrought through fleshly and soulish striving to produce what is right in the world's eyes. I am replacing all the old with the new. You shall receive My Kingdom crowns that are birthed and sustained by My Spirit through the finished work of My Son on the Cross."

A new day is upon us, and God is doing a new thing. He has heard our prayers! He is getting rid of the old; the new things we are receiving are a reflection of this! Sometimes what seems irritating and distracting is not the devil but God trying to bring the new to you, the blessing of improvement – upgrades! Look to Jesus and His finished work. Address every need by seeking God and staying in peace.

"For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal." (2 Cor. 4:17-18 NKJV)

Ask, "God, what are You doing; what is the outcome You desire in this?" Keep your eyes on Him. He wants to bless you!

"Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom." (Lk. 12:32 KJV)

Removing Old Patterns and Mindsets

I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "I am removing old patterns and mindsets, shifting your perspective. I am revealing the time stealers in your life. I am sharpening your focus, awakening your spiritual senses. Receive a quickening in your spirit, an alertness to My presence, as I release a fresh wind to remove the veil that has kept you from seeing what I am doing. You will sing a new song that is rising in your heart.

"I am stripping away what will not serve you, for I have great plans for you, and there can be no self-reliance or pride. Look to Me and in Me abide, for when I return, you will be by My side as My perfect and spotless Bride! I have written you into My eternal story – crowned you and clothed you in My righteousness and glory. Look to Me, who make all things new; abundant blessings are in store for you."

"But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day." (Prov. 4:18 ESV)

5784: The Year and Season of Doors"

Madeline James, Lexington, KY

A Revelation 4:1 Time and Season

Late one July night, I felt the Lord invite me to forego sleep and come spend time with Him. God did not disappoint. He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. It didn't take long before the Lord began to encounter me, and I went into a vision. I saw this door open, and I saw the Lord call me up to the new door. I heard the Lord say, "As we round August, we're coming into a Revelation 4:1 time and season, as we go into 5784." I saw August as a hinge thrusting us upward through the door in September, as we step into the new Hebrew year 5784. July was a time of rest and completion. God is closing one door to open the new door He has for you.

The Open Door to a New Dimension

Doors are portals or openings of light that allow spiritual activity, like angelic beings, to go between Heaven and Earth. Portals are released from Heaven to Earth. Portals can be demonic or godly. Notable portals referenced in the Bible are Jacob's ladder in Genesis 28 and in John 1.

In John 1:47-51, Jesus shows Nathaniel a new revelation concerning heavenly portals. No longer are angels ascending and descending on the earth in a specific place; they are now ascending and descending upon Jesus. This was a new revelation Jesus released, essentially saying, "You no longer have to wait at a certain time or place; I am the portal." Wherever Jesus is, there will always be an open door/portal to Heaven.

In this Revelation 4:1 season, God is calling His people up to a new dimension and place of maturity. To operate in the things of God, we must be in the spirit where we are seated with Christ in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6). Because of Christ, we have access to places and realms in Christ. It's time for us to encounter new revelation and new places in Him. As we encounter these places, we will learn to live from them and live out of them. He wants to reveal to you the things to come.

The Threshold of 5784 – A New Door

In my study of 5784, I discovered that the number four is represented by the Hebrew letter "dalet" (as dalet is the fourth letter in the Hebrew alphabet). Dalet can mean poor, door, and to lift up. One of the reasons the warfare has been so intense is because we're at the threshold of a new door. Apostle Paul said in 1 Corinthians 16:9 (NKJV), "For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries."

A door or a gate is a place of authority. Doors represent places of transition. You are stepping from one realm to the next. The threshold marks the ending and the beginning of a thing. When you open a door, you are splitting the atmosphere to step into the next room. For many of you, July was the closing and completion of a chapter in your life. As you stepped into August and are about to step into 5784, you are stepping into a new chapter. The old has gone and the new is here. There was a lot of buzz and anticipation that surrounded the month of August. A shift is truly taking place.

Doors of Influence

Depending on what door we step into, they can shape our views and influence us. God told Abraham in Genesis 15:5, "Then He brought him outside and said, 'Look now toward Heaven, and count the stars if you are able to number them.' And He said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.'" It wasn't until Abraham stepped out of the door and into a new place that he got new perspective. In that moment, his mind went from doubt to faith. Abraham's tent represented his old season and mindset. As excited as we can be for the new, we can sabotage ourselves if we stay in the same door, only peering into the new. We must step out of fear and into faith to go through the door.

As God is bringing you through doors of promotion, you must prepare your heart. This is what the Lord was doing to Abraham. David said it like this in Psalms 119:32, "I will run in the way of Your commandments when You enlarge my heart!" In other translations it says, "enlarge my understanding." For us to enter the doors and places God has for us in 5784, we must have a great capacity in every area of our lives. We can't operate in the same wineskin we did last season and expect new results. We need the Lord's help to expand our borders, because new opportunities and experiences put a greater demand and pull on us. We must be ready for the increase.

Doors and Keys

I believe as we come into 5784, we're coming into a greater measure and revelation of the Key of David.

In Isaiah 22, it depicts the story of Shebna and Eliakim. Shebna was the keeper of the house during the reign of Hezekiah but became prideful. Because of His pride and desire to be like God, the Lord demoted him and raised up Eliakim in his place. Isaiah 22:20-22 says, "'Then it shall be in that day, that I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah; I will clothe him with your robe and strengthen him with your belt; I will commit your responsibility into his hand. He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. The key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder; so he shall open, and no one shall shut; and he shall shut, and no one shall open.'"

We are entering into a great season of demotion and promotion in the Body of Christ. We will even see this in the secular realm. God is positioning new gatekeepers in His house and removing those who have puffed themselves up.

God is giving new keys of authority to those who have remained humble and pure. Those who carry and clothe themselves in Christ will carry the ultimate key, the Key of David. What is the Key of David? Jesus Christ Himself.

I hear the Lord saying, "Access will be granted to those who will carry the Key of David." The Key of David will enable gatekeepers to open or close gates over different cities, regions and nations. This will be key for intercessors going forward. God is releasing new strategies and keys to His intercessors to see long-awaited breakthrough. I declare and decree that frustration and weariness are breaking off intercessors now, in Jesus' name, amen. What has been hard will be made easy, and what has been in the way will be made low. God is releasing the right key for you as you wait on Him.

Doors of Testing

There will be doors of testing that we will encounter in 5784. God is separating the wheat from the chaff.

We are going to continue to see a very noticeable dividing line in the Body of Christ. There is too much mixture going on in the Body of Christ. Daniel 2:35 says, "Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together, and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors; the wind carried them away so that no trace of them was found. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth." Because there has been so much mixture in the Body of Christ, it has been producing an image that no longer looks like Christ.

Day of Atonement Begins!

Tishrei 10, 5784: Monday - September 25, 2023

Matt Friesser: Law of Sin and Death – Day of Atonement

Yom Kippur is considered to be the holiest day in the Jewish calendar, after Shabbat. This is the day in which we make atonement for our sins before the Lord. The day the scapegoat, was taken by the high priest. He would lay both hands on its head and confess over it all the wickedness and rebellion of the Israelites and put them on the goat's head. He would then send the goat away into the desert to a solitary place. (Leviticus 16:20-22)

It all leads to our souls being cleansed to be made ready to dwell with the LORD - Sukkot, or the Feast of Tabernacles, is the most joyous celebration of all. The Lord commanded the Israelites to build booths and live in them for seven days:

DATE - Tabernacles

Sundown on Friday, September 29 and ends Nightfall Friday October 6th.

New International Version
Life Through the Spirit

8 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, 2 because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set you free from the law of sin and death. 3 For what the law was powerless to do because it was weakened by the flesh, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in the flesh, 4 in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

The Soul and the Afterlife By Nissan Dovid Dubov

Rabbi Schneur Zalman explains in the Tanya (fundamental text of Chabad Chassidic philosophy, written by the movement's founder, Rabbi Shneur Zalman of Liadi in the 18th century) that every Jew is composite of two distinct souls. The first soul is the Nefesh (life force) HaBehamit (hah-beh-hah-meet) (G-dly Soul) which animates the body. This soul is complete with an infrastructure of soul powers ranging from pleasure and will to intellect and emotions.

Common to all the soul powers of the Nefesh HaBehamit is that they all wish to fulfill the base needs, passions, and desires of the body. Essentially the Nefesh HaBehamit is self-centered, from it stems the negative character traits, such as anger, apathy, and arrogance and pride.

Wow – Kingdom of Self – Selfie anyone – it seems that Kingdom is on full display these days in all forms of narcissism and sexuality. It all started a long time ago.

In the Book of Enoch CHAPTER VIII.

1. And Azâzêl the fallen Angel taught men to make swords, and knives, and shields, and breastplates, and made known to them the metals 〈of the earth〉 and the art of working them, and bracelets, and ornaments, and the use of antimony, and the beautifying of the eyelids, and all kinds of costly stones, and all coloring tinctures (any of the conventional colors (including the metals and stains, and often the furs) used in coats of arms.). 2. And there arose much godlessness, and they committed fornication, and they were led astray, and became corrupt in all their ways.

Leviticus 16 in the following ESV passage: Atonement which is Yom Kippur
And Aaron shall cast lots over the two goats, one lot for the Lord and the other lot for Azazel. And Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for the Lord and use it as a sin offering, but the goat on which the lot fell for Azazel shall be presented alive before the Lord to make atonement over it, that it may be sent away into the wilderness to Azazel.

When you look at that it is like a soul that wanders aimlessly and finds trouble.

The second soul is the Nefesh Elokit. This soul is described by Job as “a part of G-d,” and exists both before its descent into the body and after the ascent from the body. The Nefesh Elokit in itself is not in need of rectification; rather its descent into this world is to refine the base and the animalistic nature of this material world.

In kabbalah, the divine soul (נפש האלקית; nefesh ha'elokit) is the source of good inclination, or yetzer tov, and Godly desires.

The divine soul is composed of the ten sefirot from the side of holiness, and garbs itself with three garments of holiness, namely Godly thought, speech and action associated with the 613 commandments of the Torah. Because its desire is to cleave to Godliness, it is usually in conflict with the nefesh habehamit hah-beh-hah-meet, whose desire is initially for physical pleasures.

Before its descent to the world the Nefesh Elokit is taken on a heavenly tour. There is a lot more dept to the soul, but the reality is we all have a scroll and a destiny which is our divine purpose. We are spirit beings living in the flesh.

Ecclesiastes 12:7

7 Then shall the dust meaning our bodies return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

The Nefesh Elokit also has its own infrastructure of pleasure, will, intellect, and emotions, but they are focused on the Divine rather than on the self. When a person is born, the Nefesh Elokit is placed close together with the Nefesh HaBehamit and they both operate and express themselves within the thinking mind. The two souls live locked together for their lifespan, both trying to gain control of the thinking mind. As we learn to abandon our desires, our Nefesh Elokit, Godly desires become our mission.

Destroying all flesh as well as the holy ram of consecration is the focus of the third reference to the corporate portal called the "The Door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation."

"And thou shalt take the ram of consecration and seethe his flesh in the Holy Place. And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, BY THE DOOR OF THE TABERNACLE OF THE CONGREGATION. And they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy" (Exodus 29:31-33 KJV).

The only sacrifice in the Old Testament that had the power to atone for intentional sin was the Lamb of God sacrifice, in other words the "ram of consecration." Scripturally speaking, the only legal way for Ascension in Christ is outlined in Hebrews 10:19 – "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus." It is through the trans dimensional substance of the Blood of the Lamb Jesus Christ that we can be properly "raised up together" and we are able to "sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus" (Ephesians 2:6 KJV).

(Revelation 5:1-10)

The Lion of the Tribe of Judah (who is the Lamb of God) is worthy to take your scroll/book and open your seals, because He was slain and has redeemed us to God by His blood; and made people of every tribe, tongue and nation kings and priests unto our God, so we shall reign on the earth.

When we grasp that that, we realize it is not an end time story but a new beginning. The souls are being brought before a Holy Fire to test their worth. This Nation's Soul is being laid bare for all to see, so many are waking up, and yet many are still being blinded by lies.

Apokalypsis (Key) – Greek Pronunciation ap-ok-al'-oop-sis, laying bare, making naked or a disclosure of truth, instruction.

- A. concerning things before unknown
- B. used of events by which things or states or persons hitherto withdrawn from view are made visible to all, manifestation, appearance

The battle for the Soul rages like an inferno it burns. The enemy strives to fill it with everything contrary to GOD's true nature and design, while the LORD desires us to come and place it upon HIS altar as pleasing sacrifice to be burned up and purified by HIS Holy Fire!

This is HIS Sovereign Will which leads to the door of life!

Psalms 24: Who may ascend the mountain of the Lord?

Who may stand in his holy place?

4 The one who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not trust in an idol or swear by a false god.

5 They will receive blessing from the Lord and vindication from God their Savior.

6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek your face, God of Jacob.

7 Lift up your heads, you gates; be lifted up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.

Say What God Says

Recently, we talked about the power of decreeing and declaring what God has said in the past, and also of relating his past works. Testimonies are powerful. We said there is power in His words, and the power remains. Today I want to develop this a little further to encourage you, as you "command the foreword" over our nation.

Many Greek words simply cannot be fully translated into one English word. The Greeks used to brag that with their intricate language, they could say more in one word than any other could in an entire sentence. The pictorial Hebrew language is much the same - how do you describe the details and nuances of a picture in one word? This is why I do biblical word studies, and it's why amplified and expanded translations are helpful.

At times, one English word is used to translate several Greek words. We have written and spoken often of "time," for instance, which is used to translate several Greek words, all with different meanings. Without knowing which Greek word was used - kairos? chronos? horaio? - it is often impossible to fully understand what Holy Spirit is saying.

This is the case when discussing "God's Word." Four different Greek nouns are translated as a "word," all having different nuances of meaning. Three of the four are used to describe the Word/s of God. One refers to written words (graphe) (1) and is also translated as "Scripture/s," the written Word of God. Another is rhema, (2) which refers to spoken words. The words many of you are reading along with me are graphe; the words you are hearing me speak are rhema's.

The third word is logos, (3) which means word/s, as well, but includes the message they are communicating. This is why we get our English words "logic" and "logical" from logos - because it includes the message, the understanding, the reasoning. Obviously, one can read or hear words and not truly understand them. When this occurs, the words are not yet logos, but are still only graphe or rhema. With this meaning, it is easy to see why Jesus was called "the Logos of God" (John 1:1). He did not merely speak words about God, life, truth, etc.; He WAS the message, embodying and revealing God, life, truth, etc., to us. He IS the message, He IS God revealed!

This brings me to an important biblical word I want to define today, which describes what we are doing as we "command the foreword." The word is homologia. (4) The first half comes from homou, (5) which means "same" or "together." The second part of the word comes from logos. Homologia is usually translated as "confession" or "profession," but neither of these words does it justice. A better translation would be either "say the same words," or "say the same thing." Yet, this still isn't enough to fully understand homologia. In order to do so, we need to amplify it to "understand, agree with, and say the same thing." Our "confession" of faith in God's Word (Hebrews 10:23), and our "confession" of faith in Christ's redemptive work when we were born again (Romans 10:10), literally mean "understanding, agreeing with, and saying what God says." When we do so, His power is released!

Many thousands of intercessors believe and are saying the same thing God said about America, both about our original purpose and our restoration of this. They are commanding the foreword, and decreeing that "America shall be saved." A growing remnant of the Ekklesia - the church - now understands our authority in Christ, as well as our responsibility to use it. They have sharpened their swords and are ready to agree with Him, saying the same logos He has said.

Here is still another principle that will encourage you as you "command the foreword." For most of my life, I wondered why the Old Testament said, "God remembered, " I've always thought, He never forgets anything, so how could He remember? And why would He tell us in Isaiah 43:26: "Put Me in remembrance." Why would we need to remind God?

Then I studied the Hebrew word for "remember." My lexicon said the Hebrew word "remember" doesn't just mean "to recall." It said, "Remembering is not merely a recalling of the past but is also a call to action." (6) Finally, the concept made sense. Of course, God doesn't need us to help Him by pulling something out of His memory, as though He forgot about it. He wants US to recall His promises and ask HIM to do them.

For example, this Hebrew concept of remembering would be like a person building their dream home. They have dreamed, planned, and promised themselves for years that they would one day do so, saved their money, and waited for the right time. He or she hasn't "forgotten" about it; it's always there in "the back of their mind." The timing, however, for various reasons, just hasn't been right. Then they realize it's time, and begin thinking about it, "remembering" the house, not because they had forgotten about it, but because it is now time to build. They buy the land, if they haven't already done so, have the plans drawn, get the permits, hire the builder, and build the house! That is "remember"!

The Lord "remembered" Hannah, barrenness was broken off her, and she conceived (1 Samuel 1:19). Samson repented; God then said He "remembered" him, and his strength returned (Judges 16:28). God said He "remembered" His promise to Abraham, and the exodus process began (Exodus 2:24).

When it's the right time, and yes, sometimes that timing hinges upon our actions, God "remembers," engaging His creative mind and power, and releases His great power and ability. In fact, one of the Hebrew words for "create" actually comes from the word for "think or imagine." Individuals, including God, think about, dream of, or imagine something, then create it (Hebrew yetser and yatsar).

As we "command the foreword" over America, saying what God said regarding our destiny and purpose, we are asking Him to remember and do it. We've heard Him saying it's time for restoration and a heavenly reset of HIS decreed purposes. We're declaring that we understand what He said about our nation, that we agree with it, and we will say the same thing.

Pray with me:

Father, You have given us Your Word, the Scriptures, to reveal Your will, nature, and ways. You have given us Holy Spirit to instruct us in Your word, revealing its meanings and bringing it to life. This produces revelation and faith in us and reproduces Your life. And when we agree with You, saying what You have said, it releases the power of Your words in our decrees and prayers. It also honors and pleases You when we believe and say Your words.

You also give us prophetic insight and words through Holy Spirit. He enables us to discern the times and seasons; He guides and directs us in our lives, prayers, and decisions. He has shown us that we must cover our borders with prayer and command the foreword You wrote for America. We are doing so.

Now we ask You to remember and do! Use our decrees, which carry Your power, to release life, protect our land, stave off evil, and overthrow wickedness.

Restore, rebuild, and reset until America is ablaze with holy fire. Do so until America burns with passion to carry the gospel of the Kingdom to the ends of the Earth. Overthrow evil. Remove corruption in our government, whatever it takes. Save America, as You have said You will. We ask these things in Christ's all-powerful name. Amen.

Our decree:

We declare that as we understand and say what God says, His infinite power is released to accomplish His purposes. Therefore, the foreword will survive and prosper.

We Are the Cavalry

Several weeks ago my brother, Tim, preached a powerful word regarding the season we are entering. He has sent a summary of this message for us to share with you today. Tim writes:

"We are in a very strategic moment in history. I heard very clearly from the Lord regarding three months of preparation, from June through August, leading into September. On June 4, 2023, He said,

"I will now deal with the oppressors of My people. I will move swiftly and with jealous aggression. For I have heard their cries and will break the hold of the taskmaster's rule over them. Though these oppressors bow their necks in stubborn resistance, I will lead them with nose rings to their place of destruction. Like oxen to the slaughter I will pull them into stalls of disgrace. The influence of their curse will break from the hearts of My people. The disheartening crack of the taskmaster's whip will no longer be heard by My sons and daughters. They will not carry the burdens of their oppressors. They will not toil for their enemy's gain. They will not work as slaves of cultural brutality. They will not be forced to glean from empty fields simply because they worship Me. No, they will own the fields where once they gleaned.

"The breaking sound heard by My triumphant remnant will now be the cracking sound of the oppressor's authority shattering off of their lives. The words of their "pharaoh" will be like chaff in the winds as My angels scatter their defiance. Michael and his chariots of fire have received their orders. Gabriel has communicated strategies through all angel armies. Breakthrough angels are now activated. Pharaoh will not have the final word; I will have the final word.

“Ekklesia, contend in faith as I harden the hearts of your enemies to bring devastating defeat to them. Set your heart on what I say. Set your minds with “now faith,” expecting to live in “promise places.” Move forward into new times and seasons I have prepared for you. Move forward into the reformation I have planned for you. Move forward into positions of authority I have ordained for you.

“For know, says the Lord, the next three months [June, July and August] will lead to a great shaking, and a reset of the nation back to its covenant roots. These will be months of great reformation and will surge rapidly, says the Lord. Know that the seeds of faith planted by My people with their decrees of faith will accelerate to fullness, producing the fruit of the seed sown. The faith decrees they’ve sown will accelerate to fullness and My people will enter new times. Embrace and move into the reset I have planned; it will now unfold. Decree your faith and activate My Kingdom’s power. Decree your faith and activate angel armies that will assist you in the supernatural reset.’

Tim Speaking

“The Lord has emphasized Hebrews 12:25-28 to me, which tells us not to turn our back on heavenly warnings. The Lord is going to rock the heavens - thrones, principalities and powers of hell. There will be a shaking, a thorough house cleaning, to get rid of sin and religious compromise. The unshakeable essentials will stand, clear and uncluttered. We have been told repeatedly not to fear, for we are part of an unshakeable Kingdom and our God is not an indifferent bystander. The world is banking on His indifference, but they are about to be greatly disappointed.

“Ephesians 6:10 (NKJV) says, ‘Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God.’ We must be prepared in this season. A battle will rage for the soul of this nation and we must engage and win it. Prepare yourself for this fierce war season. Prepare to battle spiritual thrones of iniquity that influence government. Understand that you must fight with prayers, faith decrees, and worship warfare.

“Use the weapons of your warfare; they are not carnal, but mighty through your God to the pulling down of strongholds. Prepare yourself to go into battle alongside angels by proclaiming His Word (Psalm 103:20). It is time to engage in this breakthrough battle that will lead us toward a billion-soul harvest. It is time to engage principalities and powers of darkness, and confront those they use in the natural realm. It's time to confront the prophets of Baal in media, the education system, and government.

"The hour has come to report to the battle lines. It is time to march, advance and possess the land. Though there be giants in the land, do not fear. Like David, gather stones and prepare your sling. Sharpen your spiritual swords for they will be needed to cut off the heads of spiritual giants. The Lord will go before you and empower you.

"It's time to listen and hear the pre-battle proclamations, the sounding forth of battle cries, the beating of drums. There is a call for bold passion, much like warriors have heard throughout the ages. We are not here to hold the fort until the cavalry gets here, Ekklesia. We are the cavalry!

"We must advance with Holy Spirit and the angel armies. We are to follow the Breaker, King Jesus. It's our time to awaken and arise, take the land and reset history with determined, unflinching faith.

"One of the prayers of the early church has captured my attention. Acts 4:29 (NLT) 'And now, O Lord, hear their threats, and give us, your servants, great boldness in preaching Your Word.'"

"The early church was part of a movement possessing unrestrained boldness; they said what God said. I am hearing that call to us now. Holy Spirit is pouring out an anointing of boldness on His Ekklesia. Power to prevail is soaking His remnant. Rise and roar with King Jesus! March into battle with confident peace, knowing He is with you!"

Pray with me:

Lord, we ask for an increase of the boldness You're pouring into Your Ekklesia. Pour the powerful oil of Holy Spirit upon us, enabling us to arise and make the boldest stand earth has ever seen. Light the fire of courage in our hearts. Awaken love for truth so strongly in us that regardless of what hell throws our way, we won't speak unbelief. Instead, we will shout the promises of God - in the faces of darkness, spiritual enemies, and a rebel government. Awaken hearts, infusing them with confidence.

As we are moving into the time of the reset battle for the soul of our nation, we will run into the battle with King Jesus and His angel armies. We will take back all that hell has stolen. We ask for Holy Spirit's aggression against hell's iniquity and thrones of darkness. We will not share habitation with them.

And once again, we pray for those fighting evil in America on legal and governmental fronts. We ask for the exposure and removal of evil prosecutors and corrupt government agencies. We ask for exposure of their dishonesty. End government "lawfare" and oppression. Shake it down, bringing defeat and disgrace to those who pervert justice. Defund them and their sources. Give brilliant strategies, perfect timing, and abundant resources - millions of dollars - to those fighting for righteousness. Declare victory FROM HEAVEN for those being falsely accused. Restore justice and a pure, constitutional government to America; shake down all else.

And it is in the authority of Christ we pray and declare these things. Amen.

Our decree:

We declare that a supernatural reset has begun, and that the Ekklesia will now rise with unflinching boldness, advancing and taking back the land.

Crossing Over Into Prophetic Fulfillment"

James W. Goll, Franklin, TN

Scripture tells the story of an important crossing over moment in the lives of the people of Israel. Joshua and the people had just crossed over the Jordan River into their Promised Land, and the Lord asked them to place memorial stones:

"And the children of Israel did so, just as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the midst of the Jordan, as the Lord had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the Ark of the Covenant stood; and they are there to this day.

"So the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the Lord had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and crossed over. Then it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed over, that the ark of the Lord and the priests crossed over in the presence of the people."
(Joshua 4:8-11)

The "Until Clause:" From Revelation Revealed to Revelation Fulfilled

On one side of the river is "revelation revealed," and on the other side is "revelation fulfilled." And in between revelation revealed and revelation fulfilled, we—as individuals, families, movements, cities, people, nations, and societies—live in the "until clause."

We don't know how long this "until clause" is. Sometimes it's five seconds long. The promise is revealed; the promise is fulfilled. Sometimes it's a generation. Sometimes, in biblical prophecy, it might be hundreds of years. How about Isaiah 62? Recently many of us have participated in an Isaiah 62 fast.

Isaiah 62:6-7 states, "I have posted watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. You who call on the Lord, give yourselves no rest, and give Him no rest till He establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth."

That's a long "until clause" between revelation revealed and revelation fulfilled. There is a period in between, and we don't know how long it is, but it will be fulfilled.

NOW is the time for fulfillment! But crossover moments do come, and at times we must have eyes to discern our day of visitation. Did you hear me? We must NOW have eyes of discernment to realize we're right in the middle of it, and we can become so familiar that we might miss it.

In my book, Revival Breakthrough, in chapter 11, I rehearse multiple biblical and modern-day prophecies "until," and then there is a crossover time when they happen.

So let me rehearse some history.

Forty years ago, in May of 1983, a young man named Mike Bickle called forth what was called a "Joel's Army Fast," inviting people to 21 days of fasting for revival. I was one of those people. And in our small church, Harvest Fellowship, in Warrensburg, Missouri, we participated in 21 nights of fasting and worship.

In that period, I knew I was being invited into the prophetic purposes of what was going on in Kansas City and whatever was going to be birthed. I also knew there would be a cost to pay to answer that invitation. There was profound prophetic revelation that came forth in that time. A lot of amazing things have been fulfilled, but not all of those words have been fulfilled. Like many of you, I have been waiting for.

- the great end-time harvest
- the beginning of the billion-soul harvest
- the great greatest youth awakening that the world has ever seen

And on the exact same dates of the 1983 fast, 40 years later, Mike Bickle issued the call again, for 21 days of prayer and fasting—an Isaiah 62 fast. They said there might be a hundred thousand, and it might grow to a million. Well, I think that it could have easily been up to 10 million people that participated. Thousands and thousands of people around the world participated in a crossing over moment, from revelation revealed to revelation fulfilled.

We Are in a Crossover Moment

I'm here to say: We are at a crossover time. We are at the beginning of the billion-soul harvest, especially of youth. And we are at the beginning of the greatest youth awakening the world has ever known.

We must call forth hope solutions. We must call forth for the remedy for such a time as this.

You get to participate in the greatest youth awakening the world has ever seen. You get to be part of the great harvest and prophetic evangelism, signs, and wonders. You get to be part of seeing these great end-time prophecies fulfilled. Yes, you do.

Join me in believing that we are crossing over into prophecy fulfilled. We are at a crossover moment! Let's put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.

Prayer for Prophetic Fulfillment

Lord, we call forth in our day and in this generation the greatest youth awakening that the world has ever seen. You have done it before, now do it again, even better and bigger and more powerfully.

Release Your Spirit and send Your angels to usher in one billion more souls for Your Kingdom, for Jesus Christ's sake. Send revival! Send it now! Move quickly, Holy Spirit, and raise up the greatest youth prayer army of all time.

We declare that these prayers agree with Your prophetic purposes for this generation, and we praise Your holy name. Amen and amen!

Praying for Prophetic Fulfillment—NOW!

"Calling for Alignment and Willingness: Embracing God's Power and Authority in the Coming Storms

Recently one morning in the secret place, I heard the Spirit say, "My Beloved I Ask for your heart, I Ask for your Willingness and Availability to be a partaker of My Glory and Power in this hour, there is much work to do and the Time is short,

My Sons and Daughters Can I rely on you to Align and position yourself in the secret place in this season? That I may release to you the power and Authority of the Mantles that are waiting for their moment of manifestation in the earth realm!

Can I depend on you to Carry and Steward well My Gifting's and My Anointing with humility, and honor for the Advancement of My Kingdom in the Earth?

Will you choose this day, to lay down anything that restricts My hand and Spirit moving upon you? For the flesh wars against the Spirit, and the carnal nature is always at enmity with My Spirit.

Just Ask and I will help you and empower you to overcome evil, Do not be discouraged or distracted by the relentless onslaughts of the enemy that seek to derail your destiny, Ha!! For Satan fears the day that you relinquish all to Me in exchange for My Wonder Working Power to Perform greater exploits.

Beloved, I Tell you, these are Critical Times, Days that demand a rapid and unparalleled response in the Place of strategic Warfare and Intercession. Therefore, It's vital that you Incline your ear to the Cry of My Heart, I have need of you, without your Help My Hands are tied, for truly I tell you, My Spirit is hindered and hampered by a Spectator mindset in My Church, Passivity, Complacency, Insecurity and Envy have disqualified many from being used as My chosen instruments in this hour for greater Kingdom Impact and Influence. Do you realize that My Spirit cannot Move in the presence of Competition and Strife, for when the Spirit of Rebellion and Independence are in operation within the Body, it causes chaos and confusion, and great damage, it leads to delays and further destruction and the devourer has permission to take more ground and he increases in power and demonic possession in the earth realm.

So Be Watchful, Diligent and Vigilant, Resist the Spirit of Slumber that comes in this hour to lull many into a deep sleep, Do not turn to the right or to the left, STAY AWAKE, AND ALERT, BE LASER FOCUSED, Be intentional for these are the Days for a Glorious Unveiling and a greater Revealing of the Riches of My unlimited Resources and Supernatural Supply.

Have I not promised Provision for the Vision, Surely you know that My Storehouse's are always full, and My Angelic Armies are at your full disposal to bring you into the fullness of your Destiny, for My Breakthrough Angels stand Ready to Come and to Go at your Command, Only one Word needs to be spoken and they are dispatched to go ahead of you to prepare a place for you, with Swords, battle axes and battering Rams in their hands nothing and no one can stand in their way, even Steel Doors and Iron Gates cannot hold them back, Why do you doubt My Power?, Why are you so double minded?, Why do you reason with your own understanding and look to your own strength and human abilities?

Beloved, It's not by might, nor by Power but by My Spirit, I have Called you and Anointed you to pursue, overtake and recover all, surely you cannot begin to even comprehend the vastness of My Love for you or the riches of My Glory that I have made available to you, I have not left you as helpless orphans, alone and on your own, but I have grafted you in, I Call you My Own, so move out, and move beyond the shallows and into the deeper places, and you will discover that My Strong arm will carry you, and My Righteous Right hand will deliver you, you will never need to fear the unknown for My Goodness and Faithfulness will be the substance that keeps you from ever sinking, I Say to you, Now Embrace the New and Narrow Way ahead, do not Fear the frailties and weaknesses you see in yourself, for I will use them to drive you into My Spirit of Might and Power, Beloved, I will use your weaknesses to demonstrate My Strength, and I will show the World what I can do, and what can be accomplished through a yielded and surrendered vessel, My Grace revealed through you will confound the arrogant and the confront the prideful, So Give Me all of your Heart, Soul, Mind and Strength and I will give you All of Mine"!!

Tabernacles

James Timothy Turner: TRIBULATION vs. JUDGMENT

It is an honor to participate in this prayer calendar. I hope that this word blesses you as much as it has me through the many years of struggle and also in this time of great victory that is upon us. I thank all of you who have been steadfast all of these long years. Our Father is faithful, and we shall overcome, and in fact we have already won the battle against our enemies through Jesus our Lord, savior and defender.

In our day it is important for us to understand the purposes of as well as the difference between tribulation and the divine judgments of God. Tribulation is defined as great affliction, trial, distress or affliction. Judgment is defined as a time of reckoning or settling of accounts.

Jesus spoke several times about tribulation.

It is simply a part of the growing process. We are strengthened by tribulation spiritually much as an athlete is strengthened by rigorous exercise. Without the process of strengthening, we would be weak and could not withstand the trials and temptations that our enemies use to prevent our progression to perfection. It is in God's love for us that tribulations come. As God's people when times are good we often neglect the duties of prayer, fasting and intercession that keep us strong and in good standing with our Father in heaven. We have a tendency to think we don't really need God during good times as much as we do during times of tribulation. During good times we often become lazy, lukewarm and unconcerned about His mandate of reaching the lost and building His kingdom. This prevents the full demonstration of the gifts and fruits of the spirit operating in our lives. Because of His love for us it is necessary for our Father to allow tribulation to keep us righteous and pure that we may be presented on that day as holy and without spot, wrinkle, blemish or any such thing. We could say that tribulation keeps us honest and works patience by which we possess our souls.

Tribulation may be allowed by God but is not caused by Him. Tribulation is an act of our enemies. It is the enemies attempt to weaken and cause us to give up so they can destroy us. Isn't it amazing how our Father takes the very thing that our enemies use against us to strengthen us and prevent our destruction. Tribulation is proof that our Father loves us and is watching over us. Always remember that it came to pass, and tribulation will pass when it accomplishes the intended purpose. Our participation in correcting the things that need our attention can help tribulation pass more quickly. God will honor our efforts to please Him and shall protect us during times of tribulation.

Our day is a time like no other in history. It is a time that the People of the nations will begin building God's kingdom on earth. We are about to see the greatest manifestation of the power of God that has ever been seen on earth. We are privileged to live in this day and be a part of this great outpouring of His spirit. We were chosen to be here in this time for His purposes. He is allowing tribulation to prepare us for His service in this time. He is preparing a spotless remnant for His return. Rejoice that our Father loved us enough to allow us to experience this time that many who came before us longed to see. You are very special to Him or you would not be on earth for His service at this time. Jesus chose His best and strongest warriors to occupy until He comes.

Judgment is the settling of accounts.

God's people are not going to suffer His judgment. If you are a true believer your account was settled the day you accepted Jesus as your Lord and Savior. This account is forever settled as long as you continue to walk in our Fathers will. If judgment is not for God's people, then it must be for those who are not God's people. Unlike genders, according to some not so bright, politically correct "woke" people, there are only two kinds of people on the earth, believers and unbelievers.

Unbelievers will suffer God's judgment but not necessarily for the reasons that most suppose. It is a fact that during and after times of great judgment great revival and the salvation of many takes place. Although some may perish, during times of judgment many more often turn from their wicked ways and repent. So, are God's judgments just? I would say that in His infinite wisdom He even uses judgment as a tool to save many who would have been lost in eternity. It is amazing how God demonstrates His love for mankind even through judgment. We should not rejoice in the destruction of the wicked; however, we should rejoice that the destruction of those who refused to repent brings liberty and salvation to those who do repent. Many who pass through this world without experiencing judgment often do not realize their need for God and His salvation until it is too late. It is often in times of desperation that men reach out to their only hope and find true peace with God.

As a believer we should not be disheartened when we face tribulation and trials. We must understand that these things are necessary to accomplish God's purposes in our lives. It may be uncomfortable at the time, but it will work for our good if we remain faithful. Tribulation and trials help us to be able to understand the problems that others deal with. It gives us insight in how to help them due to our own experiences. We cannot truly relate to someone who has a problem that we have not experienced ourselves. Experience is a good teacher and difficult experience is not forgotten. These things better prepare us for God's service.

Next time you find yourself in a hard trial remember it will pass when it accomplishes its purpose. You will come out the other side with a closer relationship with our Father and be better prepared for His service. Rejoice knowing that your father loves you and protects you in difficult times. May our Father bless and keep you and all that pertains to you.

God Bless, James Timothy Turner.

Veronika West: "MY BLESSINGS WILL PURSUE AND OVERTAKE YOU, MY LOVE WILL SEEK YOU OUT, AND HUNT YOU DOWN"

I hear the Spirit say,, "My Beloved, Don't waste time striving after the Praises of men, nor concern yourself about their criticisms and gossiping tongues, but Let your self-worth and significance be deeply rooted in Me, stay grounded in My Love and unconditional acceptance of who you are, your faults, failures, imperfections and human weaknesses are not held against you, but are used as tools in My hands to display the Wonder Working Power of My Restorative Mercy and Redeeming Love in your life.

In Me there is no pressure to perform like a puppet on a string, I am not a hard task Master demanding that you work and work to gain My blessings and favor, No! but rather I am a Loving Father with a desire to see you walking in the full purpose for which I created you, As you make it a priority to spend time in My Presence then you will come to understand in a greater way that all I am asking for, is for your willingness to fully surrender to Me, so that I can use your life in the way that I desire.

Of course, there will be inconveniences and great sacrifices to be made along the way, and you will be called to lay aside fleshy pursuits and worldly pleasures, But! Oh My Beloved what a small price to pay and what a meagre offering to make in exchange for a life of untold Blessings and Great Reward, and for riches and wealth that are not fleeting and temporary, but rather satisfying and everlasting, Surely, I make no mistakes, for when I chose you, handpicked you, and set you apart, I knew you would come to Trust Me and fully rely upon Me to work all things for your good,, and for My Glory, How I delight in you,, you make Me smile, you make my day, everyday My heart is overwhelmed by the Love you have for Me and for My Kingdom, even the Angels stand in awe of how you have embraced My Grace and how you have learned to lean heavily on My Mercy to Make a Way, how you cry out daily for My Strength and Wisdom to empower and enable you to walk on the narrow path.

Beloved, you and I have journeyed together through many valleys and we have ascended to many Mountains tops, and though you have not always been joyous along the way and many times you have allowed the Spirit of fear to steal your faith and delay the miracles, My Presence has never left you,, even when you were unaware, My loving hand clung tightly to yours, and My watchful eyes were always upon you, My heart fiercely protective over you, My Spirit always leading, guiding and preserving you from every hidden danger, See! I have gone before you, even sent My Angels ahead of you to prepare the way, I have been your rear guard and an ever Present Help in times of need, It brings Me Joy when you anticipate My Victory, and when you expect My intervention,, and when you wait with great excitement for the Breakthrough that I have promised, this is the faith that pleases Me, that demonstrates to Me that you are growing in maturity and becoming more and more like My Son, Surely, I tell you, now I can see an even greater revealing of a True reflection of My Glory through your life, I tell you My child, Obedience is better than sacrifice, for this is what I ask for, Obedience, so continue to follow after My Spirit,, walk by faith and keep your eyes fixed on Me,, and My Blessings will pursue and overtake you, My Love will Seek you out and hunt you down”, !!!

Bruce & Linda Dietler – Kansas

There Came a Man of God

"Superman, rocketed to earth as an infant when the distant planet of Krypton exploded, and who disguised as Clark Kent, a mild-mannered reporter for the Daily Planet, fights a never-ending battle for truth, justice, and the American way, with superpowers far beyond those of ordinary mortals.” Thus, was the world introduced to Superman.

Who does not like superheroes? We need superheroes! Comic books since the 1930’s regale their mighty exploits to save the world and its beleaguered inhabitants from all variety of ills. Their ranks include such luminaries as The Green Lantern, Captain America, Wonder Woman, Batman, Spider-Man, and Captain Marvel to name just a few. Though new ones continue to arrive as the need arises, even the greatest of these superheroes emanating from the mind of man pales in comparison to those who grace the pages of the Bible and who have fought the good fight for Yahweh and His people over the millennia. How important it is that we teach these biblical truths to our young children; that they might come to know of these REAL Bible superheroes!

Any list of biblical “superheroes” would most definitely include the following:

- Moses, whose obedience to God by raising his rod to the sky caused the Red Sea to split in two, allowing all the congregation of Israel to pass through. On another occasion he caused a rock to split in two, and water came gushing out to quench the thirst of God’s people.
- Elijah, who called down fire from Heaven upon a water-drenched altar of sacrifice, then killed 850 evil prophets of Baal. He also caused a three-and-a-half-year long drought in Israel and stood strong against Ahab and Jezebel.
- Elisha, empowered with a double portion of Elijah’s anointing, restored a dead child to life by laying his body upon the child. He also caused an iron axe head to float on water.
- Phinneas, grandson of Aaron and the son of Eleazar, in his zeal for God, killed one of his own countrymen by running his javelin through his back and into the belly of the woman with whom he was fornicating, thus staying a plague in Israel (see Num 25:8). By this righteous act, Phinneas made atonement for Israel and received from God the covenant of an everlasting priesthood (one of only three individuals in the entire Bible with such a distinction).
- Deborah, a woman prophetess, an elder in the gate of Jerusalem and a mighty warrior in battle in her own right.
- Jael, another fearless woman, who performed a mighty exploit by slaying Sisera, captain of the hosts of Caanan, with a tent peg to his temple (Judges 4:21).
- Gideon, a youth whom God found hiding behind a winepress and who went on to become the conqueror of vast armies by using only broken water pitchers and a mighty shout, “The sword of the Lord and of Gideon.”

So many other names could be added, but no such list would be complete without mentioning the superhero event described in 1 Kings 13:1-7. This one deserves special notice because of the individuals involved.

"And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee. And he gave a sign the same day, saying, this is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out."

Here is the scene: a nameless man of God comes face to face with Jeroboam, who is the son of Solomon and the powerful king of the 10 northern tribes of Israel, at an altar in the town of Bethel, the southernmost boundary of the northern kingdom of Israel. This is not just any altar; it is one of two such pagan golden calf altars erected by Jeroboam himself for the specific purpose of keeping the nation of Israel from traveling to Jerusalem to worship at the Temple of God. The king, not a priest of the Lord, is here offering incense at the altar when this no-named person, from Judah, no less, arrives and begins to powerfully cry out, likely in a loud voice, denouncing the altar and prophesying that one named Josiah, someone not even born yet, from the house of David (of the southern kingdom of Judah) will kill the priests of the altar and burn their bones upon it. As a confirmation from the Lord, he declares, this altar shall be broken down and the ashes poured out on the ground!

Who IS this person? Known only to God, he is one who most definitely knows God intimately; knows he has received a powerful word from God which must be delivered, and is laser-focused on his sacred mission to speak this hard word before a king! He speaks out with no concern for personal consequences which might occur, boldly and unequivocally declaring God's impending certain judgment upon the corrupted altar.

The narrative continues:

"And it came to pass, when King Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before."

So, as the king points toward the prophet, commanding that he be seized, immediately Jeroboam's arm withers and becomes useless. Then the altar splits in two, pouring its ashes on the ground as had just been prophesied. The king, likely now terrified and in the fear of God, asks the prophet to intreat the Lord on his behalf to restore his arm, which the prophet does, and the arm is restored to him. Powerful!

As noted, this dramatic incident is but one of many throughout the Word of God where mighty men (and women) of God are strong and do exploits. What is so significant here is that the man of God remains nameless. For all we know, he has absolutely no credentials, no noteworthy genealogy, training, or even any title. He is just a "man of God." He rises to this one occasion then marches off into the annals of history never to be seen or heard from again. God used a "nobody" – MIGHTILY.

God very often chooses the "nobodies" of this world to confound the wisdom of the wise and to do great exploits for Him. Moses began life as a literal basket case released into the river and committed by his mother into the hand of God. The mighty Elijah was a camel hair wearing Tishbite, of all things, and the Bible says he was a man subject to like passions as we are (see James 5:17)! Elisha was a plowman and farmer. Phinneas was a priest. Jael was a housewife. Jacob was a dreamer and an ex-convict. David was but a shepherd boy. Nehemiah was a neutered cupbearer in involuntary servitude in Babylon. God used uneducated fishermen, tax collectors, ex-cons, and the like in the past, and He desires to do so today, if they will but yield fully to Him, believe His Word, and allow His glory and power to flow through them. That is the key.

Anyone who asks for, diligently seeks after, and ultimately obtains the heart of God for a given societal situation, who empties himself out of the equation, is moved with God's compassion, walks in the fear of the Lord, and the mind (wisdom, attitudes, and attributes) of Christ, and resolves to stand for the holiness, righteousness and glory of God can and will be used by Him as a mighty man of valor. Are you such a one?

Notice that biblical superheroes never arose during times of ease, but rather, in times of adversity, when their nation needed them most. We are living in such times, when our nation needs them most, and God is looking to raise up His mighty ones in our day in this hour. Perhaps you were born into God's kingdom for such a time as this. You might say, but I am a "nobody." Excellent, you can be used! Prepare your heart. Prepare your mind. Get God's heart and listen, listen, listen for His word to you. Advanced age is not a disqualifier (Moses was 80, and Joshua and Caleb were 85!), nor is young age. Lack of education is not a disqualifier. Lack of finances is not a disqualifier. There is nothing that will disqualify you other than a stubborn, rebellious spirit - one unwilling to yield one's own will to God's higher call on your life.

When times get tough, as they are now and getting darker by the day, multitudes cry out, "Where is the God of Elijah?" God would respond with, "Where are the Elijahs of God?" We are those Elijahs He is looking for!

Superheroes in the comics all have superpowers of one sort or another to accomplish their mighty deeds. Members of the Green Lantern Corps (an intergalactic law enforcement agency) fight evil with the aid of rings that grant them a variety of extraordinary powers, all of which come from imagination, fearlessness, and the electromagnetic spectrum of emotional willpower. Men and women of God, on the other hand, come not in willpower alone, but in the power of Holy Spirit, in the Name of Yeshua and by the power of His blood, and in the authority of our Mighty God over every demonic power and ruler of darkness of this world. We fight not for victory but from a position of victory; knowing that we are in Yeshua and He is in us; that we are NOW seated in heavenly places in Him; that He has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind; that God alone is creator of the entire universe, and His power operates in and through us! As Mordecai and Esther bore the King's ring, so do we! In Yeshua, we cannot lose!

To those who desire to see a mighty move of God in the Earth in our day, I encourage you, by the Word of the Lord, "Rise Up! Rise up! Rise up! Rise up from spiritual complacency. Raise up My holy standard and restore righteousness to the land. This indeed is the day and this is the hour to activate the giftings and abilities with which I have equipped you, that you might become all that I have called you to be and fulfill all that I have called you to accomplish."

It is the unnamed men and women of God, those whom the world would consider as "nobodies," "deplorables," or "useless eaters," but who do intimately know their God and yield themselves fully to Him, that shall be strong and do exploits (Dan 11:32). The world is awaiting in earnest expectation for the manifestation of the sons of God (Romans 8:19). We are those sons of God for which the world is awaiting. May we not disappoint them or the Lord, and when our day on Earth is done, may it be said of us in awesome respect, "Truly, there went a man (or woman) of God."

May this be our continual prayer unto the Lord:

Consume me Lord, with the fire of Your Spirit.
Consume me Lord, and make me more like you.
Break me Lord, and bless the broken pieces of my life.
Let me be used, Lord by you.

"COME OUT OF THE TRENCHES"

DANIELLE DIXON, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA

Due to a high level of warfare that has taken place over the past few years, many of God's people have been living in confined spaces. Instead of advancing the Kingdom, they have been maintaining the Kingdom. We are transitioning away from a prolonged period of conflict and restriction towards a phase characterized by growth and advancement.

Jesus is saying, "Come out of the trenches and look around; I have scattered your enemies." Jesus' directive is to overcome obstacles as barriers are being dismantled. This presents a window of opportunity to do what couldn't be achieved previously. "God shall arise, His enemies shall be scattered; and those who hate Him shall flee before Him!" (Psalm 68:1)

I had a vision where Jesus took me to the top of the earth, and He was holding a bow and arrow. In my mind, I speculated He would release fire into the world. He started strategically shooting into different nations and regions. I watched intently when the arrows landed; to my surprise, as the arrow struck the ground, water poured out into that region. This water carried provision, alignment, strength, and hope. As people drank, they were infused with purpose and passion—something people were depleted of in the trenches.

A message for those coming out of the trenches: Fix your eyes upon Jesus, the Author and Finisher of your faith; Jesus, the one who is and is to come; Jesus, the Savior of the world; Jesus, the one who has already overcome the world; Jesus, the Prince of Peace.

This is a time to build. It is crucial to cling to God's promises and prophetic revelations, deploying them as tools to establish the impending season of Kingdom progress. As they are released into the atmosphere, we will see the mountain of God exalted above all other societal mountains, bringing things on the earth into greater perspective.

"It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and it shall be lifted up above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it, and many nations shall come, and say: 'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob, that He may teach us His ways and that we may walk in His paths'..." (Micah 4:1-2)

THE NATIONS OF MOROCCO, AND LIBIYA HAVE DECLARED A STATE OF EXTREME EMERGENCY IN THE LAST DAY ; SUDDEN AND EXTREME FLOODS AND EARTHQUAKES

Friends PRAY Set Watchmen on the Walls and Be Ready In and Out of Season
As we Celebrate Head of the Year Rosh Hashanah and as we Enter the Door of 578(4)..

I hear the Spirit say "THE WAY AHEAD WILL BE FORGED BY FIRE AS MY GLORY FALLS UPON THE HEADS OF NATIONS, I SAY COME UP HIGHER FOR THE DOOR OF REVELATION (4) STANDS OPEN BEFORE YOU, COME UP HERE AND LET ME SHOW YOU WHAT IS TOO COME"

Recently, I prophesied there that there was going to be a "CHANGING OF THE GUARD AND THAT WE AS THE ECCLESIA WOULD HAVE TO GUARD OUR HEARTS", this Changing of the Guard would be A CATALYST FOR GREATER AWAKENING WITHIN THE CHURCH AND WILL CHALLENGE THE BODY OF CHRIST TO PRAY AND SEEK HIS FACE AS NEVER BEFORE,

A SEASON OF WRESTLING FOR THE BLESSING AS JACOB DID "WE WILL NOT LET GO UNTIL" !!

Furthermore I prophesied, that we were now entering into very strategic months where we will see SWEEPING CHANGES, these are DANGEROUS TIMES, A PLACE OF GREAT CONTENTION AND CONTENDING FOR THE DESTINY AND BIRTHRIGHT OF THE NATIONS. NATIONS HAVE NOW ENTERED INTO A NARROW PLACE..(NATIONS MOVING THROUGH THE EYE OF A NEEDLE), .; FOR A TIME OF BIRTHING IS HERE; BUT WATCH AND PRAY, MAYDAY..MAYDAY THIS IS NOT A FIRE DRILL" !!!

The Spirit of the Lord has had me in times of extended prayer in recent weeks, where at times I have literally felt the weight of His Glory bearing down hard upon certain Nations, I have seen and experienced in the realm of the Spirit a pushing and a pulling, like strong and powerful birthing contractions over Nations, as I have been in travail, I have been shown the Destiny of those Nations now entering into what I can only describe as, "A NARROW PLACE"..(I see it unfolding in the deeper realm and dimensions of the Spirit 'NATIONS ARE MOVING THROUGH THE EYE OF A NEEDLE') it's a place where the greatest level of Demonic Warfare is taking place, the very Birthright and Destiny of those Nations are being violently contended for, A PLACE OF INTENSE WRESTLING FOR THE BLESSING, I have never felt such intense demonic rage where the Enemies of God are seeking to lay siege and take captive the Kingdom Inheritance of Nations, the Spirit of the Lord has shown me that Nations are at a DIVINE TIPPING POINT AND SATAN HAS REGROUPED AND IS ABOUT TO UNLEASH A NEW LEVEL OF HELLS FURY AGAINST THE GREATEST HARVEST THAT THE WORLD HAS EVER SEEN .

Early hours of this morning I was suddenly woken to the sound of a loud bell ringing in the realm of the Spirit, and I heard these words, "MAYDAY, MAYDAY, THIS IS NOT A FIRE DRILL", as I sat up in bed thinking I was hearing the ringing in the natural because it was so real to me, the Spirit of the Lord began to speak to me, and I heard these words,

"WATCH AND PRAY FOR THE MONTHS AHEAD WILL MARK A DIVINE TURNING POINT FOR NATIONS CAUGHT IN THE LAND INBETWEEN, BUT WATCH, FOR DARK STORM CLOUDS ARE NOW GATHERING AND THE VIOLENT WINDS ARE NOW BEGINNING TO BLOW, CHANGE, CHANGE, A SUDDEN CHANGE, FOR THERE IS NOW A TIPPING AND TURNING AS THE PENDULUM SWINGS, AND THE HANDS OF THE CLOCK MOVE FAST FORWARD, A KIAROS TIME, AN APPOINTED TIME IN THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH, SEE! FOR THE PAGE IS FLIPPING AND THE NARRATIVE IS SHIFTING, BE ALERT AND STAY VIGILANT, FOR THE VULTURES ARE CIRCLING AND THE STENCH OF DEATH IS IN THE AIR, YES! THE SMELL OF ROTTING FLESH DRAWS IN THE VULTURES AND THE JACKALS, LOOK AND LOOK AGAIN, LISTEN AND PAY ATTENTION.

I SAY WATCH AND PRAY, FOR NATIONS ARE NOW CROSSING OVER TO THE OTHER SIDE, AND WHEN THE FLOODS BREAK FORTH AND THE WATERS RISE THE SERPENT SPIRIT OF LEVIATHAN WILL EMERGE FROM THE DEEP TO DERAIL AND TO DEVOUR, SO AGAIN I SAY WATCH AND PRAY, MAYDAY, MAYDAY, THIS IS NOT A FIRE DRILL".!

A STATE OF EMERGENCY

Watch! For I tell you this is a Sign of "the coming of My Glory" to The Nations! For did I not say, My Glory is looking for a resting place, and for you to prepare a Landing Strip?

For My Glory is coming! My Glory is coming!

I say an outpouring of the gold of My Glory shall come — and when My Glory falls, It shall come suddenly — and powerfully — and the eyes of all Nations will behold the Light of My Glory!

For eyes have not seen, ears have not heard, nor has it entered into the heart of men what I have prepared for those who love Me!

I say, Get Ready! Get ready! For My Glory shall fall upon the Highways and the Byways, and the long-forgotten places in The Nations.

For I tell you — the last shall be first and first shall be last!

Beloved, Watch! For My Glory will invade and inhabit! My Glory will shake and shift!

I say again, "Prepare a Landing Strip!" for My Glory is coming!

Look! For this is a Sign, a sign of the time, a Kairos Time — an appointed time.

Tick-tock go the hands of the clock, for this is the 11th hour, as nations are now aligning with Heaven's Timing! Watch! Pray! and Prepare — for the Fire and Rain. I say, Build the Altars and prepare the Living Sacrifice, and the Fires of Purification shall fall to purge and purify!

Listen! It's time to go up, for there is a sound of the abundance of rain. The hour of birthing and new beginnings is here. Watch — as a greater shaking comes to the foundations of Nations, for a state of emergency shall be called in many nations in the days ahead.

I say, "Brace! Brace for impact!"

But I say to my Righteous Remnant — Fear not! For this is the hour of your rising, and as darkness increases, so shall the Light of My Glory rise upon you, and all Nations will be drawn to the brightness of your rising.

I say Watch and Pray — for when the Light of My Glory rises, Nations shall be brought to their knees, and when My Fires of Purification fall, the curse shall be reversed, and Nations shall come forth from the furnace as pure gold — and The Rains of Restoration shall Heal and Revive the land!"

God Is Strategically Bringing You Into: Divine Alignment"

Bernice Scheidler, Redmond, OR

While in Israel over the summer, I noticed I needed help getting into my hotel rooms, but my keycards were not working.

In one hotel, it became amusing after the 6th trip from my room on the 10th floor back down to the lobby, trying to get my key card to work. At that point, a manager took notice and insisted someone come up with me to my room to make sure I could get in. I was accompanied to my room and asked if I had the right room. I assured them I did.

The manager was able to open my room using a key fob he had, allowing me to wait in my room as he tried to fix the problem. After many more trips up and down (on his part), he RESET the entire system on my door, allowing my key to work.

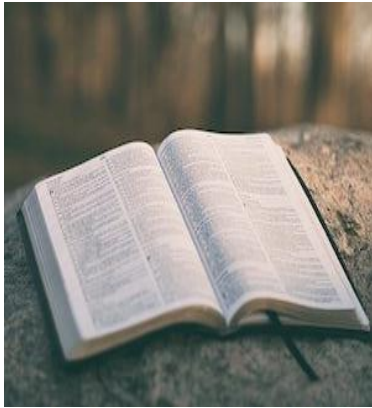

It became apparent the Lord was trying to get my attention. I also couldn't help but notice my interactions with people in the elevator during the process. I understood the elevator was symbolically speaking of a place of transition (going from one place to the next). As I sat in my room, #1029, I began to ask the Lord what He was trying to show me.

Alignment and Blessing

I felt there was something significant about my room number and was prompted to look up the numbers in Scripture. As I read Numbers 10:29, the Lord began to speak.

"Now Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, 'We are setting out for the place of which the Lord said, "I will give it to you." Come with us, and we will treat you well; for the Lord has promised good things to Israel.'" (Numbers 10:29)

God is strategically aligning you with His plans and aligning you relationally.

Moses' brother-in-law was a skilled man. He understood the desert, where to camp, and what to look out for. Moses recognized that Hobab would be an asset to them as they set out to the place the Lord promised to give them. He asked Hobab to go with them, but Hobab was from a different tribe and wanted to return to his family. As you read the story, Moses tells his brother-in-law that the Lord will be good to the Israelites and that they will share with him the blessing they receive, if he chooses to go with them.

Many of you have been in transition and God is shifting you and bringing alignment in your assignments and relationships, and it will cause blessings to come upon you and those you are aligned with.

What God Is Saying about Relational Alignment for September through the Fall

Here is what the Lord has been showing me in connection to relational alignment for September through the fall.

1. The Lord is bringing new and necessary relationships into your life that will be a tremendous blessing to you for what He is calling you into. The Lord is bringing people into your life who are skilled, qualified and anointed, and who will propel you into the Lord's promises. Understanding that the ones whom the Lord brings to you in this season may look different than you are used to will be necessary. Just like Moses' brother-in-law, they may come from another "tribe" (stream or denomination), but they will be the ones who will help unlock the door for you.

2. The Lord is bringing peace to your heart in connection with relationships that will no longer be a part of your next season. The Lord will heal your heart from the relational hurts from the past and bring peace and closure to you as you move forward.

3. The Lord is doing a work with existing relationships as they take on new meaning! Some people are already in your life who love you and are for you; they have been there all along but not necessarily fulfilling certain functions in your life. You will notice God doing a work in these relationships as they assume a new role and take on new meaning for you. These relationships will begin to blossom and bless you immensely.

4. The Lord is renewing your value for relationships. As you move into the fall, dealing with any relational unforgiveness that might be holding you captive is imperative. The Lord wants you free. Those of you who have felt the pain of relational hurt, those who have been in isolation and reluctant to trust and step into new relationships, the Lord will heal you as you come to Him. His healing power will carry such restorative power that it will instill in you a renewed value for relationships.

5. It is important not to force connections; God already has those relationships for you, and as you seek Him, He will make it clear to you. Be faithful to step into what He shows you, because these alignments will unlock the door of abundant blessing!

Entering the Door to Promise

I shared the following word while in Israel:

You can't understand why the door is not opening for you! It's not because you are trying to open the wrong door; it's not because you don't have the key to open the door. God has already given that to you! It is because a divine reset is required before you can access the promises you are about to enter into. It is happening in the transition.

What feels like ups and downs, what feels like a lot of backwards and forwards, what feels like inconvenience, and what appears to be delay is actually a sequence of moments bringing you the divine reset! Pay attention to what the Lord is saying in these moments. He is revealing your next assignments and bringing new and unexpected connections into your life that are vital for your next season! You will enter the door to the promises God has for you!

God's plans for you are so good!

I decree and declare that you will see every plan He has for you fulfilled. I bless your relationships, I bless your assignments, I bless you to prosper, and I speak divine alignment over you, in the mighty name of Jesus! YOU ARE BLESSED!

Last day of Tabernacles

April Klaassen Brown:
Thunderchild First Nation
'Home Advantage'.

The past few nights have been filled with dreams of unusual exuberance, laughter and just fun. Silly that we Covenant kids sometimes think we shouldn't have some fun but seriously there was such a joy filled atmosphere and freedom which was true, a true freedom. I woke up one recent morning and even asked the LORD, after having to get up for a few moments, that he would allow me to go back to the previous dream as it was so happy. I wanted more of that. (Honestly up until these dreams, I had no idea of what that even looked like, felt like or could dream of) I've been reading Righteousness and Truth lately, in the WORD. There is a shift in the atmosphere, in spite of what the world is portraying and it is one of Joy, Peace, yet of Boldness and Courage, a deep, deep, Confidence in WHO exactly our GOD is.

Psalm 100:1-5 (ampc) A Psalm of Thanksgiving {and} for the Thank Offering.

1 MAKE A JOYFUL noise to the LORD, all you lands!

2 Serve the LORD with Gladness! COME before HIS presence with Singing!

3 KNOW (perceive, recognize, and understand with approval) that the LORD is GOD! It is HE who has made us, not we ourselves [and we are HIS]! We are HIS people and the sheep of HIS pasture. [Eph. 2:10.]

4 Enter into HIS gates with Thanksgiving and a Thank Offering and into HIS courts with Praise! Be Thankful and say so to HIM, Bless and affectionately Praise HIS name!

5 For the LORD IS Good; HIS Mercy and Loving-kindness are Everlasting, HIS Faithfulness and Truth endure to ALL generations.

I've felt the Holy Spirit lead me to spend time back on my first nation territory in northern Saskatchewan (Thunderchild First Nation) I felt as though I had the 'home advantage' in the spiritual realm simply by being here. I look at that by my biological parents' relationship with the Holy Spirit here in these parts prior to the enemy gaining the upper hand and the subsequent complete breakdown of my biological family. That's a whole other chapter we won't go into right now. I just knew I had to come here again and also enjoy good moments with my youngest son, who is currently working on our tribe's farm.

The Holy Spirit has dropped revelation about 'keys'.

These are keys which have been held for the ages by the strongmen over our Nations, (as well as First Nations / Native American tribes / First Peoples of the World / Body of Christ), they have held 'master keys' and the evil gatekeepers over again our Nations have held 'access keys' to the secret things they've hidden and withheld from us, His Covenant Peoples. The Holy Spirit has released HIS people to require daily and nightly as we sleep, for further understanding, further wisdom and further holy knowledge on these 'keys'. This particular day specifically my husband and I prayed in agreement for Wisdom, Clarity, Instruction and Breakthrough. This has been the norm really during our prayers, but my spirit almost felt an 'agitation', or strong 'high vibrations' again to just go and spend time with the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit had already put into my spirit the location of prayer and time with HIM. The area was the ancient power grounds of our Thunderchild Sundance area. [This is a ritual ground where shamans assist dancers who are praying to the sun spirit for various reasons personally and for the tribe and offerings are made to this spirit. What is required is a piercing of the skin with bone lodged under the flesh and leather straps attached to those and a 'tree' where the dancers dance around and work to break their skin and shed their blood for the desired requests. Sometimes these dancers are pierced through their shoulder blade area and hung, to dance or again break free while praying and fasting. This shed blood ceremony is what has permitted a 'religious spirit' over our indigenous territories. It is an act of rebellion [witchcraft] to the commands of Hashem and a presumption [iniquity] that shed personal blood supersedes what Yeshua did on the cross]

When arriving at the location the mileage on my vehicle hit 188888 kms and I knew that I knew that the LORD was going to do 'something significant'. Once situated on location, the instructions were forthcoming by the Holy Spirit and were completed.

While driving to pastor friends near Wetaskiwin Alberta, the Holy Spirit had me in intercession along the lines of what Tim Sheets had declared "Miracles of Deliverance " in their recent Sunday morning service. I had not realized how much in alignment and agreement the intercession had been and it was very encouraging to hear. During the course of the intercession the Holy Spirit was leading me through, greater understanding of what the Holy Spirit is doing in this moment began to flow. The understanding and revelation of why in previous times HE's shown the importance of the order of the healing process for the bride / body of Christ.

This has been shown as:

1) Relationally - Repentance for judging others in the body of Christ who, in their faithful desire to defend the TRUTH of the WORD, overstep the boundaries of LOVE for others within the Body. We want to have pure heart motives to build up each member of the body, taking care not to destroy or tear down. We must release forgiveness, Grace and Mercy; allowing each to walk in their own lanes to accomplish fully what the Holy Spirit has assigned each member of the Body to do.

It is imperative that we ask the Holy Spirit to sift us and remove any impurities that come from roots of pain, bitterness or self. 1 Colossians 1:9 (ampc) For this reason, since the day we heard about it, we have not stopped praying for you, asking [specifically] that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom [with insight into His purposes], and in understanding [of spiritual things]. 1 Thessalonians 2:4 (ampc) For our appeal [in preaching] does not [originate] from delusion or error or impure purpose or motive, nor in fraud or deceit. But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the glad tidings (the Gospel), so we speak not to please men but to please God, Who tests our hearts [expecting them to be approved]. Romans 12:4 (ampc) For as in one physical body we have many parts (organs, members) and all of these parts do not have the same function or use, So we, numerous as we are, are one body in Christ (the Messiah) and individually we are parts one of another [mutually dependent on one another]. Having gifts (faculties, talents, qualities) that differ according to the grace given us, let us use them: [He whose gift is] prophecy, [let him prophesy] according to the proportion of his faith; [He whose gift is] practical service, let him give himself to serving; he who teaches, to his teaching; He who exhorts (encourages), to his exhortation; he who contributes, let him do it in simplicity and liberality; he who gives aid and superintends, with zeal and singleness of mind; he who does acts of mercy, with genuine cheerfulness and joyful eagerness. Colossians 3:12-14

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. 13 Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. 14 And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

2) Physically - We as Covenant People of God need to be healed ourselves fully, so that we can bring full healing to those who will be coming across our paths. We have assignments already appointed to us by the LORD in our original blueprints. We are the hands, feet and love of Jesus Christ to this hurting, deeply wounded world. We are required to be relationally, physically, spiritually, mentally, emotionally healthy with infinite resources so we are able to accomplish what we have been assigned. Matthew 9:35 (ESV) And Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction. Luke 4:18 (ESV) "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, 1 Peter 4:11 (ampc).

Whoever speaks [to the congregation], is to do so as one who speaks the oracles (utterances, the very words) of God. Whoever serves [the congregation] is to do so as one who serves by the strength which God [abundantly] supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified [honored and magnified] through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. The following three also included in this list are;

3) Spiritually 4) Mentally and 5) Emotionally. We are going to be required to bring deliverance, unlock with the keys of the Holy Spirit the programmed and fragmented minds and souls of those who will be coming for help which the world could not give, even with all their therapists, psychologists and yoginis. They will be coming to receive the freedom which only the Holy Spirit is able to bring in its fullness. We will require great wisdom and instruction of the Holy Spirit as we walk through these times. Jesus' words to his disciples before ascending into heaven, say that we will do greater works than he did. We will be able to function by the power of the Holy Spirit in ways which will defy any worldly standard of magic or supernatural signs. We will require great discernment because the Word tells us that the antichrist will be able to perform supernatural (not Holy) signs and wonders. Yet as Yeshua's Covenant family, we will be able to do what will be impossible with the true power of the Holy Spirit.

Luke 1:37 (ampc) For with God nothing is ever impossible and no word from God shall be without power or impossible of fulfillment. Mark 10:27 (ampc) Jesus glanced around at them and said, With men [it is] impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God. Jeremiah 32:17 (ampc) Alas, Lord God! Behold, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm!

There is nothing too hard or too wonderful for You. Jeremiah 32:26-27

(ampc) Then came the word of the Lord to Jeremiah, saying, 27 Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh; is there anything too hard for Me? Daniel 11:32 (ampc)
...but the people who know their God shall prove themselves strong and shall stand firm and do exploits [for God].

John 14:11-12 Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me—or at least believe on account of the works themselves. 12 Truly, truly, I tell you, whoever believes in Me will also do the works that I am doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. 6) Resourcefully (infinite resources) - This last requirement of healing is so that those within the body of Christ who are anointed, appointed, designated to steward Kingdom resources are healed and trustworthy, before God. There will be a restoration of Kingdom integrity, Kingdom character, Kingdom Wisdom and Kingdom Business restructured learning in this time.

I believe that much of this will be new Kingdom technologies and revelations of this will not be a time of selfishness but rather of generosity, assisting where assistance is required and appointed. The LORD himself will instruct what HE desires to be built up and progressed forward. Even now there are many within the body of Christ and even entire Nations who have been given anointings of Daniel (God is my Judge), Hananiah (God has been gracious / Graciously given by God), Mishael (Who is as God), and Azariah (Helped of God / Yahweh has helped) or Joseph (Increaser, Repeater or Doubler). These have been given dreams so big, they've wondered themselves how these dreams will be accomplished, Jehovah Jireh means the 'God who sees ahead and has already provided' for us who believe and trust in the WORD.

In the beginning, the WORD was the WORD, and the WORD was GOD. The same was in the beginning with God. [3] All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. [4] In him was life; and the life was the light of men. ~

"I Am Reordering This Nation for a Great Turnaround."
Charlie Shamp, Moravian Falls, NC

Maui Wildfire Prophecy

Charlie Shamp shared the following on August 12, 2023:

On July 16, 2022, while ministering in Hawaii, the Lord released me to deliver a very hard prophetic word to the state. It was a significant warning that the demon of death would land in the form of a dragon in the state and cause people to die. It was connected with the state's covenant with abortion. Hawaii was the first state in the union to legalize [OBJ] abortion in the United States of America.

Please pray for the state at this time. I've been in shock and heartbroken over the news of what has transpired in Maui, as we were just there a few weeks ago with the family. The burden of the Lord came over me one day while I was there, and I just began to weep. I knew within my heart what I had seen was going to come, but that what the enemy meant for evil, the Lord would turn it for His good.

They Will Try to Bring Another Lockdown

Prophetic word – August 12, 2021:

Last night I had a very vivid dream where I met President Trump. I was standing beside a set of steps leading to a stage in a large indoor stadium. I was accompanied by a man that I have never met in the natural. President Trump walked over to me, and he reached out his hand to greet me as if he already knew who I was. I asked if I could pray for him and he agreed. I then began to prophesy some very personal things to him concerning his future. I opened my eyes and pointed at him and said, "Don't lose hope! The Lord is bringing a great turnaround for America." He thanked me and turned to take the stage.

I awoke and heard the Lord say, "Watch as they look to bring another lockdown to finish the reset, but I will bring a shutdown of this current government. It will be a sign that I am reordering this nation for a great turnaround."

An Uprising Is Coming!

Prophetic word of the Lord – September 8, 2022:

I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "An uprising is coming! It has been brewing underneath, but now you will see the uprising as the enemy attempts to remove righteousness completely from the land."

"Hear Me this day, righteous remnant in America: You must arise and decree My covenant over your nation. You must arise and declare your birthright, for you were birthed as a nation founded upon Me. Decree and declare your birthright and fresh breath will enter your weary bones. I will expose the wicked weeds in your government that refuse to repent and bow to Me."

"I am separating the wicked from the righteous seed that have been planted in the soil of your nation. My hand will uproot this uprising as it springs forth, if you pray! You must decree your birthright before My heavenly courts, and I will silence the wicked one in the courts upon the earth in your land. For what they attempt to do, I will turn it around upon them, and they will fall upon their face in disgrace. Where they will attempt to prosecute, I will overturn and throw out."

"Lift up your voice to Me and decree your birthright, America, and I will remove and uproot wickedness and wash the land white as snow. The scales of justice will tip in your favor, and the bowls of judgment will tip over upon the wicked one."

"Watch and pray, for I will bring a great turnaround in a single day. You will hear the sound of the roar at the return of the Lion in the land. The hunter will become the hunted."

"GET READY FOR RADICAL JOY!"

KATHI PELTON, PORTLAND, OREGON

Recently, during the worship time at our Sunday service, the front of the church filled with young men and women who were filled with great joy. One young man, who none of us knew, began to jump, dance and shout with a true unrestrained joy. I was worshiping right next to him, and what he was releasing was a radical joy that was contagious. He wasn't doing it for show; he just could not contain his joy.

As he continued to jump and dance, I began to remember how I felt when I was delivered from darkness into the light and love of Jesus as a teenager. Everything in me wanted to dance and shout like this young man was doing. The joy of being brought from death to life could not be contained, and I'd find myself laughing and crying at the same time, because it was like living in the best dream anyone could have.

Then I heard the Lord say, "Get ready for the unrestrained and contagious joy to return to My Church. For those who have been slaves to darkness will be set free, and those who have been dead in sin will come back to life, as they encounter My love. They will not be able to contain their joy and gratitude as they see the light and experience the washing of My Blood. Do not restrain them or silence them, for they will revive joy in My house once again."

I saw in my spirit people running to the altar to be saved, healed and set free. I saw what looked like a new Jesus Revolution, but rather than it being mostly hippies with bare feet, it will be every sort of person: those tattooed with demonic symbols, those with colorful hair, the college students, the elderly, and even the very young—and together they will dance for joy as they experience freedom and light. They will be united in the joy of their salvation.

Celebration is coming! I see our heavenly Father looking down the road for the sons and daughters who are getting ready to come home. The joy and anticipation on His face is undeniable. He is ready to celebrate their salvation, to put rings on their fingers, robes on their backs, and to kill the fatted calf, inviting all to celebrate with Him. I see invitations being sent to His sons and daughters to get ready to celebrate with Him.

Remember that celebrations are rarely orderly, quiet or controlled because true joy should not be contained or held back. The family of God is about to get much bigger, and joy will mark this move of God.

"How joyful is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered! How joyful is the man the LORD does not charge with sin and in whose spirit is no deceit!" (Psalm 32:1-2)

TIME IS SHORT

Yeshua is serious. He begins.

"The time is short. It is time for My judgment to begin. Let the trumpet blow. Blow My trumpets in Zion. Sound the alarm. Awaken all the people great and small. The time of My righteous judgments is here. Your last-minute preparations should include repentance for yourself, your family and friends, your city and region, and your human race.

No one will escape My eyes that look to and from seeing those who are Mine, those who say they are Mine, and those who are not. I will render just verdicts. I will recompense all. My heart longs for you to return to Me and come out of all your wicked ways.

So many have to learn the hard way. The hard way is what they shall get.

Those who dive into Me and make Me their refuge will be safe. Time is short. Awe-inspiring righteous judgments are at the threshold for My entire world. Seek Me while I can be found, so My blood can wash you white as snow and so you will be able to stand when everything that can be shaken is shaken.

Have I not said that the earth shall reel like a drunkard (Isa. 24:20)? So be it. Have I not said that I will never leave or forsake those who are Mine? This is an unshakable truth."

It is written: "1 Yahweh now reigns as King! Let everyone rejoice! His rule extends everywhere, even to distant lands, and the islands of the sea, let them all be glad. 2 Clouds both dark and mysterious now surround Him. His throne of glory rests upon a foundation of righteousness and justice. 3 All around Him burns a blazing glory-fire consuming all His foes. 4 When His lightning strikes, it lights up the world. People are wide-eyed as they tremble and shake. 5 Mountains melt away like wax in a fire when the Lord of all the earth draws near. 6 Heaven's messengers preach righteousness, and people everywhere see God's glory in the sky! 7 Shame covers all who boasts in other gods, for they worship idols. For all the supernatural powers once worshiped the true and living God. 8 But God's Zion-people are content, for they know and hear the truth. The people of praise rejoice over all your judgments, O Lord! 9 For You are King-God, the Most High God over all the earth. You are exalted above every supernatural power! 10 Listen, you lovers of God! Hate evil, for God can keep you from wrong and protect you from the power of wickedness. 11 For He sows seeds of light within His devoted lovers, and seeds of joy burst forth for the lovers of God! 12 So be glad and continue to give Him thanks, for God's holiness is seen in everything He does" (Psalms 97:1-12 TPT).

Driving with your brakes on!

On a recent drive out to my mother's place I was talking to daddy God about what would be my submission for the calendar for the Republic for the United States. Immediately I heard the words as I had to come to a complete stop due to traffic "Driving with your brakes on" just the thought of it made no sense, because I wasn't moving anywhere, so I wasn't driving as much as I was sitting, but I made sure to record it in my phone so I would not forget, and carried on, waiting for the Lord to get back to me on what he wanted to say and I believe this is his message. Our father in heaven needs us to realize that we are not waiting on Him as much as He is waiting on us!

When Jesus said, "all authority has been given to Me", Matthew 28:18 then, in Luke 10:19 "Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will injure you.! I think He was making a pretty clear what our role was, and what we had access to as His children on earth! And He will not go against his own word, concerning our authority!"

He also doesn't require us to put the pedal to the metal either! He's all about a just wait and perfect measure in Proverbs 11:1-2

Living a life waiting on God to do what he's put in our hands to do is equivalent to driving your car with your brakes on.

You're not going to get where you need to be and at best, you're going to be extremely late! And not only that, but you're also going to hold a whole lot more people up behind you!

Those outcomes do not have the signature of God on them because most certainly it is the Lord's desire for us to succeed in life, and if he has given us the go ahead to do something (it's in His Word) and we're waiting on Him to do what we're supposed to do, that will be anything but a successful outcome.

He's a win-win daddy, and that's not a win-win situation and, how does that bring glory to His name? it doesn't... If you think about the analogy of driving with your brakes on, His living word in our mouth is likened to the gas (it's not by might, not by power, but by His spirit) and our participation, is likened the gas pedal!

We must speak out and take authority and stand our ground because we are the ones who carry the authority over this realm. We have His Holy and Almighty Name above all names, backing all that needs to be done by us for success. The more time we spend with Him the more we get to know Him and know His heart, and what His desires are so that we can do for Him what He wants done! He says in James 1:22 to be not only hearers of the word, but doers also! Doers are the ones who get-er-done! We must join our faith with His faith by staying in direct contact with him throughout the day, and also through the laying down of our lives and praying continuously as the Bible instructs! That way you will know whether to turn to the right or to the left or to stay moving forward! Procrastinators never win the day and whatever it is that didn't get done will still be there to do the next day.

Our Father in heaven has much that He wants to accomplish in this season, and just like He did through His son, when He was walking on this earth, He desires to do through us whom His Son left in All Authority! He desires us to be shakers and movers... World shakers and Earth movers. Ask the Lord where you are "driving with your brakes on" in life and what He would like you to do about it!

He's got answers to questions you haven't even asked yet, so ask away, He loves conversation with his children. He died for it!

So, get your foot off the brakes and give a little gas and get moving.

Lord, I pray, as these words are read, they would penetrate the hearts of those that You are desiring to speak to who are literally trying to move forward in life, but not properly utilizing what You've given them to use, to the success that you purposed them to have! You want all Your children to do well just like any parent wants for their children! I pray for wisdom and understanding and knowledge to flow from these words into the hearts of those reading, and for clarity to come to them to know, they can't do it without You, and they can do all things with You!

I pray this, in the name of Yeshuah Ha'Mashiach, and it was so!

"A Mega Outpouring Is Coming to the Hungry & Humble"
Christa Elisha, Oxford, Ohio

To Go Up, You First Must Go Low

The other night, the Lord visited me in a dream. In the dream, a long-haired Jewish man and I were in a mall/open air marketplace at night with our arms loaded with gifts and bags to give away. We needed to go to the upper level of this mall to get to the hotel rooms upstairs, but one elevator was out of service; it could only go up. The other elevator could only go down.

There was a bell boy waiting to assist anyone using the elevators, and I asked him, "What do we do if we need to get to the upper rooms?" He answered, "Oh, it's a bit of a mystery, . Here, I'll tell you the secret to going up – you just have to go low first! If you are willing to ride this elevator down first, once you reach the bottom, the doors will open, and then you can just stay on and it will automatically take you to the top floor."

Inside the Upper Room

So, we took the one elevator down, and then went up from the bottom. When we got off the elevator, we walked into a dim room. This upper room was filled with people and a legit revival was breaking out. Some people were singing in the spirit; others were weeping. Some were singing hymns; others were sitting in awe of the Lord's presence. There were no lights on in the room except for hundreds of little flames that seemed to be attached to invisible floating candles that danced above our heads, between us and a vaulted ceiling.

The Commission

I sat all of my gifts down in the center of the room. The Holy Spirit took hold of me, and I began to preach: "Before Yeshua Christ ascended to our Father, He gave us a command to go and make the nations our students by teaching them the good news about the Kingdom of God, and then live in a way that demonstrated its power and authority. If you are in this place and you have never laid hands on the sick to heal them, you have never prophesied, you have never raised the dead or cast out demons, but today, and every day from now on, you want to live like Yeshua did, then raise your hand and I will lay hands on you to commission you in the name of Yeshua to be His witnesses, sent out into all the earth!"

Many raised their hands, so I went about praying for them. Each time my hands touched a person, I was seized with a violent power from Heaven, and the flames that were dancing in the moonlight above our heads came down and filled the person I was praying for. One by one, as they were filled with fire power, they began to pray for the sick in the room, or would spontaneously begin to prophesy of the goodness of God and His plans for the future, or they would speak in other languages and be sent out to find the people whose language they were speaking so they could evangelize to them.

From Empty to Full

I woke up hearing, "I have commissioned you to baptize a generation in holy fire, and to teach them how to teach the nations about who I am in My love, righteousness, power and authority. Go and preach the good news of My Kingdom; make students of all nations; baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. For My FULLNESS is returning to those who have emptied themselves of their own pride and ego."

I believe this dream is not just for me, but it is also for the Church. We need to position ourselves in a place of humility and submission before God in the weeks to come. As His prepared ones go low before Him, He will promote them – not for their own sake, but for the sake of the world around them. They will be commissioned to give away to others what God has freely given to them: salvation, deliverance, the baptism of the Spirit, natural and spiritual gifts, talents, teachings, goods and Kingdom provision.

A Mega Outpouring and an Invitation

As we lay down all we have for God's glory, we will see another mega outpouring of God's Spirit come to the hungry, humble and willing in this hour. He will give them influence over the nations as witnesses of Yeshua Christ and His fullness.

God has not used the warfare to punish you, but to empty you. We cannot be full of God if we are full of ourselves! The anointing comes with crushing to get us out of the way, so more of Him can get in! There is an invitation for us to go before the Lord and surrender our ALL to God – our flesh, our desires, our plans, our ministries, our schedules, our agendas, and our ambitions – in exchange for the weighty presence of the Holy Spirit to come in a greater measure.

Cultivating Fresh Oil for His Fire

If you have been experiencing the pressures of life, then allow this to push you into a fresh death to self with prayer and fasting. In this place of humble submission to the Holy Spirit, you will cultivate fresh oil that God can send His fire on! He is searching for a combustible people, willing to be lit up and sent out into the darkness, with power from on high to prove that Yeshua Christ is who He says He is – the Savior of the world.

The fire isn't for you to feel warm and fuzzy. It's to draw the broken, lost and hurting into the eternal flame of God's burning heart of love for them. We must be willing and ready to invest and sow into others what gifts are deposited into us.

Let's pray: Lord, judge any altar of pride that we have erected in our hearts that opposes You. We renounce every idol of comfort and ask that You make us humble, hungry and empty vessels, worthy to be filled by Your Spirit and poured out as a drink offering unto You for the sake of the world whom You died to save! May we go out bearing natural and spiritual gifts which prove that You, Yeshua, were Heaven's treasure, sent as a Love Gift from the Father, so that whosoever believes in You might have eternal life!

"The Burning Ones: Stirred to Shine Amid the Darkness"

Steve Porter, Rochester, NY

Recently in my spirit I was stirred by a vision from the Lord. This vision brought me hope and encouraged me greatly.

I saw a mighty army marching forward with boldness that was ablaze with a fiery passion for God that He Himself had ignited. It was clear that this steadfast remnant of overcomers had fought many battles and persevered through intense trials; but no matter how hard it got, they stayed true and pure in His sight. They were anointed with His manifest glory, and His tangible manifest presence was moving amongst them.

In these times, the Lord is raising up this mighty army to do His work. They have a zeal for the Bridegroom; they are captivated by Jesus alone. They are marching in harmony with His will, consumed by a heart for Him. They are hungry for God and a true testament to His magnificence.

My heart stirred upon witnessing their fiery affection for Christ. Unwavering in loyalty, I knew these faithful followers would reign with Him. They were truly spectacular, shining with God's brilliance. I felt privileged to be able to glimpse such powerful faith.

A Clarion Call to Radiate His Light

This stirred a passion in me to sound a clarion call—calling for His mature Bride to take a bold stand, stepping out of the shadows to allow our lights to shine amid the darkness, without fear or doubt.

Matthew 4:16 speaks of Jesus radiating light into gloom. It proclaims: "The people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned."

Truly, we are in a seasonal shift where He is opening our eyes to see and our ears to hear. As night creeps in, the Lord beckons us to be shimmering cities on hilltops, inspiring new hope to those mired in despair below.

Think of it! He's trusting us to let His glory shine through us! What an awesome honor to be part of this miraculous process. I pray we wholeheartedly respond and release His holy glory so that all the world can see.

Though evil abounds, hope lives on. Some still refuse to let darkness prevail, beaming like lighthouses, guiding the wanderers home. These 'burning ones' have hearts aflame for God, refusing to be snuffed out.

As mature Believers, we're summoned to live the same way, standing undaunted against evil's advance, rejecting obscurity, and stepping off the shelf and into the light. The challenge is to shine, illuminating the way for those lost in pitch blackness.

The Wise Virgins

The parable of the ten virgins in Matthew 25 shows both ends of the spectrum: prudent Believers and foolhardy Believers awaiting the arrival of the Bridegroom.

We must strive to be like the wise virgins who vigilantly kept oil in their lamps. But greater still, we cannot neglect cultivating intimacy with Christ through prayer, worship, and soaking in His presence and His Word.

May our hearts blaze with passion fueled by this oil of intimacy, prepared to soak in our sweet Master's presence, even in the darkest hour.

Hearts Set Ablaze

Dear friend, when we read Luke 24:13-35, we find a powerful story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus. After Christ's resurrection, He had a life-altering impact on His disciples. Two of them were walking and talking with each other, when suddenly Jesus came to them. Though they did not recognize Him, the disciples' hearts became ablaze with fervent passion as He spoke. At the sound of His voice, their hearts boiled over.

This intense fire came as a result of having an encounter with our sweet Master, Jesus. His words are still like fire, and He still stirs up desire in us as we yearn for Him and cultivate a deep and meaningful relationship with Him. It is our prayer that our hearts would also burn at the sound of His voice.

Arise, Shine!

Today is the day and this is the hour to fully embrace our upward call and become His brilliant, glorious Bride; a vessel of honor; His mature sons and daughters; His royal priesthood, heralding His soon return.

We hear our sweet Bridegroom calling us—"Arise, shine!"—as we refuse to make excuses, but promptly obey His call. We are firmly taking our place, invading the darkness as we become beacons of light, steering people toward the Lord while we give Him all the glory.

Let's ignite fresh, glorious fire today, passionately pursuing our sweet Master to become His special burning ones. With hearts fully ablaze in relentless devotion, we meet our Bridegroom with great expectation, radiating hope and glory into the darkest night.

We are selectively chosen flames, reflecting God's splendor and beauty. The call to wake and shine weighs heavy. May we swiftly respond to this urgent summons, rouse from sleep, and beam His manifested glory to light the world. The time to pierce the gloom is now! (See Isaiah 9:2; Isaiah 60:1; Matthew 4:16; Matthew 5:16; Matthew 25; Ephesians 5:8, 14; Luke 24:13-35; Revelation 19:7-9.)

Prepare! Get Ready for Supernatural Provision!"

Andrew Towe, Chattanooga, TN

"If They Pray... I Will EXPOSE the Plots of the Wicked"

In a vision, the Lord showed me powerful and influential men and women devising evil strategies that would hurt the general populace of the nations of the earth. I became GREATLY DOWNCAST when I saw the things they had conceived. Then the Lord's voice broke through, proclaiming, "The gates of Hell shall not prevail against My Church. Urge My people to pray; for if they pray, they will see how I will EXPOSE the plots of the wicked." My children's cry will release supernatural resources to bring forth provision and stop the adversary in his tracks.

"The scorching wilderness, where many have been barely surviving, and the spiritually dry climate have left many thirsty and desperate for water. To those who are weary and tired, I say: Hold on! I am answering you! I am creating an oasis in the dry and thirsty desert."

In 2 Kings 3, the story was recorded of the rebellion of the Moabite king against Jehoram, the king of Israel. Jehoram asked the good king of Judah, Jehoshaphat, to ally with him in battle. His strategy included going through the way of the wilderness of Edom. Unexpectedly, seven days into the harsh wilderness, they ran out of water. They were in a dire situation, much like many of you today.

Jehoshaphat called for a prophet to inquire of the Lord for guidance, and Elisha prophesied to him:

"And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches. For thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts. And this is but a light thing in the sight of the Lord: He will deliver the Moabites also into your hand." (2 Kings 3:16-18, KJV)

God Will Move for You Too – Supernaturally!

Elisha gave them a prophetic instruction, "Make this valley full of ditches." Essentially, God instructed them to PREPARE for what He was about to do. Moreover, the Lord announced, "Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain." In essence, God was declaring for them to get ready for Him to release supernatural resources for His people. It would not come through natural means like wind or rain but through supernatural means. You may not be able to see how God can work in your dilemma either, but be encouraged, for God will move for you too – supernaturally.

I heard the Lord say, "Prepare to see Me move. Get ready for supernatural provision coming to you, your family, and your nation. My water will not only satisfy your needs but exceed them. This supernatural water will be revival, refreshing, and resuscitation to My people. But I won't stop there. It will also serve as a means of deliverance from the enemy."

Just as God didn't stop at filling the ditches with water – He went beyond and used that provision to confuse their enemy – the Lord is doing the same for you.

"And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood in the border." (2 Kings 3:21, KJV)

When I read this verse, it leapt off the page to me like a prophetic headline for today: "The enemy had gathered all that were able to put on armor." Much like then, today the enemy has gathered a multitude of attacks to surround God's people in an attempt to intimidate and overwhelm them with his demonic strategies. His aim is for you to surrender your resolve against him.

Refuse to allow his pressure campaign to cause you to retreat from what God has declared is yours. Dig ditches of faith, expecting God's Word to come to pass. Prepare for everything God has promised.

"And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood." (2 Kings 3:22, KJV)

Turning the Tables in Your Favor

God used the water that He supernaturally provided as a weapon against the enemy. The "other side" saw the water as blood. Your adversary will see the Blood over you and your situation. Whenever you find yourself under pressure, you can plead the Blood of Jesus. His Blood testifies that you are His, and He is yours. It paid the cost of redemption and tells of your great worth. The Blood rebukes the devil! The Blood speaks, saying, "Don't come any farther! Don't touch My child!"

When the Moabites saw the water as blood, they assumed that Israel and Judah must have been defeated and went to plunder their wealth. They had no idea that God had set a trap to bring deliverance to His chosen and defeat those who opposed them.

When the Moabites came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up. The enemy's plan backfired. Instead of looting the goods of Israel, they were defeated, and Israel looted their goods!

"And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country." (2 Kings 3:24, KJV)

I heard the Lord say, "It is time for the Church to rise up. I am turning the tables in your favor. The enemy's schemes will not prevail. I am releasing divine resources that will not only revive and refresh you, but also confound your enemy. Do not stay hidden in despair. Rise up! This is an all-hands-on-deck moment. I am calling forth My warrior Bride. Having done all, stand in faith, and watch Me work on your behalf."

So, to those who are weary and desperate, hold on! God is responding to your cry. He is providing in the wilderness and giving you complete victory over the enemy. Prepare to experience His supernatural water that is flowing to revive, refresh and resuscitate you.

"THE REWARDS OF HAVING GOD'S HEART"
BEN PETERS, LINCOLN, CA

I've been teaching everyone I can to pray this most important prayer: "FATHER, PLEASE GIVE ME YOUR HEART." The more I pray this prayer, the more He answers it. I have actually been quite surprised by what He has shared with me. But let me focus for a moment on the special benefits of having His heart.

1. The greatest benefit to having God's heart is a deeper friendship with Him. 2 Chronicles 16:9 says that His eyes roam the earth looking for those who have hearts that are fully committed to Him, or friendly toward Him. That's one of the Hebrew translations for the phrase "fully committed" in this passage (see Strong's Concordance, Number 8003). It also translates to "perfect" in the KJV, or "loyal" in the NKJV. I understand it to mean a heart that feels what He feels, and desires what He desires. It's a heart with a kindred spirit.

2. The second blessing, found in the last part of the verse, is that He will show Himself "strong" on your behalf. That means miracles and answers to prayer that reveal His power and strength. It's a great benefit of heart-to-heart intimacy.

3. The third benefit, which I've experienced personally, is that He will suddenly "drop in" without warning, knowing that He is always welcome. Whenever He wants to talk to someone about what is on His heart, He will "drop in" on you and share something, like your best friend would do.

4. God may give you special assignments that will prove important to Him, even though you may not feel qualified. He did that recently with me, giving me the call of Jeremiah that involves taking down some false teachings in the Church. He surprised me by telling me the message I was releasing was more important to Him than I thought.

I invite you to pray this prayer as often as you think about it: "FATHER, PLEASE GIVE ME YOUR HEART."

God bless you all!

I Heard the Lord Say: The Marching Has Begun!"

Pete Garza, Stryker, OH

In a vision, I began to see a mighty army assembled by a riverbank, and a sound was released and heard on the earth. This sound was the declaration of Heaven that commanded the heavenly armies to begin their march. I began to see the Bride of Christ and the angelic hosts of Heaven get into formation in preparation for this march.

Then the Lord said, "The marching has begun!"

A New Sound and Vibration

As this march proceeded, it created a rumbling and vibration in the land. It was as if the earth was responding to the march of the Bride.

This march was marked with Heaven's authority and power. There was the wind of Heaven in this march. Every thrust of Heaven's army produced a wind of fire! The sound of this march was so powerful that it sent fear into the enemy's camp.

As this mighty army marched forward in perfect unity, it created a song. A song of worship, a song of victory, was being sung. This was a sound of declaration that would be heard in the spirit throughout the earth for those whose ears were finely tuned with Holy Spirit. This sound was heard by David!

"But after a while the Philistines returned and again spread out across the valley of Rephaim. And again David asked the LORD what to do. 'Do not attack them straight on,' the LORD replied. 'Instead, circle around behind and attack them near the poplar trees. When you hear a sound like marching feet in the tops of the poplar trees, be on the alert! That will be the signal that the LORD is moving ahead of you to strike down the Philistine army.'" (2 Samuel 5:22-24)

In this vision, as this sound went forth, the vibration it created brought an awakening and gathered in the harvest. The earth began to respond to the sound! The vibration was the earth recognizing the sons of God!

"For all creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who His children really are." (Romans 8:19)

The Revealing of the Sons and Daughters

The earth is waiting for the sons and daughters to return to God's original intent of Kingdom authority and dominion over the earth—for them to know their identity as it was in the beginning. All of the earth was under man's dominion.

"And God said, Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So, God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth." (Genesis 1:26-28)

When we know our Kingdom identity, the earth recognizes our authority as we walk! The earth responds, "I remember you!" It recognizes you and what it was like in the beginning. All of the earth begins to rumble and respond, "Glory!" Vision of the Joel 2 Army

As I asked the Lord about this vision, Holy Spirit said that this was simply a glimpse of the Joel 2 army, and He said to get ready (read Joel 2)!

The Lord reminded me (and then confirmed on three separate occasions) about a prophetic word by Prophet Paul Cain, as well as Bob Jones, Mike Bickle and Jack Deere. Over 30 years ago, the Lord gave Paul a vision. Below is an excerpt about Paul Cain and his vision:

It is a vision of the last days when sports stadiums all over the United States are filled with thousands of people. In this vision, people are being healed and miracles are happening to thousands in the name of Jesus Christ. People are turning to the Lord in droves and the whole nation is in revival. It seemed the whole earth was turning to Christ.

Television news reporters are broadcasting stories of resurrections and miracle healings. None of the secular reporters could get near the men on the platform. They did not know who the men were. Paul described them as "almost faceless men." He hears a TV anchorman saying, "There are no sporting events to report tonight because all the stadiums, ballparks and arenas are being used for large revival meetings and are filled with people crying, "Jesus is Lord, Jesus is Lord."

In these visions, Paul saw these men minister for three days and nights without food, water or change of clothing. Supernatural strength enabled them to continue for these long periods. In the vision, Paul is standing at the crossroads of life and sees a billboard that says, "Joel's army now in training." People are being trained to walk in obedience to Jesus. They have learned patience and endurance, have the power of God and having done all, they know how to stand against the enemy.

"They will have the mind of Christ," Paul said. "They will partake of the heavenly calling and be a new breed, God's dread champions." Those ministries will be filled with such passion for Jesus and the power of the Spirit that the host of darkness will dread their impact.

Paul said in the midst of the Laodicean church age of lethargy and apathy, that God was preparing in hiddenness an army to pull down enemy strongholds, and go forth in the power of God and have pure and undefiled religion. (Source: www.theministryofpaulcain.com)

What Will This Army Look Like?

So, what will this army look like?

More than any other generation, this group of people will have a closer relationship with the Lord and demonstrate more of His evident power. They'll have the same spirit of power that Samson and David's mighty men had. Miracles that have never been witnessed before will occur frequently. The Church will have such easy access to healings that people will be instantly healed, merely by entering a gathering.

This will be the generation of the 'Sons of Golden Oil'—the two lampstands and the two olive trees in Zechariah 4 and Revelation 11.

Zechariah 4:1-14:

"Then the angel who had been talking with me returned and woke me, as though I had been asleep. 'What do you see now?' he asked.

"I answered, 'I see a solid gold lampstand with a bowl of oil on top of it. Around the bowl are seven lamps, each having seven spouts with wicks. And I see two olive trees, one on each side of the bowl.' Then I asked the angel, 'What are these, my lord? What do they mean?'

'Don't you know?' the angel asked.

"'No, my lord,' I replied.

"Then he said to me, 'This is what the LORD says to Zerubbabel: It is not by force nor by strength, but by My Spirit, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. Nothing, not even a mighty mountain, will stand in Zerubbabel's way; it will become a level plain before him! And when Zerubbabel sets the final stone of the Temple in place, the people will shout: "May God bless it! May God bless it!"'

"Then another message came to me from the LORD: 'Zerubbabel is the one who laid the foundation of this Temple, and he will complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Heaven's Armies has sent me. Do not despise these small beginnings, for the LORD rejoices to see the work begin, to see the plumb line in Zerubbabel's hand.'

"(The seven lamps represent the eyes of the LORD that search all around the world.)

"Then I asked the angel, 'What are these two olive trees on each side of the lampstand, and what are the two olive branches that pour out golden oil through two gold tubes?'

""Don't you know?' he asked.

""No, my lord,' I replied.

"Then he said to me, 'They represent the two anointed ones [sons of oil] who stand in the court of the Lord of all the earth.'" (Emphasis added).

This army, as you can see, will be made up of people who consistently walk before the eyes of the Lord in accordance with God's sevenfold Spirit, as symbolized by the seven lamps (see also Revelation 4:5).

The Harvest Is Here! God Is Waiting on You and Me

When does this happen? Well, God is waiting on us!

God is waiting on you and me to become who we were created to be from the very beginning, to manifest the fullness of the Godhead that already dwells within us.

"Then God said, 'Let us make human beings in Our image, to be like Us. They will reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the livestock, all the wild animals on the earth, and the small animals that scurry along the ground.'" (Genesis 1:26)

"For all creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who His children really are." (Romans 8:19)

Even though God placed Adam over the earth as a shadow of Christ over creation, nature itself—the very components of the planet—wants to be brought into its divine alignment. The earth is crying out for Heaven, and the power of the Kingdom of Heaven longs to be unleashed on the earth.

We are in a time where God is pouring out and revival is here! We can have as much of God as we want. We can operate in any level of holiness, hunger, humility, or power that we want. Heaven is fully open and at our disposal. We must position ourselves to step into the heavenly realm. Every veil is torn that separates us from God, and all enmity between us and the Father has been removed through the shed Blood of Christ.

God is awakening His Bride from slumber. The Church has fallen asleep, and the harvest is at risk. There are no excuses for us to be sleeping during harvest time. Proverbs 10:5 says, "He who gathers crops in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son."

It is awakening time. Time for action!

God has placed us in the midst of these times and places to be salt and light. If salt loses its saltiness, it is worthless. Many of us are not seeing revival around us, because there is no personal revival within us. Every day should be revival time for you and me.

Be encouraged. Heaven's army has begun to assemble, and we are about to see a move of God that will be seen, heard, and felt throughout the world!

Veronika West: Excerpts from,
The Prophetic Warning of 2 Samuel 24 for 2024 and Beyond

The Prophetic Warning of 2 Samuel 24 for 2024 and Beyond. Plagues, Famines, Enemy Pursuits? Altars Being Built, Nations on The Threshing Floor and the Winnowing Winds of Divine Separation and Distinction. Friends, I have recently — in the last few months been given access to some of the deeper Realms of The Spirit, and there is so much I want to share of what I am seeing and hearing for the days ahead. But I am aware of an Angel of The LORD who has been assigned to my life to keep me from speaking out anything that would cause me to step beyond the Grace measure assigned to my life in this season.

I know I have been sharing some recent Revelations, Insights and Blueprints from Heaven concerning the Ministry IDH [Ireland's Destiny Hub] and what we trusting God for. But I wanted to submit the following to you for serious Prayer consideration. What I'm sharing is really just a little of what I give at this time — but I wanted you to weigh it!

So today, while in my wee Prayer Hut, The LORD spoke to me again about the days ahead, and as some of you may know, I have already started to share a few things concerning 2024 — and beyond! But while in Prayer, I was taken up and into The Realm of The Spirit — and for a third time in the last two months — I heard these words "2 Samuel 24 in 2024" and I immediately began to receive a Warning from The LORD concerning the days ahead!

I heard The Spirit say, "In the days ahead, do not consider your strength in the number of your fighting men — or on the authority of the one who sits in the highest offices of earthly governments — and do not count on the power of your chariots or horses — for the battle is The LORD's!"

As I heard those Words, I immediately began to pray, and again The Spirit of Revelation took me to 2 Samuel 24 and it was highlighted to me the three (3) choices given to David for violating Israel's Relationship with Yahweh:

Seven Years of Famine?

Fleeing from his enemies for three months?

Three days of plague?

Now as I was reading, suddenly (verse 15) was highlighted to me,

"So, The LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning till the appointed time," 2 Samuel 24:15

As I read those Words,

I heard these Words, "Till the appointed time!"

Then I heard," Satan has taken a census! For surely Satan has an appointed time, and he seeks to alter the times and seasons once again. I say, set the Watchmen on the walls, and guards at the Gateways, for Satan seeks a legal right through the same assignment that caused David to violate My Relationship with The Nation of Israel!"

As I heard those Words, I immediately began to cry out to The Father for greater Understanding and Revelation concerning what I was hearing, and I was taken to verse 18: The Altar on the Threshing Floor "And Gad came that day to David and said to him, "Go up, erect an altar to The LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." 2 Samuel 24:18

David erects an Altar on a Threshing Floor. This is the first warfare strategy; the Altar: a place of Repentance; The Threshing Floor: a place of Divine Separation, Sifting and Distinction. I heard The Spirit say, "These are the days I AM calling for the rebuilding of The Altars of Awakening. For Nations are now on The Threshing Floor — for the winnowing Winds of My Seven Spirits come to Sift, Separate and make a Divine Distinction!"

David erected an Altar on The Threshing Floor. The power of Repentance carries the weight to shift the scales and break the power of the curse! (The Assignment of the Plague)

See verse 21:

"Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"

And David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to The LORD, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people." 2 Samuel 24:21

And said, to buy a Threshing Floor from you, to build an Altar to The LORD, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people.

See verse 24.

"Then the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price; nor will I offer burnt offerings to The LORD my God with that which costs me nothing."

So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver." 2 Samuel 24:24

Then the King Said to Araunah — "No but I shall surely buy it from you for a price, nor will I offer burnt offerings to The LORD my God with that which costs me nothing!"

Again, here is a Strategy for the Days ahead!

"The days ahead will require your everything.

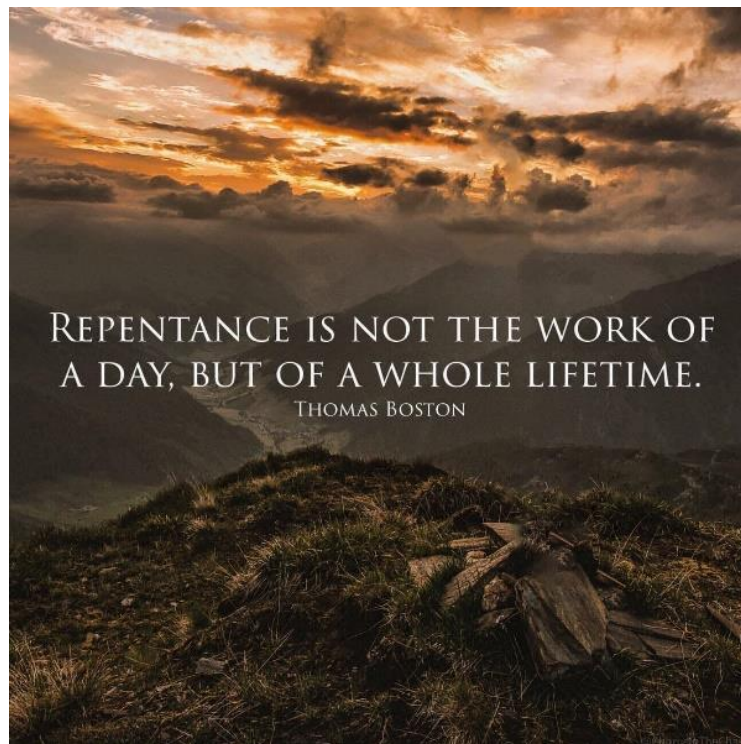

It will cost you everything.

God will require Living Sacrifices upon The Altar as the winnowing Winds of His Seven Spirits blow upon The Threshing Floor!"

See verse 25

"And David built there an altar to The LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So The LORD heeded the prayers for the land, and the plague was withdrawn from Israel." 2 Samuel 24:25

And David "built there an Altar" to The LORD and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings so The LORD heeded the Prayers for the land and the plague was withdrawn!

Friends, I submit to you, I see an Assignment(s) of Satan even now being formulated for the days ahead, when he will seek in even greater ways — through fear, unbelief and even disunity — to cause men to violate the relationship with God and His Promises, in order to give him (Satan) a Legal Right and Permission to touch the lives of many.

Sin is the doorway, and God is bound by His own Laws, and God must punish sin, and when sin violates our Relationship with God — there are consequences!!

Blessings to you all.

PS; Please PRAYERFULLY READ 2 Samuel 24; It's a very strategic Chapter for the days ahead. And 2 Samuel 24 is powerful in that it reflects the Story of Elijah and the Call to the Rebuilding and Restoration of the Broken-Down Altars and the Fire that Purifies and breaks the power of the Baal Prophets over the land and the Rain of Healing and Restoration that fell: I Kings 18...!

CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Inspiration Ministries, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Wikipedia, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Rabbi Dov Ber Pinson, Sefer Yetzirah, Benjamin Gladstone, Ashley Hooker, Anne Jackson, Yvon Attia, Nate & Christy Johnston, Steve Loopstra, Veronika West, Lana Vawser, James Nesbit, Bruce and Linda Dietler, Bible Gateway, John & Janet Rockwell, Wade & Frances Butler, Dutch Sheets, Francis Frangipane, Bob & Remy Koch, Terry Friesen, Matt Friesser, Tim Sheets, Robin Main, Roger Lee Waters, Wonda Alger, James Timothy Turner, Alane Haynes, Mandy Adendorff, Demontae Edmonds, Edie Bayer, Allen Hayes, James Goll, Daniel Dixon, Bernice Scheider, Charles Shamp, Kathi Pelton, Sharron Kaseweter, Candice Smithyman, Madeline James, Nison Dovid Dubov, Christa Elisha, Steve Porter, Andrew Towe, Ben Peters, Pete Garza, April Klaassen-Brown, Barbara Wentroble, Tim Moore, with additional quotes from Keith Pierce, Keevy Phillips, Anne Tate, Kerry Hansher, Brian Kooiman, and Shatece McLeod.
