

The Biblical Month of Shevat 5784, 2024

Chaplain Wade Butler

Recently during an ascension with the Lord, a group of intercessors led by Matt with John and I were brought to a place I have seen before, yet at the same time each experience is always different. On this occasion we stood at the edge of a waterfall enjoying the refreshing mist around us when Yeshua called us to come forward to join HIM on HIS back patio. We were taken by HIM and escorted out to our own hand made seats to dine at HIS table. The chairs were hand hewn and carved exquisitely by the Master Carpenter Himself. (Matt asked, LOL). The table was a crosscut from an ancient tree whose rings wove throughout the tabletop. Each represents an age of the past, present and future.

As we sat down our chairs hugged us with comfort beyond words I asked, is the table living and HE laughed and said, "of course it is". At that the table spoke to me "I live." "I was hewn by the Masters Hands and now I am more beautiful than ever before plus I am used by my LORD to entertain HIS children". It caused me to set back in amazement. When I put my hands on the table a flash of light came from my fingers and embedded in the lines like a speck of light. The table said, "Everyone who dines here leaves their code of life in my veins".

Immediately we all heard the sound of footsteps and beheld Angels with trays of heavenly food which were placed before each of us. Every person had their most treasured foods in the proper portions before us. HE beckoned us to eat and enjoy.

My mouth watered as I took the first bite to the last. I looked at Yeshua and said, LORD you always have multiple meanings and intent in what you present, what have we really eaten? HE looked at me and laughed again, saying, "You have dined on what you need, just as food provides what your body needs, my food provides what your spirit needs. The question is what did you come here to ask me for?" I said wisdom, He said, "You are correct, and you have eaten Heavenly Wisdom for what is about to take place in your life". Each of us had come inquiring of the LORD something that we desired or needed. Some wanted revelation, others more of HIS presence. All of us dined with great joy and fulfillment.

He is inviting all of HIS Children to dine at HIS table and delight in what has been prepared and we all left satisfied. WB

Sylvia Neusch: "Delight Once Again in the Richness from His Table!"

Recently, as I was spending time with the Lord, I saw God moving powerfully to release WAVES OF HUNGER for Him in many in the coming days. Hunger in the Kingdom is actually a good thing, and it is to be cultivated and desired. If we are not hungry, then we become unhealthy. This is true in the natural as well as in the spiritual.

A Loss of Spiritual Appetite

The enemy has sought to defeat the sons and daughters of God by drawing them away from true nourishment. I saw that many had lost their healthy hunger through disappointments, loss of vision, and hope deferred. When the mind is offended, the heart is soon to follow. When left unhealed, wounded hearts can result in a loss of spiritual appetite. Because of the lies believed, it can lead these hurting ones to a place where they no longer desire to take their seat at His table.

A False Filling

Some have lost their hunger by taking in things that are artificial or that lack the ability to truly satisfy. These things have temporarily filled the place of hunger in many, only leaving them malnourished. They have created a FALSE FILLING that interrupts the hunger cycle that God created. The false filling causes them to stop searching for true nourishment. Many have drifted away from what will truly satisfy, as the enemy has continually assaulted them with distractions and enticements. These enticements promise fulfillment, but all the while they draw the ones they attract into a web of futility.

Waves of Hunger and a Supernatural Thirst

I see God breaking these cycles of wounding and false fillings as He moves powerfully to release fresh waves of hunger to God's children. Some are going to "wake up" as if they had been in a dream, and a renewed and overwhelming hunger and thirst for God will grip them. Many are going to have PSALM 63 moments, as they experience their whole-body longing for God. Take heart, for God is bringing a SUPERNATURAL THIRST upon you, and you will once again LONG for Him!

"Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost. Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labor on what does not satisfy? Listen, listen to Me, and eat what is good, and you will delight in the richest of fare." (Isaiah 55:1-2)

Encountering Him as the Bread of Life

As God brings these fresh waves of hunger, many will encounter Jesus once again as the BREAD OF LIFE. He alone will satisfy our deepest longings and hunger. He is altogether good, and we must learn to dine on Him and the richness He offers.

"Then Jesus declared, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in Me will never be thirsty.'" (John 6:35)

Notice that the word says, "Whoever comes to me will never go hungry." We may come to Him hungry, but we will never leave hungry when we eat what He has to offer. When we encounter Him as our Lord and Savior, our spirit is satisfied, and this can never be taken away. But we need to continually dine on who He is. A healthy hunger develops and grows and KNOWS that there is always more.

It was hunger that led Zacchaeus to climb the sycamore tree so that he might get a glimpse of Jesus as he passed by. Little did he know that Jesus would see him and call him down out of his perch. Jesus went to the house of Zacchaeus that day, and his life was forever changed. Zacchaeus' hunger led him into an encounter with Jesus.

It was hunger that led the woman with the issue of blood to reach out and touch the hem of Jesus' garment. Expecting ridicule and shame, the woman instead received her healing and an encounter with Jesus that marked her life.

"Come to My Table and Take Your Place"

I hear the Lord saying, "Come to Me, My weary ones. Come to My table and take your place. I have food and drink for you that will truly satisfy your deepest longings. Open wide your mouth and I will fill it. Bring to Me your longings and deep desires, for I am your Bread of Life. Come to Me, for I am your daily sustenance."

"Those who are dry, COME! Come and see what I will do. For it is the DRY WOOD that catches fire the best! Yes, you will BURN once again as HOT COALS! I will ignite you with My fiery, passionate love. My love for you burns like a mighty flame. My love will AWAKEN you, and you will delight once again in the richness from My table. Allow My Spirit wind to blow on your embers of hunger. As I do, you will become a burning fire for Me, continually feasting on who I am."

"O taste and see that the LORD is good..." (Psalm 34:8)

Chaplain Wade

Our LORD is continually speaking. It is up to us to tune in and have an ear. Oft times we hear different words, visions, and revelation from pastors, prophets, intercessors/seers. The word each receives may be different from your favorite person yet that does not negate those people, their vision or word. Abba gives conformation to each according to HIS will for them. So, don't get all worked up and condemn someone because you or your favorite person didn't get that word. It may have been personal, targeted for a specific group, or for a season yet to come. Ask the LORD. I have been in situations where Abba, Yeshua, even Angels have shown me things that are either was, is or is to come. HIS seasons, times are not ours they are just that, "HIS". I have been shown the past that can be healed for the future in the Courts of Heaven, what is happening right now around us, and what will come to pass. He is inviting everyone to see and hear.

Perfect examples would be, "Heaven has invaded Earth" which was confirmed by three different prophetic post from around the world, or "I heard the lord say - "I have brought heaven to earth", next he said to me "Come up and I will show you things you what must take place." Justice is being released upon the earth. Multiple times the word came from prophetic voices confirming the now season.

Each new month is packed with Revelation, Wisdom, and our LORD showing us things we did not know. Jeremiah 33:3 'Call to ME and I will answer you and tell you [and even show you] great and mighty things, [things which have been confined and hidden], which you do not know and understand and cannot distinguish.'

Every month I research the scriptures, new authors, text, and art for the month. Every time I am amazed. This month has many attributes, it's the month of Seer's, New Beginnings, Business Blessings, to taste and seeing that the LORD is good. His provision is on the way. Everything you have prayed for is at the verge of release yet at the same time HE is saying 2 Cor 12:9 ⁹ But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore, I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me.

At a conference at GOZ January 1, 2022 Kent Mattox talked about going up into heaven with Bob Jones before he passed in 2014. Bob was one of the most anointed men of God this century. He walked with the LORD. He and Kent were flying to a meeting across country when Bob turned to Kent and said "Do you want to go to the Throne Room to see the LORD?" Kent said sure let's go, so Bob prayed that the Ascension Angel take them up and Bam! They were there. Kent has never been the same. All of us have the availability to go into the third Heaven to see Yeshua, HaShem the Father and meet old testament saints. Kent emphasized we are in a season of needing to have that relationship and the window is now.

I have been fortunate to have multiple times meeting with Yeshua, my Father Abba and many others. We have walked the streets of Heaven, feasted with King David and seen things too great to be able to describe. The seven mountains are there, the hall of the Angels, the garden is alive. All of it is available through HIS great Grace. And believe me you will fall before HIM in weakness and humility. His Grace is larger than the earth. What amazed me the most was the acceptance HE showed me when I fell before HIM. HIS love is far beyond anything we can imagine. Get aboard, the Angels are waiting for the revelation of the saints. * See Veronika West about the war around us below.

Blessings,

Wade K. Butler, Chaplain

Shevat

When you come to the land and you plant any tree, you shall treat its fruit as forbidden; for three years it will be forbidden and not eaten. In the fourth year, all of its fruit shall be sanctified to praise the L-RD. In the fifth year, you may eat its fruit. (Leviticus 19:23-25)

There are four new years... the first of Shevat is the New Year for trees according to the ruling of Beit Shammai; Beit Hillel, however, places it on the fifteenth of that month. (Mishnah Rosh Hashanah 1:1)

The Jewish New Year ... For Trees!

Tu B'Shevat, the 15th day of the Jewish month of Shevat, is a holiday also known as the New Year for Trees. The word "Tu" is not really a word; it is the number 15 in Hebrew, as if you were to call the Fourth of July "Iv July" (IV being 4 in Roman numerals). See Hebrew Alphabet for more information about using letters as numbers and why the number 15 is written this way.

Judaism has several different "new years." This is not as strange a concept as it sounds at first blush; in America, we have the calendar year (January-December), the school year (September-June), and many businesses have fiscal years. It's basically the same idea with the various Jewish New Year's.

Tu B'Shevat is the New Year for the purpose of calculating the age of trees for tithing. See Lev. 19:23-25, which states that fruit from trees may not be eaten during the first three years; the fourth year's fruit is for G-d, and after that, you can eat the fruit. Each tree is considered to have aged one year as of Tu B'Shevat, so if you planted a tree on Shevat 14, it begins its second year the next day, but if you plant a tree two days later, on Shevat 16, it does not reach its second year until the next Tu B'Shevat.

Tu B'Shevat is not mentioned in the Torah. I have found only one reference to it in the Mishnah, and the only thing said there is that it is the new year for trees, and there is a dispute as to the proper date for the holiday (Beit Shammai said the proper day was the first of Shevat; Beit Hillel said the proper day was the 15th of Shevat. As usual, we follow Beit Hillel. For more on Hillel and Shammai, see Sages and Scholars).

Customs

There are few customs or observances related to this holiday. One custom is to eat a new fruit on this day, or to eat from the Seven Species (shivat haminim) described in the Bible as being abundant in the land of Israel. The Shivat Haminim are: wheat, barley, grapes (vines), figs, pomegranates, olives and dates (honey) (Deut. 8:8). You can make a nice vegetarian pilaf from the shivat haminim: a bed of cooked bulgar wheat or wheat berries and barley, topped with figs, dates, raisins (grapes), and pomegranate seeds, served with a dressing of olive oil, balsamic vinegar (grapes) and pomegranate juice.

Some people plant trees on this day. In my childhood, Jewish children commonly went around collecting money to plant trees in Israel at this time of year.

Study and Prayer guide for Shevat 5784

The Fifth Month of the Spiritual New Year and the eleventh month of the twelve months of the Hebrew physical calendar. It begins on the evening of Shevat 1: (Thursday) January 11, 2024, and goes to Shevat 30: 5784, (Friday) February 9, 2023.

Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word.

In developing this calendar prayer guide prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. Many members of the Republic do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heider and many other contributing authors which are included. 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning. Keep your spiritual eyes open, much is about to be revealed.

Shevat is the 11th month of the Biblical Calendar; which dates from 3761 BC.

It is presumed that the date is the Beginning of Creation, it is the month of dreams, bringing warfare strategies for the next few months, its GODS month of revelation!

This is the month that Righteous becomes your foundation. Alphabetically the word symbolizes the "Righteous One".

Shevat (Hebrew: שֶׁבַט) is the fifth month of the civil year starting in Tishre (or Tishri) and the eleventh month of the ecclesiastical year on the Hebrew calendar starting in Nisan. It is a winter month of 30 days. Shevat usually occurs in January–February on the Gregorian calendar. The name of the month was taken from the Akkadian language during the Babylonian Captivity. The assumed Akkadian origin of the month is Šabātu meaning strike that refers to the heavy rains of the season. In Jewish sources the month is first mentioned by this name in prophet, Zechariah (Zechariah 1).

The Month of Shevat – According to The Book of Formation (Sefer Yetzirah)

Each month of the Jewish year has a corresponding color, a letter of the Hebrew alphabet, a zodiac sign, one of the twelve tribes of Israel, a sense, and a controlling organ/limb of the body.

The 15th day of Shevat—Tu Beeshvat—is the "New Year of Trees" according to the school of Hillel; according to the school of Shammai, the "New Year of Trees" is the first of Shevat. The "New Year of Trees" is the day from which the new year is reckoned for the fruit of the trees with regard to the mitzvot of ma'aser ("tithes"; fruit that blossoms after this date may not be taken as a tithe with fruit that blossomed before) and orlah (the fruit of a tree less than three years old is called orlah and is forbidden to eat). Tu Beeshvat is celebrated by partaking of fruit, especially of the seven species with which the land of Israel is blessed.

Tu Beeshvat, the 15th day of the 11th month alludes to the secret of God's essential Name, Havayah (יהוה). The value of the first two letters of Havayah, (the yud and hei, which represent the higher, concealed level of unification) is 15. Its last two letters (vav and hei, which represent the lower, revealed level of unification), equal 11. Indeed, as explained elsewhere, the full secret of the Havayah is the secret of the "Tree of Life," the tree of the month of Shevat.

Tribe: Asher

The name "Asher" (אַשֶׁר) means "pleasure" and "happiness." Our father Jacob blessed his son Asher: "from Asher comes delicious [lit. fat] bread, and he shall provide the delicacies of the king" (Genesis 49:20). From this it is evident that Asher represents the sense of taste and eating.

The special tree which Asher personifies is the olive tree, which gives the goodly oil with which Asher's portion in the land of Israel was blessed. Of the seven species of the land of Israel, the olive is the sixth, which, in Kabbalah, corresponds to the sefirah of foundation, and to the tzadik who is described in the Bible as, "tzadik, foundation of the world" (Proverbs 10:25). Olive oil represents the potent seed of the tzadik to bear and sustain blessed generations of Jewish souls.

Asher was born on 2 Shevat 2199 (1562 BCE). According to some accounts 2nd of Shevat is also the date of his death.

Asher's descendants in more than one regard deserved their name ("Asher" meaning "happiness"). The tribe of Asher was the one most blessed with male children; and its women were so beautiful that priests and princes sought them in marriage. The abundance of oil in the land possessed by Asher so enriched the tribe that none of them needed to hire a habitation. The soil was so fertile that in times of scarcity, and especially in the Sabbatical year, Asher provided all Israel with olive-oil. The Asherites were also renowned for wisdom.

Unfortunately, Asher often took the time of new beginnings and prosperity and compromised many times falling from GODS grace, but still was quick to repent and find GODS mercy and would be restored. Deborah rebuked Asher for its failures in Judges 5:17 and they repented and were restored. When Gideon and King David needed help Asher stepped up and sent mighty men of war to aid them. 1 Chronicles 7:40.

Asher and his four sons and a daughter settled in Canaan On his deathbed, Jacob blesses Asher by saying that "his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties" (Gen. 49:20).

Moses said this of Asher: "May Asher be blessed above other sons; may he be esteemed by his brothers; may he bathe his feet in olive oil." (Deuteronomy 33:24).

Asher was the eighth son of the patriarch Jacob and the traditional progenitor of the tribe Asher. Some Biblical scholars view this as post diction, an eponymous metaphor providing an aetiology of the connectedness of the tribe to others in the Israelite confederation.

Asher is represented as the younger brother of Gad; these two being the sons of Zillah, the handmaid of Leah (Genesis 35:26). The Biblical account shows Zillah's status as a handmaid change to an actual wife of Jacob (Genesis 30:9). Her handmaid status is regarded by some biblical scholars as indicating that the authors saw the tribe of Asher as being not of entirely Israelite origin and never incorporated into the body politic.

1. Biblical Account of ASHER:

According to the Biblical account Asher was the eighth of Jacob's sons, the second borne to him by Zillah the handmaid of Leah. His uterine brother was Gad (Genesis 35:26). With four sons and one daughter he went down into Egypt (Genesis 46:17). At his birth Leah exclaimed, "Happy am I! For the daughters will call me happy: and she called his name Asher," i.e. Happy (Genesis 30:13). This foreshadowing of good fortune for him is repeated in the blessing of Jacob: "His bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties" (Genesis 49:20); and again in that of Moses: "Blessed be Asher with children; let him be acceptable unto his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil" (Deuteronomy 33:24). His family prospered in Egypt, and at the Exodus the tribe of Asher is numbered at 41,500 adult males (Numbers 1:41). At the second census the number is given 53,400 (Numbers 26:47)

2. Territory of Asher:

The boundaries of the territory are given in considerable detail in Joshua 19:25 (compare Judges 1:31; Joshua 17:10). The lot of Asher formed a strip of land from 8 to 10 miles wide running northward along the shore to the neighborhood of Sidon, touching Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali on the East Asher seems to have taken possession of the territory by a process of peaceful penetration, not by conquest, and as we have seen, he never drove out the Phoenicians from their cities. The rich plain of Acre and the fertile flats between the mountain and the sea near Tyre and Sidon therefore remained in Phoenician hands. But the valleys breaking down westward and opening on the plains have always yielded fine crops of grain. Remains of an ancient oak forest still stand to the North of Carmel. The vine, the fig, the lemon and the orange flourish. Olive trees abound, and the supplies of olive oil which to this day are exported from the district recall the word of the old-time blessing, "Let him dip his foot in oil." W. Ewing

ELEVENTH MONTH

SHEVAT

THE RIGHTEOUS ONE

STONE
YELLOW/CITRINE

THE MONTH OF THE NEW YEAR OF TREES

THIS IS A MONTH TO DEVELOP A PLAN FOR SUSTAINING THE GENERATIONS.
HOW WILL YOUR OLIVE TREE BLOSSOM?

TRIBE

ASHER

PLEASURE, HAPPINESS, DELICIOUS, FATNESS

Proclaim

"My blessings are coming!"

CONSTELLATION: AQUARIUS (THE WATER CARRIER)
YOUR ROOTS AWAKEN TO THE WATER OF LIFE

PSALM ONE

Part 2: "Theology and Messianism of the DSS Essenes"

A Hebrew Perspective

by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)

edited by Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch)

1 Shevat 5784, January 11, 2024

We now better understand the Jewish soil out of which the early Church emerged. [ed. note: the Jewish followers of The Way]. Moreover, we now understand that many of the beliefs and practices of the early Church that were once thought to be unique were in many cases prefigured at Qumran.¹

Early investigators initially thought that the Dead Seas Scrolls (DSS) would validate the "orthodox" Roman Church Christianity. Many doctrinal and language similarities between the followers of "The Way" and the Essenes were indeed found. But, as Professor Eisenman noted, the picture that emerged was different in many ways from the NT. He described it as "native Messianism" versus "overseas Christianity". Why?

The main problem faced by most contemporary scholars, including Christian scholars, ... is the transition from Nazarene-Christianity constructed and promoted by Jesus of Nazareth and his close disciples to Gentile-Christianity constructed and promoted by Paul. The former type of Christianity was exclusive in nature – it is limited to Jews. The religion of Jesus was not just a religion. Rather, it was a way of life that requires its adherents to be good [ed. note: follow the authentic Torah of Moses and Yeshua]. In the beginning, the followers of Jesus were considered by others as Jews, and as another sect of Judaism.

...the first Christians did not consider themselves different from the ancient people of Israel; rather, they believed that they were the true Israel that experienced the fulfilment of Jewish Messianic hopes through Jesus... who was a Jew. In this sense, Christianity for the first Christians was not different from Judaism. However, some other sources have maintained that there were two different groups of early Christians: (1) The original Jewish-Christian group of Jews led by Jesus' closest disciples and, (2) The Hellenized-Christian group... who had a greater vision and philosophy of a universal religion breaking through the boundaries of Judaism as well as the Nazarenism of Jesus of Nazareth in a mission to the Gentile World of the non-Jews.

...This later type of Christianity was inclusive in nature - expanded to non-Jewish communities, i.e. the pagans, who were worshipping... idols or deities... the teachings and theology of this type of Christianity were rooted in the "religion about Jesus and not the religion of Jesus." ² (Emphasis mine)

¹ Hershel Shanks, editor of BAR, Understanding the Dead Sea Scrolls, (Random House New York, 1992) p. 219

The lost history of Group 1 can be patched together. That history is reflected in the DSS, the Book of James, and the Church Fathers writings on "The Way", later called Ebionites.

It is much more certain that there was a relationship between the Essenes and the Ebionites, as Epiphanius affirms. There seems to be an allusion to this relationship in Pseudo-Clementine Recognitions where an Essene-Ebionite tradition is suggested."³

Since the Ebionites were descendants of the Essene sect, we can learn a lot about original Essene theology from later reports about Ebionites (Hebrew: Ebionim, "the Poor"). The Ebionites themselves identified as descendants of the original apostolic followers of The Way. They proclaimed that since Moses and Yeshua preached the same Torah, it did not matter if Jews followed only Moses or Gentiles followed only Jesus. Jews and Christians should be worshipping the Most High God together since both prophets taught the same thing. This Ebionite belief was verified by Origen.

Most Christians want to know if Yeshua is mentioned in the DSS. The short answer is no; there are no specific names in the texts. The writers had to guard against arrest and execution by their tyrannical overlords, first the Herodians and then the Romans. However, there are many references to figures called the Messiah (Anointed One), the Righteous Teacher, the True Prophet, the Wicked Priest, The Interpreter of the Law, The Spouter of Lies, and the Seekers after Smooth Things, the New Covenant and the Kingdom of God. Many scholars, after grasping the actual explosive situation in the 1st century, are making the connection of the DSS characters with those of the NT.

the [new] covenant...of the Bene Zadok has become of central interest...other parallels...the strong emphasis on purification, the parallels between their soteriological figure, the Teacher of Righteousness, and the True Prophet... and others, make an historical relationship between the two movements very probable...ideas of the Essene-Qumran type may have permeated the atmosphere of Jerusalem and consequently entered the primitive church at an early date.⁴

The Messiah and the End of Days 'Kingdom of God'

² Fatmir Shehu, PAUL The Transition from Nazarenism to Christianity, monograph academia.org p. 5, 6,

³ Hans Joachim Schoeps, Jewish Christianity: Factional Disputes in the Early Church, (A. Francke AAG Verlag, Bern, SwtZ 1964) p. 119

⁴ ibid. p. 120

It must be remembered that, in the Hebrew language, the word "maschiach" simply mean a person or thing (e.g. the sanctuary) "anointed" or "smeared" with oil so as to be "set apart" from the ordinary. The attribute "mashiach" first designated Aaron the High Priest and his sons (Ex 30:30) and subsequently all other high priests. Then it was extended to other divinely appointed offices and came to also designate the king and, by extension, other functionaries who were not anointed at all, e.g., the prophets (I Kings 19:16b, 19b; Isa. 61:1), the patriarchs (Ps. 105:15), and even foreign kings (I Kings 19:15; Isa. 45:1; cf. II Kings 8:7). Therefore, the various descriptions in the DSS for a messiah figure fulfilling different roles is not unusual. The messianic roles with which Christians are familiar presents a supernatural Messiah currently serving as both the king of a heavenly kingdom as well as its high priest.

The apocalyptic Messiah of the DSS was in the classic Jewish warrior-king genre. He appears as a charismatic future leader born from the line of King David who would establish the Kingdom of God on earth. Yeshua spoke about "the gospel of the kingdom of God" over 100 times in the four Gospels. It was his primary message. For the DSS community, this kingdom could only be realized after wars and bloody revolution, in which the 'Anointed' (Mashiach), in his role of warrior prince, would lead the forces of Light in their final battles against the powers of Darkness. When the Kingdom of God was finally established (headquartered in Jerusalem), the Mashiach would control its governance (Ezekiel 37:24-27). Spiritual matters would be directed by the High Priest in his traditional role as the highest intermediary between God and man regarding matters of Torah. However, in most DSS texts, one Maschiach figure fulfills both roles. The connection to Yeshua cannot be substantiated because he did not fulfill the Davidic-King messianic role of establishing YHWH's kingdom on earth.

The "Son of God" DSS text (4Q246) speaks of a single messianic warrior leader. This Aramaic work states: "He shall be called the Son of God; they will call him Son of the Most High...He will judge the earth in righteousness...and every nation will bow down to him...with (God's) help he will make war, and...[God] will give all the peoples into his power."

The War Scroll describes the end of days battle to defeat the pagan tyranny over Israel with the help of the supernatural hosts of heaven.

The Cave 1 War Scroll (1QM) describes the events at the end of the age when the forces of good – the "Sons of Light" – engage the forces of evil – the "Sons of Darkness" – in a battle whose result will be "winner take all." In a final series of seven battles... God comes to the aid of the Sons of Light, and the seventh and deciding engagement results in resounding victory for the forces of righteousness.⁵

An extremely important DSS document 4Q521 is called the "Messianic Apocalypse". The following quotes are from James Tabor, Professor Emeritus of NT studies at UNC Charlotte for 30 years, and Michael Wise, Scholar-in-Residence and Professor of Ancient Languages at Northwestern College and distinguished translator of the DSS.

Three striking features of this text are significant: First, it speaks of a single messianic figure who will rule heaven and earth. Second, in the clearest possible language, it describes the resurrection of the dead expected to occur during the time of this Messiah. And third, it contains an exact verbal parallel with the Gospels of Matthew and Luke...

The messiah of our text is thus much closer to the Christian messiah in this regard than in any previously published text... Our text, 4Q521, also has special significance because it reflects a clear belief in the resurrection of the dead: "He will...resurrect the dead." ... We know that various Jewish groups during the late Second Temple period (200 B.C.E. – 70 C.E.) held different views of the afterlife.... Obviously, for early Christians, faith in the resurrection of Jesus, and indeed, of all humankind at the end of days, was a cardinal doctrine (1 Cor 15:12; Acts 14:15).

The line of our text (line 12) relating to the resurrection of the dead is remarkable for another reason: It contains one of the closest, most direct linguistic parallels to a New Testament text that has ever been discovered in the scrolls. The line reads:

"Then he will heal the sick, resurrect the dead, and to the poor [he will] announce glad tidings."

In Matthew and Luke, we read that while John the Baptist is in prison, he sends his disciples to ask Jesus, "Are you the coming one, or do we look for another?" In inquiring about Jesus' messianic identity, John's disciples want to know what the signs of the true Messiah will be. Jesus answers:

"Go and report to John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have glad tidings preached to them (Matthew 11:4–5; Luke 7:22–23). These then are the "signs of the messiah."

The Christian signs of the messiah were, as it were, foreshadowed in the Jewish literature from Qumran...The fact that parallels to our Dead Sea Scroll text appears in both Matthew and Luke almost word for word indicates that the passage from the Gospels comes from a very early Christian tradition that scholars call "Q" (from the

⁵ Eschatology, Messianism and the Dead Seas Scrolls, edited by Craig A. Evans and Peter J. Flint, Martin Abegg paper, p. 65

German word quelle, "source"). Q is a hypothetical collection of the "Sayings of Jesus" compiled in the middle of the first century, before the synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) were written. Q accounts for the many virtually identical sayings in Matthew and Luke; Matthew and Luke both used Q as their source.⁶

It seems evident that these NT passages reflect a much earlier strata of Jewish thought regarding the signs of a messianic age. The Essenes who wrote the DSS text were most probably the source of these particular Q sayings which creates another intriguing link.

Yet in both Luke and Matthew (quoting from Q), we find the reference to raising the dead linked to glad tidings for the poor. The two phrases are linked as "signs of the messiah": "The dead are raised up and the poor have glad tidings preached to them" – precisely as in our Dead Sea Scroll!

...we are taken back to a very early tradition within Palestinian Judaism regarding the "signs of the Messiah," common to the Dead Sea Scroll movement and early Christianity. This tradition was obviously shared by early Christians, who were still part of the Jewish community.

We may go one step further: The passage from Matthew/Luke is clearly connected with the movement of John the Baptist [ed. note: Yeshua's cousin]. It is he who sends the query to Jesus from his prison cell... The strong connections between John the Baptist and the Dead Sea Scroll movement have often been noted. With our new text, we are in a better position to speak of the common expectations of a variety of interrelated apocalyptic and baptist groups that fled to the "wilderness" to prepare the "Way of the LORD" (Isaiah 40:3; Luke 3:4; 1QS 8.9 [though this last passage seems to be allegorical]). They appear to have shared a specific set of expectations, and they draw in strikingly similar ways upon a common core of prophetic texts from the Hebrew Bible. This new Dead Sea Scroll text provides a direct and very significant example of a common messianic hope among the followers of John the Baptist, Jesus and (so it appears) the Dead Sea Scrolls' Teacher of Righteousness.⁷

Next month in Part 3 of this series, we will discuss the DSS themes of the New Covenant in the Land of Damascus, the prominent Teacher of Righteousness, and the True Prophet. We will also detail the Church Fathers identification of The Ebionites, the descendants of the original assembly in Jerusalem. What did they believe? Is there any external literature concerning the sect? What happened to them? And importantly, who did they say the historical Yeshua was? Common Law copyright January 11, 2024. Anyone may quote from this article with attribution. Entire article may be reprinted with permission. Please send questions and/or inquiries to me at: allthemarbles@zoho.com All rights reserved.

⁶ James Tabor and Michael Wise, Messiah at Qumran, Biblical Archaeological Society Library (BAS), Link: BAS Library

⁷ ibid

Common Law copyright January 11, 2024. Anyone may quote from this article with attribution. Entire article may be reprinted with permission. Please send questions and/or inquiries to me at: allthemarbles@zoho.com All rights reserved.

Each Biblical month has its own theme or message. The theme of the month of Shevat is renewal, restoration, and rebirth.

The month of Shevat marks the early beginnings of the spring season in Israel and the time in which their almond trees are in full bloom. Praise God for the blossoming of a new season in your life. Declare that the door to your past is closed and you are moving into a new season of fruitfulness in your walk with the Lord.

In Israel the almond tree is one of the first trees to “awaken” from its winter sleep. The word almond means “wakeful” because the almond tree is quick and early to bloom in January. It was said that the tree never slept and was always watching for the arrival of spring. That was why some referred to it as the watching tree. The prophet, Jeremiah, mentions it in a vision:

“Moreover, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I said, I see a branch or shoot of an almond tree [the emblem of alertness and activity, blossoming in late winter]. Then said the Lord to me, you have seen well, for I am alert and active, watching over My word to perform it.”

In this instance, God uses the image of the almond tree to introduce a spiritual truth. Like the almond tree watching for the arrival of spring, God watches over our lives waiting the season in which His promises to us will come to pass. God’s Word contains the power to do what it says. Those who have been trusting in Him and believing in His Word are now in a season where we are entering into the fullness of the promise. A date of significance during the month of Shevat is its first day because it was on this date that Moses gave his final message recorded in the book of Deuteronomy to the generation that would enter the Land of Promise (Deuteronomy 1:3). Since the previous generation had died out in the wilderness, the next generation had to renew their covenant with God and accept His laws as the rule of their lives.

As the head of our new year, the month of January is the perfect time to renew our covenant with God – accepting His Lordship over our lives, seeking His forgiveness for our sins and forsaking everything we know to be displeasing to Him.

It is said that on the 15th of Shevat the trees stop absorbing water from the ground, and instead draw nourishment from their sap. This signals the end of winter, and the almond trees begin to blossom. A tree dies if uprooted from the earth; it exists and grows only when it continues to receive nourishment from its source. There is a connection between man, trees, and fruit in Bible Scripture:

“Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and [that] spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit,” (Jeremiah 17:7-8).

As we continue to trust in the goodness of the Lord, let us pray that His Holy Spirit nourishes us so that we will be rooted like the trees and grow strong, bearing much fruit.

In the Bible, the month of Shevat is referred to as the eleventh month (Zechariah 1:7). Shevat is not a Jewish word. It was adopted by the Jews sometime during the Babylonian exile. The word Shevat means “the rod of the ruler,” representing authority and power, which is a symbol of God’s power and judgment against His enemies. For Believers, we can find comfort and protection in the rod and the staff of our Shepherd, Jehovah Rohi (Psalm 23:4).

Shevat in Jewish history and tradition

- 1 Shevat – Moses repeats the Torah (Deuteronomy 1:3)
- 2 Shevat (circa 1628 BC) – Asher is born.
- 24 Shevat (517 BC) – Zechariah's prophecy (Zechariah 1:7–16)
- 28 Shevat (circa 134 BC) – Antiochus V abandoned his siege of Jerusalem and his plans for the city's destruction.

Sense: eating, taste

The rectified sense of eating is the special sense of the tzadik, as is said: “The tzadik eats to satisfy his soul” (Proverbs 13:25). This verse continues: “but the stomach of the wicked is always lacking.” The soul-oriented tzadik feels “full” and happy with a little; the body-oriented wicked person never feels content.

Eating from the Tree of Life, the tzadik derives great pleasure ("life" in Torah means "pleasure") from the Divine sparks of light and lifeforce present within the food he eats. In his rectified state of consciousness he is continuously aware that "not on the [physical dimension of] bread alone does man live, but on each utterance of the mouth of God does man live."

The time of greatest pleasure in partaking of food is on the day of Shabbat. The word for "to satisfy [his soul]" (שָׂבַע) is cognate to the word for "seven" (שִׁבְעָה), alluding to the seventh day of Shabbat. A true tzadik experiences the pleasure of Shabbat the entire week (in the Zohar, the tzadik is called Shabbat). The word Shevat itself transforms to Shabbat (since the two letters tet and tav, both letters of the tongue, are phonetically interchangeable).

Shevat 1, 5784: Thursday January 11, 2024

Veronika West

....2024: The Door of Greater Glory and Revelation

"The Door of Greater Glory and Revelation: The Year of Ascension and Greater Awakening and Shakings; Prophetic Vision for 2024"

I heard these words recently in my prayer time, "Daughter, In 2023 I gave many the eyes to see into the next Seven-year Prophetic Cycle and Season. But now I will give them Wings to soar in 2024 — that will carry them through the Door of Greater Glory and Revelation, to where I will impart supernatural strategies and My Hidden Secrets for the manifestation of Divine Restore and Victory in the Midst of a Coming Famine and Nations at War!"

On the morning of January 2, 2024, as I went early into my prayer Hut. As I began to pray, I was immediately made aware of an Administrative Angel of The LORD standing before me, and I heard these Words, "Come up here! Come up higher — for it's the Season of Ascension!"

Behold, I do a new thing! Do you 'see' it?"

As I heard those Words, with my eyes still shut and praying in The Spirit, suddenly I heard The Voice speak again saying, "See! See! For you will need eyes to see the new thing in the coming days! I say — Come up here! Come up higher! Enter in — for this is the Door of Revelation Four — the Door that leads to a Fourth Dimension of Sight, for the seasons ahead!"

On hearing those Words, a Vision opened up to me and suddenly I saw an Ancient Scroll being unraveled before me, and I began to see Words that were engraved upon the Ancient Scroll begin to peel away from the paper — and the Words began to dance before me!

As I looked at the Words dancing, I heard these Words, "Eat the Scroll — and your eyes shall be opened!" So, I opened my mouth and began to eat the Dancing Words, and then I heard The Spirit say, "Watch! For a Divine Convergence of the New and Ancient Ways shall take place in the coming days, for the Chronos and Kairos shall collide, and that which was devoured by the Cankerworm and the Locust shall be restored, for the Season of Divine Recompense and the Redeeming of the Times and Seasons has surely begun."

I say, be aligned with Heaven's Time, and you will watch as New Kingdom Collaborations begin to form, and New Ministry Networks begin to emerge. Yes! I say this is the hour of the breaking of the Old, and the Birthing of New Wineskins!

See! For Holy Convocations will come to the fore in 2024!

New Apostolic and Prophetic Company's will rise within The Nations, for a cross-pollination of My Word and Spirit will now bring to birth a New Breed of Kingdom Revivalists and Reformers who will usher in Supernatural Conversions and Radical Change, which will prepare a Highway of Holiness for a Visitation of My Glory in the Earth realm.

Listen! Incline your Ears! For there is a Clarion Call to return in the Year of the Open Door — to return to the Altar in Holy Consecration, to return to the Covenant Foundations of My Original intent. For this is an Appointed Time — a Royal Coronation — as My Remnant cast their Crowns before Me in exchange for a Gold Signet Ring upon My finger. Watch! For this is the Season of Divine Catalysts — for I AM coming as a Consuming Fire...- the Year when the Consuming Fire of The LORD will come to Purge and Purify, and to Set Ablaze the Burning Ones — those who will stand and contend in My Court Room with the Currency of true Repentance, that carries the weight to shift the Scales of Justice and bring Nations to a divine Tipping point.

Ha! Watch — as My Spirit moves swiftly in 2024 to snuff out counterfeit lights and remove the candle from its stand, for in the Year of the Open Door, many more Leaders will surely fall and the Doors of many Churches will be shut! For I will deal with contamination and uncover their corruption! None among them will stand in the presence of My Consuming Fire when it comes!

So, I say, Set the Watchmen on the Walls and Guards at the Gateways — for a greater Confrontation will begin to take place, as Nation rises against Nation. For this is a time of the Clash of the Titans. Crisis and conflict shall dominate the headlines of your News Outlets and Social Media platforms, for a War for greater domination over Communication shall take place in 2024 — as the voice of the devourer seeks to take more ground.

Watch, as conspiracy theories will rise, causing an even greater dust storm of confusion, chaos and self-righteous pride both in The Church and in the political arena.

Watch — as Nations standing at the Crossroads of Destiny, shall be marked by even greater shakings that shall give way to natural disasters never seen before.

2024 — a year of ongoing, and even new Wars — and the rise of fears of a global Famine.

I Say — Fear Not! For Communion shall take center stage once again! Eat and drink of Me in this hour — the Meal that Heals. My Blood and My Body, that brings Protection, Preservation and Supernatural Provision. ...Listen and Pray! Pay close attention, for the words: Catastrophic, Crisis and Cataclysmic, will be heard in the coming days, and greater corruption, fraud and even sexual abuse and misconduct will be heard in the Corridors of Government — and My Church! For I tell you — 2024 will be a year of severe Course Corrections, sudden and Divine Interventions, as My Spirit moves to expose and uncover. Watch! For many Nations will be changed — and the history of many Nations will be rewritten! But Watch! I say again — Fear not! — for Champions with a Righteous Cause will rise with a Battle Cry.

...Courageous and Fearless Bravehearts shall emerge — and at the sound of The Roar of the Lion of Judah — My great Eagles will Rise and Soar in 2024 — and a greater Co-laboring with Angelic Armies will take place, that will usher in a Greater Awakening and a way of Divine Escape. Watch! For a cloud of My Glory will descend upon Coastal Towns and Inner Cities....

The Rain of My Glory will bring Outbreaks of Revival and a glorious Visitation of My Spirit that will herald a Wave of End-time Revival, Restoration and a great Harvest of Souls!"

Postscript
The LORD is mysterious!

As I was listening intently to The Spirit of Revelation, I heard Him say, "2024 — The Year of Ascension and to See!"

When I heard the words "to See" ... I saw the letter 'C'... I thought nothing of it, until I stopped and re-read the Word.

I believe these Words speak to what will take place in the days ahead!

"Behold, I do a new thing! Do you see 'C'...it?!"

Come Up Here, Come Up Higher! Clarion Call to Return to the Altar Divine Convergence, Kingdom Collaboration, Holy Convocations, Apostolic and Prophetic Company. Cross pollination; Word and Spirit, Royal Coronation, Nations at Crossroads, Covenant Foundations, Supernatural Conversions, Deeper Consecrations, Courageous Champions, Severe Course Correction of Nations, Corruption & Contamination, Righteous Cause; A Battle Cry, Holy Communion, Removal of Counterfeit Lights, Removal of Candle stands, a Clash of Titans, Conflict and Crisis. Co-laboring with Angel Armies; Casting of Crowns and Gold Signet Rings, Chronos and Kairos. Domination of Communication by the Devourer, Rise in Greater Conspiracy theories, Cankerworms and Locusts, the Restoration Comes; Consuming Fire is Coming to clean House. Cloud of Glory bring Rain of Restoration, Coastal towns and Inner Cities. A Year to Contend in the Court Room of Heaven. Divine Catalyst, True Repentance is the Currency that carries the weight to Shift the Scales. An incredible year!!!

Shevat 2, 5784: Friday January 12, 2024

Dutch Sheets

2024: A Hinge of History

History will record 2024 as a year of tremendous import, a defining year, a hinge of history. It will be a wild ride, oxymoronic in its extremes. Charles Dickens wrote regarding the time of the French Revolution, "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of light, it was the season of darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair."(1)

History, as they say, has a way of repeating itself.

This year will be highly productive but very tumultuous, incredibly fruitful yet greatly challenging; it will be a year of coming together and of great separation; it will awaken the warrior and expose the fearful. A clear line is being drawn between good and evil, removing what once seemed like safe "middle ground"; indifference and complacency, disguised in the intellectual robes of neutrality, will no longer be possible.

Great unrest will continue and increase here in America and throughout the world. The dragon, the bear, and the lion - China, Russia and Iran - will continue their attempts to gain influence, seeing America's weakness under Biden as their opportunity. They realize this opportunity may not last long and will try to make the most of it. A weakened America means strengthened evil. Knowing that a continuation of Marxism (wokism), open borders, a weak military and economy, great division, the destruction of the family unit, and a decay of morality weakens America, satan and his allies will also attempt to influence America's 2024 elections. They fear Trump and will work to oppose him.

But know that satan's attacks, violence and the unrest generated throughout the world will be met by Holy Spirit's greater power and the higher authority of God's Kingdom on earth. Demonic opposition will transform into God's opportunities. Though Scripture tells us violence and unrest will not end until Christ returns, nevertheless Yahweh's wisdom and power will make them serve His purposes. So much so, that I believe this will begin one of satan's greatest times of frustration in all of history.

In 2024, some of God's judgments against His enemies will occur openly and be recognized as undeniably from Him. Like Pharaoh, who hardened his heart to the point of being irredeemable, many have done so today. God will make examples of some.

Government shakeups will also continue throughout the world, as have occurred in Argentina and the Netherlands.

OUR PRAYERS ARE PREVAILING

The prayers of the church, the Ekklesia, have accomplished much. We have not been attempting to overcome God's reluctance but have been laying hold of His willingness. We have engaged with heaven and heaven is now engaged. What He has needed from us He has received, and we will receive from Him what we need.

Light will now penetrate, and the spirit of wisdom and revelation will be released to entire societies and cultures, resulting in radical change. God has used our prayers and declarations, releasing His voice in the earth, to rend the heavens and come down (Isaiah 64:1). This rending of the heavens allows God's light and truth to break through producing revelation, the lifting of the veil spoken of in 2 Corinthians 4:3-4. This impacts not only individuals, but regions and nations.

A fresh hunger and cry for God's presence will arise, AND HIS PRESENCE WILL COME! This will produce radical passion. Entire streams and movements will be impacted. The worship movement of the last 50 years will be renewed, going even deeper into His presence. Some that have drifted too far toward professionalism will receive a course correction. First-love baptisms will cause them to trade polish and performance for presence. Times of waiting will outweigh time constraints and song lists. A true "presence movement" will begin.

Churches and Christian organizations that have rejected elements of Holy Spirit's activities will receive revelation and understanding of Him. As a result, they will invite Holy Spirit into their midst and He will come! Many who have not been open to the supernatural will welcome it. Many who have not known His voice will cry out to hear it. Presence and power will manifest together, overcoming "forms of godliness without power" (2 Timothy 3:5), absence of first love passion (Revelation 2:4), and lukewarmness (Revelation 3:16). Much of what was seen as "order" will be recognized as man's control and religious routine. Holy Spirit's fire will be sought and given; the results will be explosive.

Incredible miracles will invade the earth, accompanying the gospel and the preaching of the Word. Amazing signs and wonders will occur in schools, homes, businesses, churches, arenas, bars, hospitals, on campuses and in the streets. It was in Ephesus that "God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul" (Acts 19:11). Yet this was also the church warned later against a form of godliness without power and rebuked for leaving their first love, as mentioned above. Passion, presence and power go hand in hand; passion attracts God's presence, which releases His power. Holy Spirit was challenging the ekklesia at Ephesus to do what was necessary for restoration. He is offering the same to many believers and churches in 2024.

Noted Greek scholar Rick Renner says of Acts 19:11, "'Wrought' in this verse is from the Greek word poieo, (2) which denotes creativity. Because the word poieo is used in this context, we know that the miracles taking place in Ephesus were miracles of a creative nature. In fact, this power was so out of the ordinary that the Bible describes it as 'special,' which is a translation of the Greek word tugchano. (3) This Greek word means to hit upon, to happen upon, or to fall upon. It implies something unique that overtakes someone or a power that falls on someone as if to take him or her by surprise.

"Paul literally hit upon, happened upon, or fell into a level of power that was without equal in his experience. He found himself suddenly operating in a realm of miracles that was extraordinary and powerful beyond his wildest expectations. Of course, all miracles are uncommon, but there was something about these miracles in particular that transcended every miracle that Paul had previously experienced during his ministry. From the usage of this Greek word tugchano, it seems that Paul himself was surprised by the exceptional assortment of miracles that were occurring at his own hands." This is the level of power and miracles that I believe will begin in 2024.

All of this - the light of revelation, passion, presence, and power - will intensify the "here and coming" revival. "Presence evangelism" will occur, along with power evangelism. Unbelievers will be drawn by the magnetism that is Christ and Holy Spirit will demonstrate the truth of the gospel and reality of Christ. Prophetic evangelists will arise, ministering with great power and gifts of the Spirit. The current trickle of souls will become an influx, the beginning of earth's greatest harvest. As this intensifies, much carnal competition in the church will be replaced by Kingdom cooperation as we struggle to steward the great harvest. The plowman will indeed overtake the reaper (Amos 9:13); the Good News Translation words this verse, "The days are coming when grain will grow faster than it can be harvested." I believe this increase will begin in 2024.

The harvest will come from ALL segments of society, ALL races, ALL ages. I believe Holy Spirit has shown me that incredibly influential individuals will be converted - from the realms of government, entertainment, and even other religions. Some of these converts will be used by Christ in very unconventional ways. Their genuine faith, yet shared in unusual and unreligious ways, will have unique impacts on areas of the culture. I believe this, too, will begin in 2024.

Pray with me:

Father, You're all-wise, all-powerful, always good and always right. You, Jesus and Holy Spirit have been planning what is coming for a long time! And as this era grew closer, Holy Spirit worked what was necessary in many members of the church throughout the earth. They are now the willing army of Psalm 110, the ruling Ekklesia of Matthew 16, and the church of Ephesians 3 through which You will make known Your manifold wisdom to rulers and authorities in the spiritual realm. Many more believers will soon enlist.

We have been appealing to You, not to overcome Your reluctance, but to lay hold of Your willingness and desires. Our faith has grown, our understanding has expanded, our authority has increased, and we are positioned to receive the answer. Bring the release of revelation, revival, power and triumph over evil You have spoken of in Your Word and through Your prophets. Save millions! Free entire nations! Expose evil! Rout the dark forces!

As we move into 2024, we do so without fear. We are ready for anything and equal to anything through You who infuse inner strength into us (Philippians 4:13 AMP), more than conquerors through You (Romans 8:37). Our eyes are fixed on the Author and Finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:2), and we are clothed in His armor (Ephesians 6). Give us Your strategies for the coming season, and we will obey (Isaiah 30:21). In Yeshua's name we pray!

Our decree:

We decree that in 2024, the ancient door through which the King of glory enters will open wide.

Shevat 3, 5784: Saturday January 13, 2024

JULIE GREEN MINISTRIES

John R Cioffi Sr.

Excerpts from: For a new you in 2024

If you truly desire to be filled with the fire of Holy Spirit, raise your hands, and repeat this prayer.

Holy Father, I repent of sins known and unknown. I surrender myself and my life to You. Show me anything that remains within me that I need to repent of. Show me everything that is hindering a deeper relationship with You. I repent of all of these things Father. Take them all from me. I place them at Your feet. Pour out Your Spirit onto me. Flood me with Your Glory. I welcome You. Take me Father, I am Yours. Restore, heal, and deliver me as only You can. Set me on Fire for You.

Jesus, I thank You for Your sacrifice. Only You can save me of my sins. I am Yours. I am one of Your Bride. Set me on Fire for You. I welcome You. Take me for I am Yours. Guide my daily steps. Give me a love and desire for Your Word. Give me a heart for the lost. Give me a desire for continuous prayer. Strengthen my prayers. Set a desire within my heart to strive to get closer to You every day. Strengthen the authority you have given within me. You are my Lord, my King, my Savior.

Holy Spirit flood me with your power. I desire You to dwell within me. Renew me. Flood me with Your Presence. Set me on Fire as You did in the upper room. Revive me right now. Take over right now. I give myself to You. Fan the flame You have set within me into a raging, all-consuming fire that will purify me for You. By the authority of Jesus Christ, the true Son of God, I command all spirits of addiction, of chaos, of fear, of secrecy, of deception, of desperation, of confusion, of compromise, and all other spirits of the enemy to flee from my presence. You are not welcome here. The Blood of Christ has broken all holds you had on me. You are commanded to leave and flee to a dark place. You are not allowed to return. You must flee my home and from all my family members. Flee now and never return. In Jesus' mighty name Amen

2024:

The Year of Shakings and Open Doors

These words are a compilation of prophecies from meetings with 200 Prophets from around the world. They are done after the model found in Acts 13: "Now in the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, 'Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.' Then, having fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away." (Acts 13:1-3 NKJV)
<https://bible.com/bible/114/act.13.1-3.NKJV>

Note: this group is representative of different ethnicities and socioeconomic groups. They prayed and came to an agreement that the Holy Spirit was speaking the same thing to all of them. It was the Holy Spirit and not one individual prophet or teacher. We, as the Apostolic Council of Prophetic Elders, are issuing these words in agreement that this is what the Holy Spirit is saying to us. It also includes submitted words from the larger group of the Global Prophetic Consultation. These prophets are from many nations and represent many ethnicities as in Acts 13.

It is also to be noted that some of this revelation came during the Jewish New Year of 5784 during September. Others were presented to us for the 2024 New Year during the October and first week of November timeframe for our Global Prophetic Week in the Dallas, Texas, area of Cedar Hill. In looking back over them, their accuracy is profound. Also, in checking words from previous years, the current history that we are living in proves that they were, indeed, the word of the Lord.

Shakings

"For thus says the Lord of hosts: "Once more (it is a little while) I will shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land; and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to the Desire of All Nations, and I will fill this temple with glory, says the Lord of hosts. The silver is Mine, and the gold is mine,' says the Lord of Hosts." Hag. 2:6-8

Tremendous shakings are coming to the earth. One heinous one came on October 7th, 2023:

The Nations are Raging.

With these shakings, we see that the nations are raging: "Why do the nations rage, And the people plot a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord and against His Anointed, saying, 'Let us break Their bonds in pieces and cast away Their cords from us.'" (Psalms 2:1-3 NKJV) <https://bible.com/bible/114/psa.2.1-3.NKJV>

The ancient Prince of Persia (as mentioned earlier) is now flexing his muscles and wants to align with the powers of darkness over the nations of Russia (the Bear) and China (the Dragon).

We have been prophesying for around ten years now about an alliance of these nations along with North Korea. We see Iran, Russia, China, and North Korea in alliances to re-draw the map of the world territorially. For instance, North Korea has been promised the whole Korean peninsula.

Wartime Watchmen and Women

We are issuing a worldwide call for "wartime" watchmen and women to fast and pray and be on the wall of the nations. Through the fervent prayers of many around the world, World War 3 has been averted for now -- although it is tenuous. Therefore, we must not be weary in our prayers. Europe is in real peril, and the nations bordering Ukraine, Poland, Romania, Slovakia, Moldova, and Belarus. Belarus has already aligned with Russia and needs our prayers too! Let's pray that nothing "sparks" WW3 like has happened with the other world wars.

We were given a special admonition to go back and read "Shaping History through Prayer and Fasting," by Derek Prince and "Intercessor," by Rees Howells. The history of Western civilizations, such as Europe, is still in the balance, and there is still time to tip the scales away from world war.

Lawlessness

Lawlessness will become particularly rampant in the nations and will begin to turn into anarchy if not carefully prayed over by the watchmen and watchwomen. The boundaries of what is considered lawful are going to move. What was perfectly just and what is unjust will seemingly blur in their lines. Even the police will have a hard time enforcing "the law" because of being told that they must not "incite" certain people groups.

Even though the nations are shaking, we are not to be shaken. We are admonished to lean into the promises of God in a deeper way in this challenging season. There are things that God is shaking out of our lives so we can prosper in the new. Even the things that Satan is shaking will turn for our good in the long run. We do not say this glibly as we know that some of our fellow brothers and sisters across the globe are experiencing unspeakable traumas.

Economic Shakings

As we are in the digital age, currencies will one day largely go digital. We are not to fear this as God will show us what to do in every economic season.

God clearly spoke to us that He is raising up solutionists, especially in terms of the marketplace and economic structures. We know we have the example from Joseph and the political solutionist, Daniel. These types of leaders will rise to the forefront and be seen by many as providers of the way to go in investing and running governments. This will be a great witness to unbelievers, point them to Christ, and give them comfort.

Word for the United States

The 2024 election is critical. The nations are watching this coming election to decide their timetable and direction for war. If a war-time president is not elected, fueled by the prayers of war-time intercessors, then our enemies will see us as weak and plan their attacks. 2025 is a potential year for wars to break out on a much larger scale.

Transition from the Church Age to the Kingdom Age

In many cases, we see the church understanding that we are now in the Kingdom Age and that our role as the Ecclesia is much broader than was understood in the past 50 years. God is going to raise up “champion” voices to articulate this message, but they will be met with fierce opposition.

Along with the transition is the message that revival must be married with reformation. Previously, we gave the word that in the next season, judgment was going to come to the House of God first. Things that have long been covered over would be revealed. That is exactly what is happening now and will continue to do so. There is a place of mercy for those who have covered their sin, but it will be swift and severe for those who have not humbled themselves under the hand of the Almighty God.

The church is awakening to the Kingdom message of discipling nations and that we have great authority. Various nations are on the timetable to determine whether the persecutions that either are coming or have come will see the churches having to become an underground church movement or not.

Transitioned from Psalm 23 to Psalm 24

Last year God gave us a focus on Psalm 23 to comfort His people after the pandemic. There are three main uses of prophecy: edification, exhortation, and comfort. While we have used the first two effectually, we are learning more about, and releasing the third attribute – comfort – among the prophetic communities. Many, many people taught on Psalm 23 during the year 2023.

Now, we are moving into Psalm 24 as it is a picture of the season that we are in:

Verses 1-2

- The earth is the Lord's.

Verses 3-4

- Holiness
- Clean hands and a pure heart.

Verses 7-10

- The Lord strong and mighty in battle.
- The gates (doors) being opened for the King of Glory

Admonitions were given to us to be strong in battle, like our heavenly King. Duty calls, and we must purposely decide to enlist and give our lives to prayer and following Christ.

Voices of Revival and Holiness

The United States, as well as other nations, such as those on the Isaiah 19: 23-25 Highway of Holiness, are experiencing revivals on various levels. An admonition was given that we need to see the remnant who are moving in revival to have accountability and make alignments. In the past years, we have highlighted Isaiah 65:8, which says that the new wine is found in the cluster. Find your tribe in the move of God!

We must have deep root systems in the word so not to get into false doctrine. The revivalist leaders must walk in purity and holiness. This fits with the theme in Psalm 24:3-4.

God is cleaning house to make way for His glory to be released so that He can see a people walking in great resurrection power! Miracles are about to be released that are creative in nature. The dead will be raised, new limbs will grow, and more! We must be prepared to steward these revivals and awakenings! There will be revival centers that will host the presence of God on a regular basis and will be drawing places for God to move in limitless ways. Apostolic centers will also be revival centers.

New “blueprints” from heaven will show the church how to make room for the demonstration of the power of God in our services. It is easy to fall into the routine of doing church if we do not regularly press in to release God’s supernatural power.

Of course, as we stated earlier, revival and reformation must work together to lead to the transformation of nations. Groups like the “Clapham” sect with William Wilberforce are being formed. God is raising up leaders who will take the point to form these groups.

The Spirit of Division

We are seeing the spirit of offense working with the spirit of division. Tares will try and be sown during true moves of God. This is why God is shaking us, refining us, and preparing us to watch for those who would sow discord among the brethren. We all need to search our hearts.

The warning came to us about "swirling" that will try and stir up bitter wounds in our hearts. For instance, places of unforgiveness, financial weaknesses, and weaknesses in marriages.

Open Doors in 2024

The Lord spoke to us a theme of "Come Up Higher" in 2024. This word pertains to two prophetic understandings: Psalm 24:7-10, as stated already. Gates will be opened or lifted! The understanding of the Hebrew meaning for the year 5784. The number "four" in Hebrew is symbolic of the door.

These are important concepts to understand because this is a season where God is calling us to build; we could say to build the kingdom. To do so, there are doors of opportunity we must recognize and go through.

Just as God wants to open doors, Satan wants to shut them in our faces! However, we also note that there are doors that are shut by demonic opposition, and others that are shut because God is resisting us, or even trying to protect us from going the wrong way. Great discernment is ours to know the difference! New authority is being released to stop Satan from interfering in our advancement.

Doors of influence, doors of opportunities, and doors to obtain wisdom are being opened to us. There is warfare at the gates. It might be said that the serpent is by your gate. Do not be deterred from obtaining your new opportunities because there is warfare surrounding them.

It is time for you to flourish in this new season. Flourish means to grow, prosper, thrive, increase, and multiply. Do not be content with merely surviving. God wants you to flourish! If you are not flourishing, examine your root system! Are there generational strongholds? Roots of bitterness? Rejection? Don't bring the old into the new because it will defile your new season. New levels of revelation will open to us.

Revelation 4:1:
Come Up Higher

"After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven, and the first voice which I had heard, like the sound of a trumpet speaking with us, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things."

God will release everything you need to fulfill your highest potential.

Shevat 4, 5784: Sunday January 14, 2024
The New Year for Trees

By Roger Lee Waters

There was a point in time where Adam and Eve talked with the animals as they roamed in Eden. There was also a point in time where the Creator told Adam that of all the trees in the garden, they may eat of any of them, except the tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, which is in the middle of the garden. Which turned out not so good for mankind, and even worse for the Creator. But there was a way to fix that, it was called a Messiah, the son of the Living God.

Two thousand years later, there was a man, Abraham that came on the scene and understood that there was a creator, and after a conflict, he paid a tax, known as a Tithe to a King off the spoils of war. God instituted a covenant with this man Abraham and told him that his offspring would be as the stars of heaven and the sands of the seas. Abraham knew of the plan because it was written in the stars, about a woman who would give birth to a king, and would come from a lion, and would have a crown on his head.

He was also told that he would be the father of many nations. His first son, Ishmale, became the father of all Arabs, then came Isaac, or Laughter, who was a test for God to see if a human could become a sacrifice for all mankind, and told Abraham to take his son to the Mountains of Moriah, and kill him. God spared the boy, and in his place a lamb became the sacrifice, paving the way for what is to come. Then after Sarah died, he had Keturah, whose sons became the leaders of what now is known as the Muslims.

When a man called Moses came on the scene, the Law was handed down to him, and with the finger of God, the Law was given to all of mankind. It was called the Law of God, the 10 Commandments. Before it was all over, there was another law that came, called the Mosaic Law, and it was a detailed account as to why and how to sacrifice animals, and which animals to sacrifice, the Temple layout and how the Temple was to work.

Around 1600 BC, after the law was given, man became mad, and crazy, doing unholy things, committing massive sin, and breaking all of God's laws, except for the majority of those of the 12 tribes. David got the floorplans for the Temple Mount, but it was Solomon who built it, and in 586 BC, Babylon overtook Jerusalem, destroyed the Temple mount area, and took the 12-tribes captive and moved them to Babylon. Thus, we had Daniel and Ezekiel as prophets come forth.

During this time frame from Moses to Isaiah a ritual done on a minor Feast day began, and it's called the New Year for Trees. Under the Law of Moses, it is required only on this day, Sh'vat 15, the middle of the 11th month, is a day used for the "New Year for Trees". It is a day to eat the 7 fruits from the trees and grain. They are, Wheat, Barley, Grapes, Figs, Pomegranates, Olives and Dates. Isn't it interesting that there are also 7 Spirits of God. Revelation 5:6, Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing at the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. They are, The Spirit of the Lord, Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Power, Knowledge, Spirit of Fear of the Lord, (Reverence).

There are four New Years in Hebrew, the Nisan New Year, which is Passover, in Elul, there is a New Year of Tithing Cattle, then in Tishri, we have Rosh Hashanah, which celebrates the Creation of the world, then there is Sh'vat, the Year for the Trees.

It takes about four months for the rains of the Jewish New Year to saturate the soil and enter the trees. In Israel, the rainy season begins just after Rosh Hashanah. Any fruit that is produced between Rosh Hashanah and Tu B'Shvat is considered last year's fruit since it was created by the rains of the past year. Anything produced four months later after Tu B'Shvat is considered fruit of the New Year. Since all these fruits come from trees, we have the New Year for Trees. It is literally the New Year for the Trees because it is only from that point forward that the trees are infused with the water from the new year.

Isn't it strange that we celebrate trees in the dead of winter when they all look half dead? But in the dead of winter, is when they are most alive. It is in the winter months that the trees take in the water that the rains bring below the frozen ground, and the sap begins to flow, which is the blood of the tree, and new life is beginning to which we do not see. The trees are forming a new life from the ground and the water, same as where man came from.

In the book of Jeremiah, the prophet, he described a true evergreen as a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream or river. It never fears when the heat of summer comes, its leaves are always green, It has no worries in a year of drought, and never fails to bear fruit. Jeremiah 17:8. (A tree planted by the stream of water always has strong roots. It isn't affected by the twists and turns of the weather because it has an alternate source of nourishment. A tree with well-watered roots always thrives. It is strong, beautiful, and always bears fruit.)

In Jeremiah 17:7, he wrote, (Blessed is the man that trusts in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and spreads out her roots by the River, and shall not see when the Heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green, and her root not be careful in the in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.)

If a tree can do all it does without complaining, losing its faith in nature, and turning away from what it knows if right, just think what we as people can do when we do talk, and not complain, and not run away from what we know is truth.

Thus, we have the 7 spices and 7 Attributes. Deuteronomy 8:8, (For the Lord your God is bringing you to a good land, a land of brooks of water, fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills, of wheat, Barley, grapes, figs and pomegranates, a land of oil-yielding olives and honey.)

They tell us that originally, all trees bore fruit, as well also be the case in the Era of Moshiach. A fruitless tree was a symptom of an imperfect world, for the ultimate function of a tree was to produce fruit. So, if man is the tree of the field, Deuteronomy 20"19 and fruit is the highest achievement, and there are seven fruits that crown a human and botanical harvest then these are the seven fruits and grains singled out by the Torah as exemplars of the Holy Lands fertility, Wheat, Barley, grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives, and dates.

The 15th day of Sh'vat is a day designated by the Jewish calendar as the New Year for Trees. It is on this day we celebrate the trees of God World and the trees within us, by partaking of these seven fruits, which typify the various components and modes of human life.

Wheat and Barley are the two grains among the Seven Kinds. They represent the staples of our inner make-up. Following are the other 5 fruits. First is the grape, whose defining characteristic is Joy. Have you ever watched a 5-year-old wake up one morning to a new dog or cat as their very own pet and watch the smile and tears flow from there little lives, just crying for joy, that is pure joy. The same thing will happen when our heavenly Father sees us entering into eternity with him, we will be doing the same thing as that 5-year-old.

The fourth is the Fig, and it is also the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. That is the fruit which Adam and Eve tasted, thus committing the first sin in our world's history. As the Hebrew teaching explains, knowledge (daat) is an intimate involvement with the thing known. Adams sin was not that he ate the fruit, but rather he refused to reconcile himself with the notion that there was something he should have distanced himself from.

Adams fig was one of the most destructive forces in history. The fig represents our capacity for a deep and intimate involvement in our endeavors, It's an involvement which signifies that we are one with what we are doing.

The fifth fruit is the Pomegranate is a compartmentalized fruit. Each of its hundreds of seeds is wrapped in its own sac of pulp and is separated from its fellows by a tough membrane. The same way it is possible for a person to do good deeds, and even many good deeds, yet they remain isolated with little or no effect on its nature and character. He may possess many virtues, but they do not become him. He may be full of good deeds, yet he remains morally and spiritually hollow.

The sixth is the Olive. It is that part of us that strives on struggle that revels in it, that would no more escape it than escape life itself. Just like the olive, which only yields its oil when pressed to, so too do we yield what is best in us only when we are pressed to do so.

As the fig is countered by the Pomegranate, so too is the olive in contrast as our seventh fruit, the Date. That represents our capacity for peace, tranquility, and perfection. While it is true that we are best when pressed, it is equally true that there are potentials in our soul well worth only when we are completely at peace with ourselves, only when we have achieved a balance and harmony among the diverse components of our souls.

The tree is an exciting representation of man as a whole. We are just like all seven fruits that come from the living water from the ground for the tree, and the living water that comes from the Throne Room of Heaven. We can never achieve all this on our own, so the creator allowed us to see a glimpse of what he means by living inside His Law form.

Some info came from the web site, www.chabad.com

Shevat 5, 5784: Monday January 15, 2024

Matt Friesser: Oil Supply 2024 Oil Production and Imports

Oil used for energy has always been a factor that drives our economy in the world. Crude oil production that began under Obama continued under Trump, soaring to new record highs before COVID-19 contributed to a decline in 2020.

The 4.1 billion barrels produced in 2020 were still more than in any year other than 2019, when nearly 4.5 billion barrels were produced, according to the Energy Information Administration. Even with the down year, crude oil production was up 27.6% in 2020 compared with 2016.

Increased domestic production under Trump led to fewer annual crude oil imports, which were down 25% in 2020 from four years earlier. The U.S. again became a net exporter of petroleum products for the first time in seventy years.

We're barreling into 2024 with extremely bearish inventories both in the U.S. and abroad. The latest EIA oil report showed another large decline in our commercial stockpiles of crude oil, pushing levels to roughly 5% below the five-year average. The situation isn't much better around the world, either. Global oil inventories have fallen to roughly 63.5 million barrels — their lowest point since 2020.

The point is due to Globalism and controlling interest we simply do not have the oil and resources. We can see how Natural Oil supplies and demands determine world markets; how much more does the spiritual oil we contain affect the world around us?

Amanda Grace: "The Shaking of Nations & an Unveiling of Joy in 2024

Joy Will Be Written in Areas of the Earth

And the Spirit of the Lord says this day, "I AM the light of the world, I AM holy. MY LIGHT NEVER GOES OUT; the oil never stops flowing, for it is eternal. And in this time of much shaking and travail in the earth, MY OIL – the oil that heals, that restores, that delivers, that anoints – I have filled that oil in cisterns and sent My holy angels out on assignment to pour that oil on the body, to pour that oil upon those seeking ME; to pour that oil to begin to heal and redeem those who have been in travail, who have been bound, who are walking a road of despair. That oil shall be poured out in a time of shaking and travail and darkness, so the light of My children will shine brighter and be a testimony that chases away the darkness. Weeping may endure for a night, BUT JOY cometh in the morning.

As it says in (Matt. 25:29 NKJV)"For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away."

This ties directly to how much we desire HIM and allow HIM to fill us. Then we are able to become the supply for others in their time of need.

2 Kings 4:1-7 Elisha and the Jar of Oil

4 Now the wife of the son of one of the men who tell what will happen in the future cried out to Elisha, "Your servant, my husband, is dead. You know that your servant honored the Lord with fear. But the man to whom he owed money has come to take my two children to make them serve him." 2 Elisha said to her, "What can I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your woman servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil." 3 Then he said, "Go around and get jars from all your neighbors. Get empty jars, many of them. 4 Then go in and shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour the oil into all these jars, and set aside each one that is full." 5 So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons. They took the jars to her, and she poured. 6 When the jars were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another jar." And he said to her, "There is not one jar left." Then the oil stopped flowing. 7 She came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go and sell the oil and pay what you owe. You and your sons can live on the rest."

As I reflected on the oil the LORD brought back a memory of an old oil lamp from my childhood. This lamp was made of all clear glass and was filled with reddish oil. It had a large flat white wick that reached down into the oil. There was a metal knob on the side that you turned to raise the wick and increase the size of the flame producing more light. I can recall during power outages that lamp became a beacon on light in the darkness. The lamp used to sit on a windowsill in the kitchen always ready if needed to shelter the storm. As we enter the days of 2024, we need to have our lamps filled and available to weather the storm!

As you read these words, let the LORD fill you with HIS unending supply!

Psalm 23 – The Passion Translation

The Lord is my best friend and my shepherd. I always have more than enough. He offers a resting place for me in his luxurious love. His tracks take me to an oasis of peace, the quiet brook of bliss. That's where he restores and revives my life.

He opens before me pathways to God's pleasure and leads me along in his footsteps of righteousness so that I can bring honor to his name.

Lord, even when your path takes me through the valley of deepest darkness, fear will never conquer me, for you already have! You remain close to me and lead me through it all the way. Your authority is my strength and my peace. The comfort of your love takes away my fear. I'll never be lonely, for you are near.

You become my delicious feast even when my enemies dare to fight. You anoint me with the fragrance of your Holy Spirit; you give me all I can drink of you until my heart overflows.

So why would I fear the future? For your goodness and love pursue me all the days of my life. Then afterward, when my life is through, I'll return to your glorious presence to be forever with you!

Be filled, become a supply for others and may the oil of joy radiate and glorify HIS name!

Shevat 6, 5784: Tuesday January 16, 2024
Nate Johnston: "The Year of Ascend"

I've been asking the Lord since August what our posture should be for 2024. I could sense the holiness around it, and the caution not to approach it like any other year. Then, in September, I began to feel a sudden and massive internal shift. It started with a deep discontent, and then I began having nonstop dreams about the same thing – ascending the mountain to be with Jesus.

It's consumed me for months now... a longing to break away from the norm, from the hustle and bustle, and be with Him. What if God is preparing us for something we can only step into by lying down? What if God is leading the Church into a season of increase in our authority, breakthrough, and dominion that can only come from being seated in Christ in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6)?

Bill Johnson said, "There are lovers and workers, and lovers will always get more work done than the workers."

What if we are entering Psalm 24 season where, through ascending the hill of the Lord, we break away from the last remnants of man's institutions and methods and begin to operate from a vantage point of a victory we have never known? What if God is calling us to leave behind the busyness of ministry and enter the priesthood of Samuel once again, which accomplishes so much more? What if this discontent was a DIVINE INTERRUPTION to reveal the old manna and lead us into the new? This is what has been burning in my heart more profoundly than I can express, and I pray you catch it.

One night (before we entered the New Year), I woke up hearing the Lord speak about 2024, and so I want to share what I heard.

A "Going Up the Mountain" Season

I woke up hearing the Lord say, "I am breaking you away from the rat race that has worn you down and exhausted you. I am leading you away from the rest of the herd, not to isolate you, but to free you. For I have been preparing you to close the door on man's ways and methods that have spread you thin and enter the door of My Spirit. I am leading you into a 'going up the mountain' season, where you will ascend with Me and learn a new rhythm and synergy in My presence. It will be a season of coming up the mountain, receiving, then returning down the hill and releasing it to the world.

"Next year, will you give yourself more to the secret place than the public space? Will you choose the carpet over stages? Will you come and be poured into more than you pour out? Will you lay down your ambitions and ideas and trade them for Mine? Will you not rush the special moments that come? Will you not prostitute the revelation I give you?

"For up the mountain, I will give you new eyes and a new way of seeing. I will give you a heart after My own heart, and you will feel what I feel, and you will move in step with Me instead of against Me. But be prepared, because this posture will ruin your plans and make you look lazy and foolish; for while others are choosing the hamster wheel, you will choose to sit at My feet. It will sometimes feel counter-productive, but I will accomplish far more through you as you choose to ascend. And from the mountain, I will reveal My heart and plans to you and invite you into them for the days to come.

Breaking New Ground

"Will you break new ground with Me? Will you choose what I am doing rather than what the masses are calling 'kingdom'? Will you do it My way? Will you build what looks foolish to the wise for a season? Will you Speak the language I give you, even when most don't understand? Are you okay with confronting religious norms and stuck-in-the-mud ways, even if people disassociate from you? Will you leave the areas and roles keeping you in a rut? Will you speak what I ask you to speak, even if it makes you look strange, arrogant, or undignified? Will you rebuild My Temple, My people – My fallen altar (2 Chronicles 24)? Will you prioritize My presence and build a place for Me to come (Acts 7:49)?

Living Above the Snake Line

"You have spent the last three years fighting in the trenches, but you can't do that any longer. My Church has been lost in the swirl of culture, battling with their hands and intellect, instead of My Spirit. Second heaven battles have worn you down because I never called you to battle there. Come up higher and learn to wage war from the mountain! You have taken hits you didn't need to take and been wounded over and over by engaging in fights I never called you to. You have picked fights and thrown stones at the principalities [that are] Mine to take down! It's by being seated in ME in heavenly places that you are victorious. It's through the finished work of the Cross and My Blood that you are undefeatable.

"So, in this season, I am teaching you how to come up higher where nothing can touch you. You will ascend above the warfare you have been facing daily for years. You will ascend above the chatter and witchcraft and no longer hear the voices or be affected by their curses. Yes, you will ascend above the snake line where you have been battling these assignments endlessly for years. For it's time to get back your air superiority and rise above the enemy's games. And you will wage war effectively, and no longer be disabled by the enemy.

Pure Hands Advance the Kingdom

"And as you ascend the hill, you will soon find that all that stuck to you in the past season will come unstuck. You will find that all that was attached to you will be detached. You will begin to feel a freedom you haven't felt in years as I remove the bondage from your shoulders. The fatness and anointing will break all yokes. Yes, as you ascend, I will deliver you, heal you, and purify you. All bitterness in your heart and flies in the ointment will be removed.

"I am cleaning the hands of My Bride so they can come up and out of the pit they have camped in for far too long. And all Baals will be purged from their lips. For I am done with hearing mixture from the pulpit and seeing My Bride celebrating the compromise of culture.

"This season, I am purifying and delivering My Church so they will be, again, set apart unto Me. In 2024, there will be an anointing to distinguish good from evil, and they will become apparent to those who ascend. I will expose the enemy's plans on the world stage and call My ascended ones to counteract them. I will expose the hands of the wicked and thwart the plans of the crafty, so their plans achieve no success.

Even More Set Apart

"For in this season, I am setting you even more apart. This doesn't mean I am isolating you further or leading you into a lonely season. Still, you will notice that I intentionally separated you from those unwilling to ascend. You will notice this quickly, for I am a jealous and protective God, and I don't want you continuing to cast your pearls and have your heart trampled on by people who aren't for you. This is why I have been leading you away from the pack. I have been putting a distaste in your mouth for the appetite of the elites and Sauls. I have been giving you discernment to see where people have been in bed with Jezebel and choosing divination over what can only be acquired by intimacy with Me.

"Your eyes will be opened even more as you ascend. But I am leading you to a company that are not just friends, but covenant family. And I will knit your hearts together because you have chosen Me above the masses.

The Altars of Decision and the Changing of the Guard

"For 2024 will be a year where there will be a changing of the guard that will be public, but it will first start with the testing of hearts and the crossroads of decision. For I am releasing My Church into a time of decision. Will they ascend, or will they stay in a multitude of noise? Will they come up higher or stay in their momentary comforts? Will they chase their kingdom or Mine? Will they pursue Me and My Word, or the affections of people and their shaky foundations? Will they leave the 'hustle' and enter My rest? Will they untie from the tainted and let go of what is evil? Will they choose My altar or the altar of Baal?"

"The lure of the world is increasing, but I am calling My Church to draw a line in the sand and surrender all idols at the altar. The changing of the guard will be a shock for many, for I am not speaking of a change of assignments, but the demotion of the unfaithful and the promotion of the faithful that will come in mid to late 2024. For I shall give My glory to those who will steward it well.

Doorways of Glory and Transfiguration

"Lift your heads, O you gates! Swing wide, you everlasting doors! In this hour, I am causing My people to LIFT THEIR HEADS! I am bringing their gaze UP and back onto Me... Their gaze has been on the problem. They have been looking down and inward instead of up and OUT. But I am now breaking the hope deferred and heaviness that has been resting on My people, keeping them soul-sick and twisted inside. They have been disabled and fractured, but I am leading them into a season of chiropractic realignment of soul. And your heart will come back alive again, and you will leave the place of deep brokenness and survival weariness. So, watch now as you lift your head, for you will see My glory rest upon you and rearrange inside you to a degree that will transfigure you. People will be able to tangibly see My glory upon your life, and they will say, 'Weren't they broken down and burnt out?'"

"But My glory will turn you into a new being. It will revive you and resurrect you. And as My glory comes upon your life, you will become a double doorway for My double glory to be released upon the earth. Swing wide, you heavenly gates, and let the King of glory in! And My glory will break off the fear and torment chasing you; and My glory will unlock your voice; and My glory will unleash a whole new realm of visitation, revelation, and innovation; and My glory will wrap you up like a blanket, and you will finally step into your odyssey for the Kingdom.

Restful Increase and Living Above the Storms

"My Bride, I am calling you to live above the storms! Storms are only increasing on the earth, but you are called not to be tossed around with them but to live safely above them. This is why you must step out of the battlefield of the second heaven and come up to this higher vantage point. I am leading you into a season where the tension will become more significant. For you will see the hand of the enemy and have to choose to stay seated in Me so you can correctly navigate and discern the hour. For in the midst of chaos, I have ordained for you to flourish. In the midst of crisis, I will cause you to remain safe and untouched. I have ordained for you to advance and increase in a time when it doesn't make sense for you to, for you are not tethered to man's system but to My Kingdom.

"I am a problem-solving God, and as you rest in Me, I will protect you from messes, lead you around pits and traps, and hide you under My wings. I have not designed for you to live swayed by the storms of the world but to still them. And so, in this season, I am calling you to a greater level of faith and multiplication, which you will need to ascend to see what I see and expand your vision and path accordingly. And I will give you wisdom to know where to walk and what to do. I will give you dreams and revelation to help you grow and multiply when it doesn't make sense to. And you will be a marker and a sign for those who have lost their altitude and faith in Me. You will be a sign and wonder as they see you settled and stable during increased shaking. You will step out of RECESSION and into RECOMPENSE! And you will finally see what has been locked up and released to you. You will finally see that which has been reserved for this hour given into your hands. And you will not only birth, but you will have multiple births to make up for the years the locust ate.

Lift Up Your Heads, You Gates!

"It's time for My people to be conduits of My glory! The days of the glory-less Church are over, and this season, I am revealing My bright, shining Church that will light up the darkness! In this era, My Church will no longer be lukewarm, hiding My glory under a basket, but will introduce Me to a world desperate for My power!"

"So, lift your heads and swing wide your doors and let Me in! And My glory will reveal what is hidden and expose the enemy's plans; and My glory will purify what is unclean and fix what is broken; and My glory will reconnect what has been disconnected; and My glory will take back what has been stolen. All the gold is Mine, and the silver is Mine," says the Lord, "and I shall take back the financial mountain. And I shall take back the governmental mountain and evict the imposters. And I shall take back all the mountains that now stand menacing before you."

"So, it's time to ascend, My Bride. And as you ascend the mountain, you will take back the mountains!"

Shevat 7, 5784: Wednesday January 17, 2024

"DON'T GIVE UP!"

MARIEL VILLARREAL, COLUMBUS, GA

Plus: Elaine Tivolacci: "You Get What You Pray For!"

What if that warfare you're facing is a sign that you're about to strike gold? There is gold in you in your situation. There is breakthrough ahead. As you pursue God, like digging in a mine, do not let the enemy distract you, taunt you, overwhelm you with lies to stop you from keeping on. There is gold beneath the surface, almost ready to be struck if you don't give up.

Don't give up. Don't stop praying. Don't give up hope. Your prayers and moments of seeking Jesus are like digging in a gold mine. You will strike gold. You will find Him as you seek. There is a breakthrough for you.

I hear the Lord say, "In the hardest place, the places with the most pressure in your life, is where I will reveal the hidden treasure that's being formed beneath the surface. It's time to see the revealing of gold. You must not give up. You must keep hope alive. In the dark, you will find treasure of hope. In the darkness, where you feel abandoned, this is where I am forming what's inside you. You have a beautiful calling. It won't look like anyone else's. I've already written what's in the book of your life, and it's going to be a good next chapter. I am here in the middle. It is not the end yet of what I am doing in your life."

So, do not give up. Do not give up when hope seems lost. It is not lost. You are closer than before. Jesus is the God of all hope, and He is setting an open door of hope before you in 2024. Keep following Him one step at a time.

What if you are SO MUCH closer than you realize? What if you don't give up?

Elaine Tavalacci: "You Get What You Pray For!"

As we step into a new year, many Believers are filled with great expectation and anticipation for what lies ahead. I believe that this next year will be a time of great favor, and that many in the Body of Christ will be equipped with powerful anointings to fulfill their God-given destinies.

In the midst of what appears to be a dark season of opposition, there will be a sudden shift in the spirit realm. There's coming a time when we will experience supernatural miracles, divine encounters, and amazing breakthroughs. It's time to forget the past and embrace what the Lord has for us in the days ahead.

Believers are going to rise up and use the authority that has been given to them in Jesus' name. Many others will discover the power of their words. As they receive this revelation, they will speak with boldness, knowing who they are in Christ; not with arrogance, pride, control or manipulation, but as chosen vessels, sanctified and fit for the Master's use.

"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask anything in My name, I will do it." (John 14:12-14)

You Get What You Pray For

"Therefore, I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them." (Mark 11:24)

As I was writing about the power of our words, I heard the Holy Spirit say something that captured my attention. He said, "You get what you pray for." It reminded me of all the teachings that I have received in the past about the power of our words. James chapter 3 speaks about the tongue being a fire. It can be used to bless or to curse.

As the Lord calls us to a higher level, we have to be careful of the words that we speak, especially when we pray. Jesus said, "... whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them" (Mark 11:24). It's not about naming or claiming something, but it's about taking authority as we decree and declare things into existence. When you are filled with the Holy Spirit and you speak in line with the Word of God, all of Heaven will back what you say.

I heard that phrase three separate times in three days. With our words we create our reality. When you pray in the name of Jesus, demons tremble. As Believers, it's essential to recognize that our authority doesn't come from our own intelligence or eloquence, but from Jesus Himself. A prophet once said, "When you realize who you are in Christ, you will realize that you are behaving below your nature and living short of your potential."

Storing Up His Words as a Treasure

The Lord says, "Do not speak anything that would nullify or devalue My Word. Never speak that which is contrary to what you believe. Don't contradict that which I am birthing within you with words of doubt or dishonor. Store up My words within your heart as a treasure. As you do this, faith will continually arise in your heart."

"Although things that you are praying and believing for are not yet manifested in the natural, continue to speak My Word. Speak words of life and speak words in love. Pray without ceasing, and when you pray, believe that you receive. Never let go of My promises. Speak to the mountains and walk on the water. Walk by faith and not by sight. Your words will define you as you speak words of faith and put your trust in Me," says the LORD.

"A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks." (Luke 6:45)

Shevat 8, 5784: Thursday January 18, 2024

Lana Vawser

AN UNPRECEDENTED, ACCELERATED, DEMONSTRATION AND MANIFESTATION OF THE LORD'S JUSTICE

Numerous times in the last few weeks I have been having dreams and encounters regarding the justice of the Lord. The most recent dream I heard the Lord saying, "There is an unprecedented demonstration and manifestation of My justice upon the Church in this new era."

We have moved into the era where we shall see the greatest demonstrations of the justice of the Lord being made manifest in the earth like we have never seen before. In my most recent dream the Lord continued to speak about the gavel to come to bring down injustice and to overturn.

Some of the greatest injustices' that have happened in the lives of believers and in the earth are going to be overturned in this new era. I heard the words "I am bringing down the GIANT OF INJUSTICE."

These giants of injustice in the lives of believers and in the earth have been making more noise than ever before and that is because the gavel of the Lord is coming down swiftly. The Lord showed me that this move of His Spirit bringing forth an unprecedented demonstration and manifestation of His justice is going with great acceleration.

The Lord will not just be dealing with 'one area' of injustice, the Lord showed me the domino effect of injustice that has taken place in the lives of believers and in the earth, the Lord is now about to demonstrate His power on a scale we have never seen before where there will be an accelerated demonstration of the JUSTICE of the Lord overturning the injustices all at once.

I heard the words "Lifelong injustices will be SUDDENLY overturned."

"There will be DAYBREAK DEMONSTRATIONS of My justice" – when the Lord spoke these words the sense surrounded me so strongly of MAJOR injustices in the lives of believers and in the earth being SUDDENLY overturned in a day. These major demonstrations of His power to overturn major injustices is going to restore the fear of God in the church and cause the earth to tremble at the Majesty and power of God. The Lord is going to demonstrate in powerful ways that He is the One who sits on high, and He is the name above all names. He is the Mighty Victor.

I AM LAUGHING AT INJUSTICE AND WILL RELEASE THE GREATEST JOY MY PEOPLE HAVE EVER KNOWN IN THE AREAS WHERE THE INJUSTICE STOLE

"The One who rules in heaven laughs. The Lord scoffs at them." (Psalm 2:4)

There is going to be mighty demonstrations of the justice and dealings of the Lord against those who stand against the Lord and breed injustice. There will be a mighty demonstration of His power and His justice that will usher in the greatest demonstration of the fear of God that has ever been seen. The Lord is going to demonstrate His power that no one stands against the Lord Almighty. He is the God of life, the God of justice, the God of hope, the God of freedom and He is the God who is the defender.

The Lord showed me that there are MANY in the body of Christ who have been dealing with great injustice that has been caused to them from fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.

The Lord showed me how He has been drawing these ones close to His heart and leading them deeper into Luke 6:28 "Bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you, to the one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak, do not withhold tunic either." But many have been in the spirit living under and being affected by the "injustice" and the Lord now coming in as the Mighty Defender to deliver His people from these affects.

"The Lord is your mighty defender, perfect and just in all His ways, your God is faithful and true; he does what is right and fair" (Deuteronomy 32:4 – GNT)

The Lord is coming and standing in the injustice that was caused and laughing at the injustice. As the Lord laughed over the injustice, His laugh was a laugh of victory. I could feel the Lord's compassion and love for what His people had walked through injustice and in the pain, but at the same time His laugh was SO LOUD that it filled me with joy. His laugh declared "The enemy thought he could stop you and steal from you in this injustice, but I am bringing you into a land of harvest like you have never known.

I am moving powerfully in your midst now to bring forth the greatest overturning of injustice in your life. I am releasing My justice over the injustice that was caused to you and I am bringing forth a TENFOLD RESTORATION and a DOUBLE PORTION of JOY! I am establishing My government in your midst, and you will now be set free from the shackles of this injustice, and you will RUN into all I have for you and know joy like you have never seen before."

His voice continued to surround me: "I am turning the page on injustice."

I then saw a very large book in heaven and the page is being turned and on the new page was the gavel of the Lord and the strategies of the Lord to bring forth His justice upon the earth.

DIVINE INTEL TO OVERTURN INJUSTICE

In this vision I saw Jesus standing over this book and He spoke:

"Come and see."

I watched as many in the body of Christ heard His invitation and began to position themselves in that place of intimacy with Him to hear and see the divine strategies that He is implementing in their lives and in the earth to see the injustices overturned.

The sense surrounded me that not only was the Lord about to demonstrate His power in an unprecedented way in the lives of believers and in the earth but there was also an invitation upon the Church right now to position themselves close to His heart to receive the divine intel of heaven in specific strategies to pray, to decree, to implement, to build that will partner with Him to see these injustices overturned.

It was the place of the people of God taking their place in governing like never before. It was the place of the people of God being awoken to their authority.

The vision then shifted and Jesus turned to the Lion of Judah and He opened His mouth, and He began to roar. As He roared and those positioned close to His heart and in the place of receiving what was written in this book in heaven, they began to ROAR. There was a SYNCHRONISED ROAR that was being released into the earth and as I listened closely I heard the sound in the ROAR was "I AM CHANGING HISTORY!!!!!!!"

This declaration was coming from the mouth of God that He was changing history in the lives of His people and in the earth. What has been will no longer be. The injustices will no longer remain. But then what struck me was the roar of "I AM CHANGING HISTORY" was flowing as a declaration from the people of God too.

In the partnering with Him in how He is changing history in the lives of believers and in the earth, the people of God were being positioned in Him to OVERTURN and to CHANGE AND SHAPE HISTORY like never before.

That is what is at stake! That is what is happening! God is OVERTURNING and He is CHANGING and SHAPING HISTORY and bringing down these injustices that have raised themselves up against the plans of God in the earth.

The battle for many has been over them taking their place with the Lord to see these injustices overturned by the power of the Spirit. This is where everything changes. The urgency of the hour is loud. It is critical that we as God's people are living close to His heart and listening to His voice and stewarding well that which He is asking of us because where He invites you and I to partner with Him to see these injustices personally and in the earth, overturned, is the place in this new era where HISTORY CHANGES and you get to be part of it.

Shevat 9, 5784: Friday January 19, 2024

Nathan French: "Open Doors in 2024:
The Process Begins for the Big Wins!"
Open Doors, Shakings, and Change

"I am so eager to see My people walk through the door. 2024 is about open doors." The Lord says, "I am opening the doors that no man can shut. There will be a changing of the guard. The Church is being shaken around the world for the benefit of My people. I will no longer allow the form that denies the power. For some people, I am changing the assignment so that I can maximize the impact. For others, I will fill them with a new clarity and focus. Those who suffered injustice will be brought swift justice. Hidden sin will continue to be exposed so that purification can take place. The government is on My shoulders, and I am throwing down the impostors who put themselves in high places.

A Wealth Release and Blessings

"There is a wealth release for the Body of Christ that desires to do My will. I will not fund rebellion. Only the enemy funds rebellion and he does so for those who are willing to sell their soul to the dark side. I paid the highest price for every surrendered soul to be whole and saved. I receive all who will come. My blessing in this season will be fully upon those who go after the harvest and who send harvesters into the ripe fields.

The Awakening Is Here

"The awakening is here; it's time to awaken the planet. Many strategic events will take place to prepare My Body, the Church, to rise and shine, full of power and truth, walking in the fullness of My love. This is what was prophesied, and it is playing out like a divine movie before your eyes. It shall be fulfilled."

An Open Door of Total Redemption

The Lord also said to me the other morning, "2024 is the year of the open door. There is an open door to give entrance to all who will come in to receive what I paid for: total redemption.

Not all will come, but those who come must leave the past behind, coming into the Holy of Holies.

A Restoration of the Nation

"I am restoring this nation and working with leaders who are willing to fight the good fight of faith. I am raising up and will continue to raise up leaders who will accomplish My purpose.

"Those who reverentially fear Me shall yield to My voice and be empowered to act out their part in carrying out My purpose. Some leaders will be removed, some benched in discipline, and some even openly rebuked. Some will repent and be restored, and some who weren't right will get right, just as some who were right will become evil by choice. Because of the lust of their eyes and the pride of their hearts in selfishness and greed... they will be led away. Those who endure to the end shall be saved."

Trump and the Year of Vindication and Validation

Regarding Trump, this is the year for vindication and validation. Clarity will come where there has been confusion. The truth will come out on a grand scale, and integrity will be restored to the voting system. New special teams will be formed to move in the power of God within our government at the highest level. The process begins for the big wins.

Shevat 10, 5784: Saturday January 20, 2024

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'ASCEND INTO YOUR AUTHORITY'

By Lana Vawser Ministries

Recently, the Lord showed me many in the body of Christ who have been feeling overwhelmed by warfare they have been facing. I saw many being tormented by a heavy thick fog which you could not see through.

This fog was so thick not only was visibility completely hindered but this thick fog came with such a weight, such a heaviness that left many feeling so despaired and many were even in a place of feeling distraught.

As I leaned in and listened to the Lord I heard the Lord say:

'Ascend into your authority.'

Immediately the sense surrounded me that we are ALREADY seated in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6) and right now the Lord is awakening His people to the truth of their authority. He is releasing heavenly strategy and divine intel for prayer and intercession to cause them to ascend out of the heaviness, out of the confusion and into the authority that is already theirs in Christ.

I heard the Lord say:

'Pick up your sword! Pick up your sword! Pick up your sword!'

As soon as I heard the Lord say that, I started to hear the sound of a lullaby playing, but this lullaby was not a beautiful lullaby that you would sing to a baby to get the baby to sleep, this was a demonic lullaby to bring forth a slumber, a weariness, a despair that would see many feeling like, 'This is too hard, I give up, I can't keep enduring this, I am not going to make it.'

The Lord spoke again:

'The enemy is trying to cause such weariness in My people through his onslaught of opposition and attack, but I say unto you, that the enemy is defeated. I say unto you, PICK UP YOUR SWORD! Do not tolerate, listen to, entertain or embrace the lullaby that the enemy is singing to you through weariness.

'The key to picking up your sword is HIGH PRAISE! The enemy is trying to bring a slumber against many in this hour, where the key to arising and picking up your sword of authority is through HIGH PRAISE. Right now, the enemy is guarding the gates. He is guarding gates of thresholds of destiny and birthing that I have My people standing IN right now. He is guarding the gates, and there is an assignment to attempt to cause many of My people who are in a very significant destiny and kairos time, to give up and go to sleep: but I say unto you LIFT UP YOUR VOICE IN HIGH PRAISE! Lift up your VOICE and pick up your sword and STAND. For as you lift up your voice in high praise you shall see the fog lift.

The fog of confusion that the enemy has brought against many of you to not only steal your visibility but bring a heaviness upon you that is attempting to lure you into despair, this fog will be BROKEN AS YOU PRAISE.

'I am bringing My people up higher! I am bringing My people up higher into the revelation of their seated place, to begin to live on the OFFENCE rather than on the DEFENCE. There are many of you who have been living on the defense for MANY years.

There are many of you who have been living in a state of "fight or flight" for many years, and I say unto you, HERE COMES MY HEALING WIND! Here comes My HEALING WIND!! For as you lift up your voice to Me in praise, as you lift up a sacrifice of praise and declare My greatness, oh how you shall see the alignment and healing that shall flow supernaturally into every part of you.

'There is a battle over your voice. The enemy is trying to steal your voice, but lift UP your voice in praise, ascend in praise, for I am bringing My people up higher to a place of learning to live ABOVE the warfare they have endured and live ABOVE the onslaught of the enemy and live FROM the place of overcoming, strength and warfare.'

'Many of you have felt like your clarity has been stolen by a whirlwind of confusion. Make no mistake, My people, this is an attack of witchcraft. This is NOT you. Many of you have been feeling like you're losing your mind, many of you have felt like you are going crazy — this is NOT you. There is a demonic assignment against you to STOP YOU arising, stop you moving forward, stop you moving into the greater realms of strategic prayer and intercession and heavenly revelation for the days to come: to attempt to stop you from coming deeper and higher into the revelation and wisdom and understanding of what it means to govern with Me. The enemy has come thick and fast with confusion because I am releasing heavenly WISDOM, STRATEGY, DIVINE INTEL AND INSIGHT on a level you have not experienced before.

'Pick up the weapon of Communion. Lift up the power of My broken body and shed blood over your lives and over your homes. Lift up your voice in HIGH PRAISE for what I HAVE DONE and what HAS BEEN DONE. My precious people, listen to Me: this attack has ALREADY been disarmed, this attack has ALREADY been defeated, this onslaught against you has ALREADY been overcome, by My shed blood and My broken body. STAND TALL in ME, knowing that you are MORE THAN CONQUERORS.

Where confusion has come thick and heavy, I am baptizing you afresh in the revelation of the POWER OF COMMUNION and the POWER of My broken body and shed blood. IT IS TIME TO OVERCOME! IT IS TIME TO OVERCOME!

'Many of you have been saying to Me, "Lord, I cannot go into 2024 like this, there must be a shift, I am so weary." I say unto you, "A WATERFALL AWAITS YOU!!!!" As you lift up high praise, as you take Communion, and ascend further into the revelation of who you are in Me and who I AM in you, watch the waterfall of My POWER and REVELATION wash things off you. Not only will these attacks and much of what has been trying to hold you back, wash off of you, you will be filled to afresh and catapulted into a series of encounters with Me, that will bring great transformation, clarity and insight that is deeper, clearer, and further than you have seen, in Me.

'The enemy has come with such fog to hinder clarity and now as you ascend in high praise, I will BAPTISE YOU AFRESH IN DISCERNMENT. I am raising up a people who are ascending My mountain with clean hands and pure hearts (Psalm 24) in worship and praise, with heavenly discernment that they have not walked in before.

'I am turning the page. It's a new day! I am turning the page as you ascend in HIGH PRAISE. I am breaking off the chaos. I am breaking off the assault. I am releasing MY peace that is yours, in Me — as you rest in Me, the prince of peace. Arise. Arise into discernment, revelation and truth. Many of you are about to see how things REALLY look, for the enemy has been lying to you in so many areas, but I say unto you: LOOK AGAIN as you ascend in high praise, LOOK AGAIN at these areas and you shall see things are not as they appear to be. The enemy has been using smoke and mirrors to hinder you — and for many of you, cause you to give up — but I say unto you, enter into a season of a whole new level of discernment and panoramic vision in Me: to live truly as the overcomer and conqueror I have created you to be. ARISE AND ASCEND!'

Shevat 11, 5784: Sunday January 21, 2024

The Reset Season by Tim Sheets

Worldview is so important right now. Challenges to our Christian faith are rising, and our view needs to be set in alignment with God's Word and His perspective. Psalm 31:15 reminds us that our times are in God's hands. A few weeks ago, during our Sunday service, Holy Spirit began to move in a different way, and prophetic words, declarations and songs were released.

The following is a word from that morning (December 3, 2023):

"Holy Spirit says to the church of the King, look into the spirit realm, and you will now see the bringing forth of the reset you have asked for. For as the world declares and celebrates the birth of the King, I tell you this day, the birth of His Kingdom will rise in waves of glory. History was changed in Bethlehem during the times of the King's birth. Those were desperate times, but heaven moved. Lucifer, though he tried, could not stop it. Governments also tried, but they could not stop it. The coming of the Deliverer could not be stopped.

"The reset you have called for is being birthed in this season. You will hear the shout of the King rising from the land. It is the cry of the mighty Deliverer as He births the greatest move of His Kingdom. For as He came in infancy to birth a Kingdom, He now comes as the resurrected King of glory to activate another release of His Kingdom throughout the earth.

"At the time of His birth, years of silence were broken by a prophetic unction that came forth, and joy came into the world, announced by angels. The Lord says, on this day also, the angels are announcing a new joy into the earth. Glory will begin to roll as billowing clouds, one after the other, to bring the reset you have called for.

"And even as dreams came and instructed in the ancient times of the King's birth, the atmosphere of the Kingdom will again spawn dreams throughout the land. Strategy dreams will now be downloaded as the reset begins to roll. Strategies from dreams will be activated and begin to reset, to change things supernaturally, and break the oppression of governments.

"Holy Spirit says, just as the shepherds, Joseph, and those in the narrative of the King's birth were anointed to dream, I will do so again. I will begin to release millions of dreams to prodigals. They will dream of destiny and purpose, dreaming the King's dream. Your prodigals are going to dream dreams, and in those dreams, they will rise up and say, 'This is what I must do, and this is where I must go.' Dreams that unlock destinies and change lives. Dreams that end addictions, and cancel demonic assignments on their lives, for I will activate within them dreams of their God. And as prodigals rise to take their place, you will see the birthing of that wave of the reset begin to roll through the land.

"Evangelists are arising on college campuses. They will preach and declare the Word of Almighty God. The passionate ones will be powerfully anointed. I will confirm My Word with signs, wonders, and miracles. For I have a harvest that I will reach. I will put the 'breaker anointing' upon young men and women, and they will walk the campuses declaring, 'This is the way; walk in it.' With the drawing power, the conviction of My presence and Kingdom, that will invade campuses, I will reach into the hearts of those who are bound, lost, and drifting with aimless mindsets. I will draw them to their purpose.

"For I say to you deep will call to deep within them. I will call to the deepest parts of their inner nature. I will call to the dreams and purpose I have put into them, which have been buried by lies and deception. Now, says the Lord, the anointing that breaks those yokes is being released. Revival will roll throughout college campuses.

Great prophets will arise. You will begin to hear prophetic words coming from college campuses. You will understand that this is a day like no other. I said My young men would see visions, and I meant it. I said My handmaids will receive the power and ministry of the Holy Spirit to declare what I say, and I meant it. I said your old men would dream dreams and that I would fill all flesh with My Spirit. I meant it.

"I am moving, says the Lord, in ways I have declared to you by prophetic utterance. My Word will not return to Me empty; the assignments in those words will activate. Even at this moment and throughout this season, beginning now and into 2024, says the Lord, those prophetic words and assignments will activate, creating their fullness.

"I will supernaturally shift things in the earthly realm. Shifts I create in governments will cause the world to wonder and say, 'I never saw this coming.' You will see a great revival in Muslim communities. They too, will begin to dream from My Spirit. Sauls will become Paul's. You are moving into a new time, says the Lord that I have ordained.

"I call to My Ekklesia to rise in faith and begin to walk with Me at a new level, declaring what I say and moving into the new. For the shaking I promised has come. The fierce war season I promised has come. And now, the birthing of the reset will roll throughout your nation and the nations, for I am working to change and reset.

"You will begin to see visible signs and workings of this, as I release a strategy within the Ekklesia. For the church will shift from declarations of 'this will be,' to declarations of 'this is that.' You will declare, 'This is that which was spoken by Holy Spirit. This is that which was spoken by the King. This is that which was spoken by the Father.' You WILL move into the 'this is that' moment, says the Lord. I am the God of eternity, and I am the God of now. My Word will not return void."

The Lord will be seen as the God of NOW! This is the time when the King rises in His rule, in His Kingdom's jurisdiction, in all the world. His Kingdom has no end, and it will not be limited. The reset has begun.

Pray with me:

Lord, we align our faith with what You have said, with the shift You have announced. We ask You to move as You desire and in the ways You have ordained. Move at levels that amaze us. We will walk and work with You, in faith and confidence, and You will do exactly as You have said.

We declare: "No limitations to this move of the King! Neither nations, governments, rulers, false religions, nor demonic principalities will stop it. The ideologies propagated on college campuses will not stop this move. Miracles, healings, and deliverances will occur throughout the land; the hand of God will be seen. Prodigals will receive dreams, hear Holy Spirit, return to God, and be transformed. They will be passionate lovers of God and His Word, filled with Holy Spirit, powerful evangelists, and prophetic voices. Deception, confusion, addictions, perversions, and disillusion will be broken off of them through powerful God-encounters. The glory of the Lord will roll in wave after wave. Revival, reset, freedom, signs, wonders, and great harvest will now come!"

in Jesus' Name, Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that the reset of Kingdom authority in our land now begins, and we are moving into an era of great harvest.

Shevat 12, 5784: Monday January 22, 2024

Veronika West

"The Sound of the Ancient of Days is Shaking Barren Places and Breaking Chains of Bondage"

Listen! I hear a Sound coming from the deeper realms a Sound of a Mighty Rushing, and Rumbling that is rising from the Virgin Dimensions of His Glory, His Voice is like the Sound of ten thousand Waterfalls, His Voice shall break the banks, His Voice Shall Shake the Barren places and Shatter to pieces the Chains of Bondage and Oppression

Watch and Listen!, For His Voice Thunders in the Dry Desert places, the Sound of His Voice Breaks, it Makes, it Strikes, and Shakes, and Shifts the very boundaries and foundations of the Nations of the Earth, Who's Voice and What Sound can compete with the Voice and the Sound of the Ancient of Days, the All Powerful and Majestic One. For All of Creation in Heaven and in Earth shall bow down low at the Sound of His Voice that comes in this hour to Shake the Dry and Barren places, I hear these words, "Tell My people that I AM SHAKING THE DESERT IN THIS SEASON, YES! I AM SHAKING THE BARREN PLACES THAT HAS DEFERRED HOPE AND DEPLETED MANY OF STRENGTH AND POWER, WATCH! FOR AT THE SOUND OF MY VOICE, I WILL BREAK, SHAKE, SHIFT AND LIFT THE WEIGHT OF OPPRESSION, AND THE HEAVY YOKE UPON THEIR NECKS SHALL BE BROKEN, AT THE SOUND OF MY VOICE CHAINS WILL BE SHATTERED AND IRON FETTERS UPON THEIR FEET WILL BE REMOVED.

LISTEN FOR THE SOUND OF DISTINCTION SHALL GO FORTH TO AWAKEN THE DEEP SLEEPERS, AND THE SEED OF DESTINY THAT HAS LAID DORMANT AND GOING TO WASTE IN THE DRY AND HOSTILE GROUND SHALL SUDDENLY BURST FORTH

FOR NO LONGER WILL MY PEOPLE WALK IN THE SPIRIT OF FEAR, AND TIMIDITY, NO LONGER WILL THEY LISTEN AND PAY ATTENTION TO THE LIES OF THE ENEMY THAT HAVE INFILTRATED AND SATURATED THE AIRWAVES, FOR EVEN NOW THE TUNING FORK OF HEAVEN SHALL FALL UPON THE EARS OF MY ELECT AND THAT WHICH ONCE BROUGHT A DISTORTION OF SOUND AND A DEMONIC STATIC TO THEIR GIFT OF DISCERNMENT SHALL NOW BE RESYNCHRONISED AND RECALIBRATED TO THE DIVINE FREQUENCIES AND RYTHMS OF MY GLORY AND REVELATION.

WATCH, AS MUSICAL NOTES FROM THE DEEPER REALMS OF THE SECRET AND HIDDEN MYSTERIES OF MY GLORY BECOME KEYS THAT WILL BRING AN UNLOCKING TO THE MUZZLE ON THE MOUTHS OF MY TRUE WORSHIPPERS IN THIS HOUR, YES! FOR THE TIME FOR THE UNSEALING OF THE ANCIENT SCROLLS THAT CARRIES THE DNA OF THE SOUND OF DISTINCTION IS NOW BEING RELEASED THAT WILL BRING A DIVINE DISMANTLING TO DEMONIC STRONGHOLDS THAT HAVE KEPT REGIONS, AND NATIONS LANDLOCKED.

I SAY, INCLINE YOUR EARS, FOR NOW THE NEW AND ANCIENT SOUNDS WILL COLLIDE AND NEW SOUNDS, AND NEW SONGS SHALL COME FORTH THAT WILL FORGE A HIGHWAY OF HOLINESS FOR THE BIRTHING OF A NEW KINGDOM MOVEMENT IN THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH.

WATCH! FOR AT THE SOUND OF MY VOICE MANY WILL BEGIN TO AWAKE, ARISE AND ADVANCE IN GREATER POWER AND KINGDOM AUTHORITY IN THE EARTH, FOR I AM THE LORD THAT BLESSES MY PEOPLE WITH STRENGTH, PEACE AND PROSPERITY, I AM THE LORD THAT THUNDERS OVER THE MIGHTY WATERS, WHO CAN STAND AGAINST ME AND LIVE?", says God.

PSALMS 29:1-11

Ascribe to the LORD, O mighty ones, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength. Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name; worship the LORD in the splendor of His Holiness. The voice of the LORD is over the WATERS, the God of glory thunders, the LORD thunders over the MIGHTY WATERS. The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is majestic. The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars, the LORD BREAKS IN PIECES the cedars of Lebanon. He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, Sirion like a young wild ox. The voice of the LORD strikes with flashes of lightning. The voice of the LORD SHAKES THE DESERT; the LORD SHAKES THE DESERT of Kadesh. The voice of the LORD twists the oaks and strips the forests bare. And in his temple all cry, "Glory!" The LORD sits enthroned OVER THE FLOOD; the LORD is enthroned as King forever. The LORD gives strength to his people, the LORD BLESSES HIS PEOPLE WITH PEACE.

Shevat 13, 5784: Tuesday January 23, 2024

Bruce & Linda Dietler – Kansas
The Student, The Fish, and Agassiz

It is amazing to consider the progressive revelation, over time, of understanding within the body of Christ of the fullness and depth of God's Word, His plan of redemption for mankind, our nature in Him and in His plan, and the numerous spiritual movements which have developed within the church world over the centuries. Even during our brief lifetimes, we have successively experienced the healing movement; the Jesus People movement; increased emphasis of teachers and the Word of Faith movement; then increased emphasis on prophets and apostles; and now revelation of having moved from the church age into the Kingdom age of influence of the body of Christ in every mountain of society worldwide. Even as the world's technology continues to advance at a seemingly ever-increasing pace, so does the revelation of God's Word to His people.

Though present day understanding of the Word of God may be greater than in the past, yet there is ever more for us to grasp – greater depths to plumb in the Word and further applications to understand as His greater glory continues to be revealed to us. To arrive at such a place, we can either sit back and wait on the Lord and His prophets for greater clarity and revelation, or we can search out His wisdom and revelation for ourselves with great diligence. The latter approach would undoubtedly please the heart of the Father, as it is consistent with what He has instructed us in 2 Timothy 2:15.

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

A wonderful essay first appeared in "Every Saturday" on April 4, 1874, under the title of "In the Laboratory with Agassiz, By a Former Pupil." It provides a powerful lesson on the necessity of painstaking observation – staring at and studying the reality before our eyes. Because the essay is quite long, I will present just a synopsis here. In the essay, a student, who has enrolled in the scientific school of natural history at Harvard with Professor Agassiz as his instructor, tells of his experience.

The professor asked the student whether he wished to study any special branch, to which he replied, he wished to be well-grounded in all departments of zoology, but to devote himself especially to insects. The professor, who seemed to be well pleased with his response, then secured a huge specimen jar from a shelf, from which he extracted a large fish. "Take this fish," said he, "and look at it; we call it a Haemulon; by and by I will ask what you have seen." With that, the professor left. Gazing at a fish did not commend itself to an ardent entomologist, and it reeked of fishy-smelling alcohol!

In ten minutes, the student had seen all that could be seen in that fish, but the professor had already left the museum. Nothing could be done but return to gazing at the fish. Half an hour passed, then an hour, then another hour; the fish began to look loathsome. He turned it over and around; looked it in the face; from behind, beneath, above, sideways, at a three-quarters view - ghastly all! The student left early for lunch.

During lunch, the professor had come and gone and was now to be gone for several hours. In desperation, the student returned to the fish. His only permitted instruments were to be his two eyes and his hands. He pushed his finger down its throat to feel how sharp its teeth were. He began to count the scales in the different rows until he was convinced that was nonsense. The thought then struck him - he would draw the fish; with surprise he began to discover new features in the creature.

Just then the professor returned, and, pleased at what he was seeing, he asked, "Well, what was it like?" The student began to rehearse what he had discovered of the parts (whose names were still unknown to him): the fringed gill arches and movable operculum; the pores of the head, fleshy lips, and lidless eyes; the lateral line, the spinous fin and forked tail; the compressed and arched body. With an air of disappointment, the professor responded, "You have not looked very carefully. You have not seen one of the most conspicuous features of the animal; look again, look again," and then he left the student to his misery.

At this point, the student was piqued. Still more of that wretched fish! But now he set himself to the task with a will and discovered one new thing after another, until he saw how just the professor's criticism had been. The afternoon passed quickly, and when, towards its close, the professor inquired, "Do you see it yet?" "No," replied the student, but I see how little I saw before." "That is next best," the professor said. "Put away your fish and go home; perhaps you will be ready with a better answer in the morning. I will examine you before you look at the fish."

Now, not only did he have to think of the fish all night, without the fish before him, but he had to give an account in the morning. The next day, the professor was anxious to hear what the student had seen. "Do you perhaps mean that the fish has symmetrical sides with paired organs?" The thoroughly pleased, "of course, of course!" repaid the wakeful hours of the previous night. When the student then asked what he should do next, the professor replied, "Oh, look at your fish!" he said, and left him again for yet another hour. He returned and heard the student's new catalogue of features. "That is good, that is good!" he repeated, "but that is not all; go on." And so, for three long days, he placed that fish before the student's eyes. "Look, look, look," was his repeated injunction.

The fourth day, a second fish of the same group was placed beside the first, and the student was told to point out the resemblances and differences between the two;

another and another followed, until the entire family lay before him, and the formerly offensive odor had become to the student a pleasant perfume!

At the end of eight months, it was almost with reluctance that the student left these fishy friends and turned, finally, to insects; but what he had gained by this outside experience he found to be of greater value than years of investigation in his favorite groups.

The student's conclusion was that this was the best entomological lesson he ever had – a lesson that extended to the details of every subsequent study; a legacy the professor left to him, as he has now left to many others, of inestimable value, which he could not buy, and with which he could not part.

Professor Agassiz's training in the method of observing facts and their orderly arrangement was ever accompanied by the urgent exhortation not to be content with them. "Facts are stupid things," he would say, "until brought into connection with some general law."

The Application

Though many of us would like to consider ourselves diligent students of the Word, after reading this essay, perhaps we should reconsider that evaluation. As we consider that long ago study of the fish as compared to our present study of the Word of God as a whole, or with even any given passage of the Bible, there are many points we must consider before we can begin to profess true and full understanding of the text.

- Who was the author, and what was his purpose in writing this?
- What is the immediate wording and common understanding of that wording?
- What is the historical and geopolitical application or context of the material?
- What are the applications of this passage to current and future times?
- What was the original language in which the passage was written?
- What are the nuances of the language and/or other suggested translations of the specific words of the text in question?
- From what root words was the text derived, and does that enhance the understanding?
- How are these same key words used in other Bible passages?
- Are there other words in the original language translated similarly into English but differing significantly in meaning?
- What other corresponding or relevant passages exist in the Bible?
- How is this same passage rendered in other translations?
- How does the passage in question relate to the broader context of the Bible, and are there other scripture passages which help to interpret it?

- What does the Lord reveal to your heart directly that He wants you to grasp?

Our list could likely be extended, but the point remains that we need to really, really “look at the fish” (in this case the Word of God), until we have extracted from it the absolute fulness of the lessons the Lord intended that we glean from it.

The student’s interest was entomology, yet the professor handed him a fish. When God or someone else “hands us a fish,” we too can learn from all such life lessons, regardless whether they are desired or appreciated at a given time, or from what quarter they might come at us. With a heart positioned toward understanding, those lessons learned can be applied to many other questions.

With the student’s decision to draw the fish, with surprise he began to discover new features in the creature. As we choose to take a new approach in studying the Word, new discoveries and ever-increasing insight might await us as well.

The professor instructed the student to “Put away your fish and go home; perhaps you will be ready with a better answer in the morning.” Perhaps at times we need to set aside our study awhile and “overnight” meditate on it until greater clarity comes. When new insights come, however, we must not conclude that is the totality of the message; we need to look, look, look some more.

By the fourth day, the student was able to discern minute variations and point out the resemblances and differences between other specimens he had never studied. Likewise, our practiced methods will be keenly ready to application on other word studies.

“Facts are stupid things,” the professor would say, “until brought into connection with some general law.” We need to make connections with the context of the fulness of the Word, rather than just accumulating factoids or trivia with no context or relevance.

My parting prayer for you, dear reader and student of the Word, is that this might be the best entomological lesson you too have ever had, and that you may extend it to the details of every subsequent Word study you undertake.

Shevat 14, 5784: Wednesday January 24, 2024

Diane Lake: "The Door of Increase: You're Going Higher!"
The Door of Hope

"There I will give her vineyards and make the Valley of Achor [troubling] to be for her a door of hope and expectation. And she shall sing there and respond as in the days of her youth and as at the time when she came up out of the land of Egypt." (Hos. 2:15 AMPC)

The Lord has continued to speak to me about doors in this Hebraic year of 5784, referenced by many prophetic voices as "the year of the open door." One door I've heard the Lord speak of recently is the door of "restoring hope"—restoring to His people the ability to dream again. This will be an important door for many to access.

You can't fully appreciate the "door of hope," referenced in Hosea 2, without understanding a bit of the backstory. Hosea, at God's request, had married a prostitute who worshiped idols. His marriage was a disaster, and the nation of Israel was not much better off.

The Valley of Achor is referenced in Joshua. The children of Israel had a tremendous victory over Jericho but went on to suffer disaster at Ai. There, Achan sinned and hid the sin, which caused God to remove His hand of blessing and protection from the nation. The place where Achan was stoned to remit the sin was called the Valley of Achor or Trouble.

In that place of overwhelming circumstance and trouble, God chose to speak to Hosea of hope and restoration—the ability to dream again.

The Key of Faith

"As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit. Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope. Even today I declare that I will restore double to you." (Zech. 9:11-12 NKJV)

The Lord might be trying to open a door of hope for you, but issues like unforgiveness and unhealed soul/spirit hurts may be hindering the blessing of God. Certain unresolved issues have to be addressed in order for the blessing to flow. An important primary key that opens the door of hope is faith, as faith allows us to forgive and love those who have acted unjustly towards us.

Going Higher: Three Areas of Increase the Lord Revealed to Me

"For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away." (Matt. 25:29 NKJV)

One recent night, I awoke several times to hear the Lord say, "Get ready for the increase that is coming." I also heard Him speak of (and dreamed about) three specific areas of increase.

The first area I saw was the sphere of influence. Those who have been found faithful in obedience to the Holy Spirit will begin to see an increase in respect and honor within their peers and associates.

The second area was territory, or reach. I saw boundaries increasing. I believe this might be geographical or a range of audience or impact and could also involve promotion.

The third area of increase the Lord revealed was Believers' displayed authority in the natural realm, as well as greater cooperation between the two—where nature and creation function and sustain man more, as God intended before the effects of sin. A simple example from Scripture might be when Elijah was fed by ravens near the stream in 1 Kings 17:2-6; whereas a sweeping example would be when the earth "helped" the woman being persecuted by the dragon, as recorded in Revelation 12:16.

Both my husband and I have had dreams in which the Lord both spoke and illustrated that His faithful are "going higher." Much like in the parable of the talents, those who hear, "Well done, good and faithful servant" (Matt. 25:14-30), can expect to go higher.

The Door of Increase – The Wealth of the Nations

"Your gates will always stand open, they will never be shut, day or night, so that people may bring you the wealth of the nations—their kings led in triumphal procession." (Isa. 60:11 NIV)

The Lord recently spoke to me about the wealth of the nations. On several occasions, I heard the Lord say, "The wealth of the nations will come to you."

According to Strong's 8179, the Hebrew word used for "gates" in Isaiah 60:11 means "opening" or "door." Before the Lord brought this passage to my attention, I'd written previously about a door of abundant, supernatural, miraculous provision opening in 5784—the year of the door.

The continual prayer from my heart in this season has been this: "Lord, open the door that no man can shut." If that's your heart also, I invite you to pray that with me. Then, with renewed hope, let's expectantly watch for the Lord to open the door of increase and wealth, that we may use it to further His Kingdom.

Shevat 15, 5784: Thursday January 25, 2024
Anne Jackson: "A Month of Heavenly Multiplication"

In the month of January, God is doing a deep inner work in people. He is pulling out deep roots of pain, rejection, fear, and pride. He is healing areas that have kept you trapped in bondage for years. He is giving you a sound mind, rooted in truth. He is providing miraculous multiplication, and He is setting people free from the bondage of debt. Lean into healing, take bold steps of faith, and allow His love to lead you into freedom and newness.

Pulling Out the Roots

"For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind." (2 Timothy 1:7)

Have you found yourself facing the same kind of struggle over and over again? Different situations, but elements that feel similar keep popping up? Perhaps it's the same painful relationship dynamic or a consistent money struggle or debt that never disappears. Or maybe you always find yourself overcommitted and burnt out.

Many times, when there's a consistent issue in our lives, or a problem that keeps recurring over and over again, it's connected to a hidden root belief or spiritual agreement. This spiritual agreement or belief gives this issue permission to keep popping up. For example, perhaps your subconscious belief/spiritual agreement is this: Money is always a struggle; I never have enough. Then anytime you make extra money, you feel the need to impulsively spend it all. Then you're suddenly in the same position – not having enough. This helps your brain validate your belief: I never have enough. As long as you keep agreeing with this belief system, it will stay and continue to run the show. Just like weeds in the garden, unless you pull out your belief systems by their roots, the negative cycles will keep returning, no matter how many times you attempt to stop them.

Right now, God is doing a deep heart work. He is pulling out deep roots that have been keeping you bound in fear, pain, lack, or loneliness. He is bringing healing to areas where you have felt stuck for a long time, and He is inviting you to go on the inner-healing journey of going after deep heart roots. This is an intentional journey of evaluating your beliefs, bringing them to the Lord, and REPLACING them with the truth. Repent of the old way of thinking. Repent simply means to change your mind [and to act on that change]. It typically takes at least 21 days to replace habits and belief systems, and 60 days to really get new beliefs ingrained in you. So don't give up just because the process of replacing lies with truth takes time. Persist in declaring the TRUTH of what God says over you and your situation.

Keeping Short Accounts

"Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: 'It is Mine to avenge; I will repay,' says the Lord. On the contrary: 'If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink...'" (Romans 12:19-20)

It's important to let go of what has happened in the past and keep short accounts. Unforgiveness is one of the most debilitating things you can experience, and it causes more damage to you than to those who have wronged you.

A while ago, I experienced a robbery at one of my rental properties. The thieves were caught and charged. At one point, I had a conversation with the probation officer who asked if I wanted restitution, to which I responded, "No." It wasn't important to me, and it would've taken up more emotional energy to hold onto the sense of bitterness/resentment than to simply release and let go. And, truly, I trust that God can repay me for what was stolen.

Likewise, God can and will repay you for what was stolen, whether physical or emotional or relational. But in order for God to fight for you, you need to stop attempting to fight for yourself. When you are attempting to hold people responsible for their wrongs, you are stepping in the way of God. Rather than hold on, forgive and let go. Forgive and move on. Set yourself free from the pain of holding on to bitterness or resentment. Release and be free.

Heavenly Multiplication

"She went and told the man of God, and he said, 'Go, sell the oil and pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left.'" (2 Kings 4:7)

In 2 Kings 4, the prophet Elisha had an encounter with a widow. She was the widow of one of the prophets who likely had trained under Elisha. She was facing extreme debt and poverty. Her situation was so bad that her creditors threatened to sell her children into slavery. Now, this was a woman who had been faithful to God. Her husband, even, was a prophet. And yet she faced a horrific situation. Unless she experienced a miracle, she was going to lose everything, including her two children, due to debt.

"So, Elisha said to her, 'What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?' And she said, 'Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil'" (2 Kings 4:2). Elisha instructed her to borrow vessels from all her neighbors, as many as she could, and to go home and pour the oil she had into the vessels. When she did, the oil multiplied and kept multiplying until she had filled all the vessels she'd gathered. When she ran out of jars, the oil stopped. Because of this, she was able to sell the oil in order to pay off her debt and save her family.

If you're in a situation where you're facing the weight of debt or a dire financial situation, God is releasing miraculous solutions. He is setting people free from the weight of poverty and debt. Come out from under the weight of your circumstance and ask God for His solutions for you. What do you already have? What's currently in your world that you could sell, multiply, or increase? Along with miraculous solutions, God is releasing entrepreneurial insight. The widow used what she had, and God multiplied it. Likewise, there is a divine partnership happening where God will bless the work of your hands. Ask Him for what faith looks like for you. Faith is accompanied by action. Is He asking you to start a business? Teach a course? Sell the clothes in your closet?

The Crowning Jewels got started because I needed to make some extra income and has turned into a ministry that has blessed thousands of women. Ask God for how you can partner with Him, because there are miracles available to you. Don't be afraid to let others into your process or ask for help (the widow asked for jars from her neighbors). Bring what you have to God and ask Him to multiply it.

Knowing Your Identity Brings Humility

"When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom." (Proverbs 11:2)

The roots of pride and fear have kept people trapped and in bondage for far too long. The sneaky thing about these roots is that they're often subtle. Fear and pride go hand-in-hand and can look like rigidity, not being open to feedback, the fear of being exposed or seen for who you truly are, fear of being wrong/unwillingness to be seen as being wrong, or the need to always do things alone.

Pride is often connected to fear and insecurity. But right now, God is setting people free from the roots of pride, the need to go it alone, and the fear of being fully known. He is lavishing His love upon people, that they may experience the joy that comes from humility and surrender. If you're afraid of getting things wrong or scared of letting people in to fully see you as you are, there's an invitation to allow yourself to be fully known.

God is showing people who they truly are in Him, and there's grace for this revelation. Ask the Lord how He sees you and what He says about you. Create declarations connected to the TRUTH of who God calls you. Ask the Lord how He sees you and what He says about you, and create declarations connected to the TRUTH of who God calls you.

Declarations:

- 1. I am aligning my beliefs to the truth of God's Word.*
- 2. God is multiplying the work of my hands.*
- 3. I forgive others as God has forgiven me.*
- 4. God has given me a sound mind.*
- 5. I see myself the way God sees me!*

Shevat 16, 5784: Friday January 26, 2024

Hank Kunneman: "The Great I Am Is Tearing Down Demonic Strongholds!"

We Are in the Season Where the Impenetrable Will Fall and Collapse!

"So, it has been," says the Spirit of the living God, "that men have come to a place – I speak of My people. For they have looked, and they have said, 'Almighty God, where are You? Where are You? Even Elijah – where is the Lord God of Elijah?'

"Is this what you think? Is this what you speak from your lips before My presence? Do you think that I have somehow ignored the injustice, the corruption, the evil, and the things that have been 'deep-stated' and seated? No," says God, "I have watched, and I have waited for this time, for this is not your season, nor is it the seasons of the earth. It is My season. Therefore, the seasons shall blend together, and you'll say it feels like spring, but then why is there summer heat and why then does it get frigid cold? Oh, it's so cold! And why does it snow in this place, and it has not snowed for decades? And why in the place where we escape the frigid cold we are freezing?"

The God of the Times and the Seasons

God says, "I'm showing you that I am the God of the times and seasons, and so for a while they will seem backwards. It will seem one month it will be this way; another month it'll be another way. It'll be that one day it will seem as though it is hot and then it is cold. How can the temperature change this greatly? And they will say, 'It is climate control. It is global warming.'"

God says, "Enough! My hand has been placed on the earth to show the earth that I am the God of the times of the seasons and the purposes that are under Heaven. And now it is My purpose; it is My time.

Therefore, I speak to you – those that are weary, those that have said, 'God, how much longer?'" The Spirit of God says, "You are just about at the place of intensity like you have not seen. Therefore, do not grow weary, do not quit, and do not cause your mouth to speak negatively.

The Impenetrable Shall Collapse

"For I say there was a time when a nation, Israel, stood before that which seemed impenetrable. And so there are some who have looked at the state, the deep state, the corruption, the evil. They have looked at two-tier justice and they have said, 'God, this will never change; we're doomed as a people.'

"Whose report do you believe? Who is your prophet, and what is the voice that speaks? I say, 'Nay.' For the walls of Jericho seemed impenetrable, and so I silenced My nation, and they were at a standstill, wondering and waiting what would happen. But then," God says, "I said to them to lift up their voice, and they began to shout, and that which looked impenetrable began to fall and collapse.

"I speak this that you may know that the same God who did this to the walls of Jericho is doing this with that which they've done to the children, that which they have done to your elections, that which they have done through your media, that which they have done in your schools, that which they have done to change what I said – this is a male, this is a female; this is holy matrimony between one man and one woman. You shall see that which they said would never change, that is impenetrable, shall collapse. It shall begin to fall in the land and in the earth," says the living God.

"And the reason that I speak this to you at this time is because the intensity of the things that I'll do at the power of not the might of man or your armies, but the power of My hand.

"You'll say, 'God, what shall You do?'

"I will expose, expose, expose! But not just that," God says. "I will bring to justice the truly guilty. And I will reset, I will bring a divine reversal, and I'll reorder the earth. For who is man that says it shall be their world order?" God says, "Not yet, not so. I shall reorder the earth My way," says the living God. "Watch.

"Do Not Fear"

"Therefore, as I said to Joshua, I speak this word to you: Do not fear.

"You say, 'I do not fear.'"

God says, "I speak this to you ahead of time, because of the intensity of what shall arise upon the earth. Hell shall react and will seek to create chaos upon the left. And they will scatter, and they will scurry, and they'll say, 'Who will lead us now? We must have someone that can lead us.'"

And God says, "You will be found without one who shall be found worthy. Intensity shall arise, as they will try to interrupt your process of election." But God says, "I am the disruptor, and there is a disruption that is coming that I have held, and I have waited for the right time. And so I shall have My way, that men shall know that this was not the might or the power of man's cyber ability, but it is the strength of My finger.

"Did you notice I did not say hand?" says the living God. "I said My finger. For I could inhale and shake the earth. I could exhale and remove [them] quickly from their seats of pride. But I shall move My finger, because My finger is My justice, and My finger is what shall cause the powers of Hell to tremble. So, there will be darkness, there will be chaos, there will be a scrambling, and there will be confusion, and there will be great fear to try to once again convince you that there is something that has arisen – that you must now shut down, even to the point where you now must stay in your homes. And they will seek to lengthen the amount of time of those who are contaminated."

But God says, "Do you really want to make Me laugh? Because there is the intensity of My hand, that which they do shall backfire. Why shall it backfire? Because you look to a man?" The Spirit of God says, "No. Look to Me. For there is something in the earth that you have forgotten. It is the greatest entity. It is the Spirit of God. He is the Spirit of truth, and His truth – the Spirit of truth, His very being, His essence – will not be stopped, will not be silenced, and will not be challenged.

"Therefore, pay attention to the intensity. The earth will not be able to handle the intensity of My finger and the might of My Spirit that shall arise at this time. Therefore, the mountains will shake and be removed; they'll blow their tongues. And there will be smoke that will fill the air, and there will be shaking of soil, and the floodwaters will arise, and ice will jam and then break loose.

"You say, 'I'm afraid.'"

God says, "The earth cannot handle the measure of what I'm bringing of My justice, yet you are afraid.

"Things will become wet.

"This snow is so wet. It is so heavy. It is so much. Why do we have to suffer?"

God says, "I dealt with wicked kings when it snowed in Salman, and there is much wickedness that demands a purity and a purging. And so I will use the elements and they will respond.

North America the Great

"Do not be afraid, because if you could see the resetting and the reversal and the reordering of what My plan is, you would look to North America. I speak of Canada; I speak of you, United States, and I speak of you, Mexico. They are afraid.

"Oh, there is one waiting in the wings who calls upon My name, and there is one, even though the fires have tried to remove him. They will say, 'Who will lead us now?' And he will be standing not by the power of man, but by the preservation and the plan of My hand. He will stand again."

And God says, "Listen to Me. North America, you shall be known as North America the Great. I even speak of Canada, for the stench that you have become shall not be the smell, the aroma, of your future. As I set things in order [in] Canada, in North America, the United States, and I do My justice in Mexico, I will clean and sweep through your parliaments, the governments, and I will raise up the new. And, North America, you shall be called North America the Great. And there shall be an ally that shall arise between North America, Canada, United States, and Mexico – a bond, a strength, a new America, a new North America.

"Pay attention as the intensity of the earth increases. Hell shall seek to respond and raise up a two-headed snake that shall try to strike Israel. You are no match, Iran, and you are no match, North Korea. Your head shall be cut down."

This Is Not the Time for the War to End All Things:
The Harshness of This Season Will Not Last

From October 15, 2023, where the Spirit of God declared that His Spirit is restraining the plans of the enemy, and the Lord is raising up a generation of anointed youth as part of His promised inheritance for Jesus.

Yes, there will be wars and rumors of wars, and darkness will arise, but God is preserving the nations of this earth with the power of His glory to bring about a divine reset that will cause the masses to be filled with joy and laughter at the manifestation of His goodness!

Continue to look up and fix your eyes on the promises of God, and do not be in fear based on what things may appear to look like in this current time. The harshness of this season will not last!

Shevat 17, 5784: Saturday January 27, 2024

Veronika West

2024, THE YEAR THE WARRIORS WILL ARISE, SHINE, ROAR AND REIGN; 2024 IS A DOOR THAT LEADS TO A GREATER MANIFESTATION OF KINGDOM
REFORMATION AND DIVINE RESTORE IN THE MIDST OF A GREATER AWAKENING, HARVEST AND WAR.

ARISE WARRIORS, ITS TIME TO SHINE, ROAR AND REIGN IN 2024!!

I hear the Spirit say, "Call My people to the Altar in Repentance, Call them to the place of Fire and Power, for this is a critical and strategic hour, there is no time to waste, LISTEN! For there is a sound of celebration in the camp of the enemy as he anticipates greater victories, But Nay! I say, For I have prepared a Remnant FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS, a Holy and Set Apart people, Bold, Courageous and Fearless in the face of the enemy, for they have taken hold of the horns of the Altar, and the sound of their cries in True repentance have filled the Court Room of Heaven, their tears have filled the golden bowls, and their prayers day and night have filled My nostrils like a sweet-smelling perfume.

Ha! Now WATCH!..As the weight of their True Repentance and Worship begins to shift the scales of Justice and Righteousness, for there is coming a sudden and divine tipping point that shall thwart the works of the Kingdom of darkness, for the I tell you the Truth, the sound of the celebrations of the enemy shall soon be silenced by the sound of the Roar of the Lion of Judah, have I not said that the War has already been fought and WON? for the enemy was defeated before even one shot was fired, before even one sword was drawn, before even one shield was lifted!!!, Beloved, Have I not put within you the Power to Prevail against your enemies that relentlessly pursue you, have I not put within you the strength to stand steadfast and immovable in the face of every satanic and demonic onslaught that comes against you.

FEAR NOT! As you give yourself fully to the work of My Kingdom you shall STAND FIRM AND SEE THE SALVATION OF THE LORD accomplished for you, Now Lay hold of these truths My Overcoming One's, for its vital to the Victory being made manifest in the midst of you, As you Stay seated with Me in Heavenly places, Satan will surely loose the battle in earthly places, for these struggles are not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realm.

Always Remember My Fearless Warriors, Satan can only take what he has been given a legal right to take, for when the Altars are neglected and broken down, the devourer is given full access to take ground, occupy territory, and establish his Kingdom of destruction in the land, Satan is the destroyer, and a relentless tormenter, an old and treacherous adversary that HATES My Righteous and Redeemed Ones.

Day and Night the devourer sets traps and digs deep ditches for the feet of the Saints, quietly and cunningly he creeps in the shadows watching and waiting for those that have become isolated and cut off from the rest of the Body, and Like a Lion driven and cast out from among the Pride, Satan knows that his strength is no match against those that have laid claim to the Authority of the King of Heaven and Earth.

SO, ARISE WARRIORS ITS TIME SHINE, ROAR AND REIGN IN 2024,

It's time to Drive him out and subdue his Earthly Kingdoms and Reign Victorious in the Kingdom of Heaven, Lift up your voices like the sound of many loud Trumpets, and LET THE BATTLE CRY OF VICTORY GO FORTH, AND WATCH AS THE WALLS COMING CRASHING DOWN.

I say, Rise up ITS TIME, for I have Crowned you as Kings and High Priests that you should sit upon the Throne to share in My Authority and Power so that My Glory may be seen in all the Earth, this is my Greatest Joy Beloved that we may be Co-laborers together, going forth into the Nations to dismantle strongholds and dethrone the Princes of Darkness, surely I have invested everything that I have and all that I am, IN YOU, so that the inheritance I have promised you shall not be lost nor stolen.

SO TAKE IT NOW, You don't have to Wait, THE WEALTH OF THE NATIONS BELONG TO YOU, As you Reign in Me and I Reign in you, My Glory shall be made manifest in the Earth, and the Light of My SON shall diminish the darkness and My Will be done and My Kingdom will come on Earth as it is in Heaven"!!!

ARISE OH MIGHTY WARRIORS RULE REIGN AND LAY CLAIM TO YOUR KINGDOM INHERITANCE..!!

Shevat 18, 5784: Sunday January 28, 2024

Terry Friesen: The Battle is the Lord's

Today's post is a long one and a hard one to write. It is hard to sometimes articulate spiritual happenings in words and reduce them to a place of understanding, but I have attempted to do that today.

We are in a most unusual season. For roughly 30 years I have walked in prophetic intercession and the vast majority of that time Holy Spirit has been leading me, showing me how to overcome, how to walk in or advocate for the victory of others in the place of prayer. I remember when this first started and some of the "burdens" I felt seemed to last for months "until" victory and the need was resolved by some aspect of Christ's redemptive power.

In time, these victories started to accelerate and in more recent years He has led me through brick walls in minutes versus the months they used to take. It has been a great journey of understanding His ways and being transformed in the process. In hindsight I wonder who changed more, those who were the object of my intercession or myself. Our Lord never leaves us untouched.

In fact, the journeys we find ourselves on are as much about being transformed into His image as they are overcoming the world and releasing His victory. This season has been no different. As we enter times of greater shaking and ultimately a transition into a new era of faith, I have also noticed that the nature of the battle we are in is also changing. Not in every case, but in some cases.

On March 8th of 2023 I had an intercessory dream and subsequent time of prayer, which is copied from my journal below. Included with the dream below is the thought process I walked through in my prayer time after the dream – I have also chosen to include this as it reveals my recalibration towards truth in the moments that followed the dream. The dream was so overwhelming and impacting that I needed a couple hours to reorient myself to my true foundation in Christ.

(The time is 1:25 am and I am up because the level of the glory of God on and around me is intense, and at the same time the battle is intense. I had a dream whereby I was in the middle of a very long rope bridge. This bridge was stretched between 2 mountain passes but it was so misty and foggy I could not see either side.

In the dream I was suspended between two points trying to slowly make my way across. In the dream I remember being confronted with some family realities and I didn't know what to do. I felt the circumstances posed a risk to my family, or a family. Somehow 2 unrelated families and 2 somewhat unrelated sets of circumstances were at play. There seemed to be such a great risk and there were no obvious answers within grasp to mitigate the risk. This battle was manifested in the form of a "strongman" opposing me on the bridge. This entity was formidable and no matter what I did I could not seem to move him or get around him. In the dream I felt something must be done. The more I wrestled the "strongman" on the bridge the more anger and bitterness seemed to be drawn up within me.

Not knowing what to do, but feeling the internal pressure to do something, I chose to jump over the side of the rope bridge into nothingness believing this act would satisfy the need for some sacrifice, which in turn would release the family from some form of risk.

As I was falling, I remembered realizing I was jumping into the unknown and that I would have to face whatever reality I would encounter. As I fell it was as if I was falling into a dark abyss, and I could feel the darkness engulf me, and more accurately I could feel a dark figure engulf me. It wrapped its arms around me as to engulf me and consume me, though I did not disappear in its grip. I was seeking to find peace, or hold on to a reality of peace, and then I awoke.

As I write, I am awake now and I am trying to discern what truth looks like. I feel the glory of God around me, so much so I am heating up, but at the same time I can feel the contention in the spirit, in and around me from this dark figure in the abyss below the bridge. It is probably the most disorienting darkness I've ever felt. The glory of God is encircling me AND I can hear the arguments and the enemy's voice circling me, but it isn't as threatening as what I feel inside. I can now feel blackness, bitterness, and almost a form of death inside. So much so it is hard to breath. It seems as though the Lord has given me His glory to steady me and help me recognize what has taken place and where I am in the midst of this dream environment. But the other, dark elements are also very real at this moment.

When I feel the black and bitterness inside, I try to control myself in an effort to avoid breathing in the stench. It appears I am unable to demand this darkness to leave, though I'd like that. Somehow self-preservation and an internal effort to control shortcut my attempt to deliver myself of this level of evil.

I can't help but wonder about the dream. Maybe I didn't have to jump. Didn't Christ pay for my sin, and the family's needs, so why would I need to jump into black darkness when He already did? I know I am to follow Christ, even to death, but this somehow seems like an unrighteous act, or an act based on lies not truth. Surely the price Christ paid was sufficient.

I will declare that I didn't need to jump, though I should be willing to give my life to the point of death for the sake of my King and my family. But Christ died so that we could be free from the curse and the demands of the enemy. Christ did not die so that I would also need to provide penance. His death was enough, and I can therefore put the stock of my faith in what He did, not in what I need to do.

Going back to this dry bitterness I feel. Maybe the Father can love it out of me rather than it needs to be removed as result of my sacrificial death. By focusing on sacrifice, I am confusing 2 different truths. Deliverance and life come from Christ and nothing more, nothing less. He bought it, paid for it, done. Obedience enters me into His training for reigning program, but this is different than salvation. This path will contain elements that bring about death of the old man and reveal resurrection life in me, but I should not confuse my obedience or sacrifice as the reason for the deliverance or the victory. These things are in Christ and Him alone.)

After several hours I re-grounded myself on the finished work of Christ, the mist/fog of the circumstances in the dream and the abyss left me. I was back in a place of freedom, and I knew it. I later came to realize this event paralleled an intercessory assignment.

I've had several months to contemplate this dream and the events of the days surrounding this dream. In Dec of 2023 and now early in Jan 2024, I have found myself again on what seems to be a rope bridge suspended between 2 hard to define places. I am being opposed by another strongman and seem unable to go through him or around him.

In this case, Christ Himself has led me to this place of battle so unlike the earlier dream, I am focused on Him rather than the strongman.

When I reflect on the original dream, and the choices made, I felt as though I had no option, but in reality, I did have an option, but it wasn't one I wanted. The option I didn't want to consider was to be patient and persistent beyond the anxiety of my circumstances and how I interpreted them. I could have simply, patiently persisted in the battle trusting the Father for the outcome and trusting Him to deliver me and this family in His time.

This wasn't an option I wanted, because in the dream, the longer I battled this strongman, the more I found bitterness being drawn out of me and my patience was being tested. Remember at the beginning of the post I mentioned that our transformation is just as important as overcoming the battle. Yes, I was to overcome, but the path or journey I found myself on also served to expose my heart and some deep-seated elements of pride and fear that needed to be removed. By patiently and persistently engaging the battle, and patiently and persistently trusting the Father's deliverance in His time, those elements in me that weren't so patient were being exposed so that I could be free of them.

Let's be clear, He wants us free of pride and fear, and every other aspect of our old nature. We focus on Christ and the new life He has given us but at the same time we are aware of things that must go as they are revealed. It is not uncommon for things of the old nature to leave and show themselves in their leaving. They are revealed in us so we can simply agree with Christ, this old man is dead, I accept His free gift of salvation and redemption so they must go. Often, we "feel" them in their going and the answer is simply to remain focused on Christ until He fills our full view. Our enemy will try to get us to look at our old man, even as these elements are leaving, in an effort to convince us to hold on, but don't. Let them go and focus on the new life in Christ that fills the place just vacated.

Let's fast forward to right now. Yesterday I was praying about the opposition and my recent inability to proceed. I also prayed about my processing, and any unwanted elements in my soul that are clouding my perspective. In this place the Lord directed me to 2 Kings 18:17 – 19:37. I will abbreviate the story. In this account Jerusalem was surrounded by the Assyrian King Sennacherib who had decimated the countryside and all the smaller villages. He was now laying siege to Jerusalem, and the Israelites came to a place where in the natural they had no hope left and it just appeared to be a matter of time before the Assyrians would overrun Jerusalem.

This was during the time of Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah. They both sought the Lord and after much time and brokenness on the part of Hezekiah, the prophet Isaiah was given a word of the Assyrian King's demise. At the end of the siege in chapter 19:35 we see that in the night an angel of the Lord went out and put to death 185K Assyrian soldiers, so the camp withdrew, and Jerusalem was delivered.

It was the Lord who delivered Jerusalem not the actions of the Israelites, not even faith based or obedient actions. Yes, Isaiah's word declared the victory, but this came after a long time of persistently and patiently seeking the lord's deliverance, and after Hezekiah's complete abandonment and focus on the Lord.

2 Kings 19:15-19. ¹⁵ And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: "LORD, the God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁶ Give ear, LORD, and hear; open your eyes, LORD, and see; listen to the words Sennacherib has sent to ridicule the living God.

17 "It is true, LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste these nations and their lands. 18 They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by human hands. 19 Now, LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone, LORD, are God." (NIV)

There are some battles where our role is to be persistent and patient and trust the Lord to be our deliverer. I will be honest, I prefer the battles where He gives me a clear directive, some action to take, some declaration to make and I have a front row seat to His victory demonstrated.

But some battles are won by simply being patient and persistent and trusting the Father's deliverance. In these cases, I find I run through my rolodex of past victories and all the spiritual weapons in my arsenal before I am willing to simply, patiently persistently trust in His deliverance. In these cases, I find I am transformed in a far greater and deeper way than the battles where the way forward seems clear and easy.

The battles of our day are greater than our previous days. We have heard it is our time of great victory, and I would agree 100%. Our Father will give us the victory in the midst of our enemies. Just as Hezekiah declared "you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth" we can declare "the earth is the Lord's and everything in it" (Psalm 24) this is true, and we will see evidence of this truth this year.

Let's keep our eyes on the Lord, this is the key to unlocking the vault of His goodness. Psalm 24:7-8 "Lift up your heads, you gates; be lifted up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. 8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle." (NIV)

Let's not compromise our commitment to the Lordship of Christ and His righteousness. Amos 5: 14-15. "Seek good, not evil, that you may live. Then the LORD God Almighty will be with you, just as you say he is. Hate evil, love good; maintain justice in the courts. Perhaps the LORD God Almighty will have mercy on the remnant of Joseph." (NIV)

And lastly let's not grow weary of being persistent and patient as we anticipate the arrival of the victory of our Lord. Galatians 6:9 "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. (NIV)

Terry Friesen: tfprophetic@gmail.com, Telegram Channel <https://t.me/tfprophetic>

Shevat 19, 5784: Monday January 29, 2024

April Klaassen Brown: Authorly of our Tongues and the sounds we release!

<https://youtu.be/SilgjFpdtwM?si=7sGM-maqzshYcOWa>

The above link is a must watch to give context to what I want to share as a revelation from our recent prayer time regarding 'the land, betrayal, hearing and then ultimate healing, restoration, one blood' replacing what was repented for, forgiveness released, and spiritual curses overturned / revoked / reversed. The weekend after there was something the Holy Spirit was calling me to look closer at and this has been sitting in my spirit, in my heart and rolling through my head. Mark 7:24-37. We're going to read from verse 24 to 37:

24 And Yeshua arose and went away from there to the region of Tyre and Sidon and He went into a house and did not want anyone to know [that He was there]; but it was not possible for Him to be hidden [from public notice].

25 Instead, at once, a woman whose little daughter had (was under the control of) an unclean spirit heard about Him and came and flung herself down at His feet.

26 Now the woman was a Greek (Gentile), a Syrophoenician by nationality. And she kept begging Him to drive the demon out of her little daughter.

27 And He said to her, First let the children be fed, for it is not becoming, or proper, or right to take the children's bread and throw it to the [little house] dogs.

28 But she answered Him, Yes, Lord, yet even the small pups under the table eat the little children's scraps of food.

29 And He said to her, Because of this saying, you may go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter [permanently].

30 And she went home and found the child thrown on the couch, and the demon departed.

31 Soon after this, Yeshua, coming back from the region of Tyre, passed through Sidon on to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of Decapolis [the ten cities].

32 And they brought to Him a man who was deaf and had difficulty in speaking, and they begged Yeshua to place His hand upon him.

33 And taking him aside from the crowd [privately], He thrust His fingers into the man's ears and spat and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, He sighed as He said, Ephphatha, which means, Be opened!

35 And his ears were opened, his tongue was loosed, and he began to speak distinctly and as he should.

36 And Yeshua [in His own interest] admonished and ordered them sternly and expressly to tell no one; but the more He commanded them, the more zealously they proclaimed it.

37 And they were overwhelmingly astonished, saying, He has done everything excellently (commendably and nobly)! He even makes the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak!

Mark, at verses 34 and 35 read as: "And looking up to heaven, HE sighed as HE said, "Ephphatha", which means, Be opened! 35 And his ears were opened, his tongue was loosed, and he began to speak distinctly and as he should.

Mark 5:1-20, the story of the man with "Legion" healed shows that this territory Jesus was in, was called Decapolis, which means 10 cities.

And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had [his] dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains: Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any [man] tame him and always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

But when he saw Yeshua afar off, he ran and worshipped him, and cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Yeshua, [thou] Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not. For he said unto him, Come out of the man, [thou] unclean spirit and he asked him, What [is] thy name? And he answered, saying, My name [is] Legion: for we are many. And he besought him much, that he would not send them away out of the country. Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding. And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. And forthwith Yeshua gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

And they that fed the swine fled, and told [it] in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done, and they come to Yeshua, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. And they that saw [it] told them how it befell to him that were possessed with the devil, and [also] concerning the swine. And they began to pray for him to depart out of their coasts. And when he came into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed to him that he might be with him. Howbeit Yeshua suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee. And he departed and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Yeshua had done for him: and all [men] did marvel.

As I began to hear the Holy Spirit; I looked up the name Mark [author of the biblical book]. This name comes from the roman name 'Mars', who was the god of war. I was instructed to look at the 7th chapter verses 3+4=7. The number 7 being completion, done, no more, finished. One 7 for deafness, one 7 for dumbness, or "loosing" of tongue. Even the word tongues has a few meanings as defined by the Oxford Dictionary below:

1. The fleshy muscular organ in the mouth of a mammal, used for tasting, licking, swallowing, and (in humans) articulating speech.
2. used in reference to a person's style or manner of speaking. "he was a redoubtable debater with a caustic tongue."

Similar: way/manner of speaking/ way/manner of talking form / mode of expression / choice of words / verbal expression / conversation / vocabulary / phraseology / style / parlance / speech

3rd person present: tongues

1.

MUSIC - sound (a note) distinctly on a wind instrument by interrupting the air flow with the tongue. / / "Eugene has worked out the correct tonguing"

Does this last description of tongues, not sound like 'WORSHIP'?

Just for an instant, let this Revelation sink in, Yeshua wasn't just healing and 'sighing' about it. Everything Yeshua was doing was pushing away, clearing the spiritual atmosphere, setting a spiritual lightning rod over this man who required healing, spiritual freedom and released him back into his primary blueprint which was to 'Worship'.

So now the bigger picture, could it be that Yeshua was not only showing that he had authority and the ability to heal BUT also to displace, or make "a way" by clearing the spiritual atmosphere, showing HIS POWER over those of the tutelary spirits, in that area of the 10 cities.

To the Romans, the Greek deity over the area was a god of war, Mars. This spirit would as any military leader would have had his "Legion(s)." The Bible only speaks of one man named Legion who was freed, then a little girl held captive by the demonic and then one man who was deaf and dumb from that same area. Could it be that the spiritual symptoms all of these three had were symptoms of this particular evil leader. This would keep subjects in chains literally and spiritually, so that they could not hear and speak the name of their Creator and Savior?

After all, the assignment is to steal/kill and destroy. Impede/block and prevent praise to the only true GOD there is.

Yeshua when dealing with all three not only releases a sigh but what HE really does as Robert Rohr shows us in the above video link, [love the play on that last name by the way] Yeshua sighs but his sigh is not merely a "sigh". HE is releasing the Power of the Name above every other name in that sigh. He's releasing the sacred name as it has been noted by Hebrew scholars, as the name of "YHWH". This being released by the inhalation and exhalation of that "sigh". Yeshua very effectively released the Power name of HIMSELF and the GOD-head in that one sigh, which completely superseded the authority any deity had over the subjects in that territory. Yeshua sighs and then says the word, ephphatha, "Be opened" and boom, not only is a spiritual pathway cleared, the impediments of the deaf and the dumb are immediately loosed and freed, just as the Legion man was released from the grip of the enemy.

As soon as the grip of that spirit was broken, the captive was immediately set free. Yeshua effectively dealt in the spiritual and physical realms simultaneously.

It has been rolling over and over in my spirit that we dealt with a land iniquity of deafness, caused due to war and betrayal. In the spirit, the ancient god of war I believe was released from holding any longer those which have been held by his legions for a long, long time in the Americas. But not only subjects but also the wealth that was utilized in the betrayals. We lay claim to this now for the Kingdom of GOD and his Covenant peoples, as the one Blood in Yeshua. Ruach HaKodesh has more importantly and explosively given us an example to follow.

We have the "sigh" release of YHWY Power of Authority and then HIS command to "Be opened". There is a key for the loosing of worship in this; the tongue, all aspects of it includes worship. I also believe strongly we can ask permission for the physical / spiritual and quantum realms to be opened to permit only the HOLY fullness of creative miracles, healing miracles, signs and wonders to pass through from HIS Glory into the realms we live in, so that we may experience the greater works that Yeshua promised us we would do. What might be described as the great exploits we will do, Yeshua did with a simple inhalation and exhalation of HIS Power and we have been invited to do the same. What I'd like for us to do is to get our 'sphere of influence' folks, the ones we pray for consistently, especially those who are impeded in some way, say from coming to salvation or healing, throat issues which may impede worship. Perhaps we ourselves were worshippers once and we have lost our ability for a time.

I believe it is time to release the Holy Spirit Healing by our spoken words in agreement over those the LORD brings now to our minds, and again perhaps over ourselves, over those who will be listening to this session at some point down the line and even now also over our Nation so that those who have been impeded by not hearing will now hear the call for Salvation and Eternal Life, Healing and the call to come to our Heavenly Father in close communion and worship. The LORD will take those words and multiply exponentially their power because it is HIS and expand that power beyond and greater than what our voices release, in Yeshua's name.

Father, we your covenant people welcome the Absolute Power, Might and Authority of your name, which is above EVERY name in Heaven and on Earth. We welcome into our spheres, our lives, our bodies and for those who need your 'touch' Jehovah Rapha, the miraculous, the signs and the wonders that come with the power of your Name. We ask you Father to lift the veil from our eyes, our minds, our understanding and loose our tongues not only to speak as Yeshua gave example of and as the prophets did with the coal of fire on our tongue. We ask that your Power now release every ear that needs to hear your Name, every tongues which needs to sing and release your Praise. This Father is in our primary original blueprint to worship the KING of KINGS and release through our mouths your Healings for those who require it. Your WORD Yeshua never returns void and always accomplishes what it has been sent out for. We Praise you for that and we expect LORD, we expect the goodness of our GOD to touch not only our spheres and loved ones but our Nation(s). We commit these words into your hands and ask that you exponentially multiply the Power of the Spoken WORD and trust you LORD to bring Praise, Honor, Worship and GLORY for your name sake. In Yeshua's name, Amen.

Shevat 20, 5784: Tuesday January 30, 2024

Lana Vawser: I HEARD THE LORD SPEAKING OVER MANY DAUGHTERS OF GOD "I AM BRINGING YOU FORTH REFRESHED AND RESTORED. HERE IS YOUR COMEBACK!"

This week I heard the Lord speaking over many daughters "I am bringing you forth, refreshed and restored, here is your comeback" and that word "comeback" was very loud as the Lord spoke it.

As I leaned in and listened to what was on the Lord's heart I heard 1 Peter 5:8-10:

"Be well balanced and always alert, because your enemy, the devil, roams around incessantly, like a roaring lion looking for its prey to devour. Take a decisive stand against him and resist his every attack with strong, vigorous faith. For you know that your believing brothers and sisters around the world are experiencing the same kinds of troubles you endure. And then, after your brief suffering, the God of all loving grace, who has called you to share in his eternal glory in Christ, will personally and powerfully restore you and make you stronger than ever. Yes, he will set you firmly in place and build you up."
(TPT)

Be sober [well balanced and self-disciplined], be alert and cautious at all times. That enemy of yours, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion [fiercely hungry], seeking someone to devour. 9 But resist him, be firm in your faith [against his attack—rooted, established, immovable], knowing that the same experiences of suffering are being experienced by your brothers and sisters throughout the world. [You do not suffer alone.] 10 After you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace [who imparts His blessing and favor], who called you to His own eternal glory in Christ, will Himself complete, confirm, strengthen, and establish you [making you what you ought to be]. (AMP)

I then heard the Lord say:

"Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit" I am blowing My breath, My resurrection life and power over your life right now and causing you to ascend out of the ashes and causing you to come up higher, I am CAUSING YOUR COMEBACK, NOW. For many of you have been in a battle that you have felt has almost knocked you down completely, but no weapon formed against you shall prosper and NOW is the time for you to arise. For I am bringing you forth by MY POWER, refreshed and restored. No longer shall many of you know the weariness that has held you down. No longer shall many of you know the fear and brokenness that has caused you to hide and pull away. For I am breathing LIFE back into you. I am reintroducing you to My power and I am restoring ALL. I am bringing you forth in STRENGTH and you shall know the fortification and restoration that comes by My Spirit to ESTABLISH you again.

I am establishing you again in physical strength, for many of you have been weary in body, as the battle has raged upon your life. I am bringing you forth into My healing and you shall know MY strength in your body in the days to come. For the enemy has come against many of your bodies to weary you and there has been a spirit of weariness that has attempted to stop you from moving into all that I have for you, but I am thundering over you "YOU ARE HEALED!" By My mighty hand I am breaking off the spirit of infirmity that has plagued many of you. I am breaking off the trauma that has affected your physical body. I am breaking off the constant cycle of sickness that many of you have been facing and bringing you into MY CYCLE of strength to strength and life to life, My abundant life. Watch in the coming days how the POWER of My breath and resurrection life over your body will bring strength and life back into your physical being. There is a divine COMEBACK in your body by My power and Spirit into you, to walk HEALED and WHOLE. Many of you have been looking at this year ahead with weariness and wondering how you shall go through this year with the battle in your bodies, but I say unto you "COME UP HIGHER”, raise your expectation in faith, for I am BREAKING the battle over your body and in 2024 YOU SHALL KNOW NEW STRENGTH.

Daughters of God, I am birthing in you a RESOLVE by My Spirit. As you continue to yield to Me and depend on Me, I am birthing within you a RESOLVE of faith that you have not known. I am igniting the fire of faith within you again. Hope deferred, dashed and broken dreams, broken hearts, and heaviness will no longer hinder your faith. Receive right now, the fire of My presence re-igniting FAITH within you in the revelation of MY NATURE and My goodness. I am RESTORING your roar.

For many of you have abdicated your authority because of weariness and trial, but I am RESTORING YOU. I am calling you up higher and it is MY SPIRIT that is filling you, refueling you and strengthening you and repositioning you again to arise in who you are in Me and ALL that I have for you.

For the time has come for you to live from the ascended place like never before. I am bringing you deeper into whom you are and all I have for you in 2024. For many of you have resolved yourselves to brokenness, to struggle, to the thought “this feels like it will never end” but I say unto you, I am bringing you into a NEW DAY and it will NOT be the same as you have experienced before. This is your comeback.

I am restoring your vision.

I am restoring your hope.

I am restoring your voice.

I am restoring your strength.

I am restoring your dreams.

I am restoring your faith.

I am restoring your hearing.

I am restoring your heart.

I am restoring your mind.

I am restoring your body.

I AM RESTORING ALL!

For I am bringing you higher into your authority. I am moving you from living on the defense to living on the offense.

Daughters of God I am bringing you up higher. I am calling you higher. ARISE AND DECIDE to apprehend all that I have promised you and am speaking to you."

I then heard the words loudly in the Spirit:

"DO NOT TOLERATE IT ANY LONGER"

As I heard those words, I leaned in further to hear what the Lord was saying and I heard the Lord speak:

"Do NOT tolerate what has held you down, shaken you around, stolen from you and kept you bound. I am releasing My fire over you now as you ARISE AND DECIDE to no longer tolerate what has assaulted you for so long, and not only am I bringing you into a breakthrough of breakthroughs, I, by My Spirit am causing you to ascend as you DECIDE. As you lift up your eyes in faith, lift up your eyes in high praise, as you set your mind on things of above (Colossians 3:2) I am causing you to ASCEND. I am birthing a fire within you of NO TOLERATION. No longer will you live 'under', I am raising you to "RISE ABOVE". I am bringing you further into victory.

As you praise Me and live in high praise, raising your banners and raising your flags in high praise and worship unto Me, you are PREPARING THE WAY FOR MY GLORY! (Psalm 24) I am coming as the King of Glory, I am coming as Yahweh's red and ready for battle, the Mighty One, the invincible commander of heaven's hosts. I am coming as the Warrior King, THROUGH YOU!

I will lead you into greater discernment and divine intel in 2024 as you RESOLVE AGAIN AND BEHOLD ME. I am bringing you My daughters into a level of divine intel and intercession to partner with Me in governing in the earth in ways you have not known. I am raising up My warrior, wartime daughters, My wartime intercessors to partner with Me in prayer and intercession to see My Glory come and My justice manifested.

My daughters, as the enemy has tried to keep so many of you 'under' in this season, I am causing you to ascend and to govern with Me and I shall use you to release MY HEAVENLY JUSTICE in the earth and My heavenly alignments come into manifestation through your intercession and through your decree. I am inviting you deep into this place and the entry into this place, is a narrow place, it's a place of DEEP humility and yielding and in the secret place, ministering unto Me I shall release to you divine intel and strategy that you have not known before, to partner with Me in seeing MY JUSTICE fill the earth. For you to see the gavel of My divine justice move through your intercession and decree. The time has arrived. Do not be afraid to speak. Speak as I cause you to speak, and I will fill your mouths. As you spend time with Me in the secret place I will give you My heart afresh, I will baptize you afresh in My love, I will cause you to come up higher. It is TIME for you to not only see clearly but to see FURTHER and HIGHER from My perspective.

Many of you have felt isolated and felt alone in the battle but there have been many other daughters in the trenches, and now I am GATHERING YOU TOGETHER, to be linked arm in arm, shoulder to shoulder. I am raising up My army of ferocious resolved daughters who live deeply in intimacy with their King, sitting at their feet and ARISING in divine comeback right now as MY WARRIORS. My watcher women it is TIME FOR YOU TO ARISE, as a company of women, My warring women of Zion, delivering the message of My Gospel and My Word into the earth.

"God Almighty declares the word of the gospel with power, and the warring women of Zion deliver its message: "The conquering legions have themselves been conquered. Look at them flee!" Now Zion's women are left to gather the spoils." (Psalm 68:11-12 – TPT)

THIS IS YOUR COMEBACK!

Shevat 21, 5784: Wednesday January 31, 2024

THE GOLDEN GLORY AGE"
RACHEL EMERSON, BARDSTOWN, KY

The Lord gave me a word about 2024 in December 2022, and He called this time the "Golden Glory Age"!

The Lord is beckoning us into a higher dimension of His glory. It's a place we have yet to experience as a whole. This place of His magnificent glory shatters the paradigm of what we have encountered before. We are in the Golden Glory Age, the time of the greater glory, where His Spirit is truly pouring out upon the sons and daughters in the earth. It is the strong, potent, powerful, and undeniable new wine flowing down. We will see His attributes and character woven in the fabric of His Bride. The greatest harvest is upon us and among us. These are the latter days! It is a "must" to circumvent the old man, the old nature, and intently transform into the man or woman of God He has called us to be. This is the year, 2024, that we arise in the glory!

"The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says the Lord of hosts, 'and in this place I shall give [the ultimate] peace and prosperity,' declares the Lord of hosts." (Haggai 2:9 AMP)

This is THAT time we have prayed for and waited for. God is calling His people to walk in the "GREATER," and it will require a sifting and shifting in your own lives and corporately as a whole body. Here are five key components we can embrace and cultivate in this season to see personal transformation arise and thrive within us.

1. Cultivate a fervent prayer life: Cultivate a consistent and passionate prayer life. Set aside dedicated time each day to communicate with the Lord, seeking His guidance, wisdom, and strength through Holy Spirit.
2. Study the Word: Engage in a regular and thorough study of the Bible, seeking to understand the words and applying them to your life. Meditate on the Word to let it transform your thoughts and actions. Have good mentors and leaders in your life that you can also learn from.
3. Yield to Holy Spirit: Surrender every aspect of your life to the leading of Holy Spirit. Listen and obey when the Spirit prompts you to make changes or take specific actions. Include Him in family, parenting, money, investments, decisions, health, residence, etc.
4. Make personal preparations: Take care of your natural and physical well-being by adopting a healthy lifestyle, including regular exercise, proper nutrition, and enough rest. This will enable you to better serve God and others. It's important what you eat and consume.

5. Fast: Incorporate regular periods of fasting into your spiritual walk. Fasting involves abstaining from foods, seeking His will, and cultivating self-discipline and spiritual growth. Fasting is a weapon the Church must return to!

Our personal transformation is a process, and we must operate in humility and in patience. Trust the process and be intentional and persistent in your pursuit of transformation by Holy Spirit. Relationship and intimacy are main ingredients!

I decree, in this pivotal year of 2024, that we are boldly stepping into the realm of God's unprecedented golden glory. We grab ahold of the prophetic vision before us, welcoming transformation and empowered by His Spirit.

Shevat 22, 5784: Thursday February 1, 2024

Nate Johnston: I was in worship when the Lord spoke;

"Because you surrendered to the process - because you leant into me in your greatest wilderness - because you stayed at my feet when everything looked like a mess, NOW I am going to increase you."

"Because you worshipped me instead of walking away from me, now I am going to cleave myself to you and make your desires my desires."

"Because you leant into my heart when you could have run from me, blamed me for the closing doors, dead ends and hardships, I am going to go before and clear the road."

"Because you pioneered through the hardest of years and didn't let go of my hem, I will cause you to see what I promised you."

"Because you chose to look to me and kept your heart right when people turned against you over and over and dragged your name through the mud, now I am going to elevate you and clear your name."

"Because you built my kingdom while others were preoccupied with their own empires; now I am going to rebuild you and establish you where you will be immovable and fixed for the days to come."

"Because you fed my sheep when you had nothing, I will protect you and feed you in harvest and in famine. You will never run dry, and your cup will always flow over."

"Just like David - he knew that if he didn't endure his season in the wilderness. He wouldn't be equipped for what was to come."

"You knew you had to lie down in this season and let me work deeply in your life."

"If he didn't go through the isolation, fight bears and lions, insecurities, and fears, he wouldn't have been ready for Goliath."

"If he hadn't had the years of nothing but me and his harp, he would haven't known how to stand strong when faced with betrayal and endless opposition."

"If he didn't lay in my presence and allow me to speak truth and identity into his heart, he would have worn the wrong armor and used the wrong tools."

"If he had rushed the process, he wouldn't have grown in the anointing that delivered Saul of evil spirits."

"He wouldn't have been prepared to fight his tens of thousands."

"He wouldn't have known honor, covenant, and wouldn't have been equipped with a heart after my own heart."

"Yes, the wilderness did that, although he didn't see it then."

"His obedience and the crushing brought about an oil that dripped down through the ages, all because he said yes when his world looked bleak."

"And just as I saw David, I SEE YOU!"

Shevat 23, 5784: Friday February 2, 2024

The Message of the Kingdom – By Wade E Taylor

Yeshua began His ministry with these words:

"The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent, and believe the Gospel." Mark 1:15

His next words were to two fishermen, while they were working at their trade.

"And Yeshua said to them, Come you after Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." Mark 1:17

Here, the message of the Kingdom was applied to the lives of these men through a practical application to their occupation. They had been fishers of fish. Now, Yeshua is calling them to become fishers of men. Note carefully that they were to continue fishing, but with a higher purpose in view. The Kingdom message in its functioning is intended to lift the earthly aspect of our vocation into a higher purpose.

The word "Kingdom" has been both misunderstood and misapplied. It is often relegated to a future millennium or to heaven. However, the claim of the Kingdom that Yeshua is presenting is meant to be a present reality in the lives of all who will hear and respond. The outworking of a Kingdom relationship to the Lord is to be both practical and effective in the every day life experience of those who desire to go beyond their present spiritual experience. It does not imply that those who respond will be suddenly promoted into a place of prominence or rulership. Rather, it expresses the coming of a Kingdom authority that will reign over the lives of all who will submit to its message and permeate every aspect of our daily pattern of life.

This Kingdom is presented by Yeshua as being "at hand." That is, it is meant to work in the immediate circumstances of all who respond. It is not intended that it will find its function in some ethereal religious form, or in a future hope. Rather, it is presented as being attainable and touchable.

This Kingdom that is at hand requires our submission to the rule of God. To enter this Kingdom, we must embrace the rule of God and recognize the Lord Yeshua Christ as our personal King, and then place everything that pertains to us in subjection to His Kingdom rule.

Yeshua said, "Come you after Me." If we do not recognize Him as our personal King and then allow the operation of the Kingdom in our lives, we will not be able to abide in the place of His calling. If our lives are as they were before salvation, plus the salt of religion, we are falling far short of His claim upon us, and His desire for us.

Today, Yeshua is establishing His true Church in divine order and authority. Things that the Lord once winked at in the past will no longer be left unchallenged in our lives. Everything that can be shaken is shaking, until it has been reduced to the place where it will be able to submit to His Kingdom claim. The Lord will no longer allow His people to remain in the realm of blessing alone. He is causing them to acknowledge the claim of His Kingdom upon their lives. He is bringing each one of us to the place where we must make a decision as to what we will do with this Kingdom that He said, "is at hand."

The Kingdom is a present reality. In its present form, the outworking of it will be manifested within us as "righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit" (Romans 14:17). All else will pass away.

Do not draw back.

Accept what Yeshua is saying to you, and then press into this Kingdom.

Wade E Taylor

Shevat 24, 5784: Saturday February 3, 2024

Kathi Pelton: "2024: Who Shall Ascend the Hill of the Lord?"

"Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in His holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully..." (Psalm 24:3-4)

In 2024 we will continue to see the Lord purifying His Church. But to be pure, we must first ascend the hill of the Lord. As we do, He will sanctify our hands and our hearts.

Psalm 51 is David's prayer after he sinned with Bathsheba. It will be the prayer of many in 2024, and God will hear them and sanctify them and grant them a humble and willing spirit to be purified.

"Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones You have crushed rejoice. Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from Your presence or take Your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of Your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me." (Psalm 51:7-12)

He desires each one of us to come up higher (to ascend), to see Him in all of His holiness, and to understand and execute the authority that He has placed upon His people to rule and reign with Him. We must ascend to receive wisdom from on high and to be given the opportunities to rule in high places, just as Solomon did.

The Time of Solomon

As we entered the year 2023, a dear friend prophetically spoke to our local leadership team these words: "We are leaving the time of David and entering the time of Solomon." Or maybe God is bringing forth both anointings? As you know, Solomon was David's son, who sat upon his throne as king after his death. When the Lord asked him what he wanted, he asked for wisdom to rule the great people that he'd been entrusted to lead.

"So give Your servant a discerning heart to govern Your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern this great people of Yours?" (1 Kings 3:9)

A truly discerning heart begins with a pure heart, freed from selfish motives and ambitions. It puts the good of those whom they are called to serve above their own personal desires. If we are to govern in pure and wise authority, then we need to receive a pure heart and have our hands cleaned from any wrongdoing. The days of self-serving leadership are no longer being tolerated; God will displace those who want to be served with those who have a pure heart to serve, and He will anoint them from on high.

Psalms 24 goes on to say, "Lift up your heads, you gates; be lifted up, you ancient doors that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, you gates; lift them up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is He, this King of glory? The Lord Almighty—He is the King of glory!" (verses 7-10).

Throughout 2023 we were in a spiritual time of repairing the doors and gates in our personal lives and in the Church. God has been revealing and exposing what we've let enter into our lives in past years (and into His Church). What do we tolerate that is unholy—in our homes, hearts, churches, and even nations? The seven letters to the Church in the book of Revelation should be revisited by all, and the counsel within them executed in our lives and in the Church.

In 2024, doors and gates that allow His glory and righteousness to enter in will stand open before us, but we must close the gates to sin and compromise—even to tolerating lukewarmness and spirits that are not from the Holy Spirit. The Blood is being sprinkled upon the doorposts of spiritual gates and upon homes.

He is preparing His Church to welcome the King of glory through the gates and doors that have been sanctified, lifted up to be polished, and reveal pure gold.

Times of Trouble and Sovereign Help

"God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore, we will not fear though the earth gives way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble at its swelling. Selah." (Psalm 46:1-3)

The world around us is in turmoil, and the wisdom and power of man is proving to be a weakness all around us. The high places of power and authority are crumbling, as they depend on their own wisdom and power to accomplish what only God can do. Self-serving governments that do not serve the people they were entrusted to protect will begin to fail. Just as God is not allowing self-serving leadership within His house, He will also begin to deal with certain leaders governing nations, states, provinces and parties, causing them to be removed.

When Jesus went to the temple in Jerusalem and began tipping over the tables of those who made His Father's house a den of thieves, I see Him doing the same in many places, especially high places. When you see this, do not fear but know that God is our refuge and help in times of trouble. He is our fortress. Angelic armies led by the Commander, the Lord of hosts, will fight for covenant lands and for His people.

He is coming as our warrior King—the one mighty in battle, who leads the angel armies in victory. An army is arising to join Him in battle against His enemies. They will be clothed in His might and they will wisely only follow His lead and His commands. They will not jostle one another but move as one, like the starlings do as they change formation in the skies above us.

Psalm 46 is a key psalm to cling to throughout 2024.

"There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy place where the Most High dwells. God is within her; she will not fall; God will help her at break of day. Nations are in uproar, kingdoms fall; He lifts His voice, the earth melts. The Lord Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress. Come and see what the Lord has done, the desolations He has brought on the earth. He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth. He breaks the bow and shatters the spear; He burns the shields with fire. He says, 'Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.' The Lord Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress." (Psalm 46:4-11)

The Canceling of Debts and Unexpected Provision

I see the Lord coming to sovereignly cancel debts—financial debts, relational debts, spiritual debts. Forgiveness of debts will be received and given.

I keep hearing in my spirit this prayer: "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors." Debts of many kinds will be forgiven, and debtors will be offered forgiveness, bringing reconciliation to many.

I saw a vision of large ships with enormous amounts of supplies arriving into ports. These supply ships had been long delayed and were loaded with all that we needed. They were carrying both physical and spiritual supplies. 2024 was like a port for these ships to arrive in, or a portal of time. We will need wisdom to know how to steward the supplies being brought in. This is not a time to be careless or to act hastily with the supplies, for they are given with a purpose for the days ahead. Seek God about what you should do with them.

His Sovereignty

We do not win battles in our strength, but the Lord is mighty in battle, and we will watch and see God bare His holy right arm before nations.

"The Lord will lay bare His holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God." (Isaiah 52:10)

God will save! He will save His people from destruction; He will save your sons and daughters; He will save nations, and all the earth will see His salvation. Salvations and sovereignty will mark this year.

Let us pray through these verses and words. Then, let us continue through the year 2024 trusting in the Lord with a willing spirit, clean hands, a commitment to ascend the hill of the Lord each day, and an expectation of seeing His sovereignty revealed throughout the earth.

Shevat 25, 5784: Sunday February 4, 2024

Lana Vawser:

"God Says, 'Do Not Accept the False Cloaks!
I Am Releasing New Mantles'"

The Release of New Mantles

Recently, I heard the Lord say, "Do not accept false cloaks! I am releasing NEW MANTLES."

The Lord began to show me that right now the enemy is working hard to lure many into accepting false cloaks that he is trying to put on them. I heard the Lord thundering over them, "THESE DO NOT BELONG TO YOU." The Lord was highlighting the importance of the moment that they are in right now, that there is a major shift taking place in the spirit over them. The Lord is lifting off the things that have tried to hold them down, and He is giving them new mantles.

Deliverance from False Cloaks

The Lord said, "I am actually DELIVERING YOU of false cloaks and giving you new mantles. Pay attention, for the enemy is attempting to place these false cloaks upon you."

I saw the Lord delivering them from the false cloaks of many seasons past—from heaviness to comparison, grief, despair, hopelessness, and much more. These cloaks were being removed from them.

Then I saw a battle taking place in the spirit. The enemy was saying to them, "You have not been delivered of these things; they are still heavy upon you and deep within you. You have not been delivered," where, in fact, deliverance HAD happened and WAS happening.

Greater Momentum

The enemy was fighting hard to get them to keep their eyes upon these things and the weight of these false cloaks, but the Lord was calling them to lift their eyes up higher onto Him to see that, indeed, a mighty deliverance had happened and was happening, and that these cloaks were but smoke and mirrors to lure them into a place of despair and heaviness, and to HINDER MOMENTUM.

The Lord spoke again. "The new mantles I am releasing are coming with a heavier weight of My glory, and the winds of acceleration are coming with these mantles to usher in greater MOMENTUM of My Spirit through these ones. The enemy is attempting to hinder their momentum, but as they align with Me and My truth and receive MY new mantles, they will not be hindered, [nor their] momentum stalled and falsely cloaked."

The Cage of Comparison

I heard the Lord say, "Many are living in the trap of comparison." I then had a vision and I saw many in the Body of Christ comparing mantles. As they were comparing mantles, I could see that they were not only being lured into a MAJOR distraction, but cages were being built around them, and they were dropping their scrolls on the floor.

The Lord then said to me, "Comparison is containing MANY. You must look to ME and what I have called you to. I am delivering My people deeply from the orphan spirit and the cages of comparison and competition. I am bringing deep healing. I am bringing fire upon comparison in a stronger way than many have felt before."

He then began to speak over those who were in comparison. "It is time to come up higher. It is time to STOP having conversations with comparison and come and have conversations with YOUR CREATOR. There has been an elevation of the conversation of comparison over conversation with the Creator. Draw close to Me and repent for exalting conversations with comparison. Let Me embrace you; let the fire of My love refine, purify, heal, deliver and bring healing to you. I am bringing swift and strong alignment, for it is time to arise in your sonship like never before—your true identity in Me—and pick up your SCROLL again."

Pick Up Your Scroll Again

Immediately I knew these scrolls that they had dropped were assignments the Lord had given them in this season, and distractions had taken root to lure them away from fulfilling that which God had called them to. There was absolutely no condemnation. All I could feel was the love of the Father and His hand bringing strong alignment, healing and a call to ferocious focus in this hour. There was a call to embrace the fire in a deeper way, to be positioned to receive restoration and the new mantles, and to fulfill the assignments He had given.

There was deliverance, healing, alignment and restoration happening all at once. I could feel so strongly the heart of the Lord as He positioned them to build with Him in greater ways than they had ever built with Him before, drawing them into a deeper place of intimacy with Him and focus upon Him.

I heard His voice again: "This deep purification and alignment must take place right now for them to walk in all that I have for them in this new season."

Dive Deep into Discernment – It's Time for Ascension!

I heard the Lord say, "Dive deep into discernment. Do not take everything at face value. Draw close to Me and let Me show you what is truly taking place." Again, I could hear the words, "Do not accept the false cloaks."

He continued speaking, "There is much taking place in the spirit around you, My precious ones, where the enemy is trying to load you up with much that is NOT yours. There is also My hand bringing alignment, and you will find the answers you need—the clarity to be received—as you ASK ME."

"It's time for ASCENSION! I have much to show you. I have much to reveal to you. Cast off distraction. Ask Me to show you the false cloaks. Ask Me to show you what is yours to carry. Ask Me to show you what to pick up. You will be surprised how much 'smoke and mirrors' has been surrounding you."

"I am thundering over you:
COME UP HIGHER! COME UP
HIGHER! And as My voice thunders over you, deliverance is happening, clarity is being concreted, and the greatest alignment of your life is happening RIGHT NOW in the release of these new mantles.
COME UP! COME UP! COME UP!
It is time to ASCEND!"

Shevat 26, 5784: Monday February 5, 2024

Joe Joe Dawson: "The Pivoting Point"

The Lord recently gave me a very powerful prophetic word that I know is for 2024. I was in one of our corporate prayer meetings and the Lord spoke to me and said, "Pivoting point." I was immediately reminded of the way a player pivots in the game of basketball. When a player pivots with the ball, they step in the opposite direction of the person that is trying to steal the ball while one of their feet remains stationary. This creates a semi-circle effect that gives the player a chance to shift into a new strategy by passing the ball, or another chance to shoot the ball while they have it. I believe that this is a prophetic picture of what many people will do in 2024 with God. This will be a year where you will pivot or shift into something new in order to combat delay and move forward in 2024!

Three Examples of Pivoting Points in the Bible

As I was really praying about this, the Lord reminded me of three instances in the Bible where there were pivoting points in different people's lives.

Creation's Pivoting Point:

Matthew 28:5-6 says, "The angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; He has risen, just as He said. Come and see the place where He lay.'" This was a powerful pivoting point for two reasons.

The first reason was that the enemy thought that he had killed Jesus. The enemy thought he had taken out the Son of God through the Cross, but Jesus' resurrection put the enemy to shame! What Jesus had actually done—through His death, burial and resurrection—was pivot all of creation out of the plan of the enemy and back into the authority of God.

The second reason this was a pivoting point can be seen through the disciples and followers of Jesus. They had seen a lot of signs, wonders, and miracles during the time they had been following Jesus; and when He was arrested and killed, many of them believed that the foreign government and the enemy had won. However, as they saw the empty tomb and became witnesses of His resurrection, they encountered a pivoting point where they began to realize the power of what Jesus had just done. This was the great pivoting point in the history of humanity.

Abram's Pivoting Point:

Genesis 12:1-3 says, "The Lord had said to Abram, 'Go from your country, your people and your father's household to the land I will show you. I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on Earth will be blessed through you.'" In this passage Abram came to a pivoting point in his life. God called him out into the unknown and to forsake his earthly inheritance that was to come to him through his natural father, leaving it all behind in order to step into God's promises.

I can imagine how difficult it must have been for Abram to go to his wife and tell her, "Look, honey, I heard from God, and we're supposed to leave everything we have, leave my father's house, and go with Him so that He can make us a great nation and bless the whole world through us." I imagine his wife would have responded with something like this: "Okay, Abram. Where are we going?" And then Abram would have had to tell her, "Well, I don't know." I can't imagine that it was an easy conversation. I'm sure it was even more difficult to actually do. However, Abram said yes to God, and God fulfilled every single promise He'd ever given to him, far greater than even Abram had imagined for himself.

I believe in this new year God may call some of you the way He did Abram. God may call you outside of your comfort zone, out of everything you've ever known, in order to do great things for His Kingdom. The question is, will you say yes?

Joseph and His Family's Pivoting Point:

In Genesis 47, Joseph and his family came to a pivoting point where they had to choose how they would move forward. They went to Pharaoh and, because of the favor that was on Joseph, they were given the land of Goshen to dwell in, which did not experience famine or tribulation like the rest of the land around it did. Genesis 47:27 says, "Now the Israelites settled in Egypt in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there and were fruitful and increased greatly in number." So even though it seemed strange for his family to settle there initially, because they were obedient to the Lord, they flourished there for many years and were kept from famine and disaster.

Many people reason themselves out of listening to the voice of God with their natural minds, and then experience ruin later on and wonder why. More often than not, what God asks you to do will make little to no sense in the natural. However, when we are obedient and walk by faith, not by sight, then we are aligning ourselves with God's blessing and favor for our lives.

2024 Will Be a Pivoting Point

So, I want to encourage you: pivot when God calls you to pivot. Do not hesitate and do not become trapped by your natural mind. Instead, resolve to trust God with everything in your life and be quick to obey His voice. When you do this, you will experience abundance, favor, and blessing like you have never known.

2024 will be a pivoting point. God is always moving and He is looking for those who will position themselves with Him in faith and obedience. This is going to be a great year. I believe this is a crucial year which will be foundational for many people in order to prepare for greater things coming in the years ahead.

All of the things that I am currently doing were all born out of a place of pivoting with God. Almost everything that my family and I are doing are things that were never even on our radar to do before. However, we said yes to God, and He took us at our word. God has time and time again done more than we could have ever dreamed with our obedience. And, my friends, God will do the same for you as you pivot with Him!

Shevat 27, 5784: Tuesday February 6, 2024
Julie Green

Through accepting Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior by faith. Each one of us will spend eternity with our heavenly Father, in the third heaven.

Many understand heaven, only as the place where God dwells. And the place where those that have souls that have been redeemed spend eternity. But many followers of Jesus don't realize that there are three heavens.

Where is heaven? Is it a place? Is it a condition of life? Is it a dimension? What is the realm of heaven like? Is heaven on earth? Scripture refers to three different distinct heavens 147 times in the KJV.

1st HEAVEN:

Is the earth's atmosphere. The air that encompasses the earth. It is our climate. The atmosphere which enables life.

Isiah 55:10

For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the Sower and bread to the eater,

Genesis 1:14

And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons, and for days and years,

2nd HEAVEN:

The galaxies, the sun, moon and stars. It is also where Satan and the rest of the fallen angels reside. It's also where our atmosphere ends.

Danial 10:10-14

And behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. And he said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly loved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for now I have been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood up trembling. Then he said to me, "Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and humbled yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words. The prince of the kingdom of

Persia withstood me twenty-one days, but Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I was left there with the kings of Persia, and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he called out, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this flame.
Luke 16:33-24

3rd HEAVEN

This is where God resides, the angles, and just men and women. Referred to as the heavens of heavens. It is also the location of God's white throne judgement.

Psalms 19:1-2

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork. Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge.

2 Corinthians 12:2

I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows.

Shevat 28, 5784: Wednesday February 7, 2024

Amanda Grace - Ark Of Grace Ministries

with, William Alteneder

Be sober minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. 1 Peter 5:8

Are you a follower of Jesus that is aware, and equipped for the spiritual warfare you are in the midst of right now? Are you familiar with familiar spirits?

The devil wants to keep you captive in bondage, no matter what it takes. But Jesus is here to set you free from any type of demonically led bondage. A familiar spirit is any demonic assignment that surveys and studies people, territories, and bloodlines of families. And becomes "familiar" with you, and your family.

They enter and gain power in people's lives by disguising themselves as something common "familiar" while operating unawares through people, places, and things. The truth is, familiar spirits, as well as any other type of unclean spirit, very well could be the source of the difficulties you've been facing. Many of the reasons people go through battles in their lives are connected to unclean spirits, of some type.

You may never experience any dramatic manifestations of the enemy's influence, but subtle activity can be very damaging also. These unclean spirits will deter you from becoming all that God has intended you to be. As a follower of His Son Jesus.

When it comes to the enemy, it's time to stop taking their oppression, and start taking them out today. Breaking the Power of Familiar Spirits, and any other type of demonically led intrusion. Life is a battle. Even if you are not ready to fight, the devil will not spare you. He remains a restless fighter and a stubborn destroyer. Out to destroy you and your family.

The realm of demonic spirits is a dangerous department in the dark kingdom. Unclean spirits generally enter into people's lives secretly and settle down to perpetrate all forms of wickedness.

Please take your time and complete the following, using your power, and authority. Keeping each portion in mind throughout your day. Continuously expanding and meditating upon the following prayer as you allow the Holy Spirit to lead you.

Ephesians 6:12

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

"SPEAK THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD"

Thank you father for making the provision and opening my eyes for deliverance from the bondage of demonic oppression. At this time, confess, and repent of all your sins. Specifically confessing each one is a great idea. And also ask for forgiveness for those unknown or hidden from you.

I release myself from any bondage of unclean spirits, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ. Father in heaven, please send Your fire to the foundation of my life and destroy every evil demonic force placed in my life, by unclean spirits in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.

I release myself through the power and authority vested in me, through the spirit of God that resides within me. From the grip of any problem transferred to my life from past generations in the mighty name of Jesus Christ. From the top of my head to the soles of my feet. Let the blood of Jesus and the fire of the Holy Spirit cleanse me now from the top of my head to the soles of my feet, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.

I break and lose myself from every collective evil covenant, in the mighty name of Jesus. I break and lose myself from every collective curse, upon myself or my family, in the mighty name of Jesus. I command all foundational strongholds attached to my life, and my family's life to depart from me right now, in the mighty name of Jesus.

Shevat 29, 5784: Thursday February 8, 2024

In Preparation for God

By Francis Frangipane

The last, great move of the Holy Spirit will be distinguished by men and women who have been prepared by God for God.

We have given ourselves in prayer for revival; we have studied and discovered the Lord's heart for the lost. Without compromising the gospel's basic truths, grace has taught us to make Christ's message relative to our times and needs. For all our preparation, though, we have yet to prepare our hearts for God Himself.

We long to be sent by the Almighty for the sake of some great task – a miracle that turns a city to repentance or some significant act of service. However, the greatest task awaiting the church is not to be sent by God but to actually come to Him.

Indeed, we have assumed a strange role: We think we are the Lord's bodyguards. Armed with the doctrines of our faith, we are set to defend Christ against blasphemy, heresy, or misinformation. Yet in seeking to face and confront the heretics of our age, we have positioned ourselves with our backs toward the Almighty. If we would but turn and glance toward Him, we would see He does not need us to protect Him from man, nor has man ever been a threat to the Most High. Indeed, if we would cease striving, even for a moment, we would find His gaze has never left us. He awaits our undivided love.

As much as our desires for revival and spiritual awakening have come to us from God, these passions are but the beginning of a renewed mind, not the end. At the end of the age, the season of preparation is not for the sake of the harvest, as important as the harvest is; our preparation is for the Lord. The turning of our hearts toward Him must transcend momentary times of need and even our scheduled hour of prayer. It is time to enter the place of undistracted devotion. For it is the constant gaze of the church that draws God's highest pleasure and releases the greatest harvest.

A Simplified Focus

"For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I betrothed you to one husband, so that to Christ I might present you as a pure virgin. But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ" (2 Cor. 11:2-3).

Over the years we have developed a host of programs, outreaches and ministries all designed to bring people into church and make them better Christians. A number of these efforts the Lord has blessed; some He has accommodated and used; while still others, in truth, He has simply ignored.

However, the closer we draw to the end of the age, the less the church will be able to depend upon anything other than Christ Himself. Even now the anointing upon our myriad activities and programs is quietly diminishing. In spite of the multiplicity of our ideas, before Jesus returns the church will know simply and unequivocally: there is no substitute for God.

As the day of the Lord approaches, the Holy Spirit will increasingly refine our focus and lift our attention to our greatest purpose: the revelation of Christ within us. It is the fruit of Christ revealed through the church that the great, end-time harvest is timed.

Shevat 30, 5784: Friday February 9, 2024
Roma Waterman: "It's Time to Eat Cake!"
"Melbourne, VIC, Australia

Last year, as our Heart Song Prophetic Alliance school year was coming to a close, the Lord gave me the following word for our students. During the night, I felt the Lord ask me to release it now as a word for all of you. So here it is. I pray that it's a blessing to you. It's time to EAT CAKE!

The Rainbow Cake

I saw you being filled up with four different colors that represented the four seasons: your heart red, your voice blue, your work yellow, your world green.

As I saw these colors stacked together, one on top of the other, they all of a sudden looked like a multi-colored cake, and it made me think of cakes that can look the same on the outside. They can be covered in chocolate, but it's only when you cut into the cake and pull a slice out that you can see the brilliance, the creativity, and the time that was spent to make the four different layers in the beauty of the cake.

I heard the Lord say over you today, "You might look the same to people on the outside, but I have created, this year, a rainbow within you that needs to be digested and consumed by the people that are around you. So now, just as you have partaken, it is time for you to be laid out on the table."

I heard the Lord say, "But the way that you release this – it is going to require a cutting. It's going to have to require you to go deep. It may even feel painful at times, because for the decadence of the cake to be consumed, there needs to be a cutting, and then the cook pulls it off the plate. But," the Lord says, "if you can withstand the cuttings of this world (meaning the pressures of this world), I, the Master Chef, will draw you out so that you are ready to be consumed by the hungry. For as you are being consumed by the glory, so you will pour out the glory so that others can indulge in it as well."

Now Is the Season to Give All

I sensed a warning that this is not a season to pull back. This is not a year for you to learn and grow just for yourself, but now is the season to give all. It's time to pour yourself out. A cake that sits pretty, after a while, when it is not consumed, begins to get moldy; it begins to no longer be palatable. Eventually, it can no longer be eaten without it causing stomach pain or sickness in others. But right now, you are fresh and ready for degustation!

The Lord said, "I am creating a moment in time where, as I lay you on the table, you must be ready to be poured out. You must be ready. Do not pass by your 'use by date.' The time is now!"

"This is not meant to be overwhelming. This is what it looks like to be a partaker of the Kingdom. And know this: The table has already been laid out, so you are not out of time or phase; you are ready for the table that has already been laid."

You Are the Main Event!

I then saw a beautiful tea party with linen cloth and beautiful tableware glasses that were made of crystal – but it was YOU.

You are the main event... YOU are the food that is ready for people to eat.

The Lord said, "You will not be out of context, so do not think that this is something that you must do on your own, for the table has been set; the table has been laid. Now it is time for you to be given out to others."

"And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and recline at table in the Kingdom of God." (Luke 13:29 ESV)

"He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love." (Song of Solomon 2:4 ESV)

"So don't lose a minute in building on what you've been given, complementing your basic faith with good character, spiritual understanding, alert discipline, passionate patience, reverent wonder, warm friendliness, and generous love, each dimension fitting into and developing the others. With these qualities active and growing in your lives, no grass will grow under your feet, no day will pass without its reward as you mature in your experience of our Master Yeshua. Without these qualities you can't see what's right before you, oblivious that your old sinful life has been wiped off the books.

"So, friends, confirm God's invitation to you, His choice of you. Don't put it off; do it now. Do this, and you'll have your life on a firm footing, the streets paved and the way wide open into the eternal Kingdom of our Master and Savior, Yeshua Christ." (2 Peter 1:5-11 MSG)

Let's do this! Our time is now!

CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Inspiration Ministries, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Wikipedia, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Rabbi Dov Ber Pinson, Sefer Yetzirah, Rabbi Menachem Posner, Joe Joe Dawson, April Klassen Brown, Kathi Pelton, Angie Stolba, Sylvia Neusch, Julie Green, John R. Cioffi Sr., Amanda Grace, Mariel Villarreal, Lana Vawser, Nathan French, Dianne lake, Anna Jackson, Hank Kunneman, Rachel Emerson, Wade Tayler, Ellaine Tavolacci, William Alteneder, Roma Waterman, Francis Frangipane, Nate & Christy Johnston, Veronika West, James Nesbit, Bruce and Linda Dietler, Bible Gateway, John & Janet Rockwell, Wade & Frances Butler, Dutch Sheets, Bob & Remy Koch, Terry Friesen, Matt Friesser, Tim Sheets, Roger Lee Waters.

Blessings and enjoy, Dr. Wade K. Butler, Chaplain

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, again, "Study to show yourself approved".