

Adar I: 5784. The month to leap forward out of your past into your Destiny.
Chaplain Wade Butler

Adar is the 13th month on the Jewish calendar counting from Nisan and is only celebrated during leap years.

During a Jewish leap year, which occurs seven times in a 19-year cycle (approximately once every three years), there is an added month called "Adar I," inserted before this month of Adar (termed "Adar II" in leap years). This aligns the lunar months with the solar year, ensuring that the holidays fall in the proper seasons. It adds increased days of celebration but also is a time when the enemy tries to catch us unaware.

Adar is often referred to as the month to "Leap" into your future or Destiny. It is symbolized by a Stag or deer leaping. The biggest issue is being sure you are leaping in the right direction. The enemy is on the prowl scheming to get the "Sons and daughters" of GOD to be distracted and leap off cliffs or into abysses never to return.

It is a season of war for the restoration and reformation of HIS Kingdom.

All one has to do is look around and wars, rumors of war and turmoil is everywhere. We must come out of our slumber, pick up our weapons of war and be prepared to fight the good fight. Do not jump ahead but listen before you leap. You could be jumping into the enemy's camp.

Terry Friesen's dream hits home as to where and how desperate we are to stay on course or as I stated last year to "hold the line". Many intercessors are experiencing the LORD jumping them either backward in time to deal with old woundings or forward to prepare them for what is ahead. Interesting times as our LORD, "RESETS" the times and seasons we are in. Look at the dream Terry Friesen experienced.

Terry Freisen: A current dream and message.

Several years ago, the Lord confronted me and asked me if I was willing to give up a contentious reality. At the time I really didn't understand. Was I willing to give up the need to wrestle with life and simply receive the best He had for me? Are you ready to enter into the ease of our Father?

The Lord gave me a very sobering warning dream recently one morning - I am very thankful that He did.

Progressively the yolk of Christ in my life has become more and more restrictive. He has been actively working to remove pockets of independence and rebellion from my life, which I agreed to.

In the dream I was feeling the very tight place of His yolk and in this "protected" place I had very little room to move, almost no room, so form fitting is the yolk.

In this tight restrictive place, I chose to exercise my independence and rebel against the tightness I was feeling, I just wanted to stretch and feel some freedom in my will. As I did, I could feel my exercise of independence - and in so doing I could see and feel the hordes of hell recognize my state, I was just Terry, "uncovered", they started to circle me and prepare to attack me. The atmosphere became black, and I started to panic realizing I was outside of my protection.

I quickly yielded to Christ, declared Him as LORD, and exercised my authority in Christ to marshal hosts to tear down this assault.

Once again, I chose to yield, become small, and fit into the yolk Christ has placed on me. The minute I did this, I once again became invisible to the enemy. This is very sobering and very real. The yolk of the Lord can feel very restrictive at times, especially in this area of dominion. I know that boundless freedom is on the way for me and my life, but not until this call to rule and reign with Him has been formed in me and I become one with the yolk of His leading and protection.

This process has dramatically intensified in recent years and seems to be culminating around the concept of dominion. Even when we say yes to the dominion we've been given and when we embrace the call, we do so in Christ, conformed to His image. In this place we are protected and can exercise full authority.

The further we go in this direction the more critical it is we do not operate independently of our Lord. We are entering very serious times as we are being entrusted with the full weight of His Kingdom as sons and daughters, let's not lose our step in the training and reigning process. This is not a dress rehearsal, this is real.

Dear Mighty Warriors, Hold the Line has become, "On MY Word Advance!"

Wade Butler

Last year I wrote the following about "Hold the Line". You know some things have not changed. As intercessors and with so many that see, we are frontline warriors in the spirit who often become sensitive to those who are suffering. We literally feel their pain, suffering, and sorrows. Our prayers become groanings in the spirit to our Father and Lord for those on the front lines.

In prayer last year I heard HS say, "HOLD THE LINE, HOLD THE LINE, HOLD THE LINE," for help is on the way, it is here, evil must be exposed to shock MY people out of their slumber and rise them up to the spiritual darkness around them. RISE UP MY CHILDREN, RISE UP, THE ENEMY IS AT YOUR DOOR. BEAT YOUR PLOWS INTO SWORDS AND BE AT ATTENTION FOR I AM AT HAND AND MY ANGEL ARMY IS WITH ME."

'A wave of the SPIRIT us now rushing across the "True North headed East" and like a title wave, destruction is at hand. Rise up above the fray. See from MY perspective. Ride the wave and watch what is about to happen.'

'MY EKKLESIA IS COMING OUT OF HIDING! REJOICE AND GIVE THANKS, BLOW THE SHOFARS, SOUND THE ALARM, DO NOT BACK DOWN, VICTORY IS AT HAND AND IS IN YOUR MOUTHS!'

Now the LORD is saying, "It is time to Advance"!

We as nations, Sons and Daughters have been given Marching Orders! A decade of war is upon us, and we must, must, pay attention to the battle around us. Never have I experienced such vicious attacks on all sides, mentally, physically, spiritually, financially and emotionally. No longer are we to sit on the sidelines and cheer the Angels on. They are waiting on us to give the orders.

Recently in an open vision I was standing on the mountain of the LORD in heaven overlooking the Seven Mountains of influence on earth. As I looked around I saw millions of Angels many in Legions and just as many separately prepared for war, yet all was silent. At the head of the Armies was Yeshua. I asked HIM, Why is all of Heaven silent? HE replied, "My Sons and Daughters are waiting on ME to do something, We are waiting on all of You!" I gave you authority and dominion on earth. When are you going to do something?" "GIVE THE ORDERS TO ADVANCE, SEND THE ARMIES OF THE LORD INTO BATTLE AND (BE PREPARED TO GO WITH THEM)." As always do not take on something by yourself but call on the LORD and ask permission and be prepared to join the battle as HE directs. Be prepared with the WORD and quickly use, "The LORD Rebuke you".

In prayer the LORD gave Matt Friesser, Jim Gregory, John Rockwell, April Klassen Brown, Terry Friesen and I, instructions to have our SWAT (Spiritual Warfare Attack Team) use the following scriptures and break the ceiling of control over the nations causing the earth to be grounded into Heaven. AND the ceiling shattered! Awake and expect breakthrough was the shout of Victory!!!! The scriptures were as follows.

Psalm 107

¹ O give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; for His mercy and loving-kindness endure forever!

² Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom He has delivered from the hand of the adversary, ³ And gathered them out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the [Red] Sea in the south.

⁴ Some wandered in the wilderness in a solitary desert track; they found no city for habitation.

⁵ Hungry and thirsty, they fainted; their lives were near to being extinguished.

⁶ Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distresses.

⁷ He led them forth by the straight and right way, that they might go to a city where they could establish their homes.

⁸ Oh, that men would praise [and confess to] the Lord for His goodness and loving-kindness and His wonderful works to the children of men!

⁹ For He satisfies the longing soul and fills the hungry soul with good.

¹⁰ Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and in irons, 11 Because they had rebelled against the words of God and spurned the counsel of the Most High.

12 Therefore He bowed down their hearts with hard labor; they stumbled and fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death and broke apart the bonds that held them.

15 Oh, that men would praise [and confess to] the Lord for His goodness and loving-kindness and His wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For He has broken the gates of bronze and cut the bars of iron apart.

17 Some are fools [made ill] because of the way of their transgressions and are afflicted because of their iniquities.

18 They loathe every kind of food, and they draw near to the gates of death.

19 Then they cry to the Lord in their trouble, and He delivers them out of their distresses.

20 He sends forth His word and heals them and rescues them from the pit and destruction.

21 Oh, that men would praise [and confess to] the Lord for His goodness and loving-kindness and His wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving and rehearse His deeds with shouts of joy and singing!

23 Some go down to the sea and travel over it in ships to do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the Lord and His wonders in the deep.

²⁵ For He commands and raises up the stormy wind, which lifts up the waves of the sea.

²⁶ [Those aboard] mount up to the heavens, they go down again to the deeps; their courage melts away because of their plight.

²⁷ They reel to and fro and stagger like a drunken man and are at their wits' end [all their wisdom has come to nothing].

²⁸ Then they cry to the Lord in their trouble, and He brings them out of their distresses.

²⁹ He hushes the storm to a calm and to a gentle whisper, so that the waves of the sea are still.

³⁰ Then the men are glad because of the calm, and He brings them to their desired haven.

³¹ Oh, that men would praise [and confess to] the Lord for His goodness and loving-kindness and His wonderful works to the children of men!

³² Let them exalt Him also in the congregation of the people and praise Him in the company of the elders.

³³ He turns rivers into a wilderness, water springs into a thirsty ground, ³⁴ A fruitful land into a barren, salt waste, because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.

³⁵ He turns a wilderness into a pool of water and a dry ground into water springs;

³⁶ And there He makes the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation, ³⁷ And sow fields, and plant vineyards which yield fruits of increase.

³⁸ He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly, and allows not their cattle to decrease.

³⁹ When they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, trouble, and sorrow, ⁴⁰ He pours contempt upon princes and causes them to wander in waste places where there is no road.

⁴¹ Yet He raises the poor and needy from affliction and makes their families like a flock.

⁴² The upright shall see it and be glad, but all iniquity shall shut its mouth.

⁴³ Whoso is wise [if there be any truly wise] will observe and heed these things; and they will diligently consider the mercy and loving-kindness of the Lord.

Isaiah 60 Amplified Bible, Classic Edition

60 Arise [from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you—rise to a new life]! Shine (be radiant with the glory of the Lord), for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you!

² For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and dense darkness [all] peoples, but the Lord shall arise upon you [O Jerusalem], and His glory shall be seen on you.

³ And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you [as the eastern pastoral tribes join the trading tribes], the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on My altar, and My glorious house I will glorify.

8 Who are these who fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows?

9 Surely the isles and distant coastlands shall wait for and expect Me; and the ships of Tarshish [shall come] first, to bring your sons from afar, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the Lord your God, for the Holy One of Israel, because He has beautified and glorified you.

10 Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in My wrath, I smote you, but in My favor, pleasure, and goodwill I have had mercy, love, and pity for you.

11 And your gates shall be open continually, they shall not be shut day or night, that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations—and their kings led in procession [your voluntary captives].

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you in that day [Jerusalem] shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly laid waste.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress, the plane, and the pine [trees] together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary; and I will make the place of My feet glorious.

14 The sons of those who afflicted you shall come bending low to you, and all those who despised you shall bow down at your feet, and they shall call you the City of the Lord, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through you, I will make you [Jerusalem] an eternal glory, a joy from age to age.

16 You shall suck the milk of the [Gentile] nations and shall suck the breast of kings; and you shall recognize and know that I, the Lord, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 Instead of bronze I will bring gold, and instead of iron I will bring silver; and instead of wood, bronze, and instead of stones, iron. [Instead of the tyranny of the present] I will appoint peace as your officers and righteousness as your taskmasters.

¹⁸ Violence shall no more be heard in your land, nor devastation or destruction within your borders, but you shall call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

²⁰ Your sun shall no more go down, nor shall your moon withdraw itself, for the Lord shall be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended.

²¹ Your people also shall all be [uncompromisingly and consistently] righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of My planting, the work of My hands, that I may be glorified.

²² The least one shall become a thousand [a clan], and the small one a strong nation. I, the Lord, will hasten it in its [appointed] time.

Eph 5:14 Amplified Bible, Classic Edition

¹⁴ Therefore He says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall shine (make day dawn) upon you and give you light.

1 Thessalonians 5:6 Accordingly then, let us not sleep, as the rest do, but let us keep wide awake (alert, watchful, cautious, and on our guard) and let us be sober (calm, collected, and circumspect).

We are at war be awake and sober, Listen to the voice of the LORD and dispatch Angels!

Overview

This letter to those who are new at following the daily devotional and Calendar, I would like to share with you some of the reasoning of the publication and answer some questions that are posed to me each month. To begin with we follow the example of "One new man", Jew and Gentile following the Messiah. Because of that we relate the Hebrew calendar timelines because our father did not change the seasons, man did. We need to learn about our roots. So, join us.

Many people receive this who are not members of the Republic. President Trump talked about and probably will never become part of the "Patriot Movement" for many reasons, yet they are lovers of truth and followers of the LORD.

This is Adar I: by Wade Butler

It is a month of great joy as they Hebrew's leap in joy for their deliverance from a death sentence. It is the month when the curse over Naphtali from when they rebelled against God was overturned. (Adar II)

You can break the curse of rebellion and overturn the curse now! Repent!!! It is the month of starting to move toward our destinies. Yeshua chose most of HIS disciples from the tribe of Naphtali in the region of Nazareth on the Sea of Galilee. In Rev 7 Naphtali is seen as restored with 12K chosen from the tribe and sealed as servants of GOD. It is the season to become what GOD has called us to be.

Yeshua Begins His Ministry Matthew 4:

¹² Now when Yeshua heard that John [the Baptist] had been arrested and put in prison, He left for Galilee. ¹³ And leaving Nazareth, He went and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the country of Zebulun and Naphtali.

¹⁴ This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁷ From that time Yeshua began to preach and say, "Repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God's purpose for your life], for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

The First Disciples

¹⁸ As Yeshua was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He noticed two brothers, Simon who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ And He said to them, "Follow Me [as My disciples, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk], and I will make you fishers of men." ²⁰ Immediately they left their nets and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example]. ²¹ And going on [further] from there He noticed two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets; and He called them [to follow Him as His disciples]. ²² Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

Ministry in Galilee

²³ And He went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news (gospel) of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people [demonstrating and revealing that He was indeed the promised Messiah].

²⁴ So the news about Him spread throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all who were sick, those suffering with various diseases and pains, those under the power of demons, and epileptics, paralytics; and He healed them.

²⁵ Large crowds followed Him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and the other side of the Jordan.

Revelation 7 Amplified Bible (AMP)

An Interlude

7 After this I saw four angels stationed at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. ² Then I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, holding the seal of the living God; and with a loud voice he called out to the four angels to whom it was granted [to have authority and power] to harm the earth and the sea, ³ saying, "Do not harm the earth nor the sea nor the trees until we seal (mark) the bondservants of our God on their foreheads."

The 144,000

⁴ And I heard how many were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand; [twelve thousand] sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel: ⁵ Twelve thousand were sealed from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand from the tribe of Gad, ⁶ twelve thousand from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand from the tribe of Manasseh, ⁷ twelve thousand from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand from the tribe of Issachar, ⁸ twelve thousand from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand from the tribe of Joseph, and twelve thousand from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed (marked, redeemed, protected).

A Multitude from the Tribulation

⁹ After these things I looked, and this is what I saw: a vast multitude which no one could count, [gathered] from every nation and from all the tribes and peoples and languages [of the earth], standing before the throne and before the Lamb (Christ), dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands; ¹⁰ and in a loud voice they cried out, saying,

"Salvation [belongs] to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb [our salvation is the Trinity's to give, and to God the Trinity we owe our deliverance]."

¹¹ And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the [twenty-four] elders and the four living creatures; and they fell to their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and majesty and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen."

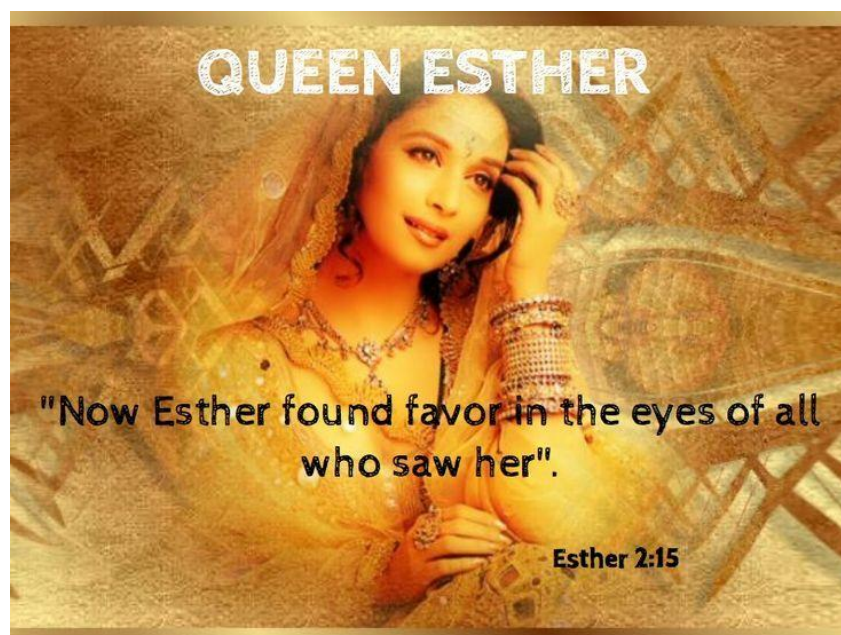

¹³ Then one of the elders responded, saying to me, "These who are dressed in the long white robes—who are they, and from where did they come?" ¹⁴ I said to him, "My lord, you know [the answer]." And he said to me, "These are the people who come out of the great tribulation (persecution), and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb [because of His atoning sacrifice]. ¹⁵ For this reason, they are [standing] before the throne of God; and they serve Him [in worship] day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them and shelter and protect them [with His presence]. ¹⁶ They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any [scorching] heat; ¹⁷ for the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will be their Shepherd, and He will guide them to springs of the waters of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes [giving them eternal comfort]."

Purim is a Jewish holiday that commemorates the deliverance of the Jewish people in the ancient Persian Empire from destruction in the wake of a plot by Haman, a story recorded in the Biblical Book of Esther. The month is related to the tribe of Naphtali- "sweetness to me" says the LORD.

It is the month to gain favor of the LORD and overturn the plans of the enemy so that he is defeated and hung on his own gallows.

We are to experience GOD's goodness and mercy as we develop our war strategy for the future. It is a time to break all decrees against our families as we mount up to destroy the plans of the enemy to destroy us.

As we celebrate the season of the Queen who risks everything to save a nation our LORD wants us to be joyful as we prepare our seeds for spring and till the ground for seedtime and harvest. Stay in alignment with the LORD and move into the season of blessing.

Facts of the 2-month season

The brown trees of winter have put on gleaming costumes of bright green People act a little crazy – shedding heavy clothes while there is still a chill in the air, laughing a little wildly when there is no reason " We've gotten giddy; we've caught spring fever."

Because Purim falls in Adar II is the happiest, most joyous time of the Hebrew calendar. Its motto is "When Adar arrives, joy increases." Tradition teaches that Adar is so full of joy that it is as if Adar were pregnant with happiness. Indeed, some years we need two Adar's to contain all the joy of Adar.

Dina. Beginning in the second century CE, the twelve calendar months were associated with the twelve tribes of Israel. Adar I is an additional, 13th month which some traditions associate with Dina, Leah's only daughter, and the youngest of Leah's children.

Dina's story is complicated, and we know little about it. One day she goes out to meet the women of the local Hivite town and ends up entangled with one of the men of the place. Some traditions say that Dina chose freely to spend time with this man; the Torah implies that he imposed himself on her by force. Unfortunately, the Torah does not record Dina's own thoughts and feelings on the matter, and so we are left to speculate.

Dina's story reminds us to be careful and to make good choices in potentially dangerous situations. At the same time, it is very important to understand that when someone is the victim of a crime when he or she was simply going about freely, the victim is innocent. When we or someone we care about are hurt, there can be a tendency to wish that the victim had done something differently so she would not have come in harm's way. But we must remember that the one harmed is not in any way at fault.

Adar (Hebrew: אָדָר Adar, from Akkadian adaru) is the sixth month of the civil year and the twelfth month of the ecclesiastical year on the Hebrew calendar, roughly corresponding to the month of March in the Gregorian calendar. It is a month of 29 days. The key Purim-related liberating wartime events and main mention of the month appear in the holy scripture of Esther 9, its last book.

The month's name, like all the other from the Hebrew calendar, was adopted during the Babylonian captivity. In the Babylonian calendar the name was Arah Addaru or Adār ('Month of Adar').

In leap years, it is preceded by a 30-day intercalary month named Adar Aleph (Hebrew: 'אדר א', Aleph being the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet), also known as "Adar Rishon" (First Adar) or "Adar I", and it is then itself called Adar Bet (Hebrew: 'אדר ב', Bet being the second letter of the Hebrew alphabet, also known as "Adar Sheni" (Second Adar or "Adar II"). Occasionally instead of Adar I and Adar II, "Adar" and "Ve'Adar" are used (Ve means 'and' thus: And-Adar). Adar I and II occur during February–March on the Gregorian calendar.

Customs

During the Second Temple period, there was a Jewish custom to make a public proclamation on the first day of the lunar month Adar, reminding the people that they are to prepare their annual monetary offering to the Temple treasury, known as the half-Shekel.

Based on a line in the Mishnah declaring that Purim must be celebrated in Adar II in a leap year (Megillah 1:4), Adar I is considered the "extra" month. As a result, someone born in Adar during a non leap year would celebrate their birthday in Adar II during a leap year. However, someone born during either Adar in a leap year will celebrate their birthday during Adar in a non-leap year, except that someone born on 30 Adar I will celebrate their birthday on 1 Nisan in a non-leap year because Adar in a non-leap year has only 29 days.

The word Adar is cognate to the Hebrew word "adir", meaning "strength". Adar is the month of good fortune for the Jewish people.

"Adar" means "exalted", "praised", "power", and "strength". where it says: "the Lord is (Adir) mighty on High". This opinion states that just as we decrease our joy because we are separated from the Shechina (God's presence) in the month of Av, so too in Adar we rejoice because the whole month is a time when the Shechina (God's presence) is close to us.

When God commanded Moses to construct the tabernacle, He made the following request: make for Me a small chamber (called Mishkan in Hebrew) so that I may live (dwell in your midst).

1 Corinthians 6:19 says; do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?

It is said that the word "v'edor" ("and I will dwell" in Hebrew) is related to the word "adar" – the very name of this month implies that it is a time when the Shechina (God's presence) dwells among us "v'edor beineichem".

Another opinion states that the word "Adar" means "beauty", as in the beauty of the season contained in Adar, Spring.

In Jewish history

- 1 Adar (circa 1313 BC) – Plague of Darkness, the ninth plague upon the Egyptians (Exodus 10:23). This started on the 1st of Adar, six weeks before the Exodus
- 2 Adar (598 BC) – Jerusalem falls to Nebuchadnezzar and Jeconiah is captured.
- 3 Adar (515 BC) – Second Temple completed
- 7 Adar (1393 BC) – Birth of Moses
- 7 Adar (1273 BC) – Death of Moses
- 13 Adar (161 BC) – Yom Nicanor – The Maccabees defeated Syrian general Nicanor, in a battle fought four years after the Maccabees' liberation of the Holy Land and the miracle of Hanukkah.
- 14 Adar (474 BC) – Purim victory celebrated in the Persian Empire
- 15 Adar (1st century CE) – Jerusalem Gate Day – King Agrippa I (circa 21 CE) began construction of a gate for the wall of Jerusalem; the day used to be celebrated as a holiday.
- 25 Adar (561 BC) – Death of Nebuchadnezzar (Jeremiah 52:31).

Part 3: The Teacher, the Prophet and the Ebionites A Hebrew Perspective

by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)

edited by Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch)

The "Righteous Teacher" or "Teacher of Righteousness" is a prominent figure in the Dead Sea Scrolls (DSS). He is referred to as the "The Staff" and the "Interpreter of the Law". The Scrolls reference one or more historical figures and an eschatological one connected with the coming of the Branch of David (Davidic Messiah) at the end of days. In Hebrew, the word for teacher is "Maskil".

The historical Teacher was a priest. This is explicit in the peshar on Ps 37:23-24 (4QpPsa 1-10.iii.15¹). There is no evidence that he was ever High Priest in Jerusalem...but we should expect that he was regarded as an ideal priest by his followers...He is a priest to whom God has given the power "to interpret all the words of his servants the prophets" (IQpHab 2:8-9), "to whom God made known all the mysteries of the words of his servants the prophets" (IQpHab 7:4-5).²

In 1QS, iii.13, the Maskil teaches 'the sons of Light' about 'their works'... In ix. 12 he is commanded to be 'zealous for the Law and the Day of Vengeance'... In CD, xii.20 and xiii.22, the Maskil is to 'walk in the Laws' until the 'standing up of the Messiah of Aaron and Israel in the last days' and the 'visitation of the land'...

... the terminology 'standing up' as implying possibly either 'being resurrected' or a 'return', as well as the more straightforward 'arising'/'coming'... these references to 'the Messiah of Aaron and Israel' in the Damascus Document (found in the DSS) are singular not plural. The verbs and verbal nouns connected with them are singular too.³

We see that the historical Teacher was to bridge the gap between the writer's current days of darkness and the coming of the Davidic Messiah at the end of days.

The Maskil is 'to make known to and teach the sons of Light' (the sons of Dawn?) 'the Ways of Light' and how to 'be reckoned among the Perfect', including, it would appear, 'justification', 'works' and the like. In particular, he is to instruct them in baptismal procedures, which include being 'purified by the Holy Spirit', 'looking upon the Living Light' (or Living Waters) and 'walking in Perfection in all the Ways of God,

One should compare this last turn of phrase to Yeshua on 'not one jot or tittle of the Law' in the Matt. 5:18 Sermon on the Mount and James 2:8 on 'breaking one small point of the Law'.⁴

"The Way" to walk in the authentic Instructions given to Moses is repeated many times in DSS, especially in relationship to the Teacher. This ancient, bona-fide Torah is juxtaposed to the rulings of the dominant Pharisee party (DSS: "seekers after smooth things") whose leaders were obsequious collaborators with the Roman overlords in many areas. They also created numerous extra-biblical "rules" or "traditions" (oral laws and fences) and unilaterally elevated them to the status of Torah. This was one of the main contentions between Yeshua and the Pharisees whom he (and the Essenes) regarded as usurping autocrats.

The Pharisaic party supported Hyrancus II who had allowed the Roman takeover of the country by enlisting their military backing in a dispute with his brother for the office of High Priest (c. 60 BC). Josephus stated that the Pharisees were the leaders of the Sanhedrin and controlled Temple politics from the time of Herod the Great.

The historical "Interpreter of the Law" was not the Davidic "Messiah". He had lived in the near past or was living in their present time called, "the period of wickedness" that precedes the messianic age to be inaugurated by the coming of the Messiah.

The eschatological High Priest, then, could aptly be described as "Interpreter of the Law" or "Teacher of Righteousness." In light of this, the Interpreter of the Law and Branch of David in the Florilegium (anthology) may be plausibly equated with the figures known elsewhere as the messiahs (anointed ones) of Aaron and Israel.⁵

Who was the historical Righteous Teacher? The "standard" interpretation of earlier scholars with was that he was a priest / founder of the opposition group of "pious Sadducees" (Essenes) in mid 1st century BC. Several prominent researchers have since placed him later, c. 30 BC to c. 25 CE. This brings John the Baptist into play. His father was a practicing Kohen/Priest. John was a well-respected, pious Nazarite member of the Community who, along with his own disciples, immersed (baptized) thousands with water representing entrance into the New Covenant. Interestingly, the Qumran community called themselves "The New Covenanters".

"James (Jacob) the Just" or "...the Righteous", the brother of Yeshua, is considered by some as either the only or perhaps a second Teacher. Even though he was not an official priest, many reports verify that James was a priest in the Zaddokite tradition (a pious uncorrupted man) who actually entered into the Holy of Holies on Yom Kippur – likely on the Essene calendar date. There is a strong case for James as well as for John; both men had larger spiritual and political roles to play than reflected in the NT.

“The Prophet like Moses” or “True Prophet: In the DSS, the prophets are called “anointed ones”, so they can be designated as “a maschiah” as well. The anointing of Isaiah 61 endows the prophet with God’s authority to make his proclamations.

John Collins has suggested that 4Q521 describes the expected activity of a prophetic Messiah. This seems likely because Isaiah 61 concerns someone anointed to “bring good news” and to “proclaim liberty” and “the year of the Lord’s favour.” These are the responsibilities of a prophet. Indeed, the Targum renders Isa 61:1, “The Prophet said, ‘A spirit of prophecy is upon me to announce good news’”. The commission to proclaim good news is also the job of the herald of Isa 52:7. Significantly, in this passage the prophetic herald announces that “God is king” (or, “God reigns”). The Aramaic paraphrase may again be significant; it reads: “The kingdom of your God is revealed.”

If we bring together these two passages, especially as the Targum has paraphrased them, we have a remarkably close approximation of Yeshua’ message: He proclaims the kingdom of God, and through his ministry of healing and exorcism he proves that it is present; he claims to be anointed and so qualified to proclaim the good news.⁶

The “Prophet like Moses” will come into greater focus as we examine the doctrines of the Ebionites, especially in relation to the nature of Yeshua, as revealed through some extant sectarian literature, writings of Church fathers and the Pseudo-Clementines.

What Happened to the followers of The Way? According to external records from the Church fathers and others, they remained in Judaea until Hadrian’s decree of expulsion in 135 C.E. Reports claimed there were 15 bishops of the original group who had established kehilat (assemblies; ecclesia) in Syria, Trans-Jordan and Mesopotamia. From the mid first century, Irenaeus and others referred to them most commonly as “Ebionites”. As the Gentiles became dominant and built-up the Graeco-Roman (GR) Church, Hellenized or “Pauline” Christianity (scholarly reference) spread.

The split between Jewish messianic and Gentile Christian assemblies is a well-known, traceable historical reality. As the GR Church began to codify their dogma, Ebionite writings were labeled, “heretical”. Over the centuries, GR Church decrees were issued to destroy all nonconformist material especially from the Gnostics, the Jewish Ebionites and the Arians. This culminated in the infamous Codex Justinianus, dating from 449 CE, which contained the following order of the Emperors Theodosius and Valentinian: "...burn all writings hostile to Christianity composed by Porphyry or any other person in his blindness, lest they cause God's anger and scandalize the pious". The order applied equally to all books privately owned, in synagogues and city public libraries.

Eventually the descendants of the original Jewish community were declared anathema by the imperial GR Church. Their distinct sect faded away or went underground. There is evidence of Ebionites into the seventh and eighth centuries in the near East.

THE EBIONITES

The term "ebionim" was used extensively in the DSS referring to the "righteous".

The name no doubt is based on the biblical Hebrew term ebionim (probably via Aramaic ebionaye). In the Hebrew Bible, ebion and ebionim are very frequently occurring terms, and they generally refer to those in Israel who are looked down upon by the rich and powerful, and who expect to be delivered by the God of Israel in the present time or in the eschaton. The ebionim are those within the people of Israel who are the primary addressees of God's salvation, now and in the future... They would also use this name to identify themselves as those whom Yeshua had blessed and to whom he had promised God's recompense in Luke 6:20: "Blessed are you poor." In the Epistle of James this positive identification with the biblical ebionim is continued.... Origen, who knew enough Hebrew to understand the term... seems to have used it as a general term for Jewish believers.⁷

"Jerome's more historically correct for whom the "poor" here [ed. note: Gal 2:9-10] are the Jewish believers of Acts 2:44-45."⁸

After the Bar Kochba revolt and Hadrian's subsequent dispersion order in 135 CE, it seems the remaining Jewish believers gradually separated into two groups.

...In his Dialogue with Trypho the Jew (chap. 47), Justin, writing about the middle of the second century, distinguished two groups of Christians of Jewish origin: moderates who remained within the church and, especially in the Diaspora congregations, exercised a Judaizing influence on the formation of Christian doctrine and morality; and "extremists" who refused to live with Gentile Christians who would incorporate the Jewish law into their faith in Christ.

There were probably such Jewish Christians who had separated themselves...

because they combined faith in Christ with Jewish legal observance, in many places (Rome, Egypt, Mesopotamia) and for a long time. We have a clear profile only of the Jewish Christians of Palestine-Syria, who insistently emphasized their connection with the original cell of Christianity in Jerusalem and Galilee. From their circles also come the literary remains...The Jewish Christians "had independent theological and literary traditions, and represented from the turn of the second century to the third century a group which was independent of the 'Great Church'"⁹

The distinct group called Ebionites were connected by Christian writers with the Essenes and the community of James. They were the ones closest to Judaea in Syria, Mesopotamia, Greece and Anatolia. The diaspora Jews who melded with the "Great" GR church undoubtedly had some effect on early Near Eastern Christian beliefs.

The early Gentile churches that sprang up mostly in the Greek dominated areas were hybrid neo-Platonist in beliefs. Later labeled "Arians", they likely represented the majority of Eastern Christians in the 2nd and 3rd centuries. They asserted that the "Logos" was analogous to Plato's "Reason" in a neo-Platonic sense, belonging to the Divine nature as an attribute, not as a distinct "person" that was both co-equal and co-eternal with the Creator. Yeshua's spirit was thus an "emanation" from the Most High God. Paralleling Hebraic thought, they taught that the term "Son" was used as a title not an essence of being. However, starting in 325 CE, the imperial Roman Church Councils codified Yeshua Christ as co-equal, co-eternal and consubstantial; eventually this became the official Trinitarian dogma. Consequently, the Arians were finally denounced as anathema by the late 3rd century, their communities outlawed and ex-communicated.

The Jewish Christianity of Irenaeus' Ebionites involved obedience to Jewish law (including circumcision), anti-Paulinism, rejection of Yeshua's virgin birth, reverence for Jerusalem (direction of prayer), use of Matthew's Gospel [ed. note: not the same one in the canon], Eucharist with water, and the idea that Christ / Spirit entered Yeshua at his baptism.... Although this partly reflects an educated, Western view of the Ebionites at the end of the second century, it has clear connections to what we know about the early Jerusalem community. This justifies the assumption that the Ebionites, as they were known to Irenaeus, were an offshoot of the earliest Jerusalem community and probably closer to its Hebrew faction.¹⁰

In Part 4, we will delve into the Ebionite's theology and understanding of Yeshua's messianic role. We will use the Church fathers' polemics and the Pseudo-Clementines which contains an ancient section that can be traced back as The Ascents of James.

A GENERATION OF RIGHTEOUS WARRIORS"

CHARLIE SHAMP, MORAVIAN FALLS, NC

The Spirit of the Lord would say to the Church, "I am raising up a generation of righteous warriors who will walk in the power and authority of My Spirit. They shall be a beacon of light in a dark world, shining with the righteousness that emanates from Me. I am calling upon you to rise up and take your place as ambassadors of righteousness. As you walk in righteousness, you shall witness My hand moving mightily in your midst. I shall go before you, preparing the way and straightening every crooked path. I shall open doors that no man can shut and close doors that no man can open. I shall lead you in the way of My steps, guiding you with My wisdom and understanding.

"Do not be discouraged by the challenges and trials that come your way, for I am with you. I shall strengthen you and uphold you with My righteous right hand. I shall give you the words to speak and the strategies to overcome. Trust in Me and lean not on your own understanding. Seek My righteousness above all else, and I shall add all things unto you.

"I am releasing a fresh anointing of righteousness upon you. It shall flow like a river, washing away every stain of sin and unrighteousness. It shall empower you to walk in holiness and purity, reflecting My image to the world. As you walk in righteousness, you shall witness the captives set free, the sick healed, and the lost saved. You shall be a vessel of My glory, carrying My presence wherever you go. "I am bringing forth a new wineskin, one that is crafted to contain the fire of My Spirit, not just the ordinary wine of old. Embrace this newness and be open to the unexpected ways in which I shall move in your midst. Through this transformation, I shall refine and empower you to carry My fire into the world.

"Arise and take your place in this hour. Let righteousness be your banner and your shield. Let it guide your every step and decision. Let it be the foundation upon which you build your life. For I am doing a new thing in the earth, and I am seeking those who will walk in righteousness and partner with Me in this great work.

"I declare over you that righteousness shall go before you and set you in the way of My steps. You shall walk in victory, for I have already overcome the world. You shall walk in authority, for I have given you the keys of the kingdom. You shall walk in love, for I am love.

"So arise and shine with the light of My righteousness. Let your lives be a testimony of My goodness and grace. Let the world see and know that I am the Lord, and there is none like Me. Walk in righteousness, and you shall witness the manifestation of My glory in your midst."

Our Father who are in heaven, everything is certainly moving now!

Eternally Holy is Your Name, and we honor You Lord on High! You said through Your Son in Matthew 24... "You will hear of wars and revolutions on every side, with more rumors of wars to come. Don't panic or give in to your fears, for the breaking apart of the world's systems is destined to happen! Let's repeat that, don't panic, or give in to your fears, for the breaking apart of the world's systems is destined to happen!

Thank You Father, for Your perfect love keeping from the fear the enemy wants to enslave us in!

You said, "But it won't yet be the end; it will still be unfolding. Nations will go to war against nations and kingdoms against kingdoms. And there will be terrible earthquakes, horrible epidemics, and famines in place after place. This is how the birth pains of the new age will begin!" Again, You said, this, "And there will be terrible earthquakes, horrible epidemics, and famines in place after place!"

O Father, You formed us in our Mother's wombs for this hour!

We are made for this hour! You've already supplied the grace that we need in Your new mercies every morning! Today, we receive the fullness of mercy, You in Your goodness have already supplied!

You said, "We can expect to be persecuted, even killed; for we will be hated by all the nations because of our love for You."

You said, "There will be such an increase of the sin of lawlessness that those whose hearts once burned with passion for God and others will grow cold. But to hold hope firmly to the end and we will experience life and deliverance."

So, Father, we are grasping firmly, we pray for all those unjustly persecuted for January 6, thank You for moving on their behalf and in the near future pardoning them or overturning their sentences somehow!

We pray for Tina Peters today as well, Thank You for intervening on her behalf!

Thank You also, for Your hand on President Trump, and all of those targeted by the Globalist System!

We say, Grace, Grace, Grace, to the mountains that stand before them!
We declare over each of them!

"No weapon that is fashioned against you shall prosper, and you shall confute every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord and their vindication from me, says the Lord"
Isaiah 54:17

We continue to thank You, for every captive held in any tunnel being set free, Thank You for the armies of Israel having tremendous success in destroying tunnels this day! In tunnels elsewhere continue to expose, uncover, and destroy every tunnel system in the trafficking networks!

We bless You Lord of the angel armies, that You for hearing and answering our prayers today, through the Name of Your Son!

What happened to the Women at the well? Matt Friesser

We are very acquainted with the story of the women at well as foretold in the scripture John 4, but what is the rest of the story,

Here is an account of the rest of story on womensordinationcampaign.org

HER STORY AS TOLD IN EASTERN CHRISTIANITY [1]:

She is a significant figure in the Johannine community. Like many other women, the Samaritan Woman contributed to the spread of Christianity. She therefore occupies a place of honor among the apostles. In Greek sermons from the fourth to the fourteenth centuries she is called "apostle" and "evangelist"

Later, Byzantine hagiographers developed the story of the Samaritan Woman, beginning where John left off. At Pentecost Photini (the women at the well) received baptism, along with her five sisters, Anatole, Photo, Photis, Paraskeve, Kyriake, and her two sons, Photeinos and Joseph. She then began a missionary career, traveling far and wide, preaching the good news of the Messiah's coming, His death and resurrection. When Nero, the emperor of Rome, began to persecute Christians, Photini and her son Joseph were in Carthage, in Africa, where she was preaching the Christian gospel. After Yeshua appeared to Photini in a dream, she sailed to Rome. Her son and many Christians from Africa accompanied her. Photini's arrival and activity aroused curiosity in the capital city. Everyone talked about her, "Who is this woman?" they asked. "She came here with a crowd of followers, and she preaches Christ with great boldness."

Soldiers were ordered to bring her to the emperor, but Photini anticipated them. Before they could arrest her, Photini, with her son Joseph and her Christian friends, went to Nero. When the emperor saw them, he asked why they had come. Photini answered, "We have come to teach you to believe in Christ." The half-mad ruler of the Roman Empire did not frighten her. She wanted to convert him! Nero asked the saints their names. Again, Photini answered. By name she introduced herself, her five sisters and younger son. The emperor then demanded to know whether they had all agreed to die for the Nazarene. Photini spoke for them. "Yes, for the love of Him we rejoice and in His name we'll gladly die." Hearing their defiant words, Nero ordered their hands beaten with iron rods for three hours. At the end of each hour another persecutor took up the beating. The women and her son, however, felt no pain. Nothing happened to their hands. Photini joyfully quoted words of a psalm by David: "God is my help. No matter what anyone does to me, I shall not be afraid." Perplexed by the Christian's endurance and confidence, Nero ordered the men thrown into jail. Photini and her five sisters were brought to the golden reception hall in the imperial palace. There, the six women were seated on golden thrones, In front of them stood a large golden table covered with gold coins, jewels and dresses. Nero hoped to tempt the women by this display of wealth and luxury. Nero then ordered his daughter Domnina, with her slave girls, to go speak with the Christian women. Women, he thought, would succeed in persuading their Christian sisters to deny their God.

Domnina greeted Photini graciously, mentioning the name of Christ. On hearing the princess' greeting, the saint thanked God. She then embraced and kissed Domnina. The women talked. But the outcome of the women's talk was not what Nero wished.

Photini converted Domnina and her hundred slave girls and baptized them all. She gave the name Anthousa to Nero's daughter. After her baptism, Anthousa immediately ordered all the gold and jewels on the golden table distributed to the poor of Rome.

When the emperor heard that his own daughter had been converted to Christianity, he condemned Photini and all her companions to death by fire. For seven days the furnace burned, but when the door of the furnace was opened, it was seen that the fire had not harmed the saints. Next the emperor tried to destroy the saints with poison, Photini offered to be the first to drink it. "O King," she said, "I will drink the poison first so that you might see the power of my Christ and God." All the saints then drank the poison after her. None suffered any ill effects from it. In vain Nero subjected Photini, her sisters, sons and friends to every known torture. The saints survived unscathed to taunt and ridicule their persecutor. For three years they were held in a Roman prison. Photini transformed it into a "house of God." Many Romans came to the prison, were converted and baptized. Finally, the enraged tyrant had all the saints, except for Photini, beheaded. She was thrown first into a deep, dry well and then into prison again. Photini now grieved that she was alone, that she had not received the crown of martyrdom together with her five sisters, Anatole, Photo, Photis, Paraskeve and Kyriake and her two sons, Photeinos and Joseph. Night and day she prayed for release from this life. One night, God appeared to her and a vision filled her with joy. Many days later, while she sang and blessed God, Photini gave her soul into God's hands. The Samaritan Woman conversed with Christ by the well of Jacob, near the city of Sychar. She drank the "living water" and gained everlasting life and glory. For generation after generation.

Amazing story and very inspiring to look back at those who birthed the early church. Once again, we are approaching a great conflict in the history of mankind where darkness will challenge light. Be encouraged you are here to carry that light and proclaim liberty for the captives.

Matthew 24:6-13 Amplified Bible

6 You will continually hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end [of the age. 7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. 8 But all these things are merely the beginning of birth pangs of the intolerable anguish and the time of unprecedented trouble.

9 "Then they will hand you over to endure tribulation, and will put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name. 10 At that time many will be offended and repelled [by their association with Me and will fall away from the One whom they should trust] and will betray one another handing over believers to their persecutors and will hate one another. 11 Many false prophets will appear and mislead many. 12 Because lawlessness is increased, the love of most people will grow cold. 13 But the one who endures and bears up under suffering to the end will be saved.

I HEARD THE LORD SPEAKING, 'EYES UP! EYES FRONT'

Recently I had a vision, and I heard the Lord speaking, 'EYES UP! EYES FRONT.' When I heard Him speak these words, I knew that it was a call to 'action and no distraction.' The Lord began to show me that many have been feeling a 'tug' in many directions and things vying for their focus and for their attention. I saw many turning around and looking behind them, they were looking at past seasons and there was a 'longing for what was.' There were others looking back at 'what worked' in previous seasons and trying to implement it into this season and I could feel the weight of distraction and the 'lure' to 'look back.'

As I could feel that 'lure' to 'look back' I heard the Lord say, 'LOOK UP!' We are in a VERY significant time in the body of Christ right now and there is very specific direction and divine intel that the Lord is releasing. The Lord is calling His people to ascend and come up higher and part of that 'coming up higher' is coming up out of the old season, coming up out of ashes and into beauty and coming up out of living by what is seen in the 'natural realm' and coming up higher into seeing as He sees in an unprecedented way. There is a laying aside of all things that have hindered, and an ascending the mountain of the Lord in first-love adoration, in faith, and worshipping in Spirit and in truth.

Again I heard the words around me, 'EYES UP! EYES FRONT.' As I leaned into His heart and listened, I heard the Lord say, 'STEWARD YOUR SIGHT.' Now more than ever, it is imperative that as God's people we are aligning ourselves with how HE sees. Colossians 3:2 surrounded me:

'Set your mind and keep focused habitually on the things above [the heavenly things], not on things that are on the earth [which have only temporal value].'

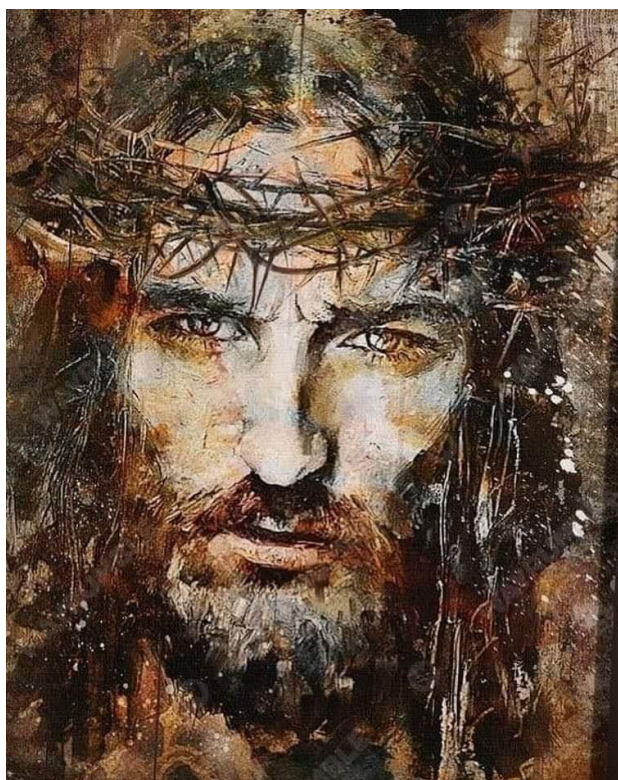

I then heard the Lord speak:

'Do not grieve what was. Do not look back with longing of what was. Do not allow distraction in your midst because of what is happening around you. It is time to look up. Look up higher. Look forward with great expectation, for I am inviting you into partnering with Me in great exploits. Look to Me. Lift up your eyes and behold Me and cultivate great expectation within your heart for what is to come in Me, for My Glory is upon you. My power and My Glory will be revealed in a greater way than you have ever seen, this year. Draw close to Me and listen to the words of My heart speaking over you. Listen to what I am speaking to you and listen to where I am leading you. It is time to let go of what was and embrace the expansion. It is time to embrace expansion. Part of the ascension is letting go of what was and embracing what I am releasing. Embracing what I am doing. Embracing where I am leading you. I know many of you are feeling uncomfortable in the transition, but look to Me, for I am leading you into greater expansion. For I am deepening your dependence in Me as I take you higher. I am strengthening your foundation, and I am fortifying you in Me. For I am expanding you and calling you to make room and prepare to pivot when I say, to make room for My Glory.'

'There is a great assault against many of you to bring distraction and to take your eyes off Me. Lift up your voice! Worship! Worship! Worship Me! Praise Me! Remember that praise is a weapon and as you worship and praise Me the heavy fog will lift. The haze will not remain. Draw close to Me, eye to eye and look deeply in Me eyes and SEE! I am leading you in new pathways. I am leading you into new terrains and new territories, but you MUST let go of what was to embrace what IS and what is coming. Listen closely for My strategy and My direction and know that there is great peace and great empowerment in the new ways I am leading you. EYES UP! EYES FRONT! The only time you are to look back is to rejoice in what I HAVE DONE and to remember My great works. But many of you are being caught up in the 'longing' for what was, but I am calling you to SHIFT YOUR FOCUS and your expectation for what IS and WILL BE! Glory to glory, strength to strength. It's time to ascend and arise in expectation. You MUST steward your sight and steward your expectation. As you steward your sight and expectation in faith, holiness, hope and purity, oh what a fragrant offering it is to Me. I am not standing on the sideline; I am present with you. Ask Me to help you steward your sight, for it is not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit. You must be VIGILANT in your VISION. VIGILANT IN YOUR VISION.

'EYES UP! EYES FRONT! It's My call to action! I am aligning My army! I am gathering My army and aligning you in ferocious focus to move into all I have for you and to partner with Me to see My Glory and My name manifest in the earth. I am raising up a FOCUSED Bride who beholds Me and lives in the ferocious focus of faith and sees as I see. EYES UP! EYES FRONT! Steward your sight and be vigilant in your vision of how I see, for you are entering unprecedented days of seeing Me, revelation of My Word, divine intel and My strategies to build with Me and see My Glory come.'

I share the following for the purpose of Prayer.

PROPHETIC RIDDLE

A Prophetic Riddle received on the USA date: 3/6/22 and the UK date: 6/3/22.

So, just after midnight, in the early hours of Sunday morning, I found myself tossing and turning unable to sleep, so I sat up in bed and began to pray, and as I was just sitting before The LORD, He immediately began to speak.

"Test, Weigh and Pray!

Watch and Listen! Tick, tock, tick, tock, go the hands of the clock.
Look to Me! Look to Me! I say, look to Me, for they shall say, "Surely its the beginning of World War 3!" But I say, open your eyes and see, for the one they call Zelensky, he is no hero and no champion of The Truth.

For he's nothing more than a political pawn on a globalist chess board and puppet on a string — a traitor to his country and a Judas to his friends. He thinks he has the world hoodwinked to his deceitful and demonic deeds.
But watch! For in the midst of a great shaking, I shall expose and uncover their secret deals and diabolical plans, and I shall strip them naked for the world to see — lights, camera, action — and the curtain will lift, and the Puppet Master's plans will suddenly have to move and shift.

And oh! How they will scatter like cockroaches in the dark. "It's Putin! It's Putin!" they all will shout, "He's to blame for the suffering and the beginning of this Third World War fight!" But nay I say, "This has been strategically and carefully planned by high-ranking politicians hidden in plain sight, for the hungry Bear has now been provoked, by the corrupt hands of those who dared to prod and to poke.

And so, watch, as the political dominoes begin to fall, as one by one, they will come into the light, and like a mad feeding frenzy. the media will shout, "This is surely all truth and not false or fake!" But watch! For just like the boy who again cried wolf (ref), so gone are the days of believing what they say and walking in blind faith, as the eyes of all Nations finally receive clear sight.

And with a loud roar, they will rise from a very deep sleep, and begin to push back the global elites, and so with WW3 now knocking on the Door, will NATO Nations open up for more?

And like a wild cat let loose from a sack, once the Door is wide open — there is no going back!

For greater turmoil and trouble will certainly ensue, as Nations rise against Nations with an appetite for murder and more bloodshed. So, watch and pray and do not say, "That this is that," for many things are not as they seem. So, listen and pay attention and you will learn, to look and to learn.

For I AM The Answer to all that you need. So, fear not My Beloved when they talk of a World War Three, for there is a place of safe Refuge and Peace, which can only be found by resting in Me!"

SECOND RIDDLE.

Three Times the Bear Shall Bite

March 3, 2022, Veronika West

"Three times The Bear shall bite — The Lion will roar, and the Red Dragon will strike. But watch! For a Leopard doesn't change its spots!"

In the early hours of yesterday morning with my eyes barely open I felt The Spirit of The Fear of The LORD come upon me, and I received this riddle.

Please weigh, test and pray!

"Watch! For did I not say that The Great Bear Nation has emerged from a time of political hibernation with a hunger for war and an appetite for greater domination and territorial occupation in the earth?"

But watch and pray! Pay close attention, for when a strong Ruling King is away, the ravenous beasts will come out to play!

Listen! For at the sound of the roar of The Lion. Nations shall be shaken, and boundary lines shall be shifted, as battlelines are being drawn.

And then they will say, "Look! Look to the Nation of Germany!" For out of the dark cave of isolation and shame, it shall suddenly emerge from the shadows for greater political power and monetary gain.

And many will say, "See! A Leopard doesn't change its spots." For surely what will begin to unfold is a type and a shadow of Adolf Hitler's demonic stronghold. See! For the eyes of the Red Dragon are firmly fixed upon the Nation of Taiwan, and with its tail it shall strike the land, and strike the seas. But watch! For just when things begin to accelerate, and they will. A greater awakening shall begin to take place.

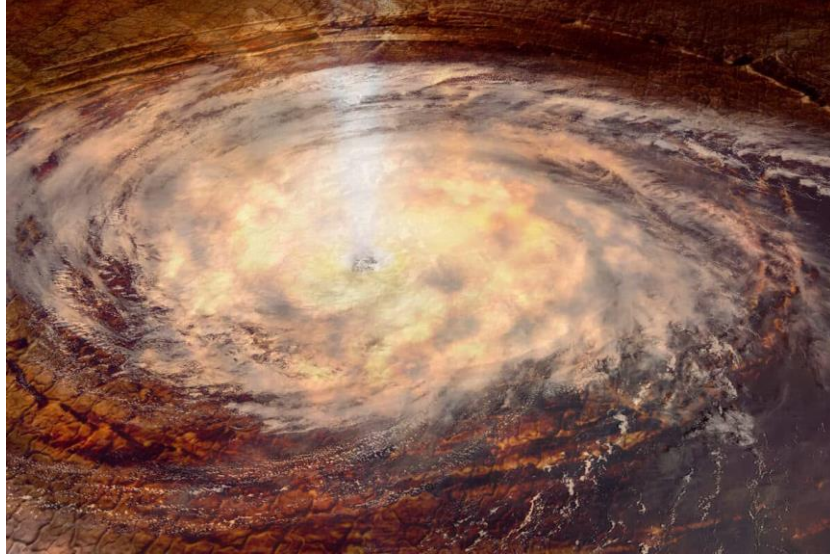

And the dark veil of deception shall be removed from its place, and then a rumbling sound shall be heard coming up from deep underground. For a sleeping Giant Slayer is now being aroused and rising to its feet with a two-edged sword in its hand. It shall drive back the Red Dragon that seeks to lay siege to the land.

Watch and pray! As the Bear Nation will bite down hard with its sharp teeth, Once, twice and three times, and then The Lion will roar, and The Leopard will leap, as the tail of the Red Dragon strikes, strikes while the nation of Taiwan is asleep!" Blessings to you all.

A STORM IS BREWING A SOUND IS RISING THAT WILL SIGNAL NATIONS ARE AT BOILING POINT..!

Friends, ... The Spirit of God is Moving - Do you feel it! Do you See it? Do you hear it? PAY ATTENTION, ... For there is a Great and violent Swirling in the Realm of Spirit at this time, ..I keep hearing "Get Ready something is brewing".. I hear the Words, "It's Tea Time" and like a tea bag, the longer it sits in boiling water the stronger the tea becomes,... there is a stirring of the waters in the realm of the Spirit,... as the Seven Spirit broods over the Nations,... but I see a divine confrontation as two Altars are Rising over Nations,...

I hear the Words, "Get Ready For This is an Appointed Time Brace, Brace,... Batten down the hatches! For a Storm is brewing I say again a Storm is Brewing.

I say Listen!.. Get Ready, for there is a Sound that's Rising like the Sound of the whistle on the Spout of a Kettle that signals the water has reached BOILING POINT,... Watch and Pray, ... For what will be poured out in the coming days will Bring Nations to their knees, Watch!.. the Waters of the Sea,... the Waters over Nations will reach boiling point. For a Time of great upheaval is Coming that will bring Nations to a Divine tipping point"..!

Dutch Sheets with Gina Gholston: "The Rats Will Be Exposed"

God used animals many times in Scripture – because of animals' distinct characteristics – to picture humans. Yeshua was seen as a Lamb and a Lion; satan was seen as a serpent and a dragon; Herod was called a fox; false Believers were called wolves and goats; and so on. I have seen several dreams given to prophets over the past couple of years with rats representing people. Rats typify or picture darkness, disease or plague; garbage and waste; theft, abominations, betrayal, devouring, and more. In all the dreams I've seen, rats are used to picture evil taking place through individuals in our government, and God is exposing them.

The dream I'm sharing today was given to our friend Gina Gholston just a few days ago.

Gina is a frequent dreamer and has a consistent track record of accuracy in her interpretations and her prophetic words.

"The Rats Will Be Exposed"

Dream from Gina Gholston received on January 4, 2024:

Gina says, "I dreamed we were at a gala at the White House. Chuck Pierce, Dutch Sheets, and several other members of our prayer team were there, along with 300 or so other people. It was a black-tie event, and everyone was dressed immaculately. Then, a spokesperson came and told us there was maintenance being done in the White House, and we could not go outside of the room we were in. It was almost as if we were being held there – at least that was the underlying tone of the one speaking.

"I told my assistant that something felt 'off.' Then Chuck Pierce came over to talk with us; I told him I felt something was amiss. He said, 'I know. There's something happening beyond the walls.'

"Suddenly, a lady on the far side of the room screamed that she saw a rat running across the floor. Several of us saw it. Others were saying, 'There's no rat in here. You're just making that up!' But the rat was right there, visible for everyone to see. And even though everyone saw it, some still denied it was there. They even became angry that some were pointing it out and desperately tried to make those who saw it believe that it wasn't really there!

"The rat moved toward a wall and went through a hole. Through the hole, I could see lights flickering. Chuck also saw it, and he said, 'Inside that room, evil is happening.'

"I gathered a few people to go with me into the room next door in order to see what was happening there. We managed to get out of the gala room undetected, and when we opened the door to the next room, we found frantic chaos happening there. About a hundred or so people were in the room; each had a very large paper shredder, trying to use it to destroy documents. There were boxes and boxes of files. Though they attempted to shred the files, they wouldn't shred, regardless of how many times they placed documents in the shredder. The files would go through the shredder but would always come out whole – intact! These people were furious and in complete panic! They were so preoccupied with the files that they hadn't noticed that we were in the room watching them.

"I then saw the rat that had been in the gala room, and it was lying on its back in the corner of this room, kicking its feet up in the air, laughing and laughing. Chuck Pierce was with us, and I asked him what all of this meant. He said, 'The instigator has deceived the people. They are doing his bidding, but he himself has gone undetected, even by those who have been deceived. Now exposure has come, and they are left to clean up his mess. However, God won't let it be "cleaned up"; He is guarding the evidence and forbidding its destruction. The rat is giddy, thinking he's in the clear – unseen, untouchable – but his days are numbered. The impending exposure is causing the people to become careless, and they are losing control of their ability to hide things. They're not even fully aware that they themselves are being revealed!'

"At that moment, a couple of men wearing pest control company uniforms came into the room. The rat saw them and panicked. He tried to run and hide, attempting to go back through the hole in the wall to the other room, but the men trapped him in a cage.

"As the rat was being captured, all of the people at the shredders instantly froze in place. I could see their eyes moving, but their bodies had been 'frozen,' and they could not move. Their hands were stuck to the files and the shredders. There was no denying what they had been doing.

"At that time, many of the other people at the gala entered the room to see what was happening. As they entered, masks began falling off the faces of the people frozen at the shredders, revealing their true identity. They were being completely exposed.

"Then the rat morphed into a man. Some of those at the shredders, although still frozen in place, began to speak, alluding to the 'rat man,' saying, 'He's the instigator! Arrest him!'

"Then some of those at the shredders became unfrozen and, while lifting up the files they had been trying to shred, said, 'Here's the proof! Here's the evidence! It's all here in the files! Thank God He didn't allow us to shred it!'

"A lady, accompanied by two young men, entered the room and gathered all the boxes of files. Several more men came into the room with hand trucks and removed all the shredders for evidence. Dutch Sheets asked the lady why they were removing the shredders. She said, 'It's part of the evidence. There's incriminating data saved in them, and we know how to retrieve it.'"

End of dream.

Dream Interpretation

(Note: In the dream, Gina actually saw the specific crime/crimes this pertained to. However, we felt it was not wise to release that information at this time.)

Dutch says: There is certainly no need for a lengthy explanation of this dream. God has told us He is shaking and exposing. Individuals and some of the departments and agencies in our government pulled off an unprecedented coup, and a shadow government now rules America. Those involved are incredibly evil and giddy with delight. But the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof (Psalm 24:1), and He removes leaders while raising up others (Daniel 2:21). He treads on serpents and scorpions (and rats), and gives us authority to do so as well (Luke 10:19).

Pray with Me

Father, we thank You for the exposure taking place in our nation. You have been telling us this would occur, and we have been watching it take place. We pray that You will continue to expose the evil in our government: lies, backroom deals, corruption in our Justice Department, voting irregularities, distortion of America's history, refusal to control our borders, abuse of children, and so much more. Continue to uncover and expose. Protect the evidence until it is revealed. Convict people, motivating them to reveal the truth. Give courage to whistleblowers.

As You shake down in order to reveal and uncover, we pray for the intercessors and leaders in the Church, asking for strength and unwavering faith. Remind them that You will only tear down what is necessary, and mercy will triumph.

We pray for those who are investigating and exposing, asking You for wisdom, contacts, protection, skill, and supernatural discoveries. We pray for those being attacked by the "rats," especially President Trump, asking for Your protection over his mind and body. Give him supernatural strength and endurance. Give strength to those in Congress who are unfairly attacked, and likewise to judges (and justices) such as Clarence Thomas. Vindicate the righteous as you expose evil. We ask You for these things in Yeshua's name. Amen.

Our decree: We decree that rats in our government are being exposed, evidence is being preserved, and justice will be served.

The Elijah List

"THE HOUR OF THE EAGLE PROPHETS" DEMONTAE EDMONDS, ATLANTA, GA

The prophets are like eagles! They soar! They see! They fly above the land! However, even the eagles grow weary, and their feathers grow dirty. Eagles, dust off your feathers. Allow the winds of God's Spirit to dust off dust and debris that have gathered from disappointments, discouragements, and distractions. You must throw off all of the weights that would hold you down and slow you down. Your feathers must be clean, even as your life must be clean.

Some eagles started off clean, but carnality has made them DIRTY EAGLES. Dirty eagles, there is still a chance for you to fly again and SEE with PURE eyes and a PURE heart. Return to the holy nest of consecration and surrender and cast away all that would hold you back from your Maker. He will not only help to clean your feathers but purify your sight to see CLEARLY once again.

Some eagles have become comfortable and complacent, no longer soaring and hunting for prey of new souls and new converts into the Kingdom of God. They are those who are no longer spying out the land for new territory, but rather have grown fat off of yesterday's meal, yesterday's revelation, and yesterday's successes. Eagles, it's time for you to get off of your perch and fly again on the hunt. Through prayer your talons will once again be sharpened with the keys of God's Word to snatch the perishing from the fires of damnation. Your talons will once again be sharpened as threshing instruments against the powers of darkness. Your beaks will be filled with a fresh word that brings life to those that are weary and brings hope to those that are hopeless!

Eagles, the words that you carry are spirit and LIFE! The words that you carry in your beaks are hope for the future! The words that you carry in your beaks are game changers. The words that you carry in your beaks break through corruption. Eagles, use your beaks properly! Eagles, you cannot live without releasing what is in your beaks. The eagle relies on his or her beak for eating, for preening, and for catching prey. The eagle relies on his or her beak to live; therefore, we must not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from Heaven above! When you see and hear that word, eagles, RELEASE the sound from the high places that you have been called and permitted to soar into!

This is an hour that the EAGLE PROPHETS WILL ARISE! Eagle prophets, SOAR AND PROPHECY!

Friends Who Love Andrew Wommack

Barbara Williams

BEATING SIN AT CONCEPTION

Our born-again spirits are 100 percent righteous and holy (Eph. 4:24). We have the mind of Christ (1 Cor. 2:16). Our spirits are full of love, joy, peace, patience, self-control, and every other fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22-23). Our spirits are complete in Christ (Col. 2:10). We can't get any more saved. We can't become more perfect (Heb. 10:14). The rest of our Christian lives is about learning how to turn these spiritual realities into natural realities.

Many people say to me, "I just don't feel the love of God. Would you please pray that God would release His love toward me?" But God has already poured out His love toward us. He proved His love for us 2,000 years ago in the person of Yeshua (Rom. 5:5-8). How much more love can He give? We're not waiting on God to show us His love. We simply need to notify our brains of what He has already done! That's what these verses are talking about: According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue. 2 Peter 1:3

That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Yeshua. Philemon 6

When we renew our minds to spiritual truth, we begin to see the life of God made manifest. We begin to see our faith work. I heard that during Abraham Lincoln's presidency, when he signed the Emancipation Proclamation to free slaves in America, many slave owners hid the news from their households. There are documented cases of freed slaves continuing in bondage simply because they were ignorant of the freedom extended to them.

Satan has been doing the same thing to the church for centuries. When we don't know who we are or what we have in Christ, we can't move those spiritual realities into the natural realm (Hos. 4:6). Imagine a pipe that connects the resurrection power of God to your sickness, poverty, depression, or discouragement. On one end of the pipe is a reservoir of power. On the other, your need. In the middle of the pipe is a valve, which represents your soul. Nothing can come through that valve until your imagination is in line with God and His Word. You can go through life completely shut off from the life-giving power of God if you don't take time to renew your mind.

That ye put off concerning the former conversation [the old way of living and thinking] the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit [attitude] of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Ephesians 4:22-24, brackets added.

When I was drafted into the Vietnam War at the age of nineteen, my identity in Christ was put to the test. I had just received a revelation of God's love that changed my life, but I wasn't in Texas anymore. Out of my entire company in Vietnam, I was the only person who was a Christian. There may have been others, but if there were, they were in hiding. One of the bunkers I was assigned to on a fire support base was wallpapered with nude pictures. You couldn't look anywhere—at the walls, the ceiling, anywhere—without seeing a naked woman. Dope was free and vulgarity was rampant. It was terrible. It was also like a magnet pulling me toward sin. I remember my first stand-down.

In times of war, combat units that see a lot of action are given reprieve days away from the battlefield. These days are supposed to be morale boosters, times for troops to take care of personal needs, receive medical care, and call home. Well, the government ordered us to have three days of "stand-down" and paid for all the free booze and sex a man could want. They brought in Filipino prostitutes and strippers and for three days sponsored an orgy. I was the only man in my division who didn't participate. Even the chaplain joined in. I remember thinking, Am I the only one who fears God? The only way I survived Vietnam was with my nose in the Bible. Fifteen hours a day (when I wasn't in a foxhole or pointing a gun), I'd read. I couldn't even put the Bible down to think. If I did, I'd see nudity. I didn't realize at the time what was happening (I was just reading out of desperation), but the Word began painting a picture inside me. It began to change the way I thought. I was so in love with the Lord and focused on Him during my time in Vietnam that it was like I was in a bubble. Nothing fazed me.

One day I was in a situation where it looked like we would certainly die. We took scores of mortar hits on our position, and I could see the muzzle fire from the enemies' guns. But all I could think about was that I might see Yeshua face-to-face before the day was over. I was actually rejoicing in the Lord. I started praying for the enemy soldiers who were firing on us. I knew where I would go if I died, but what about them? I actually felt the love of the Lord flowing out of me toward them as I had my M-16 pointed at them.

I know you might think that's weird. Well, I admit it's certainly not what most soldiers experienced, but it's not weird at all if you have been meditating on God's Word as Paul did. He said that he would rather go be with the Lord than live in his body (Phil. 1:20-23). The only reason he stayed in this life was because of the benefit it would be to others. If we thought properly about things, we would rejoice at the thought of heaven, regardless of how we got there.

Your imagination and the way you think and respond to circumstances is vital. God—by grace—has provided everything you need for life and godliness (2 Pet. 1:3). He has already blessed you with all spiritual blessings in Christ (Eph. 1:3). But you have to take the seed of His Word, plant it in your imagination, and let it germinate so that you can conceive victory. It really is as simple as I've described. But renewing your mind is also the hardest thing you'll ever do. We're surrounded by ungodliness, by secular, humanistic thinking. Everyday thousands of babies are killed on the altar of convenience. Every day people are dying, starving, and hurting because of other people's selfish actions. Our society celebrates and excuses sin in the name of "love" and "tolerance." Our culture is antagonistic toward Christianity and biblical values. And if you don't stick your nose in the Bible and allow the Word to change your imagination, you will be sucked in. You will be swallowed up.

You can't read the Bible for fifteen hours a day and not see change. You can't watch four- or five-years' worth of healing testimonies on our website and stay sick. Brothers and sisters, God is not the one at fault. We have hardened our hearts. We have allowed ourselves to be influenced by ungodliness, to be conformed to the world's way of thinking and doing. But we can change it. We can change our imaginations. Hundreds of people died to preserve us a translation of the Bible. William Tyndale, one of the first men to translate the Bible into English, was burned at the stake. But his death wasn't in vain. Less than seventy years later, King James authorized a translation of the Bible due, in large part, to the outcry of the people who witnessed Tyndale's death. Throughout history, people have sacrificed their own lives to ensure we have a copy of the Scriptures, and I daresay the average Christian takes that for granted.

Most don't open the Bible except on Sundays, or if they do, it's for a two-minute devotional. Christians spend two minutes reading God's Word and the rest of the day watching "As the Stomach Turns." Yet they wonder why things aren't working. Most Christians are having daily intercourse with the world and then hoping for a spiritual abortion or miscarriage to keep from giving birth to sin and negativity.

I remember the advice my Uncle Saffie gave me when Jamie and I got married. He took me aside and told me, in his homespun way, "Boy, you're a Wommack. Wommack's don't get divorced. This isn't Sears and Roebuck. If you don't like her, you can't bring her back." In other words, Be sure you're making a good decision, because you have to live with the consequences! Jamie and I both entered our marriage with this perspective, and we've never thought about divorce. We've thought about murder a few times (just kidding), but we've never spoken of divorce and never threatened it. I'm not sure how many reading this book could say the same.

Some of you threaten your spouse with divorce and separation. You use those threats as leverage to get your way. That's the world's way of thinking. But if you understood what I am talking about, you would never go there. You would understand the damage those words and thoughts produce. You wouldn't want that image in your imagination or your spouse's. In this and other areas, we as believers try to stop the action of sin, but we don't take responsibility for the conception of it. It's like a woman going out and sleeping with a different man every night and never expecting to get pregnant. That's not the way it works. It's not hard to avoid giving birth— simply stop conceiving. The Word tells us to be "wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil" (Rom. 16:19). The word translated "simple" here means "innocent" (Strong's Concordance). And Ephesians 5:11-12 says, "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret." The Word says we shouldn't even talk about evil, yet many Christians pipe it into their homes. They turn on the television and watch murder, lying, adultery, lust, and fornication. And given enough time, those images will produce fruit in their lives.

Brothers and sisters, God's way is much better! Learn to control your imagination and avoid sin altogether.

Revival and Reformation, Part 4

God has told us that 2024 will be a year of revival and reformation. We have been looking at these two Kingdom activities and the fact that they are linked to Yahweh's assignments to Adam and Eve - and therefore all of us - in Genesis 1: multiply His family and govern/manage His earth. Christ recommissioned the church to these assignments in Mark 16:15-20 and Matthew 28:18-20. In the first passage, He told us to preach the gospel in order to see people saved; in the latter, He instructed us to teach His commandments in order to disciple nations.

We have also taught what occurs when we do not prioritize both of these assignments. In the 1970s and 80s, America experienced a powerful revival, yet we lost much ground spiritually in our nation. Why? While the church worked at getting people saved (Mark 16 family mandate), unbelievers worked hard to "disciple" the nation (Matthew 28 mandate). Both groups were successful: we revived, and they reformed. We prepared people for heaven; they shaped a generation's thinking and prepared them to rule here on earth. America is now experiencing the fruit of this: we have an ungodly government, education system, and media, great erosion of the family unit, gross immorality, a loss of purpose as a nation, a lukewarm church, and we could go on. You can see the first three posts here: Part 1, Part 2, and Part 3.

In yesterday's post, I listed a few comparisons between revival (Mark 16) and reformation (Matthew 28) in order to help us understand the differences. I want to give several more today.

1. The messages are different, as are the methods of delivery. In Mark 16, Yeshua told us to "preach the gospel," which is the good news of Christ's redemption. In Matthew 28, He told us to "teach" what He "commanded." The New Testament word for preaching simply means to announce or proclaim a message, whereas teaching means to explain, expound, instruct, etc. We announce the good news; we teach God's ways, precepts, desires, and the principles of His Kingdom.

2. The goals of Mark and Matthew are also different. The goal of Mark's commission is saving people; the goal of Matthew's is saving nations. Mark's goal is to birth children; Matthew's goal is to mature, train, and commission them as Kingdom soldiers, ambassadors, and legislators. Through Mark's commission, people receive God's life and nature; through Matthew's commission, they are trained to release His life and nature.

The fulfillment of Mark's commission brings wholeness to and shapes individuals; the fulfillment of Matthew's brings wholeness to and shapes cultures, societies, and nations. Mark's commission is intended to deliver people from demons and sin; Matthew's is designed to deliver nations from principalities and powers, philosophies, laws, unrighteous systems, humanism, racism, and more.

Mark's assignment is to heal people of brokenness, diseases, oppression, etc.; Matthew's will heal nations of poverty, hunger, violence, and other evils. The salvation released through Mark's message fills individuals with Holy Spirit; Matthew's teaching is intended to fill the atmospheres of regions and nations with Holy Spirit's presence and peace. In Mark, Holy Spirit is poured out; in Matthew, the Word and truth are taught. One is an outpouring; the other is an outworking. Through Mark's commission, personal destinies are awakened and accomplished; through Matthew's, national destinies are awakened and accomplished.

3. The church's activities are different in each assignment. In Mark's, we serve the needs of people, protecting and nurturing God's family; in Matthew's, we serve the purposes of God, accepting risk, sacrifice, and even martyrdom. In revival, we emphasize the provision of Christ; in reformation, we emphasize the principles of Christ. The former focuses on our inheritance and our rights as a joint heir with Christ; the latter focuses on our assignment from Christ, our responsibility as a citizen of His Kingdom.

In order to fulfill Mark's commission, we gather and are filled, empowered, and anointed by Holy Spirit; to accomplish Matthew's, we are authorized, commissioned, and sent. In the former, we release power for signs, wonders, and miracles, doing the works of God; in the latter, we dispense truth, doctrine, and information in order to transform systems and laws with the ways of God.

To win the lost (Mark 16), we preach grace and emphasize God's mercy, compassion, and love; to disciple nations (Matthew 28), we teach God's Word and emphasize His justice, righteousness, and truth. As God's family, our prayers are priestly - petitions, requests, intercession; as the Ekklesia, our prayers are kingly - decrees and declarations. To accomplish Mark 16 and function as God's family, Christ's ministry gifts of pastor, evangelist, and teacher are needed; to function as the Ekklesia, Christ's ministry gifts of apostle, prophet, and teacher are needed.

Pray with me:

Father, we thank You for Your heart to redeem and save. Thank You for the power of the gospel, of the name of Yeshua, and of Holy Spirit. Thank You for Your Word, which transforms, instructs, and teaches us Your ways. And we thank You for Your prophetic words informing us that revival will intensify and reformation will begin in 2024.

We will partner with You as instructed. We will preach the gospel of Yeshua Christ all over the world. We will baptize those who believe, lay hands on the sick and see them recover, and we will cast out demons. This will produce the revival You speak of. We will also teach Your Word, Your commandments and ways, discipling nations. We will do so with Your authority, as You instructed us in Matthew 28. This will produce the reformation You have spoken of.

We will not be fearful of the shaking that is coming, for it is a cleansing and shaking down of evil, and a restoring of our nation to You. It is like that which You spoke to Jeremiah, a tearing down and uprooting, but also a building and planting. Therefore, we will move forward in faith through anything that comes against us, overcoming it in Your name and authority.

So, Father, we boldly and passionately ask You for this revival and reformation. Let Your power and outpouring be such that they cannot be ignored. Awaken the church, save unbelievers, and transform nations. And all of this we ask for in Yeshua' mighty name. Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that the greatest revival in history has begun, and the greatest season of earth's transformation has also begun.

Bruce & Linda Dietler - Kansas

Be the One!

In a recent post we discussed the pressing need for a worldwide "revival," of biblical truth, biblical worldview, and biblical character in the hearts and lives of believers, along with the need for a simultaneous great "awakening" (the kindling of a sense of immediate, personal, spiritual need for conversion) of the unsaved. Either event would constitute a mighty move of God, and though a given move of Holy Spirit might primarily affect one group or the other, it might involve both simultaneously in the same geographical region or even in different settings. History is replete with powerful moves of the Holy Spirit from which we can learn much.

The Great Awakenings

The First Great Awakening in the colonies (1720 -1745), brought a revival of the Puritan fervor that had previously characterized the nation's populace. Dynamic and authoritative preaching by George Whitefield, Johathan Edwards, and others, brought renewed religious zeal to the region. With it came a convicting awareness of personal guilt and the awesome nature of salvation through Christ. The Great Awakening broke away from mere religious ritual and ceremony and made Christianity intensely personal to the average person by kindling a deep emotional need for relationship with Christ.

The Second Great Awakening (1790 -1840) brought a second wave of evangelical fervor and awakening within the hearts of multitudes of their need to make immediate, personal decision for their salvation. Soul winning became the primary purpose of ministry, as it largely remains today. Through the preaching of Evangelist Charles Finney and others, great conviction fell upon hearts throughout the land and multitudes were swept into the Kingdom of God. This second outpouring spanned about 50 years but subsided even as rural Americans began to migrate to the large cities for work.

Lord, bring revival!

Dutch Sheets has noted, "One of the important benefits of understanding the synergy of the ages (the multiplied power that results from honoring previous generations' assignments, promises, and accomplishments) is asking for and receiving the strength and power of past revivals, today. God does not want us to start over in our Kingdom advancement efforts. He wants us to drink from past revival wells, allowing the spiritual 'nutrients' from them to mix with today's revelations and anointings. God is about to synergistically mix past revivals with a fresh outpouring of Holy Spirit." That being said, let us glean from another somewhat forgotten revival in America's history.

The Layman's Prayer Revival

In the years leading up to 1857, the United States had experienced tremendous growth and economic prosperity. Consequently, the focus of many believers had shifted from religious pursuit to this present world, and a steep decline in spiritual life was a major outcome. As in our day, churches at the time were suffering serious loss in attendance. When financial collapse subsequently occurred, thousands of merchants along with banks and even railroads went into bankruptcy. Factories were shut down and vast numbers were now out of work. New York City alone had 30,000 men unemployed.

In September 1857, Jeremiah Lanphier, a successful 49-year-old businessman, was hired by the Dutch Reformed Church in NYC as a lay missionary to help build its membership. He released his career to follow the Lord and traded his big salary for one of less than $1,000 per year. He began to visit homes, distribute Bibles and tracts, and advertise church services. Realizing the importance of prayer in this effort, he felt strongly impressed by the Spirit of God to begin a weekly noontime prayer meeting in a church on Fulton Street in lower Manhattan just a few blocks from where the World Trade Center once stood. His stated purpose was, "to give merchants, mechanics, clerks, strangers and businessmen generally an opportunity to stop and call upon God amid the daily perplexities incident to their respective avocations."

Lanphier printed handbills announcing the weekly meeting and left them in businesses, warehouses, on buildings, and with people on the street. The first meeting was scheduled to be held Wednesday, September 23, 1857 from noon until 1:00 o'clock. This meeting proved to be rather inauspicious, the first guest showing up at 12:30. Several others came even later. Yet, Lanphier continued to pray, and he was not discouraged. The following week, twenty attended. The next week there were nearly forty. One week later there were over one hundred present, including many unsaved who were convicted by the Holy Spirit of their sin. Newspapers began to report on the meetings and the unusual spirit of prayer that was evident. Within three months similar meetings had sprung up across America.

One of the six men to attend the first meeting was a 21-year-old who had a passion to take the same fire for prayer to his hometown of Philadelphia. His first meeting had forty, then sixty, then 300, then 2,500. He then had to get a tent to accommodate the burgeoning crowds. In just four months, over 150,000 had prayed in that tent.

On October 10, 1857, just three weeks after the prayer meetings on Fulton Street had begun, the stock market crashed. People lost everything in a matter of moments. Desperation for God increased. These prayer meetings now became daily events. In a very short time, there were crowds of up to 3,000 people joining the Fulton Street prayer meeting daily. Individuals from all different social classes and denominations joined in. This once little prayer meeting now exploded into multiple other locations including a movie theater, and even into the streets. Within one month, pastors who had attended the noon prayer meetings on Fulton Street started morning prayer meetings in their own churches. Soon 6,000 were attending these now daily prayer sessions at over 150 locations across Manhattan and Brooklyn. In addition, many churches added evening services for prayer.

Lanphier was led by God to establish very specific guidelines for these prayer meetings that worked well during that time. They started promptly and ended promptly. They allowed people to come and go as they pleased, so that made it possible for everyone to join on their lunch break if possible. There was a sign posted that said, "Prayers and Exhortation not to exceed 5 minutes, in order to give all an opportunity. Not more than 2 consecutive prayers or exhortations. No controverted points discussed." Each meeting started with the singing of a hymn, then the leader read a Scripture, said a prayer, and opened the floor for prayer requests. Five minutes before 1:00 P.M., they sang another hymn and then the leader closed with a prayer of blessing over the people. The agenda was simple: "the salvation of the soul." They would pray for the souls of family members, neighbors, and coworkers by name. Others would join in praying in agreement. They prayed for salvation and praised God when it happened. There was no speaker, no message, no theological discussion, and these features made the meetings both unique and yet attractive to the diverse background of attendees.

Impact

It has been estimated that, as a direct result of this one layperson, Jeremiah Lanphier, in the period 1858-59 as many as one million souls throughout the nation may have come into a personal relationship with Yeshua Christ from a national population of less than thirty million. [This would be the equivalent in our day of seeing over 11,500,000 saved!] Yet, this Fulton Street Revival, as it is also known, perhaps the greatest spiritual awakening ever experienced by the United States of America, is barely remembered today by the church or by secular historians. Likely, this is because the narrative so soon shifted to the approaching Civil War which began shortly thereafter.

One thing to keep in mind is the fact that Jeremiah Lanphier was not an ordained pastor or trained clergyman. He was simply a businessman with a heart fully yielded to God. He willingly said "yes," and he gave his life's energies to partner with what God was desiring to do in his generation. He simply used the abilities God had placed in his life, yielded them unreservedly to his Savior, and followed the leading of Holy Spirit in how to accomplish that which God had placed on his heart. He allowed himself to be the one God used for His great purpose.

We can look to Jacob, Moses, Joshua and Caleb, Gideon, David, the prophets, and so many other examples in the Bible whom the world would have easily dismissed for their lack of credentials, unimpressive genealogy, or anything worthy of note. Yet these men, heroes of the faith like Lanphier, also gave their heart and soul for Kingdom purposes. One man, fully yielded to God and His purposes, can make a huge impact.

Learning about this revival and reflecting on stories of other long-ago powerful revivals such as the Welsh Revival, the Azusa Street Revival and others brings such a thrill to the soul and a burning desire within the body of Christ to see God pour out His Spirit on the nations once again. It is happening now!

Kat Von D, a well-known television personality, fashion mogul, model, tattoo artist, and a devoted practitioner of the occult and witchcraft, recently announced that she had thrown out her witchcraft and magic books, and that she had received Christ and was baptized! Glory be to God! Others in sports, media, government, and the various mountains of society are turning to Yeshua as well. Revival is happening, and it will accelerate in the days ahead.

One rapidly-growing church in north Georgia has recently had a massive response to its pastor's twenty-one-day commitment to seeking the Lord, during which he saw in a vision the church baptismal full of water with fire dancing on top of it. The inspiration struck him of the Lord desiring to baptize people with the Holy Ghost and fire, and so he made offer to everyone in his congregation who would desire the fulness of God and His power in their lives to be baptized. That one incident has led to now more than 33,000 baptized in water and in the Holy Ghost in one year! His challenge to the people was to "renew your commitment to God, get baptized and encounter God." The resulting massive revival has led to people being delivered from demons, psoriasis, drug addiction, deaf ears, blind eyes, and much more. This revival, like Fulton Street, is not personality driven. It is Yeshua driven, but it derives from the prayer and intercession of one man, in this case the pastor. He chose to be the one.

By faith, the greatest revival in America's story has not already occurred; the best is yet to come. Get excited! We are moving into it now! Though great darkness would desire to cover the people, and though a great shaking is coming upon the whole earth, yet in the midst of it all, we are coming into the greater glory of God. There is coming a great awakening to the unsaved as well as great revival to the church of its true identity, authority, and responsibility as the bride of Christ. What is required by the Lord for this to occur is nothing more, nothing less, and nothing else than fully yielded, faith-filled, lovers of Christ – those who are willing, like Jeremiah Lanphier, to yield all to Him that He might be truly glorified in all the earth.

One individual does make a difference. Be the one!

"THE CORPORATIONS THAT PARADE AS GOVERNMENTS & USE MY PEOPLE AS CHATTEL ARE COMING DOWN!"
BARRY WUNSCH, RED DEER, ALBERTA

Holy Spirit woke me this morning at 4:00 a.m. and was stirring me and pulling me into the Spirt with Him. He spoke to me and gave me Micah 5:13. As I got up and read the Word of God and was spending time with Him, I had this word dropped on me. As always, here it is – just as it came.

(Note: The impression I had from Holy Spirit this morning is that we are on the very verge of change, and that there is a major catalyst event that is going take place. It will trigger the unraveling of some major national and international events that are all part of God's plan. There is nothing that can stop what is coming! Stay strong. Stay diligent. Above all else, remain postured in Him.)

PROPHETIC WORD:

"Barry, tell My people things are unspooling right now, and unspooling quickly! Barry, tell My people what has been locked up tight is about to be released for the nations to see! The globalist fraud that has controlled and oppressed My people shall be brought to justice! I am bringing it all into the light! The witchcraft and manipulation used by these elite, demonized pawns is being exposed. The rebirthing of nations is at hand! I am bringing freedom to My people!"

"The corporations that parade as governments and use My people as chattel are coming down! Their leaders are coming down and being taken out one way or another! These imposters, these posers, these evil tyrants are being removed! They have oppressed My people for too long! My people were not created for slavery! My people were created for freedom! The gold is Mine, the silver is Mine! It does not belong to them! I am cleaning out their war chest and am taking it back for My people! I will cripple them financially! I will bring them to ruins! Enough is enough! They shall run around like foxes with their tails on fire! They will have nowhere to hide or find cover from My justice that is being served!"

"I am releasing My remnant in this hour to move forward with Me! I have called you, and you know who you are! The time is upon us to rebuild upon

My statutes! I am calling My people, My nations, to My Kingdom governance!
I am rebirthing the nations under ME! Do you not perceive it?

"Ecclesia, it is time to arise! Ecclesia, it is time to advance! Do not let fear and unbelief stop you and hold you back any longer! I know the battle and the resistance that has been against you! You will soon come to understand the strength I have put within you to arise and overcome it all in Me! I have righteous leaders I am launching against all odds as they have submitted to My call! The enemy will not be able to stop them as they abide in Me! Behold Me! Behold My Kingdom! Behold My Kingdom ways. You surely will not be disappointed! Freedom is at hand!"

Holy is the word of the Lord.

Micah 5:10-15: "'In that day,' declares the LORD, 'I will destroy your horses from among you and demolish your chariots. I will destroy the cities of your land and tear down all your strongholds. I will destroy your witchcraft and you will no longer cast spells. I will destroy your idols and your sacred stones from among you; you will no longer bow down to the work of your hands. I will uproot from among you your Asherah poles when I demolish your cities.
I will take vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that have not obeyed Me.'"

2024: Taking Back the Gates!

Taking Back The Gates: recently I awoke to The LORD speaking to me,.. And I heard Him say, "Daughter, Its Time to take back The Gates!"
Later that day I sent out a Message to a number of leaders saying the following; "It's Time to Take back The Gates".

Then I heard the sound of the Shofar blowing, and The LORD began to speak to me about the ruling power and principality of the Philistine Spirit is rising in our Nation(s) and The LORD spoke to me about The Mantle of David, and the mocking spirit of the Philistine over our Nation(s).

At this time, like Goliath who had taunted The Nation of Israel, the streets of London and those of many other Nations, have been filled with the sound of "the Islamic prayer call".

I saw by The Spirit, that this sound is the same sound of the mocking Philistine spirit of Goliath, that now seeks to intimidate and dominate the airwaves over our Nation(s).

But then I saw in The Realm of The Spirit, The Ecclesia rising and 'going to The Gates' of The Nations to blow the Shofar — to release The Sound of Heaven — at The Gates and over The Land — which will silence and establish the sound of Victory over the airwaves and over The Nation!.

On the 17th of January 2024, we had a timely visit from Chuck Pierce who shared on "The Decade of Pey" — the decade of the mouth — and the great importance of our Decree in the days ahead.

"Decree a thing and it shall be established for you!" Job 22:28

In prayerful reflection of what was shared at the meeting, I came home, and The LORD began to speak to me again about The Gates, and He showed me a violent battle for The Glory unfolding at The Gates of Nations.

Now, as I began to pray and incline my ear to His Voice, suddenly I heard The Spirit say, "Gateways are the mouth of Regions, Territories and Nations!
I say, release the sound of The Roar from The Gateways! Let The Sound go forth from the mouth of Regions Territories and Nations, and My Word and My Will,. will be built and established in the days ahead! Again, I say, at the sound of The Roar, My Great Eagles will rise and soar, and at the sound of The Roar of the Lion of Judah, the foundations of Nations will be shaken and shifted!

Look up! For a line shall be stretched forth upon The Nations!
See! For The Angels of Zechariah are on the move, measuring the length and breadth of the boundary lines of Nations! (Zechariah 1:12-17)
Yes! Angelic Surveyors with the Measuring Rod in their hands are moving to measure the future Destiny of Cities, Regions, Territories and Nations in this hour.

For I tell you, a Divine Realignment and a reordering of The Boundary Lines of Nations is now taking place, for I AM taking Nations back to my original intent, for prodigal Nations shall turn and return to their Covenant Foundations. Listen! For the sound at The Gates will bring forth a Divine Distinction in The Valley of Decision — for a Divine Separation of what is Holy and Mine — and what is profane and defiled in now taking place!
For Goat and Sheep Nations are emerging — and two Altars are rising. The Altar of Baal and the Altar of Elijah shall rise, and The Whirlwind of The Seven Spirits shall move upon The Valley of Nations, to gather up and to scatter abroad.

Watch! — as swords fall and sickles fly — for Judgement and Harvest have come to Nations on The Threshing Floor — for Wheat and Tares have come to full maturity! I say, Stay Watching and Waiting! For a Double Mantle will fall, and I shall Anoint, for a second time.
An Anointing, One Thousand times greater, shall be released upon My Ecclesia — even as it came upon Samson for a second time, even as it came upon Elisha.

I tell you, Get Ready! For a One Thousand (1000) times greater Anointing is coming upon My Ecclesia! A Double portion Anointing of The Spirit and Power of Elijah is coming in The Whirlwind of My Seven Spirits!
Have I not said, Nations have now entered into a Second Exodus, and Second Circumcision?
Watch..! The Blood! The Blood! For the hour of a Second Passover is here!
The hour of Five-Fold Reformation is here, and My Five-Fold will move in the Governmental Power and Authority of The Key of The House of David — for the eyes that were gouged out, are now being fully restored! Look! For my 11th hour Prophets are rising with Fourth Dimensions of sight and vision!

Enter in! For The Door of Revelation Four stands open before The Nations! I say come up here! Come up higher! And The Glory that departed — and the hair that was pulled out — will return!

Look! For a Rainbow Whirlwind of My Seven Spirits is coming upon the head once again, My Plumblin Apostles shall arise — as My Covenant speaks a higher thing! Yes! My Covenant shall speak of true identity and sonship.

Listen! It's time to release a Battle Cry! It's time to take War stance, for a Battle for My Glory is unfolding at The Gate! A Divine Confrontation is taking place with the ruling spirit of the Philistines — a war over the ancient wells — a mighty contending for Revival and for The Birthright and The Destiny of Nations! For I tell you, surely The Ancient Wells that were stopped up by the Philistines shall be uncapped, and the stranglehold of the three-fold cord of Jezebel, Anthelia and Delilah shall be broken over The Nations, and the spirit of Herod that rises at a time of birthing, shall be cast down.

See! For a John-the-Baptist Mantle is now coming upon the sons at The Gate to prepare a Highway for The Glory to come, and The Mantle of Might — My Seven-Fold Spirit that came upon Samson for a second time, is now coming upon My Ecclesia to push down the ivory pillars — to tear down the Babylonian structures and systems of religion and finance, that rule over the seven spheres of culture!" says The Spirit of God.

Prophetic Strategy for the Days Ahead

God gave me some Prophetic Strategies for the decade ahead in 2022, God began to speak to be about the battle for The Birthright and The Destiny of Nations.

He spoke about the War to come over Kingdom Inheritance, and then in 2023, He spoke specifically to me about a "Staking Anointing" of 2 Samuel 20:23, "And Joab was over all the army of Israel; Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites."

And He said to me, "I will release Keys in 23, for Doors in 24."

This a prophetic strategy of; the Staking Anointing of 2 Samuel 20:23 that would come upon the sons who were mantled with might to fight against the giants in our land of promise.

This Staking Anointing would cause our heels to become like sharpened stakes that would be driven into the ground, and the sons, His double-trouble maker prophets would dig their heels in deeper to defend their lentil field (the birthright and kingdom inheritance) against the stronghold of the Philistines.

As this War over Kingdom Inheritance was waged and won, there would come as a great reward — a Wealth Transfer — from the hands of the wicked into the storehouses of the righteous.

Then towards the end of 2023, God began to give me yet again another prophetic strategy, and it comes from, 2 Samuel 24, and I heard The Spirit say, "It's time to build Altars on The Threshing Floor!

I say, in the days ahead, do not consider your strength in the number of your fighting men — or on the authority of the one who sits in the highest offices of earthly Governments — and do not count on the power of your chariots or horses — for the battle is The LORD's!"

Altars speak to true Repentance and Living Sacrifices. Nations now on The Threshing Floor (The Valley of Decision), the winnowing winds of The Spirit are now blowing forth upon The Nations, bringing forth Divine Separation and a great Harvest! A great return Restoration and Reformation is now beginning to take place in The Nations!

Early hours of this morning I woke to these Words.

"ITS TIME TO RELEASE A BATTLE CRY AND TAKE A WAR STANCE".

This Month is prophetically significant to:

RAISING A STANDARD,..RELEASING A BATTLE CRY AND BEING REPOSITIONED IN A WAR STANCE"..!

Arise "Warriors for Christ"

There has never been a more URGENT call. For as you know our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this world's darkness, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

The enemy is losing and getting desperate. Every deceit, every perversion, every vile and disgusting dark thing is going to intensify. In an effort to break "The Peoples" will and weaken our faith. To cause fear, confusion, and despair. But he is already DEFEATED. God is calling His Army to intensify OUR efforts too.

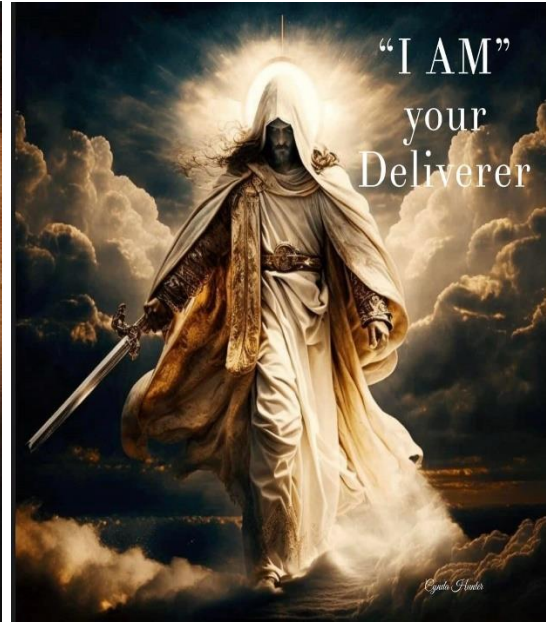

The battle is real, We know it, but most don't fully comprehend or are completely oblivious. We are called to, pray, pray, pray, without ceasing. Decree, Declare and Proclaim our victory. Rebuke the enemy AND his plans to destroy this nation and establish the OWG.

Plead "The Blood of the Lamb" over America and all of God's anointed leaders for this time. Plead "The Blood" over the entire world. "Rebuke" satan and all of his works, in "Yeshua's" name, he MUST flee. Proclaim "The Word" boldly in the public sphere.

We are here for precisely THIS time. To witness "The Great Awakening" and "Harvest of Souls" for "God's Glory". Arise Mighty Warriors, heed the call, strap on "God's Armor", victory is ours, through "Yeshua Christ" our Lord.

Am I a religious fanatic? No. I am fully awake, I am a spiritual warrior responding to God's call.

Praise God he is so good!!

THIS IS NOT GOING TO BE ANOTHER "FLYING BLIND" SEASON

I want to pray over those who feel spiritually blind right now. Those who have crossed over into 2024 just feeling lost and still battling the swirl and confusion that has been following them for some time now. I know many of you have been thinking "Nothing has changed for me. My circumstances still look impossible."

But the greatest problem is that you just DON'T KNOW WHERE YOU ARE HEADED.

It's felt like the unknown season you were in has now turned into a wilderness fortress and you have lost hope that you'll ever leave that place. Temporary displacement and pause somehow has felt like your permanent campsite. The season of "process and preparation" now feels like a nightmare merry-go-round, and you want to get off!

I have felt it in the spirit - you have been frustrated and agitated with hope filled promises of entering the promise, because in your mind that just doesn't seem like it's going to happen. I'll say what few are saying - you are done hearing prophetic news headlines that don't seem to be taking place for you. "Did I fail? Did I do something wrong?" No, you have an enemy that wants you frustrated and mad at God. "Am I invisible to God? Has He abandoned me?" No, you have an adversary that wants to keep isolated so he can make you bitter.

"Did I not fight and hold onto my promises long enough?" No, you have been battling the spirit of delay and hope deferred that wants you to eventually give up on this tug of war.

MID-FLIGHT CRISIS

I had a dream in early January where I was flying a small passenger plane over the ocean when a storm arose and sucked me into its core and spun me around. I thought I was going to crash but instead I seemed to be suspended within the storm. I was safe but stuck, unable to get out of the swirl of it. I remember feeling frustrated that no matter what I did I couldn't get out of it to see ahead.

When I woke up I knew this wasn't a dream about me but for many who were right now stuck in that swirl. The words that came to me were "Flying blind" and "mid-flight crisis." I felt that many were feeling spiritually blind, either just in direction, purpose, or on a deeper level where they felt spiritually disconnected, discouraged, and disillusioned.

Many believers are right now in "mid-flight crisis" where their faith is at an all-time low and they are questioning their beliefs, promises, and path behind them.

"Did God really say...?"

Let me say this. I know the road has been hard and nothing makes sense. I know the road has been long and you have held on beyond the realm of hope. But the battle for your destiny has never been greater than this moment. You feel like this because the enemy wants you to not only give up, but to abandon the ship of faith. He isn't just after your purpose, but your very connection to God. He wants you to doubt God and choose the life you can provide yourself in your own strength.

"THERE'S A NEW 'GO' COMING!"
NATE JOHNSTON, DALLAS, TX

Pioneers, we have been in a time of deep surrender and a threshing-floor moment, both personally and in the Church, as we have been handing over the keys and reigns to a past way of Christian life and Kingdom. We have had to take our hands off the old plow and burn our old tools and oxen. We have had to give God the deeds to what we have built for decades.

For some of us, this has been just a heart posture and refocus of vision; but for many of us, it's been a 'letting go' of a whole world we created. We have been in a time where it has suddenly seemed like God has changed His mind on some of the things we have been doing and building. However, it's not the complete picture. God has wanted us to give Him what's in our hands so He can tweak and upgrade our vision. The building plans are being overhauled, the infrastructure is being modified and strengthened, and God wants us to partner with Him in His new focus for this next chapter we are heading into.

As I was writing this down, I heard, "There is an INCREASE in the 'ADJUST'!" Where you have had to change your plans to accommodate God's plans, you will find an ease and grace you didn't have. The hustle has to end; the push and the fight have to come to an end, so this next chapter is in the fresh flow of the Spirit and not in our own flesh anymore.

FROM THE FLOOR TO THE OPEN DOOR

Recently, I had a vision of an open door that was waiting for people to enter. It reminded me of the door in Revelation 4:1: "After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in Heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, 'Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.'"

It was a door that would transport us from the threshing floor season where we have been and into a new day. It was the shift from survival and sorrow to revelation and wonder. It was the turning of the corner from extreme loss and end to a vision to the revealing of the new plans, blueprints, and purpose.

The Gift of Discernment

By Michael Shuttlesworth

Do you believe that you are born with discernment or is it a spiritual gift from the Holy Spirit?

This is a question I think that some of us have tried to understand, because the bible talks about discernment many times. We are advised to pray for discernment or wisdom:

"Therefore, give to your servant an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge the great people of Yours?"

So, what is discernment? The definition goes as this: The quality of being able to grasp and comprehend what is obscure. Insight. Perceptiveness.

In 1 Corinthians 12:7 it says "Now to each one the manifestation of the spirit is given for the common good.. to another gifts of healing, to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits.. all these are the work of one and the same spirit, and he gives them to each one, just as he determines."

So in this verse the bible is saying the gift of discernment is a Spirit-given ability to distinguish between good or evil origins. This gift was mentioned in the New Testament, but the nature of the gift is not explained. It is mostly believed by Christians that it was or is a special gift to discern whether those who prophesied were actually speaking from God or of evil spirits. The bible warns believers about Satan's deceptions!

But could you actually be born with this gift or ability or is it only given to Christians who follow God's word and pray for the holy spirit to give them this gift? I am asking this question, because I have believed since I was in my early teens that I could sense things or understand things that others could not. During my early years, I did not think of it much and never really thought of it as a gift from God. There were many occasions during my life that I have been able to discern things, to feel or know that something was wrong or not quite what it seemed to be.

I believe now that the gift of discernment is not to necessarily see what the enemy is doing, but to see what the Spirit of God is doing. I think that those with the gift of spiritual discernment have senses that are attuned to the spiritual world, because we live in a natural and spiritual world at the same time. This gift allows you to see, feel and understand what is going on in both worlds at the same time. The Apostle Paul urged the church at Thessalonica to practice this gift.. "Do not quench the spirit, test all things; hold fast to what is good." So, this is a gift that you must use, test it consistently, to improve your ability to determine between what is good and what is evil.

"for our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places."

Ephesians 6:12

A sign that you might have the gift of discernment is that you feel different from other people. You are able to see or sense things that others cannot, This could be why I always felt different or misunderstood when I was younger. Sometimes I experience unusual events, dreams or sensations that cause me to feel strange or out of place. I was having these experiences even before I was saved, so I have always believed that this gift was given to me a birth. Because I understand that now and realize this gift it is up to me to use it and ask the Holy Spirit to guide me and help me to hone my skills of discernment.

If you don't ask God to help you with this gift, then you can be drawn to use it in a way that is not good. Satan can draw people like this into the occult, if you are not, is God's word and do not pray for the Holy Spirit to guide you. I believe that this gift is a powerful weapon in times of spiritual warfare.

Mark 9:25 "When Yeshua saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!"

This gift can also allow you to see good in others, "When Yeshua saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said, Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit." Yeshua recognized his true character.

With all this, I am saying that the gift of discernment can be given to us at birth and asked for by believers in Christ. We need to be like Solomon who asked the Lord for discernment. We are told by Paul that the church will be infiltrated, especially in the last days.

1 Timothy 4:1 "The spirit clearly says that in the later times some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons."

So, my final message is for you to pray and ask God for the gift of discernment so that you will know the difference between what is good and what is evil.. know your enemies and put on the full armor of God.

The Future is Now: Terry Friesen
On February 17, 2023, the Lord took me back to a dream and vision
I experienced in June of last year.

Over a 3-day period from June 27-29, 2022, the Holy Spirit took me into the future reality of business. 24 hours a day during this 3-day window I experienced a reality that was foreign to me. The Holy Spirit gave me a glimpse into the future and the plans of the God head for our earthly reality to both declare the new reality that is on the way, and to intercede for it's coming. At night I had dreams that displayed this new reality and during the day I felt and experienced a new atmosphere unlike any I had experienced before.

In the first series of dreams, I saw low places being raised up, and high places being brought low. I heard the Holy Spirit say He was establishing a level playing field. Evil was being removed from the business/economic system which had given some a place of advantage and in turn discriminated against others. Evil had created an atmosphere of lack and insecurity whereby we would compete for business out of a place of fear, or to extend control.

With evil removed, the need to push and pull would disappear. During the daylight hours I was shocked with the degree of discomfort I felt as I could no longer feel fear of financial insecurity. I know this is a strange statement to make. I have sought the Lord in prayer and business for years, and many times felt His peace wash over me, and I have felt this same peace enter business transactions I have been a part of. But to be in an atmosphere without overarching fear and financial insecurity was not familiar. I didn't recognize how often it pushed in on me until it was entirely gone.

For years I have prayed and contended for the place of freedom in finance and business and have experienced a degree of this. What I am referring to is the atmosphere that is pervasive around us in the realm of finance and business. Every day we have been buffeted by the enemy and the atmosphere he has created. We don't know what it is like to live and do business in a realm where the enemy has no influence whatsoever, but it is coming.

In this new reality there was no shortage of resources and consequently there was room for everyone according to their giftings. Those that were wired to own businesses did so, not for sake of greed or control but because it is who they are. Many remained as "employees" because this is where they felt comfortable – but there was no lack for either one. Every person, owner or employee, or retiree had ample resources, and many chose to work because they wanted to use their gifts, NOT because they were afraid of financial doom. The angst or edge of competition that caused animosity had now disappeared. Competitors were now friends and often met to discuss how they could make their industry better, their communities better.

During this time frame I was given dreams where I met with my competitors and even invited them into my business to show them how we operated. We even held some joint meetings so our respective teams could meet each other, so they could be friends and get along. For those who are currently in competitive environments this would sound like an impossibility, but it wasn't. Somehow there were enough resources and wealth such that every piece of the equation had room to profit and to run their businesses with an eye to the present and the future.

I saw a vast multitude of small and medium size businesses. There were still some very large corporations, but they existed because some people preferred that style of working environment. Some individuals, knowing they could start and be successful at business whenever they chose, elected to stay in larger organization because this elusive dream was no longer a carrot out in front. The push and pull, the pressure to succeed or fail, the angst over finances was all removed.

I felt such a peace govern the entire state of affairs that I became uncomfortable. It was as if I no longer fit. I would need to align with kingdom values, not just in my mind, my heart, but in my mental/emotional everyday experience. I was again struck by how often I have pushed against the world system, pushed against the enemy's pressure in front of me. I have contended with lack, competition, greed, and fear in my own life, but most notably in the atmosphere and systems I have operated in, and now it was all gone.

I would need a new operating system. Even after 3 days steeped in this experience, I felt my motivations start to change. With no fear or pressure to push against I had to draw on a different set of internal motivations, an awareness of the Father's love. I lacked nothing, I needed nothing, and now my motivation needed to be love. Love would give of itself even when no pressure existed. Love would choose to invest for the sake of others even when I had enough. Love would choose to teach and give when I had no lack in myself. Love would cause the things in my hands to grow for the sake of others. It was as if love was the only source of motivation that could me in a state of such overwhelming contentment and freedom from evil.

Now that evil was removed from the system, the system was so radically different, that even the ideals we operated with no longer were relevant. Even my kingdom ideals and my relationship with the Father took on new light because I could not anticipate ahead of time what living in this reality would be like. I had a series of dreams where I saw one businessperson after the next come out from under a dark menacing cloud. This cloud represented the fallen world system and its various controls and influences. I saw this black cloud around their thinking, and they would simply walk out from under it into a realm of freedom that had been prepared for them by the Father. As this happened, in each case the person would look around stunned, confused, and dazed not knowing what to do. It was as if they would need to think again, walk again, and learn to do business again – differently.

As I have often reflected on this 3-day window into the future, I have been encouraged to hold those things near me very loosely. I will hold onto the Father with everything I have but at the same time I will give Him all the room He needs to form and shape the reality that is around me. I know that by holding to a certain perspective rather than the Lord Himself, I can frustrate the process of transformation.

BE MINDFUL OF THE SEASONS UNDER HEAVEN, SAYS THE LORD!

Don't forget and always be mindful of this, says the Lord: "It's all about SEASONS! What looks dead right now and what looks dry is going to change accordingly with the SEASONS OF LIFE.

Be patient and pray that I help you to endure for I know, and I see what is coming next. I call what is not as is for I know the end from the beginning. So, in times of confusion, uncertainty and doubt, call on me and I will show you what I see. I will share my vision with you so you will be assured of the prosperity I have in mind for you, you loved one, your nation and whatever issue you are dealing with right now.

I Am your refuge, and I AM the one who calls you to STAND. Ask of me and I will answer, Knock and the door will be opened. In the right SEASON what looks dry now shall bloom and bring fruits to satisfy your heart and mine. Be always mindful to understand things and people according to the seasons of life they are in under heaven. You think Dessert and I am thinking Streams of Living Water. I AM ABLE AND I WILL DO IT. Just TRUST."

Passing the Power Down

By Roger Lee Waters

It was becoming evening time, and I had everything prepared for the first ever gathering of all the generations. I have longed for this, to get everyone together, and talk about the way things were, the time of how it all started. The fire pit was set, and it was time to start rubbing these two sticks together and start a flame.

Someone is coming up over the ridge, who was that, a woman with a kid, but who was she? She arrived and stood in front of me, and introduced her child as Irad, then here came the dad, his name was Enoch. I had heard of him through Cainan, but I never have seen him before,

A few minutes later, along came Enos and Seth, then came Mahalaleel, and we looked for some food to eat, and that is when Cainan and Jared showed up. I wondered if anyone else would show up, but as the sun went down, I realized there was no one else. I showed these other men where to sit so I could get all the generations straight.

After all, I was a young 320,400 Sundown's old, and sitting right in front of me were the next six generations below me, what a gathering huh? But there was something I knew, and these other six men were about to find out and it all involved them and the Creator. I was so excited to share the news with them, but there were some other things that had to be said first. Hey, first things first. I like that. Let that be said again.

I looked upon them, and I called Eve over, and said to her, look my helpmate, look at our seven generations all together. Eve and Sarah, Enoch's wife, and the other women, all started to prepare the first meal of the day, so we could eat a bit after sundown. Eve came to me and said the food was prepared. We all stood as was our tradition and we thanked the Creator for what we were about to eat.

Enoch asked me why we did that, and I told him that I would always give him thanks for everything I have, because it was Him that gave it all to me. We ate, laughed, and talked to each other, telling each other of the good things we were doing. There weren't to many people that we knew of, but the talk became a history lesson for the children and grandchildren of me.

I had to tell them that when Eve and I were first in the garden, we talked to all the animals, we would sit with the lions and tigers, and they would come and lay their heads on our legs and beg us to rub their bellies, and the monkeys and others would swing in the trees back and forth, and we would all get along with each other. Then one day, something that I have never heard of came, and I will let Eve tell you about that.

Eve cleared her throat, swallowed hard, and then said, "It was me that caused all to become serious and to have a backlash upon us. I and Adam here are the reason the animals don't talk and eat with us anymore. They know we did something against the creator's wishes that caused us to become separated from Him.

There was this beautiful creature, looked like a thin dragon, and he began to talk to me, saying that if I ate the fruit of the one tree we were not to eat from, we wouldn't die, and you know me, I had to disprove that silly little dragon, and I ate, then later Adam ate, and we both were kicked out of the garden. We also had two sons, Cain and Able. They were good kids, they roamed the landside, and prepared our meat for the long cold season.

But one day they got mad over the sacrifice that they gave back to the Creator, and Cain picked up a rock and smashed it over the back side of Abels head and killed him. We were told by the Creator that what he did was called a killing because it was a malicious act. All this time, we thought we were it, but Cain was cast out and went to the land of Nod, and there he found a helpmate and had a child.

We wondered where this woman came from, that is when we found out that there was another tribe of people to our sunrise side, and we had never met them. That is when we found out that our creator made your grandfather from the dust of the earth, and placed a soul inside him when he breathed the breath of air into his lungs. I was also made from one of your grandfathers' ribs, that is why we helpmates have 24 ribs and Adam only has 23.

Whatever the Creator placed in Adams body, I have and therefore you all have it as well. But that other group is not like us, our Creator may not have done it the same way with them, I just know they are different. I was surprised however when I found out that Cain was with another woman from outside our groups. Because he killed his brother, he became banished for life. I sure hope this is not a picture of things to come".

Eve sat down, and I stood back up, and began to speak. I wanted to make sure that everyone understood the most important issue, and I had no idea what I was going to call it. I looked at each of the children sitting in front of me, and they were all looking at me waiting for me to say something. So I started speaking, and had no idea what to say, but then something inside of me took over, and the words began to flow.

I looked at Seth, and told him that his name meant Substituted, that he was going to represent what the Creator said was instead of, someone will be substituted for another. The I turned my head slightly and looked right at Enos. He looked back at me and asked me what was wrong, I told him that his name means Mortal Man, that the substituted was going to be a man not from our world.

I turned to Cainan, and looked him right in the eyes, and told him that his name meant from a fixed dwelling. I stopped and spoke out loudly that there is a story being told here. That is when Mahalaleel jumped up and asked me what his name meant, and I immediately answered him and said, Praised of YHVH!

That is when I knew something was happening to me. I looked at Jared, and said, your name means to Descend Downward, and he asked me but why down? All I could do was say I don't know why, but I do know this, Enoch, the seventh in line, from now on, all things will end on the seventh, all times and dates will be based upon the seventh. Your name means to Raise Up and Train. That will be your lineage throughout all time. Everything from this night forward, and through my seed passed down shall be the Power of the Kingdom is passed down through our bloodline.

I stepped back from the fire, and said, I am ruddy human being, Seth was Substituted, Enos your Mortal Man, Cainan, your fixed dwelling, Mahalaleel, your praise of YHVH, Jared, your Descend Downward, and Enoch, your Rise up and Train. Again, I took another step back and shouted with a strong voice, "Sometime in the future, someone will come and be a substitute, for the humans, be a mortal man, come from a fixed dwelling, be called the Praise of YHVH, descend downward, and rise up and train.

That my family is the answer to our sin, for the Creator has provided a way for us to be sanctified.

Fast Forward 4000 years:

A man from Heaven, a fixed place, showed up on the land of Israel, and took the place of a human being, he was called the Praise of YHVH, and he became a substitute for all of us, after he died, he went into the depths of the earth, and descended down, and took the keys of death and hell, and rose up from the grave and started the Church, and Trained all through His Word.

"SHIELDS UP! BE A WATCHMAN!"

CINDY JACOBS, RED OAK, TX

Dear Intercessors,

I want to issue an urgent call to pray against terrorist attacks in the United States, especially during this election cycle. Pray against assassination attempts on political leaders, especially on Donald Trump and his properties. However, pray for politicians in general. Also, pray for protection over schools and school children, malls, airports, and public places, as well as sporting events.

"RECEIVE MY PEACE THAT PASSES UNDERSTANDING!"

ANGIE STOLBA, WASHINGTON, IL

"And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Yeshua." (Philippians 4:7 NIV)

Recently, there have been many situations that have come to surface in our lives that have been pressing for our immediate attention. It is as though these situations have some kind of inner voice that seems to be screaming loudly at us, calling us into quick and anxious decisions. We felt a battle for our peace would soon arise no matter what decision we would come to. It was time for us to enter into prayer and seek the higher wisdom of the Lord. It took a few minutes of concentration to focus on the Lord and to quiet our minds, but as we took that first step of obedience, we heard the Lord's sweet voice of peace and assurance. Be encouraged; we sense this is a word for others as well.

We heard the Lord saying, "Receive My peace that passes your natural understanding. Refuse fear and don't worry about anything! Rather, let My peace guard your heart and mind. The enemy of your soul would seek to bring anxiety and have you worry about many things. However, this is not your portion. I am calling you deeper into My presence. It is here that you will experience a greater measure of My peace. Throw off every weight that would seek to entangle you! O taste and see that I am good! Draw closer to Me and drink deeply of My presence. Feast on My goodness!"

"I prayed to the LORD, and He answered me. He freed me from all my fears. Those who look to Him for help will be radiant with joy; no shadow of shame will darken their faces. In my desperation I prayed, and the LORD listened; He saved me from all my troubles." (Psalm 34:4-6 NLT)

"Be assured that your future is in My hand! I am trustworthy. I know the plans that I have for you, My child, and they are only for your good (Jeremiah 29:11). Keep your eyes on Me and do not entertain thoughts of doubt, worry, or fear. Meditate on My goodness and My faithfulness! Faithful I have been and faithful I will continue to be!"

"Trust in the LORD, and do good; dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness." (Psalm 37:3 NKJV)

"Receive My grace for today! Rest in Me and know that all is well. As you continue to abide in Me and draw closer to Me, you will hear My still small voice with greater clarity. You can be assured that I will guide you and direct you along the right path for your life. If you ask Me for bread, I will never give you a stone (Matthew 7:9). I am your good and faithful Father. Keep your eyes on Me and nestle in close to Me. I will never leave you or forsake you! Receive My peace that passes all understanding!"

"God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth gives way, and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy place where the Most High dwells. God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day." (Psalm 46:1-5 NIV)

Sharon, Kaseweter, Oregon city, Oregon

The Bible says in Proverbs 18:21 that "Death and life are in the power of the tongue", but it doesn't stop there, so let's dig DEEPER!

The verse finishes with a warning "Those who love it (the power of the tongue) will eat the fruit of it (the power of the tongue). So, what does that look like?

Recently, my girlfriend who lives with us was having pain in her knee again, after 4 1/2 years of walking in and out of healing. She was in her room getting ready for bed and was in pain, so she came out and asked me to pray for her knee.

Engaging with Daddy and Yeshua through Holy Spirit I was to speak life only, into her knee! So, I did...

After she left, I sat with the Lord and asked Him what He wanted to say about her knee. In an instant, I heard these words. "Concerning the knee, let your yes be yes, and your no, no"! So, on my way to bed I stopped by her room, poked my head in and said to her what Daddy had said to me! "I don't know what that means", she said, looking at me somewhat confused. I said "it's in the Bible "and she chuckled... Of course it is!

The next morning, she was praying and asking Daddy why she wasn't receiving her healing. She heard two words." Double talk" and she knew exactly what they meant.

She came out into the living room and shared it with me.

We repented for any double-talking and using our mouth in any way displeasing to our Father in heaven! (you know like when you're in traffic and someone cuts you off) We confessed we had, and wanted to change the way we use our mouths. Wow did that feel good.

Later that afternoon, I was standing at the sink doing dishes when Daddy said" Since you're going to eat the fruit of your lips anyways, it might as well be good, right"! I love it when He chimes in like that... And He knows it!

At that point, I found myself getting very excited, because I knew deep in my spirit I was going to have what I spoke from this day forward. So, I had better really watch what I say.

Our Father wants us to have everything that His beloved Son purchased on that cross for us. His desire is for us, not just to live at the Crucifixion but to move to the other side of the cross, to the Resurrection... To the life that came out of the sacrifice, to the perfection of the resurrection!

In order for us to walk in that divine nature, we must do as our savior did, and speak of what our Heavenly Father is saying! We must cease giving allowance to satan, he's not all that!! Yeshua didn't do that, EVER! He made it abundantly clear that He only spoke what His Father was speaking!

Yeshua would never say what we confess on a daily basis!

"I'm coming down with a cold",
"I don't feel good",
"I'm under attack",
"I don't have enough",
"Did you hear about so-and-so",
"I'm confused",
"I can't",
"I don't have enough faith",
"There's no way it can be done",
"I have such and such disease",
"We're not gonna make it",
"It's impossible",
"It's killing me",
"It almost gave me a heart attack",
"Things are never gonna change",
"I hate so-and-so",
"I hope so and so rots in hell",
"I can't, forgive so-and-so",
"It's no use" etc..

Just imagine these words coming out of our Saviors mouth!
The Son of God would not speak such things!

If death and life are truly in the power of the tongue, what are we speaking over ourselves every day? If not life, the answer is death. There's no middle ground, it's either or!

The interesting thing though, is we're genuinely perplexed when we run in to the very thing we spoke out. We don't understand why, when we pray, and we ask for the opposite. Let me tell you what my thought is, and I believe I am correct in this assumption. We cancel our prayer when we speak the opposite of what we've requested. If you think about it, it's a simple equation.

The Bible says to ask, and you shall receive. How do you ask.. with your mouth! So, if you ask in prayer for finances, then you confess you don't have enough, you cancel out your request, and God has to honor what you confess. the same goes with healing... You pray for healing, but then you turn around and confess you have a cold to somebody on the phone!

James 1: 6 But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. 7 That person should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. 8 Such a person is double-minded and unstable in all they do.

Double-talk begins with a double-mind! If we compromise in any area of our life, it will affect every area of our life! As I was reading the Bible with my husband recently, a thought came to me that the Bible is written in such a way that when we, the ones who possess life and death in our mouth, read the word, we should see the fruit of what we read!

Isaiah 55: 11 so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it. And the Word of God is the Bible!

So, if you are in a place where you have prayed, and have not seen the fruit of your labors, check your heart, because perhaps what you are seeing is the fruit of your tongue!

Father I pray for a deep conviction to all who read this, and for You to show us the truth behind our very words and to give us the understanding of how to singularize our double-minds! So be it, in Yeshua's Uncompromising Name

Robin Robinson Bohlin

The power of words is enormous. Thinking, believing and saying, all go hand in hand. As you think so shall you be as you think you will speak and as you speak you will act. If things are not "moving along" in your life, then look back at what you are thinking and saying. Remedy thoughts and words at their genesis instead of trying to fix it on the backside.

Isaiah 6:7-8 (NASB1995) "He touched my mouth with it and said, 'Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away and your sin is forgiven.'"

The Holy Spirit has given me this to write and am now sending out to you all.

1 Chronicles 28:20

David also said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the service of the temple of the LORD is finished.

Prayer:

Father, we thank you and ask you to take us back to the beginning, before the foundations of the world, even before Lucifer was created, before we were affected, infected, manipulated and changed in our DNA, RNA, Proteins, Genes and in all cellular levels. In the fullness and authority of the name of JHWH, we also ask you to seal this prayer in the Blood Covenant of Yeshua Ha'Mashiach. We come before you now.

Father, your WORD says in 2 Timothy 1:7 You have not given us a spirit of fear or timidity but of Love, Power and a Sound Mind, therefore we break all agreement with the spirit of fear and timidity, trauma and the spirit of terror. Romans 8:15 says For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!", therefore we break all agreement with the spirit of slavery back into fear. 1 Corinthians 2:12 says We have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us, therefore we break all agreement with the spirit of this world.

Isaiah 35:4 says, Say to those with anxious heart, "Take courage, fear not. Behold, your God will come with vengeance; The recompense of God will come, But He will save you," therefore we break agreement with anxious hearts. Isaiah 54:4 "Fear not, for you will not be put to shame; And do not feel humiliated, for you will not be disgraced; But you will forget the shame of your youth, And the reproach of your widowhood you will remember no more, therefore we break agreement with shame, humiliation, disgrace and reproach. Father we declare these breaking of agreements are over our generational family lines, from the Nations which they originated [ie: nation from which ancestors came from], over our families, over myself and my spouse family lines, children and future offspring bloodlines and spiritual offspring bloodlines.

Father, we ask now that you and the Angel of Purity would now sever forever from our mind, will, emotion, body, soul, spirit AND our DNA, RNA, Proteins, Genes and in all cellular levels.

- spirit of fear / trauma / timidity / spirit of terror
- spirit of slavery
- spirit of the world
- anxious hearts
- shame / humiliation / disgrace / reproach

over our generational family lines grandparents and parents of myself and spouse (nations they were originally from) over myself, my spouse, our children and future offspring bloodlines over spiritual offspring bloodlines

Replace what has now been removed by the Glory of the Godhead, over all our minds, wills, emotions, bodies, souls, spirits, DNA, RNA, Proteins, Genes and in all cellular levels in Yeshua's name. We receive:

- Purity
- Holiness
- Righteousness
- Innocence

- Fearlessness
- Trust
- Love
- Peace
- Dignity
- Freedom

2 Timothy 2:22 "Flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart."

Psalms 139:13-16 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well. My substance was not hidden from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see my substance yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

Isaiah 43:7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my Glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

Genesis 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he, him; male and female created he, them.

A compilation of Small Straws In A Soft Wind by Marsha Burns

Examine yourself to see if you have failed to repent for being unkind, judgmental, or deceptive. And forgive those who have come against you in any way. It is time to clear the slate so that nothing can prevent you from receiving the highest and best that I offer you, says the Lord. Luke 6:37-38 Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you.

Settle issues as they arise and stay current with the relevance of your life and times. Let Me be your guide and your very present help in trouble, says the Lord. I know your heart and the intentions of your soul. I am your strength and your shield, and I will bring you through to victory in all things. Psalms 28:7-8 The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in Him, and I am helped; therefore, my heart greatly rejoices, and with my song will praise Him. The Lord is my strength, and He is the saving refuge of His anointed.

Never expect to receive more than you give. Be who you are in Me and give as I direct you to give; no more and no less. Stay on the path that I have chosen for you without regret, and be content, says the Lord. Philippians 4:12-13 I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

The mistakes that you have made will be highlighted in your life, and you will have the opportunity to go back and make corrections either naturally or spiritually. This is a time to review and repent of the things that were unbecoming a believer in Christ. Let all your sins be wiped away, and be renewed, says the Lord. Psalm 51:1-2 Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; according to the multitude of Your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

Troubling times create troubling circumstances. This is a time to trust Me in every situation and know that I will direct your steps. Refuse to dump down in discouragement and fear, which can be contagious, so protect yourself from going down with the crisis of others, says the Lord. Walk in faith that I am with you. Isaiah 41:20 Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

This is a time when you can rearrange parts of your life, environment, and activities to better suit your needs. Allow Me to lead you in that direction and show you what you can do, says the Lord. You will be delighted with the results. Psalm 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will guide you with My eye.

It is good to look back and review where you have been and what you have done for the sake of repentance and new beginnings. But you must not get stuck in the past or renew old slights or divisions. This is a time to take a backwards glance as a compass to get your bearings and establish direction for the days ahead. Remember that I am your North Star, says the Lord. Proverbs 3:5-6 Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

Find and maintain that place in you that is innocent and pure, and do not step out beyond the boundaries of holiness. Your physical and spiritual wellbeing depends on what you decide in every situation. Give careful consideration to your thoughts and intentions, and choose righteousness, says the Lord. Proverbs 14:15 The simple believes every word, but the prudent considers well his steps.

You are about to launch out on a brand-new beginning, which will be a time of exploration and discovery. Launch Out can move ahead when you have sufficiently left the past behind. Refuse to allow anything to hold you back from this spiritual adventure. Fear is your enemy, and faith is your friend. Philippians 3:13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead.

You can very easily get overwhelmed if you try to do too much at once. Narrow your focus and take one issue at a time instead of looking at the overall picture. Be reminded that nothing is too difficult for you to accomplish and remember that you do not eat a meal in one gulp; you chew and swallow one bite at a time. Psalms 61:2-4 From the end of the earth I will cry to You, when my heart is overwhelmed; lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For You have been a shelter for me, a strong tower from the enemy. I will abide in Your tabernacle forever; I will trust in the shelter of Your wings. Selah

In these days of chaos, it is even more important for you to stay on course, and do what I have given you to do, to see what I have given you to see, and to know what I want you to know. It takes very little time to come into My presence and quiet your soul so that you can perceive My will. Do not neglect your spiritual duty above all else, says the Lord. Psalms 42:1-2 As the deer pants for the water brooks, so pants my soul for You, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?

This is a time to wrap up loose ends, but you may be reluctant to do so because you are afraid to make a mistake. When you begin to panic, settle your soul in the knowledge that I am with you to guide you through this process. When you have accomplished what you set out to do, you will realize that your worry was all for nothing. Go forth in the power of assurance that you are not alone, says the Lord. Matthew 6:24-27 25 Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? Which of you, by worrying, can add one cubit to his stature?

Every day can be a good day when you choose to follow My lead and depend on Me for strength and health, and when you walk and live in the Spirit. Everything else dims in comparison to your spiritual service, says the Lord. Prioritize what you deem to be important so that you walk in strength, peace, and prosperity. Romans 15:13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

A word from Jane Hamon and the 2024 Prophetic Conference
A Time to Welcome the King of Glory – Jehovah Sabaoth

"Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O you gates! Lift up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, He is the King of glory. Selah." (Psalm 24:7-10)

In this Psalm, David was asking for the gates of Jerusalem to be opened to make way for the Ark of God, but really for the hearts of the people to be opened to the King of glory. Michal (identified as Saul's daughter, not David's wife) looked out the window and despised David's extravagant show of praise and worship. She could not see what God was doing in the midst of the chaos of battles in the land, and her vision was clouded by her own loss and bitterness. She did not open her heart to the new season of victory and was never fruitful again. Yet the whole city was blessed because the Ark of God's presence had returned to the people. His glory had come back to their city! We must choose to receive the Lord and all His plans and purposes with an open heart in this new year.

There are many names which extol the attributes and character traits of God: Jehovah Shalom, the Lord our Peace; Jehovah Rapha, the Lord our Healer; Jehovah Jireh, the Lord our Provider are a few examples. In this Psalm, and I believe for this season (a season of warfare, spiritual confrontation, and yet restoration and celebration), the name of God, Jehovah Sabaoth, will be exalted. Who is this King of glory? Yes, He is the Lord strong and mighty in battle. But He is also the Lord of hosts, Jehovah Sabaoth, the Lord of the angel armies, and He is rising up and fighting for His people and His Kingdom cause.

Our God is a warrior! He is seen in Joshua 5 as the Commander of the Lord's armies, who appeared to Joshua before the battle of Jericho. He is the Lord that fought for Israel as they came out of Egyptian captivity (see Exodus 14:13-14). He is the God that David fought on behalf of as he rushed out to face Goliath. Our God is surely a warrior who is fighting for us.

Who is this King of glory? We will surely see God's glory and power released in new measure this year. But don't just look for glory clouds or tingles up and down our spines. This will be a demonstration of who He is, His power and His dominion in the earth.

As we come into 2024, global tensions are rising. Lots of wars and rumors of wars are stirring in the earth. Nations are aligning for war. But I do not believe World War III is God's will for the earth at this time. We need to pray against the spirit of chaos that wants to throw the entire earth into despair. But our God is a warrior! He is the Commander of angel armies. He is arising in this manner as Jehovah Sabaoth, the Warrior, because we are in a time of contending.

On October 6, 2023, the Lord told me that the prince of Persia, an ancient demonic stronghold seen in Daniel 10, was rising up to create war/chaos in the earth again. Persia is often symbolized by dragon images. Ancient Babylon, which was known as the "City of Gates" (which is significant for this year of doors and gates), covered some of its gates with images of dragons. Babylon's name means confusion, one of the workings of chaos. That region of the world is being stirred by this ancient demonic spirit. Of course, on October 7, Hamas attacked Israel.

In July 2023, before this conflict began, I heard the Lord say that there was an event coming to Israel that would get the attention of the world. Initially, I felt the US would support Israel, but the Lord said it is important to pray that we stay in alignment with Israel, knowing God will bless those who bless them (Genesis 12:3).

Can we, the people of God, the Ekklesia, do anything about this? I believe there is a clarion call to pray and to seek God's face and cry out for mercy before His throne. It can't be business as usual in our gathering times. We must contend against the agenda of chaos, whether in the lives of people or even in nations. Our prayers do make a difference.

Isaiah 45 speaks of victory over the captivity of Babylon by saying God will open up the double gates and give access to that which was thought to be impossible and impenetrable. He will give us the treasures of darkness, which speak of the armories of weapons that Babylon had stolen. God is placing upgraded spiritual weapons in the hands of His people to wage war on a new spiritual level. Just as the US military does not fight with weapons forged for World War II, and have upgraded technology for planes, tanks and weapons, God is upgrading the spiritual weapons of prayer, praise and proclamations, bringing fresh revelation for how to defeat our already defeated foe. The only way to have victory is to stand in the victory Christ won for us on the Cross, but to then take up our spiritual weapons to enforce that victory.

Maybe you are fighting your own battles on a personal level that have seemed all-encompassing and overwhelming. The same God that fought for Israel is fighting for you. He is mobilizing angel armies on your behalf to bring you victory over chaos in every battle you are facing. Angels are sent to help us (Hebrews 1:14), to guard us and to carry revelation to us from the throne of God.

Decree this with me: I open the gate of my heart to the King of glory. I receive every part of Your purpose and plan for my life and choose Your ways over my ways. Let Your glory saturate every part of my life. I serve You. I decree, Jehovah Sabaoth is rising on my behalf. He is the Lord of angel armies, and He is fighting for me, my family, my finances and my physical health. This will be a year of recovery for me of all that has been stolen from me by the enemy. I receive my upgraded spiritual weapons and stand in the triumph Christ won over death. I align my heart with Heaven and will experience victory over chaos through the power of Yeshua' name. Amen.

The Rise of the Dragon Slayers

One of the battles we have been fighting at the end of 2023 is over the life of a dear friend who collapsed and was lifeless until he was resuscitated. He was put on life support and has been in the process of recovery. Doctors didn't have a good prognosis, yet he continues to defy death and grows stronger each day. Now, his vitals are strong, his organs are working; he just needs to wake up. Interestingly, this man had several prophetic words prior to this time that foretold victory in a situation just like this. His friends and family have used those words to wage a warfare for the sake of his life, declaring no premature death and that no weapon formed against him will prosper.

During a time of prayer for him, I had a very clear vision of him fighting a dragon of death. He had a sword in his hand. Death would come for him, but he would evade its bite, hiding behind a rock, only to leap out and swing his sword at the head of the dragon again and again. His spirit man was being empowered by the prayers going up on his behalf. Though at this writing he is still asleep, I believe God calls him a dragon slayer!

At that point, I heard the Lord say, "There is a company of dragon slayers arising today. These are those who have looked death right in the eye and not given up, backed off or been intimidated. These dragon slayers will operate with supernatural courage to confront chaos and confusion and every emissary of death operating in the earth. Yeshua, the ultimate Dragon Slayer, defeated death, Hell and the grave, paving the way for this new generation of dragon slayers who will enforce His victory. Those who thought they would be broken by the harsh trials of the last season yet held on to the Word of the Lord (the sword), will prevail.

He says, "I am waking up My people, reminding them of My prophetic promises and calling them to wage war by them knowing My voice shatters the enemy (see Isaiah 30:31). So, rise up, dragon slayers! Shake off the defeat of the last season and rise into new authority and victory for the new day."

As I close this writing, I want to leave you with a verse sent to me by a powerful intercessor. What a word of encouragement!

Isaiah 49:24-26 says, "Can plunder be retrieved from a giant, prisoners of war gotten back from a tyrant? But God says, 'Even if a giant grips the plunder and a tyrant holds My people prisoner, I'm the one who's on your side, defending your cause, rescuing your children. And your enemies, crazed and desperate, will turn on themselves, killing each other in a frenzy of self-destruction. Then everyone will know that I, God, have saved you – I, the Mighty One of Jacob.'"

James Nesbit

Heavenly Father, thank You for strengthening the armies of Israel today, and at the same time weakening the armies of their enemies!

Thank You for the strength of Your Joy filling the armies of Israel and let the Word of Your supernatural intervention of Your signs, wonders, and miracles on their behalf spread like Holy Fire!

Yes Lord and let the very same testimony flood the ranks of the murdering terrorists, causing Your crippling terror to fill each and every cell both in Israel and every other nation where a terrorist cell exists!

Lord, within our own nation, we repent for the condition in which we find ourselves and only Your mercy can save us! We thank for a great outpouring of Your Holy Spirit, like a Holy soaking rain that washes the filth away!

At the same time as an awakening through Your mercy is changing the landscape, loose a fear and a trembling of who You are because of the manifestations of Your righteous judgments, removing strategic leaders and groups dedicated to darkness who refuse to repent, thank You for removing them swiftly!

Every group that would release fear, death, or terror in our land!
For those whose rebellion has been public, minister to them in public!
Our hearts cry will always be for everyone, everywhere to repent, but scripture says that will not be the case!

Lord as we grow close to Passover, thank You great Father, for preparing our own hearts as we approach this transition time!

Father we pray over all those praying over their waters this week and thank You for the warring angels that placed over the waters excelling in strength through the intercessions of Your saints, and overwhelming the forces of darkness and their strategies set for the destruction of our nation!

We are thanking You for a great movement of light filled victories in towns and cities that have been under the sorcery of the marine spirits that have governed from the waters!

Yes Lord, in the Name and through the blood of Your Son, Your Kingdom Come, Your Will be done this day!

"MAKE ROOM FOR THE KING OF GLORY!"
DANIELLE DIXON, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA

(Posted by the Australian Prophetic Council on January 18, 2024.)

Jesus appeared to me as the Lion of Judah. He was dressed in royal clothing with a crown on His head standing in my house. He had a gold sash across His shoulder; the look on His face was regal. The Lion of the tribe of Judah reinforces Jesus as the conquering, victorious King who descended from Judah's lineage.

I've never witnessed Jesus, the Lion of Judah, adorned in this manner, even though I've encountered Him as the Lion of Judah on multiple occasions. He appeared focused; His gaze fixed ahead. There was an air of anticipation. Then I heard Him say:

"I am the Lion of Judah, the King of glory. I am coming as King to My Body to rule gloriously. My Body has not seen Me in this way. I am the King, strong and mighty. I am strong in battle. Lift your heads, people of God! Make room and welcome the King of glory! Allow Me to rule and reign in your midst. You cannot put trust in man or programs or denominations; your heads must be lifted, looking forward. Don't look back and try to fix things. Some things I don't want to be fixed. I want to bring the new, not fix the old."

I sensed the house symbolized God's house. He will cause blessing in the house of His Father and vindication will follow. He will not allow His people to seek vindication. Yeshua is the head of the Church; Yeshua is our avenger. We are the generation who will seek the face of God passionately. We are the generation who will see the King of glory come in. No longer will we be pleading with Yeshua to open the doors; we will be the doors and gates of Heaven on Earth.

Make room for the King of glory!

"They will receive blessing from the Lord and vindication from God their Savior. Such is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face, God of Jacob.

"Lift up your heads, you gates; be lifted up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, you gates; lift them up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is He, this King of glory? The Lord Almighty—He is the King of glory." (Psalm 24:5-10 NIV)

Is The Word of God Having It's Affect in Your Life?

By Steve Loopstra, Director – Your servant in Christ Ministries

Of late I have been challenged with this question. And I imagine that your answer would be much like mine at first... "Well sure, I read the Bible every day, I seek to obey it, and it is a great comfort to me, especially in times of trouble." Well, AMEN to all of that, but I want to push this a little further. Because the Lord challenged me in this area through the word of a prophet of God, whom I have the greatest respect for. His name is Richard Owen Roberts, and if you are not familiar with him, I encourage you to look him up on YouTube. I say he is a prophet because he speaks the Word of God with power, and he has insight from the Lord. My understanding of a prophet would be - A prophet teaches truth and interprets the word of God. He calls the unrighteous to repentance. He receives revelations and directions from the Lord for our benefit. He may see into the future and foretell coming events so that the world may be warned.

In a message entitled, "The use of the Word of God in preaching," he asks a very profound and important question. In the context, he is speaking about preaching, and in reality, we are all called to be "preachers / proclaimers" of the Word, and he asks the question, "How can we tell if have preached the Word, or have simply preached "from" the Word or "about" the Word? He then mentions three ways the Word of God describes itself. The Word describes itself as a hammer. The Word describes itself as a fire. And the Word describes itself as a sword. Listen to this question he then asks: "Is it not reasonable then, that if I have preached the Word, there will be people who are "hammered," who like the hard rock are smashed to pieces? Is it not reasonable to suppose that if I have preached the Word, there will be those who will feel pierced by the sword of the Spirit? Is it not reasonable to suppose that there are those who have been cold, and without passion who are set on fire for Yeshua Christ if I have preached the Word? Is it sensible to think that I have preached the Word, and nobody has been smashed, nobody has been pierced, nobody has been ignited?" His conclusion is that if those things are not happening, you haven't preached the Word.

Now, let me draw this into the context of our lives, my life. But first let me say that I absolutely understand the power of the Word of God to comfort and heal. I imagine that this may be our first response when we think of the effect of the Word in our lives. Several years ago, I was in a very tragic situation that affected me so profoundly and deeply that in my emotional grief and stress, I could not sleep, I could not quiet myself. The Lord challenged me to quote Scripture into a recorder and play those passages back to myself. One afternoon I was extremely stressed from this situation, and I played back my recording of Psalms, and the last one was Psalm 91. When I laid down on the couch, listening to this Word of God, as I closed my eyes, I literally felt His wings hovering about eighteen inches above my body, and such a calm came over me and for the first time in days, I slept. Yes, I know the Word of God is a comfort, there are too many verses about that for us to even attempt here, and that's not my objective.

With this word, I have been deeply challenged in my own life and my own relationship with Yahavah, and Yeshua, and His Word. And here is my question for myself and for us: "How often are there times in my life when the Word of God has shattered some thought, some attitude, some lifestyle choice in my life? When is the last time I have truly felt the hammer of the Word breaking a hardened place in my life? Am I so out of touch that I can think that there are not those hardened places in my life? An experience in my past that I have encased in solid rock, so it won't bother me. An attitude of unforgiveness that I have harbored that has grown cold and hard in my heart? An opinion that I have tenaciously held on to, to the point where it has calcified, and nothing can break it? Another question, "Do I consciously and willingly welcome the hammer of the Word in my life because it is the Word of God for me growth? Or have I not even thought about this aspect of God's Word in my life?"

The Word of God is a sword. I guess we often think of the Sword of the Word as a weapon we wield against attacks of the enemy, and that is certainly truth. But do I welcome the piercing power of the Word of God in my life? Am I so accustomed to the Word that I have not laid myself open and vulnerable to His piercing Word? In the passion translation, Hebrews 4:12 says it this way: "For we have the living Word of God, which is full of energy, and it pierces more sharply than a two-edged sword. It will even penetrate to the very core of our being where soul and spirit, bone and marrow meet! It interprets and reveals the true thoughts and secret motives of our hearts."

The Sword of God's Word pierces deep into those places of our "true thoughts" and hidden motives. We are usually ok as long as the Lord doesn't dig too deep or get too nosy. But the flaming sword of the Word of God is seeking those things that are hindering our being holy as He is holy. Hindering our deeper intimacy with Him. The Greek uses the words, "enthymesis" and "ennoia" for the "thoughts and intents of the heart. Enthymesis has the idea of thoughts or deliberations... the things that we "mull over." The word "ennoia" has the idea of the intensions of the heart, the moral understandings of our hearts. Now this implies that the Sword of the Word is meant to pierce deep, deep into our beings, our self, and hidden intentions, and motives. We are usually ok when our reading of the Word massages us on a surface level, but my suspicion is that we may not be inclined to be ready to welcome that probing that needs to be done on a deeper level.

And the Word of God is like fire! Fire, we say is destructive and terrible. Why would we welcome fire? The Bible is like fire in so many ways when it is allowed to work inside our hearts. For example, as fire purifies metal, God's Word purifies our consciences, renews our minds, illuminates our spirits, and drives away darkness. Its light exposes areas in our lives that need to be changed.

In the past, I have lived several different times in California. One of the greatest treasures in California is the forests. And it is common knowledge that there are often tremendous fires that burn great parts of these forests. What many people may not know is that fire is a part of God's plan for the growth and continuing of these forests.

Pine and eucalyptus trees only seed after a fire event when the soil is rich and there are no obstructions to sunlight in the lower canopy. During the blaze, pinecone spines act as a fire-resistant shell to protect seeds. The heat dries out the shell, causing the spines to open easily after a burn, allowing for better dispersal. Serotinous cone species, such as the Jack Pine, will only release their seeds after a fire, rather than at maturation. We must learn to allow the fire of the Word to burn up the dross, but not only that, to open up areas of our lives that will produce new life, only if they are burned in the fire.

I speak here out of how my own life has been challenged by this truth. I want to learn more and more how to welcome in my life the hammer and the sword and the fire of the Word of God. And it is indeed a process of learning. But let's not miss this important truth of the nature and character of God's Word for us. Yes, we need to embrace the comfort and healing of the Word, but also learn to embrace and welcome those times when the Lord wants to use His Word in our lives as a hammer, as a sword and as fire. Are you open to that? Are you ready to say "yes" to allow Him to use His Word in these ways in your life? Your heart? Your intentions? Your experiences? Your memories? Because when we are, He can use these to bring us higher and farther in our relationship with Him, and how He can use us in this needy Word.

CONCLUSION

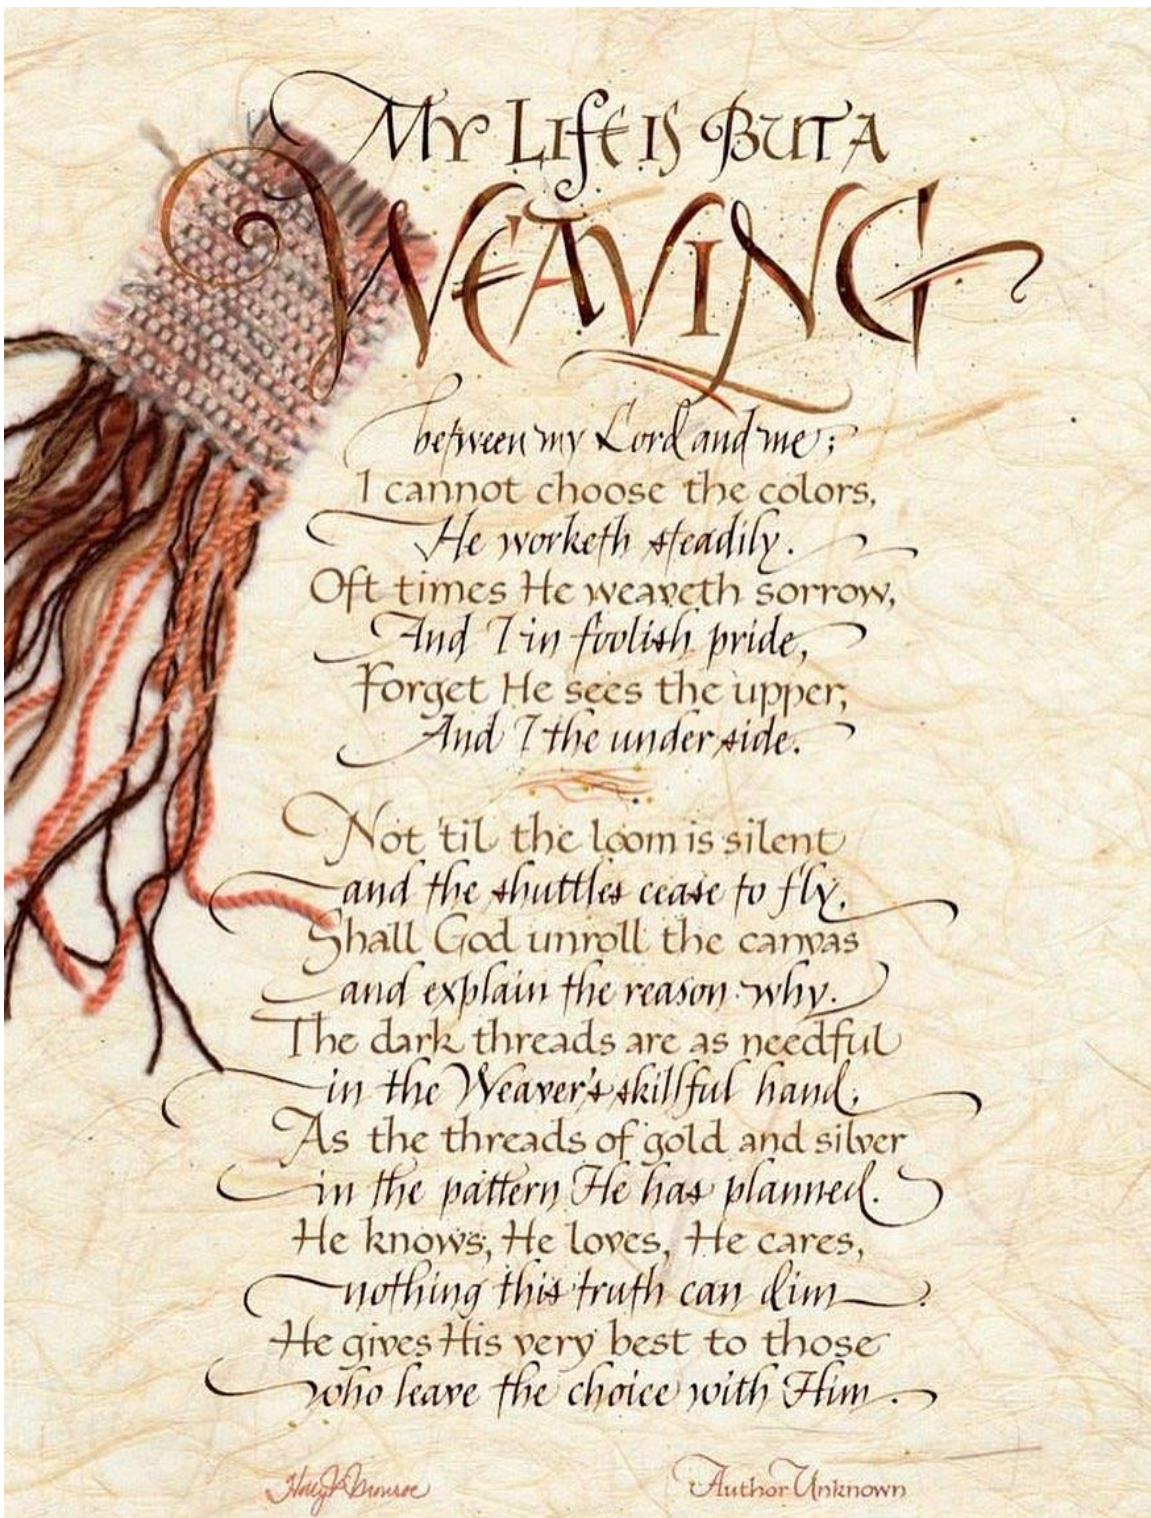

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, again, "Study to show yourself approved".

MY LIFE IS BUT A WEAVING

between my Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colors,
He worketh steadily.
Oft times He weaveth sorrow,
And I in foolish pride,
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the under side.

Not til the loom is silent and the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why.
The dark threads are as needful
in the Weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver in the pattern He has planned.
He knows, He loves, He cares,
nothing this truth can dim.
He gives His very best to those who leave the choice with Him.
