

The Biblical Month of AV 5784: August – September 2024

The LORD will Thunder and Roar

Dr. Wade K. Butler

Joel 3:6 The LORD Amplified Bible, Classic Edition

¹⁶ The Lord will thunder and roar from Zion and utter His voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth shall shake; but the Lord will be a refuge for His people and a stronghold to the children of Israel.

The Biblical Month of Av begins this year at sundown on August 5, to sundown September 3, 2024.

The Amplified, King James, New American Standard, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word and begin on the new moon each month.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophecy. The answer is to ask the LORD how did this relate in the bible for then and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me pray Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. (See last page.) Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce and many other contributing authors which are included.* 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

It's been over seven years since we started publishing the Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1 the very first words GOD speaks is "In the beginning" and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon". From that point on the nation of GOD was to look at the Moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The Biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last 7th, 1,000 years of days would be the time being the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle has only 29.5 days or 354 days per year whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous years is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon". The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast and season.

I had an incredible word spoken over one of the prayer teams I am part of. He said, "You may feel like the cards of life are stacked against you. Do not take his bluff. I am dealing you (my sons and daughters) a Royal Flush against the enemies hand. The battle may seem great , BUT YOU WIN"!

This is the month to break curses! Israel fell to curses during this month and cursed GOD. We can get free from any curses on us or our family lines. All the way back to Adam!!! Get rid of them. Even though we may have unresolved issues we can shut the door. Look at this list and REPENT NOW!!!!

Repent, Break generational curses off yourself and your bloodline.

- Lack of Faith causing you to blame GOD for your short falls.
- Sin, lust of the eye, flesh and boastful pride of life.
- Anti Semitism.
- Racism.
- Robbing God of time, or money.
- Robbing Man.
- Disrespecting Parents.
- Idle words which cause self-curses.
- Covenant Breaking.
- Idolatry.

You may not know what caused the door to be open in your life so simply ask GOD. What sin have I done or my family line that has allowed a curse to operate in your life. Don't go around looking at everyone else, deal with yourself. Some people are just in warfare for breakthrough for themselves or others while some are dealing with past family blood lines. Ask!

LORD forgive me for my sins, (list of sins and sins of failure to do what the LORD told you to do) my family curses as we are guilty, cleanse me and my family LORD with the BLOOD of Yeshua.

"PROMOTION IS COMING AUGUST 1, 8, AND SUNDOWN ON AUGUST 13!"

CANDICE SMITHYMAN, ORANGE PARK, FL

Now no matter what happens on the Hebrew calendar—even though we are ending the month of Tammuz, with all its warfare and "Between the Straights" (or Dier Straights) and "Three Weeks of Mourning"—it does not change that it is the month of August, the 8th month on the Gregorian calendar. And God always promotes this month and sets us up for advancement directly following the Three Weeks of Mourning.

Tammuz is the name of a Babylonian god. The month was named after this god by the Jews so that they could remember their sin of worshiping the golden calf (which took place this month) in Exodus 32. This month has been a time of stripping and stretching. God has been revealing things that have become idols in our lives. During this stripping, He has been getting you ready for promotion and acceleration.

Why would God promote in such a difficult month on the Hebrew calendar? Even though the Hebrew calendar is God's calendar, it always shifts from the month of Tammuz into the new month of Av, which means the month of "comfort." Av is tough in the beginning for the first nine days, but then it quickly becomes a month of promotion and acceleration. ["The first nine days of the month of Av, and also the morning of the tenth, are days of acute mourning for the destruction of the first and second Holy Temples"]

God has been revealing the idols in our lives in the month of Tammuz because we can't be entangled with these idols while God is promoting us and expanding and growing us! Many of you have received tests of promotion this past week in the area of finances, relationships, and distractions regarding needs for provision, protection, and acceptance. God has been faithful to help you deter the temptations.

Matthew 6:24 says, "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

August 1 is the first day of the month of new beginnings on the Gregorian calendar [eight symbolizes new beginnings]. August 8 is the day of new beginnings in the month of new beginnings. Then August 13 is the last day of the Three Weeks of Mourning in Israel, or the 9th of Av, which is a day of fasting and prayer over the temple destructions and the sin of worshiping the golden calf in Exodus 32. Directly following this day, August 13, at sundown, our advancement comes that night, when mourning ends.

God is going to send you some fresh ideas.

Here is a prophetic warning: DO NOT make your fresh ideas idols, as they will hold you back if you begin to worship them. You are called to worship Him and serve Him only. You have been through a lot of warfare, but now it is time to advance, and you don't want the old with the new, or even the new becoming an idol.

Creative ideas are going to come fast, and this is because these ideas will help the Kingdom to expand. Receive the idea but keep yourself in perfect alignment and timing with Him as those ideas grow, develop and accelerate.

You are moving forward in this time of acceleration. Things are going to go fast! Keep your focus on God and only grab ahold of the things He is asking you to grab. Promotion time and acceleration are here!

THE NEXT 6 MONTHS WILL BE A RED-SEA MOMENT

A few nights ago, I had an encounter with the Lord where I saw the next six months on a calendar, and then the walls began to shake violently...

But I didn't feel fear, but strangely, I felt HOPE.

I felt breakthrough. The words that came to me were, "Baal Perazim (God of the breakthrough) is going to make himself known!" But the shakings continued in the spirit. World systems. Natural events. The noise was deafening.

Then, I had a vivid vision of a sea parting, and many were crossing through the waves held back on both sides.

Then I heard the Lord say,

"In the next six months, I will lead my church through the Red Sea once again." And you will see more movement, shaking, and shifting in 6 months than you did for years. For I am speeding up the clock and bringing the dross to the surface. But while it will feel tumultuous on earth, those who walk with me will not be affected. In fact, I am using this time to DELIVER THEM the assignments and attacks they have been trying to shake for years. I am going to use this time to bring my church into her rightful place. And set her free from Egypt and her slavery to man once and for all.

So this is what the Lord says to you; The nations will rage in the next 6 months, but you need to keep your eyes forward. Don't look to the left or to the right. Don't engage in the games of culture but rise above it to see what I AM DOING. Don't be lured back to Pharaoh by the fears and intimidation of the enemy. Don't be tempted to fight fire with fire or lose your footing. But look ahead...Because while the world is groaning and going through the crucible of change, it is your time to emerge from the ashes of your past and the years of testing.

As we begin the month of AV keep in mind that man changed the calendar, GOD didn't.

The church today misses a very important part of their history and understanding. There was never really a new church started. They worshipped and practiced Hebrew. The difference was Christ completed the requirements of the Law and made us "New Men in Him". If you think about it, we are literally Hebrew as we were adopted or grafted into the Kingdom.

With that in mind we will not miss out on what God is doing by honoring the feast or HIS Calendar. At the same time, we will honor our Lord Yeshua the Christ and we may learn something.

This is the only month which is not named in the Bible. It is a summer month of 30 days. Av usually occurs in July–August on the Gregorian calendar. The Babylonian Talmud, Taanit 29a, states that "when we enter the month of Av, our joy is diminished". According to the Hebrew Bible, the Tribe of Simeon was one of the twelve tribes of Israel. The Book of Judges locates its territory inside the boundaries of the Tribe of Judah. It is one of the ten lost tribes".

The Hebrew letter for the month of Av is the letter TET. (In Hebrew, AV means, "father.") – resembles a womb – a month when earth contracts – the secret of pregnancy moves into the earth realm Tribe: Simeon – to hear; be concerned Characteristics: The month you metamorphose or disintegrate. The month the Lion roars. (Amos 3:8) The month where God destroys so He can reconstruct. Consider what you hear and determine how to develop a new level of discernment or oppose counsel and advice. Listen carefully! You will hear key impressions this month.

The Hebrew Month of Av

Jerusalem of Gold - By Boruch Hoffinger

The name of the fifth month on the Jewish calendar (counting from Nisan), Av, literally means "father." It is customary to add the name "Menachem," which means "comforter" or "consoler"—so Menachem Av.

In this month, both Temples were destroyed, and many other tragedies occurred. Yet our Father in heaven is there to comfort and console us.

Av includes a "low point" on the Jewish calendar—the Ninth of Av, the day of the sin of the spies, and the destruction of both the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem. But it also incorporates a "high point": the 15th of Av, a day designated for finding one's predestined soulmate, and one of the happiest days on the Jewish calendar.

Av derives from the root, which means, "to will" or "to desire." This month is also the "low point" of the Jewish calendar.

Biblical Significance of the Month

A Biblical reference to this month in the "Chumash," the Five Books of Moshe, is the one cited above under Names which speaks of the death of the great "Aharon HaKohen," Aharon, the Priest. Aharon represented all that is good in the Jewish character, and all that is thrown out when "sinat chinam," "hatred based on nothing" is brought into Jewish life. Aharon is described in Pirkei Avot as one or better, the one who exemplified the characteristic of "loving peace and pursuing peace, loving people, and bringing them closer to the Torah."

The Talmud in Masechet Gittin (55b-56a) identifies the immediate cause of the destruction of Yerushalayim as the incident involving Kamtza and Bar-Kamtza. It is clear that although this specific incident may have provoked Rome to move against Yerushalayim, the attitude portrayed in the incident, hardness of heart, reflects that that attitude was deeply ingrained in the hearts of the Jewish People at that time. The story shows the destructive effect of causeless hatred, which, throughout Jewish History, has visited destruction in various forms upon the Jewish People.

Notice the following events that took place on that date:

Av 1 – 1273 BC – the death of Aaron

Av 7 - 586 BC – First Temple invaded by King Nebuchadnezzar

Av 9 - 587 BC – The armies of Babylon destroyed Solomon's Temple.

Av 9 - AD 70 – The Romans destroyed the 2nd temple.

Av 9 – AD 135 – The final defeat of Jews by Rome.

Av 9 – AD 1095 – The 1st Crusade is launched, which kills thousands of Jews.

Av 9 – AD 1290 – The Jews are expelled from England.

Av 9 – AD 1492 – The Jews are expelled from Spain.

Av 9 – AD 1942 – The Jews were deported from the Warsaw ghetto to the death camps.

Av 15 – The 15th of Av is known as one of the happiest days in Jewish History. This day, Tu B'Av, signifies rebirth after destruction and is a day for new beginnings.

They tasted the FRUIT of the land but refused to enter.

They held back in unbelief and by doing that, they put themselves under a curse. So, every year on the 9th of Av, Israel finds that their enemies are too strong for them, and they die. As the Hebrews 4:1-2 explains (paraphrased), "they refused to mix the promise with faith." The result was that the month of Av became a month of mourning and destruction. Because of their sin on that date, Israel spent forty years in the wilderness. At the end of that time, God, in His grace, gave them a second chance to enter. (God is the God of the second chances.) But they never truly repented of the sin. So every year the cycle comes back around, and the window of destruction opens again. When you don't repent of the sins of the past, Satan is free to bring the curse of that sin back around on you, and the door of destruction remains open. The way you know you have truly repented is that you don't repeat the sin again. That's how we know Israel never repented.

Israel repeated the sin of Kadish Barnea all over again when Yeshua came. Hebrews tells us that when Yeshua came, they tasted the good fruit of the age to come. They heard His words, and saw His miracles, but turned back in unbelief and refused to enter or receive His promise of the Messiah. But the Word assures us that one day Israel will turn and believe in Yeshua as Messiah. Like Israel in Joshua's day, a future generation will enter in; when that happens, the 9th of Av curse will finally be broken. God still wants Av to be a month of blessing and celebration of His goodness.

Av is a month that presents us with a CHOICE!

We Can Choose to RECEIVE a Curse! We Can Choose to BREAK a Curse!

We Can Choose to BELIEVE God's PROMISE! We Can Choose to ENTER God's BLESSING! So, receive His Promise and mix it with FAITH this month! Av is the month of Simeon. He messed up, but there is redemptive power for Simeon. You are grafted into an inheritance. If you are a blood-bought Christian, you are grafted into the covenant of Abraham. In that covenant there are iniquitous patterns. Through the blood of Yeshua all things are reconciled, but the devil will try to activate these iniquitous patterns and cause them to manifest. If you have instability in your bloodline, there are times when you must have your spiritual disciplines in place so that a spirit does not come in and wipe you out. Here is how the devil's workers operate: they are not respecters of persons, and they do not play fair. If they see that you are having a bad day, they will swarm you. They do not back off just because you are struggling. They will take opportunity to try to convince you to align with them. They understand iniquitous patterns. When Satan was kicked out of heaven, iniquity was found in him. Therefore, any time we agree with him, a root forms. This is why we must deal with the roots in our generations.

This is also why God will deal with you all year long and give you opportunities to repent and be delivered. He can always deliver you, but you must choose to walk in freedom.

A TIME TO ADVANCE

You can always look at sovereign happenings this month. What I mean by sovereign happenings is that God makes decisions to do certain things based upon what we have decided at other times. We are making decisions, which will manifest sooner or later. God is not a God who just turns His head away and lets us do what we want to do. He records what we do in a book, "It is written!" Av is associated with the constellation of Leo (the lion). This is the month the Lion roars (Amos 3:8). This is one of the most incredible prophetic months. When the lion – the people of God – roar, a prophetic covering is created.

Amos 3 is about unlocking what is above you and the sound that begins to resound in the earth realm. Av is the month for the divine will of the Father to be executed. God allows things to be destroyed so He can rebuild. There are times when God says, "Let's just tear that one up and start over." Have you ever tried to do something that is just not going to work?

One time I was designing a computer program using assembler language, and it got caught in a loop. I thought about how long tracking down the mistake would take to fix the problem and decided the best choice would be to just start the program over. That's what I did and the next day the problem was easily fixed. I labored through the first process, but once I let that one go, the logic flowed right for the second process. That's how God works with us sometimes. During this month, the earth begins to contract, so we must watch for earthquakes and where they are occurring.

Again, be very aware of your partnerships during this month. Watch your alignments. The Hebrews associate Av with a new level of discernment. In this month you are developing a new level of discernment, or you are opposing counsel and advice. If you look back in your life, you can identify times when people gave you counsel and advice; but you thought you knew more than anyone else and did not act on the advice.

The Bible says in Psalm 32 that He takes hold of the reins of your life and guides you by His eye. In this process, if you have not allowed Him to work with you, then you are resisting His leading like a horse or mule that has to be harnessed. The Lord will give us a chance to follow Him and go through things, but sometimes resistance to His leading is going on. Use wisdom and allow the Lord to guide you and hone your discernment for these critical days ahead.

The Month of Av

Av on the Biblical calendar and corresponds to July-August on the Gregorian calendar except on leap years which carries over into August-September. Its name was adopted during Israel's Babylonian captivity. In addition, it is customary among Jews to add the name "Menachem" (Comforter) to Av when speaking about this month. This is because the month of Av is associated with many tragic events in Jewish history. Yet, their Father God brings comfort.

Between the Straits

History has shown a pattern of terrible disasters that have befallen the Jewish people during a three-week period. This segment of time is referred to as "between the straits" (based on Lamentations 1:3). It begins on the 17th of Tammuz and ends on the 9th of Av. Ancient Jewish rabbis said: "When Av comes in, gladness must be diminished." As a result, marriages are not held during this period and all entertainment is suspended.

The 9th of Av (Tisha B'av)

The 9th of Av commemorates the destruction of both Temples in Jerusalem along with many other tragedies throughout Jewish history. This day is the "low point" of the three-week period of mourning. As a result, the 9th of Av has become an annual fast day in the Jewish Community. The intention of the fast is to help Jewish people remember and learn from history the past moral failures of their ancestors. Thus, prevent future catastrophes.

Events in Jewish History that Occurred on the Ninth of Av

- § Ten of the twelve spies came back with a negative report about the Promised Land (Numbers 14:1-10). The Israelites believed the evil report of the spies and refused to enter into the Promised Land. Consequently, this event started their 40-year wandering in the desert.
- § The first Holy Temple (constructed by King Solomon) was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar and his Babylonian army. Jerusalem was pillaged, and thousands of Jews were deported to Babylon. (587 B.C.)
- § Titus destroyed the second Holy Temple (70 A.D.). In addition, The Roman army plowed the city of Jerusalem with salt. (71 A.D.)
- § The last stronghold of the Bar Kochba rebellion, the City of Betar, fell to the Romans in 135 A.D. Bar Kochba was killed along with over 100, 000 Jews.
- § Pope Urban II declared the first Crusade. Jerusalem fell to the invading army. Ten thousand Jews were killed in the first month of the Crusade. (1099 A.D.)
- § England expelled the Jews. (1290 A.D.)
- § Spain expelled the Jews. (1492 A.D.)
- § World War I began when Germany declared war on Russia. This launched persecutions against the Jews in Eastern Russia. (August 1, 1914)
- § The Germans began a systematic liquidation of the Jewish Ghettos in Poland. Jews were deported to extermination camps at the rate of six to ten thousand per day. (July 10, 1942)

The 15th of Av (Tu B'av)

Another important date in the month of Av is the 15th of Av (Tu B'av). It signifies the end of the three weeks of mourning. It also celebrates several favorable events in Jewish history and the reunion of God and Israel. Tu B'av is the "high point" of the month and a joyous day on the Hebrew Calendar.

Israel's wilderness wandering ends

The Israelites were to conquer the land God had promised their forefathers, several months after their exodus from Egypt (Exodus 3:8). So, Moses sent out 12 spies to survey the land of Canaan. However, when they returned, 10 of the spies gave evil reports. They convinced the people that the Canaanites were too strong for them to conquer. After this, the people became discouraged and began to grumble against Moses and Aaron (Numbers 13-14). Because they did not believe God's promises to them, God cursed the Israelites with forty years of wilderness wandering. They could not enter Canaan until the unbelieving generation died off in the desert. However, their children would enter the Promise Land, instead (Numbers 13 and 14). So, after 40 years of wilderness wandering, the dying finally ended on the 15th of Av.

Atonement without blood, Part 3a: Aaron's 'emergency' atonement
by Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch); edited by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)
1 Av 5784; Aug 5, 2024

Is a blood sacrifice the only way to receive atonement and forgiveness for sins? In parts 1a to 2e of the "Atonement without Blood" series, we have discussed several biblical examples of receiving atonement and forgiveness of sins without a blood sacrifice from Adam on through the monarchy period. In the Ebionite¹ series, we saw how the Ebionites claimed that YHWH did not authorize the sacrificial system on Sinai. For them, Moses only allowed animal sacrifices because the people had been immersed in the Egyptian system for too long. The Church fathers acknowledged that the Ebionites understood Yeshua had come to permanently end blood sacrifices. This was demonstrated by his and John's purification-expiation formula of confession and repentance followed by water baptism for the forgiveness of sin. Neither John or Yeshua commanded people to make a sacrifice at the Temple to ensure they were forgiven.

The background to the following narrative is the rebellion against Moses and Aaron by Levite and tribal leaders. Here's a brief summary (Num 16:1-17:13 TNK, i.e. Hebrew Scriptures; 16:1-50 Christian Bible):

Korah was a Levite who thought he should be the high priest instead of Aaron. He gathered a group of insurrectionists that included two leaders of the Reubenites, Dathan and Abiram, along with 250 other supporters who wanted to replace Moses and Aaron as leaders. After hearing their grievances, Moses told them all to bring incense the next morning to allow God to decide whom He would authorize to lead the priesthood and the people of Israel. Of course, God rejected the rebels' incense offerings, informing Moses He was going to annihilate the entire nation as a consequence of this rebellion. However, Moses prevailed upon Him to spare the people and only execute the guilty insurgents. Once again, God acquiesced to Moses' plea. God opened up the earth to "swallow" only Dathan and Abiram, their families and all their possessions. Korah and the 250 tribal elders were consumed by fire.

The "whole Israelite community" came out the next day to denounce Moses and Aaron for destroying the rebels. Apparently, they had not gotten the message:

⁶"You two have brought death upon YHWH's (the LORD's) people!" (Num 17:6 TNK; 16:41 Christian)

⁹YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰"Remove yourselves from this community, that I may annihilate them in an instant." They fell on their faces. ¹¹Then Moses said to Aaron, "Take the fire pan, and put on it fire from the altar. Add incense and take it quickly to the community and make expiation for them. For wrath has gone forth from YHWH: the plague has begun!" ¹²Aaron took it, as Moses had ordered, and ran to the midst of the congregation, where the plague had begun among the people. He put on the incense and made expiation for the people; ¹³he stood between the dead and the living until the plague was checked. (Num 17:9-13 TNK; 16:44-48 Christian)

Please keep in mind that, in Numbers, chapter 14, all the men twenty years old and up had already been condemned to die in the wilderness for disobeying God's command to enter and conquer Canaan. They were never to enter into the promised covenant land. They had literally brought their own punishment upon themselves (Num 14:1-4). Had this plague curse run its course, it would have merely hastened their death sentence.

However, at Moses' instigation, Aaron successfully intervened with "authorized" incense as an offering to YHWH. Had he not done so, those males under twenty years old who had been spared in the initial judgement (the children of Num 14 and Deut 1) would have also perished in this plague killing the entire nation of Israel.

The question is: How could Aaron offer only incense for Israel's rebellion (Num 17:12) instead of an animal sacrifice, the usual sin offering to make "expiation" (atonement)? The key is understanding the meanings, in context, of the Hebrew verb kipper.

Num 17:12 Aaron took it, as Moses had ordered, and ran to the midst of the congregation, where the plague had begun among the people. He put on the incense and made expiation (Heb. kipper) for the people;

Regarding Aaron's exceptional use of incense at Numbers 17:11-13, world renowned bible scholar and rabbi, Professor Jacob Milgrom, PhD.², commented:

*"made expiation for them – The verb kipper³ in this context carries the connotation of 'make appeasement.' In the cults of the ancient Near East, incense served to appease and soothe divine wrath. This is strikingly illustrated by the Egyptian reliefs depicting Canaanite ruler-priests standing on the parapets and offering incense to the Pharaoh, who towers over the city slaughtering its inhabitants. The offering of incense serves both to acknowledge Pharaoh as god and to implore his mercy... made expiation – Rather, 'propitiate' (see v. 11)."*⁴

Milgrom also mentioned a second possible interpretation in which indirect absorption of impurity took place. In that construct, kipper can be understood as being a "ransom", that "appeased" God's wrath and stopped the plague. He referred to the narrative of Phinehas stopping the apostasy of Baal Peor as being in keeping with the "expiatory function of the sacral guards" of the Temple (Num 25:1-18).

"Phinehas' deed in slaying one Israelite leader suffices to ransom (kipper) Israel; God requires no additional victims. Kipper functions to avert the retribution, to nip it in the bud, to terminate it before it is fully exhausted. Two narratives indeed attest to the fact that kippur (ransom) stops a plague in its tracks (Num. 17:11-12; 2 Sam. 24:25).

"... By his deed, he ransoms (kipper; v. 13) Israel, in keeping with the expiatory function of the sacral guards: (literally) 'to ransom [lekhapper]

² Jacob Milgrom, PhD. emeritus professor of Hebrew and Bible studies, at UC Berkely, a Guggenheim Fellow, etc., was one of the leading authorities on Leviticus; his commentary on the book is considered a seminal work.

³ The verb kipper, depending on its context, conjugation, action, etc. is primarily translated: "to cover over, to wipe off, rub off, expiate, atone, purge, purify, cleanse, propitiate, appease or pay a ransom.

⁴ Milgrom, Commentary on Numbers 17:11, 12, p. 142

the Israelites, so that no plague [negef] may afflict the Israelites for encroaching upon the sanctuary' (Num. 8:19; see 18:22, 23).'⁵

But the concepts of “appeasement” and “paying a ransom” are only “part one” of the incense-kipper story in this narrative. Part two included “atonement for sins” – showing the wider context of the verb kipper. Perhaps it’s the most important issue for the people of Israel who had already been judged and sentenced to “annihilation” for their rebellion, a high-handed, capital crime for which no blood sacrifice could have provided atonement. Why was atonement so important in this narrative? While an appeasement / ransom may have stopped the plague, how were the Israelites purged of their sin? How was it expiated? How can we be sure they were forgiven? Furthermore, would God be able to continue to dwell within a defiled Israel by merely having his wrath “appeased” or by accepting incense as a “ransom payment”? Finally, wouldn’t Israel’s sin have defiled the sanctuary, the tabernacle and all the holy objects therein creating the need for their cleansing and purification? If not, why not?

Milgrom’s conclusions answered all of these questions. The following is an excerpt:

“The final stage in the evolution of the verb kipper yields the abstract, figurative notion ‘atone’ or ‘expiate.’ ... Having begun as an action that eliminates dangerous impurity by absorbing it through direct contact (rubbing off) or indirectly (as a ransom/substitute), kipper develops into the process of expiation in general. It is found in the scapegoat rite, which, according to its text ([Lev] 16:10, 21), atones for all of Israel’s sins. This is probably its meaning in the incense offering by which Aaron stops the plague, thus expiating on Israel’s behalf (Num 17:11). ... The meaning here is that the offerer is cleansed of his impurities/sins and becomes reconciled, ‘at one,’ with God.”⁶

YHWH’s acceptance of Aaron’s substitute offering ended the plague, resulting in a reprieve for the previously condemned generation and the salvation of the younger remnant of Israel. The evidence for this conclusion is: 1. The remaining previously sentenced generation of Israelites were given amnesty for their latest rebellion, allowing the balance of the original sentence of forty years to remain in place 2. Those under age twenty who did not perish in the plague received no further punishment. They went on to be circumcised, enter Canaan with Joshua and Caleb to begin the conquest and enjoy the beginning of the fulfillment of the “land” covenant previously given to Abraham and the Patriarchs.

⁶ Milgrom, Commentary on Leviticus 1-16, Comment F. “Kipper”, p.1083

Therefore, atonement and forgiveness accompanied Israel's reconciliation with YHWH via Aaron's emergency incense substitution. No blood sacrifice was involved at that time: no other penalties or blood sacrifices related to this event are mentioned either before or after the younger generation and their progeny were circumcised, entered the land and observed the first Pesakh (Passover).

Spiritual reconciliation includes the idea of complete forgiveness; of not counting people's sins against them. It goes well beyond the idea of being only an "appeasement" or "ransom". When the death sentence was cancelled, the slate was wiped clean, the sin and defilement of the rebellion had been forever removed.

Professor Baruch A. Levine, PhD., another world-renowned rabbi and scholar⁷, had a different approach from Milgrom regarding the nuances of the verb kipper in this event.⁸ But they did come to essentially the same "theological" conclusion. Levine also saw Aaron's incense as appeasing God's wrath and thereby warding off evil as well as having an expiatory effect for Israel. He concluded Aaron's standing between the living and dead and waving the incense over the living was akin to a mystical ceremony that resulted in "a kind of purification" that he saw as providing "expiation."

"'perform a rite of expiation over them.' The precise force of [this Hebrew phrase in Num 17:11] is important for a proper understanding of the phenomenology underlying the apotropaic⁹ uses of incense. The sense is functional: the verb kipper does not mean 'to cleanse,' but rather to perform a rite whose result is a kind of purification. Furthermore, this formula expresses the spatial factor in expiatory rites, performed in close proximity to persons or objects. Here Aaron was positioned between those already stricken by the plague (the 'dead' of v 13) and those still unaffected (the 'living'). He waved the incense over the living, and it protected them from the advancing plague. What Aaron did on this occasion represents an adaptation of procedures involved in expiation rites, and conveyed by the verb kipper."¹⁰ (Emphasis mine)

Levine elaborated on and clarified this idea a little further in another book:

⁷ Baruch A. Levine, PhD. was emeritus professor of bible and Ancient Near Eastern Studies at NYU. His most well-known works include the two-volume Anchor Bible commentary on Numbers used in the Jewish Publication Society (JPS) Tanakh

⁸ Milgrom used the diachronic approach to explain the use of kipper in this narrative while Levine used the synchronic approach. The diachronic approach considers the development and changes of a language throughout history; the synchronic approach describes a language and words that are used at a particular time in history.

⁹ Apotropaic: the warding off or turning away of evil

¹⁰ Levine, Numbers (Anchor Bible Commentary) Nu 1-20; on Ch 17:11; p. 420-421

“In Nu 17:11–12, the verb kipper conveys the apotropaic use of incense in stemming a plague. This usage is borrowed, since the incense was sprinkled or spread over the people in the manner of blood, hence the verb natan (v. 12), elsewhere used in connection with placing sacrificial blood on the altar (Lev 4:25, 30, 34, etc.).”¹¹

Thus, according to Milgrom and Levine, there were basically two effects that resulted from the adjustment of kipper in Numbers 17:11-12 (16:45-46 Christian). One that provided an apotropaic “warding off of evil” or “ransom” that appeased God and ended His wrath; the other, figuratively “on the altar”, delivered atonement (expiation) which was “a kind of purification” normally supplied through the blood of the ʔaʔaʔt [sin] and ʔašam [guilt] offerings. In this instance, it is an “adaptation” analogous to the bloodless atonement and forgiveness “for all Israel” provided by the Yom Kippur scapegoat.”

When something is “adapted”, it means that it has been “adjusted” or “modified” to serve as a substitute for the customary article due to special circumstances. Moses’ idea and Aaron’s action were a modification of other Levitical rites involving blood that delivered a combination of propitiation and purification as well as atonement and/or expiation.

The Keil and Delitzsch Biblical Commentary lines up with Milgrom and Levine.

“The plague had already commenced, when Moses told Aaron to take the censer quickly into the midst of the congregation, with coals and incense (???, imper. Hiph.), to make expiation for it with an incense-offering. And when this was done, and Aaron placed himself between the dead and the living, the plague, which had already destroyed 14,700 men, was stayed.”¹²

Conclusion

The traditional idea of blood atonement for sin simply could not be utilized here. There were no animal sacrifices prescribed in the Levitical rites for this type of corporate rebellion and sin to remove the death penalty judgment. Moses and Aaron risked death by staying with the community and seeking atonement and forgiveness using a substitute offering of incense. This is known as “emergency” or “exceptional” usage.

Significantly, incense appears to be an appropriate offering in this situation since determining who was God’s “anointed high priest” (Heb. mashiach kohen gadol) to offer incense was one of the two “trigger” issues of this entire narrative.

¹¹ Levine, In the Presence of the Lord, A Study of Cult and Some Cultic Terms in Ancient Israel, p. 73, fn 51, Leiden, E. J. Brill Publications, 1974. NOTE: natan means to give, put, set; Strong’s #H5414

“Moreover, that the incense is offered outside the sacred precincts – an unprecedented act – indicates that it was a special emergency measure, improvised on the spot.

“Incense – The same incense that causes destruction when used by unauthorized persons averts destruction when used by authorized persons.”¹³

Therefore, a combination of Moses' improvisation, Aaron's active mediation and God's mercy in "adjusting" His "normal" expectation permitted YHWH to accept Aaron's "authorized" offering, terminate the plague and cancel the immediate death sentence for both the innocent and the guilty who had not yet been killed by the plague. Furthermore, the incense served both the propitiatory purpose of stopping the plague as well as being a substitute communal purification and atonement for all Israel akin to that provided by the bloodless scapegoat rite resulting in corporate forgiveness and reconciliation with God.

Blessings,

Reuven

The Tribe of Simeon, one of the 12 tribes of Israel that in biblical times comprised the people of Israel who later became the Jewish people. The tribe was named after the second son born to Jacob and his first wife, Leah.

In time, part of the tribe of Simeon was apparently absorbed by Judah, while other members possibly relocated in the north. After the death of King Solomon (922 BC), Palestine split into the northern Kingdom of Israel and the southern Kingdom of Judah. If the tribe of Simeon is counted among the tribes that formed the northern kingdom, then it too was assimilated by other peoples after the Kingdom of Israel was conquered by the Assyrians in 721 BC. One way or another, the tribe of Simeon disappeared from history and is thus numbered among the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel.

Territory

At its height, the territory occupied by the Tribe of Simeon was in the southwest of Canaan, bordered on the east and south by the tribe of Judah; the boundaries with the tribe of Judah are vague, and it seems that Simeon may have been an enclave within the west of the territory of the tribe of Judah. Simeon was one of the less significant tribes in the Kingdom of Judah.

Attempts to reconstruct the territory of Simeon work with three biblical lists: Joshua 19:2-9, 1 Chronicles 4:28-32, which list towns belonging to Simeon, and Joshua 15:20-30, which lists these same towns as part of the territory of Judah. Nadav Na'aman divides scholarly work on the subject into two "schools of thought," which he calls "the Alt school" (following Albrecht Alt) and the "other school." The Alt school takes the list in Joshua 15 as reflecting the historical situation during the reign of Josiah, and sees the other two as later, and less reliable, attempts by editors to work out the earlier Simeonite territory. The "other school" sees the first two lists as reflecting the actual historical situation in the time of David (compare 1 Chronicles 4:31), and Joshua 15 as reflecting the situation at a later date. According to Na'aman, Simeonites settled in a pattern which overlapped Judah: while maintaining a distinct tribal identity and organization throughout the First Temple period (until 586 BC), Simeonites and Judahites lived in some of the same areas.

Origin

According to the Hebrew Bible, the tribe consisted of descendants of Simeon, the second son of Jacob and of Leah, from whom it took its name. However, Arthur Peake (1919) suggested that the narratives about the twelve sons of Jacob in Genesis might include later tribal history "disguised as personal history," in which the later histories of these tribal groups are recast in the form of narratives about supposed ancestors. Likewise, the consensus position of contemporary scholarship is that "there is little or no historical memory of pre-Israelite events or circumstances in Genesis."

In the biblical account, following the completion of the conquest of Canaan by the Israelites, Joshua allocated the land among the twelve tribes. Kenneth Kitchen, a well-known conservative biblical scholar, dates this event to slightly after 1200 BC. However, the consensus view of modern scholars is that the conquest of Joshua as described in the Book of Joshua never occurred.

Martin Noth argued that the six tribes that the Bible traces to Leah, including Simeon, were once part of an amphictyony prior to the later coalition of twelve tribes. According to Niels Peter Lemche, "Noth's amphictyonic hypothesis determined a whole generation of Old Testament scholars' way of thinking." However, more recently a large number of scholars have dissented from Noth's theory.

In the opening words of the Book of Judges, following the death of Joshua, the Israelites "asked the Lord" which tribe should be first to go to occupy its allotted territory, and the tribe of Judah was identified as the first tribe. According to this narrative, the tribe of Judah invited the tribe of Simeon to fight with them in alliance to secure each of their allotted territories.

However, the tribe of Simeon is not mentioned in the ancient Song of Deborah, generally considered one of the earliest-written parts of the Hebrew Bible, and the Jewish Encyclopedia (1906) claims that Simeon was probably "not always counted as a tribe."¹ According to Israel Finkelstein, the south of Canaan, in which Simeon was situated, was simply an insignificant rural backwater at the time the poem was written. Another possibility is that Simeon, along with Judah, had simply not joined the Israelite confederacy at this point, or that they had succeeded.

Biblical narrative

Towns belonging to Simeon are listed in the Book of Joshua; elsewhere in Joshua these towns are ascribed to Judah. Most modern scholars view the Book of Joshua as being spliced together from several different source texts, in this particular case, the lists of towns being different documents, from different periods to each other.

The tribe seems to have dwindled in size, and the size of the tribe dramatically drops by over half between the two censuses recorded in the Book of Numbers. Although the Bible places these censuses during the Exodus, some textual scholars place their authorship in the period of Priestly Source, which Richard Elliot Freedman dates to between 722 and 609 BC. Other scholars usually place the Priestly Source in the post-exilic period, and some deny its existence altogether. The tribe is completely absent from the Blessing of Moses which some textual scholars date associate with the Deuteronomist, some Septuagint manuscripts appear to have attempted to correct this, adding the name of Simeon to the latter half of verse 6, which some scholars view as unwarranted based on the Hebrew manuscripts.

The impression gained from the Books of Chronicles is that the tribe was not entirely fixed in location; at one point it is mentioned that some members of the tribe migrated southwards to Gedor, so as to find suitable pasture for their sheep. In the following verse, which may or may not be related, it is mentioned that during the reign of Hezekiah, part of the tribe came to the land of some Meunim, and slaughtered them, taking the land in their place. Further verses state that about 500 men from the tribe migrated to Mount Seir, slaughtering the Amalekites who had previously settled there.

As part of the kingdom of Judah, whatever remained of Simeon was ultimately subjected to the Babylonian captivity; when the captivity ended, all remaining distinctions between Simeon and the other tribes in the kingdom of Judah had been lost in favour of a common identity as Jews.

In Revelation 7:7, the Tribe of Simeon is once again listed among the Twelve Tribes of Israel with 12,000 of the sons of Israel from the tribe sealed on the forehead.

Av is a month to hear and understand. You must decide what you have heard. If a word has been given and you decide not to heed the word, this is the month where your consequences begin.

Clearly, there are certain patterns between heaven and earth that God set up. Based on our response to a sovereign God, we change the atmospheric conditions around us.

You can always look at sovereign happenings this month. What I mean by sovereign happenings is that God makes decisions to do certain things based upon what we have decided at other times. We are making decisions, which will manifest sooner or later. God is not a God who just turns His head away and lets us do what we want to do. He records what we do in a book, "It is written!"

Av is the month for the divine will of the Father to be executed. God allows things to be destroyed so He can rebuild. There are times when God says, "Let's just tear that one up and start over." Have you ever tried to do something that is just not going to work? One time I was designing a computer program using assembler language, and it got caught in a loop. I thought about how long tracking down the mistake would take to fix the problem and decided the best choice would be to just start the program over. That's what I did and the next day the problem was easily fixed. I labored through the first process, but once I let that one go, the logic flowed right for the second process. That's how God works with us sometimes.

During this month, the earth begins to contract, so we must watch for earthquakes and where they are occurring.

It is The Month of the Lion

The astrological sign of Av is the lion, which represents tragedy and potential for redemption. Our sages teach, "The lion [Babylonian King Nebuchadnezzar] came, under the constellation of lion [Leo], and destroyed the Lion of G-d [Jerusalem] . . . so that the Lion [Moshiach] shall come, under the constellation of lion, and build the Lion of G-d [Jerusalem]."

The Talmud relates that Moshiach was born on the very day when the Temples were destroyed: the 9th of Av. Moshiach was born from the tribe of Judah, whose symbol is the lion. This teaches us that the tragedies and suffering associated with the 9th of Av will turn into joy with the coming of Moshiach.

This is the month the Lion roars (Amos 3:8). This is one of the most incredible prophetic months. When the lion – the people of God – roar, a prophetic covering is created. Amos 3 is about unlocking what is above you and the sound that begins to resound in the earth realm.

A Time of Mourning

The first nine days of Av are a period of mourning. We refrain from eating meat and drinking wine, except on Shabbat and on celebrations, such as a bar mitzvah, a brit (circumcision) or the completion of a tractate of the Talmud.

We also refrain from washing clothing (except for those of a baby) and wearing freshly washed clothing, swimming and bathing for pleasure, and remodeling a home. We avoid unnecessary travel and postpone the sanctification of the moon and celebrating a couple's engagement until after Tisha B'Av.

On a spiritual level, we also take time to increase mitzvah observance and our performance of kind deeds to improve the world.

The Worst Day in the World

On the 9th of Av, we commemorate several tragedies, among them: The Jews who left Egypt with Moses were condemned to wander and die in the desert for 40 years; the destruction of both Holy Temples by the Babylonians in 423 BC and by the Romans in 69 CE; and the Jews of Betar who were killed.

Later in history, in 1290, the Jews of England were expelled by King Edward; and the Jews of Spain were expelled by King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella in 1492. In 1942, the deportation of Jews from the Warsaw ghetto to the Treblinka extermination camp began.

The day is commemorated as a day of fasting and mourning.

We Read the Book of Lamentations on the 9th of Av

In the book of Lamentations, the prophet Jeremiah recorded the imminent destruction of the First Temple and the exile of the Jewish people.

G-d instructed Jeremiah to write down the words. He spoke about Israel and Judah in order to warn the house of Judah about tragedies that would occur if they did not repent. Jeremiah, imprisoned at the time, dictated three chapters to his student, Baruch ben Neriah, who wrote down the impending tragedies in past tense, as though they had already occurred. Per Jeremiah's instruction, Baruch read the scroll to the Jewish people, who had gathered at the Temple. Rashi relates that the scroll was read before King Jehoiakim, who, after hearing just a few verses, threw the scroll into the fireplace.

As Jeremiah prophesied, on the 9th of Av, the Temples were destroyed, and the Jews were led into captivity. Ever since this tragedy, we read the book of Lamentations on the eve of the 9th of Av.

The 15th of Av Is Known as One of the Happiest Days in Jewish History

This day, Tu B'Av, signifies rebirth after destruction and is a day for new beginnings. On this day, the daughters of Jerusalem would borrow linen garments in order not to embarrass others who did not have beautiful clothing and dance in the vineyards to find prospective grooms. The Talmud considers this day the greatest festival of the year, followed by Yom Kippur, as its essence represents the future redemption.

The 9th of Av was the date of Israel's sin of unbelief at Kadish Barnea. God had brought Israel out of Egypt by His mighty power. He showed them His faithfulness in the wilderness and taught them at Sinai and revealed His glory. Finally He brought them up to the border of the Promised Land at Kadish Barnea.

The spies went in and brought back samples of the fruit of the land. They said, "This is a wonderful, fruitful land just as God promised.

But ten of the spies added, "We don't have the strength to take the land." Two of the spies gave the minority report, "God can give the land into our hands!" As so often happens, there was a voice of faith, and a voice of unbelief. When this happens, we need to be careful to choose correctly.

We Can Choose to BELIEVE God's PROMISE! We Can Choose to ENTER God's BLESSING!

The 15th of Av There were no holidays as joyous for the Jewish People as the fifteenth of Av and Yom Kippur , " (Mishnah, Taanit)

Nowadays, on the Fifteenth of Av, we observe a partial holiday; we don't say "Tachanun," a daily plea for Divine mercy, on the day itself, nor even in the Afternoon Service of the day preceding the fifteenth, similar to a full-scale holiday. Bride and groom also do not fast if the fifteenth is the day of their marriage.

The last Mishnah in Masechet Taanit says, "There were no holidays so joyous for the Jewish People as the Fifteenth of Av and Yom HaKippurim, for on those days, daughters of Yerushalayim would go out dressed in borrowed white clothing (so that they would all look the same).

The King's daughters would borrow from those of the High Priest. Daughters of the High Priest would borrow from the Assistant High Priest's daughters; daughters of the Assistant would borrow from the daughters of the Priest designated to lead the People in times of War, the Kohen Anointed for War's daughters would borrow from the daughters of the Ordinary Priest. And the daughters of the rest of the Jewish People would borrow from each other, so as not to embarrass those who didn't have."

"And the daughters of Jerusalem would go out and dance in the vineyards located on the outskirts of the city. And everyone who didn't have a wife would go there." (Notice the relative lack of concern about controlling the situation when the opposite sexes are mixed, perhaps because the recent fast (in the case of Tu B'Av) and the fast on that very day in the case of Yom Kippur, have triggered a sense of self-control, which would not ordinarily necessarily be present.)

"And what would they say?"

"Young man, lift up your eyes and choose wisely. Don't look only at physical beauty – look rather at the family – 'For charm is false, and beauty is vanity. A G-d – fearing woman is the one to be praised, ' ("Mishlei" / Proverbs 31:30)"

Charlie Shamp: "A Prayer for President Trump & America"

A lot has happened this past several weeks and more is about to take place.

We need to pray....

We retrieved a video from May 17, 2017 in which I discussed the assassination attempt on President Trump. The Lord revealed to me a two-tier attack that was to come – first an attack on his reputation, character, and integrity, followed by an attempt on his life.

How You Can Pray

I called for a prayer shield to be placed over President Trump, and we have been praying for him ever since. The events we witnessed in Pennsylvania on Saturday, July 13, 2024, were nothing short of a miracle, with God's hand clearly at work in the life of this man. It is imperative that we continue to pray for President Trump and for the United States of America, as the Lord has promised that America will be saved. Join us with these prayer points below.

Prayer Points

1. Heavenly Father, we come before You, seeking Your protection over America. In Psalm 91:4, You promise to cover us with Your feathers and provide refuge under Your wings. Shield our nation from all forms of terrorism and keep us safe from harm.
2. Lord, we declare Your words from Isaiah 54:17, that no weapon formed against America shall prosper. May Your divine protection surround our borders, cities, and people, guarding us against any acts of terror.
3. Gracious God, in Psalm 121:8, You promise to watch over our coming and going, both now and forevermore. We ask for Your constant vigilance and guidance, protecting us from any potential threats.
4. Heavenly Father, we pray for wisdom and discernment for our leaders and law enforcement agencies. Grant them the knowledge and skills needed to prevent and respond effectively to any acts of terrorism.
5. Lord, in Proverbs 21:31, we are reminded that victory belongs to You. We ask for Your divine intervention to thwart any plans of terrorism and bring peace to our nation.
6. Almighty God, we lift up our military personnel, police officers, and first responders. Strengthen them and equip them with the necessary tools to safeguard our nation from any harm or danger.
7. Heavenly Father, in Psalm 34:7, You promise that Your angel encamps around those who fear You. We ask for angelic protection over America, guarding us against any acts of terror.
8. Lord, we pray for unity among our citizens, that we may stand together against terrorism and support one another in times of crisis. Help us to foster a community of love, peace, and understanding.
9. Gracious God, we pray against any spirit of fear that may try to grip our nation. Replace fear with courage, faith, and resilience, knowing that You are our ultimate protector.
10. Heavenly Father, in Jeremiah 29:11, You declare that You have plans to prosper us and not to harm us. We trust in Your sovereignty and ask for Your protection over America's future, shielding us from any terror attacks.

11. Lord, we pray for the families and loved ones affected by past acts of terrorism. Comfort them, heal their wounds, and grant them peace that surpasses all understanding.

12. Almighty God, in Psalm 125:1–2, You promise that those who trust in You are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken. We put our trust in You, believing that Your protection will prevail over any acts of terrorism.

13. Heavenly Father, we pray for divine intervention to expose and dismantle any terrorist plots before they can be carried out. Foil their plans and protect innocent lives.

14. Lord, we lift up our intelligence agencies, asking for wisdom and insight as they gather information to prevent acts of terrorism. Grant them success in their efforts to keep our nation safe.

15. Gracious God, we ask for Your mercy and grace to fall upon those who may be influenced by extremist ideologies. Bring transformation and healing to their hearts, turning them away from violence and hatred.

16. Heavenly Father, we pray Psalm 140:4, that You would keep America safe from the hands of the wicked and protect us from those who plan to cause harm.

23. Lord, we pray for the eradication of extremist ideologies that fuel acts of terrorism. Replace hatred and violence with love and understanding, bringing about lasting peace.

24. Almighty God, we ask for Your guidance and protection over our educational institutions. Shield our schools and universities from any potential acts of terror, ensuring the safety of our students. Amen!

His Victory Formed in Us: Terry Friesen

Throughout the month of June, Holy Spirit would repeatedly take me to many construction sites that He was overseeing. It is the place of formation.

Our foundation is the cornerstone of Christ, and we are being encouraged repeatedly to not lay our ideas on top of this cornerstone and thereby dampen its power. We want the full and active revelation of who Christ is as the foundation of our lives, not the ideas we add to His finished work. We also don't want a lesser version of the full truth of His victory. So, we want the fullness of the revelation of who Christ is, and what He has done, without reservation or limitation at the foundation of our lives and any kingdom structure that is built.

I've seen this foundational building stone in the spirit repeatedly this year and at an increasing frequency in various structures. This year I have also seen the sceptre of the authority of Christ descend out of Heavenly realms and rest on the cornerstone of Christ in an upright manner. We can partner with Him in His kingdom construction by adding our hands to His sceptre in any Kingdom structure as He invites us to do so. But when we do, we agree to His Lordship, His righteousness, and His justice because He does not create Kingdom structures apart from Himself.

I have also seen how this type of structure invites the presence of God. He comes to fill that which is built for His habitation. His power is present, and also His glory. We can now perceive a structure that results in a safe haven, or protected zone. It is our Lord's desire to construct in His Kingdom areas of refuge, within our lives, our families, our cities, maybe a business, a school, or other organization.

It was during one of these "middle of the night" construction projects that I became witness to some new aspects of His building intentions. I've seen through intercession how our Lord purposes to reveal the foundation of Christ in our lives, then the authority, or Lordship of Christ in and through every fabric of our lives. Then I saw it. The sceptre of His Lordship was inside of me and extended from the foundation of Christ in my life through the middle of my backbone. It is Christ's Lordship formed in us that gives the structure of who we are strength. This would be consistent for any structure He is building.

Then I was directed to call the glory of God to come forth from the cornerstone of Christ in my life. I have been privy many times to the glory of God coming around me in worship and other settings, but this is not that. 31 years ago, in July of 1993, I was witness to the glory of God being released inside of me so that it flowed up from my spirit man and through the vessel of my soul for almost 2 weeks straight, night and day. After this 2-week timeframe the glory inside of me subsided, and I was left with the understanding that this experience was to be our everyday life, and now I needed to contend for it. I've not experienced it in this way since.

As I was praying for and calling for the glory of God to come forth from the cornerstone of Christ in my life, I could see the direct connection between this cornerstone and the Father's throne. It is the finished work of Christ in us that makes way for this most glorious and real connection. We are the temples of the Lord and designed to be the habitation of His glory. It is the finished work of Christ that makes it so, but now I could see how this worked in the spirit realm.

No sooner had I finished praying for the release of the Father's glory in this way that he directed me further. He brought before a construction project I was very familiar with. A business I have worked with for the last several years. The owners are seeking to establish this new business on the foundation of Yeshua Christ in His fulness and operate according to the Lordship of Yeshua Christ. The Holy Spirit asked me, "does not this business have the same spiritual structure as what has been formed inside of you?" The answer was yes, and the direction was to ask for and call for the glory of God to come forth from the foundation of Christ in this business because it has been formed as a habitation of our Lord's glory.

As I prayed, I saw in vision form, the glory of the Lord rise from the cornerstone of Christ, flow along the sceptre of Christ's Lordship then fan out in every direction through the soul of the business so everything within its sphere of influence would be touched. Every vessel that is constructed in alignment with His Kingdom is eligible to be a vessel of His glory.

As we entered the month of July, Holy Spirit started to bring several elements together. I saw a v shape advance of His kingdom army with the lead in the center out front and both wings trailing back behind. He is extending grace in the month of July so that the far wings on either side can catch up to the lead in the front, then I saw the entire offensive line cross in one accord. Once we are in full alignment, He is then releasing His might so that we can advance forcefully forward.

I also saw that many of us have felt the uncertainty of the last season. As I contemplated this in prayer the same vision kept coming before my mind. I was seeing my soul transform from one shape to the next, then another and back again. The Holy Spirit was disassembling me piece by piece then putting me back together again but now in a different form. No wonder the last season we have felt so disconnected as Holy Spirit has been forming more than one shape inside of us. The vessel I am in intercession is different than the vessel I operate in through the business realm, or my family environment. Many of us have more than one call on our lives that we need to fulfill, and He has been forming in us the configuration and capacity required for each of these commissions.

Not only is the cornerstone of Christ and His Lordship being formed in us, but He has also been doing this work in more than one shape or vessel with us. We are one person in Christ, but our souls have many layers and we have been designed to manifest His glory in many different ways.

We may ask, why would we need such a dramatic design and this level of construction within us. When we operate in one function of the Holy Spirit then move to another sometimes it can seem effortless because it is the work of the spirit performing the task. But the interior construction and design I am talking about is for another purpose. He is forming us in such a way that we can carry His glory in different capacities and realms of influence.

But as it is written Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, Nor have entered into the heart of man The things which God has prepared for those who love Him. (1 Corinthians 2:9 NKJV).

I saw such demonstrations of His glory power coming upon people in their realms of influence, that a substandard design would simply not bear up under the weight of the greatness of the demonstration of His power. The greatness of His glory flows through the finished work of Christ in us, this is the legal authority required for us to carry His glory, then I saw it flow along the Lordship of Christ within us. The power was great, the flow was great, the forces of His goodness that will flow through His people will transform cities. Certainly, the structure of who we become in Him must be able to hold true to who He is in the midst of such great force and power.

Why the different designs? He is forming us to be glory carriers, but also a people who will release different sounds and frequencies in the realm of the spirit. The sounds and frequencies we carry are designed to lay waste to the enemies of the land we are destined to occupy. The sound that will come out of you will clear the enemy from your territory and it is also the sound that will occupy that territory. How will the enemy in your land know that they need to give way to you? They know the authority that resides in the finished work of Christ, and when they recognize the sound and frequency of Christ flow from your life, they will have no choice but to yield to your advance the same as they did for Yeshua.

We have been and are being designed to receive all the Father intends for us through the finished work of Christ, and this glorious flow from His governing throne will flow through us into the territory of our advance. He will come through us and occupy through us.

I am not talking about some semantics or an idea, or a theory – I am talking about the glory of the Lord flowing through you and occupying the territory of your promise. The actual substance of who He is will invade earth's structures through us.

He is forming in us the capacity to receive, carry, and dispense His goodness and glory. His glory will also come around us and accompany us as an external source as well, but if we do not embrace the fact, He desires to release His glory to flow through us from the very foundation of our being we do not know who we have been created to be.

So all of us who have had that veil removed can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord—who is the Spirit—makes us more and more like him as we are changed into his glorious image. (2 Corinthians 3:18 NLT)

For God wanted them to know that the riches and glory of Christ are for you Gentiles, too. And this is the secret: Christ lives in you. This gives you assurance of sharing His glory. (Colossians 1:27 NLT)

Part of His design within us is the deep unyielding desire for us to give our Father all the glory. This may be one of the most critical components of His design. He desires that none would perish, that includes His children who would carry His glory. He is designing us in such a way that the more we experience the flow of His glory through us the greater our desire to give Him all the glory for what is being done.

I remember 1993 when His glory flowed through my life. I couldn't believe what was happening to me. All I wanted to do was hide myself in a closet and spend time with Him in this way. It was His grace that turned off the flow of His glory so that I could realize His glory is unto something. It is not for us to navel gaze; it is for us to transform this world so that we can partner with the Father, liberate all that is captive and give Christ His due reward. He is forming in us the capacity to stay forward focused. To receive His glory and to allow it to flow through us like a river and avoid the fate that Lucifer succumb to, looking upon himself wrongly.

The Father has longed looked towards the day that we can walk with Him in this way and become conduits of His glory, to share in this reveal, but He will not risk losing us by releasing it prior to our preparation. Yeshua was prepared for 30 years before His true nature and identity was revealed. Embrace the work of His formation, embrace the finished work of Christ, embrace the flow of His glory.

I HEARD A WAR-CRY COME FROM THE EAGLES: Nate Johnston

In a dream a few nights ago I kept hearing this scripture.

“For the eyes of the Lord roam throughout the earth, so that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His” 1 Chronicles 16:9

Then I saw the Lord as a large Eagle that was brooding over the earth looking for those with a pure heart. Then it started swooping down over the nations of the earth with its talons extended releasing a war-cry.

In response, other eagles that were alone and dormant suddenly began to cry out and joined the skies to unite together with the other eagles.

I believe this dream is what God is doing right now in this hour in the earth. I believe that the Lord is brooding over the earth and looking for His war eagles that would rise up and take the heights for him and begin to release a cry over the nations.

It's a prophetic company of people that have been in hiding, that have been alone, and that the Lord is calling out of hiding in this hour and He is joining together for a mighty purpose in the earth.

The purpose of the eagles is to release the strategy of the Lord, the wisdom of the Lord, the new sound, and the war-cry that awaken Gods people who asleep and would begin to sift out what is pure from impure.

And the call of the Eagles is to call the body Christ higher in this time.

Far too many eagles have been in isolation and the brooding is the shaking and the deliverance to call them out of dormancy. It's time for the eagles to gather again.

It's time for the eagles to spread their wings.

It's time for the eagles to release their cry.

THE WINGS OF PROPHETS RESTORED

Earlier in the year as we were driving from Colorado over in into New Mexico, I had this vision of this incredible golden eagle that had its wings spread, but its bones were brittle, its muscles weak, and every second or third feather was missing.

I said, "Lord, what, what am I seeing?"

And He said to me; "The eagles had been under attack and had their feathers ripped and torn".

I know that this speaks of the prophets, the pure prophets in states, in cities, and in nations of the earth that have had their feathers plucked by the enemy.

They have been bullied and under fire by the Jezebel spirit that has been trying to seduce them into compromise and apathy, and by the religious spirit that has been trying to discredit and assassinate this prophetic company.

There's been an onslaught of territorial spirits and principalities in regions that have been trying to stop these eagles from soaring higher and releasing their cry.

You see, you need all your feathers in your wings to be able to soar to the heights and also the feathers of an eagle are its glory.

The enemy has been trying to strip the prophets of their glory because a prophet without its glory is just an ichabod that carries no authority, power, signs and wonders, or the pure word of the Lord.

And many eagles have being silent. They've lost their cry and they've lost their sound. But the Lord is restoring the eagles to their post right now, and he's restoring them to their company.

He's brooding over you. Even right now as you're reading this, I pray that you'd feel a rumbling in your belly. I pray that you feel the spirit of God beginning to move and beginning to beginning to tremble the waters of your spirit and beginning to cause you to come alive.

EAGLES NESTS ARE FORMING

And I pray right now that the Lord will begin to unite you with your company that God is raising up - the eagle's nests emerging around the earth right now.

He's raising up pure companies of people that have no motive and no agenda except to release the word of the Lord into the earth.

I believe there is a reformation that is coming to the prophetic company. It's like where the sons of prophets came to Elijah and said, "this place is too small for us. We must accommodate what God is doing!"

He is putting an appetite in that that is saying "What we have is too small! We must expand, we must build!"

And the Lord is beginning to migrate them into position for this great move of God.

And lastly, God is raising up the eagles to release a mighty bone shaking war-cry in the earth where the prophets have been underground, where the prophets have been timid and scared and afraid of releasing the Word of the Lord. And they will stand to their feet once again!

"Suddenly!" says the Lord, "A new cry shall come upon you. You shall feel a bubble up from your spirit. It's a cry of courage. It's a cry of boldness. It's a cry that's going to come against the lukewarm sound that the church is adopted through culture and the war-cry of my eagles shall rise up and they shall release the sound of purity and a raging fire that shall usher the church into a new day and standard and lead the church higher.

EAGLES SHAKE OFF THE WEARINESS!

Now Eagles, let me prophesy. It is time for the tiredness and for the weariness to break off you.

It is time for your wings to be repaired. It is time for you to soar again. It is time for your muzzled and silenced voice to begin to release the war-cry in the name of Yeshua.

I hear the Lord saying Psalms 103:5 that you will renew your youth like the Eagles.

Even right now, let renewing come. Let revival begin to take place on the inside of you. Even right now let that youthfulness come over you and a fresh wind to come upon you that will take you higher.

I hear the Lord say that you will “mount up on Wings of Eagles today”

Yes mount up on Wings of Eagles and break free from the place all that you've been in that has kept you at a low altitude.

It is time to come up to the high places and begin to release your war-cry again says Lord.

This is what you were created for. You were not created to cower you, were not created to stay silent. You were created in this hour to be the eagle of the Lord that releases the voice of the Lord into the earth!

Amp It Up, Praying Church

For those interested in the political process, which should be all of us but sadly is not, it is almost impossible not to guess and speculate what each side is doing. In this era of big money, globalism, intricate election tampering, shadow governments, media spin, etc., this tendency is even more appealing. It is actually necessary for campaigns, fundraisers, and candidates to do so; for the rest of us, it's usually just to scratch our curiosity itch.

As one who tries to stay informed, I am constantly listening to others, both secular and spiritual voices. Much of what I hear from both arenas is this speculative guessing and must be taken with a grain of salt. (That's a nice way of saying it is a waste of time.) I'm sure I'm guilty of diving into this speculation at times as my curiosity kicks in. But as intercessors, we don't need to involve ourselves in this guessing game in order to pray effectively. Our assignment is to pray according to Scripture and the leading of Holy Spirit.

Even when in conversation with trusted prophetic leaders and intercessors, I listen for and try to distinguish between the “I feel,” “I believe,” or “I think” comments versus “the Holy Spirit said” comments. There are prophetic voices I trust very much when they prophesy, but I realize they are no more accurate than anyone else with their “I feel’s.” Be careful what you take as credible. And as prophetic voices, it’s okay to speculate with our friends, but publicly, we must carefully delineate between our personal opinions and our words from the Lord. Spiritual maturity and a knowledge of the Word give us the ability to divide between soul and spirit, discerning the thoughts and intents of the heart; they do not keep the soul from producing them.

Fortunately, as intercessors we do not have to possess all the specifics in order to pray effectively. What Holy Spirit wants and needs for us to know; He will show us. Apart from that, we should pray according to His revealed will in Scripture. For example, we do not need a word from the Lord regarding God’s position on:

- Abortion
- Truth
- Justice
- Gender identity
- Sexual promiscuity
- Treatment of children
- Drug addiction/enforcement
- Human trafficking
- Globalism
- Oppression of the poor
- And much more.

All that is needed when praying regarding these and many other issues is what Scripture teaches. We should pray for the release of this written will and against that which opposes it. Yeshua said we could command His Kingdom authority and release His will into the earth (Matthew 6:10).

Also, God does not require us to ask perfectly. In Joshua 10, the army of Israel was defending the Gibeonites, a people under attack and with whom they were in covenant. In order to finish this task and fully defeat the enemy, Israel needed to do so before darkness set in, which was coming quickly. So Joshua took audacious action:

"Then spake Joshua to the Lord in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon" (Joshua 10:12 KJV). And God answered!

We know it wasn't actually the sun that needed to stand still, but rather the earth, in order for this incredible miracle to occur. The earth's rotation causes day and night, not the sun. When Joshua asked for the sun to stand still, one can almost hear an angel or two respond, "Well, we can't answer that prayer."

To which the Lord evidently responded, "Give him a break! You know what he wants - give him more daylight!"

I submit to you that we don't have to ask perfectly in order for God to respond with a yes. To pray against Satan's lies from succeeding, we don't need to know the exact lie. To pray against the assassination of leaders, we don't have to know which leader or when it will occur. To pray against the conniving of dishonest politicians influenced by demons to manipulate people and facts, we aren't required to know the details. Binding the lying spirits and their plans is adequate.

After doing so, and this is the Ekklesia's trump card, pray in the Spirit. Holy Spirit knows what, when, and who needs prayer. In chapter 7 of my book, Intercessory Prayer, I teach how Holy Spirit helps us in this regard. We cannot lose when we allow Him to pray through us. This is what causes all things to work together for our good (See Romans 8:26-28). The working together for good doesn't occur simply because we are saved and love God. It occurs as we allow Holy Spirit to intercede through us and guide us in our praying. At the risk of sounding self-serving, this would be an excellent time to read or reread this chapter of Intercessory Prayer.

I stated on June 28, that "Biden is unelectable and WILL be removed they have a plan." This past Friday I wrote and released in yesterday's post, "I believed Biden will now be replaced on the ticket." It has already happened! I also said that over the next 3.5 months, "hellish assaults" will take place against Trump and conservative voices, as will "unrest and violence." This I know. The left will pull out all the stops.

I don't know all the plans of the left - the anti-Bible and anti-Christ people - in this election, but I know who does. And as He shows us prophetically what to pray, we will do so. When He does not, we will pray for and command the release of His Kingdom will, as His Word instructs. We will also pray in the Spirit.

And we will finish the job. We have three months to finish this phase of turning around our nation. I could not care less about political parties, but I could not care more about protecting babies, ending the mutilation of children, the freedom of the church to operate, and closing our borders to terrorists and murderous drugs.

Amp it up, praying church. Turn the radio or music off in the car and pray. Take walks and pray. Pray yourself to sleep. Pray when preparing for your day. Pray alone, pray with others. Pastor, PLEASE make your congregation a house of prayer, as Yeshua taught in Matthew 21:13.

Let's Pray Together Now:

Father, You never asked us to pray for that which will occur automatically. You didn't tell us to ask for the sun to rise, gravity to operate, or air to breathe. But You did ask us to pray for harvesters, the rain of Holy Spirit, the gospel to prosper, signs and wonders to occur, evil to be stopped, and righteous leaders in government. Without a doubt, You made us partners with You in releasing Your Kingdom rule on earth. We act on this now.

We command Your Kingdom rule into America's 2024 elections. We declare that we are turning the nation through prayer, and that this election will further this process. We bind evil forces, demonic spirits that are operating in attempts to place antichrist forces into government positions. We bind efforts to stop the clean-up of America's government. We bind the plans of the evil one to assassinate Trump, Harris, leaders in Congress, and Justices on the Supreme Court. We ask for Your protection from the terrorists now in our nation. We are not sure what door/s we have opened in this regard, but we appeal to You for mercy. We know the next several months will be chaotic - the shaking must come - but You have promised America's salvation and the rebirth of America. We say what You say, decreeing this.

And we declare that the great harvest You have ripened will be reaped. Prodigals, atheists, rebels, addicts, those who are deceived, rich and poor, every ethnic group, young and old - all will be impacted by this great ingathering. This is coming and will NOT be stopped!

As always, in Christ's authority, we ask and declare these things. Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that the Kingdom of God, through Christ's authority, prevails in America.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'MY FIRE IS COMING UPON
THE STEWARDSHIP OF MY SECRETS'

Lana Vawser

I heard the Lord say:

'There is a great test in this hour, and it is the test of stewardship of My divine intel and My secrets. For My eyes are roaming the earth looking for those that I can entrust with the very secrets of My heart.

'I say unto you, a great exposing is coming as My fire falls: to reveal those who will carry My heart and steward My secrets with purity, integrity, humility and secrecy. I say unto you, My people, that I am raising up the secret agents of My heart in this hour, those who will carry My divine intel and steward My intel at MY leading. Those who will not parade, misuse or prostitute My revelation and My divine intel, but those who will move only on My instruction and leading in the stewardship of My secrets. For I say unto you that there will be many times in this hour where you will hear Me say to you, 'You are sworn to secrecy.' There are things that I will be exposing, revealing and releasing in this hour that are to be kept between you and I.

'For in this season of unprecedented acceleration in revelation and divine intel, it does not equate the rapid release of revelation. For there is much that I am releasing in this hour that is for the purpose of intercession and for the heart-to-heart sharing between friends. I am looking for those in this hour whom I trust as My friends. I am looking for those who will not use My intel and revelation to be 'seen,' to 'parade revelation,' or to build their own kingdom. For there is a great shaking coming upon My people in the stewardship of My voice and divine intel. I am looking for those that I can trust and entrust with the secrets of My heart.

'These secret agents of My heart that I am raising up in this hour have no desire to be seen by man, but they are ones who are living seen by Me. They are those who are living before Me, the audience of One. For I say unto you, that many have been moving in elitism with revelation that they are carrying, but this is the hour to come deeper still in humility to hear what is on My heart. For I am calling you, My people, deeper into discernment. I am calling you into the humble place of partnering with My Spirit, to be disciplined in discernment. For the hour is urgent and I continue to call out: for many are continuing to run in pride and ambition in the carrying and releasing of My revelation.

'Watch My fire that is coming in a greater way upon the stewardship of My voice. Watch the refining and watch the increase of discernment and intel in this hour. For it is My desire to raise up My people who live from the place of deep intimacy with Me — and they live carrying My heart without agenda. For the hour is coming where I am bringing you, My people, into a realm of deeper discernment: to see and perceive that which I am doing and what I am speaking. I am looking for those who will receive that which I am revealing, and they will carry this intel with purity.

'For I say unto you, that I am releasing divine intel not to be passed on as 'intelligence' between people. I am not releasing and increasing discernment to be released in the wells of gossip. For My fire is increasing and My fire is going to shake and reveal ALL the misuse of My voice. I am bringing forth a DEALING of My hand upon those who are using discernment for division and divisiveness. I am looking for those who will carry My discernment with PURITY and with My heart, and not misuse that which I am releasing.

'Watch in the time ahead for the shaking that will come. Watch how I will bring a separation between those who hear My voice and carry My secrets with deep purity and sensitivity — those who are able to keep My secrets and will only release that which I am speaking at My command — and between those who are using My revelation and intel to feed ambition. I have been shaking, and I will continue to shake in greater ways, that which is built on ambition, pride and self-promotion. I am bringing down these structures: only that which is built on Me and by Me will remain.

'There is a fire coming upon the prophetic stream to cleanse and purify, in a greater way, of selfish ambition, pride and the misuse of revelation. I will not tolerate the polluting of My heart, My intel and My divine secrets. I am raising up My Bride to walk in purity and discernment and intel in the days ahead: to see MY Kingdom and MY plans in the earth extended — not to be used to extend the kingdoms and plans of man.

'My eyes are roaming the earth. I am looking for those I can trust to carry My heart. I am calling you forth, secret agents of My heart. I am calling you to report for duty, the duty of carrying My intel and My secrets in a greater way. The greatest test in this hour is the test of keeping your mouth closed when I have sworn you to secrecy. Listen to Me, My people. BE SLOW TO SPEAK! I am looking for My friends that will carry and listen to My heart without agenda, and oh, the Glory you shall see. Oh, My Glory that shall be revealed in your midst. Oh, My Majesty that shall be seen in your midst. Oh, the weight of My Glory that shall be in your midst, that will leave you prostrate before Me. (Exodus 33:11)

'The secrets of My heart and the depths of the inner chambers of My heart that I am leading you into, you have never been into before. Oh, the mysteries you shall see and receive. Much of what I am revealing to you in this place is for intercession and for the days ahead to see, know and perceive that which I am speaking, and to govern with Me from the secret place. My fire is coming upon My Church where there has been a prostitution of revelation. Watch now, as I speak, and the thunder of My voice comes forth: it will leave you prostrate before Me.'

Amanda Grace: "A Plot Against Trump & a Backfire on the Enemy's Plans"

[Editor's note: The following are excerpts from prophetic words received by Amanda Grace concerning President Trump, our nation, exposing the enemy's plans, and the vindication that's coming.]

A Sinister Plot Against President Trump Thwarted

Prophetic word of the Lord received on November 22, 2018:

"There is a sinister plot against the president of the United States of America, President Trump. He has been kicking against the Illuminati machine on a mission to rescue those being taken into sex trafficking rings for their sick pleasure. Donald Trump has thrown a wrench in their plans, and what they have tried against the president has failed. However, an attempt to endanger his life will be attempted. I the Lord thy God am not only going to thwart it but expose it, where the corrupt will scratch their heads at how the plot was found out. But I will ensure the perpetrators are publicly brought to justice and, in private, sing like canaries," says the Lord...

A Backfire on the Enemy's Plans

Prophetic word of the Lord received on November 26, 2019:

"...For in the enemy's desperation to destroy, he discounted that I the Lord expose whom I please, and am exposing the entire manipulative, calculating, self-motivated, power-driven plot before the people," says the Lord, "and am causing these things to backfire and make a fool of the enemy's satanic agents and puppets," says the Lord of hosts...

Judgment and Rectification

Word released on July 7, 2024:

We need to seek God's face, not His hand. The nation, the Church, [and] the Trump family need to seek God's face right now, not His hand; and in doing such, He will move His hand of rectification...

"Then David said to the Philistine, 'You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have taunted.'" (1 Samuel 17:45)

I want you to focus on verse 45. This is the key for Donald Trump, especially over the next two months and through November: forty-five!

David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts. You come to me with your carnal weapons, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts—which is the Lord's battle name, and that name carries with it a covenant, and with that covenant going before me and coming against you in this order, that covenant clears the way of victory. I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts! I come to you on the Lord's official business for the day of judgment and rectification has come!"

The Root Shall Be Dug Up

Prophetic word of the Lord received on June 5, 2024, posted by The Elijah List on July 11, 2024:

"...The root shall and will be dug up in a public excavation before the people. For the wicked have mixed in sand with the soil, and it has weakened the root.

"The root shall be exposed by the same measure they so choose to destroy this nation... A great spectacle, an open spectacle, where there shall be no way to escape this excavation, for it shall be long and deep," says the Lord.

"The parties whose root systems have joined together shall be split and broken by an ax, retrieved by one [whom] I have called to do so.

"I the Lord thy God have put a hook in their jaws, I have put a bit in their mouths, and I have drawn them in. I have ALLOWED the wicked, corrupt, and darkest of men and women to take on a bridle of an insatiable desire for power; that bit in their mouths, in their offices, [and] in their seats has led them right in for such a backfiring and reversal.

"Lots were illegally cast for the days of destruction of political opponents and those who speak truth, where truth is in their hearts—MY TRUTH," says the Lord. "Lots were illegally cast for such destruction, outside the legal scope of My covenant and holy days," says the Lord.

Thus says the Lord, "Haman did the same—illegally cast lots for the destruction of an opponent who saw through who he was, and the seat of king he so desired. Therefore, according to My Word, a reversal had to go forth that caused a series of doors to open that led to a backdraft and explosion upon Haman and his family...

"And I shall make them sit there and watch their delicate dainties of deceit be turned over before them, for they have merchandised the political, this nation, and its covenant to the nations of the earth. They have tagged it with a price, and one of the prices was the destruction of political opponents for lucrative deals to fill their pockets... driving your nation deeper into the bondage of debt..."

The Pressure Has Begun

Prophetic word of the Lord received on July 11, 2024 (two days before the assassination attempt on President Donald Trump's life):

And the Spirit of the Lord says this day, "The pressure has increased, My children; the boiling over has begun. Amongst pressure there is a RELEASE," says the Lord, "however, only when the pressure is released by an act of lifting or removing a covering," says the Lord. "This is moments away from happening, My children. This is the precipice, this is the crucial hour of switches, and swaps and flops as the great scramble has begun," says the Lord.

"There is a great scramble and panic, as they have caught themselves in their own net," says the Lord. "The pit that they have dug for others has caught and ensnared them," says the Lord. "For they are not contending with a man," says the Lord. "They are not mocking man," says the Lord. "They are contending with ME, RUACH ELOHIM. They are mocking and challenging MY sovereignty," says the Lord. "They are mocking MY authority," says the Lord. "They are mocking the very existence of what I the Lord have had in place since the earth began," says the Lord. "I the Lord God speak, and it is I AM," says the Lord. "They are a vapor," says the Lord, "a vapor. And that is what their twisted, heinous plans shall now turn into—a vapor before their very eyes.

"O America, change your direction," says the Lord. "O eagle, turn from your direction and reroute because of the treachery ahead," says the Lord. "Be ready and alert," says the Lord. "Be sober minded in this hour, for the desperation has mounted, that the most outlandish, destructive, heinous acts shall be attempted to hold onto a platform that has now become dry sand, and is crumbling piece by piece in this hour.

"America is in the valley," says the Lord. "Yes, it is a valley of decision; however, it is also a valley of dryness, of lawlessness. And I AM YOUR SHEPHERD, O AMERICA. I THE LORD YOUR GOD AM YOUR SHEPHERD. If you stay in this valley, you will stagnate and fall. In this hour, there must be a great push of faith to get through such a valley, for the pressure system in such is causing nothing to grow and a decaying of what is."

Thus says the Lord, "The government, the highest seats in your nation, are about to make a VERY sharp maneuver, that those of both parties shall look on in shock, as this sharp maneuver shall cause a derailment and tracks to break and wheels to lose their security and fall off," says the Lord...

"I am God. There is no other. Stay the course, My children; stay the course with ME. Do not get spellbound by the prognosticators and puppets who allure you to allow fear and rage to enter. Anchor in My Word and you and your households shall and will be saved, for the enemy is desperately looking for weak areas right now to exploit, to steal, to destroy, to cause chaos [to]. He is attempting [this] any way He can. And your authority through Christ Yeshua, and continually bringing that onslaught of power, will stop serious attacks in this time.

"This is the hour for you to keep your sword of the Spirit and shield of faith up continually. Do not let down your guard," says the Lord, "for I am your front and rear guard," says the Lord. "Know this day [that] what has been spoken forth will be accomplished, and that I the Lord your God am with you, My children, even until the end of the age. The Lord is with you and will fight for you in this hour as you surrender and submit to My Word, My will, [and] My plans, so MY purposes may be accomplished to their fullest in this unique time within the earth." Thus says the Lord. In Yeshua' name, amen...

A Line in the Sand

Prophetic word delivered at the Reawaken America in Pennsylvania, on October 21, 2022:

"The enemy may attempt to advance, and he may attempt to attack in this hour; however, I the Lord thy God this day am drawing a firm dividing line. I am drawing that line in the sand. I am calling forth the day the wicked shall see My power in this nation—the day they shall hear My voice and tremble, going, 'WHAT HAVE YOU DONE, O WICKED MAN? WHAT HAVE YOU DONE? WHAT HAVE YOU DONE TO MY ANOINTED? WHAT HAVE YOU DONE TO MY PEOPLE? WHAT HAVE YOU DONE?'

"And I the Lord thy God say this day has been etched on a scroll, for I JUDGE FROM THE HIGHEST THRONE. THE CAPITAL IS NOT THE HIGHEST THRONE. THE THRONES OF THIS WORLD ARE NOT THE HIGHEST THRONE. I THE LORD THY GOD JUDGE FROM THE HIGHEST SEAT, WAY ABOVE THE EARTH. THE THRONE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS AND MY RIGHT HAND HAVE COME FORTH. AND IT IS ETCHED ON A SCROLL—THE INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GREAT TURNING OF THIS NATION—FOR THE PIVOT YOU ARE ABOUT TO SEE, AND IT HAS BEEN HANDED OFF TO MY HOLY, WARRING ANGELS," says the Lord thy God this day...

"I AM clearing the way, I AM ordering their steps, I AM VINDICATING. VINDICATION," SAITH THE LORD, "IN THIS HOUR.

"JUDGMENT IS MINE," SAYS THE LORD GOD THIS DAY. "IT IS NOT FOR MAN. JUDGMENT IS FOR ME TO BRING FORTH. AND I SHALL BRING FORTH THAT JUDGMENT, FOR THE WICKED ARE ON THEIR LAST LEG. They are on their last leg," says the Lord. "And I the Lord thy God this day shall knock that leg from under them," says the Lord. "I shall cause a great crash. I shall cause a great fall. I shall cause them to hit the ground. I shall cause them to lose their seats. I shall cause them to lose the empires they built. I shall cause their flesh to be humbled..."

Interesting EL to say the least
Andrew Whalen: "Are You Postured for the Position?"

Posture for the Position

One night, while sitting down in prayer before bed, I heard the Holy Spirit say, "Position and posture." I pondered this phrase and heard the Lord say, "There are people in position without the heart posture for it. I'm coming now to pour out anointing on those with the posture for the position."

After that word, I went to bed and had a dream. In the dream I found myself talking about position and posture. I began to speak about how Saul was positioned as king in Israel, but he was not postured for it. I said, "The anointing 'found' David because of his heart posture." I declared in the dream that God is now finding and anointing the hearts of those who are truly postured for His positioning!

Positioned at the Table

Then I had another dream. I saw a table of Kingdom leaders. I didn't recognize a single face or name. However, I knew that many of these people were well known and respected in their spheres of leadership or influence. I also discerned in the dream that many of these people sitting at the table, who had started out well in posture, had grown proud, entitled, and even compromised in the weighty responsibilities of their "position." Yet, they demanded a place at the table.

I saw several "outsiders," who were humble yet bold, given an invitation by the Lord to sit at this table. Those already in "position" at the table knew that these outsiders were invited to sit, but it was clear they didn't respect or care what God thought about these humble leaders, and they made no room for them. What also became clear is that several of these leaders who were already positioned at the table had seated themselves because they wanted "positions of honor."

In the dream, I watched the "outsider" leaders, who had been invited by the Lord, make a decision to humbly go sit on the floor (though they knew from the Lord that He had given them the right to be seated at the table).

They sat without complaint and ate food from the floor. In that moment of the dream, I knew by revelation that the anger of the Lord had been kindled against those in position who were not postured for it. I knew what was coming next was a turning of the tables, and those who were positioned without the proper heart posture were going to be removed from their places, and their seats given to those being anointed for their heart posture!

"When Yeshua noticed how the guests were choosing the places of honor, He told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, don't sit down at the place of honor in case someone more important than you was invited by the host. Then the host who invited both of you would come to you and say, "Give this person your place." In disgrace, you would have to take the place of least honor. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the place of least honor. Then, when your host comes, he will tell you, "Friend, move up higher," and you will be honored in the presence of everyone who eats with you. Because everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the person who humbles himself will be exalted.'" (Luke 14:7–11)

Many Tables Are about to Turn

I believe many tables are about to turn. This phrase is meant to highlight a significant shift in the positioning, power, and control of a situation.

Let me prophetically declare: The tables are about to turn and remove the positioning of Sauls! Those with "more distinguished hearts" are now coming forth!

I believe, across the seven mountains of society, we are going to witness the turning of the tables. From government positions and business industries to church leadership, God is turning the tables!

Like the prophet Samuel, who found and anointed David—because "God looks at the heart, and not the outward appearance" (see 1 Samuel 16:7)—so again is the Lord finding and anointing hearts who are fully His! Those who haven't felt seen, known, or valued, yet have the right posturing for the position, are being called up!

Warning: Others started where you are but didn't finish well. As God turns the tables, prepare your heart to maintain a trajectory of proper positioning so that it doesn't detach from the posture required for it!

Donna Rigney: "The 'Grand Rescue Event' Fulfilled!"

The Lord has told me over the past few years that He will be rescuing us in such a way that all will see it, and all will know it was by His hand. He called it a "grand rescue event."

Just as He did for Israel when He delivered them from slavery in Egypt, He promised He would rescue His people who have been crying out to Him day and night. In a day, He not only released the Israelites, but He parted the Red Sea for all to see. After they were safely on the other side, He had Moses extend his rod over the Red Sea once again for all to see, causing the Red Sea to close, and the Egyptian army that was pursuing the Israelites was drowned in the sea.

At the debate, God fulfilled this promise: all saw the sham of Biden's presidency, the deception perpetrated on the American people by the news media and the Democrats, and the strength and resolve of Donald Trump. Again, a few days before the debate, when the Supreme Court ruled in Trump's favor, all saw it! Blinders were ripped off people's eyes!

Millions watched as an assassin attempted to kill Donald Trump, and God miraculously saved him. News media outlets are all declaring this to be a divine intervention! All are watching God's "grand rescue event" of His people, just as He promised us He would do.

Victory After Victory Is Coming!

On Monday morning, June 24, 2024, four days before the debate between Donald Trump and Joe Biden, Father spoke to me about the great power and goodness that will come to our land when His glory is poured out. He promised, "Victory after victory will be yours. But unlike what Donald Trump says—that people will say they are getting tired of winning because they are winning so much—you won't get tired of winning. Celebrations will break out spontaneously!"

All week I saw the beginning of the fulfillment of this prophecy. Not only was the debate a tremendous victory for the conservatives, but the rulings of the Supreme Court all week marked the time of great victory coming for many, including those imprisoned unjustly after January 6th.

On Friday morning, June 28, 2024, after the debate between Joe Biden and Donald Trump, Father spoke to me about the debate and the future of our nation:

"Fresh fire will fall from Heaven on the world! Last night was just the beginning of what We have planned: victory after victory!

Yes, many men will join this movement to restore your nation back to Me and to greatness.

"Eyes are no longer blind, but now many are dumbfounded that they allowed themselves to be duped into believing in a false reality. Angry at those who deceived them, disgusted that they were tricked, and furious at the suffering they endured and continue to endure, because of the tricksters they follow, is the condition of many who had their eyes opened and saw the truth exposed before their eyes.

"Backfired upon are those who led this sham—exposed for all to see their shame. And never to be believed, or followed, or voted for will those be who orchestrated the demise of your nation and its wealth. They will be made to pay; payback is coming to all involved in this disastrous deception that was perpetrated against the people of your nation. This land will be great again and will do My bidding.

"Your nation will be restored and will shine like a light for the benefit of this world. Yes, world changes will get into position and will impact this world through My grace. In all seven mountains, a great shift in leadership will bring about transformation that will restore the destiny of this once great nation. For the sake of the world and My Kingdom, and in answer to the prayers of the righteous, this will be done quickly! Victory is at hand!

"Greater than the victory that this world enjoyed after World War II will the victory be at the end of this war for the soul of your nation.

"I am positioning My chosen ones to lead in this hour. Both young and old will take their positions, because all are needed to get back all that was stolen and lead this land back to the path of its destiny. I will combine the strength, vigor, and enthusiasm of the young with the resolve, wisdom, and tenacity of the aged to raise up a force that will take this world back for Me.

"This is the time of the grand unveiling that I promised through My prophets was coming. Eyes are being opened; the veil of deception is being ripped off My children's blinded eyes; and truth is being revealed, while lies are being exposed. This is happening to individuals and to nations!"

Confirming Scripture: Isaiah 40.

Another Victory: Donald Trump Survived an Assassination Attempt!

On Saturday evening, July 13, at 6:11 PM, shots were fired at Donald Trump, and one of them grazed his right ear. By the grace of God, his life was spared. After falling to the ground and being shielded by the Secret Service, Donald Trump stood up, raised up his arm—his hand held in a fist—and shouted, "Fight, fight, fight!" While being ushered off the platform, Donald Trump asked for his shoes twice.

The following evening, during our prayer time at our Sunday evening service, the Holy Spirit showed me that Donald Trump was living Ephesians 6:10–18. He was covered in the armor of God, and I believe (prophetically) that he was asking for his shoes because he is ready to complete his assignment to make America great again.

"...and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace." (Ephesians 6:15)

At the time I received this revelation, I didn't realize that Donald Trump was being shot at during the same time: 6:11 PM. Also, I was shown that what the enemy tried to do to Donald Trump backfired on him. In seconds, the shooter was shot and killed. The Lord has been showing me for months that what they were doing to Trump would backfire on them, and that they would fall in the pit they had dug for him.

(I know that this word is for all who have been mercilessly attacking him, not just the shooter in Pennsylvania.)

On Saturday morning, July 13, 2024, hours before Donald Trump was shot at in Pennsylvania, Father spoke this impacting word to me about Donald Trump.

He brought me to 2 Chronicles 20. This Scripture recounts the story of Jehoshaphat and the men from Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who came to attack Judah after they had been spared by God, when Israel came to possess the Promised Land. Jehoshaphat prayed to God, "See how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out of the possession You gave us as an inheritance" (v. 11).

Father explained that those whom Donald Trump only did good to had attacked him. He let those who were his political enemies go unpunished in his first term; he didn't pursue the crimes that they would have and should have been prosecuted for—people like the Clintons, Biden, the Obamas, the FBI, the DOJ, generals in his army, and many others.

They paid him with vicious, slanderous, and full accusations, and relentless attacks. Now, like Jehoshaphat's enemies, God will cause them to be destroyed. They attacked one another and not one was left. (We are watching the Democrats fight each other over Biden's failing bid for the presidency.) Plus, Judah got all their plunder. The wealth of the wicked will come to the just. Peace rained through the land!

Then Father declared, "Watch as I do punish those who have been mistreating My chosen ones. Whatsoever they've done to the least of My brethren, they've done to Me. When I look from Heaven, I see My Son being abused again and again by those He served through My children. This will stop! Those who refuse to repent—like Peter repented when he denied My Son—will be held accountable and lose everything!"

Lessons for Us to Learn from This Teaching:

1. We must not mistreat those whom God uses to bless us when we don't deserve to be blessed or forgiven.
2. When blessings come, we must be grateful, stay humble, and be loyal to those who help us.
3. We must not align with the wicked or those who hate the ones that God uses to bless us. (The three armies united against Israel.)
4. When we are attacked, we must not fear but have faith in God, trusting Him to save us. We must leave the battle to Him, not get discouraged, stand firm, and worship God before the victory. And during the attack, we must have faith in God and in His prophets.
5. We must pray for those who attack us to repent like Peter did, when he denied Yeshua, and pray for them to be forgiven and restored. He got his destiny back; pray they get their call back.

Again, Father Spoke about Donald Trump!

On Sunday morning, July 14, 2024, Father continued to talk to me about the assassination attempt against Donald Trump: "Rejoice in the God who delivers, saves, and surrounds you with strong protection. I am a wall of fire that shields you from all attacks of the enemy. You all watched My grand rescue event as I shielded your true and honorable president, Donald Trump, [so that he could] escape certain death. My hand was covering him and will continue to cover him and his!

"All that I promised through My prophets I am performing! Many will believe in Me and in My ways!"

On Tuesday, July 16, 2024, Father continued to speak to me about Donald Trump: "Don't worry about Donald Trump; My hand is on him and on his destiny. He will restore this nation to greatness, and to My Son. Yes, Yeshua will rule as King and Lord over the U.S.A. By My hand, it will be done; yes, My hand resting on an imperfect man will bring forth great victory. And you will see one good thing after another unfold. My children will benefit from My blessings that I pour out on this man—Donald Trump—your nation, and the world.

"Fear, terror, and tyranny will be chased out of your land, and others. Such an avalanche of My goodness and My glory will be poured forth that there will be no room for evil; it will have to flee!

"Those whom the evil ones used to implement their wicked schemes will flee as well. They will run and try to hide, but no one can hide from My all-seeing eyes. Exposed for all to see and brought to justice will be the fruit they reap. No one will escape justice.

"Exonerated and set free will those be who bore the stripes of injustice. You have prayed for My resurrection power to fall on your land, and now is the time [when] you will see it come to pass. I will raise up the poor and destitute and restore the infirm and imprisoned.

"Discouragement will be sent far from Our children to the camp of the enemy. They will reap what they have tried to sow into the lives of the innocent and the just."

On July 18, 2024, Father continued to speak to me about the great victories that are coming: "Sing songs of deliverance like Miriam! Rejoice, for victory is assured! This explosion of victory will manifest personally, nationally, and globally!

"Like rain falling from Heaven, it will rain My goodness on all flesh. Recompense and restoration will bathe all and wash away injustice and corruption. A few won't accept what I am doing, but the masses will!"

While walking in the spirit with Yeshua, I felt a cool breeze blowing all over me. Yeshua explained, "I am going to breathe upon this world. My breath will blow away the chaff (or what is useless, corrupt, and unprofitable) off My children's lives; and, at the same time, refresh and strengthen the weary and oppressed. Many, like Donald Trump, have grown weary during this battle for the soul of your nation, but I will refresh them. Invigorated by My breath, they will lead the charge to 'take the hill,' or take back all that was stolen in years past.

"Liberty, justice, and prosperity will be returned. All the inalienable rights that I gave My children will be given back to them. Joy will return to your land. Just as Miriam led the people to celebrate their freedom, and their rights [were] restored, My chosen worshipers will lead the masses to worship and celebrate like no other time in the history of the world. Because the warfare and oppression have been so intense, the celebration will be magnanimous!

"Yes, even the chaff of disloyalty, bitterness, and unforgiveness will be blown away. All wickedness will be dealt with. Those who hold fast to the chaff and won't allow Me to remove it by My breath, will be eliminated and have no opportunity to influence others to follow their way of wickedness.

"The faithful will be rewarded; fruitful will their lives be. So happy will they be, they won't even remember the deep sorrow that they endured before I breathed upon them."

Confirming Scripture: Jeremiah 50:33–36.

Number 11 – Av
Roger Waters

What is in a number? In the ancient world, a number wasn't just a number, it had a name associated with it. For Instance, in Daniel, chapter 5:25, (And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN). Now Mene in Aramaic is the number 1,000, spoken twice, equals 2,000. Tekel is 500, so it now is 2,500, and Upharsin is 20, which now is 2,520. Nothing big huh? So what would happen if you went and researched just a bit farther?

You would find that this event happened in 539 BC, and if you were to go 2,520 years into the future, you would find the year 1981. So what happened in 1981? What did the words on the wall mean? an 5:26 This is the interpretation of the thing:

Dan 5:26 MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

Dan 5:27 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

Dan 5:28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

The next day, the Medo-Persian empire came into Babylon and destroyed the Persian armies, and the Hebrews found themselves under the rule of Cyrus of Persia. It was Cyrus that allowed the Hebrews to go and rebuild their City unto YHVH, called Jerusalem.

So numbers are a very intricate part of the picture as a whole. God uses numbers to create, he used numbers to set down all laws and rules, statutes and the laws of nature. It was numbers that guided us today to find the patterns that YHVH used to secure his structure of building blocks in His Kingdom. Numbers tell the story of the Messiah, birth to Resurrection. It was spoken by the Messiah himself in Matthew 12:40, (For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth).

Why three you ask? Three is the number of the Godhead, in Hebrew – Elohim. Father, Son, Spirit. Its like water, The Father is like the ice form of water, frozen H₂O, but the Son is like the liquid water H₂O, heat it up and you have the steam H₂O. They are all H₂O, but each has a separate task to do. 10 is the number of the Kingdom, because in Mathematics, everything is based upon the power of 10, and 40 is the number of testing, 40 years in the wilderness, 40 days in the wilderness, and 40 days and nights of rain that caused the flood of Noah.

Today we look at numbers like nothing. But numbers are everything in the Kingdom of YHVH. They are even a part of the Biblical Law Form. But that is another story. In the month of Av, we have certain days that are very important in Biblical History. Now remember, one of the laws before Moses was with Abraham.

Rom 11:23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

Rom 11:24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

YHVH told Abraham how to handle the people from other tribes when they wanted to be with Abraham, they were told to drop their old ways, worshipping other false gods, and live under the law of the Torah, and worship the only true YHVH. If they did that, then they would be grafted into the Hebrew way of life.

Many people forget, Yahshua was not a Christian. He never even started Christianity, he called them Set Apart Ones, because they were set apart from the rest. If you were a Gentile in those days, you were not to receive the gift of eternal life, as it was the Hebrews who were to tell the world about all of this, but the Hebrews rejected the Messiah, and thus after the Resurrection, Saul was converted to Paul, and went out among the Gentiles and started 7 churches there in modern day Turkey.

7, the number of completion. Fulfillment, and at the end. The Menorah has 7 branches, with a cup holder, like a bowl, on top, but only the 1st and the 7th are connected. When you get to the 7th, it goes back to the 1st and starts all over again. It recycles. The end is just the beginning all over again. History does repeat itself, thus if you want to see what will happen in the future, look at the past, it will tell you many things.

The very Word of YHVH does not ever change, what happened on the 9th day of Av in history, it wasn't a good thing for the Hebrews, Jerusalem destroyed twice on this day, Hitler started to kill the Jews on this day, Concentration camps opened up in Nazi Germany on this day, here in America, the US Government turned away a ship full of Jewish people wanting to come to America, but the government turned them away and wouldn't allow them in, so they went back to France and Germany and were taken to the concentration camps, and we all know what happened next.

The US Corporation is not free of blame here, as that generation is also to blame on deaths of the Hebrew population. So now we come to the month of Av 2024, and look what is happening in our own nation, the leader of Democracy around the world right? Yes but also the end of it, as the Government is headed straight for a Communist government, a socialist government just like Russia had back in the old days of the Soviet Union days, until 1988 when the Wall came down.

By the way, what did happen in 1981, oh yeah, on January 1, Greece joined the European Economic Community, now the European Union, as the 10th member, and Spain also joined that day. Greece became the 10th nation, and Spain was the 11th. You might want to read Daniel chapter 7. Which states that the 11th Horn is the one to watch.

Vanquish Prophet Warriors

Generation Alpha and the Greatest Awakening

The prodigal children are coming home, yes, but I believe generation alpha will begin the greatest awakening.

I'm a mother of four children who are part of generation alpha, and daily I witness a hunger and faith among them that is refined, pure, and will awaken the nations. The Lord has imminent and spectacular plans for generation alpha!

Generation Alpha Will Be the Awakening of Family!

Recently, the Lord gave me a dream. In the dream, I was in a large, spacious, and beautifully exquisite home with other families. Each family had their own room and space, and each room was fashioned with the riches of the world, leaving no lack or want of earthly goods. The riches and gluttony were lulling the parents to sleep. Moms and dads alike were bloated with pleasure and coma-like sleeping. I walked among them, awakened to this lullaby of dry and spiritual numbness.

The home was sterile and stale. A soul-sucking vortex permeated the atmosphere. Although the home appeared beautiful, darkness lingered. Love was entirely absent. Peace was nowhere to be found. This was not their home.

Dogs were barking and pacing, trying to awaken the home to the danger that lurked. The enemy had been prowling around the home, waiting for the opportune time, until the parents were asleep and unaware. The enemy was now at the door, ready to steal, kill, and destroy the children. The parents remained asleep.

The children, however, were not sleeping. In the center of this spacious home was the living room, where all of the children had been quartered in by an oversized baby gate and given things to consume by their parents. Junk food and sugary snacks were littered all over the floor. The children were bloated, just like their parents, and they were energized with a buzzing energy from the sugar they had consumed.

The living room walls were covered with oversized TV screens, and tablets were in each of the children's hands; their faces were illuminated in an eerie iridescence of blue light. Their eyes were devoid of pupils, irises and were a dulled white. They were lifeless. This entertainment had satisfied and zombie-fied them for a time, but the time was ending. There were some of the children who were becoming restless; they were becoming hungry. They were beginning to deny entertainment and to search for truth. They were beginning to hunger for meat instead of sugar.

All of a sudden, the Spirit hovered over the void and over the lifeless eyes. I watched as the veil of screen-lit iridescence was lifted from one child to the next. They stood up, one by one, radiating in splendor, with the eyes of Christ in each. Fire adorned their heads. Each child rushed into their parents' room and began shaking them awake, not because of fear but because of passion. There was a holy fire spreading and consuming all that had snuffed out the flame.

I heard the Father's voice cry out, "The children are being awakened, because they are ready to rest in their Father's house!"

I woke up at that moment to my youngest child, Zion, not crying but awake and babbling. The clock illuminated 12:12.

Rachel Lynn Lawrence: "The Children Are Restless" The Children Are Restless

Parents, it's time to teach your children truth. The Holy Spirit is awakening children in this hour to TRUTH! As I prayed through this dream, the Lord shared this with me:

"I will sweep a move of hunger among the youth of this world—a new move of My Spirit to bring generations into My promised land, [a] move of My Spirit to spark curiosity, awaken young minds, and regenerate tender, child-like hearts to My Truth.

"The children are restless. No longer will they slumber to the lull of entertainment and gluttony. No longer will they be satisfied by their flesh, or the enemy's amusement to force them to sleep, caged in cribs that are not of their Father's house.

"The children will awaken their parents because they refuse to be cradled by complacency. My Spirit is sparking them to refuse to be bogged down by media and lackadaisical consumption; they are readied for My truth.

"They will awaken nations. They will display wonders and proclaim [the] wisdom of My name that only the Spirit will reveal. They are restless, because they will not rest until they find their rest in Me.

"Parents, wake up! Parents, raise your children in My way! Parents, pay heed to My Spirit moving among the children in waves.

"I'm bringing generations into My promised land!

"Heed this call of awakened and no longer sleeping children. Heed this call in your hearts, parents, that the enemy is prowling to steal, kill, and destroy your children.

"Parents, WAKE UP! Parents, return to your Father's house. Your children will not rest until they are there.

"Selah. Selah to My children. You will rest in My peace. You will rest in My house. Mark My word."

May generation alpha, Lord, be the genesis of Your greatest awakening! In Your name, Yeshua, AMEN! May it ever the more be so!

Helen Calder: "The Key to the Granary
5 Ways You Can Enter God's Supply" of surrender for us to embrace, because He continually leads us onward. As we release the past, and move into an unfamiliar future, He calls for a renewed "yes" to Him. If you feel that tug, be assured that you are not entering uncharted territory. God, who loves you, already occupies your future and has mapped the way.

Receive the Gift of Surrender

Surrender to God is a mystery; it's not weak, as some might think, but powerful. Surrender isn't about giving in to an aggressor; it's about yielding everything to the One who loves us (1 John 4:16). Surrender is the humblest posture you can take before God and the highest position you can have on Earth.

It is not about losing your rights or power but gaining true authority, and it's an act of pure worship. If surrender seems beyond your ability to do, then you are right; it is a gift of grace empowered by the Holy Spirit—a gift that is yours to receive right now.

Let Surrender Break Open Supply

Surrender is a step that leads to supply, because it tips us into obedience and acts of faith.

Here are two biblical examples:

1. In 1 Kings 17, a woman surrendered her last flour and oil to feed the prophet Elijah. Her sacrifice, and the miraculous supply, ensured her family had food during the famine.
2. Jacob was managing a dwindling supply of grain (see Genesis 43). Meanwhile, his son Joseph was amassing a vast supply in Egypt. Jacob's surrender—his obedience to God in relocating to Egypt—connected the two and unlocked the supply for the rest of his life.

Prophetic Vision of a Storehouse Key

Recently, I had an encounter with the Lord about this. When I describe a vision, it's usually a vivid impression in my mind's eye accompanied by a strong sense of God's presence. This is not an "open" (physical) vision. I believe all prophetic words, encounters, and visions should be compatible with Scripture and need to be weighed up.

During our worship service, a Bible appeared in front of me in a glowing, luminous blue in my mind's eye. I opened the Bible and noticed a cavity within it; inside was a key. I said, "Lord what is this?" He said, "This is the key to the granary." (A granary is a storehouse for grain.) The vision changed, and I saw Yeshua with the key. It was threaded with a leather cord which He placed around my neck like a lanyard.

When I reflected on these symbols later, I realized they were rich with meaning. The key signified access, the lanyard meant identity and security, and the leather represented Yeshua's sacrifice. The cavity in the Bible had to do with a truth contained in the Scriptures, while blue spoke to me of prophetic insight.

I didn't understand it until weeks later, during a moment of crisis, when the Holy Spirit instantly dropped insights on me from the story of Ruth. I saw it! The key to the granary is contained in Ruth's story, and it relates to each of our stories.

5 Powerful Ways You Can Enter God's Supply

1. Embrace Your Divine Appointment

As the book of Ruth opens, Naomi had heard some good news. The Lord had provided a harvest for His people in Judah! Storehouses—granaries—were filling again after a long period of famine, so Naomi decided to make the journey home from Moab.

The two women, who were widows, arrived in Bethlehem at the time of the barley harvest. Ruth gleaned leftover stalks of grain in the fields to provide for them both.

This is a reminder that a divine appointment often appears humble at first. It may not seem like it, but it means you are positioned to encounter God. Here you will hear a word of His goodness and discover a newfound purpose.

2. Serve Faithfully in God's Plan

When Ruth happened upon the fields of Boaz—a relative of Naomi's late husband—her grain supply was secured, for he was a wealthy and influential landowner.

Boaz ensured Ruth had nothing to fear, and her basic needs were met. He acted as a protector and made sure that her gleanings were generous. Ruth gained all of this in her service on behalf of Naomi! She spent long days gathering and evenings threshing. Similarly, many of us work hard in service. If you can relate to this, be assured that God sees you, and is your protector and provider.

"For God is not unjust to forget your work and labor of love which you have shown toward His name, in that you have ministered towards the saints, and do minister." (Hebrews 6:10, NKJV)

3. Move from Service to Surrender

A need for supply can be a flag, or signpost, to lead us to greater surrender. This is the point the Holy Spirit highlighted to me: While Ruth gleaned in the fields, her supply was limited. She could only take home as much as she could collect, thresh, and carry!

Then one day, at the direction of Naomi, she petitioned Boaz and surrendered her whole life to him. After that, she never had to worry about supply again, for she married the landowner!

Boaz, was a "kinsman redeemer" or "family redeemer" and symbolized Christ. Yeshua is the landowner – Lord of all!

4. Step into God's Greater Purpose

Ruth's journey speaks of our own. It was a progression from seeking, to serving, and to surrendering. Surrender doesn't do away with service, instead it opens doors to serve with greater purpose.

We learn that Ruth became the mother of Obed (the grandfather of King David). She appears in Matthew's genealogy of Yeshua Christ.

Others knew Ruth as the Moabitess, the foreigner.

But God knew her as chosen, beloved, and grafted into His family.

5. Say "Yes" to Your Inheritance

Surrender is like a small door that we must bow to enter, yet it leads to a vast, unlimited storehouse.

And as we pass through it, we realize, with wonder, it's not about effort or earnings but recognizing our inheritance.

Hear the Lord say, "I am not through with this yet!"

He has more for you to discover and enter. God never destined you for leftovers, for the land is yours. Own it, wear the lanyard, and receive the key. And say "yes" to God.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'LISTEN, LISTEN, LISTEN! STOP, SEE, LISTEN'

Recently. I heard the Lord say. 'Listen, listen, listen! Stop, See, Listen.'

When I heard these words I could feel the weightiness of the call of the hour to hear and perceive that which the Lord is speaking and what He is revealing. I could feel a weighty fear of the Lord upon the invitation.

As I leaned and listened, I heard the Lord say: 'Stop looking around, My people, LOOK UP! Do not be distracted by the noise and the clamor in the earth, it is time to focus and lock your eyes with Mine in a greater way than ever before. Be resolved to lock your eyes with Me and be not distracted by the noise, for I am releasing divine strategy, insight and unveiling in this hour on a scale that you have not experienced before. I am calling you, My people, hunker down in the secret place with Me: close the doors, close the windows, shut off the noise and LISTEN to what I am saying. For there are many that are running to and fro, having their eyes entertained by that which is going on around them and in the world: but I say unto you, that this is an urgent hour to draw close to Me and listen and receive the strategy, wisdom and revelation that I am releasing.

'For in the coming days there will be a greater unveiling and uncovering of that which I am bringing into the light. I am calling you, My people, to come deeper into My heart to listen to what I am saying, and My Spirit is preparing — discipling and awakening you in My truth and wisdom to the days ahead. For I am bringing you deeper into the development room in the Spirit, where I am teaching you how to operate and move in discernment, wisdom and divine intel on a scale you have not moved in before. I am calling you.

'For there are many who are praying their own opinions and agendas. I am dealing with divination. For there are many who are praying through their offences and I am calling you deeper. I am calling you to come into the secret place with a laying down of agenda. A laying down of assumption and presumption and coming to Me in humility to listen. To stop, to see and to listen. I am calling you, My people, into a greater realm of surrender of your own perceptions and desires, to hear what I am speaking and releasing.

'For those who draw close to me in this hour — in humility and with the purity of heart to hear My voice and to see what is on My heart — I will open up divine intel and wisdom to you, to partner with Me in greater ways to see what I have planned and what is in My heart manifest upon the earth. For I am calling you, My people, to put your head between your knees like Elijah did and block out the noise and come deeper into a place of focused intercession on the Word that I am revealing to you and that which I am speaking to you. For I am calling you to come deeper into that which I am speaking and revealing.

'You may feel like you are the only one standing upon the revelation and word that I have given you, but as I continue to speak and confirm to you that which I am revealing, you MUST not look at anything else but that which I have revealed and am revealing. As you stay deeply anchored in My Word and partner with Me in intercession in this hour — to allow My groans and My burdens to be released through your intercession — you will see some of the greatest demonstrations of My power and bring you deeper into the revelation of the power of prayer and intercession as you pray aligned with My heart, My mind and My Word.

'I am raising agents of justice in the secret place. That through their prayers and intercession, as they are carrying My heart and are aligned with what I am revealing and speaking, My justice is and will continue to be released on the earth through their intercession. Beware of offences in this hour. For there is a great entanglement of offence that I am calling forth into the light that is in many hearts in this hour, which is hindering their vision and intercession. Again, I say unto you, lay down your offences, lay down your agendas and allow Me to teach you in a greater way, how to pray. Come deeper in humility and ask for My heart. Ask for My heart. For many are praying in this hour without My heart. They are praying from a place of assumption, and I am calling you deeper into the place of seeing, perceiving and receiving My heart.

'Be prepared to move on My intel in the days ahead. I am looking for those who are prepared to move on My instruction, no matter the cost, no matter what it looks like — those who will move on My instruction without hesitation. For in the days ahead, as you receive My wisdom and My instruction in the secret place, you will be called on to move upon My instructions. As you hunker down in the secret place to look and to listen in this hour, I am preparing you to step into some of the greatest assignments in Me that you have walked in.

I am preparing you right now for the days to come, to move on My instruction. And I say unto you that as the shaking intensifies, as you have hunkered down in the secret place and waited upon Me — listened to Me and allowed Me to disciple and refine you — you will arise with a boldness in the hour to move on My instruction with great tenderness and sensitivity to My leading, but also with great strength and confidence in where I am leading you.

'For in the days to come, where the shaking will increase, there will be a separation between those who will move on My instruction and wisdom and those who will hunker down into what was, the status quo and following the crowd. For some divine intel and revelation I am releasing in this hour and the way I show up will offend your mind. Will you continue to follow My instruction and My ways? For I am raising up those who will move on My instruction and are living in the deep place of intel and instruction. Those who discern My movements because they are living in deep intimacy with Me — in humility and seeking My heart, stopping to look and to listen.'

'The source of revelation-knowledge is found as you fall down in surrender before the Lord. Don't expect to see Shekinah glory until the Lord sees your sincere humility.'

Proverbs 15:33 (TPT)

'The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom and before honor is humility.'

Proverbs 15:33 (NKJV)

"A CALL TO RETURN TO THE SECRET PLACE"
DEBORAH PERKINS, MEDWAY, MA

Not long after I finished my prayer time and began work, I heard the Lord calling me back into the secret place. As I sat with Him again, He asked me to scribe and release this word to you to encourage you to continue seeking Him moment by moment. No matter what your "routine" prayer times are, I sense that an immediate availability to pray in the Spirit is essential at this time.

"It's going to be more important than ever for you to abide in the secret place of My love. I will call you aside with Me at unusual and often inopportune times. Do you trust Me to show you the way? Will you obey the secret whispers that draw you into My miraculous presence when the enemy desires to wreak havoc upon your world?

"For I alone can guide you into places of perfect peace, where you are safely covered and protected until evil passes by (see Psalm 57:1; Isaiah 26:20). Do not allow the busyness of your life to hinder you from obedience to these important times with Me! The enemy always looks for a more 'opportune' time to attack, but I know where he plans to go. I will be your defense and cause you to sidestep his movements even as you come away with Me.

"Take breathers throughout your day to meditate on Me and I will fill you to the measure you open yourself to Me. There is never any reason to close the door of your heart if you remain in My presence daily! "Openness to Me will result in a security you have not known before. As you open your heart's door to Me, I close every door to the enemy. Finalize your determination to respond to My every call. Would you deny the summons of a King?

"Let Me minister to your heart just as you minister to Mine, in secret moments of tender affection which are no less powerful against your adversary than if you had drawn a sword yourself!" We cannot afford to miss the blessing of trusting in God's counsel alone at this time! For many weeks the Lord has brought me repeatedly to Jeremiah 17:5–10. These ancient words form a key message for this hour! The distinction between those who trust in the Lord and those who choose to rely on their own devices is becoming clearer and clearer.

I feel the Lord urging: "Do not be one who refuses to listen and set aside time for the ONLY Savior, Deliverer, Counselor, Friend, Refuge, and Defense you have! Honor Me, and I will honor you in return!"

As we enter into what promises to be a tumultuous season of political debates and continued national upheaval, I pray these simple words will strengthen you: May you abide under the shadow of God's wings, believing for His glorious light and peace to be revealed in and through you as you receive His wonderful love.

Angie Stolba: "Christ Be Magnified!"

A Magnifying Glass and a Mirror

"Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on Earth." (Colossians 3:2 ESV)

Recently, as I was seeking the Lord, He began to download a word to me. I received a picture of a magnifying glass and a mirror. The mirror was like one of those fun-house carnival mirrors that distort your image when you look into it. I'm sure you know the type I'm talking about: it's the kind of mirror that can make someone appear shorter and heavier than they truly are.

Pay No Attention to the "Smoke and Mirrors"

I then heard the Lord say, "You are breaking new ground and standing on the very threshold of breakthrough and promotion. Pay no attention to the 'smoke and mirrors' that the enemy is seeking to distract you with; rather, keep your eyes on Me and focus on the things above!"

The mirror represents the enemy's attempts to distort people's vision and bring deception. A lot of these attempts are false evidence appearing to be real.

The magnifying glass that I received a picture of was symbolic of the enemy's attempt to magnify circumstances that many are currently dealing with. He is looking for your agreement that these things (circumstances) are bigger and worse than they truly are. However, the Lord is saying, "In all things, let Christ be magnified!"

Stand on God's Word!

Stand on God's Word, for He is our final authority and absolute truth! While the enemy may attempt to magnify the adversity that you have been encountering, it is temporary.

The Lord is reminding us that "all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose" (Romans 8:28).

He says, "I am the God who works all things together for good! When My children cry out to Me, I am ready and willing to extend mercy and grace in their time of need, even in their weariness and weakness."

"But He gives us more grace. That is why Scripture says: 'God opposes the proud but shows favor to the humble.'" (James 4:6 NIV)

Let Christ Be Magnified!

"Be encouraged; the shaking you are encountering will subside, and all will be well! Throw off false accusations or any condemnation and stand boldly in the truth of My Word! It is your authority! When you have done all that you know to do, continue to stand. Praise Me, magnify Me, and watch, as the giants you see today [will] be no more" (Exodus 14:13).

"You are quickly coming into your finest hour [of] promises fulfilled and victory in every front!"

Let Christ be magnified, today and always.

"But the Lord stood with me and gave me strength so that I might preach the Good News in its entirety for all the Gentiles to hear. And He rescued me from certain death." (2 Timothy 4:17 NLT)

In Christ, I Am...

Bruce & Linda Dietler

The King James Bible relates Proverbs 29:18 in this manner: "Where there is no vision, the people perish..." Several other versions translate it either as, "where there is no revelation...", or "where there is no prophetic vision..."

Among its various definitions noted in the Merriam-Webster dictionary, vision may be considered as a thought, concept, or object formed by the imagination; a direct mystical awareness of the supernatural usually in visible form; or a supernatural appearance that conveys a revelation. As we purpose to see with the eyes of our hearts, we, as believers, press in to receive that vision which the Lord has of us and for us, His creation. Who are we, and where do we fit into His grand plan of the universe? To be strengthened in our inner man; effective witnesses and ministers for the Lord, it is imperative that we receive that revelation, that prophetic vision. As the Bible is our source of truth and life, we turn to scripture for the answers we seek. The following is what God has to say in the matter, though the list may be by no means complete or exhaustive, but it is a great start for us all.

In Christ I Am...

Faith Marie Baczko: "Step into the 'Future You!'"
Do You Not Perceive It?

God is now moving a people progressively out of an old dynamic to position them within a new paradigm, where they will be anchored in strength, wisdom, and understanding, greater faith and greater glory. His question to us is: "Do you not perceive it?" God's new thing works to undergird our lives with having the potential to transform them toward His purposes. God's intended future for our lives must begin to orchestrate and dictate our present trajectory toward His dream.

Having received a revelation from God, it is important to give it our full attention as it increases and expands in scope as we press in for more! Our eyes tend to only see and our ears only hear what our minds have been programmed to look for. Therefore, the scope of our understanding can be very limited. By giving our attention to revelation God has planned for our lives, we will start to see more and look forward toward greater possibilities than we have experienced so far.

If we do not resist Him, God will sculpt and fashion our lives toward His purposes. Our future self is, or should be, the blueprint of God's intention fashioned for us. His purpose is to create a masterpiece from our lives that is a replica of His Son in us. All that is not of Him is being chiseled away from our lives.

It is important to give our full attention to the prophetic image of the person God is creating and draw from that in establishing our future. It is time to engage with God over who we are to become. Because we serve a God of the impossible, there are no limits to His plan for our lives. With faith as the driver in our walk, our minds will become enlarged to envision the greater things and the possibility of seeming impossibilities.

The apostolic saints of God represent the Kingdom of God as ambassadors of the King. It's important to now be bold about our identity—who God created us be. We can't allow fear to dictate who we are. In this hour everyone must know their identity and what they are called to, regardless of the naysayers. Remove the old image you have worn over past years; the image others may have tried to brand you with. Remove it with confidence!

It is important to now let go of the past and the old wineskin and embrace the future dynamic prepared by God for you. Shift your perspective from the present to the future and begin to see and perceive the things God has waiting up ahead—the new connections, new spheres, and new friendships—ready to receive all that has been deposited in you. However, certain things must end, and doors must be closed in order for new beginnings to break forth!

Coming into a Season of Fullness

We are entering a season of leveling up in our understanding, in our ministry, in our knowledge, and in our apprehension of the majesty and power of Christ. God will show Himself to us in ways we have not seen before. A new anointing awaits those who perceive, who are pressing on, expecting, and believing for the "more." This is a new place where the light and life of Christ, deposited and growing within over the years, is ready to be released. OUR CUPS ARE ABOUT TO OVERFLOW.

Those of us who perceive and are moving in sync with God are now coming into a SEASON OF FULLNESS, where the life of Christ will break out and overflow in our lives to all the spheres where we have been given influence. We are entering the glory days of the "Day of His Power."

Releasing His Light

"Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the LORD will arise OVER YOU, and His glory will be seen UPON YOU. The Gentiles shall come to YOUR LIGHT, and kings to the BRIGHTNESS OF YOUR RISING." (Isaiah 60:1–3 NKJV, emphasis added)

This is the time for the people of God to shine! In Isaiah 60:1, the word shine is the Hebrew word or, which translates to "become a light." It means "shine," "luminous," "glorious," and "set on fire" (Bible Hub, Strong's H215).

The Lord shall RISE UPON YOU!

In this same verse, the word arise is "zarach," meaning "to irradiate (or shoot forth beams), i.e. TO RISE (AS THE SUN)" (Bible Hub, Strong's H2224).

His glory shall be seen upon you! The Lord will rise like the glory of the sun on a prepared army of humble servants. The brilliance of His glory shall be seen and be noticeable on the laid-down lovers of God. His light will irradiate from your spirit man, shooting forth beams of His glory and power. The word used is kabod and represents His weighty glory that shall appear upon you!

When we, as His temple, speak under the unction and anointing of the Lord to declare His Word with authority, His light is released! We call forth what is not as though it were, causing the future to collide and crash into the present!

God's Word moves purposefully with strength, faster than the speed of light, as He is the source of light. Yeshua Christ is present in the NOW, is outside of time, and enters time at will!

"So is My word that goes out from My mouth: It will not return to Me empty but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it." (Isaiah 55:11 NIV)

The time to decree His Word and release His light and His overflowing goodness into the darkness is now! God is working in the chaos to shift circumstances to His agenda, to change seasons, to rebuild, to realign, to reorder, to restructure, to lay new foundations, and to restore the ancient paths of righteousness. This is the time of reaping from all the years of sowing in tears! It is important to be listening closely for what God would say to us in these times as to our walk and our purpose.

Capturing the Heart of the Harvest

This hour will be defined by the five-fold. Evangelists and teachers are especially being called to the forefront to gather and to disciple. It is imperative to capture the heart of the harvest and to disciple them in the Word of God—to build solid foundations in their lives where they cannot be recaptured or lost!

This is an hour for glory and miracles. God wants to show off in His kids and show Himself strong on their behalf. Deep darkness may cover the earth, but God has prepared the people who are not afraid of it. They are blind to it as they walk by great faith, having been saturated in the oil of His presence. Where lawlessness abounds, they shine forth presenting the order of God. Where evil is prevalent the goodness of God prevails and overcomes!

Yeshua needs a people who are willing to walk fearlessly in the darkness as He would. Nothing can capture Him, nothing can stop or hinder Him, nothing can prevent His will from coming forth. Nothing can stop the force and power of the gospel of salvation from being released like a flood on the earth. He is God, He is Savior, and nothing can prevent Him from breaking out whenever and wherever He wants to. He may have been silent for a season, but in His appointed hour, He is unstoppable.

Practice These Things

MEDITATE ON THE WORD, PRAY IN TONGUES, WORSHIP AND PRAISE. Practicing these things daily will build up our spirit man to a place where God's superpower grows and resides, ready to be dispatched and dispensed at His will. Worship, praise, and praying in tongues work to fill up our cups with all the goodness of God.

The hour calls for a people to break out of intimidation and self-consciousness—to let loose the Spirit of God held captive in them, hindered by fear and unbelief.

More Than Conquerors

We are caught in a shift in a significant season of history. With any transition into new territory, there will be struggles with adjusting to the new thing, but through it all, God will be at work to increase our capacity to contain more of His glory, and to hold the new ground He plans to entrust to us. With perseverance, if we choose not to give up, if we embrace the good fight of faith and fix our eyes on Yeshua, life will change. We will find ourselves functioning at new levels and in new spheres in life and in ministry.

We will triumph in faith by pressing through the spiritual resistance that's coming from all sides, and advancing in the power of God, and with the anointing of God—the anointing that breaks the yoke of poverty, shame, lack, fear, and guilt. Press through! Run the gauntlet of satanic arrows designed to trip you up and shut you down. Rise up in the energy of Christ, and like Paul, shout, "NO, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us!" (see Romans 8:37).

The prize goes to the one who takes hold of life and, in faith, makes their future conform to the promises of God, rather than to the one who allows the past and life's circumstances to beat them down. The prize goes to the one who presses on with courage, who in spite of fear receives the crown. Your time has come! What will you do?

Let Your Faith Be Big!

There are numerous testimonies of people who heard the call of God, or the still small voice, and gave up their lives for the greater glory; they went on to do amazing things for God. They heard, they perceived the new thing, they obeyed, and they acted! With courage, they stepped out in faith and pulled eternity into present reality. Their lives counted for something much bigger than themselves and their small world. They were dreamers dreaming about possibilities rather than impossibilities.

Your call and your dream must become so big inside of you that they cannot be contained or shut down by anyone or anything, and like Jeremiah you, say, ".But His word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I was weary of holding it back, and I could not" (Jeremiah 20:9). Your faith will create a bigger place in you for God to occupy and break the bonds intended to keep you small and average. Let your faith become big, grounded, and muscular. Faith is muscular and will destroy every barrier and mountain in your way.

Breaking Through Limitations & Possessing Your Promises

Always aim for the highest; go for the gold! God needs you to believe for the inheritance He has prepared for you. Your part is a key part of His unfolding plan intended to bring His Kingdom to Earth. It is not intended to bless only you; other people are waiting for the treasures He has deposited in you for them. They are waiting for the anointing on your life to break out! God needs you to possess your promises. He is looking for a return on His investment in you! He needs you in that country He put on your heart; He needs you to have that house, to start that ministry; He needs you to write that book.

God's awesome work of Creation was done by faith and with the spoken Word (see Hebrews 11:3). We must do the same! Through Him, speak the future He has for you into existence; create with Him your world by faith. Talk yourself into your destiny. Stir up the gifts of God inside you. The patriarchs of old had the same fears that we all have, but they pressed through and changed the world.

The Lord is saying to you, "You have been functioning at a certain limited level for a long time because of restrictions and limitations: your perceived limitations in finances, health, education, gender, lack of affirmation or acknowledgment of your call or gift. You have come to the time for you to step up, to go to the next level. Take the risk, and make the jump, and watch Me catch you. Underneath you always reside [My] everlasting arms. I will always back you when I see your steps of faith. Faith will cause you to scale the mountains with ease as My hands uphold you and carry you."

Roma Waterman: "A 10x Leap Is Coming!"

A Time of Growing His Vision Inside

Lately, I haven't been sharing much prophetically, because the Lord has had me in a massive season of planning for what is to come. He's been showing me things that are much bigger than I imagined, and it's taken all my energy and focus to grow His vision inside of me.

I want to share with you one of the main things He has been saying to me since November 2023 that I believe is for the Body of Christ right now. I believe the Lord, right now, is requiring some big changes in our lives that are necessary for what is to come.

The Shift Is for What Is Coming

Shifts need to take place, not because something is wrong but because something is coming. Often, we make a change because something isn't working, but I feel this urgency from the Lord to make changes even in the midst of fruitfulness.

You might be feeling dissatisfied and confused by these feelings because your life seems to be "okay." Things are ticking along smoothly. This feeling is the Holy Spirit's prompting.

Get Into Position for the Mission That Is Coming to You

This is part of what it means to have "spiritual intelligence"—the Lord is preparing you, while you're in one season, for a season to come. Don't ignore it! Pause and take some time to hear what the Lord is saying, because it's very important that you get into position for the mission that is coming for you.

I know, for me, it took a couple of months of feeling unsettled, even though things were well. I kept asking the Lord, "Lord, what is it? What are You wanting?" And I kept waiting. I felt the importance of not moving until the full download was in me.

Every now and then, I'll see a piece of the puzzle, but it's been forming slowly. Honest truth, I really wanted it to be quick so I could get going, but He has not been communicating that way for a reason. And I don't move until I get the full picture.

Ten Leaps in One!

I believe the reason why this is happening is because it's a 10x jump, not a 2x one. There is an exponential leap the Lord wants you to step into that will be ten leaps in one. There is an advancement in the Kingdom for the age we live in that will be spectacular, and you and I get to be a part of history in the making.

Pay Attention and You Will Be Prepared

This is what I'm learning: as you wait, be prepared to hear what is on His heart, not what's on yours. He may take you in a direction you don't expect. He's certainly doing this with me. This is because He knows what you need and what He wants to see His Kingdom come on Earth.

If you pay attention, you will be prepared. Don't ignore the still small voice. Too many of us pay attention when it gets to a state of emergency. He doesn't want that pattern for us. He wants you to be prepared before you get there, because it will require a new level of commitment and focus, and you must be primed for the responsibility of carrying the new thing.

Get Ready!

I hear Him saying, "Get ready, get ready, get ready!" Allow His thoughts to ruminate inside of you until the full revelation emerges. You will not regret it.

Write it down, pray, and keep a journal, and the fullness will come in His time. But whatever you do, don't keep doing what you're doing without thinking of what needs to be done next. Look further ahead. Allow Him to give you long vision. It's possible to do this with His approval and supernatural empowerment.

The future is bright... you're going to love it!

"KEYS TO BUILD WITH HEAVEN"
SYLVIA NEUSCH, ROUND ROCK, TX

"Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide, do not hold back; lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes. For you will spread out to the right and to the left; your descendants will dispossess nations and settle in their desolate cities. Do not be afraid; you will not be put to shame. Do not fear disgrace; you will not be humiliated. You will forget the shame of your youth and remember no more the reproach of your widowhood. For your Maker is your husband—the Lord Almighty is His name—the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; He is called the God of all the earth." (Isaiah 54:2-5)

"My child, I give the call for expansion before it appears. Listen to Me, and I will share with you keys to access Heaven's realm of assistance. When you act in faith on the words I have spoken to you, you set in motion the activity of Heaven to aid in seeing the vision become a reality.

"My power does not back presumption to see the thing accomplished, but your obedience to My voice and words will unlock the resources and angelic realm to assist you in building. "You must put aside fear of failure, and remember who I am. Yoke yourself to Me, and purpose to walk in step with My Spirit. I will show you the way to go and direct your steps. My child, your way is not hidden from Me. Your plans are not disregarded by My eyes. I see it all—past, present, and future. Before you formulated your deepest dreams, I was there knitting you together in your mother's womb. I made you exactly who you are and have gifted you uniquely and purposefully so that you can step confidently into all I created you to be.

"You truly are My workmanship. You are made to portray a facet of My heart and Kingdom that only you can reveal. So, run fully into all that I have for you! Don't hold back or listen to the robbing voices of doubt and unbelief. You are made to build! You are made to soar!"

Christa Elisha:
"Protecting the Gates of Our Eyes and Hearts"

Prophetic word released on July 9, 2024:

I heard the Lord say, over the next four weeks, "Watch what you watch." Meaning, we need to be careful about what we are watching and taking into the gates of our eyes.

The Assignment of the Enemy

There is an assignment from the enemy to cast witchcraft over the eyes of our nation—not just in the natural, through media and screens, but also by projecting ungodly images into our minds and into our dream life.

Hopelessness, fear, and looking at our lack or inability are three attacks that satan is launching to distract us from seeing what God is saying and doing.

The main goal of this assignment is to get us to abort the promise/mission/position that God is calling us to.

Part of the enemy's strategy is to project "what if" and "worst case scenario" imaginations into our minds that would cause us to doubt the goodness of God and submit our authority.

War with the Promises of God & Protect the Season of Preparation

This is a great time to meditate on the promises of God, both written and prophetic, so that we can make war with them when the enemy comes to sow doubt in order to get us to back out of our "yes" to follow Yeshua where He is guiding us.

We must also be careful to protect our hearts and our eyes from making agreements with anyone or anything that's promising a shortcut. We must protect the season of process and preparation so that what we birth in the days to come doesn't ultimately turn out to be either a premature birth or an outright Ishmael. Slowing down to listen to the Lord and His leading, as we make agreements and alignments, will cut back on a tremendous amount of unnecessary spiritual warfare this month.

Do not allow yourself to come into agreement with the voice that says, "Did God really say?" It's a trap. Wait on the Lord before jumping the fence. The restriction you feel right now is God's protection hedging you in and leading you out into the next place.

A Time to Go up to Our Prayer Tower

For some, this is a Habakkuk 2 time where we are being invited to go up to our prayer tower, see what God has to say, and then write out the vision and make it plain.

There is divine strategy waiting to be released along with faith, hope, and tremendous courage to face our challenges.

A Season of Closing the Door on the Past

For others, this is a season of finally closing the door on the past season by tying up loose ends as the door to the new is opened wide before them. I believe this will manifest by way of buying and selling new homes, signing leases on new properties, new business deals, career or job changes, and even changing churches. God might even be asking you to separate yourself from certain friends or even family members right now, just as Abraham did (see Genesis 13).

These big commitments can be scary. It's so important that you follow through with what the Lord has asked you to do. Don't make what you are moving away from an idol by depending on it (or them) before you depend on God. The Lord is everything you need. Seek Him first and everything else will be provided. Don't settle for scraps when the place He is bringing you into is a good place flowing with milk and honey!

A Time to Refocus on the Eyes of Yeshua

For some of you, this is a time to refocus on the eyes of Yeshua and allow Him to give you a fresh perspective.

So many of you have been in such a time of intense warfare that your eyes are stinging from the fog of war. Look at Yeshua and let Him cleanse your heart and mind. Let the water of His Word wash over you and restore your soul.

For those who have made it through the battle, He wants you to see the ways He was actually working all of it out for your good! He is giving you clarity about how to see those who hurt you. He is releasing the power to forgive and release your trespassers. He desires to speak to your identity and to your future, and He wants to give you a glimpse of the great things He has in store for you.

Take your thoughts captive. Cast down every thought or imagination that leads you into fear, despair, or hopelessness. Fix your eyes upon Yeshua and He will show you great and mighty things that you do not know!

"Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know." (Jeremiah 33:3)

Diane Lake:

"All the Doors Are Open Wide"

So much has been written about open doors in this season, and yet the Lord continues to speak to me about open doors, even though we are well into 2024. Most recently I heard the Lord say, "My (the) door is always open, and all the doors are open wide."

As I pondered the meaning of this statement, I remembered what Yeshua told us in John 10:7–9: "...I am the door..." As for what all the doors might be that are wide open, I felt the Lord prompt me to recall all the doors I'd written about in previous post as well as any other doors that various prophetic voices had mentioned.

Some of the doors I recalled are those of strategy and revelation, fulfillment, honor, hope, the wealth of the nations, and abundant, supernatural provision.

It's important to walk through the doors that are open in 2024, and not just move on to the next prophetic word, or to passively assume that what's behind these doors will automatically come to us.

Be Bold! Say Yes

The Lord has been showing me several key elements regarding walking through doors, the first of which is to be bold and say yes.

Recently, I've had several dreams which highlight this. In one dream, I was speaking to a group of people about how, at some point, my husband and I planned to fund an orphanage in India. I described how we'd had a number of prophetic words and dreams in which the Lord showed us He wanted us to do this. (This is actually true. I've had no less than a dozen prophetic words/encounters about this.) Then I said, "We have no idea what we're doing or how to accomplish this, but we've said yes."

A subsequent dream revealed that I would be given the Father's love for these children, which would be a different and much greater love than my own.

In another dream, I'd agreed to host some type of event or gathering. People kept coming and coming—way more people than I'd anticipated. There seemed to be some kids involved too, which I had not planned for, but there were people with skills that appeared who began doing the actual hands-on things that were necessary, without my needing to be involved in the details. This happened in multiple areas in my dream, not just with the kids. I was involved, but it was in an overseeing or supervisory capacity.

A woman approached me in the dream and asked me how I'd put this gathering together. I replied, "Oh, I'm just the person who said yes to hosting this."

Friends, the door the Lord intends you to walk through most likely involves boldness and risk. I feel like the Lord is saying, "I know sometimes it feels like nothing is happening but it is. I am working behind the scenes, orchestrating. There will be a manifestation of a large-scale promotion, soon, of what you will be doing for Me. Be bold. Say yes!"

Master of Breakthroughs

Another key to walking through the doors is to maintain your faith and integrity, and to get the victory. Because, as you may have noticed, the enemy (satan) rises up to meet you as you cross the threshold of opportunity (1 Corinthians 16:9).

Recently, my husband and I experienced a setback due to a vehicle accident that wasn't our fault. The last couple of months have literally felt like a battle—both with the insurance companies and in regard to our health. But one recent morning, I heard in my spirit that we'd turned the corner, so I began to decree and prophesy that we'd turned a corner. Later that day, we received an email with the good news that we would finally be able to move forward with repairs to our vehicle. We have yet to see breakthroughs in some other areas, but I'm confident it's coming.

The Lord brought to mind the passage in 2 Samuel 5:17–20, in which David defeats the Philistines. The context for this passage is that David had just been anointed king over Israel. When the Philistines heard this, they came looking for a fight. Imagine that, promotion is associated with battle!

We read that David went to Baal Perazim, and there the Lord gave David the victory, after which he said, "...The Lord has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water..." (2 Samuel 5:20, NKJV). Baal Perazim could literally be translated, "Master of Breakthroughs."

Sometimes I think God likes to drive home a point. We live on a mountain ranch with a mile of private road to maintain. Every spring after the snow melts, the runoff fills the culverts with silt. By some strange coincidence, at the exact moment I wrote this, my husband was blasting out the culverts with—you guessed it—high pressured water. It takes a huge volume of water, blasted at high pressure, to break through the silt and get the culverts in working order again.

It may feel like you're in a battle, but we serve the Master of Breakthroughs. I prophesy to you that you've turned a corner. Your breakthrough is coming and you're going to recover twice as much as before (Zechariah 9:11–12).

Youth and Health Restored in 2024?

It's intriguing to me that my husband and I celebrated our 44th anniversary in 2024 (in the year of the open door), with four being the value of the Hebrew letter dalet, which is symbolized by a door.

Several nights before our anniversary, my husband had a dream. When he relates his dreams to me, it's always the same. Over coffee, he'll start out by saying something like this: "I had an interesting dream, but it might not mean anything." Then he'll share the dream, and I'll respond with something like this: "Oh my gosh. That's profound (or powerful, or whatever)," because somehow the interpretation seems natural to me, and the dreams he shares usually have divine meaning.

In this dream, he said it was like the clock had been turned back. We were both in high school. We looked young, but it was clear we were married. That's all there was to the dream. We actually went to the same high school; I was a freshman when he was a senior, but we were not a couple back then. After he shared his dream, I commented, "That's a good word!"

To me, the fact that we were teenagers in high school indicates youth and health. The fact that we were clearly married tells me that the Lord plans to restore back to us today, as a married couple, our youthful bodies and our health by essentially turning back the clock.

In all transparency, this dream came at a particularly interesting time. My husband and I work hard to maintain good health; we eat right, stretch, work out, and stay active. But, as I shared earlier, we recently experienced a setback. In spite of this, what if God wants to show off by beginning to turn back the clock so that we end up more youthful and healthier than before?

This is not the first time I've heard the Lord talk about restoring youth and health. Could the door be opening in 2024 for being younger and healthier than before? Perhaps this seems impossible in light of your circumstances, but I invite you to claim this in faith for yourself, if you sense it is for you! As for me, I intend to walk through that door.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy name! Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: who forgives all your iniquities, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from destruction, who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies, who satisfies your mouth with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's." (Psalm 103:1–5, NKJV)

Yvon Attia: "I Am the Master Chess Player"

As I was praying for the month of July, God started to show me a chess board. As I continued to press in, I started hearing the word "checkmate."

I am not a chess player, but I do know that when the word "checkmate" is spoken, it declares that there are no more moves to be made, a victor king is determined, and the game is finished.

I began to hear the sweet voice of God saying, "I am the Master Chess player on the board of life. I have a way of catching the enemy unaware, using the very things he uses to destroy your life. I have not only defeated him, but I also will position you to be blessed. The enemy is positioned for [an] unexpected checkmate moment.

Promises in the Month of July

"Do you think I have brought you this far to leave you? Or do you think that this is the end, and there are no more moves for Me?

"As you enter this month, I declare to you that you are entering the month where My promises over your life will be fulfilled. For I am not a man that I should lie, nor do I promise and not fulfill.

"For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts (see Isaiah 55:9).

A Checkmate Moment

"I here announce to you that I am the Master Chess Player on the board of your life, and the enemy is no challenge to Me.

"You may have thought the enemy is winning, but as you enter this month, I announce to you that the enemy is coming into a checkmate moment. For I am cornering the work of the enemy and will declare that there are no more moves to be made; a place of victory has been established.

"You will hear the prophetic hammer hit as a final position of victory has been decided.

The Month of Exposure

"This is the month of exposure, exposure, exposure! For you will start to align yourself with My victory and begin to walk in the procession of the Victor King.

"Just because you can't see the move, doesn't mean that there isn't one to be made.

"Get ready, for the King has one final move to make—one that will shatter the kingdom of darkness; one that will defeat the enemy unaware and pull you out of your misery. For I have seen your tears, I have heard your cry, and I will fulfill My promises to you.

My Unfailing Love for You Will Never Be Removed

"For the mountains may move, and the hills may disappear, yet My unfailing love for you—My covenant of peace—will never be removed (see Isaiah 54:10).

"You say, 'The Lord has forgotten me.'

"Never. For even if a mother forgets her own child, I will not forget you.

"Pharaoh thought he'd won and chased My people into the sea. Little did he know that he was coming into his checkmate moment. For during the morning watch, I looked upon [the] Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud, and took off their chariot wheels. I closed in on them, and not one person survived. It was checkmate moment.

The Biggest Month of Victory

"Therefore, I declare to you that you are stepping into the biggest month of victory. The King has one more move to make...

"For as I swore to Abraham [that I would] bless him, I declare the same to you, saying, "I swear by Myself that I will bless you, that because [you] hold onto the victory of My Son Yeshua—despite circumstances—this will be your month of victory.

"Lift up your head and be filled with joy, for you will be amazed at the checkmate position, for [you] will be in awe to see Me as the Master Chess Player on the board of your life."

Making the Most Secure Investments
By Steve Loopstra, Director, Your servant in Christ Ministries

Boy, do we live in tumultuous times! I am old enough to remember the assassination of John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King Jr., the attempt on Ronald Reagan, the Cuban Missile Crisis, and the instability and chaos of all those times seem to not compare to what we are seeing in our days. These are indeed days in which we need to know how to live with the right perspective.

And of course, there is a lot of talk these days about the security of our investments. The beginnings of the change from the dollar-based economy, bitcoins, and other types of investments, have risen in these recent years. Should you buy gold, or silver, or invest in foreign currencies? Global investments- how to diversify, and where to concentrate our investments.

We have also seen the effect that these things have on people who make these things the singular focus of their lives, and because of the sinfulness of the human heart end up in many cases destroying their own lives, and the lives of those around them. Because we live in a world that focuses on what can be had and experienced only in this life, it is very easy for even the genuine children of God to get caught up in this, and find themselves wondering off the path of righteousness, and the purposes of God for their lives.

Over the past weeks, the Lord has been, I believe, speaking to me about these issues and how He would want us to invest. Invest in our resources and our lives. So, I want to share with you here a few of those thoughts. I imagine these may not be new things to you, but I also believe, even for myself, I need to be brought back time and again to keep focused on the Truths of God's Word.

I would like to turn our attention to the familiar passage in 2 Peter 3. And I think it is good to start at the beginning of the chapter, because here, Peter is reminding us of the mindset of these last days. Peter says in verses 1-7 that in the last days there will be scoffers. Wow, do we see that in our world today! The idea is those who mock at the truths of the Scriptures and the things of God. These people will be those who are driven by their own evil lusts and desires. Mocking the clear warnings of God concerning the last days and the judgment of God that is to come.

That judgment will come as surely, and in the same manner in which the first global judgment took place in the time of Noah, when God destroyed the world with water. "By which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water." (2 Peter 3: 6).

Then God goes on to state that the heavens and the earth that are now are being reserved for fire until that day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men (vs.7). Peter then, in verse 10 describes this final judgment: "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up."

The words that are used here are very interesting. He says that the heavens will pass away with a "great noise," like a great crashing noise, and the very elements will be dissolved, as if breaking apart, and the earth and "EVERYTHING IN IT" will be burned with fervent heat and be dissolved. Think about this for just a moment. Our science has taught us a lot in recent days about the composition of matter, and of space and of the "elements" that make up the universe. As I have read and did some study in this terminology, this very much describes the breaking apart of everything in the universe at an atomic and even subatomic level. NOTHING will be left... NOTHING Well, all but the souls of those who have lived on this earth, but more on that later.

And then Peter tells us that we are looking for a new heaven and a new earth. Revelation speaks to this as well, in chapter 21, where the Apostle John sees a New Heaven and a New earth, because the old have passed away. Twice in this chapter, of

2 Peter, the Apostle asks us this question: "Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God..." (vs. 11) and in verse 14, "Therefore, beloved looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless." And Peter's final exhortation in light of these truths, in verse 18, "...but grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Yeshua Christ."

Now, let's just step back a minute and think about this. I don't think even most Christians really have their lives; their priorities wrapped around this truth. Here it is – EVERYTHING IN THE HEAVENS AND IN THE EARTH IS GOING TO BE COMPLETELY DISINTEGRATED. The only thing that will be left are the lives of human beings. (I'm not going to get into the issue of our dogs and cats and pets in heaven at this point, ok?)

Not a thing that our eyes are beholding here daily will be left! I mean, just let that sink in. Every part of this physical universe will be dissolved in a blinding, burning flash, and gone forever. So, from that perspective, how do we then talk about "Making the Most Secure Investments?"

Now, that's the setting. And let's take these one at a time. I think first, Peter challenges each of us personally to evaluate how we are living our lives; how are we investing our lives. Peter forces us to ask the very real and personal question, "what kind of persons ought we to be" in light of this coming day of God? And his answer is, first that we should be living in holy conduct, and in godliness, and that we should be found by Him in peace, without spot and blamelessness. Much has been spoken in these days, and I have had this heavy on my own heart, that we are nearing this time, and the Lord is doing a work in these days of purification of His Bride. Things that have been hidden, sometimes for years, are coming to the light. Church leaders are being exposed, false prophets, and ministries are being exposed. God is reminding us that it is our character, and our relationship with Him that will withstand this day of judgment. And Paul reminds us in 2 Corinthians 5 that we will all stand before the Bema Seat of Christ to give an account of how we have lived our lives, what we have invested in, while on this earth. Nothing will be able to be hidden in that day.

Then, Paul goes on to say, that is in light of these truths, "Knowing therefore, the fear of the Lord, we persuade men."

We begin, of course, with our own lives, but then we are called to invest in the lives of others. Oh, there is so much we could say about these things that we don't have time for here. Yes, my friends, I know you have had this in your mind from the beginning. Yes, we need to be good stewards of the earthly gifts and resources we have here and now. We are called to be faithful stewards of those things as the Lord blessed us to provide for our families and those in need. But even in that, knowing that all these material things will melt away and dissolve someday, we put our greater efforts and greater energies into investing into the lives of others. Paul's first focus after the truth of our responsibility before God, was to turn his attention to the souls of men. The souls of men, human beings whose souls will live forever, either in the New Heavens and New Earth where Christ is, or in the lake of fire, in eternal torment forever

The words of Peter in 1 Peter also remind us just how valuable our souls are when he explained what it cost in order to secure our redemption: "Knowing that you were not redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your futile way of life inherited from your forefathers, but with precious blood, as of a lamb unblemished and spotless, the blood of Christ" (1 Peter 1:18-19) As Peter pointed out, the blood Yeshua shed in His death was worth more than silver and gold. God would not have allowed His Son to endure what He did on the cross if our souls were of little value.

For these reasons, our souls are more valuable than anything and everything that exists in the world. This is why Yeshua presented the question: "For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul?" (Matthew 16:26). The answer is implied in the question: There is no profit for trading our souls for the things of this world. Our souls – not just our temporal physical lives, but our entire existence – must be valued above all the riches of this life. If we are to make wise investments to secure our future, we must start by recognizing the need to take care of our souls.

In these perilous and last days, let us take deeply to heart this reminder of where our priorities and investments need to lie. Be wise in our stewardship and be passionate and loving in our investing in the souls of those that God has put into our area of influence. Because, my friend, for all of eternity to come, those are the only investments that will continue to pay dividends forever and ever.

May God give us grace and wisdom to hear and heed His Word. In the Name of Yeshua. Amen.

I HAVE SHARPENED YOU TO DIFFICULTY; I HAVE FORMED AND FASHIONED YOU FOR WAR. BELOVED, WATCH, FOR I HAVE MADE YOU TO BE FRUITFUL EVEN ON THE FRONTLINES OF BATTLE," says God.

"LISTEN, IN THIS HOUR HEAVEN HERALDS THE RISING OF NEW HOPE AND UNPRECEDENTED HARVEST, THEREFORE,, REJOICE, FOR EVEN AS I MAKE KNOWN TO YOU MY DIVINE PURPOSE AND INTENTION FOR YOUR LIFE, SO SHALL I SEND DIVINE INTERVENTION CAUSING YOU TO OVERCOME IN GREATER VICTORY AND KINGDOM INCREASE. FOR THIS IS THE SEASON OF GREATER EMPOWERMENT AND DEEPER ENCOUNTER", says God. I SAY "TAKE HOLD OF MY WORD AND WIN!"

"What, then, shall we say in response to these things? IF GOD IS FOR US, WHO CAN STAND AGAINST US??"

I believe Many are feeling the HEAVY weight of spiritual Warfare in this season, many are experiencing a great spiritual SHIFT AND SHAKE UP. It is so IMPORTANT to remember that in the midst of it all, GOD IS IN CONTROL, AND HE IS FOR US!!! Even as we feel the battle raging, which is unseen by the natural eye, God is sharpening our Spiritual Senses that we may SEE BEYOND THIS PLACE AND MOVE UP EVEN HIGHER.

Listen! There is Supernatural Power available to the Sons and Daughters of God, I see Mighty Angels on assignment around your life and circumstances, Angels that are sent to Assist and Align you for BREAKTHROUGH and to keep us from harm. Today, let's make a choice to FULLY TRUST IN THE LORD RELY TOTALLY ON HIS POWER, WISDOM, AND STRENGTH TO EQUIP, LEAD, AND GUIDE US INTO VICTORY. LET US TRUST THAT HE INDEED BATTLES FOR US IN THIS HOUR, CARETAKERS OF THE HARVEST FIELDS!

I wanted quickly to share something with you all. This morning in my prayer time, I had a short vision, and in this vision, I was shown what looked like a large field of corn. The harvest looked ready. As I looked upon the field I could see what appeared to be giant scarecrows standing in the field. As I looked at them, each scarecrow seemed strategically positioned, some faced the east, some faced the west, some faced the south, and the north. Suddenly I saw what appeared to be a black cloud on the horizon. It moved swiftly across the skies towards the field of corn. As I watched, suddenly, hundreds upon hundreds of large black birds descended upon the field. As they got closer, a mighty wind began to blow upon the field of corn, i watched as the wind moved upon the giant scarecrows causing them to move and begin walking amongst the corn, I watched in amazement as the large black birds began to shriek in terror, afraid of the walking scarecrows, I listened as the shrieked and screamed. I watched as they fled in many different directions, and each black bird disappeared from sight.

My interpretation: the HARVEST IS READY, AND HELL IS NOT HAPPY!!!

I submit, satan has assigned His demonic cohorts to the fields that are READY for Harvest. There is battle that is raging in the heavens, in this hour, for this eternal harvest. But I see angelic warriors, (caretakers of the harvest) standing in the harvest fields, each one is strategically positioned by God. They will only move at the sound of his word and the power of his Spirit wind. They are mighty in strength and mighty in battle. There is no weapon formed against the harvest fields that shall prosper, satan's plans shall not succeed, satan cannot touch the harvest fields of god. Indeed he may try, but I decree, in this hour heaven is heralding the rising of new hope, new life, and unprecedented harvest.

Prophetically, I hear the Sound of New Harvest Songs. I see New Songs being written about the Heavenly Harvest, Songs that have never been sung before. These are Songs that shall Call forth the Harvest that is Ready.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'DO NOT DOUBT YOUR DISCERNMENT'

'Cry out for wisdom. Beg for understanding. Search for it as you would for silver. Hunt for it like hidden treasure. Then you will understand what it means to respect the Lord. Then you will begin to know God. Only the Lord gives wisdom. Knowledge and understanding come from HIM.' (Proverbs 2:3-6 ICB)

'I am your servant; give me understanding, so that I may know your decrees.' (Psalm 119:125 NRSV)

Recently, I heard the Lord say, 'Do not doubt your discernment.' When He spoke these words, I felt such a weight of His heart in this hour, for the urgency of the season. This is a time to be positioned and asking the Lord for wisdom and discernment, but it is also a time to NOT DOUBT the discernment that He is releasing.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard:

'My people, now is the time to allow Me to disciple you in discernment. For these are the days where you need My discernment more than ever before. With the rising of deception and the dabbling in divination, it is imperative that you, My people, are living close to My heart and deep in My Word. 'For I am arming you in this hour with the discernment that is needed for the days ahead. I am arming you and increasing your weaponry, and this weaponry is not to be reasoned out with natural eyes and with man's logic. You must surrender and listen. You must humble yourselves and listen to what I am revealing. For this is a time where I am uncovering that which is hidden in darkness. I am exposing the roots. I am exposing that which has been hidden for many decades, and I am bringing forth that which is impure into the light.

'I am bringing you higher, My people, into a place of seeing and discerning that which I am speaking and that which I am doing, and it requires a humble heart. It requires a heart that is humble, sensitive, and pliable to My Spirit. For I do not speak on man's terms, nor do I speak on man's agenda. I am speaking and revealing in this hour, bringing forth the hidden things both light and darkness.

'My people, do not doubt that which I am speaking. For this is the hour where I am increasing your weaponry with discernment, and you must stay close to Me and deep in My Word to hear and discern what to do with that which I am releasing. For I am not releasing divine intel in this hour to be paraded and passed on. For I will deal strongly with those who take My divine intel and the whispers of My heart and pass on this intel in whispers to others. For I am looking for those that I can trust My intel within this hour. For I am calling you, My people, deeper into the place of intercession. I am calling you deeper into the place of prayer. For the divine intel I am releasing, I am calling you to PRAY. I am calling you to intercede. Stay before Me in deep communion with the insight and divine intel that I am releasing to you, for I will show you what to do. I will lead you, and I will guide you. Do not use my divine intel and what I am revealing to you to gain the ears of others.

'My people, will you receive My refiner's fire upon your hearts to prepare you for the divine intel and discernment I am increasing? Will you allow My fire to purify and refine all that I need to refine and purify to make room for the increase of My discernment in this hour? For I will not allow My divine intel and discernment to be polluted. I will bring My fire and My dealings upon anything that would try to POLLUTE or DILUTE My divine intel and discernment. For I am raising up My Church to live on the offence and not the defense.'

"This is the hour where I am releasing such deep divine insight and revelation, wisdom, and discernment so that you can partner with Me in all that I am doing in the earth. Oh the heights of revelation, wisdom, and discernment that you shall live from as you live deeply rooted in My Word and at My feet; As you lay down agendas and preconceived ideas, to receive that which I am speaking and releasing."

"PAY ATTENTION, My people, to that which I am speaking. Do not disregard your discernment. For to ignore your discernment, and that which I am speaking to you in this hour, would be foolishness. I am bringing you up higher. I am calling you further into My heart and into My Word, and I am giving you divine understanding of the times and seasons as you lean in, live low, and listen."

"I am calling you deeper into My heart to disciple you in discernment. You must allow Me the room to bring the interpretation of that which I am releasing. For pride and preconceived ideas and expectations will hinder your understanding that which I am speaking. You MUST surrender to Me and to My understanding, My strategy, My wisdom, in the outworking of that which I am revealing."

"And I say unto you, that there will be those of you that will be called upon in this hour in a greater way to take a stand upon the discernment I have given you. You will be called to stand upon what I am speaking and revealing. I say unto you, 'DO NOT DILUTE YOUR DISCERNMENT.' You are not to dilute that which I am revealing to you. When these times come, you will carry My heart and My wisdom and My tone to release and speak that which I am calling you to speak. As you marinate in the secret place in which I am speaking and revealing; as you spend time in My presence and knowing My heart and My Word, you will see My heart flow through that which I will call you to speak."

"In the speaking, I release a warning to you, My people. BE SLOW TO SPEAK! Continue to cry out for wisdom upon your release. Speak only when I call you to speak. Do not rush the release of revelation and discernment, for MUCH of what I show you to is not for public view. You will see in the coming days more and more of an increase of My divine intel for the hidden place of intercession.

"I am looking for those that I can trust to carry the very deep secrets of My heart. I am looking for those I can trust with My divine intel, to carry My heart and My insight with purity, humility and integrity.

Do not doubt your discernment in this hour. As I speak, I will confirm. Remain in My Word. It's time to be disciplined in discernment like never before."

Garris Elkins:

"When Our Faith Becomes Thin and Brittle"

The other week, I took my truck to a local tire dealer to have my tires rotated. I have done the tire rotation faithfully every 5,000 miles. My truck is twenty years old, so I've done these rotations faithfully for all of the 119,000 miles of the truck's life. In this particular rotation, a problem was discovered.

As I waited for the technician to rotate my tires, he came out and asked if I would consider replacing my tires. He said I still had a bit of tread left, but it had become thin. I was going to replace the tires before winter, so this wasn't a total surprise. Between now and winter, without a replacement, I would be riding atop a potential problem.

The technician's greatest concern was the cracks appearing on the sidewall of the tires. He then researched my tire history and was surprised by what he found. I installed the tires fourteen years ago! We both looked at each other in amazement. I then agreed to a full replacement of all my tires. My new tires were finally installed, and off I went. As I drove home, I was amazed at how smooth my truck rode with new pliable tires, not the old, hardened ones.

As I normally do, I pondered the tire experience in regard to my faith and the faith of others.

Examining the Tires of Our Faith

The vibrancy of our faith can run for a long time on the old tires of a single experience from our past. We assume we have enough tread left to make it to life's next destination. Maybe someone who was baptized in the Spirit twenty years ago ran on that experience without any future pursuit of the Spirit. Or someone who was once financially faithful to God in the beginning, when their faith was hot and vibrant, now holds God's blessings in a clenched fist out of a fear of loss.

The list of issues that can thin our faith and make us spiritually brittle is long. Our spiritual life needs consistent evaluation to determine its viability.

I once took a seminary class on leadership that our mission's agency paid for to help prepare my wife Jan and me to become advisors in Europe. The class was taught by Dr. Bobby Clinton.

After studying tens of thousands of leaders across all levels of leadership, Dr. Clinton concluded that only thirty percent of leaders finished well. Finishing well was boiled down to just two things: 1) living in a grown intimacy with Yeshua, and 2) making the ultimate contribution to God's Kingdom which the Lord had created them to make. It wasn't measured by success. It was measured by the content of their faith. Finishing well means developing and preserving an ongoing intimacy with God, and, from that intimacy, discovering our ultimate contribution.

Many Believers are riding on balding anointings and brittle understandings of God's nature. This condition came from extended use, without personal renewal. Their intimacy and freshness of their faith had faded over time under the wear and tear of life, without experiencing a renewing encounter with God.

Many of us need new tires upon which to carry our faith into the future.

I have had four distinct Pentecostal experiences over the last fifty years. Each one radically altered the course of my life. Intimacy with God and the spiritual hunger it creates has motivated me to contend for something new that carries me into the future. Each experience of personal renewal has been like installing a new set of spiritual tires. They ensured I would be empowered and protected to travel safely along the future roads of my journey of faith.

"...Look, I am making everything new!..." (Revelation 21:5)

Joey LeTourneau:

"To the Child inside You"

"Then they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. But when Yeshua saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, 'Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the Kingdom of God.'"

(Mark 10:13–14)

Yeshua taught us to pray for His Kingdom to come. It is one of the most prayed prayers we have. Often, while we wait for the answers to those prayers to come from somewhere else, many of the Kingdom answers we ask Him for are already inside of us. That's why this word is for the child inside of you. So much of the Kingdom is waiting to come alive from within that childlike nature, and it's always been right there within us all.

Imagine, just like the passage above, that you are the adult pushing away such childlike ways in order to focus on more esteemed, adult agendas. But Yeshua reaches over to that part of your core, lays His hand on you, and blesses you once again to come alive in such childlike ways. Why? Because these areas cause the Kingdom within you to flourish.

Freedom

A child does not start their life with the restrictions we often later adopt into our thinking; they operate from the spirit and nature God created them with, so much so that they seem to have wings that lift them above all the things that we gradually allow to tether us down to the comfortable, the possible, and the secure. True freedom doesn't come from the outside; it comes from the inside. True freedom is the freedom to live from a security in the Father that is not measured in the world's ways. It is the liberty, by the Spirit, to be WHO we were created to be, and to naturally operate in the areas that follow below.

New Things

A whole, loved child is not afraid of new things. Before fear or reasoning comes in, a child doesn't have as many roadblocks to stepping into new seasons and endeavors with the Lord. When they do enter new seasons, they know to grab the hand of their Father and willingly let Him guide them through. Being free enough to grab that hand and embrace that kind of dependence and surrender is one of the greatest ways forward into the paths and promises so many of us wait for.

We know well the Scripture that says, "Behold, I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth..." (Isaiah 43:19). But it's easy to leave out the part before it and the part after it. Before verse 19, we are told to forget the former things. This could be referencing the ways we're accustomed to or comfortable with. Then, at the end of verse 19, it actually finishes with a question: "Shall you not know it?" It's one thing to declare the new thing of God, but it's another thing to be childlike enough to recognize God's new thing and be dependent enough upon Him to let Him teach us anew how to join Him in it.

Creativity

"Then the Lord showed me four craftsmen. And I said, 'What are these coming to do?' So He said, 'These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no one could lift up his head; but the craftsmen are coming to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nation that lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.'" (Zechariah 1:20–21)

Coming from the image of the Creator Himself, no matter what we might think about ourselves in terms of creativity, we each have a unique area of creativity within us. Whether it's something as obvious as the arts, problem solving, business strategy, or how we parent, creativity is natural to who we were originally created to be.

In the passage above, there was an attack on God's people to scatter them, so what did God do? He empowered creative craftsman to come and terrify the enemy! Did you read that? That is a strong word choice. God uses the creatives and craftsmen to "TERRIFY" the enemy. We can all use our unique authority in Christ, combined with the unique way we've been created in His image, to terrify the enemy and his plans while we build and create from God's original design.

Dream

To dream isn't just some pie-in-the-sky hope for something more, rather, it's one of the primary conception points of how we co-labor with God. Abraham had a dream of a promised child, Isaac. But God dreamed into Abraham's dream saying, Let Me do you one better. You surrender your dream, Isaac, to Me, and I'll turn your dream of one child into as many as the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore. Not only that, but I'll use your dream to accomplish My dream to redeem My family through My Son.

Often, as we grow up, we lose the ability to dream, not because the ability isn't still there—it is—but because we have buried the child in us with a more important, adult agenda, thinking the same way the disciples were thinking in Mark 10:14. We think there are more important things to do than sitting at God's feet, dreaming with Him, and letting Him dream through us.

Believe

Children might not have more than a mustard seed of faith, but that's all it takes, and they naturally know how to use it. They don't use their mustard seed through their thinking, reasoning, or logic. Nope, they abandon their own understanding to trust and acknowledge the Lord with all their hearts, and then God makes paths that weren't there before.

It's basically living out Proverbs 3:5–6 with our hearts and spirits more than our minds. Peter is a great example of our tendency to go in either direction. At one point he reasoned to cut a man's ear off in order to achieve victory for the Messiah, because he was using carnal thinking. But in a previous moment, he was blessed for having expressed 'the rock' on which our Messiah would build His Church, after he gave an answer that Yeshua said could not have come from man, but only out of Peter's living connection with the Father. The adult in us usually thinks one way, and the child inside us leans toward the kind of living faith that Yeshua plans to build His Church upon!

Love and Forgiveness

You've likely heard Yeshua's words about seventy times seven when it comes to forgiveness. A free, whole child does that naturally. Children who are whole are quick to forgive because they value the life that's on the other side of forgiveness more than they value their pride. They are not measuring for themselves; they are measuring for hope and joy! Similar to forgiveness, whole children love others naturally and without condition. They cheer others on without measuring their success as a negative reflection on themselves. They naturally befriend an outcast with compassion, and they gravitate toward pure, godly love in all its forms. This is the kind of love that covers all, and the more childlike we become again, the more we will have the love we need to redeem and restore so much in the world that we fear is lost.

Who You Are over What You Do

I could have just put the word identity here, but I didn't want it to get lost in the familiarity of the word. There's a practical principle of identity that comes with being a childlike son or daughter, and it's important we return to this concept in an everyday form.

Most of us adults live off of what we do. After one's name, it's usually the first question that we ask someone. But when a child starts to live, they live entirely off of who they are. When we put the "do" first, we are often trying to prove something to a lie, a fear, or an insecurity in our minds. "Doing" is important, but so is the order, and what we do is most valuable when it flows first out of "who" we are. When we become secure in who we are as sons or daughters of God, and in the unique part of Him that we carry, that's when our "do" becomes revolutionary in its impact for the lives and world around us.

We have a Dr. Seuss-like chorus about this idea that we've long used, and it is currently a fixture in our children's book, "WHO Am I." It goes like this:

When the BE and the WHO Overtake the WHAT and the DO, That's when fear goes away, And I'm now free to say, I'll be exactly WHO He made me to BE!

Our children skip through the house singing it now, and it's become contagious. We pray it will be contagious for the child inside of you as well. The world, as well as the many people and culture around you, needs the child in you to sing and live this song.

The world needs who you are. The world will be changed by the child inside of you. So, speak life over the child inside of you, and over the children around you too! As Yeshua Himself said, "...for of such is the Kingdom of God" (Mark 10:14).

Daniel Pontious: "Encountering His Face"

While there are a lot of people who describe the glory of God with different adjectives and descriptions in order to understand what it really is, the only way that you can truly even begin to understand it is to really encounter His presence and be transformed by it.

Show Me Your Glory

When Moses was called to come up the mountain by God (Exodus 33), he didn't just have an idle conversation with Him while he was there. He encountered a lot more than he had originally expected.

"And the Lord said, My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest.

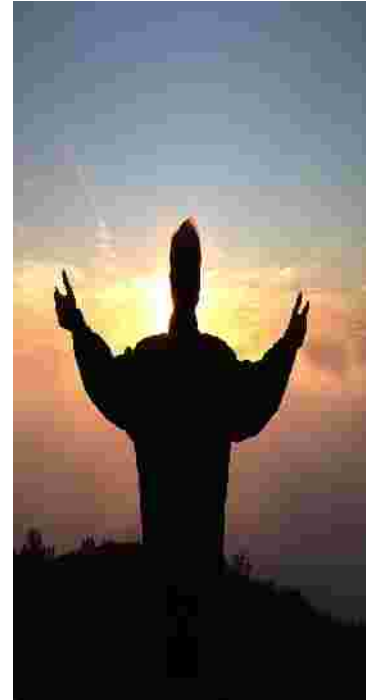

"And Moses said to the Lord, If Your presence does not go with me, do not carry us up from here!

"For by what shall it be known that I and Your people have found favor in Your sight? Is it not in Your going with us so that we are distinguished, I and Your people, from all the other people upon the face of the earth?"

"And the Lord said to Moses, I will do this thing also that you have asked, for you have found favor, loving-kindness, and mercy in My sight and I know you personally and by name.

"And Moses said, I beseech You, show me Your glory.

"And God said, I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim My name, THE LORD, before you; for I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy and loving-kindness on whom I will show mercy and loving-kindness." (Exodus 33:14–19, AMPC)

I Know You by Name

While Moses was petitioning for God to send His presence with them, he actually encountered the Lord in a way that he hadn't anticipated originally, because the Lord made a statement to Moses that was purely relationship oriented, prior to Moses' request to see His glory.

God said, "I KNOW YOU PERSONALLY AND BY NAME." This statement gave Moses the boldness (and the access point) to go into deeper levels of intimacy with God than he had ever experienced before, but with the stipulation that Moses couldn't see His face and live (see Exodus 33:20).

It was only at this point that God said, "I WILL MAKE ALL OF MY GOODNESS PASS BEFORE YOU." His glory really is His goodness! The more that we actually encounter Him, the more we begin to understand just how good He really is.

Encountering His Face

While Moses wasn't actually allowed to see God's face (because the blood of Yeshua Christ had not yet been shed for us), now that Yeshua Christ has provided His blood and His cross for us, we have access to not only His glory, but His face as well.

"For God who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts so as [to beam forth] the Light for the illumination of the knowledge of the majesty and glory of God [as it is manifest in the Person and is revealed] in the face of Yeshua Christ (the Messiah)." (2 Corinthians 4:6, AMPC)

While some may say that seeing Yeshua Christ is different than seeing the Father, Yeshua actually told His disciples, "...Anyone who has seen Me has seen the Father. How can you say then, Show us the Father?" (John 14:9, AMPC).

Transformed into His Image

While His glory is His goodness, that goodness gives us an opportunity to encounter His face as we engage with it, so that we can be transformed by the renewing of our minds through those personal encounters with Him by the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Each one of us, as sons and daughters of God, have the ability (through the inheritance of Yeshua Christ) to not just approach the throne of grace, but to encounter His face each day a little more so that He can continue to transform us into His image, from glory to glory.

It's time that we stopped hanging out in the outer courts of God's presence. It's time to ask the Holy Spirit to show you His face so that you can be changed by His grace, His mercy, and His presence! His glory is awesome, but encountering His face is life-altering!

Show us Your face, O Lord, that we may know You, and transform us more and more as we encounter You. In the mighty name of Yeshua Christ!

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'MY FIRE IS COMING UPON
THE STEWARDSHIP OF MY SECRETS'

I heard the Lord say:

"There is a great test in this hour, and it is the test of stewardship of My divine intel and My secrets. For My eyes are roaming the earth looking for those that I can entrust with the very secrets of My heart. "

"I say unto you, a great exposing is coming as My fire falls: to reveal those who will carry My heart and steward My secrets with purity, integrity, humility, and secrecy. I say unto you, My people, that I am raising up the secret agents of My heart in this hour, those who will carry My divine intel and steward My intel at MY leading. Those who will not parade, misuse or prostitute My revelation and My divine intel, but those who will move only on My instruction and leading in the stewardship of My secrets. For I say unto you that there will be many times in this hour where you will hear Me say to you, 'You are sworn to secrecy.' There are things that I will be exposing, revealing, and releasing in this hour that are to be kept between you and I."

"For in this season of unprecedented acceleration in revelation and divine intel, it does not equate to the rapid release of revelation. For there is much that I am releasing in this hour that is for the purpose of intercession and for the heart-to-heart sharing between friends. I am looking for those in this hour whom I trust as My friends. I am looking for those who will not use My intel and revelation to be 'seen,' to 'parade revelation,' or to build their own kingdom. For there is a great shaking coming upon My people in the stewardship of My voice and divine intel. I am looking for those that I can trust and entrust with the secrets of My heart."

"These secret agents of My heart that I am raising up in this hour have no desire to be seen by man, but they are ones who are living seen by Me. They are those who are living before Me, the audience of One. For I say unto you, that many have been moving in elitism with revelation that they are carrying, but this is the hour to come deeper still in humility to hear what is on My heart. For I am calling you, My people, deeper into discernment. I am calling you into the humble place of partnering with My Spirit, to be disciplined in discernment. For the hour is urgent and I continue to call out: for many are

‘Watch My fire that is coming in a greater way upon the stewardship of My voice. Watch the refining and watch the increase of discernment and intel in this hour. For it is My desire to raise up My people who live from the place of deep intimacy with Me — and they live carrying My heart without agenda. For the hour is coming where I am bringing you, My people, into a realm of deeper discernment: to see and perceive that which I am doing and what I am speaking. I am looking for those who will receive that which I am revealing, and they will carry this intel with purity.’”

“For I say unto you, that I am releasing divine intel not to be passed on as ‘intelligence’ between people. I am not releasing and increasing discernment to be released in the wells of gossip. For My fire is increasing and My fire is going to shake and reveal ALL the misuse of My voice. I am bringing forth a DEALING of My hand upon those who are using discernment for division and divisiveness. I am looking for those who will carry My discernment with PURITY and with My heart, and not misuse that which I am releasing.”

“Watch in the time ahead, for the shaking that will come. Watch how I will bring a separation between those who hear My voice and carry My secrets with deep purity and sensitivity — those who are able to keep My secrets and will only release that which I am speaking at My command — and between those who are using My revelation and intel to feed ambition. I have been shaking, and I will continue to shake in greater ways, that which is built on ambition, pride, and self-promotion. I am bringing down these structures: only that which is built on Me and by Me will remain.”

“There is a fire coming upon the prophetic stream to cleanse and purify, in a greater way, of selfish ambition, pride and the misuse of revelation. I will not tolerate the polluting of My heart, My intel, and My divine secrets. I am raising up My Bride to walk in purity and discernment and intel in the days ahead: to see MY Kingdom and MY plans in the earth extended — not to be used to extend the kingdoms and plans of man.”

“My eyes are roaming the earth. I am looking for those I can trust to carry My heart. I am calling you forth, secret agents of My heart. I am calling you to report for duty, the duty of carrying My intel and My secrets in a greater way. The greatest test in this hour is the test of keeping your mouth closed when I have sworn you to secrecy. Listen to Me, My people. BE SLOW TO SPEAK! I am looking for My friends that will carry and listen to My heart without agenda, and Oh, the Glory you shall see. Oh, My Glory that shall be revealed in your midst. Oh, My Majesty that shall be seen in your midst. Oh, the weight of My Glory that shall be in your midst, that will leave you prostrate before Me. (see Exodus 33:11)"

"The secrets of My heart and the depths of the inner chambers of My heart that I am leading you into, you have never been into before. Oh, the mysteries you shall see and receive. Much of what I am revealing to you in this place is for intercession and for the days ahead to see, know, and perceive that which I am speaking, and to govern with Me from the secret place. My fire is coming upon My Church, where there has been a prostitution of revelation. Watch now, as I speak, and the thunder of My voice comes forth: it will leave you prostrate before Me."

Lorilei Cooley: "Kairos Timing: God Says,
'I Have Saved the Best for Last'"

God's Impeccable, Perfect Timing

There are several things that the Lord has been highlighting to me that are about to come to pass in this season. Some of the things I have repeated over and over, but I am sensing the tangible manifestation and swift movement of the Spirit of God upon His people. Many things will be manifesting in order and synchronizing with His word and His timing in this season. The impeccable and perfect timing of the Lord is upon many!

New Alignments and Assignments

First, there are new alignments here, and you must let go of old alignments. Let the Lord continue to separate you, as He has been doing, so that you can go forward not only into the new alignments, but into your new assignments as well.

The old alignments will keep you stuck and hinder you in your new assignments. It is time to let go and move forward.

Your Tribe Is Here

Second, your tribe is here. He is connecting you to the tribe that will run with you, build with you, and will be there for you as He catapults you into the assignments and callings that He has placed on your life.

Many of you have been preparing for years for this season that we have entered into. This is the time to emerge, break through, and build that which the Lord is leading and telling you to build.

Heaven's Kairos Timing Colliding with Earth

Next, this is a time where we will see the kairos timing of the God of Heaven colliding with our Chronos time, supernaturally, bringing about the fulfillment of His word and the demonstration of the power of His word. That which He has spoken to you is true and undeniable, and He alone is the only one who will bring it to pass for you. You will be in the right place at the right time, back-to-back, and be filled with the wonder of how He did it. The impossible is becoming possible!

Promises Fulfilled

He is fulfilling promise after promise, and there will be breakthrough after breakthrough; it will be a monumental fulfillment of promises that He has made over your life! Promises that He made many years ago, He is now bringing to fruition. Fulfillment of your destiny is tied to the promises, and hence, it has been a relentless battle to get you to this season to see its fulfillment.

The Lord highlighted Sarah and Abraham to me. I felt the Lord say that many have seen barrenness instead of promises fulfilled. He specifically highlighted this verse:

"By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered Him faithful who had promised."

(Hebrews 11:11)

Many of you think that you have missed it, or that the breakthrough has been delayed or stolen, or that you made a wrong turn during the constant waiting, thinking that you are now going to have to go around the mountain again. But you have to remember that He works all things for good, and it is not yet time for the fulfillment of the promise.

Your Kairos Moment

I sense the Lord saying, "It is now time." Many of you are about to receive power through the Holy Spirit to conceive the manifestation of the promise. He is breathing life into it.

I sense the Lord moving powerfully upon His word and the faith of those who have stood in the midst of brutal warfare, pain, and loss—not knowing if the promise would ever come to pass. However, He is faithful, true, and cannot lie. The Lord is bringing your kairos moment of fulfillment to pass any day now.

I Have Saved the Best for Last

I sense the Lord saying, "Many have waited, and waited, and waited some more—an endless waiting, it appears. Your waiting has not been in vain. You have waited on Me and My timing.

"I will do 'Ephesians 3:20' over the fulfillment of all that I have spoken and promised to you. No stone will be left unturned, for the appointed time has come, and I am doing only what I, the Lord, can do.

"The sorrow, grief, and pain that you have endured to get to this moment in your life will be no match to the restoration, joy, and fulfillment that I the Lord will bring into your life. I have saved the best for last."

Study to show yourself approved.”

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, “Study to show yourself approved.” (2 Timothy 2:15) Study and be eager and do your utmost to present yourself to God approved (tested by trial), a workman who has no cause to be ashamed, correctly analyzing and accurately dividing [rightly handling and skillfully teaching] the Word of Truth.
