

Tishrei 5785: The New Year,
Kingdom are at war over the Kingdom of this world.
Dr. Wade Butler

Every Tishrei opens up to War going on. This year I saw Turmoil and Chaos in the Heavens like never before. There were tornados of war taking place throughout the Heavens above the earth. Debris and filth were being pulled upward into the atmosphere. Angel Armies engaged the enemy in fierce combat for the prize of Earth. The Debris of Corruption and Wickedness is being exposed in every corner, every nation, government, and many churches. I live in Texas, called the Bible Belt, and the DFW area would be considered the Belt Buckle. It is a prize to be envied by all. In the last six weeks multiple church leaders have fallen, destroying the very fabric of denominations and schools. People are hurting; disappointed at leadership in the churches, while corrupt political officials are displaying their agendas based on false promises, lies, and greed. Our LORD has had enough.

In looking at all of what is going around us and with the friends and prayer partners I pray with, and I am amazed at the level of war and word we are dealing with today. For years I would teach on the Tribulation and end times. It looks like we are there, yet so much more must happen. So, I went before our LORD and asked; "What is going on." His reply was, "Do you Remember I said to you last month that we are entering into the season of 'RE'; well you are there. Look again."

From the month of Elul 5784. Immediately Yeshua spoke and said, "You are entering a year and season of the RE."

"Apply the Blood and Repent, Renew, Restore, Revive, Refill, Resurrect, Reconstruct, Redevelop, Reconstitute, Renovate, Redeem, Reemerge, Rebuild, Return, Repair, Recall, Reform, Reflect, Rejoice, Reward, Revalue, Receive, Release, Revelation, Relax, and most of all Remember what MY BLOOD has done for you and Remember the time we have been together."

I would be amiss as a watcher if I did not sound the alarm! Throughout this devotional the prophetic word is be prepared. We are at war greater than most men and women have ever seen. Again, Sound the Alarm!

Carefully Read the word of the LORD received by Barry Wunsch on 9/18.

Barry Wunsch, the Canadian Hammer:

Prophetic Word: October is going to run hot, and the weight of MY Glory is going to be on you! September 18, 2024, 4:36 am MST.

I was awakened at 4:30 am on September 18, 2024. This is the word the LORD gave me.

"Barry, there is a red moon rising. The one tonight is a sign for my people. They are pushing Putin too far. And yes, they knew exactly what they were doing. The gate is closing."

Barry, tell my people they are playing with fire. What is about to come is something they have never seen before. It is Apocalyptic in nature if they had their way. They will not play fair. They are like blood thirsty animals, driven by the demonic Prince of Persia. This has been centuries in the making.

The Bear, the Dragon, and the Eagle are at the center of it all. Tensions have never been higher. The Conditions are tinder dry. One more spark in the wrong place and it will be game on.

There is a new year coming only days away on my calendar, not theirs. Let ME be clear. It is I who controls time and holds eternity in MY hands; No other! This is not east versus west as much as it is GOD versus evil, light versus darkness. And I win, for I AM the light! There are things that cannot be avoided. There are things that have to play out. There are things that cannot be stopped. There are things that have to take its course. Do not think that you have figured it out. There is nothing in the days gone by that compares to what is about to take place.

Man has been speculating for Centuries over these things that I have hidden. It is time to put speculations aside; it is time for action. There is a merging together that is upon you now for the people, regions, and nations in the light to stand up in the authority that I have given them and drive out this present darkness! Conflict is unavoidable. There is no way around it.

Again, I say unto you do not fear! For I am bringing freedom to the Nations. Do not resist it. And do not sit idly by. They are not appraised of MY weapons that are in MY hand!

So, The question is, who is with ME?

Who is prepared to walk with ME?

Who is prepared to follow ME?

Who is prepared to work with ME to bring Heaven down to earth?

Who is prepared to help tear it down?

Who is prepared to rebuild?

Who has counted the cost?

Did you think for a minute that I would do it alone?

I have always worked with MY people.

Those who are called according to MY Name.

They can do nothing without ME, but as they move and walk in faith, I will bring the victory time and time again. And I shall get all the Glory and Honor. For what is needed is impossible without ME!

The deep state is already on their back foot! I am about to wake up the masses! Scales will fall off of their eyes! They will be calling out unto MY name! They will run to the Altar! They will cry out in repentance. As they turn from their wicked ways, I will heal their land.

Again, October is going to run hot! The weight of MY Glory is going to be upon you!"

Last year, our LORD said, "Come up here" to the group I was praying with, and we were swept up, not to the Third Heaven, but rather, above the earth to see what HE was seeing.

The world was on fire. Half of Africa, a major portion of Canada, and the US were blazing from man-made fires set to destroy areas for evil reasons. I asked, "What are you saying about these disasters LORD?" He said, "Watch what I am about to do". Instantly we were hovering over Greece and He asked, "What do you see?" My response was olive trees of and not the reported fires, but The Humanistic mind set and secular humanism." He Said, "watch," and His Breath like an all-consuming fire, instantly evaporated the fires of Human thought and mindsets.

Next, He took us over Canada, just above Vancouver, British Columbia. He again asked, "What do you see?" I replied, the seat of human trafficking on the west coast along with Seattle. Again, instantly, golden and royal blue rain drops began to fall and put out the fires of perversion. Yet, I realized it was not rain but reign, HIS Reign that fell over the land.

Canada is being destroyed from within. The corrupt regime of Prime Minister Trudeau has all but given the nation to illegals. Anyone can join the military, even if they are not Canadian, regardless of their backgrounds... Trans people can join and claim any sex they desire; do not have to cut their hair according to regulations, plus he has done away with the uniforms of the branches of military, as they are now Canadian Military. Loyal, dedicated Canadians are resigning the service at an alarming rate. Educated Military leaders are few, and the military is understaffed. International and NATO troops are the primary strength in the nation. A vote of no confidence is on the table for immediate resolve. Our current US administration wants to take the US down the same road.

Then we were immediately over Maui, looking at the destruction of manmade evil intent, and He asked, "What do you see here?" I replied, The double mindset of the governments of man. He then said, "Take hold of MY Scepter and strike the seal of the military base hidden from man." At that strike, an earthquake shook the governments of the world resulting in destruction of all the nation's rulers and laws. "Watch as I do this thing, and new life is birthed across the nations as I burn away the dross of mankind." The vision ended.

We are at war for the hearts and souls of our lands throughout the world. This is the month of devout prayer, repentance, and release. The daily words in this calendar are packed full of power. Take the time to read and study. Pray without ceasing and release the Angel armies.

It has gotten worse; the heavens above the earth are on fire with war. Angel Armies are engaged to expose, tear down, and destroy the plans of the enemy.

Take the time to read and study. Pray without ceasing, and release the Angel armies.

The Amplified, King James, New American Standard, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word and begin on the new moon each month.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophecy/ The answer is to ask the LORD, "How did this relate in the Bible for then, and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me to pray, Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide, prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. (See last page.) Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heidler, and many other contributing authors which are included.* 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

It has been seven years beginning in June since we started publishing the Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle, so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1, the very first words GOD speaks are, "In the beginning," and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon". From that point on the nation of GOD was to look at the Moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day. On September 18, a "Harvest, Red Moon filled the skies" signifying a transition of time and importance unlike years past. (as noted by Barry Wunsch)

Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last, seventh, 1,000 years of days, would be the time being the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle has only 29.5 days, or 354 days per year, whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous years is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon". The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast, and season.

Chuck Pierce: Here are just a few of the words given for the season we are entering into.

The Feast of Tabernacles begins Wednesday October 16th and ends on the evening of October 22nd. Tabernacles is a time to enjoy the Lord and celebrate His goodness. Leviticus 23:40 says, "Rejoice before the Lord your God for seven days." Deuteronomy 16:14-15 says, "Be joyful at your feast for the Lord your God will bless you and your joy will be complete." When this Feast was outlined in Leviticus 23:39-43, it not only remembered the Exodus from Egypt when the Israelites wandered in the wilderness, living in tents, enroute to the Promised Land, but also celebrated the abundance of God's blessings in connection with the ingathering of the fall harvest. This is a wonderful time to gather with friends and family and rejoice over the Lord's goodness and provision.

The Feast of Tabernacles is a celebration of God's glory. This is a time to remember past experiences of His glory, to seek His face and experience His glory now, and a time to call out to God for a fresh outpouring of His glory in the new year. One week a year, God asks His people to tabernacle with Him. God promised a special blessing for those who would do this. Part of celebrating Tabernacles is to bring an offering as an expression of thanks to God. Deut. 16:16-17 says, "No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed: Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed you." When we express our thankfulness in giving, it opens our heart to receive even more.

Tabernacles is a time to celebrate the fact that God tabernacles with His people. He wants His glory to be a normal part of our experience. He tabernacled with Israel in the wilderness. He tabernacled on earth in Yeshua, and He continues to tabernacle with us today through His Spirit! As you celebrate Tabernacles, call out to God for His glory to come and dwell with you.

Contending for Joy!

The Lord has a purpose to move any desolation into a new level of abundance. From the beginning, when God saw the Earth in confusion and chaos, He planned for a people who would move from chaos into multiplication. He spoke! Chaos subsided, and abundance began. This is the essence of spiritual life. When Yeshua, Yeshua of Nazareth, defined why He came or was sent to Earth, He said in John 10:10, "... I came that they might enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, until it overflows)." Many Christians, even those who are seeking to understand their earthly purpose, never realize that the One who was sent to redeem them purposed them to "enjoy life." Prior to this portion of the verse, we find Yeshua declaring, "I AM the Door! Anyone who enters in through Me will be saved (will live). He will come in and he will go out [freely] and will find pasture. The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy." (AMP). This is meant to help you enter the Door (called Christ) into a new dimension of abundance.

We have approximately 75 people that work for this ministry. Several years ago, I was sitting in my office in a quandary because I knew I needed to give a Christmas bonus for those who had served so faithfully all year long. I know that the holidays can be a tremendous blessing, but very stressful as well. I heard the Lord remind me of one of the key verses that have directed my life – the one I quoted above from John 10. However, His voice illuminated deep within my spirit with the portion of that scripture that says *I came that you might ENJOY LIFE.

I knew I had to move by faith. Faith comes from hearing ... hearing when the Spirit of God speaks to us. Faith's counterpart is presumption. Therefore, one must be sure they have heard the voice of God. The Spirit of God spoke to me and said, "Enjoy those who have served, and bless them." I knew I was to take what we did not have and bless each one who had served. Joy began to overwhelm me. By the next morning, all that I had given (which was a substantial amount) was already on the way through the mail. The real miracle was that something changed in me. Anxiety from trauma that I had carried for years and years and years had lifted. That old, bad friend was gone, and the joy of the Lord had replaced that portion within my soul and spirit.

We have been in great warfare. Warfare is conflict, and in the midst of the conflict we can lose our joy. Joy produces strength. When we do not sense the life of Christ flowing through us, we need to ask the Lord, "What has happened to my passion? In the midst of my circumstance, Lord, did I just get tired and quit withstanding?" In truth, we can pray until we are green. We can do all sorts of religious activities. But if we do not resist the enemy in the midst of that trial (the temptation toward passivity and all other temptations), and if we don't allow the trial to bring the working of the Cross into us, then we won't really enter into the passion and fullness of life that the Lord intends. Having God's passion as we walk in wisdom and revelation is the key to protecting ourselves from becoming outwitted by the enemy.

Yeshua, Himself, prophesied that a triumphant people, filled with Father's revelation, would arise, and prevail against Hell's gates. This people will do exploits! They will take resources and multiply or change them into a new form to be used today. These people are an apostolic people. They are a modern people, yet look very much like those who crossed over the Jordan River 476 years after God spoke them into existence when He communicated to their Father, Abraham. The Gates of Hell will not be able to withstand this people. We are a people that will build a new prototype for today and unlock a Kingdom mentality that hell cannot withstand.

Rosh Hashanah starts on October 3, 2024, at 6pm. It is the head of the year.

In the same way that the head directs the actions of the body, the first day of Tishrei, Rosh Hashanah, is the head of the year spiritually. It is the anniversary of the day that God created man. All the other creations, which receive their life force from God, who is sometimes called "soul of the universe," have no possible means of responding to Him. We can respond with our voice, the shofar, our dedication, and more importantly, obedience and love.

Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar].

Yom Kippur is the heart of the year. It is a day of forgiveness and reconciliation in which we can fearlessly enter the forest within us to explore the deepest parts of our lives, the areas that are too shadowy for us to see or even want to see. When we examine ourselves honestly, inevitably, we will find that we have at times blocked out our ability to see more than life's superficial side. No one is perfect, and in fact, one of the greatest problems that we have is that we must at least fool ourselves into believing in our own perfection. We rationalize, reframe, and deny away our spiritual and moral failures.

On Yom Kippur, we can look deeper and more honestly at ourselves. We will find that underneath all the layers there is goodness, purity, and yearning.

God imbued this day with the power to let us tear aside all the curtains, and see ourselves not as we have become, but as we want to be. We would never be able to achieve this level of redefinition on our own. Yom Kippur is a day in which God channels down forces that open the doors for us. We can be brave and honest enough to walk through the doors joyously, or we can close our eyes to their existence.

God will not force anyone to open the door.

Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

Barely a few days pass, and Tishrei shows another aspect of the internal workings of reality. Sukkot arrives, and we celebrate our newly won closeness to God by moving into a sukkah, a shack-like structure with no permanent roof. For a full week, we reverse most of what we do the rest of the year. Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

We let our sensitivity to the spiritual bond that we have with every Jew, regardless of who he is, find expression in the four species of plants that the Torah commands that we take and bless. The lulav (palm branch) which has a taste but no smell, is compared to a Jew who is intellectually aware of the Torah's truth but doesn't let it flow down to affect his deeds. The etrog (citron) has both taste and smell, and is compared to one who is fortunate enough to have both knowledge and good deeds express his personality. The hadassim (myrtle) has smell and no taste, symbolizing a person with deeds but nothing to back it up with intellectually. Finally, the aravot, (willow) which has neither taste nor smell, which we hold with the same devotion as the etrog which has both, is the icon of one who lives in a world in which there is no consciousness and no deeds. He too is part of our people, and we need to love him unconditionally just as much as he needs our unconditional love.

Tishri's last holiday, Simchat Torah, says it all. There is a world out there. We want to learn it, love it, and navigate it. We will never allow ourselves to content our minds and hearts with its outer contours. We'll walk its spiritual alleys and streets, and we'll follow the instruction book that reveals the blueprint that is the core of its being. We'll let our spiritual and physical joy at having a map that reveals it all take us over. (Rebbetzin Tziporah Heller).

IT CORRESPONDS TO THE TRIBE OF EPHRAIM

The month of Tishrei is the month of Ephraim, the second son of Joseph. Ephraim went before the firstborn, Manasseh, like Jacob and Esau. This is the month to be fruitful and multiply.

The first, and foremost, leader who emerged from Ephraim was Joshua – the servant and closest disciple of Moses. He was a beautiful example of a moon to Moses' sun. The Sages of Israel describe how "Moshe's countenance was like the sun, and Yehoshua's was like the moon... he only reflected what he received from Moshe" (Bava Batra 75a). This also is a beautiful description of Yeshua, the Messiah. Yeshua reflected the Father's glory, and he shared the Word of truth and life given him by the Father, as we read in these verses from the gospel of John:

"... the One who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from Him." (8:26).

Yeshua answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me..." (8:54).

In turn, as we lift our lives before the Throne of Mercy on Rosh HaShanah, we remember that we are to reflect the light of the Son. He has brought us from darkness into the light of the Kingdom of God, and we now are enabled to carry that light into the darkness... for the Father's glory. (Keren Hannah Pryor).

Ephraim — "be fruitful and multiply."

Characteristics: The 7th month, and all sevens are important: "completion, fullness." The month of the "Fall Feasts" – Returning to God and experiencing His Glory. The month to "touch" – Mt. 9 – Remember the woman who pressed through to touch Him. The month linked with awakening and removing that which would keep you from returning.

In the Bible, Tishrei is "the month of the strong" or "the month of the ancients." With respect to the reckoning of years, Tishrei is the first month of the year. In the reckoning of the months, Tishrei is the seventh month, the month of completion and perfection.

Tishrei is the month of "fall feasts," when we are to return to God and experience His glory.

WE LOOK TO THE FUTURE THIS MONTH! *

Keeping with the Lord's harvest theme -- the harvesting of souls -- some believe that this could potentially be the time of the rapture in the future. Symbolically, it is possible that the 7 days of festival could represent the seven years of tribulation and at the same time, seven years of marriage supper celebration in heaven (feast of 7 days = 7 years per Bible prophecy). The blowing of the trumpet at the beginning of the celebration is analogous to the trumpet that will sound when the rapture occurs, followed by a 7-year period where simultaneously there is the marriage supper celebration occurring in heaven (indicated by the seven feasting days in Nehemiah 8:18), and the seven years of tribulation on earth.

The Times of Tishrei: Introduction, Kevin D. Vincent

Tishrei is the month in the biblical calendar when three feasts are celebrated: Trumpets, Yom Kippur, and Tabernacles. The first of these is celebrated on the first day of Tishrei. It is also called New Year or Rosh HaShanah (although the biblical first month is actually Nisan). These feasts of Tishrei are prophetic of the age when the Messiah comes and begins to reign.

Christians see this as the Second Coming, but Jews see it as the first coming. Both refer to the same Messiah and the same time.

It is the purpose of this study to highlight the scriptures that speak of the Messiah and His coming through a series of daily prayer guides matching the days of Tishrei. At the end of this study and prayer I hope that the reader will have a better understanding of the Times of Tishrei and their future fulfillment.

Christians have neglected to observe these feasts of Tishrei. Consequently, they have also not given proper attention to the very clear teaching in Scripture of the Messiah's return. Jewish people have always observed the three feasts, but it is my impression that many fail to realize the significance of the feasts themselves.

The Tanach, called the Old Testament by Christians, contains very specific details about the course of Gentile world history. It is a simple matter to look at the prophecies and check them against actual, verifiable events accepted by historians everywhere. World events have confirmed prophecy in the past. Given the fact that such prophecies are fulfilled, we can have confidence in the prophecies yet to be fulfilled. I feel that the month of Tishrei is that time of the year when we should be focusing on those prophecies.

It is not enough to read about such prophecies. It is necessary to read the actual prophecies themselves and meditate on them. With this in mind, this study matches 26 of the 30 days of Tishrei with four Biblical books. Daniel is pre-eminently the book of end times prophecy in the Tanach/Old Testament. Some of its visions were given to Gentiles to be interpreted by a Jewish prophet, Daniel, in exile in a gentile land, Babylon. The twelve chapters of the book of Daniel are covered in days one to twelve in Tishrei. The remaining days of Tishrei are allocated to chapters from the book of Zechariah. Each chapter from the books of Daniel and Zechariah is matched on an opposing page by a chapter from Matthew or Revelation. The latter book, sometimes called the Apocalypse, consists of revelations about end times given to John, a Jew also in exile in a gentile country – the island of Patmos.

Although there is not an exact chronological match of sequence between the Old Testament chapters selected and those of the New Testament, the commentary points out similarities and connections and makes clear the pattern.

My hope is for readers to become excited by the precision of the word of God to the extent that they will trust the prophecies for their future fulfillment. Daniel describes the times of the Gentiles and shows that these times will come to an end, and then the Messiah will set up His kingdom and reign from Jerusalem. God's plans for Jew and Gentile shall be fulfilled.

When Ezra and Nehemiah returned from the exile in Babylon and began rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem, they also began to read, from morning to midday and in public, the Book of the Law of Moses (Nehemiah 1.1-2) before the assembled people. The day they started this was the first day of the seventh month, that is, on the feast of trumpets. The result of this reading was that people rediscovered the Word of God and believed it. Let us today also read the Word and believe it.

10 Days of Awe

Preparation for Revelation. This day is called New Year's Day and is observed as such in Israel, but in the Bible, it is called the Feast of Trumpets. The feast points to the regathering of Israel by God to their land for blessing. This regathering is connected with a trumpet call in Isaiah 27.13: "So it shall be in that day, the great trumpet will be blown; they will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria, and they who are outcasts in the land of Egypt and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount in Jerusalem."

The name "Rosh Hashanah" (Hebrew: ראש השנה) means, literally, "head of the year" or "first of the year." Rosh Hashanah is commonly known as the Jewish New Year. This name is somewhat deceptive, because there is little similarity between Rosh Hashanah, one of the holiest days of the year, and the American midnight drinking bash and daytime football game. There is, however, one important similarity between the Jewish New Year and the American one: Many Americans use the New Year as a time to plan a better life, making "resolutions." Likewise, the Hebrew New Year is a time to begin introspection, looking back at the mistakes of the past year and planning the changes to make in the new year, continuing through the Days of Awe and Yom Kippur.

It is the first of the High Holidays or Yamim Noraim ("Days of Awe"), celebrated ten days before Yom Kippur.

Rosh Hashanah is observed on the first two days of Tishrei, the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar. It is described in the Torah as יום תרועה (Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar]).

Shabbat Shuvah ("Sabbath [of] Return" שבת שובה) refers to the Shabbat that occurs during the Ten Days of Repentance between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Only one Shabbat can occur between these dates. This Shabbat is named after the first word of the Haftarah (Hosea 14:2-10) and literally means "Return!"

Yeshua and Rosh Hashanah

Rosh Hashanah is known as the Day of Judgment. At the final judgment spoken of in Revelation 20:15, we read that "anyone whose name was not found recorded in the Book of Life was thrown into the lake of fire." The book of Revelation tells us that the Book of Life belongs to the Lamb, Yeshua Christ (Revelation 21:27). The Apostle Paul maintained that the names of his fellow missionary companions were "in the Book of Life." (Philippians 4:3)

Tishrei in Hebrew History

- 1 Tishrei (c. 3760 BCE) – Adam and Eve were created, according to one opinion in the Talmud.
On Tishrei 1 -- the sixth day of creation -- "G-d said: 'Let us make Man in Our image, after Our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth...'" (Genesis 1:26). "G-d formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul" (ibid., 2:7). "And G-d took the man and placed him in the Garden of Eden, to work it and to keep it" (2:15). "And G-d said: 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helpmeet opposite him' ... G-d caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; and He took one of his sides and closed up the flesh in its place. And G-d built the side which He had taken from the man into a woman and brought her to the man. And the man said: 'This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.' Therefore, a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife; and they become one flesh" (2:18-24).
- 8 Tishrei (c. 946 BCE) – 14-day dedication of Solomon's Temple begins.
- 10 Tishrei (c. 1313 BCE) – Moses returns from a final trip to Mount Sinai, bearing a second set of tablets and a message of forgiveness for the Golden Calf.
- 10 Tishrei The beginning the Yom Kippur War in 1967.
- 15 Tishrei The Beginning of The Feast Of Tabernacles. The day Christ was born.

Part 4: Atonement without blood

YHVH Himself became a "little Sanctuary" for exiled Israelites

by Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch); edited by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)

God used Jeremiah and Ezekiel to communicate some very important words to the Judean-Israelite exiles who had obeyed His command to go peacefully into the Babylonian exile. He figuratively referred the obedient exiles as the "good figs" (Jer 24:2-7). This group also included righteous Judeans who were "marked" on their foreheads to ensure God's protection (Ezek 9:3-7; Rev 7:3). The good figs were being taunted by the "bad figs," their rebellious brothers led by King Zedekiah. This group included his sons, elders, some of the priesthood, lying prophets, and regular Judean Israelites (Jer 24:8-10) who, refusing YHWH's command to go to Babylon, remained in the land.<sup>1</sup>

The bad figs were telling the good figs that the land was not theirs anymore because they had abandoned it by obeying God's command. In a vision, Yehovah (YHVH) spoke a unique word to Ezekiel to reassure and encourage the Babylonian deportees that what the bad figs were saying was untrue and to give them a way to communicate with Him while in exile.

Ezek 11:15 Son of man, thy brethren, thy brothers (relatives), thy next of kin (kinsmen redeemers<sup>2</sup>), and all the house of Yisra'el entire are they to whom the inhabitants of Yerushalayim (Jerusalem) have said, "Get you far from YHVH (the LORD): to us is this land given in possession".<sup>16</sup> Therefore, say, "Thus says the Lord YHVH; Although I have cast them far off among the nations, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet I have become to them a little Sanctuary in the countries where they have come."<sup>3</sup> (Emphasis mine)

YHVH told "all the house of Yisra'el entire" that He had become a "little Sanctuary" (mikdash mē 'at) in the countries to which He had scattered them. This is an extraordinary statement that is generally unknown by most Bible students. The Hebrew word for "sanctuary" is mikdash which means a "sacred place, sanctuary, holy place" from the root k-d-sh which is holy, sacred, separated out (Brown-Driver-Briggs, BDB). The <sup>1</sup> For a concise summary of just how rebellious the "bad figs" were, please read Ezekiel, chapter eight.

<sup>2</sup> ge'ullatecha – literally: "your kinsmen-redeemer" are those individuals with the right of redemption of a family member and/or his property so it will go back to its rightful owner.

<sup>3</sup> BIBLE TIMELINE (all dates approximate), Link: biblehub.com; This word came just after the 2nd Babylonian deportation phase. The time period is around 592 BCE, six years before the final siege of Jerusalem in 586 BCE.

Hebrew Bible (TNK) identifies the mikdash as the Sanctuary of the tabernacle, later of the temple – the house where YHVH placed his Name.

The phrase, “I have become to them a little Sanctuary...” is in the imperfect tense denoting a continuing action that is not yet complete. It is a remarkable biblical declaration. The Jerusalem temple was soon to be destroyed but the LORD had not abandoned His people. He was essentially saying, “I have scattered you, yet I personally, i.e. My “presence”, has come with you; I have (metaphorically) become and will continue to be a little-Sanctuary for you in the foreign territories to which I have sent you.” This was not a promise to help them construct a synagogue building.

The Sanctuary was the most holy place in Israel. All the major holy objects were located therein: the seven-branched menorah (candelabra), the altar of incense, the table of showbread and the holy ark within the “Holy of Holies”. The only object not located within was the altar of sacrifices. But, not coincidentally, no blood atonement sacrifices were required to enter into God’s presence in His little Sanctuary.

Rashi, Abarbanel, and several other prominent Jewish commentators do not take God’s words literally here. They often inserted a later “rabbinical bias” into their commentaries and did so here regarding the meaning of God’s “little Sanctuary.” They claimed this term referred to future synagogues and Talmud study halls – a notion that does not appear anywhere within the context or verbiage of the passage or anywhere else in the Hebrew Bible.

Their view follows the “eisegetical” – “agenda-driven” – method of interpretation by which the explicator, motivated by the need to validate his own or another’s religious ideas, inserts a theological bias. By contrast, the “exegetical” approach seeks to understand the meaning of the text within its context and plain meaning: i.e. the “author’s intent.” The eisegetical method is often used by Jewish and Christian commentators alike.

Rashi wrote that Ezekiel 11:16 denotes: “a minor sanctuary – Synagogues, which are in a position second to the Temple.”<sup>4</sup> Many Jewish commentators echo Rashi and assert the verse sanctions the establishment of substitute physical worship centers. Importantly, none of these rabbis could claim there actually were any synagogues or

"study halls" during the seventy years of Babylonian exile because they all knew that none existed until centuries later.<sup>5</sup>

The question is, why would they do this? The rabbis' bewildering interpretation is much easier to understand when the motivation and the agenda are identified: They misinterpret this passage to sanction a much later religious tradition. An agenda-driven bias has also been adopted by the Messianic Jewish Christians (MJC) but for a different reason. Within these two frameworks, the rejection of the p'shat works for two different theological purposes:

1. For the rabbinic establishment, it legitimized the synagogue and/or Talmud torah "study hall" as a God-ordained "little sanctuary" where His presence may, at any given point, dwell.
2. Foremost MJC apologist Michael Brown ignores the issue entirely. For him, with the destruction of Solomon's temple and the sacrificial altar, the exiles had no means to reach God through individual prayer. At most, they could only have an uncertain "hope for mercy on an individual level."<sup>6</sup>

This interpretation allows MJC to reject the fact that God gave the "good figs" the means to commune with Him without blood sacrifices or the need of a priestly intercessor. Furthermore, Brown disregards the fact that Daniel prayed three times a day, his three friends, Ezekiel and untold others gladly believed God's promise of His dwelling in the little Sanctuary and also called upon His Name. They had all heard Jeremiah's letter containing God's encouraging words to the exiles and His command for them to pray (Jer 29:1-14). Following is an excerpt:

Jer 29:4 Thus said YHVH of Hosts, the God of Israel, to the whole community which I exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>5</sup>Build houses and live in them, plant gardens and eat their fruit. <sup>6</sup>Take wives and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters. Multiply there, do not decrease. <sup>7</sup>And seek the welfare of the city to which I have exiled you and pray to YHVH in its behalf; for in its prosperity, you shall prosper. ... <sup>29:11</sup>"For

<sup>5</sup> The Jewish Study Bible (JPS, 2004) on Ezek 11:16, p.1061, gives the contributors' best guess as to when the first synagogues were built. "Although the origins of synagogues are obscure, they can be traced back to the 3rd century BCE, and only emerged as the primary Jewish centers for study and worship following the destruction of the Second Temple by the Romans in 70 CE."

<sup>6</sup> Brown never mentions God's "little Sanctuary" in any of his five-volume apology. Michael Brown, PhD., Answering Jewish Objections to Jesus, Vol 2, Sec. 3.1, fn 247

I know the plans I have for you," declares YHVH, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

The exiles were instructed not to mourn, but to live a prosperous life and pray for their captors: they were assured of a fruitful future. However, they were not allowed to pray for a shortening of the seventy-year punishment that YHWH had decreed. The seventy years in exile were to make amends for their failure to give the land its Sabbatical and Jubilee year rests since King Saul and for the gross idolatry Israel and Judah had exhibited sporadically for centuries (Jer 7:16, 11:14, 29;10-14).

The Jewish sage Ibn Ezra, often called "the forefather of biblical criticism," wrote concerning the destruction of the temple and God's glory (presence) going into exile with his people. His comment fits perfectly with the Scriptural idea of YHVH's "little Sanctuary." He completely understood the spiritual aspect of God's "Presence."

Lev 26:11 And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you. <sup>12</sup>And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you shall be my people.

As always, isn't the question: "What was the author's intent?" How do we interpret this "exegetically?" A commentary on Ezekiel 1-20 by Rabbi Moshe Greenberg put forth exactly what I'm advocating regarding how one should understand God's little Sanctuary at Ezekiel 11:16.

"Since the divine presence is fully manifest only in the Jerusalem sanctuary (cf. 37:26-28), the reduced presence among the exiles is boldly figured as 'a small sanctuary': mə 'aṭ is in apposition to miqdaš, as in 'ezer mə 'aṭ "little help" (Dan 11:34). In this statement of

"Many view Ibn Ezra as the forefather of Biblical criticism. As an example, in the last chapter of Deuteronomy 34:10, Ibn Ezra comments that Joshua, and not Moshe, wrote from this point until the end of the Torah", daring to say the heretofore unthinkable over 850 years ago: that Moses did not write every word of the five books of the Torah; Link: sefaria.org bio

*deprivation, it is obliquely conceded that the exiles enjoy a measure of divine nearness even in the exile (contrary to the Jerusalemites' view).<sup>8</sup>
(Emphasis original)*

Greenberg recognized and stated the simple p'shat of the verse: that "small or "little" (mə 'at) is deliberately juxtaposed to "sanctuary" (miqdaš – mikdash). Ezekiel purposefully called attention to the contrast between God's greatly manifested presence (k'vod – glory) residing in the cloud-fire of the Jerusalem Temple sanctuary and His "reduced" presence as a "little Sanctuary" in which his people could dwell even in exile. YeHoVaH wanted to ensure He remained accessible to the Israelites in the unclean pagan world of exile. Therefore, the exiles would not be cut off but have a way to achieve a "measure of divine nearness even in the exile."

This "nearness" also included the opportunity for confession, repentance, forgiveness, and expiation (atonement) of an Israelite's personal guilt and sins. How do I know this? If God didn't hear their prayers, it would have meant they remained "ceremonially unclean" from their personal sins. If that were so, it would have been impossible for YHVH to interact with them. Thus, His presence, and the little Sanctuary itself, would have been a meaningless gesture. This fact discredits the MJC apologist's interpretation.

Greenberg's comment also disputes the attempt by the rabbis to connect God's promise to the exiles with the later innovation of the synagogue. Their interpretation negates the merciful impact of God's divine gesture of love and mercy to Israel. In this word of assurance, God was showing the "good figs" and all those who had ears to hear that Moses spoke the truth when he proclaimed to the Israelites just prior to their entering the land:

Deut 31:6 Be strong and resolute, be not in fear or in dread of them; for YHVH your God Himself marches with you: He will not fail you or forsake you.

Interestingly, it is primarily the Christian commentators who agree with the p'shat interpretation being put forth herein. The Keil and Delitzsch Biblical Commentary on the Old Testament expounds on Ezekiel 11:16.<sup>9</sup>

"The thought is this: the present position of affairs is unquestionably that Jehovah has scattered them (the house of Israel) among the Gentiles, but He has not therefore cast them off. He has become a sanctuary to them in the lands of their dispersion. Migdâsh does not mean either asylum or an object kept sacred (Hitzig), but a sanctuary, more especially the temple. They had, indeed, lost the outward temple (at Jerusalem); but the LORD Himself had become their temple. What made the temple into a sanctuary was the presence of Jehovah, the covenant God, therein. This even the exiles were to enjoy in their banishment, and in this they would possess a substitute for the outward temple."<sup>10</sup>

The Pulpit Commentary, a 23 Volume Christian commentary on the Bible also written in the 19th Century, reflecting on Ezekiel 11:16 states,

"Yet will I be unto them as a little sanctuary; ... Ezekiel and the exiles were to find the presence of Jehovah manifested as in the vision of Chebar (Ezekiel 1:4-28), or felt spiritually, and this would make the spot where they found themselves as fully a holy place as the temple had been. There also they would have a "house of God."<sup>11</sup>

"All the house of Yisra'el entire"

Importantly, God said He would never "forget" His covenant with the twelve tribes whom He rescued from Egypt and, perhaps even more significantly, the unbreakable covenant of the land with the Patriarchs.

*And yet, for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, nor will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am YHVH their God. But I will, for their sakes, remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Mizrayim (Egypt) in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am YHVH. But Did God's words in Ezekiel 11:15-16 only apply to those that were carried away to Babylon? Or did it also apply to the exiles from the ten Northern tribes who had previously been deported to Assyria? Let's take a closer look at verse 15.

Ezek 11:15 Son of man, thy brethren, thy brothers (relatives), thy next of kin (kinsmen redeemers), and all the house of Yisra'el entire are they to whom the inhabitants of Yerushalayim have said, Get you far from YHVH: to us is this land given in possession.

To recap: The bad figs were those who had stayed behind and were now the principal inhabitants of Jerusalem. They derided the good figs of the second tranche of exiles who had obeyed God and went into exile without protest. In fact, God specifically identified who "the house of Yisra'el entire" was. It included the Israelites who had left but did not include those scorners who had disobeyed the Lord and remained.

"All the house of Yisra'el, entire" was comprised of three groups of people: 1. Ezekiel's Israelite "brethren" from all twelve tribes; 2 his "brothers" (i.e. "relatives"), and 3. his family's "kinsmen redeemers." So, this group included the faithful remnant of the previously deported ten northern tribes, plus those from the northern tribes fleeing from the Assyrians who had previously moved into Judaeen territory, plus those exiled from the two southern tribes of Judah and Benjamin.

Remarkably, this resulted in an unexpected reunion of the remnant of the entire twelve tribes of Israel in Mesopotamia, the old Assyrian territory that had been conquered by the Neo-Babylonian Empire. In fact, the Chebar River mentioned by Ezekiel is also very close to Abraham's home of origin, Ur(kesh) and Harran.

K&D have a significant, definitive comment regarding the import of this verse.

"... 'thy brothers' AND 'the whole (all) of the house of Israel, entire'; the term 'whole' being rendered more emphatic by the repetition of כּל (kol: whole; all) in כּלה (ku-lah: entire) (Emphasis mine). A contrast is drawn between this "whole house of Israel" and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who say to those brethren, 'Remain far away from Jehovah' ... The thought is this: the present position of affairs is unquestionably that Jehovah has scattered them (the house of Israel) among the Gentiles; but He has not therefore cast them off. He has become a sanctuary to them in the lands of their dispersion.<sup>12</sup> (Emphasis original)

In the exile of the house of Judah, Rashi also recognized the exile of “the entire house of Israel”.

"Your brethren, your brethren: The exile of Samaria and the exile of Jeconiah.

and the entire house of Israel: who have gone into exile.<sup>13</sup> (Emphasis original)

Highlighting this interpretation even more, it has been demonstrated that the words translated “all” (“whole”) and “entire” are used twice in the same sentence, emphasizing that the entirety of the house of Israel – members of all twelve tribes who still identified as Israelites – are to be included in one’s understanding of the total Israelite exilic community.<sup>14</sup> The word accurately translated, “Therefore,” appearing at the beginning of verse 16, also denotes that the whole remnant of “all the house of Yisra’el entire” may enter into God’s “little Sanctuary” in exile.

Conclusion

With the deportation of the exiles from Judah and Benjamin joining the remnants of the ten northern tribes – “all the house of Yisra’el entire” – the twelve tribes were now essentially reunited in exile and intermingling in various regions within the Babylonian Empire. That meant every faithful exiled Israelite could enter into YHVH’s presence in His “little Sanctuary” by sincerely confessing his or her sins, returning to obedience, and seeking and receiving God’s forgiveness. This atonement and reconciliation occurred without the need to offer a blood sacrifice for sin or a high priest intercessor. Therefore, God remembered His covenant and made provision for His people to be justified before Him in exile without needing the sacrificial system.

<sup>14</sup> The previously exiled ten tribes had been ruled by the Assyrian King Sennacherib (705-681 BCE) and finally King Ashurbanipal (669-627BCE). However, the Assyrian Empire had now been conquered by the Neo-Babylonian Empire ruled by King Neopolassar (626-605 BCE) and subsequently governed and expanded by his son, Nebuchadnezzar II beginning in 606/605 BCE. They conquered most of the lands of the fertile crescent where many from the ten tribes of northern Israel had been exiled for the previous 120 years. Unknown numbers still loved YHVH and continued to identify as “Israelites.”

The exiles still had to serve out the seventy-year punishment, but YHVH Elohim demonstrated His grace, mercy, steadfast love, and faithfulness by personally becoming a “little Sanctuary” to all exiled Israelites who genuinely turned to Him and called upon His Name.

Here's what you need to know about Rosh Hashanah 2024

By Benjamin Gladstone August 31, 2023

Editor's note: With the High Holidays upon us, we're refreshing and republishing older stories about the holiday season for readers to enjoy with updated information. This story was originally published on September 5, 2019.

Rosh Hashanah is one of the most important holidays on the Jewish calendar. Often known as the “Jewish New Year,” it opens the High Holidays season. Even many Jews who do not celebrate other holidays or observe other Jewish laws or practices still take off work and school to attend religious services and see their friends and families at this special time.

For anyone who is considering celebrating Rosh Hashanah this year, or is just looking to learn more about Jewish traditions, we've pulled together some basic facts to help you understand the meaning of this holiday.

When does Rosh Hashanah start?

Rosh Hashanah, Hebrew for “Head of the Year,” is one of the most important Jewish holidays. It takes place on the first two days of the Hebrew month of Tishrei (September or October on the Gregorian calendar) for most traditional Jews, but only on the first of Tishrei for Reform Jews.

Rosh Hashanah 2024 begins the evening of Thursday, October 3rd and ends in the evening of Friday, October 4th. The specific times of sunset and nightfall will vary from locale to locale.

What is Rosh Hashanah?

The holiday of Rosh Hashanah comes from the Torah, the Hebrew Bible, which commands Jews to blast the shofar (ram’s horn) and cease “work at your occupations” on that date (Leviticus 23:24-25). Many of Rosh Hashanah’s more specific laws come from the Talmud. Rosh Hashanah also marks both the start of the new Jewish year and the beginning of the ten-day period known as the “Days of Awe,” a spiritual time of repentance that concludes with Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

The most prominent theological aspect of Rosh Hashanah is the belief that God judges each individual Jew on the first day. According to Jewish tradition, God determines the fate of each Jewish person for the coming year primarily on the basis of their actions over the previous year. Everyone, however, has the opportunity to ameliorate a negative judgment in three ways.

One way is teshuvah, which literally means “returning” but is usually translated as “repentance” – a Jew performs teshuvah by feeling regret for a sin, apologizing to God and/or to the person against whom they have sinned, and pledging sincerely not to commit the sin again. Another way is tefillah – prayer. Finally, Jews can also earn leniency through tzedakah, which literally means “justice” or “righteousness.” In practice, tzedakah usually refers to charitable giving, but it could also conceivably be interpreted as participation in pro-justice work.

How is Rosh Hashanah celebrated?

Rosh Hashanah is celebrated with many traditions, some of which are required by Jewish law and some of which are popular customs. Work is forbidden, and Jews typically spend much of the day in synagogue, worshipping, listening to the prescribed portions of the Torah and the Book of Neviim ("Prophets") and hearing blasts from the shofar.

One of the most important Rosh Hashanah mitzvot ("commandments" in Jewish law) is that every Jew hears a sequence of blasts from the shofar. The shofar is a hollowed-out ram's horn reminiscent of the story of the 'Aqedah, the "Binding of Isaac," during which Abraham ultimately sacrifices a ram whose horn is caught in a thicket in place of his son Isaac (Genesis 22:13). The story of the 'Aqedah is chanted aloud during Rosh Hashanah services.

Rosh Hashanah traditions

Rosh Hashanah is meant to be a time of relaxation, celebration, and feasting. It is customary to eat sweet foods on Rosh Hashanah as a symbolic way of ushering in a sweet new year. Jews dip apples and round challot (Jewish bread) in honey and sometimes also eat honey cakes and other sweet desserts.

There are also several Rosh Hashanah practices that relate to repentance. One such practice is Tashlikh, during which Jews cast bits of bread, which represent their sins, into water. The bread is either swept away by the flow of the water or consumed by fish.

Jews also repent by begging God for mercy in special late-night/early-morning services called Slihot. During Slihot, Jews make the case to God that their sins should be forgiven by invoking the thirteen divine "Attributes of Mercy" and reminding God of various biblical episodes during which Jewish prayers were answered. In the Ashkenazi tradition, Slihot are recited from the Saturday night before Rosh Hashanah, but Sephardi and Mizrahi Jews traditionally recite Slihot for the entire month leading up to Rosh Hashanah as well.

Jews often also use Rosh Hashanah and the Days of Awe as an opportunity to informally apologize to loved ones, friends, and others whom they have wronged over the previous year.

Rosh Hashanah greetings

There are several greetings, which are commonly used both on Rosh Hashanah itself and in the days before and after the holiday.

The most basic is l'shanah tovah, which means "for a good year," or simply shannah tovah, "a good year."

A slightly fancier version of that greeting is shannah tovah umetuqah, which means "a good and sweet year."

If you really want to show off, you can even say the full extended version, which in English translates to "may you be written and sealed for a good year." This phrase is a prayer that God will write the name of the person you are greeting in the "book" of people who are to have a good year on Rosh Hashanah and will seal their name in that book on Yom Kippur. In Hebrew, this more complicated phrase changes depending on to whom you are speaking. If you are greeting someone who uses the pronouns he/him/his, say: l'shanah tovah tikateiv v'teihateim. For someone who uses the pronouns she/her/hers, say: l'shanah tovah tikateivi v'teihateimi. When speaking with multiple people or someone who uses the pronouns they/them/theirs, say l'shanah tovah tikateivu v'teihateimu. If the person to whom you are speaking uses a different set of pronouns, you can either politely ask if that person has adopted any particular system of Hebrew pronouns or simply say shannah tovah umetuqah.

In the afternoon of Rosh Hashanah and through the rest of the Days of Awe, Jews also sometimes greet each other with gemar hatimah tovah, which means "a good final sealing." This greeting, however, is more common on Yom Kippur.

In America, some Jews simply wish each other a "happy new year" in English.

For some people, Rosh Hashanah is a profoundly spiritual experience and a time of religious awakening and redemption. For many, it is an annual opportunity for personal growth and self-improvement, for recommitting to religious, moral justice, and interpersonal goals. For others, it is mainly a chance to see family, or to unload mental burdens by apologizing and forgiving.

Whatever you want to get out of Rosh Hashanah this year, we hope that the information presented above will help you find it.

What is the Feast of Tabernacles?

The Feast of Tabernacles, also known as the Feast of Booths and Sukkot, is the seventh and last feast that the Lord commanded Israel to observe and one of the three feasts that Jews were to observe each year by going to “appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose” (Deuteronomy 16:16). The importance of the Feast of Tabernacles can be seen in how many places it is mentioned in Scripture. In the Bible, we see many important events that took place at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles. For one thing, it was at this time that Solomon’s Temple was dedicated to the Lord (1 Kings 8:2).

It was at the Feast of Tabernacles that the Israelites, who had returned to rebuild the temple, gathered to celebrate under the leadership of Joshua and Zerubbabel (Ezra 3). Later, the Jews heard Ezra read the Word of God to them during the Feast of Tabernacles (Nehemiah 8). Ezra’s preaching resulted in a great revival as the Israelites confessed and repented of their sins. It was also during this Feast that Yeshua said, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water” (John 7:37–39).

The Feast of Tabernacles takes place on the 15th of the Hebrew month Tishrei. This was the seventh month on the Hebrew calendar and usually occurs in late September to mid-October. The feast begins five days after the Day of Atonement and at the time the fall harvest had just been completed. It was a time of joyous celebration as the Israelites celebrated God’s continued provision for them in the current harvest and remembered His provision and protection during the 40 years in the wilderness.

As one of the three feasts that all “native born” male Jews were commanded to participate in, the Feast of Tabernacles is mentioned multiple times in Scripture, sometimes called the Feast of the Ingathering, the Feast to the Lord, or the Feast of Booths (Exodus 23:16; Deuteronomy 16:13). As one of the pilgrim feasts (when Jewish males were commanded to go to Jerusalem), it was also the time when they brought their tithes and offerings to the Temple (Deuteronomy 16:16). With the influx of people coming to Jerusalem at that time, we can only imagine what the scene must have been like. Thousands upon thousands of people coming together to remember and celebrate God’s deliverance and His provision, all living in temporary shelters or booths as part of the requirements of the feast. During the eight-day period, so many sacrifices were made that it required all twenty-four divisions of priests to be present to assist in the sacrificial duties.

We find God's instructions for celebrating the Feast of Tabernacles in Leviticus 23, given at a point in history right after God had delivered Israel from bondage in Egypt. The feast was to be celebrated each year on "the fifteenth day of this seventh month" and was to run for seven days (Leviticus 23:34). Like all feasts, it begins with a "holy convocation" or Sabbath day when the Israelites were to stop working to set aside the day for worshiping God. On each day of the feast they were to offer an "offering made by fire to the LORD" and then after seven days of feasting, again the eighth day was to be "a holy convocation" when they were to cease from work and offer another sacrifice to God (Leviticus 23). Lasting eight days, the Feast of Tabernacles begins and ends with a Sabbath day of rest. During the eight days of the feast, the Israelites would dwell in booths or tabernacles that were made from the branches of trees (Leviticus 23:40-42).

The Feast of Tabernacles, like all the feasts, was instituted by God as a way of reminding Israelites in every generation of their deliverance by God from Egypt. Of course, the feasts are also significant in that they foreshadow the work and actions of the coming Messiah. Much of Yeshua's public ministry took place in conjunction with the Holy Feasts set forth by God.

The three pilgrim feasts where all Jewish males were commanded to "appear before the LORD in the place he chooses" are each very important in regard to the life of Christ and His work of redemption. We know with certainty that the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread are symbolic of Christ's atoning sacrifice on the cross. Likewise, we know that Pentecost, which marked the beginning of the Feast of Weeks, was the time of Yeshua's bodily ascension. And most scholars would agree that the Feast of Tabernacles is symbolic of Christ's second coming when He will establish His earthly kingdom.

Hebrew Historians believe that it was likely during the Feast of Tabernacles that Yeshua (Yeshua) was born. While most Christian churches celebrate Christ's birth on December 25, scholars acknowledge that this tradition was begun in the fourth century AD by the Roman Catholic Church and that the exact day of Yeshua's birth is believed to be on the fifteenth of Tishrei or September 29, 3 BC. The evidence that Yeshua might have been born during the Feast of the Tabernacles includes the fact that it would be unlikely for shepherds to still be in the field with their sheep in December, which is in the middle of the winter, but it would have been likely they were in the fields tending sheep at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles. The strong possibility that Yeshua was born at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles is also seen in the words John wrote in John 1:14. "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth." The word John chose to speak of Yeshua "dwelling" among us is the word tabernacle, which simply means to "dwell in a tent."

Some believe it is very likely that John intentionally used this word to associate the first coming of Christ with the Feast of Tabernacles. Christ came in the flesh to dwell among us for a temporary time when He was born in the manger, and He is coming again to dwell among us as Lord of Lords. While it cannot be established with certainty that Yeshua was born during the Feast of Tabernacles, some believe there is a strong possibility the Feast of Tabernacles not only looks forward to His second coming but also reflects back on His first coming.

The Feast of Tabernacles begins and ends with a special Sabbath day of rest. During the days of the feast, all native Israelites were "to dwell in booths" to remind them that God delivered them out of the "land of Egypt" and to look forward to the coming Messiah, Yeshua Christ, who would deliver His people from the bondage of sin. This feast, like all of the feasts of Israel, consistently reminded the Jews and should remind Christians as well that God has promised to deliver His people from the bondage of sin and deliver them from their enemies. Part of God's deliverance for the Israelites was His provision and protection of them for the 40 years they wandered in the wilderness, cut off from the Promised Land. The same holds true for Christians today. God protects us and provides for us as we go through life in the wilderness of this world. While our hearts long for the Promised Land (heaven) and to be in the presence of God, He preserves us in this world as we await the world to come and the redemption that will come when Yeshua Christ returns again to "tabernacle" or dwell among us in bodily form.

Ashley Hooker

Throughout the Old Testament there are many feasts mentioned. One such feast is the Feast of Trumpets. This was a celebration ordained by God for the Israelites. It was a time when they were to remember what God had done for them. The Feast of Trumpets was a beautiful day that is celebrated even today. Let's unpack this special feast and understand what it is, and how Christians today should respond to the Feast of Trumpets.

The Feast of Trumpets is first spoken of in Leviticus 23:23-25. At this time, the Israelites had been brought out of Egypt, and Moses received the covenant from God. The Israelites had built the Tabernacle, and God gave instructions to be told to the Israelites by Moses.

We find the Feast of Trumpets listed as one of the holy days for the Israelites to keep. God tells Moses the exact time the Israelites are to celebrate, and how the people should celebrate. During the feast, the people would bring various offerings to the Lord. In Numbers 29:1-6, we read about these offerings. Here we can find specific instructions about what to offer and how to offer it.

This feast was a call to stop work and remember the Lord. The people were to hold the feast on the first day of the seventh month, and you were to present a fire offering to the Lord. Throughout the day, the Israelites could hear the sound of a trumpet or shofar, hence the name Feast of Trumpets.

No daily work was completed on this day. It was a sacred time. The Feast of Trumpets was an outward expression of the feeling of anticipation the Israelites had. The Lord had shown himself to Moses at Mount Sinai, and the people anticipated the Lord showing himself again.

This feast is also a beautiful picture of the second coming of Christ, and Jews around the world continue to celebrate the Feast of Trumpets today.

What Does This Mean for the End Times?

In almost all religions, we debate the end times. We live in expectation of an end to this life, and we want to know what is going to happen. Regarding trumpet sounds, Scripture is clear. We will hear trumpets in the events of the end times.

In Revelation, beginning in chapter eight, we read about trumpets in the hands of angels. There are seven angels and there will be seven trumpets. As each angel sounds a trumpet, an event will occur. These events include portions of the Earth burning, stars falling from the sky, water becoming bitter, and locusts harming people.

When the seventh trumpet has sounded, the kingdom of the world will have become the Kingdom of God. Rosh Hashana, or the Feast of Trumpets, is an Old Testament picture of what the rapture will be like.

In the New Testament, Paul refers to the trumpet sound of the rapture in 1 Corinthians 15:51-52. The apostle Paul is telling us that as the last trumpet sounds, the dead will rise, and we will be changed. There is no mention of a definitive date, though. We must understand that trumpets will signal the people of God to gather and be ready to meet our Savior.

Just as trumpets were sounded to call God's people together, the trumpets sounded at the end times are a call for God's people to remember. They are calling for all people to repent of their sins. They are the sound of anticipation for the return of our Lord.

Should Christians Celebrate the Feast of Trumpets?

Just as Christians celebrate Christmas and Easter, I think we should consider celebrating the Feast of Trumpets. We should take any chance to celebrate the greatness of our God.

Christians can learn much from the Jewish traditions and festivals laid out in the Bible. Often, we think the Old Testament has little significance in the way we express our love for God. In the case of the Feast of Trumpets, there are beautiful symbols that Christians should embrace.

The celebration of the Feast of Trumpets represents several key thoughts that Christians should hold sacred. First, we should see the feast as a recognition that God is Lord over all the Earth. This holy day is a sanctified reminder of that fact.

Second, preparing for the Feast of Trumpets reminds us to be ready for the Lord's return. The sound of the shofar is a call to prepare.

Third, Christians should recognize the prophetic significance of this day. It is a time when the ways of the world are set aside. Our focus shifts and is solely on the Lord.

Lastly, Christians can celebrate the Feast of Trumpets with a joyful heart, knowing our God is a God of new beginnings. Even though this is the Jewish new year, Christians can celebrate that our God can and does make us clean and new. He is the God that will come back for His people and create a new heaven and earth. It is a time where we can express our gratefulness for the God that sent His one and only son to save us from our sins.

Christians are called to be prepared for the coming of Christ throughout the entirety of the Bible. Rosh Hashana, or the Feast of Trumpets, is a celebration of that call.

Today, Christians should consider this celebration in their own walk with the Lord. It may not look the same as the Jewish celebration, but it can be a special time for you and your family to stop everything and focus on God. We can use this celebration along with each day to be ready for the return of Christ.

Tishri Day 1

Leviticus 23:24 – Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of the trumpets, a holy convocation.

I sat by my window, looking out as the people were walking to and fro, buying and selling, speaking and listening, gearing up for the Fall Feasts. My dad was trying to explain to me all about Rosh Hashanah, but me being just 16, I understood it all too well. I grew up in the city, and I saw all the goings on that took place.

As a family of four, my mom and dad, my sister and me, we read the Torah every day during certain times of the year, and in the spring, on Passover, we all get to read the story of Moses and the exodus from Egypt, and how our Elohim saved all of his people by way of 10 events that took place when Pharaoh hardened his heart against Moses.

In the fall, we read about the Gathering in Jerusalem, when all the dads from all the land bring their tithes and offerings into the Storehouse for the Levites to count and take care of for their food, grain, and sacrifices. But lately, we have heard stories of the higher Levites who work up on the Temple Mount area, taking the best of all the sheep and then sacrificing the worst of all to YHVH, and their only excuse is that it is better to sacrifice something and make the God of Abraham happy.

But from what my dad read to me and my sister, that is not what YHVH said in times past. He said that obedience was better than sacrifice. They, oh, you know, those Levite Priest, were working in the Temple in sin, and I just don't think the God of Abraham is any too happy with them.

As I sat there and looked out, I could see the bright clear blue sky, that bright yellow sun, and as I looked over on the Horizon, I could see the little sliver of the moon coming up. I asked my dad if he knew what part of the day it was, and he said that it was about time.

We live high up, we are two stories up, and we can see around, but now it was time to move to the roof, and see the whole thing unfold, as Dad said he would explain it plain and simple.

We could look around the city and see the guards on top of the wall, and we could see the gates that were open, and there were flocks of people waiting outside the walls, waiting to get in. Dad began to speak, and he said, "Son, in about a few ticks of time, you will hear the shofars beginning to blow. That is when two different witnesses see the new moon, and they report it to the High Priest.

"Now there are two days of Rosh Hashanah, because in our part of the world, it rarely gets cloudy, but if it did, we may not see the new moon today and must wait until tomorrow to look for it. But today, we will see it. Now, look over there in that direction and watch closely. Keep looking, keep looking, Oh Ok, there it is. Look, look at all the people running to the High Priest. That's funny, watching them trip over their robes, and trip over their sandals."

"OK, very soon now, OH, Here it comes, do you hear it, the Shofars are blasting, they are sounding. Now my son, there is a name for this that is happening right now, this is called the Tekiah. It comes from the days of Moses, and it is a cry of YHVH's People to Him. There are 100 blasts of the shofar, and there are three distinct sounds, Tekiah, Shevarim, and Teruah. It is one long blast, then shorter blasts together, then nine short bursts of sound like a staccato blast. Overall, this night, at sundown, with the new moon in the sky, the New Year begins, this is the First Shofar."

I listened, as I could hear it. I listened after it was done, then I asked dad, "OK dad, but what does it mean?" He said, "It means to prepare, to be ready, because we never know when the Messiah will show up." Then he told me that this was the only feast day that uses the shofar as much as this.

I was amazed. What a sound, all these sounds going forth. Then it happened. As I was watching them blow the sounds of the shofars, I saw them. I saw them standing on the top of the walls of the city, they were there, thousands of them. I could see their faces. They were like shooting flames of fire, their eyes were so bright that it looked right into your soul.

I noticed the wings; each one had four wings, two were for worshiping and touching others, and two were for flying. When the Levites blew their shofars, these beings blew theirs. I saw a burning ball of fire dancing in the sky, Back and forth it went, stopping then starting again, then it came right at the city. It got so bright it seemed like my eyes were burnt out of my head. That is when I saw the city coming from heaven, down to our place, our city. It was so beautiful, so royal, that all I could do was cry, and then it all went away.

Those four-winged creatures were gone; the bright light, and the city wasn't there. I started to cry, and dad asked me what had happened. I told him everything. Then I asked him, do you think I am crazy?

He looked at me, grabbed my hands and told me that what I just saw was a dream from the Throne Room, from YHVH himself. I had a question; he gave me an answer.

But what did it all mean, I mean we are here at Rosh Hashanah, right, the Gathering of the elect? This is when all of Israel is to come to Jerusalem for Rosh Hashanah right? Why did I see this happen, what did it mean? That night I got my answer.

In my dream, I saw the city of Jerusalem, and as it zoomed in, I saw me looking out over the city from my rooftop. I saw the people running to the high priest after seeing the new moon, I saw the people on top of the walls blowing the shofars, but then I saw those other creatures standing alongside the people, and these huge four-winged creatures began to blow their shofars, and all of the universe heard that sound, the first trump. Then it fast-forwards to the next day at sundown, when they repeated all over again, but this time it was called the last Shofar. I looked and watched as this bright light began to dance all over the sky, it was picking up people, just snatching them from all over the land, and it was like they were being gathered together. But the big ball of light quickly turned into a weird green color, almost looked like weeds growing in a garden that had just been picked and plucked up by the roots.

I watched closely as to what happened to this light. I left, and as it was leaving, another came to take its place. This one broke into thousands of pieces, and they went from one end of heaven to another, and from the east to the west, and from the north to the south, then just as quickly as they had left, they returned with hundreds of thousands of people.

This all came to a new city coming from Heaven onto the earth, right over the top of old Jerusalem. This looked like a New Jerusalem, bright, shiny, and clean with no light coming from it except just one light. It came from the center of the new city, a light not at all like anything I had ever seen before, but I saw it.

The second day of Rosh Hashanah, the last shofar, and now the gathering, I was seeing something playing out. I didn't understand it at all, but I also knew that YHVH of Heaven will spell it all out to me, otherwise he wouldn't have shown it to me. There was a knock on our door. It was Andrew, who wanted to go down to where John the Baptist was baptizing people, and we left to go there.

While there and listening to John speak, we saw this man come walking to John down in the water, he just walked past other people, and took his hood off, and John yelled out so loudly, Here is the Son of YHVH, who comes to save the world. We watched the Baptist dunk this man, and he rose up out of the water, and began to walk away, and that is when we all heard it, a voice, speaking in ancient Hebrew dialect, "This is my Son, I am so pleased with Him." Andrew looked at me, I looked at Andrew, and we took off at the same time.

We caught up with him and asked him if we could follow him for the day. He said that he needed to talk with His Father, and we could catch Him back outside of Jerusalem the next new moon.

This is my report, on the 2nd day of Tishri, the year 3785. My name is John, otherwise, in Hebrew, I am called Yochanan.

POWERFUL PROPHETIC SIGNS FOR THE HOUR AND SEASON; "HIGH FREQUENCIES OF HEAVEN BEING RELEASED THAT WILL CUT AND SEVERE COMMUNICATION LINES OF DEMONIC NETWORKS IN THE EARTH REALM; BLOW THE TRUMPET, BLOW THE SHOFARS!!!!"

So in the early hours of this morning I was awakened to a SUDDEN AND VERY LOUD SOUND BEING RELEASED INTO THE ATMOSPHERE, and I heard these Words; "LISTEN! I SAY COME UP HERE, COME UP HIGHER TO WHERE YOU CAN HEAR THE HIGH FREQUENCIES OF THE SOUND OF THE TRUMPET/SHOFARS, THE FREQUENCIES OF THE MIGHTY BREAKERS THAT WILL CAUSE THE DEMONIC NETWORKS OF COMMUNICATION OF THE ENEMY TO BE CUT AND SEVERED, HIGH AND HEAVENLY FREQUENCIES THAT WILL SEND CONFUSION AND CHAOS INTO THE ENEMIES CAMP. I SAY WATCH, LISTEN, ITS TIME TO BLOW THE TRUMPETS, BLOW THE SHOFARS AND LET THE FREQUENCIES OF HEAVEN BE RELEASED INTO THE EARTHLY REALM"!!!

Ha!!! On hearing those words, the Lord showed me a direct prophetic parallel unfolding in the War in Israel; GOD IS SPEAKING!

Demonic Network System of Communications;

<https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/breaking-through-the.../>

In the Vision, I was shown what looked like a massive Circuit Board. Now as I drew closer in the Vision, I saw that the Circuit Board was a highly sophisticated Demonic Network System of Communications! Then, as I continued watching and praying, suddenly I was taken into the very heart of this Circuit Board System, where I saw and could feel a powerful demonic energy, pulsating through the entire system. Each line on this Demonic Circuit Board fueled the communication between powerful demonic entities over that Region and Territory.

The only way to describe what I was seeing, was that It looked like a twisted and tangled version of wires and connection points, all linked to what looked like a Main Server or Switch-Board — with each wire strategically connecting demonic beings of darkness, in a web of wickedness and malevolence!

I can't explain here, but what I saw was so highly sophisticated and had such high spiritual intelligence, that this World has seen nothing yet. What I saw was of such incredible power and intelligence, the likes of Bill Gates and Elon Musk have not dreamed.

Now, what was so unbelievably sobering in this incredible encounter, was that I knew that The Church, as we know it, is still playing games, arguing amongst themselves, pointing fingers. Jealousy, envy, and competition rules over the hearts of many — and yet what I saw being formulated, built, and established by the enemy, had the power to totally overtake the Globe.

The Church is sleeping, and Satan is setting up his kingdom of darkness networks, in order to take the next generation fully captive! Friends, there needs to be an awakening! The Ecclesia needs to Arise in the Power and Authority of The Key of the House David.

The Reformation of the Five-Fold is more Urgent than ever!

I realized that this Demonic Network of Communication was being used to lock up the land — to lock up and lock down the territories — and to lock up the people in those places!

This Demonic Web of Communication was being used to infiltrate and influence human minds; manipulate and control the hearts of people. It was even being powerfully instrumental in stopping and preventing certain events from taking place in that area. What I was being shown was a highly structured Demonic Network of Communication that was used to release seeds of disunity, discord and great destruction over the land. Then I understood why the Angels could not come near. This highly sophisticated Web of Demonic Communication not only locked up that Region — and the people in that area — but this Demonic Circuit spread chaos and darkness throughout the land. The Demonic Circuit prevented supernatural breakthrough.

It brought sickness and disease — it released fear and torment over the whole area, it brought Church Leaders down — it brought disunity and division into every sphere. But its main agenda was to stop Awakening and Nationwide Revival from coming! I saw that the land was landlocked, both in the Natural and the Supernatural! Now, as I stayed watching and listening intently to what The Spirit of Revelation was revealing suddenly I was shown the whole of Ireland, and I saw multiple Circuit Boards over different Regions and Territories.

I was then shown that each Region had a different Circuit Board, a specific type of Spiritual Technology or Mechanism that had been built and established in order to bring a Demonic Lock-Down over that Region and that Territory. Nothing could get in and nothing could get out! The Land was Sealed! Then I saw what looked like Demonic Firewalls around certain Regions that prevented any possibility of the entrance of Light from coming in.

These Regions were covered by a thick veil of darkness. The eyes of the people in these places were blinded, their ears deafened, and their Spirits were in bondage. I could see that the influence of Demonic Frequencies ruled over the airwaves of these Regions.

It was like a powerful Demonic WIFI System in operation, which could not be seen in the natural, yet its power and influence was far reaching and had lulled many into a deep Spiritual state of Sleep and Slumber. Many had become completely desensitized to their Spiritual state. Now, as I remained standing in that place, The Spirit of Revelation began to speak to me concerning the Power and Authority of The Ecclesia!

The Lord spoke to me concerning the Urgency for the Reformation of The Five-fold Ministry. He spoke to me about The Master-Key, The Power, and the Authority of The Key of the House of David! Then suddenly I heard Konrad (from Joshua's Call) begin to release the Sound of the Shofar, and I saw the Sound of the Shofar began to Rise and penetrate the Atmosphere and the very soil of the Land that I was standing on!

I saw that with every Blast of the Sound that was being released from the Shofar, the power and frequency of the Sound was beginning to enter into the deep inner workings of the Demonic Circuit Board! I watched as The Power of the Seven Spirits of God that was carried within the Sound of the Shofar began to flow through this highly structured Communication System, and the power of the Sound caused a short-circuiting to begin to take place, as the Sound began to cut and sever the lines of Demonic Communication, and the dark pulsations of this intricate Web of Destruction began to weaken and falter.

Suddenly, I could see the demons that looked almost woven into the very fabric of this Communication System, beginning to flee in different directions. The Power of The Sound of the Seven Spirits caused many demons to scream and screech in terror as vital lines of communication were being broken and cut off. I saw some demonic entities writhing in agony as their connection to this dark and unseen network was being completely severed.

Then suddenly, I watched as the piercing Sound of the Shofar gave way to radiant Light, and the Light that broke forth began to expose every demonic plan and strategy of the enemy that had given the demons their power and great authority to hold the Region captive! I watched as the power of the Sound and Light began to shatter different areas of the Circuit Board, and I watched as powerful Breakthrough started to take place over the area we were standing in.

But then, I heard The Spirit of Revelation say something incredible. He said, "Watch! For the Sound will bring a measure of Breakthrough and a Breaking Through. The Sound will cut and sever the lines of Demonic Communication. The Sound will send confusion into the enemy's camp. The Sound will send chaos and disarray into the enemy's camp!" But then He said, "Daughter Watch! For I tell you, only the Power and Authority of The Key of the House of David, ONLY THE MASTER-KEY can override the whole Demonic Circuit and Communication System of the enemy!"

"Only the Power and Authority of The Key of David can uproot and tear-down what has been built and established!" Then I heard The Spirit give me a Warning, saying, "Daughter, Watch! For the enemy has the ability to Regroup and Rebuild the Communication Systems back better — and with even greater Power and influence over Regions and Territories!"

Daughter, Watch and Pray! Pray and seek My Face, for the Reformation of The Five! For when The Five come together in Unity and Agreement — that is when the fullness of the Power and Authority of the Master-Key of the House of 22:22 will be released! Daughter, I say again, ONLY the Kingship Anointing and the Authority of The Key of the House of David has the Power to override every demonic Circuit, Mechanism, and Technology of Communication in the Realm of the Spirit! Only the Power and Authority of The Key of the House of David can bring a Divine Unlocking to the Land and to Nations held in Bondage!"

When I came out of this powerful Encounter, I knew by The Spirit that The LORD was not only revealing greater Revelation and Strategy concerning Taking Back Regions and Territories under the Demonic influence and control of the enemy, but He was uncovering a hidden secret He was exposing what the enemy feared the most, The Reformation of the Five! For Satan knows that when there is Unity and the Power of Agreement within The Five, the Power and Authority of The Key of David will be released, and this Supernatural Master-Key has the Authority to override every demonic System and Technology of Communication.

Satan knows that when the Power of the Sound of The Seven Spirits comes together with the Authority of The Key of the House of David, there will be a Divine Overturning and a Supernatural Unlocking that will begin to take place, and every Demonic Throne and Satanic Stronghold will lose their power, influence, and control over Nations.

When the Ecclesia begins to Arise and Shine in their True Identity and in the Authority of True Sonship, every Demonic Communication Systems and Structure will come crashing down and Global Awakening and Revival will take place!

I hear The Spirit say, "Watch, as I raise up The Circuit Breakers in this hour, who will break the Demonic Codes and dismantle the Satanic Systems and Structures of the enemy in this hour!"

Blessings to you all.

PS: So 10 days ago, when the Lord showed me the Words "RED OCTOBER" UPSIDE DOWN,; He began to Speak to me again about the Prophetic significance of COMMUNICATION LINES. He started showing me the Significance of the Number (22) in the context of the Authority of the Key of the House of David, and the Lord then impressed upon my heart the need to Call a 22 Day War Room Gathering starting Oct 2-23; 22 Day WAR CRY ~ "NOT ON MY WATCH!"

I believe this Word today speaks powerfully yet again to THE MASTER KEY, TO THE KEY OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID THAT HAS THE POWER AND AUTHORITY TO OVERRIDE AND COMPLETELY DESTROY THE WHOLE DEMONIC NETWORK SYSTEM OF THE ENEMY. THE ECCLESIA MUST ARISE IN THIS CRITICAL HOUR IN THE AUTHORITY OF THE MIGHTY BREAKER ANOINTING TO UPROOT AND OVERTHROW!!!

Tishrei 3, 5785: Saturday-October 5, 2024

Alane Haynes: "Give Me This Mountain!"

Trials, Tests, and Superabundant Grace

As I sought the Lord about the new year, what I heard was that this will be a year of extreme trials and tests as the shaking continues (Hebrews 12:27-28), but there is superabundant grace that will be available for tremendous triumphs. This is confirmed by the symbolism in the numbers 5785 and 2025, which I will go into later.

The Holy Spirit emphasized to me the number 85, and I heard Him say that in this year many will fall, but many will rise up with the same spirit that enabled Caleb when he was 85 to declare, "Give me this mountain!" (Joshua 14:12). This refers to the inheritance promised him by Moses 45 years prior. I believe that in this year of 5785 we must stand strong in the same faith Caleb had at 85 to contend for our inheritance, for the fulfillment of promises that we've been waiting on! Give me this mountain!

Caleb's Faith

Caleb was the leader of the tribe of Judah and was faithful to God during a time of great trial. Forty years earlier, when the leaders of the 12 tribes went in to spy out the Promised Land, the majority murmured that the giants were too great for them. This was Caleb's response:

"Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, 'Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it.'" (Numbers 13:30 NKJV)

How did he have this faith? He believed what God had promised! What has He promised you? This is a year to stand strong in faith, make bold declarations, and be victorious!

Caleb's mountain was Hebron. Joshua had taken Hebron in years past (Joshua 11), but the enemies of God (the Anakim in this instance) had returned and reoccupied the land. Caleb had to drive them out again (Joshua 15:14)!

Taking Ground and Keeping It!

We have to keep guard in the places where we have had victory! This applies to all areas of our lives: family, ministry, finances, health, etc. We have to be focused and spiritually alert to stay in faith and move forward, but also to maintain the ground we have taken and receive the promises we have been given by the Lord. We may have to war in areas where we once had victory, areas that have been re-occupied by the enemy! It is important to examine ourselves to see if we are in faith.

"Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Yeshua Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?" (2 Corinthians 13:5 KJV)

If we aren't in the faith, we need to identify what we are in. Is it sin, unbelief, the flesh, worldly influence, murmuring, turning to idols, weariness from the war? What is taking first place over God? The apostle Paul exhorts us in 1 Corinthians 10 not to fall in the same way that the Israelites did on their journey to the Promised Land!

Don't be discouraged if you haven't been in faith, just repent; change your mind, and take action to return to the Lord! Ask the Holy Spirit to help you! Stir up your faith, deny the flesh, take every thought captive, and renew your mind to the Word of God! Most importantly, stay in faith and live from a place of continual fellowship with the Lord!

How? Seek Him, talk with Him, listen to Him, and obey Him! (Photo via Snappy Goat)

Scripture records that Caleb fully followed the Lord! Let this be said of us in the annals of Heaven and Earth! The people that know their God from a continual, abiding relationship with Him will do mighty exploits (Daniel 11:32)!

Taking Ground Corporately and Nationally

Maintaining and retaking ground applies corporately and nationally also (not just the U.S.). It is obvious that the enemy has gained much ground in the last 50 plus years. We were once seen as a godly nation. Many have been deceived through the subtleties of satan and human reasoning, wanting to be like the world, having the love of money, and the desire for comfort and personal gain. There are other reasons, but the bottom line is the same.

It's time to wake up, see the result, receive the fear of the Lord, repent, turn back to God fully, and take a stand for righteousness. The Lord highlighted Psalm 85, which is a prayer for God's grace and mercy. Verses 7–9 really speak to this:

"Shew us Thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us Thy salvation.

"I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for He will speak peace unto His people, and to His saints: but let them not turn again to folly.

"Surely His salvation is nigh them that fear Him; that glory may dwell in our land."

Let us not turn again to folly! When we put God first in holy, reverential awe (fear of the Lord), glory will dwell in our land!

A Year of Extreme Dichotomies

Hebron is the land that God gave Abraham. This is significant to the year 5785. Strong's number 85 is the name Abraham, and in the Hebrew language it means "exalted father." Throughout Scripture Abraham is noted as the father of our faith. Conversely, Strong's number 85, in the Greek, is ademoneo, which means "very heavy," "distressed," "to be sated to loathing," and "troubled."

This will be a year of extreme dichotomies in the realms of flesh versus spirit, faith versus fear, good versus evil, and love versus hate. It will be a year of intense tests and trials. We will battle against the oppression and heaviness from what we see in the natural, from the tumultuous times we are living in and troubles we will have, what we are feeling, and what others are saying, to contend for faith by the Spirit.

Caleb contended for his land at age 85. When Abraham was 85, he relied on natural, fleshly reasoning, had sexual relations with Sarah's maid Hagar, and Ishmael was the result. In this year of dichotomies (flesh versus spirit), which will we choose to prevail in our lives?

When we are going through great trials, we need to stand firm on what God has said, not what we see with our natural eyes.

Caleb and the other 11 leaders spying out the land all saw the giants. They all had the choice of fear or faith in God. Caleb and Joshua chose to keep their hearts and minds set on what God said: "I am giving you this land!" (Joshua 1:1–11). (Photo via Unsplash)

When we see our giants, we have to remind ourselves that "greater is He that is in [us] than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4, brackets mine). The same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead dwells in us (Romans 8:11)! The Lord our God is for us; He is with us. He has all the resources of Heaven and Earth, and a host of angels to help us. He will be exalted! He is faithful to perform that which He has purposed!

"The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand." (Isaiah 14:24 KJV)

Overcomers!

Tremendous triumphs will be ours if we overcome! The stakes are high! In the book of Revelation, Yeshua spoke to all seven churches, representing the Body of Christ (past, present, and future), with the admonition to be overcomers and the rewards that it will bring. He also gave warnings for those who don't, with an additional strong warning in Revelation 21:7–8:

"He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be My son.

"But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

Don't be in condemnation if you have not been able to overcome in days past. Today is a new day, and this year there is superabundant grace and fresh anointing for victory!

A Year of Superabundant Grace and Anointing

In 5785, the first and last numbers are both the number five, which is the number of grace. Also, the numbers 5785 added together equals 25—five multiplied by five! Superabundant grace is available for us to do all that God has ordained for us to do to be victorious in every battle, no matter how fierce!

This year, avail yourself of a greater measure of grace to overcome what you have not been able to conquer in times past, and to take new ground—the promises you have not yet seen manifest in your life! I believe that this year we will see a great surge of salvations and supernatural moves of God throughout the earth in the midst of troubling times! Be expectant! Give me this mountain!

Five also represents the five-fold ministry: apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor, teacher (Ephesians 4:11). This indicates superabundant grace available not just personally, but for the Church (Ekklesia). I believe this is a year where the Holy Spirit will work with the five-fold ministry to lay hold of His grace for unity in the Body of Christ and return to the biblical pattern He intended for His people. I declare the mountain of religion shall break, and true spiritual sonship shall be established!

This year, I believe the Holy Spirit will orchestrate divine appointments for the five-fold ministry to unite under the headship of Yeshua and work together to equip the saints for the work of the ministry, making known to the principalities and powers the manifold wisdom of God by the Church (Ephesians 3:10) through the multiplied grace being given.

This was confirmed to me when I felt the leading of the Holy Spirit to look up the meaning of the word "Hebron" (Caleb's mountain). I was surprised to find that Hebron means "conjunction" and "joining," according to Gesenius' Hebrew and Chaldee Lexicon. One of the greatest mountains I believe we need to corporately contend for in this year is unity in the Body of Christ, with the leading of the five-fold ministry to return to the biblical foundation and pattern! (Photo via Freepik)

2025: Fresh Anointing

As I sought the Lord further, I sensed the Holy Spirit strongly telling me to look up the meaning of the number 2025. Strong's number 2025, in the Greek, is the word epichrio, and means "to spread on" and "to anoint." The root means "to smear or rub with oil, i.e. (by implication) to consecrate to an office or religious service." This ties in with the five-fold office gifts working together in the multiplied grace provided by the Holy Spirit.

A fresh anointing is being released for consecration and service to the Lord and His people. Watch God move mightily this year. Be expectant and ready for Him to use you also!

Strong's number 2025 in the Hebrew is the word harel, which means "mount of God." The root word means "strength," "mighty," and "the Almighty"!

Give me this mountain! All that seems impossible in the natural shall be received through the power and anointing of the Spirit of Almighty God! Glory to His name!

"So he answered and said to me: 'This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit," says the LORD of hosts.'" (Zechariah 4:6 NKJV)

Remember, the Battle Is Spiritual

In this time when the enemy seeks to divide and conquer, and the Holy Spirit is providing supernatural grace to be united and victorious, we must remember this battle is spiritual. We take the mountains that are occupied by the enemies of God not by wrestling "against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Ephesians 6:12).

"For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; and having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled" (2 Corinthians 10:3–6 KJV).

Take back What the Enemy Has Stolen

This year remember who you are in Christ, and Whose you are! Recall what the Lord has said; remember His promises! There will be extreme tests and trials. Repent when necessary and return fully to the Lord! Pick up your sword (the Word of God), raise the shield of faith, lay claim to His promises, obey His leading, and you will have tremendous triumphs in every battle!

Receive His superabundant grace and anointing of the Holy Spirit, and proclaim, "Give me this mountain!" in every area of your life where the enemy is ruling and you have not seen the promises of God realized. The Spirit of Christ dwells in you, and He has overcome all things! You ARE an overcomer! This year, move forward in faith and take back what the enemy has stolen!

Dismantling and Rebuilding

Matthew 11:10-19 in The Passion Translation, Yeshua offers some great insights about the diversity of gifts:

"See, I am sending my prophetic messenger who will go ahead of Me and prepare hearts to receive Me. "For I tell you the truth, throughout history, there has never been a man who surpasses John the Baptizer. Yet the least of those who now experience heaven's kingdom will become even greater than he. From the moment John stepped onto the scene until now, the realm of heaven's kingdom is bursting forth, and passionate people have taken hold of its power. For all the prophets and the Torah prophesied until John appeared. If you can receive this truth, John is the Elijah who was destined to come. So, listen and understand what I'm telling you.

"How could I describe the people of this generation? You're like children playing games on the playground, yelling at their playmates, 'You don't like it when we want to play Wedding! And you don't like it when we want to play Funeral! You will neither dance nor mourn.' Why is it that when John came to you, neither feasting nor drinking wine, you said, 'He has a demon in him!?' Yet when the Son of Man came and went to feasts and drank wine, you said, 'Look at this man! He is nothing but a glutton and a drunkard! He spends all His time with tax collectors and other sinners.' But God's wisdom will become visible by those who embrace it." (Matthew 11:10-19 TPT)

Prophetic forerunners like John usually precede revivals. By "prophetic," I'm not referring to predicting the future, but rather, the unpleasant aspect of this gifting some are called to that creates change by uprooting and tearing down (Jeremiah 1:12). I am referring to spiritual callings like that of John, prophets who level mountains of adversity, straighten crooked places in societies, and smooth the rough ground of deception, preparing the way for spiritual highways to be built (Isaiah 40:3-4). These forerunners don't paint the stripes on highways or plant the greenery that enhances them, and they certainly don't build the Rest Areas! No, when it comes to building roads, their expertise is operating bulldozers.

This unique calling is difficult, often misunderstood as being mean-spirited; it sometimes even results in beheadings - just ask John (Matthew 14:1-12)! Everybody loves a nice highway; nobody likes the process: mud, delays, detours.

Those blessed with mercy temperaments and pastoral gifts frequently reject those with forerunner callings. They often think "love" and "nice words" alone will transform the mountains, thorns, weeds, rocks, and crooked places into highways. "Don't rock the boat" and "Don't be harsh" is often their position. Many of them don't have enough discernment to see that the only solution for some obstacles is an earth mover or dynamite!

To be fair, there is also the problem of forerunners using too much dynamite, or not recognizing when it is time for the pavers and painters. If Herod hadn't ended John's career, who knows how long he would have kept going? After all, there was undoubtedly more repentance necessary in Israel! There is never a shortage of weeds and rough terrain.

We should know by now that Yeshua was and remains the ONLY perfect person that has ever existed. The sooner we admit this, the better. Forerunners don't forerun perfectly, and the mercy folks don't extend mercy perfectly. Taking this a step further, apostles don't lead perfectly, prophets don't prophesy perfectly, evangelists don't evangelize perfectly, pastors don't pastor perfectly, and teachers don't teach perfectly. And sheep, by the way, don't "sheep" perfectly. We should all remember this the next time we feel someone isn't doing things as well as we think they should. And we must remember that the different callings and motivations - given to us by God - cause us to think differently and all are needed!

In our opening passage, Yeshua said, "You didn't like John's approach, and you don't like Mine. You didn't want to mourn, and you don't want to dance. You didn't want the forerunner, and you don't want the Messiah."

Then the Master gave some insight: "Wisdom is justified by her children" (verse 19). What does that mean? The Message Translation makes it pretty clear: "Opinion polls don't count for much, do they? The proof of the pudding is in the eating." Ah, the simple eloquence of The Message Translation. "Wait for the fruit," Yeshua was saying. Sometimes, that's the only way to discern who was right and who was wrong. And occasionally we'll discover, to our surprise, that they were both right, part of the same team, building the same road.

THE RARE MIX

Occasionally, God puts a unique blend of the "tearing down" and "building up" callings in one individual. As a spiritual leader, Paul certainly possessed this. He was instrumental in dismantling an old system and building the church. As a secular leader, Ronald Reagan demonstrated this also. "Mr Gorbachev, tear down this wall"(1) was the precursor to rebuilding a continent. His efforts to tear down Marxism here and abroad allowed healing and restoration.

Pray with me:

Father, we realize America has a lot of spiritual mountains, rough terrain, and strongholds standing in the way of our return to You. We thank You for voices that have been calling us to repentance and cleansing. We believe we will dance with Messiah again, but we also know that deep repentance is part of that process.

We also thank You for gifts in leaders that enable us to build and rebuild, both in the church and in nations. We will certainly need them in the coming days. Yeshua, the Author and Finisher of our faith, will provide these gifts. We ask for hearts that honor our different callings and distinctions, along with the humility to realize none of us have all that is needed to accomplish Your desires.

We continue to ask for Your protection over Trump, Biden, Harris, and our other government leaders. We also ask this for their families and those associated with them. Deliver our nation from the spirit of murder we have allowed in through the shedding of innocent blood, and restore our love for the innocent. We ask all of this in Yeshua's name. Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that a highway is being built in America for the glory of God to return to us.

PROPHECY FROM 10 YEARS AGO:
"AMERICA SHALL ONCE AGAIN BE GREAT!"
KIM CLEMENT

Prophetic word released by Kim Clement on June 11, 2014 (reposted by Donné Clement Petruska on August 20, 2024): "There is going to be a change, an occupation in the White House, where there will be once again restoration of wells that were dug by your forefathers. I believe you're understanding what I'm saying.

"I'm not calling anybody bad, but I tell you what, we need some changes, and God wants those changes as well. And I want you to know that He is preparing it, and those wells which were yours by inheritance, but today you don't have access to them because someone else has occupied them: someone else's mind, someone else's politics, someone else's control, has taken occupation of those wells, and because they've done that, we don't have the freedom anymore.

"We don't have the wealth anymore. I want you to know that God wants that to change so that those wells, which were dug by your forefathers, can once again be yours and America shall once again be great!"

"The Atmosphere Is Changing"
Vision

On Sunday morning (August 25, 2024), during our worship time, I had a vision. I was reminded of a time when Tom and I were traveling to Korea for ministry, and a yellow, industrial dust blew over from China. It completely polluted the atmosphere and actually poisoned my lungs, giving me pneumonia and bronchitis numerous times over the next eighteen months until I was healed.

A Polluted Atmosphere

What I saw in the spirit was that this dust was like the toxic spiritual atmosphere over America at this time. I saw the dust choking out the breath of God from the Ekklesia. It was making it difficult to breathe and release life or declare what God was saying, additionally causing fatigue and disengagement.

The toxic dust was filling the ears, keeping people from hearing the word of the Lord. It was burning the eyes, keeping people from being able to see clearly what is ahead.

Praise, Pray, and Prophecy!

But as we praised, prayed, and prophesied, I saw the wind of God begin to blow gusty, forceful winds, clearing the atmosphere. There was turbulence in the atmosphere as force met force, yet the wind of God was prevailing. (Photo via Pexels)

When the Lord took Ezekiel to the valley of dry bones (Ezekiel 37), one of the things he was told to prophesy was breath and wind. When he did, the assembled dry bones stood up as an exceeding great army. There is an army rising up!

"Ruach"

This word for wind/breath in Hebrew is the word ruach, which has several interesting meanings: "life," "vivacity," "vigor," "courage;" an "inspiring ecstatic state of prophecy;" "spirit as impelling prophets to utter instruction or warning;" "imparting warlike energy, and executive and administrative power;" "as endowing men with various gifts;" "as energy of life;" "Shekina" (or "Shekinah") [a manifestation of the Shekinah glory and presence of God] (Strong's 7307, Brown-Driver-Briggs).

This word literally refers to the third person of the Trinity, Holy Spirit Himself.

The Wind of God Will Begin to Blow

I believe we are in for some tumultuous months ahead in our nation.

But as we stir the atmosphere over our own lives through our praise, prophetic declarations, and prayer, the wind of God will begin to blow, clearing out our eyes and ears, breathing new life into our lungs, and filling us, that we might prophesy life into death and light into darkness.

Be Filled and Shift the Atmosphere!

When Yeshua prayed for His disciples it says, "...He breathed on them and said, 'Receive the Holy Spirit` `'" (John 20:22). It's time to be filled afresh with the ruach breath of God!

Breathe in and receive Holy Spirit and receive His ruach. Receive new life, new vitality, warlike energy, supernatural gifts, and prophetic anointing, that we might manifest the Shekinah glory of God. Begin to rise up as an army, the Ekklesia, to shift the atmosphere over our nation, from hostile to holy, from woke to awakened, from death to life!

Terry Friesen: It's Time to Activate

In this current season, the Lord has been speaking to me about our coming activation. Many have been in seasons of preparation for years, even decades, and are now ready to be activated. Its not that we haven't been effective in previous seasons, but every season up to this point has been preparation for the greater things the Father has in mind.

During a time of prayer and worship, in the midst of God's glory, I was brought into an interactive vision. I saw a powerful car engine on my left side, and I saw a transmission floating in the air on my right. By His own hands, the Lord was in the process of connecting the transmission and the engine in an atmosphere surrounded by glory.

The engine produces the power, and, in many ways, we've come to recognize our identity in Christ and His finished work, which is the power we walk in. We know this power, but we've struggled to see it consistently displayed in the place we tread. Sometimes it seems like a hit or miss. In some areas, we see the answers, and in other areas we remain in a posture of contending.

In seeing this connection, the transmission is heavily built; a strong and fortified piece that translates the power from the engine to the wheels, where the rubber meets the road. In this vision, the size and solid imagery of the transmission left no doubt that it was able to translate all the power to the wheels, and it would not break under pressure or torque.

We have been prepared to walk in His power and to administrate the things of His kingdom. He is now putting the finishing touches on many years of preparation within us as we are on the threshold of what comes next.

The Lord has been communicating with me recently in a way that implies, "we need to get past our ability, or lack of ability, to display His power." By that, I mean we need to walk in His power in such a natural and consistent way so that it no longer becomes the focus, but rather, supports the vision the Lord gives us. When we actively and consistently walk in His power, our vision will go higher because we will start to think differently. Christ did not look through the eyes of limitation, so He did not shy back from what He saw the Father doing. He wasn't distracted by insecurity, or a lack of power, so He was able to focus fully on His mission and the people.

I believe we have come almost as far as we can in the formation of Christ in us without actively manifesting the promises we believe in. About 18 months ago, I heard the Lord speak clearly, "His love is formed in us as we walk in Love; His hope is formed in us as we learn to walk in Hope; His manifesting nature is formed in us as we manifest Him in Power." This aspect of His nature cannot be fully formed in us by reading a book or even by waiting or praying. It is formed in us by the working of His power as it flows out of us in the situations in which we are planted.

We are entering a season of activation where His power in us, His promises in us, are activated, and by displaying His power, we become like Yeshua and how He walked the earth. Our Father has much more for us to do, Kingdom family business that we are not even aware of, so it will be natural for us to progress past things we currently contend for and step into a new reality with a new set of paradigms.

I was relaying the above encounter with my prayer partners and in the midst of this communication, I saw the transmission appear again. This time it appeared on the inside of me. The end that bolts to the engine was facing down and connected to the seat of my spirit, the cornerstone of Christ that is the foundation of my life in Him. As I marveled at what I was seeing and experiencing, the various parts of the transmission started to move and activate. The power that was resident in Christ at the center of my spirit was now turning the gears and making its way to my whole being to be expressed on the outside of me.

In another encounter a couple days later, Christ revealed Himself as the Lion of the Tribe of Judah in my inner man. I could feel the power of His nature that was emanating from the seat of my spirit where He dwells, and He was forcefully seeking to express Himself.

I have lived my life for over 30 years in a posture of not my will but His, holding nothing back, and in that moment, I realized I still had filters on the inside of my heart whereby I could decide how much of His nature I would let out. Very clearly, He asked in that moment, "Will you agree to let me come out of you however I choose, whenever I choose, in the way I choose?" I was shaken, because never before have I felt that great of a power inside of me seeking to express itself. My whole being shook from the inside out. In my discomfort, I relayed my experience to those around me in our worship time, and with them as my witness, I said yes.

If you desire to be fully activated in what God has called you to do, will you say yes to the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, that He would have the freedom to express Himself as He chooses? He is looking for those who would say yes.

Recently, I was being driven to a men's gathering. As we drove, I went into an encounter where I saw before me the four faces of the living creatures. I saw the eagle, the ox, a human face, and the Lion. As each face rotated in front of my vision, I saw through it's eyes a different activation of sight. Each face represents a different aspect of Christ's nature that He walked out in the earth. The Lord seeks to come through us as He chooses in ways that reflect His nature in these four ways and more.

Around this same timeframe, I was having my morning coffee and perceived an angelic host standing before me. I did not know his full purpose, but he seemed to be opening up a portal or action in the spirit of some kind. A couple of hours later, in the middle of my workday, I felt something shift in the spirit and recognized now was the time to connect with what had taken place. I returned to the spot where I had discerned the angel activity.

When I closed my eyes, I saw a multitude of images and video clips fly past me in the spirit. I was seeing so many representations of what I have prayed for in past seasons: fulfilled promises, gifts activated, relationships embraced, and I was being accelerated towards them.

If you have ever visited Disneyland, like I did in the 70's as a kid, I sat in one of the rides that took me into Tomorrow Land. On this ride, the car we sat in moved slowly through a tunnel, but the lights surrounding the ride flew towards us very quickly, giving us the impression we were moving very fast as we were transported into tomorrow. This is what I was experiencing with images that reflected my future, my tomorrow.

The longer I waited on the Lord in this posture, the more I realized that I wasn't accelerating towards the images, but rather, they were coming towards me. The Lord was accelerating the spiritual dynamic of what was taking place, so that the promises spoken over my life were coming towards me and surrounding me.

Our activation in this season will lead to an acceleration.

Recently as I was going about my business, at an unexpected time, I heard our Father say, "Now that I have a people who are able to withstand the assault of the enemy, the enemy will not be able to steal from them what I will now release." I immediately became aware that the Father has kept many things for His children for this time. In past seasons, we have all seen the Father's blessing come on a life or ministry only to see adverse attacks take them off course. During this very hard season, we have learned to stand, and to say no to the enemy. The Father knows He has a people who will not succumb to the work of our enemy, so now He will release things He has kept for us and for this time.

I was recently praying for a friend who is going through a challenging season. I saw him hold up his left hand towards the enemy and say "no, I will not take what you are putting on me.” And at the same time his right hand was open to receive from the Lord or take from the enemy what is rightfully his to take. Like Nehemiah’s building crew, we have learned to war and build at the same time. We are ready to advance and perform what we are called to do, and we are ready to defend it in the midst of battle so what we build rises in the purity of our King.

We are entering unprecedented days that will require all of the focus and intentionality that we have been trained to operate in. We will need to stand strong against the onslaught of our enemy, and we are ready for this, but our hearts and visions are tuned to the coming fulfillment. The promises we’ve carried in our hearts for this season will now start to come forth, through us, His willing vessels, and we will never be the same.

In the middle of my most challenging last couple months, it seemed that I had gone as far as I could. I was exercising every gift and truth I was aware of but not truly advancing. For several days in a row, I would stand and stand again with no forward progress. My heart was calling out to my Lord, “How do I proceed?” One night, not knowing what to do next, I feel asleep trusting He would provide a way, somehow.

I was awakened in the middle of the night to one of the brightest lights I had ever seen standing beside my bed. The light was shining in the spirit and not in the natural. This light was different. It had such an immense purity to it and as I looked on, I heard, “the light of His transfiguration.” I recognized this was an angelic host that had spent considerable time in the presence of Yeshua, and He now carried and was releasing the light of Christ’s transfiguration. He was positioned beside my bed for about 30 minutes and during this time, the light he carried came into me and fortified me in ways I knew not how.

On another night more recently, I had a dream. The central figure in the dream was walking and navigating many challenges by the use of revelation, wisdom and understanding. Even with this gifting, they slowly ended up in a place where they simply could not move and did not know what to do. In the dream, I felt all of the overwhelming emotion bottled up in this moment, and a hearts cry, beyond words, was released simply asking for help. In response, I saw the Father release from His heart, a breath of His love which entered the man. The Father’s love caused the man to elevate to a higher plane, and he simply walked through all of the calamity and adverse conditions as if they were not there.

Many have found themselves in circumstances beyond their comprehension and in need of help. No matter your circumstance, our God is the answer. He has gifts and aspects of His nature He seeks to release to us during this season that will enable us to cross over and into the fulfillment of the promises we carry. Taste and see that He is good. Embrace our Lord, and our Lord alone, as you cross over to a season of activation and acceleration.

"God Is Flipping the Script! From Sifting to Shifting!"

The Breakthrough Sound of God's Wild Lovers

I hear the sound of thunder as God's wild lovers rise. I see the earth quaking open at the sound of their praise. I hear the violent roar of freedom exploding from deep within these wild lovers. I see the sword of truth propelling out of their mouths, delivering a death blow to cycles of dysfunction and generational bondages. I hear ecstatic praise rising from those who have had their mouths clamped shut by the enemy! I see the scepter of the Lord passing over, like a winnowing fork, sifting hearts and motives.

God is unraveling generational chords, of dysfunction that have wrapped around your purpose like a noose. He is "rewiring" your thinking patterns to truth and cutting off the life source of lies. He's exposing and releasing His judgment against systems and cycles that have stolen your energy and wickedness that has tried to derail your purpose.

"For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind..."
(Hosea 8:7)

The statutes of God are just, and His commands enlighten your eyes to see from Heaven's perspective. In this last season, hearts were tested by fire, but it was the humble who passed the test.

"The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes..." (Psalm 19:8)

Shifted, Not Sifted

The ones who stayed humble, despite persecution... the ones who were underestimated...
the ones who were used and cast aside... the ones who even believed that they themselves had been dealt the final death blow—The enemy wanted to sift you, but now God is shifting you! (Photo via Pexels)

"Simon, Simon, satan has asked to sift all of you as wheat. But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." (Luke 22:31–32)

Everything that can be shaken will be shaken, but the oil and wine of God will never be destroyed!

Drink Deeply of the Wine of God's Presence

I saw these wild lovers isolated in a desert and surrounded by tormentors. In the midst of this desert, with death pressing in all around, Holy Spirit began filling the deepest and largest goblet I had ever seen with wine. He gave His beloved the goblet and said, "Drink deeply. The time of rejoicing is here!"

You may be standing in the middle of desolation or gasping for breath as you lay exhausted and thirsty on the dry ground of a desert, but I hear the sound of wine swishing! I see the refreshing joy God is pouring out for His love-sick Bride! People will say, "How can they celebrate in the face of such massive devastation? How can they sing the song of love so freely?"

"Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine." (Song of Solomon 1:2)

The Hebrew word nashaq (Strong's 5401) in Song of Solomon 1:2 means "kiss" and "be equip with." It's intimacy with God that equips us!

Press into the Place of Intimacy

You who are God's wild lovers, hear me! Press in, and from that place of intimacy with the Lord, contend for your inheritance! Everything that can be shaken will be shaken, but the wine of God's presence can never be destroyed. Being intoxicated with Holy Spirit is what will satisfy, sustain, and strengthen you. The wine of God's presence (intimacy with Him) is the immunity and inoculation to the shakings and trials of this world! Drink deep, O lovers of the one true God! Let Him refresh you with the intoxicating joy of His wine.

Be Filled with Oil

"Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps." (Matthew 25:1–4) (Photo via Pixabay)

Matthew 24 talks about the story of the ten virgins. Virgins are pure. They have abstained from the ways of the world and the flesh. These pure ones were not sinners; they were those consecrated to God. But five of those consecrated to God were not ready! They stayed pure, but they didn't stay filled with fresh oil!

Purity is not enough! We must be continuously filled with the pure oil of God's presence. Last year's oil is not enough. Yesterday's oil is not enough. Being half-filled is not enough. We need to stay full of fresh oil!

God Is Flipping the Script!

The enemy sought to prevail over you, to assassinate you, and to shipwreck your calling, but God is flipping the script! The enemy thought he sifted you, but God is shifting you!

"...[W]hen the king's order and edict was about to be carried out, on the day when the enemies of the Jewish people expected to prevail over them, things were turned around so that the Jewish people themselves prevailed over those who hated them." (Esther 9:1, emphasis mine)

"Who is that coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?..."
(Song of Solomon 8:5)

Rejoice! The script has been flipped! Receive the shift of the Lord. Drink deeply of the wine of God's presence! Stay full of fresh oil! Those who need to be strengthened are waiting.

"Simon, Simon, satan has asked to sift all of you as wheat. But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." (Luke 22:31–32)

Amanda Grace: "Awe in the High Holy Days"

[Editor's note: Below is the prophetic word that Amanda Grace shared during her recent interview on ElijahStreams.

Word of the Lord received on August 16, 2024:

I woke up at 6:45 AM, and I audibly heard, "Running." Then I heard, "I'm in Salt Lake City, Utah." I also heard, "Brazil." (I would watch those areas right now.)

ALL praise, honor, and glory be to the Lord of hosts, Maker of ALL things, Creator of ALL things. Before the foundations of the earth were ever laid, I AM was. He sits on the highest throne, clothed with majesty and righteousness. His goodness is everlasting, and to HIS Kingdom there is no end.

The Road of Perdition

And the Spirit of the Lord says this day, "Take heed, MY children, [of] the road of perdition they attempt to lay brick by brick before you in your nation... a road of perdition that leads to a GATE, a GATE that, for a certain price, will be opened to totalitarian leaderships of the earth in order that certain nations may attempt a MONOPOLY on America," says the Lord.

"I Am Breaking Arms of Flesh in This Hour"

Thus says the Lord, "Is My arm too short that it cannot save? Is My hand too short that it cannot take hold? Do not put your trust in the arms of flesh in this hour, for I the Lord thy God AM BREAKING ARMS OF FLESH

IN THIS HOUR; THEY SHALL BE BROKEN. FOR THEY WERE RAISED TO RECEIVE FROM A DARGON, A SERPENT, AND ANCIENT DEMONS OF RUIN, WHO OBSESSIVELY DESIRE TO TAKE TERRITORIES BACK THROUGH THOSE THEY HAVE SHOWED SUCH IMAGES OF A TAINTED GLORY, THAT HAVE BEEN NOW LURED INTO BEING THE FACE OF SUCH DEVIIOUS CAMPAIGNS," SAYS THE LORD.

And says the Spirit of the Lord this day, "TURKEY, O TURKEY, YOU TRIFLE TOO CLOSE TO WHAT IS MINE," SAYS THE LORD. "LEBANON IS SHAKING, AND I SHALL SHAKE YOU AS WELL," SAYS THE LORD, "FOR YOU ARE STIRRING THE POT. YOU MAKE ACTIVE THREATS AGAINST WHAT IS MINE. AND YOUR LEADERSHIP SHALL HAVE A CLOSE CALL, FOR YOUR FOOT HAS SLIPPED, AND YOU ARE NOW HEADED DOWN SUCH A SLOPE," SAYS THE LORD.

"TURKEY'S PLANS AND BLUEPRINTS FOR REGIONAL DOMINANCE SHALL BE EXPOSED, AND THEIR PRIVATE CALL WITH THE AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION AND DEFENSE DEPARTMENT SHALL BE EXPOSED," SAYS THE LORD.

"TURKEY SHALL SHAKE," SAYS THE LORD. "SYRIA SHALL SHAKE," SAYS THE LORD. "DAMASCUS... AN UNUSUAL EVENT THAT NEVER OCCURS IN SUCH A TERRITORY SHALL BE A SIGN," SAYS THE LORD.

And says the Lord of hosts, "The apple cart has been upset within your leadership, within your elections. The apple cart has been upset, and those running against such evils have been sent off-kilter, off their mark, because their trust is in an old strategy to face off against a new, fresh enemy," says the Lord.

Sabotage Within the Trump Campaign

"You cannot put old wine in new wineskins," says the Lord," for it will burst. Shed the old wineskin," says the Lord. "SHED IT NOW BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE. ALLOW ME, the Lord thy God, to fill a new wineskin. For," says the Lord of hosts, "O Trumpet, you are being sabotaged within your campaign! THERE IS DELIBERATE INTENT, SABOTAGE, OCCURRING WITHIN YOUR RANKS," SAYS THE LORD, "BEYOND THE SECRET SERVICE, NEAR YOUR FRONT DOOR," SAYS THE LORD! "IT MUST BE PURGED," SAYS THE LORD, "IT MUST BE PURGED. FOR YOU ARE BEING SET UP TO PURPOSEFULLY FALTER AND TO BE LED DOWN SUCH A PATH THAT

A Sudden Wind of Change Shall Blow Through the Secret Service

And says the Spirit of the Lord this day, "The secret service has lost their drive. A spirit of dejection, lackadaisicalness, and being at ease has compromised the root and the top, and this will be swept in an unusual and sudden way; for there shall be a changing of the guard with such," says the Lord. "For some deep within the secret service have been crying out to Me, grieved by what they see, and I the Lord have heard those cries, and a sudden wind of change shall blow the chaff out of such departments and scatter it," says the Lord.

New Wine

"The old wineskins must go, for in this season I the Lord God, Elohim, desire to pour NEW WINE into MY PEOPLE, NEW WINE INTO THE CHURCH, NEW WINE INTO CITIES, NEW WINE INTO CHICAGO, NEW WINE INTO ST LOUIS, NEW WINE INTO BALTIMORE, NEW WINE INTO SAN FRANCISCO, NEW WINE INTO ALBANY, NEW WINE INTO ATLANTA—INTO THE FOUR CORNER STATES OF THE NATION; NEW WINE IN HOUSTON AND THE SMALLER TOWNS IN TEXAS THAT HAVE BEEN DRY AND CALLING OUT TO ME. Donald Trump's Assassination Attempt

A Prophetic Picture of God's Hand

On Friday, August 23, 2024, Father declared, "Let My enemies shake in fear, because they will see My wrath in the days that are fast approaching. The greatest challenge that My children will have is not to rejoice over the demise of the wicked, but to keep their hearts pure by praying for their souls to be saved.

"My children will reap the benefits of those that I defend and protect. They will see My hand rest on them to shield and protect them, to honor them with long lives, and to bestow blessing after blessing on them. Because My hand is on them, they will fulfill their callings. Yes, this world has seen My hand on Donald Trump. That was a prophetic sign that, in the same way, My hand will rest on all My faithful children, especially in those who are willing to lay before Me the sacrifice of living their lives for Me. That My will shall be done here on Earth, no matter what the cost, is the greatest prayer and the highest, most acceptable sacrifice.

"These faithful ones I will keep close to Me and will not abandon them to the schemes of the wicked. Expect Me to guard, defend, and bless those who live for Us and for Our children. Watch as I do perform this promise over and over in the days ahead. Set apart for Me, set apart by Me, shall all of My devoted children be. Their lives will be a testimony of the faithfulness of the God they love and serve.

"As every eye saw Me save Donald Trump, every eye will see as I defend the defenseless. Recompense is coming for those who suffered unjustly at the hands of the wicked. Watch and you will see My justice manifest for all to see!" (See Isaiah 45:1–13.)

I realized that, for a season, the Lord allowed the enemy to have his way, oppress God's people, and bring injustice to us. In this time, our eyes were opened. The world saw injustice and wickedness for what it was and couldn't continue to accept it as good. Evil was seen as evil during this time. Now that eyes have been opened, God is going to act on our behalf: defending the oppressed, bringing justice to those who lacked just judgments, opening the doors for success, and bringing restoration of all that was stolen and lost during the previous season.

Father said, "This injustice will not continue! Stolen elections will be stopped! The innocent will be set free and the guilty judged justly, and they will receive their just punishments, while the innocent will receive recompense and restitution!"

God showed me that He is making His hand known and felt. His hand creates, shields, protects, heals, delivers, comforts, blesses, brings peace, restores what was stolen, opens doors, promotes the faithful, stops wickedness from advancing, punishes the wicked, and upholds the just.

Father continued to speak: "My hand is on you, My friends. It will bless and protect and bring in the provision you need. My hand brings all you need to easily fulfill your call. My hand rests on you and on all My faithful ones in this hour. This is the hour that the hand of God is manifesting!"

Once again (as it happened in Minnesota when an artist painted exactly what the Lord had revealed to me), Nancy, a prophetic artist at our church who paints during our service, painted the hand of God during the prayer time, at least two hours before I preached the message about the hand of God. When I looked over at her painting, I was shocked because I hadn't started preaching, and she didn't know what I was going to be speaking about, yet she painted exactly what the Lord had spoken to me. He is bringing forth profound change! (Photo via Donna Rigney)

Another Amazing Revelation and a Painting to Confirm It!

On August 30, 2024, I heard Father say, "I told you that this year would be like a fast roller coaster ride, with many twists and sharp turns, sudden drops, and quick climbs upward! Hang onto Us, and you will even enjoy this ride of your life. You have gone very low, and soon you will climb high and take some sharp turns in different directions. The wind of My Spirit will be upon you to invigorate and refresh you.

"Your nation has taken a similar ride and will begin to climb high, soon, to a place of victory and enjoyment. Thrilling will the days ahead be, as what was lost in the sudden drops and sharp turns of the past are returned with interest!"

The following day (August 31, 2024), Father shared His heart with me. I heard in my spirit, "Whatever you did (or did not do) for the least of these, you did (or did not do) for Me!"

Father explained to me that He is putting an end to the persecution and abuse of His children because His Son has suffered enough. He suffered on the earth at Calvary and while He lived on the earth before Calvary. Now He suffers when those whom He is one with are abused and mistreated.

Father said, "Enough! My Son has suffered enough at the hands of sinful men. I will put an end to this injustice and continual abuse of My Son through His union with My children who are suffering so badly."

Father loves His Son so deeply; He cannot bear to watch the suffering that He is enduring and is going to put a stop to all the wickedness and injustice. By a great outpouring of His glory, He will transform this world, and in doing this He will stop our suffering and the suffering of His Son. Father will overcome evil with an abundance of good!

Father continue to explain, "This is why We warn Our people, 'Touch not Mine anointed; do My prophets no harm' (see Psalm 105:15). When they touch you, they touch the apple of Our eye, literally a part of Our body that is sensitive and integral to Us. We won't stand idly by and watch Ours be undermined and attacked and do nothing about it. We will mount a strong defense every time!"

On September 1, 2024, while sitting alone in my prayer time, I saw an incredible vision. The heavens opened and I saw a huge ball of fire rushing toward the earth. Father stood to the left and Yeshua stood to the right of this amazing fireball.

I knew that I was seeing the same thing that Kenneth Hagin had seen in 1963. During an encounter he had with the Lord, he saw an arm rise up out of the Atlantic ocean. This arm rose up into the air and from it a dark cloud spread all over the United States. The Lord explained that this was the darkness of atheistic communism that was sweeping across the nation.

Then he saw the map of the United States, and it looked like a bottle of ink had spilled and spread over several of the states in the south and the east that eventually spread in splotches all over the map. The Lord explained that communistic-inspired hatred among races would cause greater turmoil than our nation had ever seen in the past.

When Kenneth Hagan asked the Lord if there was a remedy, he looked into the spirit realm and saw, falling upon the map, a ball of fire from Heaven. The closer it got to the earth, the bigger it got. When it came to the earth, it divided into small balls, or sparks of fire, and fell upon men, and he saw an army rise up. Both their hands and their heads had fire on them. Tongues of fire rested on all of their heads.

The Lord explained to Kenneth, "Before the worst shall come, and the day of darkness comes upon the earth, there shall be those who will carry the fullness of His truth and His fire, not only to the states of this nation, but to many other places."

I knew I was seeing the same ball of fire that Kenneth Hagan saw years ago. It was not a long distance away, but was very close to me. Revival fire is upon us!

Then I heard Father say, "It's a new day dawning for you, for your nation and for this world. Just as powerful as resurrection Sunday was over 2,000 years ago will this new day be as We pour Our glory out on all mankind. Your young men will see visions; your old men will dream dreams, and on both your sons and daughters I will pour out My Spirit.

"Yes, when I pour out My Spirit on all flesh, I will also assemble those who refused to repent and bring forth judgment and justice to them. I will avenge the innocent that they have ravaged with their wickedness. The time is late for them; the time is at hand for Us to act on behalf of Our chosen ones."

Have faith because the days ahead will be good! Praise the God who rescues, defends, and blesses His children. Great rewards are coming for the just and faithful ones! Believe, so that you can receive! Praise and worship to express your faith, love, devotion, and gratitude!

Once again during our prayer time, for the third week in a row, one of our prophetic artists (Gary) painted a picture depicting what I had seen that morning during my prayer time. As I looked over at his painting, before I began to preach, I was amazed to see a ball of fire coming from Heaven and two heavenly beings beside this fire ball. Again, God was confirming His word so all would believe. Everyone saw the picture before I preached the message, knowing that Gary did not know what I was going to speak about. Faith was ignited! (Photo via Donna Rigney)

God was saying to us, "Listen, well. I am speaking, and I want you to remain steadfast in your faith in My words and plans."

Faith is so important in this hour! This is why the Lord has raised up so many prophets to speak His words, so our faith will grow, and we will believe in what He is going to do. Now He is even confirming those words with these paintings, so we won't doubt one bit! Unlike the Israelites when they got to the Promised Land, we will not lack faith and will possess our promises!"

Confirming Scriptures: Ezekiel 45:8–10; Matthew 25:21–46.

Tishrei 10, 5785: Saturday-October 12, 2024
"DO NOT FEAR, IT IS GOD WHO SHAKES"
ANITA ALEXANDER, GOLD COAST, AUSTRALIA

The Bible says that it is the Lord that shakes the heavens and the earth (Haggai 2:6–7). The Bible also says that HE (Yahweh) will once more shake that which can be shaken, and that which cannot be shaken will remain, as He is an all-consuming fire (Hebrews 12:26–29).

So, if the Lord is the source of nations and demonic kingdoms in the heavens shaking, then as His beloved we do not have anything to fear. If He is shaking, then we are safe in Him. The devil is not the source of the shaking; nowhere in Scripture does it say that the devil is shaking the earth. So, when you see things shaking, know it is the fire of the Lord shaking that which can be shaken.

If there is a shaking that is happening in you, let any false kingdom within be shaken and burnt with fire so that His unshakable Kingdom can remain. Beloved, do not fear, as the Lord moves, His fire is testing every man his work.

Just remember, Psalm 24 states, "The earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness, the world and those who dwell therein" (v. 1). Nations are on God's mind, so "lift up your heads, O you gates, so that the King of Glory, the Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle can come in" (vv. 7–8). This is war talk. The King of Glory is coming in, and He will war and win, and nations will come to His light.

PROPHETIC WORD - YOU ARE THE TIP OF THE SPEAR

A few nights ago, I had a dream where I was watching wheat and tares being separated, much like the parable in Matthew 13. It was harvest time because the wheat was heavy with grain, bending the stalks under its weight, while the tares stood straight and tall.

As the parable says, it's during the harvest that you can easily see the difference between the two. When they are smaller, they are nearly indistinguishable. But suddenly, in my dream, the wheat and tares began to change shape until they became spears.

The wheat spears, however, were made of metal, and the tares were made of wood. Then, they were both thrown into the fire and taken to an anvil, where they were beaten with a hammer. This process happened repeatedly, over and over.

"Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest, I will say to the reapers, 'First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.'" Matthew 13:30

Within a few rounds of this process, the tares burned up quickly and were easily broken and smashed on the anvil. In contrast, the metal spears only became stronger and sharper through the process. When I woke up, I had a deep sense of knowing that we are in an hour like Matthew 13, where tares and wheat are being easily distinguished. It's becoming clearer and clearer to see things for what they truly are, to discern what is man-made and what is God-made.

It's becoming easier to spot what is a counterfeit and what is authentic.

This is a time of fruit testing and pruning.

What is from Him, and what is from us?

What is ambition, and what is His vision?

What is another idol with a Christian label slapped on it?

What is an Ishmael, and what is Isaac?
What carries the glory, and what is after the glory of man?

Division on Earth
By Michael Shuttlesworth

What do you think of when you hear the word division? Most people would think that you mean to divide something into parts, or to be disagreeable, or maybe division in the church. The dictionary gives several definitions concerning division: such as the instance of being divided in opinion or interest; the process of dividing; the mathematical operation of dividing something.

If you are even slightly awake and/or aware of what's happening around the world and especially in America, it is very obvious as to the division of ideas, morals, values, and political beliefs. What's happening is very concerning and a bit scary as to how divided we have become as people, and this is occurring even within the church. This has weighed heavily on my mind recently, and with the political landscape we find ourselves in, it is becoming increasingly disturbing to watch how divided we are becoming within our own families!

The Division that concerns me the most is the division among the Church and Family's!

What did Yeshua say concerning division? How does this effect us and how are we to cope with what is happening all around us, as we watch biblical revelations play out in front of us?

In Luke 12:51 Yeshua said, "Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division. From now on there will be five in one family divided against each other, three against two and two against three." In Matthew 10:34 Yeshua states, "Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword."

What does this mean to us?

Yeshua is not talking about division for sport or for the sake of being disagreeable. The division Yeshua talks about is between those who love Him and those who do not. He is being clear with His followers what is at stake: allegiance to Him will mean alienation from those who rebel against Him even among family members. He's telling His followers, that every other relationship will have to be sifted through His nail-pierced hands.

Being hated was something Yeshua not only took on Himself, but it was something He knew His followers would inherit. "If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you" (John 15:18-19).

If you are that person in your family or community that supports Christian values and biblical teachings, then you are probably conservative and you realize that our government is anti-Christian in all facets of how it administers laws, it's attack on the church and the family nucleus!

This is Biblical, people, just as Yeshua said, "I do not come to bring peace," the Bible is playing out right before our eyes. This is not the time to go limp, live in fear or believe this shiny world offers anything but destruction. It's time to graduate from "Sunday School" Yeshua, and know every facet of Him — and love Him. Yeshua isn't a beta male, He's the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. He looks at the boxes we try to put Him in and answers resolutely, "I AM." He will not be mocked, manipulated, or controlled. He offers all of Himself but accepts none of the world's foolery.

There's going to be a major division through humanity, concerning whether we follow Yeshua or not. This, in fact ultimately becomes the main division between humanity; not between different races, not between different genders, different ages, different levels of wealth, all those other divisions that we think so much about in all our societies. There's an even more fundamental division; the division between the one person who says I follow Yeshua wholeheartedly, and the other one who's sitting on the fence, or is apathetic, or hostile; all those people on the other side.

"Whoever is not with me is against me and whoever does not gather with me scatters." (Luke 11:23) This is a verse about neutrality. If you're not with me actively, you don't really need to do anything to be against me. Just being passive, and apathetic, and observing, and uninterested, is being against me. There's a division coming, and we must decide whether to have faith in the Messiah or not.

The Holy Spirit will come on humanity, on those who believe, but fire comes ultimately on those who choose not to believe when the opportunity is presented to them. This fire can be a reference to national judgement on Mankind and America!

<sup>54</sup>He said to the crowd: "When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'It's going to rain,' and it does. <sup>55</sup>And when you see the south wind blows, 'It's going to be hot,' and it is. <sup>56</sup>You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky. How is it that you don't know how to interpret this present time? <sup>57</sup>"Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right?" (Luke 12:54 – 57)

Choose now whom you will follow, God or Man!

Many trials are coming, and it is my prayer that if you do not know Yeshua, if you are not saved, then you will come to know Him right now! It will take strength, courage and wisdom to make it through the coming trials. Only through Yeshua and the Holy Spirit will you be able to discern the truth and recognize the enemy!

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravaging wolves. (Matthew 7:15)

Yvon Attia: "We Are Entering a Time of Sudden, Supernatural Birthing"

September is going to be a very interesting month, where God is about to bring a sudden, supernatural birthing.

I knew in my heart that September, and the number nine (as September is the ninth month), represents fruit bearing, especially in the book of Galatians. Galatians is the ninth book in the New Testament, and it specifies nine fruits given by the Holy Spirit.

Galatians 5:22–23 says this: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control..." Furthermore, the number nine also represents finality and completeness. The Gospel of Matthew recounts the death of Christ the Lord, saying, "And about the ninth hour Yeshua cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" (Matthew 27:46). It was at this time that Yeshua said, "It is finished!" (see John 19:30).

Interestingly enough, the Lord began to speak to me about how the number nine is associated with birthing, because a woman carries a child in her womb for nine months.

I heard the Lord say, "I am about to birth significant callings, dreams and destinies."

It was at that time that I saw different groups of people at different birthing stages. Some were barren and needed barrenness to be broken, others were at the point of delivery, but not giving birth, while others were giving birth, but the enemy was trying to kill their callings.

Nothing Will Be Impossible with God

I heard God say, "I am canceling every curse of barrenness over My people." I then heard the Holy Spirit whisper Luke 1:36–37: "And look, your relative Elizabeth has also become pregnant with a son in her old age—although she was called barren, she is now in her sixth month! For nothing will be impossible with God."

This is going to be the month where many people of God will experience this phrase: Nothing will be impossible with God.

It was interesting that the Holy Spirit reminded me that the image of barrenness is rooted in the book of Genesis. Sarah was barren, Rebekah was barren, and even Rachel was barren. In every generation in Genesis, the mother of the nation was barren until a sudden, miraculous intervention took place. God's people are moving from barrenness to fruitfulness.

A metaphor used for Israel, in the book of Isaiah, is that of a barren woman. God spoke through Isaiah by saying, "Sing, barren woman, you who never bore a child; burst into song, shout for joy, you who were never in labor; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband," says the LORD.

"Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide, do not hold back; lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes.

"For you will spread out to the right and to the left; your descendants will dispossess nations and settle in their desolate cities.

"Do not be afraid; you will not be put to shame. Do not fear disgrace; you will not be humiliated. You will forget the shame of your youth and remember no more the reproach of your widowhood."

"For your Maker is your husband—the LORD Almighty is His name—the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; He is called the God of all the earth." (Isaiah 54:1–5) (Photo via Pixabay)

God spoke this to His people who would enter Babylonian exile and captivity, knowing it would mean more than oppression for Israel; it would mean shame, disgrace, and humiliation.

Through the birthing that God is about to do, there will be a glorious release not only from the exile and captivity, but also from the shame, disgrace, and humiliation.

This same passage from Isaiah is quoted by the apostle Paul in Galatians 4:27, which was in reference to the miraculous "birth" of those under the new covenant.

In the natural, this does not make sense. How could a desolate woman have more children than the one who is living with her husband? The answer follows promptly. Isaiah says that it is because the husband is God Himself. The Lord of Heaven's armies, the Creator of Heaven and Earth, will be their husband.

Supernatural Birthing

I heard God say, "I am canceling the curse of barrenness. [The] curse that has been spoken for you to not prosper will be broken. Furthermore, there will be acceleration in this season."

The Lord began to speak to me about those who are at the point of birthing. "This supernatural birthing will not follow the ordinary stages of labor. In fact, before the birth pains even begin, the birthing will take place" (see Isaiah 66:7).

This was God's promise to His people. Since He Himself is their husband, He Himself will be doing the delivery. The normal stages of labor will not follow. God Himself will be doing the delivery.

This is the time to not question or doubt what God's about to do. God challenged these people by asking them, "...Has a nation ever been born in a single day? Has a country ever come forth in a mere moment? ...Would I ever bring this nation to the point of birth and then not deliver it?..." (Isaiah 66:8–9).

The answer is no!

"...'No! I would never keep this nation from being born,' says your God." (Isaiah 66:9)

Those who are birthing from the flesh will follow the natural process of labor, while those birthing from the Spirit will not.

The entire birthing process will be accelerated and will not follow the natural order of birthing. In fact, things will happen out of order.

Nate Johnston: PIONEERS, YOU ARE IN THE TRANSITION OF
"VISION RESET"
I have a word for you this week.

The Lord says, "You are in a vision reset right now. That's why I'm beginning to highlight the areas in your life that have been crowding out my voice. I've been highlighting the things in your life that have been contaminants, flies in the ointment, stopping you from clearly seeing the path, the plan, and the purpose that I have for you."

"For the last 4 years, you've been through much. You've weathered many storms. You've been through many difficult situations and dark nights of the soul. You've had many people in your ear that have brought DI-VISION and have thwarted my vision for your life. Right now, I am exposing all areas that have taken you off the path and off the trajectory of your purpose."

"That is why, right now, you suddenly feel a discontent for the things you've been doing, even for some in the locations they've been doing them. That's why you've felt sudden discernment and red flags become stronger regarding certain people, alignments, and even mission. I know it's unsettling. I know it makes you feel lost. I know it makes you feel like you've detoured, but right now, I'm correcting your path."

"Yes, in many ways, you'll have to look and realize there have been some Ishmaels, and there have been some places you've walked that I never called you to, and even people I never called you to. But do not fear and do not fret, and remove the condemnation, because I'm leading you back on track, says the Lord."

"I'm bringing you back in alignment with the pure vision that I placed upon your life. This is a full-circle moment where I bring you back to the place of your original purpose, back to the original dream, back to the original vision, back to the place where you come alive again."

"Have you wondered why, in the last 4 years, it has felt like you lost your fire? You wondered why it feels like you've been toiling in vain, seeing no results and seeing no fruit for the plan that I have for you? It is because your vision has been tainted. Your vision has been contaminated. This has been the subtle plan of the enemy to get you off track and to burn you out."

"Yes, weary pioneers, I'm speaking to you right now. This is the reason you've been weary, because you've been spreading yourself thin in areas that you've had no grace or anointing to operate in. There are even many that are in roles that I've not authorized them for. There's no grace and anointing for the things that I've not authorized you for, and you've burnt yourself out"

"It has led many to a place of wanting to give up and run. But right now, I'm delivering you from the weariness and the burnout by leading you back to the purity of your vision; leading you back to the purity of the original dream that I gave you; that makes you come alive again. It's going to feel like there are doors closing. It's going to feel like suddenly I uproot your heart from places that you have wanted to be secured in."

"It's going to feel like suddenly I give you an unction to leave some of the circles and the rooms that you've been a part of. But it is not to rob you, but to free you, to bring you back to the place where you come alive and where you and I co-labor again with the pure vision that I've given you."

"After the cross, Peter was lost, and he went back to fishing because he was looking to find me. It was the place of his original encounter that his heart was longing for. And many right now are looking at going back as defeat. They're looking at it as a robbery, but it is going to be what ignites your original vision. It's going to be what brings you back to the place of experiencing my presence and my glory in a way that you've not known these last 4 years."

"For you've only known depletion and burnout, and you've forgotten what it feels like to linger in my presence. You've forgotten what it feels like to burn with delight as my glory rests upon you, and you feel your womb shaking and trembling under the weight of my presence and my glory. But now you're coming back to that place, says the Lord. For I've not called you to be an intellectual Christian. I've not called you to be a Christian that operates by their emotions and their feelings."

"I've called you to be a revivalist to the nations. And in this hour, I'm reigniting the original call and plan I had upon your life where I marked you in the secret place. I'm going to brand you afresh, says the Lord. I'm going to remind you of the words, the promises I gave you in that original encounter. I'm bringing you back to the place to reset your vision, reset your life back on track, to free you of burnout, and deliver you of every thumbprint and every bit of ownership that's been trying to rob you of your destiny or purpose."

"I'm removing you from the ceilings that you've been under, and I'm bringing you back into the wide-open space of my glory again, where you will see my kingdom. You will see what I'm doing in the earth that is untainted by the religion of man. I'm bringing you out from under the yokes of religion and the empires that have been trying to lord it over you for a long time. Yes, I'm bringing you back into a place of vision and dreaming with me again."

"So, get ready, pioneers, for I've already begun this work. I've already begun to lift the load, but the things that are coming to the surface of your soul are only to free you. I'm going to cause things to align in your life that don't make sense at first, but you'll see that it is I who is restoring you back to the purity and simplicity of relationship with me and the burning call for the nations."

April Klaassen Brown

A powerful Dream from Saturday, September 28 at 10:12 P.M.

On the early morning of September 21 2024, the Holy Spirit permitted me to have a dream-vision. What was shown were two men in a plane, but one couldn't see the plane, it was not visible to the natural eye. The first man focused on was the man who had all the "logistics, the resources or currencies, and documentation." This was very important. He had a briefcase handcuffed to his wrist. The other man was the navigator on that plane.

The name that crossed my eyes was Aurora in huge letters. On the West Coast of British Columbia, 19 Wing CFB Comox have submarine hunters called CP-140 Auroras. These are utilized for anti-submarine surveillance, maritime patrol. These are familiar to myself due to our family being stationed there for some time. But that Aurora was not the Aurora that was shown in my picture. So, initially, the thought that came was that these two persons were going out looking for subs, except up the East Coast. Then what came to me was that there was no visual sight of an actual plane. Initially there were two men floating in 'something invisible' in the sky, like they were seated, one at the navigation desk and the other where he would sit. The mode of travel the two men sat in was invisible; it was meant to not be seen but now because the 'sound board and sound room' had been destroyed the realization was now the Holy Spirit has now permitted me to see scenes, scenarios and connecting information which had not been able to or privy to beforehand.

Okay, well, this scene that is being shown is kind of weird. So, the next thought was, perhaps then what needs to be found out is if there is any other kind of plane called Aurora and find out what the name Aurora means. The Latin word Aurora means 'dawn'. My next question was, is there any other kind of military aircraft vehicle called an 'Aurora'? Well, wouldn't you know it, there is: it's a stealth-type of plane, and it's designed to not be seen. It was made in Scotland and then bought and brought into the US, but the military denies it exists, except that now the Holy Spirit had given permission to visually see it.

In the vision, or my dream as the Holy Spirit permitted me to see, when first looking at it, I wasn't able to see it, but then I saw the two men in it, and then I knew it was a plane and what the name was, because the name was shown to me as huge letters, with the men just behind the letters as though they were inside, and that it was a two-man plane. As the letters disappeared, my vision was able to zoom in better, and could now I could actually see the plane. It was not a sub-hunter, not like the ones that had been familiar to myself in any way. So here's the unusual part. I saw an angry rooster beeline to the back of that plane, and it for all intents and purposes did damage to that plane, but it didn't blow up, but it definitely did damage, and I could tell that because I saw a whole lot of feathers flying, like, you could say, ruffled feathers, but not just ruffled feathers.

It was like, the impact was hard, but the rooster blew up, and all these feathers went flying. What I was looking at was a rooster, I could tell you the color of the rooster too, one of those black and gray with a red head plume. It was just flying super-fast, and it was very angry, and then boom! Then it dawned upon me that it wasn't a rooster, but a missile with a rooster painted on it. The thought came, 'nobody paints missiles with pictures on them'. They have colors of their nations, but never pictures of a rooster, but this thing, this angry rooster, caught my attention so much that I began research began through military information online.

Where does it come from? Was this friendly or enemy? It did not 'feel like' a friendly missile. How did it come to be in Canadian airspace? What trajectory did it come from? Did it come from down below, or did it come from straight across? Was it from plane to plane, air-to-air, or was it shot up from, say, a sub or an aircraft carrier?

Anyway, I began online research, which ended up being the better part of my day, trying to figure out, or look through and see any military-type insignia that had to do with or that had a rooster emblem or rooster decals. One such decal insignia was found; an angry rooster, but it was from the USS Saratoga, and that didn't seem to fit, timing wise. What is known to me is that this appeared to be more like air-to-air. The missile was aligned at the same height to the back of the stealth, but it could have been heat-seeking. In fact from my perspective, this is how the missile would have found the plane, as it was not visible in the natural. Now this presents the next question, how would 'they', those who fired the missile, have known where to fire and hit?

It should be noted, this stealth aircraft was flying in Canadian airspace off the east coast of Canada, not in 'international' waters or airspace, and as was seen, the plane was hit as it passed by Cape Breton area, out over the Atlantic. After the hit, the stealth banked right, starboard or northeast; as it was banking, something fell from the plane. I was unable to see what, but immediately, my vision was seeing under the ocean and on the floor in that area. There was an X, and knew 'X marked the spot.' They, whomever they are, hit the spot, and I heard, "They are trying to bury it'."

The Spirit of the LORD was allowing me to see two people who formerly worked in these types of positions, and the vision of them was just set as an example, these were not those actual men. Both of them in the vision were very important; one was the navigator on the plane, helping where this plane should go, how it should go, controlling or keeping set the flight path.

The interesting part about the plane too, is, as it was flying, it was flying north, and then struck, it started banking right, off to a northeast direction. Then, as it was banking right, some item, or something fell from the plane. What kind of confused me was my question "Is that a friendly missile? Like, "Is that coming from Canada or the United States?"

The sense was that the missile was not Canadian, although it may have ties to Canada and/or the US. All that was very clear to me, on both individuals in the Aurora, was that these men were highly skilled in secrecy and that these two, quote unquote, had also been part of the Canadian or joint US/Canadian militaries or Airforce at some point. The Holy Spirit then prompted me to look up code words, like "The Angry Rooster", "the fighting cock," different types of associated words. 'Birds of Prey' comes to mind, which could also mean 'Birds of Prey', but then also extreme arrogance or hubris as the Holy Spirit uses play on words with me. One of the main areas the Lord was really highlighting was that X beneath the ocean.

So this east coast area is unfamiliar to me, although CFB Oromocto NB is not. I was stationed there also. All that was known with clear certainty that 'X marked the spot.' Since permission was given to scan the ocean, the X marked the spot was really not too far away from where the Titanic (Olympic), went down. It was out of the periphery, but in the same general area. The Canadian territorial waters were extended out to 200 nautical miles in 197; International waters start at 350 nautical miles from the east coast of Canada. The periphery given to see was just a little past the 200 nautical mile point, the sinking of the 'Titanic (Olympic), was at the 350 nautical mile point, so just out of my periphery but the X spot was close enough to connect to this occurrence.

Another intercessor said this: A rooster, or missile with the angry rooster, is associated with France. It's interesting, because I used to have Rossignol skis, and on the tips of the skis, there was a rooster on each tip, and that part of it was a French logo. This then brings France into this picture of the missile that hit the back of the plane.

AGAIN, I have not dreamed or envisioned to this caliber before, so I am sharing with Jim, Wade, Terry to see what the Holy Spirit shows to you. I also have not read or heard Barry's Wunsch last words, but found out Thursday of an attempted strike on 45 plane some years back etc. So this dream/vision was not influenced by what has been spoken of recently. I have been in a sense of quandary on what or whom to share this with as I take to heart Lana Vawser's Word put out July 21st [posting below]

[Through Lana Vawser]

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'MY FIRE IS COMING UPON THE STEWARDSHIP OF MY SECRETS'

I heard the Lord say:

"There is a great test in this hour, and it is the test of stewardship of My divine intel and My secrets. For My eyes are roaming the earth looking for those that I can entrust with the very secrets of My heart."

"I say unto you, a great exposing is coming as My fire falls: to reveal those who will carry My heart and steward My secrets with purity, integrity, humility, and secrecy. I say unto you, My people, that I am raising up the secret agents of My heart in this hour; those who will carry My divine intel and steward My intel at MY leading; those who will not parade, misuse or prostitute My revelation and My divine intel, but those who will move only on My instruction and leading in the stewardship of My secrets. For I say unto you that there will be many times in this hour where you will hear Me say to you, 'You are sworn to secrecy.' There are things that I will be exposing, revealing and releasing in this hour that are to be kept between you and I."

"For in this season of unprecedented acceleration in revelation and divine intel, it does not equate to the rapid release of revelation. For there is much that I am releasing in this hour that is for the purpose of intercession and for the heart-to-heart sharing between friends. I am looking for those in this hour whom I trust as My friends. I am looking for those who will not use My intel and revelation to be 'seen,' to 'parade revelation,' or to build their own kingdom. For there is a great shaking coming upon My people in the stewardship of My voice and divine intel. I am looking for those that I can trust and entrust with the secrets of My heart."

"These secret agents of My heart that I am raising up in this hour have no desire to be seen by man, but they are ones who are living seen by Me. They are those who are living before Me, the audience of One. For I say unto you, that many have been moving in elitism with revelation that they are carrying, but this is the hour to come deeper still in humility to hear what is on My heart. For I am calling you, My people, deeper into discernment. I am calling you into the humble place of partnering with My Spirit, to be disciplined in discernment. For the hour is urgent, and I continue to call out, for many are continuing to run in pride and ambition in the carrying and releasing of My revelation."

"Watch My fire that is coming in a greater way upon the stewardship of My voice. Watch the refining and watch the increase of discernment and intel in this hour. For it is My desire to raise up My people who live from the place of deep intimacy with Me — and they live carrying My heart without agenda. For the hour is coming where I am bringing you, My people, into a realm of deeper discernment: to see and perceive that which I am doing and what I am speaking. I am looking for those who will receive that which I am revealing, and they will carry this intel with purity."

“For I say unto you, that I am releasing divine intel not to be passed on as ‘intelligence’ between people. I am not releasing and increasing discernment to be released in the wells of gossip. For My fire is increasing and My fire is going to shake and reveal ALL the misuse of My voice. I am bringing forth a DEALING of My hand upon those who are using discernment for division and divisiveness. I am looking for those who will carry My discernment with PURITY and with My heart, and not misuse that which I am releasing.”

“Watch in the time ahead for the shaking that will come. Watch how I will bring a separation between those who hear My voice and carry My secrets with deep purity and sensitivity; those who are able to keep My secrets and will only release that which I am speaking at My command; and between those who are using My revelation and intel to feed ambition. I have been shaking, and I will continue to shake in greater ways, that which is built on ambition, pride and self-promotion. I am bringing down these structures, only that which is built on Me and by Me will remain.”

“There is a fire coming upon the prophetic stream to cleanse and purify, in a greater way, of selfish ambition, pride and the misuse of revelation. I will not tolerate the polluting of My heart, My intel, and My divine secrets. I am raising up My Bride to walk in purity and discernment and intel in the days ahead: to see MY Kingdom and MY plans in the earth extended, not to be used to extend the kingdoms and plans of man.”

“My eyes are roaming the earth. I am looking for those I can trust to carry My heart. I am calling you forth, secret agents of My heart. I am calling you to report for duty, the duty of carrying My intel and My secrets in a greater way. The greatest test in this hour is the test of keeping your mouth closed when I have sworn you to secrecy. Listen to Me, My people. BE SLOW TO SPEAK! I am looking for My friends that will carry and listen to My heart without agenda, and Oh, the Glory you shall see; Oh, My Glory that shall be revealed in your midst; Oh, My Majesty that shall be seen in your midst. Oh, the weight of My Glory that shall be in your midst, that will leave you prostrate before Me.” (Exodus 33:11)

“The secrets of My heart and the depths of the inner chambers of My heart that I am leading you into, you have never been into before. Oh, the mysteries you shall see and receive. Much of what I am revealing to you in this place is for intercession and for the days ahead to see, know, and to perceive that which I am speaking, and to govern with Me from the secret place. My fire is coming upon My Church where there has been a prostitution of revelation. Watch now, as I speak, and the thunder of My voice comes forth: it will leave you prostrate before Me."

Kim Potter: "That's Not Who You Are"

Words That Pierced My Heart

I was sitting in the small waiting room at the chiropractor's office, waiting for my appointment. I could hear the muffled conversation of the person ahead of me in the room with the doctor. While I wasn't trying to eavesdrop, I couldn't help but hear what he said to his patient. He said, "I know you are struggling with anxiety and fear, but I want you to know that's not who you are."

The next thing I heard was the patient softly weeping.

Those words, "That's not who you are," pierced my heart. It was apparently what she needed to hear that day. It broke something in her. She was afraid this was her life from here on out, and it simply wasn't true. Not only did it destroy the lie in this woman, but it did something in my heart as well.

Your Experience Doesn't Define You

Although it has been several weeks, those words remain in my heart. What you are currently experiencing does not define who you are, nor do your struggles. If you feel angry or disappointed, it does not reflect who you truly are. It is just where you are right now. If you allow God, He will change this in you.

If you experience emotions, such as anxiety or fear that contradict God's Word, remember that they do not define you.

You Are Who God Says You Are

You are who God says you are, and nothing less. Today, let's look at who God says you are:

You are forgiven.

"I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake." (1 John 2:12)

You are whole.

"[A]nd you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power." (Colossians 2:10)

You are not alone.

"...For He Himself has said, 'I will never leave you nor forsake you.'" (Hebrews 13:5)

You are victorious.

"But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Yeshua Christ." (1 Corinthians 15:57)

You are wonderfully made.

"I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well." (Psalm 139:14)

Your Worth to God

God loved you so much that He sent His only Son to die for you. That is what you are worth to Him. Even when you were in sin, He loved you that much. God doesn't tolerate you. No, He loves you deeply and passionately. He longs for your fellowship so much more than you can imagine.

Remember Who You Are!

I don't know what you are dealing with today. Perhaps, like the woman at my chiropractor's office, you are dealing with anxiety and fear that seems to cripple your life. Remember that is NOT who you are. You are who God says you are! The key is believing that truth for yourself.

THE ANOINTING
THAT'S ON YOUR LIFE ATTRACTS
ATTACKS. DON'T LOOK AT IT AS TROUBLE,
BUT LOOK AT IT AS CONFIRMATION ON WHO YOU ARE IN CHRIST!

Remember, Scripture says, "...Let the weak say, 'I AM STRONG!'" (Joel 3:10 AMP, emphasis mine). This being true, we are to declare who God says we are. If you feel anxious, declare, "I am at peace; my heart is steadfast."

If you are feeling angry, don't lash out. Instead, declare, "I walk in love, and anger does not reside in me. The peace of God lives in me, and I respond to that peace."

So many people are experiencing challenges that seem to define their entire lives. Where you are right now? If it doesn't align with God's Word for you, it is not your destination.

He Will Do It!

Remember this: God will complete the work He has begun in you (Philippians 1:6). He will take you to the other side and help you become all you were destined to be in Him if you continue to trust Him and His Word. That is His promise.

Never believe in anything less than His promise for you and your family. Never settle for less than all God has for you. Keep pressing forward in God until the person He designed you to be shines forth. That is my prayer for you today, my friend.

"DON'T LOOK BACK"
Craig Cooney, Portadown, Northern Ireland

The Lord has been disrupting familiar rhythms and established routines that no longer serve His purposes for your future. Just because you've been doing something for a long time, or it has borne fruit, or you're good at it, doesn't mean it is right for this next season.

You can feel it. Something has shifted inside of you; a new identity is emerging. You can't go back to how things were before. The Father is stretching you beyond your comfort zones, limitations placed on you by others, and self-imposed ceilings. At the same time, you may find that old demons (or intense spiritual struggles) are attempting to reemerge with some force. They are seeking to drag you back into containment, confinement, and patterns you left behind. They're opening old wounds, attacking your vulnerabilities, and highlighting your weaknesses. The enemy wants you to feel too insecure and inadequate to step into the new thing the Father is placing before you. At times, the constant pressure feels so intense. You wonder if it's all really worth it. It is! Don't stop short!

BATTLE FOR YOUR BIRTHRIGHT! Don't return to familiar comforts. Don't go backward because of fear, insecurity, or intimidation. Remember that you are fully free in Christ! The enemy has no more power or permission than you give him. Go on the offensive. Use your authority. Wield the sword of the Spirit. Identify, uproot, and dismantle every lie of the accuser.

NO RETREAT... This is no time to retreat, back down, or compromise your convictions. You have been trained for battle. You have been prepared in the wilderness; now cross over. Take hold of the promise. Wage warfare in the Spirit. Press forward with a holy fierceness, brazen boldness, and relentless determination.

MOVE! There was a season to pause, rest, and reflect. But it's now time to advance, build, and take new ground. Stop saying you're stuck! Take your foot off the brake. Stop waiting until you're "ready." Move! Shift! You're more ready than you realize. He will supply anything you lack as you go.

In this pivotal season, you will get what you go after. So, press through the discomfort of this transition. Cross over the threshold. Bring to birth what is growing inside you. Don't settle for anything less than all that the Father is making available to you. Break agreement with anything (or anyone) not aligned with where God is taking you. Not everyone will be happy with your choices; accept that. You can't please man and God. Upset the status quo; overturn some tables; color outside the lines. Shake things up. Demonstrate a holy defiance. Irritate religious spirits.

Trade comfort, entertainment, approval, and personal preferences for a life of consecration, adventure, awe, and a demonstration of the raw power of God. DON'T LOOK BACK... SEE AND SEIZE ALL THAT THE FATHER IS PLACING BEFORE YOU.

"But Lot's wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt." (Genesis 19:26)

"Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the Israelites to move on.'" (Exodus 14:15)

"... 'Stretch out your hand.' He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored." (Mark 3:5)

"For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline." (2 Timothy 1:7)

The Year of You As King and Priest – The Year of Your New Anointing

This online interview summarized by Dr. Greg Gerrie

YouTube Video found on:

Core Message: You are King and Priest. The Lord gives you a Kingly authority where you have the mindset knowing you are the head and not the tail. He gives you a Priestly understanding of the spiritual atmosphere and how to do spiritual warfare.

How do we prepare for the fall feasts? What is in store for 5785? You are a King and a Priest. The Lord will give you a Kingly authority, and you have the mindset knowing you are the head not the tail. He will give you a Priestly understanding of the spiritual atmosphere and how to do spiritual warfare.

Rosh Hashana is an awakening to a new identity. Yom Kippur is a cleansing from the sin of a false identity, of bad habits and patterns. Sukkot is tabernacling with Him where you must have stewardship with your new identity. The Lord says, I'm going to seal the new identity.

If you decide you are going to go the gym, you need to get new clothes etc. You are going to have to get more rest, eat good food, not eat bad food, etc. That is stewardship.

So, there is a stewardship over a new identity. You will have a three-week run for spiritual transformation.

I have an Asian friend who said to me, "You are the most unique Christian I met. Your value system is focused on results." In 35 years of serving the Lord, I've watched great spiritual leaders, but I've seen some of the best fall. The reason they fell is because they were not getting the results that were in their soul. If you're lacking in results in what you do, you will quit.

My job spiritually is to achieve results. God so loved the world that he gave "His best." I'm a Kingdom of God person, and I give my best. As in Your Kingdom, Lord let it be on earth. You need faith plus instruction on how to get results.

If you get a word, check it with proven prophets. I've checked the word I received with Chuck Pierce of Glory of Zion. Chuck says 5785 is going to be a year to battle for the altars. This aligns with what I have been given.

Its' time to contend for the altars. It's time for the King and priest. These are the same because you need to be King and Priest to contend.

David was the youngest of all the brothers, yet he was anointed and appointed. He was still a shepherd and called to bring lunch to his warrior brothers. Here is Goliath mocking the Lord. He was standing on God's altar in mockery. David, the anointed and first King Priest bellowed, "For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he has dared to defy the armies of the living God?"

Once David killed Goliath, he took the altar back for Israel.

So, let's talk about the year 5785.

5 – Grace

7 – Perfection

8 – New beginning

5 – Grace

We have a double grace to take back the altars. Whatever mountain you are in, God is giving your double grace and anointings in the fall feasts to take back altars. Wherever and whatever is mocking you, you will receive a new anointing to take the Goliaths down from the altars. Remember that you are the temple of the most-high God.

How are you mocked in modern times?

You're going to get a divorce

You're going to be bankrupt.

You're going to die.

You're sick.

You're going to be crippled.

You're going to lose that child.

Where that demonic spirit or accusation is mocking you in your head, the Lord says: "I am going to give you an identity as King and Priest on Rosh Hashanah. I'm going to cleanse you by the blood of the Lamb on Yom Kippur on the day of atonement. I'm going to wash away all those failures of the past and give you a clean slate. I'm going to bring you into my house under my Chuppah (Hoopa) on Sukkot and empower you with a new robe of righteousness."

"I'm going to release a mantle as a King-Priest and you're going to go to the altar you are at and say, "How dare you that you think you will destroy my marriage, destroy my finances or ruin the education system," or whatever applies to your mountain(s). You are going to sling the word of God powerfully and cut off the head of the enemy and that will not only affect you but all those involved."

There is a battle against speaking truth. I'm not surprised that the demonic entities cancel the truth. I'm surprised at the lack of chutzpah (extreme self-confidence or audacity). The lack of chutzpah, the burry-your-head-in-the-sand attitude, the cancel culture people is what is hurting us. We all need to say we've had enough.

Uncle Lou was very wealthy and active in my life and said, "When it's not the money, it's the money. Stop supporting them. Truth is not the enemy. People get upset when you bring an opinion because they are insecure about their own identity. People shoot the messenger. Be encouraged to be bold. Stand up to the bully, whether personal or corporate. You have to stand up for yourself. That's what stops the bully.

You're going to get a new identity. Remember that your friends may not like the new bold, successful, aggressive and anointed you. It's time to fulfill that which He laid His hand upon you. Each one of you has been created for a purpose and that purpose is revealed by divine intervention in the Holy Spirit. When you get that identity, Holy Spirit will call you friend and Ambassador. You have all the authority of heaven to speak and to take action.

The Lord wants you to be a King and Priest according to the order of Melchizedek; He wants you to be that anointed Ambassador. When you speak, you will have the authority of heaven behind you. It will be the game changer for you and all those you influence and impact.

Bruce & Linda Dietler:

For the Love of truth

Truth is under attack. Over the last few years, especially in the realm of politics, the terms "misinformation," "disinformation," and most recently, "malinformation" have been among the most employed by the legacy news media as they use every means at their disposal to spin the narrative of the day in favor of their own viewpoints. As a result, individuals are led to question the validity of their beliefs. The tactic is not new, however, as it was employed at the beginning of time when Satan said to Adam and Eve, "Hath God said...?"

Readers of God's Word are admonished in Philippians 4:8 to meditate on "whatever things are true... honest... just... pure... lovely... of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." But at the end of the day, we are left to our own devices, upbringing, or whatever, to determine our own reality for each of these virtues.

When Yeshua was delivered unto Pontius Pilate for judgment, Pilate questioned Him as to whether He was a king. Yeshua responded, "Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Everyone that is of the truth heareth my voice." In return, Pilate questioned, "What is truth?" (see John 18:37-38). Pilate had but one "truth" to which every other was secondary – that as Roman Governor of Judea, he was to carry out Caesar's orders, the greatest of which was that, under his rule, there must be no uprisings of the people in his jurisdiction. Yeshua embodied a different truth - that He was the son of God sent to earth to bear witness to God's truth and to redeem mankind from sin. Such divergent views of "truth" invariably lead to conflict.

One of the greatest conflicts in all the history of the church began with Martin Luther's posting of his 95 Theses onto the church door in Wittenberg, Germany on October 31, 1517. The list began with the following declaration: "Out of love for the truth and from desire to elucidate it, the Reverend Father Martin Luther, Master of Arts and Sacred Theology, and ordinary lecturer therein at Wittenberg, intends to defend the following statements and to dispute on them in that place. Therefore, he asks that those who cannot be present and dispute with him orally shall do so in their absence by letter. In the name of our Lord Yeshua Christ, Amen."

Through Luther's study of scripture, the Lord had illuminated to his heart certain insights that were highly divergent from those held as "truth" by his superiors. His 95 theses were simply a list of statements and questions put forth by himself regarding various aspects of Catholic church doctrine over which he wished to academically debate others for the sake of truth and enlightenment. This was not in any way intended as an attempt to overthrow the institution of the Catholic church.

Luther's list included questions regarding the existence of purgatory; the practice of priests selling "indulgences" rather than the people having to confess their sins to a priest; the forgiveness of sins by the pope, and other issues of church doctrine, the legitimacy of which Luther had come to question. The response to his challenge may have been largely unanticipated, yet it was immediate! Some even called for him to be declared a heretic and burned at the stake! Luther's quest for truth had dropped a huge bomb on the most revered institution of his day, and its effect could not be mitigated.

As a matter of seeking truth and enlightenment, debate, when conducted in a proper spirit, is healthy, even if potentially unwelcomed by those whose belief systems might be shattered as a result. Any conflict which might result, though sometimes messy, is not bad if it leads to positive outcomes. In the present political climate, however, calling for debate on topics such as the present administration's policies on immigration, amnesty for illegal aliens, the state of the economy and what to do about it, or the funding of foreign wars, though enlightening, would likely generate much contention while changing few minds in process.

As in warfare, deeply entrenched positions are difficult to dislodge, especially when positions of power, vast sums of money, or even one's very life are at stake. Luther soon discovered this. In established religious circles, even today, simply offering to discuss a new viewpoint or a different understanding of scripture and thus challenging an entrenched doctrinal position will likely lead to explosive denunciation or worse.

According to various current estimates, there exist approximately 45,000 Christian denominations worldwide ranging from major established groups to small, independent sects or individual congregations. Their tenets of faith and liturgical practices may vary greatly, yet each would likely fiercely contend they are "biblically based" and correct in their interpretation of scripture. Obviously, this cannot be.

Johnny Enlow, a seasoned teacher, author, and strong prophetic voice of our day, has proposed strong scriptural arguments to support his belief that we, the body of Christ, are now entering into God's Kingdom age, and that this body is not meant to be a defeated one only "holding on 'till Yeshua comes," but rather, it is destined to be a fully victorious, overcoming body – one bringing God's light and truth to a world in darkness, and one which is ordained by the Lord to restore His influence over each of the seven mountains of influence in society worldwide. Enlow's understanding of the Bible, and therefore his teaching, flies directly in the face of the teachings of every evangelical church and denomination which adheres to the "rapture" theory of the return of Christ to the earth to snatch away His bride out of the devil's grasp. Though his understanding of scripture is contrary to much of established church doctrine, and though it might bring forth backlash from these groups which support the contrary view, that does not mean the "truth" he espouses is necessarily in error. After all, when it was introduced in 1830, the rapture teaching was itself a departure from all historic teaching of the Bible.

Martin Luther's understanding of scripture likewise brought him into direct conflict with the established Church of his day. His theology audaciously challenged the established beliefs in the authority and office of the pope by teaching that the Bible is the only source of divinely revealed knowledge; that salvation was "sola fide" (by faith alone through God's grace); that the sale of indulgences by priests, rather than personal, private confession of sins, was wrong; that "the pope abuses scripture" and that "he is not above scripture." Luther rejected the doctrine of the existence of purgatory, and he declared that Matthew 16:18 does not confer on popes the exclusive right to interpret scripture, and that therefore, neither popes nor church councils were infallible. None of this sat well with the defenders of the entrenched Catholic doctrines and teachings.

In 1520, Luther was summarily excommunicated from the Catholic Church by the pope; later condemned as an outlaw by Holy Roman Emperor Charles V, then declared a heretic by the pope in 1521. He was saved from being burned at the stake only through the grace of God and the intervention of friends in high places who whisked him out of the area and into hiding. When Luther died 25 years later, Pope Leo X's excommunication was still in effect.

What is interesting, though certainly not to be unexpected, is that, though Luther had received illumination from the Lord of many truths which he came to strongly defend, still he championed various beliefs which most mainline protestant Christians in our day would view as totally improper. These included his position that the communion elements were the literal body and blood of Yeshua; that upon death the body enters "soul sleep" awaiting the resurrection from the dead at Christ's coming; that Jews should be expelled from society and their synagogues burned, and that since many Old Testament patriarchs had more than one wife, as a special dispensation from God, polygamy was still possible and acceptable.

So, the question remains, what is truth, and do I or any of these 45,000 denominations hold the correct version of truth? It is certain that we are in a time of great societal change and a simultaneous shaking or reformation within the church itself. Our understanding of the Word of God has taken on greater depth over the last five decades as the five-fold ministry has begun to function within the church to a much greater degree. For example, the literal meaning of the word "church," which Christ declared He would build, is now being properly recognized as the ekklesia, which in Yeshua's day was understood by all to be a body of individuals legislating the affairs of men. As the Father continues to align yielded hearts to the fulness of truth about Himself, His Word, and His purpose for us, His body in the earth, we must be sensitive to His heart and to His present move, and we must simultaneously refrain from the temptation to become entrenched, believing we possess all truth; that there is no more to be received from the hand of the Father.

In Philippians 3:13, even the apostle Paul acknowledged that he had not yet attained the fulness of the stature of Christ, but that he was "pressing forward toward the prize of the high calling of God in Christ." He continues in the following verses with, "Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing." (v. 15-16) In other words, "Let us grow up together, holding onto the same beliefs and truths, and if anyone be otherwise minded, let God show him."

During the fellowship of the last supper, Yeshua prayed unto the Father requesting that He "sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth" (John 17:17). What He was saying was, "Set them apart unto Yourself, for Your purposes, by means of Your holy Word."

The Word of God, as we yield to it, continues to work in our lives, and it will bring us to yet greater depths of truth. Beyond that, we also have the Holy Spirit, who is the Spirit of truth, who has come to guide us into all truth. (see John 16:13). It is certain that none of us (even the great apostle Paul in his day) is yet in possession of all truth - we are in a process of growth. As we individually and collectively continue to press into the Lord and awaken to His grace and truth, we must purpose to be less combative and more tolerant and understanding of those who have not yet received the same truth or revelation we possess. God is desiring to bring us all up higher, and we must delight in the elevation to which each has attained at this point in their journey.

What we do know is that God's Word is truth; that the central truth of that word is that the Father sent Yeshua, His only begotten Son, to earth; that through His sinless life, atoning death on the cross, and resurrection from the dead, Yeshua, out of His great grace and love for all humanity, provides eternal life to all who repent of their sins and receive the truth of the gospel. All else is secondary to this great central truth.

Believers may differ in their understanding of various aspects of the Word, and that's understood. We must content ourselves with living as unto Christ with every fiber of our beings and allowing His love and goodness through us to bring others to the fulness of His truth. As James 1:18 reminds us, "Of his own will begat He us with the word of truth." That truth frees us, gives us boldness to speak the truth as we understand it, and opens us up to receive ever greater truths from the Father. And that's the truth!

Tishrei 21, 5785: Wednesday-October 23, 2024
Demontae Edmonds: the Elijahlist.com
"The Battle for Your Focus Is the Battle for Your Future!"

Focus is defined as "the center of interest or activity" and "the state or quality of having or producing clear visual definition." When God has given an individual a vision and heavenly mandate, it is almost impossible to fulfill it without focus.

Many win the battle over temptations that are outright sin but lose the battle over their focus. If the enemy can distract you enough, he actually can position you to fall for some type of sin or error. King David is an example of this.

A Lesson from David's Lack of Focus

(2 Samuel 11:1) states, "Then it happened in the spring, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him and all Israel, and they brought destruction on the sons of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed in Jerusalem."

David wasn't focused on the battle at hand and gaining territory for the Lord. Instead, what was he doing? He was distracted. His focus caused him to be at the wrong place at the wrong time, doing the wrong thing. He ended up spying out a woman, Bathsheba.

"One evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of the palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing. The woman was very beautiful." (2 Samuel 11:2)

We know the rest of the story. God did show mercy in the situation by eventually giving David and Bathsheba a son who would start off as a great, wise king and ruler.

However, King David suffered great grief, humiliation, and misfortune over his actions, which were a result of him being distracted and losing focus on his God-given assignment for the season. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

Yeshua Stayed Focused on the Assignment at Hand

Let's learn from the life of Yeshua. In Mark 1:37 Yeshua' disciples tracked Him down in the town of Capernaum and told Him, "...ALL MEN SEEK FOR THEE" (emphasis mine). Many desired a word, time, or moment with the Lord Yeshua. They demanded His attention and an audience with Him. What was Yeshua' response? He did not give sway to the desires of man but rather responded, "...Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth" (Mark 1:38).

Yeshua basically ignored their desire for Him to answer the requests and demands of the people of Capernaum. Instead of giving sway to man's desires, He STAYED FOCUSED on the assignment at hand. He knew that it would have been a distraction and detour from what God had given Him to do by yielding to the desire of the people of Capernaum.

Part of Being Fruitful Is Being Focused

Yeshua was a man on a mission. He was focused. In a previous verse (v. 35) we are told of Yeshua, "And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, He went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed." Yeshua's time in the secret place gave Him something that was needed to maintain His focus, direction, and momentum (i.e., "instruction").

I imagine, once He received the download from Heaven of what God desired Him to do next, He could not be stopped or persuaded to take a detour. "All men seek for Thee" (Mark 1:37) was not weighty enough to persuade Him away from the leading of the Father.

A consecrated person is a focused person. When you build your consecration with God, it causes your focus to increase. All may seek for your time and attention, but it becomes clearer and clearer where and with whom you should devote your time and attention. It will minimize you being at the wrong place at the wrong time with the wrong people doing the wrong thing and suffering unneeded misfortune. Part of being fruitful is being focused. May the Lord add to you!

Karen Hardin: Elijahlist.com

"God Is Raising Up Those Who Have Been Rejected"

What Happens If Our Gifts Are Not Recognized or Released?

It's highly frustrating when our gifts or callings—that which we believe is resident within us—are not recognized. Many have served faithfully in churches or in ministries where their gifts are used, but they are not promoted, recognized, or honored. This breeds frustration. When this happens, eventually people leave their current church, ministry, or business to go somewhere in which their gifts will be recognized, utilized, and applauded.

Frustration mounts when our gifts are not released. There is nothing wrong with moving on from an organization (as the Spirit leads) if your gifts are used but not recognized. BUT in that transition, it is imperative we do not pick up offense and wounds that then prohibit promotion or keep us from progressing.

Allow God to Establish You

What we establish in the flesh must be maintained in the flesh.

A few months ago, I met a woman who loved God. She was a fierce intercessor and had a desire to make an impact on her world. She was putting those skills to use but was frustrated and wounded because she was continually experiencing rejection. That probably describes many reading this.

As I got to know her, I understood why. After years of rejection, rather than letting God raise her up, she was working to kick down the door. She desperately wanted to have a voice and position of leadership. Since others weren't recognizing her gifts and had rejected her, she sought validation and position by action.

There Are No Shortcuts

The problem is, there are no shortcuts to leadership. Neither are there shortcuts to trust. When we try to promote ourselves and be seen, we will have to maintain it through works. It is through the journey that we build the spiritual muscles to maintain position and the Promised Land. God said He would order and direct our steps (Psalm 37:23–24).

David had a call. He heard the prophecy by the prophet Samuel, when he was still a young man, that he would be king. His whole family heard it. But the very next day, he was back out tending to his father's sheep! As frustrating as it may have been, he wisely didn't take that prophecy and try to fulfill it. He waited. That prophetic word was challenged, as he experienced numerous rejections during that wait.

It's important to understand that a release of a word over your life invites opposition. It is the process that prepares us to fulfill it if we are willing to walk it out.

There were numerous divine appointments that occurred after that word that certainly appeared as if God was moving David into leadership to be king. Yet, instead of getting closer to the fulfillment, a fierce and jealous adversary (the enraged king Saul) rose up, determined to destroy him.

During those years, David had the opportunity to take Saul's life and make it (the prophecy) happen. It certainly appeared as if God had delivered Saul into his hands. For example, when Saul went into the cave to go to the bathroom, the cave where David and his men were hiding (1 Samuel 24:3), most of us would have seen that as a "God intervention." But David wouldn't let his men touch Saul. That wasn't the only such instance in which David could have taken power and brought about the fulfillment of that prophecy. Instead, he refused to exalt himself, waiting until God did.

After Saul died, once again, David could have stepped up and taken the throne. He was the obvious choice. Instead, he waited until the people chose him. Had he established himself without the heart of the people behind him, would he have been able to maintain the kingdom? He wisely chose to continue to wait on God's timing.

The kingdom was divided on who should be king. Judah made David king, while the rest of Israel acknowledged Saul's son, Ishbosheth, as king. Mephibosheth reigned for two years (2 Samuel 2:10). Was David tapping his fingers in frustration, thinking about Samuel's prophecy?

What we learn from Scripture is that David had to continually encourage himself in the Lord (1 Samuel 30:6). This is what you must do as you wait in the place of interim for God to move you into position. There will be positions along the way that seem to be the breakthrough but then become one step forward and two steps back. Do not let discouragement and impatience seize your heart. (Photo via Pexels)

Fulfilling Your Call Requires Faithfulness

To fulfill your call requires faithfulness. David wasn't just sitting on his hands as he waited. He was using his skill set and continuing to grow it. As he did, people gravitated to him. Even when he went and hid in a cave to escape Saul and encourage himself in the Lord, men found him—men who had also experienced rejection and were outcasts. Notice, even as David had to battle his way out of rejection, God was using him to teach those whom the Lord brought to him how to battle their way out of the same thing. What we experience and gain victory over, we are able to impart to others. Your battles are never just for you, but to learn, impart, and help others gain their victory.

The Spirit of Rejection

The spirit of rejection seeks to keep you silenced and frustrated. It will prompt you to either remain hidden and give up or compel you to exalt yourself. Neither of those are a Godly response. Like David, learn how to encourage yourself in the Lord, and then be willing to grow your gifts under the tutelage of the Holy Spirit. Work with others to grow the spiritual muscles needed for promotion. As you do, people will eventually gravitate to you!

Are You Willing?

Are you willing to simply be obedient to the Lord, even if you never receive the acknowledgment or position you feel you deserve? Are you willing to, like David, wait for God to move you into position even as you see the years ticking by?

Cast off the Cloak of Rejection

Declare this day that the spirit of rejection that has wrapped itself around you is gone. Cast it off, just as blind Bartimaeus cast off the cloak that designated he was blind. He cast it off as an act of faith to receive his sight.

God is saying to many right now, "Cast off the cloak of rejection, as it is not who you are. Be healed of the wounds of your soul. Stand up and rejoice! Take courage. Get back in the race and use your gifts which I have given you to be a blessing." And know, as you do, God will raise you up as you keep your heart and eyes on Him to fulfill your call. The Lord has not forgotten you.

"[B]ut the Lord laughs at the wicked, for He knows their day is coming. The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright." (Psalm 37:13–14)

Nate Johnston: The Giants Are Falling, It Is Finished!

From October 2, 2024

A few nights ago, I had a powerful dream. In the dream, I was laying on the ground, feeling completely exhausted and battered, as if I had been in a battle for years with no victory in sight. Suddenly, I saw a sword coming down over the head of a giant that had been standing in my way—and with one swift move, it took off the giant's head. As this happened, I heard the words, "IT IS FINISHED!"

In that moment, I felt an overwhelming sense of relief. The battle that I had been fighting for years was over—not by my strength, but by the hand of the Lord. I woke up knowing that God is beheading the giants that have stood in your way for years. The things that have attacked, oppressed, and worn you down are being dealt with—not by your striving, but by His power.

I believe many of you are in this same place. You have been battling and fighting, trying to overcome the obstacles that have been in your way. You've been worn down, tired, and wondering when the breakthrough will come. The Lord is saying, "This battle belongs to Me." There are battles you are anointed to fight, but there are others that are His to finish—and this is one of those times.

He is beheading the giants that have stood in your way for years. The weariness you've felt is being lifted. Where you've been struggling and striving, you will now see His Victory.

Take heart! The Lord is fighting for you!

I have written some declarations for you based from this dream that will really help you anchor back into the Word and the power of the finished work of the cross. Enjoy!

It is finished! - 10 declarations For The Battle Weary

Now, we stand in the power of the finished work of the cross, declaring victory over every area of our life where the enemy has tried to wear us down. Warriors, rise up—your battle belongs to the Lord! Declare these truths over your situation and watch as the giants in your life fall.

1. Body healing

I declare that by the stripes of Jesus, my body is healed! Every sickness, pain, and disease must bow to the finished work of the cross. My body is aligned with the health and wholeness that Christ purchased for me.

2. Soul sickness and deep discouragement

I declare that my soul is restored by the Good Shepherd. The heavy burdens of discouragement and despair are lifted from me. The joy of the Lord is my strength, and my soul finds peace in His presence.

3. Over the mind

I declare that I have the mind of Christ! Every lie, every tormenting thought, and every spirit of confusion is silenced. My mind is renewed, and I walk in clarity and soundness of thought.

4. Financial lack

I declare that all of my needs are met according to God's riches in glory through Christ Jesus. Lack has no place in my life. Provision, favor, and abundance are my portion as I walk in alignment with God's purposes.

5. Lack of direction and clarity

I declare that the Lord is my Shepherd, and I shall not want for direction. My steps are ordered by the Lord. Confusion is broken, and I receive divine clarity and purpose for this season.

6. Demonic oppression

I declare that no weapon formed against me will prosper. Every spirit of oppression, heaviness, and torment is broken by the power of the blood of Jesus. I walk in freedom and authority over all the power of the enemy.

7. Vision and purpose

I declare that my eyes are opened to see the vision and calling God has for me. I will not wander aimlessly, but I am filled with divine purpose. My dreams and calling are coming alive again, and I will run the race set before me.

8. Alignments and relationships

I declare that God is aligning me with the right people and removing toxic and ungodly relationships from my life. I will walk with those who encourage, sharpen, and call me higher in the things of God.

9. Trauma and bondage

I declare that every chain of trauma and bondage is broken over my life. The healing power of Jesus is setting me free from past wounds, cycles of pain, and the strongholds that have kept me bound. I walk in complete liberty.

10. Breakthrough for delayed promises

I declare that every delayed promise, every prolonged breakthrough, and every postponed dream is being brought into fulfillment. God's timing is perfect, and I will see the manifestation of His promises in my life.

It is finished!

Warriors, stand firm! The victory has already been won, and the battle is the Lord's. Walk in these declarations this week and watch as the power of the cross brings breakthrough and freedom in every area.

"God Is Delivering the Deliverers!"

Embrace the Fires of Deliverance

As I was spending time with the Lord, I heard the Lord say, "I am delivering the deliverers!" As I pressed in to hear His heart, this is what I heard Him saying: "Many are walking through a time of intense purification and refining. I am bringing the dross to the surface, and those things that have sought to weigh you down and hold you back are being removed.

"My deliverers, you must embrace My fires of deliverance, for it is My heart that you walk in the wholeness and fullness that is your inheritance in Me. I am preparing My people; I am preparing My deliverers for new assignments and new exploits."

"Burning Bush Moments"

"Therefore, since we are receiving a Kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe, for our 'God is a consuming fire.'" (Hebrews 12:28–29)

"For I am calling and commissioning many who have encountered and embraced My fire. 'Burning bush moments' are coming for those I am commissioning, and you will find yourself standing on holy ground. Take off your shoes and come in close to hear and receive.

"Do you feel the very earth groaning beneath your feet? Do you feel the earth groaning for the manifestation of the sons of God? I am coming to do that which I have promised, and all of creation is waiting. I am coming to touch the generations, and I am calling and commissioning My deliverers. (Photo via Pexels)

"Your words and hesitation have often been like My servant Moses when he said, 'Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?' (see Exodus 3:11). My answer to Moses then is My answer to your questions now: 'I will be with you' (see Exodus 3:12).

"I am branding a fresh revelation of identity on your hearts, a new Holy-Spirit-breathed-on awareness of who I created you to be. I am UPGRADING and REVEALING layers you have not seen before now. I am pulling identity treasures from beneath the surface and polishing them to reveal surprising new facets of your potential and call in Me. Yes, you are known in Heaven, and you will be known on Earth as My fire comes to purify, sanctify, and embolden you, My deliverers.

Welcome the Fire

"Welcome My fire, you freedom fighters! My fire will bring forth purity. My fire will bring forth clarity. My fire will yield the purest of gold, and you will know what I deeply value and desire. You will function as My priests, My ministers.

"I am awakening My passions in your heart, and you will be My 'Isaiah 61' tribe. You will bind up the brokenhearted. You will be a voice to proclaim freedom to the captives. You will carry My light into the darkest of dungeons, declaring FREEDOM to the prisoners who have languished alone and [been] forgotten.

"My fire will change you. My fire will bring forth divine purpose and purge those things that hinder. Yield to My hand and purpose, deliverers, for there are many who will line up in the shadow of your freedom. Your victory will become their victory as well.

From Delivered to Deliverer!

"I have seen the misery of My children, and I must have My deliverers. I am calling forth My Esthers for this time. Hold My words close to your heart and do not doubt, for out of you will flow My LIVING WATERS to deliver, nourish, and set many free.

"My deliverers, press in to hear My thoughts toward you and establish these in your heart, for with these words you will do warfare and defeat your enemies. I am calling you by a new name. Bend your ear to hear and hold all of My words close to your heart.

"Your enemies cringe at the confidence that is possible as My true sons and daughters lay hold of all that I am speaking and revealing. You have been given unlimited access and favor to move on My behalf.

Step Into Your Place!

"Step into your place, My royal priests and mighty deliverers, for I have clothed you in garments of salvation and My glorious robes of righteousness. The treasures of My heavenly realms are yours in Christ Yeshua."

Exodus 3:7–10:

"The Lord said, 'I have indeed seen the misery of My people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering.

"So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

"And now the cry of the Israelites has reached Me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them. So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring My people the Israelites out of Egypt."

Many times, the Lord will give us an example in the natural of what He desires to happen in the spirit. Today, my brother Tim shares a recent dream he had where this is the case. He gives us a vivid "word picture" of what our prayers are doing. Don't become discouraged by what you see in the natural. Holy Spirit is taking all of our prayers, gathering them in the bowls of heaven, and is about to pour them onto the Earth (Revelation 5:8). Tim's title today is:

Liar-Liar

2 Chronicles 7:14 states, "If My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land." We will not see righteousness exalt our nation without the divine intervention of Jehovah. The Ekklesia must continue to engage through prayer, faith decrees and believing the prophetic words of our God.

I want to give you a prophetic dream and word that Holy Spirit is emphasizing for this moment. I feel compelled by Him to have the Ekklesia declare it in faith and birth these words through prayer.

"In the dream, I was walking towards the front entrance of the White House in Washington, D.C. As I grew closer, I could see that a big marquee had been built onto the front of the White House. It looked like the front of a movie theater. The marquee was lit up and read: 'Now showing, Liar-Liar.'

"A little lower than the big marquee were two smaller signs, one on the right and one on the left. Both signs read: 'Coming soon: The Avalanche.'

I noticed a guy standing next to me also looking at the marquee. I didn't recognize him, but somehow knew his name was Jerry."

Tim shares: "I found this so intriguing that when I awoke, I looked up the meaning of his name. Jerry means 'tip or head of the spear.' In Hebrew it can mean 'plain spear,' 'exalted of the Lord,' or 'who the Lord exalts.'<sup>(1)</sup> It was also the name for a German soldier in World War II. As I prayed into this Holy Spirit said, 'There are soldiers, remnant warriors you do not even know, exalted by Me for this time. These spear carriers, the Lord's sons and daughters, are also seeing this marquee and reading the signs.'

Back to the dream: "I turned to Jerry and said, 'I didn't know they turned the White House into a movie theater.' And Jerry replied, 'Oh those aren't movies, haven't you heard? They are live shows. It's a live performance called Liar-Liar.'

"Then in the dream, everything changed, and an angel of the Lord appeared to me. Because of the colors he wore, I knew he was one of the communication angels in Gabriel's division. There are 'messenger angels' under Holy Spirit's supervision and this was a messenger angel.

"The angel said to me that I was to take the Ekklesia to Seven Mountain. I told the angel that I had heard of the Seven Mountains of Culture but not Seven Mountain. I asked where it was located, and the angel said it was a spiritual mountain overlooking the White House. The angel also said there are barrier beams built into the mountain, like a lattice, to protect the White House from landslides. He went on to say the Ekklesia must remove the barriers. I told the angel we would take care of it.

"Then the scene in the dream shifted and I was driving up the mountain in a white work van. I somehow knew it was filled with a Holy Spirit empowered work team. The sign on the side of the work van read Ekklesia Response Team. Coming up the mountain behind me were six other vans filled with these Holy Spirit empowered work teams. In the dream, I recognized that there were seven vans; seven is the number of completion. I knew that under Holy Spirit's anointing, we would be able to complete the job and remove the barriers."

"We continued winding up the mountain until we saw a sign that said, 'Avalanche area, stay out.' Because of the sign in front of the White House that read, 'Coming Soon: The Avalanche,' we knew this was the place we needed to be.

"We exited the vans and began removing the barriers holding back the mountain. Some workers had blow torches and were working on breaking the welding of the beams, while others dragged away the beams. Everyone in the work teams was dirty and sweaty, but we finally got all the beams moved.

"Then one of the workers asked me how we were supposed to start the avalanche; they wondered if we should use dynamite. I said I wasn't sure and would make a call. I called the angel who had told us to do this, asking how we were supposed to start the avalanche. He said, 'You're not supposed to start the avalanche, just remove the barriers. When the time is right, the King will start the avalanche with a great shaking.'"

That was the end of the dream.

As I was praying into this, the Lord said, "Ekklesia, engage the barriers of hell and the barriers made by man. Dismantle them with weapons of warfare that I have divinely empowered. For My name and My words are filled with uprooting powers. Uproot 'seven mountain' strongholds with supernatural power and with My superior authority. In My name, uproot demon fortifications that have protected 'seven mountain' corruption of My ways.

"Uproot lying spirits bunkered in the White House and also surrounding it. In this war season you will see the uprooting power of your king. Roots of deception, theories, reasonings and arguments that have promoted social dementia will now be pulled up and destroyed.

"Ekklesia response teams, move forward and strike the strongholds of darkness with bold decrees of your faith. Ekklesia, hear the calling of your God: use the weapons I have divinely empowered and demolish positions of evil. Overthrow ideologies that have rooted into the culture and into your White House. Refute them with bold truth. I will empower you, for I am pouring forth irrefutable power, power to refute insane distortions of My ways.

"I am pouring out power to uproot and refute the confusion caused by demons in education, media, government and the White House. The Lord says you will see the confusion of the confused demolish their own agendas as My Ekklesia stands in faith for My words. It's uprooting time. Rise up in hope, for the world will now see the emerging of My great Ekklesia and power displays of My mightiness.

"My Ekklesia will move in power disciplining insubordinate disobedience, demolishing hell's counsels in boardrooms, transforming demonic thoughts in deranged minds into aimless blather. Blather, blather and more blather, their deranged minds will be conversations of blather.

"My Ekklesia will bring down the defenses hiding the wicked and their plans, exposing, refuting and demolishing them. They will do so with their war weapons of prayer, decrees and worship warfare. They will use their keys and unlock the cellar doors in the White House and Capitol, doors revealing the underground root systems of iniquity. Root cellars will open, says the Lord.

"For you will now enter a fullness of time that I have planned; the Liar-Liar live performance in the White House will be shown to the world. The avalanche is coming soon, and the Liar-Liar show will come to an end. I will shake Seven Mountain and My landslide will begin. Liars will be swept away in it. The mud they have thrown will now become a mudflow that overthrows their power. Ekklesia, dismantle the protective barriers. Activate your response teams. Activate your divinely empowered weapons, and I will trigger the avalanche."

I am confident that the Liar-Liar show is about to be hit with the Lord's avalanche. He is hastening His Word to perform it.

Pray with me:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for what You have promised and are now bringing to pass. Holy Spirit, release Your explosive power on the earth. Send Your avalanche and expose the Liar-Liar show. Expose the diabolical root systems in the White House and Capitol. Do it not only in D.C., but also at the state Capitols. Holy Spirit, use Your great and mighty angels, fueled by the decrees of Your Ekklesia, to open the cellar doors. Shake everything that can be shaken and uncover everything hidden. Remove strongholds and barriers with Your power. In Yeshua' Name, Amen.

Our decree:

Supernatural intervention is coming to expose and overthrow the deceptive agenda of our government. The Liar-Liar show is about to be hit with the Lord's avalanche, and we will see righteousness exalt our nation.

"A Five-Year Window Has Opened"

The Time Is Here

I want to share with you a very powerful prophetic word that I've been praying and sitting on for about the last month or so. The Lord showed me that we are in a five-year period in which the windows of Heaven have completely opened up. This is not a time that is coming. It is a time that is here.

The five-year window has opened. Ever since the Lord spoke to me about this, everything that my wife and I are doing, all of our ministries and businesses, have started to increase. Our clarity and prophetic edge are increasing. Everything that we're doing is increasing by the Spirit of the Lord.

Confusion, Chaos, or Clarity

This five-year word goes along with another word the Lord recently gave me. It was about confusion, chaos, and clarity. This is a season where everyone is going to be experiencing one of these three things: confusion, chaos, or clarity. I believe the Lord is calling His people above the noise and calamity going on in the world and in the natural realm so that they can walk in His clarity and operate from the heavenly realm.

This word is only highlighting the truth of how we are in a five-year time frame in which the windows of Heaven are open, and it's time for us to build what God has called us to establish.

Build According to the Spirit

This is a complete season of separation. The difference and distance between those who are going after God and those who are pursuing their own agendas is growing wider and more distinct. This is a season where we must build according to the Spirit of the Lord. It is critical for each of us to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit, because how we move forward in this season will determine how the many seasons to come will turn out.

In the next five years, you're not going to be able to do things the way you used to do things. You can no longer rely on things from the past that may have worked in the last season, because this is a new, different season. This season will require you to shift into a new level of discernment and faith. It is a fast-paced, accelerated season. (Photo via Pexels)

If you will build according to the Holy Spirit over the next five years, God will help you to create and build a Goshen. When Egypt was going through the ten plagues, there were people that were in Goshen who didn't have to go through what the rest of Egypt was experiencing.

I believe that over the next five years you're going to be able to build a legacy for the people that you care about. You're also going to be able to build things according to the Kingdom of God that have never been built before.

What Is God Saying to You?

This is a very exciting time! It's a time to evaluate and carefully consider what God is saying to you. Many will be prompted by the Lord to move out of dead and dry religious institutions, churches, and ministries.

Realignments in ministry and relationships are coming. It is vitally important for you to be plugged in with the right people. You will need the right friends around who are radically pursuing God alongside of you. Romans 16:17 says, "I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them."

Over the next five years, you cannot spend time together with those types of people. You can't stay connected with people who are negative, make excuses, and are argumentative. It would be a shame at the end of the next five years to look back and see that you had one friend or family member that you allowed to hold you back from all God has for you.

Separate Yourself to God

This is a season of separation where you are going to have to separate yourself from the world, the entertainment of the world, and the things of the world. This is your season to go wholeheartedly after the things of God.

Completely throw your life into the things of God like never before and watch what the Lord will do in and through your life! (Photo via Pexels)

"Therefore, 'Come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you. I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.'" (2 Corinthians 6:17–18)

There are so many of you out there that if you would just radically pursue the things of God and tap into a realm of the Spirit, then things would begin to break through in your life like you could never even imagine. The truth is, the window of Heaven is open right now. You're not waiting on God; God is waiting on you.

Ephesians 5:11 says, "Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them." What would happen if you only did things that were lined up with the Word of God and the prophetic words He has spoken over your life?

There was a period of time, about five years ago, when my wife and I had a prophetic word that we were going to accelerate in a few things. We ended up accelerating over a two-year period more than we had previously in all the years of our lives put together.

There was a period of acceleration where we made sure we were aligned with the Lord in every single area and detail of our lives, and we experienced explosive growth. This season is that type of fast-paced, accelerated season. The next five years are critical for the rest of your life. Make sure you are aligning every part of your life with the Lord and His purposes for you.

Philippians 4:6 in The Passion Translation says, "Don't be pulled in different directions or worried about a thing. Be saturated in prayer throughout each day, offering your faith-filled requests before God with overflowing gratitude..."

If you are not already a person of consistent, daily prayer, it is time to become one, my friends! My wife and I both start every day in prayer. We each go to our designated places in our house, and we have prayer time with God. This is how you keep the world from pulling you in different directions. When you are in constant communion with the Lord, then you will remain focused on your Kingdom assignment and Kingdom mandate. (Photo via PickPik)

Consider the Cost

Ecclesiastes 3 talks about how there is a season for everything. This is your season to build. This is your season to plant and advance in God's destiny for you.

Luke 14:28 says, "So don't follow Me without considering what it will cost you. For who would construct a house before first sitting down to estimate the cost to complete it?" If you are going to move forward over the next five years, don't do anything half-heartedly. Consider what it will cost you and then go wholeheartedly in with the Lord.

I remember years ago I went before the Lord and just gave my everything to Him. I told God that I would give up anything He asked me to and would do anything He asked me to do. I counted the cost, and I threw my life into the will and the perfect plan of God. Ever since then I have been rolling with the Lord at a very, very fast pace.

This is the type of season that we are in right now. I want to encourage you today to get alone with God. Spend time fasting and in prayer. Seek the Lord and then move forward in obedience. Ask the Lord to speak to you about the next five years. Allow Him to position you for the next five years in order to set you and your family up financially, physically, and spiritually.

You may need to shift many different things in order to align yourself with what God wants for you. Some may need to move geographical locations, churches, walk away from certain relationships, etc. Don't allow anything to keep you from what the Lord is wanting to do and build with you in this crucial time. The window of Heaven has opened, and it's up to you to step into the blessing and build!

Tishrei 27, 5785: Tuesday-October 29, 2024

You Must Be Growing!

By Steve Loopstra, Director, Your servant in Christ Ministries

I want to share with you perhaps the most important challenge we all face in our Christian lives, spiritual growth. This simply means that this life as the children of God is so much more than "religion" or religious activity. It is a personal intimate relationship with the Living God, and I want you to understand that God desires to do wonderful things in your life, but most of all He desires you to grow in your relationship with Him.

In the book of Hebrews, chapters five and six, the writer speaks plainly that those he was writing to had become careless, lazy and slothful in their understanding of the Word. Where they should have been teachers, they had continued to be like babies, not able to partake of solid food. He then goes on in chapter six to encourage them to show diligence that they not become "sluggish but imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

So, let me encourage us briefly here to give ourselves diligently in the following areas to be growing and be ready to meet Him when He comes. The first thing you need to understand is .... Who you are!! Your identity. Because what we believe about ourselves affect how we behave, it affects our values and our priorities.

You Grow in your Christian life by knowing Your Identity in Christ

If you are a Christian, then the statements below are true of you. To get an idea of the amazing things God has done for you, prayerfully study and meditate on these Scriptures. There are so many more than I have room for here. But use this as a beginning point. If needed, speak them out loud until you can say the following with confidence:

I am accepted...

John 1:12 I am God's child.

John 15:15 As a disciple, I am a friend of Yeshua Christ.

Romans 5:1 I have been justified.

1 Corinthians 6:17 I am united with the Lord, and I am one with Him in spirit.

I am secure...

Romans 8:1-2 I am free from condemnation.

Romans 8:28 I am assured that God works for my good in all circumstances.

Philippians 3:20 I am a citizen of heaven.

I am significant...

John 15:16 I have been chosen and appointed to bear fruit.

1 Corinthians 3:16 I am God's temple.

Ephesians 2:6 I am seated with Yeshua Christ in the heavenly realm.

You grow in your Christian life by knowing and studying the word of God and if possible, memorizing the Word of God. Psalm 119:11 says: "Your word have I hidden in my heart that I might not sin against you."

And like any newborn baby, we are expected to grow. Look at I Cor. 3:1-3 --- The word "milk" means the basic, elemental teachings of Christianity first learned by new believers, The word "meat" in 1Corinthians is from the Greek word "Broma". It means the deeper, more complete teachings of God's Word.

God wants you to grow and mature in your relationship with Him, and in your life here as His ambassador. You do that by first, learning how to read, and study and apply the Word of God. Find a translation of the Bible that is easy for you to read. Then read from your Bible every day. It does not have to be a long time. Spend a few minutes, read as chapter or two, then think about what it says and how you can apply it to your life.

If you are faithful to read and study and apply the Word of God, you will find that the Holy Spirit who lives within you will be at work changing your life, changing your way of thinking, and making you more like Yeshua.

You grow in your Christian life when you grow in faith.

Listen to Proverbs 3:5–6 - Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths.

Let me give you an example – the Bible teaches us that God is our provider. Now it is one thing to say with your words, “Yes! I believe that!” It is another thing to apply that to our lives. Here is a very simple example of how God will take care of us if we simply trust Him: Some years ago when I was in Seminary, I was a full-time student, and was working full time to pay our bills. Finances were difficult. At one point, our son, Jonathan, who was about 6 years old, really needed new tennis shoes. We could not wait any more. So, we got in the car and went shopping for tennis shoes for Jonathan. We went to several stores, but the cheapest shoes we could find cost five dollars more than we had. We were disappointed, but prayed as we returned home without tennis shoes.

As I drove into our parking area, I turned the car into our parking space, and stopped. Because as I looked, there right in the middle of our parking space was a five-dollar bill! So, I got out of the car, went and picked up the five-dollar bill, got back in the car and went and bought his tennis shoes!

Let me encourage you to trust God and believe in Him because He is always good, and He has very creative ways to answer our prayers, as we pray in faith.

You grow in your Christian life when you understand Your Destiny

God made us to be with Him. God made us to have a personal and intimate relationship with Him. But sin entered this world and has corrupted everything, every person, and all of creation, even the ecology. And God tells us that there is coming a time when He will make everything right. He will make a new heaven and new earth where there is no sin. But He expects us to live in the light of that truth. You see, in Romans 8, Paul tells us that even all of creation is groaning in anticipation of that day.

To grow in your Christian life, you need to understand your destiny as a child of God, and it is not this world. Peter tells us that there is coming a time when He will one day dissolve everything in heaven and earth that now exists, and He will make a new heaven and earth where sin will no longer exist.

Listen to the Apostle John in Revelation 21 as he sees this future: Then I saw “a new heaven and a new earth,” for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

And so, Peter asks us, since we understand that nothing in this world will last... that everything will be dissolved, how are we supposed to live? What should be our priorities? Peter says we must live in godliness and holy living. Why is this important? First, because you need to understand that everyone will stand before God and give an account of how they lived their lives. For the child of God, one who is born again, this is called the Judgment Seat of Christ. The Judgment Seat of Christ speaks of the moment in God's timeline when Christians will be rendered eternal rewards, or where they will discover that they have accumulated no eternal reward, according to their works in their lifetime.

Please understand this, God loves you so much, you will never understand how deeply He loves you. And He wants you to live with Him in this temporary life, so that as you are obedient and faithful to Him, at the end of this time, He desires to reward you for your faithfulness. That is something for which we can live!! For many years, I have shared that the most important thing in my life is that when I stand before Yeshua, I might hear Him say, from His own lips... "Well done, Steve, enter into the joy of your Lord." Is that what you are living for? I pray it will be.

I want to encourage you with a passage from 2 Peter 1, His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

Beloved, do you hear what Peter is telling you about living as a child of God?' He has given you EVERYTHING YOU NEED to live your life with Him! AMEN?? So, let us give ourselves wholeheartedly to growing toward that day. Let us guard against getting sluggish and lazy, and let us look toward the eternal destiny He has for each one of us. Let's GROW!

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'CONQUERED!' AND THEN SAW NEW MANTLES RELEASED UPON MANY

RECENTLY, I HEARD THE LORD SAY, 'CONQUERED!.'
AS I BEGAN TO LEAN IN AND LISTEN TO THE LORD'S HEART, I HEARD THE LORD SAY:

'CONQUERED! For there are many of you who have been in ongoing opposition against your assignment for many years. For some of you, you have walked through a 10-year cycle of assault that has been attempting to keep you under and hinder you from moving in your assignment that I have given you. But time and time again, I have continued to empower you and continued to carry you. But in the midst of all of the warfare over your assignment, there has been a despondency that has remained in many hearts, but I say unto you, 'NO MORE.' This is your time to CONQUER. No longer will you carry despondency, but you shall see MY VICTORY in your midst.

"For I say unto you that one season is closing, and a new season is opening. There is a threshold that I am bringing you through, and you are crossing over right now. There has been great warfare over this threshold, but oh, the works of My hand that you are beginning to see and about to see in unprecedented ways in the coming days, weeks, and months. For I say unto you, where the battle has raged over your assignment, where you have continued to push through and push through when at times you felt like you were constantly living beneath all the assault against your assignment, in this hour, in this time, I am CAUSING YOU TO CONQUER! I say unto you that by My mighty hand, by the power of My Spirit, I am SEVERING CYCLES that have come against your assignment, over and over and over again — over many of you for the last 10 years — that have attempted to keep you under it and keep you from advancing.”

“But I say unto you that I am bringing forth NOW, in this hour, an unprecedented demonstration of My power to position you within your assignment in ways that you have not seen before, that will cause you to advance in this hour. Advancing to advance My Kingdom, by the power of My Spirit, and you shall testify, ‘I AM UNHINDERED.’ For many of you have felt like you have been fulfilling your assignment in this season, and many seasons gone by, in such a place of intense pressure, intense push-through and intense battle. But I say unto you, that by My Spirit I am causing you to rise above, and it is time to now take your place in a greater way in your assignment, and in and for the nations.”

“I say unto you, that I am drawing you in deeper to My heart in this hour, and I am teaching you in a greater way what it looks like for you to govern in Me and with Me in your assignment, in a place of victory. I am shifting perspectives. I am shifting mindsets in this hour as you continue to seek My heart and marinate in My Word; to understand what MY VICTORY looks like within your assignment in greater ways. I am awakening you, My people, in this hour, to what it looks like to govern with Me from a greater place of revelation of the victory that you have IN ME. For I say unto you, that My decree of CONQUERED over you in this hour is that, in Me, there is a COMPLETION that has taken place and is taking place for many. ‘A season has ENDED.”

“A new season now begins, and I have caused you to rise above. You have received the victory of long cycles of warfare over certain areas of your assignment, and I say unto you, NEW MANTLES are now being released upon you.

“Lift up your eyes and LISTEN! BE POSITIONED, for I am releasing new mantles for the high places. I am releasing NEW MANTLES FOR THE HIGH PLACES. Do not rush ahead. Be still before Me. Remain before Me in waiting, because I am releasing NEW MANTLES to fly high with Me in this hour, and I am bringing you into a level of intricate insight as you treasure My Word, treasure My wisdom, and wait upon Me. I am bringing you HIGHER in

"As these mantles are placed upon you, you will be EMPOWERED by My Spirit and My fire like you have NEVER experienced before. You will CARRY and see My fire released through your life in never seen before ways. You are being given eyes and wings to see and soar in all that is before you."

"For I say unto you, that as I am releasing these new mantles in this hour, you will begin to see a grace that is beyond what you have ever experienced before: to see Me do through you what you have never seen Me do, and you will see things done by the power of My hand that you have not even imagined. For some of the works of My hand in this hour cannot even be comprehended by the natural mind, and oh, the awe and wonder of My heart and My Majesty and My nature that will be seen. It will bring you to your knees and leave you on your knees in awe and wonder of My Majestic works. 'But I say unto you, as I release these new mantles, stay LOW and SLOW and allow Me to teach you. For I have much that I am teaching you in this hour, and I will cause you to GROW UP INTO the mantle that I am placing upon you. You must draw close and learn of Me and listen well. For I am leading you into places in the Spirit and in the earth that you have not walked in before, and you must allow Me to lead you and to guide you."

"I say unto you, do not be afraid of the mess in the release of the new mantles. For if you look at the mantles being released in this hour and what I am causing you to walk in, in this hour, you can see the door opened to fear and intimidation. This is not an hour to lean on your own understanding (Proverbs 3:5-6) this is an hour to cry out for understanding and for My wisdom (Proverbs 2:3-6). For what may look messy to you in the natural, in the spirit is My divine order — and I am a God of order, and where I am leading you will require a deeper dependence and a humble heart. For I say unto you, that there is an upgrade of wisdom required in this hour to walk in the mantles I am releasing. So, you must continue to draw close to Me: to hear, perceive and receive the wisdom that I am releasing to you for the mantles being placed upon you, and the outworking of this mantle in your life."

"Oh, My people, how you are seeing —and about to see in ways you have never seen — how the deep work of My Spirit within you, through season

after season, has prepared you for THIS season. There is a convergence of much of the preparations that I have done within you, over the seasons, to prepare you for this hour. This is a promotion in the Spirit, and I have prepared you for these days. As you follow Me in dependence and continue to let Me teach you, you are going to see that you have actually entered the days that you feel like you were created for."

"I say unto you, that as these mantles are being released upon you in this hour, allow Me to continue to lead you and guide you in who will walk with you in this hour and your alignments. For there are greater alignments that I am bringing to you and bringing you into, and do not be rash in your advancement in alignments. Continue to allow Me to lead you in discernment."

"CONQUERED! There's a celebration and a joy being released to you in the Spirit in this CONQUERING that has taken place. Things do not remain the same from here. You will not remain the same from here."

"In a greater way, you are taking your place for such a time as this. 'A threshold has been crossed and is being crossed, for many of you, seeing you take your place in a greater way in My appointed place for you in this hour. It's time for the high places in Me, and I will train you in greater ways to see a victory and a conquering in taking the high places."

'Blessed be the Lord, my rock, who trains my hands for war, my fingers for battle.' (Psalm 144:1

CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Pastor Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication, as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Inspiration Ministries, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Wikipedia, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Rabbi Dov Ber Pinson, Sefer Yetzirah, Benjamin Gladstone, Ashley Hooker, Yvon Attia, Nate & Christy Johnston, Steve Loopstra, Veronika West, Lana Vawser, James Nesbit, Bruce and Linda Dietler, Bible Gateway, John & Janet Rockwell, Wade & Frances Butler, Dutch Sheets, Bob & Remy Koch, Terry Friesen, Tim Sheets, Roger Lee Waters, Wanda Alger, Demontae Edmonds, Charles Shamp, April Klaassen-Brown, James Nesbit, Benjamin Gladstone, Donna Rigney, Kim Clement, Jane Hamon, Amanda Grace, Alane Haynes, Aneta Alexandera, Michael Shuttlesworth, Kim Potter, Craig Colley, Greg Gerrie, Rabbi Curt Landry, Sylvia Neusch, Joe-Joe Dawson.

Blessings and enjoy, Dr. Wade K. Butler

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, again, "Study to show yourself approved."
