

Adar: 5785. The month to leap forward out of your past into your Destiny.
Wade Butler D.P.H (h.c.)

Adar is often referred to as the month to "Leap" into your future or Destiny. It is symbolized by a Stag or deer leaping. The biggest issue is being sure you are leaping in the right direction. Like a deer during hunting season, if you jump a fence to the wrong side, you are fair game to be taken out by hunters. The enemy is on the prowl scheming to get the "Sons and daughters" of GOD to be distracted and leap off cliffs or into abysses never to return.

It is a season of war for the restoration and reformation of HIS Kingdom.

All one has to do is look around and wars, rumors of war, and turmoil is everywhere. We must come out of our slumber, pick up our weapons of war, and be prepared to fight the good fight. Do not jump ahead without listening to Holy Spirit before you leap. You could be jumping into the enemy's camp and your demise.

A dear friend, Terry Friesen's dream hits home as to where and how desperate we are to stay on course or as I stated last year to "hold the line." Many intercessors are experiencing the LORD jumping them either backward in time to deal with old woundings or forward to prepare them for what is ahead. Interesting times as our LORD "RESETS" the times and seasons we are in. Look at the dream Terry Friesen experienced.

Terry Freisen: A dream and message.

Several years ago, the Lord confronted me and asked me if I was willing to give up a contentious reality. At the time I really didn't understand. Was I willing to give up the need to wrestle with life and simply receive the best He had for me? Are you ready to enter into the ease of our Father?

The Lord gave me a very sobering warning dream recently one morning - I am very thankful that He did.

Progressively, the yoke of Christ in my life has become more and more restrictive. He has been actively working to remove pockets of independence and rebellion from my life, which I agreed to.

In the dream I was feeling the very tight place of His yoke and in this "protected" place I had very little room to move, almost no room, so form-fitting is the yoke.

In this tight restrictive place, I chose to exercise my independence and rebel against the tightness I was feeling. I just wanted to stretch and feel some freedom in my will. As I did, I could feel my exercise of independence - and in so doing I could see and feel the hordes of hell recognize my state, I was just Terry, "uncovered." They started to circle me and prepare to attack me. The atmosphere became black, and I started to panic realizing I was outside of my protection.

I quickly yielded to Christ, declared Him as LORD, and exercised my authority in Christ to marshal hosts to tear down this assault.

Once again, I chose to yield, become small, and fit into the yoke Christ has placed on me. The minute I did this; I once again became invisible to the enemy. This is very sobering and very real. The yoke of the Lord can feel very restrictive at times, especially in this area of dominion. I know that boundless freedom is on the way for me and my life, but not until this call to rule and reign with Him has been formed in me and I become one with the yoke of His leading and protection.

This process has dramatically intensified in recent years and seems to be culminating around the concept of dominion. Even when we say yes to the dominion we've been given and when we embrace the call, we do so in Christ, conformed to His image. In this place we are protected and can exercise full authority.

The further we go in this direction, the more critical it is we do not operate independently of our Lord. We are entering very serious times as we are being entrusted with the full weight of His Kingdom as sons and daughters. Let's not lose our step in the training and reigning process. This is not a dress rehearsal, this is real.

Overview

This letter is to those who are new at following the daily devotional and Calendar. I would like to share with you some of the reasoning of the publication and answer some questions that are posed to me each month. To begin with, we follow the example of "One new man"- Jew and Gentile following the Messiah. Because of that we relate the Hebrew calendar timelines because our father did not change the seasons, man did. We need to learn about our roots. So, join us.

Many people receive this who are not members of the Republic or even Patriots. President Trump talks about the Republic or the "Patriot Movement" for many reasons, yet they are lovers of truth and followers of the LORD. That's who we appeal to. We don't ask for money or ask that you join anything other than the "LORD'S" Army. Most of the posts included in this publication are available if you diligently seek the Prophetic Word. We have twelve in-house contributors - brothers and sisters who contribute monthly, so buckle up.

This is Adar : by Wade Butler

It is a month of great joy as the Hebrews leap in joy for their deliverance from a death sentence. It is the month when the curse over Naphtali, from when they rebelled against God, was overturned.

You can break the curse of rebellion and overturn the curse now! Repent!!! It is the month of starting to move toward our destinies. Yeshua chose most of HIS disciples from the tribe of Naphtali in the region of Nazareth on the Sea of Galilee. In Rev 7, Naphtali is seen as restored with 12K chosen from the tribe and sealed as servants of GOD. It is the season to become what GOD has called us to be.

Yeshua Begins His Ministry Matthew 4:

¹² Now when Yeshua heard that John [the Baptist] had been arrested and put in prison, He left for Galilee. ¹³ And leaving Nazareth, He went and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the country of Zebulun and Naphtali.

¹⁴ This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁵ "the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, galilee [in the district] of the gentiles, ¹⁶ "the people who were sitting (living) in [spiritual] darkness have seen a great light, and for those who were sitting (living) in the land and shadow of [spiritual and moral] death, upon them a light has dawned."

¹⁷ From that time Yeshua began to preach and say, "Repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God's purpose for your life], for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

The First Disciples

¹⁸ As Yeshua was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He noticed two brothers, Simon who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ And He said to them, "Follow Me [as My disciples, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk], and I will make you fishers of men." ²⁰ Immediately they left their nets and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example]. ²¹ And going on [further] from there He noticed two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets; and He called them [to follow Him as His disciples]. ²² Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

Ministry in Galilee

²³ And He went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news (gospel) of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people [demonstrating and revealing that He was indeed the promised Messiah].

²⁴ So the news about Him spread throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all who were sick, those suffering with various diseases and pains, those under the power of demons, and epileptics, paralytics; and He healed them.

²⁵ Large crowds followed Him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and the other side of the Jordan.

Revelation 7 Amplified Bible (AMP)

An Interlude

7 After this I saw four angels stationed at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. ² Then I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, holding the seal of the living God; and with a loud voice he called out to the four angels to whom it was granted [to have authority and power] to harm the earth and the sea, ³ saying, "Do not harm the earth nor the sea nor the trees until we seal (mark) the bondservants of our God on their foreheads."

The 144,000

⁴ And I heard how many were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand; [twelve thousand] sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel: ⁵ Twelve thousand were sealed from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand from the tribe of Gad, ⁶ twelve thousand from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand from the tribe of Manasseh, ⁷ twelve thousand from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand from the tribe of Issachar, ⁸ twelve thousand from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand from the tribe of Joseph, and twelve thousand from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed (marked, redeemed, protected).

A Multitude from the Tribulation

⁹ After these things I looked, and this is what I saw: a vast multitude which no one could count, [gathered] from every nation and from all the tribes and peoples and languages [of the earth], standing before the throne and before the Lamb (Christ), dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands; ¹⁰ and in a loud voice they cried out, saying,

"Salvation [belongs] to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb [our salvation is the Trinity's to give, and to God the Trinity we owe our deliverance]."

¹¹ And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the [twenty-four] elders and the four living creatures; and they fell to their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and majesty and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen."

¹³ Then one of the elders responded, saying to me, "These who are dressed in the long white robes—who are they, and from where did they come?" ¹⁴ I said to him, "My lord, you know [the answer]." And he said to me, "These are the people who come out of the great tribulation (persecution), and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb [because of His atoning sacrifice]. ¹⁵ For this reason, they are [standing] before the throne of God; and they serve Him [in worship] day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them and shelter and protect them [with His presence]. ¹⁶ They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any [scorching] heat; ¹⁷ for the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will be their Shepherd, and He will guide them to springs of the waters of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes [giving them eternal comfort].”

Purim is a Jewish holiday that commemorates the deliverance of the Jewish people in the ancient Persian Empire from destruction in the wake of a plot by Haman, a story recorded in the Biblical Book of Esther. The month is related to the tribe of Naphtali - “sweetness to me” says the LORD.

It is the month to gain favor of the LORD and overturn the plans of the enemy so that he is defeated and hung on his own gallows.

We are to experience GOD’s goodness and mercy as we develop our war strategy for the future. It is a time to break all decrees against our families as we mount up to destroy the plans of the enemy to destroy us.

As we celebrate the season of the Queen who risks everything to save a nation, our LORD wants us to be joyful as we prepare our seeds for spring and till the ground for seedtime and harvest. Stay in alignment with the LORD and move into the season of blessing.

Facts of the season

The brown trees of winter have put on gleaming costumes of bright green. People act a little crazy – shedding heavy clothes while there is still a chill in the air; laughing a little wildly when there is no reason. "We've gotten giddy; we've caught spring fever."

Because Purim falls in Adar, it is the happiest, most joyous time of the Hebrew calendar. Its motto is "When Adar arrives, joy increases." Tradition teaches that Adar is so full of joy that it is as if Adar were pregnant with happiness. Indeed, some years we need two Adar's to contain all the joy of Adar.

Heaven rejoices with those who rejoice. I recommend you join in:

Dina. Beginning in the second century CE, the twelve calendar months were associated with the twelve tribes of Israel. Adar I is an additional, 13th month which some traditions associate with Dina, Leah's only daughter, and the youngest of Leah's children.

Dina's story is complicated, and we know little about it. One day she goes out to meet the women of the local Hivite town and ends up entangled with one of the men of the place. Some traditions say that Dina chose freely to spend time with this man; the Torah implies that he imposed himself on her by force. Unfortunately, the Torah does not record Dina's own thoughts and feelings on the matter, and so we are left to speculate.

Dina's story reminds us to be careful and to make good choices in potentially dangerous situations. At the same time, it is very important to understand that when someone is the victim of a crime when he or she was simply going about freely, the victim is innocent. When we or someone we care about are hurt, there can be a tendency to wish that the victim had done something differently so she would not have come in harm's way. But we must remember that the one harmed is not in any way at fault.

Adar (Hebrew: אָדָר Adar, from Akkadian adaru) is the sixth month of the civil year and the twelfth month of the ecclesiastical year on the Hebrew calendar, roughly corresponding to the month of March in the Gregorian calendar. It is a month of 29 days. The key Purim-related liberating wartime events and main mention of the month appear in the holy scripture of Esther 9, its last book.

The month's name, like all the others from the Hebrew calendar, was adopted during the Babylonian captivity. In the Babylonian calendar the name was Araḥ Addaru or Adār ('Month of Adar').

Customs

During the Second Temple period, there was a Jewish custom to make a public proclamation on the first day of the lunar month Adar, reminding the people that they are to prepare their annual monetary offering to the Temple treasury, known as the half-Shekel.

Based on a line in the Mishnah declaring that Purim must be celebrated in Adar II in a leap year (Megillah 1:4), Adar I is considered the "extra" month. As a result, someone born in Adar during a non-leap year would celebrate their birthday in Adar II during a leap year. However, someone born during either Adar in a leap year will celebrate their birthday during Adar in a non-leap year, except that someone born on 30 Adar I will celebrate their birthday on 1 Nisan in a non-leap year because Adar in a non-leap year has only 29 days.

The word Adar is cognate to the Hebrew word "adir", meaning "strength". Adar is the month of good fortune for the Jewish people.

"Adar" means "exalted", "praised", "power", and "strength". where it says: "the Lord is (Adir) mighty on High". This opinion states that just as we decrease our joy because we are separated from the Shechina (God's presence) in the month of Av, so too in Adar we rejoice because the whole month is a time when the Shechina (God's presence) is close to us.

When God commanded Moses to construct the tabernacle, He made the following request: make for Me a small chamber (called Mishkan in Hebrew) so that I may live (dwell in your midst).

1 Corinthians 6:19 says; do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?
It is said that the word "v'edor" ("and I will dwell" in Hebrew) is related to the word "adar" – the very name of this month implies that it is a time when the Shechina (God's presence) dwells among us "v'edor beineichem".
Another opinion states that the word "Adar" means "beauty ", as in the beauty of the season contained in Adar, Spring.

The Hebrew ancient history

- Adar (598 BC) – Jerusalem falls to Nebuchadnezzar and Jeconiah is captured.
- 3 Adar (515 BC) – Second Temple completed
- 5 Adar (1st century CE) – Lulianos and Paphos voluntarily gave themselves up to be killed, in order to save innocent Jewish lives in Laodicea.
- 7 Adar (1393 BC) – Birth of Moses
- 7 Adar (1273 BC) – Death of Moses
- 13 Adar (161 BC) – Yom Nicanor – The Maccabees defeated Greek Syrian general Nicanor at the Battle of Adasa during the Maccabean Revolt.
- 14 Adar (474 BC) – Purim victory celebrated in the Persian Empire
- 15 Adar (1st century CE) – Jerusalem Gate Day – King Agrippa I (circa 21 CE) began construction of a gate for the wall of Jerusalem; the day used to be celebrated as a holiday.
- 17 Adar (522 BC) – Yom Adar – the day the Jewish people left Persia following the Purim story
- 18 Adar [1953] - Death of Josef Stalin; brings to a stop the Doctors' Plot
- 20 Adar [1616] – 'Purim Vinz': downfall of Vincenz Fettmilch and triumphant return of the Jews of Frankfurt under Imperial protection. The day was established as a community Purim for generations and to this day the Washington Heights community does not recite Tachanun on this day.^[5]
- 25 Adar (561 BC) – Death of Nebuchadnezzar (Jeremiah 52:31).
- 27 Adar (561 BC) – Death of Zedekiah in Babylonian captivity. Meroduch April, Nebuchadnezzar's son and successor, freed him (and his nephew Jeconiah) on the 27th of Adar, but Zedekiah died that same day.

- 28 Adar (from the 2nd century onwards) – Talmudic holiday to commemorate the rescinding of a Roman decree against Torah study, ritual circumcision, and keeping the Shabbat.

Matt Friesser: Rosh Chodesh Adar, (Repost from 5784)

Adar means to be majestic or wide, or the verb אָדַר (adar), to be majestic or glorify. It is interesting that Tradition relates that Moses passed away on 7 Adar.

According to the Jewish Encyclopedia - Death of Moses, "After all this was accomplished Moses was warned that he would not be permitted to lead Israel across the Jordan but would die on the eastern side (Num. xx. 12). He therefore assembled the tribes and delivered to them a parting address, which forms the Book of Deuteronomy. In this address it is commonly supposed that he recapitulated the Law, reminding them of its most important features. When this was finished, and he had pronounced a blessing upon the people, he went up Mount Nebo to the top of Pisgah, looked over the country spread out before him, and died at the age of one hundred and twenty. YHVH Himself buried him in an unknown grave (Deut. xxxiv.). Moses was thus the human instrument in the creation of the Israelitish nation; he communicated to it all its laws. Meeker than any other man (Num. xii. 3), he enjoyed unique privileges, for 'there hath not arisen a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face'" (Deut. xxxiv. 10).

Face to Face with YHVH – the all-consuming fire - Notice Moses was labeled meeker than any other man. "The beauty of humility. It allows the bearer to stand in confidence in everything they are, while at the same time separating them from everything they are not. Humility causes those who love it to shine in brilliance. It breeds boldness and mercy, gentleness and strength, justice and loving kindness. Humility causes us to walk as those who know who we are; never second guessing, never over-stepping, always present in mind, heart, and body in the moments we were created to transform. Humility empowers. The very nature of humility is to rise in truth. Let's enter into the fullness of humility; love and cultivate it in our lives. The brilliance of God shines there." (Elisabeth Cooper)

Adar [II] is also the 13th month of the Hebrew calendar. Moses, who stood before the fire of the burning bush on Mt. Sinai and the pillar of fire died during the month of fire. His death led to the transition to Joshua and entering the promised land. That speaks volumes to what we are entering into as we get to the middle of the Gregorian calendar of March.

March's well-known proverb means that March is a month in which you can experience a Lion's fierce roar of frigid cold, the long white teeth of biting winds that can cut through flesh, and the gentle softness, the warmth of fluffy white fleece, and the innocent kiss of sunshine like a docile newborn lamb.

Seems very true as we look at the spiritual transition right now. We must be vigilant to seek HIS perfect will so HE can align us. Humility will be a key factor in how much HE will bestow upon us. Ultimately, just like Moses, our heart will be tested, but stand firm as the rewards will be greater than anything else we face.

ADAR

TWELFTH MONTH

STRENGTH

STONE:
AMETHYST

www.jnesbit.com

TRIBE
NAPHTALI

SWEETNESS IS TO ME
A TIME OF CELEBRATION THAT YOUR CURSE IS OVERTURNED

THE JOY OF ADAR IS WHAT MAKES THIS THE
"PREGNANT" MONTH OF THE YEAR.

THIS MONTH YOU DEVELOP YOUR WAR STRATEGY.

CONSTELLATION: PISCES (THE FISHES)
FINDING SUPPLY IN THE "HIDDEN" WORLD.

BOOK OF ESTHER

JAMES NESBIT © 2012
WWW.JAMESNART.COM

Welcome to Adar 5785, a season of great Joy in the midst of War!

Wade K. Buitler

Start of month of Adar on the Hebrew calendar

Adar [II] for Hebrew Year 5785 begins at sundown on Friday, February 28, 2025 and ends at nightfall on Saturday, March 28, 2025.

Adar (Hebrew: אָדָר, Standard 'Adār, from Akkadian adaru) is the sixth month of the civil year and the twelfth month of the religious year on the Hebrew calendar, roughly corresponding to the month of March in the Gregorian calendar. It is a month of 29 days.

The month's name, like all the others from the Hebrew calendar, was adopted during the Babylonian captivity. In the Babylonian calendar the name was Araḥ Addaru or Adār ('Month of Adar').

A prayer of Thanksgiving by James Nesbit O Magnificent Lord thank You,

For causing us to arise in Your strength this month of Adar, which is related to the word Adir, meaning strength and power, and it is Your power, Lion of Judah, that will make our greatest obstacles like chaff in the wind before You Lord God of Israel if we just trust in and dwell with You!

Father, thank You gracing us all to do just that! Trusting, resting, and dwelling in the "Secret Place" with You!

Father, You are judging our enemies at this time, restoring what was lost, and bringing victory where defeat seemed inevitable! Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!

If the times we are living in sound eerily similar to what has taken place in Scripture during the month of Adar, it's because they are. Evil is staring us in the face, and destruction rather than victory seems to be the word in the air, just as in Exodus!

As we pass through this month, Exodus 23:2 is in the news out of New York. Thank You Father for giving us backbone and courage never to follow the evil crowd in order to pervert justice no matter how many voices try to convince us or silence those who stand for justice.

We lift up the arms of President Trump and his sons today, Father. We say, "In your day of danger may Yahweh answer and deliver you. May the name of the God of Jacob set you safely on high!"

May supernatural help be sent from the sanctuary of our Father! May We thank You Yahweh, for supporting the Trump family from Zion's fortress!" Lord, remember every gift they have given in obedience to Your prompt and celebrate every sacrifice of love they have shown unto You!

Grace President Trump each morning to pause in Your presence Yahweh. O Father, give this family every desire of Your heart and carry out Your every plan and purpose for them as they go to battle.

We celebrate and shout for joy now for their upcoming successes. Flags are flying as we declare victory is yours! Yes, Mr. Trump, our Father is answering your prayers, and we praise Him! Great Yahweh, thank You for giving them all that they ask for, and bring victory to this anointed family.

Our deliverance cry is being heard in holy heaven. By Father's mighty hand miracles will manifest throughout this summer and fall by His saving strength alone.

Some find their strength in their weapons and wisdom, but our miracle-deliverance can never be won by men. Our boast is in You Yahweh our God, who makes us strong and gives us victory! Our enemies will not prevail; they will only collapse and perish in defeat while we rise up, full of courage.

O Yahweh! On this day we call on you, through the name of Your Son and thank You for hearing and answering!

Purim

Purim is celebrated on the 14th of Adar, marking the day the Jews celebrated their victory over Haman and his cohorts. Because the Jews of the walled city of Shushan fought against their enemies for an extra day, they observed Purim on the 15th of Adar. The rabbis decreed that all cities that were walled at the time of Joshua should observe Purim on the 15th as well. This rule is applied only to Jerusalem where "Shushan Purim" is observed on the 15th to this day.

The story of Purim is told in Esther. The Book of Esther is one of two books of the Bible to bear a woman's name. (The other is Ruth.) The Hebrew Bible is often referred to by Jews as the Tanach, after the initial letters of its three parts: Torah (Instruction), Nevi'im (Prophets), and Ketuvim (Writings). Esther is found in Ketuvim.

Purim is one of the few Jewish holidays celebrating the talents, courage, and dedication of a woman. The story begins when Queen Vashti is banished for refusing to entertain the king's guests, and Esther is chosen in a beauty contest to be the new queen.

Haman, the evil courtier, gets promoted to grand vizier, but Mordechai, Esther's uncle, refuses to bow down to him.

Haman decides to take revenge on Mordechai and on all the Jews. He convinces the foolish King Ahasuerus to call for the massacre of all the Jews throughout the kingdom. Purim means "lots" because Haman picked lots to decide precisely when to kill the Jews. Mordechai and Esther devise a plan to foil Haman's evil plot. Esther courageously approaches the king and invites him to a series of parties in Haman's honor. At the third party, Esther wines and dines the king, reveals that she is Jewish, and pleads for the life of her people. Haman is hanged, and the Jews are saved.

“Now Esther found favor in the eyes of all who saw her.” Esther 2:15

As we celebrate the season of the Queen who risks everything to save a nation, our LORD wants us to be joyful as we prepare our seeds for spring and till the ground for seedtime and harvest. Stay in alignment with the LORD and move into the season of blessing.

Fabulous Females

Queen Vashti and Queen Esther show tremendous bravery in the Purim story. We will honor them both in Adar [II].

Look for the movie “One night with the King” the story of Esther to be re-aired this month. Buy or rent it.

Excerpts From the OU Staff

The Fast of Esther

On the 13th of Adar (sometimes the 11th – see explanation below), the Fast of Esther is observed in commemoration of the Fast observed by Mordechai and Esther and all Israel. On that very day, the enemies of the Jews had planned to subjugate and destroy them. The opposite, however, occurred and the Jews ruled over their enemies. The practice of fasting was observed by the people of Israel whenever they were faced by war. Thus Moshe Rabenu also fasted when he came to wage war against Amalek. The aim of the fast was to affirm that a man does not prevail by physical or military strength, but only by lifting his eyes heavenward in prayer so that Divine Mercy might give him the strength to prevail in battle. This then was the purpose of the fast observed by Israel at the time of Haman, when they gathered to defend themselves against those who sought to destroy them. And in memory of that Fast, a yearly Fast was fixed for generations on the same day. We are to recall thereby that God accepts each person's prayer and penitence in the hour of his trouble.

The acceptance of this Fast of the 13th of Adar on the part of Israel for later generations is alluded to in the Scroll of Esther: 'And as they accepted upon themselves and upon their children, the matters of their fastings and their cry' (Esther 9).

The Fast is called by the name of Esther because it was she who first requested the observance of a fast, of Mordechai: 'Go and gather all the Jews who are found in Shushan and fast over me, and do not eat and do not drink three days, night and day; and I and my maidens will also fast thus.' (ibid. 4)

The fast which we observe is nevertheless not observed for a three-day period, as was the case with the original Fast, nor is it observed on the same date. Originally, the Fast was observed by Esther and the entire people of Israel on the 14th, 15th, and 16th of Nisan, immediately after Mordechai was informed of Haman's decree and of the letter of annihilation which Haman wrote on the 13th of Nisan. Our Fast however, is observed on the 13th of Adar, in memory of the Fast observed by Israel on the day of their mobilization for war against the enemies. The Fast is nevertheless called by the name of Esther since it was she who first proposed its observance.

Others hold the view that even our Fast is also primarily a commemoration of the original three-day Fast observed by the Jews when the decree was announced. But since the Fast could not be permanently fixed for later years in its proper time (because fasting is not permitted during Nisan), the Sages therefore fixed it for the 13th of Adar – which was also a Fast day for the Jews, who then gathered to wage war against their enemies. And although the Fast of Esther is therefore a memorial to the original three days of fasting, the Rabbis were nevertheless lenient in fixing it for only one day.

In deference to this view, there are some who fast an additional three days; on Monday, Thursday and Monday after Purim. Others voluntarily fast the night as well as the day on the 13th of Adar, since the original three-day Fast was observed night and day.

Some Laws of the Fast of Esther

Since the Fast of Esther is not one of the four Fast days which are specifically mentioned in the Prophetic Writings, it is observed with greater leniency than the other Fast days. Pregnant women, nursing mothers, as well as others of generally weak health, (who would suffer by fasting) do not fast therein. The additional penitential prayers, and the Torah Reading, which are prescribed for the other Fast days are also required for the Fast of Esther.

If the 13th of Adar falls on Shabbat, the Fast is observed the preceding Thursday which is the eleventh of Adar. Because of Purim, the Fast is not postponed to the following day, nor is it observed Erev Shabbat: Since it is no longer observed in any event in its proper time, it was not fixed for Erev Shabbat, in deference to the honor of Shabbat. (A Fast whose prescribed date can fall on Erev Shabbat such as the 10th of Tevet, is neither postponed nor observed earlier, but it is observed on its fixed day). Tachanun is not said during Mincha of the Fast of Esther.

The Half-Shekel

On the 13th of Adar during Mincha, it is customary to give three halves of the coin which is the basis of the local currency. The money is given to the poor to do with it as they wish. This contribution is made in memory of the half-shekel given by Israel when the Beit Hamikdash still stood; and whose forthcoming collection was announced on Rosh Chodesh Adar.

This commemorative act is performed before the Reading of the Megillah, because all Israel gathers for the Megillah Reading in the Synagogues. It is proper to give the half-shekel before Minchah, since 'the diligent perform Mitzvot earlier.' Those who live in 'open-cities' give the half-shekel before the Megillah Reading on the night of the 14th, whereas the inhabitants of Yerushalayim give the half-shekel before their Reading of the Megillah – the night of the 15th.

In a place which has no coin that is designated a 'half' coin, it is customary for the gabaim to bring three halves of silver coins which are issued elsewhere, and to give these coins in exchange, to anyone who makes his contribution in the coins available to him. After performing the Mitzvah, he returns the three 'halves' to the gabaim, so that others might also be able to observe the custom properly.

Those who seek to observe Mitzvot with hidur (enhancement) give the half-shekel for each of the members of the household including minors, and in the case of an expectant mother, for the unborn child as well. Once a father has begun to give a half-shekel for a minor child, he is required to continue to do so each year.

The reason for the giving of three 'halves' is that the term trumah (contribution) is mentioned three times in the portion of Ki-Tisa, in the account of the Mitzvah of the half-shekel. The established practice is to consider the giving of the half-shekel as not freeing one from the Mitzvah of giving charity to the poor, which is specifically prescribed for Purim.

The Day of Nikanor

The 13th of Adar is also mentioned in the Talmud as the day on which vengeance was executed (during the time of the Hasmoneans) against a tyrant who oppressed the land of Yehudah cruelly and arrogantly blasphemed the city of God. The name of the tyrant was Nikanor and he fell by the hand of Yehudah, the son of Matityahu, on the 13th of Adar, which was hence celebrated as a festive day.

Part 4: Ebionites - The Remnant of the Apostolic Kehilot

A Hebrew Perspective

by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)

edited by Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch)

Adar 1 5785, February 1, 2025

The information in this article is from third-party sources that can readily be validated; it is not the opinion of the author. This article is just a very skeletal overview of what scholars have historically called the “parting of the ways” between the original apostolic community of Nazarenes / Ebionites and the later authoritative Graeco-Roman (GR) Church. Much of this material may be unfamiliar to you; it is a multifaceted subject that most Christians don’t know much about. However, it is central to gaining a historical understanding of the Hebrew roots of Christianity.

In the Book of Acts, James (Jacob), as bishop, issued the final judgment concerning requirements for Gentiles who were joining the Kehillot (Messianic Assemblies). They did not have to convert or be circumcised, but they were instructed to go the synagogues to hear the Torah of Moses, and abstain from foods sacrificed to idols (Rev 2:14, 20), etc. (Acts 15:22-30). The Ebionites, in line with the spirit of James’ ruling and his NT Epistle, stated that since Yeshua and Moses preached essentially the same message, Gentile followers of Yeshua and Jewish followers of Moses should act as one body and fellowship together. Unfortunately, it didn’t happen that way.

We know that Christian writers of the 2nd through 4th centuries connected the Ebionites with the descendants of the first apostolic congregation of Yeshua and James as his successor. Different sources document the Ebionites: the “Church Fathers” from Justin through Epiphanius; writings recovered from Arabic and Syriac manuscripts; and sections of the Pseudo-Clementines reflecting the older traditions.

Originally, early Christian writers sincerely wanted to uncover the teachings of the first apostolic church. But that gradually changed as GR viewpoints became dominant.

the church fathers present short summaries of their teachings and quotations from their writings, usually in order to confute what they considered to be heretical ideas. The Ebionites appear for the first time in Irenaeus' "Adversus Haereses," written around 180 CE. Epiphanius (wrote the) "Panarion" (ca. 386 CE). The Panarion also contains the richest ancient description of the Ebionites. Because Epiphanius was writing at the end of the fourth century, he was able to use all the information about the Ebionites collected by his predecessors (Irenaeus, Hippolytus, Tertullian, Pseudo-Tertullian, Origen and Eusebius), which he supplemented with many details obtained from his contemporaries...practically all heresiologists (heresy hunters) from the second to the fourth century were more or less influenced by the Irenaeian tradition.¹ (Emphasis mine)

Main Theological Issues

Justin Martyr (100-165 CE) was one of the earliest witnesses to Ebionite doctrines. He writes in his creative "Dialogue with Trypho the Jew," Dial. 49:1:

(Trypho speaking) It appears to me that they who assert that he [Yeshua] was of human origin, and was anointed as the Messiah only by election, propose a doctrine much more credible than yours. We [Jews] all expect that the Messiah will be a man of merely human origin, and that Elijah will come to anoint him...

[Dial. 67.2] You Christians should be ashamed of yourselves... to repeat the same kind of stories [as the Greeks in their myths of virginal births] ...and you should... acknowledge this Yeshua to be a man of mere human origin. If you can prove from the Scriptures that he is the Messiah, confess that he was considered worthy to be chosen as such because of his perfect observance of the Law...

The Virgin Birth vs. Adoptionism: What Made Yeshua a Messiah? One of the most critical issues between the Ebionites and Gentile Christians was the GR Church's creed of the virgin birth. For the Church, it was this miraculous event which transformed Yeshua into a god-man born as the divine Son of God (consubstantiation).

Divine conception stories were well-known in the ancient pagan world. Addressing the Roman emperor and court philosophers in "First Apology 22", Justin Martyr pointed out that Yeshua's virgin birth should not be considered "extraordinary" vis-a-vis GR deities, including the myth of Perseus (and others like Adonis, Dionysus, Mithra, etc.)

"When we say, as before, that he was begotten by God as the Word of God in a unique manner beyond ordinary birth, this should be no strange thing for you who speak of Hermes as the announcing word from God... . If we declare that he was born of a virgin, you should consider this something in common with Perseus."

¹ Peter Petri Luomanen, Recovering Jewish Christian Sects, (Brill Publishers, Leiden, 2012), p. 17

Indeed, many scholars state that, at the time of several parallel pantheons of gods, a virgin birth was thought to be a prerequisite for divinity.

There is no doubt that in early Christianity a tension was perceived between the Davidic descent of Yeshua on the one hand, and his virginal conception by Mary on the other. The genealogies in Matthew and Luke both trace Yeshua' Davidic descent through Joseph, not Mary, and thereby only make the tension more acute. We can already observe in Ignatius an attempt to relieve the tension by making Mary also an offspring of David. But this "solution" to the problem only serves to emphasize that it was a very real one.² (Emphasis mine)

The Hellenist Gentiles could not read the Tanakh in the original Hebrew so they only used the Greek text (the Septuagint). The NT used by Christians was also written in the lingua franca of Koine Greek. When the Gospel of Matthew quotes Isaiah 7:14, it uses the Septuagint term "parthenos" commonly understood as "virgin." This term differs from the early Hebrew Dead Sea Scrolls biblical text (c. 200 BCE) also reflected in the Masoretic Hebrew Tanakh; they both use the word "almah," properly translated as "young woman". This significant difference in meaning sparked an irreconcilable controversy. For the Gentile Christians, the Septuagint Isaiah passage was brought forward to provide prophetic proof for Yeshua' virgin birth.

Irenaeus (120-202 CE of Lyon) was the earliest extant Gentile Christian heresiologist. Called the "Father of Catholic Orthodoxy", he wrote a voluminous, foundational work called "Adversus Haereses" c.180, gathering much material about Ebionites. He stated that the Ebionites declared Yeshua was the Messiah based on his Davidic line of descent from Joseph and his anointing at baptism, rejecting the virgin birth story. They maintained that the word "alma" is translated as "young woman" in Isa 7:14 and explicitly identified Joseph as Yeshua' father (Haer. 3.21.1). Ebionites asserted that, according to the Tanakh, Israelite kingship must always descend through the male line. They said that Yeshua was anointed as the "adopted son" of God at his baptism when God's Spirit descended upon him. Irenaeus excoriated them for this doctrine.

"Vain are also the Ebionites who do not receive by faith into their soul the union of God and man, but remain in the old leaven of (human) generatio; and who do not wish to understand that the Holy Spirit came in Mary...therefore also what was generated [generatum] is...the Son of the Most High God...who wrought his incarnation and displayed a new generation [novam ostendit generationem]; that as by the former generation we inherited death, so by this generation we might inherit life. Therefore, do these men reject the commixture of the heavenly wine and wish it to be water of the world only, not receiving God so as to have union with him..." (Irenaeus Adv. Haer. 5.1.3)

This paraphrase, combining ideas in John 1:13 and Luke 1:35, clearly transposes the role of the Spirit from Yeshua' baptism to his birth. It was then that the Spirit played a decisive role, therefore the son of Mary was Son of God from his birth, not from his baptism. For Irenaeus, the ideas of virginal conception/birth and divine pre-existence and subsequent incarnation belong inseparably together. ...the essential catchword...is generation. origin, birth, descent, ancestry, parentage, and genealogy. The Ebionites want a human-only ancestry of the Messiah; they fail to recognize the necessity of the Messiah's divine ancestry.³ (Emphasis mine)

² Oskar Skarsaune and Redar Hvalvik, editors, Jewish Believers in Yeshua – The Early Centuries, (Hendrickson Publishers, Peabody MA 2007) p. 411

Eusebius (260-339 CE) lived in Caesaria and wrote "Ecclesiastical History" in 325 CE. He apparently had more contact with Ebionites in what was Palestine at that time. He verifies the Ebionite teachings regarding Yeshua's humanity as recorded by Irenaeus.

For they considered him a plain and common man, who was justified only because of his superior virtue, and who was the fruit of the intercourse of a man with Mary. In their opinion, the observance of the ceremonial law was altogether necessary, on the ground that they could not be saved by faith in Christ alone and by a corresponding (law-free) life. "Book 3. Ch 27" (Emphasis mine)

The Hebrew "Adoptionist" view reflects a long traditional precedent of the spirit of God descending upon prophets. A prophetic anointing happened by the descent of God's spirit upon Yeshua at his baptism by his cousin John, whose role was more pivotal than disclosed in the NT. At that time, Yeshua was "adopted" as YHWH's son and anointed for a special purpose (see Isa 42:1; PS 2:7; and especially Romans 9:4 where Paul speaks: "...who are Israelites, whose is the divine adoption as sons...").

It is interesting to note that the Gospel of Matthew [ed. note: not the canonical Matthew], the only gospel used by the Ebionites according to Irenaeus, is the one gospel that most emphatically casts John the Baptist in the role of the prophet-like-Elijah, Matt 11:14; 17:12 (cf. Mark 9:13; Matthew adds: "and they did not recognize him"). It is also interesting to note that Justin seems to know a tradition that portrays the Baptist as the prophet-like-Elijah who anoints Yeshua to be the Messiah, according to the prophecy in Isa 11:2-3 (Justin himself does not think in these terms about Yeshua' baptism by John) (Dial. 49-54 and 87-88).⁴

Yeshua was chosen to be the Messiah based on his perfect following of what is called "keter Torah", the higher or authentic uncorrupted Torah given by Elohim to Moses. Recall Yeshua's NT reproof of the Pharisees for their "traditions of men", declaring their extra-biblical rules equal in force and sanctity to the actual Law of Moses.

³ Oskar Skarsaune and Redar Hvalvik, editors, Jewish Believers in Yeshua, The Early Centuries, Hendrickson Publishers, Peabody MA 2007) p 430, 434

⁴ ibid. p 430

As the Righteous One (saddiq), the only man who has completely fulfilled the law, Yeshua has been appointed to be the Christ (Hippolytus, Origen, Epiphanius)... Yeshua fulfilled the law as man, not as Son of God (huios theou) but as Son of man (huios anthropou). He was consecrated for Messiah-ship and endowed with the power of God not through real pre-existence but through the act of adoption which was announced in Psalm 2:7 and which occurred at the time of his baptism, i.e., through the Holy Spirit present in the water of the baptismal bath. This "adoptionism" - in (Clementines) Recognitions 1.48 it is said that Yeshua is he qui in aquis baptismi filius a deo appellatus est ("who in the waters of baptism was called Son by God") - developed from ideas current in the primitive church...Consequently, the Clementines know no other Christology than the adoptionism of the appellation ("calling") to divine son-ship of the one who was born as a man.⁵ (Emphasis mine)

John the Baptist and Yeshua baptized people with water for remission of their sins after they had sincerely repented and turned back to following "The Way" of Torah. (ref. Mark 1:4, Luke 3:3, Matt 3:6 and John 4:1.) Therefore the Ebionites continued the teachings of the Patriarchs that it was this water baptism symbolizing the return in obedience to God that replaced the pagan-inspired sacrificial system.

Salvation and Atonement: Blood of Christ or Torah? As we know, Paul writes: "For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed" (1 Cor 5:7). Justification for Gentile Christians came through Yeshua's blood on the cross, "by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Yeshua, whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood" (Rom 3:24-25). For Paul and the GR Church, it was the belief in the sacrificial death and blood of Christ alone that provided forgiveness of sins.

Jewish Christianity clearly knows as little of a supernatural birth as of a soteriological interpretation of Yeshua's death on the cross, such as the view which regarded Yeshua as a vicarious atoning sacrifice. Since they rejected bloody sacrifices altogether as crass paganism, the Ebionite Yeshua can neither have taught this nor by his death have put his seal on it - in contrast with the tradition of the primitive church preserved in I Corinthians 15:3...they celebrated the Lord's Supper as a mere remembrance of table-fellowship with Yeshua and replaced the cup of blood with a cup of water (according to Irenaeus and Epiphanius).⁶

Epiphanius makes a startling statement about Yeshua's admonition regarding the sacrificial system as preserved by Ebionites in their gospel that he personally read.

They say that Yeshua was begotten of human seed, and chosen, and thus called by election, Son of God, Christ having come upon him from on high in the form of a dove...

⁵ Hans Joachim Schoeps, Jewish Christianity: Factional Disputes in the Early Church, (Fortress Press, Philadelphia, 1969) p. 77

⁶ ibid. p. 62

He came into the world and he taught, as it is written in their gospel: I have come into the world to destroy sacrifices, and if you do not give up sacrificing, the anger of God shall not cease (Panarion XXX, 16).⁷ (Emphasis mine)

There are several references regarding Yeshua's destruction of the sacrificial system in the Clementines and the Church Father's quotations from their gospel(s).

...the reason the Ebionites were bound to reject emphatically the Pauline soteriology, which conceived of Yeshua' death as a bloody, atoning sacrifice, becomes even clearer. In their view, Christianity had been freed from the Jewish sacrificial worship not through the universally efficacious sacrifice of the Son of God, as the church which followed Paul believed, but rather through the water of baptism whereby Yeshua had extinguished the fire of the sacrificial cult.

Concerning the genesis of this Ebionite antipathy toward sacrifices... in Yeshua' day there was probably still a hazy recollection that the sacrificial legislation was the product of Josiah's reform and of the exilic age and had been inserted into the Mosaic legislation for the first time under Ezra. This is supported by the statements of the Kerygmata Petrou and the note of Epiphanius which affirm that according to Ebionite belief, Moses received a Pentateuch different from the present one; the latter, written a thousand years after Moses, has been falsified.

...According to (Pseudo-Clementines) Recognitions 1.35 ff., the real point of Yeshua' mission is the annulling of the sacrificial law combined with complete loyalty to and affirmation of the rest of the Mosaic law. Animal sacrifice, it is claimed, was permitted on a temporary basis by Moses only because of the people's hardness of heart; Yeshua abolished it and replaced the blood of sacrificial animals with the water of baptism. Thus, the logion of Matthew 5:17 reads in the Gospel of the Ebionites... "I have come to annul sacrifice, and if you will not cease to sacrifice the wrath will not turn from you." They understood] Yeshua' policy of not changing anything in the law as not covering the regulations concerning bloody animal sacrifice. Heaven and earth - so reads Homilies 3.52 on the basis of the "Judaistic" statement of Matthew 5:18 - have not passed away, but the sacrifices, the monarchy...and all such things which have not belonged to the divine law and consequently have proved false, have passed away in the catastrophe of A.D. 70.⁸ (Emphasis mine)

Epiphanius records quotations from their own gospels which are quite different from the NT canons. In Panarion 30.15.1, he states that the Ebionites used "Clement's so-called Circuits of Peter" (Periodoi Petrou) "though they corrupt the contents and leave a few genuine items." They also read the "Ascents of James" (Anabathmoi Iakobou) which he describes as "full of nonsense".

⁷ Jean Danielou, Theology of Jewish Christianity, (Darton, Longman & Todd Ltd, London, 1964) p. 56

⁸ Hans Joachim Schoeps, Jewish Christianity: Factional Disputes in the Early Church, (Fortress Press, Philadelphia, 1969) p. 82, 83

Scholars connect these writings to lost material that underlie the extant Pseudo-Clementine Recognitions and Homilies. But one section, Rec. 1.33 to 1.71, clearly incorporates a more ancient, distinctive source. How so? Because the theology of this section differs significantly from the Clementine writings as a whole, which were copied and edited circa the late third century. Finally, after much debate, most researchers now acknowledge this section is dependent on the Ebionite "Ascents of James".

The report of Epiphanius... furnishes us with enough evidence to relate our source to the Ascents of James he describes. In his Panarion, the last (c. 377) and most comprehensive of all early Christian heresiologies, Epiphanius devoted a long chapter to the Ebionites. As the text of Pan. 30.16.6-9 is important for comparison to R 1.33-71, it would be well to reproduce it here...

"(16.6) They call other works 'Acts of the Apostles,' in which there are many things full of impiety, from which they arm themselves in no cursory fashion against the truth. (7) Indeed, they adopt certain ascents and interpretations in the Anabathmoi Iakobou [[Ascents of James]], as speaking out against both the temple and the sacrifices, and against the fire which is on the altar, and many other things full of foolish talk; (8) and also in that work they are not ashamed with trumped up charges of evil-doing and deceit made by their false apostles accusing Paul of being a Tarsian [ed. note: not born Jewish as he claimed] (9)...and that he wrote against circumcision, and against sabbath and the Mosaic law."⁹

Why were sacrifices allowed if this system was not commanded by God at Mt. Sinai?

In the Pseudo-Clementine Recognitions... Israel had learned to sacrifice to idols in Egypt (36.1). As a concession to Israel's weakness, Moses permitted sacrifices "to God alone" (36.1, Latin) until Israel should learn from the promised prophet like Moses (i.e., Yeshua) that God desires mercy and not sacrifice (37.2)...: "Whenever they observed the law without sacrifices, they were restored (to the land) and ransomed . . . Whenever they... returned to their place (i.e., the land) and offered sacrifices, they were thrust out and were cast forth from it, so that they might cease sacrificing forever" (37.4). The prophet like Moses instructed Israel to cease sacrifices, and lest they conclude that forgiveness of sins would no longer be possible, he instituted baptism by water (39.2).¹⁰

So, according to the Ebionites, part of Yeshua's mission was to show the people how to connect with the spirit of YHWH by walking in "The Way" of righteousness and justice

⁹ Robert E. Van Vorst, The Society of Biblical Literature, Dissertation Series 112, 1989, p. 44

¹⁰ Oskar Skarsaune and Redar Hvalvik, editors, Jewish Believers in Yeshua, The Early Centuries, (Hendrickson Publishers, Peabody MA 2007) p. 319

as delineated by the Decalogue of the Torah and spoken of extensively in the DSS. Recognitions 1.39.1-2 states:

"[The prophet like Moses] would first of all admonish them... to cease with sacrifices. Lest they think that with the ceasing of the sacrifices remission of sins could not be affected for them, [he] instituted for them baptism by water, in which they might be absolved from all sins through the invocation of his name... [so that] henceforth following a perfect life they might remain in immortality, purified not through the blood of animals but through the purification of God's wisdom."

The Tanakh contains evidence that the sacrifices were not commanded by YHWH.

For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them on the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices. (Jer 7:22)

For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgement of God rather than burnt offerings. (Hos. 6:6)

'The multitude of your sacrifices—what are they to me?' says YHWH. 'I have more than enough of burnt offerings, of rams and the fat of fattened animals; I have no pleasure in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats' (Isa 1:11).

Sacrifice and meal offering You do not desire, nor do You delight in them; You have opened my ears and given me the capacity to hear [and obey Your word]; Burnt offerings and sin offerings You do not require. (Ps 40:6 amplified)

With what shall I come before YHWH and bow down before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? ...He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God. (Mic 6:6, 8).

When Moses recounted the Ten Sayings God spoke to Israel, he also reminded them:

"These words the YHWH spoke to all your assembly at the mountain out of the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and he added no more. And he wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me." (Deut 5:22)

Intriguingly, a scroll of the book of Deuteronomy looking very much like the Dead Sea Scrolls was discovered in 1880 just east of the Jordan River opposite Qumran. Scholars are calling it "The Moses Scroll" or the "Valediction of Moses". It was written in paleo Hebrew dated to c. 950 BCE and was different in several ways from our current Masoretic version: the complete blessings and curses were written, but no sacrifices or other legal tenets were commanded. Could this be the original scroll that existed before the exilic insertion of the sacrificial cult under Ezra of which the Ebionites spoke?

END

Common Law Copyright March 1, 2024 by Remy A. Koch. All right reserved.

Permission is herein granted to reproduce this article, in full or in part, and to distribute it at no charge providing author attribution is included.

Adar 1, 5785: Saturday-March 1, 2025

One of my closest friends in life is pastor Jim Gregory. For the past three months he has been carrying the flag that we have to be Operational now standing from the victory side.

Jim Gregory: If You Could See, Then You Would Know

Genesis tells us that we are made in the image of God. The Psalmist tells us that we are fearfully and wonderfully made. Jeremiah tells us that God has plans to prosper us and not destroy us. Jeremiah further tells us that before we are formed in the womb, He knows us. John reinforces this understanding in chapter 17 of the Gospel of John. The New Testament tells us in several places that as many as are led by the Spirit of God they are the sons of God, and they have the power to become the Sons or children of God.

1 John 2 tells us that we have an unction from the Holy One, and we know all things. Yeshua prophesied to us in John chapter 14 that greater works we would do than what He did. John further records at the end of the Gospel of the works that Yeshua did the world could not contain the record or volumes of the record.

You were born for this very moment in time to fulfill the establishment of the Kingdom of God in all the earth. You were born to be the Glory-bearer that fulfills the prophetic word that the knowledge of the Glory of God shall cover the earth as the water covers the sea. Your history and your future have been known by Heaven forever, and you are at exactly the greatest moment in the history of the World.

The Prophetic and Apostolic word to you today is that your story, past and present, scares Hell out of your enemy. The only weapon your enemy has to use is to keep you distracted and thereby wear you down so that you lose sight of the great and mighty creation you are; that you would lose sight of the prophetic words and expectations your heavenly father has for you.

You are God's master plan for the fulfillment of His desire to create. You are it! You are His voice, His eyes, His ears, His love, His joy, His everything for fulfillment of the expectation of Creation.

Your enemy would have you to believe that you have to get the victory, but my friend, you are already victorious. Your enemy wants you to believe that you are not, but hear the Word of the Lord: YOU ARE VICTORIOUS ALREADY! Nothing can stop you. You are the pinnacle of the relationship God intended for all of mankind. You can get to no greater place in God than to understand that you are His Child, the son or daughter of the Most High, and you are seated on the throne with him.

I say to you that you shall ascend to the Hill of the Lord, you shall stand in the Holy Throne Room with Him, and you shall see the Glory that you were designed to bear into all the earth. The Holy Spirit is going to guide you through your victory, and you will bring many sons and daughters to Christ. You have crossed the threshold to the other side, and you are the Glory made manifest prophesied in the Holy Writ.

Will you now See that you are Great and that your position in Yeshua is undeniable and undefeatable? You will carry the Glory of God into all the earth, and the name of Yeshua shall be exalted as you do. Your sons and your daughters shall follow you in this path, and they will behold the way you walk, and they will walk therein as well so that it is said of you and your house you are a mighty fortress for the Lord. These things have been determined by Heaven, and they will be. Andrew Whalen brings it to point.

Andrew Whalen: We Are Operational

Editor's note: Below are the dreams and encounters that Andrew Whalen shared during his recent interview on ElijahStreams. We encourage our readers to carefully pray through them and watch Andrew's interview [here for full context.]

From Covert to Overt

Encounter received on February 1, 2025:

Upon waking up one day, I found my dreams were a bit foggy... I couldn't make out anything clearly. So I chalked it up to "Well, maybe God just didn't have anything to share last night." Then standing up out of bed, I clearly heard an internal, audible voice say, "WE ARE OPERATIONAL." I know what I heard, and it was unmistakable.

In the moment I heard it, I had a "revelatory knowing" that the military OPS (which have been operational for the entirety of the last eight years) had now entered a new phase. I knew that we were going to begin to see increasing evidence of military precision and engagements against deeply entrenched enemies of America.

Though I don't believe we will ever be allowed to see everything because of the nature of these OPS and the need for a measure of security, I do believe the "covert" phase is now shifting into "overt" OPS, which will only show what we need for the optics to awaken as a society!

We must understand that we have been at war, but it's a war in which the tide has turned on behalf of every freedom-loving person in America and the nations! Trump represents the patriotic control of America under the protection of the U.S. military!

As a prophetic warrior, I believe the Lord allowed me to hear His word, "WE ARE OPERATIONAL," because an army of angels is now being commissioned to assist in this next operational phase of reconstituting America!

For us as the Ekklesia and the praying saints, we must have the attitude and mentality that David employed against his enemies: he pursued them and overtook them (Psalm 18:37). This is not a time to shrink back! This is a time to amp up our prayers! This is a time to launch faith-filled words, dreams, and promises against ancient "Goliaths" that have stood to mock the name of the Lord and His people!

We are now witnessing the fall of many Goliaths across the earth; may their heads never rise again!

"I'm Recovering the Soul of America!"

Revelation and dream received in February 2025:

On February 11, 2025, as I was on a prayer drive, I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "I'M RECOVERING THE SOUL OF AMERICA!"

On February 19, 2025, I had a dream where I walked into an American themed clothing store. I was there to go shopping. For some reason, I walked in and took my shoes off. (The shoes looked more like thin slippers, like the soles of shoes.)

I went into a room inside this American store and tried on items of clothing. A man interrupted me, and then the woman working at the clothing store also came in. They said they were trying to help me with my clothes, but something felt off about them, like they were trying to distract me.

The next thing I realized, I was no longer in the store and was now leaving. However, a sudden thought hit me—the soles of my shoes were gone! I realized these people had stolen them.

I went back into the store and caught the man and the woman using the same distraction tactic with another customer in order to steal their shoes too!

I suddenly said, "ENOUGH!" With ferocious indignation. I declared that their game was up and that they would no longer steal from Americans.

Upon waking up from the dream, I heard the Lord say, "The thief has been stealing the souls of Americans, but the thief is now being caught!"

Lament over Babylon

"Then the kings of the earth who committed sexual immorality and lived in luxury with her will weep and wail at the sight of the smoke rising from the fire that consumes her. In fear of her torment, they will stand at a distance and cry out:

"Woe, woe to the great city, the mighty city of Babylon! For in a single hour your judgment has come."

"And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because there is no one left to buy their cargo—cargo of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; of fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet; of all kinds of citron wood and every article of ivory, precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; of cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, and frankincense; of wine, olive oil, fine flour, and wheat; of cattle, sheep, horses, and carriages; of bodies and souls of slaves." (Revelation 18:9–13, BSB)

A Cyrus Who Will Plunder the Thief!

I remember when Donald Trump first announced he was running for president, I laughed! I listened to him and heard him through my bias. I didn't like him. I felt he was a bit proud. Everyone else considered it a joke, and at first I did too.

That quickly changed when I had a dream. In the dream, I was sitting in the oval office, facing Donald Trump, who was the president sitting behind the desk. I looked at him and saw that he had his Bible opened to Isaiah 45, to the passage about King Cyrus. He then looked at me and said, "Please pray for me."

In the next moment of my dream, I immediately found myself in a dark room, where I saw a secret meeting of former presidents and leaders who were planning to destroy Trump. I was even told what the name of this plan was.

Suddenly, I found myself prophesying to the Body of Christ that if the plan to stop Trump succeeded, then the Millennial generation would truly know what it's like to come under slavery.

When I woke up from this dream, the Lord began to renew my mind concerning how I viewed and understood who Donald Trump was.

To be honest, when I first had the dream, I thought maybe it was being somewhat exaggerated. Now I know it was understated. I have watched the reality of what has faced Trump and now see that we have been slaves all along.

Now, more than ever, we should recognize that even though most of us have been able to afford food to put on our table, we have been slaves to a debt system.

So many of our public and elected "servants" have been slave masters and thieves. They have taken our good faith and betrayed us. They have stolen our "souls"—our blood, sweat, and tears—for their own greed and use. They have confused the masses with the language of servanthood while committing the actions of treasonous slave masters upon those whom they "serve."

If you are standing with the "slave masters" who have leeches the life's blood from our families for generations, you are part of the problem. Let it be known that the entire slave system is now coming under the judgment of the Lord and is slated for destruction. You had better pick your side!

If you have any clarity on what is happening, I believe you should be thanking God for raising up President Donald Trump for this nation and this generation. No, he's not a perfect man! But if the Lord's hand be upon him, then I will trust in what God is doing.

A Prayer for Donald Trump:

God, we pray for Donald Trump today, according to the dream and according to Isaiah 45:2–3. Let every plan that is against him be stopped, and may You fulfill the following through him in Yeshua' name:

"I will go before you and level the mountains; I will break down the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron. I will give you the treasures of darkness and the riches hidden in secret places, so that you may know that I am the LORD, the God of Israel, who calls you by name." (Isaiah 45:2–3, BSB) (Photo via Picryl)

Additional Ways That God Is Using to Recover the Soul of America

Here are some additional ways that God is using to recover the soul of America:

- God is breaking the black-pilled spell! It's a belief system anchored to fatalism or defeatism. Even when seeing the good news you can't actually believe it, because you have been so programmed to see the worst. Your soul only serves DEFEAT.
- He is breaking the end-time narratives and programming of fear, hopelessness, loss, the antichrist, defeat, etc.
- He is recovering the blood sweat and tears that have been taken from us by systems and structures designed to siphon off of our lives!

"As for you, because of the blood of My covenant, I will release your prisoners from the waterless pit. Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; even today I declare that I will restore to you double." (Zechariah 9:11–12, BSB)

Game Over! Taking Back America from Evil Doers

Dream received on February 21, 2025:

Last night before bed, I asked the Lord, "Would You tell me where things are at in the process of taking back America from evil controllers, etc.?"

Well, He answered my prayer! He gave me a dream in response to my request.

In the dream, I was shown something that had transpired yesterday (February 20) that finalized something in the overall mission of the plan!

So, what happened yesterday? KASH PATEL was confirmed as the FBI director!

In the dream, I was shown a particular special forces division in the U.S. military, along with its logo (one that I didn't even know of and one I will keep hidden). They announced that their mission was finished, and they even made a post in the dream, saying, "Game Over."

One of the things I immediately understood when I saw this was that the "operations" that we have been seeing unfold publicly were actually done long ago, and the phrase I heard in the dream was, "It was over before it began."

I believe we are about to witness a public display of victories that were secretly achieved long ago! Yes, there will always be ongoing missions of importance, but I believe—according to this dream and even what took place yesterday—we have entered an era of apprehending the victories achieved before now. Like Sun Tzu said in The Art of War, "Victorious warriors win first, then go to war."

What does this mean for us? Get ready to watch a whole lot of winning! Get ready to watch evil men and works of the devil destroyed! Get ready for a sweeping move of justice! Get ready to witness the most incredible results of one of the greatest precision and secret military operations in the world!

This is not a word to stop praying, watching, and contending for America. It's a word to encourage us that our prayers have not gone unanswered! It's a word to encourage us that every giant is meant to fall. It's a word to help us get back the divine impetus to conquer evil with good! May our God receive all glory among the nations, in Yeshua' name!

Salvation Has Come!

In a dream, I was at a prayer meeting with Lou Engle and others. I was asked by someone to pray and prophesy. I stood up and said, "I had a dream (which was a dream within the dream), and in the dream the Lord said, 'Salvation has come, and today is the day of salvation.'"

With that, I began to pray and prophesy, and I said, "Salvation has now come to America. Today is the day of salvation. America shall be saved! There is no one too far beyond His ability to save! We are going to witness the harvest of souls for the Kingdom as never before."

Adar 2, 5785: Sunday-March 2, 2025

Faith Marie Baczko: In the First Year of King Cyrus

A Warrior Priesthood Now Rising

Worship that is married to obedience, coming from God's servants and ascending from the house of God, will cause the Lord to pour out abundant blessings and revival fire to draw the harvest to Himself. The union of God with such servants allows Him to rule and reign through them. They come and go in His presence, ruling over His courts, as promised by Him to Joshua the high priest in Zechariah 3:7–9.

In a recent word I published, I shared that as the filthy garments are taken off this priesthood, they will be dressed in royal robes. They are the warrior priesthood now rising as kings on the earth in the order of Melchizedek, king of Salem.

"For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, first being translated 'king of righteousness,' and then also king of Salem, meaning 'king of peace,' without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest continually." (Hebrews 7:1–3 NKJV)

These servants of God are being prepared as plenipotentiaries, invested with authority and possessing full power to transact business and execute judgments on behalf of the Kingdom of God. They will access the "Agency of Spiritual Intelligence" and have authority to rule as kings in the midst of their enemies in a dynamic language, backed by the power of Heaven. These leaders in God's Kingdom are now taking their place, finding the heart of God, and beginning to implement His "end game" strategies for nations.

The First Year of King Cyrus and Donald Trump

In a previous word I published, I spoke about the words "reprieve" and "reset" in regard to the year that Donald Trump won the election, in 2016. Around that time, I was in the Lord's presence praying about the year ahead and the resources needed to implement God's strategies for this season of reprieve, when the Lord spoke to me from the book of Ezra. He led me to reread the word I had written at that time and apply it to this time (many past prophetic words given were for this time).

In the book of Ezra, the Lord began to highlight the words "in the first year of King Cyrus" in relation to Donald Trump!

Many notable things were quickly accomplished in the first year of King Cyrus! This is a pattern we see with kings of the past, present prime ministers, and presidents. Their intent is to get as much accomplished in the first one hundred days and in the first year while they have the wind at their back! They seize the momentum of the moment in their time of favor to push through when prospects for success are at their height!

With everything that is taking place right now, with the resetting of Donald Trump as president, God is commanding His people to pay attention and seize the moment in this first year, when we will be caught up in a sudden acceleration of our King's agenda for our lives and the nations.

"NOW IN THE FIRST YEAR OF CYRUS KING OF PERSIA, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation... Who is among you of all His people? May his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (He is God)..." (Ezra 1:1, 3 NKJV, emphasis mine) (Photo via Pixabay)

A Call to Build and a Great Release

In the first year of King Cyrus (now being mirrored for our time) the people of God were released from captivity to build the house of God. There is a call now going out to begin to build—to build the portion assigned to you, to build with sword in hand as recorded in Nehemiah. Nehemiah wept when he saw the devastation and what had been done by the enemy! This is the heart of the warrior, priest, and king modeled after Christ that I have been speaking about. They carry the heart of Yeshua our King.

This new presidency is a sign and a wonder, marking the invasion of the Kingdom of God at this time. The Kingdom is moving in to reset the downward spiral into immorality and lawlessness that ultimately leads to demonic chaos in the world.

Heaven moved in response to the anointed prayer of God's servant Daniel who, having read Jeremiah's prophecy, understood that the appointed time had come for the great release! All prophecy will be fulfilled! God is saying to go back to the past words and what He has promised and begin to believe and decree them again! Speak His words with confident authority.

In the first year of King Cyrus, great spiritual doors supernaturally swung open by the might and power of our God for the release of the people of God to fulfill their destiny—the return to His original intentions for their lives after a season of captivity! The release of the captives from prison (which was recently ordered by President Trump), I believe, is a prophetic sign of this great release.

God is now getting ready to fulfill His Word! Heaven is now marshaling its troops for the release! Those who have ears to hear are hearing the sounds of Heaven's call and the blowing of the trumpets gathering the leaders, mobilizing the troops, and preparing for their marching orders! These are the ones that have said YES. They've packed their bags and are setting out into the unknown, trusting God with their lives and their destiny, and trusting the Holy Spirit's direction!

The time has come for every willing person to be released into their call and ministry. These are ministries that, in hiddenness, God has been making the necessary preparations for over the last season. All the needed resources and supplies to accomplish the mandate He has given will be released as steps of faith are taken according to His leading.

A Transfer of Wealth from Three Sources

God is now about to release to His servants the great transfer of wealth prophesied over many years. Why now? Because the time has come to build, and the Kingdom of God is at hand. The book of Ezra reveals three sources from which the great wealth transfer was released to those whose hearts God had stirred to return to build:

First, finances to build came from people whose hearts God had stirred to give. Supply came through friends and neighbors who chose to remain.

"And in any locality where survivors may now be living, THE PEOPLE ARE TO PROVIDE THEM WITH SILVER AND GOLD, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings for the temple of God in Jerusalem." (Ezra 1:4 NIV, emphasis mine)

The second source of supply came by way of the return of all the treasures that had been stolen during the captivity:

"Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple... those King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon.... And he said to him, 'Take these articles; go, carry them to the temple site that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its former site.'" (Ezra 5:14–15 NKJV)

Over the years, God has been keeping accounts and records of all that belongs to us, stolen by the destroyer and enemy of our souls. God will command that everything taken—our finances, relationships, joy, hope, and health—be RETURNED! God will bring this to pass!

The third source of supply was the treasuries of the king! The vaults of Heaven are now being opened! Our Father who owns all the silver and all the gold and the cattle on a thousand hills is well able to supernaturally open any door, at any time! He is also able to open unknown sources of supply and call into being things that are not as though they are! It is important to open our mouths and command these things to be manifest—things known to be the will of God! (Photo via Wikipedia)

"IN THE FIRST YEAR OF KING CYRUS, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem: 'Let the house be rebuilt... Let the expenses be paid from the king's treasury.

"...Let the cost be paid at the king's expense from taxes on the region beyond the River... whatever they need..." (Ezra 6:3–4, 8–9 NKJV, emphasis mine)

The Release of an Army

In a time of intercession, on the day of the inauguration of President Trump, the Lord showed me how that day had lined up spiritually with the great move of God called "The Toronto Blessing," which began in 1994. January 20th (the day of the Inauguration) was the anniversary of this move of God. It was the time of a great induction of hungry saints into the boot camp of the armies of God, whether those that came were aware of this or not. On January 20th, 2025, I believe the doors of the boot camp were opened, releasing a majestic army of the sons of God who were also being sent into their offices and assignments as Donald Trump was taking his oath.

Yeshua was released to the fullness of His ministry when He was thirty years old—a ministry of power, signs, and wonders in a challenging time of history that shifted an old wineskin into a new one that was flexible, organic, and pliable in His hands.

The Lord has continued to call me to emphasize the significance of what is being handed to us in this period of history, so as not to waste one moment of this gift of God-given opportunities now being offered to His people.

I believe God is leaving keys and clues through Donald Trump's presidency to give understanding of this time to those who have eyes to see and ears to hear. Trump is now taking a battering ram to all the demonic systems and structures that have been laid over decades, and God is releasing a people to pick up the pieces and begin to rebuild.

Following the president's example, we must seize the moment, hit the ground running, and make maximum use of the reprieve God has given us. God is graciously making room for His people and for His will to be accomplished in this momentous hour of history "to root out and to tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant" (Jeremiah 1:10).

This period will not last forever; it will have its conclusion in a future day, and there are important things the Kingdom intends to accomplish during this hour... in the first year of King Cyrus!

Adar 3, 5785: Monday-March 3, 2025

Provided by: April Klaassen-Brown

February 22 at 3:50 PM

Deborah T Iluyemi: Voice of Hope

From a word given on February 22 at 1:45 PM ·

Prophetic Word: The Lord is Opening a Door No Man Can Shut

Earlier today, the Lord stirred my heart to release this word, and I pray it ministers to you as you read. I see the Lord saying that He is opening a door for you—one that no man, no system, and no force of darkness can shut. The enemy may have been throwing relentless jabs at you, much like a wrestler in the ring, looking for an opening to take you down. But I hear the Lord saying, "You will not be defeated." Though the battle has been fierce and the attacks persistent, the Lord is your defender. Every scheme of the enemy is being dismantled, and every projection of failure is being overturned.

The intensity of the warfare around you has not gone unnoticed. The enemy has tried to keep you bound in cycles of near-breakthroughs and sudden setbacks. But I see the Lord stepping in, breaking the chains, and putting an end to failure at the edge of breakthrough. Every obstacle standing in your way is being removed.

The Lord is calling you to take authority over your thoughts—cast down every imagination and anything that exalts itself against the knowledge of God. He sees your endurance, your faith, and your pressing forward despite the resistance. And now, He is releasing fresh strength into your heart, quickening you with power in your inner man. I see favor surrounding you like a shield, covering you from every side. New opportunities are unfolding opportunities aligned with His divine purpose for your life. Where doors once seemed locked, I see a great change. There is a keyhole in the door, yet no key in sight, because you won't need one—the Lord Himself has become your locksmith. He has already gone ahead to open doors of favor and influence for you.

And in this season, the Lord is calling you to be intentional about praise. Praise is your weapon! Just as walls fell at the sound of Israel's shout in Jericho, your praise will break barriers and usher in His promises. Lift your voice in thanksgiving, for He has already made the way. Step forward with confidence—the door is open, and no one can shut it. "The key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder; So he shall open, and no one shall shut; And he shall shut, and no one shall open."

Isaiah 22:22

"See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name."

Revelation 3:8

"No weapon formed against you shall prosper, And every tongue which rises against you in judgment You shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, And their righteousness is from Me," Says the Lord.

Isaiah 54:17

"The Lord will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways."

Deuteronomy 28:7

"He shall cover you with His feathers, And under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler."

Psalm 91:4

"Now when they began to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated."

2 Chronicles 20:22

"But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were loosed."

Acts 16:25-26

©Deborah T. Iluyemi

IMAGE CREDIT : Prophetic art by Elisabeths gylne pensel used for illustration with permission.

Adar 4, 5785: Tuesday-March 4, 2025

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'PAY ATTENTION!! YOU'RE IN A SIGNIFICANT TRANSITION. STAND AGAINST THE ONSLAUGHT'

Recently, I heard the Lord say, 'Pay attention!!!! You're in a significant transition. Stand against the onslaught.'

When the Lord spoke these words, I could see MANY in the body of Christ right now and it looked like tornados were surrounding them. Some had multiple tornadoes and others had one huge one standing before them. I knew in this vision that we are in a season of intense pressure, but for these ones, they had experienced a major increase and onslaught of pressure from the enemy in recent days.

There was such a strong sense in the atmosphere that this pressure from the enemy was coming stronger and louder than ever to cause them to give up and stop standing. As this onslaught pushed against these ones fiercely, I could feel the closeness and empowerment of the Lord and His grace upon them and His heart of encouragement and hope.

As I leaned in and listened to His heart, I heard:

'Pay attention!! My people, pay attention. Listen to My voice and keep your eyes on Me. The enemy is pushing hard against you, but greater am I and My strength and grace within you and upon you. I say unto you, this is the hour to drill down deep into My Word, this is the hour to stand upon that which I have spoken and DO NOT MOVE. The enemy is trying to move you. The enemy is trying to shake you, and I say unto you, IN ME, YOU WILL NOT BE SHAKEN.

'Stand in Me and trust who I am IN you and FOR you. I say unto you, that you are in a significant transition and the enemy is attempting to abort and hinder this significant transition – because of what I am doing in you, what I am preparing you for in the days ahead, and where I am taking you. I say unto you that you shall look back in the days to come and see that this was one of the most significant transitions and moments of your life.

'I say unto you, as you push through this transition and as you stand against the onslaught of the enemy, there is wisdom and strength that you will find in Me which is empowering and preparing you for the days ahead. I say unto you, that as you continue to stand and as you continue to anchor yourself upon Me and My Word, keeping your eyes firmly fixed upon Me, you shall see with clarity and insight like you have not yet seen. I say unto you, that where the enemy is coming with such confusion, discouragement and attempting to bait you into hopelessness, as you stand against these tactics of the enemy and lean into My Word and lean into My voice, there is a deeper understanding and insight of what I am doing and what I am speaking in the midst of this tense transition.

'I say unto you, "My people, those of you who are facing these major onslaughts in this hour, the transition that I am leading you through is significant. I am leading you into a place where you shall see the entire landscape change. I am leading you into things that are completely new. I am leading you into territory that you have not yet walked. I am leading you into a place where there is a shedding of the old ways and what has been, and I am leading you into the new. I say unto you, pay attention to the move of My Spirit in this season, for My fire and My refining and the work of My hand will bring a deep dying to self: but it will lead you further and further into life, strength and deep dependence upon Me.

'My fire will cause you to draw closer to Me and fill you with hope of what I am doing and the mighty move of My Spirit that continues to conform you into My image. Do not misinterpret the fires and pressures in this season, for the move of My Spirit and My hand will lead you NOT to hopelessness, despair, and heaviness. My people, you must take a ferocious stand against the enemy and against His attacks of confusion. You must arise in your authority and take authority over these antics of the enemy, and you must take authority over the confusion that is attempting to hinder you and cause you to remain stuck. Confusion is NOT of Me (1 Cor 14:33).

'Stand, My people, STAND. You are living and standing FROM victory. Do NOT come under the victim mindset that the enemy is attempting to lure you into. STAND in the victory that is yours and KNOW that I am moving deeply within you in this hour – to deliver you, free you, heal you, strengthen you, and cause you to arise as the overcomer that you are in Me.

'This onslaught is another opportunity for you to OVERCOME: and in Me – as you stand upon My Word and listen to My voice, as you lift your hands in praise and keep your eyes upon Me – you WILL overcome. I am building endurance and resilience within you, in Me, in this hour, that is needed for the days ahead.

'Things are shifting, My people! I am moving and I am bringing you through as you lean in and trust Me and stand upon My Word. I am growing you up in strength and maturity for the new assignments that are before you. Do not look at the onslaught. Look at Me and know that I am bringing you through and know that you are coming out stronger as you stand in Me and upon My Word. I am bringing expansion to your faith. I am bringing you deeper into Me where you will find greater strength. I am causing you to continue to grow up into your authority in Me, as I awaken you more and more to who you are in Me and what I have purchased for you and the authority that is yours.

'My people, a ferocious stand is required. A ferocious posture is required. The enemy is attempting to tell you that you will never apprehend, but the truth is, My people, this is the hour where you are APPREHENDING and OCCUPYING in ACCELERATED ways in Me, if you continue to stand in Me in trust, stand upon My Word, and obey My leading. The call to stand in faith is ringing louder and louder. This onslaught many of you are facing in this hour and in this significant transition is but an indicator of the magnitude of that which I have for you to apprehend and occupy in this season – not just the spoils of war and past battles, but the new lands and territories ahead. Do not allow these giants of intimidation to chase you out of the land.

'STAND in your authority! You are arising to apprehend and occupy in Me in ways you have not experienced before. Come up higher and be sure to see as I see, and you will see VICTORY!'

Adar 5, 5785: Wednesday-March 5, 2025

Lana Vawser

February 13 at 2:01 A.M.

I HEARD THE LORD SPEAKING OVER MANY 'DO NOT MOVE FROM WHAT I HAVE CALLED YOU TO. I AM BRINGING EXPANSION'

Recently, I heard the Lord speaking over many, 'Do not move from what I have called you to. I am bringing expansion.' When the Lord spoke these words, I saw many in the body of Christ who were dealing with 'MULTIPLE VOICES'. I saw these ones with numerous voices around them that were all speaking different things, and it was bringing a confusion to what the Lord has called them to in this season. I saw voices coming in many different forms, and every time these voices were engaged with, I could feel confusion in the atmosphere. Then as they leaned in to try to discern if this voice was God or not, it would change form again. I felt like I was watching these voices like chameleons changing their colors and forms.

I then heard the thundering voice of the Lord and He said one word...
'FOCUS.'

When He spoke the word 'FOCUS,' it came with such strength and such a weighty and important call from the Lord, I could feel the fear of the Lord upon the word: it was a call to FOCUS upon Him and upon the Word, it was a ferocious focus, but it was a ferocious focus with a resolve. The sense then came to me so strongly that these other voices that were coming in different ways and some 'masked' so much to sound like the Lord, they were coming to bring forth DISTRACTION.

It was then that I heard the Lord say:

'My people, there are many entertaining too many voices. There are many exalting other voices above Mine. There are many who are being led astray by voices that are not My voice. I say unto you, that in this hour you must be deep in the secret place with Me and in My Word to discern that which I am speaking. For I say unto you, that there is expansion that I am bringing forth in different ways in what I have called you to do in this season, but these voices have come to contain and to distract. These voices have come to hinder momentum and to attempt to lead you astray.'

'But I say unto you, that I am bringing you deeper into discernment like you have not known, as you cling to Me, as you focus upon Me and allow Me to teach you. These voices have come and taken eyes off of Me, and I am calling you to keep your eyes upon Me. Do not turn to the left or to the right, look to Me, for there is greater direction before you in this season that will come with clarity like you have not yet known.'

'I say unto you, entertain and dance not with the voice of reason. For I am calling you deeper into the place of listening to My voice and hearing that which I am speaking to be led into new things and new ways. There are many places in this season where I am calling for wholehearted faith for you to step out of the boat as I am calling you out on the water and to trust Me.'

'I say unto you, DO NOT MOVE from what I have called you to. Do NOT MOVE from what I have called you to put your hands to in this season. Do not allow the voices and these distractions to pull you away from that which I have called you to do in this season. There is a great battle taking place for many right now, and it is a battle for your focus. It's a battle for what you will magnify. And in this season where I am bringing you into such depth of insight and clarity as you lean into Me – as you seek Me with humility, awe and consecrate yourselves – the enemy is attempting to bring you back into a confused and confined place, when I am leading you into wide open spaces and I am bringing you into places where I have been preparing your hearts and maturing you, to be able to carry and walk in.

'I say unto you, stop entertaining every voice that knocks at your door. Give not your ears to every voice that comes to your table. I say unto you, that there are many in this hour who are living in a place of deep inner turmoil, as you have allowed too many voices at your table. You have given your ear to too many voices. I say unto you, am I the God of confusion? I am not the God of confusion. I am not the author of confusion. I am bringing you into deeper realms of understanding in this hour, but you must focus upon Me and listen to the Words that flow from My mouth. I am calling you, My people, in this season, deeper into MAGNIFYING THE MANNA.

'I am bringing you deeper into MAGNIFYING THE MANNA! Meditate, marinate and focus upon the manna that flows from My mouth. And as you do, not only will you walk in clarity like you have never known, but you will also come deeper into the intricate mysteries, insights and revelations contained within that which I am speaking. I say unto you, that the time is upon you to draw even deeper into the secret place to receive My Word and the manna that flows from My mouth.

'Many voices are attempting to talk many of you out of your assignment/s in this hour and to steal your strength and confidence – and for many of you, without you even knowing it. I say unto you that there are many in this hour that are entertaining voices in their lives, and they are ignoring their discernment. I say unto you, do not ignore your discernment. You must follow the discernment that I am giving you; for to ignore the discernment that I am giving you will cause you to sit and remain at tables and have your ears given to voices that are not in line with My heart, My Word, and My assignment for you in this hour.

'Be wise, My people. Keep your eyes upon Me and, My people, I am exposing the lie that many of you are living under that you believe you do not hear My voice. I say unto you My sheep hear My voice (John 10:27). I am the Good shepherd, and I am leading you and I am guiding you. Do not allow this lie to entangle you any longer. I am going to reveal more and more in the coming days how clearly you have been hearing Me, but you have been living in a deep place of doubt. The enemy has come hard after many of you to steal your confidence in hearing My voice, but I say unto you NO MORE. For I am RESTORING your confidence in hearing My voice from the place of deep intimacy, trust, and humility.

'You will see in these days an increase of Psalm 119:105: "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

'Watch the increase of how I guide and provide for you in this season. Watch as I lead you to walk in deeper revelation of My Word as a lamp to your feet and a light to your path. Watch the increase of clarity come.

'Do not move from what I have called you to. I am bringing expansion.'

Adar 6, 5785: Thursday-March 6, 2025

Prophetic Word / Encounter: Tell My People it is not a bridge to far!
January 30, 2025 Respectfully Submitted, Barry Wunsch.

On January 29,2025 I was on a high-level briefing call with some of our dear American brothers. On these calls we have a time of prayer, and we use weaponized prayer to hit these prayer targets that are on the radar as the Lord leads. During our prayer time the Lord spoke to me and said: "Proceed and Occupy". We were praying, making decrees and declarations over our Nations releasing the plans and purposes of God. He has called us to declare and decree HIS Truth. We are called to walk in the kingdom authority He has given us over all the dark and demonic plans and agendas of the enemy. Our decrees and declarations make a way for Him in our Nations, and release His plans and purposes. As sons and daughters of the Most High, the one and only true and living God, He has called us to this! Let it be known that the ecclesia is taking their authority and walking with the Father, and we are making headway and taking background for the Kingdom of God to be established here on this earth.

It is more about releasing the light than focusing on the darkness. This is the Kingdom that we are in, and we are bringing heaven to earth! At any rate, the Lord is giving us a Cabal-ectomy!! On January 30, I was working away in my garage, and He spoke again: He said: "Barry, tell My people, It's not a bridge to far!"

Then on January 31, 2025, the Lord spoke to me again as I was going about my day. He said, "It is not a bridge to far!" As He spoke this time, I was immediately taken into the spirit where I found myself standing on a bridge - dead center on that bridge. It was a very heavy atmosphere. Very Heavy. Like those old war movies, I could see smoke, debris and carnage behind me and scores of humanity trying to get to the bridge to cross. I could look back, and I could look ahead. I could clearly see where we have come from; what we have been in - the mess, the evil kings and global cabal and all the control and mess that was there and was raging. It was as a war zone. I could see the masses pushing forward inch by inch to get to and to get across that bridge. As I looked ahead to where we were going, I could see the new day that lay ahead. I saw our team making a way, crossing the bridge first, leading the way and securing the ground.

The battle had been and was very fierce; brutally so. There were wounded ones that would not stop forging ahead on behalf of the Nations for the Kingdom of God. We were not going to stop or quit until everyone was across. I could see where we were going and the other side of the bridge. It was bright! I saw healing. I saw peace and restoration! I saw the wealth of the world being released to us to rebuild in a whole new way. There was nothing hindering and nothing in the way. I saw places opening up for family restoration and healing! There were those waiting for the wounded and broken ready to care for them with the utmost love! It was beautiful in every way.

The Lord spoke to me and said: "Barry, tell my people that it is not a bridge to far! For I have brought you this far, I will take you all the way! For what looks impossible to you, is nothing for Me! In fact, you have seen nothing yet! What I am about to do is on a scale so great that all will know that this was by my spirit! There are some that are caught behind the enemy lines and have gotten trapped by the enemy, and it does not appear in the natural that they will make it out alive— but let me remind you once again that I am a supernatural God!

"Since when have I moved in a way that glory could be taken by another? I will not give glory to another in the past nor will I do it now.

I am bringing freedom!

I am bringing restoration!

I am releasing My Glory!

Hear me again on this day, I have called you, my people, to walk with me, and to release the sound within you!

I have called you to walk in intimacy and humility and release your gift in love to those I have called you to!

This is not a bridge to far!

Not for me!

Not for you with me going before you and going with you!

I am right at your side!

Renew your strength like that of an eagle on this day and soar with me in places you did not imagine possible!

Though the battle rages on, do not grow weary!

Gird yourself up by my Spirit!

I am calling the minstrels and worshipers and those who minister unto me to go ahead!

Do not hold them back, do not try to control them, let them go where they need to go by My Spirit!

Release your sound!

Blow the shofar!

Let the dancers dance!

Raise a mighty shout unto me, and as you do, you can count on me to do my part!

Watch with me as the enemy is being driven into confusion and loses the way!

The weapons of my warfare are not like yours!

Victory shall be ours!

Nothing shall stop us!
It is not a bridge to far!"

Holy is the word of the Lord
Respectfully,
Barry Wunsch
The Canadian Hammer

Adar 7. 5785: Friday-March 7, 2025

Dutch Sheets

Connecting with Heaven

I received interesting and insightful feedback from our dear friend, Jean Steffenson, regarding a couple of recent posts, one of them being [<https://www.givehim15.com/post/february-20-2025>]. Here is an edited version of Jean's texts:

"Dutch, I am so encouraged by today's Give Him 15 regarding the connection between the natural and spiritual, and the two of them coming into alignment or proper harmony. I, too, have been thinking of this for some time when hearing of Israel's Iron Dome. I've actually been seeing in the spirit a "glory dome" placed over America, made of laser-like light and which dispels darkness, destroying all evil coming against this nation.

"Education is another example. Natural change is occurring, picturing spiritual change that also needs to occur. Trump wants education to go from the Federal Government back to the states, as it should, and God wants it realigned as well, back into harmony with Him and with the family (Isaiah 54:13).

"Money is another area that must realign. The natural wealth of this nation must be rescued from alignment with evil, from being wasted and used corruptly. We must pray and believe that great wealth will be removed from the kingdom of darkness and transferred into the Kingdom of light. I keep seeing God judging and dethroning the false gods of America. Heaven and earth are working together. Our prayers and decrees have prepared the way for President Trump and his administration to deal with the spirit of mammon and other evils.

"Trump doesn't know he is indirectly confronting the false gods (demons) behind the evil ruling much of our government. But he has been set in position by God in the natural realm, and the Ekklesia has been positioned alongside him in the spiritual to take America back from the rule of evil. Neither can do what is needed without the other. The government of God is going to a higher level, and will determine who rules our nation."

Well said.

Regarding this alignment of heaven and earth, Yeshua instructed us to pray accordingly, asking for His Kingdom to come and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven (Matthew 6:10). One cannot believe the Bible and assert that God doesn't want to influence earthly governments...or education, business, the family, etc. What an absurd and ridiculous contention. The God who made us doesn't want involvement in our world? Of course He does! All of it. He wants as much heaven on earth as He can get.

Connecting with Heaven

You won't find the words "align" or "alignment" in most English translations of Scripture, but you will absolutely find the concept. One of the Greek words that includes this meaning of proper connection and alignment is katartizo. It is used in the context of connecting or realigning various things: nets (Matthew 4:21), relationships (1 Corinthians 1:10), fallen believers back to God and the body of Christ (Galatians 6:1), the ages of time (Hebrews 11:3), and more. God wants harmony, connection, and alignment with the earth, with us, and us with one another.

In Matthew 6:10 above, the passage we call "The Lord's Prayer," God makes clear that He wants to heal the disconnections, the dislocations, between heaven and earth. "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven." (The Greek wording actually states that we are not only to ask for this, but also to command it for God.) Through prayer, we would be the connecting agents of His will and Kingdom, manifesting here on earth, just as it does in heaven. God wants His will to manifest in our government, our education system, homes, businesses - every aspect of all the earth.

He uses our prayers to accomplish this. Isaiah 58:12 goes so far as to make the profound statement that through fasting and prayer, we are healers of history. "And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in" (KJV). Our fasting, prayers, and repentance bring heaven to earth, allowing God to heal breaches that occurred in history - both between Him and us, and also between people - bringing realignment and reconnection.

Unfortunately, America has experienced a significant disconnection from God and loss of His will. This has affected every area of our society. We are now in the process of healing the breach, reconnecting and realigning America with Heaven - kartartizo. As we do so, the natural will reflect the spiritual once again. God's will and ways will be seen in our government, our schools, our homes, etc. Keep praying for this to occur. And by the way, don't try to tell God who to use. He absolutely does reserve the right to determine whom He uses, and He certainly uses unbelievers at times to implement His will and ways.

A Final Thought

As President Trump, Musk, and DOGE are used to answer our prayers by exposing fraud and removing wasteful spending, there will, unfortunately, be government employees lose their jobs who have done nothing wrong. Many of those being terminated haven't been actively seeking to give taxpayers' money to crazy DEI and "woke" causes. I am glad for the downsizing of our government, just as President Clinton did in the '90s when he dismissed 400,000 government employees, but I'm also praying for the innocent and unfortunate individuals who will be adversely impacted; it will not be easy for many. Pray for them, their spouses, and children. Ask God to give them grace as they make difficult transitions, and that they find employment quickly in the private sector. Remember, mercy is also a manifestation of heaven on earth.

Pray with me:

Father, America has been out of alignment, disconnected from You. You offered heaven's will, we chose hell's. In intercession, we repent on behalf of our nation and are now inviting Your will to come to our land. Heal our breaches. Bring heaven to our government, schools, children, homes, families, churches - Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done.

Use President Trump and Elon Musk to remove the idol of mammon from our government. You said the love of money is the root of all evil. Surely, America has become a picture of this. Deliver us from this evil and bring heaven to earth. And even though we ask You to use these men and other individuals, our faith is not in them; it is in You. We know that only a massive return to You will truly and fully save America. Please send revival.

And lastly, we pray for those who have been and will be displaced through the downsizing of our government. Please motivate them to turn to You as this occurs; give them peace, grace, and provision during this challenging time. Cause Americans to come together, not be further divided. Help us to love and serve one another. Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that America is being realigned with the Kingdom of God, and His rule and will are coming to our land.

Adar 8, 5785: Saturday-March 8, 2025

Lana Vawser: Deeper Depths Await You

Recently I heard the Lord say, "Deeper depths, deeper depths, deeper depths." And I sensed, as He spoke these words, an invitation to enter into the secret place—into the hidden place in Him—in a deeper way than we have ever experienced.

As I leaned into His heart and listened, I heard, "My people, the shaking is increasing. My people, the fire is about to increase in intensity in ways that you have not known before, and I am calling you, My people, deeper into the depths of My heart and My Word. I am calling you into deeper consecration to hear and perceive that which I am speaking and what My Spirit is doing.

Be Grounded in My Word

"For in this hour as the shaking increases, if you are not grounded and founded in My Word and in My rhema, truly living by every word that is flowing from My mouth (Matthew 4:4), in the days ahead you will find yourself shaken and unprepared.

"I say unto you that in the level of shaking and intensity of the fire that is coming, I am calling you deeper into the place of remaining in Me. Where many have found strength in the opinion of man and the opinion of others, and have been drawing from wells other than from the river of My Spirit and My living water in the secret place, they will find themselves shaken and unstable in the days ahead. I say unto you that as the shaking and the fire increase, I am doing a deeper work in the hearts and lives of My people. I am bringing you into a deeper fortified place of intimacy.

Do Not Trade the Place of Intimacy for the Place of Running

"My people, do not trade the place of intimacy for the place of running. Do not trade the place where My river is flowing for the 'rushing' of ministry works. For I say unto you that there is a call into the hidden place that is deeper than many have experienced.

"Can you hear the urgency of the hour to consecrate yourselves and come deeper into the secret place? For I say unto you that it is only by My Spirit and only by My Word being a lamp unto your feet and light to your path (Psalm 119:105) in the days ahead that you will be able to navigate the increase of shaking and fire that is coming. (Photo via Pexels)

"As the shaking increases and as the fire increases in this hour, those that are nestled deeply into My heart and listening to My voice and that which I am speaking will have 'eyes to see' to discern and see and perceive that which is taking place. For many are attempting to discern through the lens of human understanding, and many are being shaken in this hour because they are not living in the understanding and wisdom that is found in My presence.

"The call to come away is increasing. The call to close the door and draw close to Me and be still in My presence is increasing. For I say unto you that in this hour there is a great consecration that is taking place. There is a great call 'to be separate' that is increasing. There is a great call from My heart to lay things down, to come away and be with Me. And I am calling you, My people, to come to Me and discern that which I am speaking to you to shift, to change, to move, to make more room for Me, and to be with Me.

Don't Run Ahead

"For I say unto you, My people, that in this hour there is such a temptation to run and move quickly, but as the fire and the shaking increases, places and building assignments and alignments that are not founded upon Me and led by Me will be revealed. In this hour, I am dealing with pride in the heart of man in deeper ways, and much is coming down in this hour. Much is coming down by My hand, as I am raising up a fortified, pure, spotless Bride that moves in the rhythm and synchronicity of My Spirit and not in the striving strength of man.

"For I say unto you again, My people, that in this hour you will see that apart from Me you can do nothing (John 15:5); but, oh, the glorious place of supernatural fruitfulness, strength, and empowerment that will be found in deeper depths than you have experienced, from the place of deep dependence upon Me.

"I say unto you, as the fire increases, as the shaking increases, stay low. I say unto you, keep your heads down and remain faithful to that which I have called you to do. For many are lifting their heads and looking to the left and to the right in comparison of what others are doing. Many are lifting their heads, running ahead, and building from the place of great ideas and not from the place of waiting on Me and what I am calling you, My people, to build and do in this hour. You must stay low. You must stay in the place of deep humility and dependence before Me.

"This is the hour where the urgency upon your alignments and assignments is increasing. I am taking you to deeper depths of discernment and understanding the stewardship of your alignments and assignments in the fear of the Lord. Many alignments and assignments are being initiated in this hour to remain in certain places and with certain people, but the place where I am calling you to remain in this hour, above all, is the place of abiding in Me (John 15). (Photo via Freerange)

Deeper Depths Await You

"Come deeper, My people. Deeper depths await you. The depth of refreshment that many of you seek will not be found anywhere else but in the hidden place with Me. I am calling you deeper into the place of divine nourishment from My Word, and there is deeper wholeness and healing that awaits. There are depths to wholeness with Me that I am bringing you deeper into, My people. Where many are concerned with fortifying that which they are building, I am fortifying My people deep within Me and wholeness within them, first and foremost.

"Oh, the river of My Spirit that is overflowing from My Word and waiting for you in My Word in this hour to sustain, empower, and refresh you, My people! I am calling you in this hour to study My Word. I am calling you deeper into knowing My Word. For as the fire increases, as the shaking increases, if you do not know My Word, you will be left shaken and overcome and led by your flesh and your emotions. I am calling you, My people, to be led by My Spirit.

"For I say unto you that greater shock waves, restoring the fear of the Lord to My Church, are coming. I am calling you deeper. Pay attention to that which I am calling you to let go of. Pay attention to that which I am asking you to lay down in this hour, for there is a 'great forsaking' taking place—led by My Spirit—that is making room for you to come deeper into the secret place with Me and to truly listen to that which I am speaking.

"I am not looking for those who can move in great acceleration and look for the affirmation of man; I am looking for those who abide and remain faithful only to that which I am asking them to do in this hour."

Adar 9, 5785: Sunday-March 9, 2025

Demontae Edmonds: Ten Things Emerging Prophetic Voices Need to Prepare For

Ten Things Emerging Prophetic Voices Need to Prepare For

1. Prepare to Not Compare Yourself to Others

Your gift and anointing will grow over time. It may even surpass those you once looked up to in ministry.

2. Prepare for Your Family's Response!

Your family may think you're losing it when you start making decisions led by the Spirit. These decisions may seem irrational or illogical to them, but you will have to bear the burden of obedience. Better to obey God than man! In His own time, God will provide PROOF of His work in your life.

3. Prepare Your Heart for Rejection

Some people and places will avoid you once they realize you can "SEE" and "HEAR." My wife always laughs, because many times we've run into someone (even church leaders), and when they see me, they become super nervous, stuttering, fumbling around, or (in some cases) they drop their items and leave the store!

At first, I thought, "Oh, they don't like me." But actually, it may have been the fear of the Lord at work, or the person may have been in hiding. Don't personalize rejection, as it could be for your protection as well.

4. Prepare to Wait

Sometimes a revelation will come that you have little or no understanding of. The full understanding of a revelation may take weeks, months, or even YEARS to come forth. God gave me the final revelation about a dream I had when I was seven, just three years ago!

5. Prepare for Correction!

You may be anointed and prophetic, but there is always room for growth and correction. More senior leaders and prophetic voices may disagree with or challenge your revelation (especially if you're new or not yet ordained into a five-fold office). Don't take offense; allow room to learn and grow.

6. Prepare for Humility

The enemy will try to tempt you with pride over your newfound revelation and gifting. Don't fall into this trap. (Photo via Freerange Stock)

7. Prepare to Be Shocked

You will SEE and DISCERN things about others that will turn your stomach and cause your jaw to drop. At first, it can be disheartening when God shows you secret things in the lives of others, especially wickedness or sin. Over time, though, you'll learn to separate your emotions from the revelation and respond according to the Spirit. PRAY before you "SAY"!

8. Be Prepared to Miss It!

Don't plan to miss it, but understand that it will most likely happen at some point. We are all human, and even the best prophetic voices have missed it at times. That doesn't mean you didn't hear or see SOMETHING. Prophetic ministry has many layers, and as you grow, your "misses" will become fewer and further apart.

9. Be Prepared to Have Patience

God may show you things that will come to pass in your life or the lives of others. Often, it can seem so real that you think it will happen tomorrow. However, some revelations take years or even decades to come to fruition. If God showed it to you and confirmed it, stay the course... IT WILL HAPPEN! Serve and trust Him until it does. Prophetic ministry is not about the short game, but the long game.

10. Be Prepared for Your Gift to Work for Others but Often Not for Yourself

As a prophetic voice, you may be able to prophesy, and things happen instantly for others. You may hear direction and be able to pray easily for others. However, when you ask God for clarity or answers for your own life, you may hear NOTHING! This can discourage many prophetic vessels.

Please realize that your gift is for OTHERS. As for you, you will need to go through the same process as everyone else: patience, testing, obedience, etc., to receive from God!

Adar 10, 5785: Monday-March 10, 2025

Veronika West

"WATCH AND PRAY FOR THERE IS A WAR AT THE DOOR AND A BATTLE FOR THE GREATER GLORY AT THE GATE THAT IS TAKING PLACE";

<https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/the-altar-of.../>

Morning Warriors: So, I wanted to share a little more on my recent encounter as the Spirit gives me utterance, In this most revelatory encounter as I shared in my first post, I was shown Altars that littered the realm of the Spirit, and with every new level and dimension of Glory, there was an Altar that stood on the threshold of the next dimension of the Glory Realm. "EVERY NEW LEVEL AND DIMENSION OF GLORY WILL DEMAND A NEW LEVEL AND DIMENSION OF HOLY CONSECRATION BEFORE GOD, A RELINQUISHING AND A PUTTING TO DEATH UPON THAT ALTAR EVERYTHING THAT IS STILL ALIVE IN THE FLESH; GREATER CONSECRATION BIRTHS GREATER PURITY AND HUMILITY, WHICH GIVES US THE CAPACITY TO CARRY AND IMPART GREATER POWER, REVELATION AND UNDERSTANDING FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS!"

In this personal encounter, I shared that As the Spirit of Revelation brought illumination, everything that was alive in my flesh had to be put to death - that which was alive in my flesh, had to die upon that Altar of Consecration. And only when the fires of Purification fell upon the Altar, was I given access to Enter into a place of greater revelation, Understanding and Glory!

Now, What I did not share yesterday, but I will endeavor to share now, I Share in the Prophetic context of NATIONS; Of the Battle of Two Altars Rising, Now As the Encounter shifted with revelation towards the Nations, the Spirit of Revelation took me higher, and I saw a great Battle of Altars unfolding at the Gates of Nations, and Again I saw Altars of Consecration littering the realms of the Spirit, and I saw the fires of Purification falling upon these Altars as the Works of the Flesh were laid upon the Altar. And I heard the Spirit say, "Watch! For there is a War at the Door and a Battle for the Greater Glory at the Gate that is now taking place over Nations for Kingdom Occupation and the Reformation of Sheep Nations that are emerging in the Valley of Decision. For this is the time of Great Awakening, Greater Shaking, Divine Separation, and a Mega Shifting of Nations."

Now, as I heard those words, I was shown a Throne that sat almost directly across from the Altar of Consecration, and it was made known to me that the Throne was that of the Dragon Spirit of Leviathan who sits on the Threshold of the Greater Glory Dimension, seeking to hinder the Remnant from Advancing by orchestrating powerful demonic assignments to alter the Prophetic times and seasons of God, and to bring delays and great distraction and discouragement to the Kingdom Builders that have been Mandated to Build and Establish the Kingdom of Heaven in the Earth through the manifestations of the Greater Glory Dimensions of the Spirit and Power of Elijah. I saw that the Throne of Leviathan sits at the Gateway of the Greater Glory Dimensions and that his Throne has legal right to Govern over Regions and Territories and Nations when the Altars of Consecration remain unlit. I saw coming forth from the Throne of the Dragon hordes of Demonic powers and Principalities that are sent to hinder the Remnant from coming to the Altars of Consecration by creating great resistance through divisions, through Pride, Rebellion, and Religion. I saw that these Powerful Demonic Spirits masquerade as Light bearers but are cloaked in great deception, and they have blinded the eyes and deafened the ears of the Church to its true State, and to the Sound of the Clarion Call to Return to the Altars of Consecration and to relinquish that which is alive in the flesh apart from Christ.

I was shown in this powerful encounter that the greatest threat to the Throne of Leviathan over Nations is a Righteous Remnant that Lives at the Altar of Consecration; a Purified Remnant that burns and is consumed by Holy Fire; a Remnant that has the Capacity to Carry the Greater Glory Dimensions into the Earth realm; a Remnant that is filled with the Glory Dimensions of the Spirit and Power of Elijah, that will bring Reformation and Kingdom Transformation to the Nations!

And then I heard the Spirit say,

“DAUGHTER, I SAY AGAIN, WATCH AND PRAY. TELL MY REMNANT THERE IS A WAR AT THE DOOR AND A BATTLE FOR THE GREATER GLORY AT THE GATE. I SAY GO LOW, AND RELINQUISH ALL AT THE ALTAR OF CONSECRATION WHERE LEVIATHAN SEEKS TO HINDER YOUR NEXT PROMOTION INTO NEW LEVELS AND DIMENSIONS OF GREATER GLORY! WATCH! FOR THE SERPENT SPIRIT, THE GREAT DRAGON, IS CIRCLING AT A TIME OF BIRTHING. FOR ON THE THRESHOLD OF GREATER GLORY THERE IS WAR FOR DIVINE RESTORATION. I SAY ONLY PURITY, HUMILITY, AND THE POWER AND AUTHORITY OF THE KEY OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID CAN THWART THE BATTLE FOR THE GREATER GLORY AT THE GATE. LISTEN! FOR THE VICTORY IN THE DAYS AHEAD WILL BE DETERMINED .

Adar 11, 5785: Tuesday-March 11, 2025

Bruce & Linda Dietler - Kansas

Dreams, Vision & Parking Lots

We are in an Acts 2 time and season, where the Lord has poured out His Spirit upon His body and is mightily moving in and through that body in this very day. In Acts 2:17, Peter quotes Joel 2:28, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams." God values His family, and He wants to communicate with us through whatever means we can receive, be that through dreams, visions, quickening of our spirit-man, hearing His audible voice, or even through His glorious creation itself. Psalm 37:4 assures us that as we delight ourselves in the Lord, He will give us the desires of our hearts. Though some may understand that to mean He gives us what we want, when we want it, as in "name it and claim it," it may equally as well be interpreted as meaning He places within our hearts His dreams and His visions to walk out in the earth. We would therefore do well to heed the promptings of the Lord through dreams and visions or however He might choose to communicate with us.

In a recent dream, I was entering the grounds of a very beautiful nature preserve with which, apparently, I had some involvement. A woman, recognizing me and my connection to the place, approached and pointed to a lovely grouping of Lady Slippers (an eastern woodland native flower) growing a short distance away. She inquired if she could dig some up to take for herself. I responded that wouldn't be appropriate, but I would be glad to show her where I had found them in the first place. We began to walk through the thick woodlands and climb an ascending pathway, when I noticed, over to one side and slightly off the path, a large object reminiscent of a castle foundation. Surprised at the sight, I asked incredulously, "What is this?" She replied, "This is where we watch the chariot races from." Then I saw, over beyond the foundation, a large dirt racetrack bulldozed into an area where majestic trees had once stood. The area was now for recreational purposes. Wow! I thought to myself, that's terrible! That was never part of the original plan for this nature preserve. We continued up the winding trail to the top of the mountain from where I would be able to point to the source of the Lady Slippers, that being a large swamp down below in the shallow valley. Looking down, my beautiful swamp, where in the past I had spent so many enjoyable hours, was now totally gone! It had been bulldozed in with concrete, debris, rock, and gravel.

This dream brought to my remembrance a short, but very hard-hitting, book from the early 1970s, written and illustrated by Peter Parnall, titled The Mountain. It begins with, "This is the mountain that stood in the West. These are the flowers that grew there." He goes on to itemize the flora and fauna that once flourished in this place: moles, birds, trees, and deer. His simple India ink illustrations throughout the text, enhanced by watercolors, serve to beautifully highlight the textures of all the living things. Then the people come – a father with two young children, hiking. Then comes another small group: a mother, father, and a boy who's climbed a tree. These people, in their love for the mountain, want to keep it just the way it is.

The text pauses for some pages after the words: "So, Congress passed a law making the mountain a national park, and a road was built." The remaining pages present the reader with illustrations that are gradually drained of color, depicting the increasing degradation of the mountain habitat. Parking lots and walkways are paved; bridges, picnic tables, and outhouses are then constructed. And the people! – they appear in greater and greater numbers, some with their dogs. Trees are cut to make more room for humans, and though there are litter bins, people leave their trash scattered behind them. The book ends with a poignant, colorless page with a black-on-white illustration of a bear walking away from the forest, carrying a placard that reads: "Somewhere else or bust."

What also came to mind was a popular song of long ago by folk singer Joni Mitchell, "Big Yellow Taxi," which includes the following verses:

They paved paradise, put up a parking lot,
With a pink hotel, a boutique, and a swingin' hot spot.
Don't it always seem to go,
That you don't know what you've got 'til it's gone.
They paved paradise, put up a parking lot.
They took all the trees put 'em in a tree museum,
And they charged the people a dollar and a half just to see 'em.
Don't it always seem to go,
That you don't know what you've got 'til it's gone.
They paved paradise, put up a parking lot."

My thoughts were then carried beyond the mountains, wildflowers, and the wonderful beauty of God's creation, to the importance of vision: obtaining a vision; maintaining the vision; then passing that vision on to future generations, lest the vision become someone else's parking lot. We are admonished in Proverbs 29:18a, "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Vision it is defined as "a sight, a dream, revelation, oracle." Every person has dreams, plans, and possibly a singular vision for his own life – continually changing though they might be - for building his future, marriage and family, or for making his place in the world. Without a vision or dream to shape our existence and pull us forward, life is empty, meaningless, and unfruitful. The same holds true for individuals, business organizations, ministries, churches, and even nations.

Twice recently, the Lord has brought to my attention the Hebrew word, harel (Strong's H2025), which translated is "mount of God." Moses ascended Mt. Sinai, the mount of God, to receive God's law – His vision for His people, Israel. God even wrote it out on tablets of stone in His own handwriting so that the vision would not be lost to future generations. If we will likewise, metaphorically, ascend the mount of God to spend time with Him, it is here we will receive His vision for life. Some may have gotten a late start at this, but there is no time like the present to make the ascent.

Martin Luther King, Jr. is another one who spent time "on the mount of God" to receive his dream from the Lord. He eloquently proclaimed that dream of racial equality for all people, and his dream has inspired countless multitudes toward that noble goal ever since. That same privilege is available to us – that of ascending to that high place to receive God's vision for our lives and for our posterity. There is so much more to be had in Christian life than just the mundane; there is Zoe' life - the God kind of life - to be had, if we will seek it.

The Bible instructs us in Habakkuk 2:2, "... Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it." Doing so will keep the vision from being lost to memory over the passage of time or stolen from us by the circumstances of life or by satan's distractions. Many ancient civilizations chose to construct obelisks or elaborate stone carvings to memorialize important historical events. In a similar manner, when the children of Israel first entered the promised land, Joshua immediately directed them to build an altar of 12 stones taken from the Jordan River as a memorial for future generations of what the Lord had done for their ancestors (see Joshua 4:1-7).

Recent civilizations, such as our own, write their visions on paper, but such documents still reflect the lofty vision which guided our founding fathers in the establishment of this nation. America's Declaration of Independence and Constitution hold forth this vision before all the world, with God as Creator providing us with certain unalienable rights which guarantee us life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Though America has come precariously close to losing the rights granted to us by these foundational documents, they are the very roadmap back to American greatness. This is also the reason we, as individuals, need to keep a prayer journal or transcribe prophetic words we have received from the Lord, revisiting those words regularly, meditating on them, and decreeing and declaring them into existence. They become our vision, and we must hold fast to it lest it be lost.

Reflecting on the nature preserve dream, my immediate thought was, this was not the original vision or the heart of those who had established this preserve. How could these changes ever have been allowed to happen? What a shame! Somehow, the original vision for the preserve had been perverted, and the resulting destruction, regardless if it was purposeful, thoughtless, or even well-intended, had altered the area forever. The critical element, apparently missing in the development of this nature preserve, was the putting of that vision into writing for succeeding generations to follow.

God clearly tasks elders with the responsibility to transmit the knowledge of His works to succeeding generations. One such text is found in Psalm 78:5-6 – “For He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children.” This task is not confined just to the Hebrew elders; it is committed to us as well.

It is worth noting that not only does God have a vision for us, but He also has a vision of us as well. Those who have received Yeshua as their Savior and who have made Him Lord of their lives, He envisions us as His Glorious Bride; as overcomers through the blood of His son, Yeshua; as walking in the fulness of His power and authority over all the plans, abilities, and workings of the enemy; as being the solution (through Christ in us, the hope of glory) to every problem that besets mankind. He envisions us as winners, not losers; above and not beneath; the head and not the tail, and as doing the works of Yeshua and even greater works that they might abound to His honor and glory. It is as we engraft His vision into our hearts such that it becomes our own, that the world will truly see the “church” in a different light – not as a powerless side-note to history, but as the powerful force in the earth God ordained it to be, bringing proper re-alignment of all aspects of society to the heart and plans of God for all creation.

We are reminded by Isaiah, “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts (Isaiah 55:9).” God’s plans or vision for our life, when received by us, nourished, and given time to grow, will invariably surpass our own. Let us therefore purpose to fully seek or restore God’s vision for us as individuals, as His Body, and as a nation dedicated unto Him.

Selah - meditate on this!

Pray with me:

“Lord God, creator of heaven and earth; author and finisher of our faith; source of all wisdom and knowledge of that which was, which is, and which is to come, minister to our hearts. Ingraft into our innermost being how truly special we are to You as Your children, the sheep of Your pasture, and the Bride of Your precious Son. We desire to come up higher unto You – to live, move and have our being in Your very presence; to receive Your dreams and vision of us and for us such that we would become the world-changers you have called us to be. Lord, show us how to walk out and pursue the fulness of those plans, to maintain those plans during our earthly walk, then to transmit them to future generations.

"We thank you, Father, that You are no respecter of persons. You will in no wise cast us out, but with the all-powerful two-edged sword of Your Spirit, You will divide asunder the carnal soulish thoughts of our minds and intellect from the spiritual intent of our hearts. Holy Spirit, have Your will and way in us and through us. We seek You and Your fulness - nothing more, nothing less, and nothing else. Flow through us, Lord, that we might fully glorify Your name. Amen."

Adar 12, 5785: Wednesday-March 12, 2025

Wade Butler

What is the time and season we are in? It's a time for miracles, signs and wonders. Several years ago, I was on the phone with a prophetic friend, David Pembleton, discussing "translation" as I drove home from East Texas, when I asked the LORD, "Why not now?" I had a two-hour drive to get home, and I had just gotten on the freeway, when suddenly, I was halfway through the drive! I was at the Houston Intercontinental Airport. At first, I was disoriented because there in front of me was the JFK boulevard exit, and I had driven that freeway home hundreds of times. I was shaking with excitement. All David could hear was my screaming for joy. In fifteen seconds from asking, "Why not now?" I was there! Wow! Glory! David had shared his story of being in Dallas and getting a call that his mother was on the way to the hospital in Austin when he cried out, "LORD, I need to be there for mom." He turned onto Capitol Street in Dallas and looked up at the State Capitol building in Austin. Needless to say, he was shocked, but not as shocked as were the two passengers in his car!

Listen to the following story from Charle Shamp about John Paul Jackson and Bob Jones. Translation is available today; we just need the faith and trust for it to take place in our lives. Yeshua is restoring all things, even translation/transportation.

Charlie Shamp

TRANSPORTED INSTANTLY IN A TRUCK FROM THE HOTEL TO THE AIRPORT, A DISTANCE OF 20 MILES!

Testimony from John Paul Jackson

Once we almost missed a flight. We had to fly from Birmingham, Alabama, to Atlanta, Georgia, on an early morning flight in order to drive an hour and a half to Macon, a small city in Georgia. We were scheduled to speak at a conference there. Bob, his wife, and I had ministered until very late the night before in Birmingham. By the time we had finished ministering, it was already 2 A.M.

When we came back to our hotel, we were told it would take 20 minutes to get to the airport. Our flight was at 6 A.M., so we decided to fall asleep fully dressed for tomorrow so that we would be ready on time. Because we were so tired, we fell asleep as soon as we lay down on our beds. At dawn, someone knocked excitedly at my door, and I asked, "Who is it?" Bob answered, and I asked, "What time is it?" He yelled, "John Paul, it's 5:55 A.M.!" Later, he told me that while he was lying on his bed, he fell asleep. An angel shook him and said, "If you don't get up, we'll miss the flight." When Bob looked at a clock, it was almost 6 A.M. He thought, "Oh, we missed the flight!"

Then a thought occurred to him: "If we were going to miss the flight anyway, why would an angel wake me up?" With that thought, he sprang out of bed and knocked loudly on my door. I said, "Bob, there is no way we're going to make it. It takes 20 minutes to get to the airport." My friend Bob replied, "We've got to try! Maybe God will delay the plane."

So, we ran out of the hotel and threw our bags in the back of Bob's red pickup truck. As Bob drove us to the airport, two men came up to us. They took our bags out of the truck in a hurry and said, "We'll park the car. Run to the gate!" So we ran inside the airport toward the gate. At that time, in 1987, we were able to go straight to the departure gate without stopping at a security booth.

We boarded the plane that was stationed there. Right before we boarded, I looked at a wall clock that indicated it was exactly 5:59 A.M.! "What's going on? Did my clock go wrong? Or did Bob's clock go wrong?" After we boarded, found our seats, and buckled up, I looked at my watch. It was 6 A.M. My watch was not dead. Right before we boarded, it was 5:59 A.M., and after I sat in my seat, it was 6 A.M., so my watch was correct.

Then I said to Bob, "Bob, do you realize it took us less than two minutes to get from our hotel to the airport, a distance of 20 miles?" Bob said, puzzled, "Yes, I was thinking the same thing." Then he asked me, "When did you call those guys to take care of our bags and my truck?" Astounded, I said, "I didn't call those guys. I thought you did because you were a little late coming out of the hotel." Bob said, "I've never seen them before." I looked at him and said, "I've never met them in my life, either."

When we reached Macon, our bags were the first to come off the luggage belt. At the conference, the Holy Spirit worked mightily among the people. Three days later, while we were flying back to Birmingham, I asked Bob, "Bob, it must have been an angel that told us they'd park your red pickup truck. What if it's missing? Or if it's parked somewhere, where we can't find it?"

Bob replied sleepily, "John, I'm very tired. I cannot think straight." And he began to prophesy boldly, "My pickup truck is parked in the first parking space in the airport. And the keys are tucked above the visor on the driver's side." Then he fell asleep. When we got off the airplane and headed toward the parking lot, Bob's red pickup truck was parked in the very first parking space, just as Bob said. Likewise, his keys were tucked above the visor on the driver's side. So, while we were in Bob's red pickup truck, God had miraculously transported us instantly to the airport—Bob, his wife, myself, and the pickup truck!

Adar 13, 5785: Thursday-March 13, 2025

Dr. Sandie Freed: His Grace Will Chase You Down!
Dr. Sandie Freed, Bedford, TX

Expect More than Before!

Believers, I have always been one who seeks a word from the Lord every new year. This year (2025), I heard words that seemed to be repetitive from seasons before. However, I felt a familiar challenge to "expect more than ever before."

I immediately became excited as I thought, "Well, sure, I need to expect more than I have ever expected before! More breakthrough, more finances, more favor, more of whatever I might possibly need!" I thought, "I've got this! I know how to believe for more!" Over the years, I've learned what Scriptures to decree, how to fast, and how to worship for the "more!"

I then began to make a mental note of all I needed to do to keep my expectations high. I concluded that more time in Bible study, quoting more Scripture passages, and making more godly decrees would be a jump start into breakthrough. After a few minutes of brainstorming, the Holy Spirit inserted something profound. He said, "Sandie, this will not happen because of what you do. This will all happen because My grace will chase you down in 2025."

Now, I have heard spiritual leaders refer to God's grace overtaking us, but this was the first time God actually said it to me! It was almost like His audible voice was speaking loudly and clearly.

Then I had an "aha" moment. I remembered the numerous times I had heard Believers sadly confess, "Surely there's more to living the blessed life. I have tried everything I know to do, and I can't seem to experience the needed breakthroughs!" (Notice all of the times the word "I" was used?) I knew immediately to what they were referring; we should all be experiencing the fulfillment of so many of our promises from God!

But now, I was beginning to see breakthrough a little differently. It occurs not because we are working more to achieve it but by simply believing for the grace of God to make it happen. And it doesn't matter what part of our past we are bringing into this new season; grace is greater than our past! And grace will continue to work to bring us from glory to glory (2 Corinthians 3:18). Yes, His grace is going to literally chase you down.

Believer, stay with me; this message will change your life! (Photo via Unsplash)

Yeshua Is Our True North

So often, we tend to get off track. We easily slip into religious works rather than entering into His rest. However, each of us, as Believers, has a built-in compass and, we know our true north in Christ. When we've sinned, we know it. When we have bad thoughts, we know it. When we stray from God, we know it. And when we know we are not experiencing all that God has promised... yep, we know it!

Our internal compass always points to Yeshua Christ. The name of Yeshua is from the Hebrew word that means to save, rescue, and deliver. To say the name "Yeshua" is to say "God saves" or "God sózó." Yeshua, our internal compass, always points toward sózó (the Greek word for salvation, Strong's 4982).

But sózó is more than having a born-again experience. Sózó means that we get so much more because of all that Yeshua accomplished on the Cross. Yeshua died to give us healing, deliverance, restoration, divine protection, and (I like to say) everything Heaven has to offer! And, speaking of grace, Yeshua Himself is grace! Grace is a person and not simply a verb.

Most of us are poised on the edge of something great. We need a door to open. We need a doctor to give us good news. We need a call from our boss saying we have a promotion. We need a child to call and say he/she is coming home. If you are still reading what I am writing, this is for you! You need hope. This article is a message from the Lord. He is empowering you to hope again!

The Woman at the Well Met Grace (Yeshua)

Most of us are familiar with the story of the woman at the well. If anyone needed grace, this woman did. She had been married five times and was living with a man who was not her husband. I have read this passage and even taught from it many times, and now I realize that Yeshua "chased her down" to provide divine grace for this woman, an obvious sinner. Let me unpack this a bit for you; see if you can relate through your own need to meet Grace this year, face to face.

The account is in John 4. Yeshua was leaving one place and en route to another. John explains that Yeshua "had to go through Samaria" (John 4:4). Back then, Jews did everything possible to avoid Samaria, but now Yeshua "had to go there?" Hmm. Interesting. The Jews did their best to go around that city, but oddly it says that He "had to go through Samaria." Just why is that? Because Grace was about to chase someone down. There was a woman in Samaria who was heading to a well to get water, but what she really needed was to meet the Well of Living Water and receive grace.

Remember, grace is greater than anything, even adultery. There is nothing so terrible that grace does not cover. Samaria wasn't a place Yeshua normally went through, but this time grace was leading the way, because the woman at the well was destined for a time such as this. (Photo via Pexels)

Yes, Yeshua "had to go." The Lord is saying to us today, "I have to go right where you are. My grace is going to chase you down! My grace will overtake every sin, every disappointment, every issue..." It doesn't matter what condition you are in today (sin, lust, stinginess, gossip, betrayal, lying, theft, hurt, etc.), His grace is greater. He wants to give you living water.

It's true, we're thirsty for breakthrough, but when we drink from Him, there is an eternal satisfaction and knowledge that we can rest in Him. Yes, we can trust in the fact that He would not promise breakthrough and then not provide for it. If grace is truly sufficient, this means grace will continue to work in us as we move forward and accomplish divine destiny.

Grace Is God's Ability in Us!

It's so important that we understand what grace really is. For many years, the Church has defined grace as "God's unmerited favor." This is a true definition. However, it doesn't really explain what it really is or does; it tells us only that it is free. I love this definition: Grace is God's divine ability working in us, making us able to do what we cannot do in our own ability.

Paul encourages us in Philippians 2:12–13 to "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure." For years I believed that it was up to me to work hard to not displease the Lord. However, Paul points out that we should work out what has already been worked in us—our own salvation. The Greek word used for salvation here is sótéria (Strong's 4991), which is the noun form of sózó! This actually means that we are to work out our salvation with fear and trembling because of the distrust we have in ourselves, realizing that only the grace of God can empower us to fully accomplish the task.

Have you ever tried to change yourself? At the end of the day, have you been frustrated and overwhelmed because you failed to witness change? One of my favorite passages concerning the message of grace is Romans 6:14: "For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace" (NIV).

If any of you know my past, you might recall that I have been a Christian since I was a child, but most of my Christian years were tainted with religious legalism. I tried very hard to be pure, holy, and pleasing to God, all in my own strength! At the end of every day, I was exhausted and frustrated. Why? Because I did not fully acknowledge this fact: It wasn't my works that made me holy and acceptable to God, but rather, the grace of God and the finished work of Christ at the Cross.

I was holy only because I was a new creature in Christ. What I needed was to experience peace, joy, and victory, and to do that was to receive and continue in God's grace. I needed to rest in the fact that God's grace would continue to work in me what I needed to be! I tried for years to open my own doors rather than resting in God and knowing that His grace was always working on my behalf.

Our greatest change in life happens at the moment of salvation. In a split second, everything about us changes. How does this happen? Simply by believing. The very instant that we believe God, His divine grace comes into us, and we are forever changed! If the greatest change we ever experience comes because we simply believe, then why don't we continue with that simple child-like faith? Well, could it be because we have allowed traditions of men, religion, and legalism to influence our belief systems? Are we like the Galatians whom Paul rebuked? Galatians 3:3 reminds us of the downfall of human effort: "Are you so foolish? After beginning by means of the Spirit, are you now trying to finish by means of the flesh?" (NIV).

Bottom line—to negate the finished work of Christ is sin. Yet, to remain empowered to not sin is to receive and continue in grace. Expect grace to chase you down! You may have heard this phrase before (I know I have), but this is the "now" time to receive it!

In the past, I have written on this particular subject. However, this article that you are now reading is hopefully reminding all of us that when we came into salvation, the Spirit of God began a good work in us. Should we think that since we are now saved that we can finish the work in our own ability? Absolutely not! Just as we cannot save ourselves by our own efforts, we cannot bring about change in our lives through our own efforts. We are not saved by God's grace to be changed through religious works!

In closing, I want to encourage you again by confidently assuring you that there is absolutely nothing that is greater than God's grace. Grace is greater than everything!

Romans 5:15: "...But even greater is God's wonderful grace..."

It's going to be an awesome year for you! Expect it!

Prayer: Thank you, Yeshua, for watching over us. We ask that this year would be the most incredible year ever because of Your abundant grace. Even though we don't deserve it, You still give it away. Forgive us, Lord, for getting so busy that we forget to stop and notice the doors that You have opened and closed by Your grace. Help us all to remember to spend time with You, to connect with the Holy Spirit, and to praise You daily. Your Word assures us that Your grace is sufficient for us in weakness, amen.

Adar 14. 5785: Friday-March 14, 2025

From: Wade Butler, To the body of Christ

The following letter from Lana Vawser is as timely as you can get. I have said many times, "We the People" and those that pray within the People are contending for 'The Soul of the Nation. Without reading or listening to me speak those words, Grant Abraham, the leading conservative in Canada going against Trudeau, used the same words for the lead-in of his book, Fighting for the Soul of Canada.

We are at a crossroads for the very Soul of the United States. The battle is fierce with new enemy soldiers joining the battle every day both in the physical and spiritual realms. Do not take me wrong, not everyone that is new is an enemy. Not everyone who is an old member is a friend. We do not need to start a witch hunt, so listen to what is being said, and seek the LORD and HIS KINGDOM for answers.

Is this an overthrow from the deep state to keep Trump from using the Republic or to cause it to fail? Is it meant to be an example of his plans, and the enemy is infiltrating and undermining his agenda, or is it a take down by Freemasons by planting discord at every level? Their standard MO is deception and manipulation. Their purpose is to destroy Christian principles and roots. Have we failed by not seeing their plans, or are we on a plateau looking at the world at war when we are called to battle but are afraid to join the fight?

I can say that the Spiritual Warfare in the Heavens is the most severe I have ever experienced. I asked Holy Spirit what was going on around us and HE replied, "Many of MY sons and daughters would die from fright if they saw what was taking place around them." What a powerful word, "die from fright?" Wow, is the Republic really that important? The Answer is, yes, it is! The powers that were in charge would not have taken the steps to destroy Tim and the organization fifteen years ago if it were not.

The truth is out there if we are willing to make the effort to find it. WE must deal with the spiritual battle before we engage any further with the physical. "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and HIS Righteousness, then all these things shall be added unto you." The Angels of the LORD are more than equipped to bring down any foe internally or externally that we may face. I'm calling for three days of fasting and serious prayer before you jump to conclusions and condemn anyone within the Republic, and at the same time, ask for wisdom as to who the new members around you are. It appears that discord is being sown amongst the body. Where does it come from? What is the true source of all of the grief that is before us today?

We intend to take it to the Courts of Heaven, then to the courts of man. Please take a few minutes to read this powerful word from Lana Vawser about exposure and what the LORD is going to do.

Lana Vawser Ministries:

Recently, I heard the Lord say, 'Arise! I am pulling back the curtain! I am revealing what you have really been dealing with.' As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard: 'My people, Arise! Arise! Arise! I say unto you that there are many in this hour who have been dealing with significant opposition against your assignment. I say unto you, that there are many who have labelled opposition of the enemy as natural realm circumstances, and it has kept you under false burdens within your assignment. I say unto you, that I am PULLING BACK THE CURTAIN! I am REVEALING what you have been facing is an onslaught of the enemy. For many of you have been crying out to Me, "Lord what is wrong with Me? What have I done?" And many of you have lost your rest and your peace because you are living in anxiety wondering what you have done wrong. You were faithfully serving Me in your assignment/s, and suddenly things shifted and began to escalate leaving you feeling suffocated and contained.

'My people, listen to Me, many of you have been in the greatest battle you have faced over the assignments I have given you and the new assignments that are upon you. You have not even realized the level of opposition and battle you have been in, as the enemy has been attempting to keep you in a place of not recognizing his schemes and attempting to convince you that, that which you are facing and enduring is natural realm and is your fault.

'I say to those of you that have been in this place, ARISE! ARISE! I am removing the veil that the enemy has attempted to put before your eyes to hinder you from seeing what has been truly going on. I am bringing you into a new realm of clarity, and now you shall see clearer than you have seen what you have been dealing with. For I say unto you, that I am bringing you into a new realm of discernment within your assignment. I am bringing you deeper into a place of divine wisdom and understanding within the assignment/s that I have given you. For the enemy has come hard against you in this hour, and he has come harder than ever to keep you distracted, to steal your focus, and to attempt to keep you from moving into another level of AUTHORITY WITHIN YOUR ASSIGNMENT.

'I say unto you, that MUCH of what the enemy has been after in this hour is your heart and your authority. The enemy has come with such condemnation in this hour against many of you with his taunting lies, and there has been great onslaught of the enemy coming against many of you to CONTAIN YOU within your assignment. Many of you have lost your ability to dream with Me within your assignment and to thrive within the assignments that I have given you and who you were created to be in Me and do what I have created you to do and to thrive. But I say unto you, that as I am pulling back the curtain and I am exposing and revealing the schemes of the enemy, you are moving into a new level of authority in Me within your assignment as you begin to see what has really been happening behind the scenes.

'I say unto you, watch the chains of containment break off by the power of My Spirit within your assignments. Watch the chains of containment shatter as I am bringing you into a new slipstream of My Spirit and My grace within your assignment. Where many of you have felt like you have been barely surviving to continue in what I have called you to do, I am bringing you into such a deeper place of dependence upon Me within your assignment and the strength that shall come to you by My Spirit in the exposing of what the enemy has been doing – you are coming into a new level of EMPOWERMENT.

'There is a roar that will continue to arise within you, a roar of NO toleration of the enemy's schemes, an increase of the roar of faith, an increase of the roar of My authority within you to not only evict the nonsense and the noise of the enemy from your land, but see My Spirit bring forth an acceleration of fruitfulness of My plans and purposes within the lands of your assignments. I say unto you, My people, there are many of you that need to arise in this hour and take your authority back within your assignment. There are many of you that need to arise in this hour and step back into the victory that is yours in Me, within your assignment.

'For the enemy has worked so hard to attempt to convince you that all you have faced has been natural realm circumstance, and has for many, convinced you that what you are dealing with is not by his hand. But now, as I reveal what has been going on behind the scenes and under the surface, for many, there is about to be a ONCE AND FOR ALL SHIFT.

'For as I reveal what the enemy has been doing and the tactics he has been using to keep you contained, to keep you from moving in your authority, moving in faith, and for many, being the leader that they are called to be, the very exposure and revelation of his tactics is ending these cycles of his ongoing attacks to keep you hindered, contained, and distracted. For I say unto you, that I have a greater increase of insight of My plans and purposes for many of you within your assignment in this hour. There is increase within your assignment that I am bringing to you, and the heavy cloud of confusion, opposition, and for many, despondency that has been upon you, has been to KEEP YOU from this place of increased insight. For I say unto you, be expectant in this hour for this increased insight. Where there has been significant confusion, THAT IS NOT OF ME, and the invitation before you is one of entering into a new level of WISDOM within your assignment in this hour to move with Me in all that I have planned.

'The enemy has attempted to keep you contained, and I say unto you, that there is expansion and increase in My ways, in new ways, that are before you that he is attempting to keep you from: so ARISE AND GET LOUD! Declare My Word not with your own strength or loud voice, but get LOUD IN YOUR FAITH. Arise in faith and stand upon My Word. There is NO time to be TIMID. ARISE IN BOLDNESS and declare My Word, knowing the POWER OF MY WORD. I say unto you, as I am pulling back the curtain and revealing what has been happening under the surface and behind the scenes where the enemy has been at play, LEAN INTO the roar of My Spirit that is birthing the roar of NO toleration for his schemes and plans, and allow My Spirit to awaken you to greater authority.

'My people, in this hour I say unto you, GET the word OVERWHELM OUT OF YOUR VOCABULARY. For I say unto you, many have aligned their words with overwhelm that has opened a door to the heaviness and containment of the enemy in many ways in their hearts, minds and lives. My people, watch what you say, what you are focusing on and look to Me. I am bringing you into a place of such deeper dependance upon Me and the slipstream of My grace, where overwhelm will not be part of your vocabulary, and feeling like you're living in a constant state of overwhelm, as you continue to behold Me and see more and more of who I am.'

I agree that doors have been opened even to the point of the land we live on. Compromise comes in many ways and nearly always leads to destruction. We talk about the Republic being stood up. It's time we stood up. The battle is now at your door.

Blessings,

Wade Butler DPH (h.c.)

Adar 15, 5785: Saturday-March 15, 2025

CAN YOU HANDLE A DIFFERENT MANTLE? Nate Johnston

A few days ago, as I was driving around praying, I heard this question.

“Don’t apologize for your different mantle.”

Instantly, I thought of Elisha who, in a moment, had a new mantle thrown over him, and his whole world changed. He slayed his oxen and burned his plowing tools and said goodbye to his family to be Elijah’s protege. We don’t see it in the Bible, but that could have been a movie in those unspoken lines right there. Imagine everything shifting that dramatically in your life that quickly? Yet you have been there, and many are there right now.

That process can be a shock to the system, adjusting to so many new surroundings, but even more vividly, dealing with the internal changes. You see, when God throws a new mantle over you, it’s not just about a new anointing and role change. It leads you into an internal rewiring and initiates a season of crossing over from one capacity into the office you have been prepared for. And that’s the messy place many are in right now.

But to you? You just feel lost or like something is missing. But nothing is missing, except the juice you had for the old thing running out. The oil is producing in the new thing God is highlighting to you, if you choose to see it. But the problem or challenge in this process comes if we refuse to recognize or transition over. For instance, where the grace on what you were doing or the way you were doing it lifts, the longing for the familiar keeps you at a plow you are no longer anointed for.

Refusing to adjust our lives to accommodate the new mantle can lead us into feeling like God has removed His hand on our lives when that is not the case. Mantles are upgrades not downgrades, but are we willing to surrender our desires for what He knows is best for us? And for many, this is hard because their identities are also wrapped up in the old mantle, and that can be hard to separate from.

“But I’m a pastor, and this is my role, and what I do, and what people expect me to do!”

But what if you suddenly dream of nations, and you can’t deny a pull in a different direction? Will you surrender to it, or stay stuck in the expectation you and others have placed on you, even if it means stagnancy? No, you burn the plow, and you adjust.

But here's the thing: it’s not just you that has to adjust to your new mantle, but those around you. Those who have known you for a long time have been used to you operating a certain way, thinking a certain way, and being focused in a specific direction. Those you used to run with may not understand you, or even recognize you as you put on a different mantle.

It may cause them to feel like you are being disingenuous or being something you aren't. But they don't know that God has shifted your life in a moment.

They see this new mantle, and it looks like a costume, but it's the most authentic you that you can be. So let me ask you again, can you handle a different mantle?

Are you diagnosing this season properly?

Lord I pray for those in this shift right now, out of one anointing and capacity and into another. Help them navigate their own personal process well, the relational process, and their process to adjust to your leading well in Yeshua' name!

Adar 16, 5785: Sunday-March 16, 2025

Will Meier: Get Ready for a Time of Divine Restoration & Acceleration

This word about restoration is building and growing, and it is released to you today in the mighty name of Yeshua. We declare restoration and divine acceleration in 2025!

We pray for you in the mighty name of Yeshua Christ: The Lord is calling forth a season of restoration and divine acceleration over your life. By the authority of His Word, we declare that every season of loss, every moment of devastation caused by the "locusts" in your life, shall be transformed into a harvest of abundance.

The Lord Himself is breaking the chains of captivity, rearranging time, and bringing you into a place of divine alignment and amplification.

Recovering What Was Lost with Increase—Even Time!

Whatever was stolen, delayed, or destroyed is now being restored with an increase. The meeting point between your desires and God's provision is established, and you will not be bypassed again. Mysteries, marvels, and divine wonders will now become your reality, and the glory of God will lift you above every limitation.

When the Lord sends His Word, it is built over time and confirmed through His Spirit. In this season, the word of restoration has been confirmed repeatedly. God is not only restoring what was lost during trials, attacks, and confusion (including time), He is also adding to it, bringing divine acceleration to recover what was stolen, and multiplying it for His glory.

Joel 2:24–26 captures this promise of restoration:

"The threshing floors shall be full of grain; the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, My great army, which I sent among you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And My people shall never again be put to shame."

This restoration isn't merely a return to the status quo; it's a divine reordering, where what was once barren will become a place of overflow and fruitfulness. That which was lost in time will be restored. God not only restores time but destroys the forces that cause destruction. He positions His people for a supernatural harvest of abundance and breakthrough.

Restoration, Rebuilding Ruins, and Multiplication

Jeremiah 30:18–19 offers a powerful picture of God's restoration and multiplication:

"Thus says the Lord: Behold, I will restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob and have compassion on his dwellings; the city shall be rebuilt on its mound, and the palace shall stand where it used to be. Out of them shall come songs of thanksgiving and the voices of those who celebrate."

I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will make them honored, and they shall not be small." (Photo via Flickr)

This passage highlights God's promise to rebuild what was destroyed and to multiply His people with honor and abundance. The city rebuilt on its mound signifies not only restoration but also a solid foundation for the future, which we find in Christ Yeshua. The palace rising from ruins demonstrates that God's restoration often includes greater glory than what was lost. Songs of thanksgiving replace sorrow, and what was once desolation becomes a place of celebration and fruitfulness.

The Nature of Divine Restoration

In the realm of restoration, God operates beyond the limits of human time. He compresses seasons, allowing what might take years to happen in moments. This divine acceleration transforms years of devastation into a testimony of redemption and abundance.

Abraham's story exemplifies God's faithfulness to His promises. Though decades passed before Isaac's birth, the fulfillment of the promise unleashed multi-generational blessings. Romans 4:20–21 highlights his unwavering faith: "He did not waver in unbelief at God's promise but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, because he was fully convinced that what God had promised, He was also able to do." God's restoration in Abraham's life laid the foundation for nations to arise from his lineage.

Paul's transformation from a persecutor of Christians to an apostle of Christ illustrates divine acceleration. Within a short span of time, Paul's ministry established churches, wrote much of the New Testament, and shaped the early Church. Philippians 3:13–14 reveals his focus: "...forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Yeshua."

Joseph's rise from betrayal and imprisonment to power and authority in Egypt demonstrates how God uses trials to position His people for greatness. Genesis 41:41–44 marks the moment of Joseph's restoration, where he became a source of provision for nations during famine. (Photo via Wikipedia)

Naomi's life was marked by loss, but her story became one of divine redemption through Ruth. Ruth's loyalty and Boaz's role as a kinsman-redeemer restored Naomi's lineage and brought joy to her life. Ruth 4:14–15 celebrates her restoration: "...Blessed be the Lord, who has not left you this day without a redeemer, and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age..."

The Four Types of Locusts

Joel 2:25 speaks of God's promise to restore the years consumed by four types of locusts, each representing unique challenges and spiritual attacks. This passage reminds us of God's ability to redeem and multiply what has been lost and accelerate time to bring us into a restored state. In these examples, during the process, sometimes we live in divine tensions between lack and abundance, blessing and persecution, joy and trials. Regardless, we must look to the promises in faith.

1. Swarming Locusts (Arbeh)

The swarming locusts are described as vast numbers that overwhelm and consume everything in their path. I believe they can symbolize overwhelming trials or attacks that come in waves, leaving behind devastation and disorder. Yet, God's promise in Joel 2:25 assures us that even in the face of such chaos, He can restore order and bring abundance from what was consumed.

Isaiah 43:2 reminds us of God's sustaining presence: "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze." Even amidst overwhelming circumstances, God's protection and victory ensure restoration and peace. Yeshua' words in John 16:33 further affirm this truth: "...In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

2. Hopping Locusts (Yeleg)

The hopping locusts, though small, are persistent and capable of causing significant damage over time. They reflect minor issues, attacks, or sins that, if left unchecked, grow into significant challenges. Song of Solomon 2:15 reminds us to "catch the little foxes that destroy the vineyards," highlighting the importance of addressing small problems early. Similarly, Hebrews 12:1 urges us to "throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles," encouraging vigilance in dealing with persistent struggles. God's redemption is thorough, restoring even what has been worn away through such persistent challenges.

3. Destroying Locusts (Chasil)

The destroying locusts devastate entirely, leaving nothing untouched. They can represent severe, life-altering losses that feel insurmountable. Jeremiah 30:17 declares, "I will restore you to health and heal your wounds," a promise of God's power to bring restoration and healing from even the greatest devastations. Acts 14:22 reminds us that "we must go through many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God." These tribulations, though painful, often refine and strengthen our faith.

Paul's reflection in 2 Corinthians 4:8–9 underscores this truth: though we may be "hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair," God's sustaining power remains with us, ensuring restoration in His perfect timing. Through persecution or adversity, we are empowered to triumph as overcomers, holding onto His promises and victory. (Photo via Piqsels)

4. Cutting Locusts (Gizam)

The cutting locusts strip away everything, leaving nothing behind. I believe they symbolize barrenness and profound loss, where hope seems unattainable. Isaiah 54 provides a beautiful picture of how God brings supernatural fruitfulness out of barrenness. Verse one proclaims, "Sing, barren woman, you who never bore a child; burst into song, shout for joy, you who were never in labor; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband,' says the Lord." This passage reveals God's heart to bring increase and multiplication where there was once lack.

Isaiah 61:7 further offers reassurance, proclaiming, "Instead of your shame you will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace you will rejoice in your inheritance..." This promise aligns with the truth found in Ephesians 3:20, which declares that God is "able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us." Even in the deepest spiritual barrenness, His restoration overflows and exceeds expectations, bringing new life and abundance.

The imagery of locusts in Joel 2:25 reveals the different ways loss and challenges can manifest in our lives. Whether through overwhelming trials, persistent struggles, severe devastations, or spiritual barrenness, God's promise remains steadfast: He will restore the years that the locusts have eaten. His restoration is not just a return to the former state but an abundant overflow, reminding us to trust Him in every season of loss and to look forward to His redemptive work in our lives. As Romans 8:28 affirms, "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose."

Divine Multiplication Beyond Restoration

God's restoration always involves multiplication. Here are some examples of divine multiplication:

1. Job's Double Portion for All His Trouble (Job 42:10)

Consider Job, who received twice as much as he had before. This multiplication reflects God's heart to bless His people abundantly. Job's story is one of immense loss, yet God restored him with twice as much as he had before. This illustrates that God's restoration often exceeds what was originally taken, reflecting His abundant nature.

2. The Feeding of the 5,000 (John 6:1–14)

One of the most vivid examples of God's multiplication is when Yeshua fed 5,000 people with just five loaves and two fish. Not only was there enough to satisfy everyone, but twelve baskets of leftovers remained. This miracle highlights that when we bring what little we have to God, He can multiply it beyond what we could imagine.

3. The Widow's Oil (2 Kings 4:1–7)

When a prophet's widow faced insurmountable debt, Elisha instructed her to gather empty jars and pour out the little oil she had. Miraculously, the oil multiplied until every jar was filled. This story shows how God provides in supernatural ways, meeting immediate needs while often leaving an overflow. (Photo via Piqsels)

4. Joseph's Elevation (Genesis 41:37–57)

Joseph's trials led to his elevation to second-in-command in Egypt. Through God's favor, he was not only restored but positioned to save entire nations from famine. His story demonstrates how God's multiplication can extend beyond personal restoration to impact others.

5. Naomi and Ruth (Ruth 4:13–17)

Naomi, who had lost everything, found restoration through her daughter-in-law Ruth's loyalty and Boaz's kindness. Their union brought forth a lineage that led to King David and, ultimately, Yeshua Christ. This example shows how God's restoration and multiplication have generational significance.

6. The Early Church (Acts 2:41–47)

After Pentecost, the Holy Spirit's outpouring led to the multiplication of Believers. Three thousand were added to the Church in a single day. This multiplication of people and resources underscores how God's blessings often expand His Kingdom through unity and obedience.

These examples reveal that God's restoration is rarely about returning to the starting point; it's about increasing and multiplying for His glory. Whether through material provision, spiritual outpouring, or generational impact, God's multiplication reflects His desire to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine (Ephesians 3:20).

Prophetic Declaration for Restoration

I decree over you in the name of Yeshua: The time of your captivity has ended. Every locust—swarming, hopping, destroying, and cutting—is being rebuked by the Lord. God is rearranging time for you, bringing divine acceleration and supernatural provision. You will accomplish in one year what others labor a lifetime to achieve. Mysteries, marvels, and wonders are now your portion. No bad news will come to your dwelling, and nothing around you will die prematurely. The glory of God is resting upon you, and abundance is assigned to your path. Divine treasure houses are open, and access is granted to you in the mighty name of Yeshua Christ!

Step into this season of restoration and multiplication. Trust God's power to redeem the years the locusts have eaten, and prepare to overflow with abundance as you walk into your destiny.

Redeeming the Time

Ephesians 5:15–16 encapsulates the charge to walk wisely in this season of restoration and divine acceleration: "See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

This call to "redeem the time" highlights the urgency of engaging with God's Spirit of restoration through Christ. It reminds us that walking circumspectly is not passive; it requires intentionality, alignment with God's will, and active participation in His redemptive work. Redeeming the time involves recovering lost opportunities and stepping into divine acceleration that transforms loss into Kingdom multiplication.

As we embrace the power of God's restorative promise, we align our hearts and actions with His purposes, ensuring that every moment is filled with eternal significance. The days may be evil, but through Christ we are empowered to restore what has been lost, accelerate His purposes, and walk into the fullness of our Kingdom destiny.

Adar 17, 5785: Monday-March 17, 2025

Kathi Pelton: God Is Releasing Hidden Treasures

An Invitation to the Shores of Grace and the Riches of Christ

Have you ever picked up a seashell and listened to what sounds like the roar of the ocean waters from inside of it?

For me, it brings back childhood memories of finding a beautiful treasure on the beach and then experiencing the wonder of hearing the sounds of the sea within it.

Did you know that you are invited to walk on the shores of grace and find the treasures of Heaven each and every day?

I love the first couple hours of my day. It is my quiet time to walk upon those shores and to find these heavenly treasures. Some days, it is just a time to bask in the Lord's peace and truth, while other days, I find a treasure like the seashells that I'd find in my childhood. When I find one of these spiritual treasures, I will put my spiritual ear to it so that I can hear the sound of His beautiful voice.

Some days, it is the voice of His love, other days, it is the sound of His strength that comes to gird me up, and still other days, it is His counsel and wisdom that have come to set my feet upon the right path for that day.

"My goal is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." (Colossians 2:2–3)

My daily time with the Lord is where all of my riches get stored up—eternal riches. It is where I get to know Him intimately and personally. This is where I put my ear upon His chest and listen for the sound of His voice. This is also where I get a daily glimpse into the mystery of God through Christ Yeshua, our Savior and Lord. (Photo via Rawpixel)

Never Lose Your Childlike Wonder

Often, as the years go by, people can begin to see their daily devotional times (in the Word, in prayer, and in waiting upon Him) as more of a discipline rather than a refreshing experience of encountering His peace and discovering the unlimited mysteries of Christ.

Of course, there is a place of obedience and discipline in studying, learning, and praying, but we should never lose the childlike wonder of finding a treasure.

"I will give you hidden treasures, riches stored in secret places, so that you may know that I am the Lord..." (Isaiah 45:3)

Eternal Treasures Are Found in the Secret Place

I have done a lot of counseling throughout my years in ministry, and whenever I hear that someone is dealing with a lot of doubt regarding their faith, I will quickly discover that their personal time with the Lord (and in His Word) has been interrupted by the busyness of life.

Let's look at the Isaiah 45:3 again: "I will give you hidden treasures, riches stored in secret places, so that you may know that I am the Lord..."

The hidden treasures and riches reveal who He is, and that HE IS THE LORD! We doubt because we have not sought the treasures found within the secret place. But finding hidden treasures requires the act of searching for them. Secret places are rarely found without seeking after them. There are times when we stumble upon hidden treasures or secret places in the Spirit, but those are sweet acts of God's kindness and grace, like when I first found Him; I was not looking for God, but He was a treasure that was handed to me by His grace.

More often than not—as someone who has now walked with Him for forty-three years—I find His treasures and secret places within my intentional times set apart to be with Him. It is like having a daily place where we meet together. I am strengthened in my faith each time I go to meet with Him.

Seek First the Kingdom

The pursuit of money, image, and temporary things have become a far greater pursuit in most of mankind than the pursuit of the eternal treasure of Christ our Lord. The pursuit of temporary things leaves so many empty of true happiness and drains them of strength. (Photo via Creative Commons)

God is inviting His people to pursue eternal treasures. As we make time for this, all other things will be added to us.

"But seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." (Matthew 6:33)

God admonished Timothy in this way as well:

"For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. But you, man of God, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses." (1 Timothy 6:10–12)

"...Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs." How tragic!

We have been given the privilege and admonition to pursue the One who was pierced on our behalf and carried all of our griefs to the Cross. As we do, all that we need will be added to us. But if we neglect the pursuit of our eternal treasure, we will find our hearts wandering away, and it will bring with it many griefs.

Childlike faith is found in those who have walked upon the shores of grace and found the hidden treasures of eternal life. He is calling us back to those shores, back to the place of putting our ear upon His chest to listen once again. He is waiting for us in the secret place of His love.

This is where the doorway to abundant life is opened up before us.

Adar 18, 5785: Tuesday-March 18, 2025

Pat Frances: Remaining In God

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.” Gal. 5:22-23.

The Holy Spirit of God is the spiritual life-force that works in and through us to bear His fruit in this world. The fruit of the Spirit is the character, values, and nature of God. As we grow in Christ, we nurture and develop the fruit of the Spirit that are opposite to the selfish nature of mankind.

The Bible tells us how to grow so that we might show more of the fruit of God: “Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me.” (John 15:4)

How do we “remain” in God:

1) Daily prayer. As we meet with God in praise and in prayer, our human spirit will remain connected to His Holy Spirit so that we can receive from Him encouragement, information, ideas, revelation, correction, and instruction.

2) Daily read His Word. The Bible is the voice of God. It contains His word, His will, and His principles. As you read His word daily, you will get to know Him more and be transformed into His likeness.

3) Obey God. When you obey God, He sees your obedience as love for Him. “If you love Me, you will obey what I command.” (John 14:15)

4) Serve God. Help others in Church, home, workplace, and in areas as God opens the doors. God honors those who serve Him. “Whoever serves Me must follow Me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves Me.” (John 12:26)

As you remain in God, His powerful Holy Spirit will make you glorious to bear much fruit for the praise of His Glory.

Kingdom Declaration:

I praise God from whom all blessings come as I serve Him in His Church and in all areas of opportunities.

Read the Bible in One Year: Leviticus 17-18; Matthew 27:27-50

Adar 19, 5785: Wednesday-March 19, 2025

Ryan Johnson: Godly Connections That Lead to Extraordinary Breakthroughs: Who Are the Ones Willing to Climb the Roof for You?

What if the breakthrough you've been longing for isn't about what you can do, but who you're surrounded by? What if the miracle someone desperately needs is waiting on your faith, determination, and love?

In a crowded house with no way in, four individuals found a path where none existed, changing a life forever. This isn't just a story of healing; it's a revelation of faith, vision, and relentless love. Who are the ones willing to climb the roof for you? And whose roof are you willing to climb? Step into this unexpected journey and uncover the power of relationships that carry us when we can't walk alone. Dive into this journey and discover how godly connections can lead to extraordinary breakthroughs.

The story of the paralytic man in Mark 2:1–12 is a powerful account of faith, determination, and godly relationships. It is a beautiful picture of how four friends worked together to bring their paralyzed companion to Yeshua. They didn't just accompany him, they carried him, quite literally, and overcame every obstacle to ensure he received the healing he desperately needed. These four did not allow the result of the initial knock on a door to define this moment as rejection.

This story reveals the types of relationships we all need to thrive in our spiritual walk. These are not casual acquaintances, but life-giving connections that challenge, support, and point us back to Yeshua when we are unable to in the moment.

Proverbs 18:24 highlights this truth: "A man of too many friends comes to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother" (NASB 1995).

Let's dive into the four types of people we need in our lives and why they matter.

1. The Visionary: Seeing Beyond the Now

A visionary is someone who can see beyond where you are currently. They look past the present struggles, limitations, and circumstances to discern what lies ahead. Visionaries are often likened to apostles. They are like a person positioned in a crow's nest on a large ship. From this elevated perspective, they can see further and wider than those on the deck. Everyone on the ship's deck can see only from that perspective. However, because of the position of a crow's nest, it gives a different advantage to one's ability to see. This is often how it is with an apostle. It's not that they are greater than everyone else; it's just that they have a different assignment, which positions them with a different view.

In Mark 2, the friends of the paralytic man faced a seemingly insurmountable obstacle: the crowd blocking the door to Yeshua. A visionary among them must have had the insight to look upward and suggest an unconventional solution—going to the roof. Where others saw a roadblock, the visionary saw an opportunity.

Visionaries in your life help you lift your eyes from the immediate to the eternal. They inspire faith to believe in the impossible and encourage you to take bold steps of obedience.

Take an in-depth look: A visionary doesn't just see what is possible; they understand how to navigate toward it. Like the apostle Paul, who had a clear vision for taking the gospel to the Gentiles, visionaries direct us toward God's purposes. Without their guidance, we risk stagnation, settling for less than what God has for us. (Photo via Unsplash)

Question: Do you have someone in your life who consistently lifts your perspective to see what God sees?

2. The Dreamer: Reviving Lost Hope

A dreamer is someone who keeps hope alive when you feel like giving up. They dream with you and for you, championing the God-given visions that may have grown dim in your heart. Dreamers are often prophetic voices, speaking life into areas where faith has waned.

In Mark 2, it's likely the paralytic man had lost hope of ever walking again. Yet, his friends carried a dream for his healing. They didn't stop at obstacles but fought for his opportunity to encounter Yeshua.

Dreamers remind us that God's promises are worth pursuing. They challenge us to reengage with the dreams God has placed within us, even when circumstances scream otherwise.

Take an in-depth look: Dreamers often possess a deep sensitivity to the heart of God. Like Joseph, who carried God-given dreams despite opposition, dreamers don't let external realities dictate what's possible. They stir up faith and challenge complacency, reminding us that God's plans are still in motion.

Question: Who in your life reminds you of the promises of God and encourages you to dream again?

3. The Strongman: Carrying You in Weakness

A strongman is someone who picks you up when you can no longer go on. They carry your burdens, provide strength, and walk alongside you in times of weakness. These individuals are often spiritual parents, mentors, or trusted leaders who help you stand when you can't find the strength to do so on your own.

The paralytic man was physically unable to move, but his friends didn't let his inability define his destiny. They carried him, lifted him onto the roof, broke through the ceiling, and lowered him to the feet of Yeshua. Their strength became his access to healing.

Take an in-depth look: A strongman in your life is someone who stands in the gap, interceding for you in prayer, offering counsel, and providing practical support. Like Moses who needed help from Aaron and Hur to hold up his arms during battle, we all need people who will sustain us when our strength fails.

Question: Do you have someone who will carry you spiritually, emotionally, and physically in your weakest moments?

4. The Lover: Loving the Unlovable

A lover is the person who loves you when you're at your worst—when you feel unlovable, broken, or abandoned. Lovers embody the heart of Yeshua, who loves unconditionally and sacrificially.

In Mark 2, the paralytic man's friends loved him enough to go to extreme lengths to see him healed. This wasn't a convenient task; it required time, effort, and risk. Their love was evident in their actions. (Photo via Pexels)

Lovers don't give up on you when others do. They walk with you through the valleys, reflecting the unfailing love of Christ.

Take an in-depth look: Lovers operate from a deep well of compassion. Like the good Samaritan who stopped to care for a wounded man when others passed by, lovers don't measure relationships by convenience but by commitment. They remind us of God's enduring love, even in our darkest moments.

Question: Who in your life loves you unconditionally and reflects the heart of Christ?

Why These Four Matter

These four types of people—the visionary, dreamer, strongman, and lover—are essential for a balanced and thriving life. Together, they help us navigate challenges, reignite hope, carry burdens, and experience the love of God through human connection.

The story in Mark 2 isn't just about a man's healing; it's about the power of godly relationships. Without his friends, the paralytic man wouldn't have encountered Yeshua. It was their faith, creativity, and determination that made the miracle possible.

Proverbs 18:24 reminds us, "A man of too many friends comes to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother" (NASB 1995).

It's not about having many friends, it's about having the right ones.

The Most Important Question

As you reflect on these four types of people, ask yourself which one of these is you for someone else.

Are you a visionary, lifting others' eyes to God's greater purposes?

Are you a dreamer, helping others rediscover hope?

Are you a strongman, carrying those who are weary?

Are you a lover, offering unconditional love in the darkest moments?

God has positioned each of us to play a vital role in someone else's life. Just as the paralytic man needed his friends, there are people in your life who need you. Be intentional about the relationships you cultivate and the role you play in pointing others to Christ.

When we walk together in godly relationships, carrying one another toward Yeshua, miracles happen. Be the kind of friend who sticks closer than a brother. Be someone's visionary, dreamer, strongman, or lover. It's what we're called to do, and it's how we reflect the love of Christ to a world in need.

Adar 20, 5785: Thursday-March 20, 2025

Danielle Dixon: The Hour of God's Exposure

Hidden Ones Stepping Into the Light

I saw a vision of the Lord. He was gently yet firmly pushing people out from behind a black curtain and onto a grand stage. The entire stage was covered in darkness. One by one, as each person stepped forward, the stage lights suddenly blazed brightly, illuminating them. Their expressions looked startled from the brilliance of the light.

Then the Lord began to speak to me, addressing the recent exposure of darkness within the Body of Christ. He concluded by saying, "Now is the time for My glorious exposure. Many have been hidden in obscurity, but I call them forth in this hour. These are My hidden ones."

Forged in the Fires of Hiddenness

The Lord revealed that these individuals had endured a fiery refining process in their hiddenness. Now the time had come for them to reveal His glory—not as an external covering, but as a fire burning deep within, unquenchable by the schemes of the enemy.

"The grace upon these people cannot be extinguished," He declared.

"I have shaped them in secret for such a time as this. They are vital for this hour, as many will pioneer 'spearhead ministries' that carry My healing, restoration, and deliverance to the nations."

The Lord then directed me to Isaiah 49:2–4 (NIV): "He made my mouth like a sharpened sword, in the shadow of His hand, He hid me; He made me into a polished arrow and concealed me in His quiver. He said to me, 'You are My servant, Israel, in whom I will display My splendor.' But I said, 'I have labored in vain; I have spent my strength for nothing at all. Yet what is due me is in the Lord's hand, and my reward is with my God.'"

These hidden ones have often felt forgotten, as if their labor has been in vain. They've poured out their strength to endure, questioning if their efforts have mattered. But the Lord reminds us that if we endure, we will reign with Christ (2 Timothy 2:12).

Many of these faithful servants are nameless and faceless to the world, but they are known intimately by God. In their unseen obedience, He has been preparing them for this glorious unveiling.

They Will Do More than Restore

Isaiah 49 goes on to describe the restoration of nations through the hands of these hidden ones. Through them, healing and salvation will flow. For His name's sake the Lord will restore their strength and honor.

"And now the Lord speaks—the one who formed me in my mother's womb to be His servant, who commissioned me to bring Israel back to Him. The Lord has honored me, and my God has given me strength. He says, 'You will do more than restore the people of Israel to Me. I will make you a light to the Gentiles, and you will bring My salvation to the ends of the earth.'" (Isaiah 49:5–6 NLT)

The Lord spoke of how these once seemly rejected ones will rise with such brilliance that those in authority will take notice. They will be marked as the chosen of the Lord.

"Kings will stand at attention when you pass by. Princes will also bow low because of the Lord, the faithful one, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you." (Isaiah 49:7 NLT)

Drawing All Men to God

As this glorious unveiling takes place, I heard a song playing in the background:

Great are You, Lord. It's Your breath in our lungs

So we pour out our praise, we pour out our praise

.(Great Are You Lord, written by David Leonard, Jason Ingram, and Leslie Jordan) (Photo via Unsplash)

This song is a testimony, a mantra of worship rising from the earth. These hidden ones have endured seasons of crushing and weariness, where it has felt like only the breath of the Lord has sustained them. Their praise comes not from circumstances but from their deep reliance on their Savior, Yeshua. The brightness of their rising will draw nations.

"Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising." (Isaiah 60:3 AMP)

This is a time of encouragement and open reward for those who have faithfully guarded their posts, kept their assignments, and remained steadfast in the face of adversity.

To them, the Lord says, "Arise, shine, for your light has come, and My glory rises upon you."

Adar 21, 5785: Friday-March 21, 2025

Veronika West: February 17, 2025

"THE ALTAR OF CONSECRATION THAT STANDS AT THE ENTRY POINT OF YOUR NEXT DIVINE PROMOTION INTO THE GREATER REALMS OF GLORY!"

This morning, as I was praying, I suddenly became aware that my Spirit had been quickened by the Holy Spirit, and that I was being given access to Enter into a new and deeper realm and a dimension within the Glory that I did not have access to before today. But before I was given permission to go into this place of greater Glory, I saw an Altar standing before me in the realm of the Spirit, and it was made known to me by the Spirit of Revelation that there were things that I needed to relinquish at the Altar before I would be given Permission or granted access to ascend into the higher and deeper realms of Glory. So, I began to pray fervently in the Spirit once again as the quickening Grace led me, and as I prayed, my Spirit was suddenly filled with light, and I was made aware of what sacrifices that I was to bring to the Altar of Consecration which Stood on the threshold between the realm that I was in and the next realm and dimension of Glory that was before me.

Now, as the Spirit of Revelation brought illumination to that which I needed to Relinquish through the Power of Repentance and through the sacrifice of Praise and Worship, I was brought before the Altar, and my sacrifice was to be laid upon the Altar unto the Lord.

As soon as I placed my sacrifice upon the Altar, FIRE FELL and consumed my offering. Suddenly, an Angel of the Lord appeared before the Altar, and the Angel took a burning coal from the Altar where my sacrifice had been consumed by Fire and touched my lips. As my lips were touched by the burning coal, suddenly, and in an instant, I received greater illumination and vision; light, a white and brilliant light penetrated my eyes, and

I was suddenly caught up into a higher realm and dimension of the Glory! In what felt like in the twinkling of an eye, I had been taken up higher and deeper, and I was made aware that my Spiritual Capacity had been expanded, not only to receive More, but that my Spiritual Ability to Carry a greater Weight of the Glory had been given to me for the next prophetic assignment designated for me by the Spirit of the Lord.

I will Share more on what I saw in this deeper place as the Spirit gives me utterance, but I share the above with you in the hopes that it will bring some revelation and understanding; that with every new level and dimension of Glory that God makes available to us for our next Assignment, THERE IS AN ALTAR OF CONSECRATION THAT STANDS AT THE ENTRY POINT OF YOUR NEXT DIVINE PROMOTION INTO THE GREATER REALMS OF GLORY. There is an Altar of Consecration that demands a sacrifice and an offering unto God as a sweet smelling incense. It's at the Altar of greater Consecration that when the Fire Falls upon our Offering, we are ushered into new and greater levels of Purity and Humility, which qualifies us as His Holy and Righteous Vessels to ASCEND INTO THE GREATER HEIGHTS AND TO DESCEND INTO THE DEEPER DEPTHS OF HIS GLORY, THAT WE MAY SEE WITH GREATER VISION, ILLUMINATION, AND UNDERSTANDING OF THE WAYS AND THE DIVINE PURPOSES OF GOD FOR THE SEASON WE ARE COMING INTO !!

PS. More on this Encounter to come.

Adar 22, 5785: Saturday-March 22, 2025

Terry Friesen: "Transfixed into His Image."
From my book, The Heart of a Seer. (WB)

We are in a remarkable season of change and transformation. All aspects of society, the church, and the people of God are being shaken. We have heard that as His remnant believers, even though the earth will shake, we will not shake. I believe this to be only partially true.

(Hebrews 12:25-29, NIV) ²⁵ See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, ²⁶ whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven." ²⁷ Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain. ²⁸ Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. ²⁹ For our God is a consuming fire.

Those parts of us rooted and grounded in the Kingdom of God will not shake, because they are in Christ and His Kingdom in the midst of its establishing. If we have aspects of our lives, even our interior lives, that are not yet rooted in His Kingdom and the finished work of Christ, how can we say those parts of us will not be shaken?

In this season, much of our Lord's attention is focused on those closest to Him. We are being prepared to emerge as the Sons and Daughters He called us to be. We have been in this place positionally since the finished work of Christ, but the earth continues to groan and wait for this to become real in us on the earth. We are in the process of this great truth becoming made real.

Recently, as I was driving and praying, the Lord looked deep into my inner being and allowed me to see what He was observing. I saw through a window my inner man, and I saw a mixture of the fear of the Lord and the fear of man. He spoke to me and said, "Within the inner regions of your soul there is a mixture." I have had valid and real encounters with the fear of the Lord, and as this aspect of His nature penetrates my soul, it drives out fear and pride, and all sorts of lesser constructs. But He has not done. He is intent on me being fully free and abiding in Him and in Him alone. If there is any question, let us dispel it right now; I want the same thing. I want to abide in our Lord without compromise or mixture.

This mixture could color my ability to respond, or at the very least, it represented a drag on my soul, slowing me down like a heavy weight that required focused navigation. The same could be true for mixtures of pride. How do we know if we have mixture or not? Sometimes we may know, and sometimes we may not. The nature of pride and fear is that in response to it, we may mask what we see, and never truly see ourselves without veils of interpretation.

This is why we need each other, and most certainly why, like King David, we need to ask, (Psalms 139:23-24, NKJV) ²³ Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me, and know my anxieties; ²⁴ And see if there is any wicked way in me and lead me in the way everlasting.

I love the way David phrases this. He is asking God to search his heart. He is not talking about rehashing all the good and bad he has done or identifying within himself his own deficiencies. I have no problem looking inside myself and assessing all that aligns or mis-aligns, but I would never consider doing it without first being in the Lord's presence. Only our Lord knows how to align us with His righteousness and according to the bent He created us to walk in.

Just a couple of nights ago, after the mixture discussion, the fear of the Lord came upon me once again. I welcome the fear of the Lord in my life as it leads to His wisdom and rids me of everything that does not align with His righteousness. This time, I must admit, was more uncomfortable than any previous encounter with the fear of the Lord. Each encounter has been life changing, and each encounter has carried with it a soberness, but this was greater than all the rest.

I felt more exposed, even to the deepest parts of who I am. At the same time, I could feel the glory of God round about me providing a safe space for Him to perform His surgery. I know that should I die today and go to Heaven, I will become perfected in Christ, and that will be the end of the matter for all eternity. But what about here? Do we really believe our Lord can perform in us the miracle of regeneration so that we are like Him? If we do, we should expect His surgery work to take place in us. He does this by His love, the Fear of the Lord, and all manner of His goodness. Only our creator knows how we are designed and what the fullness of that looks like.

We have been encouraged during this season to obtain a Heavenly perspective for our church, our city, our area of influence; then by prayer and faith bring that reality into the here and now. Let us consider the Lord's prayer in this light.

"Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven" (Matthew 6:10, NIV)

We are ascending, being given revelation of the culture and ways of Heaven; then we are praying and activating them in the earthly realm. I have heard this principle taught multiple times regarding many things, but what about you, yourself. Can we obtain a Heavenly perspective of who God made us to be, as we are seated with Christ in Heavenly places now, then pray for and see by faith that reality come into the earth realm, today? Recently, I had an encounter with the Lord where I saw Him more clearly, then I saw myself in light of who He is. I saw the bits that need to go, but I also saw His nature in me, and that is the skin I want to reside in while I walk this earth.

I believe, it is our Lord's intention to perform this work in us, so that the Heavenly reality we experience seated with Christ in Heavenly places is paralleled here and now. In this place of deep work, our Lord is transforming our wills. It has been said that the will of man is the deepest part of him. In some ways, it is a mystery. Our wills are affected by things we see and things that we cannot see. Generations of DNA and earthly experiences all funnel into who we have become before we accept the Lord, and then He starts to renovate.

When we give our lives to the Lord completely, we may think its finished, in terms of agreement, but in reality, we have just agreed to give Him parts of our lives that we do not even know exist yet. We start with the more obvious things where we exercise choice. We know what right and wrong are, and we need to choose according to what we know. Then we delve into more challenging areas of character, and what does righteous living look like, how does this play out in my life. In this we realize our wills do not always align, and we need to choose hard after His will.

In recent years, I see and hear the Lord delving into deeper aspects of His will within us. At this point, we know, or most of us know, that the righteous desires we have in our hearts came from Him, and we are to move in the general direction that will see them come to pass. What may be less clear is how different His ways are from our ways, and this too is an aspect of His will. The Father has a will and way to perform His will. He also has a timeline, or windows of time where His will is played out. Ultimately, we must resolve to believe that His love for us and His commitment to the desires He has placed within our hearts is far greater than our commitment to the same. When we realize He is not fighting against us but for us, the light comes on, and we recognize if we both desire the same thing, then He simply has a different way of going about it.

He sees the beginning and the end. He knows the perfect way.

We can bring into this discussion the elements of warfare and enemy opposition, but we recognize our Father's power, and His ways are above the enemy. Our enemy is real, but not the highest consideration.

We are in a season of change, entering a new era, where God desires to give us the desires of our hearts, but He is seeing the end result and pathway from a height we can only long to see, unless He in fact shows us. His pathway however, to arrive at this magnificent destination, may differ than the one we may want or see.

Now is the time to embrace a great and unyielding trust in who our God is, and His great intentions towards us and all of creation. Just as my exposure to the fear of the Lord was the most uncomfortable I have experienced to date, I know His intentions are good. He has proven that His ways are good, so I can trust Him in the midst of the things I do not understand, or which do not align with the way they need to take place. In other words, is my trust in Him greater than my confidence in my vision of how things need to come to pass?

The evening of July 31, 2024, I had another encounter. I was awakened in the middle of the night, and I saw the Lord's hand inside of me, and He was holding His sceptre of authority inside of me. I was startled to see and feel this, and even more so when His lightnings started to flash around my inner man. I could see His hand and sceptre aligned with my backbone when I heard, "I am quickening my character in my people for what will come next."

I saw that, for many, the Lord was performing an accelerated work of infusing the likeness of Christ and His character into His people. When He did this, I saw warriors straighten upright, no longer bent over, and they became "true" to who they were created to be, and in alignment with who the Father has made them to be. In the days following, Holy Spirit was talking to me about the quantum realm as an example of what He was doing. In the realm of the quantum, science has come to realize that everything is in a state of flux, in some cases, matter oscillates between multiple variations of a given reality, but when we put our eyes and intention on it, it fixes into place. Feel free to research this, as it is fascinating. At this time, when the Father looks upon us, His creation, with His intentionality, we are being transformed or fixed into the image He carries in His heart for us. He is looking at us with a new level of His intentionality.

At the very time we feel most vulnerable to His handiwork, He is fixing us or fashioning us in the very image after His Son's finished work. He sees us through the finished work of Christ and is observing us with intention in this same state, so that we are transfixed into the same image.

Why such a great demonstration within us, and why now? We are being prepared to be the containment of the Father's will. He is at work within our wills to make room in us so that we can contain His intention.

Earlier this morning as I was praying and seeking the Lord's face. I asked, "Father, what are you doing within me? At times it is most uncomfortable – I trust you." I saw within myself a smelting pot like you would see in a steel factory. It was a large vessel churning with hot molten lavalike substance. My will was being turned into a mouldable liquid, and He was tossing one small piece after another into it until each piece dissolved into the rest. He is preparing to form His will inside of me, or more accurately, the will-nature of His obedient Son, so that as His will flows through me, there is no resistance. He is doing this for the body of Christ right now, for those that have said yes, and not pulled their hand back from the process.

We are preparing for the inflow of the Father's nature and His will in an unprecedented way, so that when His power and Person begin to flood us and our environments, we are able to move like His Son in the midst of all that takes place. It is one thing to be subject to the move of His glory and fall on our faces; it is quite another to move and be active in the midst of His moving. We are being formed and fashioned in a way that enables us to move with Him as His agents in the earth, rather than just observe in awe what He is doing.

Lord, make us ready. I give you the freedom to do all you desire to do, even the things I do not understand. I trust Your love for me, Your character towards me, and your commitment to the desires you have placed within me. Let us do this together. I say yes!

tfprophetic@gmail.com. Telegram Channel <https://t.me/tfprophetic>

Adar 23, 5785: Sunday-March 23, 2025

Nathan French: Yeshua Speaks - What Is It That I Am Doing?

Word of the Lord for 2025

(The following prophetic word was received on January 9, 2025.)

"I will expose, shake, test, and restore. I will continue to expose hidden darkness on a grand scale. Many leaders will be tested, and those who pass the test will be increased. I am shaking every mountain so that what remains can be a new foundation made solid for building. The schools will be tested; those who are teaching falsely will be exposed. Many false teachers are calling My true teachers false.

"I will make known false doctrines—the doctrines of demons that hinder real faith. I will restore families like never before. I will restore the fortunes of those who suffered loss.

"I will pour My Spirit out to empower the ones who have invested in My Kingdom, in the secret place, with more grace to empower more and more progress.

"Many ministers who were dry will catch the flame of surrender, allowing Me to lead their work, so I can pour out My glory.

"There will be a major exposing of the dragon coming out of China, and their secret agenda will be laid bare across the land. My hand is upon this nation, but I am addressing perversion and idolatry because I want My Bride pure.

"I will purify My Bride in 2025. Moves of My Spirit will be ignited from the holiness I find in pure-at-heart remnants. I am taking back the ground the enemy has taken, because this nation is Mine! I have a plan for every tribe and nation. Even as so many look to America, I am looking at how each one responds.

"I will reward the faithfulness of My people. I will rebuild. I will renew. I will restore. I will heal and release miracles at a level that has not yet been seen.

"I am drawing another line in the sand between those who are Mine and those who are pretending. Play actors will become easy to recognize as the masks come off so that what has been hidden can be laid bare. My light will shine on the faces of those who carry My heart in intimacy. Closeness with Me will cause some to flee. Many Believers will fall away to be tested, but so many more will run to the Cross.

"Mass baptisms will take place, and communion will become an emphasis in the Body of Christ. Mainstream media will begin covering large crowd assemblies, lifting up My name! The summer season will be full of outdoor events that will ignite people in destiny and purpose to begin living life to the full. My abundance will pour out with My Spirit to reward those I have called to rise and shine. This will draw the wayward, even the prodigals. Many who have been in witchcraft, even in the Church, will be delivered and healed of the damage of fear and control in a whole new way. Creative business ideas will pour out to advance My Kingdom in companies that revere Me and honor My name. (Photo via Unsplash)

"I will expose and shut down much of the twisted trans movement with truth and light, and free those governed by wicked perversions and demonic delusions, bringing a greater understanding of My divine design and purpose. Stadium events will increase, where pastors and leaders of the five-fold ministry will work together to bring about an outward display of togetherness. The government will start taking counsel from small groups of sharp, prophetic pioneers. I will raise the bar and banner over cities desiring an inhabitation of Heaven on Earth.

"I am renewing minds by increasing hunger for My Word and shutting down the torment caused by the spirit of double-mindedness. The pressed-in ones will shine the brightest to authenticate My marking. Yes, I mark My people! But more and more people will be deceived by the "counter mark" of the mark of the beast, even many elect who do not know that I am the Truth. As the darkness gets darker, the light will shine brighter. The invitation to reject or accept Me, the Lord, will persist as My glorious Bride becomes increasingly triumphant.

"I will turn up the volume of My voice within those who desire to be led, and I will feed them My words of wisdom so they can experience supernatural joy—joy to abound, joy to be strengthened, joy to be victorious, and joy that will be directed to the world as an invitation that walking with Me causes people to be free. Stay close, those of you who call on My name."

"Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see Him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory..." (1 Peter 1:8 KJV)

Yeshua Speaks: "What I AM Doing?"

(The following word of the Lord was received on January 11, 2025.)

"I am removing the effects of wokeism. I am shining My light in all the dark places, causing exposure of evil and those who have agreed with it.

"I am purifying My people and bringing justice. I am unifying My people in love and creating opportunity for community. I am lifting burdens off the broken so they can stand.

"I am making known My plan. I am watching to see who I can promote. I am speaking to those who value My words with hearts desiring My divine direction.

"I am lifting the lids off of those insulated by unbelief. I am shutting down the evil false teaching that has hindered real, biblical faith. I am destroying the enemy's networks. I am choosing new leaders and removing those who fail to yield to My voice and will.

"I am taking back My schools. I am establishing My government on the earth. I am building in the Spirit to help shore up My end-time army and fortify cities that have turned to Me in repentance, prayer, and worship.

"Worship purifies and tears down the damage of idolatry. Worship puts and keeps My Kingdom first. Worship causes repentance, as some cannot worship in Spirit and in truth until they submit their hearts to Me. Worship is a powerful weapon of warfare!"

"God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in Spirit and truth." (John 4:24 NKJV)

"I am raising up and tearing down. I am bringing forth the greatest end-time move of My Spirit that has ever been witnessed on the planet in all of history. The next eight years will be like no other! Watch and see that what I have spoken will surely come to pass. I am that I am, and I am coming soon!" (Photo via Unsplash)

"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to everyone according to his work."
(Revelation 22:12 NKJV)

"My people must learn to respond to Me, and to My calling, and see the fruit of joy in saying 'yes' to the One who will pull out all the stops and kick open so many doors of possibility.

"Huge crowds all over the world are weeping from great joy, crying out to the One who loves them, the One who takes the yokes, weights, and burdens off of their shoulders to fill them with My glory and power."

"Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light." (Matthew 11:29–30 NKJV)

"This is the hour of power," says the living God. "This is the hour I have chosen for you to rise and shine. It is time! Do not cower in this hour," says the Lord.

"Stand tall and know Me, the One who has guided you into success from your 'yes.' Be ready at any given moment to receive the fulfillment of My promises as you walk by faith and become a great witness, a mighty voice, and a warrior who cannot be held down or held back. My strength is within you. My light is upon you. My mantle has been entrusted to you. Give Me your every thought and watch what I do," says the King of all kings. "Purpose is found in the pursuit of Me. Peace is found in surrender. Glory comes down to those I surround."

Purposeful Prose

*Gushing geysers will come up from the ground,
Like flames to prepare the mighty sound.
My voice beckons to all those I've found.*

*People will see that I am still here;
I will pour out My Spirit and love will be clear.
Fear is in trouble when I'm on the scene—
That spirit of darkness; My light now you glean.
Purpose and promise, let My treasures pour in.
I have come to remove all your sin.
Rejoice in the victory as I lift up your hands,
Battles will be won because you are all in.*

Adar 24, 5785: Monday-March 24, 2025

TRUST GOD IN THE "IN BETWEEN"
ANGIE STOLBA, WASHINGTON, IL

"Surely Your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever." (Psalm 23:6 NIV)

I sense the heart of the Lord to release encouragement for those who are currently in between the promise and the manifestation. The Lord says, "I am calling you to a deeper place of trust and surrender. 'For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,' declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts." (Isaiah 55:8–9 NIV)

"Trust Me in the 'in between' spaces. I am working on your behalf regardless of what it looks like in the natural. Do not cast away your confidence. Draw on My faithfulness in your life in past seasons. Faithful I have been, and faithful I will continue to be! Be assured, your times are in My hands, and truly, your best days are right ahead! Praise Me in advance for the good things that are coming! Throw off heaviness and despair, and put on the garments of praise. The joy of the Lord is your strength!

"Nehemiah said, 'Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.' (Nehemiah 8:10 NIV)

"Truly I say unto you, nothing has been wasted! I am the God who brings beauty for your ashes. A new day is quickly dawning! Do you not perceive it? I have prepared a table of blessings for you in the midst of your enemies! I am righting the wrongs, and I am bringing swift justice, for I am the Righteous One who judges rightly! I am with you; I am holding you together! Fear not, stand still, and see the salvation of your mighty King this day!"

"Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem! This is what the LORD says to you: 'Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God's.'" (2 Chronicles 20:15 NIV)

"You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows." (Psalm 23:5 NIV)

Adar 25, 5785: Tuesday-March 25, 2025

Veronika West

"WE HAVE NOT GONE THIS WAY BEFORE, FOR THESE ARE THE DAYS OF A DIFFERENCE"

So, I released the following Word in our Prophetic Hub recently;

I have heard these words over and over again, "WE HAVE NOT GONE THIS WAY BEFORE, FOR THESE ARE THE DAYS OF A DIFFERENCE. THESE ARE THE DAYS THAT WILL BE KNOWN AS THE BEST AND WORST OF TIMES, A STORM IS COMING, ALL HANDS ON DECK!"

Then a few weeks ago during my prayer time I heard the Spirit say, "Watch! For the Days ahead will be defined by your attendance to the Altar. I say, surely the Fires of the Altar will be powered by the Sacrifices that I will require of you to prepare before My Presence. Who Will Ascend? Who Will Come Up Higher? I Ask, Who Will Attend to the Altars in the Days ahead? Who will become the Keepers of the Flame?"

Watch, For My Eyes are Looking to and fro. Who Will Prepare the Sacrifice; Who Will Become the Living Sacrifice? Who Will Build, Rebuild, and Restore the Broken-down Altars for the Fires of My Glory to fall, and for the Rain of Restoration to come and Redeem the Times and Seasons??

Listen, and Pay Attention! For I Am now Taking My Remnant BEYOND the realms of Visions and Dreams in the days ahead, Watch! As the Altar becomes the Door where My Spirit of Revelation will lead them into the Deeper places of Radical Burning, Encounters with My Glory, and Divine Visitations with the Burning One, and the All-Consuming Fire that will bring them into virgin dimensions of Holy Consecrations - Consecrations that will bring to BIRTH A GREATER MANIFESTATION OF MY GLORY INTO THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH!"

This ties in perfectly with Bethany Hicks: Stepping into Prophetic Vision

What Is God Saying?

At the beginning of a new year, it's natural to reflect on what lies ahead. People who believe in prophecy often default to what others are saying about what is ahead. While we want our hearts teachable and open to what prophets and leaders are saying, it's also important to ask, "What is God speaking to me about this season?"

Isaiah 43:19 reminds us, "See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?" God is inviting us to partner with Him in shaping the year ahead through His prophetic insights and promises.

As we learn to partner with what He is saying for the year ahead, here are three key foundational principles to help you clearly hear His voice.

1. Know That God's Plans Are Full of Hope

God's plans for your year are filled with hope, purpose, and promise. Begin with the assurance that He desires good for you:

"For I know the plans I have for you,' declares the LORD, 'plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.'" (Jeremiah 29:11)

I can't stress how important of a foundation this is in learning to hear His voice clearly. If there is no hope in what you're hearing, it's not the voice of God speaking. (Photo via Pexels)

2. Write the Vision Clearly

Ask God for a prophetic vision for the year ahead. Write it down so you can reflect on it and run with it throughout the year.

"...Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so he may run who reads it. For still the vision awaits its appointed time..." (Habakkuk 2:2–3)

Practically, this can be as simple as getting a notebook, journal, or even opening a document on your computer and writing out the dreams of your heart or the prophetic insights you may sense will come forth in the new year. It is a powerful way to keep God's promises as the lens through which you make decisions throughout the year.

In 2018, I wrote down a dream to "write and release a book." That same year, I completed and released my first book, Own Your Assignment, which has since been translated into multiple languages and has impacted thousands of people.

Writing down the vision and making it plain allowed me to prioritize my time and strategically partner with the Lord to see that book written. As a result, God fulfilled His promise, and my dream is now being used for His glory.

3. Embrace the New Thing God Is Doing

Lastly, it's vital to let go of past disappointments and step into the new opportunities God is opening for you.

"Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing..." (Isaiah 43:18–19)

You cannot run forward while looking backward. For many of you, the new thing is waiting for you as soon as you release the past and forget the former things. He's doing a new thing... Don't miss it!

Reflection Questions:

- What "new thing" is God doing in your life this year?
- How can you align your goals with God's plans for you?
- Are there areas in your life where you need to let go of the past to embrace God's new vision?

Practical Challenge:

Spend fifteen to twenty minutes in prayer this week, asking God to reveal His prophetic word or vision for your life this year. Write it down, meditate on it, and seek confirmation through Scripture and prayer.

May your year be filled with God's prophetic guidance, hope, and abundant blessings!

Adar 26, 5785: Wednesday-March 26, 2025

Mary Dorian: The Year of Yahweh's Fulfillment of Many Covenant Promises

Grace for the Next Five Years

I believe 2025 through 2030 is a five year cycle that will bring about the fulfillment of many of Yahweh's covenant promises. There will be grace, grace, and more grace given to the Body of Christ in the next five years. Wonderful prophetic promises will be coming to pass from Isaiah and Jeremiah.

Some may view covenant like a contract, where both parties sign on the dotted line. But in God's mindset, ultimately, it is a promise that only He can fulfill. The Body of Christ is being prepared to move into things and seasons we have never seen before but have been promised by the Lord. It is a season of looking up and looking forward to tomorrow as we wait for Yeshua' return.

Fulfilled Promises and Glimpses Into the Future

In 2 Samuel 7:18–21 (MSG) it says, "King David went in, took his place before God, and prayed: 'Who am I, my Master GOD, and what is my family, that you have brought me to this place in life? But that's nothing compared to what's coming, for You've also spoken of my family far into the future, given me a glimpse into tomorrow, my Master GOD! What can I possibly say in the face of all this? You know me, Master GOD, just as I am. You've done all this not because of who I am but because of who You are—out of Your very heart! —but You've let me in on it."

David saw the future in this passage, and he saw the Son of God seated on His throne forever.

In Jeremiah 31:35–37 (MSG) it says, "GOD'S Message, from the God who lights up the day with sun and brightens the night with moon and stars, who whips the ocean into a billowy froth, whose name is the GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: 'If this ordered cosmos ever fell to pieces, fell into chaos before Me'—GOD'S Decree—'then and only then might Israel fall apart and disappear as a nation before Me.'"

In other words, this will never happen. Nothing can stop Israel from being a nation and from receiving the covenant promises that have yet to be fulfilled, one by one. No matter what threats come to Israel, God will not forsake that nation.

Body of Christ, we will see things happen that we never imagined. Much will be contingent on the nation of Israel.

Another promise waiting to be fulfilled is found in Isaiah 65:20 (NLT), which says, "No longer will babies die when only a few days old. No longer will adults die before they have lived a full life. No longer will people be considered old at one hundred! Only the cursed will die that young!" (Photo via Flickr)

Baptism of the Holy Spirit and Fire

As we await the return of Yeshua, there will be those in the Body of Christ who will flow [function] like John the Baptist did, and call out to prepare the way of the Lord.

"Here's what I want you to do: Buy your gold from Me, gold that has been through the refiner's fire. Then you'll be rich. Buy your clothes from Me, clothes designed in Heaven. You've gone around half-naked long enough. And buy medicine for your eyes from Me so you can see, really see." (Revelation 3:18, MSG)

I believe the fire mentioned in this verse is not destructive fire but the fire of the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Look to the Future!

Start looking forward to the future. Start looking forward to tomorrow. It will be the beginning of new promises waiting to be fulfilled.

You see, you have a choice to make: either look at the future through the eyes of fear or through the eyes of faith. Fear sees little reason to hope, but faith in God sees His faithfulness and His words coming to pass right before our eyes, and there is JOY unspeakable, filled with His glory.

God's words are leading His people into the years 2025 through 2030, into a new era — a golden era. God will use all His people in the future.

Remember this word whenever you feel anxious: "Remember your history, your long and rich history. I am God, the only God you've had or will ever have—incomparable, irreplaceable—from the very beginning telling you what the ending will be, all along letting you in on what is going to happen, assuring you, 'I'm in this for the long haul, I'll do exactly what I set out to do'" (Isaiah 46:9–10, MSG).

The Lord says, "Trust Me."

Adar 27, 5785: Thursday-March 27, 2025
Tim Sheets & Dutch Sheets: Be Daring

Intro from Dutch Sheets: God is very determined to honor His Son, Yeshua, and fulfill the promises He made to Him. My brother Tim reminds us today that we are entering a new and powerful era in which this will occur. Tim's title is "Be Daring."

"Be Daring" by Tim Sheets

We are transitioning into one of the most strategic times in history. In times of great transition, God often delivers challenges to His people. We see this when Israel came out of the wilderness and into the land promised to them by God. Joshua was challenged by God to be strong, and in turn he passed on the same challenge to the people. I hear those same words being given to us today: Be strong.

Holy Spirit has revealed to me that the Ekklesia is entering a great time of promises unfolding, one of God's most supernatural eras in which signs, wonders, and miracles will rise to levels we've never seen. We are being called to advance into this plan, embracing the challenge God has given us to stand strong and administrate it from the spirit realm.

John 16:33 (NKJV) says, "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."

"Be of good cheer" is the Greek word tharseó, meaning to be bold, to engage in great courage, and to be daring (Strong's 2293). In other words, the Lord is saying we will face times of trouble, but He is challenging us to be daring and bold, knowing He has already overcome the opposition.

God has prepared us for this season. We have been called to represent King Yeshua and stand for His honor. We now have a functioning Ekklesia across this world, and angel armies have been positioned around territories, regions, and nations. It is time to advance the Kingdom of God. In this era, the fear of the Lord and respect of King Yeshua will be restored. This assignment will require us to be tharseó—daring, brave, and bold.

A Vision, a Visitation, and a Prophecy

I was recently in a time of seeking the Lord concerning this hour, and Holy Spirit reminded me of a vision that I believe is now being activated. In this vision, God showed me a vast army of angel warriors, a type that I hadn't seen before. They appeared in long lines, arrayed for battle, wearing shiny breastplates, carrying bows and bronze arrows. Their countenance was stern and fierce. They seemed determined and confident, their eyes fixed in a stare that could look right through you. This line of angels stretched as far as I could see in both directions. (Photo via Stock Cake)

At this point in the vision, everything shifted and became a visitation in which I felt the weighty presence of God. In this atmosphere, I told the Lord I had never seen this type of angel before, and He said, "They appear on Earth when assisting Holy Spirit's advancement of new eras, outpourings, and glory surges. I am releasing great numbers of these angels into the nations."

I then asked Him the specific purpose for these angels, and He answered, "They are angels who guard My glory and honor, and are coming to do so. They are preparing the way for My Ekklesia's move on the earth to expand My Kingdom. Those who honor Me will be honored with greater levels of My governing authority in order to reign with Me. I will increase the favor of My Kingdom upon them; My presence and glory will rise upon them. Words of wisdom, words of knowledge, prophetic unction, supernatural faith, spiritual discernment, healing, and miracles will increase through My joint-heirs. These angels will assist them, protecting My honor and glory on Earth, and bring Me honor from the nations, as My Father has promised Me."

After this vision, the gift of prophecy began to operate through me, and the Lord said, "You will now see the strong arm of the Lord, and you will experience the aggression of Heaven's warriors moving on My behalf. You will experience the presence of My glory that advances My might to protect, save, and strengthen; for I declare that My people will rise in My might and strength. My power will be seen in your midst. My passion will now infuse My remnant with zeal for My cause.

"I am now calling forth My passionate warriors. They will stand and not be shaken, displaying hope, confidence, and unshakable faith. These passionate warriors of valor are mustering to their battle stations. They have heard My call and, along with My angel armies, are rising in the darkness to push against Hell until it quakes under My power. It is a season in which demons will tremble, not My heirs.

"Arise and shine in this hour of My great glory, standing strong in this perilous time. Arise and challenge, with My authority, the abominations of the forever loser. Arise, and with My mightiness reinforcing you, destroy defilements and dominate evil. Hear My words, including My prophetic words; listen to the messages I've sent in resounding waves. The prophetic assignments I've given are now intersecting their moment. Hear them! Arise with Me to reign," says the Lord, "for I am rising in this world as never before.

"My Kingdom's army is now prepared and armed to march daringly with confident valor, backed by My wisdom, might, and resources—advancing My gospel. They will walk in My covenant promises and inherit new territories, never being stymied or stopped, for I will shake down that which would block them as they decree My promises. Arise, pursue, and recover all that's been stolen. For I have promised, and I will surely keep My Word," says the Lord of hosts. "In the midst of turmoil, shakings, and perilous times, My grace will abound. My Kingdom will increase and win great victories," says the Lord.

Tim Concludes

Heaven has now activated a massive force of angels to defend the glory and honor of King Yeshua. This is going to be a game changer.

1 Chronicles 28:20 (AMPC) says, "...Be strong and courageous, and do it. Fear not, be not dismayed, for the Lord God, my God, is with you. He will not fail or forsake you until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord."

(Photo via Flickr)

The Lord has issued His challenge for us to be bold and daring. King Yeshua is calling us to seek and follow His plans for a new supernatural era of signs, wonders, and miracles. Dare to move forward and contend for these plans. Be bold in your intercession and courageous in your efforts.

Closing Prayer from Dutch Sheets

Pray with me: Lord, we declare our faith that You and Your Word never fail us. We are stepping into greater measures of Your glory and power. Signs, wonders, and miracles will increase. We ask for an infusion of understanding and wisdom to be revealed to us. We pray for the angels seen in this vision to be sent to the Ekklesia across this land, angels that will assist us in defending the honor of our King and advancing His Kingdom. We ask for these angels to assist us in producing breakthrough, healing, awakening, and reformation.

We pray that Your wind would blow on Your Ekklesia around this nation and the world - revival winds that enable us to fight as strong, mighty warriors of Your Kingdom. We will stand in the authority of our King Yeshua, determined and confident. Grant us great boldness as we advance Your Kingdom.

And, Father, we continue to pray for President Trump and the leaders of our government. Draw them to You; fill them with Your Spirit. Order their ways and impart great wisdom. Increase their governing skills. Please protect them from harm. We bind every evil plan to injure them and ask that angels surround them always. We pray these things in Yeshua's name. Amen.

Our decree: We decree that the Ekklesia is moving into a new era in which we will dare to say what God says, defending His honor with great boldness.

Adar 28, 5785: Friday-March 28, 2025

Katie Dunstan: Abide and Thrive in 2025

The Lord has been speaking of many things to come in this year and beyond. As I drew near to hear what the Spirit of the Lord was saying for 2025, I heard the Lord say these words: "Abide and thrive." This is one message that has resounded over and over again in my spirit, "Abide and thrive in 2025!" I immediately felt the Lord draw near to me, drawing me into Himself (James 4:8). I felt an all-consuming and glorious oneness in spirit with Him that is available to us all (1 Corinthians 6:17)!

He is inviting you to deep dive into His Word and His ways, to discover the deeper dimensions of what it is to live from a place of divine union with Him, to explore the depths and height of who He is (and who you are in Him), and to be awakened to the revelation of how to abide and remain in divine union with Him.

The Divine Invitation and Master Key

In the spirit, I saw a golden key; it was a master key. On the shaft of the key was written the word "abide." The key to unlocking the greater realms of revelation in order to reign has the divine strategy etched in its name: Abide.

"Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in Me. I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing." (John 15:4–5)

The Passion Translation says it like this: "So you must remain in life-union with Me, for I remain in life-union with you. For as a branch severed from the vine will not bear fruit, so your life will be fruitless unless you live your life intimately joined to Mine" (John 15:4). (Photo via Pexels)

Abide means "to remain," "to stay," and "to dwell" (Strong's G3306). In John 15, Yeshua tells you to abide in Him. This means to remain in His word, remain in His love, and actively follow His commandments; to have a continuous, relational dependence on God. I like to think of it as to remain in communion, in fellowship with Him, in His presence, and to live in life-union.

Abiding reveals our posture and place in Him. Your posture should be lying prostrate in pure adoration, allowing His oil of revelation light to saturate every fiber of your being. You should prostrate yourself in prayer and intercession to hear His whisper and be a representation of the heartbeat of the Father in the spheres of influence He has entrusted to you. Your place is your proximity to Yeshua, intricately grafted into Him, remaining in His presence, and becoming awakened to the love phenomena that in Him you live and move and have your being.

The invitation is to be divinely joined and abide in intimate life-union with the Lord. The promise is abundant fruitfulness, a pathway to THRIVE. Thrive means "to grow vigorously: flourish," and "to gain in wealth or possessions: prosper" (Merriam-Webster).

Come Alive! You Are Revived to Thrive!

I heard the Lord say, "Come alive and thrive." There are many who have felt like it was all they could do to survive the last season, but I hear the Lord encouraging you to come up higher to access the lavish levels of the abundant life He has ordained for you before the foundations of the earth. It is here that He will transform your days of survival to revival!

He plans to revive you to thrive in the plans He has purposed for your future (Jeremiah 29:11). I can feel Him smiling on you, knowing full well that this future He has for you is so much more than you could ever think, ask, hope, or imagine (Ephesians 3:20). It is a promised land where you will come alive and thrive in the resurrection power of the ruach breath of God that breathes new life into your calling, your dreams, the promises of God, and the prophetic words over your life. The fresh wind of the Spirit blows, and in it I hear the Lord speaking over you: "Come alive and thrive, My revived Bride! You are revived to thrive!"

Deep Dive

"Deep dive into My Word; it's alive! It will hold your feet steadfast to the righteous path I have marked out for your life. Deep dive and discover the new life and fresh revelation ready to be revealed. Look with new eyes without compromise! Look for Me in every situation and every circumstance. Seek Me, and you will find Me in surprising and profound measure. I AM in the journey, and

I AM in the destination. I AM in the process of the product. Fear not, for I AM with you. I AM in you every step of the way. (Photo via Pexels)

"Deep dive into My Word and thrive. It's alive and active. It will sharpen your perception to discern between flesh and Spirit, and keep truth as the compass to navigate the pathway to purity and not fall prey to the deep darkness that covers the people and tries to influence and turn away those marked for the Kingdom of light in Christ. The Word of God is your plumb line to equip and empower you to co-rule and reign with Christ, to take dominion as you partner with Him to advance the Kingdom of God in the earth in these days.

"It's time to turn away from the wicked and worldly ways. Do not be led astray. Turn to Me, run into Me; be led by My Spirit to navigate the righteous pathway. For this is the pathway to come alive in My Word. It's alive and it's active to sharpen your discernment of truth and lies. Turn from the turmoil; turn to Me. Enter into My presence and be present."

I sense this is a call to be intentional about taking the time to turn your affections to the One who is omnipresent. He is with you at every turn in your life.

As You Abide, You Thrive

Yeshua said He came to give you life and life abundantly (John 10:10). You are grafted into Him, and it is Yeshua who causes you to thrive. In 2025 and beyond, you are invited to cultivate covenant with Him, communing with Him more than ever.

As you set yourself apart to remain in His Word, in His presence, and in fellowship with Him, your life will be nourished by the sap of supping with Him in the chambers of consecration, and you can expect to see His Word and ways rooted deeply and established in and through you. You will be like a well-watered tree, laden with fruit that people will eat of, planted by the river of life, with Yeshua as the source—the life-giver Himself.

Draw from the life-giving vine (Yeshua), and watch Him branch out through your life to bring forth fruit and flourish you like the palm trees and cedars in the house of the Lord; to grow you vigorously in every grace, and in the knowledge of Christ; and to cause you to "thrive as you abide" in Him.

CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication, as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Faith Marie Baczko, Will Meier, Pat Frances, Bethany Hicks, Inspiration Ministries, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Wikipedia, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Rabbi Dov Ber Pinson, Sefer Yetzirah, Rabbi Menachem Posner, Orthodox Union, Jim Gregory, Barry Wunsch, Nate & Christy Johnston, Demontae Edmonds, Veronika West, Lana Vawser, James Nesbit, Bruce and Linda Dietler, Bible Gateway, John & Janet Rockwell, April Klassen-Brown, Deborah T. Iluyemi, Charlie Shamp, John Paul Jackson, Dr. Sandie Freed, Kathie Pelton, Ryan Johnson, Danielle Dixon, Nathan French, Angie Stolba, Mary Dorian, Katie Dunston, Wade & Frances Butler, Dutch Sheets, Tim Sheets, Bob & Remy Koch, Terry Friesen, Andrew Whalen.

A special thanks to John and Janet Rockwell and Bruce and Linda Dietler for their editing this publication, which could not have been published without their help.

Blessings, Wade K. Butler, D.P.H.(h.c.)

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year. Again, "Study to show yourself approved."