

Sivan 5785; May-June 2025

Sivan in Hebrew means – “Their Covering.”

Month of Sivan (May-June 2025)/Linked with the Tribe of Zebulun, which means “habitation”. This was the month of giving of the Torah (the Laws of life) and giving back to GOD through our sacrifices and offerings. It is the businessman’s or merchant’s month, and more importantly, the month of alignment with the Holy Spirit. It is a time to set our boundaries and align with our walk for the future (Exodus 20-26 and Acts 2). Therefore, we get “The Covering of Their Habitation.”

The fire of the Holy Spirit fell upon those who waited and became their “Covering.”

Chaplain Wade Butler

Every month has a significance far greater than we know. Going into Pentecost this year is the most important Pentecost in history since Christ.

Last year at Pentecost, the word was "Justice Angels have been released."
(From Sivan 5784:)

Unfortunately, the war hasn't lessened, but as Chuck Pierce prophesied, it has increased. I'm seeing it on every front. Personally, everyone is involved at home, work, in recreation, and much more so in the church. Our enemy knows how to attack us on every front.

Thankfully, the LORD has sent HIS TROOPS to assist us. Let me tell you of a recent encounter. Several of us were praying to come up higher and allow us to see what HE was saying, and we invited into HIS presence. A Psalm 91 angel (For He will give His angels [especial] charge over you to accompany, defend and preserve you in all your ways [of obedience and service]) escorted us on the Mountain of the LORD. He was enormous and carried in his right hand a flaming sword and in his left a scale which had the words Justice on one side and HIS LOVE on the other. As we followed the angel, we were led into an elaborate hall with a table looking like the knights of the round table where we were told to sit down. There was an additional circular table inside of it with a column rising beyond the ceiling in its center. The column contained the SPIRIT of the LORD, Father, Son and Holy Spirit appearing as if banners of color: gold, teal, and royal blue. We at first thought the column was spinning, when we were actually circling it counterclockwise as the inner table turned clockwise. It was like a wheel within a wheel. I asked the Spirit of the LORD what did this mean?

He replied, "I'M TURNING BACK THE CLOCK FOR MY CHILDREN TO RECOVER ALL THEY HAVE HAD STOLEN OR LOST. TIME STILL CONTINUES, BUT IT'S TIME TO RECOVER ALL!" The Great Reset has begun. Next, the voice of the trinity came from the column saying, "I AM SENDING MY ANGELS OF JUSTICE INTO THE EARTH, YEAH, THEY HAVE ALREADY BEEN SENT. THEY WILL WEIGH THE HEARTS OF MAN TO SEE WHO WILL RECEIVE THE LOVE OF MY SON. THOSE WHO RECEIVE HIM WILL HAVE THE SWORD CUT OFF THE BONDAGE OF SIN AND DEATH AND RECEIVE THE JUSTICE OF MERCY. THOSE WHO DO NOT RECEIVE HIM WILL RECEIVE THE SWORD OF THE WRATH RESERVED FOR THE ENEMIES OF THE LORD YOUR GOD AND THE JUSTICE RESERVED FOR THEM IN THE FIRES OF HELL."

Needless to say, we were all shaken up with this revelation and sat silently as the Angel addressed us as to their assignment which was already released. No nation, leader, or person would be exempt from the coming advance. All nations are being shaken.

The times and season we are in cause us to look at each new month of the Hebrew calendar differently from in the past. We are definitely crossing over into new territory, yet at the same time we can experience the fullness of the LORD'S foundations for the season we are entering.

This year Sivan 5785:

In an open vision on 5-21-2025, the Lord brought together intercessors from all over the world into the rotunda of Heaven. At first, we could not see anyone but the LORD. We were aware that we were not alone yet had no idea if it was angels or residents of Heaven watching. We were led by an angel to sit at a table before the LORD. There were five of us facing HIM, and HE sat across from us and presented each of us a document and a feathered quill pen in ink wells such as a calligrapher uses.

At first, we could not read what was written but recognized that it was script and as elegant and as important as the Declaration of Independence; we just knew it was significant. At that, I asked, "LORD what is this document?"

Immediately, we could read it, and HE responded, "This is a Title Deed to your hearts and of the earth." I said, "We have already given you our hearts, haven't we LORD?" He replied, "Yes, it represents the earth and the fulness thereof. MY blood redeemed the land, but the children of the world gave Lucifer a false deed of trust to much of the earth, and it cries out to be set free. With the signatures of MY sons and daughters, the transfer begins. The kingdoms of the world become the Kingdoms of the LORD. It is actually the 'Declaration of Dependance.'*"

We all signed at the same time, and Yeshua stacked the documents together and pressed HIS signet ring into the parchment, creating a seal that was with HIS blood. At that point, all of Heaven rejoiced, shofars blasted throughout the cosmos, and our eyes were enlightened to see that the great room was filled with intercessors from around the world. The angels gathered the signed and sealed documents and placed them in a book that went into the library of Heaven. I asked who all were there, and the angel said, "The great cloud of witnesses bear witness to the beginning of the Kingdom of GOD on earth. Those who sign over their hearts sign the Title Deed to the earth and the advancement of the Kingdom."

I instantly realized that we were in a soon to be future event. So, I asked, "When shall this take place?" The LORD said, "At Pentecost. This shall be the most important Pentecost since the upper room. Many shall surrender their hearts, and the earth shall begin to shake like never before. There will be signs in the heavens and earth, like when you pull unwanted weeds from your garden and shake the good soil back to the earth, so shall the shaking be. Evil will be exposed and cast into the fire for judgement, and the earth will begin to be healed. Get ready, for the harvest has begun!" The vision ended.

A Time of Richness has begun.

The month of Sivan is so rich in the Word in who and what it represents for the times we are in: the tribe of Zebulun, the "Businessperson's month," the month of alignment, the season of Mercy are all around us. As a nation and the world in general comes out of an international lockdown, the businessmen and women are challenged to resurrect from the ashes of destruction. Many will not make it back. As a businessman and minister, it has always grieved me when a business closes from personal failure or national oppression. It is also the season of "Pentecost" and the birth of the church.

We just left Issachar, (the Seers and those who understand the seasons) into Zebulun to reorganize and restart the world. We need the leading of the Holy Ghost more than ever. We must re-align to the direction and purposes of the LORD now! We need HIS covering and more importantly, HIS indwelling.

We are praying for our nation and the LAND. Please consider including these scriptures in your prayers, and make request out of each. Example: Father, You have said that you desire not the offerings of grain and lambs, but the sacrifice of obedience through Your Word. We offer up Your Word as we pray for our nation, our leadership and our people.

Each month represents a new opportunity to make a difference, in the kingdom of GOD, in our own lives, our families and those around us. We need to get back to work keeping in mind that our Father orchestrated this lockdown. The enemy planned to destroy the threat of We the People from obtaining our goals of Liberty and Justice for all in his attempt to dominate the world with the one world order taking over.

Our enemy, the devil, and his minions are continually on attack trying to wear us down through discouragement, sickness, financial burdens and more. What makes a difference is our relationship with the Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

We are GOD'S warriors who stand between the enemy and our promises. We all have been calling out those promises as we wait on GOD to do the miracles on our behalf. The truth of it all is, HE ALREADY DID. Every day we battle for hope, direction, and relief. Father has given us a President who refuses to allow the attacks on him and his family to stop what GOD has for him to do. It appears to strengthen his resolve. It should be the same for us. During this time and season, the Hebrew people counted the days as they waited for the manifestation of GOD's promises. It started in the upper room, where Holy Spirit filled the disciples, and manifested on Simon's portico, the porch where 3,000 were added. The Harvest is ripe; the vine dresser is doing HIS work, and it's time for the harvesters to go into the fields. Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I. Send me!" Are we ready?

We have added teachings, prophetic insight, personal experiences, testimonies, and visions of the third Heaven to our mix from our readers as the LORD directs me. I guarantee, you will be blessed. The calendar study guide is packed full of prophesy, sermons, art, and background material that most people will never take the time to research on their own nor have the resources of input to obtain as much of the truth as can be found. Often, it goes against the grain of conventional churches and denominations, because we follow the Hebrew calendar and the prophetic. God never changed HIS timing, we did. I would rather follow HIM and know what I was adopted into. Sometimes, authors are used multiple times because they are in what we call the "zone" of the Holy Spirit. In other words, they are hearing from the LORD!

We encourage each person to set the goal of reading the Bible all the way through this year and every year. Each time you read it, new revelation will emerge and change your life.

We do not take donations or contributions other than an occasional donation to cover postage to those who need a hard copy. Keep it on your computer and read it daily.

Be Blessed,

The Biblical Month of "SIVAN"

The Amplified, King James, New American Standard and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh) through the revelation of His Word.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophecy? The answer is to ask the LORD, how did this relate in the Bible for then, and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me pray, Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide, prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. (See last page.) Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heidler and many other contributing authors which are included.* 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

It's been eight years since we started publishing the Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle, so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1, the very first words GOD speaks are "In the beginning," and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon." From that point on, the nation of GOD was to look at the Moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days; the last (the 7th) 1,000 days would be the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle is only 29.5 days, or 354 days per year, whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added to the Hebrew calendar every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous year's is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon." The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan, when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast, and season.

As we begin the month of Sivan, keep in mind that man changed the calendar, GOD didn't.

The church today misses a very important part of their history and understanding. There was never really a new church started. They worshipped and practiced the Hebrew form of worship. The difference was Christ completed the requirements of the Law and made us "New Men in Him." If you think about it, we are literally Hebrew, as we were adopted or grafted into the Kingdom. (Galatians 3:13-14)

With that in mind, by honoring the feasts or HIS Calendar, we will not miss out on what God is doing. When we celebrate the feasts, we honor our Lord Yeshua the Christ, and we may learn more about our roots.

This year, the Biblical Month of Sivan* extends from sundown on June 7th through sundown on July 5th.

Fast Facts

Tradition teaches that it was on Rosh Hodesh Sivan that the Israelites "camped at the foot of Sinal" in preparation to receive the Torah (Exodus 19:6). The verb used for "camped" in Exodus 19:6 is in the singular. It is taught that at the moment the Israelites determined to receive the Torah, they were united in heart and mind like a single person. Sivan's symbol of the twins—two distinct human beings sharing one womb—can represent the harmony that comes when people celebrate their differences while coming together to work for a common, higher goal, such as receiving and following the Torah.

Shavuot Customs

Studying the WORD, the Torah all night long! It is a tradition (coming from the sixteenth-century mystics) to stay up the entire (first) night of Shavuot studying Torah. Known as Tikkun Leil Shavuot, this all-night study session is an opportunity to recommit ourselves to the study of Torah. Tradition teaches that the skies open up during this night for a brief moment, and God favorably answers all prayers. The kabbalists also think of Shavuot as the moment when God and Israel wed; the Torah is the ketubah (marriage contract) or written affirmation of the covenant between them.

Does God really desire sacrifices? Part 3:

A Hebrew Perspective

Hosea derides ritualism for distancing people from God's desire

By Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch); edited by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)

Sivan 5785; May 2025

Hosea prophesied in the Northern Kingdom (Israel/Ephraim c. 750–725 BCE) during a period of political instability and religious syncretism (Hos 4:1–2, 9:1). This was a time of pervasive idolatry, moral decay, and reliance on ritual over relationship with God. Amidst such perversion, Israel's sacrifices had become meaningless.

The prophet lamented, "Your goodness (hesed) is as a morning cloud," demonstrating Israel's devotion to God and covenant fidelity was fleeting, and Hosea 4:1 noted the absence of "knowledge of God (da'at Elohim) in the land." Sacrifices without these qualities were merely obligatory rituals lacking a heart aligned with YHVH.

Amongst Hosea's litany of offenses against the Northern Kingdom were calf worship practiced at Bethel and Gilgal (vv. 4:15, 8:5, 12:11); sacrifices on high places; cultic "sacred" prostitution à la the Canaanites; wooden household idols; corrupt priestly leadership; and general moral decay in "the spirit of whoredom" (vv. 4:12–14, 19). Since pagans worshiped many gods in their pantheons, Canaanite Ba'al (meaning "Lord") worship was ubiquitous, often practiced along-side YHVH. In Hosea 9:1, 7–10, more apostasies are cited including: false prophets/priests (and references to Ba'al-Peor's sexual immorality); polluted altars for insincere sacrifices, offered without a genuine contrite heart, that were displeasing to Him (8:11–14; 9:4) and; infidelity to YHVH, rendering their sacrifices insufficient to avert judgment (vv. 6:4-5). Thus, their sacrifices were judged useless (i.e., they failed to provide reconciliation) and were rejected by YHVH for lack of hesed (mercy, steadfast love; vv. 6:6, 8:11–14; 9:4).

Hos 4:19 The wind hath wrapped her up in its wings; and they shall be put to shame because of their sacrifices.

Hos 5:4 They do not direct their deeds toward turning to their God for the spirit of harlotry is in their midst, And they do not know YHVH. ^{5a-}

^bThe pride of Israel testifies to His face; Therefore Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity;

Judah's sins did not escape YHVH's criticism either: Hosea condemned Judah's stumbling in iniquity (v. 5:5); their leaders' injustice (v. 5:10) and fleeting loyalty to YHVH (v. 6:4). They were threatened with being overcome with "rottenness," resembling that which is left over from a moth as a divine judgment; YHVH is compared to a lion that carries people away to destruction (vv. 5:12-14). They were condemned for their reliance on fortified cities instead of God's divine protection (v. 8:13-14) and told God had a charge against them that would bring punishment in alignment with their disobedient ways (v. 4:1). These verses highlight Judah's covenant unfaithfulness, often paralleling their northern neighbor Israel's sins (although less severe) and warn of YHVH's divine judgment upon them as well, if they persisted. The result for both Israel (Ephraim) and Judah would be YHVH's withdrawal.

Hos 4:15 Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, 'As YHVH liveth.'

Hos 5:5c Judah stumbles with them. ⁶With their flocks and herds they shall go to seek YHVH, but they will not find Him; He has withdrawn Himself from them.

These passages, particularly as applied to the Northern Kingdom, focused on how idolatry and Ba'al worship, prostitution, fornication, and other abominations were enabled by debased leadership. Their actions distanced Israel (and to a lesser extent, Judah) from God's true desires highlighted by Hosea's criticism of mere ritualism, e.g. superficial sacrifices are not efficacious (v. 5:6), and reinforce YHVH's preference for knowledge of God (da'at Elohim) and bloodless expiation.

Hos 6:6 For I desire goodness, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

This verse aligns with Hosea's broader critique of both kingdoms' failure to embody God's true requirements, reinforcing the anti-sacrificial theme and stressing the call for righteousness, morality, and justice. The Hebrew word hafetz (desire; delight) is again prominent—as in Psalm 51:18-19 TNK (vv. 16-17 Chr.) — but now coupled with hesed, translated "goodness," which is closely associated with "steadfast love" and "mercy." The first clause presented the same unequivocal position that David expressed regarding YHVH's attitude towards sacrifices.¹

Ps 51:18 For thou delightest not in sacrifice; ... thou hast no pleasure in burnt offering. ¹⁹The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart...

Hosea added "goodness" (hesed) and "knowledge" of God (da'at Elohim) to David's "broken spirit" and "contrite heart" expanding the general principles of what YHVH does desire to affect - a close and rewarding relationship with Him. Moreover, Hosea unambiguously ranked "the knowledge of God" above "burnt-offerings" (olot).

Hos 14:3 TNK (14:2 Chr) Take with you words, and return unto YHVH: Say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and accept that which is good (tov); so will we will pay [with] the fruit of our lips²

In this significant verse, Hosea's instructions were to "take words" (not "young bulls"), "return unto YHVH," and ask Him to cleanse of "all iniquity" while accepting "that which is good" (tov; beneficial, agreeable, better, favored, etc.). The final section refers to expiation through the sincere offering of "words" of contrition, repentance and praise—identified as the "fruit of our lips" which he classified as "tov" (good). In Hebrew, "repentance" is termed t'shuvah, meaning "to return unto YHVH," precisely as Hosea directed.

This personal approach contrasts with ritualism, which often required priests and altars as mediators, distancing the people from God and elevating a formal, intercessory priesthood. Hosea essentially gave them his version of David's roadmap to expiation (Ps 51:1–19 TNK; 1–17 Christian) to remind the people that God loved them, desiring them to make t'shuvah (i.e., repent) and be blessed.

For example, scholarly consensus, as exemplified by Professor Hans Walter Wolff, views this as a prophetic call to bypass human-invented ceremonials for a more intimate relationship. His comment on Hosea 14:3 TNK (v. 2 Christian) is instructive (all references are to TNK verse numbers):

"What must Israel bring with her when she returns? For a long time, Yahweh had withdrawn himself from the pilgrimages and their animal sacrifice (5:6). The only appropriate offerings are "words" which renounce every proffered accomplishment and all help from a foreign nation, as well as every attempt at self-help. Although v 3ba (2nd clause) is not unambiguous, the phrase לֶךְ אֲשַׁרְתָּ (take away iniquity), with Yahweh as its subject, is textually certain. It vividly expressed the expectation that Yahweh "carries (off)" and thus removes their sins, so that they no longer harm guilty Israel. With their prayer, the worshippers offer the "fruit of their lips," namely, the following promise of renunciation (v 4). If צְדָוָה (tov; goodness, etc.) does not also mean "word" (it doesn't) then it paraphrases the "fruit of the lips" as proverbial goodness (Prov 13:2; 12:14). But that is the renunciation of everything except Yahweh himself and his deeds."³ Emphasis mine

Jewish and Christian/MJC apologists heatedly debate the translation of the last phrase. I view the first part, "Take with you words and return to YHVH" (repent) and say to Him, "Take away all iniquity," as the theological foundation. Any translation must support that foundation; it is the "words" from one's "lips" and the act of "returning to YHVH", which is "that which is tov" and which God will "accept" to "take away all iniquity." Any other "spin" cannot be accepted. This is in line with David's words and actions 300 years earlier in Psalm 51:11, 18-19 (9, 16-17 Chr) and Micah's description of what is "good" in the eyes of YHVH.

Mic 6:8 He hath showed thee, O man, what is good (tov); and what doth YHVH require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy (hesed), and to walk humbly with thy God?

In Hosea's day, the blood sacrifices had become the primary focus. People had descended to such a low spiritual state they had become convinced the ritual itself was the "magic bullet" to erase their transgressions and be reconciled to God—paralleling pagan "appeasement" sacrifices to wrathful gods.

Steinsaltz's comments on Hosea 6:6 put it simply and well:

Judah and Israel were convinced that if they would only bring enough offerings, they would receive atonement for all their sins, and all their flaws would be wholly remedied.⁴

This reminds of God's words through the psalmist's pen:

Ps 50:9 "I will take no bullock out of thy house, Nor he-goats out of thy folds. ¹⁰For every beast of the forest is mine, And the cattle upon a thousand hills. ... ¹²If I were hungry, I would not tell thee; ... ¹³Will I eat the flesh of bulls, Or drink the blood of goats? ¹⁴Offer unto God the sacrifice of thanksgiving; And pay thy vows unto the Most High

What does chief MJC apologist assert about Hosea's intent?

Michael Brown's Messianic Jewish Christian (MJC) explanation of God's intention at Hosea 6:6 is worth reviewing. He takes what one might term a "liberal" approach to God's words in context and concludes God is presenting us with an "either-or" proposition.

It's also important to note that the prophets often used either-or language to drill home their point. That's why Hosea could say on behalf of the Lord, "For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgment of God rather than burnt offerings" (Hosea 6:6), when in reality the Lord wanted both mercy and sacrifice, acknowledgment of Him and burnt offerings.⁵ (Emphasis mine)

My questions to Brown are: Where in this verse or in the context of the chapter did God say He desires "either" mercy "or" sacrifice and "either" acknowledgement "or" burnt offerings? He also claims that "in reality," God wanted both mercy and sacrifice. Which reality would that be—it's certainly not in these verses? How do these two unequivocal statements of preference express that reality?

Let's take the Bible and biblical "doctrine" out of the equation and restate God's "desires" using only letters: "I desire A, not B, and C rather than D." What are the objects of YHVH's desire in this phrase? Obviously, it is "A" and "C." The undesirable objects are "B" and "D." Where is the "either/or" here?

Dr. Brown's claim this is "either-or language" is incorrect. It cannot be "either-or language" because God made two unequivocal statements; He did not give the reader any "choice" in the matter: First, a literal negation of His desire for sacrifices replacing that with a desire for hesed (goodness, mercy, steadfast love) is unambiguous, and Second, His desire for da'at Elohim (knowledge of God; not "acknowledgement") is ranked above that of burnt offerings with the superior "rather than."

Conclusion

Hosea condemned the quality, efficacy, and superficiality of Israel's sacrifices in Hosea vv. 4:19 and 13:2 (subverted by idolatry, shameful), v. 5:6 (ineffective, God withdraws, cannot reconcile), v. 6:6 (rejected for lack of hesed), vv. 8:11–13 (corrupted into sin, unaccepted), and vv. 9:4 and 13:3 (polluted, unable to avert judgment). He portrayed them as corrupt and contaminated by idolatry and hypocrisy, failing to meet God's true desire for a covenant relationship and true knowledge of Him (Hos 13:2).

He supported the anti-sacrificial theme where sacrifices become mechanical rites when offered without righteousness or devotion, condemning ritualism and supporting the veracity of bloodless expiation for sin. The prophet pointed to a theological “turning back” to God’s original preference for internal devotion, aligning with Psalm 51:18-19 TNK (16-17 Christian). This supports the assertion by prophets, psalmists, and the Nazarenes / Ebionites that sacrifices were merely provisional; they would ultimately be rejected and eliminated one way or the other.

The Ebionites’ rejection of sacrifices, as seen in the Gospel of the Ebionites and Ascents of James, directly aligns with the Tanakh’s prophetic critique (Hosea 6:6, Jeremiah 7:22–23, Micah 6:6–8, etc.). Their emphasis on John’s bloodless baptism as a means of forgiveness reflects a practical application of this theology, seeing repentance as sufficient for atonement, as in Psalm 51:18-19 TNK (16-17 Christian). The destruction of the 2nd Temple in 70 CE put an end to sacrifice and undoubtedly reinforced that claim (Amos 5:21–24, Micah 6:6–8).

Hosea’s negation of sacrifice as something God did “not desire” in v. 6:6 was unequivocal and lacked qualifiers concerning the offeror’s attitude. Although the sacrificial system was thoroughly corrupted at that period, Hosea’s statement transcended his own time, pointing to a deeper timeless theological truth: God desires “goodness” (hesed; mercy, steadfast love) rooted in the “knowledge of Elohim” (da'at Elohim). A blood sacrificial offering would never bring atonement without being rooted in those prerequisites.

Thus, in Hosea’s time, Temple sacrifices had degenerated to being only a mechanical ritual, especially for the ten tribes of Northern Israel. Instead of bringing the people closer to YHVH, they distanced people from God’s true desires. Hosea’s book reflects a fundamental prophetic theology that envisions a relationship with God unmediated by ritual, emphasizing internal virtues over external ceremonial acts. The focus is on the individual’s internalization and activation of the Master Covenant—the Ten Words (Commandments), embodying righteousness and justice as exemplified by Abraham, David and Yeshua.

Mark 10:17 And as he was going forth into the way, there ran one to him, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? ¹⁸And Yeshua said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, God. ¹⁹Thou knowest the (ten) commandments, Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal,

Do not bear false witness...

Next month: Part 4a: David proved God desires inner transformation more than blood

1. Perhaps this is why Yeshua quotes Hosea 6:6 twice. ^{Matt 9:13}But go ye and learn what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. ^{Matt 12:7} But if ye had known what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.
2. The Pulpit Commentary does a credible job of identifying the traditional translation of 6:6 and the more likely correct one: "This is more accurately rendered, (1) 'So will we render young bullocks, even our lips.' The word shillem, to render, or repay, is almost technical in its application to thank offerings or sacrifices in fulfillment of a vow; the best animals for thank offerings were parm, or young oxen; but the lips, that is, the utterances of the lips, consisting of prayers or praises, or both, are to take the place of the animal sacrifices offered in thanksgiving. Thus the psalmist says, 'I will praise the Name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. This also shall please the Lord better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.'
"(2) The Septuagint, reading פָּרִי instead of פְּרִי, renders by καρπὸν χειλέων, to which the inspired author of Hebrews alludes, 'By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks [margin, 'confessing'] to his Name;' or perhaps the reference in Hebrews is to Isaiah 57:19, 'I create the fruit of the lips.' Further, as words of confession in ver. 2 take the place of sacrifices of sin offerings, so here words of thanksgiving replace sacrifices of thanksgiving. Hosea 14:2 [Christian bibles]" (Emphasis mine) Link: biblehub.com

Shavuot* is known as the Feast of Weeks in English and as Pentecost in Ancient Greek. Each year the dates will vary according to the Hebrew or Gregorian Calendars. In 5784 they were on the same date, so Easter and Passover fell on the same date. This year 5785-2025 Passover was eight days prior to easter which is in error. Therefore, Pentecost falls on June 1, 2025 at 6pm and ends on June 3, 2025 at 6pm or sunset. Remember the days are the evening to evening not morning to morning. The Gregorian Calendar eliminated the Hebrew feast which Jehovah honors on the Hebrew timeline not the Greek.

It is a Jewish or Hebrew holiday that occurs on the sixth day of the Hebrew month of Sivan.

Shavuot has a double significance. It marks the all-important wheat harvest in Israel (Exodus 34:22), and it commemorates the anniversary of the day when God gave the Torah (the law) to the nation of Israel assembled at Mount Sinai. Pentecost is a Thanksgiving Celebration, praising GOD for HIS covenant, HIS law, HIS blessings, and HIS provision.

Tribe: Zebulun

The tribe of Zebulun shared a special bond with the tribe of Issachar. Zebulun and Issachar were born one after another to their mother, Leah. In the Land of Israel, they inherited lands that were adjacent, and temporally, they correspond to the two months Iyar and Sivan that follow one another. But the heart of their bond was in their agreement to support one another. Issachar was a tribe of scholars who excelled in Torah study. Zebulun was a tribe of successful merchants and seafarers. They agreed to split their material and spiritual wealth equally.

As such, we might expect that Issachar would correspond to the month of Sivan, in which the Torah was given and Zebulun to the month of Iyar. But one of the analytic principles of Kabbalah is that the cause is inherently higher than the effect which it causes. Since, at the basic level, Zebulun's willingness to split their material wealth allowed Issachar to devote themselves to the Torah; it is Zebulun that corresponds to Sivan and the giving of the Torah. Zebulun's material sacrifices are what sustain the Torah and therefore, in the end the Torah is in their merit.

Indeed, the Arizal explains that the origin of the soul of Zebulun is in the sefirah of crown, above the sefirah of wisdom, which is the origin of Issachar's soul.

This fact further ties the tribe of Zebulun with the month of Sivan. In spite of their bond with their brethren in Issachar, the Jews of the tribe of Zebulun had to study Torah for themselves too. Since their soul-root is in crown, the Torah that they were particularly connected to is also at the level of crown. This is especially relevant to the giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai, because the particular level revealed then, the Ten Commandments, is related to the sefirah of crown. As noted, the gematria of crown is 620, the number of letters in the Ten Commandments.

The Month of Sivan

The month of Sivan is the third month on the Biblical calendar, counting from Nisan. The Bible refers to Sivan as "the third month" (Exodus 19:1-2). However, sometime after Israel's captivity in Babylon, the name was changed. The word Sivan roughly means "season" or "time."

About Shavuot

The Jewish holiday of Shavuot is celebrated on the sixth of Sivan. Shavuot means "weeks" in Hebrew because it took seven weeks for the Israelites to travel from Egypt to Mount Sinai.

Shavuot was originally a harvest holiday called "the Feast of Harvest" (Exodus 23:16) and "the Feast of Weeks" (Exodus 34:22-23). In addition, this feast was one of the three pilgrim festivals (Deuteronomy 16:16). Jewish men were expected to bring the first harvest of their crop to the Temple, in Jerusalem. The Feast of Harvest (Weeks) celebrated the first fruits of the wheat harvest. Moreover, it was a joyous festival and an offering of thanksgiving to God for His provision.

However, after the destruction of the Temple (70 A.D.), the Jews could no longer bring the first fruits of their harvest as offerings. So, the rabbis decided that the focus of Shavuot would be God's giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai.

Today, the Jewish community celebrate Shavuot by attending synagogue services and reaffirming their commitment to obeying God's Law. In addition, some stay up the entire night studying and learning the Torah.

God's Covenant with Israel

On the first day of the month of Sivan, after the Exodus, the Israelites entered the desert of Sinai. Moreover, they made camp there in front of Mount Sinai (Exodus 19:1-2). A few days later, God commanded Moses to prepare the people for His appearance (vv. 10-11).

On the sixth day of Sivan and after the preparation period, God descended upon Mount Sinai. This was the 50th day after the exodus, according to Jewish tradition. He spoke directly to the Israelite nation and made a covenant with them. In addition, God gave Israel the Torah (His teachings and laws) to guide them (Exodus 20). The Israelites agreed to the terms of God's covenant and promised to obey His laws. As a result, they became a "kingdom of priests and a holy nation," (Exodus 19:6).

The Month of Sivan and the Feast of Pentecost

While the Jewish community celebrate Shavuot, the Christian community celebrate Pentecost. The word Pentecost is a Greek word meaning, "50." This special day is celebrated 50 days after Easter Sunday. In addition, Pentecost commemorates the giving and receiving of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church in the New Testament (Acts 2).

Yeshua directed His disciples to remain in Jerusalem until the Holy Spirit came (Acts 1:3-4). At the same time, Jews from various countries were arriving to celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. It is interesting to note that in the New Testament, the Greek-speaking Jews referred to the Feast of Weeks (Harvest) as the "Feast of Pentecost." Acts 2 tells the account of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the 120 disciples and other Jewish believers (Acts 2:1-31). The Holy Spirit convicted the crowd, through their teaching, and a harvest of souls (some 3,000) were gathered and added to the church that day (Acts 2:41).

God's New Covenant and the Holy Spirit

God promised the Jewish people a new covenant after they broke the one He gave them through Moses. However, entering into the New Covenant is only made possible by faith in Yeshua Christ, who shed His blood to take away the sins of the world. In addition, God sent the Holy Spirit to guide them. The New Covenant is written on the hearts and minds of all those who believe in Yeshua Christ, so that we may follow His commandments (Jeremiah 31:31-34; Ezekiel 36:28-30; Hebrews 10:16^L). God's Commandments, written on two stones, give us our boundaries. The Holy Spirit, who reveals God's truths through His Word, empowers us to stay within those boundaries.

God's Divine Calendar

God Himself established a biblical calendar when He commanded Moses to mark the month of Israel's freedom from slavery in Egypt as the beginning of a new year. And God set the observance of Passover as the time for Israel's release (Exodus 12:12-14). The Lord said in Exodus 12:2, "This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you." As time went by, the Israelites eventually realized that God wanted them to perpetually observe certain religious events and acts of God in history. So, over a period of time, they created calendars to mark the months in which these events occurred.

God's blessings which were originally meant for Israel can be ours today, through Yeshua Christ. When we study the biblical months, we see that the divine blessings of the holidays and observances point to some aspect of Yeshua Christ. God, in His infinite wisdom, has divinely designed these times to glorify His Son, and we can appropriate the spiritual blessings available to us through Yeshua Christ.

The Month of Sivan According to the Book of Formation (Sefer Yetzirah)

According to Sefer Yetzirah, to each month of the Jewish calendar there corresponds a letter of the Hebrew alphabet, a zodiac sign, one of the twelve tribes of Israel, a sense, and a controlling limb of the body.

The Third Month

Sivan is the third of the twelve months of the Jewish calendar. It is the month in which God descended on Mt. Sinai and gave the Torah to the Jewish people. As noted elsewhere, there are only three months that are referred to ordinally in the Torah in conjunction with the exodus from Egypt: Nisan, Iyar, and Sivan,

In the third month of the exodus from Egypt, they came to the Sinai desert.

A recurring theme is that the giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai is intrinsically linked with the number 3. For instance, the sage's state, Blessed is the Merciful one who gave a threefold Torah⁴ to a threefold people, by the third,⁶ on the third day, in the third month.

In this quote, God is referred to as the "Merciful one." God's attribute of mercy is itself related to the number 3, for it is the third of the seven emotive attributes of the soul (corresponding in Kabbalah to Jacob, the third of the three patriarchs, "the pillar of the Torah").

When was the first Pentecost?

Pentecost ("the fiftieth day") is a Christian holiday commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles on the fiftieth day after the resurrection of Yeshua Christ. The Apostles began to speak in many languages and have received other spiritual gifts. The event was foretold by Yeshua before his Ascension. It is reported by most scholars as 32 A.D. What does A.D. mean? A.D. stands for the Latin phrase "Anno Domini" meaning "in the year of our Lord (Yeshua Christ)."

In Christian tradition, Pentecost is a moveable feast observed exactly seven weeks after Easter Day, i.e. 50 days after Easter (inclusive, 49 + Easter). It always falls on the seventh Sunday after Easter Day. In Eastern churches the date of Pentecost is calculated in the same manner, but it usually differs due to the use of the Julian calendar instead of the Gregorian. Pentecost is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic Church.

Pentecost this year is the evening of Monday June 1 through the evening of Tuesday June 3, 2025

Pentecost is also called Whitsunday, is celebrated on Sunday that falls on the 50th day of Easter. The name is derived from the Greek word "pentekoste" which means fiftieth as Pentecost Sunday takes place on the 50th day of Easter.

Pentecost Significance

It is a big festival in the Christian church that observes the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles and other disciples following the Crucifixion, Resurrection, and Ascension of Yeshua Christ. It also marks the beginning of the Christian church's mission to the world, according to the Britannica.

The festival marks an end to the Easter cycle, which starts 90 days before with Ash Wednesday at the beginning of Lent.

When is Pentecost 2025?

Pentecost is observed on the seventh Sunday after Passover and 10 days after Ascension. As the Sunday is decided according to the date of Passover, this day is a changeable feast.

This year Pentecost Sunday is observed on Sunday, June 1st. At the same time, on the Hebrew calendar in a leap year it will vary due to Passover. This year the Hebrew celebration is June 2-3rd.

Why is it called Pentecost Sunday?

Whits-Sunday celebrates the Holy Spirit coming in the form of flames to the Apostles and other followers of Yeshua Christ, as recorded in the New Testament in Acts 2:1-31, the fifth book of the New Testament of the Bible. Many Christians recognize the descent of the Holy Spirit as the birth of the Church.

Pentecost is known by Whit-Sunday in the United Kingdom. "Whitsunday" is usually referred to as the white garments previously worn by the baptism candidates on this feast.

Shavuot – Feast of Weeks – Pentecost 2025 The 4th Feast of the Lord" Begins sundown on June 1st until sundown June 3rd.

Perhaps one of the most fascinating biblical studies is the historic and prophetic significance of the special Feast days of the Lord. The seven "Feasts of the Lord" are arranged in Leviticus 23 in two groups. The first four came at the beginning of the Biblical Jewish Year, while the last three came toward the end of the year. That seems it is God's method in revealing future things (compare Luke 1: 31-33). Between these two groups there was a period of several months when there were no feasts or holy convocations.

The feasts of Passover and Un-leavened Bread - point to Christ's death and burial; Firstfruits to His resurrection; and Pentecost (fifty days later) to His Church. Then there is a space of time representing the long period in which Israel is out of the Land of Promise and out of and the place of blessing, which coincides with the Church Age.

Shavuot is a happy Festival and falls on Sivan 6 and 7 (corresponds to May or early June) in the Jewish calendar. This festival day is also known as the Feast of Weeks, (Exodus 34:22), as Shavuot means "weeks."

Shavuot was believed by rabbinic scholars to be the day that God gave Moses the Torah or law on Mount Sinai after their exodus from Egypt. On that day God Himself came down in a cloud on Mount Sinai in fire and smoke and a blast of God's trumpet, to establish His covenant with His people. Shavuot is therefore commemorated as the biblical birth date of the nation of Israel.

According to tradition, on the day of the "Giving" of the Torah (it is not mentioned the "receiving") the Israelites did not have any meat prepared according to the rules of ritual slaughtering. Nor could they slaughter another animal on the day, as it was Sabbath, the day when slaughtering was forbidden. So, the people were forced to eat simple dairy products for the rest of the day. During the Shavuot festival, the Jews follow this tradition by eating dairy products.

It is believed that Mt. Sinai suddenly bloomed with greenery and flowers in happiness of the giving of the Torah. To commemorate this event, the Jews decorate their homes and synagogues with flowers and branches. It is also customary at Shavuot to decorate the synagogue with greenery, flowers, and fruit. There are two explanations for doing this at Shavuot:

- It symbolizes the harvest aspect of Shavuot and keeps with the biblical theme of the feast.
- There is also a rabbinical tradition that even though Mount Sinai was situated in the desert, in honor of the giving of Torah, the desert bloomed and sprouted flowers.

It is also known as the Feast of Pentecost, because it falls fifty days after first fruits, and the word Pentecost means "fifty" or "fifty days." God specifically told the Israelites that they were to count seven Sabbaths (seven complete weeks), from Firstfruits (Leviticus 23:15; Deuteronomy 16:9), which adds up to 49 days.

God had ordained for Israel a sacred calendar of three major festivals to be observed as "A statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings."

(Leviticus 23:14, 21, 41; Deuteronomy 16:16, 17.)

Important: The Three MAJOR Feasts are:

1. "Passover, the Feast of Unleavened Bread."

2. "Shavuot / Feast of Weeks" – which is also called "Pentecost," a Greek translation of the Hebrew words meaning, the "fiftieth day" when the Festival was celebrated. (Leviticus 23:15, 16)

3. "The Feast of Tabernacles."

Passover marked the first spring harvest. The first fruits of a sheaf, or "omer," of barley was required by the Torah to be presented before the LORD in the House of God, as a thanksgiving "wave offering." From the next day, seven weeks or forty-nine days were counted to wheat harvest. (Leviticus 23:10, 11)

Then on the day after the seventh Sabbath which was the fiftieth day, they were to bring to the temple "two loaves of bread," specifically commanded to be made with fine flour and baked with leaven (Leviticus 23:17). These two loaves of bread were to be used as a "wave offering" for the people.

What was significant about the two leaven loaves? Part of the wheat offering was baked into two loaves of leavened bread - a striking contrast to the matzo a few weeks before! The two leavened loaves became symbolic of sinful mankind - both Jew and Gentile - as the Holy Scriptures state. (Psalm 14:2-3; Romans 3:9-10, 23)

Why should Christians observe the Feast of Shavuot or Pentecost? Because of a major event in Jewish history which became a universal blessing for all mankind that took place in the Jerusalem Temple during that harvest festival of Shavuot also called Pentecost.

It was on the first day of the week, Sunday, in the Roman Julian calendar, May 24th, in the year A.D. 30. This was also the year 3,790 in the Hebrew calendar. Christian scholars mark that historic Pentecost in Jerusalem as the "spiritual birthday of the church." (A.R. Fausset's Bible Dictionary, p. 557)

On the "fiftieth day" ~ "Pentecost" or "Shavuot" - another harvest thanksgiving service was observed in the House of God. This time, from the first fruit of wheat harvest, "two loaves of bread baked with leaven were waved before the LORD," in the act of thanksgiving. (Leviticus 23:16-17)

These three festivals marked Israel's history in the process of their redemption. These festivals were also prophetic and typological of the greater redemption which would come through the Messiah.

Pentecost - The Feast of Fulfilment When the day of Pentecost (meaning, Shavuot) came, one hundred and twenty disciples (Acts 1:15) were all together in one place. Suddenly, a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues (or as the NIV interprets, "languages"), as the Spirit enabled them." (Acts 2:1-4 NIV)

Luke further describes the many lands from which the pilgrims came up to the House of God, the Temple, in Jerusalem. They were "Jews and (Gentile) converts to Judaism." (Acts 2:8 - 11)

As recorded by Cornelius Tacitus, the Roman historian, The Holy City with a population of about six hundred thousand at that time, exploded with between two and three million, because of the pilgrims. The pilgrims slept on the flat roofs of the houses, camped outside the walls of Jerusalem, were given hospitality by relatives and friends, all within a "Sabbath-day's journey" to reach the House of God. Their presence in the Holy City on the three major festivals was in obedience to the Torah, as God commanded Moses: "Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which He shall choose . . ." (Deuteronomy 16:16)

This feast of Shavuot was also a prophecy of the day of Pentecost (Pentecost means fifty) and the coming of the New Covenant. The disciples were commanded to tarry at Jerusalem "for the promise of the Father" (Acts 1:4), which they did. However, they did not have long to wait.

The coming of the Holy Spirit occurred on the next Jewish holiday, when Jews from different countries came to be in Jerusalem to celebrate the completion of the harvest season. This annual feast was none other than Shavuot or the Feast of Weeks, and once more God descended on those first-century believers with a mighty rushing wind, tongues of fire, and other demonstrations of the Holy Spirit, once more establishing a covenant with His people.

Shavuot points to Christ, the head of the church that came into existence on the Day of Pentecost. The Holy Spirit united the believers in the body and, since then, all true believers in Yeshua, Jewish or Gentile, are not only indwelt by the Holy Spirit but are baptized into the same body.

There are many reasons why the Jewish people read the Book of Ruth on the holiday of Shavuot, some of which are listed below:

1. The Torah (5 Books of Moses: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy) was given to the Jewish People on this day, the sixth day of Sivan, and they believe that just as Torah learning is acquired through pain and poverty, so did Ruth endure poverty and sorrow as she accepted Naomi's God; the God of Israel.
2. Just as Ruth was accepted by the God of Israel, so too, the nation of Israel entered into a covenant with God on this day when they eagerly accepted the Torah.
3. King David was born and seventy years later, died on the holiday of Shavuot. David, the head of the Judean Kingdom, was Ruth's great grandchild (genealogy of Yeshua our Lord). Ruth is often referred to as "Em Hamalchut," the Mother of the Kingdom.
4. The central theme of the book of Ruth is "Chesed" (Mercy). The book shows the loving kindness that Ruth bestowed on her mother-in-law Naomi, and by the people of Bethlehem (remember, this is also where the Lord Yeshua was born) at that time, towards the poor, as well as Boaz's thoughtfulness towards Ruth.
5. Shavuot is also called Chag Hakatzir or The Harvest Festival. The Book of Ruth paints a picture of the harvest time in Israel and to treat the poor with loving kindness, especially during this harvest.

One of the great heroines in Israel, Ruth is loved and revered. Ruth, in her modest nature and deeds of kindness, demonstrated what a true friend, a true daughter-in-law, and what a true woman is made of.

Ruth is a beautiful picture of Jew and Gentile as "ONE New Man"- Israel and the Church! "For He is our peace, He is making us both one, and He has broken down the middle wall of partition between us (Jew and Gentile) so that in Himself He might make the two (Jew and Gentile) into one new man, making peace between them" (Ephesians 2:14-15)

Understanding MERCY is the Hebrew word "chesed," biblical scholars have often complained that the word in the Hebrew Bible is difficult to translate into English, because it really has no precise equivalent in our language. English versions usually try to represent "chesed" with words as "loving-kindness," "mercy," "steadfast love," and sometimes "loyalty," but the full meaning of the word cannot be fully conveyed without an explanation: It is one of the words used in the Psalms (23 times), plus in Hosea 2:19 to refer to God's love for his people Israel. Otherwise, the use of 'mercy,' 'goodness,' and 'great kindness' in the Psalms refers to God's attitude to man. Outside the Psalms, such words as 'mercy,' 'goodness,' 'favor' apply to God's attitude to man, while 'kindness' is applied to man's attitude to man.

An interesting thought to ponder on Ruth is that she was a Gentile who came from Moab (today this area is situated in Jordan where the ancient city of Petra is also situated). As Ruth and Naomi returned in hardship and a time of famine to Israel, so it is believed that in end times when the Antichrist forces the Jewish people out, "they will flee" and take refuge in (Moab) Petra. There are unfulfilled prophecies: Isaiah 16:2-4; Matthew 24:15-22; Jeremiah 30:4-8 (Jacob's trouble); Daniel 11:40-44; Revelation 12:6,14.

The basic theme of Shavuot is "the harvest" and thanksgiving to God, and Pentecost is the thanksgiving for the "Holy Spirit and Church." But what then is really the spiritual significance? We mentioned an early harvest of first fruits and the feast of weeks - how are they tied together? We read in 1 Corinthians 15:20 that Messiah Himself is the fulfilment of the Feast of First fruits. But where is the Feast of Weeks? Where is the fulfilment of that Feast of the Lord? For that we need to look at Acts 2:1-4.

Have you ever asked what all those people were doing in Jerusalem at the time of Pentecost? They were "devout men" - meaning careful to observe all that God commanded - they were there because God commanded them to go up to Jerusalem to observe the feast. As mentioned, there were three times each year appointed by God for His people to come up to Jerusalem to celebrate with Him in His feasts. Why did God pour out His Spirit on them? To fulfill the symbol of this harvest of ingathering and to fulfill His prophetic word!

The rabbis tied the Feast of Shavuot to the "giving" of the Torah - but here too are some other interesting parallels: When God gave the Torah to His people - all Israel acknowledged they would follow it (Exodus 19:8). It wasn't long after that Israel forgot, and disobeyed, bringing down God's judgment (Exodus 32:28), and 3,000 of God's people were destroyed. Is it just coincidence that years later, on the anniversary of the giving of Torah - God would as Firstfruits have 3,000 born to newness of life (Acts 2:41)? It also points to the fulfilment of Ezekiel 36:27, where by His Spirit on the Feast Day of Shavuot He would write His Torah on the hearts of His people.

Shavuot (Pentecost) remembers God's people's attitude in first receiving Torah – "All that the Lord has spoken we will do" (Exodus 19:8) and God's intended purpose: The rabbis have said that there is no liberty without divine Law and the self-discipline that it gives us. It is said a train must have rails and a river must have banks - so too, our lives need the Bible. After all, Yeshua did not say, "Go and do what feels good" or "Go and live your life as you please." He said, "Go and make disciples, teaching them to observe (or more literally "be observant") all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19-20)

We noted earlier the two loaves (Leviticus 23:17) with leaven, and how they represented the people of Israel, in whom there is leaven. But we ask ourselves again, why two loaves! If it speaks, why is it not twelve loaves? (As with the shewbread in the tabernacle with one for each of the twelve tribes of Israel).

Some have said the loaves symbolize the two tablets of the Torah, since the Torah was given at Shavuot, and therefore a reminder to keep and observe God's commandments. But then there is the problem of the leaven - certainly one would not conclude that God's Torah is sinful – Psalm 19:7 says, the Law of the Lord is perfect converting the soul. Paul speaks of the goodness of the Torah in showing us our own sinfulness.

No! That does not fit the symbol! Rather it seems they prophetically point to the two leavened people of God - Israel and the church, who together make up the body of Messiah.

The two loaves of leavened bread have, since that feast of Shavuot some 2000 years ago, become joined together to become one people of God. Jews and Gentiles, one in Messiah, who are called upon to observe - to be devout about and to keep all things that He has commanded us (Matthew 23:19–20). This symbolic message of Shavuot must have been in Paul's mind when he wrote Ephesians 2:11–13; 16–22.

On Pentecost, the God of Israel comes down to His people. God comes down to visit His people, first nationally, (in the Old Covenant), and individually and personally, (in the New Covenant). He reveals Himself to His covenant people in power and great glory. Pentecost unfolds in the Old Covenant as Yahweh God is betrothed to a nation, and as Pentecost unfolds in the New Covenant, as Yahweh God is betrothed to individuals personally inside their hearts.

The birth of the church at "Pentecost" necessitated all of the above. The divine seed had to fall into the ground and die in order to bear fruit, and the womb out of which the church came forth was none other but the national frame of Israel. While many acknowledge Israel's physical exile of the last nineteen hundred years, only a few recognize that the nation also experienced a spiritual exile as well. As in any birth, the intensifying pains, the trauma, and the laying down of one's life took their toll. Israel, now an exhausted bloody womb, collapsed and was taken out of the way. The young church, vibrant and anointed, spread her across the heathen nations, bringing the life of heaven in her wings. But what about the old womb? It was not to be forsaken forever, was it? Romans 11:1 "God has not rejected His people, has He? May it never be?"

1 Sivan - 2103 B.C.: The raging flood waters, which covered the face of the earth in the Great Flood of Noah's time, calmed and began to subside at the rate of one cubit every four days, 150 days after the rain stopped falling. (Genesis 8:3).

The Law is Given to His People

By Roger Lee Waters repeated from 5784

We arrived at Mt. Sinai on the 20th of Nisan and made camp and put up 12 pillars of stone, one for each tribe. We took our watchmen and placed guards around the entire encampment. There were so many people, at least 4 million total, with the animals and the riches of Egypt; it took up a massive amount of area. But we had just seen a very strange event, Water acting strange.

I was given instructions from this Voice, the same voice that had spoken to me right here, before, when I saw this bush that burned with yellow and orange fire, yet never burned up the bush. That voice, and let me tell you, when you hear that voice, you will never forget it either. I shook and was rattled, almost fell face first into the dirt as this voice claimed he was the creator, the beginning and the end, and that he was going to use me to take his children out of Egypt.

I shook my head and thought, really, do you know Pharaoh? He is tough and unforgiving; he will stomp on anyone that tries to stop his rule. That is when this Voice explained what he was going to use me for, and how I was going to do it. Of course I complained, I couldn't speak right, and stuttered and stammered, I mean that would get me out of all this, right?

Who in their right mind would stand with their sandals off talking to a bush, while it was on fire and not being burnt up? But there I was, and after understanding what I was to do, the thought of me going to Pharaoh, that headbanger and person unwilling to listen to anyone who has a better way, I was going to go before the greatest in all the world and not ask, but tell him the YHVH of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob says to let His people go. Me?

But that did happen, and it did happen just the way this God said it would. Pharaoh hardened his heart 9 times, once after each time that I confronted him on the subject. Every time he refused, a plague would happen, and over the course of a month, 8 times it happened just the way I explained it would, it happened that way, and now Pharaoh doesn't even want to see me anymore.

The last time I saw him, I told him to be careful, because the next thing that comes out of his mouth about the Hebrew Children would go back upon him and happen to the Egyptians. It was on the 9th of Nisan, and YHVH told me to tell all the Hebrew households, to take a young lamb from the flock, and separate it from the rest of the flock for 4 days, and on the 4th day, kill it at 3 P.M., cook it, and eat it, and burn the remaining uneaten parts. That is what I instructed all of Goshen to do, and they did.

I was also instructed to tell them to take the blood of the lamb and spread it all over the door stops, and door posts, that there was going to be an angel come over all the land, and those with the blood will be spared, but everyone else will have their firstborn die. Why?

Because Pharoah in all of his arrogance, ordered the first born of all Hebrews to die, to wipe out an entire generation. I ran to him to plead with him, and he would not, so I told him that the very thing that he had decreed upon us will be done to him and all his land. He laughed and threw me out of his judgment hall. I told the Hebrews that tonight, the death angel will come over the land and kill every firstborn male of each family that does not have the blood on their doorstops, and it happened. We left Egypt with all of Egypt's wealth and their possessions, animals, and food.

We journeyed to here, but I needed to do one other thing, there was this little thing called a lot of water between us and where we needed to get to, and Pharoah and his band of soldiers were in hot pursuit. The people were complaining and yelling at me, calling me names, and then I heard that voice, place your staff in the water. I did, Oh Boy, what happened next even surprised me, this great body of water split in half, and the dry land appeared, and we walked over to the other side.

Pharaoh had ordered his army to go and kill all of us, but when the last of our people was out of the water, and all of the Egyptian armies were in the dry area, I was told to stick back in my Staff on the dry land, and the water began to close in on itself, and the entire Egyptian army was killed. And so, we were now free, but that brings me to here.

When we got to the Sinai area, and I saw the blackness up on the mountain top, I went up and heard the voice of the Great One. I wanted him to talk to me out loud, but that didn't happen. I waited and waited, then on day 40, I started hearing things, there was loud thunder, an earthquake, and darkness. A cloud came over, and this Hebrew God began to speak, and he told me:

Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statues and the judgments which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which I YHVH the God of your Fathers give you. You shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of YHVH your Elohim that I command you."

(Deuteronomy 4:1-2)

Then there was a pause, seemed like about half a daylight, then he came again, this time he told me to stand back, and a fire appeared out of the air, and it burned into the rock these laws, 10 of them, the first four, all about the spiritual life, then the last six. All about civil law, about people. Then he told me to get down, because the people are worshipping another god, a golden calf, money, wealth, and thus the term, "follow the money" came to be.

The people had all they needed for the journey to the promised land. As you know, it took 40 years, day and night, and thus 40 became the number of testing in our language. Forty years, 14,537 days total we traveled to the promised land. Why so long? Because people complained about no water, no food, not this and that, forgetting of the miracles that YHVH had already done, knowing we were His people, in need of nothing. He is the Creator, we are His children, don't we know he will take care of us?

Then one day it came to me, all those years ago, the Creator told me that I was to take a lamb and separate it for 4 days then kill it at 3 P.M. on the 4th day, cook it, eat it, and burn the remaining parts, because now I know, 35 hundred years on earth later, and in that time, what I was supposed to do and did, and I saw the Messiah play it out in real life, in his day.

On the 10th day of Nisan, he rode the donkey into Jerusalem through the sheep's gate, went right up to his father's house, stopped, and on his way in, he saw the money changers and whipped them all out of the temple, angry. He then went into the temple and taught all about his return and other things; then went up on the Mt. of Olives, and taught some more; then later he went to Lazarus's tomb and raised Lazarus from the dead, a man having been dead 4 days!

For you here in the new Israel, the land from which my seed came from, Israel, who have traveled from the mountains of Magog to the Islands to the west, you call the Islands of the Lion, or the British Isles, who's capital was named New Troy, and from where Jeremiah is buried, and their seed then went to the young lions throughout the so-called free world, or the babies of Great Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia, South Africa, Norway, and others.

Fear not, for history does repeat itself, and there will be a people, who are from YHVH, the Elohim that has been raised up by the Creator himself, who have been called before they were born to be a part of an army, who will lead a people who do not yet know but will soon see the truth, that their oppressors will be like Egypt, and make all them slaves to them, but then be taken down systematically, through a series of events like Pharaoh was, and they will be done away with through a plague of rotting flesh, as they attempt to put upon their people and just like Pharaoh, it will come back upon them 7 times greater, even unto their death.

For this people must place it in action, speak it into existence, and proclaim it from above, and watch what the Great Creator will do for his people and against their enemies of the World. There will always be an enemy, but there will always be a God that helps his people to defeat whatever this enemy places before them.

May the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob look out over you, may he bring your health and prosperity, and may he bring down all your enemies before your eyes that all may see that it is truly the Creator and none else that has done these things. I must go now; there are many requesting my presence. Tell all my seed that I love them, and keep them with me forever, Moses.

Reading (The Book of Ruth): Our story begins in the Land of Israel, during the period of the rule of the Judges, leaders of the Jewish people who preceded the Kings. The first characters we encounter in this story are Elimelech, his wife Naomi, and their two sons, Machlon and Kilyon.

Elimelech, Naomi, and their family move to Moab in order to escape the effects of a famine that has broken out in the Land of Israel. Elimelech then dies, leaving Naomi alone with her two sons. As they grow up, each of her sons marries a Moabite woman. One marries Orpah, and the other marries Ruth. After ten years living in the land of Moab, both of Naomi's sons, Machlon and Kilyon, die, leaving the women without husbands or children.

News comes from Israel that the famine has lifted. Naomi decides to return to her home in Israel. Her two daughters-in-law, Orpah and Ruth, tell Naomi that they want to remain with her and return to her land. Naomi discourages them, telling them that they should live their lives fully and not follow this aged woman. She feels that she no longer has anything to offer them.

Orpah eventually decides to leave, but Ruth will not be dissuaded. She says to Naomi, "Do not urge me to leave you, to turn back and not follow you – for wherever you go, I will go, wherever you lie down, I will lie down. Your people shall be my people, and your God shall be my God." (Ruth 1:16)

Naomi and Ruth arrive home in Bethlehem. The townspeople hardly recognize Naomi. She says to them, "Don't call me Naomi (meaning pleasantness), call me Mara (meaning bitterness) because God has made my life bitter." (Ruth 1:20)

Once settled in the land, Ruth offers to become a gleaner, picking up grain behind the cutting crew in the fields. When Ruth chooses a field to glean in, by chance she chooses the field of Boaz (a relative of Naomi's).

One day, Boaz arrives in the field and his attention is drawn to Ruth. He learns of her identity, and because he has heard of her loyalty to Naomi and the Israelite people, he invites her to remain in his field until the end of the harvest.

Ruth returns to Naomi and informs her of where she has been working. Naomi explains that Boaz is an eligible kinsman to reclaim the family land and to wed Ruth, and she instructs Ruth on how to invite him to become her husband.

Boaz is pleased that Ruth came to him, and he tells her that he will work to reclaim the property of Naomi's family and to marry Ruth. Boaz arranges for the necessary permission to acquire the land from a closer kinsman and to marry Ruth. At the city gate, a group of people gather together as witnesses to the marriage and bless the couple. The people give blessings to Ruth that she should be like Rachel and Leah.

At the end of the story, Ruth and Boaz have a son whom Naomi loves like her own child. The women of the town tell Naomi that her new grandson, Obed, will watch over her in old age, and that Ruth, her beloved daughter-in-law, is better to her than seven sons.

Wade Butler: What is going on this Pentecost?

In an open vision on 5-21-2025 the Lord brought intercessors from all over the world together into the rotunda of Heaven. At first, we could not see anyone else but the LORD. We were aware that we were not alone yet had no idea if it was Angels or residents of Heaven watching. We were led by an Angel to sit at a table before the LORD. There were five of us facing HIM and HE sat across from us and presented each of us with a document and a feathered quill pen in ink wells such as a calligrapher uses.

At first, we could not read what was written due to the ancient text but recognized that it was script and as elegant and as important as the Declaration of Independence, we just knew it was significant. I asked, 'LORD what is this document?'

Immediately we could read it, and HE responded, "This is a Title Deed to your hearts and of the earth." I said, "Lord we could not be here if we had already given you our hearts, haven't we all done this? He said, "Yes, the Document represents the earth and the fulness thereof." "MY blood redeemed the land, but the children of the world gave lucifer a false deed of trust to much of the earth and it cries out to be set free." With the signatures of MY Sons and Daughters, the transfer begins, The Kingdoms of the world will become the Kingdoms of the LORD."

We all signed at the same time and Yeshua stacked the documents together and pressed HIS Signet Ring into the parchment creating a seal that was with HIS blood. At that point all of Heaven rejoiced, shofars blasted throughout the cosmos and our eyes were enlightened to see that the great room was filled with intercessors from around the world. The Angels gathered the signed and sealed documents and placed them in a book that went into the library of Heaven. I asked who all were there, and the Angel said, the great cloud of witnesses' bear witness to the beginning of the Kingdom of GOD on earth. Those who sign over their hearts sign the Title Deed to the earth and the advancement of the Kingdom.

I instantly realized that we were in a soon to be future event. So, I asked, 'When shall this take place?' The LORD said, "At Pentecost". "This shall be the most important Pentecost since the upper room, many shall surrender their hearts, and the earth shall begin to shake like never before." There will be signs in the heavens and earth. Like when you pull unwanted weeds from your garden and shake the good soil back to the earth so shall the shaking be." "Evil will be exposed and cast into the fire for judgement and the earth will begin to be healed."

"Get ready for the Great Harvest has begun!"
Pray for an outpouring of harvest fire.

The "Communion" Revival

There is absolutely no doubt that we are in the beginnings of revival in America, an outpouring of such proportions that it will be considered another Great Awakening. Many efforts have contributed to this: much prayer, worship gatherings, repentance, forgiveness, reconciliation, and more. America has obviously not been fully cleansed and transformed – sin still abounds – but cleansing and transformation are the results of salvation and revival, not the causes.

Small acts of obedience have been essential; grassroots efforts that are often unseen by the masses combine in the spirit realm to become great waves of anointing and momentum. Occasionally, however, the Lord leads individuals to convene larger gatherings of believers. Lou Engle and The Call come to mind, as does Washington for Jesus, A Million Women, and others.

One of the more unique, larger gatherings Holy Spirit has orchestrated was Awaken the Dawn in October of 2017. Fifty-eight tents lined the Washington Mall, filled with 24/7 worship led by 1700 worship teams. Yes, I said 1700. Fifty thousand people attended, and 4,000,000 watched and participated online! Many people were saved, including government officials, many more were healed, and statewide movements of prayer and revival were birthed in every state. This event truly was used to help birth a new day. Since 2017, Awaken the Dawn has hosted 800 tent gatherings in capitals, campuses, and cities around the nation.

Holy Spirit has sovereignly led David Bradshaw and Awaken the Dawn to host another gathering on the National Mall this upcoming October 9-12, called Communion America. Though David and his ministry are hosting the week, it is truly a collaboration of several ministries, including ours. The power of unity and agreement will contribute to the release of incredible breakthroughs for our nation. Fifty tents, one for each state, will be filled with 24/7 worship, culminating in partaking of the Lord's Table together. The sacrifice of Christ will be honored as millions of people there and throughout the nation take Communion together. Without question, this will further open the heavens over America. I will be there – consider joining me.

I realize many of you, due to jobs and other responsibilities, cannot attend every event of this nature. However, if it is possible, you should consider attending this gathering at least for a day. We are told in Scripture that three times a year, all men in Israel who could possibly do so were required to attend the major feasts in Jerusalem (Exodus 23:14-19). Joel 2:16 emphasizes gathering the nation to seek the Lord's restoration. These and other references emphasize the importance of God's people coming together at times. The sacrifice and agreement that takes place accomplish things in the spirit that do not occur as we gather in our smaller gatherings.

I can safely say that God has used various visits to Washington, D.C., to accomplish as much or more in my heart than any other activity. There is something about taking a stand in our nation's capital – as both a citizen of heaven and of America – that is incredibly significant. My emotions have run the gamut when doing so, from overwhelming travail accompanied by many tears to exultant, powerful decrees. If you have never made such a pilgrimage, this would be a great time to do so. During my visits, not only have I been used, I have been marked. Nothing has done as much to solidify the revelation that this is MY country as have these visits to pray in Washington, D.C. Holy Spirit has told me many times while there, "Take ownership of this nation – it belongs to you."

Why Communion?

The Lord has informed numerous leaders over the past few years that Communion would play a significant role in what He's about to do. This is not a new phenomenon, by the way. The great Cane Ridge revival of the 1800s was born out of Communion. That great revival rocked our nation and birthed the Second Great Awakening. It is no exaggeration to say that Communion birthed an outpouring of the Holy Spirit that saved our nation.

Why would the Lord choose Communion to launch and be the focal point of an outpouring? The answer seems simple: nothing honors, calls attention to, and reminds us of the Lord's sacrifice and our salvation more than partaking of the Lord's Table. Imagine the honor He will feel when millions of His family do it together in this gathering. And imagine the terror hell must feel when we do so! Nothing overcomes the powers of hell like the blood of Jesus. God's decree of freedom for the human race was written with the blood of Jesus. It covers the Mercy Seat of heaven and unlocks God's mercy on earth.

The book of Hebrews says that the blood of Christ "speaks!" (Hebrews 12:24). Indeed, it does. Loudly. I believe its message of freedom will reverberate in the heavens over our nation this October, as millions of us join together to honor its life-giving power. Please get behind this effort in any and every way possible: your prayers, participation, and by spreading the word. You can also help with financial support, as these events cost a couple of million dollars. Perhaps you can sow a gift into this. Ceci and I will certainly be doing so.

Pray with me:

Father, we know You relate to people, not just as individuals, but as groups of people. Family units are blessed and cursed, as are cities and entire nations. Also, nations, just like individuals, possess divine purposes and destinies. We know You raised up America to propagate the gospel of Jesus Christ to the ends of the Earth. And though we have rejected You and turned from this calling, in Your mercy You are restoring us. We declare that we will experience a great harvest, and also be used to reap an incredible harvest in other nations.

Without a doubt, You have led David Bradshaw and Awaken the Dawn to host this Communion gathering on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. Now, we ask You to breathe Your life, favor, and blessing into it. Give it wind. Move upon the hearts of tens of thousands of people to attend, and millions more to participate online. We ask that through this event, Christ would take His rightful place in our nation. As we partake of the bread and wine that week, arise and scatter Your enemies. Give us great breakthrough in the heavens, shattering strongholds and lifting the veil of darkness off millions of people. Let the power be released as we gather merge with the power released from millions of prayers and other significant events in our nation over the past 30+ years. Amalgamate and synchronize these into one huge explosive release of Your power. We ask for all the funds needed to accomplish this event.

And we continue to pray for our government leaders. Today, we focus on the judicial system of America. This branch of our government is out of order and out of control. Many of those in it release injustice, not justice. Many judges, including Supreme Court justices, oppose You, disrespect Your Word and ways, violate our Constitution, and reject common sense. We ask You to stop this somehow! Bring Your redemption into rebellious elements of this branch of our government. Remove those who oppose You and give us righteous and wise judges who honor You.

Continue to give righteous leaders in the executive and legislative branches of our government wisdom and understanding as they seek to transform America back to health. Pour out Your Spirit on our government – let history read that the government of America was impacted greatly by the Third Great Awakening. Change our government! Awaken it! Enlighten it! Return it to our righteous roots. In Jesus' name we pray, amen.

Our decree:

We decree that another great Communion revival has begun and will come to fullness in America.

Veronika West

A NOW WORD; "THE KEY TO THE VALLEY OF VISION IS THE CRUCIBLE OF PATMOS" ; <https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/the-key-to-the-valley.../>

I had a powerful and profound dream which I believe and submit is speaking to the Body of Christ and particularly to the Prophets, to those who are Seeking a greater level and measure of Prophetic Revelation, Illumination, and Understanding.

A Short dream but powerful

In this dream I found myself standing at the entrance of what looked like a very deep Valley. This Valley I knew by Revelation in the dream was the 'Valley of Vision.' and I saw from a distance that the landscape of the valley before me was rugged, and the terrain looked difficult to traverse. Jagged rocks jutted out from the hillsides, and the narrow paths that marked the landscape looked somewhat daunting.

The atmosphere in the dream was thick and yet weighty, and again I knew by Revelation that the very ground I was standing on was shrouded in divine mystery and hidden secrets. Now, as stepped forward in the dream, I felt a Mantle come upon me, (almost as if I was being clothed and prepared spiritually to enter into the Valley of Vision, I was taking on the very fabric of the valley, the spiritual texture of that deeper dimension of the Spirit was coming upon me which would enable and empower me to both receive and carry what would be imparted to me should I enter in). But as I took another step forward towards the Valley of Vision, not only did I feel a tangible sense of great weight now upon me, but suddenly, my vision began to take on greater clarity, and just as I was about to take another step towards the Valley of Vision, I saw what looked like an Ancient Door suddenly appear before me, and as I looked at the door, I saw the Word "PATMOS" deeply engraved upon the ancient door!

Ha! Immediately in the dream, it was quickened to me: John was sent to the Isle of Patmos, which is where he wrote the Book of Revelation.

Now, As I stood in that place, I knew by the Spirit that the Ancient Door that stood before me in the dream was like that of the Door of Revelation 4; "After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this." As I looked and looked again at the word "Patmos" engraved upon the Ancient Door, again I knew by Revelation that the Door was Living, it was Alive, the Ancient Door was full of the Glory of the Lord, and the Ancient Door seemed to recognize me, as a Son of Righteousness, (even the fact that I was being given access to traffic in this realm and dimension in the Spirit, through a dream, I knew that I was marked to be there, called to become a partaker of a greater level and Dimension of the Vision Realm of the Glory).

But as I stood in that sacred place, I was made to understand by the Spirit of Revelation that this was not exclusive to me, but rather, this was an Invitation to the Prophets, to those in the Body of Christ that are Seeking the Face of God in this Season for the unveiling and the revealing of the Knowledge of Christ unto greater Transformation and Reformation of the Nations. The Glory Hunters were being invited to Go Beyond the Shallows in this season, to Go Higher; to go where Deep Calls unto Deep.

In the dream, I could tangibly feel the Glory of the Lord. The weight of the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord filled the atmosphere, Yet I knew that I was being given and shown a powerful and strategic message for the hour, a Message to the 11th Hour Prophets. And though I was being given permission to stand before the Ancient Door, I was not yet permitted to go beyond the Door, even though there was an Invitation to "Come Up Here Come Up Higher!" In the dream, I began to inquire of the Holy Spirit, "Spirit of Wisdom, what must I do to Enter into the Valley of Vision?"

Then I heard these Words:

"The Key to the Valley of Vision is the Crucible of PATMOS"

I woke up!!!

As you can imagine, I was now wide awake, grabbing my journal, writing everything down. But the first thing I wrote was; "The Key to the Valley of Vision is the Crucible of PATMOS." I immediately felt to look up the word PATMOS; Meaning, "my killing!" Wow!

Now, as I read those words, I believe and humbly submit that God is saying, "Patmos is the crucible" where the fiery trials and tribulations will refine the faith and deepen the vision of His 11th Hour Prophets into the coming Season. This Valley of Vision is not one of despair, but rather of the birthplace of divine revelation, Glorious Illumination, greater understanding and Knowledge which will bring us into a greater measure of the Stature of Christ; the place where the veil is lifted, and the 11th Hour Prophets are given unfettered access to look upon His Glory.

Then I heard the Holy Spirit say,

"Watch and listen! For I Am Calling My 11th Hour Prophets into the Valley of Vision in this hour, that their eyes of understanding may be opened and that they may BECOME what is Beheld. Yes! For I Am Calling My 11th Hour Prophets to the Crucible of PATMOS, to the Place of Death unto greater Life and a greater degree of Vision through the Light of My Glory and Power.

I Say Again, a Crucial of Patmos, where the Fires of Purification will bring forth greater Humility and Purity to My 11th Hour Prophets, An Invitation to Enter into a sacred place, the Birthing place of True Vision, the Valley of Vision where the Flesh Dies in order that the Spiritual Senses can Come Alive and are fully Awakened, Illuminated, and Ignited!"

Friends, the invitation is Open. It is NOW, and it is time to respond in total Surrender, Faith, and with Radical Expectation."

The Month of Alignment

YOU ARE BREAKING INTO THE MOST TRIUMPHANT SEASON!

VICTORIA BOYSON, HOUSTON, TX

"You are breaking into a brand-new season—the most triumphant season My children have ever seen since My Son walked the earth."

The Father says to His children, "Let this be said of your generation HERE and NOW: 'Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress. He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed. Then they were glad that the waters were quiet, and He brought them to their desired haven' (Psalm 107:28–30 ESV).

"Your response to the chaos around you should be 'Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus' (Philippians 4:6–7 ESV).

"For surely, if you ask anything in My Son's name, I cannot turn away from you. Seek Me; turn away from sin and carnality and EMBRACE ME! Lock yourself away with Me and surrender your heart to Me, and I will give you peace even in the midst of chaos. I will be glorified as you pray in My Son's name and trust Me to hear you. "You are entering a NEW SEASON, truly, the greatest season mankind will ever experience. I want to reveal My wonders to you; I want to show Myself glorious through you! Give Me your trust; open your heart, and surrender to Me. Together, we will transform the world!

Pray this with me: Father God, I want all that You have for me. I surrender my heart and mind to You and ask You to wash me in Your FAITH. Give me the strength of Your JOY and the liberty of HOPE! Forgive my unbelief, and saturate me in You so I can trust you! In Jesus' name, amen.

Shavuot (Pentecost)

IT IS TIME FOR THE REMNANT TO MOBILIZE!
LORILEI COOLEY, SCOTTSDALE, AZ

There is a deep refreshing, healing, and strengthening coming upon those that the enemy has relentlessly come against, time and time again—the ones who have been weary at heart and exhausted from many battles. The enemy has come to keep them from advancing and stepping further into their assignment. These ones have encountered the spirits of Jezebel, Delilah, and Athaliah numerous times, who specifically came to muzzle their voices because of what they carry.

These ones, the remnant that the Lord is bringing out of obscurity, will be the very ones that the Lord is going to use powerfully in this new era. Although it has been many years for those who have been hidden, it is now time for them to emerge, to come forth, to usher in the revival and new moves of God that we will see throughout the earth, and to capture and bring in the harvest.

I sense as the Lord does this deep, deep refreshing [work] that they are regaining their strength and position on the front lines, taking their place in this new era in all that the Lord has called them to do. There is a unique sound, unquenchable fire, and authority that they carry where you will recognize and know that these are the remnant, these are the pure voices, those who's heart is after but only one—Jesus. They are not trying to promote their ministry for personal gain, build a brand, or parade around doing speaking events with "so and so." They are the ones who live for an audience of One, to train and equip His people, and are focused on bringing in the end-time harvest. I want to encourage the remnant: Wait upon the Lord right now to strengthen and refresh you. He has already given you the marching orders, and it is now time to mobilize and step forth. Don't look to the right or to the left, but focus on His voice, His leading, and what you are to do. It is time to emerge and mobilize!

Shavuot (Pentecost)

Bruce & Linda Dietler - Kansas

You Shall Receive Power

The 49-day period from the Feast of Pesach (Passover) to the harvest festival of Shavuot is known in Hebrew culture as the Omer. This period marks the transition from the end of the barley harvest to the beginning of the wheat harvest. In ancient times, Jews would bring the first sheaves to the Temple as a means of thanking God for the harvest. The word Omer literally means "sheaf" and refers to these early offerings.

Shavuot itself literally means "weeks," a reference to it falling seven weeks after the start of Passover. Leviticus 23:15-16 provides the historical basis for this: "You shall count from the eve of the second day of Pesach, when an omer (measure) of grain is to be brought as an offering, seven complete weeks. The day after the seventh week of your counting will make fifty days, and you shall present a new meal offering to God."

The fiftieth day after Passover is referred to by Christians as Pentecost, meaning "50 days." Jews actually "count the omer," meaning they literally count the days from Pesach until Shavuot, the day rabbinic tradition fixes as the giving of the Torah to Moses on Mount Sinai. Counting the days up to Shavuot reminds them of the process of moving from a slave mentality to a more liberated one. Passover celebrates the initial liberation of the Jewish people from slavery in Egypt, while Shavuot marks the culmination of the process of liberation, when the Jews became an autonomous community with their own laws and standards. Christians, typically, do not count the omer, but rather, we commemorate Pentecost as the day Holy Spirit fell on the 120 followers of Yeshua in the upper room in Jerusalem. Often, Pentecost and Shavuot do not fall on the same day, since Pentecost (on the Gregorian calendar) is always the seventh Sunday after Resurrection Day, while Shavuot (on the Lunar calendar) always falls on Sivan 6-7. In 2025, Shavuot falls on June 1-2, whereas Pentecost falls on June 8th.

In Scripture, the account of the first Pentecost celebration following the resurrection of Yeshua is found in Acts chapters 1 & 2, which I believe is significant for everyone to read again at this important season. Below, I have shortened the account to verses pertinent for the discussion which will follow.

Acts 1:4,5,8

4And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. 5For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. 8And ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Acts 2:1-4

1And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. 4And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

The promise given to the assembled disciples was three-fold: (1) that they would be filled with the Holy Ghost; (2) that they would receive power; (3) that they would be witnesses unto God everywhere they went. The manifestation of the in-filling or the baptism of the Holy Ghost, that is, the evidence of it having taken place, was speaking in other tongues. Note that this was not the baptism, but only the immediate, external evidence that it had occurred.

The deeper, often overlooked, truth of what had occurred is that they had been baptized (immersed) in the absolute fulness of the Holy Ghost. Water baptism of an individual is symbolic of the death, burial and resurrection of the self-life and complete submission to God. Holy Ghost baptism, however, represents more, that being a full immersion and infilling of the Holy Ghost into the individual, whereby the person is now Spirit-controlled and fully-empowered by God's Spirit to overcome the works of the flesh and of the devil. Holy Ghost baptism provides the requisite heaven-supplied power to accomplish, through the now indwelling Holy Spirit, that which otherwise would be difficult if not impossible to perfect by fleshly efforts alone. By Holy Ghost baptism, the surrender is complete, the fire is lit, and the dunamis (dynamite) power of God explodes into the life of the believer to accomplish all that God would ordain for him.

As carnal human nature would dictate, many Pentecostal types perceive the baptism of the Holy Ghost simply as the door to speak in other tongues, thereby showing the world how "spiritual" they are. Full stop. Period. However, God has bigger designs for this empowerment; with it, He has given mankind the indwelling power and ability to become like Yeshua – to be able to fully manifest the attitudes and attributes of Christ, in order that we would be able to effectively fulfill the third purpose of the Baptism, to BE witnesses to the world of the reality of the living of God in their midst. It is this manifestation for which all of creation awaits, and it is only through the Holy Ghost that it will be manifested. Romans 8:19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

In my/your flesh dwelleth no good thing. We can never in our best efforts hope to manifest the presence of God through the flesh! Only by the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit can we ever hope to fully glorify the Lord in this life, and through His grace, He has empowered us to do so. Psalm 138:8 "The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me." It is He who gives us the power to walk in forgiveness when forgiveness is the farthest thing from our natural inclinations. It is only through Him we can walk in His righteousness, in His perfect peace, His perfect love, His perfect contentment and all the other fruits of the re-created human spirit. These are not natural human traits; they are traits of the in-dwelling Holy Spirit, and it is these manifestations of the Spirit that the world so desperately needs to see through God's people.

I remember vividly a dream the Lord gave me of the day (in the dream) when I walked into a men's restroom in what appeared to be an underground bunker – possibly under a sports stadium. The place absolutely reeked of urine, and it was dark and otherwise filthy. I was there attending to my needs when I happened to look over to the side of the room and spotted a large something, like a pile of trash, over against the wall. As I proceeded to wash my hands, I again looked at this trash, and I noticed it was actually a person! And I knew that person! It was Suzan (not her real name) a girl with whom I had attended grade school but whom I had not seen in decades. She was lying there all beat up, filthy, and cast aside like a piece of trash, and yet, apparently nobody else noticed her to care for her. The Lord spoke to my heart and said, "She is precious in my sight, and until you can view people like her (the nobodies) with my compassion, I cannot use you fully as I would wish." That nearly broke my heart.

Truth is, in our flesh, we so often undervalue and overlook virtues such as compassion, humility, honoring others as we would desire to be honored, and even more. Yet, if we would desire to be fully used by the Lord to manifest His presence in the earth, it is these very virtues we must allow to flow through us by the power of the Holy Spirit. The world does not much care if we speak in tongues or even if we would walk on water. What the world so desperately needs and wants, whether or not they would admit it, is the love and life of God manifested through His people to them, even while they might appear to be dirty, smelly, and otherwise unlovely. Selah, meditate on this!

As we reflect on the wonder of Pentecost past, let us commit ourselves to a Pentecost present in and through our own lives. This is the cry of the Lord's heart for His people; that the power of Pentecost would flow through us to touch a hurting and dying world.

The Lord brought to my remembrance the Christian Hymn, Spirit of the Living God. This one hymn should be our earnest prayer in order that the world may truly come to see Yeshua, our Savior, Healer, and Deliverer, as He desires to be seen in the earth.

1. Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me!

2. Spirit of the living God, move among us all;
make us one in heart and mind; make us one in love:
humble, caring, selfless, sharing.

3. Spirit of the living God, fill our lives with love!

May our prayer today be, "Father, melt me, mold me, and fill me to overflowing with your precious Holy Spirit that I may be a channel of blessing used by You to manifest the presence of Your Son in the earth, that I may touch lives for Your honor and Glory, and that through me, the world would know that they have seen Yeshua!" Amen.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY, 'IT IS TIME TO UNEARTH'

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'It is time to unearth.' As the Lord spoke these words, the picture of an archaeologist digging into the ground kept coming before me, and the word 'DISCOVERY' was so loud in my spirit.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened, I heard:

'My people, I am calling you deeper. I am calling you deeper into the place of intimacy with Me in this hour; as there are discoveries in Me and deep mysteries that I am uncovering and unveiling to you that you have never seen or received. I say unto you, that I am increasing revelation in this hour that is so deeply rooted in My truth and My Word, that you are going to discover and unearth levels of wisdom, divine insight and intel, in ways you have never experienced before.'

I could hear Daniel 2:22 surrounding me loudly in the spirit:

'He reveals deep and hidden things; he knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with him.' 'My people, there are deep mysteries in Me that I am inviting you into. I am bringing you deeper into the revelation of My nature and who I am, and the treasures contained within My Word; and I am increasing your insight to show you what is known and what is hidden and what lies in darkness. I say unto you that there is such a mighty increase in discernment, but many are trading the invitation into DISCERNMENT for DISTRACTION. I say unto you, in this hour you must deal with distraction. I say unto you, you must die to distractions in this hour and stand firm with your face towards Me as flint (Isaiah 50:7).

'I say unto you, that those who keep their minds upon Me, I will keep in perfect peace (Isaiah 26:3). I say unto you, LOOK at what you are LOOKING AT. For there are many who are looking in the wrong direction, there are many who are being dazzled by distraction. The invitation before you in this hour to come deeper is weighty and it is of the utmost importance, My people, for you to navigate the days ahead and that which I am leading you into.

'I say unto you, My people, repent of distraction. And where you lay down distraction, not only am I bringing you deeper into discipling you in discernment, but I will give you greater direction. The enemy is attempting to keep you bound in distraction so you will not move in the increase of discernment and direction that I am releasing to you in this hour. I say unto you, that I am bringing you into a greater awakening of what it looks like to live a life of governing in and with Me – as you seek Me deeply in the place of intimacy, walking with Me in humility and reverence and listening to My voice.

'As you stay close to Me in this hour, I am directing you and I am discipling you. I am teaching you My ways in greater ways, but you must repent of distraction and detangle yourselves from it by arising in ferocious focus upon Me. For where I speak and where I am leading, My grace will empower and carry you. Come to Me and ask Me. Ask Me where distraction has taken your focus. Allow my Spirit to shine My light upon those areas; and where you die to these distractions by arising in ferocious focus upon Me, I will bring you into a greater place of clarity and understanding.

'I am increasing understanding in many ways in this hour. I am increasing divine insight and discernment and bringing forth a clarity in many ways. But you must be focused to lean in and listen to what I am saying. The enemy is attempting to keep many bound in his lure to keep them rehearsing the natural realm and natural circumstances; but I say unto you, there is great understanding I am releasing right now of what I am saying and what I am doing in some areas that those who have ears to hear, let them hear! I say unto you, give not your ears to other things above Me. Come to Me before anything else and listen to what I am saying. Listen to My voice in My Word. Listen deeply. For understanding is being increased.' 'Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.'

Jeremiah 33:3 I then heard the words: 'Things are not as they seem.'

As I heard these words, the Lord began to show me that there were many who were looking at natural realm circumstances and situations, and I could see them attempting to deal with these circumstances from a 'natural realm perspective' and they were not seeing shifts that they believed the Lord had spoken to them in this hour.

I then heard:

'I am pulling back the curtain on many things. I am revealing that things are not as they seem, and I am giving you the strategies to pray and to declare the wisdom that is needed to move forward to see the shifts that I have spoken. I say unto you, that the enemy is coming against many right now to keep you distracted by natural realm circumstances before your eyes – to lock you into a natural realm perspective and hinder your movement and hinder you moving in authority in your prayers and declaration to bring a shift in the areas that I am calling you to govern in. I say unto you, take your eyes off the natural realm. Come up higher, lean in and listen. Wrestle and wait until you receive My rhema Word and My heavenly perspective.

'I say unto you, that many of you are about to break through into a major increase of My heavenly perspective – if you turn away from distraction and looking at the natural realm, and look deeper and listen to what I am saying.

'I am inviting you into a deeper unearthing. A deeper place of receiving the mysteries of My heart, My Word, My revelation, My truth. Be lovers of My truth. I am inviting you into a deeper place of discernment. Truth is being unearthed and revealed to those who will seek and those who will listen. The treasures of My truth are coming forth. I am bringing those of you who are hearing what My Spirit is saying and following My leading into a greater place of training and awakening of what it looks like to live from your heavenly seat in Me (Ephesians 2:6) and not led and bound by the earthly realm. There is a greater deliverance of the heart and mind from being tethered to natural realm perspective that I am bringing forth in this hour, through the shaking and through the pressure. Who will ascend the mountain of the Lord? Those with clean hands and pure hearts (Psalm 24).

'The level of unearthing that is coming forth in this hour is unprecedented. The levels of revelation I am releasing found in My Word, and the increase of authority I am awakening you and teaching you to walk in, requires ferocious focus upon Me. Many of you are being set free by the unearthing and the revealing that is coming forth and a returning and revealing of the ancient pathways; and as you walk in them, you will find rest for your souls (Jeremiah 6:16). I am looking for those who ask, who will look, who will listen and who will obey My ways.'

ROSANGELA ATTE, MAPLE RIDGE, BC, CANADA

"In the past, you have experienced the trickling down of My blessings.

In my time with The Lord, I heard Him say, "In the past, you have experienced the trickling down of My blessings. You have been blessed by the occasional, refreshing shower. But now, ha, ha, get ready; get ready daughter! Brace yourself, because you have been faithful. You are going to be swept away by torrential rains of My goodness!" Holy Spirit kept repeating intensely, "Torrential, torrential, torrential!" We have already experienced His goodness and blessings, but now, now we are going to experience it in a way that will literally sweep us off our feet!

We will be caught in a whirlwind of miraculous events! Open doors, opportunities, healings, restoration, and recompense on all fronts—all at once! He is going to lavish upon His children! He's going to show off in our lives and make it very clear that we are His. The distinction between those who are His and those who are not will be blatantly displayed by our heavenly Father!

Be expectant; don't let what you see in the natural distract you from what you see in the Spirit and what you know He has promised you. If you don't know how to swim, you had better learn fast!

Malachi 3:10 NKJV: Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and try Me now in this,' says the Lord of hosts, 'If I will not open for you the windows of Heaven and pour out for you such blessing that there will not be room enough to receive it.

Amos 9:13 MSG: Yes indeed, it won't be long now.' God's decree. 'Things are going to happen so fast your head will swim, one thing fast on the heels of the other. You won't be able to keep up. Everything will be happening at once—and everywhere you look, blessings! Blessings like wine pouring off the mountains and hills.

Oxford Dictionary's word "torrential" means "flowing rapidly and with great force," and "a very heavy, intense rain pouring down quickly and in large quantities." Similar words are "copious, severe, heavy, rapid, relentless, violent, soaking, and teeming (when referring to water)."

Nate Johnston: I'M GOING TO TURN IT AROUND!

Are you facing a bleak situation right now? A bad report?

I feel an unction from the Holy Spirit to prophesy over those standing in the middle of what looks like impossible right now. It might be health issues, financial breakdown, family chaos, mental exhaustion and more. Let me prophesy. It's going to turn around. You know those moments in life where you're under pressure, crushed, confused, out of options? You've prayed, fasted, cried and still, nothing shifts? And then out of nowhere, God speaks.

We had one of those moments today. A family member was in surgery and everything began falling apart. It didn't look good. In fact, it looked hopeless. Panic hit me at first, so I cried out, "Lord, I need you. I don't know what to do." And suddenly I heard the voice of the Lord thunder in my spirit "It's going to turn around!" At that exact moment, I glanced at my phone - it was 11:11.

The Holy Spirit reminded me of John 11:11:

"Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to wake him up." Notice that Jesus didn't call Lazarus "dead" even though everyone else did. He called him asleep because He saw the turnaround before it came. He spoke life into a situation everyone had already given up on. In the natural, Lazarus was gone. But in the spirit, heaven had a different word. And I believe God is saying to many of you; "What looks dead is only sleeping and I'm about to wake it up."

Just like the young girl in Mark 5, when they told Jesus she was dead, and He said, "She is not dead, she is only sleeping."

He spoke a word that contradicted the room. And I feel right now that heaven is interrupting your crisis with a contradictory word: "It's going to turn around." Like in Zephaniah 3:19–20 which declares, "In the end I will turn things around for the people. I'll get rid of all those who've made your life miserable. I'll heal the maimed; I'll bring home the homeless. On Judgment Day, I'll bring you back home—a great family gathering!”

This is your Psalm 126 moment:

“When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter” (Psalm 126:1–2). That moment when sorrow turns to laughter. Tears to testimony. Confusion to clarity. But here’s the truth: I know many of you are weary. You’ve been through years of warfare, setbacks, disappointments. And you have had some unexpected situations rise and you’re wondering, “Do I even have the strength to stand in this one?”

You feel like you’re out of fight. You’re tired of pushing. Tired of prophesying with no fruit. Tired of trying to make things move in your own strength. You’ve thought, “Maybe I should just roll over. Maybe I should stop contending. It’s too much.”

But I feel the Lord tell me to send this word out to hold up your arms today.

This word is not just encouragement. It’s a prophetic act. Like Aaron and Hur holding up Moses’ arms in battle (Exodus 17:12), I’m lifting yours right now in the Spirit, and I am declaring over you: The battle is shifting.

Remember 2 Kings 6, when Elisha’s servant woke up and saw their city surrounded by enemy armies? Fear took over. But Elisha prayed: “Open his eyes, Lord, so that he may see.” Then the Lord opened the servant’s eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha. (2 Kings 6:17)

I pray the same for you today:

Lord, open their eyes. Let them see what You’ve already released on their behalf. Let them see that heaven is fighting for them. This is a midweek arm-lifting moment. I declare boldness is returning to your voice. Fire is coming back to your bones.

And faith is rising again in your heart. Watch it turn around. Not by might, not by power but by My Spirit, says the Lord (Zechariah 4:6). But God is not just fixing surface-level problems. He is resetting your foundations. Where the enemy has robbed, God is restoring. Where the locusts have eaten, He is repaying. This is Joel 2:25; “I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten.” So, let me say it again - It’s turning around. Even in a short amount of time, the suddenly of the Lord is about to visit your situation. That assignment that’s been hovering over you is breaking. That heaviness is lifting. And God will get all the glory In Jesus’ mighty name!

Charlie Shamp

In this season, the Lord is unveiling a powerful truth: a divine invitation to step through an open door. Recently, in a moment of fervent prayer, I encountered a fierce lion, majestic and strong, who approached me with a key held firmly in His mouth. As I beheld this awe-inspiring sight, I asked, "Who are you?"

With a voice that resonated with authority, He declared, "I am the angel of the church of Philadelphia," echoing the words of Revelation 3:7: "These things saith He that is holy, He that is true, He that hath the key of David; He that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth."

As the lion roared, the sound reverberated through the atmosphere, shaking the very foundations of doubt and despair. In that moment, I sensed His heart: "There's an open door."

This key signifies not only an opportunity but also a new sound: a sound that will break chains and usher in a new era of breakthrough and revelation. The key is a symbol of authority and access, and it is being extended to you now.

We are being called to step boldly through the door that the Lion of Judah has opened. This is a season where old limitations will fall away, and the heavens will respond to a new sound rising from within you: a sound of faith, hope, and the power of the Spirit. Do not be afraid to embrace this new sound, for it carries the weight of His glory. It is a sound that declares freedom, restoration, and divine alignment. As you walk through this open door, expect to see the impossible made possible.

The Lion roars again: "This is your time! Take the key, unlock what has been dormant, and let the new sound emerge!"

Prepare your hearts and minds, for the Lord is doing a new thing. Let the key of David ignite a fresh passion within you, and may you boldly declare the promises of God in this new season. The open door awaits: step through and embrace your destiny!

THE TIDE IS TURNING; THE DAY OF BUILDING SANDCASTLES HAS ENDED!!

Here, Richard's Watch lays out clearly the Prophetic Word of the Lord coming to Pass; And Quote from Prophetic Word Released; Date; May 1, 2021!

"AMERICA'S SANDCASTLES TO BE WASHED AWAY"

SEE LINK; <https://richards-watch.org/.../americas-sandcastles-to.../>

Then I heard these words, "Watch! For his plans will become like thick sand, and their gigantic sandcastles will be washed away, by a sudden wave of My Justice and Judgment in the days ahead!"

Now, as I heard those Words, I saw Joe Biden standing on a platform, as if he was about to give a speech. Kamala Harris stood behind him and Nancy Pelosi and others (whom I did not recognize) seemed to be strategically placed and positioned around the platform. As I waited and watched, suddenly I saw Joe Biden open his mouth to speak, and as the first word came out of his mouth, I saw 'thick sand' begin to pour out of his mouth. As I looked at this strange thing taking place, again, I heard these Words, "Watch! For his plans will become like thick sand, and their gigantic sandcastles will be washed away by a sudden wave of My Justice and Judgment in the days ahead!" As those words echoed loudly for a second time, I saw that more and more thick sand began to pour out of his mouth. The sand flowed like a river.

Now, as I listened and watched this taking place, I heard Joe Biden begin to decree and declare certain plans that he was making for The Nation, but then something even stranger began to take place! I watched as those who were standing behind him, and to the side of him, began to try to build for themselves gigantic sandcastles with the thick sand that was pouring forth from his mouth as he spoke! Now, as I looked at them, I could see a look of utter desperation and confusion written all over their faces, as they worked frantically together to try to build for themselves these gigantic sandcastles. But then suddenly, I heard these Words, "Watch! For his plans, and their gigantic sandcastles will be built and established on sinking sand — for what is built by the hands of man will not stand! It will not stand!"

As I heard those Words, suddenly, I saw Joe Biden waist deep in sinking sand, and some who had been trying to build sandcastles for themselves had now completely disappeared beneath the thick sinking sand. Joe Biden seemed totally unaware of what was taking place roundabout him; he just kept talking and talking, and thick sand just kept pouring and pouring forth from his mouth. Little did he know, nor did he stop to realize, but the very words that were coming out of his mouth were drowning those who were desperately trying to build and establish his plans in the land. Then I heard these Words, "The wise man built his house upon the rock, but the foolish man built his house upon the sand." (Matthew 7:24-27)

As those words echoed in my spirit within the vision, suddenly, I saw a massive wave breaking forth upon the scene, and I heard The Spirit say, "Watch! For the walls of the waters of the Red Sea shall suddenly fall, and his plans and their sandcastles will be washed away!" And as I heard those words, I saw that the platform that Joe Biden was standing on was suddenly gone, and those who had surrounded him, who were trying to build for themselves gigantic sandcastles, had all been washed away by the massive wave that suddenly came crashing down upon them! A few days later, my next post, Second 'Global Prophecy Signal' – Biden Admin is Built on Sand – Quicksand!

Veronika then wrote me a couple of hours later, saying, "Interesting to note this link, sent by a follower. It was posted by a prophet called Ken Dewey on the same day, and literally a few hours after I posted the word on Sandcastles. Amazing how it confirms what I saw!" [Ken Dewey] 'Today I heard this Word coming forth: "They are walking on quicksand and sinking fast! They are going down. The things they are doing are not solid ground. The foundation will never stand, for it is but sinking sand. Quicksand!"' He was talking about the Biden Administration and the people behind him who are promoting their plans to change this Nation from a Republic and a Democracy to a Socialistic society. "Their foundation will never support their plan, but will sink into oblivion. No more and forever, they are going down to be seen by all as slipping fast."

Terry Friesen: WAIT as we MOVE and MOVE as we WAIT.

What do we want more: to do the work of the Kingdom, or create space for the Lord to come in to do the work of the Kingdom. Ultimately, we know we need to be active, but if we seek to be active apart from His presence, we will come up short and end up building our own kingdom.

Sometimes, determining the lines between these realities is exceedingly difficult, and there are voices on both sides. We can be so focused on creating room that we never move, labour, or become active in the field that we've been a part of preparing. At other times, we are so eager, even feeling the life of the Spirit moving, that we jump into action and don't leave room for the greater the Lord wants to birth into our midst.

In recent months, the Lord has been talking to me about our need to WAIT as we MOVE, and His desire to MOVE as we WAIT.

Let me try to define what I believe the Lord is saying, so we have common language from which to consider this subject.

WAIT as we MOVE, in this context, is defined as active engagement in what is taking place, or as we are advancing. Someone from the outside would say, "That person is active and moving – it is obvious, as anyone can see." But yet, there is something in our hearts that remains open handed, submitted, yielded, looking, perceiving how Holy Spirit is moving. We are not so consumed with the thing in our mind of what we are doing that we block Holy Spirit out of the equation. We recognize, we are active in His field, doing His work, and He has the ability, and certainly the right, to interrupt us at any point for any reason – so, a part of us WAITS and listens, perceives. We may even have our shoulder to the plow and be pushing harder on the levers of our engagement than at any point in our lives, but yet, something deep within us is listening for HIM, the one for whom we labour.

MOVE as we WAIT can be defined as one who is at rest but not asleep (not physical sleep, but spiritual sleep). Our primary function in this mode is WAITING on God. Someone from the outside would say, "They are relaxed, meditating, enjoying family, not actively engaged in the work they have been called to do." Think of when Christ sat down at the right hand of the Father after ascending to Heaven. He sat because His primary earth-bound work in His physical body was complete, so He rested. There are times when we pull back from the active labour in our field of service, and we rest. Notice, however, what happens when Jesus sits and rests from His earthly labour. The Holy Spirit falls on the upper room, and the active, living, breathing church is birthed. The greatest external outflow of the church in history started when Jesus took a seat of rest. Jesus rested, but not in a passive, slumbering kind of way. He rested from His labor but was actively engaged in overseeing what was now coming forth from Him in His rest and as a result of His labour.

As I have MOVED in the field of my Lord, at times He interrupts what I am doing. Sometimes very subtly, and if I do not have my eyes and ears looking, I will miss it. At other times He comes boldly, and He is easy to recognize. The 1st goal is to recognize the moments when He comes on the scene in a fresh way, then the 2nd goal is to make room or yield to what He wants to do.

How many of us would say God is birthing something new in this hour? I think most of us would agree that He is, but how will this practically happen in our lives and spheres of influence? One way is for Him to come and interrupt our current pattern of activity (old wineskin) with a new pattern of behaviors (new wineskin). As mentioned, sometimes He does this boldly, and at other times He does it very subtly. If we don't recognize what He is doing, we may demonstrate that we are not the ones ready to usher in this new change. This isn't intended to be critical, but very practical. Sometime the Lord goes to and fro through the earth looking for who is ready. We can lean into being ready by leaving room.

When we discuss WAITING as we MOVE, He can come externally, as mentioned in the previous paragraph, or He can also come internally as well. Stick with me as I describe this. The church has operated in a way that has seen limited dimensions of the character of Christ. He is not one-dimensional, i.e., Lion vs Lamb. If truth be told, we may not like some aspects of His character because He is too bold, too gracious, too loving, or even appears at times too insensitive (read the gospels). If we want to participate in this new move "fully," are we willing to yield to His movement through us even if it goes against our preferences? Sounds like a new wineskin to me. We lean into and develop the capacity to WAIT on Him so that when He comes in a form we don't recognize, we still know it is He, and we can choose to yield, because we are practiced at giving Him His place.

Let's discuss how He MOVES as we WAIT. I may have mentioned this in the past, but it is one of the clearest examples of this topic. I had been attending a congregation that is known for movement; a powerful group of people that would advance the kingdom of God every time they could and breaking away from the grip of the status quo. After many months, during one service, the glory of God came into the room in a unique way. I don't know if everyone recognized this, but everyone responded to it. We held our place in worship for about 15 minutes, and everything hung in the air. From the outside, someone could say, "They don't know what to do or where to go, so they are just hanging without direction or purpose, WAITING."

As we WAITED, I asked the Lord to open my eyes to what He was doing. I recognized the significance of this moment, and I saw an open portal between Heaven and Earth and hundreds and hundreds of angelic hosts, some on chariots, some with advanced weaponry, come flooding in. I saw them fan out across our country and take their positions. In this moment I realized, as powerful a movement this community had built, and through all the activity they had advanced, it is possible, this 15-minute window was 1000 times greater in what it accomplished than the previous 6 months.

In reality, both the months of active pursuit and the 15 minutes of Heavenly invasion were connected. In part, it was Heaven's response to the will of the Father, to the activity of the church.

A couple weeks later, the same scenario became evident in the spirit. I could sense the glory start to invade, and the air was stirring in response. We were ready for another installment of the Father's will and initiative, but before we could fully enter in, someone started to talk, actively take the mic, and took us in a completely different direction. The glory pulled back, and we had missed our opportunity. The Father's will, will be accomplished, but on another day, or through another group which is ready to steward this atmosphere ongoing.

I believe this happens more than we are willing to admit, both in our personal lives, in our business or workplace, and in our faith communities. I am not suggesting we could or should bat 100% at this point, but we can hit more often as the Lord develops this capacity in our lives and communities.

Recently, I was sitting at my desk and working. I sensed the Lord's presence and inclined my ear to hear if He had something for me to do. He simply said, "Come aside," which I did. I sat on the couch for a few minutes to focus only on Him and His desire in that moment. He took me on a tour in the spirit to several countries a far off and directed me to pray in alignment with His will. Wow! Am I glad I inclined my ear. How many times have I missed these invitations? I don't know, but hopefully, it will be less and less.

At this time, the Lord is readying a new wineskin and preparing to release new wine. I've experienced this new wine on two occasions since Jan 1, 2025. It is amazing. The atmosphere of His presence is so crystal clear and clean, it's as if all the weight of complexity in our lives has been pushed out in favour of a sound, an aroma, an atmosphere in stillness and simplicity. It's incredible.

I am unsure what this new wine will look like as it starts to flow through the body and through new wineskins. Certainly, the Lord has a purpose that will activate in the midst of His new wine, both in our lives, and in regard to His kingdom. One thing we can be sure of, it is not compatible with a frenzied hurry or busyness void of our ability to look for and steward His presence.

I know, sometimes the world and even the Lord draws us into busy seasons, and we can't imagine how fostering a spirit of waiting is possible in the midst of them – but God. Think of Jesus' life and the crowd pushing in on Him. All the demands and stewarding of His work in the field. If we think He did what He did in a sterile environment, we are looking through religious glasses, and we are watering down who He was. He stepped into one of the most contentious times in all of human history and remained vitally connected to, and in the Father, all the while birthing the greatest movement of all time.

I know that in ourselves we do not have the capacity to abide in Christ through the busiest, most complicated activities of our lives, but Christ knows how. After all, He did it. He can form in us the capacity to do the same. Holy Spirit is also a master in every circumstance. There is not a circumstance, nor ever will there be a circumstance, that He does not know how to navigate.

Our job is to simply say yes, and remain on our Lord's path as He makes this real and actionable inside of us.

"Invite Me to take Communion with You!"

Those were the words the Holy Spirit spoke to my friend and me on November 1st of 2024. He said He wanted to tell us things that He knew about the Father, the Word / Son and Himself. Also, He wanted to tell us what He knew about us.

As we began, I felt led to confess for and repent of unsavory words I had uttered in frustration of worldly goings on. As I began to confess, repent, and ask for forgiveness, the atmosphere in the room began to change. It was heavenly charged, so I took that as a sure sign He was taking me seriously. At that point, my girlfriend became convicted too. Toward the end of the repentant offerings, she looked up over my head toward the ceiling, and her eyes got big.

I just knew she was looking at a spider dropping down from the ceiling onto my head and started to jump out of my chair, when she said, "There's a light above you. What is that?"

I asked her what she was talking about. She said that a light was over my head in the form of a circle about the size of a grapefruit, and as I was confessing, repenting, and asking forgiveness, and then thanking Him, the light fluctuated and then popped like a sparkler on the Fourth of July, and it just dissipated. I believe that was the Lord taking seriously what I was offering, and from that day forward for two months solid, we took communion with Holy Spirit every night.

As we began to press into the Holy Spirit, that evening, He showed us that our healing happened as Jesus was at the whipping post. It is by His stripes, we ARE healed!

Isaiah 53:4-5 ⁴Surely He took on our infirmities and carried our sorrows; yet we considered Him stricken by God, struck down and afflicted. ⁵But He was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we ARE healed.

2 Peter 2:24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his WOUNDS you HAVE BEEN healed.

Then he said, "And if you were healed, you ARE healed."

NOTHING can change that! We must come into agreement with that truth... That's our part!

During one of those nights, the Holy Spirit was showing us that our flesh sees communion, through the physical eyes, as a cracker and a cup of juice, but our spirit sees differently, much differently!

As we were engaging with Holy Spirit and He with us, we asked Holy Spirit, what He wanted to tell us. My girlfriend saw a large turkey drumstick, the kind you see on a plate at Thanksgiving, so she asked Holy Spirit, "Why am I seeing a turkey drumstick?" Then He said, "That is how your spirit sees communion." At that moment, I saw a Thanksgiving plate loaded with all of the side dishes, and the Holy Spirit said, "Your spirit is partaking of something like a Thanksgiving feast. When you take communion, your spirit takes it seriously." He then said, "And you must feed your spirit daily, as it is your spirit man who fights the spiritual battles."

That's why Jesus instituted it as a meal or supper, because we eat a meal or supper every day, and so must our spirit. On another time, the Holy Spirit shared with us that He was the healer. Jesus was the Word that He honored when spoken. He showed us Luke 7:1-10, when the Roman officer came along and asked Jesus to heal his servant, who was also his good friend. Jesus didn't even go to his house, and his servant was healed. The Roman officer said to Jesus, "Just give the order." He understood authority, and Jesus was amazed at his faith. When Jesus "gave the order," the Holy Spirit responded, and his servant was made well!

As you can imagine, we were getting pretty excited about the truth we were receiving and the abundance of revelation! Well, faith without works is dead, and we had the opportunity the next day to try it out. My friend called me up in tears the next morning. She had a toothache and needed to go to work, but was in terrible pain! I began to pray and welcome to the Holy Spirit to tell us what we needed to do; He is the helper, after all. He reminded us of what we had learned just the night before about the stripes being our healing! I told Linda to see the stripes He suffered for us, and lay the stripe on your cheek, where the tooth is that's causing you pain.

She did it by faith in the spirit, and focused on the stripe and the price that was paid for our healing, and we commanded the pain and what was causing the pain to come under the authority of the stripe. In under five minutes, the pain went from a 10 to a 1 then a zero, and she was jumping and shouting. "It's gone. It's gone. The pain is gone." It also has not come back.

By His stripes, we ARE healed!

If that wasn't enough, on another occasion my girlfriend was at her place several towns over, so this was over the phone that this occurred. During communion and waiting for the Holy Spirit to begin to teach and share, she was sitting on the edge of her bed and exclaimed, "What just happened?" I asked her what she was referring to, and she said, "I moved; my body moved, I can't explain it."

She was amazed at what she experienced, but didn't understand it. Because, when she opened her eyes, she hadn't moved at all. And in that instant, the Holy Spirit said she was experiencing the growth and maturing of her spirit man, and to expect more of those sensations, because as your spirit is being fed, it is growing. She said, "I even feel taller, that's crazy!" Not really...

The life is in the blood!

Our spirits experience the life in the blood, and the benefits to the physical man are that the body receives all it needs from and through a healthy, robust, and vitally radiant spirit! It is of great importance that we invite the Holy Spirit, who, in His own words, is the "best-man" to the bridegroom and watches out for the bride. He has our backs.

I pray that this blesses you, and I encourage you to invite the Helper into communion. You're going to love the outcome.

Dutch Sheets

The Choice

"I'm Gonna Blow Your Doors Off!"

My frustration could no longer be contained on this particular morning's commute in 1988 to teach at Christ For The Nations Institute in Dallas, Texas. I was running late that day, and as was often the case, my three-year-old daughter, Sarah, was with me so she could attend the preschool classes.

When we pulled out of our subdivision, we ended up behind an elderly man driving an old pickup truck at about 20 mph. After following him for about five minutes on a country road that offered no opportunity to pass, we finally turned onto a four-lane highway. By this time, I had totally lost my patience, and as I zoomed by his vehicle, I mumbled, "Man, I'm gonna blow your doors off!"

Sarah was quiet for the next two or three miles, which I thought was rather unusual. Then, with great concern in her voice, she asked, "Daddy, why are you going to blow that man's doors off?" While watching Sesame Street, she had recently heard the story of The Three Little Pigs and the big bad wolf who blew their houses down. Now she was picturing me literally blowing the doors off this man's truck! She had obviously been thinking about this nonstop since hearing my exclamation, and was rather alarmed and puzzled.

Try explaining to a three-year-old why passing a person's car is sometimes described as "blowing their doors off." Then, of course, she needed to know that I really didn't dislike this elderly gentleman, just his driving.

After this enlightening experience, I realized I would need to be more careful about what I said around children. They are listening!

We've been looking at Martha's failure to listen to Christ as He taught in her home. Let's take one more look at this powerful passage. There are still a couple more pearls hidden in it that are just too good to pass up.

Now as they were traveling along, He entered a village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home. She had a sister called Mary, who was seated at the Lord's feet, listening to His word. But Martha was distracted with all her preparations; and she came up to Him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the serving alone? Then tell her to help me." But the Lord answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and bothered about so many things, but only a few things are necessary, really only one, for Mary has chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.” (Luke 10:38-42)

The Lord made an important statement to Martha, telling her that only a few things are really necessary in life. So far, so good. Food, water, shelter from the elements, oxygen - the list of essentials really is short. Then, He dropped the bombshell: “Really, only one.”

He had me, then He lost me.

I’m ready to admit that many of my “essentials” in life really are not; most are for comfort, pleasure, or personal satisfaction. But the seemingly absurd claim that only one thing in life is really necessary is rather hard to swallow. But Jesus said it, and we have to deal with it.

Connecting the statement to Mary’s decision to sit at the Lord’s feet and listen to His words makes His meaning rather obvious. Here’s my opinion of what Jesus meant by these words: “Martha, if you will truly connect with Me, everything else in life will fall into place. Order will be established; relationships will make sense; I’ll guide your steps into purpose and destiny; everything will work well if you’ll simply listen to Me.”

Astounding, incredible, wonderful, generous...and simple. Yet, life gets complicated. The pace quickens, the to-do list grows, and the Martha side of our nature kicks in. The voice of the Master is then drowned out by the pace of life. When this occurs, and it will, the solution is to return to the simple strategy of Mary: sit and listen.

The passage in Luke says that Mary “chose” the right activity. Most of us don’t believe, or we don’t take the time to consciously consider, that we always have the ability to choose the simple devotion demonstrated by Mary. But we do.

Jesus then referred to Mary’s choice as “good.” That seems rather lame until the Greek word used is really understood. There are two Greek words that He could have used, agathos(1) and kalos(2). Kalos means something is made well and looks good. It is even used for “beauty” or “handsome;” in our day, we use the phrase “good-looking.” Kalos can even include inner beauty or virtue. The word stops short, however, of suggesting practical usefulness. A good example of kalos would be a beautiful picture - it looks good but has no practical use.

When a word is needed, however, that adds the concept of usefulness or benefit, agathos is chosen. To fully convey this aspect, agathos is often translated “good works.” Essentially, kalos is good looks, agathos is good works. Jesus said Mary chose agathos.

The irony of this is astounding. The person doing nothing was credited with doing the "good works," not the person doing all the good works! That ain't right, as we sometimes say. But it was, and it is. Christ was saying, "You look good, Martha, but your busyness won't produce the good works you are looking for. Mary chose that which will enable her to truly do good works, and her fruit will remain."

We must always remember that it is Christ's life flowing through us that produces eternal fruit in others, not our abilities and self-chosen activities. I'm afraid all of us are seduced by this "good-looking" seductress of busyness once in a while.

Jesus warned a group of believers in Scripture that this was happening to them. "You have a name that you are alive, but you are dead," He said to the church of Sardis (Revelation 3:1). To the casual observer, their works must have been impressive. But the Lord looks not at our outward appearance, but at the heart (see 1 Samuel 16:7). His message to the Sardis believers was, "You're kalos, not agathos. Stop with all the busyness and choose the good part - Me."

Christ is the source of all that is good - destiny, fulfillment, well-being. He offers us access to an infinite fountain of blessing. But we must make choices each day that will steer us toward accomplishing the good works He prepared for us. Choose to drink from His living waters. May our hearts never be led astray from a simple, pure, and steadfast devotion to Christ.

Pray with me:

Father, we pray for Your kids, so many of whom have become kalos motivated. Many have bought the lie that polish, size, buildings, and "a name that we were alive" define success. Many have become so "good" at it, they no longer even need Holy Spirit. Yet, as our churches grew, no positive changes occurred in the divorce rate, crime rate, deaths from drugs, homelessness, human trafficking, government, and other concerns. In fact, we lost ground in all of these areas. We have epitomized kalos.

But this is changing! A "sit at His feet" movement is occurring; a "tired of religion" company of believers is emerging. We are hungry for You! And we will pass on our insatiable hunger to a dissatisfied and hungry generation, an "I've tried it all and nothing has satisfied" company, desperate for the real thing. They are ripe for agathos, and You won't disappoint them!

Our decree:

We decree that the great rescue is beginning!

Lou Engle: The Red Thread

A Dream of a Scarlet Ribbon

On April 20, 2020, my friend Chris Berglund had a dream of a red thread, like a scarlet ribbon, floating in the air. It was a text thread from me that read, "El, my Father, my God, El Elyon is about to breach the earth soon—the Great Communion Revival!"

El Elyon is the Most High God. It's the name Melchizedek used when he offered the first Communion of bread and wine to Abraham. We know that Jesus is the greater Melchizedek. He is raising up a priesthood from the children of Abraham to carry His body and blood.

We believe the thread floating in the air represents the scarlet thread of redemption that runs through history, all the way to the Cross, and beyond. In the dream, it was a prophetic word that El Elyon is about to breach the earth. "Breach" is a military term. It depicts a breaking open of the way—where God comes rushing in. We believe He is coming, not just with revival, but with the power of the blood that carries deliverance, healing, and cleansing to a generation.

Chris had an earlier dream in 2004. He saw a mystic woman standing on the sands of time. She opened an ancient treasure chest from which incense-like words began to rise. The words said, "Lou Engle now has the gift of faith for the Great Communion Blood Revival." We didn't understand it then, but after carrying the dream for over twenty years, we believe we're stepping into the moment for which that word was given.

Revival Is Here

Throughout revival history, the blood has led the way. The First Great Awakening began in a Communion service with the Moravians in Germany. The Second Great Awakening started at the Red River Meeting House in Kentucky, during what was called the "Scottish Communion Season." For four days, people gathered at the table of the Lord, and a great move of the Holy Spirit was birthed.

The red thread has continued. In 2009, I had a dream in which I asked Bill Johnson, "Where can you catch fish along the Sacramento River?" Bill answered, "You can catch fish where the river turns red." I ran along the river and saw that where the river turned red, there were fishermen catching fish all along its banks.

This is a harvest dream. The red river is the river of blood, the river of the sacrament. I believe we're moving into a season of revival that will release one of the greatest harvests in America's history. It's all connected to the revelation of Communion and the power of the blood.

There have been many confirmations. During a fast in 2022, while praying for the Great Communion Revival, we received a news article reporting that the Catholic Church had just launched a three-year Eucharistic Revival. The article told of young people being healed just by looking at the host.

Could it be that, as Protestants, we've lost some of the awe and reverence the Catholics have had for Communion? What if we've treated it too casually—just crackers and grape juice once a month—and we've missed the Lamb at the center of the throne? God is restoring and reviving our understanding of His covenant meal.

The Power of Communion

A few years ago, I read Beni Johnson's book, The Power of Communion, and was deeply impacted. Beni was taking Communion three times a day and going to high places like Mount Shasta. She and her team would apply the blood through Communion, and the altars of witchcraft were rendered ineffective. People were taking Communion for their families and seeing deliverance and healing. Moved by these testimonies, I began to realize how I had devalued the explosive power of the sacrament. (Photo via Pexels)

Recently, I heard a story of a couple whose four-year-old son had cancer for the second time. They did everything they could. Finally, they took Communion for forty days straight, pleading the blood of Jesus over their son. At the end of the forty days, he was completely healed! Later, they found out the little boy had been sneaking into the cupboard and also taking Communion each day. The doctor was amazed when his examination showed no cancer cells or any evidence that the boy had ever had cancer.

Not long ago, I felt led by the Holy Spirit to watch footage of nuclear bomb explosions. As I watched, the Lord spoke to my heart, saying, "You think these are powerful? When I went to the Cross and shed My blood, I broke principalities and powers. I shook the earth. I defeated death, Hell, and the grave. You haven't even begun to understand the power of Communion."

Something is shifting in our mindsets. Jesus said, "Do this in remembrance of Me." But we are realizing that Communion is not just a memorial, it's actually a reenactment of the most powerful interchange in history!

Back in 2004, we launched a "Silent Siege" in front of the Supreme Court with red "LIFE" tape over our mouths. We always ended our time of prayer by taking Communion and pleading the blood of Jesus that speaks a better word than the blood of sixty million aborted babies. For eighteen years, five days a week, intercessors fasted and prayed, crying out, "Jesus, I plead Your blood over my sins and the sins of my nation. God, end abortion and send revival to America." Millions have now prayed this prayer. When Roe fell, it was because the blood judged the death gods of America. Do you see it? The red tape has become a continuation of the scarlet thread.

One young woman contacted us to share how she lost her red LIFE band in a Walmart parking lot in Mankato, Minnesota. A year later, she was waitressing when she saw another woman wearing the same band. She asked her about it, and the woman said, "I found it in the Walmart parking lot about a year ago. I was going to get an abortion the next day, but when I saw the word "LIFE" on the band, I knew it was a sign to keep my baby—and here she is!" Her beautiful child was beside her in her baby carrier.

The Thread Continues

God is weaving this thread through our history. When we were planning our Day of Atonement gathering in D.C. for A Million Women, we couldn't get the permit for the National Mall on that day. A prophetic leader declared to us, "We must not change the date. The Day of Atonement is the day a nation receives either mercy or judgment." We made plans to proceed without the permit and were trusting God to open the way. A few months before the gathering, the group who held the permit resigned, and we were granted access to the Mall. (Photo via WallpaperSafari)

At 6:00 P.M. on the night of the gathering, we took Communion and cried out for mercy—not based on our righteousness, but on the blood. Afterward, an African-American leader contacted me. He didn't know about our gathering, but he told me, "At 6:00 P.M. last night, I told my wife, 'Something just shifted in America. Trump will be elected, and our country will have another chance.'"

The blood has the final word. On the Day of Atonement, we believe America received a verdict of mercy.

From Coast to Coast

We've just come from Communion gatherings in Redding, San Francisco, San Diego, and Burbank, declaring, "Behold the Lamb of God." On Passover, we held our final Communion service in Los Angeles. The blood has been saturating California. In hindsight, we see Heaven's wisdom in bringing us from our nation's governmental gate on the Day of Atonement all the way to the gates of culture by Passover. In each location, a table was set for us in the presence of our enemies. From the rising of the sun in the east to its setting in the west, the name of the Lord has been praised (Psalm 113:3)!

My pastor, Che Ahn, had a dream on the morning of Passover in which we were singing "America the Beautiful." We had sung this anthem in Washington, D.C., but he didn't know we were planning to sing it that night in Los Angeles. As instructed in another dream, we changed the word "grace" to "blood." So, the song rang out from sea to shining sea: "America, America, God shed His blood on thee!" Che was stunned by the fulfillment of the dream. The blood of Jesus is judging the gods. Just as He judged the gods of Egypt, His blood is judging the gods of California! When the blood is applied, principalities fall.

Years ago, Cindy Jacobs gave a prophetic word that California would be a pro-life state. We knew the only way this could happen is if the Hispanics rose up en masse and took down abortion. I believe we are coming into the fullness of time for the Hispanic voice to rise in California for the sake of revival and reformation.

Sometime after Cindy Jacobs' prophecy, my friend Matt Lockett, who runs the prayer ministry Bound4Life, had a dream of a Hispanic man calling for him to "Come to California." In 2012, we began a movement of prayer and fasting called California Estada Provida ("California is pro-life"). I believe the masses are awakening to the sanctity of life and the blood of the sacrament, which is more powerful than the false ideologies perpetrated by the government in Sacramento.

It's Time to Unite

As the red thread continues to unfold, we are calling the intercessors of California to unite in praying Bound4Life's twenty-two-word prayer that broke Roe. Other states can substitute their names in the following prayer: Jesus, I plead Your blood over my sins and the sins of my state. God, end abortion and send revival to California.

Starting on Shavuot—the Jewish holiday of Pentecost, beginning the eve of June 1—Believers across the country are preparing to take back the month of June and rename it "Life Month." Citizens for Life will be hosting Life Marches in Texas and across all fifty states.

From now to Pentecost, let's unite in prayer for a global outpouring of God's Spirit. May the Voice of Many Waters uncap the wells of Azusa Street, the Hebrides Revival, and other past moves of God. Let's continue to intercede for President Trump to be baptized with the power of the Holy Spirit and for an anointing to rest upon our government to fulfill the purposes of Heaven.

Then, from June 1 through June 21, I urge you to join me and many others in a focused stand of intercession. Clothed in the righteousness of Christ, we will make a daily declaration of the victory of the blood of Jesus over the powers of Molech and the powers of California. All the while, join me in declaring this victorious truth that Derek Prince proclaimed daily: "We have been redeemed by the blood of the Lamb from the hand of the enemy!"

Finally, on June 21, I invite you to attend a strategic, day-long gathering in Downey, California, where a new breed of revivalists and godly activists will pray, proclaim, and take Communion over California. Led by Seth Gruber, a rising and powerful voice for life, The Last Stand could be a hinge-of-history moment to turn California back to God.

Helen Calder: Your "Yes" Is Echoing Through Generations

What Is a "Hinge Moment"?

A hinge moment is a moment upon which a door of opportunity opens. There's a before and an after, because once you are through that door, nothing is the same again.

Today, I believe the Holy Spirit is highlighting this truth: In times of change or difficulty, we have a unique opportunity to surrender our lives to God when we don't have it all together.

"I will give her vineyards from there, and the Valley of Achor [trouble] as a door of hope." (Hosea 2:15 NKJV, brackets mine)

Powerful Hinge Moments in the Bible

The Bible is filled with hinge moments when people encountered God and responded in surrender and faith. Their lives, and future generations, were forever changed. Esther said, "If I perish, I perish," and prepared to petition the king for her people (Esther 4:16). Ruth left her homeland to follow Naomi. She declared, "Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God" (Ruth 1:16 NLT). Mary of Nazareth answered, "Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38 NKJV). Simon Peter, James, and John responded to Jesus' call. Luke tells us, "They left everything and followed Jesus" (Luke 5:11 NLT). Saul (later Paul) asked, "Lord, what do You want me to do?" (Acts 9:6 NKJV).

Your "Yes" at a Hinge Moment

Some moments in life change everything. They define everything that follows. Those decisions may even seem minor at the time, but they open doors we never imagined. They are hinge moments, where God's purpose shifts our destiny, and it's not just for us but for generations to come.

So, if you find yourself at a crossroads or in a crisis—if there's trouble or even danger—your "yes" to God is more powerful than you know. (Photo via Unsplash)

The Prayer Meeting That Changed a Destiny

I was reminded of this recently when I pulled a book from my shelf that I hadn't read in years. It was a short biography of George Müller. It was as though I was reading it for the very first time. Drawn in, I was unexpectedly moved by the power of his conversion story.

As a young man, Müller stepped into a home prayer meeting with a friend in Germany during the 1800s. He came intending to mock, but what he encountered was powerful. Believers were praying, reading Scripture, and worshiping together. Then came a moment that struck George Müller's soul like lightning. The leader invited someone to pray. The man stood, turned, and awkwardly knelt by his chair, and while the man was in that posture, George saw something he'd never witnessed.

"Why was he kneeling?" he wondered.

Then it hit him: "He had to kneel because he wanted to tell God he was humble and human, and that God was almighty and all wise. He was showing his awe and adoration!" (1)

That night, back in his room, Müller knelt and gave his life to God. One man's simple act of kneeling in prayer became a hinge moment, touching a life that would touch thousands and generations to come. Little did I know, when I first bought that second-hand book, that George Müller's life would touch my own family.

Hinge Moment: How Your Surrender Opens Doors to Destiny

Your surrender will impact future generations. Small moments of surrender can echo in eternity. That kneeling man's moment touched George Müller. Müller's surrender touched my great-great-grandfather, then it reached to me, and now to you all who are reading this. Right now, God is already setting up the impact of future generations through your life. He is already across it.

Twenty years after I first read about George Müller, I discovered my great-grandmother's memoirs. In them, she told how George Müller led her father to faith. When her father died tragically, leaving seven young children, a benefactor in his circle rescued Mary from poverty and changed the trajectory of her life.

I was amazed and realized, "I would not be here if it weren't for George Müller and perhaps, for the kneeling man."

Let this promise encourage you today:

"For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and floods on the dry ground; I will pour My Spirit on your descendants, and My blessing on your offspring" (Isaiah 44:3 NKJV). (Photo via MaxPixel)

Your Surrender Will Leave a Lasting Legacy

Every great story of faith begins with one moment of surrender. Your obedience has the power to leave a spiritual legacy. The Bible speaks of men and women whose lives weren't just marked by personal faith, but whose choices changed history. What do you dare to believe? This could be your pivotal moment—a hinge moment.

A hinge moment can come from a dark place. With God, the darkest places can become hinge moments. Sometimes, in the turbulence, there's a grace encounter. In Genesis 28, Jacob fled from home after failure and deceit. Alone, using a stone as a pillow, he was at his lowest. Yet in that moment, God gave him a dream—a promise of blessing on his descendants. He would return to that very place with his family. In the same way, God still uses hinge moments today. Hear Him say, "Your legacy is safe with Me. I am working all things together for good" (Romans 8:28).

Jesus Surrendered in a Hinge Moment

We can surrender in the hinge moment because Jesus did first. In the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus prayed, "Not My will, but Yours, be done" (Luke 22:42 NKJV). This ultimate act of surrender became our doorway to redemption—a hinge moment!

Today, God is visiting you in the backdrop of change, including change you didn't expect or choose. You may not know what's coming. There may be questions, challenges, or uncertainty about provision, but right here, in this very moment, the Lord is offering you a hinge moment. Your surrender today can open the door to your God-ordained destiny. Say yes, step through, and trust that He is already on the other side, waiting to meet you there.

LORILEI COOLEY MINISTRIES

THIS IS NOT THE END, IT IS THE BEGINNING OF THE FULFILLMENT OF YOUR DESTINY!

I know that this word is lengthy, and normally don't go to the extent of writing a long word, but I encourage you to take the time to read it. I sensed that it will truly bless many.

Many have been in the biggest transition of their lives. Things from the past have been resurfacing, the agony and pain of what you have walked through comes to remembrance; the things that were lost and stolen, and the years it has taken to get to this moment in your life, where you are finally at the cusp of stepping into the fullness of your destiny. It seems that many things have come to end, feeling of displacement, and the asking of what's next? What now Lord?

The Lord is restoring your strength, birthing a greater boldness and confidence in you that can only be birthed through Him. There is deep work of the Holy Spirit happening that is making room for what He is about to bring forth. Not only is He bringing forth what He has promised, but there is increase, provision, favor, and promotion upon you. I felt the Lord saying that He is about to show you His goodness, and that He did not forget what He promised. While many have waited for this appointed time to come, I felt the Lord saying that not only is His timing is here, but it is coming with interest from the waiting, there has been a great increase added to the promises.

I was reminded of this verse in Psalms.

Psalms 27:13-14 "I remain confident of this: I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord."

You may have been hidden for a long time, and have felt that all you do is wait, linger, but the time has come to be revealed, to emerge, and coming forth carrying His power to go forth and do all that the Lord has called you to do. Timing is truly everything.

What the Lord has many birthing right now is not a small feat, it is the greatest birthing and transition that you have yet to encounter. It is imperative that you allow the Lord to do what He needs to do right now, as you do is bringing you forth over this significant threshold -- where destiny is awaiting you on the other side.

I was also reminded of this verse in Isaiah.

Isaiah 66:9 "Shall I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?" says the Lord. "Or shall I who give delivery shut the womb?" says your God.

YOU WILL RISE IN GREATER STRENGTH

Many have felt like they got the wind knocked out of them, through the many trials and warfare, but you are rising up from the ashes with greater strength and endurance than you have ever known, that can only be found in Christ. You will walk into all that the Lord has for you.

Things are falling into place and coming together. I saw these next few months being pivotal of such alignment, strategic moves, and the Lord positioning many for greater breakthrough and to step through the doors He has prepared for many. He is bringing the right help that you need for these new assignments. He is ordering your steps and movements to be in the right place at the right time.

For some of you, and this is not a word I would normally share, but He is bringing end-time marriages together. He is bringing your helpmate. Many of you can only go so far into your calling, and the Lord knows you need your helpmate to go further. I felt this strongly from the Lord; they are on the way. The timing for these divine unions is in this moment and timeline of this new era that we are in. I felt this sudden urgency from the Lord to get your house in order, finishing things up. Prepare, and get ready to cross paths with your helpmate.

The title of this word says that this is not the end, and it isn't, although it appears that way. However, this is where you are supposed to be in this moment of time. Many don't make it into fulfilling the fullness of their destiny, because the painfulness of the process to get there is honestly hard. You are at the cusp of the beginning, and there is colossal change get ready to manifest.

I want to encourage you with this. I sensed this strongly about the next few months. The Lord is bringing many things that He has spoken forth. It will be one thing after another coming to pass, and it will be just as He said and promised it would be! Stay yielded, stand, and stay in faith that your Kairos appointed time is here.

Nate Johnston: I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'IT IS TIME TO UNEARTH'

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'It is time to unearth.'

As the Lord spoke these words, the picture of an archaeologist digging into the ground kept coming before me, and the word 'DISCOVERY' was so loud in my spirit.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened, I heard:

'My people, I am calling you deeper. I am calling you deeper into the place of intimacy with Me in this hour; as there are discoveries in Me and deep mysteries that I am uncovering and unveiling to you that you have never seen or received. I say unto you, that I am increasing revelation in this hour that is so deeply rooted in My truth and My Word, that you are going to discover and unearth levels of wisdom, divine insight and intel, in ways you have never experienced before.'

I could hear Daniel 2:22 surrounding me loudly in the spirit: "He reveals deep and hidden things; he knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with him."

'My people, there are deep mysteries in Me that I am inviting you into. I am bringing you deeper into the revelation of My nature and who I am, and the treasures contained within My Word; and I am increasing your insight to show you what is known and what is hidden and what lies in darkness. I say unto you that there is such a mighty increase in discernment, but many are trading the invitation into DISCERNMENT for DISTRACTION. I say unto you, in this hour you must deal with distraction. I say unto you, you must die to distractions in this hour and stand firm with your face towards Me as flint (Isaiah 50:7).

'I say unto you, that those who keep their minds upon Me, I will keep in perfect peace (Isaiah 26:3). I say unto you, LOOK at what you are LOOKING AT. For there are many who are looking in the wrong direction, there are many who are being dazzled by distraction. The invitation before you in this hour to come deeper is weighty and it is of the utmost importance, My people, for you to navigate the days ahead and that which I am leading you into.

'I say unto you, My people, repent of distraction. And where you lay down distraction, not only am I bringing you deeper into discipling you in discernment, but I will give you greater direction. The enemy is attempting to keep you bound in distraction so you will not move in the increase of discernment and direction that I am releasing to you in this hour. I say unto you, that I am bringing you into a greater awakening of what it looks like to live a life of governing in and with Me – as you seek Me deeply in the place of intimacy, walking with Me in humility and reverence, and listening to My voice.

'As you stay close to Me in this hour, I am directing you and I am discipling you. I am teaching you My ways in greater ways, but you must repent of distraction and detangle yourselves from it by arising in ferocious focus upon Me. For where I speak and where I am leading, My grace will empower and carry you. Come to Me and ask Me. Ask Me where distraction has taken your focus. Allow my Spirit to shine My light upon those areas; and where you die to these distractions by arising in ferocious focus upon Me, I will bring you into a greater place of clarity and understanding.

'I am increasing understanding in many ways in this hour. I am increasing divine insight and discernment and bringing forth a clarity in many ways. But you must be focused to lean in and listen to what I am saying. The enemy is attempting to keep many bound in his lure to keep them rehearsing the natural realm and natural circumstances; but I say unto you, there is great understanding I am releasing right now of what I am saying and what I am doing in some areas that those who have ears to hear, let them hear! I say unto you, give not your ears to other things above Me. Come to Me before anything else, and listen to what I am saying. Listen to My voice in My Word. Listen deeply. For understanding is being increased.'

"Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know." (Jeremiah 33:3)

I then heard the words: 'Things are not as they seem.'

As I heard these words, the Lord began to show me that there were many who were looking at natural-realm circumstances and situations, and I could see them attempting to deal with these circumstances from a 'natural-realm perspective' and they were not seeing shifts that they believed the Lord had spoken to them in this hour.

I then heard:

'I am pulling back the curtain on many things. I am revealing that things are not as they seem, and I am giving you the strategies to pray and to declare the wisdom that is needed to move forward to see the shifts that I have spoken. I say unto you, that the enemy is coming against many right now to keep you distracted by natural realm circumstances before your eyes – to lock you into a natural-realm perspective and hinder your movement and hinder you moving in authority in your prayers and declarations to bring a shift in the areas that I am calling you to govern in. I say unto you, take your eyes off the natural realm. Come up higher, lean in, and listen. Wrestle and wait until you receive My rhema Word and My heavenly perspective.

'I say unto you, that many of you are about to break through into a major increase of My heavenly perspective – if you turn away from distraction and looking at the natural realm, and look deeper and listen to what I am saying.

'I am inviting you into a deeper unearthing. A deeper place of receiving the mysteries of My heart, My Word, My revelation, My truth. Be lovers of My truth. I am inviting you into a deeper place of discernment. Truth is being unearthed and revealed to those who will seek and those who will listen. The treasures of My truth are coming forth. I am bringing those of you who are hearing what My Spirit is saying and following My leading into a greater place of training and awakening of what it looks like to live from your heavenly seat in Me (Ephesians 2:6), and not led and bound by the earthly realm. There is a greater deliverance of the heart and mind from being tethered to natural-realm perspective that I am bringing forth in this hour, through the shaking and through the pressure. Who will ascend the mountain of the Lord? Those with clean hands and pure hearts. (Psalm 24)

'The level of unearthing that is coming forth in this hour is unprecedented. The levels of revelation I am releasing, found in My Word and the increase of authority I am awakening you and teaching you to walk in, requires ferocious focus upon Me. Many of you are being set free by the unearthing and the revealing that is coming forth and a returning and revealing of the ancient pathways, and as you walk in them, you will find rest for your souls (Jeremiah 6:16). I am looking for those who ask, who will look, who will listen, and who will obey My ways.'

Bethany Hicks: The Atmosphere You Carry, and How to Shift It

Have you ever walked into a room and immediately felt the weight of the atmosphere? Maybe it was thick with tension after an argument, or maybe it carried the joy of laughter and fun. What if I told you that you have the ability to shift atmospheres, whether in your home, workplace, or church?

The Power of Atmospheres

Atmospheres shape environments, and environments determine what can grow.

I remember visiting Horseshoe Lake as a child, a beautiful lake in the Eastern Sierra Nevada mountain range in California. This lake was surrounded by lush, green pines.

Years later, I returned to find acres of dead, dry, and brittle trees. The cause? Toxic CO₂ had seeped into the soil, slowly poisoning the environment.

In the same way, spiritual atmospheres affect the soil of our hearts, which then determines what can grow. Jesus' parable of the Sower (Matthew 13) illustrates this. Seeds of truth grow best in prepared, healthy soil, while hard or cluttered ground prevents growth. The determining factor for soil to be healthy is the atmosphere the soil is exposed to. (Photo via Pexels)

We Are Not Just Affected by Atmospheres, We Contribute to Them

We often think of atmospheres as something we passively experience, but the truth is, we bring an atmosphere with us wherever we go. What do you carry? Peace or anxiety? Faith or fear? Encouragement or negativity?

Consider Saul's transformation in 1 Samuel 10:5–6. He encountered a company of prophets who carried a powerful, prophetic atmosphere. Simply by getting into their atmosphere, the Spirit of God came upon him, and he was "changed into a different person." The atmosphere they cultivated shifted him. You have the power to create and shift the atmosphere in every area you have authority in.

How We Shift Atmospheres

When we think of atmospheres, it's easy to see how negative atmospheres can affect us. When my daughter was in the 8th grade, she told me that she was having thoughts of suicide. This admission was completely opposite the person I knew her to be, and I immediately suspected that she was actually picking up something in the atmosphere.

I asked her if she knew of anyone in her class struggling with thoughts of suicide, and she suddenly remembered that there was a boy in her class who had recently been sharing this struggle with some of his classmates. Thankfully, I was able to help her recognize that the thoughts she was having were not her own; she was discerning them in the atmosphere of her class, and therefore, she did not have to come into agreement with them.

Just as negative atmospheres can spread, the greater reality is that Kingdom atmospheres can displace darkness. Here are some Biblical examples of this:

- David played his harp, and Saul's torment lifted (1 Samuel 16:23).
- Elisha called for a musician, and the power of the Lord came upon him (2 Kings 3:15).
- Paul and Silas worshiped in prison, and their chains—as well as everyone else's—fell off (Acts 16:25–26). (Photo via Picryl)

We release what we carry. What we cultivate internally in our hearts, we release externally in the world around us. If we nurture peace, faith, and joy in God's presence, we will shift atmospheres wherever we go. The lesser reality always bows to the greater one.

How to Be Intentional About the Atmosphere You Carry

Start by asking yourself, "What do I release when I walk into a room?" If you're unsure, ask a trusted friend how they experience your presence. Then, take time in prayer and worship to cultivate the atmosphere of Heaven in your own life.

This week, pay attention to the environments around you. Are they full of faith or fear? Encouragement or criticism? Where you see darkness, be the shift. Speak life. Pray. Release peace. Your presence carries more influence than you realize.

Let's be atmosphere shifters together!

Joe Joe Dawson: Developing the Mindset of a Champion & Raising Your Expectations

Underestimated

Word posted on April 28, 2025:

As I was spending my morning time with the Lord, He spoke this word to me: "Underestimated." I continued praying and seeking the Lord about what He meant by this word. He began to show me that most people underestimate God and His power, and so they underestimate placing God in the center of every situation.

We serve an all-knowing and all-powerful God, full of mercy and grace, who wants to bring us out of every situation that could cause harm. To underestimate, means to view something with less importance than it actually holds. If you could understand fully the depth to which God loves you and wants to see you victorious, you would stop underestimating His power and allow Him to take what the enemy meant to destroy you, and turn it for your good!

Luke 1:37 says, "For with God nothing will be impossible" (NKJV). If nothing is impossible with God, why don't we allow Him to guide our every move, ensuring we always have victory?

We have to recognize that we need God, and without Him we are relying on our own strength. The victory already belongs to us, but in order to see the victory come to pass, we have to allow God to fight our battles. Our Lord has never lost a battle, and He never will.

Never underestimate the power of God in any situation. No matter what mountain you may be facing, or how big the situation may seem, anything is possible through the power of God.

In this season of growth, you have to rely on God's strength and power. Those who lose battles lose because they try to fight on their own, but when you take God at His word, you are guaranteed the victory.

God and our relationship with Him should hold utmost importance in our lives, and developing a strong foundation on the Word of God will set you up for an increase like never before! (Photo via Unsplash)

Overtured in Your Favor

Word posted on May 3, 2025:

During my time in prayer this week, the Lord showed me several things that relate to the season we are in. One thing He said that stuck out to me and stirred my spirit was, "I am about to overturn things in your favor!"

Whatever you may be standing for—business deals, financial breakthroughs, or even physical healings—God is overturning things in your favor! Ezekiel 21:27 says, "I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it to him" (KJV).

One of the greatest elements to walking with the Lord is that He is able to do impossible things despite what the circumstances may look like. God is able to open doors, overturn decisions, and lead you into things you never thought possible.

Never count yourself out when you have God on your side. In the Bible, King Jehoshaphat was surrounded on all sides, and it seemed hopeless, but one word from the Lord, and he was victorious and received all the spoils. Victory belongs to you too.

Jesus paid the price on the cross for us to live victoriously, but some people don't, because before they even lose the battle, they lose with their mindset. Develop the mindset of a champion. Renew your mind daily with the Word of God, and constantly declare victory and favor over your life.

We serve a God of the impossible. No matter the projected outcome or the words of others, God has the final say. This is the season where God is working all things together for the good of those who trust in Him, are faithful to Him, and lay down their lives for the plans He has for them.

There are countless testimonies of impossible odds being beaten by the power of God, and the Bible says God is not a respecter of persons. This means that what He did for others, He will do for you too! Attach your faith to the Word of God, and watch Him overturn all things in your favor.

Similar Season, Different Result

Word posted on May 8, 2025:

This week in prayer, I was praying and seeking the Lord about the specific season that we are in. He gave me a very profound word that stirred my spirit and got me fired up! He said, "It's a similar season, but expect a different result."

Something that stuck out to me was the word "expect." God is telling us in this season to get our expectations up for what He wants to do. What you expect is what you get.

Have you ever been in a season of growth where you thought you were about to receive the biggest breakthrough of your life, but you didn't receive it? Not this time! The Lord is telling us to raise our expectations, shift our mindsets, and position ourselves to get a different outcome this time! (Photo via Pexels)

And the Lord, He is the one who goes before you. He will be with you; He will not leave you nor forsake you; do not fear nor be dismayed. (Deuteronomy 31:8 NKJV)

Don't be fearful that this season is going to turn out the same as the ones in the past, but raise your expectations that this is going to be the greatest season of your life!

In this time of elevation, God is bringing you next-level friends and people who are going to help you grow and speak life over you. You are even going to get a different result in friendships. If you have been abandoned, deserted, or even betrayed by your friends in the past, don't expect that same result! God is bringing you the right friends, people, and leaders to run with you for this season.

Whatever mountain you have circled repeatedly in the past, this will be the last lap! Just like the children of Israel, this season is lap seven. The mountain you are facing right now, you won't ever face again! This is the time and hour of a new result, a shift, a high-expectation season!

You have the opportunity to build, create, and design the future that God has designed for you, but you have to have faith and get your hopes up for this season. Even if it hasn't worked a thousand times, the one thousand and first try is going to work! Don't give up on something God has placed in your heart. This is the season of a different result!

Mandy Adendorff: Overcoming the Spirit of Fear Through the Prince of Peace

God showed something to me in a dream about fear, anxiety, and intimidation. In early 2020, I was given a dream about overcoming the spirit of fear. Five years later, I am convinced that this dream was not only for 2020, but a gift to His Church for this age.

Where the War Is Won Against All Kinds of Fear and Intimidation

In my dream, I saw and felt the words "Prince of Peace" suspended like a banner over the air and in the sky, and I could feel the peace of Jesus tangibly. Below the banner, I saw a strange thing: a man knelt beneath the banner and removed his head from his body as if his head was a helmet. He held out his head so that it came directly under the "Prince of Peace" banner. There he was, bowed down in full submission, with his head in his hands separated from his body, directly under the Prince of Peace. He had removed his mind willfully and submitted it fully under the authority of the Prince of Peace. The alignment of his mind and opinions under Christ was a form of pure worship and a warfare strategy.

What I saw next was even more amazing. Below the man's feet was another dimension. There was a strange creature there. It resembled a demon-like animal with a horn on its head (horns in the Bible symbolize powers, either good or evil), and it had bowed its horn in full submission beneath the man who was surrendered beneath the Prince of Peace.

I believe this image in the dream reveals the order of kingdom government. The person whose mind is fully surrendered to the Prince of Peace overcomes the enemy by his position that he has chosen to stay in. His authority over the enemy is found in resting and remaining under the banner of Christ. His mind is guarded here, and this is where the war is won against all kinds of fear and intimidation. (Illustration by Mandy Adendorff)

Drought of Peace

The earth is feeling a drought of peace because there has been an attack on peace and soundness of mind. This epidemic of fear, accompanied by anxiety and depression, grieves the heart of God, but He has a remedy. "Peace" may sound like a soft weapon for war, but what we view as weak is often strong. "Prince of Peace" is one of the names describing Jesus' governmental rule.

"[T]he government will be on His shoulders. And He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the greatness of His government and peace there will be no end." (Isaiah 9:6–7 NIV)

Peace is an unlikely weapon for war, but God is known for using weapons that appear to be weak. Jesus was first revealed to humanity as a vulnerable baby in a stable, and it seemed as if He died as a powerless man. Darkness could not understand God's "weak" war tactics and thought that killing Jesus would destroy God.

The weapons of darkness are so different to the ways of our King. Only light can discern God's intelligence, and we are the children of light.

It's Not About Human Power or Strength

Bravery and courage are not reserved for strong people. These are attributes of the Holy Spirit that He gives to people. You can be the most naturally fearful, timid person, but when you come under the powerful Prince of Peace, God will shift your life, your mindset, your courage, and your spirit. He will make you thunderous like a lion. You will become the overcomer that you never dreamt you could ever be. This is not by your own might or power. It is only by the Holy Spirit.

There is only one way to live in courage, and it is certainly not through human strength or personality types. It's through surrendering our human ideas, thoughts, and opinions to align with the government of God. It is here that we find our strength.

In order to live the way Christ called us to live, we have to be empowered by the Holy Spirit. The good news is He gives His Holy Spirit to us as a gift (and without limit) as we surrender to Him without restrictions.

When you became born again, the Holy Spirit came to live inside you. He is not simply a gentle river, but a volcanic fire. Jesus, the Prince of Peace, is not a trickling stream, but a consuming fire. And He shares this with us, His beloved.

Can God take a young Gen Z boy who is filled with fear and anxiety and turn him into a warrior? Ask Gideon. Can God take a young forgotten girl and give her the courage to stand before intimidating grown men and save an entire nation? Ask Esther.

God is raising up "Gideons" and "Esthers" in the Gen Z generation. But can He raise older men who have failed and given up? Ask Samson.

He is pouring out His Spirit on all people—young and old, male and female.

Dismantling Foreign Thrones and Learning from History

There is a discipline required to surrender our own opinions and emotions to Christ. They may feel like they are part of us, but if they fight against God's Word, they are simply seductive spirits attempting to steal from us.

During COVID-19, there was a decision we had to make. We could either listen to the news and submit ourselves to the opinions of the voices that were prominent and popular, or we could change the channel of our hearts and surrender to the news of God.

We're never supposed to live in confusion. One of the things we can learn during confusing times is this: When we don't know an answer to a question, and there is confusion in the air, instead of seeking men's answers, we can simply ask God.

Jeremiah 33:3 (NIV) tells us, "Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know." There are things that no one knows but God, and He wants to show us His answers. As we seek Him, we will find Him in every situation and quandary of life. God is so faithful that He will show you things that others may not know. If He doesn't show you, He will show you how to posture your heart.

Sometimes it's okay to not know the answers and wait for His Word before needing to grab something out of the airwaves of "chatterings." If you will take Him at His word, and not your friend's opinion, you will find His path, and you will live a life of peace when the world is in turmoil. God will be able to raise you up so that you can speak peace to the storm like Jesus, who was submitted to His Father. He slept in peace while turmoil was around Him in the storm, and He was able to take authority over the storm, because the storm did not master Him. (Photo via Picryl)

Vacant Thrones and Rising "Josephs"

It's very simple: Submit yourself to God first—to His news, His Word—and His power will come upon you to give you supernatural courage, fearlessness, and holy thunder to live in love, peace, and authority on the earth, and to mature you to lead in a season where there will be many vacant places for leaders to fill in all sorts of places in the world. For this is a season where the "Josephs" are being raised up in every realm of government.

The Lord is taking His faithful who have silently served, and He is bringing peaceful, powerful leaders into every realm of society to heal what is broken, and to bring in a great revival harvest.

God is raising up His Ekklesia into a new level of maturity to mother and father nations, and in order to function in this authority of Jesus. We have to live from a place of solid peace and not be given to the airwaves of deception that the enemy uses, but be carefully submitted to the airwaves of Christ. It is only through the Word of God, the Holy Spirit, and the authority of Christ that we will discern how to lead in His Kingdom.

King Solomon's reign was marked by a season of peace that stretched as far as his kingdom rule. Under Solomon's reign, huge advancements for humanity were made: the temple was built, and the arts and sciences progressed. It was during Solomon's reign of peace that the people were able to plant and to build. "During Solomon's lifetime Judah and Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, lived in safety, everyone under their own vine and under their own fig tree" (1 Kings 4:25 NIV).

Similarly, in the early Church, after a season of great persecution, a time of peace followed which yielded increase: "Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee and Samaria enjoyed a time of peace and was strengthened. Living in the fear of the Lord and encouraged by the Holy Spirit, it increased in numbers." (Acts 9:31 NIV)

Times of peace bring opportunity to strengthen what God is building and bring rapid increase.

The Kingdom of God is advancing, no matter the state of the earth, and when we surrender our minds to His Spirit of peace, we can rule and reign in any season, even while storms rage.

Veronika West

THE THREE-LEGGED STOOL; THE BALANCING ACT, JOKER BIDEN AND KAMALA QUEEN OF HEARTS.

Here Laura Ingram alludes to the Powerful Dream which brings timely Confirmation to Prophetic Fulfillment, and I quote; "There was a three-legged stool that protected Biden: The White House, the media, and Democrats in Congress. That stool has now completely collapsed."

Suddenly, in that moment in the dream, I heard these Words, "The Throne of The Lion King!" Now as I heard those Words, suddenly, I noticed another chair which was brought to my attention in the dream. As I looked at the other chair, I saw that it was a 'three-legged stool' (which looked almost like a high standing bar-stool). Now, as I looked at this strange three-legged stool, I knew by revelation that this was also a 'type of throne,' but as I drew closer to it, I heard the Words, "Demonic throne of the darkness!"

Now, as I stepped even closer towards this strange looking 'throne,' I immediately noticed a large triangular shape engraved upon the seat of the three-legged stool, and in the middle of the triangle was an eye. And as I looked at the triangle and the eye, I heard these Words, "A love triangle and the eye of Leviathan." As those words echoed loudly in the spirit realm, I heard these words, "The triangle of Obama, Biden and Harris," and then again, I heard, "A love triangle and the eye of Leviathan."

Important Note: Please keep in mind I am not speaking of flesh and blood, but rather to demonic spirits that are at work through people! I believe here it is speaking prophetically to "a demonic three-fold cord at work." I see the spirits of Jezebel, Leviathan and Ahab.

More on this soon!

Now, I knew by revelation, in the dream that what I was seeing was the 'Throne of the One World Order,' and the 'all-seeing eye' that was engraved upon the seat of the three-legged stool was the eye of the dragon! Now, as I was standing looking and listening intently in the dream, suddenly, the noisy crowd went completely silent (and you could have heard a pin drop). Suddenly, the atmosphere in the dream shifted, and a tangible sense of The Fear of The LORD filled the Circus Tent. Now, as I looked around about me to see what was happening, suddenly, I saw a large male Lion with a dark and heavy mane walk slowly into the arena. Following closely behind him was a man who was dressed in a purple robe, and he held in his hand what looked like a kingly scepter. I watched as the beautiful and majestic Lion began to walk around the borders of the arena, and the man who was dressed in a kingly robe walked towards the gold throne. As I stayed watching in the dream, finding it hard to take my eyes off of the Lion, I could see that the eyes of the Lion were fixed upon the King as he went and stood beside his throne. But as the King took his place at the throne, suddenly, the crowd began to roar with laughter, and I could hear the sound of children shouting, when suddenly, a Joker/Jester came rolling and somersaulting into the circus arena. As I looked at the Joker, I saw, to my astonishment, that it was 'Joe Biden,' and I heard these words, "Joker Biden."

As I looked at him, I saw that he was fully dressed in a strange green outfit with small bells on his shoes and bells on his hat. As I looked again at the Joker, I heard these words in the dream, "Watch! For now, the Joker's balancing act with the Queen of Hearts and the stolen Crown of Triumph will take place!" Now, as those words seemed to penetrate my innermost being, I saw the Joker lift up a heavy gold crown into the air for the crowd to see. As he lifted the crown, the crowd went crazy. I watched as the Joker began to somersault and roll around the arena with the gold crown in his hands, and then the Joker began to run to and fro around the circus tent as if he was trying to find someone (the crowd was still going crazy, laughing and jeering).

Then I heard the crowd begin to shout out to the Joker,
"We want The Queen of Hearts! We want The Queen of Hearts!"

Now, as this was all taking place, I could still see the King standing before his throne, and the Lion was still watching the King, and walking around the borders of the arena. But then, suddenly, I saw a woman run into the circus arena dressed like a Queen, wearing a long white dress, and she was waving her hands to the crowds. As I looked at her, I saw that it was 'Kamala Harris.' She had two big red hearts painted upon her eyes and one red heart painted upon her mouth. I heard these Words, "Watch, for Kamala will seek to steal the hearts of the people as she wears the stolen crown of the King." As I looked at her, she began to laugh and mock the King who was standing by his throne, and she began to mock him saying, "Look, a King without a crown! Look, a King without a crown!"

As she shouted those words, the crowds would roar with laughter and the Joker would hold up the stolen crown in his hands. But then, suddenly, I watched as the Joker and the Queen of Hearts ran towards each other, and the Joker handed the gold crown to the Queen of Hearts, and she proceeded to climb upon the Joker's shoulders. Then I heard these words, "Watch! For now, the balancing act will begin for those who seek to take the throne." As I heard those words, I watched as the Joker tried to balance the Queen of Hearts upon his shoulders, and the Queen of Hearts tried to balance the heavy gold crown upon her head. I saw that in the midst of all the chaos that was taking place, the King remained standing before his throne, and the Lion kept walking around the borders of the arena.

I watched as the both the Joker and the Queen tried desperately to gain and maintain their balance as they were walking together around the arena, but I watched as their movements became more and more challenging, especially for the Joker, as the long and heavy dress of the Queen kept falling down and covering the Joker's face; the dress blinding him and hindered him from moving forward easily. I saw that the Joker's legs were quickly beginning to get weaker under the weight of the Queen and the heavy gold crown, and they began to stagger across the floor of the arena. But, as I watched this strange and almost undignified balancing act take place, I saw the Joker and the Queen of Hearts begin to make their way towards the three-legged stool/throne.

I knew by revelation that the objective/part of their circus act for the crowds was for the Joker and the Queen of Hearts to both sit upon the three-legged stool without falling and without dropping the stolen crown.

I listened as the crowds were screaming with delight as the Joker and the Queen of Hearts began to make their way towards the three-legged stool. Now, as they got closer and closer to the stool — which was very high — the crowds kept screaming as their anticipation grew more and more desperate for the Joker and the Queen to sit upon the three-legged throne. But in the dream, as I looked at the high three-legged stool, I knew that the Joker would have to navigate very carefully on how he was going to begin to mount the stool with the Queen upon his shoulders. If they were going to be victorious in taking their seat upon the three-legged throne, the Joker would have to be extremely careful not to drop the Queen, and the Queen would have to be extremely careful not to drop the stolen crown!

In the dream, as I remained watching, I saw The Joker and the Queen of Hearts begin to climb up the tall three-legged stool (One World Order Throne) and I noticed immediately, that the stool was extremely unstable and not very strong. The three-legged stool had no supports. There were no arm rests and no backing on the chair. This was going to make it extremely difficult for the Joker to mount the stool with the Queen and the heavy gold crown balancing upon his shoulders. I could see that the weight of it all upon his shoulders was now really beginning to bear down upon him. But, Ha! I watched as the Queen of Hearts began to beat down upon the head of the Joker as he struggled desperately to climb upon the stool, his legs shaking violently, looking like at any moment his knees were going to buckle underneath the both of them.

I saw the Queen of Hearts beginning to panic, all the while trying to desperately hold onto the stolen crown, and the Joker looking more and more exhausted as he desperately tried to stay standing. The crowds began to scream and shout louder and louder for the Joker to get on with the climb, and that he dare not drop the Queen and the crown. But, then suddenly, I watched as both the Joker and the Queen of Hearts were able to mount the three-legged stool after all their desperate efforts. The Queen looked somewhat relieved, and the Joker looked half dead. But no sooner had the Joker and the Queen, who was still trying to balance the heavy crown upon her head, begun to sit down upon the three-legged stool/throne, I saw one of the legs of the stool suddenly break underneath them. The heavy weight of the Joker and the Queen and gold crown was too much for the three-legged stool, and I watched as the Joker and the Queen fell to the ground with a loud thud.

Suddenly, the shouting, screaming crowds went deathly silent (you could hear a pin drop), and then I saw the gold crown that had fallen to the ground begin to roll across the floor. I watched and listened in the utter silence of the arena, as the gold crown rolled right across the floor, stopping at the feet of the King, who was still standing before his throne. Then, suddenly, I saw the Lion stop, and he looked at the King, and the King looked at the Lion, and then he bent down and picked up the stolen crown that the Joker had taken. I watched as the King put the crown back upon his own head. As the crown was laid upon the King's head, suddenly, the Lion gave out the loudest of roars, that caused the ground beneath my feet to shake, and as the Lion roared, I watched as the King sat down upon his throne!

Suddenly, I woke up from the dream, and I began to write down all I had seen and heard! I Decree: The power, fragility, and illegitimate authority of the one who sits on the throne of a One World Order is no match for the power, stability, and governmental authority of the One who sits on the throne of The Lion King of kings!

“Divine Contending for the Destiny and Birthright of The Nations!”

I hear this riddle:

“What match is the power, fragility, and illegitimate authority of a three-legged throne to the power, stability and governmental authority of a four-legged throne? Four (4) to three (3), My Remnant Warriors win!” As I heard that riddle, I saw the four (4) legs of the King’s Throne and the three (3) legs of a One World Order throne, and the Spirit of Revelation quickened to me these words, “A divine contending for the birthright of the nations is taking place!” As I heard those words, the number 43 was quickened to me. So, I went on the hunt to search for the prophetic meaning of forty-three (43.) and it powerfully confirms what I heard the Spirit say.

Danielle Dixon: Rule in the Midst of Your Enemies

Wake Up to the Greater Glory!

I felt a tap on my side, soft but firm, while I was sleeping. It woke me up at 4:40 A.M. I knew it was the Lord. Immediately, I sensed that the Lord is waking up His Body. He's awakening us to what lies ahead—the greater glory.

The Lord began to speak, saying that there has been a contention for new territory. With that has come intense pushback from the enemy against the people of God through unexpected health issues, financial setbacks, family divisions, strange accidents, doctrinal deception, and more.

I heard the scripture, "Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8 ESV). Then I heard the Lord say, "Many of My leaders and forerunners are drunk, not with wine, but with hopelessness, discouragement, and indecision."

There truly is a devil prowling like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. But Jesus has given us the antidote for this season: Stay sober. The word "sober" means to make or become more serious.

I believe the Lord is calling us to become serious—serious about breakthrough, serious about driving out the enemy, serious about hope, faith, and taking back our land.

Time to Raid the Enemy's Camp

I was reminded of the old song "Enemy's Camp" (by Lindell Cooley):

"I went to the enemy's camp, and I took back what he stole from me."

It's time for the Body of Christ to move forward, not just hold ground. We must demand the return of what's been stolen, and believe for sevenfold restoration. (Photo via Pexels)

"Yet if he [a thief] is caught, he must pay sevenfold, though it costs him all the wealth of his house." (Proverbs 6:31 NIV, brackets mine)

I asked the Lord about what we've been seeing in the Body of Christ. He reminded me of a spiritual insight He gave me many years ago. It's found in Revelation 12:12, "He [the devil] is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short" (NIV, brackets mine). The Lord showed me that one of the enemy's strategies is to send out spirit watchers on assignment to disrupt marriages, health, finances, and unity, trying to hinder the work of God.

While interceding recently for our region, I clearly saw in the spirit what chaos had been released in the airways over our churches, families, and leaders. As I was led to cancel these assignments and command these spirit watchers to return to where they had come from, I released the angels of God to wage war on our behalf. Instantly, I saw a vision of that spirit fleeing into the mountains.

Rule in the Midst of Your Enemies

Let me remind us: There are more for us than against us. We are in a spiritual war, but it's a war that's already been won. We must continue to take back the ground the enemy has tried to steal. Let's command increase in our land, strike the ground for harvest, and plead the blood of Jesus over regions and nations.

This is the hour where we'll see the enemy retreat, atmospheres shift, and the prayers of the saints answered. Stay sober-minded and vigilant. We are the glorious Church, without spot or wrinkle. We must wake up and exercise the authority we've been given to rule in the midst of our enemies.

"The LORD will extend your mighty scepter from Zion, saying, 'Rule in the midst of your enemies!'" (Psalm 110:2 NIV)

HERE'S WHAT GOD IS TELLING HIS PEOPLE TO DO CONCERNING PRESIDENT TRUMP . . .

Kat Kerr

I have had a lot of time to spend with God, more than normal. One thing He has never stopped saying to me about all of this is that-- it will pass.

He's never given me a date, but I do believe Him, it will pass. However, He has also from the beginning asked me to encourage everyone to work with President Trump as much as possible, even when it is challenging. This is not just on the earth, but in Heaven, God has said to me to work with Trump. God does not want a war between us and our government. He [God] has a plan for now and the next 20 years. He said this is not a government takeover, but it is a takedown of the virus.

We are all supposed to be encouraging one another and loving one another. I have never changed what God said from when this whole thing began. I let Him have His will, His way.

Love to you all, Kat

ELECTIONS AS THE RED SEA OF CONTROL

The enormity of what is presently being exposed with the massive and multi-pronged voter fraud cannot be overstated. The freedom of the world is at stake. Elections around the world are ALL manipulated, and while the idea of a "Democracy" is a great tease, it presently doesn't really exist. This is the one interruptive chance in history to bring down what is the equivalent of the Red Sea of the book of Exodus. How so? If we remember the story of Moses leading the Israelites out of Egypt— after Pharaoh "relented" and granted them freedom— "yaaaaaa we are free." But then, suddenly, the Red Sea is before them, and Pharaoh is chasing them down knowing they can't get past that overarching control mechanism. "Yes, you are free to go worship your God" — and so the Israelites can move, COMPARED to the previous level of bondage, but yet, Pharaoh knows he has another control mechanism that will still hem them in. "Deep state" control. This is where we are today. We and all "free" nations need to be led through the Red Sea of orchestrated elections and thus, orchestrated control. We have known and focused on financial fraud/corruption on the pre-election side of things, but the REAL corruption is in the vote-stealing and subsequent election manipulation.

He/she who counts and certifies elections determines who runs the nations. It is a Red Sea of control.

GRUELING EXPOSURE

The reason this exposure process today must be grueling, thorough, exhaustive, and complete is because it goes way beyond simply this election. The control of "Pharaoh" through his "chariots" and through his "Red Sea" (perhaps also Red C as in CCP), must be broken once and for all— after multiple generations of control. The whole world is now watching, and it is important they all see it happen. It is NO coincidence that a primary software of election control is called DOMINION. It is all about controlling the people, while making them believe that THEY have the power to choose leaders. "Get out the vote" campaigns have been a relative charade in the light of the whole real picture. It has mainly all been a farce. Smoke and mirrors. Fake. Fraud.

BUT THAT ALL CHANGES NOW

To diagnose the "giants" in the land, while not seeing God at work, only leads to immense futility. This is where I suddenly shift and tell you prophetically that this Red Sea of control is coming down now! The same Red Sea that did the controlling will now drown the very manipulators who have used it. Their own "chariots" are about to bog down in the very mud they have created, rendering them inoperable, and accelerating their destruction. They will "hang by their own noose." Repentance is always an option until judgment has come— but it is coming now. The first red tsunami will be seen by them as they get absolutely avalanched by a massive wave of roaring justice. God has raised Trump as a modern-day Moses to lead this nation, and by extension, the nations of the world out of multi-generational oppression. Though even a good man-initiative could fail, this God-initiative will not fail. He who begins a good work— finishes it. Our God reigns! The refuge of lies will be devastated at a global level. The new era will not be one of next-level control, but it will be one of next-level freedom. HOLD THE LINE. KEEP THE FAITH. DO NOT TAKE ONE STEP BACK. GOD WINS. HIS PLAN WINS.

PIONEERS, BUILD WHERE GOD HAS ASSIGNED YOU!
ROMA WATERMAN, MELBOURNE, VIC, AUSTRALIA

Have you ever felt that pressure to compete, even in the Church? Let's call it for what it is. It's straight from the enemy and will leave you in a cycle of never feeling good enough. God does not, in any way, want this in our hearts and lives! Lord, purify our hearts from this nasty poison that comes to steal, kill, and destroy! Lord, purify our hearts from that pressure, that subtle comparison, that sneaky whisper: "I'm not as good as them. I don't do it as well. Why even bother?"

But here's the invitation I hear in the Spirit: Don't strive to fit in crowded rooms. Don't compete for crumbs at someone else's table. The world, and Heaven, is much bigger than that. There is a brave new land with your name on it—a territory that waits for your voice, your hands, your creativity, your heart to cultivate for the Kingdom. Pioneers don't build where the ground is already taken. There's room for you, and the trick of the enemy is to make you think there isn't. Pioneers ask Heaven-breathed questions. Pioneers are curious, not competitive. And friend, God made you a pioneer. You were never meant to be a copy. You were never meant to do it "better," only to do it faithfully and fully as YOU. So today, release yourself from the race. Step away from crowded spaces. Build where God has assigned you. And watch what He will do when you simply say, "yes." There is room for you. It's your own pace, your own race by His grace!

"Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide, do not hold back; lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes." (Isaiah 54:2 NIV)

From the Book, The Heart of a Seer, by Wade Butler

Chapter 9

Then a Young Man, Blake Healy, Told His Story at Glory of Zion

In the past, I had been using my gifts primarily for business and charity, very seldom were they used in the "church" other than my own congregations. Then I heard and met a young man, Blake Healy, who told his story at Glory of Zion. The opportunity to talk with him presented itself afterwards, and I was blessed beyond my hopes and dreams. I had seen many of the same things he experienced.

Blakes' book, "The Veil," tells his story.

I pulled him aside to ask him about his journey. He has been a seer all of his life, from as early as three years of age. Once he understood my problem of keeping my giftings in the church closet, he opened to me about overcoming rejection and some of the incredible things he had seen. One particular instance was when he ministered at a 2,000-member church, and when he asked everyone to stand up to receive the ministry of the LORD. Yeshua (Jesus) was next to him on the platform. As he asked, "Who wants to receive Jesus?" everyone indicated yes. Then Yeshua manifested in front of all 2,000 people, individually, at the same time while standing next to Blake. He asked, "Is this your Omnipresent Glory?" Yeshua said "Yes."

Some people wept before HIM, others praised, others fell on their knees, but at the same time, some could not receive HIM or crossed their arms in rejection. Then, as quickly as HE manifested, He pulled back into HIMSELF next to Blake. I wanted to know more. I realized I would have to come up to HIM.

Blake's story got me back on my feet, and once again I sought the LORD on seeing and hearing. I pressed in to see and hear what the LORD wanted to tell me, rather than what I wanted to hear. A fresh journey began. In the process, I had to deal with the old Wade. Even at seventy, I would still want to run ahead - not in pride, but to get into HIS presence. Over and over, HE would say, "Lay everything at the altar; seek me first, and the Kingdom of GOD and HIS righteousness and all these things will be added unto you."

Matthew 6:33 AMP "But seek (aim at and strive after) first of all His kingdom and His righteousness (His way of doing and being right), and then all these things taken together will be given you besides."

Jeremiah 33:3 "Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you [and even show you] great and mighty things, [things which have been confined and hidden], which you do not know and understand and cannot distinguish."

Yeshua spoke to me and said, "Come out of Hiding, I have a plan for you." Tell my sons and daughters what I show you. It was then that the journey really began.

I started reading everything I could about ascending unto the LORD. In Kat Kerr's books I discovered I had visited the same places she had seen and experienced many of the same encounters. Those visions literally destroyed any preconceived ideas I had about Heaven. On my first encounter, I thought I was dying because of the presence of Yeshua's glory. Kat's experience was identical. Understand, I did not read her books until a year after the ascensions began, so I had no knowledge of Kat or her journey.

A Word from the LORD!

Over the last six years, I have been blessed to have the gifts restored to me by our LORD, which has opened up realms I never imagined. For so many years, I pulled back on saying what I have seen or experienced. My heart had been stepped on by so many pastors and lay people that I only spoke out to those who knew me personally. I have spent years picking up wounded warriors, dusting them off and putting them back in the battle. I guess being one was my burden, and the healing process often takes a long time and much effort. I finally asked, "Why did it take so long, LORD?" HE responded, "You were not ready to receive." That hurt.

Holy Spirit finally got my attention and said, now was the time. After a deep session of prayer, where I confessed to everything, He showed me we had an appointment. I was taken up through what seemed like a portal and emerged in what I came to know as the garden. Holy Spirit was there waiting for me, and even though at first, I could not see HIM, I felt the overwhelming presence of HIS Glory.

Everywhere I looked, it was beyond anything I had ever seen or imagined. The colors are not on our spectrum, and most importantly, everything was alive. The air was so clean it smelled like laundry day in spring with a freshness that alone made you want to jump and shout. Everything vibrated with life that cannot even be described. I studied art and at one time in my life thought about becoming an illustrator. Yet there is no way I could paint the picture. To say I was on sensory overload would be an understatement.

Then Yeshua walked up across the field, and everything bowed and praised HIM, the flowers, trees, even the rocks cried out. The sound was beyond anything I have ever heard.

It had become real!

THE PRIMACY AND THE POWER OF PRAYER
By Steve Loopstra, Director, Your servant in Christ Ministries

THE POWER OF PRAYER –

Illustration: Power of prayer – in the Air Force, I was in munitions. Went to school where they taught us all about what was in the various types of bombs, fuses, rockets, etc. At first, it was quite overwhelming when they would take you out on the test range and blow up a bunch of stuff to show you how powerful they were. But after not too long on the field, handling these bombs day in and day out, you got to the place where you never gave a thought to how powerful they were, we just did our duty, lugged, stacked, and sometimes threw them around without any thought as to the power we were handling. That is often the way it is with prayer.

When prayer is a priority, then we will see the power of prayer.

It was in answer to prayer that prison bars were opened.

It was in answer to prayer that the church lived and witnessed in boldness.

Answered prayer has turned the hearts of kings, and infidels.

Answered prayer has changed societies and brought revival.

Answered prayer has healed the sick and raised the dead.

We have no idea what God will do through the power of prayer, but we need to seek Him, be in unity and be clean before we will experience the fullness of the power of prayer. We may see some glimpses of it, but we will never see the great power of prayer until we are in alignment with the "ways of God."

E.M Bounds in "Power Through Prayer," said, "The best, the greatest offering is an offering of prayer. If the preachers of the twentieth century will learn well the lesson of prayer, and use fully the power of prayer, the millennium will come to its noon ere the century closes. "Pray without ceasing" is the trumpet call to the preachers of the twentieth century. If the twentieth century will get their texts, their thoughts, their words, their sermons in their closets, the next century will find a new heaven and a new earth. The old sin-stained and sin-eclipsed heaven and earth will pass away under the power of a praying ministry."

In his book "Purpose in Prayer," Bounds writes: "Prayer became a settled and only condition to move His Son's Kingdom. "Ask, and ye shall receive; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened." The strongest one in Christ's kingdom is he who is the best knocker. The secret of success in Christ's Kingdom is the ability to pray. The one who can wield the power of prayer is the strong one, the holy one in Christ's Kingdom. The most important lesson we can learn is how to pray."

Again – "There can be no substitute, no rival for prayer; it stands alone as the great spiritual force, and this force must be imminent and acting. It cannot be dispensed with for one generation, nor held in abeyance for the advance of any great movement—it must be continuous and particular, always, everywhere, and in everything. We cannot run our spiritual operations on the prayers of the past generation. Many persons believe in the efficacy of prayer, but not many pray. Prayer is the easiest and hardest of all things; the simplest and the sublimest; the weakest and the most powerful; its results lie outside the range of human possibilities—they are limited only by the omnipotence of God.

"Few Christians have anything but a vague idea of the power of prayer; fewer still have any experience of that power. The Church seems almost wholly unaware of the power God puts into her hand; this spiritual carte blanche on the infinite resources of God's wisdom and power is rarely, if ever, used—never used to the full measure of honoring God. It is astounding how poor the use is, how little the benefits. Prayer is our most formidable weapon, but the one in which we are the least skilled, the most averse to its use. We do everything else for the heathen save the thing God wants us to do; the only thing which does any good—makes all else we do efficient."

Men, including pastors need to understand the power of prayer. Listen to Bounds again:

"Praying women and children are invaluable to God, but if their praying is not supplemented by praying men, there will be a great loss in the power of prayer—a great breach and depreciation in the value of prayer, great paralysis in the energy of the Gospel. Jesus Christ spake a parable unto the people, telling them that men ought always to pray and not faint. Men who are strong in everything else ought to be strong in prayer, and never yield to discouragement, weakness, or depression. Men who are brave, persistent, redoubtable in other pursuits ought to be full of courage, unfainting, strong hearted in prayer."

There is a power in the corporateness of prayer. A primary example is the birth of the church in Acts chapter 1, where the disciples were "waiting" for the power the Lord had promised them. By waiting, they weren't in that upper room playing tiddly winks, or parcheesi or even telling stories. Listen to what Tozer says about that time:

"The hundred and twenty believers did not, we may be sure, suffer from ennui. Prayers and supplications alone filled up many blessed hours. For two men in the situation of the disciple's prayer is not the dull "devotional" form with which we in these degenerate days are too familiar. It is rather a wrestling with God, during which hours passed unobserved, and the day breaks before one is aware. "These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication." They prayed without fainting, without wearying, with one heart and mind."

But we need to remember that it is not the power that we seek...search your heart! It is not the thrill of seeing God work that drives us.... search your heart! It is always Matthew 6:33 – Seek God first and His Kingdom.

And here's a little prayer that was made by Lady Julian:

O God, of Thy goodness give me Thyself, for Thou art enough for me, and I may ask nothing that is less and find any full honors to Thee. God give me Thyself

Today, we as Christians need to come back to the understanding of the power and primacy of prayer.

THE PRIMACY OF PRAYER

Prayer, to be prayer after the heart of the Father, must be primary in our lives. Primacy means: the state of being first (as in importance, order, or rank)

It was primary for the Lord Jesus. He prayed often, much in private, in public, and about everything. In John chapter 5, he tells his disciples that He did nothing that He did not see the Father doing. Before choosing the disciples, he spent the night in prayer. Before facing the cross, He wrestled in prayer.

The early church knew the primacy of prayer. As mentioned, in Acts 1, they were together constantly in prayer.

When faced with opposition, Peter was in prison; they prayed for his release, and then prayed for boldness when he was released.

Prayer must have primacy in our lives. Not out of a sense of duty, or religiosity, or prestige, or power, but out of an understanding of our relationship with God, and the place He has given to us to enter His Throne room and cooperate with Him in this world.

It must be primary in my time. Ever do a time study of what you spend time on? It can be most frightening and eye opening. We need to spend time in prayer but also pray over how we spend our time.

It must be primary in my priorities. Someone has said "Prayer should be our first resource, not our last resort."

This means that prayer is the FIRST thing we do, not the last thing we try. This takes lifestyle change.

It must be primary in my strategies. It is easy for us to find all kinds of activities and programs and things to do and to figure out about how to make life work. But the reality is that if we make prayer a priority in our strategies of how to live our lives, we will find that life works a lot smoother. That doesn't mean we won't have opposition, but even in that opposition, in prayer, we will know how to react.

It must be primary in my understanding of God. Prayer, true to Scripture, and founded in Scripture is our link to our Heavenly Father. But we must also understand that this must be prayer based on the Word of God, the Character of God, the Ways of God, and rooted in the Spirit of God. A.B. Simpson stated: "The spiritual quality of a prayer is determined not by its intensity, but by its origin. In evaluating prayer, we should inquire who is doing the praying—our determined hearts or the Holy Spirit? If the prayer originates with the Holy Spirit, then the wrestling can be beautiful and wonderful; but if we are the victims of our own overheated desires, our praying can be as carnal as any other act."

This applies corporately as well as privately.

As churches, we need to make prayer primary in our time, our priorities, and our strategies. What is your yearly prayer budget in your church? How much time is spent at board/elder meetings in prayer vs. other issues? Do you pray first, and ask God what He wants for your church, or are you always looking for the latest programs and initiatives to try to do outreach, children's programs, worship, etc., etc.?

This applies as a city church. We need to understand a city church like an orchestra. All sections have their particular sound and place in the orchestra. It takes all doing what they are made to do. The flute section is not jealous when the trumpets have a solo part. All work under one Conductor!

Corporate Prayer includes:

- Praying with others in a small prayer group
- Praying with my church fellowship in corporate church times of prayer
- My church fellowship praying with other churches for our community
- Attending city-wide prayer and worship events that draw me closer to others in the body of Christ
- Soon to be --- 24-hour prayer over the city

I pray that as Paul prayed for the Ephesians that their eyes would be opened, so to, that our eyes might be opened to the power and primacy of prayer; that our lives might become like that of the Lord Jesus, who made prayer a primary in His life and demonstrated through His life the power of prayer.

Diane Lake: It's a New Day, No More Delay!

I hear the Lord saying, "I am turning your prison of despair into a fortress of hope. No longer will the walls confine you. They will instead be your firm foundation—stabilizing, protecting, and surrounding you with My presence and provision!"

A New Chapter

"Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them." (Isaiah 42:9 NKJV)

The Lord often illustrates what He's been speaking to me prophetically through what's happening in the natural realm in our lives. Currently, my husband and I are in the process of building a significant addition onto our existing ranch house, which will pretty much double its size.

On the day we broke ground, I sensed the Lord saying, "It's a day of new beginnings; it's a new day."

It's like we're starting a new chapter. The first two years here could be titled "The Ranch: Moved," and the new chapter could be called "The Ranch: Improved."

Friends, my sense is there's a much larger prophetic picture being illustrated here than just what's being demonstrated in our lives. For whatever reason, the Lord often makes me live the word before I can release it. My prayer is that the Lord will use the examples shared here to encourage you in your particular circumstances as you begin your new chapter in life.

No More Delay

Several weeks prior to starting this project, I awoke one night to hearing the Lord say, "No more delay!" As I prayed and pondered over this, I began thinking about things that have been delayed in our lives. Building this addition was one which had actually been in the talking and planning stages for about two and a half years. Restored health was another, and despite hearing the Lord declare that "turnaround is HERE, elements of healing have yet to be realized. I could go on, and I'm sure you've experienced delay in your life as well. (Photo via Diane Lake)

The Scripture the Lord brought to mind concerning this word was Jeremiah 1:11–12:

"Moreover the Word of the Lord came to me, saying, 'Jeremiah, what do you see?' And I said, 'I see a branch of an almond tree.' Then the Lord said to me,

'You have seen well, for I am ready to perform My word.'" (NKJV)

The Hebrew root word for the almond tree in this passage means "wakeful" (Strong's H8245), as the almond tree was the first tree to "wake" from the sleep of winter, and was a sign that the hard frost was about to break and new life would begin. It was meant to symbolize the speedy and certain fulfillment of the word which God had spoken to Jeremiah. Despite the many challenges and uncertainties concerning building this addition to our ranch, the word of no delay gave us the confidence to start. May it "awaken" your confidence, as well.

Taking the Plunge

Then Jesus said to the centurion, 'Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you.' And his servant was healed that same hour. (Matthew 8:13 NKJV)

Some of the major challenges of this build have had to do with the site itself. The power main had to be moved, and the location of the well limited the footprint. But the biggest concern was the rocky terrain (plans included digging a basement).

Other concerns included were that our previous contracting business was located in an area over two hours away, so the subcontractors and suppliers with whom we had built good relationships were too far away to use. It would be like starting from scratch.

And as I said, there have been health concerns. My husband has forty-plus years of general contracting experience, but we questioned whether he was able to take on a project this size.

Then a good prophetic friend gave my husband a word that he would be healed as we moved forward with the project (which confirmed a sense I had already expressed to my husband). We took a deep breath, dedicated the site, rented excavation equipment, and prayed for the best. Ask the Lord if He would have you take the plunge in an area of your life as well.

Every Need Supplied

And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:19 NKJV)

Shortly before breaking ground, I had a dream. A guy was showing me a kind of diorama, like a box to illustrate something. He told me to look in a certain corner and I would find my name. At first, I didn't believe him, but sure enough, there was my name.

I saw a little figure that clearly looked like me, a bit crude in a way, almost childlike in its representation, complete with long hair.

The idea present in the dream was that God was looking down on me. It's like I needed to pay some bills or something, and God's response was, "I've got this. It's taken care of—every need supplied."

I'm currently watching this dream play out with this build project, as we have seen God's fingerprints all over it from the beginning. There have been so many examples that my husband recently made a list so we wouldn't forget them.

The first thing that happened was our former lead carpenter agreed to come out of retirement to work on the project for us. Then we began seeing all kinds of favor with suppliers and subcontractors. We rented a larger excavator for the price of a smaller one, then were able to keep it for a month for the price of a week. Concrete and gravel trucks responded with rapid deliveries (in some cases within hours, instead of weeks), and there was always the perfect amount on the trucks. One load of concrete was so precise that my husband commented that in over forty years of construction he'd never had a load so exact! (Photo via Diane Lake)

Next on his list was the well leak. As stated, the well placement limited the footprint of the build, so much so that plans are for a front porch to be constructed over it! Not recommended, but we planned to replace the pump as preventative maintenance. However, before we could do that, the well started leaking, which turned out to be a gift. The approximately twenty-five-year-old connection between the well and the line simply rotted away. We dug everything up and replaced every single part so that we wouldn't need to dismantle the porch someday, and we were able to turn water back on later that same day!

Then there was the roll of roof paper that had actually been left over from a previous job and transported in the move. Not only did we not need the two extra rolls we had bought, thinking the leftover roll couldn't possibly be enough, there ended up being two inches left! It just seemed to keep rolling for some reason.

The pattern that's emerged is there's always enough—nothing lacking, wasted, or extra. (Photo via Diane Lake)

A Wall of Hope

As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit. Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope. Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. (Zechariah 9:11–12 NKJV)

Perhaps the most dramatic example concerns digging the basement in rocky terrain. Somehow, the rock seemed brittle and the excavator easily broke it up. After one day of digging with one to go, I had a dream that night.

In my dream, I saw the existing house on its crawlspace foundation, and the bedrock it was sitting on was left exposed by excavation (probably why there isn't a full basement). It literally looked like a rock wall. Then the Lord said, "A wall of hope is being released."

The next morning as I prayed about this, I remembered that the evening before, I'd said out loud to myself, "I don't know why, but I feel so full of hope!"

At lunchtime, I was talking with the excavator. He kept saying, "You've got to go take a look. The basement is literally surrounded by rock walls on three sides and sits on bedrock. You can't go any further in any direction, even in front, because of the well." He kept shaking his head and saying, "This just doesn't happen. This just doesn't happen." We had just enough room for the basement we needed—just enough.

It all started coming together, the reason I had felt a surge of hope the evening before; the dream and real life were colliding to illustrate what God was doing.

I couldn't find mention of a wall of hope in Scripture, but Zechariah 9:11–12 infers one. The New Living Translation renders "waterless pit" as "waterless dungeon," effectively painting a picture of imprisonment by walls of despair. (Photo via Diane Lake)

But the Lord is saying, "I am turning your prison of despair into a fortress of hope. No longer will the walls confine you. They will instead be your firm foundation, stabilizing, protecting, and surrounding you with My presence and provision!"

A Call to Increased Intercession

A final thing the Lord has recently spoken to me is that He's calling people all over the world to step up their prayers for President Donald Trump.

In a time of prayer, recently, I saw a chessboard, and felt like the Lord said that the kings of the world are plotting to take out President Trump, but God's plan is for him to TRIUMPH!

However, it will take the response to this call by the saints to prevent this plot from succeeding.

Lord, may the call to increased intercession be answered all over the world, and may we be filled with hope as we enter this new season of fulfillment!

Pat Frances: Practice A Positive Attitude

We are in seasons of great warfare, and it can cause frustration, and instead of prayer we complain. WB

“Do everything without complaining or arguing.” (Phil. 2:14)

Practice makes perfect. Choice is deliberate power. You can create a greater you with a greater heart.

Create a greater you:

1) Have faith in God. By faith, I will create and rule my world with positive thoughts and unwavering faith.

2) Practice a positive attitude. Refuse to be moved into an attitude of murmuring, grumbling, and complaining.

3) Keep God on the throne of your heart. Do not allow circumstances to rule your heart. God will preserve you as you live by faith.

4) Surround yourself with positive friends. They will encourage and motivate you.

5) Create and control your atmospheres. Live in an atmosphere of praise and thanksgiving.

“Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.”
(1 Thes. 5:18)

Kingdom Declaration:

I am a vessel of faith and praise. I live in the atmosphere of glory.

Read the Bible in One Year: 1 Chronicles 7-9; John 6:22-44.

IN CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication, as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors. I highly recommend that you follow most of the prophetic voices available today by signing up for ELIJAH LIST email! Subscribe at this link: elijahlist.com/subscribe.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Our Father who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever.

Amen.
