

June Tammuz 5785: June 27, 2025 – July 25, 2025, Chaplain Wade Butler

Yahweh is in the battle.. He leads the Angel Armies and HE fights for us!!!!

This is a month of incredible Heavenly encounters with Angels and more importantly, Yeshua. It is a season of war, change and preparation. Are you ready?

The worldwide focus over the past several weeks has been Iran and the nuclear threat they represent to Israel and the world. President Donald Trump pushed the button, and the world lit up. The nuclear facilities were destroyed, but is the threat eliminated? What will be the result? Will it be the precursor to WWII? In times of stress so many quickly forget that Yahweh is in charge. He has not stopped HIS plans for the world, or more importantly, the KINGDOM OF GOD!

I watched interview after interview even with Jewish people who condemned President Trump and Israel, but GOD!

President Trump issued this post on the evening of the June 23rd. Immediately after Iran attacked Israel with rockets. Israel responded with the largest barrage of rockets to date. What is going on many ask? It's about the Kingdom and only the Kingdom. There will be wars and rumors of wars and even in peace talks there will be deception due to mans degerative state. Personal and national pride will cause nations to fall.

Donald J. Trump

CONGRATULATIONS TO EVERYONE! It has been fully agreed by and between Israel and Iran that there will be a Complete and Total CEASEFIRE (in approximately 6 hours from now, when Israel and Iran have wound down and completed their in progress, final missions!), for 12 hours, at which point the War will be considered, ENDED! Officially, Iran will start the CEASEFIRE and, upon the 12th Hour, Israel will start the CEASEFIRE and, upon the 24th Hour, an Official END to THE 12 DAY WAR will be saluted by the World. During each CEASEFIRE, the other side will remain PEACEFUL and RESPECTFUL. On the assumption that everything works as it should, which it will, I would like to congratulate both Countries, Israel and Iran, on having the Stamina, Courage, and Intelligence to end, what should be called, "THE 12 DAY WAR." This is a War that could have gone on for years, and destroyed the entire Middle East, but it didn't, and never will! God bless Israel, God bless Iran, God bless the Middle East, God bless the United States of America, and GOD BLESS THE WORLD!

DONALD J. TRUMP,
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

We are in a battle for the soul of nations, and that battle begins with us! To have peace, we must prepare for war. Put on the FULL ARMOR OF GOD every day. Peace through strength is the only thing that works. The enemy of our souls, Lucifer, the cabal, and the world order all want wars to eliminate Yahweh's sons and daughters. In the midst of it America will be saved.

From Matt Friesser: repeated from Tammuz 5784

We are in a battle for the KINGDOM OF GOD. In the vision, the sons and daughters of GOD are sitting at a card table in Heaven playing very high stakes poker for the fate of nations. The hand that was dealt to sons was a ROYAL FLUSH. It is an unbeatable hand dealt by the LORD as he prepares to pay out to the winners!

The enemy players at the table may have lost the hand, but they think they can still win the game because the "KINGDOM" still needs to be won by us. We must be united in prayer to go forward in the battle for the KINGDOM. Turmoil still waits on every side, so you must pray and walk together as you are being prepared for what is ahead. Seek HIM for every step as you walk in the midst of the war around you. THE HONOR OF THE LORD IS ON YOU AND GOES BEFORE YOU.

The Great Battle for the Land, From: September 2, 2009

Wade Butler, In His Name Ministries

At our House of Zion Meeting on August 25, 2009 I had an open vision which I shared with those who were present. Several days' later I was up praying during the last watch while recovering from shoulder surgery, and the vision reappeared with greater emphasis and detail.

In the future, a terrible storm of darkness was bellowing over a large field from the east faster than any storm I had ever experienced. I asked the Lord to explain the vision in greater detail. At that moment, the Spirit of the Lord told me it was the powers of darkness coming to try to disrupt the work to be done on the land, but to fear not, His Army was arising to meet the storm.

I looked, and instantly, the Army of the Lord appeared to the west. The formation looked like tens of thousands on white horses. There were three forward points - a center point, one to the north, and a point to the south. In the center, the Lord stood out more brilliant than anything in the skies. He was magnificent in robes of purple, royal blue, silver, gold, and red with a crown that cannot be described in words. He was fearsome, yet love flowed like honey beneath His horses' hooves. On either side were twelve elders on horses; at the end of the southern point was Moses, and on the northern point was Elisha.

I fell before Him and asked, "Lord what must I do?" He said to turn and face the enemy. I replied, "Lord I am weak from shoulder surgery, and I am unable to hold a shield, but give me a sword, and I will fight." He said, "The faith of many has been attacked this year and has been weakened due to hope deferred from the dreams and visions received but not yet fulfilled. Arise and be fitted with new armor; the work is yet to be done."

As I arose and turned, I saw angels fitting multitudes with new armor. They were coming from all nations, filling the land. Everyone appeared to be wearing peasant garments of linen pants and shirts. Each was being fitted with the new armor that looked like matted or dulled stainless steel, but the metal was not from the earth. It was made in Heaven, forged and tempered in the Blood of the Lamb.

My heart raced as an angel approached and put on me boots that extended to the thighs and buckled on the outside of the legs. Next was a skirt in layers, with a wide belt and buckle, then breast plates that surrounded the chest and back and strapped on the sides. On each person's head was placed a helmet that had a plume of camel's hair like paint brushes down the center, extending from the front to the back of the head. The plumes were brilliant in color, representing the different tribes. Many were multi-color signifying the calls on each person's life. A cape representing humility was placed on our shoulders.

A shield was given each man, woman, and child that was unusual in that it sat out ten inches from the arm. An adult's shield was forty inches tall and thirty-two inches wide. On the handles inside the shields were bows of bronze with quivers carrying twelve arrows, and behind the bow were three short spears or darts. There was no weight to the apparatus, and all my infirmities were instantly healed. As my thoughts questioned what each item represented* the Spirit would answer before I could speak. "The arrows represent the twelve apostles and my word they brought forth, the darts Father, Son, and Holy Spirit." A sword of the Word was placed over our shoulders as well as a battle axe, and the Lord said, "Turn and face your enemy; draw an arrow and release it into the darkness."

Arrows filled the air, penetrating the darkness. As each struck, lightning exploded exposing the hideousness of the enemy. We instinctively turned once again to our Lord and He said; "Each arrow delivers a word to destroy the enemy's works. Your arrows only run out if your faith diminishes." "Turn again and attack the enemy with a sound of joy, for the battle is yours, and the field will be redeemed if you do not turn back." We turned again with swords drawn to battle as the shofars sounded, and we charged across the field into the darkness. When we had reached the center of the field, the Glory of the Lord filled the land, and our armor shown with a brightness that has never been seen on earth, dispersing the darkness. We stood in silence and wonder at what had just taken place and turned again to our Lord for further instructions.

The Spirit spoke and said, "The land has been redeemed, and a great work to heal the nations shall be birthed. Storms will come again, but this land shall be a garden of rest. Stand ready, you have new armor. Hear the sound of war; give no ground when the enemy comes."

The vision ended. I asked the Lord, "Where is this battle to take place?"

The field was the land of Glory of Zion! The battle was the day of first fruits.

The Biblical Month of Tammuz (Hebrew) begins this year at sundown on June 27, 2025 and runs to sundown July 25, 2025.

With each new month of the Hebrew calendar, we cross over into new territory, yet at the same time experience the fullness of the LORD'S foundations for the season we are entering.

Each Month is a new opportunity!

Each month represents a new opportunity to make a difference in the kingdom of GOD, in our own lives, our families, and those around us. We need to get back to work, keeping in mind that our Father orchestrated this lockdown. The enemy planned to destroy the threat of We the People from obtaining our goals of Liberty and Justice for all in his attempt to dominate the world with the one world order taking over.

Our enemy, the devil and his minions, are continually on attack trying to wear us down through discouragement, sickness, financial burdens and more. What makes the difference is our relationship with the Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

The deep state and satan's minions want to re-afflict the world with the fake pandemic of fear. That is actually what we are facing. Demonic governors, mayors and politicians want to reinstate the restrictions that paralyzed the world. If it happens, millions of businesses will be lost, families devastated, and nations destroyed.

Regardless of our political views, we must keep in mind who was really behind the virus and the attempt to break our spirits and hearts. Satan is a liar and thief who comes to kill, steal and destroy. He uses whoever will surrender to his will. Many will say the President is to blame. It is far more sinister than him or his staff. Our LORD raises up our leaders and takes them down. Remember that. The deep state is controlled by evil forces that will do whatever they can to keep from being exposed. Our job is to keep our eyes upon Yeshua and remember that HE is in charge.

We are GOD'S warriors who stand between the enemy and our promises. We all have been calling out those promises as we wait on GOD to do the miracles on our behalf.

The truth of it all is HE ALREADY DID. Every day we battle for hope, direction and relief.

The Biblical Month of Tammuz

Biblical months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh), Father-Son-Holy Spirit, through the revelation of His Word and begin on the new moon each month.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophesy? The answer is to ask the LORD how did this relate in the Bible for then, and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me to pray Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide, prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. (See last page.) Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heidler and many other contributing authors which are included. 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

Several people have asked me why the calendars are so long, "It's a book each month." I have to say, "Yes, it is a book." Yet, it is a daily devotional reposting the prophetic word to those who do not have the time nor resources to accumulate the number of authors, depth of detail, or emphasis of the living word that we present. So, if you prefer to read it all or do the daily prayer, it is for anyone who is hungry. This month is the longest so far due to the content of each author's message. The power on these pages will change your life, so buckle up. This month is packed with solid Revelation from the LORD!!!!

It's been five years since we started publishing the Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle, so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1, the very first words GOD speaks are "In the beginning," and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon." From that point on, the nation of GOD was to look at the moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The Biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night.

And the evening and the morning were the first day. Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last 7th, 1,000 years of days would be the time being the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle is only 29.5 days or 354 days per year, whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous year's is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon". The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast, and season.

As we begin the month of Tammuz, keep in mind that man changed the calendar, GOD didn't.

The church today misses a very important part of their history and understanding. There was never really a new church started. They worshipped and practiced Hebrew. The difference was Christ completed the requirements of the Law and made us "New Men" in Him. If you think about it, we are literally Hebrew, as we were adopted or grafted into the Kingdom.

With that in mind, we will not miss out on what God is doing by honoring the feasts or HIS Calendar. At the same time, we will honor our Lord Yeshua the Christ, and we may learn something.

Tammuz is also linked with the Tribe of Reuben, who was Jacob's first son born to Leah. When Reuben was born, Leah said, "Surely the LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me." As such, his name means "behold a son." Jacob prophesied, "Reuben, you are my first born, my might, the beginning of my strength, the excellence of dignity, the excellency of power."

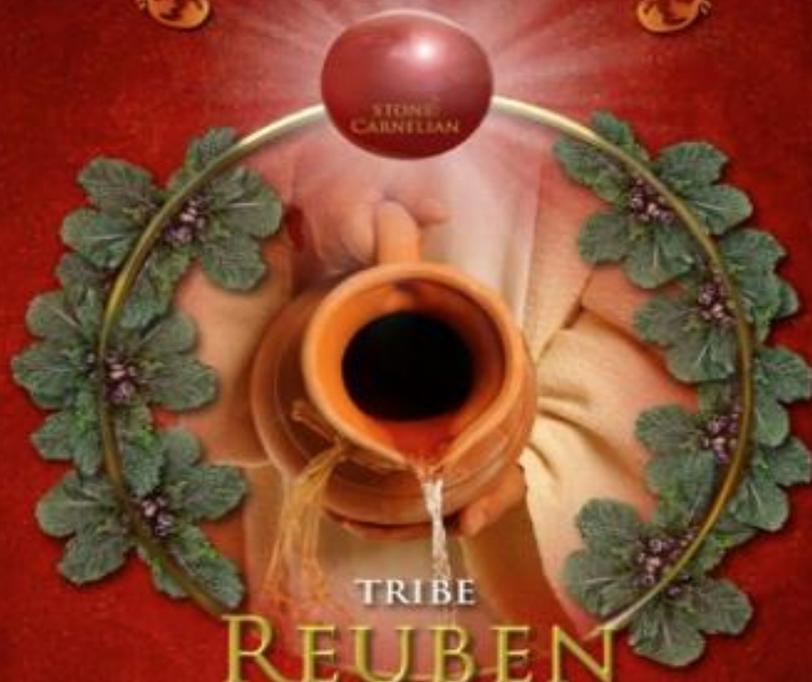

The root word for his name, raah, means to see or to behold. When Jacob blessed Reuben he said, "Reuben, you are my firstborn, my strength, the child of my vigorous youth. You are first in rank and first in power. But you are as unruly as a flood, and you will be first no longer. For you went to bed with my wife; you defiled my marriage couch". When Moses blessed Reuben he said, "Let Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few". This reveals to us how unbridled desires cause us to forfeit our birthright, but as we behold the Son, we become heirs of the promise.

As I have mentioned multiple times over the last couple of months, I believe we are in a historic shift that is initiating the greatest revival and reformation the world has ever seen. That is a pretty bold statement when we look at how the early church turned the world upside down as they moved in great signs, wonders and miracles preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom. Get ready to turn the world right side up as He realigns you in a new way!

Unfortunately, Reuben fell and lost his birthright when he let his eyes and heart wander and committed a horrible sin against his father, and more importantly, the LORD. It's the month to guard your heart and eyes and not build any "Golden Calves" in your lives. (Deut. 11:26; 30:15-19). Therefore, we get, "Behold the SON; Let HIM guard your Heart and Eyes." It's a time for vision - keep your eyes on the LORD. It is so easy to fall into worship of other things than the LORD, like Reuben did: money, position, even people. Keep in mind, our priorities are Christ, HIS Kingdom, family, then look at work, and duties,.

The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course there were twenty and four thousand. (1 Chronicles 27:7)

We have now entered the fourth month of the Biblical calendar during the year Ayin Gimmel. The month of Tammuz is the month of refined vision, the month of worship, and the time to look at our progress and allow the Lord to direct our paths. This month is very key every year because it is the month, historically, when Israel sinned in the wilderness by worshiping the golden calf, and when the twelve spies were sent into the promised land. Again, this is highly significant this year, the year of restoring glory, because God has realigned us as His new administration to become the dwelling place of His glory. It's time to reject every form of godliness that lacks kingdom power and worship our King in the outpouring of His glory!

The Month of Worship

And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. (Exodus 32:1)

The historical account of the people requesting gods to worship seen in Exodus 32:1 took place during this month, the month of Tammuz. In this account, we see that the people felt as if they had been abandoned in the wilderness by God and Moses. They formed a mob and confronted Aaron, demanding that he make them gods which were to go before them. Somehow, the people had become desensitized to the glory of the Lord that was still visible over the mountain where He was speaking to Moses. He had already gone before them to prepare the Promised Land; all they needed to do is worship while they were waiting.

There is a great danger of falling prey to the same type of rebellion when we find ourselves waiting. I have found that worry and anxiety are two enemies that creep in when it seems nothing is happening. These will cause us to move too quickly, devise a plan of our own, and lead us to a place of hope deferred if we allow them to. Worship is the key that unlocks the destiny that God has predetermined for us. He has already gone before us and prepared the time and the space where our destiny will be fulfilled, all we have to do is worship Him while we are waiting.

The prophet Samuel said that rebellion is like witchcraft and stubbornness is like idolatry (I Samuel 15:23). When we are rebellious and stubborn, we reject God and fail to see His path for our lives. Instead, we choose an inferior reality and do what we feel is right based on our own desires. There is nothing in this world that can separate us from God and keep us from experiencing His promises besides our choice to reject His truth and choose our own way. We see this illustrated in the life of Saul, who chose to disobey God. When the prophet Samuel confronted his disobedience, he chose stubbornness rather than repentance, and God's presence left him. Samuel's judgement on the matter is one of the most frightening statements in the Bible, "So because you have rejected the command of the LORD, he has rejected you as king."

Just like the people of Israel in the wilderness who chose to worship the golden calf, Saul chose to worship his own way. I believe what led them to the place of rebellion was not intentional maliciousness, but a failure to keep the main thing the main thing. The presence of God should ALWAYS be our measure of success. The children of Israel were so focused on the promised land, they were willing to get there by any means possible; failing to realize the presence of God was still visible on the mountain. Saul was so focused on the victory and the spoils, he failed to realize that obedience to God is better than sacrifice. When we exalt our promise above the one who gave it, or our breakthrough above the one who produces it, we forfeit our place in His presence and fail to see the fulfillment of our destiny.

I encourage you to worship the Lord with great fervency throughout this time. Make special time to worship Him, especially when it seems that you have been delayed in what you believe He is taking you into. New songs break old cycles, so ask Him to release to you the new song that will cause barrenness to turn into fruitfulness. Psalm 96 gives us our instruction for this month. O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth. Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people. (Psalm 96:1-3)

Traditional Remembrances:

In Jewish history

- 3 Tammuz (circa 1272 BC) – Joshua stops the sun (Book of Joshua, 10:1–15)
- 5 Tammuz (circa 592 BC) – Ezekiel receives his "Chariot" vision (Book of Ezekiel, 1:4–26)
- 9 Tammuz (circa 586 BC) – Jerusalem walls breached by Nebuchadnezzar II, a date observed as a fast day until the second breaching of Jerusalem's walls by the Roman Empire on the 17th of Tammuz (70 CE)
- 17 Tammuz (circa 1312 BC) – golden calf offered by the Jewish people, 40 days after the giving of the Torah at Har Sinai. This is the first of the 5 national tragedies mourned on this day.
- 17 Tammuz (circa 1312 BC) – Smashing of the first Tablets by Moses.
- 17 Tammuz (70 CE) – Walls of Jerusalem breached by the Roman army.

The Month of Tammuz according to the Book of Formation (Sefer Yetzirah)

According to Sefer Yetzirah, to each month of the Jewish calendar there corresponds a letter of the Hebrew alphabet, a zodiac sign, one of the twelve tribes of Israel, a sense, and a controlling limb of the body.

Tammuz is the fourth of the twelve months of the Jewish calendar.

The month of Tammuz begins the "season" (tekufah) of the summer. The three months of this season, Tammuz, Av, and Elul, correspond to the three tribes of the camp of Reuben – Reuben, Simeon and Gad – who were situated to the south.

Tammuz is the month of the sin of the golden calf, which resulted in the breaking of the Tablets. On that very day, the 17th of Tammuz begins the three-week period (ending on the 9th of Av) which commemorates the destruction of the Holy Temple in Jerusalem.

This is the month that the spies sent by Moses traveled through the land of Israel to see it and report to the people. (They returned on the eve of the 9th of Av).

Letter: Chet (ח)

The form of the letter chet is composed of the two previous letters of the Hebrew alef-beit, the vav and the zayin (corresponding to the two previous months of Iyar and Sivan) connected from above by a thin "bridge." In relation to the sense of sight, the form of the chet represents the dynamic of spiritual light being emitted from the eyes (the vav) and physical light returning from the object observed, to the eyes (the zayin).

The word Tammuz reads in Hebrew: "tam"— "connect together," "consummate"—vav Zayin the two letters that together form the chet.

Mazal: Cancer

One of the meanings of the root of sartan, seret, is a visual "strip," in general, or (as in Modern Hebrew) a "film" strip in particular.

The spiritual sense of sight of Tammuz is the ability to "see through" physical reality, to behold its Divine source. In accordance with this thought, the word sartan is understood as being composed of two words – sar tan – which literally reads: "remove the body" (in order to reveal the soul), i.e. remove the outer "shell" of reality (by means of the power of concentrated sight) in order to reveal reality's inner "fruit" and life force.

Tribe: Reuben

The name Reuben comes from the root "to see," the sense of Tammuz.

The precious stone of Reuben in the breastplate of the high priest is the odem, the ruby (from Reuben), which due to its brilliant red color (odem means red) is the most sensually visible of the stones.

Red is the most seductive of all colors, implying either the fall of man (in Hebrew odem [red] has the same spelling as Adam [man]), as in the sin of the golden calf, or the ultimate rise and rectification of man with the coming of Mashiach.

Sense: Sight

The summer (the period of Tammuz) is the "holiday" of the eyes. It is the time that one must "guard" his eyes to see only that which is good (in the world in general and in his fellow man in particular) and modest. The ability to guard and focus one's eyesight correctly is the rectified "sense" of sight.

At the end of Moses' blessing Israel, he said (Deuteronomy 33:28): "betach badad ein Yaacov – sure, alone, is the eye of Jacob." The word betach, "sure," is an acronym for three words: bracha tov chayim, blessing good and life. These are the three focus-points of rectified eyesight, as is said in Deuteronomy 11:26: "See, I give before you today blessing and curse. The blessing," and subsequently (Deuteronomy 30:15-19): "See, I have given before you today life and good, and death and evil, and you shall choose life." In relation to these three, one must train one's eyes (both spiritual and physical) to see only the inner positive dimension of reality, and not to focus upon reality's outer, negative "shell."

This is the meaning of "sure, alone, is the eye of Jacob." The sense of the Jewish eye ("the eye of Jacob") is to only ("alone") see that which is "sure"– G-d's blessing, good, and life.

Exodus 33: 12-23 Amplified Bible (AMP)

It was a time when Moses interceded for the people.

¹² Moses said to the LORD, "See, You say to me, 'Bring up this people,' but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in My sight.' ¹³ Now therefore, I pray you, if I have found favor in Your sight, let me know Your ways so that I may know You [becoming more deeply and intimately acquainted with You, recognizing and understanding Your ways more clearly] and that I may find grace and favor in Your sight. And consider also, that this nation is Your people." ¹⁴ And the LORD said, "My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest [by bringing you and the people into the promised land]." ¹⁵ And Moses said to Him, "If Your presence does not go [with me], do not lead us up from here. ¹⁶ For how then can it be known that Your people and I have found favor in Your sight? Is it not by Your going with us, so that we are distinguished, Your people and I, from all the [other] people on the face of the earth?"

¹⁷ The LORD said to Moses, "I will also do this thing that you have asked; for you have found favor (lovingkindness, mercy) in My sight and I have known you [personally] by name." ¹⁸ Then Moses said, "Please, show me Your glory!" ¹⁹ And God said, "I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the Name of the LORD before you; for I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show compassion (lovingkindness) on whom I will show compassion." ²⁰ But He said, "You cannot see My face, for no man shall see Me and live!" ²¹ Then the LORD said, "Behold, there is a place beside Me, and you shall stand there on the rock; ²² and while My glory is passing by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock and protectively cover you with My hand until I have passed by. ²³ Then I will take away My hand and you shall see My back; but My face shall not be seen."

Exodus 34:10-27

The Covenant Renewed

¹⁰ Then God said, "Behold, I am going to make a covenant. Before all your people I will do wondrous works (miracles) such as having not been created or produced in all the earth nor among any of the nations; and all the people among whom you live shall see the working of the LORD, for it is a fearful and awesome thing that I am going to do with you.

¹¹ "Be sure to observe what I am commanding you this day: behold, I am going to drive out the Amorite before you, and the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ¹² Watch yourself so that you do not make a covenant (solemn agreement, treaty) with the inhabitants of the land into which you are going, or it will become a [dangerous] trap among you.

13 But you shall tear down and destroy their [pagan] altars, smash in pieces their [sacred] pillars (obelisks, images) and cut down their Asherim ¹⁴ for you shall not worship any other god; for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous (impassioned) God [demanding what is rightfully and uniquely His]—¹⁵ otherwise you might make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land and they would play the prostitute with their gods and sacrifice to their gods, and someone might invite you to eat his sacrifice (meal), ¹⁶ and you might take some of his daughters for your sons, and his daughters would play the prostitute with their gods and cause your sons also to play the prostitute (commit apostasy) with their gods [that is, abandon the true God for man-made idols]. ¹⁷ You shall make for yourselves no molten gods.

18 “You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread (Passover). For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I have commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt.

19 “All the firstborn males among your livestock belong to Me, whether cattle or sheep. ²⁰ You shall redeem the firstborn of a donkey with a lamb; but if you do not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. You shall redeem all the firstborn of your sons. None of you are to appear before Me empty-handed.

21 “You shall work for six days, but on the seventh day you shall rest; [even] in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest [on the Sabbath]. ²² You shall observe and celebrate the Feast of Weeks (Harvest, First Fruits, or Pentecost), the first fruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering (Booths or Tabernacles) at the year’s end. ²³ Three times a year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel. ²⁴ For I will drive out and dispossess nations before you and enlarge your borders; nor shall any man covet (actively seek for himself) your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times a year.

25 “You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread, nor shall the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover (Unleavened Bread) be left over until morning.

26 “You shall bring the very first of the first fruits of your ground to the house of the LORD your God.

“You shall not boil a young goat in his mother’s milk [as some pagans do].”

27 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”²⁸ Moses was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he ate no bread and drank no water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments. God wrote it the first time; Moses had to write it the second time.

The Ten Commandments, Exodus 20:1-26

Then God spoke all these words:

2 “I am the LORD your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. 3 “You shall have no other gods before Me. 4 “You shall not make for yourself any idol, or any likeness (form, manifestation) of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth [as an object to worship]. 5 You shall not worship them nor serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous (impassioned) God demanding what is rightfully and uniquely mine], visiting (avenging) the iniquity (sin, guilt) of the fathers on the children that is, calling the children to account for the sins of their fathers], to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, 6 but showing graciousness and steadfast lovingkindness to thousands [of generations] of those who love Me and keep My commandments. 7 “You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain [that is, irreverently, in false affirmations or in ways that impugn the character of God]; for the LORD will not hold guiltless nor leave unpunished the one who takes His name in vain [disregarding its reverence and its power].⁸ “Remember the Sabbath (seventh) day to keep it holy (set apart, dedicated to God).⁹ Six days you shall labor and do all your work,¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Sabbath [a day of rest dedicated] to the LORD your God; on that day you shall not do any work, you or your son, or your daughter, or your male servant, or your female servant, or your livestock or the temporary resident (foreigner) who stays within your [city] gates.¹¹ For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and everything that is in them, and He rested (ceased) on the seventh day. That is why the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy [that is, set it apart for His purposes].

¹² “Honor (respect, obey, care for) your father and your mother, so that your days may be prolonged in the land the LORD your God gives you.¹³ “You shall not commit murder (unjustified, deliberate homicide).

¹⁸ Now all the people witnessed the thunder and the flashes of lightning and the sound of the trumpet and the smoking mountain; and as they looked, the people were afraid, and they trembled [and moved backward] and stood at a [safe] distance.¹⁹ Then they said to Moses, “You speak to us and we will listen, but do not let God speak to us or we will die.”²⁰ Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid; for God has come in order to test you, and in order that the fear of Him [that is, a profound reverence for Him] will remain with you, so that you do not sin.”²¹ So the people stood at a [safe] distance, but Moses approached the thick cloud where God was.

²² Then the LORD said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven.’²³ You shall not make other gods [to worship] besides Me; gods of silver or gods of gold, you shall not make [these lifeless idols] for yourselves. ²⁴ You shall make an altar of earth for Me, and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In every place where I cause My Name to be recorded and remembered [through revelation of My divine nature] I will come to you and bless you. ²⁵ If you make an altar of stone for Me, you shall not build it of cut stones, for if you use a chisel on it, you will profane it. ²⁶ Nor shall you go up to My altar on steps, so that your nakedness will not be exposed on it.'

The Golden Calf: It's the month to guard our heart and eyes and not build any "Golden Calves" in our lives. Take time to look at all the times GOD has saved you, blessed you, and bailed you out of situations. It is easy to look at the children of Israel and judge them for falling so many times, when we do the same over and over again. Never take your eyes off of the promise in HIS WORD, and look for idols. If you fall, go back to HIS Amazing Grace and repent.

Exodus 32:1-34

Now when the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, they gathered together before Aaron and said to him, "Come, make us a god who will go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him." ² So Aaron replied to them, "Take off the gold rings that are in the ears of your wives, your sons and daughters, and bring them to me." ³ So all the people took off the gold rings that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron. ⁴ And he took the gold from their hands, and fashioned it with an engraving tool and made it into a molten calf; and they said, "This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt." ⁵ Now when Aaron saw the molten calf, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation, and said, "Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD!" ⁶ So they got up early the next day and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; then the people sat down to eat and drink, and got up to play [shamefully—without moral restraint].

⁷ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. ⁸ They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, 'This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!”⁹ The LORD said to Moses, “I have seen these people, and behold, they are a stiff-necked (stubborn, rebellious) people.¹⁰ Now therefore, let Me alone and do not interfere, so that My anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them; and I will make of you (your descendants) a great nation.”

Moses' Entreaty

¹¹ But Moses appeased and entreated the LORD his God, and said, “LORD, why does Your anger burn against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand? ¹² Why should the Egyptians say, ‘With evil [intent] their God brought them out to kill them in the mountains and destroy them from the face of the earth’? Turn away from Your burning anger and change Your mind about harming Your people.

¹³ Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob), Your servants to whom You swore [an oath] by Yourself, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heavens, and all this land of which I have spoken I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’”

¹⁴ So the LORD changed His mind about the harm which He had said He would do to His people.

¹⁵ Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand; tablets that were written on both sides—they were written on one side and on the other. ¹⁶ The tablets were the work of God; the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets. ¹⁷ Now when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a sound of battle in the camp.” ¹⁸ But Moses said,

“It is not the sound of the cry of victory, No is it the sound of the cry of defeat; But I hear the sound of singing.”

Moses' Anger

¹⁹ And as soon as he approached the camp and he saw the calf and the dancing, Moses' anger burned; and he threw the tablets from his hands and smashed them at the foot of the mountain. ²⁰ Then Moses took the calf they had made and burned it in the fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the surface of the water and made the Israelites drink it.

21 Then Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you, that you have brought so great a sin on them?" 22 Aaron said "Do not let the anger of my lord burn; you know the people yourself, that they are prone to evil. 23 For they said to me, 'Make us a god who will go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' 24 I said to them, 'Let whoever has gold [jewelry], take it off.' So, they gave it to me; then I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf."

25 Now when Moses saw that the people were out of control—for Aaron had let them get out of control to the point of being an object of mockery among their enemies— 26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, "Whoever is on the LORD'S side, come to me!" And all the sons of Levi [the priestly tribe] gathered together to him. 27 He said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Every man strap his sword on his thigh and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every man kill his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his neighbor [all who continue pagan worship].'" 28 So the sons of Levi did as Moses instructed, and about three thousand men of the people [of Israel] were killed that day. 29 Then Moses said [to the Levites], "Dedicate yourselves today to the LORD—for each man has been against his own son and his own brother [in his attempt to escape execution]—so that He may restore and bestow His blessing on you this day."

30 Then the next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a great sin. Now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin." 31 So Moses returned to the LORD, and said, "Oh, these people have committed a great sin [against You] and have made themselves a god of gold. 32 Yet now, if You will, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out of Your book which You have written (kill me)!" 33 But the LORD said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book [not you]. 34 But now go, lead the people [to the place] where I have told you. Behold, My Angel shall go before you; nevertheless, in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin!" 35 So the LORD struck the people with a plague, because of what they had done with the calf which Aaron had made [for them].

Part 6: Does God really desire sacrifice?
A Hebrew Bible-based Perspective on Divine Mercy
Judges: God sent “saviors” to deliver Israel without sacrifice
by Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch); edited by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)
Tamuz 5785; June 27, 2025

The period of the Judges (ca. 1375–1010 BCE¹) reflects a time in ancient Israel before the establishment of the monarchy, characterized by cycles of pagan practices interspersed with repentance and deliverance. The book emphasizes ethical obedience to God’s covenant over ritual sacrifices, a perspective also expressed in prophetic critiques (e.g., Jer 7:21–26, Ezek 11:18–21, Mic 6:6-8; Hos 6:6, etc.). The following narratives from the Book of Judges support bloodless atonement for sin—methods of reconciliation with God that do not involve animal sacrifices—aligning with the biblical theme that God desires repentance, prayer and moral correction over sacrificial rituals.

During the time of the Judges, centralized worship had yet to become established. There was a tabernacle at Shiloh, but it is not stated as ever actually serving as a pilgrimage destination. The book describes a time in the past: “In those days, there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes” (Judges 21:25; also ch. 17)² The Tanakh gives numerous examples of individuals and Judges making sacrifices according to their own understanding, many to the local Canaanite gods as well as YHVH, adopting the customs.

The Book of Judges never explicitly uses the term kapparah (atonement, expiation, propitiation, ransom, making amends, covering, etc.) in the technical sense of the priestly texts (e.g., Leviticus 1-8; 16). Moreover, it does not provide any detailed rituals for sin atonement, another indication the book was written earlier than the implementation of the formal sacrificial system authorized by Levitical laws and later temple practices. However, Judges contains several narratives wherein Israel’s reconciliation with God after sin occurs—without ritual interventions—supporting our premise.

What follows are several examples from the Book of Judges that illustrate atonement by repentance, prayer and crying out to God that prompted divine intervention without necessity for expiatory blood sacrifices. Judges 3:9; 6:9; 10:1, etc. record the process to accomplish restoration and reconciliation for the people. YHVH would dispatch a Judge (shaphat), called a moshia’ (from yasha’) — a “savior” or “deliverer” — to

² Nobody knows for sure when the book was written; based on the verse, it was certainly sometime after the monarchy had been established (ca. 1030 BCE).

“rescue” (yoshia; also, from yasha') the Israelites. The verb yasha' (to save, deliver, rescue, etc.) is used 26 times in the book to describe the work of salvation from YHVH through an appointed Israelite Judge savior (shaphat) and even one direct deliverance by YHVH himself responding to Israel’s “crying out” without human intervention.

Israel failed to drive out all the Canaanites and broke the covenant

The first “Judge” in the book is not named and is referred to as a “malakh YHVH” (a messenger of YHVH; either human or divine). The Israelites had failed to drive out the depraved Canaanites from various cities (Judges 1:27-34) violating the covenant. At Judges 2:1–5, the messenger spoke the word of God to these Israelites who had camped in a place they had afterward named Bochim:

Judges 2: 1-5, And a messenger of YHVH came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: “I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I swore unto your fathers... ye shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land... but ye have not hearkened unto my voice... Wherefore I also said: I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be unto you as thorns, and their gods shall be a trap unto you.”... And it came to pass, when the messenger of YHVH spoke these words... that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. And they called the name of that place Bochim; and they sacrificed there unto YHVH.” (JPS Tanakh, 1917)

This passage depicts Israel’s breach of covenant—failing to expel the Canaanites and turning to idolatry by adopting their gods called “Ba’alim.” The people’s response to the messenger’s rebuke was weeping and repentance which precedes the act of sacrificing. The weeping at Bochim (bekhiya; meaning “weepers”) suggests a collective act of contrition as the primary response to their sin, aligning with the theme that God values heartfelt repentance over ritual.

The Tabernacle and “official” sacrificial altar were still at Shiloh; no priest or prophet-Judge is identified as making a communal sacrifice. In fact, the author identifies the Israelites themselves as making a collective generic zavakh (to slaughter; sacrifice)—possibly an olah (whole burnt offering) or a shelamim-toda (peace-thank offering)—but not a sacrifice for sin. As the reader is aware, a “sin offering” has a specific name in the Levitical code (Lev ch. 4): khata’at.

The Steinsaltz Tanakh observes:

The halakhic status of this offering and the manner of its sacrifice are unclear. In any case, this spiritual awakening did not lead to any practical changes.³

In this context, the collective sacrifice appears generic and secondary to the people's repentance and spiritual return. Its vague placement—without a priest, location, or type—suggests it may be a later priestly interpolation aimed at harmonizing this narrative with Levitical requirements. If so, it was not well integrated.⁴

YHVH calls Othniel to be his savior-agent—no sacrifices desired

Judges 3: 7-11, And the children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of YHVH, and forgot YHVH their God, and served the Ba'alim and the Asheroth. Therefore the anger of YHVH was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of [the] king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served [him] eight years. And when the children of Israel cried unto YHVH, YHVH raised up a saviour (moshia') to the children of Israel, who saved (yoshi'em, from yasha') them, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. ... And the land had rest forty years.

After Israel sinned by serving pagan gods described as "doing evil in the sight of YHVH" (Judges 3:7) and being punished by serving the king of Mesopotamia, their cry to God prompted divine deliverance through God's Judge-savior Othniel. No sacrifices were performed as a precondition for deliverance. This pattern of regret and crying out prompting salvation via YHVH's appointed savior-agents recurs several times in Judges. For example, Ehud was appointed at 3:15 and Gideon at 6:6–7, etc., demonstrating that prayer and repentance, not blood offerings, initiate God's forgiveness and restoration. This aligns with our emphasis on bloodless communion (e.g., Ezek 11:16's "little sanctuary" for prayer) and the prophetic view that God desires a transformed heart (Jer 31:33, Ezek 36:26).

Gideon and 300 men defeat thousands of Midianites without sacrifice

Israel's sin (idolatry, Judges 6:1) leads to oppression by the Midianites, and their cry to God resulted in divine intervention through his Judge-deliverer Gideon without any sacrificial ritual.

³ Steinsaltz Tanakh. Link: sefaria.org

⁴ Only a hand-full of sacrifices are mentioned in Judges (e.g., Judg 6:26, Gideon's altar; Judg 13:16, Manoah's offering), but none are explicitly tied to expiation and/or forgiveness of sin.

Judges 6: 6-14, And Israel was brought very low because of Midian; and the children of Israel cried unto YHVH. ... YHVH sent a prophet unto the children of Israel: and he said unto them, "Thus saith YHVH, the God of Israel, 'I brought you up from Egypt ...and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land;' and I said unto you, 'I am YHVH your God; ye shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell. But ye have not hearkened unto my voice.'" ... And an angel (malakh) of YHVH appeared unto him, and said unto him, "YHVH is with thee, thou mighty man of valor." And Gideon said unto him, "Oh, my lord, if YHVH is with us, why then is all this befallen us? ...but now YHVH hath cast us off, and delivered us into the hand of Midian." And YHVH looked upon him, and said, "Go in this thy might, and save Israel from the hand of Midian: have not I sent thee?"

Gideon, who was a divinely appointed deliverer despite his doubts, led a mere 300 Israelites to a miraculous victory over the Midianite host of up to about 135,000 men (Judges 8:10). Facing a massive enemy army "like grasshoppers for multitude" (Judges 7:12), God had Gideon reduce his army from 32,000 to 300 to showcase his power and ensure the people knew that the victory belonged only to the covenant faithfulness of YHVH (Judges 7:2-7). At night, Gideon's men, wielding only trumpets, torches, and pitchers, surrounded the Midianite camp and unleashed chaos, causing them to start killing each other and flee in panic (Judges 7:16-22). As the Midianites scattered, Gideon summoned reinforcements from Naphtali, Asher, Manasseh, and Ephraim, who joined the chase, seized Jordan River crossings and slew the Midianite princes Oreb and Zeeb, ensuring the rout of the enemy and the capture of kings Zebah and Zalmunna (Judges 7:23-25, 8:12).

This well-known narrative reflects a non-ritual reconciliation through prayer and repentance, resonating with our theme that YHVH values heartfelt return over sacrifices. It demonstrates that Israel's reconciliation with God hinged only on their sincere remorse and call for help, evidencing that prayer, not blood sacrifice, is sufficient for divine mercy, forgiveness and deliverance. It parallels David, Ezekiel, Jeremiah, Hosea and other prophets' focus on ethical renewal. Again, the pattern is consistent: sin, sincere appeal to God, and salvation—absent any mention of blood ritual.

People sin, do acts of repentance, are forgiven and directly saved by YHVH

Judges 10: 10-16, And the children of Israel cried unto YHVH, saying: "We have sinned against Thee, for that we have forsaken our God, and have served the Ba'alim." ... And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served YHVH; and His soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.”

(JPS Tanakh)

This passage explicitly describes Israel’s sin (idolatry), followed by their confession of guilt (“We have sinned”) and active faithful repentance (removing foreign gods). God’s response—YHVH grieved for Israel’s misery—and saved his people without mention of sacrifices. The act of confessing sin and returning to God through moral correction (abandoning idols) serves as a sacrifice-free restoration, aligning with Ezekiel 11:18–21’s call to remove abominations and similar verses (Jer 4:1; Isa 44:9-20, etc.).

This key passage links confession and ethical reform to divine forgiveness and prophetic critiques of sacrifice—mirroring the Essene Dead Sea Scrolls (henceforth, DSS) community’s focus on moral obedience and commitment to “purify their knowledge in the truth of God’s precepts” (1QS V, 7–9)⁵. It also highlights the community’s lived obedience to the internalized Torah, aligning with Ezekiel’s new spirit (Ezek 36:26–27). This narrative strongly supports our premise that God desires ethical repentance over ritual.

Conclusion: Bloodless Atonement in the Time of the Judges

The Book of Judges illustrates that God accepted repentance and prayer as responses to Israel’s sin—without requiring blood sacrifices—even when Israel failed to fully conquer the land and long before the monarchy was established. The term kapparah, specifically signifying “atonement” or “expiation” for sin, is not used in Judges. The cycle of sin–oppression–repentance–deliverance in the book consistently highlights cries to God or confession, not sacrifices, as the catalyst for restoration. When Israel continually “cried unto YHVH” after their idolatry, God sent Judges-saviors like Othniel and Gideon (Judges 3:9, 6:6–7; see also Neh 9:27), echoing Ezekiel’s “little sanctuary” for bloodless communion (Ezek 11:16). Israel’s confession and removal of idols prompted divine mercy (Judges 10:10–16), aligning with Ezekiel’s call to remove abominations (Ezek 11:18–21) and Jeremiah’s critique of hypocritical sacrifices (Jer 7:4–14).

The DSS sectarians emphasized Torah obedience and viewed themselves as the faithful remnant in opposition to the Second Temple establishment. They saw themselves as fulfilling Ezekiel and Jeremiah’s new covenant visions, identifying as “those who hold fast to the New Covenant established in the land of Damascus” (CD VI, 19)⁶. They embodied Jeremiah’s Torah written on the heart (Jer 31:33) and Ezekiel’s cleansed Israel (Ezek 36:26–27), prioritizing ethical obedience over ritual, as seen in Judges’ atonement by repentance (Judges 10:10–16). Their oath to “return to the Law of Moses with all their heart and soul” (1QS I, 16–18)⁷ and role as a “sanctuary of men... to offer in it spiritual sacrifices” (4Q174 I, 6–7)⁸ echoed Israel's repentance at Bochim (Judges 2:1–5) and David's replacing “incense and sacrifice” with “prayer and uplifted hands” (Ps 141:2). By separating from the “multitude of the people... to return to God with all your heart” (4QMMT C, 26–31)⁹, DSS texts rejected the second temple rituals, aligning with our position that YHVH desires “obedience” (shema; to hear and obey) and “steadfast love” (kheshed, mercy) instead of sacrifice (Hos 6:6; Matt 9:13, 12:7).

These acts of repentance align with later prophets' critiques of ritual corruption and a “new covenant” including Jeremiah's call for a heart-inscribed Torah (Jer 31:33), Ezekiel's vision of a “new spirit” (Ezek 36:26), David's “broken and contrite heart” (Psalm 51:17) and the Qumran community's commitment to ethical obedience.

-I'M OPENING THE DOOR TO YOUR FUTURE-

Exciting things are about to happen, family! This morning, in my time with the LORD in the secret place, He showed me a huge stage, and He pulled back the curtain, and I saw the actors' masks drop to the ground. Then suddenly, I saw police run on the stage and arrest them all. Then I was shown a path that led to a beautiful paradise, (promised land) flowing with beautiful brooks and rolling green hills. It was a very beautiful, peaceful place, and joy filled the air. I was then shown what looked like a blanket of darkness being removed from all those affected by the evil, and they had glory poured all over them. The scene was amazing! So much joy and happiness filled the air. It's so exciting what the LORD is doing. Be blessed! Love each other fervently!

My children, it's time to bring out the truth. It's time to reveal what's been hidden. The masks are coming off. Their show is coming to a terrible end for those partnered with the darkness. I'm bringing all things to light. The darkness will be pierced until it is consumed with the all-covering presence of My glory. Everything done in darkness will be exposed on the world stage. All the hate, division, murder and hypocrisy will be seen plainly in those who are orchestrating the hostile takeover of this nation and the world. All the players in this scheme will be brought low. My power and presence are moving across your nation to destroy all that stands in the way of your promised land to bring in the Golden Age. You are about to see Me unleash My Judgement vengeance. This will be a scary thing to witness, but those in My SON should not fear any of this. It's for the evil. You'll watch them fall by your side, but nothing will come near My children.

What's going to happen next, no one saw coming. I am moving at an exponential speed to deliver you from their plans of destruction. It will look like something from a science fiction horror movie. But this is real, and I am doing very unusual things to bring your victory. The buck stops here. No more mister nice guy. The time for those working in darkness to repent is up. The sand is out of the hourglass. I've given plenty of time and warning. Sound the alarm! Things are about to get ugly. I've prepared you for this. It's not a surprise, although it will be surprising as it unfolds before your eyes. My children will stand in awe and great excitement while the liars, murderers and fakes will be in complete fear, unable to move. A great and terrible day is coming to the wicked. It's time to clean house. I have something beautiful waiting to give you.

I'm bringing retribution for all those affected by this evil deep state establishment. All the murders and lives ruined will receive healing and restoration. All those who received injustice, true justice is coming. To all those who were affected by the weather-manipulated storms that damaged and stole all you had, I'm bringing you a double portion. To all those working tirelessly to just get by and feed your families, I am giving you rest from those labors and bringing prosperity. For all those who have stood and fought hard in unwavering faith, I'm giving you an extra portion of grace and favor in this new season. No one or no prayer has gone unnoticed. I will reward you all openly for your patience and endurance for those who continually put their trust in My promises and words. I remember them all. I am coming with blessings for you, My children. Just hold on a little longer. It's almost over. The GRAND FINALE is about to start. I'm finishing this fight. So hold on to your horses, things are about to get wild. The truth about the Clintons is about to surface. You won't be able to keep your stomachs. It's gruesome and horrific what they've done.

You'll soon see the politicians with dirty hands be cuffed and brought to justice. Bribes and lies are coming to light. No one, I mean no one, who did evil will be left standing. Schumer, it's too late for you. You don't have much time left. I'll make sure you finish your days behind bars. You have much worse coming when that is done.

Pelosi, you've already been judged. All you did will be bought out. Your fake will be exposed. I said the masks are coming off. I'm bringing this masquerade show out in the open. Nothing but the truth will come forth.

All the cries, all the lies, all the blaming My David will turn on them. They'll be arrested for treason. They'll all have shame and disgrace covering them. Their lies and deception aren't working any more. So long, your days of corruption are over. My children, you are about to cross a barrier from darkness to light, from lies to truth, from injustice to justice, from evil to righteousness. You are stepping into your destiny I have prepared for you. A land of plenty. A life full of My Spirit. A new beginning and make-over. It's so close. Can you feel it? I am about to deliver on My promises. You are about to have a life so grand. I love giving good things to My children. You've been through so much. It's time for you to enjoy the works of My hands. Thank you for staying close. Thank you for your faithfulness. I am a GOD who keeps His word. You'll have all you ever wanted soon says the LORD of HOSTS, your Redeemer.

“For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome. Then you will call upon Me, and you will come and pray to Me, and I will hear and heed you. Then you will seek Me, inquire for, and require Me [as a vital necessity] and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart. [Deut. 4:29-30.]” Jeremiah 29:11-13 AMPC

Morning Warriors; “OPERATION RISING LION”.

I stand in awe of my God. who Speaks and then Stands over His Word to perform it. When I heard of “Operation Rising Lion”, the Lord took me back to the Prophetic Words I released at an Israeli Conference I was invited to speak at.

As I went back over the Prophetic Word I released at the time, I was amazed at how the Lord had me prophecy that, “A DOUBLE PORTION MANTLE OF EZEKIEL AND JEREMIAH WOULD COME UPON NETANYAHU.”

For a number of Weeks now, God has had me praying through the Book of Ezekiel and Jeremiah with a specific prophetic emphasis on Ezekiel 38/39 and Jeremiah 49. Ezekiel 38/39 speaks to the Prophetic Timeline of the War of Gog and Magog, and in Jeremiah 49, we learn about a time referred to as the "latter days," during which the inhabitants of Elam, an ancient kingdom that was part of Persia and is now located in modern-day Iran, will find themselves scattered across the globe.

Thus says the Lord of hosts, “Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might. And I will bring upon Elam the four winds from the four quarters of heaven. And I will scatter them to all those winds, and there shall be no nation to which those driven out of Elam shall not come. I will terrify

Elam before their enemies and before those who seek their life. I will bring disaster upon them, my fierce anger, declares the Lord.
I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them, and I will set my throne in Elam and destroy their king and officials, declares the Lord.
"But in the latter days I will restore the fortunes of Elam, declares the Lord."
(Jeremiah 49:35-39)

And Speaking concerning Netanyahu, the Spirit of the Lord said, "A VOICE THAT SHALL CARRY THE SOUND OF THE ROAR OF THE LION OF JUDAH!"

Word Concerning Benjamin Netanyahu

June 15, 2021 Veronika West

I heard the Spirit say, "Daughter, I'm moving in Mysterious Ways. I'm moving in Ways never seen before. I'm Moving in Ways that will Shock, Shake and Shift the very foundations of Nations. Yes! I'm Moving Suddenly and Swiftly, Watch! Daughter, as I bring forth New and Ancient Ways of My Glory that will bring Nations to birth in a Day. I say Watch and Pray as MY DOUBLE TROUBLEMAKERS ARE NOW MAKING DIVINE COMEBACKS FOR TROUBLED TIMES."

A Prophetic Word concerning Benjamin Netanyahu; 15th June 2021

"A Double Portion Anointing of Ezekiel and Jeremiah — A VOICE THAT SHALL CARRY THE SOUND OF THE ROAR OF THE LION OF JUDAH!" During my time of prayer for the nation of Israel today, the LORD brought Benjamin Netanyahu before me, and suddenly I heard The Spirit say these Words to me: "For many will say concerning Benjamin Netanyahu, surely God has given, but now God has taken away. But I say to you, "Watch and Listen!" For just as I said to My Prophet Ezekiel, so now I say to My Prophet Benjamin Netanyahu — son of man, go now to The House of Israel and speak My Words to them.

"For you are not being sent to a people of obscure speech and difficult language, but to The House of Israel. Not to many peoples of obscure speech and difficult language, whose words you cannot understand! Surely if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you. But The House of Israel is not willing to listen to you, because they are not willing to listen to Me, for the whole House of Israel is hardened and obstinate. But I will make you as unyielding and hardened as they are. I will make your forehead like the hardest stone, harder than flint.

Do not be afraid of them or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious house!”

As I heard those Words, The Spirit of The LORD then showed me a Mantle that came to rest upon Benjamin Netanyahu — an Ezekiel Mantle — as one that is called and anointed to speak to The House of Israel, and even to the Global and Economic Organizations of the World, in the coming days.

Then I saw that The Hand of God has made his face (Benjamin Netanyahu) hard against their faces, and his forehead hard against their foreheads — like the hardest stone — harder than flint, he has made his forehead.

Then I heard The Spirit say, “Watch — as I cause My Prophet Benjamin Netanyahu to become as a thorn in their sides, as a scorpion in their shoes, even as a watch dog that will bark aloud, relentlessly, giving them no peace. Yes! He shall be known as A Great Troublemaker — A Constant Irritation — and a Stumbling Block to their destructive plans, a voice that cannot and will not be silenced; a voice that will carry the sound of The Roar of The Lion of Judah; a voice that will speak of My coming Justice and Judgement in the Nations, and a voice that will only get louder and louder in the days ahead.”

As I heard those Words, The LORD then brought The Prophet Jeremiah before me, and I saw a second Mantle fall upon the shoulders of Benjamin Netanyahu, and I heard these words: “A Double Portion Anointing, for a time of Great Awakening is now here!” And then I heard The Spirit say, “For My Prophet Benjamin Netanyahu shall carry a Double-Portion Anointing — the Anointing of Ezekiel and Jeremiah shall rest upon him. My Word will be as a sharp two-edged sword in his mouth, for I have Anointed and Appointed him over Nations and Kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant!”

Blessings to you all.~ by Veronika West

NETENYAHU RETURNS TO POWER; November 3rd 2022:
BREAKING NEWS; Benjamin Netanyahu, Israel’s comeback leader

When Benjamin Netanyahu was ousted from power in 15th June 2021 after 12 straight years as prime minister, observers called it the end of an era, while his critics spoke of a new dawn.

Prophetic Insights

WE HAVE ENTERED INTO A TIME AND SEASON OF DIVINE REVERSALS, RECOVERY, AND GREAT REWARD, 5783 - A YEAR WHERE WE ARE WARRING FOR DIVINE RECOVERY - GOD IS RESETTING THE NATIONS.

At the Start of the New Hebrew Year 5783, at our Monthly Gatherings, an Angel of the Lord came into the Church with an Hour Glass in his hand, and the Angel of the Lord had come to Announce that God was going to begin to RESTORE AND REDEEM TIME; HE WOULD BEGIN TO REVERSE GENERATIONAL CURSES OVER THE PEOPLE AND OVER THE LAND; BUT ALSO, HE WOULD RELEASE GENERATIONAL BLESSINGS OVER GOD'S PEOPLE AND OVER THE LAND A TIME OF DIVINE REVERSALS, RECOVERY AND RESET WAS COMING TO THE RIGHTEOUS REMNANT.

God told me then that He was putting Netanyahu back into Power as a PROPHETIC SIGN to the Nations. We have entered into a time like never before, where we are going to see GOD UPROOTING, TEARING DOWN, BUILDING, AND PLANTING. THERE IS A DIVINE DISMANTLING AND DISPLACEMENT OF DEMONIC STRONGHOLDS OVER MANY TERRITORIES, AND GOD IS RAISING UP HIS DOUBLE-TROUBLEMAKERS THAT WILL USED TO BRING DIVINE DISRUPTIONS TO THE KINGDOM OF DARKNESS!

A WORD CONCERNING THE NATION OF ISRAEL: "THIS IS AN 11th HOUR WORD TO THE NATION OF ISRAEL. WATCH! FOR A HOLY REMNANT WILL RISE FROM THE ASHES. WATCH! FOR A CLEANSING FIRE HAS COME TO THE NATION OF ISRAEL, AN ALL-CONSUMING FIRE THAT SHALL BURN, BURN, BURN. ISRAEL SHALL NOW BECOME A SIGN AND WONDER OF RESTORATION, REDEMPTION, AND REVIVAL TO THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH!"

I heard these words, "LOOK! I AM TURNING THE EYES OF ALL NATIONS UPON THE NATION OF ISRAEL IN THIS HOUR AND SEASON. WATCH! FOR A HOLY REMNANT IS RISING FROM THE ASHES. WATCH! FOR ISRAEL SHALL NOW BECOME A GLORIOUS SIGN AND WONDER OF MY RESTORATION, REDEMPTION, AND REVIVAL TO THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH. WATCH! AS MY CLEANSING FIRE NOW BURNS, BURNS, BURNS. WATCH! AS MY SPIRIT MOVES SWIFTLY ACROSS THE LAND, FOR I AM AN ALL-CONSUMING FIRE,

AND MY PROMISE TO REBUILD THE CITY, RESTORE THE PEOPLE, AND BRING JUDGEMENT UPON THE ENEMIES OF ISRAEL SHALL NOW COME TO PASS," says God.

As I heard the Spirit speak these words, I saw in the spirit realm the number 11. The Holy Spirit then quickened to me Romans 11, which says, "So I ask, Has God rejected his people, Israel?" That's unthinkable! Consider this. I'm an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham from the tribe of Benjamin. God has not rejected his people whom he knew long ago.

"Don't you know what Elijah says in the Scripture passage when he complains to God about Israel? He says, "Lord, they've killed your prophets and torn down your altars. I'm the only one left, and they're trying to take my life." But what was God's reply? God said, "I've kept 7,000 people for myself who have not knelt to worship Baal." So, as there were then, there are now a few left that God has chosen by his kindness. If they were chosen by God's kindness, they weren't chosen because of anything they did. Otherwise, God's kindness wouldn't be kindness. So what does all this mean? It means that Israel has never achieved what it has been striving for. However, those whom God has chosen to have achieved it. The minds of the rest of Israel were closed, as Scripture says, "To this day God has given them a spirit of deep sleep. Their eyes don't see, and their ears don't hear!"

And David says,

"Let the table set for them become a trap and a net, a snare and a punishment for them. Let their vision become clouded so that they cannot see. Let them carry back-breaking burdens forever." So I ask, "Has Israel stumbled so badly that it can't get up again?" That's unthinkable! By Israel's failure, salvation has come to people who are not Jewish to make the Jewish people jealous.

"The fall of the Jewish people made the world spiritually rich. Their failure made people who are not Jewish spiritually rich. So the inclusion of Jewish people will make the world even richer. Now, I speak to you who are not Jewish. As long as I am an apostle sent to people who are not Jewish, I bring honor to my ministry. Perhaps I can make my people jealous and save some of them. If Israel's rejection means that the world has been brought back to God, what does Israel's acceptance mean? It means that Israel has come back to life.

"If the first handful of dough is holy, the whole batch of dough is holy. If the root is holy, the branches are holy. But some of the olive branches have been broken off, and you, a wild olive branch, have been grafted in their place.

“You get your nourishment from the roots of the olive tree. So don’t brag about being better than the other branches. If you brag, remember that you don’t support the root, the root supports you. “Well,” you say, “Branches were cut off so that I could be grafted onto the tree.” That’s right! They were broken off because they didn’t believe, but you remain on the tree because you do believe. Don’t feel arrogant, but be afraid. If God didn’t spare the natural branches, he won’t spare you, either. Look at how kind and how severe God can be. He is severe to those who fell, but kind to you if you continue to hold on to his kindness. Otherwise, you, too, will be cut off from the tree. If Jewish people do not continue in their unbelief, they will be grafted onto the tree again, because God is able to do that. In spite of the fact that you have been cut from a wild olive tree, you have been grafted onto a cultivated one. So wouldn’t it be easier for these natural branches to be grafted onto the olive tree they belong to? Brothers and sisters, I want you to understand this mystery so that you won’t become arrogant.

“The minds of some Israelites have become closed until all of God’s non-Jewish people are included. In this way Israel as a whole will be saved, as Scripture says, “The Savior will come from Zion. He will remove godlessness from Jacob. My promise to them will be fulfilled when I take away their sins.

“The Good News made the Jewish people enemies because of you. But by God’s choice they are loved because of their ancestors. God never changes his mind when he gives gifts or when he calls someone. In the past, you disobeyed God. But now God has been merciful to you because of the disobedience of the Jewish people. In the same way, the Jewish people have also disobeyed so that God may be merciful to them as he was to you. God has placed all people into the prison of their own disobedience so that he could be merciful to all people. God’s riches, wisdom, and knowledge are so deep that it is impossible to explain his decisions or to understand his ways.”

“Who knows how the Lord thinks?
Who can become his adviser?”

Who gave the Lord something which the Lord must pay back?

Everything is from him and by him and for him. Glory belongs to him forever! Amen!

FRIENDS, KEEP YOUR EYES UPON THE NATION OF ISRAEL IN THIS HOUR, FOR A GLORIOUS SIGN AND WONDER SHALL BE SEEN COMING OUT OF THIS NATION THAT WILL BRING ABOUT A GLOBAL AWAKENING AND A GREAT OUTPOURING OF HIS SPIRIT UPON THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH!!

God's Double-Troublemakers are Rising in the midst of Troubled Times

January 2, 2021 Veronika West. Watch! For God's Double Troublemakers empowered by The Spirit of Elijah — for troubled times are rising in 2021. "Now when Ahab saw Elijah he said, Is that really you, the troublemaker of Israel?" (1 King's 18:17)

I heard The Spirit say, "Watch! For I AM raising up Troublemakers in this hour that will not be moved by man's opinion or by man's praise. Troublemakers, filled with The Fire of The Spirit of Truth who will ignite the fuse of Revival and bring to birth an explosive new movement of Radical Reformers, who will not be contained or confined, nor will they be shut down or silenced! Watch! For many of My Anointed Troublemakers will be defined not by their soothing speech and their man pleasing personalities, but they will be known for their sharp teeth and jagged edges. Like an abrasive sandpaper, they will rub many up the wrong way, and they will offend the spirit of Religion and Tradition that have taken up residence in the hearts of many who deem themselves holy in My Sight.

"Yes! I say Listen and Pay Attention! Watch! For now I AM touching the lips of My Troublemakers with red hot coals of My Fire and Glory and their tongues will be like sharp two-edged swords, cutting through bone and flesh, and their mouths will be filled with Words of Wisdom that carry the Authority to shift Nations and move mountains into the sea. Their eyes shall see with greater clarity and revelation; their ears tuned to the frequency of heaven.

"Having the ability to hear and accurately distinguish The Voice of Truth and Righteousness from the many voices of deception and demonic delusion, these Troublemakers will be mantled with Might and Power and will release and impart The Spirit of The Fear of The LORD into every atmosphere and place of influence. I say, "Watch and Pray!" For gone are the days, when sugar-coated words of compromise and false comfort are spoken from the mouths of wolves dressed in sheep's clothing to entice and to draw a hungry and thirsty crowd for the purpose of feeding the lusts of their own flesh and the lusts of their own eyes.

"For gone are the days when the Glory Thieves go on to steal even more of My Glory! Gone are the days when My precious Word is pimped and prostituted and written on merchandise and sold as household commodities. For did I not say, My Father's house shall be A House of Prayer and not a den of thieves? Ha! Watch! For My Troublemakers will go forth to overturn and thrown down many defiled tables in My Father's House.

"Gone are the days when the Truths of My Word are twisted and distorted and thrown like precious pearls to be trodden under foot, so that the offering baskets can be filled and the names of men can be lifted up and worshiped.

"Gone are the days when the pulpit is used as the coward's castle to manipulate, intimidate and control My beloved Sheep. Gone are the days when men and women will stand in My Holy Presence and lie and steal, and think that they can continue to abuse My Body and that Death and Destruction will not surely come upon their own heads and upon the heads of those in their households. I say, gone are the days of a lukewarm Gospel that has discredited and brought shame upon My Name and upon My Fame in the Nations. Gone are the days when men and women will seek to bring a heavenly God down to man's earthly level so that their premises will be filled and their purses will be fat.

"I say again, gone are these days, for now a new day is dawning. Days that will be marked by radical change and transformation. Days of Divine Disruptions, Supernatural Shakings and unexpected suddenlies, glorious signs, wonders and miracles. For I will show myself to be God, and My Righteous Remnant of Troublemakers will rise, filled by The Spirit and Power of Elijah, and they shall advance to build and establish My Kingdom Purposes in the Nations of the earth!"

Question: Will you choose to be God's Double Troublemaker for troubled times?

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'DO NOT ALLOW DISTRACTION TO DEFER AND DETER YOU FROM THE DIRECTIVE I HAVE GIVEN YOU'

Recently, I have released a few words about a spirit of distraction coming against many in the Body of Christ and the call of the Lord to take authority over this spirit of distraction. Also, the Lord has been speaking about seeking Him deeply for wisdom in strategies, boundaries, and remaining ferociously steadfast and focused upon what He is speaking and where He is leading.

This week I have felt an increase of the onslaught against many in the area of distraction. It felt stronger than it did when I released the first prophetic word on distraction. So, I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart and what He wanted to say, and I heard the Lord speaking over many:

'Do not allow distraction to defer and deter you from the directive I have given you.'

I went and looked up the definitions of defer and deter:

DEFER: To put off (an action or event) to a later time; postpone.

SYNONYMS: To adjourn, suspend, shelve, carry over, delay, postpone, put off

DETER: 'Discourage (someone) from doing something by instilling doubt or fear of the consequences.

SYNONYMS: To put off, stop, put a stop to, avert, block, dishearten, dissuade, scare off, discourage

(All definitions taken from Google)

As I continued to lean in and listen to the Lord I heard:

'Dig your heels into the directive and directives I have given you for this season and remain there. For distraction is coming from many directions to steal your peace, steal your focus, hinder what I am doing and releasing through you and to cause you to move into places where My grace and directives are not found. This spirit of distraction is coming against many of you right now to attempt to shut down your discernment and to draw you into deep confusion and hinder the rest that is found in following My directive. I say unto you, as you dig in your heels in faith, obedience and focus to the directives that I am giving you, you will find greater peace, rest and flourishing fruit in what I have called you to do and put your hands to in this season.'

'The enemy is coming against many right now to cause you to lose sight of the vision that I have given you and cause you to feel like you have not heard Me correctly and beginning to sow seeds of doubt into the directives that I have given you. But I say unto you, there is GREATER DISCERNMENT increasing right now in the directives I have given you as you stand against the distraction that is attempting to come against you. I say unto you, do not allow the distraction to defer and deter you from the directives I have given you. There is a great clash happening for many right now between old wineskins and the new wineskin.'

'Do not be distracted and look back to old wineskins. Remain focused on the new directives and the new wineskin I have been speaking to you about.'

For there are many of you that have stopped your movement forward into the directives I am giving you in fear that you are not hearing Me correctly. But I say unto you, make INTENTIONAL movement and steps to move deeper into the directives I have given you, and sow into them. As you continue to sow into what I have spoken to you – and the visions, words and leadings I have given you in this season that I have confirmed to you – you will see great fruit come forth. Distraction is coming swift and fast to attempt to dissuade you, but I am calling you to OBEDIENT ACTION in your intentionality in sowing into My directives.

'Refuse to entertain doubt, refuse to entertain the confusion that has come against you. Refuse to entertain the distraction. Come to Me; come deeper into stillness and again you will see and hear that which I have placed in your spirit for this season. For where My directives are and you are being led, you will find a greater empowerment of My grace, rest, peace and movement of My Spirit; and this spirit of distraction is coming against many of you to move you into a place of striving, unrest, fear, and places where My grace is not resting in this season.

'I have spoken to many of you about the EASE and the REST in My slipstream and the anointing and My grace in this season in the directives I have given you. I have spoken to you of the rested ease and flourishing that you will find in My presence as you follow these directives. And I have spoken to many of you about this season of coming deeper into the rest of My presence, and these distractions are attempting to bring you OUT of the rested places in Me and in My directives that I have given you. I say unto you, that there are many "man-made plans" and "man-made expectations" that are coming to you that are outside of your season; and I say unto you, follow My grace and follow My plans and My directives, for as you quiet yourself you will hear My directives again.'

I then went into a vision, and I saw many mothers across the earth.

I saw these mothers had been feeling a call from the Lord to a deeper focus on disciplining their children and securing the family unit and their homes and families right now; and suddenly I saw a violent wind, almost like a tornado, coming against these mothers. Immediately, I knew in the spirit that there was intense distraction and warfare coming against many mothers right now attempting to hinder their focus, the directives the Lord was giving them, their assignment and their vision for their role in raising their children and tending to their homes in this hour.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened, I heard:

'Mothers, take authority over this onslaught and remain steadfast in the directives that I have given. I say unto you, that there is a great move of My Spirit that is being birthed in the lives of your children and your homes in this hour, and the enemy is attempting to take your focus. The enemy is attempting to distract you, dissuade you and discourage you; but I say unto you, you are mothering a movement of My Spirit in your midst in raising your children, and there is a greater move of My Spirit in and amongst your children in this hour and great things that I am doing in them, and it requires a greater focus from you. Do not allow the enemy to distract you from the place of mothering and deeper focus upon raising your children in My ways in this hour.

'There is much noise surrounding many mothers right now, and I say unto you, I will MEET YOU in your mothering. I am going to meet you in your mothering in ways you have not experienced before. I am increasing strategy, intel and insight in your mothering to raise, disciple and lead your children and teach them My ways. There is a great healing move of My Spirit that is crashing into your homes in this hour to bring healing where healing is needed, recompense where recompense is needed, and restoration where restoration is needed. I say unto you, I am establishing and securing the family unit in this hour. Mothers arise and continue to listen to the directives I am giving you in this season in raising your children, for the enemy is terrified of Me in you and the warriors that I have given you to lead and train in My ways.

'There is a new day dawning over you in this hour. Be not distracted, but dig your heels into My directives and sow intentionally in what I have spoken, and watch the banner of victory continue to arise over your home and your children's lives and as you mother your children and a move of My Spirit in your midst that you have not yet seen. It's a new move; it's a greater move than you have seen. I am strengthening you, refreshing you, and sustaining you, and the enemy is terrified of what I am doing in you and your children. Arise mothers, for such a time as this! Arise with ferocious focus upon Me and My directives and watch distraction RUN from you.'

“You Did Not Seek This Moment. This Moment Sought You!”

The war between Israel and Iran continues to rage. Israel has complete air superiority over Iran and is inflicting massive damage. Iran is sending rockets into Israel and has done some damage, but not enough to deter Israel in any way. The Western Journal reports that “Israel said that its campaign to degrade Iran’s military infrastructure has scored a major victory by degrading its command infrastructure.

“The Israeli Defense Forces say they have killed the chief of the Islamic Republic of Iran’s armed forces. Ali Shadmani had only been in the position for a few days. He was appointed after his predecessor was killed by the Israeli military just days earlier,’ journalist Yashar Ali posted on X.

“Shadmani was in charge of Iran’s military emergency command for about four days, according to the Times of Israel.

I would not imagine that Iranians are currently waiting in line for an opportunity at a leadership position.

America’s Role

As the battle intensifies, there is great speculation about what actions America will or will not take. I am receiving many questions from individuals wondering about this; others are asking how the war relates to the end times. With the rapid developments, it is challenging to write a post for the following day, as much could have transpired by the time it is released. Things are very fluid and changing continuously.

At the time of this writing (Tuesday afternoon, 6/17), President Trump just concluded a meeting with his team in the Situation Room, and a considerable number of United States ships and planes are en route to the region. It is being asserted by almost all experts that in order to take out all of Iran’s nuclear capabilities, America will have to become involved. We are the only country with weapons that can go deep enough into the earth to destroy their underground system. And indeed, we are being told that U.S. strikes are on the table.

Even leaders of other nations are speculating as to America’s role. The Western Journal reported that “President Donald Trump on Tuesday poured a scathing denunciation over allegations he was carrying an olive branch to Iran as Israel pummels Tehran. ‘I have not reached out to Iran for “Peace Talks” in any way, shape, or form,’ Trump posted on Truth Social

“This is just more HIGHLY FABRICATED, FAKE NEWS! If they want to talk, they know how to reach me. They should have taken the deal that was on the table – Would have saved a lot of lives!!!” Trump wrote. Trump also castigated French President Emmanuel Macron for what Trump said was a leak to the media.

“Publicity seeking President Emmanuel Macron, of France, mistakenly said that I left the G7 Summit, in Canada, to go back to D.C. to work on a “cease fire” between Israel and Iran. Wrong! He has no idea why I am now on my way to Washington, but it certainly has nothing to do with a Cease Fire. Much bigger than that. Whether purposely or not, Emmanuel always gets it wrong. Stay Tuned!” Trump wrote on Truth Social.”(2)

The Church’s Response

What should our stance be regarding what is taking place?

First, we trust in the Lord’s ability to rule over the nations. No part of this has taken Him by surprise, and He will never be overruled or outwitted. As we pray, fulfilling our responsibility, He will most certainly do His. I remain convinced that part of the fruit of this war will be the weakening of the ruling principality’s control over that region. This will lend itself to a great revival in the region. There is much work for the church to do here on earth - I do not believe this is the end, resulting in Christ’s return.

Secondly, part of our praying must include wisdom for President Trump and those advising him, as well as for Israel’s Prime Minister Netanyahu. Believe in the fact that God has positioned in both America’s and Israel’s leadership those who need to be there at this time, just as Ambassador to Israel, Mike Huckabee, stated. He sent the following text to President Trump:

“Mr President, God spared you in Butler, PA, to be the most consequential President in a century—maybe ever. The decisions on your shoulders I would not want to be made by anyone else. You have many voices speaking to you, Sir, but there is only ONE voice that matters. HIS voice. I am your appointed servant in this land and am available for you, but I do not try to get in your presence often because I trust your instincts. No President in my lifetime has been in a position like yours. Not since Truman in 1945. I don’t reach out to persuade you. Only to encourage you. I believe you will hear from heaven, and that voice is far more important than mine or ANYONE else’s. You sent me to Israel to be your eyes, ears, and voice and to make sure our flag flies above our embassy. My job is to be the last one to leave.

“I will not abandon this post. Our flag will NOT come down! You did not seek this moment. This moment sought YOU! It is my honor to serve you!”(3)

Do not fear. Stay in faith, stay engaged, and stay in prayer. Let's pray now.

Pray with me:

Father, in times of turmoil and upheaval around us, it is normal to feel stress and anxiety. Remind the body of Christ that we are not limited to "normal"; we are supernaturally empowered by Holy Spirit to walk in peace, a peace that is beyond human understanding (Philippians 4:7). Your Word tells us:

"Don't be pulled in different directions or worried about a thing. Be saturated in prayer throughout each day, offering your faith-filled requests before God with overflowing gratitude. Tell Him every detail of your life, then God's wonderful peace that transcends human understanding, will guard your heart and mind through Jesus Christ." (Philippians 4:6-7 TPT)

We will walk in this peace, and we will remain confident in Your plan. We will also remember that You have all authority over the earth. You will not be ruled or controlled by evil rulers or by their followers. You have told us that a great revival and harvest are coming to the earth, including the Middle East. We believe this and call it forth now. We also call forth the dismantling of the stronghold maintained by "the prince of Persia."

We ask You to lead President Trump and his advisors, and also Prime Minister Netanyahu and his advisors. Give victory to the righteous, overthrow the evil, and have mercy upon the people of Israel and Iran. All of this we ask and declare in Jesus' name.

Our decree:

We decree that our sovereign King, Jesus, is ruling over the situation in the Middle East.

Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land

In 1751, to commemorate the 50-year anniversary of William Penn’s original Charter of Privileges, Pennsylvania’s first Constitution, state legislators commissioned to be hung in their new state house in Philadelphia a bell that would toll to celebrate important events or as a call to gather. Though it had been rung during numerous important moments in American history prior to and after July 8, 1776, the Liberty Bell rang out on that day summoning citizens of Philadelphia for the first public reading of the Declaration of Independence, which had been signed in that very building just days earlier. With the signing of the Declaration of Independence, America had declared its national independence from Great Britain. The semi-quincentennial (250 year) anniversary of that event, 2026, is now rapidly approaching, and Philadelphia will undoubtedly play host to tens of thousands of celebrants to events planned in their city. Unquestionably, one of the sights virtually all will purpose to visit is the Liberty Bell.

The significance of the Liberty Bell goes beyond its iconic crack. It actually cracked and was repaired several times throughout its history; it was even re-cast once and cracked again; and in 1864, after ringing in celebration of George Washington’s birthday, it was left with a crack that was beyond repair, and the bell was taken out of commission. It now resides as a stand-alone exhibit in its own pavilion opposite Independence Hall. Of greater significance, however, are the date on which it was commissioned and the inscription which was cast into the bell.

The 1751 date of commissioning, being the 50-year anniversary of Pennsylvania's first Constitution, was the jubilee of that event; a Jubilee being a significant biblical event ordained by God in the presence of Moses in Leviticus chapter 25 to be celebrated every 50 years by all the Jewish nation. The bell's inscription reads, "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all inhabitants thereof," which is a partial rendering of Leviticus 25:10. In their entirety, Leviticus 25:9-10 read, "Then shall you cause the shofar to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month [Tishri 10], on Yom Kippur [the day of Atonement] shall you sound the shofar throughout all your land. And you shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants; it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family."

Some archaeological and biblical evidence suggests the Hebrew year 5785 (which began in March 2025) is the 70th Jubilee since Israel entered the promised land in 1406 B.C. Whether this is a biblical Jubilee year is up for debate, but the Catholic church has declared the year 2025 as the year of Jubilee, the last one being celebrated in the year 2000. [Note: in the Catholic church, every 25 years is declared to be a Jubilee year.] Believers are encouraged to repent of their sins, forgive the sins of others, and to renew a focus on their walk with Christ.

In Hebrew tradition, a Jubilee was celebrated with the freeing of slaves, the forgiveness of all debts, return of all land or property to its original owners (ensuring that families retain their ancestral land), and a year of rest and celebration, marking a time of joy and renewal for the community. It is a year when no agricultural work is to be done, and the land is allowed to rest.

While we, as Americans, celebrate each Independence Day with great joy, special pride in our nation, and historical reflection of what the day represents, there is greater insight we, as Christians, need to grasp from this.

Yeshua's ministry began on the day of Atonement in 26 A.D., the start of a year of Jubilee. In His first public address, He quoted from Isaiah 61:1-2 (Luke 4:18-19): "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord." This verse, which Yeshua applied to himself, contains the phrase, "to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord," which is a direct reference to the Jubilee.

He concluded His reading with the words, "This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears."

While there is apparently no record of Israel ever celebrating the Year of Jubilee by complying with all its requirements to forgive debts, free slaves, etc., Yeshua came to fulfill the Law. This He did by His sinless life, His atoning death for us on the cross at Calvary, and by His resurrection from the dead. With His final pronouncement on the cross, Yeshua declared, "Tetelestai" (Jn 19:28), which was to say, "It is finished; I have done all that I came to accomplish." The word tetelestai was also written on business documents or receipts in New Testament times to show that a bill had been paid in full. The understanding of what Christ accomplished would not have been lost on John's Greek-speaking readership; it would be unmistakable that Yeshua had died to pay for their sins.

Many scriptures point to the fullness of all Yeshua accomplished through His atoning death. With Jubilee in mind, let us review and celebrate some of these:

- He redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us (Gal 3:13).
 - He took away the sin of the world (John 1:29).
 - He gave us eternal life (Rom 6:23).
- The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus freed us from the law of sin and death. (Rom 8:2).
- He redeemed us by His precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot (I Peter 1:18-19).
 - By His stripes we were healed (I Peter 2:24).
- He was made to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him (2 Cor 5:21).
- There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit (Rom 8:1).
- And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross (Colossians 2:13-14).

- As by the offence of one (Adam) judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one (Yeshua) the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life (Romans 5:18).

The Bible admonishes the redeemed of the Lord to say so (Ps 107:2). I am redeemed; therefore, I Say so!

Yeshua has made us free, and we are free indeed (Jn 8:36). I am free indeed; therefore, I Say so!

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty (2 Cor 3:17). I have liberty in Christ; therefore, I Say so!

As we celebrate Independence Day this year and each year, we Americans owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to all our forefathers and the many patriots who fought and died for the liberty and precious freedoms we enjoy as citizens of this great nation. At the same time, we must remember and give thanks eternally to Christ Yeshua, the one who died for us and gave us perfect redemption through His precious atoning blood. Through His sacrifice, we are free to be all He has called us to be. Our many sins, failures and inadequacies were all nailed to the cross with Christ, therefore let us celebrate! Our Jubilee has come. Rejoice for the great liberty we enjoy in and through Yeshua.

Galatians 5:1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

AN URGENCY IN THE REALM OF THE SPIRIT LIKE NEVER BEFORE;

<https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/an-urgency-in-the.../>

An Urgency in the Realm of the Spirit like never before — to Rebuild the Broken-down Altars — to take ground and new territory! But remember — without the Rebuilding of the Altars, there can be no uncapping of the Wells of Revival!

The Rebuilding of the Altars is connected to the Uncapping of Wells! In 2020, The Spirit of The LORD had me Prophecy a Clarion Call to "Rebuild and Restore the Broken-down Altars!” as Nations had come into their Mount Carmel Moment, a Battle of Altars vs Altars had begun for the next 10 years.

Furthermore, The Spirit of The LORD showed me that the Apostolic and Prophetic would be yoked together with a Yoke of Pure Gold/Glory and that the Yoke of Glory would carry the Weight of the Anointing of the Key of the House of David that would break the back of the Woke/Counterfeit Agenda of the enemy and unlock Portals across the Nations for a greater Outpouring of His Spirit that would bring to birth a great Spiritual Awakening and a Billion Soul Harvest!

In this very hour, the Fivefold stand on the threshold of a Divine Invitation — to Rebuild and Restore the Broken-down Altars for the uncapping of the ancient Wells of Revival. There is an Urgency like never before, that we recognize the significance of our role in this sacred process of Rebuilding and Restoration for Kingdom Reformation. This is more than a Call to Action and to mobilize — or even merely a suggestion — it is a Kingdom Mandate that requires Urgency and fervent Prayer!

There is a Divine Instruction from Heaven in this hour to sweep away the ashes of complacency and to reignite the flames that once burned so brightly in the hearts of those who have gone ahead of us and who now sit among a great Cloud of Witnesses, cheering us on in this fight.

Saints, it is time to gather the wood, to prepare the sacrifice, and to Cry Out — for His Fire to fall once again upon our Land and our Nations. The Sacrifice He is looking for is a Living One — a Sacrifice that is broken and contribute — as our lives become the Living Sacrifices upon the Altars, the Wells of Living Waters will flow forth from our bellies!

Yes! We cry with one voice for the Fire to fall upon The Altars!

But let our hearts be attuned to the Rushing Sound of the fast-flowing Waters — the Rivers of Revival that lie beneath and within the deeper realms and dimensions of the Spirit that are about to break forth! The Deep Wells of the Boundless wealth and richness of God’s Presence, the wealth of His wisdom, and the abundance of His Grace — these Marked Places have long been blocked, covered over, hidden, and completely forgotten, but no longer! A mighty Remnant is Rising with a Roar and a Battle Cry for Divine Restoration and Reformation!

A Kairos Moment — a Clarion Sound is being released!

Time to rebuild and re-dig; to Restore the treasures of the ancient pathways; to uncover the Ancient Wells. Time remnant to go up and to dig deep! A new movement of Apostolic and Prophetic Voices are rising! A mighty Remnant Army is emerging from The Secret Places, that will break chains and shatter to pieces the iron fetters that have held Nations Captive.

These are the Architects of a New Kingdom Era!

Together and in unity, they will uproot and tear down demonic strongholds and build and establish His Kingdom on Earth as it is in Heaven! With the Yoke of pure gold, they will move with great precision and unlimited power that will push back the powers of darkness.

As carriers of God's Divine Strategies, they will overthrow every satanic order and assignment that seeks to oppose Heaven's Agenda and Kingdom Advancement. I believe we are about to say, "This is that which has been prophesied!" as we become witnesses to a Divine Convergence of Heaven touching earth, when the Supernatural and Miraculous never seen before becomes the ordinary, when unexpected and unexplained Signs and Wonders flow freely and with great power, and when the outrageous Love and Mercy and Mystery of Christ draws all men to Himself! Warriors! Make ready — make room!

Our Marching Orders have long been issued! Take Ground and claim New Territories! As we move and advance, let us remain alert and vigilant. The enemy will not take this lying down, but he will attempt with all of hell at his disposal, to hinder our advancement, and with seeds of doubt and division, he will seek to conquer.

We Declare our Resolve. We will be stronger; our Unity will be unwavering! We are not fighting against flesh and blood, but against spiritual forces that seek to undermine the very fabric of our faith and perseverance. We will not be afraid!

Watch! We are on the cusp of a Great Awakening and Glorious Outpouring! I hear the cries of a Billion Soul Harvest!

Are we Listening and Rightly Aligned — to take the giants down?

Blessings to you all.

Elaine Tavalacci: Eagles Rising

Renewed Strength

There is a heightened sense of spiritual warfare and opposition in the atmosphere that seems to have escalated within the past few weeks. In the midst of all the chaos, confusion, and turmoil in the world right now, Jesus is saying, "Peace, be still." People are panicking and wondering what is going to happen next, but I hear the Holy Spirit whispering, "Be still and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth."

The Body of Christ has endured so many major battles over the past few years. Some of you feel as if the warfare has been too much to endure. We've been beaten, battered, and bruised as the storms have raged against us—burned and scorched as we've been thrown in the fiery furnace. We've experienced challenges from our government, our leaders, our families, and even our churches. We've even experienced friendly fire from within our own camps.

I feel that there are more major storms on the horizon in the days ahead, and it may seem to get darker in the natural, but Jesus wants to strengthen us to rise above every storm.

"Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth." (Psalm 46:10 NIV)

Empowered to Soar

One day the Holy Spirit gave me this powerful word. I was reading Isaiah chapter 40 in The Passion Translation. Verse 28 says, "Don't you know? Haven't you been listening? YAHWEH is the one and only everlasting God, the Creator of all you can see and imagine! He never gets weary or worn out. His intelligence is unlimited; He is never puzzled over what to do! He empowers the feeble and infuses the powerless with increasing strength." And verse 31, which most of us are familiar with, says, "They will rise up on soaring wings and fly like eagles, run their races without growing weary, and walk through life without giving up" (TPT). (Photo via Piqsels)

"Who satisfies your mouth with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's." (Psalm 103:5 NKJV)

An eagle knows when a storm is approaching. All the other birds take cover and try to hide when they see the dark clouds rolling in, except the eagle. The eagle flies to a high altitude and waits for the winds to come. When the storm hits, it uses the strong winds to glide upwards and over the storm. They have a special ability to fly efficiently and to great distances with minimal effort. Larger eagles, like golden eagles and bald eagles, can fly high enough to rise above the storm clouds. They have been observed at elevations of up to 11,000 feet, the altitude that many small planes fly at.

Eagles have extraordinary vision. They can spot moving prey at a distance of up to three miles away. Their eyes are on the sides of their heads, which gives them a 340-degree visual field, compared to a human's 180 degrees. They have excellent peripheral and binocular vision. It is said that some eagles can swoop downward at speeds of up to 200 miles an hour to attack their prey. They build their nests up high in order to protect their chicks and keep them safe from predators, such as foxes. Whenever an eagle and a snake are in a conflict, the eagle is often most likely to win.

Eagles Rising

The Lord used the analogy of the eagle in Isaiah to represent the strength and determination of His people. The Lord is raising up Believers with the eyes of an eagle to be able to see from a higher place. He's raising up watchmen on the wall who will not look at things in the natural, but they will discern by the Holy Spirit. They will have the zeal and tenacity to carry out His plans because they are seated with Him in heavenly places and know their authority as a Believer.

Some will be commissioned to go into new territory and take back the land for the Kingdom of God. Some will be placed in governmental positions to take back the nations. Jesus has given every Believer authority to change and reverse the demonic agenda of the enemy through prayer and fasting. (Photo via Unsplash)

The Lord is strengthening His people to rise above every storm no matter how severe it may be. They will have the boldness to go forward no matter what comes against them. He has given them power over the enemy, and nothing by any means shall harm them (Luke 10:19). He is calling those who are unwavering in faith to strengthen those around them. They don't allow the tempestuous wind to throw them off course and are not moved when the wind changes direction. They will not waver in their beliefs, but they will keep their eyes on Jesus, knowing that He's made a way of escape in every storm.

"Don't you know? Haven't you been listening? YAHWEH is the one and only everlasting God, the Creator of all you can see and imagine! He never gets weary or worn out. His intelligence is unlimited; He is never puzzled over what to do! He empowers the feeble and infuses the powerless with increasing strength. Even young people faint and get exhausted; athletic ones may stumble and fall. But those who entwine their hearts with YAHWEH will experience divine strength. They will rise up on soaring wings and fly like eagles, run their races without growing weary, and walk through life without giving up." (Isaiah 40:28–31 TPT)

Happy Independence Day or should I say, "Dependance Day."

THE FIRE AND THE CLOUD: FOLLOWING GOD IN EVERY SEASON

CRYSTAL G.H. LOWERY

As summer dawns and the days stretch long before us, many of us sense a stirring—a desire for direction, clarity, and fresh purpose. Perhaps you've been asking God, "What's next?" or "When will the breakthrough come?"

If you're like me, you've discovered that walking with the Lord is less about striving and more about trusting, less about demanding answers and more about discerning His presence. The children of Israel knew this lesson all too well. In the wilderness, they were not led by logic or maps but by something far more powerful: a pillar of cloud by day and fire by night (Exodus 13:21–22). That miraculous guidance reminds us that God still leads His people today, not always with explanations, but always with His presence.

There's a lesson for us here. The cloud covered them in the heat of the day; the fire warmed them in the cold of night. Whether you find yourself in a season of brightness or darkness, clarity or confusion, His presence remains your greatest guide. The key is to look up—not around. Sometimes, He moves swiftly; other times, He tells us to wait. But even delays are divine when we're under the cloud. Even the stillness holds substance when we're walking by faith.

This month, as schedules fill and plans unfold, I encourage you to practice presence over pressure. Don't run ahead of God's fire. Don't linger behind His cloud. Ask Him daily, "Where are You leading today?" And remember, the safest place to be is right under the covering of His guidance. Let's stay close to the flame, sensitive to the shifts of the Spirit, and rooted in the promise that those who follow God never walk in circles, they walk in covenant.

PROPHETIC WARNING;
TODAY AND IN THE COMING DAYS, PRAY FERVENTLY AND DAILY FOR ALL
MEANS OF PUBLIC TRANSPORT SYSTEMS: TRAINS, PLANES, BUSES & SHIPS!!

I Have been given multiple Prophetic Warnings even back to last Year. Some will remember the Word I released in September of last year: TRAINS, PLANES AND AUTOMOBILES. Today, Let's Pray for Systems of Transport; Underground Systems, Airports. Satan is hatching a plan to attack these areas for maximum impact, and it's designed to create mass panic and Pandemonium. We Take Authority over the Spirit of Pandemonium and Chaos, over the Spirits of Death and Murder, over the Spirits of Fear and torment, over Demonic Assignments designed for Mass destruction!

Pray too for shopping malls, music concerts, and even planned Stadium Events - places where people gather in large Crowds. Pray for Churches! Pray over Specific LANDMARKS IN YOUR CITIES AND TOWNS! Satan is looking to put on a powerful Display of Demonic Mayhem; his eyes are on creating mass hysteria and havoc! Today I heard the Words, "WATCH AND PRAY. STAY VIGILANT. BEWARE OF LONE WOLF ATTACKS!"

CHECK OUT THIS WORD; Again, God highlighted the Significance of the Number (88), as mentioned in my last post; GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE (88);

<https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/the-golden-gate...>/And Quote;

This morning, during my prayer time, the 'Golden Gate Bridge' was quickened to me. Over the past six months, many bridges have been brought to my attention for prayer cover — but today I sensed that God was specifically highlighting 'this moment in time' — this month of May into the Month of June — as a significant Call for Prayer.

Let me be Clear! I'm simply stating that God is speaking specifically in 'this moment' as being prophetically significant in which He is Calling us to partner with Heaven's Agenda on the Earth concerning Landmark Bridges and also Certain Buildings and Iconic Structures.

I submit this is a 'Window of Divine Time' with great prophetic significance which is calling for our attention in order to get Revelation and an accurate Understanding of what God desires for His Ecclesia to Move, Shift and Mobilize.

Leaning into the quickening this morning, I did a quick and simple Google search of the 'Golden Gate Bridge', and what I discovered was noteworthy.

I read that the Golden Gate Bridge was built in only 4 years and fully completed on May 28, 1937, but opened to traffic a day earlier, on May 27 of the same year— 88 years ago! 1937 – 2025 = 88 years!

This detail of 88 years, immediately got my attention in light of The Holy Spirit speaking very clearly to me in recent weeks with regards to the Prophetic Significance of the Number Eighty-Eight (88)

The Number 88 coming up yet again this morning, in the same Month in which the Golden Gate Bridge was completed.

I submit and believe that there is a profound prophetic connection here. Please see the following Link to the last time the Spirit of Revelation spoke to me in great detail about the Prophetic Significance of the Number 88 — and how it speaks to the Season ahead.

YOU ARE ABOUT TO SEE RAPID ACCELERATION
BERNICE SCHEIDLER, MISSOURI CITY, TX

You are about to see RAPID ACCELERATION breakthrough in your life! The Breaker is going before you right now and breaking open the way for you into the new.

Micah 2:13 (NIV): "The One who breaks open the way will go up before them; they will break through the gate and go out. Their King will pass through before them, the LORD at their head."

For those who have been in transition, it's felt like a delay, like you've been stuck between seasons, but there is a (suddenly) moment coming for you. You're about to see rapid acceleration into the new that God has prepared!

I heard the Lord say, "Scale down to scale up!" And I believe He's calling us to align with His plan, so we can walk in the fullness He has for our lives. This is a time for hyper-specific direction—laser focus. It's a season of refining, of asking the Lord: What can go? What must stay? What is the purpose, and what is the distraction? Because narrowing your focus now will position you for the momentum that's about to break loose. Like a stream under pressure, when the flow is squeezed into a tighter space, it gains speed. That's what's happening in the Spirit. Pressure is producing precision, and precision is releasing power.

Amos 9:13 (MSG) says, "'Yes indeed, it won't be long now.' God's Decree. Things are going to happen so fast your head will swim, one thing fast on the heels of the other. You won't be able to keep up. Everything will be happening at once—and everywhere you look, blessings! Blessings like wine pouring off the mountains and hills."

What God is doing will come quickly. Get ready, because when it breaks, you'll want to be in position. The acceleration is not coming later; it's already starting now.

-MY SPIRIT IS MOVING-

"My children, it's time to step into your destiny. You are a very special generation. You get to witness what no other generation has. You get to bring in the Golden Age full of My glory and Spirit. You get to watch Me utterly destroy the wicked to prepare for heaven on earth. My Kingdom Age will be just that. A new revelation is taking place. Something most did not see coming. I am doing a new thing. My power will be on full display. You are about to watch the wicked be plucked up. I'm bringing this evil out and it will be brought to nothing in this hour says the LORD your REDEEMER.

"The wind of change is blowing through. You can feel it in the atmosphere. My remnant are waking up and using the power and authority they have in my name. They are walking in My promises and unity in the Spirit. This crushes the enemy's plans. It makes all thing new again. The power and authority you hold can move mountains. It is the power My SON gave you when He laid down His life, was buried, and rose from the grave. It's that power working in you today. You are mighty and strong. You have Me to guide you in everything. Walk as children of light. Walk in step with Me. I am your guide, and I'll get you through this storm.

"The clouds are rolling in thick. It's about to begin. Have your feet planted firm. Keep your eyes on ME. I am your peace. You can stand confidently in the days of adversity. You can take back what is yours. Claim your victory over the enemy and watch them fall. The enemy will soon be no more. Shout it loud! Let Me hear you roar! Bring the enemy under your feet in defeat. Stand your ground. Really lean into Me. Desire My presence as your one necessity. Come drink from My fountain. I have plenty to give. I'll fill you full every time you come into Me, My children. My fountain never runs dry. It's yours for the taking. Come into My presence and draw deep. I'll give you comfort and peace and renew your spirit. I'll take all the burdens you carry and make you lighter, free to worship Me. Go forth in truth and love. Let My SON cover you says the LORD GOD.

"The enemy's camp is hostile. They are turning on each other. Everyone is pointing fingers and blame like it will change the outcome. They know their end is near if their deeds are exposed before the world. Nothing is working. It's all falling short. Every chant and spell falls to the ground. You are breaking the enemy down in their camp with praise and worship. What does a ravenous wolf do when they are backed in a corner? They fight till the death, until it is over. So expect the same from this evil regime. They'll bring everything they've got. Pray every demonic plan of evil is thwarted and stopped. Pray for the enemy to be caught. Stop them in their tracks. Take back your nation through praise and worship. It is shattering the enemy. They are falling. Keep shouting that praise! Sing and dance, rejoice and claim your victory. I said it would like they were winning, but it's an illusion. It's Me bringing them out in the open. So, know your prayers have power and are still working. I'm bringing it all out by the roots. This is what it looks like to do that. The victory is surely yours. Don't doubt that for a second. I am in charge. I will get this done, says the LORD of HOSTS, your REDEEMER.

"Planets are moving. Things will be different. The earth plates are shifting and will cause some havoc. No need to worry. I'm doing this for a reason. You move things around during a make-over. I am making you new again. My power will be on full display as this takes place. You have nothing to worry about, My children. You will feel My supernatural power protecting you from any and all harm. I am capable of that. I made heaven and earth. This is easy.

"A rumbling, a rumbling in the ocean. It's about to blow. This earth will shake fiercely. I'm shaking heaven and earth. Hold on tight. This will look scary, but it's not. I hold you in My hands. You are safe with Me. I am all you need. You keep walking in love. Walk in peace. Walk in the righteousness of My SON. He died to set you free. You have a protection that nothing can get through. Rejoice, you are in an impenetrable fortress. Nothing can come near those I love.

"You are seeing the rhinos come into the spotlight. It's amazing how they can turn just like that, or have they been planted? They will be plucked out, uprooted from their seats. Traitors don't get to sit at the table. You are watching everyone show themselves in this hour. It's all coming out now. You'll be really surprised when you see all the fakes and liars. It really will blow your mind. They are excellent actors but not good enough. Only the good will be left standing. Only those truly standing for this nation will remain. I'll remove everyone that doesn't belong. Things are coming into light. Truth is crushing the lies and deception. I told you; light always overcomes the darkness. Transparency is right up ahead. You'll soon see what really has been happening, says the LORD.

"A rocket ship is about to explode at take-off. Somebody wasn't doing their job. Things get overlooked nowadays. Too much distraction and not enough focus on the job at hand. Lives will be taken because of this. New workplace models will soon be implemented. Things will be safer with tighter restrictions in the workplace. Avenue O in Washington D.C. - keep your eyes on this street. Something significant is about to take place. A flash bomb will be seen. Many will be hurt by this. They've activated the sleeper cells. All hell is about to break loose. My children, trust Me when I say stay inside with your family. The battle is Mine. Vengeance is Mine. You do your part in prayer and worship. That is where your power and authority are effective for bringing down every evil and stronghold. Trust in My ability to get this done. I told you I don't need martyrs. I need faithful warriors in prayer and worship, singing and dancing, trusting in all I am doing. Have no doubt or fear but complete confidence in My power.

"You are a holy nation, a royal priesthood. Stand firm on My promises. We will get through this together. You have a beautiful future waiting on you. Press through this. It will be over in no time. I hold you in My hands. I will never, no never let you go, My children. I have redeemed you to Myself. You have My complete protection and promise. I love you with an everlasting love. For all eternity you are Mine. Don't lose heart or grow faint. Get strength in My presence. I have so much to give you when you come into My presence. Stay locked into ME. This will be over before you know it says the LORD of HOST your Redeemer."

"So when He had finished washing their feet and had put on His garments and had sat down again, He said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call Me the Teacher (Master) and the Lord, and you are right in doing so, for that is what I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher (Master), have washed your feet, you ought [it is your duty, you are under obligation, you owe it] to wash one another's feet. For I have given you this as an example, so that you should do [in your turn] what I have done to you. I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, A servant is not greater than his master, and no one who is sent is superior to the one who sent him. If you know these things, blessed and happy and to be envied are you if you practice them [if you act accordingly and really do them]." John 13:12-17

Terry Friesen: Eyes of Love and Eyes of Life

Every prophetic word or expression that comes through His body must be unto life, because Jesus conquered hell, death, and the grave.

If something must die, it's because life must replace it. Death must yield to life. Death is never the goal or aim, life is. Love always wins, always hopes, always believes. If we find ourselves seeing death in a thing we have not yet fully looked through the eyes of love. "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part, but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. For now, we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.”

(1 Corinthians 13:4-13 NIV)

We read in scripture that love, joy, and peace remain but the greatest is love, why is that? Because love never fails. It is actually love that gives a higher view and knowledge of things. Love lives in a spiritual plane where failure, lack, and death do not exist. Its view supersedes the view of death. We can also let love accomplish its full work in us, so we lack nothing.

We may see death, but that's not the end of it, it's merely a transition point to life. The answer always involves life as Christ's life swallowed up death. It's our enemy, the devil, that is a partner with death, and out of his mouth comes oaths and covenants of death.

We also do not abide in a life that is weak or powerless, one that is unable to displace death. The life of Christ that we abide in, our source, is the very life that overcame death.

The strongest, most powerful resource of the enemy in all of his fallen kingdom has been swallowed up by the life of Christ we abide in. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. Romans 8:2 (NKJV)
We are not free from the law of sin and death when we die, but when we believe. Eternal life starts the day we believe in Him. Death is overcome the day we believe in Him. We partner with life, the life that has overcome and flourishes so that death can no longer be.

We don't walk every day of our earthly life towards death; we walk towards life. First and foremost, we daily walk into a greater expression of the life of Christ manifest in and through us. That means we believe for a here and now expression of His life in every circumstance - any less, and we must acknowledge we don't yet fully know Him who has overcome. Second, when we ultimately come to the end of our earthly existence, we translate from this life to the next. We can say we die, but in reality, we are stepping into a greater expression of life. Don't let lies steal this ultimate victory from you in the now.

We either walk towards death or we walk towards life. What are you walking towards? If your mind gravitates towards the expression of death versus the expression of life, there is room in your heart for a greater expression of life. I don't mean a mental juxtaposition that is flighty and weak, denying the truth. I mean a weighty, glory-filled truth that has greater substance than the knowledge of death.

When Jesus rose from the dead, He didn't just get lucky and flippantly walk out of hell by the skin of His teeth. No, He triumphed over it in a blazing fire of His own glory. He took the keys to hell, death, and the grave with absolute certainty and the boldness of a lion. This is the expression of life into which we must step: not a timid sort of life, but one that has no fear of death. At the beginning of this year, during a worship gathering, as we sought the Lord over what this year holds, He released a vision.

I was in a place where I found myself unable to go forward. I was frustrated, and every path seemed to end in this same disposition. Then I took a step of faith and stepped up into a higher spiritual plane. I stepped into a higher spiritual reality and type of life, one that paralleled my previous life, but in the Spirit, I was higher. I believe, even now as we see calamity in the world, we are to step up higher into a realm of life that does not fail - one that always believes and never fails.

When I stepped up, I felt uncomfortable, my surroundings were no longer familiar, but new and different. The enemy, and sometimes people around us, would prefer we stay in a place that's familiar. In the world, that means a place mixed with death and despair, but why?

Did Jesus not triumph over hell, death, and the grave? Why, because He was the full expression of the Father's love. Don't stay under the covenant of death that the enemy has spoken over humanity, choose the covenant life that has been spoken, lived, and ratified by Christ. This same covenant of life lives in us through the person of Christ Jesus, to whom we belong and are found in. There are no circumstances, thoughts, expressions, declarations, powers, or principalities that He has not overcome, already. Did He not say that nothing can keep us from His love, or separate us from His love? So then, let's step into His love and see life through this higher plane of spiritual reality and lead others to do the same.

We've read this scripture in the past and seen how the love of Christ motivated Him to cover us and draw near to us, to never separate us from Him, and this is true. "For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:38-39 NKJV)

It is also true that nothing can keep me from entering into or seeing through the eyes of and abiding from the higher reality of His love, a plane where I see only through the prophetic view and expression of His love. Read that scripture again with new lenses as though you are being called to step up into His love. “For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from (keep us from) the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:38-39 NKJV)

Lord, today, we say “yes” to seeing through Your eyes of love. We want to see life in every circumstance through Your eyes. From Your perspective of love there is no lack, no fear, and no doubt, not because of a mental game, or a denying of what we see around us, but because You abide in a higher truth and principle of love, which is power. It never fails. We ask for eyes to see. You’ve called us to step up and into the realm of Your love that we may see as You see, and we ask that You make this truth real within us today.

The “Life Month” Resolution

We must and will remain diligent in our prayers regarding the war between Israel and Iran. We are praying for the defeat of evil, while also praying for mercy and protection to the Iranian and the Israeli people. God’s desire for the region is a great revival, for which I believe a free Iran can be a catalyst. I also feel we must be diligent to pray for protection here in America, as we know many terrorists came into our nation through Biden’s open borders. I believe prayer for this is urgent. We will pray over these things in just a few minutes.

However, I also have another very important matter to bring to your attention regarding the fight for life in America. The 1973 Supreme Court decision in Roe v. Wade did more to open the floodgates of evil in our nation than any other single event. It gave the principality of Baal, with its lust for violence and bloodshed, unprecedented influence in our nation. Personally, I believe the current level of violence and murder in our nation is directly linked to this. Jonah 2:8 tells us what happens when we reject the Lord and turn to idols: "Those who worship false gods turn their backs on all God's mercies" (New Living Translation). The Living Bible offers the following poignant translation of this verse: "Those who worship false gods have turned their backs on all the mercies waiting for them from the Lord!"

When this evil verdict was rendered in 1973, America's government chose death over life and servitude to Baal over the mercies of God. This heinous ruling was finally overturned on June 24, 2022. The verdict did not eliminate abortion in America, but did remove it as a national law and decree, allowing the states to decide on the issue. Consequently, the fruit of this bloodshed is not visited on the entire nation, but on the states and individuals who participate. Several states have taken strong actions to eliminate abortion, while others fight to preserve this sacrifice of children to Baal and his partner, Molech.

We are now being given another strategy with which to further defeat this evil in America. On June 5, Senator Ted Cruz introduced the "Life Month Resolution" on the floor of the U.S. Senate, along with Congressman Chris Smith leading the charge in the House. This resolution is a formal and public declaration that would designate the month of June, the month in which Roe v. Wade was overturned, as Life Month. It has not yet been voted on, nor has a date been set for a vote. You can see the entire resolution here:

Senator Cruz says that the resolution would:

1. Designate a "Life Month" annually;
2. Recognize that every human life is a sacred gift from God, possessing inherent dignity and worth;
3. Reaffirm the fundamental truth recognized in the Declaration of Independence that life is an unalienable right;
4. Commend individuals, parents, families, faith-based organizations, and communities who work to promote a culture of life; and
5. Urge policymakers to defend the sanctity of human life by enacting laws that protect the unborn and provide resources to empower women and families to choose life.(1)

It is hard to overstate the power of a Holy Spirit-led declaration (Job 22:28). Death and life are indeed in the power of the tongue (Proverbs 18:21). One of the ways we release the power of Holy Spirit dwelling within us is through declaring His words. Jesus demonstrated this when he was tempted by satan; He used the sword of the Spirit (Ephesians 6:17), stating repeatedly, "It is written."

Imagine the power released if millions of Americans decreed and celebrated "Life!" over America every year throughout the month of June, rather than decreeing pride. It would be more than symbolic; it would be another blow to the diabolical stronghold of death in our nation.

How to Take Action

We need your help. We are asking everyone to:

1. Contact your own Representative in the House
2. Contact your two U.S. Senators

When you reach out, make these two clear requests:

- You want your Senator and Representatives to co-sponsor the "Life Month Resolution"
- As a constituent, you are urging Congress leadership to bring the resolution to the floor for a vote.

Citizens For Life has prepared everything you need to help spread the word! Email templates, talking points, scripts, and tools to contact your Representatives and Senators can be found here: Operation Life Month Tools

Another easy way to obtain all the needed information directly is to text the word "LIFE" to 59090. This is the time to be bold and take a stand. This is the time to speak for those who cannot speak for themselves. This is the time to declare LIFE over our nation.

Let's make history together.

Pray with me:

Father, we are peeling back layers of death and destruction in our nation. We have idolized pleasure, convenience, and ourselves; in doing so, we have forfeited Your mercies. Over sixty million babies have been sacrificed, anger and violence are prevalent in our land, and "truth has fallen in the street" (Isaiah 59:14). Our rebellion has given way to insanity – we not only kill the unborn, but we also now mutilate the born.

You are helping us reverse these curses and position ourselves for the healing of our land. In Your famous promise, You did NOT say if “sinners” or “unbelievers” would humble themselves and pray You said if we, Your people, met these and the other qualifications, You would heal our land (2 Chronicles 7:14). Your people have and continue to do so. Now we ask You for more healing. Deliver us from our pride, rebellion, and confusion; restore life to us.

Move on the hearts of thousands, perhaps millions, of people to contact their legislators. It is such an easy way to make a difference. Give wisdom and a perfect strategy to those involved in passing this resolution. Give us the ratification of this legal decree in our nation, proclaiming the sanctity of life. And by faith, we now begin calling the month of June “Life Month.”

Also, today, we ask for supernatural help in defeating the evil in Iran. Remove wicked and oppressive rulers there, and free the people to live lives of liberty and justice. Send an earthshaking revival to that nation, and cause it to spread to all of the Middle East. Turn the tables on the principality You referred to as “the prince of Persia” (Daniel 10:13, 20). You did so in Persia when Haman tried to resist You and destroy the Jews (the Book of Esther), and again in Daniel’s day when this spirit endeavored to stop the restoration of Israel (Daniel 10). Now we ask You to do it again. We ask for a complete dismantling of this principality’s rule and influence in the region. As Your voice on earth, we declare the people of Iran to be free from his control, in the name of Jesus.

We also ask for protection here in America. We know that individuals with evil intent entered our nation when the borders were open. We ask You to expose them, along with every plan they have developed to harm our nation and its citizens. Give great skill and supernatural help to those responsible for discovering those plans. We ask all of these things in Jesus’ name. Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that Jesus conquered death, and we will see the fruit of His victory in America.

"I AM THE MASTER OF THE CHESS BOARD!" GOD HAS SUDDEN MOVES SATAN WILL NOT SEE COMING!

REBECCA GREENWOOD, COLORADO SPRINGS, CO

I heard the Lord say as I began my day today (September 20, 2020):

"The enemy thinks he has secured great victories in this season, but I am the Master of the chess board that the world, man, and Satan have attempted to manipulate through humanism, demonic delay and antichrist agendas.

"I have sudden moves that Satan and corrupt men and structures will not see coming. There will be sudden moves initiated on the game board that will trump evil and corruption and secure victory.

"Remember, that while I hung on the Cross, Satan thought he had won. But I secured the keys he had stolen, and in a surprise, not yet seen move, I rose from the grave and defeated death and hell.

"Don't think darkness and evil have won. Their defeat and destruction was secured on the Cross and sealed by My resurrection life.

"There will be more "suddenly," surprise moves. I will initiate the final secure move of checkmate on the game board the enemy has set in motion among the people and nations.

"My Ekklesia must rise above the roar of chaos and see, perceive and discern from My victorious eternal throne room position and operate in the victory strategy. The world looks different from the sight of victorious redemption." I then saw the US in a vision, and the Lord spoke, "Look for the next sudden and swift strategic maneuvers. They will come suddenly and swift but with great effectual victory."

I saw the sound of the intercession, worship, strategic warfare decrees, prophetic proclamations and decrees resounding out in sound waves of the spiritual atmosphere. It penetrated and pierced through the canopy and shroud of darkness, evil, lies, and corruption, and glory, light, and justice broke through, shining throughout the land.

Now is NOT the time to be silent! Now is the time for the armed and ready battalion of spiritual warriors to engage to secure the Kingdom order for the New Era. It is the now time to tip this reset moment into righteous Kingdom alignment, time and harvest.

THOUGH IT HAS TARRIED, IT IS COMING RIGHT ON TIME AND THE TIMING IS NOW!

For some time now there has been distraction after distraction, things that have come to hinder or attempt to try and derail the timing of God's plans and promises. What He has promised will prevail and come to pass. As one season closes and another one is opening up, don't hold on to what was and how things were before. There is an embracing of the new season and chapter that the Lord is opening up in your life that He wants you to take hold of. There are things He is bringing to pass with increase and that are tailored just for you.

I felt the Lord show me that over the next few weeks I saw the Lord bringing this alignment in the earthly realm with the things He has spoken over this time, and to align with the heavenly realm. What I sensed was it was one of the greatest divine alignments that has yet to happen in the lives of many of God's people. Many were coming out of the wilderness, the remnant was emerging from the place of preparation and obscurity. The new assignments were coming forth. The changing of the guards was taking place. There is great shifting of ministry for many, and fulfillment of promises beginning to unfold.

We are at the tip of the iceberg of seeing great change coming forth. The Lord reminded me of this verse in Habakkuk. "For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry" (Habakkuk 2:3). Many have felt like it has tarried for years. Remember, it is His timing, not your timing. Although it has tarried for a very long time, it WILL surely come. You must understand, His timing is always on-time, and His timing is perfect.

I felt the Lord flooding many with His peace and coming into a deeper place of trust that He is about to do what He said He will do, and what only He can do. I also sensed that many need to get their house in order. In other words, prepare and get ready, because the unexpected is about to reach your doorstep. It is going to come suddenly, because things are in motion, synchronizing and lining up!

Jamie Rohrbaugh: In His Light, You Can See Light

Finding the Light

Beloved, have you felt discouraged and frustrated lately? Do things feel bleak and dark around you, or even in your heart? If so, this encouraging word is for you.

I've been reading the Psalms a lot lately, and I saw something I've never noticed as I was reading Psalm 36:9. This verse says, "For with You is the fountain of life; in Your light we see light" (Psalm 36:9 NKJV).

When I read this verse, I was in the middle of a long prayer session. I have been feeling tired and somewhat discouraged; things have been tough. And although it was a Sunday, and I would normally be in church, I decided to stay home and just have a long time of prayer.

As I was casting my burdens on the Lord in prayer, time seemed to stand still. At first, to be honest, I didn't "feel" much of anything, and I didn't feel particularly relieved as I began to pray. However, the Lord has a way of drawing you closer as you persist in prayer. And as the minutes rolled by, I began to sense more and more of His presence with me.

My prayers had started out without much feeling. I was just talking to the Lord and trying to cast my burdens on Him, even in the middle of all my tiredness, so He could give me rest. I needed (and still need) that rest!

But again, the more I pushed into God, the more I began to feel... both feel that passion for Him and a relief from my burdens. And where I had felt dry when started praying, I began to feel the water of God's Holy Spirit seep into my bones.

Feeling Lighter

That's when I realized I wasn't specifically talking to the Lord about anxiety or discouragement. However, I had definitely been feeling discouraged and very worried about various topics. Nevertheless, as I pressed into God and poured my heart out to Him (which took some hours), I started feeling lighter.

My spirit soaked up His anointing like a sponge, and I started to feel like I could breathe freely again, without so many burdens. I realized that I was actually seeing the activation of Psalm 36:9, "For with You is the fountain of life; in Your light we see light" (Psalm 36:9 NKJV).

I had been seeing so much darkness around me. Although I was fighting it, the enemy had been trying to steal my hope and courage. For quite a while, I had been feeling that hopelessness and darkness were encroaching, and I didn't like it, of course. That's why I was desperately petitioning God for His help with all things.

But I realized that although I wasn't specifically praying about feeling better (I was praying about all the things I had been worrying about instead), I was sitting in the presence of the Fountain of Life.

And in His light, I began to see light instead of darkness.

I was just sitting in His presence, talking to Him and reading His Word, and praying through various Scriptures and promises. I was coming boldly to the throne of grace and admitting my neediness and total dependence on the Lord.

"Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." (Hebrews 4:14–16 NKJV)

I was spending time with Him as a friend does, begging Him to draw me closer to Himself, to help me, to anoint me with fresh oil and the new wine of His Spirit. But, because He is the Fountain of Life, He filled me with new life while I prayed, even about other things. And He filled me up anew and afresh with His light, which dispels darkness every time.

In His Light, We See Light

O Beloved, do you need His light to dispel your darkness today? If so, might I challenge you to remember all the times you have sat down to have a serious time with the Lord in prayer, when you came in one way, but you went out feeling totally different? When you went in discouraged, but you went out powered up and with your burdens relieved? (Photo via Pixabay)

It's almost like Jesus meant it when He said, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light" (Matthew 11:28–30 NKJV). Because with Him is the fountain of life. Jesus Christ is life itself. He is life; He exudes life. Life itself flows from Him, and as we sit in His presence and lay our burdens down at His feet, He—the very Fountain of Life—fills us with His life abundant. And as we bask in His light, we will suddenly start seeing THE Light.

His Light Dispels the Darkness

His light will dispel the darkness that threatens to encroach you. His light will make the darkness, chaos, sadness, helplessness, and confusion of the burdens you are facing right now to flee away. And because He is light, we don't have to beg Him for light. All we have to do is sit with Him and rest awhile, because He is the light we need. And as we rest with Jesus, simply being in His light, we will start to see light.

His light will start to soak into your body, soul, mind, and spirit, and it will dispel the darkness, not because you did anything right or fought the good fight (although, of course, obeying God and fighting the good fight of faith are important), but it is simply in His light that we see light. His light soaks and permeates, and simply being with Him and absorbing His light will make the darkness flee.

O Beloved, isn't that beautiful? I never saw it that way before; I never saw how very simple the application of this verse is.

"For with You is the fountain of life; in Your light we see light." (Psalm 36:9 NKJV)

So, are you tired or discouraged today? Do you find yourself heavily burdened with worries and cares? If so, then perhaps it's time to come away and simply sit with the Fountain of Life, Jesus Christ. Perhaps it's time to rest awhile in His presence and pour all of your burdens and cares out to Him. Perhaps it's time to stare at Him for one hour, or two hours, or three hours, or four—for however long it takes to begin to feel better.

Because with Jesus is the fountain of life. In His light, you will see light. It's that simple. If you will sit with Him and allow His light to soak into your spirit, the darkness will flee, and you will be able to see the light once again.

Do you need to see light today? Will you sit alone with the Fountain of Life, Jesus Christ, in His light?

Nate Johnston: When Jezebel Sends You Into Isolation

The Assignment of Isolation

One of the greatest epidemics of the Church is breaking right now. I want to pray over you and prophesy into your life, especially if you've been isolated by the enemy or been in a season of feeling very disconnected from other Believers and from people.

If you've seen attacks and warfare on your relationships, marriages, your kids, and those around you; if you've gone through season after season of wrong alignments, unhealthy coverings, "Sauls" instead of fathers and mothers, all while being surrounded by wolves; or if you've just been rejected over and over again, and it's sent you into isolation, then I believe the Lord is speaking to us all in this season. I believe we are seeing a spiritual movement, both on a micro- and a macro- level right now, to shift this tide.

We're seeing the Lord expose an assignment that has been allowed and tolerated in the Body of Christ for too long. That assignment is isolation. It's a tactic of the Jezebel spirit, one that has hidden easily within the institutional church paradigm, and it's thrived within the current culture of the Church.

But the Lord is weeding it out, exposing it, and bringing us back into the revelation of family and belonging. That truth is counteracting and loosing the bonds of this demonic principality, because people are no longer interested in a "nice sermon" if they have to go home and be alone during the week.

This spirit has worked overtime on us. It's a principality that hasn't just broken apart the Body of Christ into factions and denominations, it's also stopped the most powerful voices (those carrying truth and authority) from rising into their place.

It's created a cancel culture within the Church, an isolation culture. It's created anti-social behavioral norms within the Church, and we've accepted it for too long. But I prophesy today that it is all shifting. I prophesy that it's shifting over your life, most importantly.
(Photo via Unsplash)

If It Can Isolate, It Can Assassinate

As I was praying into this, I asked the Lord why Jezebel seems so invested in creating this kind of division and isolation. He said that Jezebel recognizes the power and anointing that comes when the Church walks in unity. That's the macro- level. The Jezebel spirit knows that when Believers support one another, when we link arms, there is an anointing that is unleashed. If it can isolate, it can assassinate.

Let me say that again: If the Jezebel spirit can isolate, it can assassinate.

Why do you think so many people can attend church on a Sunday and still feel utterly alone? Why is it accepted that we can go to events and meetings and conferences but still lack genuine connection?

The Church has often wrapped "mission" in religious activity, while relational connection—the very essence of family—has been lost. It's led us into pain and deep spiritual disconnect, and it's time for this to shift.

As I continued to pray, the Lord reminded me of the seasons in my own life where this spirit (the Jezebel spirit) came after us again and again. I remembered being in churches where the nature of our callings led to sudden rejection, pushing us out of community. I remembered delivering a warning word to leaders and immediately being cast out. I remembered being in a toxic work environment when a Jezebel-influenced boss physically isolated me in a separate building so she could bully me. And I remembered the many times this happened in ministry spaces.

It's happened over and over again, and we have all become used to it. We've learned to operate alone. And we've called it "normal" ministry life. We say the Church is a family, but so many have lived as lone rangers even inside a church setting. This is breaking now!

The Blueprint of Elijah

Look at Elijah in 1 Kings 18. Jezebel threatened him, and he ran for his life; he hid in fear; he isolated himself. Even though God looked after him, there were a few things that took place in that moment that I believe the Lord is highlighting now as a blueprint for us.

1. Elijah was fed. I see this in a couple of lights: First, the fresh manna from Heaven and sustenance built him up again. Second (in light of the "breaking of bread" amongst Believers in Acts 22:46), I believe it points back to God leading him out of isolation. Third, I see it as the bread of deliverance.

2. Next, Elijah was reminded of the still, small voice, because fear had drowned it out. In isolation and fear, the voice of the Lord pulls us out because we are so bombarded by lies, and it's the enemy's lies that keep us there. Right now, the lies that sent you there need to be broken.

3. Then what happened? Elijah wrapped his mantle around his face and left the cave, which was prophetically representative of us choosing to pick up what we dropped when we went through the pain of slander and accusation that led us to isolation in the first place. It's picking up our callings again.

Oh, but it's also more. It's choosing to allow our hearts to let people in after a season of being wounded.

Leave the Cave and the Place of Isolation

I believe this is the invitation from the Lord right now to leave the cave and to leave the place of isolation.

I know it's easier said than done. I know many of you are afraid, and rightfully so. You've been burned. You've been rejected. But there is a grace right now to break this assignment of isolation and assassination that has put your gifting on pause and your purpose on the back burner. (Photo via Unsplash)

This is a season of finding your tribe, finding the people who will lift your arms. It's time to step out of religious, controlled environments and into true community—into spiritual family.

There is a remnant rising for this moment, and we are linking arms while creating safe spaces. Pastors and leaders from all walks of life are laying their brands in the dust and choosing connection over control. It's the "Acts 2" core belief calling us back to breaking bread. This is the priority now. We are better together and healthier together. Even COVID was a prophetic image of the enemy's plan to isolate, but we're saying, "No more." We will not let this spirit mute our voices or steal our destinies. We need each other.

So, I prophesy over you, this moment, right now marks the breaking of isolation. Loneliness is breaking off of you. It's time to find your people. I prophesy this week that you will feel something stirring on this front... a stirring, a longing. Your heart will begin to feel again, and bondages will break in the process. You'll feel the shift inside and see it on the outside, as God brings this into being.

I prophesy new environments, new rooms, and new tables; places you never imagined will open to you. God can do it in a short time. But I also challenge you: You need to step out. Start walking toward the community God has prepared for you, because isolation is over, in Jesus' name.

Barry Wunsch: You've Never Seen Anything like It!

Editor's note: Below are some of the notes that Barry Wunsch shared during his recent interview on ElijahStreams. We encourage you to read through them and watch the interview [here.]

Prophetic word received on May 27, 2025:

A Love You Did Not Expect

I woke up this morning, and the heavy weight of the Lord was upon me, so much so, I could hardly move. This happens from time to time, and I am always overwhelmed by the Lord in these moments. As He got my attention, He clearly began to speak to me. So here it is, literally hot off the press:

"Barry, tell My people I know that they have already been through a lot, and that I am well aware of the battle fatigue and the toll that everything has taken on them. Barry, tell My people that they have yet to encounter the fullness of My passionate love for them.

"You have heard it said, 'Vengeance is Mine.' Let Me tell you, that is the truth. Well, let Me tell you today, the world is about to see and know of My love for them in a way they did not expect. Of course, you know that I love you so much that I gave My own Son as a sacrifice for you and your redemption. And you must know that I love you so much that I gave you Holy Spirit. I gave you this to help you, fill you, empower you, comfort you, and enable you to live an extraordinary life with Me.

"The Table Has Been Set"

"Throughout history, I have poured out My Spirit in times of revival, touching My people in supernatural ways. Well, let Me tell you today that what I have done in the past is really nothing compared to what I am going to do in this hour. What I am about to release shall be greater than everything in time that you have seen or experienced before.

"The table has been set. The ancient gates are about to be opened up. They will be swung wide open so that I, the King of Glory, can come in! You have never seen anything like it; I can assure you that.

"You have had your meetings in the past and have said, 'The glory is here, the glory is here,' and I have come in a measure, but that is nothing compared to what I am about to release!

"For this outpouring is not going to be controlled or contained in the four walls of any building, structure, or denomination. It will shake and blow through the foundations, walls, and limitations of your denominations and churches as you know them. Churches will be birthed in a day. Churches will be changed in a day. What I am about to release is, in fact, the Great Awakening! What I am releasing is more than revival, it is a great awakening and a reformation—a new era! (Photo via Pexels)

"The days of your self-gratifying meetings are coming to an end. The days of ministries lining their pockets at the expense of My people shall be a thing of the past. It will no longer be about you; it will be about ME! For I am once again releasing the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord throughout the nations.

"There is a spirit of repentance about to be released upon the earth. Men, women, and children will wail and weep on the streets, highways, and byways as I overcome them with My love for them. They will turn and run from their wicked ways. I shall meet with them, hold them, heal them, and restore them. I will pick them up, dust them off, and set them back on the path I have destined for them before they were born.

"This will also be the great and terrible day of the Lord. It will be great for most, and it will be terrible for others. For I am coming, and I am burning away from you all that is not of love's kind in you! It will be glorious for some, and torturous for others that are bound by stubbornness and pride.

"I cannot deny the cries of My children for the bloodshed of the born and unborn. Let it be known, My justice shall be served. It is time for Me to deal with those who shed the innocent blood of My children to maintain the evil, demonic power and agendas from the kingdom of darkness. This is coming to an end! I am going to finish it by My Spirit!

"I Am Breaking the Chains of Slave Masters and Slave Systems"

"Barry, tell My people that, in the same way, it is time that I break the chains of the slave masters off of My people. The systems that they have enslaved you with through money, greed, control, and thirst for power must be dealt with, and redemption and restitution must be made.

"Financial systems as you have known them are going down. The chains are being broken. It is time evil governmental regimes are wiped off the map. The shackles that have held you powerless and hopeless with are coming off, and they shall be held accountable for every evil act, deed, and action to destroy you. Redemption and restitution shall be made unto you! (Photo via Flickr)

"It is time that these evil global structures are stopped, cut off, and wiped out. I am breaking these ancient loop structures once and for all. It is time for My Ecclesia to stand up and take their place and govern in truth, justice, and righteousness for My name's sake. I have a move to make, and it is time for this hand to be played!

"Do Not Be Afraid, You Will See My Abundant Life!"

"Barry, tell My people, do not fear, and do not be afraid with what is coming. For this shaking and great awakening shall expose darkness beyond anything you could have imagined. It just has to be this way.

"For as I overturn the hard ground, every evil and demonic structure and root shall be removed. It is time, once again, to cleanse and heal the land. Once again, you shall see life come back to the land—My abundant life!

"Once again, you shall sow, reap, and harvest the abundance that I am pouring out in this hour. You will no longer have lack; you will have more than enough for every good work!"

"My Body Will Walk in Unity with Me"

"Most of all, My Body will walk in a unity with Me and one another that seems impossible. As you walk together in My love, you shall see the greatest harvest of souls. Sons and daughters, come unto Me, not through religion, but through My love and beloved union with Me!

"You will see nations turn to Me wholeheartedly again. You will see signs, wonders, and miracles as I pour My Spirit out! And you will see My glory cover the earth as the waters cover the sea!"

Holy is the word of the Lord!

Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land

In 1751, to commemorate the 50-year anniversary of William Penn's original Charter of Privileges, Pennsylvania's first Constitution, state legislators commissioned to be hung in their new state house in Philadelphia a bell that would toll to celebrate important events or as a call to gather. Though it had been rung during numerous important moments in American history prior to and after July 8, 1776, the Liberty Bell rang out on that day summoning citizens of Philadelphia for the first public reading of the Declaration of Independence, which had been signed in that very building just days earlier.

With the signing of the Declaration of Independence, America had declared its national independence from Great Britain. The semiquincentennial (250 year) anniversary of that event, 2026, is now rapidly approaching, and Philadelphia will undoubtedly play host to tens of thousands of celebrants to events planned in their city. Unquestionably, one of the sights virtually all will purpose to visit is the Liberty Bell.

The significance of the Liberty Bell goes beyond its iconic crack. It actually cracked and was repaired several times throughout its history; it was even re-cast once and cracked again; and in 1864, after ringing in celebration of George Washington's birthday, it was left with a crack that was beyond repair, and the bell was taken out of commission. It now resides as a stand-alone exhibit in its own pavilion opposite Independence Hall. Of greater significance, however, are the date on which it was commissioned and the inscription which was cast into the bell.

The 1751 date of commissioning, being the 50-year anniversary of Pennsylvania's first Constitution, was the jubilee of that event; a Jubilee being a significant biblical event ordained by God in the presence of Moses in Leviticus chapter 25 to be celebrated every 50 years by all the Jewish nation. The bell's inscription reads, "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all inhabitants thereof," which is a partial rendering of Leviticus 25:10. In their entirety, Leviticus 25:9-10 read, "Then shall you cause the shofar to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month [Tishri 10], on Yom Kippur [the day of Atonement] shall you sound the shofar throughout all your land. And you shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants; it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family."

Some archaeological and biblical evidence suggests the Hebrew year 5785 (which began in March 2025) is the 70th Jubilee since Israel entered the promised land in 1406 B.C. Whether this is a biblical Jubilee year is up for debate, but the Catholic church has declared the year 2025 as the year of Jubilee, the last one being celebrated in the year 2000. [Note: in the Catholic church, every 25 years is declared to be a Jubilee year.] Believers are encouraged to repent of their sins, forgive the sins of others, and to renew a focus on their walk with Christ.

In Hebrew tradition, a Jubilee was celebrated with the freeing of slaves, the forgiveness of all debts, return of all land or property to its original owners (ensuring that families retain their ancestral land), and a year of rest and celebration, marking a time of joy and renewal for the community. It is a year when no agricultural work is to be done, and the land is allowed to rest.

While we, as Americans, celebrate each Independence Day with great joy, special pride in our nation, and historical reflection of what the day represents, there is greater insight we, as Christians, need to grasp from this. Yeshua's ministry began on the day of Atonement in 26 A.D., the start of a year of Jubilee. In His first public address, He quoted from Isaih 61:1-2 (Luke 4:18-19): "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord." This verse, which Yeshua applied to himself, contain the phrase, "to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord," which is a direct reference to the Jubilee. He concluded His reading with the words, "This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears."

While there is apparently no record of Israel ever celebrating the Year of Jubilee by complying with all its requirements to forgive debts, free slaves, etc., Yeshua came to fulfill the Law. This He did by His sinless life, His atoning death for us on the cross at Calvary, and by His resurrection from the dead. With His final pronouncement on the cross, Yeshua declared, "Tetelestai" (Jn 19:28), which was to say, "It is finished; I have done all that I came to accomplish." The word tetelestai was also written on business documents or receipts in New Testament times to show that a bill had been paid in full. The understanding of what Christ accomplished would not have been lost on John's Greek-speaking readership; it would be unmistakable that Yeshua had died to pay for their sins.

Many scriptures point to the fullness of all Yeshua accomplished through His atoning death. With Jubilee in mind, let us review and celebrate some of these:

- He redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us (Gal 3:13).
- He took away the sin of the world (John 1:29).
- He gave us eternal life (Rom 6:23).

- The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus freed us from the law of sin and death. (Rom 8:2).
- He redeemed us by His precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot (I Peter 18-19).
- By His stripes we were healed (I Peter 2:24).
- He was made to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him (2 Cor 5:21).
- There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit (Rom 8:1).
- And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross (Colossians 2:13-14).
- As by the offence of one (Adam) judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one (Yeshua) the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life (Romans 5:18).

The Bible admonishes the redeemed of the Lord to say so (Ps 107:2). I am redeemed; therefore, I Say so!

Yeshua has made us free, and we are free indeed (Jn 8:36). I am free indeed; therefore, I Say so!

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty (2 Cor 3:17). I have liberty in Christ; therefore, I Say so!

As we celebrate Independence Day this year and each year, we Americans owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to all our forefathers and the many patriots who fought and died for the liberty and precious freedoms we enjoy as citizens of this great nation. At the same time, we must remember and give thanks eternally to Christ Yeshua, the one who died for us and gave us perfect redemption through His precious atoning blood. Through His sacrifice, we are free to be all He has called us to be. Our many sins, failures and inadequacies were all nailed to the cross with Christ, therefore let us celebrate! Our Jubilee has come. Rejoice for the great liberty we enjoy in and through Yeshua.

Galatians 5:1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

When God Says You're Right:
Learning from Job's Faithful Speech

By Steve Loopstra, Director Your servant in Christ Ministries

Job 42:7 (NKJV) And so it was, after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is aroused against you and your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has.

Here is an important verse that is often overlooked as we read and study through the book of Job. We have a tendency to stop after we get to verse six and Job's prayer of repentance. We think, "OK, that's But God was not done with this matter." Yet, after Job's prayer, verse seven tells us that the Lord had some business to take care of with Job's three friends. But it is what the Lord says to Eliphaz that is fascinating. After all the complaints and the arguments and discussion. After all the back and forth, and Job's seeming terrible attitude at time, God makes the declaration to Eliphaz that His servant Job spoke what is right about God and his three friends did not. Even after God's challenging of Job in chapters 38 to 41, and in chapter 40, verses one and two where God says to Job: Moreover, the LORD answered Job, and said: "Shall the one who contends with the Almighty correct Him? He who rebukes God, let him answer it." So how is it that God says that Job spoke correctly about Him and his other three friends did not? Consider the following.

Job spoke correctly about God by maintaining his faith and acknowledging God's sovereignty even in the midst of suffering. While his friends wrongly assumed through all of this discussion, if you will, that Job's suffering was directly caused by his sin, essentially implying that God was unjust by punishing him without clear wrongdoing on Job's part. Therefore, God's point is that Job upheld a more accurate view of God's character than his friends did.

Let's look at this a big further, because I believe we all can learn some important lessons for our own lives, especially when we go through those hard times, times of suffering, times when God seems so distant.

The Verdict That Surprises Us

This divine endorsement of Job—after chapters of lament, questions, and frustration—is startling. Didn't Job question God? Didn't he cry out in anger and despair?

Yes. But unlike his friends, Job never distorted God's character. His honesty came from a place of faith seeking understanding, not accusation or arrogance.

Job teaches us this: God welcomes raw, reverent honesty more than polished religiosity. He honors hearts that cling to Him even when they don't understand Him. Have you ever felt pressure to sound "spiritual" while your heart was breaking? Job shows us that God isn't offended by our questions. He invites us to bring our confusion to Him in trust. Don't fake faith—live it authentically, even when it's trembling.

What Job Got Right About God

1. Job Didn't Blame God

Though overwhelmed with grief, Job never accused God of injustice.

"In all this Job did not sin nor charge God with wrong." — Job 1:22

This echoes Joseph's heart when he said to his brothers who betrayed him:

"You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good." — Genesis 50:20

Job refused to make God his enemy, even when he didn't understand His ways.

Personal Application: When suffering strikes, we instinctively look for someone to blame—even God. But we can choose to say: "God, I don't understand this, but I will not turn against You. I believe You are still holy and just." This faith honors Him.

2. Job Believed in God's Goodness

"Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him." — Job 13:15

This trust echoes Habakkuk's bold faith:

"Though the fig tree may not blossom... yet I will rejoice in the Lord." — Habakkuk 3:17–18

Job chose to believe that God's character was good, even when God's hand felt severe.

Personal Application: Is your faith tied to outcomes—or to God's unchanging nature?

When prayers go unanswered or things fall apart, hold on to the truth: God is good, even when life isn't. That trust is worship.

3. Job Accepted God's Sovereignty

After God speaks in chapters 38–41, Job responds:

“I know that You can do everything, and that no purpose of Yours can be withheld from You.” — Job 42:2

Job never tried to control God’s actions—he submitted to God’s rule, even when it hurt.

We see this heart in Jesus Himself: “Not My will, but Yours be done.” — Luke 22:42

Personal Application: Do we surrender to God's sovereignty—or wrestle against it?

Surrender doesn't mean giving up hope; it means trusting God's wisdom more than our own. We may not get all the answers, but we can rest in His rule.

What Job’s Friends Got Wrong

1. They Assumed Suffering = Sin - Eliphaz says: “Remember now, whoever perished being innocent?” — Job 4:7

Their theology was simple: good people prosper, sinners suffer. But this idea is rebuked throughout Scripture.

Consider the man born blind:

“Who sinned, this man or his parents?” Jesus answered, ‘Neither.’ — John 9:2–3. Their logic made God look like a rigid judge, not a merciful Father.

Personal Application: When others suffer, do we secretly wonder what they did wrong?

Let’s trade judgment for compassion. Suffering is not always punishment—sometimes it's the soil where trust grows.

2. They Pressured Job to Confess What Wasn’t There

“Is not your wickedness great...?” — Job 22:5

Rather than comfort, they condemned. They assumed guilt instead of seeking truth. In contrast, Jesus said of Mary:

“She has done a beautiful thing to Me.” — Mark 14:6

He saw her heart, not her past. Job’s friends were quick to speak, slow to understand.

Personal Application: Let’s not speak for God where He has not spoken. When comforting the suffering, our words should heal, not harm. Sometimes silence and presence say more than any sermon.

3. They Misrepresented God’s Character

By insisting that Job’s suffering was punishment, they made God look harsh and vindictive. But Psalm 103 reminds us: “The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in mercy.” — Psalm 103:8

The friends got God’s character wrong, and God called them out for it.

Personal Application: When we speak of God to others, do our words reflect His mercy, patience, and justice? We are His representatives. Let’s speak carefully, humbly, and truthfully of our God.

In the end, Job was commended—not for perfect understanding, but for faith that clung to a true view of God. He spoke what was right about God—not just with his lips, but from his heart. Job teaches us how to suffer faithfully, how to question without accusing, and how to trust without explanation.

So when life collapses, will you still speak rightly of God?

Will you say, “He is just, even now”?

Will you say, “He is merciful, though I feel none”?

Will you say, “He is sovereign, and I am not”?

Take courage, believer. Your honesty honors Him. Your tears are not unspiritual. Your worship in the valley echoes in heaven.

And when all is said and done, may He say of us what He said of Job:

“You have spoken of Me what is right.”

Will Meier: How to Operate from Fullness in Christ,
Not from Lack or Striving

Made Complete in Christ

This revelation is critical for the Believer to embrace, because it undergirds the very foundation of the Ekklesia. The apostolic Church—the called-out ones who are sent—must not operate from lack or striving, but from the fullness of Christ, declaring that we are complete in Him. Every assignment, every calling, and every Kingdom mandate is fully resourced in Christ, not by human effort but by faith. We are not waiting to be made whole; we already stand completely in Him.

This truth flows from the revelation of the mercy seat and the blood of Jesus, which speaks on our behalf in Heaven. His blood does not just cleanse, it testifies on our behalf. It declares our forgiveness, righteousness, sonship, and completeness in Him. The Ekklesia must preach from this fullness, proclaiming that we stand complete in Christ and that all the resources needed for our assignment are found in Him. These resources are not earned or demanded but received by faith as we labor to enter into His rest. If Christ has purchased all things for us through His death, then striving ceases, and we walk in the inheritance freely given.

As I reflected on this truth, I realized this was the very message my spiritual mom kept preaching to me when I was first saved. Martha would share, quite passionately, about the finished work of Christ and how we stand complete in Him. She would raise her hand in praise to the Lord, then place her hand on her heart and declare, "His work was finished," and then, with great conviction, she would say, "I stand completely in Him." A few decades later, the full impact of that truth has finally hit me with greater clarity and power.

We must possess a revelation of the Son of God who is seated at the right hand of the Father, ruling and reigning (Hebrews 1:3). If we are one with Him, then all things are ours.

As 1 Corinthians 3:21–23 (NKJV) declares, "Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours: whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come—all are yours. And you are Christ's, and Christ is God's."

And 2 Corinthians 9:8 (NKJV) affirms, "And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work."

This aligns perfectly with Colossians 2:9–10 (NKJV), which declares, "For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power."

To be "complete in Christ" means there is nothing lacking in our spiritual standing before God. Everything we need—righteousness, wisdom, understanding, knowledge, strength, provision, and purpose—has already been deposited within us. We are not working to become something; we are learning to walk in what we already are. This idea does require that we work out our salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who wills and works in us for His good pleasure (Philippians 2:12–13). It's a journey of alignment, not achievement—a walk of faith, not of works.

A Personal Encounter with This Truth

It was during a time of deep communion with the Father that I received this revelation. As I stood before Him, I wasn't just praying, I was listening. Suddenly, His words cut through every doubt and every lingering sense of inadequacy. All that I am was absorbed in Him. It was as though we had completely become one. As the Father gazed on me, He saw me as 100% complete in Christ. He said, "I see you complete in my Son. All that is in Him is in you; all His resources, His treasures, His provision, and His revelation are yours because you are in Him." (Photo via Unsplash)

At that moment, something profound happened. This wasn't just intellectual knowledge; it was imprinted upon me. It was as though God was writing His laws upon my heart and mind, just as Hebrews 10:16 (NKJV) declares, "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them."

In a sense, the weight of contending was removed. I stood before the Father without lack, insufficiency, or unworthiness. I was not striving to receive; I was already complete in Christ.

Five Scriptural Foundations of Our Fullness in Christ

1. We Lack Nothing in Him

From the very foundation of our faith, God has declared that all things are ours in Christ. 1 Corinthians 3:21–23 (NKJV) affirms that "all things are yours... And you are Christ's, and Christ is God's." This truth dismantles every mindset of lack, every whisper of insufficiency, and every lie that tells us we must earn what has already been freely given.

The resources of the Kingdom are not stored in some far-off place, inaccessible to us; they are already ours in Christ. 2 Corinthians 9:8 further confirms this, declaring that God makes all grace abound toward us, ensuring that we always have all sufficiency in all things. This means we are not meant to live in survival mode, scraping by spiritually, emotionally, or even materially. Instead, we are called to abundance for every good work. The apostolic Church must lead from this revelation, understanding that lack is not a Kingdom reality. If Christ is truly our sufficiency, then there is no place for striving, no place for desperation—only faith-filled stewardship of what He has already provided.

2. We Are Seated with Christ in Authority

The reality of our fullness in Christ is directly tied to our position in Him. We are not just subjects in His Kingdom; we are co-heirs, seated with Him in heavenly places. Ephesians 1:3 proclaims that we have been blessed with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ. This means that the authority Christ operates in is not separate from us. It is within us. The throne room of God is not a distant reality; it is where we function right now as those who have been raised and seated with Christ (Ephesians 2:6).

To be seated with Him means to rule with Him, to govern in alignment with His will, and to execute His divine purposes on the earth. The apostolic Church must walk in this awareness, moving beyond mere intercession into decrees and declarations, partnering with Heaven to manifest God's will on earth. The authority to bring transformation does not come from striving; it flows from our seated position in Christ.

3. The Covenant of Oneness and Sonship

Jesus' prayer in John 17:22–23 reveals the depth of the Father's desire for us—not just to serve Him but to be one with Him. He declared, "[T]he glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one" (v. 23, NKJV). This is not a mere metaphor; it is a covenant reality. The same glory that rested upon Christ now rests upon us.

2 Peter 1:3 (NKJV) expands on this, affirming that "His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness." This means that nothing needed for our destiny has been withheld.

We are not orphans; we are sons and daughters who are fully accepted, fully empowered, and fully resourced. As sons we inherit, rather than strive. As partakers of His divine nature (2 Peter 1:4), we walk in supernatural provision, wisdom, and revelation—not as outsiders looking in, but as heirs functioning from the inside.

Apostolic leaders must shift from a servant mentality to a sonship reality, recognizing that they are not working for favor but from favor. The Kingdom is inherited, not earned. (Photo via Unsplash)

4. We Live from a Finished Work

The finality of Christ's work on the cross is the foundation of our completeness. 2 Corinthians 5:21 (NKJV) declares, "For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him." This is not a process of earning righteousness. It is a divine exchange that has already taken place. We are not gradually becoming righteous; we have been made righteous. Every accusation, every stronghold of condemnation, every lie that says we must still prove ourselves is nullified in the finished work of Christ.

The cross is not an invitation to strive. It is an invitation to rest in what has been accomplished. If we live from this revelation, we cease to operate from a place of deficiency and step fully into the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness (Romans 5:17). The apostolic Church must not only preach the cross but live from its reality, proclaiming that Christ's work is enough, and so are we, because we are in Him.

5. Illustrating This Revelation

Imagine standing before the Father, robed in Christ, fully accepted, without a trace of lack or deficiency. You are not standing there hoping to be enough, striving to be worthy, or trying to obtain blessings. You are already complete. There is no separation between you and the sufficiency of Christ. The Father does not see you apart from His Son; He sees you in Him, possessing all that He possesses.

This is the heart of covenant reality, a divine exchange in which Christ took our lack and gave us His fullness (2 Corinthians 5:21). We live from completeness, not towards it.

How to Walk in This Reality

Renew Your Mind: Accept this as truth (Romans 12:2). The battle is often in the mind. You must align your thoughts with what God has declared: you are already complete in Christ. Transformation happens when you believe and meditate on His word, allowing it to reshape your mindset.

Stop Striving: You are not working for completeness, but we need to receive that which has already been purchased for us. Many Believers fall into the trap of trying to earn what God has already freely given. You are not trying to get into victory; you are operating from it. Learn to walk in rest, knowing that your sufficiency is in Him.

Draw from the Inheritance: Faith activates the supply that is already in you (Galatians 2:20). Just as a joint bank account allows both parties to withdraw funds, your life is intertwined with Christ's. His strength, wisdom, and provision are already in you. Your role is not to ask as if you lack but to access by faith what is already yours.

Live as a Son, Not a Servant: A servant works for provision; a son inherits and abides (Romans 8:15–17). Many in the Body of Christ function as servants, working for God's approval rather than working from His approval. Sons don't beg for what belongs to them; they walk in their inheritance. You are an heir with Christ. Everything He has belongs to you because you are one with Him.

Final Charge: Apostolic Leaders Must Walk in Completion

The apostolic movement cannot advance without the revelation of completeness in Christ. We are not working toward sufficiency. We already have it.

Imagine standing before the Father, robed in Christ, fully accepted, and without a trace of lack or deficiency. You are not hoping to be enough, striving to be worthy, or trying to obtain blessings. You are already complete. There is no separation between you and the sufficiency of Christ. (Photo via Unsplash)

The Father does not see you apart from His Son; He sees you in Him, possessing all that He possesses.

This is the heart of covenant reality—a divine exchange where Christ took our lack and gave us His fullness. We live from completeness, not toward it.

The call to the Ekklesia is clear:

- Step into the fullness of Christ
- Live and lead from the place of Christ's sufficiency
- Preach from the revelation that we lack nothing in Him
- Equip the Body to function from fullness, not striving

Ask God now, "Please write this truth upon my heart and mind. Let me never again operate from a mindset of lack. Teach me to walk in the fullness of Christ."

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. If I'm already complete in Christ, why do I still struggle with sin, doubt, or insecurity?

Your spirit is fully complete, but your mind and soul are being renewed. Sanctification is the process of learning to walk in the fullness that is already yours. Just as a child grows into their inheritance, you are growing in the revelation of what Christ has given you.

2. Does this mean I don't need to pray for blessings anymore?

Not at all! But instead of asking from a place of lack, shift your prayers to agreement with God's provision. Instead of "God, give me peace," pray, "Thank You, Lord, that Your peace is already in me." Faith accesses what is already provided.

3. How does being "complete in Christ" change the way I live daily?

When you believe you are complete, you stop striving. You move from insecurity to confidence, from lack to abundance, from trying to earn God's favor to resting in it. This changes how you approach relationships, work, and spiritual battles; you now operate from victory, not towards it.

4. What if I don't feel complete in Christ?

Feelings follow faith. Don't base your identity on emotions but on the Word. Declare Colossians 2:10 over yourself until your mind and heart align with truth.

Conclusion: Step Into Your Fullness

God is not looking at you, wondering when you will finally become enough; He already sees you complete in His Son. He does not measure you by your flaws, failures, or shortcomings. He sees Christ in you. He sees His Son in you, made perfect and complete in Christ's righteousness.

Today, I chose to believe it. Walk in it. Live from it. The fullness of God is already yours. You lack nothing.

Andrew Whalen

HEY AMERICA!! - YOU ARE GOING TO WANT TO READ THIS
LET ME INTRODUCE YOU TO PEORIA, ILLINOIS - AND WHAT IT'S ABOUT TO SAY TO YOU!

Let me provide you with some brief context. Though I am originally from Central Illinois, it wasn't until God sovereignly sent our family back from Texas in 2023 to live in the Peoria Region for the first time. -- But it was in 2009 God first spoke to me about Peoria IL. I'll never forget, I was at a large worship conference in Indiana, when a strange man walked up to me among a crowd of strange faces. This stranger at the time, prophesied to me and said: "I don't know you, but I just heard the Lord tell me he was going to give you a significant voice for Peoria, IL." at the time he shared this word with me, I lived in a different city and wondered how this could be so. Almost immediately after his prophetic word, I began to have spiritual dreams of seeing 'massive' revivals breaking out in Peoria, IL. I saw societal, economic, and cultural reformation result from the kingdom moving in Peoria.

In one specific dream, I was taken into the heavens over Peoria to meet with apostolic and prophetic leaders in America to strategize over the region, because we all knew that "IF IT PLAYS IN PEORIA" - "IT WILL PLAY THROUGHOUT THE NATION". That dream revealed to me that Peoria has a potential to function as type of 'hinge-pin' for the nation. At that time, I didn't know that the famous saying "if it plays in Peoria.." was rooted in a prophetic understanding that this city was a 'micro-representation' of the rest of the nation, and if something succeeds here, it will succeed anywhere!

Several major businesses and companies have used this city as a test market to see if "it plays in Peoria."

I discovered upon research that one of the Native meanings of 'Peoria' is "TO DREAM WITH THE OMNIPRESENT ONE". Wow! Literally a city made to dream!

Then not long ago, I had a dream of a man who in real life is paralyzed from ALS, but in the dream was miraculously healed and restored to health. Upon asking how he obtained his miracle He said, "I read a book called PEORIA." I Knew from this statement that what he meant was that he determined to Dream with God instead of agreeing with his natural circumstances!! To dream with the omnipresent one is the key to access Heaven's Miracles!

This past Sunday, I attended the church in the Peoria Region of the man who first prophesied over me in Indiana. This man now lives and pastors a church in Peoria. During worship, I recognized the 'spirit of prophecy' in the atmosphere. I stood on stage and prophesied that the storm of the Lord is moving into the region, and that the winds of adversity that the enemy has sowed have now reaped the 'whirlwinds' of God! I specifically found myself prophesying "Dream again!" "Dream again!"

After I shared this word, a woman stood on stage with two bottles of water in hand. She specifically brought them Sunday to give to the pastors as a prophetic declaration that it is now time for Revival to spring up! What I didn't know is that the water she brought came from "The Peoria Mineral Spring" - known to be "one of the oldest continuously flowing springs in America." However, access to the spring water was shut down in the late 80's.

What I also didn't know is that a prophet named Chuck Pierce came to Peoria in 1995 and prophesied that when the Peoria Mineral Spring was flowing and accessible again, it would signify the time of Revival springing up in Peoria again! - Amazingly.. (also unknown to me) local intercessors have prayed into that word for 30 years. The woman who had the spring water in hand, said that for the first time since the waters stopped, in April 2025 this flowing spring has now become available and accessible again to the city!

This same woman shared how on May 4th she went to Texas to give Chuck Pierce a bottle of the spring water He prophesied about. He took the bottle of water and dedicated it to the Lord and said, "This is the first of the 'divine recovery' of the springs of revival." If this wasn't enough confirmation of 'what time it is'... last week I had a dream of seeing this region, and over the Horizon I saw a woman's face superimposed across it. In the dream, I saw her prophesying and declaring things over the entire region. The woman I saw was a powerful intercessor in this area for decades. She went to be with the Lord a few years ago.

Which has me asking the question.. "What does this mean"? - And I sense from the Lord, He is saying "The prayers and prophecies of the previous generations are still alive, and I am watching over my words to perform them!" What is all of this about, and what does this have to do with America? Well, in the mid 80's, on the World News, the news anchor announced about a study of all the cities across America. He said, "The study finds that Los Angeles, California is the most prosperous city in America, and Peoria, Illinois is the most recessed city in America.

I believe it is just like God to take a city that is known as 'junk city' and make it the place where a spring can flow from within! A city that is in the midst of difficult, despairing, dark circumstances will determine to dream with Him! Can anything good come from Nazareth? Can anything good come from Peoria? I believe the Lord finds the 'Nazareth' type cities, those that have the reputation of junk, to be the same places where salvation springs up! - the place where dreams are birthed and nations saved! Revival, Recovery, Renewal, Restoration, and Reformation are going to spring forth in Peoria IL, and if it "PLAYS IN PEORIA"—It's going to play across America!

This word is not about Hype! It's about seizing upon a divine moment! What God wants to do here, He wants to do everywhere! It's time to believe that the springs can flow again! It time to Dream again with God! It's time to lay hold of all of that for which Christ laid hold of us! I prophesy to the winds over Peoria... Release the whirlwinds of Heaven! Let the dreams of God be birthed here! Let salvation spring up from the ground!

I prophesy that sent ones are coming in to Peoria! Even some of the prodigals of the city shall be returning. Apostles in government, church, and business will be sent here even from other states! New businesses will begin to build and grow here, for the soil is now holding roots! I prophesy to the 4 winds over America - to the slain cities across the nation, "Live again!" To the cities in America where Satan has sown the winds of destruction, he is now reaping the whirlwinds! - Dreams are returning to the people, and salvation is springing up from the ground! Dream again America, and may the wells of revival spring up across this nation!

Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. (Ezekiel 37:9)

Katie Dunstan: A Fresh Commissioning to Go

It's a Green Light

While in a vision, I saw a set of traffic lights. The green light was illuminated, and I heard the Lord say, "GO."

Mark 16:15 resounded loudly in my Spirit: "[Jesus] said to them, 'Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to all creation'" (NIV, brackets mine). I believe a fresh commissioning to "go" is coming to the Body of Christ. It's for all generations, ages, and denominations; every nationality, tribe, tongue, and nation.

Licensed to Preach with Power

Right after I saw the green light, in the spirit I saw an "L" plate, a "P" plate, and a full driver's license. In Australia, obtaining a full driver's license starts with "L" plates for learning drivers, followed by red "P" (P1) and green "P" (P2) plates for provisional drivers. Finally, you achieve a fully licensed status, demonstrating competence and experience to navigate the roads safely.

By the Spirit of revelation, I sensed the Lord saying, "It's time to take off your 'L' plates and put on your spiritual 'P' plates. Unlike the natural 'P' plate, this represents My power, dunamis, and exousia combined. You are no longer stuck in the provisional stage of spiritual maturity; you are fully licensed to execute My plans and preach with power, for I have given you My power and all authority (Acts 1:8; Luke 10:19).

"But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8 NIV) (Photo via Rawpixel)

"I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you." (Luke 10:19 NIV)

The Greek word "dunamis" means "strength," "power," and "ability." It often refers to miraculous power or marvelous works that Jesus performed in the Gospels. "Exousia" is a Greek word most often translated as "authority" or "power."

Fully Licensed by the Finished Work of the Cross

The Lord spoke: "It's time to step boldly into full authority, to do as I do, and speak as I say. As you go, remember who and Whose you are. Commissioned as My ambassador, you are fully licensed by the finished work of the cross to go into all the world in the power of My name and represent Me well."

He Is Setting You up to Set the Captives Free

Many of you have felt trapped by paralyzing fear that stops you from boldly sharing the Gospel. I heard the Lord say, "I am pouring out My perfect love. Where fear and trepidation have caged you in a debilitating mindset, I am breaking the lock of lies and bondage and breaking you out of captivity. No longer stuck, I am setting you up to set the captives free."

Restoration and Realignment to Truth

Many of you have felt derailed and disqualified by an onslaught of attacks against your health, character, confidence, and identity. Today, the Lord reinstates you as His signet ring (Haggai 2:23) and grants you Kingdom authority to combat the chaos and confusion sent to keep you locked up and stagnant. He is setting the record straight, breaking the power of the lies, restoring and realigning you with the qualifying truth of the Word of God. Receive your restoration and realignment to Kingdom truth.

He is causing you to run again. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

Power to Partner with Me

In a vision, I saw the earth tremble and sensed the Lord declare, "As a shift in tectonic plates causes natural earthquakes, I will shake the heavens and the earth again (Haggai 2:6). As you go and speak My Word, I will pour out My glory through you. Forces of spiritual wickedness will topple and fall at My command. My Word is alive and sharp (Hebrews 4:12); it cuts through and annihilates demonic activity. I am equipping you with exousia and dunamis power to partner with Me as I reveal My glory (Haggai 2:7)."

Green Light Says, "GO!"

Once again, I saw the green light, and the Lord spoke again: "Green light says, 'GO.'" I sensed a fresh, fiery baptism of His love and a commissioning without compromise coming upon the Body of Christ to go into all the earth and make disciples, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19).

Do not get stuck in old wine-skin thinking that says, "I can't do that because I am not a pastor." Step into the "new" of knowing the power of sonship and your true identity as a son of the living God. Take hold of your identity with both hands to navigate the roads of harvest, and run the race set before you, empowered with all authority to preach with power and set the captives free.

"Then Jesus came to them and said, 'All authority in Heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.'" (Matthew 28:18–20 NIV)

Jenn Nestler: Come Out from the Valley of Death! It's Time to Live Again!

Let Go, So You Can Grow and Embrace the "New"

A prophetic word is a divine declaration that speaks death to one season and life to the next. We cannot fully embrace the new thing God has for our lives if we're still clinging to the old, even if the old was good. If you are not willing to let go, then you are not ready for the powerful transformation God wants to release in your life. Don't let the fear of letting go or the chains of the past prevent you from stepping into the fullness of all God has for you. Let go, so you can grow and embrace the new.

"Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." (Isaiah 43:19 ESV)

Kingdom Key: God is calling you out of the valley of death and saying, "It's time to live again!"

The Great Surrender

"The hand of the LORD was upon me, and He brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of the valley; it was full of bones." (Ezekiel 37:1 ESV)

What do you do when God sets you down in the middle of the valley and all you see are bones? You must understand this isn't just a normal valley. You are standing in a graveyard. The presence of bones whispers a story: others once alive walked this very ground. But now, only the remains speak of what was.

If God is a good God, why would He allow precious things to die? It's easier to accept when He asks us to lay down what's harmful or unhealthy. But what do we do when it's a promise fulfilled He gave us? What if it's a gift that came straight from His hand, and yet He asks us to surrender it? These are the deep waters of faith where true surrender is no longer theory but tested in the hidden chambers of the heart. It's in these sacred moments that we discover whether we trust God, even when we don't understand His ways.

Kingdom Key: Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal what He's calling you to release. What do you need to let go of to embrace the new? Surrender it fully. It's time to let go so you can grow.

The Place of Separation and Consecration

"And He led me around among them, and behold, there were very many on the surface of the valley, and behold, they were very dry." (Ezekiel 37:2 ESV)

The valley is a place of separation and consecration where God matures us. He often leads us through the valley to show us what's really beneath the surface. It's easy to stay shallow, but the valley demands that we dig deep, or we will perish. This is where superficial faith or borrowing the faith of others won't sustain you. You must press into the presence of God for yourself and dig your own well.

Yes, we need community. Yes, it's a blessing when others pray, prophesy, and encourage us. But there are times when even your most faithful friends cannot go where God is taking you. The valley is a place of separation and consecration where you need to dig deep in God's presence. (Photo via Unsplash)

"How enriched are they who find their strength in the Lord; within their hearts are the highways of holiness! Even when their paths wind through the dark valley of tears, they dig deep to find a pleasant pool where others find only pain. He gives to them a brook of blessing filled from the rain of an outpouring. They grow stronger and stronger with every step forward." (Psalm 84:5–7 TPT)

Kingdom Key: The valley is a place of separation and consecration. It's a place of maturation, where you learn to dig deep because borrowed faith will no longer sustain you. What feels like isolation is an invitation of intimacy to encounter the living God!

The Place of Intimacy, Not Isolation

The valley is a low place, a humbling space, where the ground beneath you feels stripped bare. In the valley, all false comforts fade, the crowds thin, and fair-weather friends fall away. Not everyone can follow you into the depths. Even those who love you may not be able to journey into the sacred stillness where God is preparing you for greater things.

Some paths can only be walked in solitude, where Heaven leans close and the soul is stripped bare. It's a lonely road, painfully beautiful, where the crushing becomes holy and the wilderness becomes a womb for glory. No one else can carry the weight of your becoming or pour out the offering only your life was meant to give.

As the noise of life grows quiet and the only place to look is up, there is beauty in the narrowing. The valley creates a singleness of focus. It strips away the superficial and clears the clutter from your vision. Though the valley doesn't define you, it will refine you. And in that stillness, you are left with one pursuit, one anchor, one unshakable hope: deep, unbroken intimacy with God.

"The hand of the LORD was on me, and He brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry." (Ezekiel 37:1–2 NIV)

Kingdom Key: Sometimes, God places us in the valley to remind us of who He is while refining who we are. The valley doesn't define you, but it will refine you. Lean into the sacred isolation. Embrace intimacy with the Lord. He alone is everything you need.

The Place of Resurrection Power

"There were a great many bones in the valley, and they were very dry." (Ezekiel 37:2 NET)

The valley was full, not just with bones, but with stories that ended too soon. This image is a sobering reminder that many have been placed in the valley before you, but not all made it out. Some gave up when the silence felt louder than God's promises. (Photo via Flickr)

Don't let that be your story. Purpose in your heart not to give up in the valley. Do not allow yourself to be buried in the valley. Do not become another statistic of those who gave up in the middle of their promotion because they simply could not see or understand what God was doing!

Kingdom Key: Many didn't survive the valley. Don't let that be your story. The valley is not your grave. It is the proving ground of your promotion.

The Place of Promotion and Miracles

Though the valley can look barren and empty at first glance, valleys are often more fertile than mountain tops. Make no mistake, while things contrary to the Spirit must die, the valley is not your graveyard but a place where miracles are born! It's a place where Heaven feels quiet, yet God is closer than ever. The valley is a place where God breathes life into what was dead. It's where the ashes you mourn become the soil where miracles are born. In the stillness, He is bringing things together and forming something deep within you. Something eternal. Something unshakable. Even when you can't see it, He's working beneath the surface, preparing you for the weight of what's coming!

"Then He said to me: 'Son of man, these bones are the people of Israel. They say, "Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone; we are cut off." Therefore prophesy and say to them: "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: My people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you, My people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. I will put My Spirit in you, and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I the Lord have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD."'" (Ezekiel 37:11–14 NIV)

Kingdom Key: The way of the Kingdom is wild, holy, and supernatural, where death gives way to extravagant life, and everything lost is the precipice of gain. Being marked for promotion often looks like a demotion in the natural. If you find yourself in the valley, congratulations! You've been promoted! No one likes the valley, but the valley is the place where miracles are born!

The Place Where the Flesh Dies and Your Spirit Soars

While there is death involved in the valley, the religious spirit will try to capitalize on this time of isolation and tell you to not just crucify your flesh but to crucify the divine nature and personality that God gave you. Who told you that you were too much? Who told you it was more godly to hide your light rather than shine it? Stop trying to kill the very thing that God gifted you! Stop trying to kill the very thing God loves most about you!

"No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in Heaven." (Matthew 5:15–16 NRSV)

Kingdom Key: God wants us to crucify our flesh, not our spiritual nature and unique personality in Him. Shining your light isn't pride; it's purpose! Don't shrink back. It's time to shine bright for God's glory!

The Place to Prophecy Your Way Out

Although we can't rush or bypass the journey in the valley, God is faithful to reveal when it's time to rise up and come out of the valley. So, how do you do that? Ask for God to pour out His rain, but it starts with first giving Him full rein. Surrender fully to His Lordship. Get into the secret place and commune with God. Communion is more than taking bread and wine; it is intimacy with God. It's the place where the rivers of living water begin to flow, filling every dry and empty space until it lifts you up from the depths. (Photo via PixaHive)

"I will open rivers on the barren heights, and fountains in the middle of the valleys. I will turn the desert into a pool of water, and the dry land into flowing springs." (Isaiah 41:18 BSB)

The same power that raised Christ from the dead is poised to breathe life into your dry bones, to revive what looks dead, and to restore what you thought was lost. Heaven moves through yielded vessels. Your agreement matters. Your voice carries the authority to unlock graves! You don't have to wait for someone else to prophesy over you. Rise up! Stir up rivers of living water!

"Rivers of living water will flow from [your belly]." (John 7:38 NLT, brackets added)

Place a demand on Heaven! Command the atmosphere! It's time to speak to the dry bones in your life that are trembling, awaiting the fire of your faith, ignited by the Holy Spirit, and declare that they live again!

"Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are indeed cut off.' Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I will open your graves and raise you from your graves." (Ezekiel 37:11–12 ESV)

Kingdom Key: The one who is placed in the valley is not the same as the one who comes out. Worship is the key. Intimacy is the path. You don't need to wait for someone else; it's time to speak to the dry bones in your life. Press in. Partner with Heaven. Command the atmosphere, expect Heaven to move, and prophesy your way out!

Prayer

If this message resonates with you, it's time to come out of the valley! I believe the atmosphere of Heaven wants to flood the valley of dry bones that you have found yourself in.

Place your hand over your heart and pray this prayer with me: Holy Spirit, come with power. Breathe into every dry place. I yield completely to You. I surrender the old, and I make room for the new. I break agreement with fear, with despair, and with delay.

I declare: Though this valley is my proving ground, I will not die here! Let every dead dream and every buried promise come alive with Your resurrection power. Where there has been barrenness, let rivers of living water begin to flow!

I ask for the atmosphere of Heaven to invade the atmosphere of my life. Flood me with Your Spirit! Let the rivers of living water burst forth from within me. I speak to my spirit: Rise up in the power of the Holy Spirit! It's time to hope again! It's time to live again. In Jesus' name, amen.

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'I AM RAISING UP DAUGHTERS OF DELIVERANCE'

Recently, I heard the Lord say, 'I AM RAISING UP DAUGHTERS OF DELIVERANCE.' When the Lord spoke these words, I could see so many daughters across the world who had been in such deep seasons of warfare and deep seasons of refining. What struck me as I looked at these ones was the intensity to which they had experienced these seasons of warfare and refining. I could feel the pressure in the spirit from these daughters walking these two things simultaneously.

The voice of the Lord then struck me deeply:

'My daughters have experienced deep intensity in the seasons of warfare and refining, but where there has been deep INTENSITY, now there shall be deep INTEL and INSIGHT.'

When the Lord spoke these words, the knowing came so strongly to me. Where these daughters of God have walked deep seasons of warfare and then deep seasons of refining as they yielded to the Lord, embraced the refining by His Spirit and continued to stand against the enemy; there was now a greater increase in the intel, the understanding, the revelation, the insight into deliverance. As I looked at these daughters of God that are living so yielded to Him, so deeply in the place of intimacy with Jesus, I saw their eyes were on fire. The Lord spoke, 'Their eyes are blazing with INSIGHT.'

When He spoke the word 'insight', in the spirit I saw it as 'IN-SIGHT'. The Lord continued to speak:

'Where the enemy has come into the intensity of the seasons they have been walking and brought great confusion upon many, the confusion is breaking, and I am leading them in this season to walk deeper IN SIGHT of what I am doing and the strategies of the enemy. The enemy has come so ferociously against many of My daughters in this hour, and in coming against many different areas of their lives, one of the main things he was after was their SIGHT.

'For when he could come and bring confusion, hinder vision, blur perspective and cause so many to live feeling like their heads are continually hung low, he would hinder their movement and their authority. But I have continued to strengthen My daughters. I have continued to train and empower My daughters. There is now a shift taking place where I am revealing TO them the insights into the plans of the enemy and his tactics. I am also giving them revelation and insight into keys of deliverance of the heart and soul that I have been leading them through and into, which have been bringing them into greater freedom and a growing up further into their wholeness into Me.

'I say unto you, My daughters, not only am I bringing you deeper into the insight of the plans and tactics of the enemy for your own lives and keys for deliverance and freedom in the refining, but now there is a mighty increase in DELIVERANCE AND DISCERNMENT being released THROUGH YOU through My insight and intel for others and for nations. My daughters, I am bringing you into even deeper realms of intercession. I am bringing you even deeper into realms of rest in the revelations that I am releasing to you and through you, areas and cycles of chaos in your own lives, your families' lives, in the lives of others, cities and nations. Watch as I increase your intel and insight. Watch as I increase your discernment to know strategically how to pray into these areas of chaos and unrest. Watch how I sharpen your vision. Watch as I increase your discernment. Watch as I increase your insight and intel.'

I began to see such a 'rest in revelation' that was coming to many daughters in this hour. I saw SO MANY that had been tormented by the enemy against the revelation and discernment they were carrying. There was such an onslaught against many daughters from a spirit of witchcraft – against them and their revelation, discernment and insight I was giving them – to keep them in a place of fogginess, swirl and confusion.

I then heard a thundering in the Spirit: 'THE SWIRL STOPS TODAY.'

In that moment, I knew that in the spirit the Lord was bringing an end to the intense demonic swirl of confusion that was coming against many of these daughters. There was such a strong sense in the spirit, of confusion not coming from the Lord (1 Cor 14:33), and I then heard the Lord say, 'Break your agreement with the swirl.' Repent for any and all areas where you have agreed with the confusion, where you have agreed with the swirl, where you have sown seeds of faith into the confusion and the doubt. Take a decisive stand against the confusion and declare what I am speaking – that you are moving into greater realms of INSIGHT and walking IN MY SIGHT.'

This repentance was making room for a greater level of insight and discernment in their lives. I could feel such a deep humility and surrender in the atmosphere as He spoke. It was an invitation into such deeper intimacy and yielding to Him: looking to Him alone in worship, in praise, in adoration and ferocious focus that would see them come up higher above the confusion and unrest and into a greater level of seeing as He sees and faith-rest. I could see the tactic of the enemy so clearly with this onslaught of confusion: to not only hinder these daughters of God arising in all the Lord was calling them to, but attempting to hinder their focus upon the Lord and have their focus upon the confusion and swirl that felt like it had been surrounding them for so long. I then heard Psalm 32:8 surrounding me:

'I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go; I will advise you with My eye upon you.' (NASB)

I saw these daughters of God who were yielding to the Lord and His ways, with their eyes fixed upon Him, walking into a new season of being guided and led by the eye of the Lord in a greater way than they had known before. There was such a significant difference I could feel in the spirit. It was a distinct shift from confusion to clarity.

I leaned into the Lord and listened, and I heard the Lord say:

'Daughters of deliverance, daughters of discernment: ARISE! Now is your time to arise and take your place – a place of greater clarity and greater insight FOR YOU and THROUGH YOU. The war rooms need you!' When the Lord spoke those words, 'The war rooms need you,' I could feel the weight of the Lord so heavily upon Me.

The Lord was inviting them deeper into the war rooms in this season. They were being promoted into a place of discernment, intel and insight – to be able to perceive and receive the way the Spirit was moving and operating in this hour in different areas, and to perceive the tactics of the enemy – to move in greater intercession and wisdom of the Lord in this hour; to partner with the Lord to see His plans and purposes extended in the earth and in their realms of jurisdiction. It was so clear to Me that the deep confusion and onslaught of the enemy and a spirit of witchcraft was attempting to keep them from this place of co-laboring with the Lord and in the war rooms. There was such intimidation, swirl and confusion that had been attempting to prevent them from this place, but as they yielded to the Lord and obeyed His leading, they were being led into these war rooms in greater levels than they had ever known.

He spoke again:

'Daughters of God, you are being called for! Daughters of God, you are being called for in the war rooms.'

As the encounter ended, I saw that the doorway to these war rooms was tiny, and it was in the floor. And on the door it said, Jeremiah 33:3:

'Ask me and I will tell you remarkable secrets you do not know about things to come.' (NLT)

'Daughters of deliverance and discernment: arise! Watch how I am going to move THROUGH YOU and My Spirit to bring great deliverance and release My intel through prayer, intercession, and the move of My Spirit through you to see My Kingdom extended and My Glory come.'

Tammuz 25, 5785: Monday, June 21, 2025

Nate Johnston: JULY IS THE MARKER -
WE ARE ENTERING THE GREAT CONTRADICTION

Christy and I have this saying: that after a day, a week, or a season of warfare, watch, because suddenly, the snake's head is revealed. It's happened like clockwork over the years, where after intense seasons of warfare, or even just a crazy day of warfare, like clockwork, the next day or in a short period of time, the snake's head would be revealed. It might be that email that comes in, revealing what's been spoken about you. It might be that intimidation, that threat. Whatever it may be, it's the snake's head revealing itself. And it reveals that the enemy has been warring against you. And why?

I say that to get to this point. I believe we've been in a window of time of tests, trials, and warfare. When we stepped into January 2025, I felt it: it was going to be a faith test. It was going to be a test of whether I'd stick out my calling, stick to the plan, whether I would stay on mission, the one God gave me; whether I would remain strong, or crumble and fall. Because you see, there's been an attack against believers since January that has been on another level. And that attack has been designed to surround you on every single side until you crumble.

It's like when Jesus was led into the wilderness and had to battle in His mind, to combat the enemy's tactics over and over. We've been in a season where the enemy's been relentlessly trying to give us easy way outs, second options, off-ramps at every turn, trying to get us to back out of the call of God, choose the easy thing, or create Ishmaels along the way. Have you felt this?

The warfare has been intense. The shadow has increased. The slander has increased. Robbery has come from every single side. Health issues. Bank accounts were depleted. Doors shutting. It has been relentless.

Yet at the same time, I believe God wants to see what we would do in this moment because He knows what's coming. It's been a Romans 8:18 moment, where we've seen a whole new level of pain, but it's going to be followed by glory.

So, what I want to share with you is what I believe God is doing from July onwards. In Luke 4:14, it says, "that after He came out of the wilderness, He returned in the power of the Spirit." I believe that as we step into July, we're about to see the glory revealed in the very areas where there's been robbery. We're about to see the glory revealed in the very places that were tests. We are coming out of that place.

And you might be thinking, "Well, this doesn't make sense. The world's in chaos. Things are going crazy." Yes, those things will continue. But I'm speaking to you as a believer about what God is doing in your life, and in the life of the Church. I believe we are entering a shift. A turning of the tide. I believe that starting in July, we're turning a spiritual corner.

For those who have said, "Okay, God, I'm not going to fight against You. I'm not going to resist this process, because in it, there's protection. In it, You've been breaking me out of comforts, breaking me out of mindsets and mentalities I've carried, that only warfare could have confronted." I believe we're now beginning to see the glory that He has been wanting to reveal and showcase in our lives this whole time.

I believe the next six months will be a strange contradiction. I believe in the next six months things will look wild and chaotic in the natural. We're going to see things happen and erupt in the financial markets and on the world stage. Things will continue to intensify and look debilitating, even hopeless.

Yet the strange contradiction will be this: somehow, you'll feel like your role has flipped. Whereas before, you felt safer in the natural while everything was falling apart spiritually, now it's like the reverse. You'll feel an internal strength and clarity in the Spirit, even while the world's systems shake around you. God is beginning to reveal Himself on your behalf.

I believe we're in a massive turnaround season for those who will reach out and say, "Yes, okay, God." There is going to be a massive turnaround financially for the Church. We are entering into days where God is bringing in a billion-soul harvest. Things are ripening. Revival is breaking out in messy ways, but glorious ways. And in these next six months, the Lord is declaring over you: You're turning a corner. You're going to see the glory now. Where you've seen shaking, where you've seen suffering, you will now experience My goodness, My mercy, My favor.

It's the Psalm 23 moment where the Lord seats you at the table in the presence of your enemies and anoints your head with oil. So get ready, Body of Christ, because we are entering into the days of the great contradiction. The shaking will continue, but now it will begin to reveal the glory in your life. These are the days of leaving the wilderness, ended with power.

And just as I said at the beginning, watch for the snake's head. Because in this moment, God is not just exposing it, He's empowering you to crush it. The very thing that's come after you is about to be under your feet. The warfare has been real, the pressure has been intense, but now comes the revealing. The snake's head is exposed, and it will not have the final word. You will.

Glory of Zion: Chuck Pierce

Expect a Glorious New Year with Me!

As we press toward Pentecost, much revelation is being released. Penny Jackson sent this prophetic word that will provide great encouragement for our future.

"There is not a thing you are dealing with that I don't have a solution for, from the smallest things to the largest. I can do anything. I can cover things you struggle with. You don't use Me enough. Let Me help. Let Me take over. I want to. I know these things bring you pleasure, but are hard for you. I know that. Let Me work with you on them.

"I want to dream and plan with you, spend each day with you talking about life ... your life and life in the world, and My plans for days ahead ... both for you and for the world around you. I made you so creative. I want to dream and plan with you. You see life in a way that all do not. You have a take on life that is unique. You read between My lines in a way that others do not. There is so much we could be talking about. Don't be afraid of what I say to you or might say to you. It is rich and full and exciting. Share life with Me. I long for that. Talk to Me first. Yes, I will use others, but process with Me first. I love that stuff. And even if it's with a bad heart, I can fix that. There is not ONE thing you and I can't handle together. I am your Bridegroom. See Me as that.

"Don't be afraid of years ahead. They will be glorious years in your life. We will walk them together, and you will walk them with Me. I will bring things forth that will amaze you, and I will handle your every need. You will see Me in a fullness you haven't seen yet. I will open your eyes to so much. There will be no need for anxiety, because I will show you what you need to know and what you need to do and how you need to go forward. There will be such an enhanced dependence on Me, a joy in Me, that it will be glorious. You will finally 'let go and let God.' Expect a glorious new year. I am not done with you yet. In fact, in some ways, we are just getting started. You are not a slacker if you are not always declaring and decreeing and warring. There will be those times, but not with striving. There will be a new resting in being okay doing none of those things, and not letting me down by not doing them. If you only understood 1/100th of how I see you, you would be totally transformed. And we are working on it. I am working on it in myriad ways and through myriad transformations. Rest in Me. I am moving."

Blessings,

KEEP PRAYING WARRIORS; Many Prophetic Words are beginning to Come pass. There are Some that can be averted if the Remnant will Seek His Face and Pray! Given the recent News re. Russia and Ukraine, this Word is worth a Repost for serious Prayer!

Russia, Poland & the Baltic Lands — The Bone and the Treaty;
<https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/russia-poland/>

March 12, 2022 Veronika West

The LORD spoke to me during my time of prayer yesterday, as I cried out to Him concerning The Nations and how He wants me to position myself in Prayer, in the coming days. I heard these words:

"Watch! For in the days ahead, they will seek to throw The Great Bear Nation a Bone, to stop The Bear from taking yet another bite! Yes! But Watch and Pray! For a bone will only temporarily appease his warring appetite, before the eyes of The Bear Nation are back on Poland and The Baltic Lands, looking to take more than his fair share. For once The Great Bear tastes flesh and blood, there is no going back. So I say again, Watch and Pray as the cravings of The Great Bear Nation continue to grow, for more power and greater political prominence. But listen, for some will say, 'Surely this Peace Treaty will bring common ground and a place of neutrality, for see, now The Angry Bear will stay back, and The Red Dragon Nation will be restrained!'

"Yet I tell you, the shaking of hands and the nodding of heads saying, 'Yes!' will only be temporary, before the sounds of War Drums will fill the air. For I tell you, the head of

The Great Bear will rise once again, and with a show of his sharp teeth and roar greater than before, for he will seek to fully restore what was in the days long before.

"Therefore, watch! For though The Bear Nation looked somewhat weak and powerless when it first emerged from a time of political hibernation, I say, do not be deceived, and do not drop your guard, for little by little, The Great Bear Nation will continue to bite down hard. And so he will seek to gain more ground by becoming bolder and even stronger than he was before. So watch! For in the days ahead, just when The Great Bear Nation seems to back down from taking more and more ground, suddenly, an unexpected attack will take place deep underground, that will put their political agenda of A Great Global Reset right back, for an Economic War for the supply of Gas and Oil will bring a shutting down of their pipelines, that will break the backs of stiff-necked nations. Yes! For the backs of their economies will be broken, and with a loud crash they will cry, because of a Great Financial Fall, that will cause a ripple effect, that will bring many Nations standing once again before an open door — and the talk of another World War.

"But listen! For when this takes place, a political stirring and an economic battle will again arouse The Bear Nation to another brutal attack, which will bring to bear a greater show of Military Force than there was before. So, keep watch and stay alert for while The Bone and The Treaty looks to quiet The Great Bear, there is a secret coming together of uncircumcised nations, that will seek to gain greater power and dominance.

"For The Beast of The East will arise in the west, and with Oil Wells in one hand, and Gold Reserves in the other, He will make promises of great prosperity and a restoration of great wealth. But watch, for a Snare and a Trap has been set for the feet of those Nations that dare to run towards The Beast; but blind and desperate for the saving of their own skin, a violent Bidding War for Wealth and Riches will then begin, and with lust and greed in their hearts, they will bow to take his bribe, and to wear his crown. And so, the selling of the souls of many Nations will be seen.

"But Ha! I say, Fear not! Watch and Pray! For a Divine Convergence in now in play as Nation rises against Nation and many running to and fro looking for safety and refuge from bordering Nations that claim to care and to know.

But watch, as I harden the hearts of many Leaders, while the people cry, "Let us go! Let us go!" Now see! For a great Light will shine in the darkness, and all that is hidden will be revealed!

"For a time of Great Exposure has come, as the weight of My Glory begins to fall. But woe to those Nations that will not bow the knee, for now The Spirit of The Fear of The LORD is moving, to make a Divine Distinction between Goat and Sheep Nations, and all that will be Restored, Revived and Redeemed!"

Blessings to you all.

Nathan Shaw: Heavenly Blueprint or Empty Canvas?

Heavenly Blueprint or Empty Canvas: What's Your Perspective?

Many Christians want to walk in destiny but struggle to know God's plan for their lives. When it comes to walking in destiny, there are two common perspectives. The first perspective is based on heavenly blueprints. The process goes something like this: You discover the heavenly blueprint that God has for your life, and then live your life according to its content. The second perspective is based on empty canvases. The process goes something like this: You are a free-will being. Your life is a gift from God. You get to shape and color the canvas of your life.

The first perspective is based on a blueprint that is already finalized. The second perspective is based on an empty canvas which is in the process of being shaped and formed. The first perspective emphasizes God's initiative. The second perspective emphasizes human initiative. Both perspectives are biblical and accurate. The Bible clearly portrays walking with God as a covenant relationship in which both parties take initiative.

Imagine for a moment that God gifts you with a house. It is the perfect house for you and enables you to accomplish everything He has called you to do. Think of the house as your destiny. You can move anywhere in the house, and you will remain in God's will. But God doesn't dictate how you are to decorate and furnish the house. In fact, He wants you to give each room its own unique expression. He may give you suggestions for each room, and He will certainly help you implement your design, but ultimately, He wants you to take the initiative. It's your house. He gifted it to you, and He's excited to see what you will do with it. God did it this way because He wants sons and daughters, not robots.

The heavenly blueprint perspective leads a person to pursue the blueprint and wait for the unfolding revelation. The empty canvas perspective leads a person to take initiative in the here and now and fine-tune things as they go—much like an artist who keeps painting until they are happy with the final outcome. So, which metaphor is the correct one: heavenly blueprint or empty canvas? The answer is both. It is only when we bind ourselves to one perspective or the other that all sorts of problems start to emerge. (Photo via Unsplash)

Finding the Blueprint

How do we discover the heavenly blueprints God has for our lives? The answer is very simple: seek God. Sometimes God reveals His blueprints for our lives through dramatic encounters, but more often, they are discovered through the everyday activity of walking with Him. The heavenly blueprint perspective can lead to a healthy pursuit, but it can also lead to frustration and despair.

Those who pursue heavenly blueprints, and discover them, have the satisfaction of knowing what they are called to do. Those who pursue heavenly blueprints but don't discover them end up frustrated. Such people reason, "Surely, it would be easier if I could simply go to the blueprint library, find my specific blueprint, and then live the life I am destined to live." Heavenly blueprints are real, but seeing only from this perspective can lead to a life of frantic pursuit, endless frustration, crippling despair, and overwhelming paralysis.

Another problem is idealism. Heavenly blueprints are perfect, whereas life on earth is far from perfect. If we are not careful, wrongly focusing on a perfect blueprint can lead to an idealistic way of thinking and a life of striving after unobtainable ideals. Those who have the energy and the drive continue to strive. But those who become overwhelmed by the magnitude of the task give up in despair.

The exhortation to seek God is an invitation to joyful pursuit. He is the perfect One, and He invites us to discover Him each and every day of our lives.

Heavenly blueprints are found in the knowledge of God, and the knowledge of God is liberating in every way.

Coloring the Canvas

When God created us, He gave us the gift of life and the gift of free will. The way we value these gifts is by using them. Life isn't given to us already formed; it's an empty canvas. By His design, we get to shape and color our lives by the decisions we make and the actions we take. Even though God has a heavenly blueprint for our lives, He wants us to answer questions like, "What do I want to do with my life?" and "How do I want my life to count?" God doesn't direct every minute detail of our lives. Walking with God doesn't mean not taking initiative. On the contrary, God created us as free-will beings, and He loves it when we take initiative, make plans, and color the canvas of our lives. (Photo via Pexels)

Notice the two verbs used in Proverbs 16:9: "A person plans his course, but the LORD directs his steps" (NET, italics added). We plan. God directs. God's directing is much more powerful than our planning, but our planning is still important. Our planning and His directing are two sides of one coin. His divine activity makes something profound out of our plans. God actually works with our initiative. The super-religious are too frightened to take initiative or make plans. Fearful people don't take initiative. Lazy people don't take initiative. But faith-filled people actually take initiative.

The wisdom in Proverbs 16:9 alleviates anxiety about us making wrong plans, because even if we make wrong plans, God still directs our steps. When we understand this, anxiety is replaced with trusting diligence. Jesus called the Holy Spirit the "Paraclete" (John 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7). The Greek word "Paraclete" means "one who walks alongside" or "helper." The Holy Spirit is the helper, not the doer. Walking with God means responding to His voice and His leading, but it also means making decisions and taking initiative.

Blueprint and Canvas Together

There is a heavenly blueprint for your life. Pursue the blueprint, but realize that your life is also an empty canvas gifted to you by God. Color and shape the canvas. Live your life. Live larger than life. Have expression. Learn, grow, and discover. Those who religiously wait for God's "perfect will" and "perfect plan" invariably miss out on living their lives in the here and now. Don't get caught in that trap. Whether you have one day, one year, or several decades left on this earth, live your best life yet!

WHAT IF I GET IT WRONG?
BETHANY HICKS, ROUND ROCK, TX

Let's be honest—one of the biggest things that holds people back from prophesying is the fear of missing it. "What if I get it wrong? What if I misrepresent God by saying something He never said?" It's a valid concern. Representing God's heart with integrity matters deeply. But here's the truth: God isn't asking for your perfection, He's looking for your participation. Jesus already took care of perfect. What He wants now is your yes.

Part of the fear of not wanting to get a prophetic word wrong comes from our misunderstanding of prophetic responsibility. Paul clarifies the responsibilities for the giver and receiver of a prophetic word in 1 Thessalonians 5:20–21: "Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good" (ESV).

Notice what Paul doesn't say. He doesn't say, "Make sure every prophetic word is perfectly accurate before you share it." He puts the responsibility not on the speaker to be flawless, but on the receiver to weigh the word. The implication? Not every word given will always be 100 percent correct. And that's okay. Paul's instruction to "hold fast what is good" is a new covenant way of saying, "Eat the meat; spit out the bones." Again, Paul reinforces that sometimes you may receive a word that is good but not necessarily God, and the proper response is to hold fast to the parts that God is speaking to, and use your power as a receiver to not come into agreement with anything that His breath is not on.

I want to make sure that you are not hearing what I am not saying. I am not saying that prophecy is some free-for-all form of positivity and that it doesn't really matter if we are accurate or not. Prophecy is the voice and breath of God to encourage and strengthen others, and we should continue to grow through practice in our ability to recognize His voice to us, so that we can accurately represent His heart and message to the world around us. But, if we do miss it... there's grace. We are learning to recognize the voice of God, and learning takes practice and space. Why do we offer grace to those learning to teach or evangelize but often shut down those learning to prophesy? The Church cannot mature in prophecy if we don't make room for people to practice in a safe, healthy environment.

So, yes—take the risk. Share what you sense He is saying. And know that if you're delivering a word with humility and love, you're doing it right, even if it's not perfect.

Take courage today: God has wired you to hear His voice. There is a wide, grace-filled space available for you to discover what His voice sounds like. Lay down the pressure of performance. And if you get it wrong sometimes, like a child stumbling while learning to walk, your heavenly Father celebrates every step you take toward hearing and releasing His heart.

IN CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication, as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors. I highly recommend that you follow most of the prophetic voices available today by signing up for ELIJAH LIST email! Subscribe at this link: elijahlist.com/subscribe.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study.
