

Adar: 5786: The month to leap forward out of your past into your Destiny.
Wade Butler: Chaplain, Pastor.

Adar is often referred to as the month to "Leap" into your future or Destiny. It is symbolized by a Stag or deer leaping. The biggest issue is being sure you are leaping in the right direction. Like a deer during hunting season, if you jump a fence to the wrong side, you are fair game to be taken out by hunters. The enemy is on the prowl scheming to get the "Sons and daughters" of GOD to be distracted and leap off cliffs or into abysses never to return. I look at it as jumping for joy like those who received the Holy Spirit. In Hebrew the correct name for the Holy Spirit is "Ruach HaKodesh." The word "Ruach" means "breath" or "wind," while "HaKodesh" translates to "the Holy." Therefore, "Ruach HaKodesh" can be understood as "the Holy Breath" or "the Holy Wind." This name emphasizes the idea that the Holy Spirit is the breath or presence of God. Being in HIS presence is pure joy. It can be seen when Yeshua looks at a young child.

Adar is a season of war for the restoration and reformation of HIS Kingdom. We are in that battle every day of our lives. How you show up for the war makes all the difference in the outcome. In denominationalism of the churches, people are often taught that the battle is not ours, we need to stay out of politics, the military, law-enforcement or anything that supports those segments of our society. That is not what the LORD says. We are to be the Ekklesia, the governing body. In my book, "The Heart of a Seer," I talk about an open vision I experienced where I was on the mountain of the LORD beholding the vastness of Yeshua's Armies when I asked HIM why is it quiet in heaven? HIS response was, "You (the sons and daughters) are waiting on heaven to do something; We are waiting on you to exercise the authority I gave you."

As you go into this month, suit up and look around you to see that wars, rumors of war, and turmoil are everywhere. We must come out of our slumber, pick up our weapons of war, and be prepared to fight the good fight. Do not jump ahead without listening to Holy Spirit before you leap. You could be jumping into the enemy's camp and your demise.

This is Adar: by Wade Butler

It is a month of great joy as the Hebrews leap in joy for their deliverance from a death sentence. It is the month when the curse over Naphtali, from when they rebelled against God, was overturned.

You can break the curse of rebellion and overturn the curse now! Repent!!! It is the month of starting to move toward our destinies. Yeshua chose most of HIS disciples from the tribe of Naphtali in the region of Nazareth on the Sea of Galilee. In Revelation 7, Naphtali is seen as restored with 12K chosen from the tribe and sealed as servants of GOD. It is the season to become what GOD has called us to be.

Yeshua Begins His Ministry, Matthew 4:12-25

¹⁴ This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁷ From that time Yeshua began to preach and say, "Repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God's purpose for your life], for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

The First Disciples

¹⁸ As Yeshua was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He noticed two brothers, Simon who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ And He said to them, "Follow Me [as My disciples, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk], and I will make you fishers of men." ²⁰ Immediately they left their nets and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example]. ²¹ And going on [further] from there He noticed two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets; and He called them [to follow Him as His disciples]. ²² Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him [becoming His disciples, believing and trusting in Him and following His example].

Ministry in Galilee

²³ And He went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news (gospel) of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people [demonstrating and revealing that He was indeed the promised Messiah].

²⁴ So the news about Him spread throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all who were sick, those suffering with various diseases and pains, those under the power of demons, and epileptics, paralytics; and He healed them.

An Interlude, Revelation 7 Amplified Bible (AMP)

7 After this I saw four angels stationed at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. ² Then I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, holding the seal of the living God; and with a loud voice he called out to the four angels to whom it was granted [to have authority and power] to harm the earth and the sea, ³ saying, "Do not harm the earth nor the sea nor the trees until we seal (mark) the bondservants of our God on their foreheads."

⁴ And I heard how many were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand; [twelve thousand] sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel: ⁵ Twelve thousand were sealed from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand from the tribe of Gad, ⁶ twelve thousand from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand from the tribe of Manasseh, ⁷ twelve thousand from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand from the tribe of Issachar, ⁸ twelve thousand from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand from the tribe of Joseph, and twelve thousand from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed (marked, redeemed, protected).

A Multitude from the Tribulation

“Salvation [belongs] to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb [our salvation is the Trinity’s to give, and to God the Trinity we owe our deliverance].”

¹¹ And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the [twenty-four] elders and the four living creatures; and they fell to their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and majesty and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen.”

¹³ Then one of the elders responded, saying to me, “These who are dressed in the long white robes—who are they, and from where did they come?” ¹⁴ I said to him, “My lord, you know [the answer].” And he said to me, “These are the people who come out of the great tribulation (persecution), and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb [because of His atoning sacrifice]. ¹⁵ For this reason, they are [standing] before the throne of God; and they serve Him [in worship] day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them and shelter and protect them [with His presence]. ¹⁶ They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any [scorching] heat; ¹⁷ for the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will be their Shepherd, and He will guide them to springs of the waters of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes [giving them eternal comfort].”

Purim is a Jewish holiday that commemorates the deliverance of the Jewish people in the ancient Persian Empire from destruction in the wake of a plot by Haman, a story recorded in the Biblical Book of Esther. The month is related to the tribe of Naphtali - “sweetness to me” says the LORD.

It is the month to gain favor of the LORD and overturn the plans of the enemy so that he is defeated and hung on his own gallows.

We are to experience GOD's goodness and mercy as we develop our war strategy for the future. It is a time to break all decrees against our families as we mount up to destroy the plans of the enemy to destroy us.

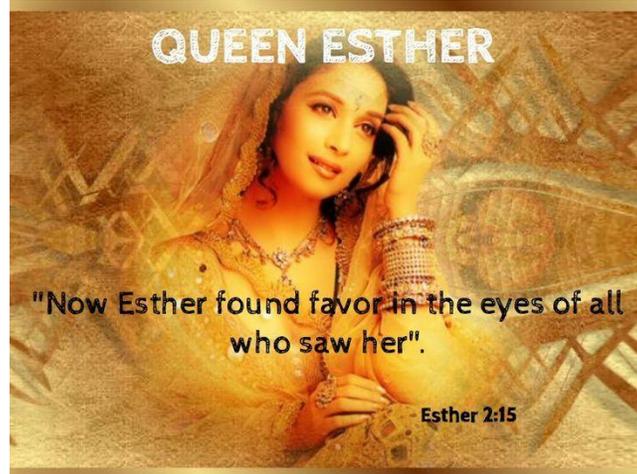

As we celebrate the season of the Queen who risks everything to save a nation, our LORD wants us to be joyful as we prepare our seeds for spring and till the ground for seedtime and harvest. Stay in alignment with the LORD and move into the season of blessing.

Overview

This letter is to those who are new at following the daily devotional and Calendar. I would like to share with you some of the reasoning of the publication and answer some questions that are posed to me each month. To begin with, we follow the example of "One new man"- Jew and Gentile following the Messiah. Because of that we relate the Hebrew calendar timelines because our father did not change the seasons, man did. We need to learn about our roots. So, join us.

Many people receive this who are not members of any church for many reasons, yet they are lovers of truth and followers of the LORD. That's who we appeal to. We don't ask for money or ask that you join anything other than the "LORD'S" Army. Most of the posts included in this publication are available if you diligently seek the Prophetic Word. We have twelve in-house contributors - brothers and sisters who contribute monthly, so buckle up.

Each month has different words of Knowledge, Prophetic insights and outstanding teaching. The authors vary every month depending on the number of articles they submit as well as the direction the LORD gives each month. Due to that point, each month may have multiple inserts from the same author. Wade Butler

Facts of the season

The brown trees of winter have put on gleaming costumes of bright green. People act a little crazy – shedding heavy clothes while there is still a chill in the air; laughing a little wildly when there is no reason. "We've gotten giddy; we've caught spring fever."

Because Purim falls in Adar, it is the happiest, most joyous time of the Hebrew calendar. Its motto is "When Adar arrives, joy increases." Tradition teaches that Adar is so full of joy that it is as if Adar were pregnant with happiness. Indeed, some years we need two Adar's to contain all the joy of Adar.

Heaven rejoices with those who rejoice. I recommend you join in.

Adar (Hebrew: אָדָר Adar; from Akkadian adaru) is the sixth month of the civil year and the twelfth month of the ecclesiastical year on the Hebrew calendar, roughly corresponding to the month of March in the Gregorian calendar. It is a month of 29 days. The key Purim-related liberating wartime events and main mention of the month appear in the holy scripture of Esther 9, its last book.

The month's name, like all the others from the Hebrew calendar, was adopted during the Babylonian captivity. In the Babylonian calendar the name was Arah Addaru or Adār ('Month of Adar').

Customs

During the Second Temple period, there was a Jewish custom to make a public proclamation on the first day of the lunar month Adar, reminding the people that they are to prepare their annual monetary offering to the Temple treasury, known as the half-Shekel.

Based on a line in the Mishnah declaring that Purim must be celebrated in Adar II in a leap year (Megillah 1:4), Adar I is considered the "extra" month. As a result, someone born in Adar during a non-leap year would celebrate their birthday in Adar II during a leap year. However, someone born during either Adar in a leap year will celebrate their birthday during Adar in a non-leap year, except that someone born on 30 Adar I will celebrate their birthday on 1 Nisan in a non-leap year because Adar in a non-leap year has only 29 days. In non-leap years, Purim is still celebrated on the evening of the 13th thru the evening of the 15th.

The word Adar is cognate to the Hebrew word "adir," meaning "strength."

Adar is the month of good fortune for the Jewish people.

"Adar" means "exalted," "praised," "power," and "strength," where it says: "the Lord is (Adir) mighty on High." This opinion states that just as we decrease our joy because we are separated from the Shekinah (God's presence) in the month of Av, so too in Adar we rejoice because the whole month is a time when the Shekinah (God's presence) is close to us.

When God commanded Moses to construct the tabernacle, He made the following request: make for Me a small chamber (called Mishkan in Hebrew) so that I may live (dwell in your midst).

1 Corinthians 6:19 says; do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?

It is said that the word "v'edor" ("and I will dwell" in Hebrew) is related to the word "adar" – the very name of this month implies that it is a time when the Shekinah (God's presence) dwells among us "v'edor beineichem."

Another opinion states that the word "Adar" means "beauty," as in the beauty of the season contained in Adar, Spring.

Adar is the Hebrew month of joy, celebration, and divine reversals, highlighted by the festival of Purim.

Adar is the twelfth month of the Hebrew calendar (or the sixth month on the civil calendar) and typically falls in February or March on the Gregorian calendar.

It is traditionally considered a month of happiness and increased joy, as the Talmud instructs, "When Adar arrives, we increase in joy".

This joy is linked to the miraculouevents commemorated during Purim, when the Jewish people were saved from Haman's plot in ancient Persia.

The name Adar is derived from the Hebrew word adir, meaning strength or power, symbolizing the fortuitous nature of the month for the Jewish people. Spiritually, Adar represents a time of surrender to divine timing, faith, and preparation for new beginnings, particularly as it precedes Nisan, the month of Passover. It is associated with the Hebrew letter Kuf, symbolizing multiplication and holiness, and the tribe of Naphtali, known for cheerfulness and swift action.

Adar also has a unique feature in the Jewish leap year, occurring approximately every three years, when a second month called Adar II is added to keep the lunar calendar aligned with the solar year. Purim is celebrated in the second Adar during these years. Historically, Adar is significant as the month in which Moses was born and passed away on the 7th of Adar, adding to its spiritual resonance.

Symbolically, Adar is sometimes described as the "month of darkness turned to light", reflecting the near destruction of the Jewish people and the miraculous salvation celebrated on Purim. Its astral sign is the fish (Pisces), representing fertility, blessing, and abundance. Overall, Adar is a month that encourages joy, celebration reflection, and spiritual readiness for the upcoming festivals.

Matt Friesser: Rosh Chodesh Adar, (Repost from 5784)

Adar means to be majestic or wide, or the verb אָדַר (adar), to be majestic or glorify. It is interesting that Tradition relates that Moses passed away on 7 Adar.

According to the Jewish Encyclopedia - Death of Moses, "After all this was accomplished Moses was warned that he would not be permitted to lead Israel across the Jordan but would die on the eastern side (Num. xx. 12). He therefore assembled the tribes and delivered to them a parting address, which forms the Book of Deuteronomy. In this address it is commonly supposed that he recapitulated the Law, reminding them of its most important features. When this was finished, and he had pronounced a blessing upon the people, he went up Mount Nebo to the top of Pisgah, looked over the country spread out before him, and died at the age of one hundred and twenty. YHVH Himself buried him in an unknown grave (Deut. xxxiv.). Moses was thus the human instrument in the creation of the Israelitish nation; he communicated to it all its laws. Meeker than any other man (Num. xii. 3), he enjoyed unique privileges, for 'there hath not arisen a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face'" (Deut. xxxiv. 10).

Face to Face with YHVH – the all-consuming fire - Notice Moses was labeled meeker than any other man. "The beauty of humility. It allows the bearer to stand in confidence in everything they are, while at the same time separating them from everything they are not. Humility causes those who love it to shine in brilliance. It breeds boldness and mercy, gentleness and strength, justice and loving kindness. Humility causes us to walk as those who know who we are; never second guessing, never over-stepping, always present in mind, heart, and body in the moments we were created to transform. Humility empowers. The very nature of humility is to rise in truth. Let's enter into the fullness of humility; love and cultivate it in our lives. The brilliance of God shines there." (Elisabeth Cooper)

Adar [II] is also the 13th month of the Hebrew calendar. Moses, who stood before the fire of the burning bush on Mt. Sinai and the pillar of fire died during the month of fire. His death led to the transition to Joshua and entering the promised land. That speaks volumes to what we are entering into as we get to the middle of the Gregorian calendar of March. March's well-known proverb means that March is a month in which you can experience a Lion's fierce roar of frigid cold, the long white teeth of biting winds that can cut through flesh, and the gentle softness, the warmth of fluffy white fleece, and the innocent kiss of sunshine like a docile newborn lamb.

Seems very true as we look at the spiritual transition right now. We must be vigilant to seek HIS perfect will so HE can align us. Humility will be a key factor in how much HE will bestow upon us. Ultimately, just like Moses, our heart will be tested, but stand firm as the rewards will be greater than anything else we face.

Welcome to Adar 5786, a season of great Joy in the midst of War!

Wade K. Buitler

Start of month of Adar on the Hebrew calendar

Adar for Hebrew Year 5786 begins at sundown on Wednesday, February 18, 2026 and ends at nightfall on Wednesday, March 18, 2026. It is the month Moses was born and died. It is the month of Esthers great challenge, Purim and so much more.

Purim

Purim is celebrated on the evening of the 13th, all day on the 14th, thru the 15th of Adar, marking the day the Jews celebrated their victory over Haman and his cohorts. Because the Jews of the walled city of Shushan fought against their enemies for an extra day, they observed Purim on the 15th of Adar. The rabbis decreed that all cities that were walled at the time of Joshua should observe Purim on the 15th as well. This rule is applied only to Jerusalem where "Shushan Purim" is observed on the 15th to this day.

The story of Purim is told in Esther. The Book of Esther is one of two books of the Bible to bear a woman's name. (The other is Ruth.) The Hebrew Bible is often referred to by Jews as the Tanach, after the initial letters of its three parts: Torah (Instruction), Nevi'im (Prophets), and Ketuvim (Writings).

Esther is found in Ketuvim.

Purim is one of the few Jewish holidays celebrating the talents, courage, and dedication of a woman. The story begins when Queen Vashti is banished for refusing to entertain the king's guests, and Esther is chosen in a beauty contest to be the new queen. Haman, the evil courtier, gets promoted to grand vizier, but Mordechai, Esther's uncle, refuses to bow down to him.

Haman decides to take revenge on Mordechai and on all the Jews. He convinces the foolish King Ahasuerus to call for the massacre of all the Jews throughout the kingdom. Purim means "lots" because Haman picked lots to decide precisely when to kill the Jews. Mordechai and Esther devise a plan to foil Haman's evil plot. Esther courageously approaches the king and invites him to a series of parties in Haman's honor. At the third party, Esther wines and dines the king, reveals that she is Jewish, and pleads for the life of her people. Haman is hanged, and the Jews are saved.

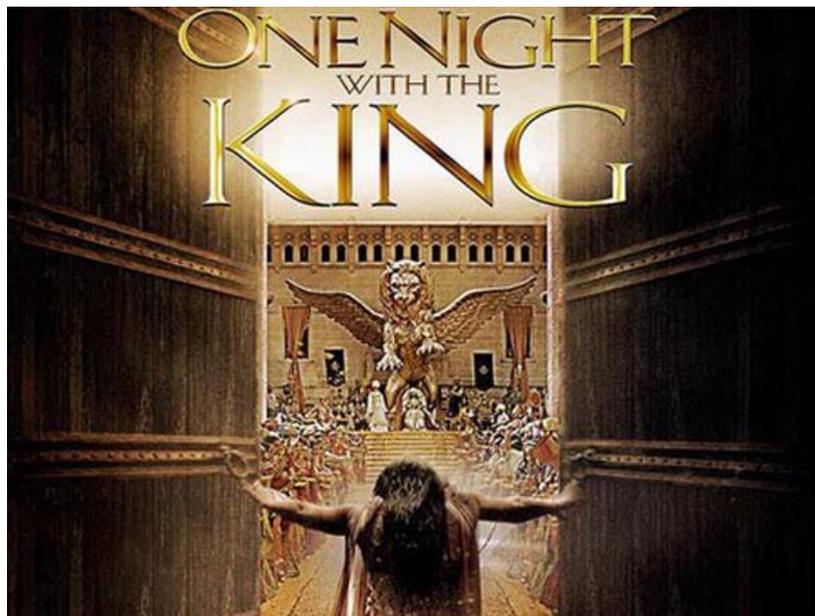

“Now Esther found favor in the eyes of all who saw her.” Esther 2:15

As we celebrate the season of the Queen who risks everything to save a nation, our LORD wants us to be joyful as we prepare our seeds for spring and till the ground for seedtime and harvest. Stay in alignment with the LORD and move into the season of blessing.

Fabulous Females

Queen Vashti and Queen Esther show tremendous bravery in the Purim story. We will honor them both in Adar.

Look for the movie “One night with the King” the story of Esther to be re-aired this month. Buy or rent it.

Excerpts From the OU Staff

The Fast of Esther

On the 13th of Adar the Fast of Esther is observed in commemoration of the Fast observed by Mordechai and Esther and all Israel. On that very day, the enemies of the Jews had planned to subjugate and destroy them. The opposite, however, occurred and the Jews ruled over their enemies. The practice of fasting was observed by the people of Israel whenever they were faced by war. Thus Moshe Rabenu also fasted when he came to wage war against Amalek. The aim of the fast was to affirm that a man does not prevail by physical or military strength, but only by lifting his eyes heavenward in prayer so that Divine Mercy might give him the strength to prevail in battle. This then was the purpose of the fast observed by Israel at the time of Haman, when they gathered to defend themselves against those who sought to destroy them. And in memory of that Fast, a yearly Fast was fixed for generations on the same day. We are to recall thereby that God accepts each person's prayer and penitence in the hour of his trouble.

The acceptance of this Fast of the 13th of Adar on the part of Israel for later generations is alluded to in the Scroll of Esther: 'And as they accepted upon themselves and upon their children, the matters of their fasting, and their cry' (Esther 9).

The Fast is called by the name of Esther because it was she who first requested the observance of a fast, of Mordechai: 'Go and gather all the Jews who are found in Shushan and fast over me, and do not eat and do not drink three days, night and day; and I and my maidens will also fast thus.' (ibid. 4)

The fast which we observe is nevertheless not observed for a three-day period, as was the case with the original Fast, nor is it observed on the same date. Originally, the Fast was observed by Esther and the entire people of Israel on the 14th, 15th, and 16th of Nisan, immediately after Mordechai was informed of Haman's decree and of the letter of annihilation which Haman wrote on the 13th of Nisan. Our Fast however, is observed on the 13th of Adar, in memory of the Fast observed by Israel on the day of their mobilization for war against the enemies. The Fast is nevertheless called by the name of Esther since it was she who first proposed its observance.

Others hold the view that even our Fast is also primarily a commemoration of the original three-day Fast observed by the Jews when the decree was announced. But since the Fast could not be permanently fixed for later years in its proper time (because fasting is not permitted during Nisan), the Sages therefore fixed it for the 13th of Adar – which was also a Fast day for the Jews, who then gathered to wage war against their enemies. And although the Fast of Esther is therefore a memorial to the original three days of fasting, the Rabbis were nevertheless lenient in fixing it for only one day.

In deference to this view, there are some who fast an additional three days; on Monday, Thursday and Monday after Purim. Others voluntarily fast the night as well as the day on the 13th of Adar, since the original three-day Fast was observed night and day.

Some Laws of the Fast of Esther

Since the Fast of Esther is not one of the four Fast days which are specifically mentioned in the Prophetic Writings, it is observed with greater leniency than the other Fast days. Pregnant women, nursing mothers, as well as others of generally weak health, (who would suffer by fasting) do not fast therein. The additional penitential prayers, and the Torah Reading, which are prescribed for the other Fast days are also required for the Fast of Esther.

If the 13th of Adar falls on Shabbat, the Fast is observed the preceding Thursday which is the eleventh of Adar. Because of Purim, the Fast is not postponed to the following day, nor is it observed Erev Shabbat: Since it is no longer observed in any event in its proper time, it was not fixed for Erev Shabbat, in deference to the honor of Shabbat. (A Fast whose prescribed date can fall on Erev Shabbat such as the 10th of Tevet, is neither postponed nor observed earlier, but it is observed on its fixed day). Tachanun is not said during Mincha of the Fast of Esther.

The Half-Shekel

On the 13th of Adar during Mincha, it is customary to give three halves of the coin which is the basis of the local currency. The money is given to the poor to do with it as they wish. This contribution is made in memory of the half-shekel given by Israel when the Beit Hamikdash still stood; and whose forthcoming collection was announced on Rosh Chodesh Adar.

This commemorative act is performed before the Reading of the Megillah, because all Israel gathers for the Megillah Reading in the Synagogues. It is proper to give the half-shekel before Minchah, since 'the diligent perform Mitzvot earlier.' Those who live in 'open-cities' give the half-shekel before the Megillah Reading on the night of the 14th, whereas the inhabitants of Yerushalayim give the half-shekel before their Reading of the Megillah – the night of the 15th.

In a place which has no coin that is designated a 'half' coin, it is customary for the gabaim to bring three halves of silver coins which are issued elsewhere, and to give these coins in exchange, to anyone who makes his contribution in the coins available to him. After performing the Mitzvah, he returns the three 'halves' to the gabaim, so that others might also be able to observe the custom properly.

Those who seek to observe Mitzvot with hidur (enhancement) give the half-shekel for each of the members of the household including minors, and in the case of an expectant mother, for the unborn child as well. Once a father has begun to give a half-shekel for a minor child, he is required to continue to do so each year.

The reason for the giving of three 'halves' is that the term trumah (contribution) is mentioned three times in the portion of Ki-Tisa, in the account of the Mitzvah of the half-shekel. The established practice is to consider the giving of the half-shekel as not freeing one from the Mitzvah of giving charity to the poor, which is specifically prescribed for Purim.

The Day of Nikanor

The 13th of Adar is also mentioned in the Talmud as the day on which vengeance was executed (during the time of the Hasmoneans) against a tyrant who oppressed the land of Yehudah cruelly and arrogantly blasphemed the city of God. The name of the tyrant was Nikanor, and he fell by the hand of Yehudah, the son of Matityahu, on the 13th of Adar, which was hence celebrated as a festive day.

Part 4: Ebionites - The Remnant of the Apostolic Kehilot

A Hebrew Perspective

by Rachel ben Joseph (Remy Koch)

edited by Reuven ben Joseph (Bob Koch) repeated from February 25, 2025

Adar 1, 5786: February 18, 2026

The information in this article is from third-party sources that can readily be validated; it is not the opinion of the author. This article is just a very skeletal overview of what scholars have historically called the "parting of the ways" between the original apostolic community of Nazarenes / Ebionites and the later authoritative Graeco-Roman (GR) Church. Much of this material may be unfamiliar to you; it is a multifaceted subject that most Christians don't know much about. However, it is central to gaining a historical understanding of the Hebrew roots of Christianity.

In the Book of Acts, James (Jacob), as bishop, issued the final judgment concerning requirements for Gentiles who were joining the Kehillot (Messianic Assemblies). They did not have to convert or be circumcised, but they were instructed to go the synagogues to hear the Torah of Moses, and abstain from foods sacrificed to idols (Rev 2:14, 20), etc. (Acts 15:22-30). The Ebionites, in line with the spirit of James' ruling and his NT Epistle, stated that since Yeshua and Moses preached essentially the same message, Gentile followers of Yeshua and Jewish followers of Moses should act as one body and fellowship together. Unfortunately, it didn't happen that way.

We know that Christian writers of the 2nd through 4th centuries connected the Ebionites with the descendants of the first apostolic congregation of Yeshua and James as his successor. Different sources document the Ebionites: the "Church Fathers" from Justin through Epiphanius; writings recovered from Arabic and Syriac manuscripts; and sections of the Pseudo-Clementines reflecting the older traditions.

Originally, early Christian writers sincerely wanted to uncover the teachings of the first apostolic church. But that gradually changed as GR viewpoints became dominant.

The church fathers present short summaries of their teachings and quotations from their writings, usually in order to confute what they considered to be heretical ideas. The Ebionites appear for the first time in Irenaeus' "Adversus Haereses," written around 180 CE. Epiphanius (wrote the) "Panarion" (ca. 386 CE). The Panarion also contains the richest ancient description of the Ebionites. Because Epiphanius was writing at the end of the fourth century, he was able to use all the information about the Ebionites collected by his predecessors (Irenaeus, Hippolytus, Tertullian, Pseudo-Tertullian, Origen, and Eusebius), which he supplemented with many details obtained from his contemporaries. practically all heresiologists (heresy hunters) from the second to the fourth century were more or less influenced by the Irenaeian tradition.¹ (Emphasis mine)

Main Theological Issues

Justin Martyr (100-165 CE) was one of the earliest witnesses to Ebionite doctrines. He writes in his creative "Dialogue with Trypho the Jew," Dial. 49:1:

(Trypho speaking) It appears to me that they who assert that he [Yeshua] was of human origin, and was anointed as the Messiah only by election, propose a doctrine much more credible than yours. We [Jews] all expect that the Messiah will be a man of merely human origin, and that Elijah will come to anoint him.

[Dial. 67.2] You Christians should be ashamed of yourselves... to repeat the same kind of stories [as the Greeks in their myths of virginal births]. and you should...

acknowledge this Yeshua to be a man of mere human origin. If you can prove from the Scriptures that he is the Messiah, confess that he was considered worthy to be chosen as such because of his perfect observance of the Law...

The Virgin Birth vs. Adoptionism: What Made Yeshua a Messiah? One of the most critical issues between the Ebionites and Gentile Christians was the GR Church's creed of the virgin birth. For the Church, it was this miraculous event which transformed Yeshua into a god-man born as the divine Son of God (consubstantiation).

Divine conception stories were well-known in the ancient pagan world. Addressing the Roman emperor and court philosophers in "First Apology 22", Justin Martyr pointed out that Yeshua's virgin birth should not be considered "extraordinary" vis-a-vis GR deities, including the myth of Perseus (and others like Adonis, Dionysus, Mithra, etc.)

"When we say, as before, that he was begotten by God as the Word of God in a unique manner beyond ordinary birth, this should be no strange thing for you who speak of Hermes as the announcing word from God. If we declare that he was born of a virgin, you should consider this something in common with Perseus."

Indeed, many scholars state that, at the time of several parallel pantheons of gods, a virgin birth was thought to be a prerequisite for divinity.

There is no doubt that in early Christianity a tension was perceived between the Davidic descent of Yeshua on the one hand, and his virginal conception by Mary on the other. The genealogies in Matthew and Luke both trace Yeshua's Davidic descent through Joseph, not Mary, and thereby only make the tension more acute. We can already observe in Ignatius an attempt to relieve the tension by making Mary also an offspring of David. But this "solution" to the problem only serves to emphasize that it was a very real one.² (Emphasis mine)

The Hellenist Gentiles could not read the Tanakh in the original Hebrew, so they only used the Greek text (the Septuagint). The NT used by Christians was also written in the lingua franca of Koine Greek. When the Gospel of Matthew quotes Isaiah 7:14, it uses the Septuagint term "parthenos" commonly understood as "virgin." This term differs from the early Hebrew Dead Sea Scrolls biblical text (c. 200 BCE) also reflected in the Masoretic Hebrew Tanakh; they both use the word "almah," properly translated as "young woman". This significant difference in meaning sparked an irreconcilable controversy. For the Gentile Christians, the Septuagint Isaiah passage was brought forward to provide prophetic proof for Yeshua's virgin birth.

² Oskar Skarsaune and Redar Hvalvik, editors, Jewish Believers in Yeshua – The Early Centuries, (Hendrickson Publishers, Peabody MA 2007) p. 411

Irenaeus (120-202 CE of Lyon) was the earliest extant Gentile Christian heresiologist. Called the "Father of Catholic Orthodoxy", he wrote a voluminous, foundational work called "Adversus Haereses" c.180, gathering much material about Ebionites. He stated that the Ebionites declared Yeshua was the Messiah based on his Davidic line of descent from Joseph and his anointing at baptism, rejecting the virgin birth story. They maintained that the word "alma" is translated as "young woman" in Isa 7:14 and explicitly identified Joseph as Yeshua' father (Haer. 3.21.1). Ebionites asserted that, according to the Tanakh, Israelite kingship must always descend through the male line. They said that Yeshua was anointed as the "adopted son" of God at his baptism when God's Spirit descended upon him. Irenaeus excoriated them for this doctrine.

"Vain are also the Ebionites who do not receive by faith into their soul the union of God and man but remain in the old leaven of (human) generatio; and who do not wish to understand that the Holy Spirit came in Mary...therefore also what was generated [generatum] is. the Son of the Highest God. who wrought his incarnation and displayed a new generation [novam ostendit generationem]; that as by the former generation we inherited death, so by this generation we might inherit life. Therefore, do these men reject the commixture of the heavenly wine and wish it to be water of the world only, not receiving God so as to have union with him..." (Irenaeus Adv. Haer. 5.1.3)

This paraphrase, combining ideas in John 1:13 and Luke 1:35, clearly transposes the role of the Spirit from Yeshua' baptism to his birth. It was then that the Spirit played a decisive role, therefore the son of Mary was Son of God from his birth, not from his baptism. For Irenaeus, the ideas of virginal conception/birth and divine pre-existence and subsequent incarnation belong inseparably together. the essential catchword. is generation. origin, birth, descent, ancestry, parentage, and genealogy. The Ebionites want a human-only ancestry of the Messiah; they fail to recognize the necessity of the Messiah's divine ancestry.³ (Emphasis mine)

Eusebius (260-339 CE) lived in Caesaria and wrote "Ecclesiastical History" in 325 CE. He apparently had more contact with Ebionites in what was Palestine at that time. He verifies the Ebionite teachings regarding Yeshua's humanity as recorded by Irenaeus.

For they considered him a plain and common man, who was justified only because of his superior virtue, and who was the fruit of the intercourse of a man with Mary. In their opinion, the observance of the ceremonial law was altogether necessary, on the ground that they could not be saved by faith in Christ alone and by a corresponding (law-free) life. "Book 3. Ch 27" (Emphasis mine)

The Hebrew "Adoptionist" view reflects a long traditional precedent of the spirit of God descending upon prophets. A prophetic anointing happened by the descent of God's spirit upon Yeshua at his baptism by his cousin John, whose role was more pivotal than disclosed in the NT. At that time, Yeshua was "adopted" as YHWH's son and anointed for a special purpose (see Isa 42:1; PS 2:7; and especially Romans 9:4 where Paul speaks: "who are Israelites, whose is the divine adoption as sons.").

It is interesting to note that the Gospel of Matthew [ed. note: not the canonical Matthew], the only gospel used by the Ebionites according to Irenaeus, is the one gospel that most emphatically casts John the Baptist in the role of the prophet-like-Elijah, Matt 11:14; 17:12 (cf. Mark 9:13; Matthew adds: "and they did not recognize him"). It is also interesting to note that Justin seems to know a tradition that portrays the Baptist as the prophet-like-Elijah who anoints Yeshua to be the Messiah, according to the prophecy in Isa 11:2-3 (Justin himself does not think in these terms about Yeshua's baptism by John) (Dial. 49-54 and 87-88).⁴

Yeshua was chosen to be the Messiah based on his perfect following of what is called "keter Torah", the higher or authentic uncorrupted Torah given by Elohim to Moses. Recall Yeshua's NT reproof of the Pharisees for their "traditions of men", declaring their extra-biblical rules equal in force and sanctity to the actual Law of Moses.

As the Righteous One (saddiq), the only man who has completely fulfilled the law, Yeshua has been appointed to be the Christ (Hippolytus, Origen, Epiphanius). Yeshua fulfilled the law as man, not as Son of God (huios theou) but as Son of man (huios anthropou). He was consecrated for Messiah-ship and endowed with the power of God not through real pre-existence but through the act of adoption which was announced in Psalm 2:7 and which occurred at the time of his baptism, i.e., through the Holy Spirit present in the water of the baptismal bath. This "adoptionism" - in (Clementines) Recognitions 1.48 it is said that Yeshua is he qui in aquis baptismi filius a deo appellatus est ("who in the waters of baptism was called Son by God") - developed from ideas current in the primitive church. Consequently, the Clementines know no other Christology than the adoptionism of the appellation ("calling") to divine sonship of the one who was born as a man.⁵ (Emphasis mine)

John the Baptist and Yeshua baptized people with water for remission of their sins after they had sincerely repented and turned back to following "The Way" of Torah. (ref. Mark 1:4, Luke 3:3, Matt 3:6 and John 4:1.) Therefore the Ebionites continued the teachings of the Patriarchs that it was this water baptism symbolizing the return in obedience to God that replaced the pagan-inspired sacrificial system.

Salvation and Atonement: Blood of Christ or Torah? As we know, Paul writes: "For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed" (1 Cor 5:7). Justification for Gentile Christians came through Yeshua's blood on the cross, "by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Yeshua, whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood" (Rom 3:24-25). For Paul and the GR Church, it was the belief in the sacrificial death and blood of Christ alone that provided forgiveness of sins.

Jewish Christianity clearly knows as little of a supernatural birth as of a soteriological interpretation of Yeshua's death on the cross, such as the view which regarded Yeshua as a vicarious atoning sacrifice. Since they rejected bloody sacrifices altogether as crass paganism, the Ebionite Yeshua can neither have taught this nor by his death have put his seal on it - in contrast with the tradition of the primitive church preserved in I Corinthians 15:3. they celebrated the Lord's Supper as a mere remembrance of table-fellowship with Yeshua and replaced the cup of blood with a cup of water (according to Irenaeus and Epiphanius).⁶

Epiphanius makes a startling statement about Yeshua's admonition regarding the sacrificial system as preserved by Ebionites in their gospel that he personally read.

They say that Yeshua was begotten of human seed, and chosen, and thus called by election, Son of God, Christ having come upon him from on high in the form of a dove. He came into the world and he taught, as it is written in their gospel: I have come into the world to destroy sacrifices, and if you do not give up sacrificing, the anger of God shall not cease (Panarion XXX, 16).⁷ (Emphasis mine)

There are several references regarding Yeshua's destruction of the sacrificial system in the Clementines and the Church Father's quotations from their gospel(s).

The reason the Ebionites were bound to reject emphatically the Pauline soteriology, which conceived of Yeshua's death as a bloody, atoning sacrifice, becomes even clearer. In their view, Christianity had been freed from the Jewish sacrificial worship not through the universally efficacious sacrifice of the Son of God, as the church which followed Paul believed, but rather through the water of baptism whereby Yeshua had extinguished the fire of the sacrificial cult.

Concerning the genesis of this Ebionite antipathy toward sacrifices. in Yeshua' day there was probably still a hazy recollection that the sacrificial legislation was the product of Josiah's reform and of the exilic age and had been inserted into the Mosaic legislation for the first time under Ezra. This is supported by the statements of the Kerygmata Petrou and the note of Epiphanius which affirm that according to Ebionite belief, Moses received a Pentateuch different from the present one; the latter, written a thousand years after Moses, has been falsified.

According to (Pseudo-Clementines) Recognitions 1.35 ff., the real point of Yeshua' mission is the annulling of the sacrificial law combined with complete loyalty to and affirmation of the rest of the Mosaic law. Animal sacrifice, it is claimed, was permitted on a temporary basis by Moses only because of the people's hardness of heart; Yeshua abolished it and replaced the blood of sacrificial animals with the water of baptism. Thus, the logion of Matthew 5:17 reads in the Gospel of the Ebionites. "I have come to annul sacrifice, and if you will not cease to sacrifice the wrath will not turn from you."

They understood] Yeshua' policy of not changing anything in the law as not covering the regulations concerning bloody animal sacrifice. Heaven and earth - so reads Homilies 3.52 on the basis of the "Judaistic" statement of Matthew 5:18 - have not passed away, but the sacrifices, the monarchy. and all such things which have not belonged to the divine law and consequently have proved false, have passed away in the catastrophe of A.D. 70.⁸ (Emphasis mine)

Epiphanius records quotations from their own gospels which are quite different from the NT canons. In Panarion 30.15.1, he states that the Ebionites used "Clement's so-called Circuits of Peter" (Periodoi Petrou) "though they corrupt the contents and leave a few genuine items." They also read the "Ascents of James" (Anabathmoi Iakobou) which he describes as "full of nonsense".

Scholars connect these writings to lost material that underlie the extant Pseudo-Clementine Recognitions and Homilies. But one section, Rec. 1.33 to 1.71, clearly incorporates a more ancient, distinctive source. How so? Because the theology of this section differs significantly from the Clementine writings as a whole, which were copied and edited circa the late third century. Finally, after much debate, most researchers now acknowledge this section is dependent on the Ebionite "Ascents of James".

The report of Epiphanius. furnishes us with enough evidence to relate our source to the Ascents of James he describes. In his Panarion, the last (c. 377) and most comprehensive of all early Christian heresiologies, Epiphanius devoted a long chapter to the Ebionites. As the text of Pan. 30.16.6-9 is important for comparison to R 1.33-71; it would be well to reproduce it here.

"(16.6) They call other works 'Acts of the Apostles,' in which there are many things full of impiety, from which they arm themselves in no cursory fashion against the truth. (7) Indeed, they adopt certain ascents and interpretations in the Anabathmoi Iakobou [[Ascents of James]], as speaking out against both the temple and the sacrifices, and against the fire which is on the altar, and many other things full of foolish talk; (8) and also in that work they are not ashamed with trumped up charges of evil-doing and deceit made by their false apostles accusing Paul of being a Tarsian [ed. note: not born Jewish as he claimed] (9). and that he wrote against circumcision, and against sabbath and the Mosaic law."⁹

Why were sacrifices allowed if this system was not commanded by God at Mt. Sinai?

In the Pseudo-Clementine Recognitions. Israel had learned to sacrifice to idols in Egypt (36.1). As a concession to Israel's weakness, Moses permitted sacrifices "to God alone" (36.1, Latin) until Israel should learn from the promised prophet like Moses (i.e., Yeshua) that God desires mercy and not sacrifice (37.2)...: "Whenever they observed the law without sacrifices, they were restored (to the land) and ransomed . . . Whenever they. returned to their place (i.e., the land) and offered sacrifices, they were thrust out and were cast forth from it, so that they might cease sacrificing forever" (37.4). The prophet like Moses instructed Israel to cease sacrifices, and lest they conclude that forgiveness of sins would no longer be possible, he instituted baptism by water (39.2).¹⁰

So, according to the Ebionites, part of Yeshua's mission was to show the people how to connect with the spirit of YHWH by walking in "The Way" of righteousness and justice as delineated by the Decalogue of the Torah and spoken of extensively in the DSS. Recognitions 1.39.1-2 states:

"[The prophet like Moses] would first of all admonish them. to cease with sacrifices. Lest they think that with the ceasing of the sacrifices remission of sins could not be affected for them, [he] instituted for them baptism by water, in which they might be absolved from all sins through the invocation of his name... [so that] henceforth following a perfect life they might remain in immortality, purified not through the blood of animals but through the purification of God's wisdom."

The Tanakh contains evidence that the sacrifices were not commanded by YHWH.

For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them on the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices. (Jer 7:22)

For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgement of God rather than burnt offerings. (Hos. 6:6)

The multitude of your sacrifices—what are they to me?' says YHWH. 'I have more than enough of burnt offerings, of rams and the fat of fattened animals; I have no pleasure in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats' (Isa 1:11).

Sacrifice and meal offering You do not desire, nor do You delight in them; You have opened my ears and given me the capacity to hear [and obey Your word]; Burnt offerings and sin offerings You do not require. (Ps 40:6 amplified)

With what shall I come before YHWH and bow down before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God. (Mic 6:6, 8).

When Moses recounted the Ten Sayings God spoke to Israel, he also reminded them:

"These words the YHWH spoke to all your assembly at the mountain out of the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and he added no more. And he wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me." (Deut 5:22)

Intriguingly, a scroll of the book of Deuteronomy looking very much like the Dead Sea Scrolls was discovered in 1880 just east of the Jordan River opposite Qumran. Scholars are calling it "The Moses Scroll" or the "Valediction of Moses". It was written in paleo Hebrew dated to c. 950 BCE and was different in several ways from our current Masoretic version: the complete blessings and curses were written, but no sacrifices or other legal tenets were commanded. Could this be the original scroll that existed before the exilic insertion of the sacrificial cult under Ezra of which the Ebionites spoke?

An Urgent Dream: Trump, Thin Ice and the Demonic Threefold Cord!

Pay Attention Watchmen!

I know I have inundated you all with Prophetic Posts in recent days, but I want to bring this Specific Post back to the fore — especially given the 'ICE-STORM' and all that is unfolding on the Global Chessboard.

This Dream, I believe, is highly significant in this Hour, and it speaks to many things that are taking place and with great Acceleration.

God is never random! God always speaks ahead of time.

Prophetic Dreams and Visions carry multiple levels and layers of Revelation and often times we do not fully Comprehend or Understand what God is saying until the moment meets its manifestation!

I submit there is a Divine Convergence of Prophetic Revelation coming together in this Hour, and so we need to Heed, Wait, Watch and Pray without ceasing!

Please read this Dream carefully and prayerfully in light of the Prophetic Warnings that God is releasing,.

An Urgent Dream: Trump, Thin Ice and the Demonic Threefold Cord!

So, I had a powerful and deeply sobering Dream on the November 1, 2025, which I am led to share with you today.

In this Dream, I saw President Trump walking on extremely thin Ice.

Beneath him was a dark, deep, and freezing River that looked treacherous beneath the ice, even deadly if one were to fall through!

As I watched him take each step in the Dream, in certain places the ice seemed to crack, and I kept hearing the sound of the Ice groaning beneath his feet as he walked.

It was clear that his path was dangerously fragile and that any wrong step could be catastrophic.

I could see in the Dream that the path ahead of him was long and seemed uncertain, and yet I sensed in the Dream that he had only just begun this long journey — and I saw that the Ice was growing thinner the farther he went!

I knew by Revelation that what I was seeing was Prophetically Symbolic of the increasing Instability, fragility and danger surrounding his Presidency — especially concerning his dealings with the Nation of Israel and with the Middle East.

There was a strong and growing Prophetic Urgency in the Dream, an Urgent Call to Pray for his Divine Protection, and for Wisdom in how he navigates political matters concerning the Nation of Israel and the Middle East.

The entire spiritual atmosphere in the Dream was weighty with The Fear of The LORD — heavy, weighty and Holy!

Then I saw something strange and which I submit is deeply significant. I saw a Gold Mantle that rested upon President Trump's shoulders!

The Gold Mantle was visibly heavy, and seemed almost unbearable to carry in appearance, and yet miraculously, the Magnitude of the Mantle did not crush him.

And I could see that the Mantle carried the weight of God's Anointing and Glory upon it, and yet he bore it with such an ease.

What I saw was clearly Supernatural and Divine and a Supernatural Strength and Power enabled him to carry the weight of the Mantle.

Now, as I continued to watch, suddenly his appearance began to change, and It was as though I was looking at Samson in the Dream.

My eyes were drawn to the hair on Trump's head, which suddenly became radiant, glistening with light and his countenance was like that of a King! He was of a Royal Lineage and Chosen of God, and I could feel a deep and tangible sense of Kingdom Destiny and Divine Empowerment that rested upon him.

But then suddenly, the Dream shifts again, and before me appeared a powerful Prophetic Parallel of Samson and Delilah.

As I looked at Delilah, I knew she represented a Philistine Spirit rising in the midst, and immediately, I understood by the Spirit of Revelation that this was symbolic of Palestine (and spoke to the Middle East).

I saw this spirit was rising up and trying to woo President Trump, a seducing influence from the same ancient Enemy that sought to undermine Samson's Authority, Anointing and Strength had now locked its gaze upon President Trump.

Then suddenly, the Dream shifts slightly and I saw in the Spirit Realm a threefold demonic cord forming, a strategic Satanic alliance between Jezebel, Delilah and Anthelia. Three demonic Powers and Ruling Ancient Principalities were coming together with one Agenda over the Nation — to entice and entrap President Trump into a Web of Deception!

I saw the demonic plan being carefully woven behind closed doors. Its purpose was to draw President Trump into compromise, to get him to lay his head upon Delilah's lap as Samson did, that she might sing him a lullaby, that he may fall into a deep spiritual slumber!

I was given understanding that the goal of this powerful demonic alliance was the same as it was with Samson — to get him to reveal his secrets, to weaken the anointing upon his life, and to cut off the source of his Strength and Power!

But ultimately, it was to bring President Trump under demonic submission and into a place of captivity and humiliation before the eyes of all Nations.

In the Dream, I saw that the enemy's ultimate objective was to cause him to abdicate his position prematurely, to bring confusion, exhaustion, distraction and even Civil War to a Nation.

The Enemy was moving in the midst to wear him down, until he could no longer discern clearly.

Listen! If Satan's plan is successful, it will strip Trump of Spiritual Sight and all Authority and Anointing, leaving him dangerously vulnerable and powerless to those waiting to ultimately destroy him and his legacy.

But as I stood watching this demonic plot unfolding in the Dream, I heard The Spirit say, "Daughter! Tell My Remnant to pray without ceasing for him, for the Battle over this Presidency is fierce and will only intensify in the days ahead!

I say, Watch and Pray that he does not grow weary — that he does not succumb to the demonic temptations of the Ancient Philistine Spirit — that he does not given ear nor listen to the rising Voices of Seduction that come disguised as false peace and Prosperity for The Nations!

Pray fervently and without ceasing, that he walks circumspectly and humbly before Me at all times, for I tell you, the frozen ice beneath his feet is thin and will only get thinner and more treacherous as the seasons shift and change, and as the heat of the sun beats down upon the Nations, and as the Winnowing Winds of My Spirit blow forth upon the Threshing Floor.

Daughter, keep Watch and Praying! Fear not — for My Righteous Right Hand is upon him and My Spirit of Might will strengthen him, and My Glory will uphold him if he walks in Obedience to My Word!"

As I came out of the Dream, I began to Pray as The LORD impressed strongly upon my heart that we have entered into a Critical Hour — an Hour of Great Danger and Urgency for President Trump, his family and his Administration!

The Mantle that Rests upon President Trump is not merely Political — but it is profoundly Spiritual. It is powerfully Prophetic and impacts Nations.

President Trump's decisions concerning the Nation of Israel will either continue to align the Nation of America with Divine Blessing, Protection and Divine Preservation — or bring it under a spiritual curse that will usher in global conflict — and a World War!

The weight President Trump carries is for Kingdom Reformation and the Kingdom Destiny of Nations, and the intense Warfare coming against him that will only increase, is demonically designed and carefully orchestrated by the enemy to dismantle and destroy both the End-Time Assignment Trump carries, and to affect the timing and Emergence of the Antichrist and the great Incoming Harvest!

NATE & CHRISTY

We are Returning

So far in 2026, there has been an overwhelming demonic agenda against the body of Christ. This agenda has been a mixture of hopelessness and despair, almost like a deep heaviness, that your world is crumbling down, and it's partially right, but let me explain.

You see, we are, right now, in a time of shaking, personally and corporately as the body of Christ, because shaking always precedes the glory.

But when things are falling apart, that's a normal part of God bringing the Church out of bondage, sickness, decay, out of tolerating the wrong spirits, out of the old wineskin, and out of where we've been compromised and apathetic, so that we can actually be the pure and spotless Bride that we're called to be.

Right now, we're seeing the Lord confronting things personally in our lives, which has been happening for many years in the Church.

So many of us have been in a long and painful Malachi 3:3 season, where it's like the Lord has been refining us making us as pure as gold and silver behind closed doors, but there comes another level, when that fire and that intensity has to increase, because the Lord is wanting to know if we are trustworthy to carry what He's about to pour out.

Because if we are still tethered to the old thing, we're not going to be able to step into the new thing that God wants to pour out. So this has been a season where the Lord has been testing our hearts and revealing what's underneath.

THE SEASON OF THE REVEALING OF IDOLS

He's been showing us the idols that we've been tolerating in our own lives and mindsets that have ruled us. He's been asking, "Who do you serve? Do you serve Me, or do you serve other gods? Do you serve your own agenda, or do you serve My will and plan for your life?"

So, if you've been through that season, you're in the right place, and God is about to do amazing things. But the agenda of the enemy has been to make you feel like everything is falling apart and everything is ending, which couldn't be further from the truth.

I keep hearing what I believe many must be saying right now, "I am at the end of my road. My greatest days are done."

And the reason why we're feeling that is that the very things we've been attached to: movements, ministries, denominations, and empires, have been shaken and crumbling down because we've built our lives around them instead of, in some ways, around Jesus.

And so God has needed us to enter into this space of loss, because He wants us to recognize where we've built foundations around the wrong thing!

But the lingering mindset is, "I've come to the end of the road. I don't have a future. I'm retiring," but I keep hearing the Lord say, "You're not retiring. You're in a season of returning."

Let me say that again - you are not retiring, you're in a season of returning.

THE FULL CIRCLE SEASON

And it was interesting because last week Christy was talking to me about the timing of right now. Ten years ago, in early 2016, Christy and I were at this impasse in our lives. We'd been a few years into a wilderness where we had been shut out from all community, blacklisted in our cities for simply stepping into our prophetic calling. And the Lord was really impressing upon our hearts to step into ministry, and we were fighting it for a little bit because it was painful.

And one day the Lord said to me, "Open up to Psalm 2."

As I did, I found the scripture that says, "Ask, and I'll give you the nations as an inheritance." "I remember weeping on the floor of my study that day and saying, "Lord, give me the nation of America."

You see, we lived in America in 2009 and 2010. And when we left, we grieved leaving, because we felt like it was an assignment left unfinished. I know many people probably feel like that right now. They're like, I feel like so many things have come to an end. So many things have died. So many things have fallen to the ground.

I remember working a government job at the time, and the Lord was asking us to come out to America as a faith step. We didn't know what we were coming for, and we didn't have the money for it.

And we asked the Lord if we were going to this event we heard about by Lou Engle called The Call: Azusa Now. And miraculously, at the last minute, we had two friends reach out and give us the money we needed to fly to America and get accommodation.

It was there at Azusa Now that the Lord told us to birth the ministry He'd given us. We'd already been teaching, equipping, and sharing online, and seeing God move in miraculous ways in a short period of time, but in the midst of so much turmoil, He asked something of us that made no sense.

You see, we were pressed on every side. People were calling us crazy. What we didn't realize at the time was that it was exactly six years to the day that we had left America, and it was our tenth wedding anniversary as well.

We had entered into the deepest season of wrestling. A season of battling so many mindsets and warring in faith. It felt like things were falling apart. It was the deepest wrestling year we'd ever felt, because we were wrestling to step into who we were truly called to be.

And I want to say this before I move on any further: I believe many are in that season right now.

Why? Because we, as a Church, are in between wineskins.

This was a full-circle moment for us personally, but the Church right now is experiencing the old fabric tearing away from the new. And when you're in that season, you're not going to feel like things are steady. You're not going to feel like things are coming together. It will feel, for a while, like things are falling apart.

And at a global level, it looks like the Church is falling apart right now. But really, God is putting the Church back together.

It's a retiring of an old wineskin, but it's not you retiring.

It's the death of the old manna and the old wineskin running out, but you are returning, because we, as the Church, are returning to what the Church of Acts was like again.

WE ARE COMING BACK TO WHAT MATTERS

We are returning. back to our original purpose.

Back to before we were distracted. Back to before we were taken off course by religion and the constant allure of the latest curiosity.

Back to before we fell into the constant drama of soulish swirls and cultural deception.

Back to before we started making golden calves and letting principalities influence our churches and homes.

Back to before we started building empires unto ourselves and using the name of Jesus to push our own agendas.

Back to before we put on Saul's armor and stopped fighting the giants in our land.

Back to before we traded confrontation for comfort.

Back to family. Back to legacy. Back to health.

Back to the great commission of God's power moving through us to heal, deliver, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, disciple people, and send out the Church.

Back to JESUS with nothing added.

And OUT OF EVERYTHING ELSE.

Right now, the conviction has never felt deeper.

So, if you are being stripped back to bare bones and God is asking you to give Him everything in your hands, you are on the right track.

We're returning to all the things that actually matter.

We're returning to the power of the Gospel.

We're returning to Jesus, and coming out from under our false gods and idols, and removing Jezebel from our table.

God is bringing us back to simply Him again, and that's been the tearing. That's been the warfare. That's been the battle in your mind. That's why the enemy has been trying to come at you with defeat and torment, to rob you of this moment of stepping over this ravine, over this impasse, and into your greatest days.

So, let me keep prophesying for a moment.

IT WILL BE DIFFERENT

But know it will be a different kind of building.

The Lord said to me that in this season, it's going to be a building season, like a Nehemiah moment, where God is actually rebuilding you from the ground up. But that building season is not going to look like a building season at first.

It's going to look like an "at His feet" season, where you're guarding your anointing, guarding your dreams, and not casting your pearls anymore.

It's going to be a moment like Nehemiah, where they were able to rebuild the walls while guarding themselves from slander, accusation, and all the external warfare trying to sabotage the building.

So I want to suggest to you that this is going to be a year where you have to stay focused.

And how do you do that?

You stay at the feet of Jesus. You stay in the secret place. You get back your flame, your prayer life, and all of those things.

And secondly, we can't build as we did in the past. It has to be GOD that builds the house, not man. We have to lay down our love for celebrity Christianity culture that always attracts wolves.

PROTECT YOUR FOUNDATIONS

I had some dreams in the last week where the Lord was showing me foundations being rebuilt.

In the first dream, I was looking at this fresh slab that had just been laid, and all these people were trying to put bricks on it. They meant well; they were trying to help. And I said, "Stop!" I knew it was the Lord telling me to ask them to leave. Christy and I had to sit there and build our foundation ourselves; it was just us and the Lord.

I believe this dream is speaking to all of us right now. It feels like we're in a fresh slab season, a foundation-being-laid season, and it looks like we're completely bare.

And if we allow everybody and everything else to come in and influence how we build, it's going to result in building the foundation wrong.

So the warning in this season is to be so very careful about who and what influences you in this foundation season, where God is rebuilding you in a new era and a new chapter.

COME OUT FROM HER!

And the second thing I saw in the dream was a transition from the foundation scene to suddenly seeing people I know asleep. And I looked, and there was this dark figure lying in bed with them.

I said, "Lord, what is this?"

And He said, "It's the wrong spirit. Some of My people are in bed with the wrong spirit. I need them to wake up, get out of their sleep, and kick this spirit out of their bed."

I kept hearing the word 'embed,' like 'EMBEDDED.' A deeply ingrained thing.

And the Lord said, "Fasting and prayer are going to evict this spirit from My Church, where people are in allegiance with generational curses and deeply ingrained demonic patterns. They're wondering why they're experiencing warfare, robbery, and defeat over and over again. It's because they've been embedded into that paradigm."

This is a Revelation 18:4 moment, where the Lord is saying, "Come out from her, so you do not share in her sins or her plagues."

As we do, there's going to be a fresh joy, a release, and a deliverance as we untangle from these things.

This is happening on a personal level and on a global level in the Church right now.

We're coming out of the religious system. We're coming out from the Queen of Heaven's rule and reign over our families and churches, which has brought sickness, moral failure, and decay, and made the Church a laughingstock, when we are meant to be the pure and spotless Bride.

THE RETURNING WILL RESTORE THE BURNING

And lastly, I heard the Lord say, "The returning will restore the burning."

Let me say that again - the returning will restore the burning.

So many people's love has grown cold in this hour. Many have fallen into selfish ambition, following their own gods and desires.

And the Lord says, "As people return to Me, fully surrendered, I will give them back the burning."

God is restoring the burning ones in this hour.

Maybe reading this gives you hope—but it's also confrontational. I believe it's a moment where the Lord is saying:

"Will you say yes to the returning? Will you repent for resisting and leaning into the returning? Will you surrender your idols and your gods?"

Haven't you tried things your own way long enough? And they're not working, right?

Constant robbery. Constant defeat. Constant warfare in your mind. A sick soul.

The Lord is saying, "Aren't you tired of that? Return to Me with all of your heart, and I will restore you."

This is what the Lord is decreeing over the Church. So, no, you're not retiring. You are returning! And you're getting your fire back in Jesus' name.

Alane Haynes: The Lord Is Asking, "What Do You See?"
It's Time to Shift!

Spiritual Sight Is Increasing: Jeremiah 1:9–12

There has been a shift this month; spiritual sight is increasing. Increased spiritual sight almost always starts with shifting of perception, a lifting of the veil of unbelief. On January 9, the Spirit of the Lord began to speak to me about Jeremiah 1:9–12.

I believe this section of Scripture speaks of foundational apostolic truths and prophetic realities. He led me into deeper revelation that I believe is a calling for many. By the Spirit of the Lord in you, may you perceive correctly that what God speaks is already done in the eternal realm; engage your whole being to believe that He will fulfill it here and you will see correctly! Through perceiving it by the Spirit of God as completed, faith comes forth!

"Then the LORD put forth His hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put My words in thy mouth.

"See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

"Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

"Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast' well seen for I will hasten My word to perform it." (Jeremiah 1:9–12 KJV)

New Commissionings

God told Jeremiah "Behold, I have put My words in your mouth" and commissioned him in his assignment. Although Jeremiah heard God's voice, the Lord said to behold, or see! God's words are words of authority; He is the Creator of all things, the one who inhabits eternity yet dwells within us, the one who sits on the throne over all that is created, the King of all kings and Lord of all lords, the beginning and the end. He set Jeremiah (and, through Christ, you and me) over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, pull down, destroy and throw down, then to build and to plant.

In the first part of the chapter, God told Jeremiah that before he was formed in the womb, God knew him and ordained him as a prophet to the nations, that He was sending him and that he was not to fear, for He was with him. Jesus has commissioned us to go as well, assuring us He is with us always (Matthew 28:16–20). And the word of God tells us that the works we are to walk in were created in Christ Jesus and ordained for us before the world was formed (Ephesians 2:10)! The Holy Spirit will give us the words to root out, pull down, destroy, throw down, and to build and to plant. I sense, as part of this shift, and as your spiritual sight increases, many will be commissioned into new assignments and new territories!

Let the Word of God Root Deeply

We must tear down, first and foremost, everything in us that does not believe what God says to us and what He says in His word before the planting of the new thing can happen! (Photo via StockCake)

I garden, and I know you have to dig up a plant, including the deep roots, before you can put another in its place! If you leave any roots, it will grow again! Let the word of God go deep!

Jesus is the Word of God (John 1:1, 14), and He states in Revelation 22:16, "I am the root and the offspring of David," the root and the fruit. Let His word take root in us and bear fruit so that we can become tangible evidence of Him! If we don't do that, we will have no true authority in other arenas! It is His word and His authority!

What Do You See?

What did God say next in Jeremiah 1:10, after telling Jeremiah He had put His words in his mouth and told him his assignment? "Jeremiah, what do you see?" This was a test! What you see when God tells you something that takes you out of your comfort zone—that is outside your religious box, that is not understandable to the natural mind or your present situation—reveals much. Our perception, how we see and perceive what we see, is sometimes colored by deeply held beliefs about ourselves, life, and God.

Jeremiah 17:5–8 describes the difference between the perception of one who trusts in the world and man's ways and the one who trusts in God, even though they may not understand His ways. The one who trusts in man will not "see" good when it arrives, and will be in a barren land. The one who trusts in God will not "see" drought when it arrives, and will continue to be fruitful during the drought! Different perceptions of what we see make a huge difference in our experience and outcome!

Jeremiah responded to God's question, "Jeremiah, what do you see," by saying, "I see the rod of an almond tree." God replied, "You have seen well, for I am ready to perform My word." The word "ready" in other translations is "hasten." The Holy Spirit reminded me of Amos 9:13, a "hastening time" when the plowman overtakes the reaper. This speaks of a time when we will be plowing new ground while reaping the harvest for other plantings that have been done in the past. We see things moving rapidly in the world systems, but it is happening in the Kingdom of God also! Shift your perception to see what God is doing!

Significance of the Almond Rod: God's Authority Given to Us

The significance of the almond rod (branch) is found in Numbers chapter 17. In Numbers chapter 16, it is recorded that there had been a rebellion in the camp of the Israelites, as a group of men were not satisfied with the role God had given them. They wanted to be priests, even though the priesthood was assigned by God to Aaron and his lineage. God's hand struck them dead in a strong supernatural event, and afterwards many others murmured about it.

In Numbers chapter 17, God told Moses to have the leaders of the twelve tribes each take a rod, put their names on it, and put it in the tabernacle, and He would show the one He had chosen by the budding that would come forth.

Not only did Aaron's rod bud, but it also blossomed and brought forth almonds—the full cycle of life in one day! This was amazing, astonishing, and clearly a supernatural work. (Photo via Needpix)

"And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds." (Numbers 17:8 KJV)

By the rod, God showed who was given authority. Moses' staff was a rod, representing authority given by God, and it was used in many signs and wonders. It was turned into a snake then back to a rod again. It was used to part the Red Sea. It was used to bring water from the rock, and then used a second time at the rock, when God told Moses to take the rod (representing authority) and to speak to the rock (instead of striking it), so it would bring forth His water! Jesus is the Living Water, and when we submit and allow Him to flow through us, He is seen!

Eyes to See: God Watches Over His Word to Perform It

For me, the biggest revelation that is timely for now is when God said afterward to Jeremiah, "You have seen well, for I will hasten My word to perform it." The fullness of the word (the completed cycle)—as seen in the prophetic significance of the almond branch that budded, blossomed, and brought forth the almond fruit—is what Jeremiah saw. God confirmed it, and it would come forth.

God said He was ready (hastening) to perform His word. The word "ready," or "hasten," in Hebrew is the word "shaqad." It means "watching," "wake," "hasten," "vigilance," "to be alert, i.e. sleepless," "hence to be on the lookout." It is used twelve times in Scripture (the number twelve is associated with apostolic government).

Significantly, the phrase "of an almond tree" in Hebrew is the word "shaqed," which is closely related to "shaqad." In Hebraic thought, the almond tree is considered the "early waker," because it is one of the first trees to blossom in the spring, with the flowers appearing before the leaves! Some Hebrew scholars say this signifies being alert to the time to come forth. In addition, the almond itself is the shape of an eye, signifying sight.

Shift and see in a new way! I decree and declare your spiritual sensitivity is coming forth in such acuity that you will know the time to speak and the time to be silent, the time to move and when to be still, and the time to move forward into the new assignments by being alert to His Spirit!

I was reminded of one of my favorite verses that speaks of the absolute truth that God's Word never fails: "So shall My word be that goeth forth out of My mouth: it shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper whereto I sent it." (Isaiah 55:11 KJV).

What does He tell us prior to this in verses 8 and 9? "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." (Isaiah 55:8–9 KJV)

Be Fully Aligned—Advise Yourself!

To perceive what God is doing in every situation in our lives, and in the world at large, is to believe His word, trust Him at all times, and know beyond a shadow of a doubt that everything He says is true. (Photo via Unsplash)

How? We must tear down every thought in conflict with God's word—every ungodly mindset, every lying doubt, every false notion—and bring them into alignment with His word! Continual practice of this means your mind will be transformed. Then you will perceive correctly and receive what you are believing for, moving you closer to fulfilling the destiny in Christ Jesus that God has ordained for your life!

What do YOU see? The word "see" in Jeremiah 1:11 is the Hebrew word "raah," and the first phrase listed to describe it is to "advise self!" Advise yourself to believe what God has said and perceive what HE is doing! When His word resonates within you, consider the phrases "I have put My words in your mouth" and "What do you see?" Ask the Holy Spirit to help you, ask Him to show you what God is doing and how to apply it to your life, before any other voices speak—including your own!

God's word is a dynamic and creative force that will accomplish His purpose! The angels respond to assist in the performing of it in the earth! "Bless the LORD, you His angels, mighty in strength, who perform His word, obeying the voice of His word!" (Psalm 103:20 NASB)

What Do You See? Look Again!

The Holy Spirit reminded me of two specific servants in Scripture whose eyes were opened: one was Elijah's, the other Elisha's.

In 1 Kings 18:42–44, Elijah prophesied that he heard the sound of abundance of rain (to end the three-year drought). He went to Mt. Carmel to pray and watch; he sent his servant to go look. The first time the servant said he saw nothing;

Elijah told him to go again, to look seven times. The seventh time he saw a cloud the size of a man's hand, and Elijah knew the fulfillment was at hand.

The other instance was in 2 Kings 6:15–17. The King of Syria sent his army to capture Elisha. His servant woke early and saw the enemy's army surrounding the city. Elisha told him not to fear and that there were more with them than with the enemy. Elisha could see the army of God in the spiritual realm. He prayed the Lord would open his servant's eyes to see, and the Lord opened the servant's eyes, and he saw the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha. I pray the Lord opens your eyes to see with eyes of faith, and even more so in the days to come—for all the Body of Christ!

Spiritual Sight Is Shifting and Deeper Faith Is Awakening

The Holy Spirit reminded me that some years ago He had revealed a deeper truth to me about the word "servant." In Hebrew, it is the word "naar," meaning "to tumble about," "shake (off, out, self), overthrow, toss up and down." The root of the word is na'ar, and it means "rustling," "through the idea of the rustling of mane, which usually accompanies the lion's roar" (na'ar, Root Word (Etymology). Strong's H5287. Blue Letter Bible).

In the two accounts I mentioned of the servants' eyes being opened, their faith was awakened. In that place of faith awakening, they could then see and serve accurately! Let the Lion of Judah in you arise; shake off lethargy, unbelief and fear, and the veil of the flesh will be removed! Look, look, and look again until you can perceive by the Spirit of the living God in you that the word He has spoken is true and will be performed! I decree and declare a quickening in you, an awakening of faith and purposeful resolve rising that causes a shift in your perception, so that you can see what He is doing in your midst!

I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'SOME OF THE GREATEST DEMONSTRATIONS OF MY POWER TO RESTORE ARE UPON YOU'

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'Some of the greatest demonstrations of My power to restore are upon you.'

As the Lord spoke these words I felt such a weighty invitation from the heart of God to raise your eyes above looking at what 'needs to be restored' but to look to Jesus, our great Restorer. I could feel the call from the heart of God to His people to keep their hearts postured in faith in Him, the One who brings restoration. (Joel 2:25)

'After you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace [who imparts His blessing and favor], who called you to His own eternal glory in Christ, will Himself complete, confirm, strengthen, and establish you [making you what you ought to be].' 1 Peter 5:10 (AMP)

As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard the Lord say:

'I am going to restore all and more than before. There is a mighty move of My Spirit in your midst to bring forth some of the greatest demonstrations of My power to restore. I say unto you that this is a day of divine payback for the faithful. I say unto you, in this hour by the power of My mighty hand, I am turning around that which has been turned against you. I say unto you, in this hour by the power of My mighty hand, I am bringing healing to that which has been broken. I say unto you, in this hour by the power of My Spirit I am bringing forth deliverance from that which has tormented you and kept you bound. I say unto you, in this hour I am bringing forth a mighty harvest of the seeds of faith that were sown in some of the deepest battles and hardest trials and most intense wars in your lives.

'I say unto you, "BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR THE FRUIT. BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR THE HARVEST." I say unto you, that there is great payback and great harvest and reward that is beginning to burst forth for the pure and the faithful – those who have followed Me, remained true to My Word and walked in obedience to Me. I say unto you, I am bringing forth great reward and mighty fruitfulness of the seeds of faith that were sowed especially in the hardest of places. I say unto you that where you remained and where you sowed faithfully, I say unto you, that great fruitfulness in coming forth in this day and in this hour. Watch and see what I am about to do with the seeds that you have sown in obedience and faithfulness.

'I say unto you, this is an hour of the greatest demonstrations of My power to restore that you have ever seen. I say unto you, that I am bringing forth restoration in unexpected ways. I am bringing forth My restoration in surprising and glorious ways. And I say unto you, that you will be in awe of the mighty works of My hand and your hearts will be branded again with the revelation of My goodness.

'I say unto you, that where many of you have said, "There is only mourning in the land. There is only sorrow in the land. There is only pain in the land;" I say unto you, that you shall lift up your heads and hands to Me in this hour knowing where your help comes from (Psalm 121) and your hearts shall be filled with JOY afresh in the revelation of My goodness and My salvation. I say unto you, that I am restoring the JOY of your salvation (Psalm 51:12) in the lives of many who have felt they have lost their joy. I say unto you that I am not only restoring, but I am also restoring all that was lost and MORE. I say unto you, I am removing the words and the narrative of grief, sorrow and barrenness off of your lives and I am bringing you into days of great harvest and fruitfulness in My faithfulness. I am bringing you into greater days of awakening that all My promises in Me are yes and amen (2 Cor 1:20)

'I say unto you, "Listen to Me. Listen to Me, for it is about to rain like it has never rained before." It is about to rain heavily over the driest and darkest parts of your hearts and lives. Where the enemy has stolen, killed and destroyed, where life's hand crippled you, where fear has stolen your peace and joy, I am raining My Spirit upon you and not only bringing refreshment, but I am bringing forth restoration and divine reset. I say unto you, I am breathing My Rhema Word upon your hearts and lives afresh that is WAKING UP the WEARY and DEAD lands of your hearts and lives. Your hearts and lives will come alive as My Rhema goes forth and is received. Receive My Word, incline your ears to My heart and listen for some of the greatest demonstrations of the POWER of My Rhema Word in your life – when taken by faith – which are about to manifest in your lives.

'I say unto you, there are many who are in some of the greatest moments of divine reset that they have experienced. I say unto you, there are many who are in a divine overhaul of your lives holistically. I say unto you, where many have felt like the enemy has attacked every area of their lives – and chaos marked every area of their lives in these past seasons as they have been crying out to Me – I have brought comfort, I have carried you, and I have sustained you. And I say unto you, NOW is the time for you to see the power of My hand bring a COMPLETE divine reset.

'I say unto you, not only am I bringing restoration in every area where you have cried out – where you have been seeking Me, where you have been asking Me for restoration – I say unto you, I am not only bringing forth powerful restoration like you have never seen; I say unto you, I am releasing My wisdom to you as you cry out, and releasing strategies like you have never known that are going to bring you deeper into divine strength and health. I am calling you, My people, deeper into wholeness. I am moving to bring you deeper into healing. Deeper into maturity. Deeper into longevity as you live close to Me and feast upon My Word and obey My ways. I say unto you, I am restoring ALL AND MORE.

'I say unto you, that in the divine reset, which is taking place in many of your lives, REST in the reset. I am healing nervous systems in this hour for many who have suffered greatly in the last seasons and have felt the effects upon their nervous systems. I say unto you that I am branding nervous systems with My SHALOM as you take Me at My Word. As you trust in Me, I am bringing such a deep rest to the heart where hearts have been deeply troubled and anxious for so long. I am teaching you in deeper ways to cast your cares upon Me for I care for you. (1 Peter 5:7) I say unto you rest in the move of My hand, and allow My peace to fill your hearts.

'There is great change taking place and much acceleration of realignment and change. I say unto you, hold onto Me and rest knowing that I am bringing you deeper into a place of strength and health in Me. I am doing a deep clean up by My Spirit. I am pruning and refining at a deeper level and making room for My restoration and healing and recompense in your lives. I say unto you that your lives will no longer be marked with survival; as you trust Me and rest in the resetting, your lives will be marked afresh with My divine strength as you abide and remain in Me (John 15) and obey My leading and My strategies.

'I say unto you, that as you remain close to Me and listen to My voice and follow Me, I am bringing you deeper into the manifestation of Psalm 126. I am bringing you deeper into the place of restoration and joy in your inheritance. I say unto you, these are the days of coming deeper into apprehending your inheritance in Me. Where there have been so many giants at your gates and you have been in contending and fight mode for so long, I am bringing you into a deeper place of rest and overcoming. I am bringing you into a deeper place of apprehending your inheritance in this hour.

'I say unto you, that where many of you have felt like your days will always be as they have been, I say unto you: come up higher and look from My perspective and see as I see for I am bringing you into days that you have not yet seen and not yet known. I am bringing you into days that you have only ever dreamed of – whereby the power of My Spirit to restore all that was lost and more is seen in your midst. I am calling you deeper into the place of faith to take Me at My Word, for My Word never fails (Luke 1:37). At a deeper level than you have known in this hour, you shall taste and see that I am GOOD!' (Psalm 34:8)

Prophetic Word: "I am Restoring My People - My Body!"

As I was in my quite time this morning and was reading these verses from 1 John 4:7-21, the Father began to speak to me and deeply stir my spirit. As I read it again, and again, it penetrated my soul and spirit; this is what came as the Father Spoke to me: "Barry, do you think that this kind of love for one another comes without honesty, and truth in love? Or even confrontation to bring restoration and healing?"

Barry, you have been very codependent. You have often stepped in the way of My workings in those around you. You have stepped in where I did not ask you to step in. And on the contrary, you have not stepped in and spoken up when I have wanted you to.

You have had insecurities with in you; there have been times you lived under the fear of man – afraid to speak up and rock the boat. You have even used boundaries to punish instead of protecting.

Barry, there have been times where you were not living like the real you I created, but instead compromising in unhealthy ways and decisions hoping for love and acceptance from man that was meant to come from Me.

Barry, you must understand that this healing journey that I have you on is indeed one to get these things out of the way and out of your belief systems that do not have alignment with Me, my Love and destiny for you and those around you. I do not want to see you get hurt, nor do I want to see you hurt others, but I have called you to bring truth and light in love to bring healing and deliverance to set captives free.

Barry, tell my people that I am bringing a depth of healing and deliverance to them that they did not know was possible. But you must be willing.

Barry, I am going to places the Church does not yet fully understand, but they will. I am dealing with bloodlines and the very DNA that is within you – and all that is not of Me. I am breaking the loop cycles that have plagued you and your families throughout history, and I am bringing you into the fullness of the My Blood shed for you.

Barry, tell my people that I am restoring families, breaking addictions, healing bodies, souls, spirits. I am healing mental health, bringing hope to the hopeless. I am breaking fear, anxiety, and PTSD. Trauma is not too big for me to heal! I have overcome it all! I will not only heal you, but I will go to the depths of your infliction and infirmity to also renew your mind and give you my mindset so that you do not return to it again! I am bringing My people into the fullness of My Love for them, so nothing stands between us. And in the same way, I am going to the places in My people and healing them from shame and guilt and every other thing that stops them from loving themselves and others. For how can you love your neighbor as yourself if you cannot love yourself with these things in the way?

Barry, I am bringing My people back to kitchen tables, living rooms and front porches, to live and function as families sharing My love with anyone who joins them. It is not about striving. It is about being. It is about living in the moment with Me and what I am doing – for I am in you and with you! It does not have to be complicated! I am calling you to the simplicity of pure worship once again and out of religious mindsets! Rest assured that you will be restored and refreshed by the waves of My Grace upon you as we take back the land the enemy has stolen!

Holy is the word of the Lord

1 John 4: 7-21 TPT God's Love and Ours, God Is Love

7 Those who are loved by God, let his love continually pour from you to one another, because God is love. Everyone who loves is fathered by God and experiences an intimate knowledge of him. 8 The one who doesn't love has yet to know God, for God is love. 9 The light of God's love shined within us when he sent his matchless Son into the world so that we might live through him. 10 This is love: He loved us long before we loved him. It was his love, not ours. He proved it by sending his Son to be the pleasing sacrificial offering to take away our sins.

11 Delightfully loved ones, if he loved us with such tremendous love, then "loving one another" should be our way of life! 12 No one has ever gazed upon the fullness of God's splendor. But if we love one another, God makes his permanent home in us, and we make our permanent home in him, and his love is brought to its full expression in us. 13 And he has given us his Spirit within us so that we can have the assurance that he lives in us and that we live in him.

14 Moreover, we have seen with our own eyes and can testify to the truth that Father God has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. 15 Those who give thanks that Jesus is the Son of God live in God, and God lives in them. 16 We have come into an intimate experience with God's love, and we trust in the love he has for us. God is love! Those who are living in love are living in God, and God lives through them.

17 By living in God, love has been brought to its full expression in us so that we may fearlessly face the day of judgment, because all that Jesus now is, so are we in this world. 18 Love never brings fear, for fear is always related to punishment. But love's perfection drives the fear of punishment far from our hearts. Whoever walks constantly afraid of punishment has not reached love's perfection. 19 Our love for others is our grateful response to the love God first demonstrated to us.

20 Anyone can say, "I love God," yet have hatred toward another believer. This makes him a phony, because if you don't love a brother or sister, whom you can see, how can you truly love God, whom you can't see? 21 For he has given us this command: whoever loves God must also demonstrate love to others.

Most Sincerely,

GOD'S RESURRECTION POWER IS COMING UPON YOUR PAST PROMISES!

DANIEL PONTIOUS, SONORA, CA

So many people have received promises from the Lord, but many of us have never seen them come to pass. Many of us have let go of those promises for one reason or another, either because we can't see ourselves receiving them or we don't think we deserve them.

Whether the promise was for you personally, for a loved one, or attached to the circumstances of your life somehow; you died to the promises you were given by the Lord, but the Holy Spirit is GOING TO RAISE THOSE PROMISES FROM THE DEAD! Whatever the reason was for letting go of it, God is reversing it, not because it's just a part of your destiny, but because nothing can void His Word!

While circumstances, situations and conditions around these promises can seem totally impossible, they are not powerful enough to stop the Word of God! His Word is supreme over all issues, circumstances, and situations that we might come in contact with, whatever they may be.

If you're facing a Red Sea and surrounded, He will part the waters upon your behalf! If you're facing sickness and death, He holds the keys to death, hell, and the grave, and the stripes upon Jesus Christ's back destroyed the power of sickness and disease! All power in Heaven and on earth has been given to Jesus Christ (Matthew 28:18), and all of His promises are YES AND AMEN unto the glory of God (2 Corinthians 1:20).

I saw the life of God raising up long-forgotten promises, as if from the dead. As they emerged back into the lives of the individuals that they had been given to, it was as if they had been reset in the minds and hearts of those people. The places where hopelessness and despair had set residency in their lives in the past were being removed, and there was a supernatural hope birthed within those individuals once more as God was causing them to dare to dream again!

"For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, TO GIVE YOU HOPE IN YOUR FINAL OUTCOME. Then you will call upon Me, and you will come and pray to Me, and I will hear and heed you. Then you will seek Me, inquire for, and require Me [as a vital necessity] and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart." (Jeremiah 29:11–13 AMPC, emphasis mine)

God is bringing your promises back to life, restoring your hope, and giving you the ability to dream once more! Stay connected to Jesus Christ in this season! For you'll see these promises reemerging like an echo from your past! He didn't give you a promise only so He could break them.

Dionne White: It's Time to Build - The Dormant Things Have Been Awakened!

2026: The Year to Build

Distractions have been your hindrance to Kingdom purpose and building long enough. It's time to set your sights again on things above (Colossians 3:2)! "For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is LIFE and PEACE." (Romans 8:6 NASB1995, emphasis mine).

Build this year with conviction and resolve. Build with wisdom and truth! Build with revelation and knowledge. Build with the future in mind. Build with hope and the promise! Build with questions still unanswered. Build with skills still unrefined. Build with a select few, if necessary. Build without explanation and apology. Build with Holy Spirit and don't look back.

Make 2026 a year where you refuse to come down from building the "wall" at the request of every Sanballat and Tobiah. Make 2026 the year you set your sights back on what the Lord has called you to and build. Take up the tools and gifts you have and begin to build.

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." (Philippians 4:13 NKJV)

Surround yourself with people who support you and your vision. You have been distracted too long. Put distraction in the rear-view mirror and press onwards to the upwards call. The Spirit says, "Come, this is the way; walk in it. Remain committed and build with Me!" Build like your LIFE depends on it. (Photo via Unsplash)

The following word was received on January 20, 2026:

Go, Do, and Build

This year, and possibly even into the next few years, will be a very productive and successful time for creatives and entrepreneurs. The dormant things have been awakened. There is grace and favor to GO, DO, and BUILD.

"Commit your works to the LORD and your plans will be established." (Proverbs 16:3 NASB1995)

This message is for those of you who seek the Lord, submit to His ways, listen to His instruction, and can be spontaneous in the moment to do what He's telling you to do. This level of obedience will reap abundant productivity and success.

"And you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day." (Deuteronomy 8:18 NKJV)

"The blessing of the LORD makes rich, and He adds no sorrow with it."
(Proverbs 10:22 NKJV)

Supernatural Grace and Strength for the Building

Whether you're building from foundation up, continuing to build upon, or even rebuilding, just know that there is a supernatural grace and strength given and being spoken in your direction. If you have turned your heart, mind, and ear to the Lord for your creativity and your business, He will give you what you need.

"So He answered and said to me: 'This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit," says the LORD of hosts.'" (Zechariah 4:6 NKJV)

"And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work." (2 Corinthians 9:8 ESV)

I've been sitting with this word and had a knowing that the Lord wanted me to speak this out over His people.

I hear Him say, "Take advantage of this time of grace and favor you've been given. Do not delay or procrastinate. Do not worry if you don't have all the steps. I will send people your way with answers and resources you need."

"I am a God who seeks to prosper you for the purpose and benefit of the Kingdom of God. I am orchestrating your path and the paths of others for My purposes! For it is I who gives good gifts! I am the Author and Finisher of all things. (Photo via Unsplash)

"Do not take too long to reason, meditate on, and/or decide. Give Me your quick 'yes' and I will empower you day by day, My Spirit infusing you with My grace. You can do hard things with Me. Again, do not delay. Listen, and act quickly. Just say yes and watch what I will do. For it is My pleasure to bless and prosper My children."

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning." (James 1:17 NKJV)

"Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor My righteous cause; and let them say continually, 'Let the Lord be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant.'" (Psalm 35:27 NKJV)

"Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law he meditates day and night. He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also shall not wither; and whatever he does shall prosper." (Psalm 1:1–3 NKJV)

Here's to building the Kingdom of God and seeing it advance. New things await. Here's to a BRIGHT 2026!

Andrew Whalen: Saints Are Being Called to Co-Labor with the Angels!

Partnering with the Angels

Dream received in April of 2018:

In my dream, I found myself prophesying: "The most important thing for the Church right now is to understand how to employ their angels... This has not been widely understood, but that is all changing, and God is now beginning to teach the broader Body of Christ about the angels."

The Role of Angels

Angels Worship God and Serve Us (the Saints):

"Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?" (Hebrews 1:14 NIV)

Here are two examples:

1. Elijah was strengthened by an angel (1 Kings 19:5–7).
2. Jesus was ministered to after temptation (Matthew 4:11).

Angels Are Messengers:

The name for angels in Greek is angelos, which means "messengers." They carry words or (orders) to be delivered from God.

"Just then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid! For behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people: Today in the city of David a Savior has been born to you. He is Christ the Lord!'" (Luke 2:9–11 BSB)

Angels Execute Judgment and Breakthrough:

"Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up. 'Quick, get up!' he said, and the chains fell off Peter's wrists." (Acts 12:7 NIV)

"But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia." (Daniel 10:13 NIV)

"The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will weed out of His Kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil." (Matthew 13:41 NIV)

Testimony of Angelic Assistance

I was at a church in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and on the evening of October 15, 2022, during worship, the pastor of the church pointed out that a satanist had entered our gathering. I saw him across the auditorium. He was wearing a hood over his head and stood in the back during worship. I walked to the opposite side of the auditorium to discern what he might be up to, and I recognized the Holy Spirit was drawing his heart towards the flame of God!

As I observed him from afar, I suddenly saw a vision over this man, and I knew what specifically had happened in his life that had made him the way he was. I watched in the vision as his dad beat him and cursed at him, and I saw gaping wounds in his heart.

As soon as I discerned this—even though I hadn't said anything to him—the demons inside him saw that I knew why he was that way and that they weren't safe anymore. Instantly, his eyes went dark; he glared over to me and immediately ran out of the building. I left the meeting and ran after him.

When I caught up to him, I said, "Man, God loves you! And the reason you hate yourself is because of the physical beatings you received." I then proceeded to share further details from my vision.

In that moment, he came to his right mind, and with tears coming down his face, he said, "How the #$@* do you know me?"

To which I responded and said, "I don't know you, but Jesus does—and He loves you!" Then I asked the man, "What do you want from God?"

Now deeply crying, he said, "I want freedom from these demons, and I want to live for Jesus, but there is no way He will accept me. I'm evil."

He then pulled up his shirt to reveal a large, deeply burned, upside-down cross branded on his abdomen.

I said, "None of this has any power against God's love and forgiveness that He gives us in the cross of Christ."

I had the great honor of leading this man in a prayer of repentance and salvation. I declared freedom over him from demonic power, and he began to be set free. I told him, "If what took place here is real, come back tomorrow and get baptized in obedience to Jesus!"

He showed up the next morning, and I proceeded towards him. He said, "After last night, all of my suicide demons left me."

I then said, "Well, let's get you baptized." At that point, I discerned some wrestling within him; his expression seemed to turn to stone. So I began to pray over him, but it seemed like nothing was getting through, and he was resisting the desire to be baptized. I then sensed the Lord at that moment say, "Let the angels assist you."

I thought, "Okay, they are here to help serve us." So without speaking out loud, by faith in my heart, I said, "Angels, according to the Word of God, assist me in this man's freedom and deliverance right now, in Jesus' name."

Almost immediately, this man's stone-faced expression broke; tenderness came into his eyes, and he began to weep. I asked him again, "Do you want to make Jesus your Lord and be baptized?"

He said, "More than anything."

Angels Bringing Breakthrough

Dream received on January 20, 2026:

My daughter, who is on mission trip in a foreign country as I write this, sent me a picture of a coffee shop she had just been to. At that moment, I literally remembered I'd had a dream I'd forgotten from that morning. Here is what I texted her:

"I literally just remember having a dream last night, and in the dream I saw you and her friend [who also happens to be on the same mission trip with my daughter] at a beautiful coffee shop! I was telling someone that the coffee was amazing there. I was also there, and then my friend Gabriel showed up beside me. All of a sudden, I began to see huge butterflies of all colors appear all around us. (Photo via Pexels)

"In the dream I suddenly had a knowing that Gabriel was the angel Gabriel, and the butterflies were symbolic of other angels assigned by the Lord to help advance His Kingdom in the nation.

"All of a sudden I spoke up and prophesied: 'Gabriel and the angels are here to be commissioned.' As soon as I said that hundreds of butterflies as large as a person lined up like an army staring at me and Josie and some others.

"I announced loudly, 'It's time to release them by prayer and prophetic declaration.' I said, 'Angels, go forth to the nation in swift flight and bring the breakthrough of God's word in the power of His spirit.'"

"At that, we all began to pray and declare specific things, and the butterflies—one by one, and some dozens at a time—would fly off and disappear. The whole time I knew the butterflies were actually symbolic of angels. Dream end!"

What It Means to Commission Angels

It's not that we are commanding angels by our own authority. God is the Captain and Commander of the hosts of Heaven. But the saints "employ"/co-mission these ministering spirits through prayer and the declaration of God's word.

"Bless the LORD, all His angels mighty in strength who carry out His word, who hearken to the voice of His command. Bless the LORD, all His hosts, you servants who do His will!" (Psalm 103:20–21 BSB)

Angels are not obligated to obey man, nor are they there to fulfill our own will. They serve us, by God's authority, and are responsive to His voice and words, not ours alone. Our job as saints is to discern God's will, pray it into being, and declare His word—the voice of His commands in our mouth.

Here are some more Biblical examples of how prayer "employs" angels:

- Daniel prayed and fasted, and an angel later appeared, saying he was sent because of Daniel's prayer, though he was delayed by spiritual conflict (see Daniel 10).
- The Church prayed for Peter, and an angel freed him from prison (see Acts 12:5–11).
- An angel appeared to Zechariah in response to his prayer for a child (see Luke 1:11–20).
- An angel was shown presenting the prayers of God's people before Him like incense (see Revelation 8:3–4).

How Angels Are Involved in the Harvest of Nations

It's important to understand that when we pray according to God's will, and declare His words and prophetic promises, angels are being commissioned. The awareness that there is a heavenly host involved in our mandate on the earth should both encourage us and give us faith to know we can be part of how the angels are commissioned on behalf of the harvest of nations!

Here are a couple of examples from Scripture of how angels are involved in the harvest of nations: "The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels." (Matthew 13:39 NIV) (Photo via StockCake)

"There is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents." (Luke 15:10 ESV)

NATE & CHRISTY

DEAR PIONEERS, DON'T GIVE UP JUST YET!

Dear Pioneers, it's been a while since I've shared a word specifically to the pioneers, but I've been feeling this really deeply, especially this last month, where many have been in this process of looking at the fruit of their yes and what it has accomplished in these past few years.

I've done the same thing, too, where I have looked back at the road that we've been on as a family, the things that we've accomplished, and what the Lord has done through us. Is this what you have been doing?

And it's only normal that we also look at the things that were difficult, painful, the warfare, and the cost of the call. I think this has been a very common theme in this last year, where we've had a focus that's been more on the cost than the fruit.

I remember releasing an encouragement last year about how there are seasons where it feels like you're seeing the cost more than you're seeing the fruit. For these last few weeks, I've been having this conversation with the Lord about this. I told Him that I felt like the Israelites coming to the promised land, pulling out their stones of remembrance, remembering all the things that God has done, looking back through the words God's given me, the things and situations He's led us through.

"And those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up at Gilgal. And he said to the people of Israel, 'When your children ask their fathers in times to come, 'What do these stones mean?' then you shall let your children know, 'Israel passed over this Jordan on dry ground.'" - Joshua 4:20-22

You see, the stones were a TESTIMONY, and in times where you see no testimony or fruit, you have to remind yourself of something HE DID.

And I believe we're in one of those moments where we have to do that again. But it's also been a season where I feel like I've been unable to look past the pain, the difficulty, and the shipwreck moments as well. And it's been one of those seasons where it's like we're trying to reconcile the two: "God, I know You led us in this direction, in this way, but I feel like the cost and the difficulty have outweighed the testimony."

And I know that sounds terrible to say it like that, but it is real, and I want to be honest on here because this is for so many people right now. So many pioneers are right now saying to the Lord, "I give up. I give up. This isn't going anywhere. This isn't making sense. My yes isn't leading me to what I thought it was meant to lead me to. It isn't bringing the breakthrough I thought it was going to bring."

And a lot of pioneers are really weighed down right now. You've been wearing so many hats for so long, toeing the line for so long, barely keeping your head above water, constantly releasing encouragement and help to other people, but feeling like you, yourself, are drowning.

You've come into 2026, and the battle has been raging all around you, in culture, on social media, and in the Church. It makes you just feel like you're out of your depth. It makes you feel like, "What is the point of this?" You feel like you're in an uphill battle. People are warring against you. There's constant slander and robbery on every side. You're constantly putting out fires, dealing with red tape and delays, and constant warfare.

But here is the word of the Lord for you - Remember the long game.
*Remember the long game.

I keep being reminded of Abraham and Sarah. Their life was all about the long game. They were the pioneers who sojourned, who left the place of safety to go and do what others wouldn't do. They weren't just thinking about the next moment, or even the next season. It was the story of their lives that enabled them to be the forerunners of faith that they were.

They were barren all the way to the very end until they gave birth to the promise. Their names were changed, from Abram to Abraham & Sarai to Sarah, and it still didn't feel like anything actually changed around them. And Hebrews 11:11, Sarah, clearly not having the faith, had to attach herself to God's faith in order to see the miracle come to pass.

"By faith even Sarah herself received the ability to conceive, even beyond the proper time of life, since she considered Him faithful who had promised." - Hebrews 11:11

I believe we're in another moment like that right now, where if we don't attach ourselves to the long game, we will lose hope. We will fall into discouragement and give up. And especially right now, as things are noisy around us, it's easy to want to give up. It's easy to see that things are in a lull.

But this lull is actually a moment that God is doing some deep work in us and around us right now. It's the moment that God is about to show Himself strong on our behalf.

So, I've been in intercession over you and over the pioneers these past few weeks. And the Lord keeps leading me over and over to Psalm 27, where it says we'll see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

"I remain confident of this: I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord."
- Psalms 27:13-14

And the Lord kept leading me to Hebrews, where it speaks about the heroes of faith. They continued to stand, and it produced a legacy. Jacob, who wrestled the angel of the Lord until daybreak, and he prevailed, and God began something new through Jacob because he prevailed.

Now, let me get really honest and really personal for a moment. One of the biggest costs for us in following the Lord out here is that we've had to let go of orchestrating and managing our lives. And as a man, as a husband, that's been something for me that's taken a lot of surrender.

We haven't ever been able to choose where we live. We haven't got to choose the surroundings around us. We've had to sacrifice many things that many people take for granted, such as friendships. We've been isolated for so long, our family scattered all over the world. I can't even tell you the depths of grief we've had to experience by saying goodbye to people and friends and family over the years to follow the call of God, only to look at it and go, "God, what have You even accomplished through this?"

And I believe many people are feeling that right now. Many pioneers are saying, "Lord, what has this even accomplished? What has this even done?"

I keep hearing the Lord say the same thing into my spirit - "I see the long game when you don't. Hold on, and let Me finish what I started through you. Let Me finish what I started through you."

Now let me prophesy this, because I believe this is what we're about to see in 2026, in a year that the noise is about to get noisier, I feel like the call of the pioneers right now is to reattach yourself to God's goodness for your life, for your family, even amidst the struggle that you're going through.

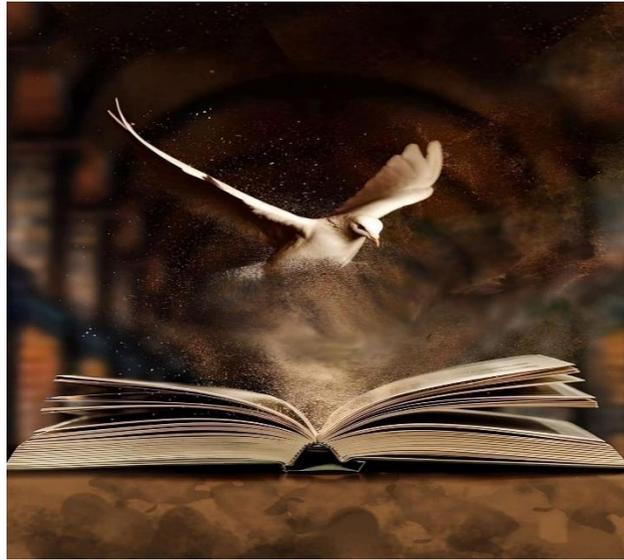

And say, "Lord, show me the long game. Show me the vision. Show me what You're doing. Speak hope into my life." Because I know what the problem has been, when you get discouraged, and you want to give up, you detach from God's heart and His goodness. You detach from the narrative that led you onto this path in the first place, and it leads you to hope deferred. But even right now, that's breaking.

Pioneers, you will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

I pray this over your lives this week. You are forerunners of faith. You're the tide turners. You hold and wield the keys of authority for your generation. You are beginning the legacy where generations before you forfeited, and you're stepping into a place of fruit that you can't see right now.

Pioneers, don't give up. Stay for the long game in Jesus' name.

Prophesy Continues to Come to Pass

EPSTEIN LITTLE BLACK BOOKS DOMINOES FALLING!!

And Quote; "Little Black Books being Opened and a Domino Effect!" Today during a time of prayer I heard these Words, "Watch and Pray! For the Nations have now entered into a time and season of Divine Exposures and Supernatural Disruptions!

Listen! For the sound of the gavel of My Righteousness and Justice is ringing out in the realm of The Spirit!"

As I heard those Words, I was reminded of a powerful vision I shared about Little Black Books being opened and a domino effect! America: The First Domino is About to Fall.

The Little Black Book and a Domino Effect January 5, 2024

Veronika West First published: December 1, 2021

"America, A little black book will be opened, causing a domino effect. The Sound of His Righteousness and Justice will be heard!"

In my time with The LORD this morning as I was praying for the Nations, the Nation of America was brought before me and as I began to pray.

Suddenly, I saw a number of little black books standing on end in a long line like dominoes, and then I saw The Finger of God come into the midst of the vision and His Finger lightly touched the first little black book, and I watched as a powerful domino effect took place. Then I heard these words, "Watch! As My Spirit of Truth is now moving to bring exposure, exposure, exposure as the little Black Book is opened.

All will be uncovered and revealed, for the Sound of the Gavel of My Justice and Righteousness will be heard going forth across this land".

And Quote; "Now Watch, as the moles are driven out of their holes and the Black snakes emerge from the darkness of their caves! Listen! For many will cry out "There is nowhere to hide! There is no way of escape!" But surely I tell you that their works of wickedness and their acts of evil have come up before Me once again as an abomination.

Watch and pay attention! For the gavel of My Justice and Righteousness now falls upon the heads of the wicked, sentencing them to an eternal separation. I tell you the truth, I shall even forget the day that I created them," says The Spirit of The Living God.

Blessings to you all.

Andrew Whalen: Judgment Is Coming Against the Spirit of Arrogance

The Arrogant Under Judgment

Dream received on February 5, 2026:

The other night I was having a dream. What I didn't know was that I was having it "out loud," and it woke my wife up, who in turn hit me and woke me up, letting me know I was yelling in tongues and speaking intensely about something. What she didn't know was that in my dream I was confronting a man (who I personally didn't recognize) about an ungodly sin in his life.

For some reason, I knew this man had previously treated women very disrespectfully and even abusively. I knew he was supposed to be Believer in the Lord. So, with a desire to correct him without destroying him, I said, "I have high regard for who God has called you to be, but I hate your disrespect for women!"

I could see he was moved by shame over his actions and attitude. He even tearfully repented. I was going to pray for him, but I had this thought in my heart, "I better just check his eyes out to make sure nothing is hiding."

At that moment, the man began to close his eyes, and when they were almost all the way closed, I caught a glimpse of them through the small opening of his eyelids. Immediately, I spoke up, before he could close his eyes all the way, and I said, "I SEE YOU... YOU SPIRIT OF ARROGANCE."

After I said that, the man went from a completely humble, broken, and sorrowful posture, to one of incredible arrogance and pride. He was throwing his head back and to the side, mocking me and laughing. I knew I wasn't speaking to the man anymore but to a devil! So I rose up in Christ's authority and began to pray in the Spirit against it. Then, speaking in Jesus' name, I drove that spirit out with intensity as I spoke Scriptures against it, while also speaking words of prophecy over the man until, well, I was hit by my wife! And the dream ended.

You just never know what kind of adventures God might take you on during the night! It wouldn't surprise me if somewhere in the world a man was delivered from "arrogance" that night. I think it's quite possible with the Lord!

If perhaps this was just a very vivid dream, containing a prophetic message, then I am stewarding it by praying into it further. I believe there are some insights to extract from it.

One prophetic connection I can see so far from this dream is the way that a spirit of arrogance has infiltrated so much of the ministry in the Church and, consequently, has produced actions and attitudes that disrespect and abuse the Bride of Christ. (Photo via Unsplash)

Arrogance is the quality of having an exaggerated sense of one's own importance or abilities. Maybe my words to this man in the dream were an example of how God might address those in His Church who shepherd without His heart?

On another note, is it possible this dream was addressing the need to drive out a "devil of arrogance" lurking beneath the surface that (as good and needed as they are) repentant words and sorrowful confession alone can't fully address? Maybe there is a deeper root called "ARROGANCE" operating throughout aspects of our modern-day ministry systems and structures that will keep on making a mockery of God's Spirit through disrespecting and abusing His Bride!

This dream encounter has caused me to pray with a righteous anger against the spirit of arrogance operating anywhere that would harm His Bride.

"To fear the LORD is to hate evil; I hate arrogant pride, evil conduct, and perverse speech." (Proverbs 8:13 BSB)

What Is Arrogance?

1. Arrogance is not self-confidence. It is self-exaltation that displaces God, expressed outwardly in behavior. It's less "I think highly of myself," and more "I act as though I answer to no one."
2. Arrogance is something you can see. Humility and arrogance are bodily realities, not abstract emotions.
3. Arrogance happens when borrowed glory is treated as owned glory. The Babylonian King Nebuchadnezzar is an example of this. "He said, 'Is this not the great Babylon I have built as the royal residence, by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty?'" (Daniel 4:30 NIV).
4. Arrogance is a heart that has risen above its proper place—internal elevation that produces external distortion. King Uzziah is an example of this. "But when Uzziah became powerful, his arrogance led to his own destruction. He was unfaithful to the LORD his God, for he entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense" (2 Chronicles 26:16 BSB).
5. Arrogance is not just a small character flaw or attitude; it's a rival throne. Herod Agrippa I is an example of this: "On the appointed day, Herod donned his royal robes, sat on his throne, and addressed the people. And they began to shout, 'This is the voice of a god, not a man!' Immediately, because Herod did not give glory to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down, and he was eaten by worms and died" (Acts 12:21–23 BSB).

6. Arrogance is living as though your position, power, or perspective places you beyond accountability, especially before God.

Severe Judgment Is Coming for Obama

Dream received on January 29, 2026:

In my dream, I was viewing Barack Obama somewhere. He had a look of untouchable arrogance. He literally looked like he thought he was above the law. Then, I looked next to me and noticed Johnny Enlow was with me, seeing the same thing. Then in the dream, we both watched President Trump stand up, and it felt like a commercial in the sense that President Trump was comparing the presidency of Obama to his own. Trump spoke out loud and said, "Obama built off the backs of Americans, stealing their wealth and making a fortune for himself." Then as I watched Trump, a large golden statue of him came flying after Obama, and Trump said, "I'm going to give it all back to them and make them the wealthiest people in the world." (Photo via Wikipedia)

Then, Johnny and I watched as it seemed like a camera zoomed in on President Trump's face, and he said, "Obama, you should not have done this." When he said that, his eyes turned deathly serious and the commercial seemed to end. Johnny and I looked at each other, and we both instantly knew by revelation that severe judgment was coming for Obama.

I looked at Johnny and said, "Did you see President Trump's eyes when he said that? Those eyes contained the wrath of God, and there was a promise in that look. You can bet now that Obama's fate is sealed, and Trump is going to bring the hammer down." Johnny agreed in the dream.

I believe this dream was revealing the spirit of arrogance that has operated in and through Obama. His actions were done and decisions were made as if he was above the law, protected from any consequence, accountability, or justice from God. I also believe the golden statue of Trump flying against him was a symbol of the "gold" as something that breaks the "fed"—the criminal economy that has fueled the arrogance of evil men and women in government, etc.

"Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall." (Proverbs 16:18 BSB)

Declaration: Judgment on the IRS

Considering Trump is now suing the IRS for ten billion dollars (which doesn't come close to the actual amount they have plundered from families and generations, illegally and unconstitutionally, I might add), let's join that fight with him by going to the Judge of Heaven and earth for His righteous judgments against the IRS!

We appeal to the Lord for His judgment against this satanic money laundering scheme, which is guilty of innocent bloodshed, trafficking children, and ill-gotten gain!

I declare that the veil of concealment is coming off the operations of the IRS and the horrific ways it has contracted with the spirit of death, killing the sovereignty of the United States, channeling our energy and livelihood into nefarious and evil agendas, and betraying the American Constitution.

Let the blood of those who died in service of a free constitutional republic now speak against this wicked foe of justice! Let the blood of Jesus Christ speak a better word in this land than the blood of the innocent. Let the retribution against this Goliath begin through Donald Trump and end as we the people rise to crush this treasonous system of betrayal, once and for all! I pray that a band of destroying angels would shatter the powers of darkness that have upheld this enslavement machine in our land for so long! We call forth speedy justice now, in Jesus' name!

The Purim Blood Moon Triad

Throughout history, many civilizations have searched the heavens to see if there is a connection between celestial patterns and events here on earth. One such pattern in the heavens began to be displayed March 14, 2025, and will culminate this year on March 3, 2026. This is a series of four phenomena including one solar event and three lunar events, two of which could represent a possible message about Israel. The first total lunar eclipse, known as a blood moon, fell directly on the Jewish holiday of Purim in 2025. The next blood moon occurred last fall before Rosh Hashanah, and the third one will fall directly on Purim on March 3, 2026. (Photo via pixabay)

Christian leaders who study Biblical prophecy, have contended for years that blood moons portend significant events for Israel and the Middle East and, therefore, the entire world. Throughout history, blood moons have been associated with upheaval, judgment, and war. With antisemitism spiking around the globe, the ongoing conflict with Hamas in Gaza, Hezbollah in Lebanon, the Houthis in Yemen, and now with Iran, along with massive Middle East shifts that have followed the October 7, 2023, massacre in Israel, the two Purim blood moons are believed by many to hold special significance.

What Is the Significance of a Blood Moon?

A blood moon is a total lunar eclipse, when Earth stands between the moon and sun. Since Earth blocks the sun's light, the only hue that emerges through Earth's atmosphere is red, casting a blood-red color on the moon.

A tetrad of blood moons - four blood moons within a span of two years - took place from 2014-2015, with all four of those eclipses also landing directly on Jewish holidays, coming as the world endured the rise of ISIS, the controversial Iran nuclear deal, and the previous Israeli war with Hamas.

Three tetrads have occurred over the last 1000 years, coinciding with major events for the Jewish people. They occurred from 1493-1494, 1949-1950, and 1967-1968.

In 1492, the Jews were expelled from Spain after severe persecution, and Christopher Columbus also discovered America, which would eventually become a safe haven for the Jewish people.

In 1948, the modern state of Israel was reborn as a nation in its original homeland, fulfilling a Biblical prophecy from Jeremiah 16:15.

In 1967, Israel recaptured their capital of Jerusalem during the Six-Day War, which many see as an essential precursor to the eventual construction of the Jewish Third Temple.

Pastor John Hagee wrote a book on the subject and said, "In each of these blood moons, you have something that begins in tragedy and ends in triumph."

After the three blood moons ending in March 2026, there will be a total solar eclipse in August of 2026. Pastor Hagee has said, "The evidence is very clear Scripturally that God controls the sun, moon, and stars—that God is sending us a signal through the sun, the moon, and the stars. The question is, are we listening?"

Biblical Prophecy and Blood Moons

The prophet Joel envisioned it when he prophesied in Joel 2:30–31, “I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood and fire and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.”

Luke later quoted Joel in Acts 2:20, and the apostle John used the same prophecy in Revelation 6:12, “And the moon became like blood.”

Are the Blood Moons Signs?

Israel My Glory newsletter makes some interesting observations. Blood-moon-prophecy advocates like John Hagee argue that tetrads appeared during important events in Jewish history. However, in the 1949-1950 sequence, the first blood moon occurred in April 1949, after Israel had already gained its independence in May 1948. Similarly, a tetrad appeared in 1493, a year after the Jewish people were expelled from Spain. If these blood moons were signs, they should have occurred before those events.

Prophecy and Bible scholar Mark Hitchcock wrote, “Consider, for instance, if you are driving down the highway and see a sign for an exit after you pass it. That sign isn’t much help. [Likewise], the blood moon tetrad of 1493–1494 cannot be a sign of what happened in 1492. This just doesn’t fit the definition of a sign.”

Also, although Biblical prophecy speaks of a blood moon, each time a blood moon is mentioned, it is in conjunction with other cosmic events occurring simultaneously. So, if a Biblical blood moon has occurred, we should also expect to see a darkened sun and only one blood moon, not tetrads. This has not happened.

Placing prophetic value on these blood moons does grab our attention and sell books, but the referenced events appear to be random. Some involved a serious struggle but ended in joy, like Israel’s independence and the Six-Day War, while others ended only in sorrow, like the expulsion from Spain. Furthermore, there were important historical Jewish events, such as the destruction of the two Temples and the Holocaust, that were not accompanied by blood moons.

Pastor Hagee further stated that the tetrad which began with the April 2014 lunar eclipse was the beginning of the end times as described in Joel 2:31. If he is correct, then we are at this point some twelve years into the end times. Using similar logic, others have suggested that the Tribulation would begin in 2024 or 2025 at the latest.

The Significance of Purim

Purim was born in Persia – which is modern-day Iran. It is linked to the Hebrew calendar which commemorates the events recorded in the Book of Esther, when the Jewish people were miraculously delivered from Haman's decree of annihilation by the Persian empire.

Now, thousands of years later, Israel once again finds itself locked in much larger conflict involving Iran, while blood moon eclipses repeatedly fall on the very festival that celebrates divine deliverance from Persia.

Israel's Final Confrontation with Iran

Discernment matters now and always. Whether or not the blood moons hold prophetic significance is a matter of debate. However, every blood moon is an example of God's majestic handiwork. We must not allow apocalyptic news headlines or public date-setting by the "experts" take us into fear and to forsake our trust and reliance of God. Clearly, "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork" (Psalm 19:1, NKJV). He created the heavens and the earth. He alone is God. He has delivered His people in the past from Egypt's pharaoh and from the Prince of Persia during the days of Queen Esther; He is faithful to deliver His people from whichever demonic entity would desire to destroy them.

God has not forgotten the plans He has for Israel and for those who call upon His name. Israel was called by God to bless His name and make His glory known to the nations. God is aligning things by His Spirit to bring His perfect plan to completion in all the earth. Current conflicts will end, and Israel will still be standing at that time.

The Esther story is Israel's story. The decree she wrote empowered God's people to defend themselves, their families, and all they possessed. It reversed the threat against God's people thereby turning it into a positive; turned their misery into victory, and not only did the people escape that destruction, but they came to occupy a place of privilege, the envy of the empire, and many foreigners became Jews because of the favor God shed upon His people. I believe we shall see this again! "Many will see and fear and put their trust in the Lord." (Ps 40:2-3)

Declaring the Esther Work

The Purim festival does not celebrate the day of the Jews' victorious battle, but the day on which they rested from their enemies – celebrating the joy of finding themselves still standing on the day after an irrevocable death decree was executed. Purim represents a Sabbath rest, a joyous rest after evil and the threat of death have passed. Purim can be the deliberate remembrance of all God has done to set us free.

Since 2011, our household along with many others have continued to declare forth an Esther Work in our day. As God is no respecter of persons (Acts 10:34), what He did for Esther and His people in her day, He will do in ours if we call it forth. Yeshua has already delivered us from a sentence of death by His sacrificial death in our behalf; He has delivered us from personal strongholds and afflictions; we have been healed and set free from every demonic oppression, and we shall continue to go forth in fulness of victory in Him, blood moon or not!

Our God never fails, and as in the day of Esther, He will never fail His people who fully rely on, trust in, and serve Him. Esther 9:1 notes that, "The Jews gained mastery over those who hated them." Be it so for Israel over all those who would come against them; be it so for all who call upon the name of the Lord and who abide under the shelter of the Almighty (Ps 91). The Jews will survive. Glory be to God!

Set your hearts in agreement with ours as we call forth and declare an Esther Work in our day!

The Hordes of hell: Wade Butler

Dear Prayer Warriors,

I'm printing this because we are still in the midst of this attack, three months later. The war is real; the Hordes are symbolic of the demon forces that have been released upon the sons and daughters of GOD. It is past time to put on the whole Armor of God and join the battle. I sent this out to several prayer teams that morning.

At midnight on the transition into January 1, 2026 I experienced one of the most vicious attacks I have yet to be a part of. As I was in bed asleep, I was awakened by what I would say was an assault by hordes of wasps and fire-ants. I have hunted from the southern borders of the United States into Canada and have come across some nasty creatures over the years. If you ever have the misfortune of stepping on a fire-ant mound in the south or a ground wasp mound in Canada you understand. All of the mound will empty to repel the attacker and it's you. Their bite and sting is like fire and can be lethal to the unsuspecting traveler.

I was being overcome from all sides, in the air and on the land. My heart went into a pre-heart attack mode. My left arm contracted, my lungs screamed as if on fire, and I was in trouble. It was so real I got up and found an old bottle of Nitroglycerin and took a dose. Immediately I started praying; within fifteen minutes I took a second dose of Nitro to steady my heart and thought of calling 911. I went into the living room hoping not to wake up Frances.

At that point I was taken into the spirit and shown it was an attack from below. The enemy was swarming in waves to overcome not just me but the sons and daughters of GOD. It was an attack to wear down the saints. This went on with such intensity I could actually feel the bites and stings. My adrenaline was at a high. It was a Battle Royal and I wasn't winning! I cried out, 'Lord I need help, I need you...' At that point my eyes were opened to Angels around me, and Frances came into the living room and wanted to know what was going on.

I explained the vision and told her that it was so real that I had all the symptoms of an actual heart attack. Some might ask, how would I know? I have had eleven actual heart attacks with the twelfth resulting in a three-way by-pass. At the same time, I knew it was spiritual, but I was exhausted from the warfare. What a way to welcome in the new year!

As we battled the hordes of the enemy, they even tried to resist the blood as wave after wave emerged from below. Death was everywhere around me as they piled up as high as my knees. It took Frances joining me in prayer, pleading the Blood, quoting scripture and calling on the Host to turn the battle. I needed the help of the Host, Angels and the sons and daughters.

After about an hour, we were both exhausted from the fray. When I got up on Thursday morning I called out to Yeshua, 'What was that about?' He responded; "What did Terry say in prayer mid-day?" I checked my notes and said that he saw the earth's seismic plates shift, and the enemy was coming to the surface. Everything that was done in darkness shall be brought into the light, and the enemy is not happy.

Yeshua said; "Judgement is coming into the enemy's camps, and they are going to stir up to the surface as I shake the earth. They are coming like waves of attackers, like hordes whose mounds were tipped over. Their sting can kill the weak and disable the unsuspecting. Fire and destruction they will leave in their path. Press into the blood and overcome their fury."

Veronika West came out with this the next morning.

EVERYTHING IS SPIRITUAL:

<https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/america-everything-is.../>

And Quote;

"Mamdani is set to be sworn in as New York Mayor on New Year's Eve not in City Hall and not in a Public square but rather in an abandoned Gilded Age subway station beneath City Hall. The unusual choice of venue for the ceremony, Mamdani said, is symbolically resonant of the "inauguration of a New Era." Now When I saw this headline, the Holy Spirit immediately opened my eyes, and suddenly, I saw Two Altars Rising and One coming out of New York City the Altar of Baal VS the Altar of Elijah.

I saw a Fierce and Powerful Battle begin to Unfold in the HEAVENLIES; "God's Desire for The Birthing of a New Golden Age for America VS Satan's Desire for the Birthing of a New Era of Anti-Christ Rule over America!"

I saw in the realm of the Spirit a powerful demonic Portal/s being opened during the swearing-in Ceremony. I saw that the Location is not random. It is not Coincidental, and it is not merely historic symbolism! This Site was Chosen and this Mayor strategically Positioned in Power. And what may appear in the natural and what is being presented underground as theatrical and even nostalgic is certainly only the tip of the iceberg, for beneath the surface and looking into the Spirit realm this is powerfully Prophetic and Authoritative. The enemy always moves, operates and advances his demonic Agendas underground and behind closed doors and under the cover of darkness!

Mark my words, this is not about Transit History; certainly, this is not about aesthetics, and most vitally to note, this is NOT harmless symbolism! Listen, Satan has HIS APPOINTED TIMES - HIS DEMONIC KIAROS MOMENTS; The Enemy understands the importance of Timing, Placement, and Threshold moments!

New Year's Eve? (Timing: "Crossing over a Threshold Moment")

A Transfer of Authority, Power, and Position at a powerfully strategic time?

An Oath being spoken and taken below the City?

WATCHMEN YOU NEED TO BE PAYING ATTENTION;

Certainly just one strategic Prayer point and a Call for Shields to be Raised

Is over the Subways and Underground Transportation Systems in the USA in the coming days but also Globally, Satan is not only devising and developing his secret plans underground, but he will Seek to bring into manifestation even greater and more deadly destructive attacks UNDERGROUND in the coming days..!! What was done before in the Open Shall now be done in Underground Settings.. Hidden from sight and Shielded from immediate detection Demonic Operations taking place beneath systems that are meant to Move and keep people safe, not endanger and take innocent lives..!! We must Pay attention to what is beneath in the days ahead and not just what is above. We must be Watching the places that are often ignored or even dismissed or taken for granted on a daily basis!!!

We have Crossed a threshold in the Realm of the Spirit Satan has declared War. Battle of Altar VS Altar and WE MUST NOT GO BACK TO BUSINESS AS USUAL!!!
WATCH AND PRAY "The Shift has already begun".!

P.S. Let me add this for Prayer consideration; As I was finishing writing the above Word, I heard these Words: "2026, THE YEAR OF ALTAR VS ALTAR, PRIEST VS PRIEST, FIRE VS FIRE. Watch, For Satan will use FIRE - FIRE AND MORE FIRE - EVEN STRANGE FIRE AS A WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION, FOR DEMONIC ARSONISTS WILL ARISE TO BURN, BURN, BURN, BUT I SAY, WATCH, AS MY FIERY REMNANT SHALL ARISE TO FIGHT FIRE WITH FIRE. FOR 2026, MY FIRE SHALL FALL ON THE REBUILT AND RESTORED ALTARS, AND EVERYTHING WILL BURN AND HEARTS WILL TURN!"

Take Note of Date:

<https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/a-dream-satanic.../>

And Quote; "I understood that The LORD was allowing me to see into the plans of the enemy, so that His people could rise in prayer and intercept and disarm what the kingdom of darkness was attempting to begin to establish in this hour.

Conclusion from Wade

The ending of this story is yet to be seen. It is time for the sons and daughters to stand up and stop the advancement of the kingdom of darkness. They must stand in their GOD-GIVEN AUTHORITY AND TAKE BACK THE KINGDOM OF THE EARTH. How will we some ask? By the BLOOD OF THE LAMB AND THE TESTIMONY OF HIS WORD! What everyone needs to know is that the KINGDOM of LIGHT overcomes the darkness every time. Heaven is waiting for us to take action and declare the VICTORY of the BLOOD of YESHUA! The Angel Armies are ready; Christ is at the Helm. All of heaven is waiting on us. Chuck Pierce talked about this nearly a year ago. I wrote about it in September of last year.

It does not depend on the President of the United States or the Government, or the Military. It depends on the Children of the KING! The table is set, the KING is coming and HE expects the Kingdom to advance as the Sons and Daughters take their places and the world rejoices.

SEEK YE FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD (LIGHT), YAHUDA'S KINGDOM, AND WATCH WHAT WILL HAPPEN AS YESHUA AND THE ARMIES OF GOD ENTER BATTLE!

“Now Esther found favor in the eyes of all who saw her.” (Esther 2:15)

Queen Esther's Story: Powerful Summary, Meaning & Life Lessons

June 28, 2025 by Prashanta

Have you ever wondered how one ordinary person can make an extraordinary difference? The Queen Esther Bible story is a powerful reminder that even in the most uncertain situations, God can use the least expected people to fulfill His greatest plans.

Esther wasn't born into royalty. She was a young Jewish orphan, quietly living under the care of her cousin Mordecai in a foreign land. And yet, by divine purpose and perfect timing, she became queen of Persia and more importantly, the chosen vessel God used to save an entire nation.

Her story isn't just about beauty or titles, it's about bravery, faith, and trusting God when everything is on the line. If you've ever faced fear, felt hidden, or wondered if your life has purpose, Esther's journey will speak deeply to your heart.

Let's walk through this incredible journey together because this isn't just Queen Esther's story. It's a story that can inspire you, too.

The Queen Esther story goes beyond palaces, crowns, and banquets. It's filled with timeless truths and divine patterns that still speak to our hearts today. Let's explore the deeper spiritual meanings woven throughout her journey.

Divine Providence Without God's Name

One of the most remarkable things about Esther's story is that God's name is never mentioned, not even once. And yet, His presence is everywhere.

From Esther being chosen as queen to the perfect timing of Mordecai's honor and Haman's downfall, we see a divine hand orchestrating every detail. This teaches us something beautiful: even when we don't see God or hear His name, He's still working behind the scenes arranging, protecting, guiding.

In moments when God feels silent in your life, Esther reminds you that He is still writing your story.

Courage and Obedience

Esther didn't feel ready. She didn't know how things would turn out. But still, she said, "If I perish, I perish."

Her words weren't dramatic; they were deeply surrendered. She chose obedience to God and courage over comfort and safety. Her bravery came not from strength, but from trust in the One who had placed her there.

This part of the story calls us to ask: What step of faith is God asking me to take, even when I'm afraid?

Reversal of Destiny

One of the most powerful messages in Esther's story is the complete reversal of evil plans. Haman built gallows for Mordecai but he was the one hanged on them. The Jews were marked for destruction, but instead, they were delivered and celebrated.

This is divine justice at work. God has a way of turning things around when all hope seems lost. He lifts the humble, defends the innocent, and humbles the proud.

Esther's story proves that with faith, no situation is beyond God's power to reverse.

The Power of Influence

Esther didn't lead an army or perform miracles, but she used her voice, her position, and her influence wisely. She didn't rush or rebel; she prayed, planned, and acted at the right time.

Her influence wasn't loud, it was strategic, humble, and led by wisdom. And through it, an entire nation was saved.

This reminds us that God places us where we are for a reason. Whether it's in a home, a workplace, or a community, your influence can be a tool for righteousness and change.

Each of these themes in the Queen Esther Bible story reminds us that God can do the impossible through willing hearts. He may be unseen, but He is never absent. Esther's story teaches us to trust deeply, act boldly, and believe that where we are right now might just be "for such a time as this."

Life Lessons from Queen Esther's Story

The Queen Esther story is not just a historical account; it's a guide for how we can walk with faith, wisdom, and courage in today's world. Esther's quiet strength and faithful heart leave us with timeless lessons that still apply in our everyday lives.

Trust God's Timing

Esther didn't seek the crown; it was given to her. She didn't push her way into power; God positioned her at the right place, at the right time. When Mordecai said, "Perhaps you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this," it was a divine reminder that God's timing is perfect.

There are seasons in life where we feel overlooked or out of place, but Esther's story encourages us to trust that God is preparing us behind the scenes for a purpose greater than we can imagine.

Stand for Your People

Esther could have stayed silent. She could have played it safe in the palace. But she chose to risk everything to stand for her people because her identity wasn't just royal, it was rooted in her faith and her heritage.

This teaches us that when we know who we are in God, we also discover what we're called to do. Your voice matters. And sometimes, the most powerful thing you can do is stand up for those who can't stand for themselves.

Speak with Wisdom and Strategy

Esther didn't act impulsively. She prayed, fasted, and waited. She chose her words and her timing with discernment. She spoke with courage, but also with grace and respect.

In a world that often pushes us to react quickly, Esther reminds us that wisdom and spiritual preparation matter. Before taking bold steps, she knelt in prayer. Her strategy wasn't about manipulation; it was about alignment with God's will.

Celebrate Deliverance often

After the victory, Esther and Mordecai didn't just move on; they established Purim, a joyful festival to remember how God delivered them. It wasn't just about the win; it was about giving glory to the One who made it happen.

We too are called to pause and celebrate God's faithfulness. Whether it's big miracles or quiet rescues, God's unseen hand deserves joyful remembrance.

Each of these lessons from the Queen Esther story speaks into our daily lives reminding us to be faithful, bold, and deeply rooted in God's purpose. Just like Esther, we are here for such a time as this.

What does “for such a time as this” mean in Esther’s story?

This most famous line shows that God had placed Esther in her position at the perfect time for a specific purpose. It reminds us that our own place and season in life may also carry divine meaning.

Conclusion

The Queen Esther story is more than just an ancient tale; it’s a living testimony of how God can use anyone, anywhere, for His divine purpose.

Esther began her journey as an orphan girl, quietly living in exile with no fame, no influence, and no idea what lay ahead. But through God’s providence, she became queen of a powerful empire; not for comfort, but for calling.

Her story is a shining example of what happens when faith meets courage. She didn’t seek the spotlight. She simply trusted God and stepped forward when it mattered most. Her bravery saved a nation, and her obedience glorified God.

And now, it’s your turn to reflect.

Where has God placed you “for such a time as this?” Is it your home, your workplace, your school, or your community? Just like Esther, you may not feel ready, but God is already working behind the scenes.

Take heart. Stay faithful. And remember your story matters in His Kingdom.

I HEARD THE LORD SAY ‘ARISE! I AM PULLING BACK THE CURTAIN! I AM REVEALING WHAT YOU HAVE REALLY BEEN DEALING WITH’

Recently, I heard the Lord say, ‘Arise!’ I am pulling back the curtain! I am revealing what you have really been dealing with.’

As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard:

‘My people, Arise! Arise! Arise! I say unto you that there are many in this hour who have been dealing with significant opposition against your assignment. I say unto you that there are many who have labelled opposition of the enemy as natural realm circumstances, and it has kept you under false burdens within your assignment. I say unto you that I am PULLING BACK THE CURTAIN! I am REVEALING what you have been facing is an onslaught of the enemy. For many of you have been crying out to Me, "Lord, what is wrong with Me? What have I done?" And many of you have lost your rest and your peace because you are living in anxiety wondering what you have done wrong. You were faithfully serving Me in your assignment/s, and suddenly things shifted and began to escalate leaving you feeling suffocated and contained.

'My people, listen to Me, many of you have been in the greatest battle you have faced over the assignments I have given you and the new assignments that are upon you. You have not even realized the level of opposition and battle you have been in, as the enemy has been attempting to keep you in a place of not recognizing his schemes and attempting to convince you that that which you are facing and enduring is natural realm and is your fault.

'I say to those of you that have been in this place, ARISE! ARISE! I am removing the veil that the enemy has attempted to put before your eyes to hinder you from seeing what has been truly going on. I am bringing you into a new realm of clarity and now you shall see clearer than you have seen what you have been dealing with. For I say unto you that I am bringing you into a new realm of discernment within your assignment. I am bringing you deeper into a place of divine wisdom and understanding within the assignment/s that I have given you. For the enemy has come hard against you in this hour, and he has come harder than ever to keep you distracted, to steal your focus and to attempt to keep you from moving into another level of AUTHORITY WITHIN YOUR ASSIGNMENT.

'I say unto you, that MUCH of what the enemy has been after in this hour is your heart and your authority. The enemy has come with such condemnation in this hour against many of you with his taunting lies, and there has been great onslaught of the enemy coming against many of you to CONTAIN YOU within your assignment. Many of you have lost your ability to dream with Me within your assignment and to thrive within the assignments that I have given you, and who you were created to be in Me, and do what I have created you to do, and to thrive. But I say unto you, that as I am pulling back the curtain, and I am exposing and revealing the schemes of the enemy, you are moving into a new level of authority in Me within your assignment as you begin to see what has really been happening behind the scenes.

'I say unto you, watch the chains of containment break off by the power of My Spirit within your assignments. Watch the chains of containment shatter as I am bringing you into a new slipstream of My Spirit and My grace within your assignment. Where many of you have felt like you have been barely surviving to continue in what I have called you to do, I am bringing you into such a deeper place of dependence upon Me within your assignment, and the strength that shall come to you by My Spirit in the exposing of what the enemy has been doing – you are coming into a new level of EMPOWERMENT.

'There is a roar that will continue to arise within you, a roar of NO toleration of the enemy's schemes, an increase of the roar of faith, an increase of the roar of My authority within you to not only evict the nonsense and the noise of the enemy from your land, but see My Spirit bring forth an acceleration of fruitfulness of My plans and purposes within the lands of your assignments. I say unto you "My people, there are many of you that need to arise in this hour and take your authority back within your assignment. There are many of you that need to arise in this hour and step back into the victory that is yours in Me, within your assignment.

'For the enemy has worked so hard to attempt to convince you that all you have faced has been natural realm circumstance, and has, for many, convinced you that what you are dealing with is not by his hand. But now, as I reveal what has been going on behind the scenes and under the surface, for many, there is about to be a ONCE AND FOR ALL SHIFT.

'For as I reveal what the enemy has been doing and the tactics he has been using to keep you contained, to keep you from moving in your authority, moving in faith, and for many, being the leader that they are called to be, the very exposure and revelation of his tactics is ending these cycles of his ongoing attacks to keep you hindered, contained and distracted.

'For I say unto you, that I have a greater increase of insight of My plans and purposes for many of you within your assignment in this hour. There is increase within your assignment that I am bringing to you, and the heavy cloud of confusion, opposition, and, for many, despondency that has been upon you, has been to KEEP YOU from this place of increased insight. For I say unto you, be expectant in this hour for this increased insight. Where there has been significant confusion, THAT IS NOT OF ME and the invitation before you is one of entering into a new level of WISDOM within your assignment in this hour to move with Me in all that I have planned.

'The enemy has attempted to keep you contained, and I say unto you, that there is expansion and increase in My ways, in new ways that are before you, that he is attempting to keep you from. So, ARISE AND GET LOUD! Declare My Word; not with your own strength or loud voice, but get LOUD IN YOUR FAITH. Arise in faith and stand upon My Word. There is NO time to be TIMID. ARISE IN BOLDNESS and declare My Word, knowing the POWER OF MY WORD. I say unto you, as I am pulling back the curtain and revealing what has been happening under the surface and behind the scenes where the enemy has been at play, LEAN INTO the roar of My Spirit that is birthing the roar of NO toleration for his schemes and plans, and allow My Spirit to awaken you to greater authority.

'My people, in this hour, I say unto you, GET OVERWHELMED OUT OF YOUR VOCABULARY. For I say unto you, many have aligned their words with overwhelm that has opened a door to the heaviness and containment of the enemy in many ways in their hearts, minds, and lives. My people, watch what you say, what you are focusing on, and look to Me. I am bringing you into a place of such deeper dependance upon Me and the slipstream of My grace, where overwhelm will not be part of your vocabulary, and feeling like you're living in a constant state of overwhelm, as you continue to behold Me and see more and more of who I am.'

"THE HOUR OF RECKONING IS COME UPON THE 'GREAT' CHURCH."

<https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/the-hour-of-reckoning.../>

I submit the following Word in the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord. "Come Out of Her, and Do Not Look Back!" On the 26th January 2026, this Word came during a time of deep Intercession. And I heard the Spirit say, "COME OUT OF HER AND DO NOT LOOK BACK!"

As I heard the Spirit speak, those words carried such a weight of Urgency, and yet, I heard the Redemptive and Merciful heart of the Father. As soon as those Words were Spoken, a Vision opened up to me where I saw what looked like Sodom and I saw what looked like Egypt, and immediately, the Spirit of Revelation quickened to me Revelation

11:8, "The Great City, which Spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified." (Note; As that verse was quickened to me, I heard the Spirit say, "An 11th Hour, and the Emergence of a New Wineskin and a New Beginning."

As I read the verse, the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord came upon me, and I knew by the Spirit that this was GOD SPIRITUALLY DIAGNOSING THE CHURCH IN THIS HOUR; A DIAGNOSIS AS A "SPIRITUAL SODOM AND EGYPT!" "COME OUT OF HER, AND DO NOT LOOK BACK!"

Now, as I continued to listen to the Spirit of Revelation, I saw that a Threshold has been Crossed in the Realm of the Spirit. I Heard the Spirit Say, "WATCH! FOR THE DAY OF RECKONING NOW COMES UPON THE CHURCH." Friends, as I heard the Spirit speak, I saw that this Divine Reckoning is NOT Speaking to a Mighty Revival, Coming Renewal, or even a Great Spiritual Awakening; it is Speaking to a Time of "DIVINE ACCOUNTING."

It is a KIAROS moment, when the Spirit of the Judge of Heaven literally comes down to Measure. He is Stepping in to Measure the Church. He is Measuring Ministries. He is Weighing Leaders and Nations in the Balance. God is beginning to take Divine Inventory of what we have named; what we have called 'Righteous' and 'OF GOD!'

"Judgment begins not in the world, but in the HOUSE of God." (1 Peter 4:17)

As we look at Revelation 11, we can see that God commands John to Measure the Temple, the Altar, and Those who Worship there. "Measurement is Accountability."

Divine Inspection precedes a Time of Divine Exposure and Dismantling and the Removal of the candle-stands. I hear these Words, "Watch, for the Spirit of God is now coming down to Measure Doctrine, to Measure Leadership, to Inspect Heart Motives, Worship, and the Roots and Fruit upon the Tree." And I hear these Words, "What is Measured is about to be INSPECTED AND TESTED."

I submit, that One of the most Sobering Realities of this Hour is that 'God is Now Renaming' what the 'Church has Misnamed.' The City of Revelation 11 was still called "GREAT." It was still Functioning; it was Growing; it's Highly Populated; it looks to be Thriving and its Religious. THE GREAT CITY GIVES THE APPEARANCE OF 'GREATNESS,' yet Heaven Declares and Calls it out for being 'Something Else!'

God says, "SPIRITUALLY, I CALL IT SODOM AND EGYPT." - a Powerful and Poignant "SPIRITUAL DIAGNOSIS" by GOD HIMSELF. What a Reality, for God to make such a powerful Diagnosis. Yet, Throughout Scripture we can see that when God's people Refused Repentance, He Renamed them. He Called it out for what it truly was; The Spirit of Truth Cut through the veil of deception to Reveal and Expose.

Prophet Isaiah called Jerusalem "Sodom."

The Prophet Jeremiah likened corrupt Leaders to Sodom. Even Ezekiel compared Covenant Jerusalem to Sodom in Pride, in Excess, and Neglect of Truth and Righteousness. We See, that When God Renames something, Mercy has already spoken; Warning has already been given; and Time has already been extended!

Renaming preceded the "Final Mercy" before "Judgment Came!" I submit, that 'Sodom' Speaks Prophetically to "Moral Defiance and Rebellion without True Repentance."

It is not speaking to Weakness, Struggle, or even Ignorance. It is saying, "You have Normalized and Defended what I CALL SIN." Ezekiel Identifies Sodom's core Sins as Pride, Fullness and Indifference to Truth and Righteousness. Isaiah describes it as "Calling Evil Good, and Good Evil!"

In Sodom, Holiness becomes Offensive, and Repentance Unnecessary, and Conviction is Dangerous and must be ignored. THIS SOUNDS LIKE THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT OF LAWLESSNESS WE SEE IN THE CHURCH TODAY! Listen! God does not Judge His People for Stumbling; He Judges them for Refusing to TURN AND RETURN. We know that Sodom fell only "AFTER WARNING;" after Warnings were Mocked and the Call to true Repentance Rejected. Judgment did not come suddenly because God was Impatient; it came because the "GREAT CITY WAS FULLY RIPE."

When we look at 'Egypt,' this part of the Spiritual diagnosis speaks to something different but equally as Deadly and subtle.

Egypt speaks to Spiritual Bondage that, protected by Systems and Structures, Forms and Patterns that were NOT in Alignment with the Plumb-line of God's Covenant and His Kingdom. Remember, Egypt was not at first about Immorality, but about Control.

Pharaoh did not deny God's Existence or Power, but he Resisted God's Command to Release His people. Moses Cried, "LET GOD'S PEOPLE GO!"

'Egypt' here prophetically symbolizes a Religious Environment where People are Saved but NOT Free; they are Active but Bound. Many are highly Gifted in the Church, but they are Controlled and managed - told to "TOE THE LINE." Any System that Resists the Freedom God Commands becomes a "Spiritual Egypt," regardless of how Spiritual it appears. Revelation 11:8 is devastating Spiritual Diagnosis for the Church because it joins Sodom and Egypt.

It is Speaking to Moral Rebellion and Spiritual Bondage coexisting under one roof, a form of aggressive Spiritual Cancer that has Spread and has brought death to many.

Sodom corrupts Morality, while Egypt Enslaves True Kingdom Identity, as Sons.

Together, they Create a Powerful Religious Environment that Silences the Cry for True Repentance, and that Resists and Rejects Correction and seeks to Defend and Preserve Religious Systems at all Costs. I submit, this is why True Apostolic and Prophetic Voices are Rejected and persecuted. This is why the Spirit of Truth is no longer tolerated, but is compromised and then Eliminated from our Gatherings.

When Sodom and Egypt merge, the Church becomes hostile to the very Witnesses God sends to rescue it from Judgment. Let's take a Look at the Revelation of the Two Witnesses.

The Two Witnesses establish Truth and render Judgment. Revelation 11 shows us the Two Witnesses prophesying Truth. But they are not simply ignored. No! they are killed in the street. Why? Because Sodom hates Holiness and Egypt hates Freedom!

The Two Witnesses are Speaking prophetically to God's Unchanging Testimony, Word and Spirit, Law and Prophets, Apostolic and Prophetic Authority. The Ministry of the Two Witnesses Mirrors Moses and Elijah; Moses confronting Egypt's Bondage and Elijah confronting Covenant Apostasy. (Note; In this I See, the SPIRIT HEROD/SPIRIT OF JEZEBEL, A POLITICAL SPIRIT AND RELIGIOUS SPIRIT RISING IN THIS HOUR.)

They speak with Governmental Authority to the Governmental Mantle of the Key of the House of David (Isaiah 22:22), to Call down Judgment, and Confront the Spirit of Apathy and Compromise.

The Two Witnesses are not killed for being False, they are killed in the Streets for being Faithful Servants to Yahweh!

We see that Scripture consistently shows that when a people Silence Apostolic and Prophetic Correction, Judgment follows soon after. Friends, Revelation 11:8 makes an arresting statement. This Great City, Spiritually called Sodom and Egypt is also the place where our Lord was crucified. Jesus was not Crucified by pagans. First, He was Rejected by Religious Leadership who feared Losing Control. They knew the Truth, but they Covered up the Truth because it threatened their Political and Religious Systems.

Whenever the Truth of Christ confronts Compromise and is Silenced, Replaced, or Pushed aside for Comfort, False Peace, or Political Correctness and Stability, He is Crucified Yet again.

Again, I hear the Spirit's command in this Hour: "Come out of her, and Do Not Look Back!" We hear these Words echo throughout Scripture.

Lot was told to flee Sodom and not look back. Israel was commanded to leave Egypt completely. Isaiah called God's people to depart and touch no unclean thing.

Even the Apostle Paul echoed the Call to Separation, to Be Set Apart. Revelation itself pleads, "Come out of her, My people lest you share in her sins and receive of her plagues." This Command is a Clarion Call, and the 'Coming out' is not about leaving Buildings or Organizations or even certain Ministries necessarily. This is a Call to leave and sever Spiritual Agreements that are out of Alignment with Covenant. If it is not built and established on Kingdom foundations and governed by rightful and God-Fearing Authority, it cannot remain. This is not the Hour to become Spiritually Sentimental; we must not be tempted to Look back, for to Look back is to be divided in our loyalty to the King of Kings. The Church cannot be Delivered from what is still Loves and Serves.

The Present Shaking in the Church is not Persecution, but it is Divine Inspection; a Measuring and a Weighing in the Balance. Hebrews tells us God Shakes what can be shaken so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Daniel declared, "You have been weighed and found wanting." In this Critical Hour of Transition and Reform, Hidden things are being fully Revealed, because Mercy always Exposes before Judgment removes. What Repents will be Refined. What Resists the Coming Glory will be Removed! We See how God brought final Judgment on Sodom, but He brought Redemptive Judgment on Egypt. "Sodom experienced Judgment without Recovery, where Egypt experienced Judgment that led to a Mighty Deliverance and a Divine Distinction! Judgment is not God's desire; True Repentance Always is!

I hear a Clarion Call in this Hour, "Return to Me. Return quickly to your First Love!"

True Repentance is Turning. It is Agreement with God against ourselves and our own flesh, and its Radical Obedience without Delay. I submit, that for Leaders especially, Repentance in this hour is "Governmental." It means Restoring Moral Clarity; Dismantling what God is Confronting; Releasing what He says to Release; and Inviting and Embracing Correction rather than Silencing and Rejecting it because it offends the Flesh or threatens the reputation of the Ministry.

Again, we see in the Context of the Two Witnesses killed, it also shows them raised up.

Resurrection Follows True Repentance. God does not expose His Church to Destroy her but to PURIFY AND PREPARE HER FOR THE GREATER GLORY THATS PROMISED Mercy and Restoration is Still Available, but it is ONLY Accessed through SURRENDER AND RADICAL OBEDIENCE AND REPENTANCE.

This is the Hour of Divine Reckoning for the Church as we have never known it.

Spiritual Sodom is being Judged, and Egypt is being Fully Dismantled and Overthrown!

God's Witnesses are being Resurrected and Vindicated. The Word of the Lord is, "Come out of her and Do Not look back." The Church is being Shaken, Sifted and Shifted, and what remains will come forth as Pure Gold – purified, proven, and preserved!

The Call in this Hour to the Great City is "Repent, Return, and be Restored to True Greatness!"

Helen Calder: The Train Station Vision: His Grace Will Make a Way in 2026!

As this new year unfolds, I believe God is ministering these words over us: "My grace will make a way."

It's a simple yet powerful reminder, and it's especially relevant for the season we're stepping into.

God promises, "When you can't see, I will lead you by a way you do not know, and in paths you have not known. I will make darkness light before you, and crooked places straight. These things I will do for you, and not forsake you" (Based on Isaiah 42:16 NKJV).

So, even if the way is not clear right now, you can be assured of this: Your Father is faithful, and He is moving ahead of you.

A Vision of Train Tracks

In early December, I had a vision of train tracks. They were a blend of old wood and metal, and they appeared to be from an old, disused railway. But as I looked, I realized they were in a state of transformation.

New metal was emerging, and it was pure, shining silver! A metamorphosis was taking place. I knew in that moment the silver represented grace and redemption.

That's when the Holy Spirit brought this phrase to mind: "Grace will make a way."

What began as a spontaneous vision in December became a message that God continued to highlight for the year ahead.

A Way in the Wilderness

It reminded me of Isaiah's words: "Listen! It's the voice of someone shouting, 'Clear the way through the wilderness for the Lord! Make a straight highway through the wasteland for our God! Fill in the valleys, and level the mountains and hills. Straighten the curves, and smooth out the rough places. Then the glory of the Lord will be revealed, and all people will see it together. The Lord has spoken!'" (Isaiah 40:3–5 NLT). (Photo via Pexels)

Sometimes, grace looks like disruption. The ground is being carved up, and we don't understand why. We may see only rubble—remnants of what once was or something we valued, a sign of the enemy's work. The track may even appear blocked. Still, God's Word gives us hope. He can reshape the terrain! And as you turn it over to Him and say yes, God is making a way, this year and beyond.

God's Grace Covers the Past

Sometimes, as we begin to move forward, we are tempted to look back, to mourn what could have been, or what we wish we'd done differently. Yet as we contemplate this prophetic picture of the tracks, something unexpected happens: we look behind us, and instead of scars and wreckage, we see grace. The whole landscape is covered in silver, redeemed.

"For His unfailing love toward those who fear Him is as great as the height of the heavens above the earth. He has removed our sins as far from us as the east is from the west." (Psalm 103:11–12 NLT)

Grace Empowers the Leader

A train speaks of motion, direction, and power. It also speaks of leadership and carrying others forward in a vision. Perhaps you've carried prophetic dreams but wonder, "Do I still have what it takes?"

Hear the apostle Paul's words: "But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me" (1 Corinthians 15:10 NKJV).

God's grace is His unmerited favor toward you. It's His action on your behalf, and His power at work within you. So, receive a fresh revelation of God's grace. He hasn't forgotten the vision He gave you. Some of you need to know: God is recommissioning you and grace is reawakening your momentum.

Grace in the Midst of Weakness

Paul knew what it was to feel weak and still move forward by grace. God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness..." (2 Corinthians 12:9 NKJV).

And Paul reflected, "... Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me" (2 Corinthians 12:9 NKJV).

This is the mystery of grace: In the very place where you feel unqualified, God's power rests. You may feel ordinary, but grace empowers you. The Holy Spirit is preparing you to rise. Even now, God is moving, and He is about to do something unexpected.

A Word for Churches: The Train Station Vision

Then suddenly, the vision changed.

I found myself standing at the site of a historic train station. It was a real place I'd visited before, but I knew immediately it wasn't about the location; it was symbolic.

The station had long been shut down. All that remained were relics, a memorial, and a mound of dirt. Yet in that moment, I sensed the Lord's desire rising within me—a fervent call to intercede for churches and communities, regions and high places of influence, where God once moved in power. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

Just like in my vision, there are places where there was once a "station": a gathering point, a move of God, a visible outworking of grace. They've been recorded in the history books, but that chapter has felt closed.

Then, I heard the Lord say, "Make way."

This is because both of these things are happening at once:

- We are pioneering the new and restoring the old.
- We are receiving new blueprints and returning to ancient foundations.

"Those from among you shall build the old waste places; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called the Repairer of the Breach, the Restorer of Streets to Dwell In." (Isaiah 58:12 NKJV)

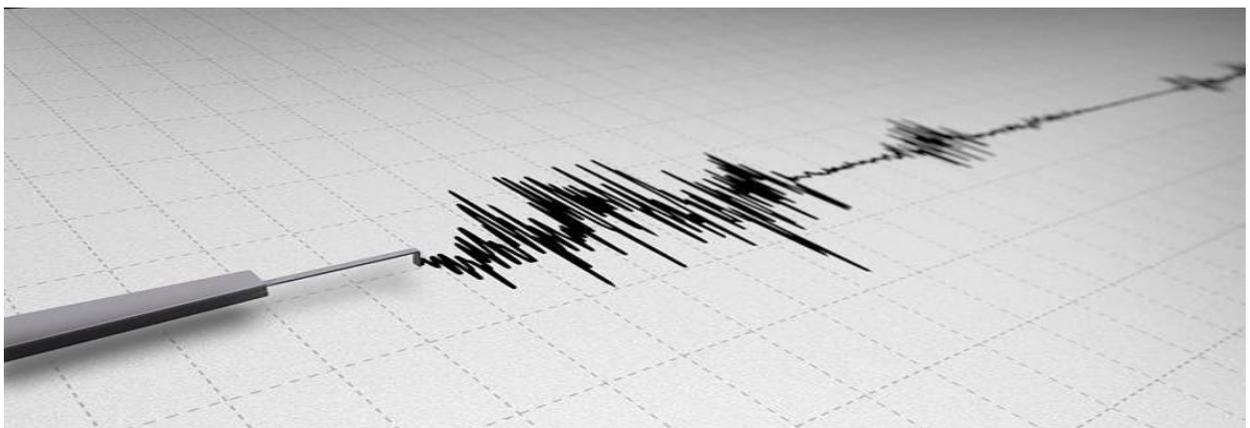

Dancing Again and a Fresh Beginning

As I prayed, I realized God is not only revealing His plans, but He is also inviting us to stand with Him to pray, intercede, and declare. Resurrection power is at work. The life of the Spirit is flowing. And many didn't see Him coming! Some who once danced on what they thought was the Church's grave will dance again in the house of the Lord, giving praise to our God.

So we say, "Come, Lord Jesus."

Today marks a fresh start. And it's not because of anything you've done, or failed to do, but all because of Jesus. The key is in our surrender, because right here, in the face of impossibility, there is a grace encounter. This is the very place where God takes over.

Adar 18 5786: Saturday, March 7, 2026

Bruce Dietler from Chapter 7 of his book , " When the Stars Begin to Fall "

The Great Shaking

"For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land." (Haggai 2:6)

Just before 5:15 A.M. on the morning of April 18, 1906, San Francisco Bay Area residents were abruptly awakened by an ominous deep rumbling underground. This was followed within 30 seconds by a truly massive earthquake. The terrible shaking was punctuated by violent shockwaves which lasted some 45 to 60 seconds. The earthquake lasted for only 90 seconds, yet it was felt from southern Oregon to south of Los Angeles and inland as far as central Nevada. It struck with the impact of six million tons of TNT, which is 12,000 times the power of the atomic bomb which was dropped on Hiroshima. This was the most destructive earthquake in North American history. Based upon damage to the buildings and the distance from the epicenter at which the quake was felt, it was estimated to be 8.3 on the Richter scale, though that scale had not yet been invented. What followed immediately after the quake was a devastating fire, fed by ruptured gas lines. The fire burned uncontrolled for four days, as water mains had also been destroyed in the quake. The unpredictable San Andreas Fault, some 800 miles long and passing through the entire State of California, had shifted. Now, some 80% of the city was destroyed; over 514 city blocks were decimated; 28,000 buildings had collapsed or burned; nearly 250,000 were now homeless, and out of the city's population of 400,000, between 700 and 3000 people lay dead. [Note: the wide discrepancy in number of deaths is due to the fact that some historians chose to not consider Chinese as people, and therefore their numbers were left off from the count.]

Loss of social position was colossal, as everyone was instantly brought to the same level of devastation and destitution. People were traumatized, in great confusion, and terribly shaken as their world had just been destroyed in an instant. Many angry men and women blamed God for the disaster. Others attributed the event to the sins of the people, which had in turn elicited the judgment of God whom they were cursing. Still others looked to scripture for answers and suggested Romans 8:19-21 as a key verse: "The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed. For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God."

A Coming Shaking

For some time now, we have been sensing in our spirits that a mighty shaking is about to be unleashed upon the earth, and specifically upon America. Exactly how and when that might manifest, no one cannot say. It may come as a violent earthquake, as at San Francisco in 1906 or as that which occurred at New Madrid, Missouri in 1811-1812, when a series of three massive earthquakes utterly devastated the region and even briefly reversed the flow of the mighty Mississippi River. It may come in the form of volcanic eruptions along the west coast or in middle-America at Yellowstone. It may come as a 1929-style crash of the ever-so-fragile U.S. financial system – collapse of the fiat dollar, stock market crash, or banking collapse. It may come in the political arena, as riots in the streets, as World War III, or in any combination of the above. Or, it may come directly from the Lord in response to the prayers and declarations of His people for justice, righteousness, and godliness to prevail in the land. Whatever the cause may be, the result will be the same for the unprepared - such devastation as has never been seen before in America. Many will curse God, while vast numbers of others will be forced to seek God with an intensity they have never mustered before in their lives.

Many prophetic voices have been sensing what is to come. In a 2023 church service, at Lord of Hosts Church in Omaha, Nebraska, Pastor Hank Kunneman prophesied the word of the Lord saying, "In these days that you are in, I would shake everything that can be shaken. And so I am," says the living God. "I am shaking the heavens; I am shaking the earth, and I am shaking what is deep, deep, deep under the very soils of your earth, and even in the deep waters, the deep places." Pastor Kunneman believes that God is setting traps for the wicked, such that they will be swallowed up in their own actions. This is not without precedent, as we see such a result in the biblical account of the rebellion of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram in Numbers chapter 16, as they were likewise swallowed by an earthquake.

Pastor Tim Sheets from Ohio has likewise prophesied saying, "Great revival fire will now begin to burn through intercession-soaked regions as My awakening begins to roll. The regions will now become activated by My glory. The time of My shaking has come. I am shaking earth; I am shaking the heavens. Walls, strongholds, obstacles, and hell's defenses are being shaken down, and My remnant is being shaken free. My shaking will open ancient wells of revival. The revival in the womb of My intercessors will now be birthed." He further says from the Lord that the coming days will lead to a time of shaking in September and beyond which would lead us into a reset.

Dutch Sheets, speaking regarding America's ongoing movement of rebellion, depravity, and drug addiction, noted, "A merciful shaking is now coming to finish this reaping process and turn the hearts of Americans back to God and our roots." Dutch has also decreed the reclaiming of California back to its original purpose and dedication spoken in its 1849 Constitution. He said, "As California shakes, releasing the hands of evil from this state, we, Your Ekklesia will be protected. We will not fear the shaking but look forward to the outpouring of Holy Spirit over this land."

It is a little-known fact that the outpouring of Holy Spirit over America in 1906 was directly tied to the San Francisco earthquake. For some time prior to this event, spiritual shock waves had been felt, particularly at two geographic centers: in Topeka, Kansas and Houston, Texas. These early tremors called Christians to pray throughout America. In early April of 1906, a massive spiritual awakening had erupted at a small mission on Azusa Street, in Los Angeles. This Azusa Street Revival, as it came to be called, was first noted in the papers the morning of April 18, 1906! The Azusa Street event was so great that the after-shocks have been felt throughout the world for well over a century, impacting virtually every nation on earth. A new Pentecost had come. God had opened the windows of heaven and had poured out great power to his people once again.

Elijah List contributor Wanda Alger has prophesied, "There is a sound coming. Just like on the day of Pentecost, there is a sound coming from Heaven that will change the course of history. It's a sound that will break through the deafening static of the enemy's distractions and disruptions and set men free to live from a higher realm. It is a sound that will bring healing, restoration, and absolute transformation to soul, spirit, mind, and body." [Note: It may be either the sound of a mighty rushing wind or that of a mighty earthquake.]

Our Proper Response

As we consider the tumultuous times in which we live and the sense of urgency that great shakings may indeed be about to occur in the land, what are we Christians to do? How are we to prepare, and how are we to respond in the event of such devastation? Our number one responsibility and place of safety is for our foundation to be the Rock, Yeshua. Only from that place of unshakeable security can we be rescuers and a stabilizing force for those who know no such security. The Bible assures in Daniel 11:32 that "the people who do know their God shall be strong and do exploits." We must know the Lord God intimately, for it is in Him that our strength is found.

We have the assurance that the Lord Himself will be our high tower, our fortress, our deliverer (Psalm 18:2). We can therefore make a personal profession declaring the words of Psalm 91:1-11: "I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in Him will I trust. Surely He shall deliver me from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover me with His feathers, and under His wings I shall trust: His truth shall be my shield and buckler. I shall not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; A thousand shall fall at my side, and ten thousand at my right and; but it shall not come nigh me. Only with my eyes shall I behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because I have made the LORD, my refuge, the most High, my habitation, there shall no evil befall me, neither shall any plague come nigh my dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over me, to keep me in all my ways." We must be shut in with God in the secret place, under the shelter of His wings. From there, we cannot be shaken.

Likewise, we must daily walk in godly wisdom, prepared, and in obedience to God's Spirit and to His Word in every way we know to do. In other words, we must cooperate with God. It is as we do so, that we, the Ekklesia, will be protected. We must not fear potential shaking but look forward to a mighty outpouring of Holy Spirit over this land. His dunamis power is for the purpose of showing forth His glory, setting captives free, and bringing all men unto Him through us, His body.

The early spiritual tremors of 1900-1906 called Christians to pray throughout America; those same tremors are stirring hearts again in our day. Prayer revivals throughout the land are awakening God's people. Campus ministries have exploded in number and effectiveness for the glory of God. The Ekklesia is arising, sons of God are manifesting upon the earth, and we are assured in Scripture that though darkness fills the land and gross darkness the people, as we arise and shine, the glory of the Lord shall arise upon us and shall be seen upon us (see Isaiah 60:1-2).

With Holy Spirit boldness and confidence, we can pray, and we must, that no work of satan shall prosper in the land and that any destruction or devastation which will come, from whatever source and in whatever manner, would redound to the glory of God; that the power of satan and every wicked spirit in the nations would be broken and their influence shattered; that the ancient wells of revival would indeed be opened; that as in the days of Esther, every wicked plan of God's enemies would be exposed and crushed and that, contrary to all evil planned against them, our God would bring divine deliverance to His people.

An Unshakeable Kingdom

Prophetic leaders are saying that the upcoming shaking will be difficult and challenging, even for committed believers. It will not be merely a ripple we will move on from in a day or two, but a very significant storm. We must therefore encourage ourselves in the Lord, remembering that we are citizens of an unshakeable kingdom and that Our God reigns! He is faithful, and He is well able to deliver us from any and all circumstances. Through Him we are more than conquerors (Romans 8:37). We are destined to move from faith to faith (Romans 1:17), from glory to glory (2 Cor 3:18), and from strength to strength (Psalm 84:7), as He always causes us to triumph in Yeshua (2 Cor 2:14).

We, the bride of Christ, are called to be His movers and shakers in the earth, bringing forth His glory. The coming shaking will dismantle evil, overthrow corruption in the seven mountains of society, including government, and bring a biblical reset to America. Destruction of His church is not God's plan; His plan calls for redemption and restoration of righteousness in the land.

Even as the great fire of San Francisco followed the earthquake, we can believe the fire of God will follow this time to take out all evil in our nation. God's fire is a refining fire that burns up all chaff in its path and in our lives. It will clean out the church until spotless.

The Lord says, "And they [God's people] shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations."* (Isaiah 61:4)

Let us therefore arise and shine in His authority, with great courage, great boldness, great expectation, and great joy as the Lord empowers us for the days ahead. We declare, in advance, His great majesty and glory is moving over the whole earth as the waters cover the sea, and that His glory will be demonstrated even in the midst of destruction as the nations are drawn into the arms of the Savior. We declare that even as San Francisco was, in short order, rebuilt better and more resilient than before, America will arise in the Greater Glory of God as a result of the shaking! We will be strong and of good courage, not afraid or dismayed, for our God is with us.

Be awake! Be prepared! Spiritual shock waves are already going forth with increasing intensity. The shaking has begun. Awaken others, for all things that can be shaken are about to be shaken, and it will likely come suddenly!

The Father's Rest

In the following account you will read some things that may seem outrageous and hard to comprehend. I want to say, I am abundantly thankful for the following encounters, each one, even the hard ones, because they speak more than words. It is also important to note, I do not seek out the experiences you will read below, but I seek the Lord. He does as He chooses to reveal truths and realities that are hard to grasp from words alone.

The Lord has been talking to me in recent days about the incredible rest that exists in the Father. Our Father exists in a place and time outside of the calamity within creation. I know creation is beautiful and is a gift, but it has been subjected to the rebellion of mankind, the rebellion of lucifer, and the Genesis 6 angels who defied the living God. In Genesis 6:2 when scripture refers to the "sons of God," it refers to fallen angels. All of these fallen elements have subjected creation to a reality other than the one the Father intended for us to abide in.

In Christ, who was crucified before the foundations of the world, we live, and move, and have our being. His Kingdom is founded on His finished work and is governed by who He is and what He has done. When we remain in Christ, we also stand on the Cornerstone of Christ, which is the foundation stone of His government.

In Revelation 13:8 we are told Jesus is the lamb that was slain since before the foundations of the world. We know He was slain in the earthly realm on the cross 2000 years ago, but scripture affirms this event had spiritual ramifications in the Heavenly realm prior to creation being formed. In other words, the Godhead had this plan in place before man sinned, and before Lucifer rebelled and was thrown to the earth.

In the fall of 2025, I was taken into a dramatic encounter in the spirit realm, and I saw Jesus standing in the midst of the timeline of creation. His feet, His foundation, extended to a time before creation and gave imagery to what we read – "before the foundations of the world." I saw His body across all created time and space and then saw His head extend through the end of time and into a place after time was concluded. His is the beginning and the end.

Effectively He was crucified before all creation, He exists through all created time, and one day all things will be summed up in Him, and we will enter a new dimension in the Father without time. In fact, all things are summed up in Him now, outside of time, but it must be worked out within the confines of time where we currently live in creation.

I saw a dimension where Christ is stretched across all creation and through the middle of the earth. In fact, when sin entered the world, the world was subjected to bondage, and the world came out of alignment with its original design. As the body, His body, as we come into full maturity in Christ, we will effectively align with Him in creation, causing the earth once again to come back into its proper alignment. Creation will be liberated as the Son's of God mature into this effective place of kingdom governance in Christ.

When we stand on the foundation stone of Christ, in His Kingdom, abiding in Him, we are connected to a reality that exists outside time and space. We are fundamentally connected in the spirit to the Father's throne in Christ, which exists outside of time. We don't have to fully comprehend how this is possible, but scripture points to many realities that are beyond earthly understanding, and this is one of them.

There is a place of rest in the Father that is subject to nothing. He is subject to no created thing, so when we rest in Him, we rest in this real and abiding truth that will not disappear. Scripture tells us the Kingdom of God cannot be shaken, and we know this to be true because it is rooted into the character and nature of God and is not subject to any earthly or fallen thing.

There is a sinister plan of the enemy right now to prevent us from entering this promised rest, but we can be assured that if we abide in Christ, we will be partakers of this rest. When we are seeking the Father's rest, our enemy is threatened because he knows if we enter the Father's rest we will be rooted into a place he cannot affect. We will become a vector of change helping to dethrone his governance.

Recently, I had a strong demonic entity stand before me, and I started to tell it to leave, but Holy Spirit said, "Wait. Sense, feel, become acquainted with the strategy of this entity before you dismiss it, so you know what its tactics are." I do not recommend this to everyone and in all cases, but out of obedience, I did just that – I observed.

This entity's primary strategy was to create an agitated distraction. A sort of unsettledness. The more I applied effort to rest, the less I found rest. The more I tried to act in a way that would bring about a restful rhythm, the more I found rest elusive and fleeting. When in this enemy presence, I could feel pressure coming against my back or my front, seeking to push me forward or hold me back from something. In contrast, when it isn't present, I can feel spiritual life flow freely from my spirit man and inspire life, inspire action.

After some time, I told this entity to leave and it did just that, but I can sense it in the atmosphere during this season. When I seek to abide in the rest of Christ, which is rooted in the unshakable reality of the Father, I find there is conflict between me and this spiritual atmosphere. It is very clear these two realities are in complete opposition to each other.

More recently, this entity once again showed up in the middle of the night beside my bed; immediately I felt the restraint of Holy Spirit. I sensed and felt this enemy power in and around me to the point my soul felt like it was on fire – I was not comfortable. Praying, I asked the Lord what to do, because I could not last very long in this place in that state. He opened a vision below me and I saw a place in the Father that was full of rest, immovable.

By His grace, I sought to rest in the Father and abide in this place between two realities. I could feel His peace in the spirit, and at the same time feel this dark agitating power around me. Over a period of 3-4 hours, I found myself increasingly more rooted in the peace and rest of the Father, and the enemy's atmosphere around me became of little to no effect. In fact, at the end of this time, I was covered head to toe by the glory of the Father as I rested in Him.

This is a year wherein the body of Christ will become more established in our Lord's Kingdom. We will become more established in the Father's rest.

We can prioritize worship and intimacy with Him. When we worship the Godhead, we are transported to a protected place, and we are also surrounded in His glory here and now. His glory absorbs into our very being. We become saturated in His presence and who He is. His very nature washes us and re-establishes us in the place where we abide in Him. We see Him more clearly and therefore, continue along the path of transformation.

The Word: when we ingest the Word, the Word becomes formed in us, and we become like Christ. Christ formed in us becomes the rebar, or the backbone, the structure that can carry the weight of the Father's glory. Apart from Christ we cannot bear up under the glory weight that is coming.

Joining with other like-minded believers who share a singlehearted devotion to Christ will help to create community space where you can rest in the collective display of the Father's goodness. In this season, pride will keep us from the rest of the Father, so choosing to yield to others in loving community helps to protect us from this threat.

2026 will be an amazing year of finding the Father's rest. This is an incredible thought, considering this year we will also see greater shakings in earthen and fallen structures than ever before. As His Kingdom advances and we become established in His rest, the powers of this world will be supplanted by a maturing Bride that comes into a greater awareness of who He is and who we are.

Our most important actions are those that lead us into the Father's rest, but I encourage you to also become increasingly aware for those times you can sense agitation around you. The answer isn't to fight in the traditional sense, but turn your affection to the Lord as described above. Lastly, this power will seek to use others as its vector to draw us out of our rest. Recognize, this isn't about personality. Something bigger is at play. Choose rest, and check your boundaries to ensure you aren't being pushed or pulled in the wrong direction. Once you hold your ground in the Father's rest and extend His boundaries in your life, this pressure will disappear.

Lastly, resting in the Father has no part in being idle, as scripture calls it. Rest can take place when we dedicate time to ceasing from our labors, and it can also be found right in the middle of a high-level activity and execution. Rest is in Christ and comes from the Father, not from our activity or lack of it. Sometimes, we experience rest and think it's because of our level of activity, but more likely it's because in these cases we are aligned with His rhythm.

Blessings as you enter His rest.

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SAY, 'I AM GOING TO THE HEART OF THE MATTER.'

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'I am going to the heart of the matter.'

As I leaned in and listened to the Lord's heart, I heard:

'In this hour, I am going to the heart of the matter. I say unto you, that I am going to the root and I am bringing forth a divine uprooting where things that are not of Me have taken root and become established. I say unto you that I am going after hearts in this hour in deeper ways. I say unto you that I am examining hearts in this hour. I say unto you that I am calling you, My people, deeper into the place of Psalm 139:23-24,

"Search me (thoroughly), O God, and know my heart; Test me and know my anxious thoughts; And see if there is any wicked or hurtful way in me, And lead me in the everlasting way." (AMP)

'There is a deeper invitation in this hour to come deeper into My heart and My thoughts towards you. There is a deeper invitation into the place of truth to hear My Word and allow My revelation and My truth to take root in your hearts. I say unto you, that there are many who are looking at "fruit" in their lives and attempting to fix the fruit. But I say unto you, that as you draw close to Me in this hour, as you seek Me and My Word, by My Spirit you shall see that I am going to the heart of the matter.

'I say unto you, that I am leading you deeper into the heart issues in this hour, for out of the heart flows the issues of life (Proverbs 4:23). I say unto you, that in this hour I am bringing greater revelation and divine insight to you, My people – as you seek Me – of root issues of the heart where lies; unbelief, trauma, fear and other strongholds have taken root and are bringing forth fruit.

'I say unto you that I am bringing you deeper into wholeness, healing and health of heart as you seek Me and as you surrender to Me and obedience to My Word. I am calling you up higher into My divine truth and revelation of My ways, and I am causing you to renounce the lies that have kept you bound. I am causing you, at the revelation of My Word, to renounce the things that have kept your heart bound and sick; and I am bringing you deeper into freedom, wholeness and healing of heart as you seek Me and My Word.

'For I say unto you, that there are many in this hour who are dealing with the fruit that is flowing from troubled and unrested hearts. And I say unto you, that I am bringing you to the heart of the matter, and I will bring peace, rest and healing to your hearts and draw you deeper into the revelation of John 14:1 "Do not let your heart be troubled (afraid, cowardly). Believe (confidently) in God, and trust in Him (have faith, hold onto it, rely on it, keep going and) believe also in Me" (AMP). For there are many who have been deeply troubled of heart for many, many years, and I say unto you, in this hour, I am bringing you deeper into heart health, rest, and peace as you seek Me and surrender to My process.

'For I say unto you, that where there are many in this hour who are feeling like much is being revealed in the heart – where you are feeling much is coming to the surface, where you are experiencing the physical effects of a troubled heart within your body – I say unto you, be not overwhelmed, discouraged or dismayed by what I am bringing to the surface. Your eyes are not to be on what I am bringing to the surface, your eyes are to remain on Me. Look at Me, look into My eyes and be saturated, refreshed and strengthened again in My love for you. Listen to My Words of truth that I am speaking to you and to your heart and BE HEALED. I say unto you that I am revealing, exposing and uprooting things in the heart and going deeply into the heart of the matter: to set you free and to see you walk in the healing that is Yours in Me.

'Matthew 11:28 says:

"Come to Me, all who are weary and heavily burdened (by religious rituals that provide no peace), and I will give you rest (refreshing your souls with salvation). Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me (following Me as My disciple), for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest (renewal, blessed quiet) for your souls. For My yoke is easy (to bear) and My burden is light." (AMP)

'As you seek Me in this hour, I am bringing you deeper into the revelation and manifestation of the JOY of your salvation. I am restoring to you the JOY of your salvation (Psalm 51:12). I am bringing you, by My Spirit, deeper into the places of awakening to your inheritance in Me – to your salvation and a deep, fortified rest in the deeper revelation of your salvation and all that I purchased for you in your salvation. I say unto you, that I am causing your hearts to hunger for Me and for My Word in greater ways in this hour. As I go to the heart of matters, as I go to the root issues in this hour, I am causing hunger and faith to rise in you to take Me at My Word: and to grow in believing and seeing that which I have promised you in My Word and My wisdom to see your hearts healed and restored.

'I am bringing conviction upon hearts of the truth of My Word, and calling you higher in obedience and alignment to My Word. For where many have felt they have been walking led by their soul, I say unto you, that I am bringing you into a deeper place of strength and fortification in Me as you surrender to My Word, to My truth and to My thoughts towards you and for you. I am healing hearts and minds as you obey My Word. I am restoring hearts that have been wounded. I am healing hearts that are broken and caged in trauma. I am breathing life to hearts again and bringing hearts into wholeness as you surrender to My ways and the process that I have you in.

'I say unto you, that I am restoring the years of deep pain, grief and trauma. I am bringing restoration and as I go to the heart of the matter, I say unto you; that by My Spirit, you shall see, as you align with Me, decades of deliverance take place in a moment. Watch Me and what I am doing and what I am about to do. Watch the power of My spoken Word and how one word out of My mouth changes everything. Watch the changes of heart that will take place in an instant as you HEAR and RECEIVE and BELIEVE My Word spoken to you. I am changing and breaking years of narratives that have been spoken over you that were not from My heart, and I am establishing you in the conversation of heaven over you and your lives. I am RESTORING YOU and YOUR HEART!

'I say unto you, that there are some who are wanting to rush the process, but I say unto you, rest in the process. For what I am doing in your lives, hearts and bodies, as I go to the heart of the matter, is bringing a greater divine reset than you realize. Do not rush the process. Surrender to Me and My ways and My timing and pace, for I am doing something far greater than you realize. I say unto you, as you yield to My timing and My way in this process, I am also bringing you deeper into My wisdom in how you live your lives. I say unto you, that I am bringing forth My wisdom to live your lives in greater health, healing and wisdom.

'I am realigning boundaries. I am examining the pace of life that many are living by. I am bringing forth divine strategy and wisdom in this hour that will require some major life adjustments for many, to live in a holistically healthy and balanced way according to My ways and My Word. For many have been running on empty for so long, and I am bringing you to a standstill in this hour; to pause, to selah, reset and be refreshed. I am dealing with the WHY behind the running, the WHY behind the busyness, the WHY behind many things, and bringing you into deeper rest and peace.

'I say unto you, that I am bringing forth a divine reset that is going to see you arise and stand in greater strength, boldness and healing in Me – once I have completed My Word in this season, as you yield to Me – that is far greater than you realize. I say unto you, that there is a great UNDOING taking place within you, but oh, the deeper place of COMMUNION I am bringing you into. I am bringing you into a place of communion with Me that you have not walked in or known before. Be with Me. Sit with Me. Seek Me. For I have great things to reveal to you.

'I am bringing you into rhythms of rest in Me and peace in Me that are far greater than you have known and walked in. I am the God who restores ALL and MORE. I say unto you, this is a full-circle hour of fullness. I am bringing you deeper into places of the manifestation of the fullness of what I have promised you in your midst. For many of you have been caged in such heart-sickness for so long, you have forgotten who you are in Me. Your fire has been dimmed, and your strength has been taken; but as I am bringing you deeper into the place of communion with Me, I am bringing you into new levels of strength, joy and freedom in Me that is unprecedented.

'In this hour, I am not only bringing you back to life and revealing to you in greater ways what it looks like to live fully alive in Me, but you will see long awaited heart's desires fulfilled. You will see your heart glad in the fulfilment of the desires I have placed within your hearts, and you shall dream again.'

Nate Johnston: The Key to Our Turnaround

This Is a Ferocious Take-Back Moment

Word from the Lord released on January 13, 2026:

"From the days of John the Baptist until now, the Kingdom of Heaven has been subjected to violence, and violent people have been raiding it."

(Matthew 11:12 NIV)

I have been prophesying for a while now that we are in a "John the Baptist" moment. Right now, eyes are opening. In the tail end of a season of spiritual bullying, God is revealing to us who we really are, and it's changing everything we know. Let me say it like this: whether we see it yet or not, we are in an awakening after a long season of the enemy's swirls making us buy in to defeat.

Let me prophesy a little today, because I feel so fired up on this.

Since we stepped into 2026, I have felt a stirring in my spirit that we are in a take-back season as the Church. Really it's us, as the Body of Christ, stepping into who we are called to be and out of the messy wilderness and battles we have been in. It's been a five and seven-year window, where the enemy has amped up warfare on our seed to steal our harvest—the one that is needed and expected now. So, we've been through a period of time where the enemy has been roaming around like a lion, trying to devour and rob us from many angles for many years.

But the thing is, when we think of robbery, we instantly think about our finances. We think about our health. We think about our marriages. We think about all those tangible things, and they're all true, because they're the areas closest to home. But the enemy's ultimate target has been our voices and our destinies, as well as something the enemy has seen coming that we may not have even realized.

As the Church has been in a shift, coming out of an old, religious wineskin into the new, we have also, personally, been coming out of old, religious wineskins and coming into new ones. The enemy was able to see that we were in line for mantle and anointing upgrades that were going to break bonds and cause us to step into a place where we were fiercely opposing his plans and taking back territory for the Kingdom of God. That is why, in these past five to seven years, there's been such an assignment of depletion, exhaustion, and distraction to get us to a place where, when the shift takes place in our lives, we will be too defeated to step into it.

I hear the Lord saying, "This year, recognize the moment, spiritually, that you've been in."

We must recognize the spiritual assignment and detach it from the natural, detach it from the trauma and the pain of what we've gone through, and recognize it for what it is: an assignment against our lives from the enemy—the kingdom of darkness opposing the Kingdom of life on the inside of us. It is the false lion opposing the Lion of the tribe of Judah and the voice on the inside of us. Begin to recognize that there is something so mighty, powerful, and weighty that the Lord has been leading us into, something the enemy has been afraid of.

Let me make this really clear: this is a take-back season for us to step into our mantles. It's a take-back season for us to take back what the enemy has stolen.

As I'm sharing this, I keep hearing the old Sunday school song: "I went to the enemy's camp, and I took back what he stole from me" (Enemy's Camp by Lindell Cooley). I keep hearing that this is going to be a take-back season for each of us personally, as well as our families, our marriages, our voices, and our callings. It's also going to be a take-back season for us in our cities, in our regions, and as a nation.

I keep hearing the Lord say that He's raising up the movers and the shakers to go and stand at the eastern and western walls of nations to fortify the nations in prayer and intercession. This is going to be a mobilization season where we're stepping out of old paths and old methods that have been powerless and stepping into an apostolic blueprint to go and take territories, evict principalities, and begin to establish the Kingdom of God in those places.

Yes, this is going to be a take-back season for the Body of Christ. It's a take-back season on all fronts. It's a take-back for families. It's a take-back for everything that's been at war in our lives, but it's going to require us to step out of the defeat that's been over us. It's going to take us picking ourselves up off the battlefield floor and beginning to shake off the dust of a past season of failure, a past season where everything was against us, a past season of nonstop slander, betrayal, and robbery on every front. (Photo via Pexels)

We're going to have to shake it off. And even now, I hear the Lord saying, "Leave your 'defeat' season behind. Leave your sickbed." Just as Jesus wiped the dust from His feet, it's time to wipe the dust from our feet. It's time to step out of the old shroud, the old, tattered mantle we've been wearing that is no longer conducive to a new season. We have to step out of that. And it's not just our mantles we're going to have to step into. This is what the Lord said to me: "It's time to step into your office."

If we have ever been unclear or unsure about our callings, this is a moment where the Lord is dismantling us, mantling us, and commissioning us for the office we were born for.

I'll never forget a man of God's response many years ago when he was asked, "What is the greatest insulator against warfare?" He said, "Owning and stepping into your office."

We all know we're anointed. We're called. We're gifted. But few of us have ever recognized the office we belong in... This office is our God-ordained sphere of influence. It carries authority and a realm of dominion that evicts every single principality and power. It's a place of decreeing and releasing that which ushers in the Kingdom of Heaven. When we understand our office, we will step into a realm of overcoming. We will step into breakthrough that's unlike anything we've ever seen.

Just a few nights ago, I had a dream where I was in a region, decreeing over it for a specific thing. And in the dream, I could feel the authority of my office through the Holy Spirit being released into that region. What if, right now, we are in an Isaiah 22:22 season, where the Lord is releasing the keys of David, His governmental reign, and a new governmental season over the Body of Christ? What if this is the moment where the Lord is saying, "I'm changing the guard," not just where there has been an old religious order, but where other religions, idols, false ways, false laws, and false gods have been dominating our lands?

In this hour, the Lord is raising us up to be a governmental Church that knows who we are. We will rise from the ashes of an old season and an old era. He is putting a new mantle on us, and we are stepping into our offices to shift and shape nations according to His will and His plans.

It's time to shake off the dust and begin to take back everything the enemy has stolen from us, in Jesus' name.

So here's the challenge—to get out of our sickbeds this year, to remember who we are, and to remind ourselves of our anointing.

Are Our Bodies Telling Us Something?

Word of the Lord was released on January 14, 2026:

Could our bodies be telling us something right now about the season we have been through? Are our bodies showing the signs that we have been through both warfare and transition?

People don't talk enough about the fact that when we go through transition, migration, trauma, pain, warfare, and massive change in a short period of time, it affects our bodies on a cellular level. And in the same way that we have been mentally and emotionally fatigued in our souls, that fatigue has actually affected us physically, causing fatigue in our cells and even in many situations, causing symptoms and sicknesses that have manifested in our bodies. Not to mention that in the last ten years, the enemy has increased warfare against our bodies on an environmental, food, vaccine, and pharmaceutical level that has accumulated and hit an all-time high, where we are suddenly beginning to feel the effects of it all. (Photo via Pexels)

So many of us, right now in 2026, are feeling not just fatigued or soul-sick, we're actually experiencing depletion and areas of sickness in our bodies, and the Lord wants to set us free. I keep hearing the Lord say, "Decree over the Church

Romans 10:13: those who call upon the name of the LORD shall be saved and delivered."

The word for saved in this verse is the Greek word "sózó" (Strong's G4982), which means "to save," "to heal," and "to deliver." So as we decree it, it's going to realign us. I believe this is what the Lord is decreeing, and as we decree this, we're going to come back into an alignment in our bodies, minds, spirits, and souls from everything that we've walked through.

In fact, I had a dream about this very thing: I was asking people to begin to declare apostolically over regions, their own lives, families, and their own bodies, "Those who call upon the name of the LORD shall be saved and delivered." Right now, we need to ask the LORD to heal us and deliver us from everything we've walked through—all of the trauma and pain and their connection points in our bodies. As we do, God is going to release us from both, in Jesus' name.

Let me also say that we are coming into a time where God is increasing our awareness of our three realms—soul, spirit, and body—and helping us understand how they converge and intersect. We are also about to see a major wave of innovation and strategic, holistic wisdom, and natural cures arise to counteract the enemy's plans in this area.

Decree with me:

Lord, heal and deliver me—body, mind, and soul—in Jesus' name!

Let's take back "healthy and whole" from the enemy in 2026!

The Lord Told Me the Key to Our Turnaround

Word of the Lord was released on January 15, 2026:

This has been a season where God has been revealing areas where we've been stuck—stuck in messes, stuck with Ishmaels, stuck with people, stuck in mindsets, stuck in places, and stuck in old assignments. We have started to level up in our discernment to see where we have been stuck and why we have been robbed. But what I have sensed lately is that while we need that discernment, the "knowing" doesn't fix the problem; it's simply the revealing of it.

In 1 Chronicles 12:32, the sons of Issachar discerned the times and then knew the strategies to know what to do. You see, when we are caged, we don't just need to know why, we need to know how to get out. That's what God is revealing to us right now—the spiritual strategies or keys to leave the place of bondage we have been in.

So with that in mind, I have a word from the Lord over us for 2026, but it's crucial for us to step into it right now. It's time to receive heavenly wisdom and strategies from the Lord to untangle and unmesh us from the mindsets and spiritual dynamics that we have been in for years, that have robbed and yoked us, and then finally move out of that place and back into fruitfulness.

Let me be specific. As I shared previously, in regard to this season being anointed as a ferocious take-back moment, I kept seeing the numbers five and seven highlighted. The Lord showed me that there has been a significant assignment of delay and sabotage against our fruit, which began in 2019 and again in 2021, where specific issues and delays have continued to intensify until now. I kept seeing rotten fruit and seeds, and the Lord showed me that they represented the assignment that has been against God's people. It has been an assignment of barrenness and unfruitfulness, which then brought hope deferred and a war against our seed to prevent our fruit. (Proverbs 13:12) Right now, God is revealing the spiritual situation and also the strategy—the keys to break free from the assignment. (Photo via Freerange Stock)

Next, I had a vision of a court case in session, and there was confusion that settled in the room. It was like the case was held up. I knew the case had been dragging on for years and years, and a restlessness was upon the people as a result. They asked, "How do we settle this case? What is the key?"

Right after that, the key dropped. You see, I have been in a season where God has personally been speaking to me about Proverbs 6:30–31, about the thief having to repay sevenfold. Very recently, I was praying for the key to sevenfold restoration when I heard the Lord say, "The key to the sevenfold return is the seventy times seven, seventy times seven, seventy times seven!"

He said "seventy times seven" three times, reminding me of the three days of death to life with the finished work of the cross, and the three times He restored Peter after Peter had denied Him. So, to be clear, the key to the sevenfold restoration is FORGIVENESS, just as Jesus forgave our debts on the cross and forgave Peter for denying Him three times.

If we want to get UNSTUCK, it's not just about saying the source of the problem, but doing the heart work to untie ourselves from it! The key to this turnaround for us right now is found in full forgiveness that then unleashes the full release in the courts of Heaven. Unforgiveness is what has been holding up our case in the courts; it is what has been holding things up in the heavenlies. We have been dealing with pain that has been lingering in our souls, and we have to release it!

The delays and mounting injustices that have been against us these past years have actually been because of a court case in the heavens. And we did not fully understand that the key to the case being released is the principle of "seventy times seven." (Matthew 18:21–22)

Here's where it gets even deeper. The Lord then said to me, "So many feel like they have been through a Job season, but they don't know the key."

I said, "Lord, what is it?"

He led me to Job 42:10. Ready for this?

"After Job had prayed for his friends, the Lord restored his fortunes and gave him twice as much as he had before." (Job 42:10 NIV)

This hit me like a ton of bricks, and I fell to my knees in repentance. "Lord, if there's anything in me, I'm sorry... I FORGIVE, I RELEASE, I BLESS!"

Only two days after God spoke this to me, I was sent a video by Bill Johnson about restoration. He started talking about Job 42:10, and I almost fell off my chair! He had preached this message seven months ago!

God is declaring this so loudly right now. In this past season, we had to step into true discernment, boundaries, and understanding the spiritual dynamics that have been against us. But sometimes, through experiencing legitimate injustice, we can step into a critical spirit and allow the accuser access. We unknowingly step into the role of judge and executioner in our own lives, and that is not our role. God does not expose assignments of the enemy or the people involved in them for the sake of vengeance. He exposes them so we can realize that the only way to be set free and restored is to release and forgive. This is not just about releasing others; it's about releasing ourselves and, for many, forgiving ourselves.

Right now, we are in a moment where the Lord is bringing us into a five and seven-year window of jubilee. The Lord is releasing us from delays, false starts, and things that have postponed the call of God on our lives and created problems. (Photo via Pexels)

The Lord says, "Now, in this season, I am going to repay."

The key in this moment is to release ourselves and others from what was done against us and what the enemy used them to do—robbery and delay—causing situations where it has seemed too late or too impossible to recover from.

The Lord is saying over us, "This is the week I reveal My take-back plan. This is the week I show you what your life looks like beyond the storm you've known."

The Lord is also releasing us from double-mindedness—the tension between seeing the assignment and wanting justice served.

The Lord says, "This is where you must allow Me to be your vindicator. Allow Me to set you free. Allow Me to bring restoration. Allow Me to bring the sevenfold return as you forgive seventy times seven."

This is truly a divine season of strategy, deliverance, and restoration.

Lastly, the Lord has been showing me that as prophetic people, we can sometimes be so focused on tearing down principalities and powers that we neglect the condition of our own hearts. It becomes easy to believe the problem is only external, without addressing where it has taken root within us—where strongholds, landing pads, or areas of commonality have formed through prolonged warfare by people, principalities, and powers.

This is a moment where the Lord is healing hearts by revealing the state of our own hearts. I keep seeing a sweet fragrance being released right now. The Lord is tenderly bringing us back into a place of softness and tenderness in areas where hearts have become stony or cold because of pain.

We can be Jeremiahs. We can be reformers. We can tear down and overturn tables, but we must also build. I believe the most significant way the Lord has us build after devastating betrayal is by having us rebuild in our own hearts through forgiveness and release. As a result, that which has been held up in heavenly jurisdiction can now be released, because we are no longer relying on our own righteousness, which is just like filthy rags, but instead we are relying on the finished work of the cross.

We must take stock of our hearts, forgive, bless, release, and deal with any areas of commonality so we don't give the enemy any more room. And above all else, let the finished work of the cross and the blood speak. God is untying the court case against us in Jesus' name!

"So now the case is closed. There remains no accusing voice of condemnation against those who are joined in life-union with Jesus, the Anointed One." (Romans 8:1 TPT)

MY KINGDOM is Justice.

Frances and I were seeking the LORD and pressed through into an open vision/ascension for nearly an hour. We started with repentance and communion seeking the LORD for forgiveness for our attitudes, actions, and failures from us and the body of Christ.

I cried out, "Lord, Where is the peace and joy of the season, the abundance that was promised? Has the enemy stolen everything we stand for, FATHER?" As we entered in after repentance and communion, we were met by an angel named "Contender" whom I have encountered on several occasions. He said we had an appointment with the LORD, and escorted us through the portals of Heaven to a place we had been before.

We arrived at the Rotunda where we had visited in 2018; the doors of Heaven and the Treasury are located there. Suddenly, the LORD appeared, and everything bowed before HIM as every door in heaven opened before HIM.

What our LORD said next troubled me to my core. He said, "The enemy of your souls wants his kingdom on earth to have an effect on the KINGDOM IN HEAVEN; the greatest attack is yet to come. The time is short, and what we do next is very important." Satan seems to believe if he can destroy the children of GOD and the move of God that he can reenter Heaven as victorious. He has lost everything yet refuses to give up.

YESHUA said to me, "How we pray and worship would determine the direction of the nations and what President Trump would have to say this year. The greatest attack of the enemy is yet to come, PRAY. My children do not realize the power they have and the legions of angels that are available to be dispatched. They need to pray 'MY WORD;' it is the only thing that the Host responds to." (Psalm 103:20)

During our prayer journey, the LORD said many personal things to Frances and me, "You are forgiven, go and sin no more." HE knew I wanted to do exploits for the KINGDOM, yet He repeated to me, "Enter into that which I have already done and am doing, call upon my Host, speak MY WORD, and the angels will perform it, for they obey MY WORD, not man's commands. Send forth the legions at your disposal."

Each of Us is Called to See with Spiritual Insight What our LORD is Showing for the NOW!

Unfortunately, we are in a season of war that has not lessened, but increased. You can see it on every front. It seems to be that everyone I know is so involved at home, at work, or in recreation, and more so the church, that we cannot "see the forest for the trees." Our enemy knows how to attack us on every front.

Thankfully, the LORD is sending HIS TROOPS to assist us. Let me tell you of a recent encounter. Several of us were praying to come up higher and allow us to see what HE was saying. Again, HE is inviting us into HIS presence. An angel appeared with this word, Psalm 91:11 For He will give His angels charge over you to accompany and defend and preserve you in all your ways [of obedience and service].

At that point, he escorted us onto the Mountain of the LORD. The angel was enormous. He carried in his right hand a flaming sword, and in his left hand, a scale which had the words "Justice" on one side and "HIS LOVE" on the other. The Lord Appeared before us and said, "I AM SENDING MY ANGELS OF JUSTICE INTO THE EARTH, YEAH, THEY HAVE ALREADY BEEN SENT. THEY WILL WEIGH THE HEARTS OF MAN TO SEE WHO WILL RECEIVE THE LOVE OF MY SON. THOSE WHO RECEIVE HIM WILL HAVE THE SWORD CUT OFF THE BONDAGE OF SIN AND DEATH AND WILL RECEIVE THE JUSTICE OF MERCY. THOSE WHO DO NOT RECEIVE HIM WILL RECEIVE THE SWORD OF THE WRATH RESERVED FOR THE ENEMIES OF THE LORD YOUR GOD AND THE JUSTICE RESERVED FOR THEM IN THE FIRES OF HELL."

Our enemy, the devil and his minions, are continually on attack trying to wear us down through discouragement, sickness, financial burdens, and more. We are GOD'S warriors who stand between the enemy and our promises. We all have been calling out those promises as we wait on GOD to do the miracles on our behalf.

The Harvest is ripe, the vine dresser is doing HIS work, and it is time for the harvesters to go into the fields. Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I, Send me!" Are we ready? Are we truly ready for Justice. Because the Church goes first and Judgement comes with Justice.

Lana Vawser

I HEARD THE LORD SPEAKING TO MANY 'THERE IS A HEART HEALING HAPPENING, DEEPER THAN YOU REALIZE. TRUST MY PROCESS'

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'There is a heart healing happening, deeper than you realize. Trust My process.'

As the Lord spoke these words, I felt strongly that there were many right now in a deep season of heart healing and there were many right now that were feeling the intensity of the journey that they are walking into greater wholeness and healing. I could feel the Father's heart so strongly for these ones to trust the process that the Lord is taking you through, for the Lord is leading you into greater revelation and manifestation of life and wholeness in Him.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard:

'There are many in this season who have felt their hearts and lives have been marked by pain, grief, trauma, hardship and despair. I say unto you, that greater are My plans for you than you realize. And I say unto you, speak life to your hearts. Speak My Word to your hearts. For in this hour you shall see greater manifestations of the power of My Word to heal and to deliver. (Ps 107:20)

I say unto you, it is imperative in this hour that you guard your hearts with all diligence (Prov 4:23) and you continue to yield to My process, My leading and My ways as I lead you and teach you to walk in greater health of heart, mind and body. I say unto you, that as you partner with Me in this hour in the ways I am leading you – My divine strategy and wisdom – there is a divine overhaul that I am bringing forth in your lives as you agree with Me and My Word.

'In this hour, I am tilling the ground of your hearts that have been sick, barren, dry and wounded. I say unto you, I am overturning the ground of your hearts, and I am making room for My truth and My Word to come and take root.

'I say unto you, in this hour I am delivering you from the filters that have clouded your discernment. I say unto you, I am bringing forth a greater deliverance to hearts where lies, woundings and the things that have hindered have affected discernment. I say unto you, that I am bringing you deeper into the depths of being disciplined in discernment as you continue to yield to My process, My way, and obey My Word.

'I say unto you that there are many who are being caught up in the noise in the atmosphere and have found their hearts cluttered with much concern and worry. I say unto you, do not worry about tomorrow for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own (Matthew 6:34). I say unto you again, cast all your cares upon Me for I care for you (1 Peter 5:7). I am calling you to come away from the noise, I am calling you deeper into the secret place, to quiet the chaos that attempts to steal your vision and weigh down your heart. This is the hour to come before Me in quiet reflection in deeper ways than you have before and to hear My whisper, for I have much to show you and reveal in this hour. (Jeremiah 33:3)

'As you come before Me, come with an open and surrendered heart, lay down agendas and come to hear My voice and that which I want to speak. For there are many who have felt their hearts caged in fear in this hour and many are feeling the burden of fear and anxiety in greater ways than they have before: and I say unto you, My people, My peace I give you and My peace I have left with you (Matt 14:27). I am bringing your heart into deeper places of rest and peace in Me, but you must guard your heart above all things for everything you do flows from it. (Prov 4:23)

'I am changing the landscape of your heart in this hour. For where you have looked and see great pain, loss, dryness, barrenness and brokenness; as you follow Me and My leading in obedience to My Word, you shall see GREAT TRANSFORMATION. For this is the hour where I am bringing you to the higher place. I am awakening you to see from My perspective in greater ways; and you shall see that by the transformation of My Spirit, that which has always been, will no longer be. I say unto you that this is a new day of heart health as you obey My Word and surrender to My process, releasing to Me all that has weighed you down and broken your heart – I am healing your hearts.

'I say unto you, come to Me boldly and allow My embrace to surround your hearts, it is time to bring things into the light and come deeper into the place of purity and holiness through repentance and alignment with My Word and My truth.

'I say unto you, in this hour, as you seek Me and lay your hearts before Me, you shall see MY TRUTH CONQUER you. I say unto you, this is the hour where I am shining My light on all things that are not of Me and not in line with My Word; and I am bringing freedom, healing and deliverance.

'I say to those of you who have been wanting to run and hide and have found what I am bringing to the surface in your hearts hard to handle: I say unto you, that I am close to you and you shall experience My comfort, My healing and My grace as you lay your hearts bare before Me. I am calling the hidden places of the heart out of hiding. I am calling YOU out of hiding. I say unto you, that I do not call the hidden places of your heart out of hiding without gracing you with the grace and the courage to obey that which I am calling you to do. I say unto you, arise son, arise daughter in this hour and come into deeper places of vulnerability of heart towards Me and watch what I am going to do. I am going to astound you with My healing power and My goodness.

'There have been some who have been suffering in silence for so long, and I say unto you, I have been with you in the silent struggles; I have been with you in the silent suffering that no one else has seen. I am deeply ministering to you and your heart in this hour as you draw near to Me and hand Me your heart. I say unto you that your days of silent suffering are over. I say unto you, that you are entering the days of the greatest manifestation of My power to heal and deliver you. In your eyes, it has always been one way, but I say unto you, that I am here to deliver, restore and bring recompense to you in many ways. I say unto you that what has been stolen from you is not only being restored to you, but I am adding more.

'I am marking you afresh with My goodness and My love, and my goodness and mercy will follow you (Psalm 23:6). Watch in this hour how I bring you deeper into the revelation and manifestation of Psalm 23:5, "You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows." Watch in this hour as I bring you deeper into the revelation and manifestation that I am your strong tower (Prov 18:10). Watch in this hour as My abundance flows into your life.

'I say unto you, come deeper into the place of faith, come deeper into the place of taking Me at My Word, and believe Me and believe IN Me. For the places that have been marked with the greatest ADVERSITY, I say unto you that in this hour I am bringing forth a mighty shift and turning where you shall see these places now marked with ABUNDANCE. The abundance of My goodness, My love, My healing, My transformation and My grace.

'Hold to Me and trust Me. There is a mighty undoing taking place. There is a mighty purifying taking place. There is a mighty healing by My Spirit taking place. I am leading you into deeper places of life, healing and health of heart IN ME – as you yield to My way, My process and partner with Me in the move of My Spirit that is bringing your heart back to life in many ways.'

A dear friend, Terry Friesen's dream hits home as to where and how desperate we are to stay on course, or as I stated last year, to "hold the line." Many intercessors are experiencing the LORD jumping them either backward in time to deal with old woundings or forward to prepare them for what is ahead; interesting times as our LORD "RESETS" the times and seasons we are in. Look at the dream Terry Friesen experienced.

Terry Freisen: A dream and message.

Several years ago, the Lord confronted me and asked me if I was willing to give up a contentious reality. At the time I really didn't understand. Was I willing to give up the need to wrestle with life and simply receive the best He had for me? Are you ready to enter into the ease of our Father?

The Lord gave me a very sobering warning dream recently one morning - I am very thankful that He did.

Progressively, the yoke of Christ in my life has become more and more restrictive. He has been actively working to remove pockets of independence and rebellion from my life, which I agreed to.

In the dream, I was feeling the very tight place of His yoke, and in this "protected" place I had very little room to move, almost no room, so form-fitting is the yoke.

In this tight restrictive place, I chose to exercise my independence and rebel against the tightness I was feeling. I just wanted to stretch and feel some freedom in my will. As I did, I could feel my exercise of independence - and in so doing I could see and feel the hordes of hell recognize my state: I was just Terry, "uncovered." They started to circle me and prepare to attack me. The atmosphere became black, and I started to panic, realizing I was outside of my protection.

I quickly yielded to Christ, declared Him as LORD, and exercised my authority in Christ to marshal hosts to tear down this assault.

Once again, I chose to yield, become small, and fit into the yoke Christ has placed on me. The minute I did this; I once again became invisible to the enemy. This is very sobering and very real. The yoke of the Lord can feel very restrictive at times, especially in this area of dominion. I know that boundless freedom is on the way for me and my life, but not until this call to rule and reign with Him has been formed in me and I become one with the yoke of His leading and protection.

This process has dramatically intensified in recent years and seems to be culminating around the concept of dominion. Even when we say yes to the dominion we've been given and when we embrace the call, we do so in Christ, conformed to His image. In this place, we are protected and can exercise full authority.

The further we go in this direction, the more critical it is we do not operate independently of our Lord. We are entering very serious times as we are being entrusted with the full weight of His Kingdom as sons and daughters. Let's not lose our step in the training and reigning process. This is not a dress rehearsal, this is real.

The Holy Watchers and The Nations at War! (Updated)

July 15, 2025 Veronika West

Preface

I heard the Spirit say, "Watch! 2026 will be a Year where the KING and His DOMAIN will be Established in Greater Power in the Earth Realm!"

A Prophetic Word that speaks to the days ahead!

A redemptive Window of Time and the decree of The Holy Watchers!

Today 17 December 2025 (12/17/2025 = 17/12/2025)

As I woke up this morning I was impressed by The Holy Spirit to repost this Prophetic Word.

Please take note!

The Holy Watchers and The Nations at War!

"The Holy Watchers of Daniel Four have come with the Decree — To chop down The Tree!

Watch! 2026 — A Redemptive Window of Time to dig and to fertilize!

2027 — Great Uproar and Nations at War, as The Sword of The Peacemaker falls!"

For background and context, please also see the related HisKingdomProphecy.com Word: "The Day of the Great Candlestick Removal Has Begun!"

On the 10th July, God began to download the following Word. I hereby submit this Word for Testing, Weighing and Prayer.

A Prophetic Timeline! The next three (3) years!

See; Daniel 4, Luke 13 (1+3=4) and Mark 11. !

Watch! The next seven months are critical months.

- 2026 — a one-year Redemptive Window of Time to dig around and to fertilize The Tree.
- 2027 — The Sword of The Peacemaker shall fall.
- The beginning of a greater separation of Goat and Sheep Nations.

First!

See Daniel 4:16,

"Let his heart be changed from that of a man, let him be given the heart of a beast, and let seven times pass over him."

Note the words "let seven times pass over. him".

'Seven Times' and the words 'Pass Over' were highlighted to me.

I submit, the next seven months He is passing over The Nations. The Blood must take center stage!

We know that in this context of the scripture, "seven times" here is speaking to "years."

But then God starts speaking to me about the next Seven (7) Months — which started in this '7th month' [July 2025] as highly strategic months.

So, we need to be watching, praying and seeking for greater Revelation and Understanding as we move forward and advance!

The LORD showed that the 'next 7 months' shall be "Key Prophetic Months," as we will see the "Holy Watchers of Daniel Four (4) begin to come down!"

"I saw in the visions of my head while on my bed, and there was a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven." (Daniel 4:13)

And I hear these Words: "Listen! For The Watchers Decree of Daniel Four (4) has been released over The Nations! I say, "Get ready!" for the Books have been opened! A time of Divine Inventory and Inspection has surely begun, for this is the beginning of a kairos time — to cut down The Tree!"

Take Note: Trees

We know trees can speak prophetically and symbolically both, to both people and to nations.

So, God shows me, the next Seven (7) Months will mark the beginning of a time of even greater awakenings, shifting and severe shakings!

We are moving into a Prophetic Rime over the next Two (2) Years, when we will begin to see The Decree of The Holy Watchers for the "cutting down of The Tree," coming to the fore as never before!

This is the beginning of a great fall for many, when we will see Leaders across different Nations — and their Empires and Dynasties — that shall be cut down, and their branches shall be cut off; their leaves shall be stripped; their fruit shall be scattered!

Take Note: Prophetic Timeline.

For the next Seven (7) Months — starting from this 7th month ~ July 2025 [7/25] to January 2026 [1/26] .

The next Seven (7) Months will set us up in how we advance into the next 12 months, the year of 2026.

This Prophetic Time-frame will usher in the start of even greater chaos in The Nations — with Divine Exposures and Violent Upheavals and mayhem across The Nations!

It will mark a time of profound and divine dismantling — especially within the spheres of Religion and Government!

See: Isaiah 47 — The fall of Babylon.

The Spirit of Revelation then takes me to Luke 13; (1+3=4) ~ Daniel Four (4), and I am shown a powerful Prophetic Parallel:

"Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, 'Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down; why does it use up the ground?' But he answered and said to him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that you can cut it down.'" (Luke 13:7-9)

Prophetic Notes:

1. Daniel 4;29. "at the end of twelve months" — the tree is cut down as God humbles Nebuchadnezzar!
2. Daniel 4;15. "nevertheless, leave the stump and roots in the earth; the stump and roots remain."
God shows me His "righteous remnant" — a Righteous Remnant in the stump and in the roots that remain, a Remnant that is rising and that will stand in the gap and cry out for The Nations to be redeemed, restored and reformed!

Here we see how the redemptive heart of God is always postured towards Restoration for Prodigal Nations, if they will Repent and Return:

"Then if my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sins and restore their land." (2 Chronicles 7:14)

As I shared the above, God shows me that a Seven Month Timeline starting in this 7th month of July 2025 (7/2025 to the January 2026 (1/2026) is very significant, and will lead us into what I am hearing God call:

"A One-year Redemptive Window of Time for Nations to turn and return — or be cut down!" (2026)

And I hear these Words; "Watch and Pray — for 2026 will be a Redemptive Window of Time when you must dig and fertilize, around The Tree/The Nations!"

I submit, in this "One-year Redemptive Window of Time" (2026) — it will also mark the beginning of a greater separation of Goat and Sheep Nations.

The Nation of Israel will continue to be a powerful catalyst in this great separation of Goat and Sheep Nations!

In Recap:

In the next Seven Month Cycle of Time — we will see "The Watchers of Daniel Four (4) come with a Decree — "to cut down The Tree!"

The Books have been opened, for this is a time of greater inspection and divine inventory of The Nations.

Greater shakings will come forth as “The Watchers’ Decree in Daniel Four (4)” is issued over Leaders, Empires and Nations!

I hear The Spirit say, “Listen — for The Watchers’ Decree of Daniel Four (4) shall be announced!”

Watch and Pray — as The Holy Watchers of Daniel Four (4) shall come down — and the branches shall be cut off, and the leaves shall be stripped, and the fruit shall be scattered!

Yes! I shall cut down The Tree and cut off its branches; their demonic systems and structures. Their Global Elite Networks and Satanic Connections shall be dismantled and demolished!

Watch! For I shall remove the leaves. Their covering shall be stripped away as I bring Divine Exposure and full disclosure to their wicked and evil deeds.

I shall expose, expose, expose and uncover everything hidden in darkness, and naked, they shall stand before eyes of the world. Stripped of their covering and protection they shall have no place to hide!

Watch! As the fruit is scattered, for I shall scatter their wealth and riches. Their resources shall dry up — and their supply lines shall be stopped up!

Yes! The fruit gained through corruption and deception shall be scattered!

Watch! For I shall cut down The Tree that bears no fruit of Me!

But I say again — Watch and Pray — for 2026 shall see a Redemptive Window of Time stand open before The Nations; a one-year Redemptive Window of Time — to dig around and to fertilize The Tree!

I say it’s time to break off your sin; humble yourself; repent; turn and return — and you shall be fully restored and reformed greater than before!”

The Spirit of Revelation then quickens to me yet another parallel and confirmation of the prophetic timeline.

See Mark 11, where Jesus curses the fig tree and cleanses The Temple.

Nations are now in the 11th Hour — and the 11th Hour Prophets are rising!

God shows me the year 2027 — and I see The Sword of The Peacemaker falling upon The Nations.

I hear these Words: "2027 — a year of great uproar and Nations at War, as The Sword of The Peacemaker falls!"

I hear The Spirit say, "This is a Kairos Time, when my 11th Hour Prophets shall arise with The Sword of The Peacemaker — and they shall come into a Divine Partnership, and into a greater collaboration with The Angelic Watchers of Daniel Four (4).

I say, "Watch and Pray! As My 11th Hour Prophets carry out The Decree of Daniel Four (4), and in The Spirit and Power of Elijah, they shall come to cut down The Tree/The Nations!"

For in this time of a greater separation of Goat and Sheep Nations, My 11th Hour Prophets shall arise and advance in great Power and Kingdom Authority!"

Tim Sheets and Dutch Sheets: It's Time for the Blitz

Intro from Dutch Sheets: You may have noticed, along with me, that changes in our nation (and throughout the earth) are occurring much more quickly these days. Holy Spirit gave my brother Tim a word regarding this. We have titled it "It's Time for the Blitz."

It's Time for the Blitz by Tim Sheets

The movie Braveheart depicts the story of William Wallace. There is a scene in which he rides before Scottish troops, challenging them with the following statement: "I am William Wallace! And I see a whole army of my countrymen, here, in defiance of tyranny. You've come to fight as free men, and free men you are. What will you do with that freedom? Will you fight?... Aye, fight and you may die. Run, and you'll live... at least a while. And dying in your beds, many years from now, would you be willing to trade all the days, from this day to that, for one chance, just one chance, to come back here and tell your enemies that they may take our lives, but they'll never take our freedom!"

We are advancing into a supernatural era of the church, even as we navigate a fierce season of spiritual war. This will be a time of notable miracles, signs, wonders, and great harvest, but also a season in which we'll have to fight spiritually for our rightful inheritance as the heirs of Christ.

Since President Trump's election, some have been saying, "There's a new sheriff in town." I believe it's time to declare something even greater: "There's a new church in town." The Ekklesia has been engaged and is showing boldness, strength, and unwavering faith. We have been prepared and empowered by the Holy Spirit to win great battles. Those who know their God will stand strong in Him and fight back against hell's evil agenda.

I was recently reminded by Holy Spirit of a word He spoke to me three years ago: "It's time for the blitz push of my kingdom Ekklesia."

The definition of "blitz" is a sudden, energetic, and concerted effort to accomplish a specific purpose; a push to complete a cause; an intense, sudden military attack. A blitz is intended to disorient an enemy.

"Blitzkrieg" is a German term referring to an intense warfare campaign designed to bring about swift victories. It is also a method of warfare known as "lightning war." A blitzkrieg is a surprise attack using a rapid movement of overwhelming force to break through an opponent's line of defense. It is a sudden strike designed to disorient and dislocate enemy defenders, unbalancing them to provide an opening for quick victories. It can involve multiple battlefronts.

Implementing Lightning Warfare

Holy Spirit is stirring the Ekklesia to carry out God's battle plans, changing things on earth, and setting captives free. There are spiritual battles on the horizon that we must fight and win. Holy Spirit has trained, equipped, and prepared us for the greatest advance of his kingdom. Holy Spirit gave me the following word regarding this:

"I will move through my Ekklesia hubs and my triumphant remnant in sudden, energetic, concerted efforts to accomplish my plans for the season. I will lead my remnant warriors, implementing lightning warfare. I will lead you to strike like lightning. My kingdom will now move rapidly with overwhelming force. Rapid strikes will break through enemy defenses, disorienting and dislocating them. Swift victories are on the calendar.

"I will call you to sudden advances, throwing hell's kingdom completely out of balance, interrupting their plans and defeating them quickly. My Ekklesia will invade enemy positions suddenly, causing disruptions and scatterings to systems of evil. Multiple surprise moves will be implemented in regions, territories, and nations as my Ekklesia emboldens itself.

"Hell will not see this coming, because their arrogance has blinded them. Their human partners will also not see it coming, as their arrogance, self-righteousness, pride, and filth justification has blinded them also.

"Swift, strategic maneuvers are being activated through my Ekklesia to scatter lewd pollutions of my identity for male and female. The demon prince of perversion—promoting doctrines of transgender—will be struck suddenly, repeatedly, and boldly by my powerful, advancing kingdom and my angel armies. Truth will be their shield and buckler. Just as surely as Sodom and Gomorrah was destroyed for perverting my identity for men and women, so will the demon doctrines of blind leaders of the blind be defeated. Original intent, truth, and identity order will be proclaimed.

Swift Victories and Turnarounds

"Rapid strikes and sudden, energetic, coordinated efforts will now push for Me and My ways. Boardrooms, corporate leaders, and corporate identities will change. Government leaders will change or be changed. Sudden strikes led by unique leaders I've ordained are now advancing into positions of great authority. My Ekklesia's voice is rising to sound out my words. Angels are activating to tear down this stronghold of evil that is polluting a young generation. My enemies—the enemies of my heirs—will become unbalanced. They will stagger in the blitzkrieg of truth and righteousness that is now accelerating. Swift victories and turnarounds will be seen.

"For I have a great harvest among those who have been misled and confused by minds occupied by demons. My truth will free them. My truth will reorder real identity, meaning, and purpose; it will rise in them, for my love is set upon them. I will free multitudes from the lie. (Photo via Max Pixel)

"I have sons and daughters trapped in the confusion, and I will redeem them. I have prodigal sons and daughters to free. I have champions whose identities I will restore. I am moving to change battlefronts, activating overwhelming force to accomplish this purpose. I will disorient the confusers. I will now dislocate the positioning of those spreading perversion. Their influence will fade and their voices will fester from the evil infections they created.

"I have targeted kingpin positions of great authority who, as Pharaoh of old, have hardened their hearts against me. My Ekklesia, assisted by my angel armies, will target them in prayer to remove their influence, and to release leaders that will not resist my ways. For the blitz push of My Ekklesia includes concerted, coordinated, fast-moving efforts to remove the influence of evil kingpins."

The Lord of Hosts declares to his church, "The warfare for earth will now intensify, but you will experience swift turnarounds as you release my authority to regions, states, and nations. Lightning warfare, quick strikes, and rapid responses will occur against evil that once enjoyed passivity's stupor among my people. The world will now see a different church, a 'ruling and reigning with Me' church, a church that strikes like lightning. When hell pushes, they will push back. When culture, government, big tech, and education pushes, they will push back. And when demons push them, they will push back."

We are living in a historic, world-shaping time—a hinge of history. Holy Spirit is moving, empowering, and resourcing us for this moment, energizing people with tenacious faith. It is time for the Ekklesia of King Jesus to boldly advance.

Closing Prayer from Dutch Sheets

Pray with me: Lord, we ask for the blitzkrieg of the kingdom of God to be released. Loose your voice throughout America and across the world. Thank you, God, for the release of angelic assistance and the power of Holy Spirit. Prepare and energize us with another powerful infilling of Holy Spirit; make us bold warriors, engaged against evil. Use us to strike like lightning against the strategies of hell, blinding philosophies, and plans of demons. Bring confusion into your enemy's camps. Restore purpose, truth, and identity, freeing those bound, setting prodigal sons and daughters free. Give us great discernment, wisdom, and understanding of our times. Lead us as we engage in the blitz push of your kingdom, striking demonic enemies, defeating their strategies, and setting captives free. We decree that your kingdom rule WILL come to earth. Will of God, be done! In Jesus' name. Amen.

Our decree: We decree the Ekklesia has been prepared for heaven's blitz, and will win great and rapid victories for the kingdom of God.

And Quote; "The Books have been opened, for this is a time of greater inspection and divine inventory of The Nations. Greater shakings will come forth as "The Watchers' Decree in Daniel Four (4)" is issued over Leaders, Empires and Nations! I hear The Spirit say, "Listen, for The Watchers' Decree of Daniel Four (4) shall be announced!"

"Watch and Pray. as The Holy Watchers of Daniel Four (4) shall come down. and the branches shall be cut off, and the leaves shall be stripped, and the fruit shall be scattered!"

"Yes! I shall Cut down The Tree and cut off its branches; their Demonic systems and structures. Their Global Elite Networks and Satanic Connections shall be dismantled and demolished!"

"Watch! For I shall remove the leaves. Their covering shall be stripped away as I bring Divine Exposure and full disclosure to their wicked and evil deeds. I shall Expose, Expose, Expose and uncover everything hidden in darkness, and naked, they shall stand before eyes of the world. Stripped of their covering and protection they shall have no place to hide!"

"Watch! As the fruit is scattered, for I shall scatter their wealth and riches. Their resources shall dry up. and their supply lines shall be stopped up! Yes! The fruit gained through corruption and deception shall be scattered! Watch! For I shall cut down The Tree that bears no fruit of Me! But I say again. Watch and Pray. for 2026 shall see a Redemptive Window of Time stand open before The Nations."

"A one-year Redemptive Window of Time. to dig around and to fertilize The Tree! I say it's time to break off your sin; humble yourself; repent; turn and return. and you shall be fully restored and reformed greater than before!"

"The East Wing of the White House Torn Down to Build a New Ballroom!"

As I was sitting with The LORD a few days ago, suddenly, The Holy Spirit began to speak to me about the New Ballroom being built and President Trump tearing down the East Wing of the White House.

To be completely honest, at first I was bewildered. I couldn't understand why this was so important to the LORD, or why He was drawing my attention to it! But that was until He began to reveal some powerful Prophetic Parallels; insights that I believe are key for strategic Prayer in this hour. So, please bear with me as I try to break down what the LORD was highlighting and the spiritual significance behind it all.

First off, I heard these Words, "See, I have set you this day over Nations and Kingdoms, to root out and pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant!"

Note; Jeremiah 1:10 (11) (1+10=11): God is highlighting the Number Eleven (11)! I was then led to look at the Historical Foundation of the East Wing, which was Built in 1942 during the turmoil of World War II.

Prophetic Lens

Interesting, given the timing of this New Building of a Ballroom, is also in a Time of Global turmoil, great trouble and talk of WW3 at the door. Now, the East Wing wasn't built for beauty, the East Wing was built for protection, as beneath it, the Presidential Emergency Operations Center (PEOC) was hidden, a bunker carved out to guard the Nation's Leadership during a time of War.

That was a time and season of Concealment and Defense when America's Leadership went underground, and also operating behind layers of secrecy. Spiritually, it marked a moment when the House of Leadership was shielded, not exposed; a time to hide until the Storm passed.

The Prophetic Cycle 1942 to 2025 = 83 Years

Now, eighty-three (83) years later, here we stand in 2025, and President Donald J. Trump is tearing the East Wing down and Rebuilding a New Ballroom! Eighty-three (83) carries Prophetic weight: $8 + 3 = 11$.

Eleven (11) represents Transition, Disorder before Divine Order, and the threshold between two realms - the Old and the Birthing of the New! In God's Timing, a full cycle has turned!

What was once constructed in Secrecy (1942) now faces Exposure (2025). What was hidden underground will now be revealed above ground for all eyes to see. a Season of Divine Exposure!

Ha! The Bunker shall give way to The Ballroom! What was built for Defense, shall be rebuilt for Display!

The Number forty-seven (47). A 47th President. A Prophetic Marker. We know the number forty-seven (47) itself carries a profound message: $4 + 7 = 11$ — 11th Hour President!

This number mirrors the same theme of Divine Reordering. Keep in mind God's Prophetic Cycle — 1942 to $2025 = 83$ Years = $8+3 = 11$.

If forty-seven (47) speaks to Administration, New Era of Authority, A Governmental transition from man's image to God's Order, [it represents] a tearing down of façades and false strength, and a rebuilding upon Truth, Righteousness and Justice! Just as eleven (11) appears again in the 83-year gap!

Heaven is now emphasizing a double witness. a Confirmation that the New Era of Transition of a Nation has truly come! I see The Nation of The United States of America standing at a Powerful Prophetic Moment between Chaos and God's Divine Order being established, Exposure and God's Divine Restoration and Reformation to Come.

Prophetic Lens

The Number Nine (9) — the Year 2025.

The year 2025 itself adds to $9 = (2 + 2 + 5)$.

The Number Nine (9) speaks of Finality, Judgment, and Birth. Nine (9) marks the End of a Cycle and the Beginning of a Time of Manifestation and Demonstration!

Nine (9) also speaks to the completion of a Gestation period — what was hidden and concealed in the Womb is now ready to be revealed! Prophetically, 2025 represents the beginning of a Birthing Year; Hidden things brought to light; Concealed Blueprints being made public; a hidden Remnant being brought to the forefront to Take back grounds; and to War unto Divine Restore! It is the moment when the Seed planted in 1942 finally breaks through the soil!

Prophetic Lens The Prophetic Marker

The Tearing Down and The Rebuilding of The East Wing!

So, if The East Wing, which is known as the domain of the First Lady and the Nation's Social Image, is being torn down and then rebuilt, repurposed and replaced, I submit, this is a powerful Prophetic Sign that God is Cleansing the Public face of Power!

The LORD is not merely Renovating and Rebuilding or Repurposing Architecture! No! The LORD is literally Restructuring Influence, Morality, and the Image of a Nation! The New Ballroom that replaces the old structure, I submit, speaks Prophetically to Light, Unity, Transparency, Gathering, and a Divine Turning! Even now, the Spirit of Revelation quickens to me The Rose Garden Dream, "You have turned my mourning into joyful Dancing. You have taken away my clothes of mourning and clothed me with joy!" (Psalm 30:11)

I also hear these Words, "Watch! For I AM Uprooting and Tearing down, I AM Building and Planting! Yes! I AM Rebuilding the House from the inside out! For I say Watch! I AM Restructuring the Household of Leadership in this Nation. I AM Cleansing the Public image of this Nation! Yes! Watch! For where there were secrecy and concealment, now there will be Transparency, Full Disclosure, Divine Exposure, and Divine Order! The place of hiding shall become The Place of Glory and Divine Exchange!"

I see so clearly that what was built and what began in the shadow of War in 1942, shall now come forth in Light and Revelation in a New Era of War! A hidden House will become a House of Light! The East Wing shall no longer conceal, but it shall Reveal! "For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be known or brought out into the open!" (Luke 8:17)

Prophetic Lens
1942 to 2025 = 83 years.
2025 = 2+2+5 = 9.

Nine Eleven (911). WATCH AND PRAY!. Listen! The echo of 9/11 resounds. It's a powerful reminder for the Nation in a time of great Awakening, after a great Shaking. We have now entered into Perilous Times of even greater Shakings, a Second Prophetic Awakening and Unveiling; a moment when we will see Truth emerge from beneath the rubble, and a light that will break through the foundation of what once was buried!

Friends, every number here points Prophetically to a Time of Divine Transition, Birth, and Reordering and Realignment! I submit, a Cycle and Timeline of Secrecy is Closing! A New Cycle and Prophetic Timeline of Divine Exposure, Rebuilding and Restoration has begun! "The Bunker of Secrecy becomes a New Ballroom of Revelation wherein the hidden becomes seen. The East Wing will Rise in light, not in Secrecy, but in Glory!"

1942 = Hidden War / Bunker.

2025 = Revealed Glory to Come/a New Ballroom being built.

83 Years = 11: Speaks to Transition, Upheaval, and God's Divine Reordering and Realignment of a Nation.

2025 = 2+2+5 = 9: Speaks to Finality and Birth, the End of one Age, and the birthing of a New Golden Era!

9/11: Speaks to Awakening after a Greater shaking, Divine Exposures of what was buried in crisis, chaos and darkness!

And Quote; I heard The Spirit of The LORD say, "Watch! 2026 will be a Year where the KING and His DOMAIN will be Established in Greater Power in the Earth Realm! Watch! For in 2026, My Rule as King will be undeniable and every competing domain will be measured and weighed in the Balance and found wanting. I say, Look, and Pay Close Attention for the Writing is on the Wall, "Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin! For the Days have been Numbered, Weighed and Divided!"

And Quote; "The Year 2026 will mark a radical shift, a Divine Turning and Unlocking in the Spirit realm! A year when the Burning Coal of Isaiah Six (6) shall touch defiled Lips.

"A Kairos Time of Greater Purging and Purification, Shaking and Awakening of Nations! I say again! Watch! For I will display and establish My Kingly Domain through greater demonstrations and supernatural manifestations in the Earth realm!" says the LORD. "And not just in hearts of men, but in Religious and Political Systems and Structures!"

And Quote: "Watch and Pray, as brick by brick, the Walls they have built shall surely fall, for again I yell you, Nations are now being Sifted, Separated and Shifted on the Threshing Floor!"

"Watch! As a Greater Shaking takes place, that will expose the rot in the roots and the deep and hidden faults in the Foundations of Nations. For the Winds of My Seven Spirits shall blow, and the Rains of My Spirit shall come as Cleansing Rivers. and that which has been built on sand shall surely fall!"

And Quote: "For in 2026, I shall demonstrate that I AM a Covenant-keeping King Who shall not be mocked!" says the LORD.

"And I will require Greater Accountability for words spoken in My Name, for I AM releasing the Spirit of Discernment like a sharp Sword, that shall pierce and penetrate the veil of deception and delusion. Many will suddenly see what was once justified and even defended. They will now grieve what was once condoned and celebrated! Watch! For I tell you, Divine Exposures will be Mercy, made manifest in the midst of them, for I have always desired True Repentance and a turning back before divine removals and retribution comes" says The LORD. "Yet I say, Watch and Obey! For I will not contend and strive forever with the Rebellious and stiff necked! For truly I tell you," says the LORD, "My Kingdom is advancing and shall not be stopped! My Kingdom is unshakeable, and My Throne Immovable, and My Word will not return to Me void.

"So, I say again, Watch! Be still! Stand, and be clean. Be Ready! For the King and His Kingdom is not coming quietly in 2026! His Kingdom Rule shall be openly displayed, and His Kingdom Rulers shall arise and reign!"

Date: January 6, 2026; <https://www.hiskingdomprophecy.com/2026-a-year-marked-by.../>

And Quote: I heard the Spirit say, "Watch and Pray. for these are perilous days, when one day will make a difference between life and death! I say, be ready with Lamps always full, as the pressures of the world will only increase and progress in 2026. But fear not, for I AM with you! Arise! Shine! Advance and Occupy! Yes! As the Year 2026 progresses, we will see even greater pressures that will increase with dramatic intensity across The Nations."

Satan's Suddenlies

"Suddenlies," on a scale never seen or experienced before! Shocking displays of Satan ramping up the ante, seeking to inflict greater terror through new Wars and Global Conflicts. We will see the Enemy's Demonic Agenda in full swing, as he moves to take captive and enslave as many as possible, before the days of Greater Harvest and Judgement. But Watch, as God begins to send forth a greater weight of His Glory in the midst of Hell's fury.

Global and Globalist Systems

Global Systems that have resisted and rejected God's Word of Rebuke and Correction will come under greater shakings that bring forth a catastrophic breaking, that will bring a Divine Dismantling, that shall cause demonic strongholds to fall, and we will see that Institutional Structures built on idol worship and the counterfeit, rather than on the Foundations of Truth, will fracture and collapse. And where confidence has been rooted in Global Banking and Justice Systems, strategy alone will swiftly erode and be replaced by God's Righteous Blueprints!

The Global escalation of these events will be sudden, and inevitable. Divine Destruction will intensify when Instructions or a Call for a Severe Course Corrections have been ignored!

The Spirit of The Fear of The LORD will descend upon the Leaders of Nations, and where rebellion rules, greater destruction will multiply where Repentance is delayed! The greater shaking will reveal and expose the foundations of Nations and their Leaders; unlike we have ever seen before.

Alignments and Postures in 2026 will determine Outcomes and Outpourings! True Surrender and Humility before God will be a Divine Safeguard, and will open New Doors and Covenant Connections, where false humility and pride has brought delay and closed doors. Daily Confession through a Broken and Contrite Heart will bring Divine Restoration and Healing. Yielding to the Voice and the Hand of God will bring preservation and favor, where past striving and man-made wisdom failed and could not protect!

In 2026, many will lose position, as God brings a Divine Reset, so that His Plans and Purposes will prevail! Some who dominate the airwaves through Social Media influence will lose their voice and become irrelevant. Others will try to cling to control, and yet continue to forfeit ground!

Be of Good Courage Bravehearts!

The God of Mercy will remain ready to Respond in Redemptive and Restoration Power to those who are truly committed to the Way of True Repentance! Judgment will not be the final word for those who turn and Return to the Father's Heart. He Waits. He Watches. and He Longs for the Prodigals to come Home! Leviticus 26 shall Mark 2026, a Year on Heaven's Timeline that will be marked as a Dividing Line in the Spirit Realm.

The Spirit of Peace shall rest on the Righteous, Humble and Obedient; on those who walk in The Spirit of the Fear of The LORD. Those who will not follow after the spirit of rebellion will see and experience the ever-present Presence of Divine Protection, Preservation, and God's Favor! Covenant Alignments will determine Spiritual Endurance, to prevail against every assignment of Hell!

Walk Uprightly.

Those who Choose to walk uprightly, will stand unshaken in the midst of the coming storms, but those who refuse correction, will feel the weight of instability, and the house built on sand shall sink! (Matthew 7:24-29)

This is a Year when quiet Faithfulness to The Secret Place will surely outweigh a demonstration of public prowess and strength, and True Holiness will be proven by its fruit to be stronger than any worldly influence. Holy Reverence for the things of God will become a strong Tower and safe Refuge! Ha! The Greater Separation and divide will become more visible in 2026, and the difference and distinction in fruit will be undeniable!

What people don't tell you about saying yes to God is..

That TRULY following the Lord feels like running alone.

Not all the time, but especially in these transitional seasons and moments things are birthing or changing. You don't have many people to call, if any. And it can feel overwhelming because you are in uncharted territory both spiritually and personally.

In this time many feel like they are being crushed and mashed into a pulp emotionally, and mentally, and you can begin to feel TIRED before you even begin.

We tend to use religious language to pretend things are all rosy and "I'm too blessed to be stressed," when really, your soul is under attack because you are EXPANDING and you are struggling to stay afloat. This is where the cost of the call is the MOST COSTLY.. Where the tension of "I'm called and anointed " and "I can't breathe" is real.

Yet you know there's a STRETCHING for a reason, because unless you completely rely and depend on God, you won't step into your new mantle.

Unless you stop looking for a shoulder to lean on, you won't lean into the Lord.

It doesn't mean we don't need people. We do. But we need the right people. Not wolves. Not secret saboteurs.

And we need HIM above all else, His voice alone in critical FORMATION seasons.

And it's not that we will be alone long term, but while you're in the birthing room, God is making sure that you aren't opening your doors to everyone and everything, so you are robbed again.

Because let's face it, we have been here before and many times we chose to yoke ourselves to the wrong thing to "cushion" the process.

But this time, God wants to see you FULLY EMERGE, and the Holy Spirit wants to be your helper and midwife in this season, no longer man.

This message isn't for everyone. But I know this will resonate with the ones who are in the tension of this set apart moment and wrestling it deeply.

Praying for you today.

Jon Hamill and Dutch Sheets: Sanctify the Night

Introduction from Dutch Sheets: As we support the "Big Ben Moment" prayer plan for America (One Minute to Win It), in today's post, I want to share with you a fascinating dream given to Jon Hamill. I love how the Lord speaks through dreams. Jon also addresses one of the significant reasons why we need to pray diligently during this time. The title of his post is "Sanctify the Night."

Sanctify the Night
By Jon Hamill

"Sanctify the night." The Spirit of God conveyed these words with great urgency when we first launched "America's Big Ben Moment" prayer project, patterned after a massive upsurge of nightly prayer by British citizens, which helped turn the tide against Nazi blitzkriegs during World War II.

America needs a turnaround today from spiritual blitzkriegs of satan. And in our season of history, the Lord is inviting us to "command the night" to gain the victory. A minute to win it!

The process of gaining the upper hand involves sanctifying the night. Just as with London during the war, our spiritual enemies are often most active after dark. Have you ever thought of that? I hadn't until now! Yet most Believers choose to access God's throne only in the mornings, reserving the evenings for family time, entertainment, and sleep. What the Lord showed me is that by taking this minute to pray every night at 9:00 p.m., we are establishing a new cycle. We are sanctifying the night to Jesus!

As occurred at the midnight hour in Exodus, let's apply the blood of the Lamb to our nation to secure Jesus' protection and breakthrough over America. You might even consider receiving communion on some nights.

The Watch of the Breaker

Three years ago, I was given a dream in which Jesus was pictured keeping vigil through a perilous night; it is very relevant for today. In the dream, Jesus invited us to enter His watch for Israel and America concurrently, calling it "The Watch of the Breaker."

Micah 2:13 identifies Jesus as the Breaker: "The breaker [the Messiah, who opens the way] shall go up before them [liberating them]. They will break out, pass through the gate and go out; so their King goes on before them, the Lord at their head." (AMP)

Gaining Enhanced Vision

My wife, Jolene, had a prophetic dream on the very same night I had the "Watch of the Breaker" dream. Amazingly, her dream spoke directly into mine. She saw herself helping people find the right contact lenses for their eyes, working patiently with each to ensure they received God's gift of enhanced vision. What a dream. What a gift! You and I should ask for it right now. (Photo via Unsplash)

In my dream, I actually experienced the power of enhanced prophetic vision she dreamed about. Never before had I ever experienced such vibrant, detailed clarity. All details featured below were in our original post on June [4], 2023; here is a portion:

Dream: Watch of the Breaker

Huge, rugged mountains formed a hundred-mile basin around a desert valley. It reminded me of both Colorado and the Jordan Valley in Israel. The whole mountain range glowed, illuminated by a sunset. Above the base of virtually all of these mountains, I saw massive, red rock formations which seemed almost sculpted by God Himself. The only thing I can relate them to is the legendary "Garden of the Gods" in Colorado Springs.

The red rocks were glowing blood red in the sunset. All of a sudden, my eyes homed in on a large fortress built just in front of one of these rocks. Then my eyes focused in on the very top of one of the massive rock formations. Normally, I would have needed a telescope to see it so clearly. But instead, by the Spirit of God, I saw the massive red rock as if it were right in front of me. Almost as though I looked, and I was there.

A long-horned ram was standing on the peak of this rock, watching over the valley in an aggressive stance of victory. It was clear this ram had just won a great conquest. His alertness, his vigilance, was unflinching. I knew one conflict had just been won, and that another conflict could erupt at any moment. And he was clearly watching the boundaries for enemy activity.

(Note: this is exactly Israel's posture right now, celebrating a recent victory, but racing to implement protective measures before war with Iran begins.)

This ram summoned us to keep his vigil with him. And then the Lord spoke to me, "The Watch of the Breaker has begun!" The ram is the Lamb!

For those who may not know this fact, a ram is an adult male sheep or lamb. The ram is the Lamb! And the Ram, as the Breaker, remains intent on securing both Israel and America against existential threats.

It's interesting that the rugged horns used by rams for breakthrough are also used by the Jewish people to form trumpets or "shofars." Throughout the Bible, shofars were used to sound alarms for prayer. The Lord is once again releasing "prayer alerts" with prophetic resonance, calling His army to spiritual war!

I believe "America's Big Ben Minute" is among these alerts. We are grateful for the massive, unexpected surge in engagement since the post was featured by Dutch Sheets on "Give Him 15." And the post was recently featured on The Elijah List. Please continue to spread the word!

Vital Points for Prayer

As we consider the dream, let's hone in on some key points for prayer. Very clearly, America is now on a war footing against Iran. The Pentagon is amassing the greatest military buildup in the Mideast since 2003. This comes as reports emerge of just how viciously Ayatollah Khamenei has attacked many Iranians, ignoring President Trump's warnings. Instead of killing 800 as reported, Khamenei's army has actually slaughtered at least 36,000 protesters since January 8, [2026]. At least a hundred thousand more have been injured or tortured. (Photo via Pexels)

When will America intervene? It's just a matter of time. That said, the dream seemed to emphasize God's protection over the borders of Israel's and America's homelands. We need to continue to cover both in vigilant prayer. [Dutch here: Could this be why the Lord led us to anoint and secure America's borders in 2023? Thousands of you, our GH15 friends, participated.]

Recent news reports have reported that Iranian sleeper cells are being activated both here and throughout the Western world. If and when Iran is struck, these sleeper cells are allegedly tasked with bringing retaliation from within our borders.

The Spirit of God has clearly emphasized that we are in a "Big Ben Moment" for America. It is no coincidence that the Lord is calling for increased prayer for our nation and leaders at this time to protect us. I strongly believe these attacks can either be mitigated or stopped altogether as we continue to pray.

So, please join us and engage in at least a minute of prayer at 9:00 P.M. nightly [in your time zone] for America. As Dutch recently pointed out, a minute doesn't seem like much. But the total participation of 100,000 people amounts to almost 1,700 hours of prayer per day! That adds up fast! Invest a minute to win it!

Pray with me:

Father, as Sam Adams, one of America's founders, stated to the Second Continental Congress in [1777], "We have appealed to Heaven for the justice of our cause, and in Heaven we have placed our trust." We are appealing to You not only for America, but for other nations, including Israel. We appeal for Israel's protection, and the salvation of the people there. We also pray for protection and freedom for the people of Iran, and for a great revival throughout the Middle East.

We thank You for the word You released in June of 2023, instructing us to "paint our borders" with anointing oil. Thousands obeyed You, and thousands more prayed over our waterways, ports, and water supplies. Now we ask You to move on the hearts of many to augment this with evening prayers and decrees to "sanctify the night."

We declare that satan's plans for the destruction of America will not succeed. We ask for this protection also for Israel and the precious people of Iran. Stop the violence, we pray. Protect our leaders, expose evil plans, and bring down wicked rulers throughout the world. Cause all wickedness to become fuel for revival. And we pray these things in Yeshua's name. Amen.

Our Decree:

We decree that the shield of faith is being released over America and other nations as thousands of us release our appeal to Heaven.

Bruce Dietler has written an incredible book called,

When the Stars Begin to Fall:

A Compilation of Prophetic Dreams, Little-known Historical Anecdotes, and Spiritual Insights from the Heart of God

"In our day, with an increasing frequency of volcanic eruptions and devastating earthquakes, and wars and a possible nuclear WW III on the horizon, many individuals are in a state of absolute panic about the future. Add to this the fear of worldwide pandemics, famine, riots in the streets, economic chaos and pending financial and governmental collapse, and many individuals are beyond terrified. It would appear that everything that can be shaken presently is or soon will be shaken.

"The foundations of security for many will surely crumble in the immediate future; those who have trusted in them and not in the Lord will be desperate for escape. Yet the Lord is calling us, His Ekklesia, to be as the sons of Issachar, understanding the times and seasons and exercising great biblical discernment in every area of life. There is great hope for the future when we view life from God's perspective; when we see how He has intervened in days past and project that into our future. When the stars begin to fall will be the worst of times or the best of times depending on one's perspective and where we place our trust and confidence. Look up, get excited, and expect great things in the days ahead. Purpose to flow in God's plan, and all will unfold in awe and wonder. The best is yet to come!"

Bruce F. Dietler walks primarily in the ministry gift of teacher. Ordained into Christian ministry by the late Wilford Wright, son-in-law of John G.
