

Sivan 5786; May-June 2026

*Sivan in Hebrew means – “Their Covering.”

Month of Sivan (May-June 2026)/Linked with the Tribe of Zebulun, which means “habitation.” This was the month of giving of the Torah (the Laws of life) and giving back to GOD through our sacrifices and offerings. It is the businessman’s or merchant’s month, and more importantly, the month of alignment with the Holy Spirit. It is a time to set our boundaries and align with our walk for the future (Exodus 20-26 and Acts 2). Therefore, we get “The Covering of Their Habitation.”

The fire of the Holy Spirit fell upon those who waited and became their “Covering.”

Chaplain Wade Butler

Every month has a significance far greater than we know. Going into Pentecost this year is the most important Pentecost in history since Christ.

Last year at Pentecost, the word was "Justice Angels have been released."
(From Sivan 5784:)

Unfortunately, the war hasn't lessened, but as Chuck Pierce prophesied, it has increased. I'm seeing it on every front. Personally, everyone is involved at home, work, in recreation, and much more so in the church. Our enemy knows how to attack us on every front.

Thankfully, the LORD has sent HIS TROOPS to assist us. Let me tell you of a recent encounter. Several of us were praying to come up higher and allow us to see what HE was saying, and we were invited into HIS presence. A Psalm 91 angel (For He will give His angels [special] charge over you to accompany, defend and preserve you in all your ways [of obedience and service]) escorted us on the Mountain of the LORD. He was enormous and carried in his right hand a flaming sword and in his left a scale which had the words Justice on one side and HIS LOVE on the other. As we followed the angel, we were led into an elaborate hall with a table looking like the knights of the round table where we were told to sit down. There was an additional circular table inside of it with a column rising beyond the ceiling in its center. The column contained the SPIRIT of the LORD - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - appearing as if banners of color: gold, teal, and royal blue. We at first thought the column was spinning, when we were actually circling it counterclockwise as the inner table turned clockwise. It was like a wheel within a wheel. I asked the Spirit of the LORD what did this mean?

He replied, "I'M TURNING BACK THE CLOCK FOR MY CHILDREN TO RECOVER ALL THEY HAVE HAD STOLEN OR LOST. TIME STILL CONTINUES, BUT IT'S TIME TO RECOVER ALL!" The Great Reset has begun. Next, the voice of the trinity came from the column saying, "I AM SENDING MY ANGELS OF JUSTICE INTO THE EARTH. YEAH, THEY HAVE ALREADY BEEN SENT. THEY WILL WEIGH THE HEARTS OF MAN TO SEE WHO WILL RECEIVE THE LOVE OF MY SON. THOSE WHO RECEIVE HIM WILL HAVE THE SWORD CUT OFF THE BONDAGE OF SIN AND DEATH AND RECEIVE THE JUSTICE OF MERCY. THOSE WHO DO NOT RECEIVE HIM WILL RECEIVE THE SWORD OF THE WRATH RESERVED FOR THE ENEMIES OF THE LORD YOUR GOD AND THE JUSTICE RESERVED FOR THEM IN THE FIRES OF HELL."

Needless to say, we were all shaken up with this revelation and sat silently as the Angel addressed us as to their assignment which was already released. No nation, leader, or person would be exempt from the coming advance. All nations are being shaken.

The times and season we are in cause us to look at each new month of the Hebrew calendar differently from in the past. We are definitely crossing over into new territory, yet at the same time we can experience the fullness of the LORD'S foundations for the season we are entering.

Prophetic Art of James Nesbit

In honor of the rededication of our nation, James Nesbit is releasing several pieces of artwork this week in celebration! The Angel of America rises over this nation not as a symbol of politics, but as a declaration of divine destiny, justice, and awakening. With wings stretched across the heavens and light breaking through the storm, this heavenly messenger stands watch over the land, carrying the scales of righteousness in one hand and the lantern of truth in the other. It is a reminder that even in seasons of division, uncertainty, and spiritual battle, God has not forgotten America.

As our President prepares to rededicate the nation on May 17, 2026 a sacred moment is unfolding across the country. Many are sensing a spiritual stirring—a call back to honor, courage, faith, liberty, and the founding principles that shaped this land. The Angel of America represents protection over the republic, wisdom for its leaders, and mercy for its people. The light carried high above the Capitol shines as a beacon to every generation, declaring that truth will not be extinguished and hope will not fail.

This is more than ceremony; it is a turning point. A moment to humble ourselves, seek divine guidance, and believe that healing, restoration, and renewal are still possible for this nation. The storm clouds may gather, but heaven's light is breaking through. The Angel of America moves across this land as a symbol that God still calls nations to righteousness, still raises leaders for appointed times, and still awakens people to purpose.

May 17 stands as a day of remembrance, prayer, and rededication—a day to proclaim that America's future will not be defined by fear or chaos, but by faith, justice, truth, and the enduring hand of Providence guiding this nation forward.

I highly recommend you go to Prophetic Art By James Nesbit and get a copy today to remember this historic moment. Wade Butler

A Time of Richness has begun.

The month of Sivan is so rich in the Word in who and what it represents for the times we are in: the tribe of Zebulun, the "Businessperson's month," the month of alignment, the season of Mercy are all around us. As a nation and the world in general comes out of an international lockdown, the businessmen and women are challenged to resurrect from the ashes of destruction. Many will not make it back. As a businessman and minister, it has always grieved me when a business closes from personal failure or national oppression. It is also the season of "Pentecost" and the birth of the church.

We just left Issachar, (the Seers and those who understand the seasons), into Zebulun to reorganize and restart the world. We need the leading of the Holy Ghost more than ever. We must re-align to the direction and purposes of the LORD now! We need HIS covering and more importantly, HIS indwelling.

We are praying for our nation and the LAND. Please consider including these scriptures in your prayers, and make request out of each. Example: Father, You have said that you desire not the offerings of grain and lambs, but the sacrifice of obedience through Your Word. We offer up Your Word as we pray for our nation, our leadership and our people.

Each month represents a new opportunity to make a difference, in the kingdom of GOD, in our own lives, our families and those around us. We need to get back to work keeping in mind that our Father orchestrated this lockdown. The enemy planned to destroy the threat of We the People from obtaining our goals of Liberty and Justice for all in his attempt to dominate the world with the one world order taking over.

Our enemy, the devil, and his minions are continually on attack trying to wear us down through discouragement, sickness, financial burdens and more. What makes a difference is our relationship with the Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

We are GOD'S warriors who stand between the enemy and our promises. We all have been calling out those promises as we wait on GOD to do the miracles on our behalf. The truth of it all is, HE ALREADY DID. Every day we battle for hope, direction, and relief. Father has given us a president who refuses to allow the attacks on him and his family to stop what GOD has for him to do. It appears to strengthen his resolve. It should be the same for us. During this time and season, the Hebrew people counted the days as they waited for the manifestation of GOD's promises. It started in the upper room, where Holy Spirit filled the disciples, and manifested on Simon's portico, the porch where 3,000 were added. The Harvest is ripe; the vine dresser is doing HIS work, and it's time for the harvesters to go into the fields. Isaiah 6:8, Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I. Send me!" Are we ready?

We have added teachings, prophetic insight, personal experiences, testimonies, and visions of the third Heaven to our mix from our readers as the LORD directs me. I guarantee you will be blessed. The calendar study guide is packed full of prophesy, sermons, art, and background material that most people will never take the time to research on their own nor have the resources of input to obtain as much of the truth as can be found. Often, it goes against the grain of conventional churches and denominations because we follow the Hebrew calendar and the prophetic. God never changed HIS timing, we did. I would rather follow HIM and know what I was adopted into. Sometimes, authors are used multiple times because they are in what we call the "zone" of the Holy Spirit. In other words, they are hearing from the LORD!

We encourage each person to set the goal of reading the Bible all the way through this year and every year. Each time you read it, new revelation will emerge and change your life.

We do not take donations or contributions other than an occasional donation to cover postage to those who need a hard copy. Keep it on your computer and read it daily.

Be Blessed,

Chaplain Wade Butler

The Biblical Month of "SIVAN"

The Amplified, King James, New American Standard and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Biblical Months fall under the Law Form of YHWH (Yahweh) through the revelation of His Word.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophesy? The answer is to ask the LORD, how did this relate in the Bible for then, and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me pray, Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide, prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD*. (See last page.) Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heidler and many other contributing authors which are included.* 1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning.

It's been eight years since we started publishing the Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle, so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1, the very first words GOD speaks are "In the beginning," and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon." From that point on, the nation of GOD was to look at the Moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5, "And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day." Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days; the last (the 7th) 1,000 days would be the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle is only 29.5 days, or 354 days per year, whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added to the Hebrew calendar every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous year's is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon." The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan, when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast, and season.

As we begin the month of Sivan, keep in mind that man changed the calendar, GOD didn't.

The church today misses a very important part of their history and understanding. There was never really a new church started. They worshipped and practiced the Hebrew form of worship. The difference was Christ completed the requirements of the Law and made us "New Men in Him." If you think about it, we are literally Hebrew, as we were adopted or grafted into the Kingdom. (Galatians 3:13-14)

With that in mind, by honoring the feasts or HIS Calendar, we will not miss out on what God is doing. When we celebrate the feasts, we honor our Lord Yeshua the Christ, and we may learn more about our roots.

This year, the Biblical Month of Sivan* extends from sundown on May 17 – through sundown on June 15, 2026.

Fast Facts

Tradition teaches that it was on Rosh Hodesh Sivan that the Israelites "camped at the foot of Sinal" in preparation to receive the Torah (Exodus 19:6). The verb used for "camped" in Exodus 19:6 is in the singular. It is taught that at the moment the Israelites determined to receive the Torah, they were united in heart and mind like a single person. Sivan's symbol of the twins—two distinct human beings sharing one womb—can represent the harmony that comes when people celebrate their differences while coming together to work for a common, higher goal, such as receiving and following the Torah.

Shavuot Customs

Studying the WORD, the Torah all night long! It is a tradition (coming from the sixteenth-century mystics) to stay up the entire (first) night of Shavuot studying Torah. Known as Tikkun Leil Shavuot, this all-night study session is an opportunity to recommit ourselves to the study of Torah. Tradition teaches that the skies open up during this night for a brief moment, and God favorably answers all prayers. The kabbalists also think of Shavuot as the moment when God and Israel wed; the Torah is the ketubah (marriage contract) or written affirmation of the covenant between them.

Tribe: Zebulun

The tribe of Zebulun shared a special bond with the tribe of Issachar. Zebulun and Issachar were born one after another to their mother, Leah. In the Land of Israel, they inherited lands that were adjacent, and temporally, they correspond to the two months Iyar and Sivan that follow one another. But the heart of their bond was in their agreement to support one another. Issachar was a tribe of scholars who excelled in Torah study. Zebulun was a tribe of successful merchants and seafarers. They agreed to split their material and spiritual wealth equally.

As such, we might expect that Issachar would correspond to the month of Sivan, in which the Torah was given and Zebulun to the month of Iyar. But one of the analytic principles of Kabbalah is that the cause is inherently higher than the effect which it causes. Since, at the basic level, Zebulun's willingness to split their material wealth allowed Issachar to devote themselves to the Torah; it is Zebulun that corresponds to Sivan and the giving of the Torah. Zebulun's material sacrifices are what sustain the Torah and therefore, in the end, the Torah is in their merit.

Indeed, the Arizal explains that the origin of the soul of Zebulun is in the sefirah of crown, above the sefirah of wisdom, which is the origin of Issachar's soul.

This fact further ties the tribe of Zebulun with the month of Sivan. In spite of their bond with their brethren in Issachar, the Jews of the tribe of Zebulun had to study Torah for themselves too. Since their soul-root is in crown, the Torah that they were particularly connected to is also at the level of crown. This is especially relevant to the giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai, because the particular level revealed then, the Ten Commandments, is related to the sefirah of crown. As noted, the gematria of crown is 620, the number of letters in the Ten Commandments.

The Month of Sivan

The month of Sivan is the third month on the Biblical calendar, counting from Nisan. The Bible refers to Sivan as "the third month" (Exodus 19:1-2). However, sometime after Israel's captivity in Babylon, the name was changed. The word Sivan roughly means "season" or "time."

About Shavuot

The Jewish holiday of Shavuot is celebrated on the sixth of Sivan. Shavuot means "weeks" in Hebrew because it took seven weeks for the Israelites to travel from Egypt to Mount Sinai.

Shavuot was originally a harvest holiday called "the Feast of Harvest" (Exodus 23:16) and "the Feast of Weeks" (Exodus 34:22-23). In addition, this feast was one of the three pilgrim festivals (Deuteronomy 16:16). Jewish men were expected to bring the first harvest of their crop to the Temple in Jerusalem. The Feast of Harvest (Weeks) celebrated the first fruits of the wheat harvest. Moreover, it was a joyous festival and an offering of thanksgiving to God for His provision.

However, after the destruction of the Temple (70 A.D.), the Jews could no longer bring the first fruits of their harvest as offerings. So, the rabbis decided that the focus of Shavuot would be God's giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai.

Today, the Jewish community celebrate Shavuot by attending synagogue services and reaffirming their commitment to obeying God's Law. In addition, some stay up the entire night studying and learning the Torah.

God's Covenant with Israel

On the first day of the month of Sivan, after the Exodus, the Israelites entered the desert of Sinai. Moreover, they made camp there in front of Mount Sinai (Exodus 19:1-2). A few days later, God commanded Moses to prepare the people for His appearance (vv. 10-11).

On the sixth day of Sivan and after the preparation period, God descended upon Mount Sinai. This was the 50th day after the exodus, according to Jewish tradition. He spoke directly to the Israelite nation and made a covenant with them. In addition, God gave Israel the Torah (His teachings and laws) to guide them (Exodus 20). The Israelites agreed to the terms of God's covenant and promised to obey His laws. As a result, they became a "kingdom of priests and a holy nation." (Exodus 19:6)

The Month of Sivan and the Feast of Pentecost

While the Jewish community celebrate Shavuot, the Christian community celebrate Pentecost. The word Pentecost is a Greek word meaning, "50." This special day is celebrated 50 days after Easter Sunday. In addition, Pentecost commemorates the giving and receiving of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church in the New Testament (Acts 2).

Yeshua directed His disciples to remain in Jerusalem until the Holy Spirit came (Acts 1:3-4). At the same time, Jews from various countries were arriving to celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. It is interesting to note that in the New Testament, the Greek-speaking Jews referred to the Feast of Weeks (Harvest) as the "Feast of Pentecost." Acts 2 tells the account of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the 120 disciples and other Jewish believers (Acts 2:1–31). The Holy Spirit convicted the crowd, through their teaching, and a harvest of souls (some 3,000) were gathered and added to the church that day (Acts 2:41).

God's New Covenant and the Holy Spirit

God promised the Jewish people a new covenant after they broke the one He gave them through Moses. However, entering into the New Covenant is only made possible by faith in Yeshua Christ, who shed His blood to take away the sins of the world. In addition, God sent the Holy Spirit to guide them. The New Covenant is written on the hearts and minds of all those who believe in Yeshua Christ, so that we may follow His commandments (Jeremiah 31:31–34; Ezekiel 36:28–30; Hebrews 10:16). God's Commandments, written on two stones, give us our boundaries. The Holy Spirit, who reveals God's truths through His Word, empowers us to stay within those boundaries.

God's Divine Calendar

God Himself established a biblical calendar when He commanded Moses to mark the month of Israel's freedom from slavery in Egypt as the beginning of a new year, and God set the observance of Passover as the time for Israel's release (Exodus 12:12-14). The Lord said in Exodus 12:2, "This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you." As time went by, the Israelites eventually realized that God wanted them to perpetually observe certain religious events and acts of God in history. So, over a period of time, they created calendars to mark the months in which these events occurred.

God's blessings, which were originally meant for Israel, can be ours today, through Yeshua Christ. When we study the biblical months, we see that the divine blessings of the holidays and observances point to some aspect of Yeshua Christ. God, in His infinite wisdom, has divinely designed these times to glorify His Son, and we can appropriate the spiritual blessings available to us through Yeshua Christ.

The Month of Sivan According to the Book of Formation (Sefer Yetzirah)

According to Sefer Yetzirah, to each month of the Jewish calendar there corresponds a letter of the Hebrew alphabet, a zodiac sign, one of the twelve tribes of Israel, a sense, and a controlling limb of the body.

The Third Month

Sivan is the third of the twelve months of the Jewish calendar. It is the month in which God descended on Mt. Sinai and gave the Torah to the Jewish people. As noted elsewhere, there are only three months that are referred to ordinally in the Torah in conjunction with the exodus from Egypt: Nisan, Iyar, and Sivan,

In the third month of the exodus from Egypt, they came to the Sinai desert.

A recurring theme is that the giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai is intrinsically linked with the number 3. For instance, the sage's state, "Blessed is the Merciful one who gave a threefold Torah to a threefold people, by the third, on the third day, in the third month."

In this quote, God is referred to as the "Merciful one." God's attribute of mercy is itself related to the number 3, for it is the third of the seven emotive attributes of the soul (corresponding in Kabbalah to Jacob, the third of the three patriarchs, "the pillar of the Torah").

When was the first Pentecost?

Pentecost ("the fiftieth day") is a Christian holiday commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles on the fiftieth day after the resurrection of Yeshua Christ. The Apostles began to speak in many languages and have received other spiritual gifts. The event was foretold by Yeshua before his Ascension. It is reported by most scholars as 32 A.D. What does A.D. mean? A.D. stands for the Latin phrase "Anno Domini" meaning "in the year of our Lord (Yeshua Christ)."

In Christian tradition, Pentecost is a moveable feast observed exactly seven weeks after Easter Day, i.e. 50 days after Easter (inclusive, 49 + Easter). It always falls on the seventh Sunday after Easter Day. In Eastern churches the date of Pentecost is calculated in the same manner, but it usually differs due to the use of the Julian calendar instead of the Gregorian. Pentecost is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic Church.

Pentecost this year is the evening of Friday May 22 through the evening of Sunday May 24, 2026

Pentecost is also called Whitsunday, is celebrated on Sunday that falls on the 50th day of Easter. The name is derived from the Greek word "pentekoste" which means fiftieth as Pentecost Sunday takes place on the 50th day of Easter.

Pentecost Significance

It is a big festival in the Christian church that observes the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles and other disciples following the Crucifixion, Resurrection, and Ascension of Yeshua Christ. It also marks the beginning of the Christian church's mission to the world, according to the Britannica.

The festival marks an end to the Easter cycle, which starts 90 days before with Ash Wednesday at the beginning of Lent.

When is Pentecost 2026?

Pentecost is observed on the seventh Sunday after Passover and 10 days after Ascension. As the Sunday is decided according to the date of Passover, this day is a changeable feast.

This year Pentecost Sunday is observed on Sunday, May 24th. At the same time, on the Hebrew calendar in a leap year it will vary due to Passover. This year the Hebrew celebration of Shavuot is May 23-24th.

Why is it called Pentecost Sunday?

Whits-Sunday celebrates the Holy Spirit coming in the form of flames to the Apostles and other followers of Yeshua Christ, as recorded in the New Testament in Acts 2:1-31, the fifth book of the New Testament of the Bible. Many Christians recognize the descent of the Holy Spirit as the birth of the Church.

Pentecost is known by Whit-Sunday in the United Kingdom. "Whitsunday" is usually referred to as the white garments previously worn by the baptism candidates on this feast.

Shavuot – Feast of Weeks – Pentecost 2026, the 4th Feast of the Lord," begins sundown on May 22nd until sundown May 24th.

Perhaps one of the most fascinating biblical studies is the historic and prophetic significance of the special Feast days of the Lord. The seven "Feasts of the Lord" are arranged in Leviticus 23 in two groups. The first four came at the beginning of the Biblical Jewish Year, while the last three came toward the end of the year. That seems it is God's method in revealing future things (compare Luke 1: 31-33). Between these two groups there was a period of several months when there were no feasts or holy convocations.

The feasts of Passover and Un-leavened Bread - point to Christ's death and burial; First fruits to His resurrection; and Pentecost (fifty days later) to His Church. Then there is a space of time representing the long period in which Israel is out of the Land of Promise and out of and the place of blessing, which coincides with the Church Age.

Shavuot is a happy Festival and falls on Sivan 6 and 7 (corresponds to May or early June) in the Jewish calendar. This festival day is also known as the Feast of Weeks, (Exodus 34:22), as Shavuot means "weeks."

Shavuot was believed by rabbinic scholars to be the day that God gave Moses the Torah or law on Mount Sinai after their exodus from Egypt. On that day God Himself came down in a cloud on Mount Sinai in fire and smoke and a blast of God's trumpet, to establish His covenant with His people. Shavuot is therefore commemorated as the biblical birth date of the nation of Israel.

According to tradition, on the day of the "Giving" of the Torah (it is not mentioned the "receiving") the Israelites did not have any meat prepared according to the rules of ritual slaughtering. Nor could they slaughter another animal on the day, as it was Sabbath, the day when slaughtering was forbidden. So, the people were forced to eat simple dairy products for the rest of the day. During the Shavuot festival, the Jews follow this tradition by eating dairy products.

It is believed that Mt. Sinai suddenly bloomed with greenery and flowers in happiness of the giving of the Torah. To commemorate this event, the Jews decorate their homes and synagogues with flowers and branches. It is also customary at Shavuot to decorate the synagogue with greenery, flowers, and fruit. There are two explanations for doing this at Shavuot:

- It symbolizes the harvest aspect of Shavuot and keeps with the biblical theme of the feast.
- There is also a rabbinical tradition that even though Mount Sinai was situated in the desert, in honor of the giving of Torah, the desert bloomed and sprouted flowers.

It is also known as the Feast of Pentecost, because it falls fifty days after first fruits, and the word Pentecost means "fifty" or "fifty days." God specifically told the Israelites that they were to count seven Sabbaths (seven complete weeks), from Firstfruits (Leviticus 23:15; Deuteronomy 16:9), which adds up to 49 days.

God had ordained for Israel a sacred calendar of three major festivals to be observed as "A statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings."

(Leviticus 23:14, 21, 41; Deuteronomy 16:16, 17.)

Important: The Three MAJOR Feasts are:

1. "Passover, the Feast of Unleavened Bread."

2. "Shavuot / Feast of Weeks" – which is also called "Pentecost," a Greek translation of the Hebrew words meaning, the "fiftieth day" when the Festival was celebrated. (Leviticus 23:15, 16)

3. "The Feast of Tabernacles."

Passover marked the first spring harvest. The first fruits of a sheaf, or "omer," of barley was required by the Torah to be presented before the LORD in the House of God, as a thanksgiving "wave offering." From the next day, seven weeks or forty-nine days were counted to wheat harvest. (Leviticus 23:10, 11)

Then on the day after the seventh Sabbath which was the fiftieth day, they were to bring to the temple "two loaves of bread," specifically commanded to be made with fine flour and baked with leaven (Leviticus 23:17). These two loaves of bread were to be used as a "wave offering" for the people.

What was significant about the two leaven loaves? Part of the wheat offering was baked into two loaves of leavened bread - a striking contrast to the matzo a few weeks before! The two leavened loaves became symbolic of sinful mankind - both Jew and Gentile - as the Holy Scriptures state. (Psalm 14:2-3; Romans 3:9-10, 23)

Why should Christians observe the Feast of Shavuot or Pentecost? Because of a major event in Jewish history which became a universal blessing for all mankind that took place in the Jerusalem Temple during that harvest festival of Shavuot also called Pentecost.

It was on the first day of the week, Sunday, in the Roman Julian calendar, May 24th, in the year A.D. 30. This was also the year 3,790 in the Hebrew calendar. Christian scholars mark that historic Pentecost in Jerusalem as the "spiritual birthday of the church." (A.R. Fausset's Bible Dictionary, p. 557)

On the "fiftieth day" ~ "Pentecost" or "Shavuot" - another harvest thanksgiving service was observed in the House of God. This time, from the first fruit of wheat harvest, "two loaves of bread baked with leaven were waved before the LORD," in the act of thanksgiving. (Leviticus 23:16-17)

These three festivals marked Israel's history in the process of their redemption. These festivals were also prophetic and typological of the greater redemption which would come through the Messiah.

Pentecost - The Feast of Fulfilment When the day of Pentecost (meaning, Shavuot) came, one hundred and twenty disciples (Acts 1:15) were all together in one place. Suddenly, a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues (or as the NIV interprets, "languages"), as the Spirit enabled them." (Acts 2:1-4 NIV)

Luke further describes the many lands from which the pilgrims came up to the House of God, the Temple, in Jerusalem. They were "Jews and (Gentile) converts to Judaism." (Acts 2:8 - 11)

As recorded by Cornelius Tacitus, the Roman historian, The Holy City with a population of about six hundred thousand at that time, exploded with between two and three million, because of the pilgrims. The pilgrims slept on the flat roofs of the houses, camped outside the walls of Jerusalem, were given hospitality by relatives and friends, all within a "Sabbath-day's journey" to reach the House of God. Their presence in the Holy City on the three major festivals was in obedience to the Torah, as God commanded Moses: "Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which He shall choose . . ." (Deuteronomy 16:16)

This feast of Shavuot was also a prophecy of the day of Pentecost (Pentecost means fifty) and the coming of the New Covenant. The disciples were commanded to tarry at Jerusalem "for the promise of the Father" (Acts 1:4), which they did. However, they did not have long to wait.

The coming of the Holy Spirit occurred on the next Jewish holiday, when Jews from different countries came to be in Jerusalem to celebrate the completion of the harvest season. This annual feast was none other than Shavuot or the Feast of Weeks, and once more God descended on those first-century believers with a mighty rushing wind, tongues of fire, and other demonstrations of the Holy Spirit, once more establishing a covenant with His people.

Shavuot points to Christ, the head of the church that came into existence on the Day of Pentecost. The Holy Spirit united the believers in the body and, since then, all true believers in Yeshua, Jewish or Gentile, are not only indwelt by the Holy Spirit but are baptized into the same body.

There are many reasons why the Jewish people read the Book of Ruth on the holiday of Shavuot, some of which are listed below:

1. The Torah (5 Books of Moses: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy) was given to the Jewish People on this day, the sixth day of Sivan, and they believe that just as Torah learning is acquired through pain and poverty, so did Ruth endure poverty and sorrow as she accepted Naomi's God; the God of Israel.
2. Just as Ruth was accepted by the God of Israel, so too, the nation of Israel entered into a covenant with God on this day when they eagerly accepted the Torah.
3. King David was born and seventy years later, died on the holiday of Shavuot. David, the head of the Judean Kingdom, was Ruth's great grandchild (genealogy of Yeshua our Lord). Ruth is often referred to as "Em Hamalchut," the Mother of the Kingdom.
4. The central theme of the book of Ruth is "Chesed" (Mercy). The book shows the loving kindness that Ruth bestowed on her mother-in-law Naomi, and by the people of Bethlehem (remember, this is also where the Lord Yeshua was born) at that time, towards the poor, as well as Boaz's thoughtfulness towards Ruth.

5. Shavuot is also called Chag Hakatzir or The Harvest Festival. The Book of Ruth paints a picture of the harvest time in Israel and to treat the poor with loving kindness, especially during this harvest.

One of the great heroines in Israel, Ruth is loved and revered. Ruth, in her modest nature and deeds of kindness, demonstrated what a true friend, a true daughter-in-law, and what a true woman is made of.

Ruth is a beautiful picture of Jew and Gentile as "ONE New Man"- Israel and the Church! "For He is our peace, He is making us both one, and He has broken down the middle wall of partition between us (Jew and Gentile) so that in Himself He might make the two (Jew and Gentile) into one new man, making peace between them" (Ephesians 2:14-15)

Understanding MERCY is the Hebrew word "chesed," biblical scholars have often complained that the word in the Hebrew Bible is difficult to translate into English, because it really has no precise equivalent in our language. English versions usually try to represent "chesed" with words as "loving-kindness," "mercy," "steadfast love," and sometimes "loyalty," but the full meaning of the word cannot be fully conveyed without an explanation: It is one of the words used in the Psalms (23 times), plus in Hosea 2:19 to refer to God's love for his people Israel. Otherwise, the use of 'mercy,' 'goodness,' and 'great kindness' in the Psalms refers to God's attitude to man. Outside the Psalms, such words as 'mercy,' 'goodness,' 'favor' apply to God's attitude to man, while 'kindness' is applied to man's attitude to man.

An interesting thought to ponder on Ruth is that she was a Gentile who came from Moab (today this area is situated in Jordan where the ancient city of Petra is also situated). As Ruth and Naomi returned in hardship and a time of famine to Israel, so it is believed that in end times, when the Antichrist forces the Jewish people out, "they will flee" and take refuge in (Moab) Petra. There are unfulfilled prophecies: Isaiah 16:2-4; Matthew 24:15-22; Jeremiah 30:4-8 (Jacob's trouble); Daniel 11:40-44; Revelation 12:6,14.

The basic theme of Shavuot is "the harvest" and thanksgiving to God, and Pentecost is the thanksgiving for the "Holy Spirit and Church." But what then is really the spiritual significance? We mentioned an early harvest of first fruits and the feast of weeks - how are they tied together? We read in 1 Corinthians 15:20 that Messiah Himself is the fulfilment of the Feast of First fruits. But where is the Feast of Weeks? Where is the fulfilment of that Feast of the Lord? For that we need to look at Acts 2:1-4.

Have you ever asked what all those people were doing in Jerusalem at the time of Pentecost? They were "devout men" - meaning careful to observe all that God commanded - they were there because God commanded them to go up to Jerusalem to observe the feast. As mentioned, there were three times each year appointed by God for His people to come up to Jerusalem to celebrate with Him in His feasts. Why did God pour out His Spirit on them? To fulfill the symbol of this harvest of ingathering and to fulfill His prophetic word!

The rabbis tied the Feast of Shavuot to the "giving" of the Torah - but here too are some other interesting parallels: When God gave the Torah to His people - all Israel acknowledged they would follow it (Exodus 19:8). It wasn't long after that Israel forgot, and disobeyed, bringing down God's judgment (Exodus 32:28), and 3,000 of God's people were destroyed. Is it just coincidence that years later, on the anniversary of the giving of Torah - God would as Firstfruits have 3,000 born to newness of life (Acts 2:41)? It also points to the fulfilment of Ezekiel 36:27, where by His Spirit on the Feast Day of Shavuot He would write His Torah on the hearts of His people.

Shavuot (Pentecost) remembers God's people's attitude in first receiving Torah –"All that the Lord has spoken we will do" (Exodus 19:8) and God's intended purpose: The rabbis have said that there is no liberty without divine Law and the self-discipline that it gives us. It is said a train must have rails and a river must have banks - so too, our lives need the Bible. After all, Yeshua did not say, "Go and do what feels good" or "Go and live your life as you please." He said, "Go and make disciples, teaching them to observe (or more literally "be observant") all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19–20)

We noted earlier the two loaves (Leviticus 23:17) with leaven, and how they represented the people of Israel, in whom there is leaven. But we ask ourselves again, why two loaves! If it speaks, why is it not twelve loaves? (As with the shewbread in the tabernacle with one for each of the twelve tribes of Israel).

Some have said the loaves symbolize the two tablets of the Torah, since the Torah was given at Shavuot, and therefore a reminder to keep and observe God's commandments. But then there is the problem of the leaven - certainly one would not conclude that God's Torah is sinful – Psalm 19:7 says, the Law of the Lord is perfect converting the soul. Paul speaks of the goodness of the Torah in showing us our own sinfulness.

No! That does not fit the symbol! Rather, it seems they prophetically point to the two leavened people of God - Israel and the church, who together make up the body of Messiah.

The two loaves of leavened bread have, since that feast of Shavuot some 2000 years ago, become joined together to become one people of God. Jews and Gentiles, one in Messiah, who are called upon to observe - to be devout about and to keep all things that He has commanded us (Matthew 28:19–20). This symbolic message of Shavuot must have been in Paul's mind when he wrote Ephesians 2:11–13; 16–22.

On Pentecost, the God of Israel comes down to His people. God comes down to visit His people, first nationally, (in the Old Covenant), and individually and personally, (in the New Covenant). He reveals Himself to His covenant people in power and great glory. Pentecost unfolds in the Old Covenant as Yahweh God is betrothed to a nation, and as Pentecost unfolds in the New Covenant, as Yahweh God is betrothed to individuals personally inside their hearts.

The birth of the church at "Pentecost" necessitated all of the above. The divine seed had to fall into the ground and die in order to bear fruit, and the womb out of which the church came forth was none other but the national frame of Israel. While many acknowledge Israel's physical exile of the last nineteen hundred years, only a few recognize that the nation also experienced a spiritual exile as well. As in any birth, the intensifying pains, the trauma, and the laying down of one's life took their toll. Israel, now an exhausted bloody womb, collapsed and was taken out of the way. The young church, vibrant and anointed, spread her across the heathen nations, bringing the life of heaven in her wings. But what about the old womb? It was not to be forsaken forever, was it? Romans 11:1 "God has not rejected His people, has He? May it never be?"

Deuteronomy 4:13

Introduction

Recovering the Torah of the Master Covenant:

The neglected foundation of all biblical faith

Torah did not begin as law or ritual: it began as covenant. There was a moment in Israel's history when an entire people directly encountered the voice of YHVH (the LORD)—before the priesthood and its ritual enactments, and before theological codification. At the mountain of Khorev (Horeb), the Ten Words were publicly proclaimed by the voice of Elohim (God) as "the Covenant" itself, and were afterwards divinely inscribed on two stone tablets as a "Testimony," marking a unique event of direct revelation. These two explicit designations occur more than seventy times in the first five books of the Bible—no other covenant is attested to more frequently.

At its core, this study restores the Ten Words as the totality of the universal Master Covenant spoken by Elohim to their proper place of biblical primacy in both Judaism and Christianity—but open to all peoples.

Yet both Jews and Christians have commonly been taught that the entire Pentateuch (first five books of the Bible) constitutes the Torah given through Moses during the wilderness period following the revelation at Khorev. However, within this study, that conclusion is understood as a traditional misconception. Beyond the Master Covenant's Ten Words, the remainder of the Pentateuch is not treated here as a single, homogeneous "Law of Moses" but as a layered historical response to that original covenant. These five books constitute an expanding framework shaped by tradition, interpretation, priestly administration, and progressive historical circumstances.

As thus defined, the Pentateuch primarily refers to the broader body of additional commandments, judgments, statutes, and regulations preserved as the "Law of Moses," beginning in Exodus 20:22 and extending through Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. Those passages belong not to the original moment of revelation, but to its mediation and expansion within Israel's historical framework. The Pentateuch therefore reflects later developments and expanded legal applications flowing from the Master Covenant—rather than constituting the original covenantal revelation itself.

THE TEN WORDS OF THE MASTER COVENANT CONSTITUTE THE ORIGINAL TORAH OF YHVH

When this misapprehension is corrected, a simple but far-reaching conclusion emerges: the commands within the Ten Words are the entire, original covenantal torah (torah, "teaching, instruction; traditionally, law").<sup>1</sup> Moses' own first-person testimony in Deuteronomy definitively closes the matter: After the Ten Words are spoken, Moses declares "And He added no more" (Deut 5:19 TNK; 5:22 CB).<sup>2</sup> This statement marks the completion of that direct, public covenantal revelation from YHVH to the assembled nation—after which no further such proclamation is recorded.

This distinction matters because the biblical narrative itself preserves a clear boundary between what YHVH spoke directly and everything that follows. After the Ten Words were proclaimed, the people withdrew in fear, and Moses alone ascended the mountain. In Deuteronomy, Moses recounts these events in the first person. By contrast, the material that follows in Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers appears in third-person narrative form, presenting further instruction as being mediated through Moses. Many modern Bible scholars—Jewish and Gentile alike—therefore conclude that substantial portions of this broader torah tradition were transmitted, compiled, expanded, and shaped over time within Israel’s historical and institutional life.

The narrative’s setting reinforces this distinction. In Deuteronomy, the covenantal revelation is associated with Khorev—the place where the people heard the voice of YHVH. In Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers, the location’s name shifts to Sinai, where mediated instruction, priestly structure, and legal expansion are developed. The shift reflects two distinct modes: at Khorev, the covenant is established; at Sinai, that covenant is historically interpreted, expanded, and organized. Khorev is the voice of Elohim; Sinai is the echo of history.

Read in this light, the additional priestly and holiness legislation appear as developments gradually layered upon the original covenantal moment. Approaching the text from a different perspective but reaching the same conclusion, many modern biblical scholars have likewise observed that the Pentateuch reflects multiple stages of composition over time. The canonical text demonstrates a natural progression to suit the needs of an expanding population within a more organized societal and institutionalized setting. This does not deny the antiquity of Israel’s practices; it recognizes that the comprehensive legal-ritual system reflects a process of historical assembly—an expanded torah.<sup>3</sup>

THE PENTATEUCH IS AN EXPANSION OF THE TEN WORDS OF THE COVENANTAL TORAH WRITTEN OVER TIME

Why is this relevant? As stated, most Jews and Gentiles assume that Torah refers to the entire Pentateuch as a single, uniform body of law and narrative, containing hundreds of statutes and regulations given to Moses. Judaism and Christianity have interpreted that material very differently. Within Judaism, halakhic (legal) tradition expanded it into an extensive legal system, followed most strictly by the Orthodox communities. Within Christianity, much of the Pentateuch was set aside as not applicable to the Church; it was replaced by their own Hellenist traditions and a Graeco-Roman ecclesiastical legal framework shaped by later theological doctrines. In both cases, the original covenantal voice at Khorev was gradually overshadowed—incorporated into tradition.

<sup>3</sup> We will use the term “expanded torah” to refer to this body of material in order to differentiate it from the original covenantal torah. The expanded torah is commonly referred to as the “Pentateuch” (five books); these two terms are synonyms. Jews generally refer to it as “the Torah”; Christians often refer to it as “the Law.” Please see Glossary.

Moreover, the Hebrew prophets consistently reaffirm the Ten Words as the authentic covenantal torah of YHVH. They subordinate traditional ritual and sacrifices to ethical obedience—righteousness, justice, humility, and mercy (Hos 6:6; Isa 1:11–17; Jer 7:22–23). In doing so, they continually reaffirm the primacy and efficacy of the original Master Covenant rather than expanding it.<sup>4</sup>

As presented here, the Master Covenant is solely the Ten Words spoken by YHVH at Khorev—confirmed by Moses himself. Those Words constitute the covenantal torah in its original and enduring sense. All Israel accepted that covenant—yet they did not stand alone. A mixed multitude of Gentiles who had escaped Egypt, joined with the Israelites, and stood within the hearing of that voice; they, too, agreed to obey Elohim’s instructions. From the beginning, covenant participation was not determined by ethnicity, but by voluntary attachment and faithful obedience. The Master Covenant was given to Israel because of the promise to the patriarchs – but it was spoken to the entire assembly. The invitation was open to all who would join themselves to Israel and pledge to walk in the same Way. This is the template—the pattern that points beyond inclusion alone to the universality of the covenantal obligation.

This universality has long been recognized within Jewish tradition itself. As Chief Rabbi J. H. Hertz observed:

The Decalogue is a sublime summary of human duties binding upon all mankind... the world’s laws for all time... the word of our God shall stand for ever.<sup>5</sup>

THE ISRAELITES RECEIVED THE PROMISED REVELATION – THE GENTILES RECEIVED THE INVITATION TO JOIN
--

Accordingly, we affirm one covenantal order for both Israelites and Gentiles who attach themselves to Israel’s Elohim. Historically, Gentiles who entered this covenantal life did so not by replacing Torah, but by learning it—e.g., hearing Moses read and choosing to walk in obedience within a shared moral and covenantal framework (Acts 15:19–21, 29).

Moses and Yeshua Affirm the Ten Words are the Torah

Near the end of his life, Moses urges Israel to "obey the voice of YHVH your Elohim," to keep His commands written in the "book of the Teaching" (sefer ha-torah), and to "turn to YHVH your Elohim with all your heart and with all your soul" (Deut 30:10). He declares that this commandment is "not too difficult" and "not far off," but near—"in your mouth and in your heart, for you to do it" (Deut 30:11–14).<sup>6</sup> The concise Master Covenant—the Ten Words—fits this description precisely. If the "commandment" Moses refers to is instead understood as the full five books of the Pentateuchal law code, the description of it as "not too difficult" becomes considerably strained.

Centuries later, Yeshua (Eng. Jesus) affirms the same reality: the word is near, knowable, and meant to be practiced: "Neither shall they say, 'Lo, here! or, There!' for the kingdom of Elohim (God) is within you" (Luke 17:21), and "Not everyone that says unto me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven" (Matt 7:21). Moreover, when asked how to inherit eternal life, Yeshua responds, "Follow the commandments" and begins to recite them (Matt 19:16–19; Mark 10:17–19). What Moses declared, Yeshua confirms—the way to life is found in obedience to what has already been given as an unchanging covenant—engraved on two stone tablets.

This same understanding and application of the covenantal torah is later reflected in the apostolic community. Headquartered in Jerusalem and led by Yeshua's brother James the Just, they called themselves "the Way" (Acts 9:2, 18:25, etc.) because they followed "the Way of YHVH" (Gen 18:19; Judg 2:22, Mark 1:3, etc.).

Above all, this study is an invitation. It invites the reader to return to the moment when a voice was heard, a covenant was spoken, and a people began a life-altering journey. For those who stood there, the covenant was a command to which they had agreed; for those who came later, it is a calling. In both cases, the Master Covenant of the Ten Words remains the same—not a system to master, but a way of life to be entered, guarded, and lived.

The Ten Words are not the center of Torah—they are the Covenantal Torah itself

<sup>6</sup> asah is the transliterated Hebrew verb meaning "to do, make, perform, etc." The literal translation is "for you to do it." In this last phrase, "you" is in the third-person singular tense and indicates that each and every person who accepts the tenets of the Master Covenant is able "to do it"—to internalize and faithfully abide by its Ten Words.

Authors' Notes

The Names

Throughout this study, the transliterated divine name YHVH and the term Elohim are used intentionally to reflect the original language and conceptual world of the Hebrew Scriptures rather than later conventional translations. This is not merely stylistic, but contextually interpretive.

We use YHVH (Ex 3:15) in place of the traditional English rendering "the LORD" (e.g., JPS, KJV, NIV) because the latter obscures the uniqueness of Elohim's revealed covenantal name. Terms such as adon / Adonai (Hebrew) and kyrios (Greek) can refer broadly to "lord," "master," or even human authorities. Rendering these generically as "the LORD" tends to blur an important distinction: YHVH is not a title, but rather a specific, personal 'name' identifying His essential nature.

In Exodus 3:14–15, Elohim reveals Himself in the first person as ehyeh asher ehyeh or simply AHYH (ehyeh)—"I will be what I will be," related to the verb hayah ("to be"). The form YHVH expresses a similar idea in the third-person singular and is commonly understood to convey His eternal, self-existent "Being"—"He is, was, and will be." Throughout the Tanakh, YHVH functions as Elohim's personal, covenantal name, but pronunciation is heavily debated.<sup>7</sup>

The term Elohim, commonly translated "God," likewise carries meaning that is not fully captured by the English equivalent. Rooted in the concept of power or might (el), the Semitic Elohim conveys supreme authority and fullness of power not entirely expressed by the common English word "God. Though grammatically plural, it is consistently paired with singular verbs when referring to the one God of Israel, expressing both majesty and unity (Gen 1:1). The English word "God," while not incorrect, reflects later linguistic and philosophical development and lacks the covenantal depth of Elohim. For this reason, we retain Elohim throughout, encouraging a more Hebraic frame of reference—particularly in light of declarations such as Moses' "YHVH is one" (Deut 6:4), and Yeshua (English; Jesus) referencing "the only true Elohim" (John 17:3; cf. 20:17).

Related to these choices, the following terminology governs how key covenantal terms, Bible and third-party quotes are used throughout this work.

<sup>7</sup> The tetragrammaton—Elohim's four-letter abbreviated name at Exodus 3:15—is YHVH and is pronounced several ways for as many reasons. The most popular are "Yahweh" and "Jehovah" or "Yehovah." But there is no universal agreement. Many use the truncated Yah—as in "Halelu-Yah" (YH). It is not to be used irreverently.

Terminology and Textual Conventions

The following terms are used in a precise and consistent way throughout this analysis. These definitions are not merely semantic, but interpretive in relation to the time, place and cultural context—they reflect the distinctions embedded in the biblical text itself.

Unless otherwise indicated, the terms covenantal torah, Covenant, and Testimony refer specifically to the Ten Words spoken directly by YHVH at Khorev and inscribed on the two stone tablets. These Ten Words (aseret ha-devarim)<sup>8</sup> constitute the Master Covenant<sup>tm9</sup> itself. The term “covenant” refers to a solemn, binding contractual agreement between people or Elohim Himself and people.

The broader body of narrative, instruction, and legislation contained in the five books of Moses is referred to as the expanded torah or Pentateuch (Greek: pentáteuchos; five books) and represents the historical development of a legal code and application of same under that original Khorev covenant. Maintaining this distinction is essential to the argument of this work, as it reflects the ordering and emphasis found within the biblical text itself.

The Hebrew term “torah,” commonly translated “law,” derives from the root YRH (yarah), meaning “to teach” or “to instruct.” No changes are made to quoted material that may use the term more broadly; in such cases, meaning is determined by context. Most often third-party usage will refer to the expanded torah of the Pentateuch, often referred to as “the Law,” and not the Ten Words alone.

Hebrew words are transliterated using a simplified Society of Biblical Literature Handbook of Style (SBL General) and introduced italicized throughout wherever helpful. The use of italics for those words is reduced thereafter to preserve readability as will be seen going forward with YHVH, Elohim, Yeshua, Khorev, etc. Definitions of those words and other Hebrew-English transliterations can be found in the Glossary located at the end of this section.

All Bible quotes are from either the copyright-free digital versions of The Holy Scriptures, Tanakh Edition, JPS 1917 (Link: sefaria.org), or the American Standard Version (ASV), 1901 (Link: biblehub.com), and are “adapted” by updating some of the language including, but not limited to, words like: “shalt” to “shall” and “thee” to “you,” etc. Translations for other words may also vary from original English translations for the <sup>8</sup> The Hebrew expression aseret ha-devarim (Deut 4:13; 10:4) literally means “the Ten Words,” but may also be translated as the Ten “Matters” or “Sayings.” The Greek Septuagint similarly renders the phrase deka logoi or dekálogos (ten words), from which the later term Decalogue derives.

Differences in chapter and verse numbering for quotations will be identified where appropriate: Tanakh or TNK for Hebrew Scriptures and CB for Christian Bible. Quotes from other versions will be identified individually. All references to Elohim's or YHVH's personal pronouns are Capitalized.

Unless otherwise indicated, italics and capitalization within third-party quotations are original or have been lightly adapted for clarity, consistency, emphasis, and formatting. In biblical usage, masculine pronouns referring to conduct, covenant obligations, or moral behavior are generally intended in a universal sense and apply to all people. Ellipses indicate omitted material.

A collection of ancient Jewish manuscripts discovered near Qumran, dating from approximately the third century BCE to the first century CE. These texts preserve biblical manuscripts and sectarian writings that reflect diverse interpretations of Torah in the Second Temple period.

Da 'at Elohim

"Knowledge of God"; not intellectual awareness, but relational knowledge expressed through practicing faithful obedience, righteousness, justice, steadfast love and mercy.

Higher Torah

A term used to describe the deeper ethical and intentional dimension of Torah—emphasizing inward-based faithful obedience leading to actions expressing righteousness, justice and mercy (steadfast love).

Master Covenant (ha-berit ha-rashit)

The Ten Words ('aseret ha-devarim) spoken directly by YHVH at Khorev, constituting the original defining covenantal torah and expression of His will—publicly revealed, binding, and heard by all the people. It could also be defined as ha-berit ha-yesod or the Foundational Covenant, a structural base upon which everything that follows is built.

Mashiakh* (messiah; anointed one)

Signifies one who has been anointed by YHVH to serve Him. Aaron was the first “messiah” and is repeatedly called ha-kohen ha-mashiakh; the anointed priest (Lev 4:3, 5, 16, 6:15, 16:32); Isaiah called King Cyrus YHVH’s (Isa 45:1). Divinity is not attached to this designation. The term “the Mashiakh” refers to the future Davidic King—the greater son of David—who must fulfill ten specific requirements.

Mishpat* (mishpat)

Justice, right judgment, or lawful order—along with tzedakah, a core requirement of covenantal life.

Mitzvot* (Commandments)

Instructions or commands. In this work, emphasis is placed on the Ten Words as the foundational commandments of the covenant.

Mixed Multitude

The diverse group of non-Israelites (Gentiles) who left Egypt with the Israelites and were present at the covenant revelation at Khorev.

Nazarenes / Nazoreans

Terms used by later sources to describe early Jewish followers of Yeshua. These groups are often associated with Torah observance and continuity with the earliest apostolic community.

New Covenant (brit khadashah)

The prophetic promise (Jeremiah 31:31–34) that the same Torah given at Khorev would be written upon the heart, resulting in faithful obedience—not a replacement of the original covenant’s Ten Words.

Oral Torah

The body of interpretive oral traditions later codified in rabbinic literature, understood within Judaism as complementing the written Torah (Pentateuch). These are said to have been passed down orally until written down after the destruction of the Second Temple (70 CE) and make up the Talmud, a complement to the Pentateuch. There are two versions of the Talmud: the Babylonian and the Palestinian. In this work, it is evaluated in light of the original covenantal torah.

Qumran

An archaeological site near the Dead Sea associated with the community that preserved the Dead Sea Scrolls. Often linked to one or more sectarian Jewish groups devoted to covenantal purity, scriptural interpretation, and expectation of a coming teacher or messianic figure.

Shabbat (Sabbath)

The seventh day of the week; one of the Ten Words and the day of rest because: (1) Elohim created the world in six days and rested on the seventh, or; (2) Elohim delivered Israel from Egyptian bondage.

Talmud

A central body of rabbinic literature consisting of the Mishnah and Gemara. It preserves legal discussions, interpretations, and traditions fully developed by rabbinic authorities after the destruction of the Second Temple (70 CE). Key texts include the Mishnah: a collection of binding oral legal rulings (halakhot); and the Gemara: a collection of non-binding traditions and customs (aggadah). There are two versions of the Talmud: the Babylonian and the Palestinian.

Tanakh (acronym: TNK)

The entire Hebrew Bible (Scriptures) made up of the Torah–Nevi’im–Ketuvim: The Law–the Prophets–the Writings. In the Second Temple period and at the time of Yeshua, the Jewish “Scriptures” were primarily made up of the Pentateuch (expanded torah) and the Prophets (including the Psalms).

Teshuvah (repentance; to turn around)

A return to YHVH expressed through confession, humility, and a renewed commitment to walk in His Way. Central to covenantal faithfulness.

The Way (ha-derekh)

The earliest designation for the movement of Yeshua's followers. Refers to a lived path of faithful obedience to YHVH characterized by righteousness, justice, and mercy. Abraham is the forefather of the followers of "the Way of YHVH."

Torah (torah)

Literally "instruction" or "teaching." In this work, the term is used in two senses: (1) the covenantal torah (the Ten Words), and (2) the expanded torah, the broader body of instruction representing their historical expansion and application preserved in the Pentateuch (the so-called five books of Moses).

Tsedaqah (tsedaqah)

Righteousness—living in accordance with YHVH's standards of justice, integrity, and covenantal faithfulness.

YHVH

The personal name of the Elohim of Israel, revealed in the Hebrew Scriptures (Ex :3:15).

Yeshua

A shortened form of the Hebrew name Yehoshua ("YHVH is salvation"; Eng. Joshua), widely used in the Second Temple period in both Hebrew and Aramaic-speaking contexts; rendered as Iēsous in Greek and "Jesus" in English.

A Day to Rededicate America to God: Dutch Sheets

On Thursday, February 5th, President Trump told those gathered that his administration would hold an event on today, May 17, 2026, at the Washington Mall/Lincoln Memorial to rededicate America as "One Nation, Under God."

I certainly do not have to convince GH15 listeners/readers of this event's significance. It is monumental. I (and others) have been interceding and decreeing for more than 40 years that this would occur - not the gathering itself, as important as that will be, but what it represents.

America began turning from and rebelling against God and His Son, Jesus Christ, decades ago, at least as early as the 1960's. In 1962, the Supreme Court struck down school prayer; Time magazine published an article in 1965 reporting on the "God Is Dead" theology and movement. In 1973, the infamous Supreme Court decision making the right to an abortion the law of the land was delivered. That season began not merely a decline in morality, decency, and greatness in America; it marked the beginning of a cataclysmic collapse.

For the last few years, America has been inching its way to healing. Like the prodigal in Scripture crawling through the mud and slop of pigs back to "his senses" (Luke 15:17), America is returning to our Heavenly Father - to our roots. A rededication of our nation to God by our President and other leaders is astronomical toward this process. Christian leaders have done this; I have participated in it. But it will take on added significance when our government does so. The heavens will shake in the spiritual realm.

What Does This Dedication Mean?

The concept of dedicating people, places, buildings, and other resources to God is very biblical and significant. There are four words in Scripture translated "dedicate" or "dedication." Examining them alongside references in which they're used will provide insight into the principle.

1. Chanak(1) is one of the words. It is used to describe Solomon and all of Israel "dedicating" the Temple in 1 Kings 8:63. Interestingly, it is also translated "train up" a child in the way he should go in Proverbs 22:6. It is easy to see that the word conveys more than a simple token prayer or statement of dedication. It implies a serious, ongoing commitment to a process, person, or cause. And it ushered the glory of God into the temple!
2. Another word translated "dedicate" in Scripture is qadash, and its derivative qodesh.(2) These two highly significant words mean to be holy or to be set apart to God. People were, of course, qadashed or separated to Him, but items (such as utensils in the Temple), and even days on the calendar were, as well. Items in the Temple were never to be used for anything else after being dedicated to the Lord. Days on the calendar that were qadashed to God were treated as holy days. Joshua told the entire nation of Israel to qadash themselves to the Lord in Joshua 3:5, in preparation for crossing into the promised land. Joel was told to sanctify or consecrate (qadash) the nation of Israel in Joel 2:15-16 in order to allow God's restoration to occur. It is clear that the concept presented by these words is incredibly powerful. It tells us how seriously Yahweh takes our dedication to Him, declaring us holy and as belonging to Him when we do so.

3. A third word translated as dedicate is cherem or charam.<sup>(3)</sup> This word carries such a strong meaning of being dedicated or devoted to someone that it became the word for a king's harem. The word implies being set apart to a person or purpose in a very strict way. The spoils of Jericho, for example, were set apart (charem) for God's use only (Joshua 6:18). When Achan stole some of those spoils, it brought a curse on the entire nation until his sin was dealt with (Joshua 7:11-13)! America was "dedicated" to God from her beginning, set apart for His purposes. We abandoned the Lord and His purposes for us, rebelling from His ways and our dedication to Him. The cost has been immeasurable.
4. The New Testament Greek word for dedicate is egkainizo.<sup>(4)</sup> Egkainizo means to "inaugurate, dedicate, and/or consecrate something new;" it can also mean to rededicate it. The word is used in Hebrews 9:18 to describe the inauguration, dedication, and consecration of the Old Covenant through the blood of animals. In the next chapter, 10:20, it describes the inauguration and dedication of the new and better covenant through the blood of Jesus.

This word is also used in the phrase "Feast of Dedication" in John 10:22. Today, this festival is called Hanukkah or the Festival of Lights. "The history of the Feast of Dedication goes back to the intertestamental period and the Maccabean Revolt. After a Syrian king profaned the Jewish temple and forced the Jews to abandon their sacrifices and adopt pagan rituals, a group of Jewish freedom fighters rose up, defied the oppressive pagan regime, and overthrew the Syrians. The temple in Jerusalem was "re-dedicated" to God; ever since then, the Feast of Dedication has been celebrated to commemorate this meaningful event in Jewish history."

America should take the rededication of our nation to God as seriously as the Jews did the rededication of the Temple by the Maccabees. I can assure you God will take it seriously. We should celebrate the overthrow of defilement and the return of our nation to alignment with the Lord. This won't mean the work of restoration is finished, but it will certainly mean it can be finished.

Pray with me:

Father, thank You for raising up this nation to be a light, a city on a hill, trumpeting the gospel of the Kingdom to the ends of the earth. Though we have strayed from our purpose and destiny, You have not altered it. You intend to resurrect this destiny and allow us to participate in the great billion-soul harvest.

As we pray for America today, we ask You to more fully reveal to us our great need for You. We repent over our sin and rebellion, the aborted babies, sex trafficking, and the mutilation of children, confused about their identities. Cleanse our hearts of our self-sufficiency, pride, arrogance, and rebellion toward You. Break and cleanse the hearts of the church over our lukewarm condition and compromise.

Father, we thank You for the great turning that has begun; turning from our way to Your way; turning from sin to righteousness; turning from death to life; turning from selfishness to selflessness and love.

As we approach this rededication, we pray for our government leaders. Give us legislators and judges who truly acknowledge a reliance upon You and Your statutes. Only through You will we see America's destiny fulfilled.

Heal America's breaches. Repair our political, generational, and racial wounds. Deliver us from wicked leaders who use them to divide us. Remove them from positions of authority. Expose their hypocrisy and evil agendas.

We boldly ask You to bless our nation and bring a sweeping revival - an awakening that will touch every soul and set us apart to You once again. Come, Holy Spirit, sweep across our states and cities. We ask for these things in Christ's name, Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that we, the people of America, place our trust in Almighty God and honor His will and ways. We rededicate this nation to You!

"THE STUMP OF TRUMP WILL SPROUT AGAIN!"

America! America! I see you standing as a mighty Oak Tree in the midst of the trees of the great forest of Nations. Ha! You are the tallest and strongest among the trees of The Nations. But suddenly I hear the piercing sound of deep cracking in the midst of a loud sound of the hacking of axes, and I hear The Spirit say, "Beloved, listen! Do you hear it?"

As I heard those Words, suddenly I hear another sound, a deep rumbling coming from deep beneath the ground. I look, and my eyes are drawn to the roots of the giant mighty Oak Tree. Then suddenly, I hear another sound, like a gentle breeze rustling through the leaves of The Forest of Nations, and I hear the sound of footsteps, and then I See, Behold, it's the Mighty Lion of Judah walking among the trees of the great forest of Nations.

I see His Eyes upon the hordes of hell, with axes in their hands, and His Eyes fixed upon the great and mighty Oak Tree; His Eyes, now upon the roots of the mighty Oak,

His piercing Eyes looking upon the foundations of the Nation. The power of His Covenant Promises with The Nation of America has drawn Him in!

Then suddenly, I feel the ground beneath my feet beginning to shake and tremble, and I see the branches of the great Oak Tree beginning to sway violently, and I see the hordes of hell are unrelenting in their pursuit to tear down, uproot, and utterly destroy the "Planting of The LORD."

But then suddenly, I hear the sound of loud Thunder, and The Heavens and all the Trees in the great Forest of Nations begin to shake, and the ground begins to quake.

Then I hear these Words, "For I laugh in The Heavens at the folly of my foe, that think they can uproot what I have planted, or tear down what I have built! Watch! For in the midst of the great shaking in The Forest of The Nations there is a sound now rising from deep within the ground, it's the sound of My Resurrection Power and Glory that shall suddenly bring forth new and greater Life and Liberty, for out of the deep darkness, a piercing Light shall suddenly break forth to expose the works of darkness.

"For the veil and the scales shall be removed and peeled back from the blind eyes of the people, and surely, they will declare with a loud voice, 'A Great Awakening is now come upon a Nation that has been slumbering and stumbling in the dark!' Watch! For I say to you, The Stump of Trump will sprout again, but you say, 'How can an Oak Tree that is cut down, ever grow back?'

"But I say, the roots! The roots! Look to the roots, for now the breath of My Resurrection Power shall blow forth upon the roots of The Stump of Trump.

"I say again, My Truth, Righteousness, Unity, Mercy and Peace shall triumph over the works of wickedness in high places, for that which looked dead, shall surely live again!

"Watch! As new and greater life shall suddenly and swiftly spring forth from that which was cut down and destroyed by the hands of the devourer.

"Listen! For the sound of The Roar of The Lion of Judah now goes forth upon this Land, to shake, shake, shake the very foundations of The Nations. Yes! The roar of My Resurrection Power shall now deeply penetrate the root system of The Oak Tree, to Revive, to Restore and to Reform!

"Watch! For that which was cut down to the ground shall surely bud again and become greater and mightier than before!"

THE STUMP OF TRUMP SEQUENCE;

People running towards the fallen Oak Tree wailing, crying, praying the tree would be revived. A death has taken place, fear that the destiny of a nation has been stolen.

People began to cut large chunks of the fallen Tree. Many began to carve images of President Trump: a warning of idol worship.

I first hear the footsteps of The Lion of Judah in The Forest of Nations. The Lion of Judah jumps up upon The Stump and lets out a mighty Roar, and a Rainbow comes forth from His Mouth. He roars into the roots of the fallen Oak Tree.

I see a Rainbow River come forth from His Mouth. The Rainbow Roar, which is the manifest Power of The Seven Spirits going forth into the roots/ foundations to awaken a Nation that is asleep, to its true Kingdom Identity and Destiny. God remembers His Covenant Promises with The Nation of America. The mighty Rainbow Roar (manifest Power of The Seven Spirits) deeply penetrates the root system. Twice He roars over the roots.

Then The Lion of Judah lifts His Head, and roars for a third time. I see The Third Heavens open, where I see a Rainbow Whirlwind come out of The Heavens (Whirlwind of Elijah), the manifest Power of The Seven Spirits of God in The Whirlwind. I hear these Words, "The Whirlwind of Elijah — The Sword and The Sickle, its Judgement and Harvest time within The Nations!" I see Heaven and earth being shaken and awakened.

A divine convergence begins to take place — a synergy of the ages.

Then a piercing cry of the Great Eagle.

At the sound at The Roar of The Lion of Judah, the Great Eagle will soar! The Great Eagle is soaring now, circling over the massive Oak Stump. The Eagle comes down towards to Tree Stump. I see a mighty Rainbow Whirlwind (The Whirlwind of Elijah) beginning to form over The Stump. The Great Eagle is soaring within the manifest Power of The Seven Spirits of God over The Nation. Just before I see the feet of the Great Eagle touch The Tree Stump, The Lion of Judah leaves The Stump and moves forth again into The Forest of Nations.

The Great Eagle's feet land upon The Tree Stump, and the Eagle sits upon The Stump.

Suddenly, I see green shoots bursting forth from the dead Tree Stump. I hear these Words, "My Resurrection Power goes forth to Redeem Time, to reverse the curse of death and destruction. My Resurrection Power goes forth to raise a Nation from the grave." I see and feel the power coming forth from The Whirlwind of Elijah, over The Nation. God's Resurrection Rower is now being released into The Tree Stump.

The Destiny of The Nation is being realigned and redeemed. The curse bring reversed!

The Great Eagle is suddenly seen flying once again, into the eye of The Whirlwind.

A sudden stillness comes over The Forest of Nations.

Suddenly, I looked and looked again, and a fully grown Oak Tree comes forth from in the midst of The Whirlwind of Elijah. A new and mighty Oak Tree was totally transformed. I hear these Words, "Watch — for The Stump shall sprout again, and that which was dead, shall be raised up to new and greater life!"

Terry Freisen: Kangaroo Court

This morning, I awoke in a spiritual courtroom. It wasn't the Father's Heavenly courtroom, but a spiritual courtroom of Lucifer's making. Lucifer presided as judge and jury over those positioned before him. He referenced the sins of mankind and the fall in the garden and therefore exercised judgement over mankind.

In this encounter, I was fully aware of our Heavenly Father's courtroom that is high above all other courts, but I was unable to ascend to access His judgement from the place I was positioned from. I have operated in heavenly courts and brought cases before our heavenly judge, so I was dismayed by not being able to ascend to this place.

As I prayed, I could discern the Holy Spirit's direction to wait, to yield to His leading. The longer I waited and I chose not to abide in or align with the enemy's court proceedings, the more I felt the comfort of Holy Spirit in that place. Dimensionally, I also seemed to descend into the foundations of this courtroom, then below the foundations of this courtroom.

As I observed, I could tell the enemy's court was a spiritual construct built on earthly factors: the choices that mankind have made and are often making now that align with sin and the fall of man. There was such a strong pull to somehow feel, think, and resonate with the ideas that were floating around in this ungodly courtroom, but Holy Spirit continued to draw me to a place of deeper rest even in the midst of this swirl.

As I continued to rest in this place, I could see priests of baal and molech try to conjure up a spiritual response to the activities of the court, to somehow satisfy the courts demands. They were somehow trying to fill this space with false worship, false spiritual activity, and false coverings to prove their worth and the identity of their position. Lucifer sat as judge to condemn, and his eyes were looking for greater and greater sacrifice to his name to fill this space of contention.

It was all I could do to remain in a place of rest in the Lord as per Holy Spirit's direction. As I waited in this place of rest, I was looking for a response from my King. Even when placed at the foundation of this ungodly court, I do not serve this earthly court, but I serve King Jesus. The temptation was to conjure up some form of response, but the response would only come from me if I was in charge, or I was king – I am not. It was very clear to me in this moment, if I conjured up some form of response I was tapping into the same aspects of fallen nature as the prophets of baal. The Lord did not need the works of my flesh; my direction was to wait for Him.

As I continued to rest and WAIT for the King of Kings to move and reveal Himself in this cosmic court, all at once I found myself fall through the foundation and floor of this spiritual court to a depth and place that was below, deeper than lucifer's domain. I came to a place before the fall, before Adam and Eve bit the apple. I came to the place where Jesus was slain from the foundation of the world. From this new vantage point, I looked back and saw the frailty of the enemy's kangaroo court.

This false court is built on the foundation of man's sin and the enemy's manipulation of mankind to this end. We need to own our sin choices, and in that, we recognize Jesus' death on the cross brought Him to the foundation of this accusation. He broke though the greatest depth of death to a foundation in His Father's domain, before sin entered the world and calamity began.

Much of the western church has gone from sin consciousness to a heavenly consciousness. We ascended above the enemy's court, and we are learning about the Father's court. We should desire to ascend into this Heavenly court and operate from this highest of all vantage points, but we cannot neglect our Lord's victory in death.

We cannot ascend without also re-writing the beginning of man through Christ's finished work. We cannot escape to Heaven without first delivering creation and vanquishing the ravages of sin once and for all. Jesus paid the full price, and it is done, never to be repeated again, but we must descend in victory as much as we must ascend in victory. Jesus has purchased victory for all of mankind and all of creation, we simply need to apply the blood to all the places we journey, or shall I say, all the places He takes us on our journey.

Each one who has experienced the reveal of heavenly realities and the victory of Christ understands the fullness of what He purchased for us, and we desire to ascend, and live that ascended life – I know I do. Every time I see the cross before high and lifted up, demonstrating the victory of Christ, His resurrected victory, I find myself being led into the depth of humanity's depravity and the fallenness of creation.

“Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.” (Luke 9:23 NIV)

You can choose Christ and be saved, abide in His finished work, and enjoy the fruits of His Kingdom. You can also choose to become a disciple, one who follows Jesus and learns from, seeking His will above your own, daily. One who is on this path of discipleship enjoys the fruits of the Kingdom, the goodness of our God, but they will also walk through places that are dead and need to be brought back to life. A disciple will yield to and follow the leading of Holy Spirit even into places that are tight, and constrained, not so they take on the constraint, but so they can become conduits of life.

Jesus didn't come to only bring life into the easy places; He also came to bring life into the hard places. In fact, He is looking for those who will say yes to extend His victory by overcoming the bondages and boundaries of this place and break through to victory in every area of human suffering. To be clear, He has overcome already, but we get to become partakers of His victory and bring His victory into every place we step.

Our Lord is good, every time, all the time. His love knows no end. His love even extends to all the places in this world and the people groups that are yet to be delivered and set free. In this season, this includes salvation but also extends beyond salvation. If we don't understand the mandate of our calling this may seem like an unnecessary step.

Remember the following verse:

“The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever.” (Revelation 11:15 NKJV)

As I was driving recently, I was in a place of contemplative prayer and worship. I felt pressures on all sides; knowing I was in an intercessory assignment I pressed on. A word bubbled up from deep inside of me by Holy Spirit:

“The systems of this world will become the systems of our Lord.”

When we read Revelation 11:15, and hear “the kingdoms of this world will become the kingdoms of our God,” because of our taught tradition, we automatically relegate this to some future state where we have been removed from the earth, or an ethereal state that is in spirit only. We can’t fathom it happening here and now, because we couldn’t be further from this possibility in our lifetime.

We are in a Daniel 7 season where the Ancient of Days is ruling on behalf of the saints (vs 22), and (vs 27) where the kingdoms will be handed over to the saints that will rule and reign with Christ.

Our Lord has not only made a way for us to ascend above every earthly rule—He has also made a way for us to descend beneath the very foundations of the enemy’s construct, to join Christ in the liberation of creation.

Jesus could, in a moment, obliterate every work of the enemy. With a single glance, every structure of darkness would fall. Yet, it is not the will of the Father for these events to unfold in this way.

The Father has promised the Son a bride—one who is formed, refined, and made ready to rule and reign with Him. And Jesus will receive His reward.

The foundation of the enemy’s architecture—built on sin and accusation—is already subject to the feet of Christ. The victory is complete.

But we have been called to step into that victory.

Not to achieve it.

Not to add to it.

But to walk it out.

To stand where He has already triumphed, and to bring that triumph into every place we are led.

Sharon Kaseweter
Oregon City, OR.

Protocol for divorcing your soul from satan and his minions!
As in separating ourselves from the covenant agreement we came into at the tree in the garden, in the beginning.

Backstory: I was on the phone praying with a spiritual daughter who was struggling with waking up in fear, so I was having her break agreement with fear, and she also said, "and witchcraft." Then, out of my mouth came the words "divorce it, or break alignment with it" which completely surprised me, because I had never heard of such a thing. Then she asked me to repeat myself, and I repeated it a second time with the same inflection.

It was spoken in such a way there was to be no question of its authority and absolute outcome, and something just settled in us that this was the answer to her situation!

That sent us on a path to understanding when you divorce something it's a final act of separation from something or someone you have been united with, and you take nothing with you that does not belong to you!

In Hebrew culture, the one who filed for the divorce leaves with just the shirt on their back. At that point, we were led by Holy Spirit to divorce our souls from satan! We were ready and did just that. Through the process, my body became so hot I was actually perspiring with chills flooding me at the same time. It was incredible. She said she was experiencing some of the same. There was a freedom that I have never felt in my life as my soul broke free from the tethers of its greatest enemy.

After we had finished, Holy Spirit said." "The church must divorce satan or break alignment with satan."

Many of you are probably asking, "How is it possible that I was married/united to satan?" Answer, "our own words!" With our words we make or break vows, and with our words we have bound ourselves to the enemy of our souls! The Blood of Christ cleanses us from sin and death yet at the same time we give the enemy the right to accuse us in the courts of heaven through our mouth.

Our souls have been the objects of the enemies attacks, which inevitably affects our bodies! Our souls have never known true rest since the fall in the garden with Adam and Eve. The Word says that we will find rest for our souls, Matthew 11:29; that He will bring rest to our souls, Matthew 11:28; and that our souls will prosper, 3 John 2, but I don't think it's possible in the absolute, in the state our souls were in, being in covenant to satan!

If you think you have no covenant with satan or that he doesn't have some sort of hold on your soul through your agreements, let's do a quick checklist!

Do you struggle with addiction, bitterness, unforgiving, backbiting, spiritual extortion, gossip, negative thinking, eating disorders, taking sides, factions, stealing, ego, bullying, double-minded, thinking yourself better than others, false humiliation, (are we having fun yet?) judgmentalism, lack in any area, sickness, disease, weakness, obnoxious behavior, unrighteousness, profanity, pining away, alcoholism, drug abuse, sexual abuse, pornography, ineffectiveness, reading the Bible, not walking in love, spending time with Holy Spirit, the Father and Jesus, keeping your word, arrogance, loving people, taking revenge, taking offense, being accuser of the brethren, wanting unnecessary attention, strife, striving, vile temper, narcissistic, cursing yourself and others, talking behind people's backs, lying, anger, can never do enough, chaos, confusion, sabotage, retaliation, stress, arrested development, unworthiness, self-hatred, pharisaical, witchcraft, rebellion, unteachable, foreboding, envy, jealousy, revenge, fear, and the big one, pride, which makes all of these possible, and the list goes on!

Those, my friends, are not the attributes of our Heavenly Father, as Jesus was never party to any of these, all are of satan and his foul fruits and unfortunately, all reside in your soul, i.e. your mind, will and emotions. What's his (satan's) is ours when we're united with him.

Just a quick thought: there must be something so powerful about our soul as to have satan go all out just to get his nasty black claws into it.

Would you like to get set Free from those massive mental weights?

When we divorce/ the alignment or agreement from our soul from satan, a peace and rest breaks loose within us. I can only speak for myself, but it's something I've never experienced in my life. My soul has found its rest and is now in quiet submission to my spirit, betrothed to my savior, and my body must acknowledge the Spirit's authority and position!

I hope this helps you to understand the necessity of the church divorcing satan. It is not a judgmental strike against the church. It is an actual fact that by virtue of the fall, we have all covenanted by our very words to the enemy of our soul.

This is kryptonite to the parasite i.e.: religious spirit, so some of you might have a battle, but Holy Spirit is there to help you overcome!

If you are ready to commit the act of divorcing your soul from satan, begin by praying the prayer of protection and covering of the blood of Jesus over your spirit, soul and body, welcoming the Holy Spirit to lead you, and speak according to Isaiah 54:17 "No weapons formed against me shall prosper."

Begin by repenting for the agreements made at the tree. Whether or not you personally spoke it or acted on it, it has affected all of creation. Holy Spirit will lead you; He's your helper.

Repentance means you're turning away from it and not going back. When you have repented and confessed to the Father, it's time to file for your divorce.

At this point Holy Spirit then led us to speak the words: "We serve you a certificate of dissolution of marriage/covenant/alignment satan, and we divorce our souls from you!"

If you feel that you cannot face satan with this divorce decree, you can have Jesus hand it to him on your behalf as He is the lover of our soul, someone was able to do that and walk through to freedom!

Another person said it was like "coming home," because our souls are finally coming back to where they once were and belonged.

It's now time to turn the keys back over to the enemy of your soul. You have no more to do with anything of his!!

Your beloved has keys of his own for you.

Now Jesus will be standing there and reaching out with his own proposal, betroth your soul to Him. Your spirit is already in covenant, and when we are in heaven, we will be as we were in the beginning, a spirit with a soul but we will be married to Him, so why not do it now?

There is no greater experience apart from salvation that I have experienced than the rest that I now have in my soul. I see it being tethered to my spirit, and my body is in absolute agreement with it!

In the divorce of your soul, you leave everything that was of the enemy behind, and as your soul becomes tethered to your spirit, you receive all the beautiful opposite attributes of your beloved husbandman, Jesus. It's all right there in your spirit-man, just receive. Also command sevenfold restoration of everything that was stolen from you during your time of bondage.

Take communion after the divorce and betrothing your soul to Jesus, and acknowledge that Jesus came in the flesh. It's vital!

“The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness.” (Matt 6:22-23, KJV)

The eyes are the window to the soul! You cannot have a single eye if your soul is united with satan and not aligned with your spirit, in covenant with Jesus.

Remember, Jesus gave you authority over the power of the enemy, not the other way around.

Welcome to the rest and peace your soul has so longed for.

Father, we thank you for your Holy Spirit, who leads us and guides us, who teaches us and comforts us, who walks with us and helps us! We are grateful for the opportunity You have blessed us with in this moment at this time and for a purpose greater than we could even know! We trust you with our lives. We know you created us with a perfect love for us, and I believe you are rejoicing as our souls are becoming free of the cruel taskmaster and finding rest! We cover this all with your precious blood Lord Jesus, and we thank you for keeping us in your care, and again we say, “No weapons formed against us shall prosper. It is written, Isaiah 54:17.

By virtue of divorce and betrothal, the church becomes the bride.

America: Satan Seeks a Generational Redo!

From February 3, 2025 Veronika West

Watch and Pray — Satan seeks a “Generational Redo” for even greater Destruction in the days ahead!

This evening as I was meditating and waiting on The LORD regarding the unfolding events in the natural realm, I suddenly became aware of some significant Prophetic Parallels which can be seen unfolding in certain “geographical locations” — where some of the recent disasters have been unfolding.

Even one in the last few hours at Bush Airport. [United Airlines plane catches fire at Houston's Bush Airport]

The Spirit of Revelation started to draw my attention to certain spiritual patterns and cycles. It is important to recognize that Satan always operates within "Generational Cycles and Seasons."

I submit that what we are witnessing unfold in the natural realm speaks prophetically to the enemy not only seeking to secure a "Generational Redo" in this hour — but to bring into manifestation using the "same Demonic Blueprint" he has used before — but for even greater destruction in the days ahead.

There has been an upgrading in Satan's demonic technology for even greater destruction — but he's using the same demonic blueprint as the past.

Franklin D. Roosevelt confronted the "Great Depression." Ronald Reagan came into office in a time of "Economic Stagnation and Cold War tensions." George W. Bush was faced with the aftermath of the "9/11 attacks," which led the country through a period of intense security chaos and turmoil!

Fervent Prayer for President Donald J. Trump is absolutely vital as I believe he will be faced with these same specific challenges — but these challenges will come with even greater demonic power behind them.

An upgrade in satanic technology will come against him and The Nation in the coming days, that will seek even greater destruction.

Prophetic Word: The Last Pope / One World Religion /

Warning to America: Barry Wunsch

I have not released this word publicly until today. It is again one I bring with fear and trembling and obedience to the Lord.

I submit this to you, to my dear brothers and sisters, not only in The United States of America but as well to the Nations. I pray that what is of the Lord here would ignite and burn, and what is not of Him would be extinguished by His Grace.

So, here we go: On June 10, 2025, 4:40 P.M., I saw a picture of the new Pope, and I heard the Lord say: "This is the last Pope."

I remember sort of gasping at those words. Now over the last few weeks, it has again been on my Spirit. I can see that there are a lot of things collaborating around this, and perhaps a lot of questions. I will share a few of the things that I believe the Lord is doing and using President Trump to deal with. There is a very concerning movement to a one world government as we know, and President Trump and his administration are hitting it hard. The Vatican and the Vatican bank has been a channel for the darkest money laundering in History- including cash flow through the Epstein Network and other Cabal banking entities, Governments, and corporations.

I will add that another tremendous concern is the advancement of One World Religion, where the Pope is making agreements with Islam in unprecedented ways, literally joining them as one. The mix of this is an abomination before God, and there is no power in it, let alone the risk that it brings to the Nation before God.

Let me say, this is not getting past the Lord. He knows it all. He sees it all. The Lord is bringing it fully into the light! The Lord is dealing with it and eradicating it.

The Lord is also dealing with Little Babylon – the Old City of London and the Cabal, deep state hub that is and the global financial control from there, along with the Evil Globalist Cabal.

The President is hitting them hard. Not using Lloyds of London to ensure the movement of oil is breaking the control of the evil Crown, among other measures. It is no wonder there was another assassination attempt upon President Trump even over the past few days.

I would release that the rededication of United States of America on May 17th to God is a massive deal. The very act of a King or President to do so is opening the gates of the Nation to have His way in the Nation. This very act flies in the face of the Masonic and occultic roots and foundations that need to be torn out and displaced within the Nation.

President Donald J. Trump is about the Father's business, even in his imperfections.

This is Kingdom principle, not Political, even though there will be overflow!

I would say to the Nation, The United States of America, America the beautiful, it is time to pray for this rededication on May 17, 2026 that it would be pure in heart and spirit – and that there would be no mixing whatsoever of this One world Religion in this rededication of the Nation unto God, the one and only true and living God, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob!

Pray that the right ones would be on the docket for the day. No mixing! Pray For The President, that the Lord would encounter him, Melania, his family and administration with love, power, and the fire of God. Pray that the Nation would again come into the fullness of its destiny! Humbly submitted with the upmost respect.

Yvon Attia: May - The Month Where Your Delayed Miracles Arrive!

As the month of May approached, my husband and I began to hear the word "miracle," and we knew God desired to move powerfully, but we sought to understand what kind of miracle He meant. At first, the phrase "unscheduled miracles" came, then "unusual miracles," echoing what was written in Acts 19:11: "God gave Paul the power to perform unusual miracles" (NLT). At one point, even the phrase "bizarre miracles" surfaced, yet there was a deeper impression that something more specific was being revealed.

While we were in prayer, the Lord asked, "What miracle do you need right now?" and it became clear that many of the miracles we had been contending for were not new—they were long overdue. These were prayers that had once been believed for but had not yet been seen. In that moment, the word dropped clearly: "Delayed miracles arrive."

A miracle, by definition, is a visible act of God's power—beyond human ability and understanding, yet still under His authority as Creator; for "with God all things are possible" (Matthew 19:26). Even creation itself bears His fingerprints, but miracles are the undeniable imprint of His hand, as declared in Exodus 8:19: "This is the finger of God."

From Long Delay to Sudden Release: Miracles Are Never Denied When God Has Spoken

There is a pattern all throughout Scripture that the Lord began to highlight to me. It's this: Miracles can be delayed, they can even be resisted, but they are never denied when God has already spoken. In Daniel 10:12–13, Daniel prayed and Heaven answered, from the very first day, but the manifestation was held up for twenty-one days in the spiritual realm. That means your delay is not silence; it's not absence. Something has already been released, but it is being contented over.

Then the Lord took us into Revelation 10:5–7, where a mighty angel stood and made a legal, cosmic declaration: "There will be no more delay" (v. 6). I felt this so strongly; this was not just a statement; it was a shift. It was a transition from waiting into fulfillment, from process into manifestation. And when you study Scripture, you see this over and over again. God allows a delay, but then He compresses time into one moment of glory.

The woman with the issue of blood suffered for twelve years, but one touch changed everything (Mark 5:24–29). Sarah waited twenty-five years, but then "the Lord did exactly what He had promised" (Genesis 21:1–2). The man at Bethesda waited thirty-eight years. But with one word, he was instantly healed (John 5:5–9). A man was blind from birth, and after one encounter, his life reversed (John 9:1, 6–7). Lazarus was in the grave for four days, then came one command, and death had to let him go (John 11:17, 38–44). Do you see the pattern? Long delay, then sudden release! (Photo via Picryl)

Some Delays Are About Alignment

The Lord then showed me something deeper: Not every delay is just warfare; some delays are about alignment. Look at Elijah in 1 Kings 18. He declared rain before there was any sign, then he prayed and sent his servant to check for it once, twice, six times... and nothing. But on the seventh time, a cloud the size of a man's hand appeared, and suddenly the heavens open. What was happening? The miracle had already been spoken, but it required persistence until the moment of release.

Then the Lord took me in the encounter with Jacob in Genesis 32–33, and this is where it shook me. Jacob prayed, "I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness You have shown Your servant... Save me, I pray, from the hand of my brother Esau" (Genesis 32:10–11 NIV). And even though it sounded humble and sounded right, his heart was still resisting the instruction of God. God had already shown him the strategy—to humble himself, and bow before his brother (see Genesis 32:9; 33:3). But Jacob wrestled with that. He wanted protection without repentance, blessing without surrender. And the Lord showed me this clearly: The breakthrough was not denied; it was waiting for alignment. The moment Jacob yielded, humbled himself, and bowed seven times, everything shifted. We see the fulfillment in Genesis 33:3–4: reconciliation, restoration, tears of healing...

This is the word for this season: What has been delayed is not forgotten; it is being aligned. And when your faith meets obedience, when your prayer meets surrender, the delay breaks, and what you have waited for will not trickle in; it will break through suddenly, powerfully, and unmistakably!

God Is Highlighting Families

I feel strongly that this is for families, because the Lord is highlighting Esau. For twenty years there was distance, offense, betrayal, and pain between Jacob and his brother Esau. Esau had every reason to stay angry, every reason to reject him, every reason to repay evil with evil. But when the moment of alignment came—when Jacob humbled himself and approached rightly—something broke in the spirit. The same Esau who once wanted to kill him was the one who ran to meet him, embraced him, threw his arms around his neck, and kissed him (see Genesis 33:4). This was not natural; this was a miracle of reconciliation.

Here is what the Lord is speaking: There are family relationships that have been delayed, strained, and broken for years—even decades—but as hearts align and pride breaks, God Himself will move on the other side. The Esau you feared will not respond the way you expected. God is going before you, softening hearts, healing wounds, and restoring what was lost. This will not be forced; it will be supernatural. What was once filled with tension will be filled with tears of healing, because when God restores, He does it fully, deeply, and in a way that only He can.

Get Ready for a Powerful Encounter of His Grace and the Manifestation of Your Miracle!

The Lord says, "My child, are you ready for a powerful encounter with My grace, with My unmerited favor, that will cover you like a shield, like a glory blanket, wrapped with My warm love and embrace?

"I have seen your pain, your affliction, and your torment, and I have seen the harm done to you. But I have also seen your faith, your trust, and your perseverance, and how you never wavered in loving Me, in trusting Me, even through your darkest night. You have prayed, you have believed, and I have heard. Yes, I have heard your prayers and released your miracle.

"This is a month where you will see the manifestation of your miracle, for I will remove every demonic entity that has tried to block your miracle. I will remove every stronghold which has tried to delay your miracle. Yes, I am breaking off the spirit of delay! Your waiting season is over, for what I am about to do is glorious.

"You are about to have a testimony, and just like Sarah, you will proclaim, 'The Lord kept His word for me and did exactly what He promised me! Oh, it happened at just the right time God said it would!'

"I am going before you, and one delayed miracle will manifest after another. Keep a record, for what I am about to do will overwhelm you. This is a month of divine favor. Favor shall be poured out!

"I have seen the thorns, and how you cried out for Me to remove them, but as I said to Paul, My grace is all you need; My power works best in weakness (see 2 Corinthians 12:7–9).

"This is the month where you will witness My power work through you in ways you have never seen before. This is a month where your eyes will open, and you will see things different; a month where you will take pleasure in insults, hardships, troubles, and persecution, for these will be the vehicle through which I will release delayed miracles. Delayed miracles will arrive, and you will know that through your weakness, My glorious strength will shine. It will be on display for all to see.

"Lift up your hands and receive, for miracles which you have been waiting for a long time will suddenly occur, for I will release a command, saying to you, 'Get up, My child; take your mat and go.' Yes, go! The command has left My mouth, and My words do not return empty.

"Mark My words, and remember My promises, for these miracles will pour out like a flood."

"Remember, I am a covenant-keeping God, and what's more is that I am with you and will protect you, and I will not leave you until I have finished everything I have promised you (Genesis 28:15).

"Step into these promises, for their time is now."

Pentecost 2026: Why It Matters,

The Celebration of Pentecost, Sunday, May 24, 2026

Every spring, as flowers bloom and the world shakes off the last chill of winter, hundreds of millions of people around the globe pause to observe one of Christianity's most ancient and electrifying feasts. Pentecost is not just a date on the liturgical calendar — it is a living, breathing celebration that has shaped theology, inspired art, ignited social movements, and bound communities together for nearly two thousand years. Whether you encounter it as a solemn church service, a vibrant street procession, a family holiday, or simply a public day off work, Pentecost carries a weight and a wonder that few religious observances can match. In 2026, Pentecost falls on Sunday, May 24, and the days surrounding it promise to be filled with color, song, prayer, and reflection across every continent. Read on to discover exactly what Pentecost is, where it comes from, how it is celebrated around the world, and why — in an era of rapid change — it continues to matter profoundly.

The Historical Roots of Pentecost: An Ancient Feast Transformed

The word Pentecost derives from the Greek Pentēkostē, meaning "the fiftieth day." Long before it became a cornerstone of Christian observance, Pentecost was a Jewish harvest festival known as Shavuot — celebrated fifty days after Passover to mark the wheat harvest and, in later tradition, the giving of the Torah to Moses on Mount Sinai.

This layering of agricultural and revelatory meaning was already rich and complex when early Christians began to attach their own pivotal narrative to the date.

According to the Acts of the Apostles in the New Testament, roughly fifty days after the resurrection of Jesus, his followers were gathered in Jerusalem when a dramatic and transformative event occurred. A sound "like a rushing mighty wind" filled the house; tongues of flame appeared above each person present; and suddenly the disciples found themselves able to speak in languages they had never learned. Thousands of pilgrims in Jerusalem for Shavuot heard their own native tongues being spoken, and by the end of that day, around three thousand people had joined the nascent Christian movement. This event is what Christians traditionally call the descent of the Holy Spirit, and it is why Pentecost is frequently described as "the birthday of the Ekklesia."

What makes this origin story so compelling is its universality. The miracle was not one of uniformity — everyone hearing the same language — but of diversity being understood. Parthians, Medes, Egyptians, Romans, and Cretans all heard their own languages. From its very first moment, Pentecost carried a vision of a community that crosses every linguistic and cultural boundary, a theme that has only grown more resonant in our globalized world.

Theological Significance: The Feast of the Holy Spirit

Within Christian theology, Pentecost occupies a position of supreme importance — it is one of the Great Feasts of the liturgical year, celebrated by Roman Catholics, Eastern Orthodox Christians, Anglicans, Lutherans, Methodists, and virtually every major Christian denomination on earth. In the Western church, the liturgical color for Pentecost is red, symbolizing the fire and blood associated with the Holy Spirit and the martyrs of the faith. In many Eastern Orthodox traditions, the color is green — representing the life-giving breath of God, connecting the feast to the imagery of creation and renewal.

For Pentecostals and Charismatic Christians, this feast is especially central to their identity. The Pentecostal movement, which exploded onto the global scene in the early twentieth century (particularly after the Azusa Street Revival of 1906 in Los Angeles), takes its very name from this biblical event. Pentecostals emphasize the ongoing gifts of the Holy Spirit — speaking in tongues, prophecy, healing — as experiences available to all believers, not merely to those first disciples in Jerusalem. Today, Pentecostalism and its charismatic cousins represent the fastest-growing segment of global Christianity, with over 600 million adherents worldwide. The theological stakes around Pentecost, in other words, could hardly be higher.

For other traditions, Pentecost marks the completion of the Easter season — a fifty-day arc of reflection, joy, and theological deepening that begins with the resurrection and culminates with the gift of the Spirit. The feast serves as a kind of commissioning ceremony: Easter announces that death has been defeated; Pentecost announces that the community born from that victory is now equipped and sent out into the world.

Sivan 9, 5786: Monday-May 25, 2026

Wade Butler: There has been so much said about the "Church today.

Most church goers have little knowledge about what Yeshua actually said and why. Look at Matthew 16:18, And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church: and the gates of hell shall not overcome it. What was Christ talking about? Peter or the fact that Peter just proclaimed HIM as the Son of God! And the word church meant HIS assembly, HIS ruling body, the Ekklesia!!!

The Ekklesia, (Church) and its role in government.

There is much being said about the church and its role in government today, particularly about its position in the Republic. First I must address what the enemy has been doing to stop or vacate the position of leadership in our government using the false narrative that the church must be separated from government offices in all matters of state. Both of these are false doctrines pushed by Luciferians and the deceived. Bear with me and let me explain or lay a foundation for my position.

Our founding fathers never intended to have the church separate from the government just the opposite, the Constitution was written to keep the government out of the church. For centuries the liberal mindset has been to keep GOD boxed in thereby rendering the WORD of GOD void in all matters of state. The early church of America adopted this philosophy and have kept Godly minded people at bay for centuries.

We are now in the season of exposure of this FALSE NARRATIVE on every front, the church, government, businesses and our homes. Unfortunately, it is still being pushed to keep the sons and daughters in darkness and inept in governing the nation. It is being taught that GOD is in charge and we need to stay out of the government and let GOD. Well that is not what the WORD says. He tells us to establish HIS righteous form of government here on earth.

Many of you know I have worked for over fifteen years with advanced technologies and been involved with projects that are classified at minimum. During that time I have had to deal with shall we say people who have been trained to bring disruption, separation and discord to projects, organizations and primarily Christian churches, businesses and governmental offices. They were nearly all trained as CIA or NSA operatives, many while in the service as intelligence operatives, specializing in covert work to infiltrate, separate, confuse and destroy the organizations they became a part of. In several cases they had the leaders either imprisoned or eliminated totally. I was set up by one of those agencies to be eliminated while overseas representing the government because I refused to participate in their financial manipulation. Only by Angelic intervention am I here today.

I have lost close associates and technologies that would advance the nation on multiple occasions. During that time I have had to learn to weed out operatives and disassociate myself and partnerships to protect those who were innocent or unaware of the depth of the infiltration of these agents. Believe me they are well trained in their field of deception. They can quote scripture better than many pastors, speak in false tongues, play instruments, blow the shofars and be your supposed best friends. I have been deceived myself on several occasions to my dismay. On one of those occasions I was able to have the Texas Rangers intervene and the person spent 8 years in prison. We all will face the deception if we are doing anything for the purpose of proper governance, church leadership of Gods Kingdom. Several times I have meet people who were well trained in deception and at first did not realize the depth of their efforts to destroy the republic and church from within. What's happening now is exposure. I pray it happens quickly. The key to discovery is false doctrine. That can show up in understanding the WORD of GOD or the constitution itself.

No one likes accusing others of participating in these practices, yet it is necessary. If someone pulls you away because they say so-in-so perverted the truth I recommend first go to the LORD then to the person accused to find out truth before judging the person in question. Otherwise you may end up on the outside looking back not realizing what the heck just happened because you became part of the enemy's plan to destroy our work and the nation itself.

I have been with the republic since nearly the beginning. I have stood, with and for many wonderful people. At the same time I have seen too many fall to the wayside or been influenced by infiltrators, some of whom are agency plants whose purpose is to infiltrate, sperate and destroy. Believe me they are well trained, and can lie to you to the point of destruction of everything you know. The enemy does a good job at deception.

That is why I stand with those who I believe are truth carriers; President Geiger, SOS Sandy Miarecki, Jean Hertler and others who have sacrificed nearly everything to stand for the work that we have done to establish a righteous form of government based on the constitution and the WORD of GOD. The first time I met Sandy I told President Geiger she needed to be the SOS. She and I talk multiple times per week concerning republic status and truth as I pray for the membership and those in charge.

I have attached several excerpts from articles about the true church and its involvement with the government written by men and women I know are followers of Yeshua. I have never found any of these authors to be proven wrong in 17 years. Additionally I have attached a snippet of one of the chapters from my book detailing an experience I had with the LORD.

Chuck Pierce: From Sunday, August 23, 2020

The Greek word Ekklesia means those gathered to accomplish something, or a group of people who are called out for a purpose. The first time this notion of a called-out people appears in the Bible is when the children of Israel come out of Egypt. They were called out in order to move into God's inheritance that He had promised their forefather Abraham.

In the New Testament we find this principle: God had His Church, or Ekklesia group, called out and assembled together as one man. This army was called out to complete the purpose of God in the earthly realm (see Heb. 8:1-13). Today is a time like no other to move forward with a purpose!

Ekklesia Everywhere!

An Ekklesia, the Greek word translated "church" in our Bible, consists of two or more people—a family or household—gathered around the Manifest Presence of Jesus to pray prayers the Father is waiting to answer for His will to be done in their spheres of influence. This is THE key for changing the spiritual climate over our nations. Never in our lifetimes has the socio-political climate been so toxic. BUT the Church, the Ekklesia, is the only institution with a branch in every neighborhood that, once activated, could have a transformation agent on every block.

Sivan 10, 5786: Tuesday-May 26, 2026

Again I must emphasize, from: Lou Engle: "I Will Build My Ekklesia" The Radical Promise of What Jesus Committed to Establishing on the Earth A. MAT. 16:13-19 — THE BLUEPRINTS FOR WHAT JESUS IS BUILDING

1. Jesus did not promise to build His church. Those are not His words. He said, "upon this rock I will build My Ekklesia" (Mat. 16:18) 'Ekklesia' and the English word 'church' do not mean the same thing .
2. Ekklesia means 'assembly.' Since we understand one meaning of church to be "congregation," many would say this is just mincing words, i.e. "Church, assembly, what's the difference? We all know what we mean." But church has a totally different set of etymological roots.

3. The Bible is inspired, infallible and inerrant in the original manuscripts . Even so, human error can lead to translation mistakes and misunderstandings. a. "Let God be found true , though every man be found a liar, as it is written, 'that Thou mightest be justified in thy words '" (Rom. 3:4).

4. Mistranslation of Ekklesia as 'Church" is a critical error acknowledged by scholars, yet perpetuated in nearly all modern translations. We've come to accept the terms as synonymous, but God doesn't use or need a thesaurus. He says what He means and means what He says. He meant Ekklesia . Church is not a translation of Ekklesia. It is a substitute word!

5. To validly interpret Jesus as telling Peter He would build His church would require Mat. 16:18 to read thus, "Upon this rock I will build my kuriakon," literally forcing a word into the text that doesn't exist! Peter would have said, "Huh? What's that?" because there is no NT Greek word to convey the equivalent understanding of our modern English word. If we are building a church, we are building in vain. a. Kyriakos appears only twice in NT (1 Cor. 11:20, "Lord's supper"; Rev. 1:10, "Lord's day").

B. HOW DID THIS HAPPEN?

Tyndale's Bible, the first English translation to work directly from Hebrew and Greek texts, properly translated Ekklesia. Tyndale refused to use the word "church." For this, he was strangled and burned...by the church. Later, the decisive shift towards official mistranslation came with Article 3 of King James's 15 Edicts, which governed the translation of the KJV: a. Article 3: "The old Ecclesiastical Words to be kept, viz. the Word Church not to be translated Congregation etc." b. (Much more info. regarding the history of the mistranslation in the notes on the web).

EKKLESIA IN IT'S PROPER CONTEXT

1. "Ekklesia: from ek, 'out of,' and klesis, 'a calling' (kaleo, 'to call')." Used 115 times in NT. Of these, it is translated church in all but three verses (Acts 19: 32, 39, 41). The practice of Ekklesia had been in use for approximately 500 years by the time of Christ. It had specific, well acknowledged connotations:

- a. Ekklesia was the principal assembly of the government in Athens, Greece, open to all male citizens over the age of 18. An Ekklesia was comprised of a quorum of up to 6,000 citizens.
- b. Responsible for declaring war, military strategy, electing strategoi (military generals) and other officials, including archons (chief magistrates of the city-state).
- c. Voted on decrees, treaties and law proposals. Typically they met 3-4 times a month.
- d. KEY POINT: the Ekklesia was by definition a governmental assembly. When the translation is reduced to its most basic, "assembly," the synonymous rendering, "church," seems more forgivable. But this is woefully incomplete. The authority and function of the assembly is fundamental to properly understanding what Jesus inaugurated in Mat. 16:18.

The Governing Ekklesia
December 21, 2018 Ron McGatlin

Glory to God! That which is perhaps the most damaging error or lack that has limited the fulfillment of the mission of Christ on earth is now in this season being corrected. The church-centric religious works and practices of the past have separated God from the governance of life especially in the USA and the western world.

Governance of life in this world by God through His People as He intended it to be was lost. Without God, the people of the western world were left to develop alternate ways and philosophies of governance of life.

The Greek word translated Church in the Bible is Ekklesia, and means in part a called assembly for the purpose of practical life issues of governance.

The Ekklesia involved God directly involved with the order of life. It was not a religious system that set God apart from this life while focusing on going to heaven after this life. The Kingdom of God is the rule of God in Christ abiding in and with his people. Where two or three are gathered in His name, Christ is in their midst with them to guide and empower the way of God on earth in and through them. If two agree on earth concerning anything they ask it will be done for them, (Matthew 18:19-20). In other words the Kingdom is the governance of God intricately involved in the love, power, and Wisdom of God working in the personal and corporate relationships of life.

The Greatest Reformation

The great news of this season of the history of God and man on earth is that the church emphasis age of God separated from the practical business of life in this world is over. Church as it has been is fading away, and the Ekklesia of Christ Jesus Yeshua Messiah in and with his people is becoming reality in this world.

The separation of God's life and presence from the business of life is coming to an end. The Babylonian style of governance in personal life, family life, business life, and all other facets of life on earth is in a sense self-destructing as the loving fire of God reduces it to ashes.

All life is becoming as one under the one head of Christ Jesus, the King of Glory in the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven. The love of God is dismantling the rule of the religious order of the passing church systems, while at the same time raising up the relational reality of the loving Kingdom of God in all aspects of life on earth.

Wade Butler: Finally, my own experience from my book,
"The Heart of a Seer";

Now the LORD is saying, "It is time to Advance!"! August 21, 2023

We, as nations, Sons and Daughters have been given Marching Orders! A decade of war is upon us, and we must, must, pay attention to the battle around us. Never have I experienced such vicious attacks on all sides, mentally, physically, spiritually, financially, and emotionally. No longer are we to sit on the sidelines and cheer the Angels on. They are waiting on us to give the orders.

Recently in August of 2024 during an open vision I was standing on the mountain of the LORD in heaven overlooking the Seven Mountains of influence on earth. As I looked around I saw millions of Angels many in Legions and just as many separately prepared for war, yet all were silent. At the head of the Armies was Yeshua. I asked HIM, Why is all of Heaven silent?

HE replied, "My Sons and Daughters are waiting on ME to do something, We are waiting on all of You!" I gave you authority and dominion on earth. When are you going to do something?" "GIVE THE ORDERS TO ADVANCE, SEND THE ARMIES OF THE LORD INTO BATTLE AND (BE PREPARED TO GO WITH THEM)."

As always do not take on something by yourself but call on the LORD and ask permission and be prepared to join the battle as HE directs. Be prepared with the WORD and quickly use, "The LORD Rebuke you", for it is time for the Ekklesia to stand up! It is time for men and women of GOD to take their rightful places in government and be what the LORD set aside for us to be. We are not called to be separate but one nation under GOD! United for HIS Kingdom

IT'S TIME FOR THE EKKLESIA TO POSSESS THE KINGDOM!

ANDREW WHALEN, PEORIA, ILLINOIS

I am sharing the following encounter that just happened (on January 11) as a prophetic encouragement. I was at a coffee shop, and I ordered something I don't usually get. The total came to 9.99. Then the woman said, "Oh, guess you got some favor today; the computer says you get two bucks off. Now your total is 7.77."

I then said to her, "Well, that is divine favor!" I've been walking with the Lord long enough to know that things like this are prophetic moments that He uses to relate an understanding to me. Also, from several previous experiences like this, when the numbers begin to repeat, I know that I am likely going to see a series of other similar numbers unfold to me that day in the same way. (I have discovered it's the Lord's way of [showing me] 'alignment' with Heaven).

So, as I stood at the register and paid the 7.77, I heard the Spirit speak in my heart and say, "Look at what time it is on your phone. It was 2:22. Okay Lord, what are You saying here?!"

Next I sat down, and heard the Lord say, "Go check your email." The first email that popped up was someone giving us a financial donation. And there it was, 222.00. I quietly waited and heard, "999 to 777 is My sign to let you know, I'm now pronouncing judgement in FAVOR of the saints, according to Daniel 7:22." It says, "until the Ancient of Days arrived and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for them to possess the Kingdom."

I then asked, "And the 222?"

I have let you know today that a double-portion anointing is being added to the account of My saints, and they will employ the key of David, Ekklesia authority to open and shut gates for a new era of time" (see Isaiah 22:22).

I share this as a prophetic encouragement, and I believe we are moving into an era where we as the "Ekklesia" are not going to shrink back at the gates of hell, but we will possess them and destroy their hold over lives, systems, and nations of the earth, as is our call and destiny in Christ!

Hank Kunneman: Expect an Esther to Arise & a Renaissance of Unusual Peace & Rest

A Woman Is Rising Up with the Spirit of Esther to Bring Great Change in the Middle East

Intro: An extremely weighty prophecy was released by Pastor Hank on Sunday, April 12, 2026, where the Spirit of the Lord declared that in this season where there is a great manifestation of His grace increasing in the earth, there is a new thing arising in the Middle East as a sign that veils of oppression and deception are being torn.

Watch as the Spirit of the Lord raises up a woman out of Iran who carries the spirit of Esther and will be filled with the oil of gladness. The Lord has placed a healing balm in her hand, and as she is raised up into her position of influence, this healing balm will cause a strange peace through agreements, alignments, and a building of straits that will cause rivers to flow in the desert!

This is the season of the fulfillment of God's word. Do not be in fear, but rejoice as the God of the heavens and the earth shows the power and might of His hand at this time!

Word of the Lord released by Pastor Hank Kunneman at Lord of Hosts Church, Omaha, NE on April 12, 2026:

"For this is the time that I have chosen in the earth to show Myself in a way that will not just bring resets and reversals, but it will bring great joy to those in the earth who have waited for a better day. But with this great joy shall bring, oh yes, great persecution. But things shall shift, and they are shifting, where you will see the manifestation of great grace—great power—that shall come upon the earth at this time.

"For you are coming into the time and the season that I'm increasing the matters of the earth, that they now become the matters of My righteousness, My justice, My divine order that shall cause things to be shaken in the earth in a way that you have not seen with your eyes. And with this great joy, you will begin to see with your eyes the fulfillment of what I have said, that there will be wonders in heaven and great signs upon the earth below.

"How shall I do this? I shall do this as I judge harshly My enemies—some who have become your enemies, who think that they can exact upon you and the power of My majesty. Nay.

"Behold and pay careful attention to weighty matters of the earth.

"I Will Tear the Veils Further"

"As you look at the Middle East, I will tear the veils further. And I speak, as I have said before, of the veils that have been upon the women. But look to Iran. Once again, the spirit of Esther shall arise. And it shall arise upon one, and upon many, who shall carry the spirit of freedom, liberty, and expression. And they shall stand for the matters of the Kingdom of God. But this one I speak: Iran—they will say, 'Is this once again being revisited in our nation, that a woman will arise who will gain great power, authority, voice, and strength?' (Photo via Unsplash)

"And this one shall be filled with great compassion and wisdom, inner beauty, but natural beauty shall draw men to look upon her face. Yet, she will speak in a manner that is not of the earth's wisdom. But I have appointed this woman to arise at this time. And the men and the new that shall arise over you, Iran, shall strangely open their arms to her. And they will say, 'We cannot stand in that which rests upon her, for this is not the work of Allah; this is that of the Christ whom we have known.'

She Will Be Filled with the Oil of Gladness

"She will be filled with oil of gladness. And there shall be a balm placed within her hands, and it is and shall be known as the healing balm of My hand that shall be placed in her hands to bring [against] something that would seek to arise once again in Iran. But I have struck it in the natural. You've seen it with your eyes, and it's not done, but it will be. You will see, revealed, it has been shaken, dismantled. I speak of Persia, its spirit thereof.

"And this one, with the spirit of Esther, shall reach out to a new leader and leadership that will arise, that will bring great healing and restoration and rebuilding—not only to the nation of Iran but the Middle East—that will cause a crackling, a breaking, a dismantling of other regimes. And you will say, 'What is this that is happening? This is so strange that the Middle East is being unveiled.'

"Remember, I am the God, in My resurrection, that tore the veil in the middle. And this is what I'm doing over the Middle East. And this one, with the spirit of Esther and healing in her hands, will cause a strange, strange peace: agreements, alignments, and a building of something that is crooked. And I will make it; I speak of the straits. I did not say 'straight,'" says the Spirit of God. "Straits. For there will be a new thing that shall arise, and I will cause a river to flow throughout desert land that will accelerate and explode the economic trade, currency, and flow.

"What do you fear? For this that I have spoken shall bring great fear upon the earth that men will know that it is the might of My hand."

Wade Butler: Many of you know that we have multiple (SWAT) Spiritual Warfare Attack Teams that pray weekly. The following is notes from one such meeting. The revelation is critical for the Era we have entered into.

Initials are used to represent those attending. (W,T,J, A,J).

The Breakthrough Revelation

After three nights of spiritual warfare, on the final night of the battle (around 1:30 AM), J received a profound revelation about the blood of Jesus:

Blood as Seed, Not Just Covering

God revealed that His blood was not merely shed to cover sins, but was planted as a seed in the earth. The distinction:

- Old Covenant: Blood of the lamb covered sin
- New Covenant: Jesus's blood dropped into the earth as a seed to regenerate and restore
- The blood functions as a cosmic seed from which everything grows
- Redemption is about regeneration, not just covering

Love as the Fruit of the Blood

Everything that grows from this blood-seed manifests as God's love:

- All creation—grass, trees, resources—is a function of God's love

- Everything in the currency reset and systems must be based on love
- If something doesn't express the Father's love, it wasn't ordained by Him
- The Federal Reserve System is counterfeit because it doesn't follow God's love
- Love is the bellwether for determining what is of God

The Joining of Heaven and Earth

When Jesus's blood touched the ground, it wasn't just heaven getting closer to earth—the two worlds collided and joined. The blood touching the ground combined spiritual and natural realms simultaneously. There was an intermixing of the soil that created mankind with the blood of Jesus.

Immediate Effects of the Revelation

Once J was able to worship into this understanding and put it in the right sequence (blood as seed, love as manifestation), the oppression broke completely and his physical symptoms ceased.

- Physical symptoms resolved immediately
- Blood sugar dropped 70-80 points by morning
- Mental clarity returned
- Peace replaced anxiety

Supporting Insights and Confirmations

A's insights started with a book recommendation, "The Ancient Mystery of Blood Money and Its Antidote" to the group, emphasizing its importance to understanding current revelations.

Quote from Apostolic Leader

A shared insights from a Black apostolic leader about the blood of Jesus:

"The blood of Jesus is not just material or liquid that flows, it's an actual part of the genetic makeup of the cosmos. The blood of Jesus is encoded into identity, into creation, into creativity—it's basically a pillar that holds the cosmos in place. The blood of Jesus did not begin with humanity. Blood is an ancient substance that predates time. The blood of Jesus is actually what gives revelation and understanding on how to walk prosperously on earth. The blood of Jesus came to retrain the minds of men, not just to save us from the pits of hell, but to give us a mindset that helps us walk into dominion."

Prayer Directive from the Lord

On Friday night before speaking in church on Sunday, the Lord told A to:

1. Ask for the kind of love the Father has for all His creation (majestic power love)
2. Declare the beyond understandings
3. Declare the receiving of mysteries
4. Declare the sudden know-hows and the order and organization of these in alignment with His destiny

Currency of the Blood

A spent significant time the previous night praying and releasing "the currency of the blood of Yeshua"—understanding currency both as money (which the enemy has tried to corrupt since Abel's blood was shed) and as the frequencies of God's love. She described praying in a completely new way, making spiritual payments and purchases, knowing things were happening in both spiritual and natural realms.

T's Message About Glory and Movement

T shared a significant word he received while having breakfast in Las Vegas during a business trip. He felt the Father's presence and glory strongly, and received this message:

God has much more glory to pour out, but it's important to be moving in the direction of His purpose before He does. If we wait in one place for greater glory to come, we may either want to camp where we feel it, or like the priests, be unable to move when it comes. But if God forms the character of movement in our spirits—movement in the direction we're supposed to go—then pouring out His glory won't slow us down; it will make what we're doing more effective. We'll be moving in step with His glory.

The key principle: We won't experience greater glory in a static place, but in the motion of what God has called us to do.

Theological and Practical Implications

Governance and Systems

J connected this revelation to governance and systems:

- All Western governance must be a function of God's love to be legitimate
- Systems that don't express love are like a fig tree with leaves before fruit—looking good but producing nothing

- As Donald Trump would say: "Sounds good, but doesn't work"
- This understanding provides a simple measurement for evaluating any system or structure

Simplification of Decision-Making

J believes this revelation narrows and simplifies how to govern and distribute resources:

- No need for complex analysis—just measure against God's love
- Removes all tangential discussions and debates
- Provides clear criteria: Is this expressing the Father's love or not?
- If it's not a function of love, it's not ordained by God—that simple

Application to Current Events

The group (W,T,J,A,J) discussed how this applies to the currency reset and economic systems:

- Everything happening is a function of God's love, not just technical necessity
- Historical reasoning about why things can or can't happen is the wrong lens
- If God has determined something because of His love, it will happen
- The planting of the seed of His blood makes all things possible

Love as the Plumb Line

A identified love as "the plumb line by which we measure all things now." This became a central theme—love isn't just a nice sentiment but the actual standard of measurement for truth, legitimacy, and divine origin.

Spiritual Warfare Insights

Intensity of Resistance

J noted that the resistance to receiving this revelation was stronger than what he experienced when receiving understanding about Kingdom and Ecclesia. This suggests the enemy recognizes the power and significance of this truth about the blood as seed and love as fruit.

The Daniel 10 Parallel

J drew a parallel to Daniel 10, where Daniel was heard on the first day, but the Prince of Persia resisted for 21 days. The guardian sighting by Josephine appeared to be angelic assistance breaking through the resistance, similar to Michael coming to help Daniel.

Cellular-Level Transition

T's insight about material being released from cells at a cellular level suggests that major spiritual transitions can have profound physical manifestations. The body itself undergoes transformation as new revelation is received and integrated.

J's Prayer

J prayed for all the families, children, and grandchildren (including John's great-grandchildren Enoch and Eden), declaring:

- Sharing the grace bestowed on his family with all the brothers and sisters
- Commanding anything tormenting from the enemy to be put down and wiped out
- Declaring that real growth of spiritual feeling should manifest as God's love, not confusion or chaos
- Calling for silence of voices that would oppose, so those who oppose can truly feel God's love
- Covering past, present, and future generations

The anointing flowed the entire meeting. These were only a portion of the notes from the evening session.

Overcoming Spiritual Warfare: The Veil, from Chrisma Magazine

By Rabbi Kirt Schneider May 1, 2026

As we go deeper into the Tabernacle, we move from the Holy Place—where we encountered the Golden Menorah, the Table of Showbread, and the Altar of Incense—toward the most sacred space of all: the Holy of Holies. This was where the presence of the Lord dwelt between the two cherubim atop the Ark of the Covenant. But before the priest could enter that holy space—where he would hear God’s voice and see His manifest presence—he first had to pass through a thick, heavy curtain called the Veil.

You shall make a veil of blue and purple and scarlet material and fine twisted linen; it shall be made with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman. You shall hang up the veil under the clasps, and shall bring in the ark of the testimony there within the veil; and the veil shall serve for you as a partition between the holy place and the holy of holies. — Exodus 26:31, 33

The Holy of Holies was so sacred that only the high priest could enter it—and only once a year, on Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. Inside was the Ark of the Covenant, and within the Ark were the Ten Commandments—written not by Moses but by the very finger of God. The Lord gave the laws of the Torah, the first five books of the Bible, on Mount Sinai, and Moses wrote them down. But the Ten Commandments were different. God Himself inscribed them on tablets of stone. These commandments are so holy that they have formed the moral foundation of Western civilization. In fact, every major religion in the world draws from the moral law found in these ten truths written by God Himself.

Above the Ark were two golden statues of a class of celestial beings, or angels, called cherubim. The Hebrew word cherubim means “near ones.” The cherubim are guardians of God’s holy presence. They are first mentioned in the Bible in Genesis 3:24 after the Lord drove Adam and Eve out of the Garden of Eden for their rebellion, after they ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

So He drove the man out; and at the east of the garden of Eden He stationed the cherubim and the flaming sword which turned every direction to guard the way to the tree of life. — Genesis 3:24

The visible presence of the Lord rested between the cherubim, and when the high priest entered the Holy of Holies to make atonement for the sins of Israel, the Lord would speak to him from between the golden cherubim.

To get into that sacred place, the priest had to pass through the thick, weighty Veil. Some say it was so heavy that it took several men to hang it.

And here's something mysterious: There was no slit in the middle. So how did the high priest get through it?

According to some mystical Jewish traditions, the priest was supernaturally transported—or translated—through the Veil into the Holy of Holies. I don't know whether that, in fact, happened, but the Veil was clearly an obstacle since no one knows for certain how the priest got past it. This is why I believe that for us today, the Veil represents more than a physical barrier. It's a prophetic shadow of spiritual warfare. It points to the thick, heavy presence of the enemy we must press through if we are to enter the Holy of Holies, the place where we experience the deepest communion with God.

Today, many believers don't want to talk about spiritual warfare. They love the idea of God's blessings, but they don't want to deal with the devil. Some even think Satan and demons are only a problem for unbelievers. But that kind of thinking is like an ostrich sticking its head in the sand—and it's a dangerous deception.

The devil is real. Demons are real. And they absolutely target believers. If we're going to lay hold of God, we have to learn how to war in the spirit. We have to learn how to overcome. Seven times in Revelation, chapters 2 and 3, Yeshua says, "To him who overcomes." In Revelation 3:21, He declares, "He who overcomes, I will grant to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne." We cannot walk in victory without learning how to defeat the enemy.

Building Strength Through Warfare

We even see this principle operating through the life of Yeshua. Before Jesus launched His public ministry, He was baptized in the Jordan River, and the moment was powerful. The heavens opened, the Holy Spirit descended on Him in bodily form like a dove, and He heard the Father say, "You are My beloved Son, in You I am well-pleased" (Luke 3:22). But immediately after that, Yeshua was "led around by the Spirit in the wilderness for forty days, being tempted by the devil" (Luke 4:1–2).

Why would the Spirit of Elohim, the Spirit of God, orchestrate that? Why would He lead Yeshua into the wilderness to battle against Satan? It's because the Lord was preparing Him. God wanted to strengthen His Son through warfare so He would be able to exercise authority over darkness and be the Healer and Redeemer the Father had ordained Him to be.

After Jesus overcame the devil, Scripture says He returned from the wilderness “in the power of the Spirit” (Luke 4:14). He began to teach, and people marveled at His authority. But before that power was demonstrated publicly, Jesus first had to fight—and win—privately.

You see, even though He was the Son of God, Yeshua had to grow and learn. The Bible says He “kept increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men” (Luke 2:52). He wasn’t born into this world with a microchip in His head that downloaded everything He needed to know. God taught Him. And one of the ways the Father equipped Him for ministry was by having Him face the devil in spiritual warfare.

The Lord strengthened Yeshua in the Spirit as He learned how to overcome the enemy, and He’s going to do the same for us. Father God strengthens our spiritual muscles by putting us in a position to war against the powers of darkness that seek to keep us from entering God’s presence.

Beloved, we can go into the Holy Place in the spirit realm and encounter God. We can be led by His Spirit, represented by the Golden Menorah. We can know His presence is always with us, symbolized by the Table of Showbread. And we can commune with Him in constant prayer, as reflected at the Altar of Incense. But to get into the Holy of Holies—where we experience the closest, most intense fellowship with God—we must first overcome the evil one, just as Yeshua did. There is no other way. That’s what the Bible says: “Our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places” (Eph. 6:12).

Lana Vawser: I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'I AM BRINGING MANY FULL CIRCLE, BUT IT SHALL NOT BE AS IT WAS, IT SHALL BE WITH INCREASE'

May 11, 2026

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'I am bringing many full circle, but it shall not be as it was, it shall be with increase.'

When the Lord spoke those words I could feel the Lord's heart so strongly that as He is bringing many into 'full-circle' places, it would not be as it was. There are new strategies of the Lord as He brings them full circle. There is healing as He brings them full circle. There is great restoration as He brings them full circle.

As I leaned into the Lord and listened, I heard the Lord say:

'There is great FREEDOM and JOY in the full-circle fullness. My people, it will not be as it has always been. I am bringing you deeper into restoration. I am bringing you deeper into freedom. I am bringing you deeper into joy – My joy. There will be even greater healing as you step into these full-circle moments. I say unto you, do not shy away from the full-circle moments and places that I am bringing you back into. I say unto you that I am opening 'full-circle' doors in this hour.'

And as My Spirit leads you to these doors and back through these doors, I say unto you, that as you walk with Me in obedience and sensitivity to the leading of My Spirit you will see great FAVOR. There will be favor on your obedience to walk in My ways and My wisdom, as you walk through these full-circle doors and into these full-circle moments.

'I say unto you that as I lead you to these full-circle places, do not look back to what was. Do not look back to how it was before. Do not look back to how I moved before. Do not look back to the blueprint that I gave you before. I say unto you that there is even greater wisdom that I am increasing upon you in this hour as I bring you full circle.

As you surrender all to Me and allow Me to lead you, without agenda, you shall see some of the greatest demonstrations of My power, some of the deepest insight and wisdom like you have not walked in before. But you must surrender your ways and your agenda and expectations to Me, and allow Me to lead you. For I am leading you into spaces and places with Me that are far greater than you have ever imagined.

'I say unto you, as follow Me into these full-circle moments and full-circle doors, as you live and abide deeply in Me, remember that "nothing is impossible for those who believe." (Mark 9:23) I say unto you that I am bringing you into deeper places of faith and trust. I am stretching your faith and increasing your faith as you follow Me. Do not be afraid to step out of the boat and walk in the new ways that I lead you in these full-circle moments because it looks different to what it did before and what you have known. I am doing something far greater than you could imagine and I am bringing you into deeper places of trusting Me and knowing My power and My providence.

'For I am restoring to you all and more that was lost, that was stolen and taken from you. As you follow Me into these full-circle doors and moments, many hearts shall be healed as you step into places of joy in Me as you watch the wonder of My mighty works.

'For I say unto you, that this is a mighty crossing over moment for many – into these full-circle moments. Many of you have endured intense opposition in the last few months because of this full-circle moment threshold. I say unto you, you have entered the beginning of the end of this intense warfare against your stepping into these full-circle doors and moments. What the enemy meant for your harm, I am turning for your good. (Gen 50:20) And through all that you have walked, as you have yielded to Me, I have accomplished mighty works within you and strengthened you in ways that you have not even realized by My Spirit. Ways that have prepared you to move into these full-circle moments; and even greater healing, freedom and joy there shall be.

'I say unto you, protect these full-circle doors and moments by walking in My wisdom with whom you share the secrets of My heart and the full-circle doors and moments I am leading you into. For where the wind of My Spirit will blow – bringing forth great increase and favor upon you as you walk in My ways, as I bring you into greater places of promotion and favor for MY namesake – voices will attempt to come to hinder and oppose that which I am doing. So walk in My wisdom in whom you share with and what you share. Do not herald from the rooftops or parade that which I am doing but walk in humility, love and wisdom with Me, and I will lead you into greater places of discernment and wisdom in how to steward these full-circle doors and places I am leading you into.

'For these full-circle doors and places – as you step into them in obedience to Me and follow My wisdom and My ways – you shall see that MOVEMENTS and a MOVE of My Spirit will be birthed in these places that is far different than you ever expected. And it shall be some of the greatest places of partnership with Me and My Spirit that you have walked in.

'I am restoring to you ALL and MORE than ever before, and I am bringing you into fullness in more ways than you can imagine. Continue to seek Me. Continue to follow Me and listen to My voice, for you will need the eyes of My Spirit to see as I see.

For in the natural there would be the temptation to see these full-circle moments and doors as things of the past seasons. But I am actually bringing you full circle back to these places, spaces and moments; not only to receive the restoration that I am giving you to – to receive the spoils from the battles you endured – but to also step into the new things that I am going to do in and through you in these places.

Cry out to Me for greater sight and to see from My perspective. Listen to My heart. I am increasing your discernment as you cry out in humility and watch what I am going to do. Great joy shall be yours.'

PSALM 126 (AMP)

'When the Lord brought back the captives to Zion (Jerusalem),
We were like those who dream [it seemed so unreal].
Then our mouth was filled with laughter
And our tongue with joyful shouting;
Then they said among the nations,
"The Lord has done great things for them."
The Lord has done great things for us;
We are glad!
'Restore our captivity, O Lord,
As the stream-beds in the South (the Negev) [are restored by torrents of rain].
They who sow in tears shall reap with joyful singing.
He who goes back and forth weeping, carrying his bag of seed [for planting],
Will indeed come again with a shout of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.'

Take Note:

Psalm 91:10 in (2026) Please Listen carefully. As we enter 2026, the Remnant must raise a Battle Cry for our Children! I have seen that there will be more frequent and far greater attacks from the enemy, strategic assaults aimed at destroying the Seed of the next Generation that is rising! After I shared the Vision on December 18th,(See Link Above) I believe Prayer averted a far greater disaster and prevented even more lives from being taken.

But this is not the time to give way to apathy We must remain vigilant! We must pray without ceasing! We have entered perilous times As I shared yesterday God quickened to me the following:  $2026 = 2+2+6 = 10$ . Psalm 91 =  $(9+1 = 10)$  But then early hours of this morning,..2 January 2026, I was half awake and half dreaming and I was reading Psalm 91 in my sleep, when suddenly I stopped reading at verse ten (10)!

Which says, "No evil shall befall you, nor shall any PLAGUE come near your dwelling;" Psalm 91:10. Now, as I read the verse in my Sleep, the Word "PLAGUE" suddenly lit up, and I was shown in this dream, a dark plan of the enemy — I was shown the days of Covid!

And then I was shown a powerful and dark plan of Satan that has already been carefully formulated and meticulously planned — a dark Global Agenda that is almost ready to be fully implemented and executed across the Globe. I was shown Biological and bio-chemical weapons, and attacks on the rise in the days ahead! Prayer will expose Satan's plans — and can shift and change outcomes! Psalm 91:10 was specifically highlighted to me this morning in a Dream.

I submit, The Spirit of Revelation is exposing the hand of the enemy ahead of time! This is a Timely Prophetic Promise. And a Prophetic Mystery that is being revealed in this hour, and it will be through Prayer, that we can unlock within Psalm 91 that which will bring God's Divine Protection and Preservation in the coming days!

We must dwell in the Secret Place We must abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
(Psalm 91:1) "No evil shall befall you, nor shall any PLAGUE shall come near your dwelling!" Psalm 91:10. Safety of Abiding in the Presence of God..
"He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of The LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust."

Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the [a]fowler and from the perilous pestilence. He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler.

You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day, nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.

A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. Only with your eyes shall you look, and see the reward of the wicked. Because you have made The LORD, who is my refuge, even the Most High, your dwelling place, no evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling; for He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.

In their hands they shall bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone. You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra, the young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot. "Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set him on high, because he has known My name. He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him, and show him My Salvation."

Dr. Sandie Freed: A Book Has Opened - God Is Pouring Out Heaven's Best!

The other night I was visited by the Holy Spirit with a dream. This dream was not meant for only me; it was a dream that represented the unfolding of a new season for Believers.

In the dream I saw the Lord walking toward me. In both of His hands He held an open book. As He approached me, I felt as if He was not only presenting the book but also its contents as a means to bless and encourage me. I never saw His face, only His hands holding the book.

As He continued to approach, I knew that it was purposeful for me to look and see all that was inside of the opened book. Before I could even touch the book to read it, all types of wrapped gifts began flowing out of it. Along with the gifts was some money, and attached to both gifts and money was the word "blessings." I was amazed at the continuous flow of God's blessings being poured out.

When I awoke, the presence of the Lord was heavy upon me. I was overwhelmed with the love of God and His goodness. I kept reviewing the dream, the open book, the gifts, the money, and the blessings. I was very aware that God had opened His Word, the Bible, and was confirming to me that He was watching over His words to His children, and that this was a new season of seeing our blessings come forth.

An Outpouring of Spiritual Gifts: Bringing Heaven to Earth

I believe the dream is fairly clear as to God's purpose to bless His children. Apostle Paul pointed out in 1 Corinthians 12:1 that God desires that we not be ignorant of spiritual gifts. Let's take a moment and read about these gifts that he listed:

"But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as He will." (1 Corinthians 12:7–11 KJV)

It is clear to me that there is about to be such an outpouring of the gifts of the Spirit, and that we are entering a season of accessing what is in Heaven and demonstrating it on the earth. Allow me to explain.

As Kingdom Believers, we have prayed as Jesus instructed: "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven." (Matthew 6:10 KJV; see also Luke 11:2). This means we are praying for all that is in Heaven to come to earth, right? I believe it is safe to conclude that there is no sickness, poverty, or lack in Heaven... therefore it doesn't belong on earth. As sons and daughters of the King, we have been given authority to pray Heaven's blessings to earth. (Photo via Freerange Stock)

I believe this dream confirms that it is God's desire to bless us and for us to witness and see His promises manifest. Just as Jeremiah was given the ability to see his new season, we are present-day Jeremiahs, having our eyes opened to understand and know that all which God has formed for us (our future and destiny) has been preserved. To me, this means I can stand assured that no enemy will be able to steal my future unless I let him! The devil cannot take away what God has promised you unless you allow him entrance.

Encountering the Gift of Revelation

I believe it is clear that God is opening His Word and revealing to us His perfect will. What is His perfect will? It's easy to know, because it is all written in His Word. Yet, there are times when we are being positioned for the revelation contained within His word to us. Revelation is one of the gifts of the Spirit. It is the hidden knowledge of God being made known. We are entering a season where many mysteries are being revealed.

Precious Believer, listen up. God has not withheld revelation from you; He has withheld revelation for you. Revelation occurs as God's wisdom and knowledge is released. It's as if He lifts a veil that has covered our eyes, making it so we are able to see.

I'm sure you will agree with me that we all desire to see and know and understand God's purposes and have them clearly defined in our lives. And please know this: it is just as important to God! It is His desire that we move closer, reposition ourselves to draw near in an intimate relationship, and He will speak to us concerning mysteries. It is time to "set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth. For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God" (Colossians 3:2–3 NASB1995).

I believe it is your season to be like Jeremiah and allow God to touch your mouth so that you are empowered to see and confess all that Heaven says about your life, your circumstances, and your future!

If you recall, Jeremiah could not see his future until God touched his mouth (see Jeremiah 1:9). The word "touched" in this verse is the Hebrew word "naga" (Strong's H5060). It implies that God struck the unbelief that had held Jeremiah's faith captive. The word also implies a "violent act." Think about this a moment. God did a violent act against Jeremiah's unbelief. God Himself went to battle against Jeremiah's mindset concerning his ability to be used by God (see Jeremiah 1:1–12). (Photo via Unsplash)

Wow! Can you grasp the revelation contained in this? All we have to do is draw near. Christ established your victory at the cross. Yes, the finished work at the cross promises you a new season. Jeremiah was able to "see" an almond branch budding. The almond branch is the first branch to bloom in a new season. Dear ones, see your new season!

Protecting the Vision and Revelation

An important note: The spirit of Jezebel blocks and steals vision and revelation. I have written numerous books concerning the thief and how he desires to kill, steal and destroy. One of the main contenders for our royal inheritance in Christ Jesus is the Jezebel spirit. If you recall, she sent an evil messenger to Elijah after the encounter at Mt. Carmel and threatened to kill him. In the King James Version, Elijah's response to the evil message was this:

"And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, "It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers." (1 Kings 19:3–4)

Notice that Elijah "saw that." What did he see? I believe he saw a vision of Jezebel killing him! Yet, it was only an evil message. Jezebel was not there physically; she just sent an evil messenger with an evil message. This caused Elijah to fear and run a wilderness marathon!

Believer, let me be blunt: a Jezebel spirit will rob you of your destiny, if allowed. This spirit desires to steal vision and revelation concerning God's goodness and desire to give us Heaven's best. We are safe as long as we remain under His protective wings (see Psalm 91).

God Is Pouring Out Heaven's Best

God is pouring out Heaven's best. It's time for us to access the unseen—blessings, gifts of the spirit, breakthroughs, and all of our promises. He has opened His Word to us and is releasing His Word. And just as He promised Jeremiah, He is watching over His Word to fulfill it (see Jeremiah 1:12). Aren't you excited to know He is watching over every promise He has made to you?

I believe that God is touching every area of doubt and unbelief that you are struggling with right now as you read. This is your season for revelation. God is warring against your enemy, especially Jezebel, who attempts to block vision. He is touching your vision and life, and positioning you in a new season for breakthrough! Amen! Just as He told Jeremiah that He was watching over His words to him to ensure everything was accomplished, He is doing the same for you. God's promises for you are yes and amen. Shift into great faith today. Trust Him today. Though the vision may tarry, He promises to accomplish what He has promised!

My Prayer for You:

Father, I pray for each person who reads this article. I pray that You would empower each of them to shift into their divine destiny. I pray for their eyes to be opened to truth, for them to see their future and know without a doubt that You will fulfill Your promises. Thank You for defeating the thief who attempts to steal, kill, and destroy. Thank You for life and victory at every turn. In the mighty name of Jesus, I pray. Amen!

Wade Butler: Yeshua is seeking those who will come up to meet with HIM and experience HIS manifest Glory.

God's Greater Glory refers to the profound manifestation of His divine presence, majesty, and blessings, particularly as revealed through Yeshua Christ and experienced in the lives of believers. He draws us into the purposes he has for his sons to take us to greater heights and place to allow us to receive the greater glory because we (our flesh) cannot handle the outpouring otherwise. We must keep pace with HIS transition; HIS blood is the seed of HIS Glory which causes everything to grow.. press into the Blood and receive HIS Glory!

The Greater Glory

- Biblical Foundation: The idea of God's greater glory is rooted in scripture, where it is often associated with His holiness, power, and the transformative impact of His presence. For instance, Psalm 19:1 states, "The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands," highlighting how creation reflects God's majesty.
- New Testament Revelation: In the New Testament, the concept of greater glory is closely tied to Jesus Christ. John 1:14 notes, "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son," indicating that Christ embodies the fullness of God's glory . This greater glory surpasses previous revelations and is accessible to believers.

Experiencing God's Greater Glory

- Blessings and Breakthroughs: Many believers are encouraged to seek a deeper experience of God's glory in their lives, which can manifest as blessings, healing, and breakthroughs. As noted in various teachings, stepping into God's greater glory involves faith and openness to His work in our lives.
- Living in His Glory: Understanding and acknowledging God's glory can inspire believers to live in a way that reflects His attributes, such as love, mercy, and grace. This relationship with God encourages worship and a deeper appreciation for His presence in everyday life.

Conclusion

God's greater glory is a multifaceted concept that encompasses His divine nature, the revelation of Christ, and the transformative experiences of believers. Engaging with this glory can lead to profound spiritual growth and a deeper understanding of God's character and His desires for humanity. Through scripture and personal faith, believers are invited to explore and experience the richness of God's glory in their lives.

The phrase "God's greater glory" usually refers to the idea that everything should ultimately honor, praise, or reflect God in the fullest possible way. It's especially associated with the Latin phrase:

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam* — "For the greater glory of God."

In the Bible, glory is described through imagery people can relate to:

- Light so intense it overwhelms ordinary sight
- Fire, clouds, thunder, and radiance
- Deep peace, awe, or overwhelming love
- Justice and mercy revealed together
- Creation itself reflecting divine beauty
- Most importantly, HIS Blood carries HIS Glory!

For example:

- Book of Exodus describes Moses encountering God's glory in a cloud and radiant light.
- Book of Isaiah describes heavenly beings crying "Holy, holy, holy," while the temple fills with smoke.
- God's glory is most clearly revealed through Yeshua of Nazareth — especially through sacrificial love, forgiveness, and resurrection.
- It is available to all who seek after HIM through love and HIS Blood!

The question becomes, Are you willing to give HIM your all...

The Advantage

"It is to your advantage that I leave," Jesus told His disciples (John 16:7). Can you imagine a more ridiculous-sounding statement? They had traveled with Him for three years, listening to Him expound on life, the ways of God, and the kingdom of heaven. His words carried such wisdom and authority that even His enemies said of Him, 'Never has a man spoken in the way this man speaks' (John 7:46).

The disciples had watched Him cure blind eyes, open deaf ears, heal paralytics, cleanse lepers, and raise the dead. Once, when He needed money, He procured it from the mouth of a fish. On another occasion, when He needed to cross a lake and didn't have a boat handy, He simply walked on the water. And when storms tried to mess with Him, He knocked the wind out of them with the power of His words.

Then, He has the audacity to tell these men, "I'm going to leave you, and it's for your own good." One can only imagine the shock and disbelief of the disciples. "He is leaving us?! This is good?! We don't think so!!!"

Two understandings will help us embrace why Christ said, "It is to your advantage that I go away." The first has to do with His use of the word advantage, or as the King James Version says, "expedient." The Greek word is sumphero, which means literally "to bring together."<sup>(1)</sup> And since bringing the right things or people together produces benefits or advantages, this Greek word was used for the concept of "expediency" or "gaining an advantage."

Christ was telling His disciples, "My departure will cause a new connection (sumphero) to take place for you. This 'bringing together' will be of great benefit to you, more so than even My physical presence."

The second piece of information that brings enlightenment to Christ's words is an awareness of who He was going to connect the disciples with: Holy Spirit. Why would this relationship be so advantageous? Because Holy Spirit would be with them in spirit form, not in a flesh-and-blood body as Christ had been, and could therefore be everywhere at once. AND, He could actually be "in" them, not just "with" them (John 14:17).

I don't believe many of us come anywhere close to grasping this revelation in its fullness. Almighty God is in us. What might we be like if we received the full revelation of this? Perhaps we would become "little Christs", which is the meaning of the word Christian. Perhaps Christ's words concerning us doing the same works He did - and even greater works - would be fulfilled? We would no doubt be miracle workers, life transformers, fearless, completely unselfish, always led by Holy Spirit, and walk in perfect love.

The late Bill Bright, founder of Campus Crusade for Christ, states this regarding Holy Spirit:

- "He guides us (John 1:13), empowers us (Micah 3:8), and makes us holy (Romans 15:16). He bears witness in our lives (Romans 8:16), comforts us (John 14:16-26), gives us joy (Romans 14:17)..."
- "As our teacher of spiritual truths, the Holy Spirit illuminates our minds with insight into the mind of Christ (1 Corinthians 2:12-13) and reveals to us the hidden things of God (Isaiah 40:13-14)..."
- "As you are filled with the Holy Spirit, the Bible becomes alive, prayer becomes vital, your witness becomes effective, and obedience becomes a joy. Then, as a result of your obedience in these areas, your faith grows and you become more mature in your spiritual life."(2)

Holy Spirit is all of this and more. Though it isn't often considered, He was Christ's "Helper." As a human, Jesus was filled with, led by, empowered by, and anointed by the Holy Spirit (see Luke 4). Acts 10:38 also tells us Christ derived His power and anointing from Holy Spirit. The same Holy Spirit resides in us and wants to be our source of power and strength. However, we often fail to make the connection, thereby preventing His power from flowing.

A missionary, Herbert Jackson, told how, as a new missionary, he was assigned a car that would not start without a push - popping the clutch, we sometimes call it. After pondering his problem, he devised a plan. Jackson went to the school near his home, got permission to take some children out of class, and had them push his car to start it. As he made his rounds, he would either park on a hill or leave his car running. He used this ingenious procedure for two years. Ill health forced the Jackson family to leave, and a new missionary came to that station. When Jackson proudly explained his method for getting the car started, the new man began looking under the hood. Before the explanation was complete, the new missionary interrupted, "Why, Dr. Jackson, I believe the only trouble is this loose cable." He gave the cable a twist, stepped into the car, pushed the switch, and to Jackson's astonishment, the engine roared to life. For two years, needless trouble had become routine. The power was there all the time. Only a loose connection kept Jackson from putting the power to work.(3)

Ouch!

J.B. Phillips' translation tells us in Ephesians 1:19, 'How tremendous is the power available to us who believe in God.' When we make firm our connection with Holy Spirit, His life and power can flow through us. Don't waste this amazing help. Second Corinthians 13:14 says, "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all." The term "fellowship" is from koinonia and is rich with meaning, revealing some of what the Holy Spirit wants to be in our lives. The following English words are all translations of koinonia:

- Fellowship - Holy Spirit wants to visit with us.
- Communion - Holy Spirit wants to commune with us.
- Sharing together - Holy Spirit wants to share His insights and power with us.
- Participation in or with - Holy Spirit wants to participate in our efforts and activities.
- Distribution - Holy Spirit wants to distribute revelation, gifts, anointings, and blessings to us.
- Impart - Holy Spirit wants to impart God's nature and benefits to us.
- Partaking - Holy Spirit wants us to partake of His anointing and life.
- Partnership - Holy Spirit wants to partner with us.
- Companionship - Holy Spirit wants the pleasure of your company.

"May the koinonia of the Holy Spirit be with you." What a loaded statement. Get better acquainted with Holy Spirit!

Pray with me:

Thank You, Father, that after Your Son Jesus' time on earth, You sent us another Helper, Holy Spirit, to dwell not just among us, but within us. His indwelling is given to guide and empower us as we steward the great victory that Jesus won. We want to experience all of who He is and what He does. We don't simply want to know about Him; we desire to have Him active in every part of our speech, actions, and thoughts. We want to manifest the empowerment for Christ-likeness and kingdom advancement that He brings.

Holy Spirit, You're our connection to communion with the Father, to further glimpses of His depths, and to doing greater works than Jesus. Give us a full revelation of how we can be led by You in every way. Open the scriptures and position our hearts to understand koinonia with You.

And Father, as revival unfolds in our land, this will be a pouring out of Holy Spirit. Pour Him into the young people of our nation until His presence floods every campus in America. Fill millions of youth with Holy Spirit.

And flood Washington, D.C., with Holy Spirit, also. Give wisdom and revelation to righteous leaders, leading them as they lead our nation. Make them aware of Your desire to help them, and then share Your insights and strategies for reforming our nation. Think through them! All of this we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

Our decree:

We declare that another great outpouring of Holy Spirit has begun in our land and around the world. We will not miss the time of our visitation!

RECENTLY I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'DRILL DOWN DEEP'

A word From June 16, 2025 that needs to be repeated!

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'Drill down deep.' When the Lord spoke these words there was such a strong sense of intentional, laser-sharp focus.

As I leaned into the Lord's heart and listened I heard:

'My people, I am calling you to drill down deep in your place of intimacy with Me, and what I have called you to put your hands to in this hour. For I say unto you, I have seen there is great noise that is surrounding many of you and it is attempting to take your focus and the intentionality of stewarding what I have called you to put your hands to in this hour. There is a depth of revelation and divine strategy that I am releasing to you in this hour as you drill down deep in your focus upon that which I am calling you to do and put your hands to.

'Be not distracted by the noise that surrounds you, come deeper into the place of communion with Me and focus upon Me. Do not allow the spirit of distraction to entangle you in this hour, but press deeply. Drill down deep into Me and that which I have called you to.

'I say unto you, that where the enemy has come to weary you in distraction I am refining your focus and I am making it clearer than ever where you are to put your hands to in this hour. I say unto you, that where the enemy has come hard against you in this hour, pay attention to where that is: for that is a place where I am moving greatly and an area of promise and inheritance for you. For I say unto you, that where the enemy is pushing hard against you to weary you or steal your focus, stand strong and take authority over the distraction and close the doors to the noise that surrounds you.

'I say unto you that there are greater boundaries that many need to put in place to guard that which I am calling you to steward in this hour. I say unto you, there is a ferocious focus and an increase of My wisdom and boundaries to set in the areas I have called you to – to protect that which I am asking you to build.

'For I say unto you, there are great pivots and changes happening right now, and you must walk in My wisdom in the changes and the pivots that are taking place. I am releasing greater insight on boundaries and strategies right now to be secured in place for what I am doing, what I am bringing you into, and what I am calling you to put your hands to. Continue to draw close to Me and give your ear to the instructions that I am releasing to you. For as you move forward in obedience to the strategies and boundaries I am calling you to implement, there will be a great establishment of that which I am doing and calling you to put your hands to. For I say unto you, I am fortifying deeply. I am fortifying intensely in this hour to establish and secure you and what I am calling you to put your hands to in this hour: but you must follow My lead.

'I say unto you, apologize not for the boundaries and the strategies that I am calling you to implement right now. Apologize not for My wisdom, but follow My leading. Obey My instruction with intent and with boldness, and watch the flourishing move of My Spirit and My hand in your midst.

'For I say unto you, I am refining your focus. For there are many who have had their eyes in too many directions and they have had their hands to too many things. I am calling you deeper, My people, into the quiet place to listen to My Spirit and to allow Me to refine your focus and to show you exactly where you put your hands to in this hour. For there is a spirit of distraction attempting to weary many, but there are many also with their eyes upon too many things and too many 'works' for Me that they are being worn thin in exhaustion. I say unto you, do only that which I am calling you to do.

'Be careful in this hour to not expand in many directions quickly when I am calling you to drill down deeply on things that I have already placed before you. I say unto you, I am bringing you deeper into understanding My ways and My strategies. I am building strength within My people to build in My way and My wisdom, and to move with Me boldly even when it goes against the grain. I say unto you, that in this hour where I am establishing and leading you to tighten boundaries and strategies – and where My wisdom is calling you deeper and deeper to drill down in your focus and where you put your hands and your time – as you obey My ways, I am making room for greater moves of My Spirit in your midst.

'As you drill down deep, you will see things that I will reveal to you that you need to see for the days ahead. As you drill down deep, you will find intricate insight in Me that will equip you for the days ahead. As you drill down deep, even in the refining, for many of you of where you put your hands or your focus in these days, you will see by My Spirit that I will bring you higher into My perspective and you will begin to see with a clarity that you have not seen before. I will awaken you to a higher perspective that you have not seen before. I say unto you, many have had their eyes in too many places and this is hindering your discernment and receiving the discernment from Me. Discernment that is needed for you to partner with Me in what I am doing and building, and to give you the discernment of what the enemy is doing and giving you the insight to know how to pray and to overturn that which the enemy has planned.

'Keep your eyes firmly fixed upon Me and where I have called you to put your hands, and do not give your eyes to another.

'Come deeper, My people, come and listen to My voice. Come into the quiet place and let Me speak to you and reveal to you that which you need to know in the call to "drill down deep". I am going to highlight some areas in this hour that require your greater focus and attention. You must quiet yourself to hear and perceive where I am leading and speaking, and oh, the grace and the move of My Spirit that you shall see. There will also be great healing that will manifest in your midst in some of these areas that require your attention and focus where you have been distracted require My healing touch.

'Oh, the healing that shall flow. Oh, the joy you shall know as you drill down deep into Me and where I am calling you to focus. My words and My presence in you and through you shall bring great restoration and healing.'

God's Secret Service of the Kingdom

While driving one morning listening to Dutch Sheets tell the story of "God's Secret Service Agents," Holy Spirit spoke to me: "Wade, did you receive what Dutch was saying today?" "Yes LORD, I do." "You and many other Sons and Daughters have a call in the Secret Service of the Kingdom. What do you call your prayer group?" I replied, "S.W.A.T. (Spiritual Warfare Attack Teams). We have prayed for months on assignments waiting for the moment when Holy Spirit says, 'Now, take down the enemy.'" Holy Spirit replied: "That they are, yet more; MY intercessors who pray continually are Sleeper Cells." 'Really, LORD? The connotation is negative, as the enemy uses Sleeper Cells that activate destruction against Your Kingdom." "Yes, that is true, like the colors of MY Rainbow that are also the colors of MY SEVEN SPIRITS. Everything that the enemy uses for evil is a perversion of what I planned for good. Sleeper Cells have been here since the beginning. They are Sons and Daughters who pray continually while waiting for instructions from ME to attack the enemy and his plans. When they have completed their assignments, they go back to praying and waiting on me. Those are true Sleeper Cells and MY Secret Agents."

Excerpts from Give Him Fifteen, "God's Secret Service Agents"

"Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour." (1 Peter 5:8 NASB)

"With every prayer and request, pray at all times in the Spirit, and with this in view, be alert with all perseverance and every request for all the saints." (Ephesians 6:18 NASB)

In Scripture, the term "watchmen" comes from the Old Testament and describes what we would today call "sentries," "guards," or "lookouts." These individuals were responsible for protecting vineyards or fields (crops) from thieves and animals, and cities from invading forces.

Those watching crops were stationed on rocks, buildings, or towers to provide a better range of vision. Towers or outposts in the fields usually had sleeping quarters because it was necessary to keep watch day and night during harvest. The watchmen would take shifts – one working, one sleeping – and thereby watch 24 hours a day.

Watchmen were also posted on the city walls, where they functioned as sentries. From the walls, they watched for two things: messengers and enemies. They watched for messengers in order to inform the gatekeepers when to open the city gates, and more importantly, when not to. In those days, "runners" were used to carry messages from city to city, and when a known messenger was approaching, the watchmen would alert the gatekeepers that it was safe to open the gate.

The watchmen on the city walls also looked for enemy soldiers. When they saw potential danger, they sounded an alarm, either by a shout or a trumpet blast. Soldiers could then prepare themselves for battle and defend the city:

"For thus the LORD says to me, 'Go, station the lookout, let him report what he sees. When he sees riders, horsemen in pairs, a train of donkeys, a train of camels, let him pay close attention, very close attention.' Then the lookout called, 'O LORD, I stand continually by day on the watchtower, and I am stationed every night at my guard post.'" (Isaiah 21:6-8)

Three Hebrew words are translated as "watchman" in Scripture: natsar, (1) shamar, (2) and tsaphah.(3) In a broad sense, they all mean to guard or protect by watching over. They can also have the connotation of hiding or concealing something. Watchmen hide people in the secret place of the Most High through their prayers (see Psalm 91). (They are God's Secret Agents! WB)

Another interesting meaning of tsaphah is “to lean forward and peer into the distance.” The connection to prayer should be obvious. The watchman looks ahead, into the future – “peering into the distance” – to foresee the attacks of the enemy. He or she is proactive, not reactive. This is prophetic intercession.’

President Donald Trump has opened the White House to a full-time team of intercessors who pray continually before the throne of GOD. Additionally, specific, strategic teams of prophetic warriors, (Seers) are on call 24 hours per day to stand and watch over the nation as a first line defense against intrusion by powers and principalities of wickedness in high places. There has never been a President since George Washington to lead our nation in such a manner as intercessory prayer. I pray that the church, the Ekklesia, would have the vision to do the same.

Sit, Walk, Stand

It is said, quite accurately, that the Bible interprets itself. If a student of the Word comes across a passage difficult to understand, there is/are one or more passages elsewhere within the text of the Bible that will properly give context, insight and/or understanding to the passage in question. It is for this reason that Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible was compiled. That source, along with countless available commentaries, tends to provide understanding and light to word usage, context, and the eastern mindset of the various authors through which the works of the Old and New Testament were constructed by God. However, at times, even those resources prove lacking in helping to "connect the dots" in the overall breadth and scope of the Bible. Fortunately, God has graced many individuals with various anointings to help us common folk to bring this all together.

The Bible presents the life, death, and resurrection of Yeshua, "the greatest story ever told," but it was yet another small book written by Watchman Nee that set my heart ablaze with understanding all else within the Word of God as it pertains to me and God's plan for my life. That little booklet, Sit, Walk, Stand, was first published in 1957. The book's back cover notes it to be "an inspiring look at Ephesians, based on the three key words of that epistle describing the believer's position in Christ, his life in the world, and his attitude to the wiles of Satan.

Online biographical sketches describe Watchman Nee as a Chinese evangelist, theologian, and founder of the Local Church movement whose ministry established hundreds of assemblies across China and Southeast Asia. Converted at 17, he became known for his deep teaching on the crucified and resurrected Christian life, expounded in works like The Normal Christian Life. Arrested in 1952 after the Communist takeover, he was tortured, malnourished, and spent 20 years in prison before his death in 1972. Nee's writings and teachings continued to spread globally, demonstrating that even in prison, his voice and influence were not entirely suppressed. His legacy is primarily remembered through his writings, teachings, and the enduring impact of the Local Church movement.

The teaching of Ephesians, the "sit, walk, stand" aspect, hidden to myself until reading Watchman Nee's book, was that we are Now Seated in heavenly places in Christ Jesus; past tense, an already established fact.

- “Even when we were dead in sins, [God] hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved); And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. (Ephesians 2:5-6)

Ephesians chapters 4-5 then instruct us how to Walk in Christ in the world:

- “For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.”
(Ephesians 2:10)
- “I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called...” (Ephesians 4:1ff)
- “This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind...” (Ephesians 4:17ff)
- “And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor.”
(Ephesians 5:2)
- “For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light...” (Ephesians 5:8ff)
- “See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.” (Ephesians 5:15-16)

Ephesians 6:12-14 admonishes us, as Christians, to put on the whole armor of God and Stand, not waver.

- “Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness...”

Nee’s teaching gave me a foundation not heretofore established in my life. I now knew who I am, how I am to walk, and how I am to overcome all the attacks of the enemy in life. With this understanding of my firm foundation in the completed work of Christ, I cannot be defeated. I am more than a conqueror through Him who loved me and gave His life for me.

Stages of Progressive Mobility

Now, where this teaching recently came to mind so profoundly was while we were in a hospital setting. Posted on one wall of the hospital room was an instructional piece titled "Stages of Progressive Mobility," which outlined five stages to move an individual from a state of being bed bound to one of walking independently. I began to process: Isn't this exactly how we, as believers, are to interact with the unbelievers in this world or with those who have lost or never had a firm foundation in the first place – to move them from "spiritually bed bound" to walking independently in the power and authority of the established word of God?

Stage 1: Patient is bed bound or unable to sit on the side of the bed.

Spiritually speaking, the individual is basically flat out on his back, with little to no knowledge of the completed work of the risen Christ, unable to function in any degree of victory as a spiritual person. This stage calls for the therapist or care team to facilitate complete range of motion twice a day, ensure repositioning every two hours, and sit the patient up for all meals. As Christian facilitators, we must provide spiritual food often, beginning with milk, then progressing up to solid meat; assist in the feeding process; help the individual become comfortable moving in this new realm; and get the individual "sitting up" to prepare for the next step in the process.

Stage 2: Patient can sit on the edge of the bed or a chair with assistance.

Spiritually speaking, as we encourage the individual and continue ministering spiritual life to him through the written and spoken word of God, spiritual life will begin to surge into him, and he will begin to strengthen, gaining strength for the next stage of the process.

Stage 3: Patient able to stand with stand-by assistance and move to a chair.

Spiritually speaking, truth continues to be imparted, strength is increasing by gaining knowledge and understanding of the Word, and the individual is now able to ambulate somewhat with assistance, "getting his feet," so to speak.

Stage 4: Patient to be able to walk with assistance.

Spiritually speaking, we now encourage the individual to get up and move on his own, get into the word, understand who he is in Christ and what he is empowered to accomplish through Christ's assistance, and develop with him a plan for continued spiritual growth.

Stage 5: Patient to walk independently; can demonstrate a steady gait.

Spiritually speaking, the individual is now walking independently of his "tutors," able to feed himself spiritually and demonstrate steady gain in his Christian walk, ready to "take on the world" with his new-found position and strength in the Lord.

I found the parallel to Watchman Nee's teaching fascinating, though somewhat different in application. In the hospital protocol, the individual would be encouraged first to sit, then stand, then walk and keep on walking. Nevertheless, the application is the same in that we, as believers in Yeshua, are called to be Christ's facilitators who will bring life and fullness of function to those who have never found that ability or to those who have lost that ability and need to be "rehabilitated" to fully function again. This brings new light to me of the "ministry of reconciliation" to which we are called and equipped.

With this understanding and protocol in mind, as we go about our daily lives, as we seek to spiritually understand individuals with whom we cross paths, let us envision them in accordance with this hospital progress chart: where are they now; at what stage are they in their walk with God; how can we facilitate their advancement. It is said that our lives are the only Christ many will ever see in this life. May our lives fully exemplify His hand outstretched to heal, to deliver, to set captives.

This is our mission. This is our ministry. This is our privilege in Christ.

"The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon ME; [therefore] the LORD hath anointed ME to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent ME to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified." (Isaiah 61:1-3)

"All honor and glory to God forever and ever! He is the eternal King, the unseen one who never dies; he alone is God. Amen."

On August 26, 2025, in the middle of a worship gathering, the Lord said, "I am going to show you new facets of Myself." I asked what that would look like, and before me I saw two black stones—exquisite and beautiful: onyx and obsidian. The stones were as black as the deepest night and beautiful in every way. As I observed them, I heard the Lord say, "I will show you that I am the ruler of every place, including in the midst of darkness."

For the majority of this time frame, I would awaken each morning in a place that felt formless and void. For 30 years of intercession, I have been taught to find the Lord immediately upon waking. I often wake up in some form of intercessory assignment, so finding Him—and His presence in the middle of the scene—is of utmost importance. From this place of increasing rest and peace, He then instructs me how to pray and what to pray.

But this season has been different. I would wake in this void and formless place and be unable to find the Lord in the midst of where I found myself. I know He is present because His Word declares He will never leave me or forsake me. He has also proven His faithfulness in every spiritual dynamic over the years, so I remain anchored to the truth even when my felt experience does not support that truth.

As I went about my day, I would sometimes experience His levity as it related to assignment, interactions, or worship. But as soon as those glimpses passed, I would again find myself in the formless and void place. Day after day I asked the Lord, "Where am I? What are You doing in this place?" August 26 was eight months before the encounter I will now relay.

On April 23, 2026, I awoke into a place that was formless and void. As I sought to release and declare the glory of God, the Lord showed me that I was waking up in the formless, void place described in Genesis 1 in the creation story. With my spiritual eyes now open, I was seeing the foundation of the fallen world. In this place is the throne of Satan that seeks glory for himself. What Satan does not realize is that apart from God's glory there is nothing—everything is formless and void without the manifest presence of the Father, who is life and the form of life. So, without this glory, everything is formless and void.

The enemy cannot create, but he seeks to co-opt creation—and the creation that is in mankind (dirt)—to imitate and replicate. But in reality, there is no life in anything he makes or produces; he only produces death, which—when contrasted to the light of life—is nothing.

It's all about the glory. Satan thought the glory he experienced somehow had something to do with him, but he merely reflected the glory of the Lord. The same is true of the earth and all of creation, including mankind: we cannot produce glory on our own. Any glory we experience comes from the One who is glory.

When the Father's glory comes upon us, through us, or operates around us, we begin to reflect that glory. It can appear as though it somehow comes from us, but it does not—we are not the source. We have been designed to reflect the glory of God. So, if we try to take glory that is not ours, it ceases to exist, because glory is to be given, not taken.

The very nature of the Father's glory is that He gives it, releases it, and then it comes back to Him. How can we take it when it doesn't belong to us or originate in us? When we reflect it back to Him—and outward for His glory—He gets the glory. In other words, it circles back to Him, the source, and then He releases it out again. It is in His nature to do this.

His nature is to give His glory; our nature is to reflect it back to Him. We then abide in this reciprocal relationship in the Spirit, and the sole source is Him.

In this place, before anything else happened, I heard the Lord say, "Do not take the glory." I believe it would kill me if I somehow tried to take it, keep it, or internalize it. Anything other than giving it back to the Source results in death in us. We need to be taught internally, within this frame, to walk in this fully. Part of the Holy Spirit's preparation in our lives is to teach our inward man how to give—and return—the glory of God back to the Father. Our fallen nature does not understand this, as it seeks to satisfy self, to consume. Our spirit man, alive in Christ, understands the need to give the Father all His glory, but our souls must learn this truth and this unction from the inside out.

To worship is to give Him glory; to intercede is to seek His face for His purposes and not self. So, when the glory comes toward us, we reflect it back to Him by worship, and by interceding before His heart.

As I pondered these things in this formless place, I heard the Lord say, "It is time to change the polarity of creation." I have heard this in seasons past, but without really knowing the fullness of what it means, I asked the Lord for more understanding. Read Romans 8, as it speaks of how creation was subjected to futility. Creation did not ask to be bound and constrained, but it was subjected and constrained by evil. We read that satan was thrown out of Heaven to earth and then appears in the garden to tempt Adam and Eve. He laid hold of creation through force, and also by taking the keys out of our hands. We were the ones meant to be in charge, but we abdicated that rule and reign through the enemy's deception and our sinful choices. Progressively, mankind has covenanted with evil, handing more and more keys over to the enemy, further entrenching all of creation—and mankind—in bondage.

Jesus came to take back the keys, and He did—successfully. He purchased all of mankind and all of creation. We read that all of Heaven and earth are held together by Him and for Him, but we are still in this transition stage. He bought it, but we need to step into co-rulership with Him and take back what has been given to us. This process of maturing forms us as the sons of God (and as the pure and spotless Bride).

Still in this place, I heard, “It is time to divorce creation from satan in the courts of Heaven.” We have unknowingly covenanted all of creation with satan from the very beginning, and it’s time to APPLY the victory of Christ to this foundational issue.

All of creation contains elements of formlessness and void because satan is unable to give God glory; so, everything is trapped in a place where true enduring fruitfulness is not sustainable, except the domain of Christ that we exercise.

Is it possible for the earth’s foundation to change polarity—so that it shifts from the foundations of satan to the foundations of Christ? As creation is divorced from satan, it can be re-covenanted to our Lord because of what Jesus did.

Again, this has happened in the heavens, grounded in the finished work of Christ. But in the same way a daily miracle needs to be appropriated, does this also need to be appropriated—ratified and enforced?

When satan is divorced and creation is re-covenanted to Christ, this doesn’t mean creation will be transformed instantly. Rather, than having a bent toward evil, creation will then have a bent toward the Father’s throne—Christ the King.

It is time for the foundations of creation to shift—from a form that seeks glory for itself (which results in death), to a form that seeks to give glory to the Father’s throne (which positions it to appropriate life/glory). This is the foundation of the earth/creation—not earth/creation in and of itself. Earth/creation is subject to the foundation, just as we are subject to our foundations.

When our foundation moved from death to life in Christ, transformation began to take place until we grow up into the full stature of Christ as sons. Then earth/creation will move along the same trajectory.

As the foundation shifts from dark to light, from self to Christ, and from taking to giving, it becomes positioned to operate in the glory of God unto regenerated life. Instead of the winds around the world beating against—and opposing—the things of God, the winds will shift and come behind those who seek to glorify the Father. This means these winds will begin opposing evil rather than supporting it.

Evil—and evil systems—would not have the entrenched place they have in this world without creation being subjected to futility through its covenant foundations. In spite of this bent toward evil, Christ walked the earth and demonstrated Heaven’s superior way in the Father, showing us the pathway to fully redeem creation and mankind.

We’ve seen some life, and some transformation in this realm, but it has been happening on the surface of creation, not at the foundation. If it were happening from the foundation, then the glory of the Father—and this life—would be coming from the core, the foundation, not just from above.

We welcome glory coming upon creation, but we press on toward glory coming from our Christ-covenant foundations of creation into the whole of the body/vessel. This is where the root—the origin—is changing.

In the days after the April 23rd encounter, at random times, the Lord would open up a vision before me and around me. I saw many, many believers, cloud of witnesses, and angelic beings filling His heavenly courtroom. I sensed that many around the globe would participate in these proceedings—to give testimony, present evidence, make appeals, and declare the truth of the risen Christ who purchased all of creation for Himself.

During a powerful worship event on May 3, 2026, I saw the throne room of the Father’s court come into the gathering. I asked what we were to do. The Lord directed me to submit this divorce and re-covenanting case before His court. As I did, it was clear we stepped into a new time—and a new place—before Him in the procession of His goodness.

One piece of imagery that helps put this picture into perspective is that Christ was crucified before the foundation of the world—before creation. His position and place of rulership were established before creation and mankind were subjected to the fall. When Jesus walked the earth, His crucifixion and resurrection were ratified within the bounds of creation, and even now His victory is being expressed into creation by us, His body. By exercising His finished work in the courts of Heaven, we are declaring that we are ratifying His ultimate victory for creation now, in creation, so that the boundaries we dwell within must align with a higher truth—established before the fall, and before satan operated in his deceptive coup.

We declare this highest truth in Heaven, in the earth, and under the earth—even to the very foundations of creation—so that every realm must come into alignment with it.

We have approached an epoch of time—a season of appeal and advance of His Kingdom—that the earth has never experienced before. All of Heaven is backing us. With Christ’s finished work as our legal precedent, and the sons of God arising, it is time for the polarity of creation to shift in favor of the King and His overcomers.

America: Trump and His Mighty Men!

March 9, 2021 Veronika West

“Watch! What shall emerge from a time in exile. Trump and his mighty men!”

Ha! To all my incredible American friends and family who are still standing on the front-lines withstanding the heat of the battle for the birthright and destiny of the Nation, I suddenly heard The Spirit say these Words to me, “Watch! What shall emerge from a time in exile Trump and his mighty men!”

As I heard those Words, 2 Samuel 23 was quickened to me by The Spirit of Revelation and then again, I clearly heard The Spirit say, “Watch! What shall emerge from a time in exile. Trump and his mighty men!”

As I heard those Words, suddenly I was then shown The Hand of God moving strategically and with divine precision and accuracy behind the scenes of chaos and confusion that swirled over the Nation.

And just like the steady and skillful hands of a heart surgeon who meticulously moves to cut and severe, and to reattach and realign the smallest and most vital of veins, arteries and muscle tissue during an intricate open-heart procedure. I saw the governing Hand of God moving over the Nation.

I saw His Righteous Right Hand of Justice moving in yet even more strange and mysterious ways in the affairs of the Nation.

The Hand of God moved slowly, but it was sure. Moving in a highly calculated and methodical way, nothing was rushed nor pressured, every movement was Divine and Sovereign.

I knew and felt by revelation that every movement of His Hand was not only affecting Time and Space in the present, but the eternal destiny of all the nations of the earth were being brought into divine alignment. And God was not in a hurry!

As I watched Him move, I heard these Words, "America — do not loose heart or become impatient with My Timing, but like an expectant mother who feels her baby move and kick in the womb and for nine months she waits patiently, and yet with great expectation, she wonders and daydreams of what the face of her precious child will look like when its born.

She waits with a longing in her heart what it will feel like to touch, to feel and to hold her newborn baby for the first time in her arms. Her heart is full of hope, faith, love and expectation for what is surely going to come forth.

And so it is with you, My Beloved Remnant Warriors in the Nation of America, for you are surely like this expectant mother called and anointed to carry and steward the new life and Kingdom Destiny of a nation under God.

My beloved, though it tarries, wait for it! For surely it shall come to birth.

And when it comes. it will not disappoint. but will outweigh your greatest hopes, dreams and expectations!"

Then again I heard The Spirit say, "So wait, wait, wait upon me and do not grow weary in the waiting, for I AM moving, shifting, separating, sifting and lifting.

For I AM moving strategically and powerfully in this season. So fear not, for I will not let you down but rather, I AM moving Sovereignly to set you up for good and not for evil, for an expectant end, and a prosperous and greater future.

For surely I tell you the truth, I AM working all things together for the good of those who love Me.

Therefore watch! I say, Watch and Pray — and do not grow weary in the waiting.

Look! For what shall emerge from a time of exile.

Watch! What shall suddenly arise from the place of momentary obscurity and isolation.

For out of nowhere shall come something that shall shake and shift this nation again and again, for now a Divine Dismantling is taking place over this land.

Watch! As a Sovereign Move of My Seven Spirits comes like a mighty Whirlwind to this Nation to sweep clean and to scatter, to sift and to separate.

Be of good courage, for when My Whirlwind comes, who will I find still standing and believing?"

As someone who has studied the Bible and philosophy, I believe that June 11 (06/11) holds great importance for Christians. This date marks the Feast of Barnabas, one of the early Christian missionaries and a close companion of St. Paul. The significance of this feast day can be seen in several aspects. First and foremost, it celebrates the life and legacy of St. Barnabas, a figure who played a crucial role in spreading the message of Christianity to both Jews and Gentiles during the first century AD.

He is often referred to as an apostle or an evangelist, although he was not one of the original twelve disciples chosen by Jesus. St. Barnabas' importance lies in his unwavering commitment to sharing the Gospel with others. He was known for his kindness, generosity, and ability to bring people together in love and unity. In fact, his name "Barnabas" means "son of encouragement," which perfectly encapsulates his character. One example of Barnabas' impact can be seen in his relationship with St. Paul. When Saul (later known as Paul) was still persecuting Christians, it was Barnabas who vouched for him when no one else believed that he had truly converted to Christianity (Acts 9:26-27).

Thanks to Barnabas' support, Paul was able to join the other apostles in spreading the Good News throughout Asia Minor. Thus, June 11 serves as a reminder for Christians to emulate Barnabas' spirit of encouragement and inclusivity towards others on their own faith journeys. Moreover, this feast day also highlights another important aspect - unity within diversity - which is at the core of Christian beliefs. As mentioned earlier, Barnabas' played a key role in bridging cultural gaps between Jews and Gentiles through his preaching efforts (Acts 11:19-26). This is in line with the teachings of Jesus, who called for love and acceptance of all people regardless of their backgrounds. In today's world, where there is so much division and conflict based on race, nationality, religion, etc., the example set by St. Barnabas serves as a powerful reminder for Christians to strive towards unity and understanding among diverse groups.

Additionally, June 11 also holds significance in that it falls during the season of Pentecost, which commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles after Jesus' ascension into heaven. The coming of the Holy Spirit marked the birth of the Church and empowered its members to spread God's message throughout the world. Barnabas' feast day reminds us that we too are called to be modern-day evangelists - sharing our faith with others through our words and actions. Just as Barnabas worked alongside other apostles such as Paul and Peter to bring people closer to God, we too are called to collaborate with our fellow believers in spreading God's love and mercy.

Moreover, Barnabas' feast day coincides with another significant event - World Day Against Child Labor. This day raises awareness about child labor around the globe and calls for action against it. As Catholics who value human dignity and social justice, this serves as an opportunity for us to reflect on how we can address this issue in accordance with our faith values. One way could be through supporting organizations or initiatives that work towards eradicating child labor or advocating for fair trade practices that ensure children are not exploited in producing goods we consume. In conclusion, June 11 (06/11) is a meaningful date for Christians because it celebrates an important figure in early Christianity - Barnabas - whose life exemplified traits such as encouragement, inclusivity, and collaboration that are at the core of our faith. It also serves as a reminder for us to strive towards unity and understanding among diverse groups, while also calling for action against social injustices such as child labor. As we celebrate this feast day, may we be inspired by Barnabas' example and continue to spread God's message of love and mercy to all those around us. Pray for the Spirit of Love, Mercy and Grace to encompass you and your family

From The Elijah List: LOOK AGAIN!
MARIEL VILLARREAL, COLUMBUS, GEORGIA

I hear the Lord say, "Look again! The page is turning. The next chapter is opening. My plot twists are here that you couldn't plan, you couldn't make happen. There is a new acceleration and a new wind coming to hoist your sails and push you over the finish line. You are entering a new archway of hope where My promises are fulfilled."

"Many will step into new assignments, new locations, new connections. The doors that wouldn't budge open will now begin to open. The hinge is ready to move. The branches that were pruned are now beginning to bloom. What did you lay down in past seasons? What seeds fell to the ground and died? It's time to look again... something NEW is blooming in the place of things that were pruned, removed, barren, and dead."

"Look again, and I will give you new eyes to see something NEW in the old, familiar places. For some, I must move you to a NEW place, because you have now outgrown the OLD. Rejoice with NEW hope, I am delivering you out of small-mindedness and the things that have kept you constricted. It's time to EXPAND, STRETCH, and GROW."

"LOOK AGAIN, for I am bringing you into new territory. It is TRULY TIME to EXPAND and STAKE YOUR CLAIM on the territory I have for you."

"Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide, do not hold back; lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes. For you will spread out to the right and to the left; your descendants will dispossess nations and settle in their desolate cities." (Isaiah 54:2–3 NIV)

"Winter is gone, and spring is now in full swing. I am giving you new eyes to see as I see. Where you once saw barren branches and fallen leaves, many new things are blooming in you and around you. Look again, and you will see where you sowed desperate tears in prayer. Like the rain in drought, a harvest of hope is beginning to grow. "Look again, and find My gaze locking eyes with your own. Keep your eyes fixed on ME, the AUTHOR and FINISHER of your faith. Look again, and you will see the transforming work I have been doing in you. Like a caterpillar after a long time of contained growth, it's time to expand and fly.

"Look again, and you will begin to see the purpose in your pain. Look again, and you'll no longer find a heap of ashes but a flower mound in bloom. Look again, and you will see I am not finished yet with your story. "The page is turning; new territory awaits. Look again." I pray this encourages you today!

Momentum When the Brook Dries Up: Darren Canning, Ontario, Canada

There are seasons in the human experience where the only thing that feels real is the wait. You hit a wall, a sudden impasse, where the path forward vanishes and the silence of God feels heavy. You may feel like you are stuck in this thicket, blinded by a darkness that makes the reality of grace feel like a distant memory.

When your focus is fixed on what is missing rather than what is present, a specific kind of pain forms in the heart—a localized ache of "not yet." But in the economy of the Kingdom, an impasse is often a holy illusion.

The Lesson of the Dried Brook

For three years, the prophet Elijah lived by the Brook Cherith. It was a season of miraculous, stationary provision: water from the stream and meat delivered by ravens. It was comfortable, predictable, and sustained by God. Then, the water stopped.

"Some time later the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land. Then the word of the Lord came to him: 'Go at once to Zarephath...'" (1 Kings 17:7–9 NIV)

We often mistake a "dried brook" for a closed door or a sign of divine silence. In reality, it is usually a call. When resources dry up, it is rarely a punishment; it is a pivot. God uses the drying brook to nudge us toward a new direction, a new meaning, and a new level of faith. There is always momentum in Christ, even when we are standing still. (Photo via Unsplash)

The Journey of Faith and Hope

Faith brings us on a journey where the destination is often secondary to the connection. As long as we hear God, there is hope. With the hope that comes by hearing, our very lives can be extended. We may face sickness, but we find healing; we may feel the shadow of death, but we walk away from it; we may experience lack, but we know God will provide. His voice brings an assurance that what is naturally impossible is spiritually possible. "He sent out His word and healed them; He rescued them from the grave." (Psalm 107:20 NIV)

Sometimes we feel like we missed an opportunity or missed the mark. Often, this is because we are caught up in a works mindset and fail to realize the reality of the grace of God. His grace keeps us even in the quiet times. A quiet time is not a punishment from God, but an opportunity to hear His voice in new ways.

The Power of the Silence

I believe, in the life of every Christian, God works things in such a way that fullness of life comes as we get used to the silence. The silence is an opportunity to grow. Just as a seed has to be planted into the ground and die before it becomes the plant that will grow tall, our own "quiet seasons" are the soil for our future strength.

"Very truly I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds." (John 12:24 NIV)

If you are in that season of silence and darkness, do not fear. God is sending the rain, and that rain is going to run into the seed, and the seed will explode into life. You are about to enter into your best time yet.

Faith Through the Rhéma Word

Living this life takes a specific kind of fuel: the gift of faith. Scripture tells us exactly how this fuel is replenished: "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." (Romans 10:17 KJV)

In this passage, the Greek word used for "word" is rhéma (Strong's G4487). While logos refers to the timeless, written Word of God (Strong's G3056), rhéma refers to an utterance—a specific, "now" word spoken by the Spirit directly to your situation. (Photo via Public Domain Pictures)

Rhéma is the voice that whispers to you while you sit by your own dried-up brook. It is the word that gives you the courage to move when you'd rather mourn what was lost. Faith isn't just believing in a historical God; it is hearing the living voice of God today and having the courage to follow where He leads next.

A Prayer for Your Journey

Today I pray that the silence will become a place where you meet the living God. I pray for His word to explode in your spirit and for the peace of the Holy Spirit to be with you. I pray that you will find the new destination and have the courage to live in a new, powerful way.

Dutch Sheets: Declaring God's Word

"You will also declare a thing, and it will be established for you; so light will shine on your ways." (Job 22:28, NKJV)

It was 1980, and I was fresh out of Bible College. I was radical enough spiritually to pray for anything that moved – or grew. That's why I was standing in the middle of a field, reading the Bible to the crops.

Now that I have your attention . . . No, I'm not kidding. I was taking my cue from Jesus, who once spoke to a tree, releasing a death sentence against it. The following day, it was dead (see Mark 11:13-14, 20). On another occasion, He also spoke to a storm, commanding it to stop (see Mark 4:39), and even addressed a corpse, giving it life (see John 11:43). One of His disciples did the latter, as well. (see Acts 9:36-41).

Jesus knew that nature and dead people weren't "hearing" Him, but that His words were releasing the power of Holy Spirit to impact those realms. Likewise, our words, when they are God's words and Holy Spirit leads us to speak them, also release divine power. That's why I was declaring the Bible over a field. Actually, I was reading it to the field and the flies that were invading it. I read the blessings of Deuteronomy 28 concerning the crop:

"Blessed shall be . . . the produce of your ground . . . The Lord will command the blessing . . . in all that you put your hand to, and He will bless you in the land which the Lord your God gives you . . . And the Lord will make you abound in prosperity . . . in the produce of your ground" (vv 4, 8, 11).

I read Psalm 91:3 concerning the flies: "For it is He who delivers you from the snare of the trapper, and from the deadly pestilence."

The flies died, and the crop lived.

The situation was as follows: A Guatemalan farmer, already in financial trouble from previous losses, was in danger of losing thousands of acres of maize to these flies. He was about to spend approximately $25,000 to have them crop-dusted and wasn't even sure this would stop the plague. We reminded this new Christian about the biblical principle of tithing and the promise that God would "rebuke the devourer" (see Malachi 3:10-11) for those who would obey Him in this regard.

We then read him the verses mentioned above and asked if he would like us to join him in reading and declaring these words of God over his crops. He did, we did, and God did. The crops lived, and the flies and their larvae died. The crop-dusting wasn't even necessary. Not only was the crop saved, but the $25,000 for the costly treatment was, as well.

When scriptural principles are followed, the spoken Word is a powerful aspect of intercession.

Decrees and declarations need not lead to imbalance or weirdness. However, being biblically balanced does not mean our actions won't, at times, strain human understanding or reason. It means we stay in the parameters of biblical teaching and the leading of Holy Spirit. Much so-called balance in Christianity is simply a desire to remain within the realm of our human understanding and natural laws. This eliminates the spiritual laws of faith and speaking the Word of God as a spiritual weapon.

God honors His Word above His very name (see Psalm 138:2; KJV). A person's name means nothing if his word can't be trusted. When we consider the Word of God as unfailing and all-powerful, we are giving Him the greatest honor we can give. We're stating that we know He cannot lie (see Hebrews 6:18), that His Word is eternal (see Isaiah 40:8), and that He can be trusted implicitly.

A Roman centurion came to Christ on one occasion, asking Him to heal his servant. Christ said He was willing and offered to go with the man to minister to his servant. The centurion gave a startling response, however:

"Lord, I am not worthy for You to come under my roof, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I, too, am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this!' and he does it" (Matthew 8:8-9).

This man understood the authority of God-inspired words and declarations. Jesus did give the command, and the servant was healed.

I recall a challenging situation I faced several years ago in which demonic spirits were obviously involved. Great anger and strife had arisen in a family, and a strong possibility existed that the next day, this family would be torn apart for years, if not forever.

I prayed late into the night about this very volatile situation, asking God to intervene. After a couple of hours of prayer, I clearly heard Holy Spirit say, "Use your authority and speak the Word!" I began to aggressively declare the Scriptures Holy Spirit brought to my remembrance, making decrees based upon them. It went something like this:

- "Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall injure you" (Luke 10:19). "Greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world" (1

John 4:4). I declare that God has given me authority over the spirits involved in this situation. Holy Spirit in me is greater than any power they can muster.

- “For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalthe itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Corinthians 10:3-5 KJV). I declare that my weapons are fully able to disarm this situation. In Jesus’ name, I tear down the strongholds of the powers of darkness in this family situation.
- “Submit therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you” (James 4:7). I am fully submitted to God and know that as I speak His Word, the evil forces at work must flee. I command you, demonic powers, to leave this situation in Jesus’ name. I free these individuals from your influence, in Jesus’ name!

I probably used a few other verses, as well – this happened 40 years ago – but I’m sure you can understand what I was doing. After 20-30 minutes of this, I felt great peace and went to bed. The following morning, every person involved had experienced a change of heart, and total peace prevailed. The power of God’s Word had been released, overcoming the evil spirits and positively influencing the minds and hearts of the individuals. It just needed to be released.

Pray with me:

Father, we know that the power which created the universe was released through Your words. Few believers, however, understand the power that can be released when WE speak YOUR words. Increase revelation of this to the body of Christ; arm us with truth. As You do, we pledge to go to a new level of using Your words as the sword of the Spirit. We will speak Your words regarding our personal lives, the lives of others, and our nation.

Doing so now, we decree that the wicked will not prosper in our land (Psalm 92:7; 125:3). No weapon formed against Your purposes in America will prosper (Isaiah 54:17), but that which You have spoken – giving the nations to Your Son (Psalm 2) – will manifest in America. We release this in the mighty name of Jesus.

Our decree:

We decree God's Word from Psalm 119:89: "Forever, O Lord, Your word is settled in heaven."

A SAMSON NATION BROUGHT TO ITS KNEES IN HUMILITY SHALL RISE TO ITS FEET AND ROAR AGAIN..!!

This morning as I went for an early morning walk, I was praying in the Spirit, Now I was not praying specifically about anything, but I had a deep sense that as I walked and prayed. I was partnering in powerful ways through Intercession with Holy Spirit, When suddenly, I saw the Nation of England come up before me, And then, I saw the Church/Bride in the Nation on its knees in fervent prayer for the Nation, But then Suddenly, I Saw Samson appear before me and I heard. "Watch and Pray. A Samson Nation that has given itself over to the Philistine Harlot and that has been enchanted and put into a deep sleep by the Lullaby of Delilah,. .and Who has lost its Hair, and Who has had its Eyes gouged out and its hands and feet shackled in Chains shall surely Awake and Arise again I Say, Watch! For this Samson Nation that gave up its Secrets to Uncircumcised Nations and that lost its Strength and Might to the counterfeit power of Foreign gods shall See My Righteous Right-Hand Move to Uproot and Teardown, Build and Plant. Watch As I Break, Break Forth in Greater Power and Greater Glory in the Days Ahead, For I Say, England shall not perish in her sleep, nor shall she remain forever blinder,. Broken and bound among the Enemies of her True Kingdom Identity and prophetic Destiny.

..But Watch! Watch closely!

For I shall Shake her, Yes, I shall violently Shake her Awake from Spiritual slumber and from the seductive lap of the Philistine Harlot Delilah that has bewitched the Nation and that has lulled her into Compromise and forgetfulness in has become mocked and scorned in the Courts of the Philistines, Yet even now in this Appointed Hour and Season, this Kairos Time of Great Shaking and Divine Awakening, I Am causing the Religious and Political Pillars of Corruption, compromise and ungodly Covenants with Foreign gods to tremble and begin to crack and give way beneath the weight of My Glory that shall Rise upon this Nation.

Watch! For the chains that have bound the Hands and Feet of this Lion Nation shall No longer hold back My Righteous Remnant that cries out to Me day and night for the Salvation and Restoration of the Nation. I Say Watch! For I Am Restoring sight to the blind eyes. I Am Restoring Strength, Power and Authority, I Say Look to Samson was it not after greatest defeat that Great Deliverance and Victory came..?
And So shall it be with this Nation If My Remnant will Seek My Face If My People will Rebuild and Return to the Broken-Down Altars in this Nation.

For I Tell you, where there has been Mixture and defilement both in My House and within the Houses of Government and even the place they call the House of Lords, I Say Watch! For there shall come deep cleansing and purification and exposures For the Axe Shall surely come upon the Roots that defiled the Fruits of this Nation. See! For where there has been National Shame and a Nation that was full of Pride and that had to be brought to its knees in Humility there shall come Holy Fire and Restorative Rain to Bring this Great Lion Nation back onto its Feet again And where the enemy declared, "The Glory has departed and the Lion Roars No More".. Listen!! For I shall Answer by pouring out My Spirit upon s Praying Remnant who have not bowed their knee to the Altars of Baal and who have not Cut Covenant with House of Ahab and Jezebel.

For I tell you England shall yet carry a Voice of My Salvation and Redemption to the Nations. Yes, the Nation that once sent forth missionaries and Revival Fires across the Earth shall once again become a Beacon of Light and a Loud Trumpet Sound that will Resound across the Nations. But Watch! As the Altars are Rebuilt and Restored so Shall the Idols fall And My Warrior Bride Shall Awake Arise and Return to her First Love. And though the lullaby of Delilah has been sweet to the flesh, But bitter has been its fruit.

I Say My Mercy, My Mercy is the Tap Root and My Mercy shall Triumph over Judgment for those who Return to Me with Weeping with Fasting and in Radical Obedience and Surrender, So Watch and Pray. As Greater Shakings come to a Prodigal Nation that has gone astray, a Shaking that Will expose the Harlot Systems that seduced this Nation, and that have infiltrated the Foundations of this Covenant Nation A Shaking that shall give way to a Sifting, and a Sifting that shall bring forth a great Separation between that which has been truly Consecrated unto Me, and that which has come into Alignment and Agreement with a Counterfeit Spirit of mixture compromise and Rebellion against My Truth For in this Hour, Covenant Lines of Divine Distinction are being drawn between that which is Holy and of the Kingdom of Light that which is profane, polluted and Pure. And between those who Carry My Fire and those who merely adorn themselves with garments of Religion while bowing before the Idols of this Age

But I Say Fear Not! For In the Shaking, I Am Preparing a Nation/s not for destruction, but for Purification and Reformation, Watch! As the Hair shall surely grow again My Covenant promises shall be Remembered again. And the Roar of Intercession shall be heard again within the Land. "For Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the Strong came forth Sweetness". For out of great Devastation and Loss,. Arise true Humility. Out of Weakness and Timidity shall emerge a New Dependence upon My Spirit And from the place where the enemy sought to completely devour and destroy a Nation, I shall bring forth the Honey of Heaven from the Rock and Strength from Surrender. Watch! For this Samson Nation shall Rise again, not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit," says the Lord!!

God's Glorious, Victorious Church

A Compilation of Prophetic Dreams,
Little-known Historical Anecdotes, and Spiritual Insights from the Heart of God

When Stars begin to Fall; "In our day, with an increasing frequency of volcanic eruptions and devastating earthquakes, and wars and a possible nuclear WW III on the horizon, many individuals are in a state of absolute panic about the future. Add to this the fear of worldwide pandemics, famine, riots in the streets, economic chaos and pending financial and governmental collapse, and many individuals are beyond terrified. It would appear that everything that can be shaken presently is or soon will be shaken.

What if the Church was never meant to be passive-but powerful, authoritative, and transformative?

God's Glorious, Victorious Church is a compelling, Scripture-anchored call for believers to rediscover the Church as the Ekklesia - Christ's governing body on earth, empowered to manifest the Kingdom of God in real and tangible ways. This book moves beyond theory into practical, Spirit-led application, equipping readers to live with confidence, authority, and purpose in an increasingly unstable world.

In His right hand was a tall gold scepter-Yeshua walked int the world and through the earthly and worldly systems and structures, as if they didn't exist. He thrust His scepter into the ground to stake the land and His Kingdom. The ground in the spirit was leveled and prepared for Kingdom structures to be built.
