

Tishrei 5787: The New Year,
We are now fighting in the Valleys rooting up Powers and Principalities of the Kingdoms of this world.
Spiritual and Prophetic Interpretations for the new year.

Some Jewish and Messianic interpretations view 5787 as a significant year in eschatology. Certain rabbis, such as Rabbi Isser Weisberg, have suggested that 5787 may represent a prophetic deadline for the onset of the Messianic era, drawing from interpretations of biblical texts like the book of Daniel. These interpretations are spiritual and symbolic, often connecting historical cycles, Jewish numerology, and contemporary events.

Hebrew Year 5787 begins at sundown on Friday, September 11, 2026
Rosh Hashanah Day 1, the first day of 5787, is Saturday, September 12, 2026.

Wade K. Butler

Happy New Year! and welcome to another season of WAR!

Every Tishrei opens up to War going on. This year I saw Turmoil and Chaos in the Heavens like never before. There were tornados of war taking place throughout the Heavens above the earth. Debris and filth were being pulled upward into the atmosphere. Our nation has been overwhelmed with modified weather patterns causing floods, fires, unseasonal temperature highs and lows, plus volcanoes and windstorms, along with political assassinations, exposures of corruption at every level plus promises of release of funds and financial help beyond our imagination. Calls for prayer and intercession are at an all time high. People are hurting, confused and bewildered. "Where is the hope fulfilled, LORD?" has been the cry. Angel Armies are engaging the enemy in fierce combat for the prize of Earth. The Debris of Corruption and Wickedness is being exposed in every corner, every nation, government, and many churches. I live in Texas, called the Bible Belt, and the DFW area would be considered the Belt Buckle. It is a prize to be envied by all. Sexual sin, deception and money plague many churches here.

In looking at all of what is going around us and with the friends and prayer partners I pray with, and I am amazed at the level of warfare and Word we are dealing with today. For years, I would teach on the Tribulation and end times. It looks like we are there, yet so much more must happen. So, I went before our LORD and asked; "What is going on?" His reply was, "Do you Remember I said to you last year at this time that we are entering into the season of 'RE'; well, you are still there. It won't be finished until I correct the course of my Ekklesia. Look again. It will continue until my children understand."

Diana Blackburn Larkin
AN EXPLOSION OF JUSTICE

"I want you to call for AN EXPLOSION OF JUSTICE to hit the earth. What you are calling for is the JUSTICE from the Courts of Heaven to EXPLODE over all nations. Heaven's JUSTICE is TRUE and RIGHT, and it NEVER COMPROMISES with evil. This is the JUSTICE EXPLOSION that I want you to call into the earth so that in all places where evil is being CHAMPIONED as good, the darkness and LIES will be EXPOSED and TRUTH and JUSTICE will PREVAIL. I want you to BULLDOZE the LIES the media and those DECEIVED by the darkness are loudly proclaiming, as they attempt to make those GUILTY of crimes the VICTIMS who should be let off from receiving any PUNISHMENT. Some of the deceived ones support who they see as UNDERDOGS because they want to FEEL GOOD about themselves. They are trying to JUSTIFY their EMPTY, SELFISH LIVES by doing some 'good' deeds.

Some of the deceived carry UNRESOLVED GUILT for choices they have made in their lives and by declaring the innocence of a GREATER SIN in someone else, they can BALANCE OUT and JUSTIFY their own GUILT. The EXPLOSION OF JUSTICE will carry in it the re-establishment of what is TRULY RIGHTEOUS and JUST. In My JUSTICE is also the REVELATION of the Blood of Jesus who made a WAY for sin to be COVERED, FORGIVEN, and hearts to be TRANSFORMED so that they can live in FREEDOM and TRUTH. As JUSTICE EXPLODES into your world, the deceived will be shown a PATHWAY through the Cross of Jesus to TRUE FREEDOM FROM GUILT and the BEGINNING of a TRULY SIGNIFICANT LIFE that promotes what will produce BLESSING and FREEDOM. Call in MY EXPLOSION OF JUSTICE so that it can FREE your world from the DEATH and DESTRUCTION of INJUSTICE."

Wade K. Butler

A lot is going on... Not long ago, I HEARD THE LORD SAY – "I HAVE BROUGHT HEAVEN TO EARTH." NEXT, HE SAID TO ME; "COME UP AND I WILL SHOW YOU THINGS THAT MUST TAKE PLACE."

(Revelation 4:1), "After this I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice which I had heard addressing me like [the calling of] a war trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place in the future."

On a September evening in 2023, our prayer team was taken up in a whirlwind at great speed with a multitude of intercessors. A friend said we are accelerating like I have never seen before. In an instant, we were on the streets of the New Jerusalem being pushed along by thousands heading toward the center of the city. It was an incredible vision; all around me were people singing and dancing with boundless joy. The Angels were blowing trumpets and playing stringed instruments.

As we moved towards city plaza, I could see a great gathering before us where a celebration was in full swing; the crowd was ecstatic. A man had grabbed my arm and was pulling me along when I asked, "what is going on," He said, "All of Heaven is rejoicing because of what the LORD has done." What is it, I asked? His reply was, "It has begun, Justice has been sent to the Sons and Daughters of GOD, the earth is crying out no more, evil is being exposed, and the children will be set free." I next asked, "Who are all these people and who are you?" He said, "These are the 'Great Cloud of Witnesses' and I am Benjamin."

Immediately, my mind was enlightened, and I realized I was taken into a moment of time not too distant, and I knew we were entering a great time of war over all the earth. The Angels of Justice were exacting the Vengeance of the LORD.

Hebrews 10:30, "for we know Him Who said, Vengeance is Mine (retribution and the meting out of full justice rest with Me); I will repay (I will exact the compensation), says the LORD."

We are in a new place, a new season, the LORD has balanced time that the enemy has distorted.

I often ask myself, do the readers understand how to pray after reading a text of prophesy? The answer is to ask the LORD, "How did this relate in the Bible for then, and how does it relate now? How would YOU have me to pray, Lord?

In developing this calendar prayer guide, prophets are used to bring current words from the LORD* (See last page). Each month the contributors change, and some months have multiple contributions from a particular author depending on what they received that month. Many Christians do not have access to publications such as the Elijah List, Judaism 101, teachings from Chuck Pierce, Robert Heidler, and many other contributing authors which are included. * 1 Thessalonians 5:20, "Do not spurn the gifts and utterances of the prophets (do not depreciate prophetic revelations) nor despise inspired instruction or exhortation or warning."

It has been nine years since this past June that we started publishing the Prayer Calendar based on the Hebrew Lunar Cycle, so for anyone joining us for the first time, I want to give some background. In Genesis 1:1, the very first words GOD speaks are, "In the beginning," and according to Rabbinical teaching, the very first commandment given to the children of Israel while in Egypt was to sanctify the "New Moon." From that point on the nation of GOD was to look at the Moon for the setting of their days and evenings and as a means to reconcile the times and seasons. The biblical day begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day. At sundown, it is known as the dawning of a new day.

Genesis 1:5, "And God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day." Even history is set into motion as God said that the world may be understood as seven 1,000 days with the last, the seventh 1,000 years of days, would be the time being the Millennial Reign of Christ.

The Lunar cycle has only 29.5 days, or 354 days per year, whereas the solar cycle has 365 days per year. An additional month is added every 3rd year to coordinate with the solar calendar for agricultural seasons. The reason the numerical date may not look like the previous years is because of this shift. The Month begins with the rising of the "New Moon." The Hebrew year begins in spring every year in the Month of Nissan when Passover occurs. Every month is related to a specific tribe, feast, and season.

Rebbetzin Tziporah Heller

The Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot) begins at sundown on Friday, September 25, 2026 and ends at nightfall on Friday, October 3, 2026. Most Hebrew historians report that Yeshua was born on the first day of Tabernacles 3 B.C., during the reign of Herod. Once we learn to embrace historical fact we can rejoice with all of Heaven. Christ was conceived in late December of the year 4 B.C., and the countdown began.

Tabernacles is a time to enjoy the Lord and celebrate His goodness. Leviticus 23:40 says, "Rejoice before the Lord your God for seven days." Deuteronomy 16:14-15 says, "Be joyful at your feast for the Lord your God will bless you and your joy will be complete." When this Feast was outlined in Leviticus 23:39-43, it not only remembered the Exodus from Egypt when the Israelites wandered in the wilderness, living in tents, enroute to the Promised Land, but also celebrated the abundance of God's blessings in connection with the ingathering of the fall harvest. This is a wonderful time to gather with friends and family and rejoice over the Lord's goodness and provision.

The Feast of Tabernacles is a celebration of God's glory. This is a time to remember past experiences of His glory, to seek His face and experience His glory now, and a time to call out to God for a fresh outpouring of His glory in the new year. One week a year, God asks His people to tabernacle with Him. God promised a special blessing for those who would do this. Part of celebrating Tabernacles is to bring an offering as an expression of thanks to God. Deut. 16:16-17 says, "No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed: Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed you." When we express our thankfulness in giving, it opens our heart to receive even more.

Tabernacles is a time to celebrate the fact that God tabernacles with His people. He wants His glory to be a normal part of our experience. He tabernacled with Israel in the wilderness. He tabernacled on earth in Yeshua, and He continues to tabernacle with us today through His Spirit! As you celebrate Tabernacles, call out to God for His glory to come and dwell with you.

Contending for Joy!

The Lord has a purpose to move any desolation into a new level of abundance. From the beginning, when God saw the Earth in confusion and chaos, He planned for a people who would move from chaos into multiplication. He spoke! Chaos subsided, and abundance began. This is the essence of spiritual life. When Yeshua, Yeshua of Nazareth, defined why He came or was sent to Earth, He said in John 10:10, "I came that they might enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, until it overflows)." Many Christians, even those who are seeking to understand their earthly purpose, never realize that the One who was sent to redeem them purposed them to "enjoy life." Prior to this portion of the verse, we find Yeshua declaring, "I AM the Door! Anyone who enters in through Me will be saved (will live). He will come in and he will go out [freely] and will find pasture. The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy." (AMP). This is meant to help you enter the Door (called Christ) into a new dimension of abundance.

We have approximately 75 people that work for this ministry. Several years ago, I was sitting in my office in a quandary because I knew I needed to give a Christmas bonus for those who had served so faithfully all year long. I know that the holidays can be a tremendous blessing, but very stressful as well. I heard the Lord remind me of one of the key verses that have directed my life – the one I quoted above from John 10.

However, His voice illuminated deep within my spirit with the portion of that scripture that says *I came that you might ENJOY LIFE.

I knew I had to move by faith. Faith comes from hearing when the Spirit of God speaks to us. Faith's counterpart is presumption. Therefore, one must be sure they have heard the voice of God. The Spirit of God spoke to me and said, "*Enjoy those who have served, and bless them." I knew I was to take what we did not have and bless each one who had served. Joy began to overwhelm me. By the next morning, all that I had given (which was a substantial amount) was already on the way through the mail. The real miracle was that something changed in me. Anxiety from trauma that I had carried for years and years and years had lifted. That old, bad friend was gone, and the joy of the Lord had replaced that portion within my soul and spirit.

We have been in great warfare. Warfare is conflict, and in the midst of the conflict we can lose our joy. Joy produces strength. When we do not sense the life of Christ flowing through us, we need to ask the Lord, "What has happened to my passion? In the midst of my circumstance, Lord, did I just get tired and quit withstanding?"

In truth, we can pray until we are green. We can do all sorts of religious activities. But if we do not resist the enemy in the midst of that trial (the temptation toward passivity and all other temptations), and if we don't allow the trial to bring the working of the Cross into us, then we won't really enter into the passion and fullness of life that the Lord intends. Having God's passion as we walk in wisdom and revelation is the key to protecting ourselves from becoming outwitted by the enemy.

Yeshua, Himself, prophesied that a triumphant people, filled with Father's revelation, would arise and prevail against Hell's gates. This people will do exploits! They will take resources and multiply or change them into a new form to be used today. These people are an apostolic people. They are a modern people yet look very much like those who crossed over the Jordan River 476 years after God spoke them into existence when He communicated to their Father, Abraham. The Gates of Hell will not be able to withstand this people. We are a people that will build a new prototype for today and unlock a Kingdom mentality that hell cannot withstand.

Rosh Hashanah starts on September 12, 2026, at 6 P.M. It is the head of the year. In the same way that the head directs the actions of the body, the first day of Tishrei, Rosh Hashanah, is the head of the year spiritually. It is the anniversary of the day that God created man. All the other creations, which receive their life force from God, who is sometimes called "soul of the universe," have no possible means of responding to Him. We can respond with our voice, the shofar, our dedication, and more importantly, obedience and love.

Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar].

Yom Kippur is the heart of the year. It is a day of forgiveness and reconciliation in which we can fearlessly enter the forest within us to explore the deepest parts of our lives, the areas that are too shadowy for us to see or even want to see. When we examine ourselves honestly, inevitably, we will find that we have at times blocked out our ability to see more than life's superficial side. No one is perfect, and in fact, one of the greatest problems that we have is that we must at least fool ourselves into believing in our own perfection. We rationalize, reframe, and deny away our spiritual and moral failures.

On Yom Kippur, we can look deeper and more honestly at ourselves. We will find that underneath all the layers there is goodness, purity, and yearning.

God imbued this day with the power to let us tear aside all the curtains and see ourselves not as we have become, but as we want to be. We would never be able to achieve this level of redefinition on our own. Yom Kippur is a day in which God channels down forces that open the doors for us. We can be brave and honest enough to walk through the doors joyously, or we can close our eyes to their existence.

God will not force anyone to open the door.

Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

Barely a few days pass, and Tishrei shows another aspect of the internal workings of reality. Sukkot arrives, and we celebrate our newly won closeness to God by moving into a sukkah, a shack-like structure with no permanent roof. For a full week, we reverse most of what we do the rest of the year. Instead of trying to feel more secure, we try to get a taste of life's transience.

We let our sensitivity to the spiritual bond that we have with every Jew, regardless of who he is, find expression in the four species of plants that the Torah commands that we take and bless. The lulav (palm branch) which has a taste but no smell, is compared to a Jew who is intellectually aware of the Torah's truth but doesn't let it flow down to affect his deeds. The etrog (citron) has both taste and smell and is compared to one who is fortunate enough to have both knowledge and good deeds express his personality. The hadassim (myrtle) has smell and no taste, symbolizing a person with deeds but nothing to back it up with intellectually. Finally, the aravot, (willow) which has neither taste nor smell, which we hold with the same devotion as the etrog which has both, is the icon of one who lives in a world in which there is no consciousness and no deeds. He too is part of our people, and we need to love him unconditionally just as much as he needs our unconditional love.

Tishri's last holiday, Simchat Torah, says it all. There is a world out there. We want to learn it, love it, and navigate it. We will never allow ourselves to content our minds and hearts with its outer contours. We'll walk its spiritual alleys and streets, and we'll follow the instruction book that reveals the blueprint that is the core of its being. We'll let our spiritual and physical joy at having a map that reveals it all take us over.

IT CORRESPONDS TO THE TRIBE OF EPHRAIM

The month of Tishrei is the month of Ephraim, the second son of Joseph. Ephraim went before the firstborn, Manasseh, like Jacob and Esau. This is the month of "fall feasts," a time to be fruitful and multiply and a time to return to God and experience His glory.

The first, and foremost, leader who emerged from Ephraim was Joshua, the servant and closest disciple of Moses. He was a beautiful example of a moon to Moses' sun. The Sages of Israel describe how "Moshe's countenance was like the sun, and Yehoshua's was like the moon; he only reflected what he received from Moshe" (Bava Batra 75a). This also is a beautiful description of Yeshua, the Messiah. Yeshua reflected the Father's glory, and he shared the Word of truth and life given him by the Father, as we read in these verses from the gospel of John:

"The One who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from Him." (8:26).

Yeshua answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me" (8:54).

In turn, as we lift our lives before the Throne of Mercy on Rosh HaShanah, we remember that we are to reflect the light of the Son. He has brought us from darkness into the light of the Kingdom of God, and we now are enabled to carry that light into the darkness for the Father's glory. (Keren Hannah Pryor).

Ephraim — "be fruitful and multiply."

Characteristics: The 7th month, and all sevens are important: "completion, fullness." The month of the "Fall Feasts" – Returning to God and experiencing His Glory. The month to "touch" – Mt. 9 — Remember the woman who pressed through to touch Him. The month linked with awakening and removing that which would keep you from returning.

In the Bible, Tishrei is “the month of the strong” or “the month of the ancients.” With respect to the reckoning of years, Tishrei is the first month of the year. In the reckoning of the months, Tishrei is the seventh month, the month of completion and perfection.

~~Tishrei is the month of “fall feasts,” when we are to return to God and experience His glory.~~

WE LOOK TO THE FUTURE THIS MONTH! *

Keeping with the Lord's harvest theme -- the harvesting of souls -- some believe that this could potentially be the time of the rapture in the future. Symbolically, it is possible that the 7 days of festival could represent the seven years of tribulation and at the same time, seven years of marriage supper celebration in heaven (feast of 7 days = 7 years per Bible prophecy). The blowing of the trumpet at the beginning of the celebration is analogous to the trumpet that will sound when the rapture occurs, followed by a 7-year period where simultaneously there is the marriage supper celebration occurring in heaven (indicated by the seven feasting days in Nehemiah 8:18), and the seven years of tribulation on earth.

TISHREI

SEVENTH MONTH

BE FRUITFUL AND MULTIPLY

STONE:
AGATE

Prophetic Art of James Nesbit

www.jamesnart.com

TRIBE EPHRAIM

THE MONTH OF THE STRONG

TISHREI IS THE MONTH OF THE FALL FEASTS, WHEN WE ARE TO RETURN TO GOD AND EXPERIENCE HIS GLORY

TISHREI IS A MONTH OF GOD'S APPOINTED TIMES:
FEASTS OF TRUMPETS, ATONEMENT, AND TABERNACLES

THE SEVENTH MONTH AND ALL SEVENS ARE IMPORTANT
"COMPLETION, FULLNESS"

CONSTELLATION: LIBRA (THE SCALES)
WHERE THE DEEDS OF MAN ARE WEIGHED AND JUDGEMENT IS RELEASED

MATTHEW 9

LAMED

JAMES NESBIT © 2012
WWW.JAMESNART.COM

Kevin D. Vincent
The Times of Tishrei: Introduction

Tishrei is the month in the biblical calendar when three feasts are celebrated: Trumpets, Yom Kippur, and Tabernacles. The first of these is celebrated on the first day of Tishrei. It is also called New Year or Rosh HaShanah (although the biblical first month is actually Nisan). These feasts of Tishrei are prophetic of the age when the Messiah comes and begins to reign.

Christians see this as the Second Coming, but Jews see it as the first coming. Both refer to the same Messiah and the same time.

It is the purpose of this study to highlight the scriptures that speak of the Messiah and His coming through a series of daily prayer guides matching the days of Tishrei. At the end of this study and prayer, I hope that the reader will have a better understanding of the Times of Tishrei and their future fulfillment.

Christians have neglected to observe these feasts of Tishrei. Consequently, they have also not given proper attention to the very clear teaching in Scripture of the Messiah's return. Jewish people have always observed the three feasts, but it is my impression that many fail to realize the significance of the feasts themselves.

The Tanach, called the Old Testament by Christians, contains very specific details about the course of Gentile world history. It is a simple matter to look at the prophecies and check them against actual, verifiable events accepted by historians everywhere. World events have confirmed prophecy in the past. Given the fact that such prophecies are fulfilled, we can have confidence in the prophecies yet to be fulfilled. I feel that the month of Tishrei is that time of the year when we should be focusing on those prophecies.

It is not enough to read about such prophecies. It is necessary to read the actual prophecies themselves and meditate on them. With this in mind, this study matches 26 of the 30 days of Tishrei with four Biblical books. Daniel is pre-eminently the book of end times prophecy in the Tanach/Old Testament. Some of its visions were given to Gentiles to be interpreted by a Jewish prophet, Daniel, in exile in a gentile land, Babylon. The twelve chapters of the book of Daniel are covered in days one to twelve in Tishrei. The remaining days of Tishrei are allocated to chapters from the book of Zechariah. Each chapter from the books of Daniel and Zechariah is matched on an opposing page by a chapter from Matthew or Revelation. The latter book, sometimes called the Apocalypse, consists of revelations about end times given to John, a Jew also in exile in a gentile country – the island of Patmos.

Although there is not an exact chronological match of sequence between the Old Testament chapters selected and those of the New Testament, the commentary points out similarities and connections and makes clear the pattern.

My hope is for readers to become excited by the precision of the word of God to the extent that they will trust the prophecies for their future fulfillment. Daniel describes the times of the Gentiles and shows that these times will come to an end, and then the Messiah will set up His kingdom and reign from Jerusalem. God's plans for Jew and Gentile shall be fulfilled.

When Ezra and Nehemiah returned from the exile in Babylon and began rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem, they also began to read, from morning to midday and in public, the Book of the Law of Moses (Nehemiah 1:1-2) before the assembled people. The day they started this was the first day of the seventh month, that is, on the feast of trumpets. The result of this reading was that people rediscovered the Word of God and believed it. Let us today also read the Word and believe it.

10 Days of Awe

Preparation for Revelation. This day is called New Year's Day and is observed as such in Israel, but in the Bible, it is called the Feast of Trumpets. The feast points to the regathering of Israel by God to their land for blessing. This regathering is connected with a trumpet call in Isaiah 27.13: "So it shall be in that day, the great trumpet will be blown; they will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria, and they who are outcasts in the land of Egypt and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount in Jerusalem."

The name "Rosh Hashanah" (Hebrew: ראש השנה) means, literally, "head of the year" or "first of the year." Rosh Hashanah is commonly known as the Jewish New Year. This name is somewhat deceptive, because there is little similarity between Rosh Hashanah, one of the holiest days of the year, and the American midnight drinking bash and daytime football game. There is, however, one important similarity between the Jewish New Year and the American one: Many Americans use the New Year as a time to plan a better life, making "resolutions." Likewise, the Hebrew New Year is a time to begin introspection, looking back at the mistakes of the past year and planning the changes to make in the new year, continuing through the Days of Awe and Yom Kippur. It is the first of the High Holidays or Yamim Noraim ("Days of Awe"), celebrated ten days before Yom Kippur.

Rosh Hashanah is observed on the first two days of Tishrei, the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar. It is described in the Torah as יום תרועה (Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar]).

Shabbat Shuvah ("Sabbath [of] Return" שבת שובה) refers to the Shabbat that occurs during the Ten Days of Repentance between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Only one Shabbat can occur between these dates. This Shabbat is named after the first word of the Haftarah (Hosea 14:2-10) and literally means "Return!"

Yeshua and Rosh Hashanah

Rosh Hashanah is known as the Day of Judgment. At the final judgment spoken of in Revelation 20:15, we read that "anyone whose name was not found recorded in the Book of Life was thrown into the lake of fire." The book of Revelation tells us that the Book of Life belongs to the Lamb, Yeshua Christ (Revelation 21:27). The Apostle Paul maintained that the names of his fellow missionary companions were "in the Book of Life." (Philippians 4:3)

Tishrei in Hebrew History

- 1 Tishrei (c. 3760 BCE) – Adam and Eve were created, according to one opinion in the Talmud.
On Tishrei 1 -- the sixth day of creation -- "G-d said: 'Let us make Man in Our image, after Our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth...'" (Genesis 1:26). "G-d formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul" (ibid., 2:7). "And G-d took the man and placed him in the Garden of Eden, to work it and to keep it" (2:15). "And G-d said: 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helpmeet opposite him' ... G-d caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; and He took one of his sides and closed up the flesh in its place. And G-d built the side which He had taken from the man into a woman and brought her to the man. And the man said: 'This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.' Therefore, a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife; and they become one flesh" (2:18-24).

- 8 Tishrei (c. 946 BCE) – 14-day dedication of Solomon's Temple begins.
- 10 Tishrei (c. 1313 BCE) – Moses returns from a final trip to Mount Sinai, bearing a second set of tablets and a message of forgiveness for the Golden Calf.
- 10 Tishrei The beginning the Yom Kippur War in 1967.
- 15 Tishrei the Beginning of the Feast of Tabernacles. The day Christ was born.

The following is Chapter 4 of the forthcoming book, The Ten Words of the Master Covenant: An Ancient Path for Life. It is being serialized in Wade's monthly newsletter as part of our ongoing A Hebrew Perspective column. We pray you are edified.

Reuven and Rachel ben Yosef (Bob and Remy Koch)

Barukh ha-Shem YHVH—Blessed is the Name of the LORD

Chapter 4: Moses and Yeshua: Covenantal Torah Unity

Many Jews during the Roman occupation of Judea, which began in 63 BCE, believed that the Temple establishment and the original Torah of YHVH—the Ten Words of the Master Covenant—had been corrupted by human tradition and institutional interests—both political and religious. This concern is evident among groups such as the Dead Sea Scrolls (DSS) community, often identified with the Essenes, and, in a different way, the Jerusalem assembly of “the Way” led by James. The original covenantal torah had become obscured beneath layers of inherited interpretation and religious tradition, concealing the universal moral and spiritual intent of the Ten Words. The knowledge itself was not lost; rather, it survived in forms so shaped by centuries of institutional “religious” development that many who preserved it no longer recognized the covenant simplicity taught through Moses and later reaffirmed by Yeshua:

"I have not come to destroy the Law (Torah) or the prophets, but to fulfill. Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the Law, till all things be accomplished." (Matt 5:17–18)

Understood in the vernacular of the second Temple period, to “destroy” meant to set aside, misrepresent or misinterpret the Torah, while “fulfill” was to establish, “fill it up” or properly interpret it. It did not mean to put an end to its relevance. This is an example of a common idiomatic contrast reflected in Jewish interpretive tradition. As always, historical context is everything.

Yeshua’s teachings continually reference the proper intent of the original covenantal torah to support his legal position on such matters as honoring parents (Mk 7:9–13), Shabbat (Mk 2:27), divorce (Matt 19:9, i.e., adultery), etc. He was often at odds with establishment religious leaders who relied on the expanded torah and traditional oral law to defend their halakhic (legal) arguments. The core of these disputes was determining what behavior could be judged as properly exhibiting khesed (lovingkindness), tsedaqah (righteousness) and mishpat (justice), which would lead to “life.” These are the “weightier matters” of the Torah of YHVH (Matt 23:23). Yeshua often quoted the Ten Words to demonstrate their proper application, teaching how one could inherit that same eternal life by obeying them with proper spiritual intent.

"And as he was going forth into the way, there ran one to him, and kneeled to him, and asked him, "Good Rabbi, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" And Yeshua said unto him, "Why do you call me good? None is good save One, Elohim: If you would enter into life, keep the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother, You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Matt 19:16–19; Mk 10:17–19; Luke 18:18–20).¹

An important textual observation: Matthew’s account contains another noteworthy feature. Instead of ending with the traditional tenth commandment, Yeshua concludes with, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 19:19; Lev. 19:18). Significantly, Leviticus 19:17–18 immediately connects that command with the preceding injunction, "You shall not hate your brother in your heart"—the exact wording preserved as the tenth commandment in the Shapira Moses Scrolls fragments.² Equally striking, the blessing accompanying that command in the Scrolls reads, “Blessed is the man who loves his neighbor.”

¹ See the Introduction, footnote 10, regarding the Jewish interpretive convention that citing one or more of the Ten Words could imply the entire covenantal torah.

² See last month’s newsletter for fascinating information on the Shapira Moses Scrolls—containing what many believe to be a proto-Deuteronomy.

Thus, both Moses and Yeshua emphasize faithfully keeping the ten declarations of the original Torah toward Elohim and one another.³

Moses and Yeshua Taught the Same Torah

According to James Tabor, the Ebionites are widely understood to have preserved important continuities with the earliest Jewish followers of Yeshua and the original Jerusalem apostolic community. Some scholars describe them as a “remnant of the original followers of Jesus,” while others identify related Nazarene traditions as “the heirs of the earliest Jerusalem congregation.” They were concentrated mainly in the Near East and Egypt, teaching the original doctrines to mixed communities of Jews and Gentiles.⁴

However, because of doctrinal differences exacerbated by the emerging Graeco-Roman Church, the Ebionites were gradually pushed aside and eventually declared heretical. Although often polemical, many Church fathers preserved quotations from their Hebrew Gospel and other writings in order to discredit them. Ironically, these writings not only bear witness to the survival of the Ebionites as a distinct group for nearly five centuries, but they give valuable insight into how their doctrines aligned with the Torah of YHVH.

The Ebionites taught that Jews and Gentiles should be united as believers in the “only true Elohim” (John 17:3), echoing Moses’ “YHVH is Elohim; there is no other” (Deut 4:35, 39). They believed Yeshua taught the same Torah as Moses. This is demonstrated when Moses declared and Yeshua affirmed the confession, “Hear O Israel, YHVH our Elohim, YHVH is ONE” (Deut 6:4; Luke 10:25–27). Yeshua further emphasizes this when he declares to his disciple that YHVH is “my Father and your Father; my Elohim and your Elohim.” (John 20:17)

The following quotes are from the two Pseudo-Clementine books preserved in compilations dating to the 2nd–3rd century CE. Some sections transmit much earlier traditions from sources identified as Ebionite which are found in Recognitions Book 1, Chs. 27-71. This section has been labeled The Ascents of James by modern scholars. The Homilies reproduce some of those narratives.

Homilies Book VII Chapter VI — Concealment and Revelation

“For on this account Jesus is concealed from the Jews, who have taken Moses as their teacher, and Moses is hidden from those who have believed Jesus. For, there being one teaching by both, God accepts him who has believed either of these. But believing a teacher is for the sake of doing the things spoken by God.”⁵

³ The Greek NT verb in this verse is tereo, meaning “to keep”—actively obeying or observing Elohim’s commandments (Jn 9:16, 14:24; Rev 3:3). The Greek shows Yeshua paralleling the Hebrew shamar: to keep, observe, guard, etc. as seen by Abraham’s performative obedience in “keeping the Way of YHVH” (Gen 18:19).

⁴ James Tabor Blog, Were the “Ebionites” Heretics—or a Remnant of the Original Followers of Jesus?; Jan 2023, Link: jamestabor.com.

According to the Jewish followers of Yeshua, both Jews and Gentiles are called to recognize that the two prophets were united in exalting the Master Covenant, teaching fidelity in performing the things spoken by Elohim. The Jews, who were “instructed out of the Law,” are portrayed as inheriting eternal life through faithful obedience to Torah, and should acknowledge that Yeshua taught the same. The Gentiles who follow Yeshua should obey his teaching based on the identical Torah Moses taught—and not disparage the Jews who were the first to receive the revelation (Matt 19:16–19; Mk 10:17–19). In other words, Jews and Christians should acknowledge both prophets as being sent by Elohim.

Recognitions Book IV, Chapter V — Moses and Christ

By which it is certainly declared, that the people of the Hebrews, who were instructed out of the law, did not know him; but the people of the Gentiles have acknowledged Jesus, and venerate him; ...not only acknowledging him, but also doing his will. But he who is of the Gentiles, and who has it of God to believe Moses, ought also to have it of his own purpose to love Jesus also. And again, the Hebrew, who has it of God to believe Moses, ought to have it also of his own purpose to believe in Jesus; so that each of them, having in himself something of the divine gift, and something of his own exertion, may be perfect by both.⁶

Homilies Book VIII, Chapter XVII — The Way to the Kingdom Not Concealed from Israelites

Wherefore it is that he says, “For say not that the way has been hid from me.” But by the way is meant the mode of life; for Moses says, “Behold, I have set before thy face the way of life and the way of death.” And the Teacher spoke in harmony with this “Enter through the strait and narrow way, through which you shall enter into life.” And somewhere else when one asked him, “What shall I do to inherit eternal life?” He pointed out to him the commandments of the law.

Moses said he had shown the Israelites “the way of life and the way of death” when describing the blessings and curses of the Ten Words. For the Ebionites, Yeshua was the prophet like Moses (Deut 18:15–18)—a teacher and interpreter as well as a restorer of the genuine Torah who, like the prophets before him, suffered rejection. They confirmed that he taught his followers to walk the straight and narrow Way, obeying the covenantal torah in order to obtain “eternal life.”⁷ Referencing this mode of life, the original group of Jerusalem disciples called themselves “The Way”; aka “the Way of YHVH.”

⁵ Schaff, Philip. The Clementine Homilies; ANF08 (Anti-Nicene Fathers, Vol.8): from: The Recognitions of Clement. By the Translator, Rev. Thomas Smith, D.D.; Digital version; p. 474.

⁶ Ibid., pp. 222–223.

As stated, Yeshua came to “fulfill” the words of Torah (the “Law”) or “make them full,” i.e., to give the proper interpretation. A similar sentiment is found in the sectarian writings among the Dead Sea Scrolls (DSS), which are generally attributed to the Essene community. Stored in clay jars and hidden in caves in Qumran before the destruction of the Temple in 70 CE, they were discovered in 1948. They have revealed many unexpected truths that have significantly reshaped Jewish and Christian scholars’ understanding of this turbulent period. The Scrolls have cast light on the beliefs of the various Jewish sects, especially the zealous messianic reform movements of the time.

The DSS speak of figures such as the “Interpreter of the Law” and the anointed⁸ “Righteous Teacher” or “Teacher of Righteousness.” This anointed man would give the true sense of the Law, thereby revealing the meaning and intent of the original Torah of YHVH, stripped of the later “traditions of men.”⁹ This is a key aspect of the duty and role of a prophet. The sectarian authors of the DSS rarely identified contemporary figures by name, preferring symbolic titles such as the “Wicked Priest” and the “Man of Lies.” In a period marked by political unrest, Roman occupation, and messianic expectation, such designations may also have provided a measure of protection from unwanted scrutiny by political and religious authorities. Consequently, no direct link can be established between the DSS Teacher and Yeshua, John the Baptist or James the Just.

⁷ In their view, the Davidic kingship remained future—to be realized only at Yeshua’s return.

⁸ The Hebrew word for “anointed” is mashiakh or messiah in English. The Greek-English transliteration “christ” originally had the same meaning but over time it came to mean much more within the established church. “Christ” is a title, not a name. The most common biblical anointing was for high priests and some kings with the purest olive oil. Aaron was the first with the title ha-kohen ha-mashiakh, literally “the priest, the anointed one” (Lev 4:3). Prophets were considered to be commissioned or “sent” from Elohim. This is what Yeshua meant when he said he was “sent” from Elohim (John 17:1–3). Elisha was the only prophet anointed with oil. Moses and Yeshua are said to have Elohim’s spirit upon them with some transference to others (Num 11:17, 25; 27:18, Deut 34:9; Matt 3:16; Luke 4:18; John 20:22, etc.).

⁹ “traditions of men” (Mk 7:7–13, Matt 23:1–3) Nehemia Gordon’s commentary on a version of Shem Tov’s Matthew translation: Instead of the accepted incongruous translation of Matt 23:3, Yeshua actually said, “...therefore all that he (i.e., Moses) tells you, do and observe, but do not do according to their deeds; for they say things and do not do them.” The “their deeds” refers to the religious establishments leadership practice of creating rules and regulations commonly known as the “traditions of men” or “traditions of the elders” and disregarding Moses teaching in the process (Mk 7:7–13). Gordon, Nehemiah. The Hebrew Yeshua vs. the Greek Jesus, Appendices 4 & 5, (Hilkiah Press, 2010), Ebook, 2010.

At this time of oppressive Roman rule, priestly and societal corruption, many devout Jews were expecting such a "Teacher."

The following Homilies text addresses the perception of an apparent contradiction between Yeshua's teachings and his actions. It highlights the ancient prophets' critiques which had much in common with contemporary criticisms. They declared that many of the expanded covenant's traditions and added laws were not commanded by YHVH but were being presented to the people as having the same authority. The Ebionites concluded that such practices "not belonging to the law" carried no binding authority because they were not commanded by the original covenantal torah, as required.

Homilies Book III, Chapter LI — His Teaching Concerning the Law

And his sending to the scribes and teachers of the existing Scriptures, as to those who knew the true things of the law that then was, is well known. And also that he said, "I am not come to destroy the law," and yet that he appeared to be destroying it, is the part of one intimating that the things which he destroyed did not belong to the law (i.e., Torah).¹⁰ And his saying, "The heaven and the earth shall pass away, but one jot or one tittle shall not pass from the law," intimated that the things which pass away before the heaven and the earth do not belong to the law in reality.¹¹

Yeshua upheld the authentic "Law (Torah) of YHVH" but rejected the added religious traditions being presented as binding "Law." Ebionites believed these must pass away as they "do not belong to the Law in reality." Within this tradition, such components are commonly understood to include sacrificial practices, loose legal interpretations, acceptance of some common pagan customs, and certain other "traditions of men" that were viewed as subordinate to—and even incompatible with—the authentic Torah of YHVH.

Shalom u'vrakhah—Peace and blessing,

Reuven and Rachel

¹⁰ This understanding relates to the sacrificial cult and is preserved in other Ebionite traditions, aligning with earlier prophetic critiques. Epiphanius Panarion 30.16.5 and Schaff, The Clementine Homilies; ANF08, Recog. 1, Ch. 36—Allowance of Sacrifice for a Time, Digital version, p. 130).

¹¹ Schaff, The Clementine Homilies; ANF08, pp. 426–427.

Here's what you need to know about Rosh Hashanah 2026

By Benjamin Gladstone from: August 31, 2023

Editor's note: With the High Holidays upon us, we're refreshing and republishing older stories about the holiday season for readers to enjoy with updated information. This story was originally published on September 5, 2019.

Rosh Hashanah is one of the most important holidays on the Jewish calendar. Often known as the "Jewish New Year," it opens the High Holidays season. Even many Jews who do not celebrate other holidays or observe other Jewish laws or practices still take off work and school to attend religious services and see their friends and families at this special time.

For anyone who is considering celebrating Rosh Hashanah this year, or is just looking to learn more about Jewish traditions, we've pulled together some basic facts to help you understand the meaning of this holiday.

When does Rosh Hashanah start?

Rosh Hashanah, Hebrew for "Head of the Year," is one of the most important Jewish holidays. It takes place on the first two days of the Hebrew month of Tishrei (September or October on the Gregorian calendar) for most traditional Jews, but only on the first of Tishrei for Reform Jews.

Rosh Hashanah for the year 2026 starts on the evening of Friday, September 11th ending the 2nd day celebration at sundown on Sunday, September 13. The specific times of sunset and nightfall will vary from locale to locale.

What is Rosh Hashanah?

The holiday of Rosh Hashanah comes from the Torah, the Hebrew Bible, which commands Jews to blast the shofar (ram's horn) and cease "work at your occupations" on that date (Leviticus 23:24-25). Many of Rosh Hashanah's more specific laws come from the Talmud. Rosh Hashanah also marks both the start of the new Jewish year and the beginning of the ten-day period known as the "Days of Awe," a spiritual time of repentance that concludes with Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

The most prominent theological aspect of Rosh Hashanah is the belief that God judges each individual Jew on the first day. According to Jewish tradition, God determines the fate of each Jewish person for the coming year primarily on the basis of their actions over the previous year. Everyone, however, has the opportunity to ameliorate a negative judgment in three ways.

One way is teshuvah, which literally means "returning" but is usually translated as "repentance" – a Jew performs teshuvah by feeling regret for a sin, apologizing to God and/or to the person against whom they have sinned, and pledging sincerely not to commit the sin again. Another way is tefillah – prayer. Finally, Jews can also earn leniency through tzedakah, which literally means "justice" or "righteousness." In practice, tzedakah usually refers to charitable giving, but it could also conceivably be interpreted as participation in pro-justice work.

How is Rosh Hashanah celebrated?

Rosh Hashanah is celebrated with many traditions, some of which are required by Jewish law and some of which are popular customs. Work is forbidden, and Jews typically spend much of the day in synagogue, worshipping, listening to the prescribed portions of the Torah and the Book of Neviim ("Prophets"), and hearing blasts from the shofar.

One of the most important Rosh Hashanah mitzvot ("commandments" in Jewish law) is that every Jew hears a sequence of blasts from the shofar. The shofar is a hollowed-out ram's horn reminiscent of the story of the 'Aqedah, the "Binding of Isaac," during which Abraham ultimately sacrifices a ram whose horn is caught in a thicket in place of his son Isaac (Genesis 22:13). The story of the 'Aqedah is chanted aloud during Rosh Hashanah services.

Rosh Hashanah traditions

Rosh Hashanah is meant to be a time of relaxation, celebration, and feasting. It is customary to eat sweet foods on Rosh Hashanah as a symbolic way of ushering in a sweet new year. Jews dip apples and round challot (Jewish bread) in honey and sometimes also eat honey cakes and other sweet desserts.

There are also several Rosh Hashanah practices that relate to repentance. One such practice is Tashlikh, during which Jews cast bits of bread, which represent their sins, into water. The bread is either swept away by the flow of the water or consumed by fish.

Jews also repent by begging God for mercy in special late-night/early-morning services called Slihot. During Slihot, Jews make the case to God that their sins should be forgiven by invoking the thirteen divine "Attributes of Mercy" and reminding God of various biblical episodes during which Jewish prayers were answered. In the Ashkenazi tradition, Slihot are recited from the Saturday night before Rosh Hashanah, but Sephardi and Mizrahi Jews traditionally recite Slihot for the entire month leading up to Rosh Hashanah as well.

Jews often also use Rosh Hashanah and the Days of Awe as an opportunity to informally apologize to loved ones, friends, and others whom they have wronged over the previous year.

Rosh Hashanah greetings

There are several greetings, which are commonly used both on Rosh Hashanah itself and in the days before and after the holiday.

The most basic is l'shanah tovah, which means "for a good year," or simply shanah tovah, "a good year."

A slightly fancier version of that greeting is shanah tovah umetuqah, which means "a good and sweet year."

If you really want to show off, you can even say the full extended version, which in English translates to "may you be written and sealed for a good year." This phrase is a prayer that God will write the name of the person you are greeting in the "book" of people who are to have a good year on Rosh Hashanah and will seal their name in that book on Yom Kippur. In Hebrew, this more complicated phrase changes depending on to whom you are speaking. If you are greeting someone who uses the pronouns he/him/his, say: l'shanah tovah tikateiv v'teihateim. For someone who uses the pronouns she/her/hers, say: l'shanah tovah tikateivi v'teihateimi. When speaking with multiple people or someone who uses the pronouns they/them/theirs, say l'shanah tovah tikateivu v'teihateimu. If the person to whom you are speaking uses a different set of pronouns, you can either politely ask if that person has adopted any particular system of Hebrew pronouns or simply say shanah tovah umetuqah.

In the afternoon of Rosh Hashanah and through the rest of the Days of Awe, Jews also sometimes greet each other with gemar hatimah tovah, which means "a good final sealing." This greeting, however, is more common on Yom Kippur.

In America, some Jews simply wish each other a "happy new year" in English.

For some people, Rosh Hashanah is a profoundly spiritual experience and a time of religious awakening and redemption. For many, it is an annual opportunity for personal growth and self-improvement, for recommitting to religious, moral justice, and interpersonal goals. For others, it is mainly a chance to see family, or to unload mental burdens by apologizing and forgiving.

Whatever you want to get out of Rosh Hashanah this year, we hope that the information presented above will help you find it.

What is Yom Kippur: The Day of Atonement

The Torah calls the day Yom HaKippurim (יום הכיפורים), and decrees fasting ("affliction of the soul") and a strict prohibition of work on the tenth day of the seventh month, later known as Tishrei.^[12] The laws of Yom Kippur are commanded by God to Moses in three passages in the Torah:

1. Leviticus 16:1–34: Aaron may only enter the sanctuary by performing a complex sacrificial procedure, later known as the Yom Kippur Temple service. This service must be performed yearly on the date of Yom Kippur, while the people are to fast and not work on this date.^[13]

2. Leviticus 23:26–32: The tenth day of Tishrei is a holy day of atonement. A Temple sacrifice must be offered, while the people must fast and not work, "on the ninth day from evening until evening".^[14]

3. Numbers 29:7–11: The tenth day of Tishrei is a holy day; one must fast and not work. The mussaf (additional) sacrifice for the day is specified.^[15]

Yom Kippur is mentioned briefly in another context: on Yom Kippur of the Jubilee year the shofar was to be blown.^[16] According to some, this is the source for the current custom of blowing the shofar at the conclusion of Yom Kippur.^[17]

What are the High Holy Days

Yom Kippur is one of the two High Holy Days, or Days of Awe (Hebrew yamim noraim), alongside Rosh Hashanah (which falls nine days previously).^[19] According to Jewish tradition, on Rosh Hashanah God inscribes each person's fate for the coming year into the Book of Life, and waits until Yom Kippur to "seal" the verdict.^[20] This process is described dramatically in the poem Unetanneh Tokef, which is recited on Rosh Hashanah in the Ashkenazic and Italian rites and on Yom Kippur in the Eastern Ashkenazic and Italian rites:

A great shofar will be blown, and a small still voice will be heard. The angels will make haste, and be seized with fear and trembling, and will say: "Behold, the day of judgment!"... On Rosh Hashanah it is written, and on the Yom Kippur fast it is sealed, how many will pass and how many will be created, who will live and who will die, who in his time and who not in his time... But repentance, prayer, and charity remove the evil of the decree... For You do not desire a person's death, but rather that he repent and live. Until the day of his death You wait for him; if he repents, you accept him immediately.

During the Days of Awe, a Jew reflects on the year, goals, and past actions, how his or her behavior has possibly hurt others and seek forgiveness for wrongs done against God and against other human beings.

What is the Feast of Tabernacles?

The Feast of Tabernacles, also known as the Feast of Booths and Sukkot, is the seventh and last feast that the Lord commanded Israel to observe and one of the three feasts that Jews were to observe each year by going to "appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose" (Deuteronomy 16:16). The importance of the Feast of Tabernacles can be seen in how many places it is mentioned in Scripture. In the Bible, we see many important events that took place at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles. For one thing, it was at this time that Solomon's Temple was dedicated to the Lord (1 Kings 8:2).

It was at the Feast of Tabernacles that the Israelites, who had returned to rebuild the temple, gathered to celebrate under the leadership of Joshua and Zerubbabel (Ezra 3). Later, the Jews heard Ezra read the Word of God to them during the Feast of Tabernacles (Nehemiah 8). Ezra's preaching resulted in a great revival as the Israelites confessed and repented of their sins. It was also during this Feast that Yeshua said, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water" (John 7:37-39).

The Feast of Tabernacles takes place on the 15th of the Hebrew month Tishrei. This was the seventh month on the Hebrew calendar and usually occurs in late September to mid-October. The feast begins five days after the Day of Atonement and at the time the fall harvest had just been completed. It was a time of joyous celebration as the Israelites celebrated God's continued provision for them in the current harvest and remembered His provision and protection during the 40 years in the wilderness.

As one of the three feasts that all "native born" male Jews were commanded to participate in, the Feast of Tabernacles is mentioned multiple times in Scripture, sometimes called the Feast of the Ingathering, the Feast to the Lord, or the Feast of Booths (Exodus 23:16; Deuteronomy 16:13). As one of the pilgrim feasts (when Jewish males were commanded to go to Jerusalem), it was also the time when they brought their tithes and offerings to the Temple (Deuteronomy 16:16). With the influx of people coming to Jerusalem at that time, we can only imagine what the scene must have been like. Thousands upon thousands of people coming together to remember and celebrate God's deliverance and His provision, all living in temporary shelters or booths as part of the requirements of the feast. During the eight-day period, so many sacrifices were made that it required all twenty-four divisions of priests to be present to assist in the sacrificial duties.

We find God's instructions for celebrating the Feast of Tabernacles in Leviticus 23, given at a point in history right after God had delivered Israel from bondage in Egypt. The feast was to be celebrated each year on "the fifteenth day of this seventh month" and was to run for seven days (Leviticus 23:34). Like all feasts, it begins with a "holy convocation" or Sabbath day when the Israelites were to stop working to set aside the day for worshipping God. On each day of the feast they were to offer an "offering made by fire to the LORD," and then after seven days of feasting, again the eighth day was to be "a holy convocation" when they were to cease from work and offer another sacrifice to God (Leviticus 23). Lasting eight days, the Feast of Tabernacles begins and ends with a Sabbath day of rest. During the eight days of the feast, the Israelites would dwell in booths or tabernacles that were made from the branches of trees (Leviticus 23:40–42).

The Feast of Tabernacles, like all the feasts, was instituted by God as a way of reminding Israelites in every generation of their deliverance by God from Egypt. Of course, the feasts are also significant in that they foreshadow the work and actions of the coming Messiah. Much of Yeshua's public ministry took place in conjunction with the Holy Feasts set forth by God.

The three pilgrim feasts where all Jewish males were commanded to "appear before the LORD in the place he chooses" are each very important in regard to the life of Christ and His work of redemption. We know with certainty that the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread are symbolic of Christ's atoning sacrifice on the cross. Likewise, we know that Pentecost, which marked the beginning of the Feast of Weeks, was the time of Yeshua's bodily ascension. And most scholars would agree that the Feast of Tabernacles is symbolic of Christ's second coming when He will establish His earthly kingdom.

Hebrew Historians believe that it was likely during the Feast of Tabernacles that Yeshua was born. While most Christian churches celebrate Christ's birth on December 25, scholars acknowledge that this tradition was begun in the fourth century A.D. by the Roman Catholic Church and that the exact day of Yeshua's birth is believed to be on the fifteenth of Tishrei or September 29, 3 BC. The evidence that Yeshua might have been born during the Feast of the Tabernacles includes the fact that it would be unlikely for shepherds to still be in the field with their sheep in December, which is in the middle of the winter, but it would have been likely they were in the fields tending sheep at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles. The strong possibility that Yeshua was born at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles is also seen in the words John wrote in John 1:14. "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth." The word John chose to speak of Yeshua "dwelling" among us is the word tabernacle, which simply means to "dwell in a tent."

Some believe it is very likely that John intentionally used this word to associate the first coming of Christ with the Feast of Tabernacles. Christ came in the flesh to dwell among us for a temporary time when He was born in the manger, and He is coming again to dwell among us as Lord of Lords. While it cannot be established with certainty that Yeshua was born during the Feast of Tabernacles, some believe there is a strong possibility the Feast of Tabernacles not only looks forward to His second coming but also reflects back on His first coming.

The Feast of Tabernacles begins and ends with a special Sabbath day of rest. During the days of the feast, all native Israelites were “to dwell in booths” to remind them that God delivered them out of the “land of Egypt” and to look forward to the coming Messiah, Yeshua Christ, who would deliver His people from the bondage of sin. This feast, like all of the feasts of Israel, consistently reminded the Jews and should remind Christians as well that God has promised to deliver His people from the bondage of sin and deliver them from their enemies. Part of God’s deliverance for the Israelites was His provision and protection of them for the 40 years they wandered in the wilderness, cut off from the Promised Land. The same holds true for Christians today. God protects us and provides for us as we go through life in the wilderness of this world. While our hearts long for the Promised Land (heaven) and to be in the presence of God, He preserves us in this world as we await the world to come and the redemption that will come when Yeshua Christ returns again to “tabernacle” or dwell among us in bodily form.

Ashley Hooker

Throughout the Old Testament there are many feasts mentioned. One such feast is the Feast of Trumpets. This was a celebration ordained by God for the Israelites. It was a time when they were to remember what God had done for them. The Feast of Trumpets was a beautiful day that is celebrated even today. Let's unpack this special feast and understand what it is, and how Christians today should respond to the Feast of Trumpets.

The Feast of Trumpets is first spoken of in Leviticus 23:23-25. At this time, the Israelites had been brought out of Egypt, and Moses received the covenant from God. The Israelites had built the Tabernacle, and God gave instructions to be told to the Israelites by Moses.

We find the Feast of Trumpets listed as one of the holy days for the Israelites to keep. God tells Moses the exact time the Israelites are to celebrate, and how the people should celebrate. During the feast, the people would bring various offerings to the Lord. In Numbers 29:1-6, we read about these offerings. Here we can find specific instructions about what to offer and how to offer it.

This feast was a call to stop work and remember the Lord. The people were to hold the feast on the first day of the seventh month, and you were to present a fire offering to the Lord. Throughout the day, the Israelites could hear the sound of a trumpet or shofar, hence the name Feast of Trumpets.

No daily work was completed on this day. It was a sacred time. The Feast of Trumpets was an outward expression of the feeling of anticipation the Israelites had. The Lord had shown himself to Moses at Mount Sinai, and the people anticipated the Lord showing himself again.

This feast is also a beautiful picture of the second coming of Christ, and Jews around the world continue to celebrate the Feast of Trumpets today.

What Does This Mean for the End Times?

In almost all religions, we debate the end times. We live in expectation of an end to this life, and we want to know what is going to happen. Regarding trumpet sounds, Scripture is clear. We will hear trumpets in the events of the end times.

In Revelation, beginning in chapter eight, we read about trumpets in the hands of angels. There are seven angels and there will be seven trumpets. As each angel sounds a trumpet, an event will occur. These events include portions of the Earth burning, stars falling from the sky, water becoming bitter, and locusts harming people.

When the seventh trumpet has sounded, the kingdom of the world will have become the Kingdom of God. Rosh Hashana, or the Feast of Trumpets, is an Old Testament picture of what the rapture will be like.

In the New Testament, Paul refers to the trumpet sound of the rapture in 1 Corinthians 15:51-52. The apostle Paul is telling us that as the last trumpet sounds, the dead will rise, and we will be changed. There is no mention of a definitive date, though. We must understand that trumpets will signal the people of God to gather and be ready to meet our Savior.

Just as trumpets were sounded to call God's people together, the trumpets sounded at the end times are a call for God's people to remember. They are calling for all people to repent of their sins. They are the sound of anticipation for the return of our Lord.

Should Christians Celebrate the Feast of Trumpets?

Just as Christians celebrate Christmas and Easter, I think we should consider celebrating the Feast of Trumpets. We should take any chance to celebrate the greatness of our God. It is the day Christ was born.

Christians can learn much from the Jewish traditions and festivals laid out in the Bible. Often, we think the Old Testament has little significance in the way we express our love for God. In the case of the Feast of Trumpets, there are beautiful symbols that Christians should embrace.

The celebration of the Feast of Trumpets represents several key thoughts that Christians should hold sacred. First, we should see the feast as a recognition that God is Lord over all the Earth. This holy day is a sanctified reminder of that fact.

Second, preparing for the Feast of Trumpets reminds us to be ready for the Lord's return. The sound of the shofar is a call to prepare.

Third, Christians should recognize the prophetic significance of this day. It is a time when the ways of the world are set aside. Our focus shifts and is solely on the Lord.

Lastly, Christians can celebrate the Feast of Trumpets with a joyful heart, knowing our God is a God of new beginnings. Even though this is the Jewish new year, Christians can celebrate that our God can and does make us clean and new. He is the God that will come back for His people and create a new heaven and earth. It is a time where we can express our gratefulness for the God that sent His one and only son to save us from our sins.

Christians are called to be prepared for the coming of Christ throughout the entirety of the Bible. Rosh Hashanah, or the Feast of Trumpets, is a celebration of that call.

Today, Christians should consider this celebration in their own walk with the Lord. It may not look the same as the Jewish celebration, but it can be a special time for you and your family to stop everything and focus on God. We can use this celebration along with each day to be ready for the return of Christ.

We recently lost a dear friend of the ministry. I am posting this asking for prayers for the family and those who grieved over his passing and at the same time rejoice in his crossing over. Wade K. Butler Chaplain...

Barry Wunsch
In Honor of Canadian Major General Brett Douglas Cairns

On behalf of the Canadian Ecclesia and the Nation of Canada, I want to honor and pay respects with the loss of a good friend, Retired Major General Brett Douglas Cairns, a Canadian White Hat General, not only in the Canadian Forces, but a Five-Star General in the Kingdom of God.

Obituary:

Canadian Major General Brett Douglas Cairns

Full Link: <https://everloved.com/life-of/brett-cairns/>

It is with unwavering respect and deep sadness that we announce the sudden and unexpected passing of Major General (ret) Brett Cairns, who had an esteemed and distinguished decorated military career spanning 35 years. Brett transitioned to heaven on August 20, 2026. He received his heavenly promotion and will continue to serve in his new anointed position.

Born in 1955, Brett lived an extraordinary life of service and commitment to others. Remembered as a formidable yet quiet force, Brett's intelligent and resilient character served as the backbone of his impressive career and personal life. His strong, silent demeanor was balanced by a mind always open to new knowledge and experiences. His lessons, imparted to all lucky enough to know him, were simple yet profoundly meaningful: never cease learning, persist against all odds, love thy neighbor, and the unexpected gem - 'never go to bed angry and forgive quickly.'

Among Brett's many commendations and awards are the Medal of Bravery for saving another officer's life who was drowning in the ocean. He also received the U.S Legion of Merit.

He was an extraordinary fighter pilot and natural-born leader. As one of Canada's "Top Guns," he led many missions throughout North America, overseas, in Europe, and Scandinavia. His relentless pursuit of excellence was reflected in all his endeavors, both professionally and personally. He was a high-level athlete, a power-lifter, and he loved keeping his mind busy by building high-performance sports cars. However, Brett's most prized achievements were not medals or honors but his family, who were his greatest joy and source of pride, along with his faith and relationship with God.

Brett's legacy is an indelible one. His remarkable contributions echo in the halls of the Air Force and resonate in the world beyond. His legacy has changed the face of many military branches. To get a full understanding of just how extraordinary his career was, I encourage you to look up Brett Cairns on Wikipedia to read about just a summary of his service to his beloved countries, both Canada and the U.S. Brett retired from the military in 2008 and subsequently entered the business world. After being given a lifetime achievement award in his field of endeavor, he retired from business in 2023.

He is survived by his loving wife of 46 years, Janice Cairns, daughters, Deserey Cairns (Josh Hooker), and Stephanie Cairns-Urquhart (Dave Urquhart). Grandchildren, Aiden and Anabella Hooker, Isla and Alexander Cairns-Urquhart and his brothers Glenn (Karen) and Brian with his beloved extended family members who will continue to carry his spirit and values forward.

Last but not least, his beloved pets, Maisie and Michael. The mantle of his legacy lies in capable hands, as he embodies his resilient spirit, intellectual curiosity, and unyielding commitment to service and excellence. He is now in Glory and part of the Great Cloud of Witness. His work remains intact and in motion and will continue to advance for the Freedom and Liberty of our Nations and Nations throughout the world.

Note:

There is a fireside chat that will be broadcast September 14, 2026 with Dave Scarlett and myself on HIS Glory where we share a tribute to General Brett. I will share it out as soon as I get it.

Most Sincerely,
Barry Wunsch

(L-R) Barry Wunsch, Wade Butler, Grant Abraham, Ron Schmit, Brett Cairns, PRAYER WARRIORS, WATCHMEN, LEADERS, MEN OF GOD.

A New Beginning, The year of the Sword 5687
Tishrei 1, 5787: Saturday-September 12, 2026

Veronika West

"WATCH! FOR MANY MORE WILL FALL IN THE FALL MARKED PEOPLE AND MARKED PLACES I SAY, WIND FALL, IS HERE!"

Early this morning, 08/30/2026, I had a short but strange dream-like encounter. I saw what looked like a beautiful green hand-made handbag covered in beautiful Oak Leaves and Acorns come up before me.

As I looked, I suddenly felt a Mighty Wind begin to blow, and as the Wind blew, I watched as the Leaves and Acorns began to fall from the green fabric of the handbag. And suddenly, I woke and I heard the Spirit saying,

"WATCH! FOR MANY MORE WILL FALL IN THE FALL - MARKED PEOPLE AND MARKED PLACES"

I SAY WIND FALL IS HERE!" And then I heard, "Watch! For These are the Days of the Un-Expected and the Un-Precedented. Un-Precedented Rain-FALL Wind-FALL and Supernatural WINDFALL." I immediately got up and began to Pray as the Spirit led me. As I prayed, I knew that what I had just seen in the short dream was an extension and further unfolding of a powerful Vision I was taken into only three days earlier, on the 27th August 2026.

While driving early morning on the 27th of August, I suddenly saw a clear Vision of New York City and the Twin Towers standing before me. I saw the Twin Towers burning, and suddenly, I saw thousands upon thousands of papers flying in the wind that was moving through the Burning Towers. I watched as the papers were being caught up and carried upon the wind, even as the Two Towers began to fall. And I heard,

"WATCH! FOR THE BOOKS HAVE BEEN OPENED, AND A RECORD HAS BEEN TAKEN, AND THE DEVOURER SHALL PAY BACK IN THE YEAR OF JUBILEE AND JUSTICE!"

And suddenly, I saw Books, Records, Accounts, Ledgers, and a Divine Accounting taking place in the Courts of Heaven. And then Daniel 7:10 came before me: "the Judgment was set, and the Books were opened!" Immediately, Holy Spirit quickened to me the Book of Esther, and I knew that the Book of Esther was being highlighted again as vital to this current Prophetic Timeline. We see in Esther 6, the King could not sleep, and suddenly, the Book of Records, the Chronicles, was opened, and there within the Book was found the Record of something Mordecai had done that had never been rewarded. And the King asked, "What honor and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this?" And the answer came, "There is nothing done for him." And I heard the Spirit saying,

"WHAT HAS GONE UNREWARDED HAS NOT GONE UNRECORDED!"

And suddenly, I saw a Kairos Time of Divine Remembrance, Recompense and Reversal. For like in the Days of Esther, the Record had been there all along, but suddenly, the Appointed Time came for the Books to be opened, the Record to be read, and that which had been delayed to be Remembered. And then came the Divine Reversal. The very man (HAMAN) who had prepared the gallows for Mordecai was commanded to participate in his public honor, and the gallows prepared for Mordecai became the place of Haman's own destruction.

And I heard, "THIS IS A TIME OF DIVINE RECKONING AND THE RECONCILING OF ACCOUNTS. THE BOOKS HAVE BEEN OPENED; THE RECORD HAS BEEN TAKEN; AND WHERE THE THIEF IS FOUND WITH THAT WHICH WAS STOLEN, THERE SHALL COME SWIFTLY DOUBLE RESTITUTION!"

And then I heard, "WATCH, FOR A DOUBLE WINDFALL OF WEALTH FROM THE HAND OF THE WICKED INTO THE HANDS OF THE RIGHTEOUS!"

And suddenly, the Words "WIND, FALL" were quickened to my spirit. For the papers were being carried upon the Wind, even as the Towers began to fall.

Again, I heard, "WIND FALL, A SUPERNATURAL WINDFALL!" And as I looked at the Two Towers, Twin Towers, I heard, "A DOUBLE WINDFALL!" And suddenly, I saw a Great Wealth Transfer.

And I heard the Spirit say, "WHERE SATAN STOLE IN THE REALM OF FINANCE AND TRADE, WATCH, FOR I AM BRINGING DOUBLE RESTITUTION AND A GREAT TRANSFER OF WEALTH!"

This morning's Dream Encounter is significant because three days later, after the Vision of the Twin Towers, I am again seeing Mighty Winds blowing, and again I am watching as things begin to Fall, and in the dream, I hear the Spirit saying again, "WIND FALL IS HERE!"

Quick Prophetic Note: As I continued to Pray, the Spirit drew my attention back to the green hand-made handbag, and God began to show me another powerful Prophetic Parallel emerging. We know that Money is often referred to as "green," and a handbag is something that often carries money and resources. The color "green" in the Prophetic often speaks to GRACE. And then Haggai 1:6 came to me as I was meditating and praying: "He that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes."

And Haggai 1:9 says, "I did BLOW upon it!" Ha! And suddenly, I saw the green bag and now the reference to wages - the Significance of Sowing - the Spirit speaking of Resources, the Mighty Wind of the Spirit blowing and the Rebuilding of the House of God. Now as I continue to Pray, I am beginning to see with even greater clarity that these two encounters - first the Vision and then the Dream - are not separate, but rather, I believe and submit they are timely Prophetic Parallels - two dimensions of the same Prophetic Timeline.

The Spirit first shows me the World Trade Center, where I saw the Books, the Records, the Accounts, and thousands upon thousands of papers being caught up and carried upon the wind even as the Towers began to fall. And now, three days later, I have been shown a green hand-made handbag. Again, I submit it's speaking to the realm of Money and Resources, and there is a Mighty Wind that begins to blow. But in the Dream, I am seeing Leaves and Acorns (Seeds) fall. And suddenly, the Prophetic Parallel of the Wind and the Fall now come into even sharper focus.

In the first encounter, I was being shown World Trade, Finance, Commerce, Books, Records and Accounts. But in this short Dream Encounter, the Spirit was showing me what happens when the Wind blows and the Seed falls. In the Dream, I knew I was being shown a Kairos Time of Divine Reckoning and Divine Repositioning, a time when that which has been held, withheld, contained and controlled within the Systems of men is being Shaken loose and repositioned for Kingdom purposes.

And I heard again, "WIND-FALL, WINDFALL!"

And suddenly, I saw that the "WIND-FALL" was not only speaking about what was coming down, but also about what was going to be released. For the same Wind that causes one thing to Fall in Judgment causes the Seed to Fall into prepared ground for Fruitfulness and Multiplication. And this took me deeper into the significance of the bag being hand-made. And I heard,

"WATCH THE WORKS OF MEN'S HANDS!"

And Hebrews 12 came before me: a Shaking and a Removing of those things which can be Shaken so that what cannot be Shaken may Remain. And then Jeremiah 1:10, "to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant!" And suddenly, I saw a Simultaneous Move of the Spirit - a Divine Uprooting and a Divine Planting, a Pulling Down and a Building Up, Divine Judgment and Divine Multiplication, Divine Reckoning and Divine Repositioning.

And I heard again, "MANY MORE MARKED PEOPLE AND MARKED PLACES WILL FALL IN THE FALL! But Watch! For not everything that falls will be falling for the same reason." And suddenly, my eyes were drawn again to the Dream and to the Acorns falling. The Acorn is a Seed, and hidden within that Seed is the Divine Blueprint - the Promise and the Potential of a mighty Oak. But the Acorn must first fall. And John 12:24 came before me: "Except a corn of Wheat fall into the ground and die, it bringeth forth much fruit!" And I heard, "Watch! For There is a falling unto Judgment, but there is also a falling unto Greater Fruitfulness and Supernatural Multiplication and Increase."

Listen! We will see some Unexpected Ones falling because God is Removing, and others are falling because God is Building and Planting for Kingdom Advancement. And suddenly, I saw Oaks of Righteousness arising, the Planting of the Lord that He might be Glorified.

And I saw Abraham and Isaac, the Seed of Promise laid upon the Altar. And then came the Word, "In multiplying I will multiply thy seed!" And I heard, "WATCH! FOR DEMONIC ALTARS ARE COMING DOWN AND RIGHTEOUS ALTARS ARE BEING REBUILT; UNGODLY SYSTEMS ARE BEING UPROOTED AND RIGHTEOUS SEEDS ARE BEING PLANTED. FOR THAT WHICH HAS BEEN BUILT BY THE HANDS OF MEN SHALL BE SHAKEN, BUT THAT WHICH I HAVE PLANTED BY THE HAND OF GOD SHALL ARISE AND MULTIPLY!"

And suddenly, I was taken back again to the Twin Towers, the World Trade Center. And as I watched the Towers fall, I suddenly saw, "Babylon Fall! Babylon the Great is fallen, is fallen." (Revelation 18). And God shows me a powerful Prophetic Parallel with the realm of Merchants, Merchandise, World Trade, Commerce and Great Wealth. But Watch! The papers were already flying while the Towers were still burning. The Books were already open; the Records were already speaking; the Divine Accounting was already underway, and the Supernatural Wind-Fall was already in motion. And I saw again that the same Wind that uproots also scatters the Seed. The same Wind that brings Judgment upon Unrighteous systems is the Wind that Repositions Resources and releases Seed into prepared and fertile ground.

And I see a Great Wealth Transfer - resources being repositioned into the hands of Righteous Stewards for Kingdom purposes. And suddenly, the Prophetic Timeline came before me again, for 2026 marks 250 years since America's Declaration of Independence.

250 YEARS = FIVE FIFTIES!

I believe this Prophetic Parallel of five fifty-year periods is deeply significant within the context of what I was seeing and hearing, for Leviticus 25 speaks of Jubilee in connection with Liberty, Release, Return, and Restoration of Inheritance.

"Proclaim Liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof!"

Then another powerful Prophetic Marker comes into view: September 11, 2026, twenty-five years since 9/11 and the fall of the Twin Towers. And I see a Divine Convergence within the Prophetic Timeline: the nation of America standing in the Year of her 250th Anniversary, five fifties, while approaching 25 years since 9/11. Again, the Spirit brings me back to New York to the World Trade Center, the Books being opened, the Book of Esther, and the Records being remembered, Jubilee and Justice, Divine Remembrance and Recompense, Double Restitution, the Wind, the Fall, the Double Wind-Fall, and Babylon falling. And now as we stand on the Threshold of the New Hebrew Year 5787, even as we approach the natural season of Fall, I believe we are standing in a Kairos Time, an Appointed Time of Divine Convergence, a time when Prophetic Timelines are converging, Prophetic Parallels are speaking, and when we are being shown Prophetic Markers that are coming into greater focus and that are demanding our Prayerful Attention.

And I hear, "WATCH! FOR MANY MORE WILL FALL IN THE FALL. MARKED PEOPLE AND MARKED PLACES WILL SUDDENLY COME INTO THE SPOTLIGHT!" And as I hear those Words, Marked people and Marked Places, I see a Divine Distinction being made. For some are being marked for Shaking and Uprooting while others are being marked for Planting, Building, Restoration, and Multiplication. And I see again a Simultaneous Move of the Spirit: Judgment and Multiplication, Jubilee and Justice, Uprooting and Planting, Pulling Down and Building, Reckoning and Repositioning, Recompense, Restitution and Restoration.

The Winds of the Mighty Whirlwind of the Spirit are blowing; the Books have been opened; the Records are speaking; the Accounts are being reconciled; the works of men's hands are being shaken; the Resources are being repositioned; the Seed is falling; and I see Oaks of Righteousness arising. And I hear the Spirit say again, "WATCH! FOR MANY MORE WILL FALL IN THE FALL. MARKED PEOPLE AND MARKED PLACES. I SAY, WIND-FALL IS HERE!"

Tishrei 2, 5787: Sunday-September 13, 2026

NATE & CHRISTY

WORD FOR SEPTEMBER – THIS IS YOUR CROSSOVER MONTH

September is going to be a game-changer month for so many people. It's a month God is bringing a FINALITY AND COMPLETION to an old chapter as we LEAN IN to Him. It's a SURRENDER month. It's a SEEK THE LORD, SET-APART month; a month to be INTENTIONAL about HIS ACTIVITY and what is on HIS heart and a month to be wary of DISTRACTIONS, DRAMA, FIRES, and people's messes trying to rob you of peace.

It's an UNTETHER & REFOCUS month. In this transition and threshold process there has been such a war, a battle and witnessing the old fabric tearing away from the new which is why September is a DECISION month, and a month to either lean in or stay in the old flow; a month to lay down everything or stay stuck and cluttered. Right now, God is breaking off old mantles. He's stripping you of everything you wore in the wilderness and everything you wore in Egypt.

He's removing the deep grief that comes with that raw process.

I believe September is a month that is a point of no return, a crossover, a line in the sand. God is leading us somewhere in September that we've never been before, and we can't go on in our own strength. God wants to put a fresh anointing and spirit upon you and set you free from your days of Egypt.

So, if you're tired and weary right now, let's be real about it. That old wineskin is heavy. That old yoke is heavy. That old jacket is heavy. You're wearing all of those things from Egypt. The attack you've been through, the warfare, the slander, the witchcraft that's been against you, it's heavy.

The Lord is saying,

"This is going to be a month I roll away the reproach of Egypt, and I'll shift that battle for you. You're coming out of Egypt in your head and in your circumstances; I'm bringing you out."

THIS SEPTEMBER, MAN'S STRENGTH, MAN'S EFFORTS END!

Just as Moses means "rescued from the water" - he was a rescuer for a people UNTIL A CERTAIN POINT, then, JOSHUA (God saves) had to be the one to lead God's people into the promised land.

The Lord is saying over your September:

"You have done much in your own strength to rescue yourself and fight, BUT FROM HERE ON OUT, I must be your EVERYTHING. This is a season that I, God, must deliver you, not man."

In September, God is dealing with the demonic assignments that have been after you. He is dealing with the Pharaohs that have been pursuing you as you've been pursuing freedom with the Lord. He is dealing with the Jezebelic assignments that have been warring against your voice for so long. It's been tiresome; it's been wearying.

The Lord is saying, "This is going to be a month that I bring to finality the assignment Egypt has had against you."

It has felt like Egypt has had a claim on you, but that claim is ending this month.

In John 14:30, Yeshua said "the ruler of this world is coming but he has nothing in Me."

This is a season that God is dealing with the Egypt in us. He's dealing with the areas of commonality, the areas where we believe the lies of the enemy, so it has access to us.

This month God is dealing with the slander that's been at your door. He's dealing with the pursuers, the hunters. The enemy is trying to stir up bands of people against you. Right now, God is rolling back the reproach of Egypt. You don't need to worry about them. Let them bark. Let them have their moment.

He's setting your foot loose from the snare. He's bringing you up higher above the things that have been a thorn in your flesh.

I keep seeing people in cycles, having to go back to specific problems, court cases, battles, financial situations, and God is saying, "I'm bringing it to finality right now." The enemy has been trying to keep that in a continual loop; God's breaking it right now, in the name of Yeshua

THE NEW DOOR IS THE FLOOR

September is going to be a month of doors - doors opening and doors shutting, but here's what you need to know: the new door is the floor. It's not going to look the way you think. God is looking for people who would surrender to Him in this season, people who would lay down to receive what He's wanting to pour out.

"After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, 'Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.'"
(Revelation 4:1)

There are things you're carrying, things you're doing right now, and the Lord is saying, "In September, will you give them to Me?" It might not always be laying down or dying to everything, but there are going to be some things you'll feel in your heart the Lord wants you to give Him.

God is after that surrendered heart posture in September. What are the things you're doing right now that He wants you to take back into the secret place and lay down?

Pray this: Lord, are You on this? Are You on this friendship? Are You on this alignment? Otherwise, I don't want it.

A MONTH OF RETURNING

"Therefore, I am now going to allure her; I will lead her into the wilderness and speak tenderly to her. I will make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. There she will respond as in the days of her youth, as in the day she came up out of Egypt " (Hosea 2:14-15)

God is setting you free from Egypt, and He's giving you back your song. It's an hour of returning to the original calling, the original cry, before Egypt came into the mix, before the warfare, before Jezebel started trying to taint you and own you and flatter you and rob you of your passion and fire, before those people came and surrounded you and stifled your calling, before you faced endless betrayals, before your health came under attack.

In September, God is bringing you back to the place where your fresh cry comes out of you again, the fresh song, the fresh voice, the fresh flow, the fresh utterance. God is giving it back. But it's a month of returning to the feet of Yeshua, where everything else gets cut away.

Just as a heads up: in September, you're going to feel the Lord cutting strings. You'll feel both freedom and lightness, but also a sense that there are certain things you've gotten used to being attached to. There's been co-dependency, and God's breaking those co-dependencies right now. The very thing you're needing freedom from is those areas of codependency.

A MONTH OF NEW WINE BEGINNING TO FLOW

It's going to be a month of invitation into the new wine, because the old wine has run out. The old vision has run out. Have you sensed there's an old anointing on your life that's just running out? Something's not working like it used to?

There are a lot of people who feel like damaged goods right now because you have been like the old wineskin.

BURST

You've been through the fire, through the wilderness, through difficult circumstances, and you're wanting God to rebuild you, to put a fresh spirit on you. But you feel like, "I don't know if my hour has come. I know the old has run out, but am I ready? God, have You made a mistake with me?"

This is an invitation to step into the new wine. It's an invitation to step into the finished work of the cross. The very fact that you feel at the end of yourself means you're ready, because God wants you to get to the end of you.

When the new wine begins to flow, it's going to confront everything that is old wine in our lives. It's going to look topsy-turvy, back to front, counterproductive, because the old system was a system of hustle. It was a system of man's strength, and God is breaking the back of man in this hour.

REAWAKENING AND REBIRTH

September is a month of reawakening and rebirth. I heard the Lord say,

"As you lay down in September, I will rebirth you."

Rosh Hashanah is on the sunset of Friday, September 11th, and the Lord is saying,

"Come back under the shelter of the Almighty. Come back under My wings, under My protection, into that place of intimacy with Me."

Rosh Hashanah is a spiritual threshold. It's the day of the awakening blast. It also opens up the ten days of awe, a season of repentance and returning.

It's going to be a month where God speaks clearly into your life again - a month of fresh revelation, dreams, visions, God giving you clear vision where you've had none.

So many people have run aground, run dry. There are ministries and movements that don't know where they're going anymore. And the Lord is saying,

"In the month of September, if you incline your ear to Me, if you lay down your old things and come back to a place of intimacy, if you make September all about intimacy with God, I will give you the vision you need for the days to come. I'll re-mantle you."

"Whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life "
(John 4:14)

"It'll be a John 4 moment, where you no longer bring water up from that old well of man, the old well of your forefathers, but you tap back into the well of My Spirit, fresh life bubbling forth on the inside of you. Rivers of living water begin to flow from your life again. Where the rivers have been stopped up, fresh waters will flow again."

REALIGNMENT & DIVINE ORDER

It's going to be a month of realignment. God is recorrecting what has been off track. He's bringing you back into divine order. Yom Kippur, the day of atonement, comes up September 20th to 21st.

The biggest travesty of this season is that in all the noise on social media, the noise of the old order, it's brought us out of alignment with God's heart. People are prophesying out of alignment with God's heart, speaking out of alignment with God's heart. And God is bringing you back into realignment.

The discomfort you're feeling right now is God bringing you back into divine order. Everything is out of order and out of alignment in your life, and God is reordering it. That reordering is painful because He's literally recorrecting. But the good news is, in the recorrecting, there is a deliverance that takes place.

I keep hearing the song, "I'm coming back to the heart of worship, because it's all about You, it's all about You, Yeshua. I'm sorry Lord for the thing I've made it when it's all about You. It's all about You, Yeshua."

This is the sound of the month – COMING BACK to intimacy and shedding off all the STUFF that has been cluttering us.

THE MONTH OF THE SWORD OF THE LORD

September is going to be the beginning of the sword of the Lord Season.

"And I myself will be a wall of fire around it,' declares the Lord, 'and I will be its glory within.'" (Zechariah 2:5)

This is the season that God is separating you unto Himself. There's going to be a jealousy of the Lord that you begin to feel over your life. You'll feel waves of His presence and glory, and an invitation to come into fresh encounter with Him.

He's going to break off all access. He's going to be a sword around you. This is the season He's not only defending you, but separating you unto Himself. You're going to feel the Lord warring for you and jealous for you, not wanting you always stuck in those places where you're constantly fighting and battling.

God is sealing off all access and proximity to every lying spirit, every Jezebel spirit, every spirit that's been trying to access you. He's shutting off all access and separating you unto Himself in the month of September.

There's going to be such a work of deep deliverance. I believe people are going to be set free and healed in their body in September. You're going to see the Lord work in power and move in power in your life.

Whatever it is you're facing in September, ask the Lord right now: Come and invite me, Lord. I invite You into my September. I give You my September. I don't want to just go through the motions.

THE RENDING OF HEARTS

It's going to be a month of rebranding your heart. God's going to burn in you again, and you're going to feel your heart burning again.

“Come out of her, my people,’ so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues.” (Revelation 18:4)

And a month of rending hearts;

“Even now,’ declares the Lord, ‘return to me with all your heart, with fasting and weeping and mourning.’ Rend your heart and not your garments. Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love, and he relents from sending calamity.” (Joel 2:12-13)

Tishrei 3, 5787: Monday-September 14, 2026
Nate Johnston: part two

September will be an altar month, a threshing floor month to invite the fire to burn away what doesn't belong and for hearts to be branded fresh!

BIRTHING OF THE NEW WAY

I heard the Lord say:

"You forgot something. Tell them September is the birthing of the new way where my people will walk in the new way, My people walking in the new path, the narrow road again. I'm leading you out from the freeway back to the narrow road with Me, the pilgrimage to My heart.

"I'm leading My people back to that place- the pure place, the honest place. It won't be the main highway of comfortable Christianity. It won't be the lights, the show, the cameras. It's going to be the place where those lowly in spirit and meek in heart will follow Me into greater depths of intimacy, where I'll instruct their life and rebuild them from the ruins of religion. I'm leading My church back into the way. Will you walk in the new way?"

That's the invitation. That's the decision many people are going to come to in September.

"Many are in the valley of decision," says the Lord over September. "Will you be separated unto Me again?"

"My real remnant are rising up in September," says the Lord, "that have not kissed the lips of Baal. I'm raising up an army. I'm raising up My disciples, My followers who would walk in the way, who would model the way. It's going to be a month of commissioning into something that looks very different to anything you've ever known."

NOW HERE'S THE KEY

"The Lord came and stood there, calling as at the other times, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Then Samuel said, 'Speak, for your servant is listening.'" (1 Samuel 3:10)

That's the key right now. In September, simply ask: Speak, for Your servant is listening.

If you lay down in September, if you surrender, if you let Him do what He needs to do, September is going to feel like a hospital ward month. It won't feel like it, but the Lord will be working, extracting, healing, fighting on your behalf. As you lay down, He fights and wars for you. As you surrender the old wine, the old rags, those old things, God picks you up and sets your feet upon a rock and opens a new door for you to walk in. He rolls back the reproach of Egypt, and He deals with all your enemies.

People of God, cry out to Him right now: Lord God, I'm listening. Instruct me. Give me the dreams, give me the visions.

He will instruct you, and He will set your foot loose from the enemy in this season.

Even globally, what we're going to see in September is going to be like birth pangs in the earth, where God is revealing sons and daughters who will lay down everything. Only those led by the Spirit of God are the sons and daughters of God. Only those listening to the Holy Spirit will know what God is doing. You're going to discern the birth pangs, because the birth pangs are happening in you.

Get ready, people of God. I prophesy this in the mighty name of Yeshua, that God is dealing with Egypt, and it's a crossover month. It's September. It's time to step out from that old thing.

Say it: I'm crossing over. God's dealing with my Egypt. I'm crossing over the Red Sea, the sea of the blood of the Lamb, because it's the blood that speaks a better word that leads you out.

Tishrei 4, 5787: Tuesday-September 15, 2026

reMarkable

Veronika West
"RE-MARK-ABLE" MIRACLES!

On Friday evening, 08/28/2026, I went to a Ministry Meeting, and on arriving at this very Old Church where the Meeting was taking place, the moment I walked into the Room, I heard the Voice of the Lord Speak. And His Voice came with such Power and Authority; I could feel the Weight of His Glory upon every Word. There was a Divine Determination in His Voice, an Intentionality and an Urgency, and I could feel a Righteous Indignation burning against the lies, the works, and the robbery of the Enemy.

And I heard Him say, "YOU HAVE ENTERED INTO A TIME OF REMARKABLE MIRACLES!" And as I heard those Words, almost immediately, the Word "REMARKABLE" hit my Spirit. And throughout the Meeting, I was led to Pray and Release those Words over the Body of Christ as we Gathered.

On my Return Home

Though it was late, I was led by the Lord to look at the Meaning of the word, REMARKABLE! Google Says: Remarkable; speaks of something extraordinary, exceptional, unusual, something worthy of being noticed and spoken about. As I read the meaning, suddenly, the Holy Spirit began to highlight certain parts of the Word itself to me.

"RE-MARK-ABLE" And first, the "RE" was highlighted. Interestingly, the prefix "RE" carries the meaning of "AGAIN, ANEW, and "BACK," speaking of something being done again, brought back or returned to a former state. And immediately, I began to hear, "DIVINE RESTORATION, REDEMPTION, RECOVERY, RENEWAL, REVIVAL, RECOMPENSE, RECONCILIATION, and REVERSALS! And then I heard, "WATCH! FOR THESE WILL BE DAYS WHERE REDEPTIVE AND RESTORATIVE MIRACLES WILL BE SEEN AND HEARD. EVEN THE MOUTHS OF THE UNGODLY MEDIA WILL BE FORCED TO DECLARE THEM. I SAY WATCH, FOR IN THE MIDST OF THE GREATER SHAKINGS OF THE NATIONS, REMARKABLE MIRACLES OF DIVINE INTERVENTION AND PRESERVATION WILL MAKE HEADLINE NEWS. WATCH! FOR GROUNDBREAKING AND RECREATIVE MIRACLES THAT WILL BRING ABOUT DIVINE REVERSALS THAT WILL CONFOUND THE MINDS OF THE MEDICAL AND SCIENTIFIC WORLD!"

Then I heard, "Those Things that looked Irreversible will suddenly be REVERSED. Those Things that looked beyond Recovery will suddenly be RESTORED. Those Things that looked Lost will Suddenly be REDEEMED AND RECOVERED, and Those Things that have been Delayed and held back will suddenly begin to move again. I SAY, AGAIN, ANEW, and BACK!" Then suddenly, the word "MARK" was highlighted to me. And I heard, "YES! MARKED MIRACLES!" Miracles that will carry the unmistakable "MARK OF GOD" upon them. Miracles that cannot be attributed to Human Strength, Human Wisdom, Human Intervention or coincidence. These will be Miracles

"MARKED BY HIS HAND," Miracles that will cause many to SEE/LOOK and KNOW that THIS WAS THE LORD'S DOING! Then the Word "ABLE" was highlighted, and immediately, I heard the Spirit say, "MIRACLES THAT ONLY GOD IS 'ABLE' TO PERFORM!" As in Ephesians 3:20, "Now unto him that is ABLE to do Exceeding-Abundantly Above All that we Ask or Think!"

But then I saw yet another dimension to "ABLE" These would not only be Miracles that would demonstrate what GOD IS ABLE TO DO, but Miracles that would release a Supernatural Impartation of ENABLING POWER upon His People; Power that would ENABLE them to do what they could not do before: to go where they could not go before, and to Accomplish that which was impossible in their own Strength or Ability. And I saw His People becoming yielded Vessels through whom God would demonstrate His Power in Signs, Wonders and Miracles, bringing forth a SUPERNATURAL MULTIPLICATION OF MIRACLES! And again, I heard the Spirit whisper,

"WATCH! FOR YOU HAVE ENTERED INTO A TIME OF RE-MARK-ABLE MIRACLES!"

RE: AGAIN, ANEW, BACK - Miracles of Divine Redemption, Restoration, Recovery, Renewal, and Divine Reversal are Here. MARK: Miracles carrying the unmistakable Mark and Hand of God. ABLE: Miracles that only God is Able to perform, and Miracles that will release His Supernatural Enabling Power.

"WATCH! FOR YOU HAVE ENTERED INTO A TIME OF REMARKABLE MIRACLES TO THE GLORY OF GOD WHO IS ABLE!"

Tishrei 5, 5787: Wednesday-September 16, 2026

Lana Vawser: I HEARD THE LORD SAY 'SEPTEMBER REFRESHING'

Recently I heard the Lord say, 'SEPTEMBER REFRESHING.' As I leaned into the Lord and listened to His heart, I heard:

'My people, I am calling you deeper into My heart. I am calling you into deeper places of consecration unto Me. I am calling you into deeper places of intimacy with Me. I say unto you that there shall be a GREATER SURRENDER IN SEPTEMBER. I am calling you into deeper places of consecration, and I am calling you into deeper places of surrender unto Me and My ways.

'For I say unto you, I am posturing you in September – as you seek Me and My ways, as you humble yourselves before Me – for times of greater refreshing. I say unto you, I am bringing you into deeper places of saturation in My Spirit and coming deeper into the places of refreshment in My presence that will continue to strengthen you, restore you and posture you for the greater things that I have for you.

'For I say unto you, September is a time that I am calling you to come away with Me in greater ways. I am calling you deeper into My Word. I am calling you deeper into the places of consecration. I say unto you, that as you seek Me, you shall find Me (Jer 29:13). And I say unto you, that as you posture yourselves before Me – coming before Me in humility and quietness to reflect upon My beauty and My Majesty – My Spirit is awakening you in greater ways to the truth that in My presence there is FULLNESS of joy. (Ps 16:11)

'As you follow My leading and as you follow My ways, in these days, you shall see My mighty hand bring you into a time of great refreshing in the month of September. I say unto you that I will bring you into a greater place of rest, I will bring you into a greater place of peace, and I will bring you into a greater place of understanding through the revelation that I will give to you.

'I say unto you, that I am going to open wide in greater ways My perspective and My landscape for the new day that is upon you. I shall speak to you, and there shall be great transformation, and much of what you have been carrying for so long will be suddenly wiped away and broken off as My Word comes forth into your lives.

'I say unto you, be wary to not rush in September, but September will be a month to embrace STILLNESS in an even greater way before Me. For I am posturing you and positioning you in ways you do not yet even see for that which I have planned for you.

'There shall be great shifts that will take place in September THROUGH YOUR SURRENDER. I say unto you, incline your ear to Me and listen to My voice, for I am leading you by My Spirit into greater places of strength, clarity, insight and revelation as you seek Me. There will be an even deeper letting go, turning away from and repentance that will come forth in September which will position you in ways you have not seen, for a mighty move of My Spirit that is upon you. For I say unto you, do not run from the deeper pruning. Do not shy away from the call into the deeper place of surrender, for I say unto you, I am bringing forth life, fruitfulness and a greater move of the power of My Spirit than you have seen. For I have been deeply delivering you from the effects of yesterday, and I say unto you, that I am bringing you into days of greater strength in September - Strength in Me. I am bringing forth a mighty turning in your midst, and I have been working deeply. I say unto you, be expectant and watch for the SUDDEN SHIFTS in September in greater ways than you have seen. For I have been building, I have been moving, and I AM making a way where there seems to be no way.

'I AM posturing you for a mighty awakening unlike anything you have ever seen. I am dealing with the things that have hindered your adoration and devotion unto Me, and I am delivering you from the things that have hindered your faith. And I say unto you, that as you follow My leading in September and walk in MY WAYS, I say unto you, that you shall know and see great STRENGTH, SHIFT and REFRESHING in September in greater ways than you have seen before.

'I say unto you, that you shall see a culmination of My mighty works in September in greater ways. You shall see much of what I have been doing and what I have been preparing, SUDDENLY come together. I say unto you, that where you have had lack of understanding of what I have been doing and you have felt in the throes of transition, watch things come together in September in a greater way that reveals MY pathway; Watch in September as you come before Me, the joy and gladness that shall increase in your hearts as you look to Me. Watch how the move of My mighty hand and power, in September, increase life within you, restore your breath and your strength where many of you have felt like you have been in battles for so long. Rivers of refreshing shall wash over you, and for many of you, your hearts shall continue to come to life again.

'I say unto you, APPREHEND AND EXTEND. APPREHEND AND EXTEND. For as you come to Me with humility and seek Me, watch how I will come. Watch how My Spirit will brood heavily upon you. Watch the weight of My Spirit and My Glory rest as you seek Me in humility and purity of heart, and you shall see an even greater manifestation of apprehending and extending take place within your midst, a greater manifestation of apprehending that which I am speaking and have promised and a greater extending into the life, plans, purposes and increase that I have for you in this hour.

'As you come away with Me and seek Me with your whole heart in September; as you seek Me and worship Me in Spirit and in truth, I say unto you, September shall be a month to remember, because of how I will meet you and what I will do. My precious people, I am FORTIFYING YOU in even deeper ways. In the returning, you will find rest. In the seeking, you will find Watch how I will cause you to come forth in ways you have not even imagined, as you step forth into some of the greatest monumental shifts that are happening in the spiritual realm in September - shifts that will bring even greater closure to much of what you have walked, endured, battled and experienced that has deeply wearied you – and the places where you have felt like you have died in many ways will SUDDENLY come alive.

'There has been death to self, death to your flesh and death to your ways that I have been leading you through; and in the deep places of death to self, you are coming alive in a divine rebirth by the power of MY HAND. Where the enemy has stolen, killed and destroyed, I say unto you, PROPHECY what I am speaking, and watch things COME ALIVE. This is the season of a greater demonstration of My resurrection power in your midst.

'I say unto you, that there shall be a greater demonstration of things COMING TOGETHER in September, for many, as you obey My way. Watch how what looks scattered in the natural, suddenly comes together by the power of My mighty hand. What you have known as great disorientation and chaos, I am DELIVERING YOU; and you shall see greater demonstrations of things in the natural realm that have stood in opposition to what I have spoken and where things have been out of alignment, suddenly come together.

'Watch for an even greater demonstration of a COMING TOGETHER. But, My people, September is a month to SPEAK. You must SPEAK OUT MY WORD and DECLARE what I am speaking in greater ways in September. For I say unto you, there will be a greater demonstration of the power of DECLARATION and FAITH – to speak that which I am calling you to speak – that will see My Spirit break through and make a way. I am STRENGTHENING YOU in your declaring.

'In September, there will be an even greater conviction of My Spirit to come upon lips where you have given your words to words of the flesh and words of death. As you come to Me in repentance, I shall cleanse your lips, and I shall again teach you in a greater way the importance of SPEAKING only that which I am speaking. And you shall be awed by the power of My Spirit that shall manifest in obedience to declaring that which I AM SPEAKING. As you seek Me with greater pursuit and wholehearted devotion, September to November will be months to remember in the ways I bring forth a greater awakening and posturing of My people for what is to come.'

Tishrei 6, 5787: Thursday-September 17, 2026

Yvon Attia: The Mystery of the Fig
A Season of Abundant Fruit Is Upon You!

Toward the end of August and the beginning of September, figs become widely available in Egypt. September falls within the season when figs are reaching their mature harvest, and while we were there, the figs were incredibly sweet, soft, and ripe. One day as we were eating them, I opened one, and instead of immediately eating it, I stopped and took the time to look carefully inside. I was fascinated by what I saw.

What appeared from the outside to be one simple fruit contained something extraordinary within it. The inside of the fig looked like an entire secluded garden filled with tiny flowers that had been growing completely hidden from sight. There was an entire world inside that fig that could not be seen from the outside. It was like a hidden garden that had developed in secret and was in its full maturity.

As I sat there, looking inside the fig and admiring it, my son asked me a question. He said, "Mom, do you know how figs are created?"

I said, "No, I don't."

He then began explaining to me the fascinating relationship between certain figs and the tiny fig wasp. He explained how the wasp carries pollen into the fig and spreads it among the flowers hidden inside, enabling them to become fruitful and produce seeds. As he spoke, something began burning in my heart, and I knew the Holy Spirit was speaking.

I looked at him in shock and said, "What? So, am I eating a dead wasp?"

He laughed and said, "No, Mom!"

But after that conversation, I could not shake what I had heard. I sensed there was something hidden within this extraordinary process that God wanted to reveal.

About a week later, my husband Mina and I were driving in the car and praying concerning the prophetic word for September. As we prayed, I looked at the car directly in front of us, and there it was, the word "FIG" on a license plate, followed by a number.

Immediately, something came alive in my spirit. I knew the Lord was drawing my attention back to the conversation I had in Egypt. I knew God wanted to speak through the fig, but I also sensed He wanted to reveal something different from what I had understood about the fig in previous seasons. So, I decided to study what actually happens between the fig and the fig wasp, and what I discovered was extraordinary.

What God Was Developing Secretly Is About to Become Visible

In certain species of figs, a tiny female fig wasp comes to the fig carrying pollen. She finds a small opening at the bottom and squeezes herself inside. The entrance is so narrow that as she pushes through it, her wings and antennae can become damaged or torn away. Once she has entered, she will never fly out again. She has entered a place from which she cannot return the same way she came. Yet what she discovers inside is remarkable.

Hidden within that one fig are numerous tiny flowers. Unlike many other flowers that blossom openly where everyone can see them, the flowers of the fig grow inwardly, completely concealed within its structure. The wasp moves among these hidden flowers carrying pollen, and through this remarkable process, pollination takes place, and seeds begin developing. Eventually, the mother wasp dies inside, while the biological process continues, and the fig matures.

What struck me prophetically was the picture. From the outside, you see one small fig, but hidden inside is an entire world of fruitfulness. Something was happening where nobody could see it. Something was developing in secret. Something was growing in the darkness. Something was quietly moving toward maturity. What looked simple externally contained an entire hidden garden internally. And I believe this is one of the messages God is speaking concerning September: what I was developing secretly is about to become visible.

A Picture of Discernment

Throughout Scripture, the fig tree carries powerful imagery. One of its most significant meanings is connected with recognizing seasons. Jesus said, "Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near" (Matthew 24:32 TLV). Jesus used the fig tree as a picture for discernment: Look at the tree, observe what is developing, recognize what is appearing, and discern the season you have entered. The fig tree announces that something has changed.

The fig also appears very early in the Biblical story of humanity. After Adam and Eve sinned and became conscious of their nakedness, Genesis 3:7 tells us that they sewed fig leaves together to cover themselves. The fig is therefore the first specific fruit-bearing plant identified by name in the story of humanity after the fall. Its leaves appear in Scripture at the very moment humanity became conscious of its nakedness and its need for covering. From the earliest chapters of Scripture, the fig appeared at a significant moment of transition in humanity's story. (Photo via Unsplash)

Song of Songs gives us another beautiful picture of the fig tree. This time it is connected with an appointed season of fruitfulness: "Look, the winter is past, and the rains are over and gone. The flowers are springing up, the season of singing birds has come, and the cooing of turtledoves fills the air. The fig trees are forming young fruit, and the fragrant grapevines are blossoming. Rise up, my darling! Come away with me, my fair one!" (Song of Songs 2:11–13 NLT).

There is an appointed time when winter ends. There is an appointed time when the rain passes. And there is an appointed time when what has been developing begins to produce fruit. The appearance of the fig announces that the season has changed. Micah also connects the fig tree with restoration, security, and peace: "Everyone will live in peace and prosperity, enjoying their own grapevines and fig trees, for there will be nothing to fear. The Lord of Heaven's Armies has made this promise!" (Micah 4:4 NLT). Again and again, Scripture uses the fig tree to speak about seasons, fruitfulness, restoration, security, and what God is bringing into maturity.

Reaching the Point of No Return

As I continued praying about September, my attention was not simply drawn to the fig itself. I felt the Lord drawing my attention specifically to the journey of the wasp. The first thing that struck me was that the wasp loses her wings. She enters a place from which she will never return the same way she came. The wings represent the means by which you carried yourself through the previous season—your ability, your independence, your familiar methods, your control, and the things you relied upon to get where you were going. The extraordinary part is that the wasp needed her wings to get to the fig, but once she entered the fig, she no longer needed them for what she was there to accomplish.

Your wings could represent your own strength—your ability to make things happen, solve problems, open doors, and keep yourself moving. They could represent control—your need to know where you are going, how you are getting there, and what happens next. They could represent old methods—something God genuinely used in a previous season but is not the method for the next one. They could even represent security. Wings give the wasp mobility. If something becomes dangerous, she can fly away. But once she enters the fig and loses those wings, there is no flying back to where she came from.

There is something incredibly powerful about this kind of surrender: you cannot fly out of this one. There are seasons when God allows us to keep options open, but there are other moments when following Him requires us to say, "Lord, even if there is no way back, I am Yours." There comes a place in our journey with God where surrender means we are no longer maintaining an escape route. We are no longer following Him while secretly keeping the old life available in case the new one becomes difficult. We have crossed the threshold. We have reached the point of no return.

What Brought You Here Cannot Always Take You There

This immediately reminded me of Elisha. When Elijah called him, Elisha did not simply leave his oxen somewhere in case ministry did not work out. 1 Kings 19:19–21 tells us that after Elijah threw his cloak across Elisha's shoulders, Elisha returned to his oxen, slaughtered them, and used the wood from the plowing equipment to build the fire which he used to cook their flesh. Then he gave the meat to the people and followed Elijah. His old means of livelihood became the sacrifice announcing, "I am not planning my escape route." He destroyed the very equipment that could have carried him back into his former life. There was no plan B. There was no secret exit. There was no going back.

Sometimes, losing your wings is not evidence that you are losing your future. Sometimes, losing your wings is an indication that you are entering a new season. What brought you here cannot always take you there. There may be things that served you faithfully in one season—methods, relationships, positions, expectations, opportunities, and even ways you thought God had to move—but they may not be able to enter the next season with you. September can represent the narrow entrance into something new. You may be looking at what you lost, while God is looking at what you have entered. Perhaps the wings were never meant to function inside the place to which they carried you.

Something else about the wasp fascinated me. The wasp carries pollen from where she has been. She does not enter the fig empty. She carries something from her previous environment into the place of her next assignment. As she moves among the tiny flowers hidden inside the fig, she transfers the pollen she carries, allowing fertilization to take place and seeds to begin developing within the flowers.

Prophetically, I believe this gives us a beautiful picture of what Christ deposits within us through our union with Him. You did not come out of your previous season empty. You may have come out tired. You may have come out wounded. You may have lost some wings along the journey. You may have lost things you thought you needed for your future, but you did not come out empty. God deposited something inside you.

You thought the previous season was only about what happened to you, but God was putting something in you that you would carry into your next assignment. Every encounter with Him, every revelation He gave you, every prayer prayed through tears, every lesson learned in the wilderness, every battle through which you discovered His faithfulness, every moment when you chose obedience over comfort, and every season when you continued walking despite not understanding what He was doing deposited something within you. You are carrying something from where you have been.

This Fruitfulness Will Not End with You

What you carry is about to touch things that have been hidden. There are gifts inside you that have not yet reached their full expression. There are dreams that have remained concealed. There are promises that seemed dormant. There are callings you have carried quietly for years. There are things God planted so deeply inside you that perhaps even you forgot they were there. But when what God has deposited in you touches what God has planted in you, something begins to awaken. The hidden flowers begin to become fruitful. Seeds begin to develop. Life begins to multiply.

And because seeds carry the potential for multiplication, this fruitfulness will not end with you. God is not simply producing something for your enjoyment. He is producing something through your life that will carry life into others. What began as hidden fruitfulness will become generational multiplication. One seed carries the potential for another tree, another harvest and another generation of fruit. What God was doing secretly within you may ultimately affect people you have never met and places you have never imagined.

Much of this happens where nobody can see it. That is one of the great mysteries of the fig. Its flowers are hidden inside. Before mature fruit becomes visible externally, an entire reproductive process was happening internally. What appears suddenly was actually developing secretly. That concept connects beautifully with Song of Songs 2:13: "The fig trees are forming young fruit" (NLT). Before others recognize the harvest, God was already watching the fruit form.

I believe the Lord is saying, "What I was developing secretly is about to become visible."

Sometimes Death Is Part of the Pathway into Greater Fruitfulness

Then comes perhaps the most dramatic part of this illustration: the mother wasp eventually dies inside the fig. There is something striking about death and fruitfulness existing within the same process. Something dies while something else is being brought into maturity. Immediately, I thought about the words of Jesus in John 12:24: "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit" (NASB1995). The Kingdom repeatedly confronts us with this mystery: death is not always the opposite of fruitfulness. Sometimes death is part of the pathway into greater fruitfulness.

Perhaps something had to die in your previous season? Maybe it was an ambition, an old identity, your own timetable, an expectation, a relationship with the past, your need to control the outcome, or simply the picture you carried of how you thought everything was supposed to happen. You may have mourned it, because you interpreted its death as evidence that something had gone wrong. But what if something was dying because something greater was becoming fruitful? What if what looked like an ending was taking place inside the very environment where God was forming your next harvest?

Do not mistake what died for what God is producing. The death of one thing does not mean the death of everything. Sometimes, what looks like an ending is happening inside the very place where fruit is forming. Something can be dying while something else is multiplying. Something can be ending while something else is reaching maturity. What you called loss may have been part of a much greater process that you could not yet see.

When the Sacrifice Disappears into the Fruit

Perhaps this is one of the greatest mysteries of the fig: When the fig finally reaches maturity, your attention is no longer drawn to the wasp. You see the beautiful fruit. You see sweetness. You see abundance. You see what looks like an entire hidden garden that has finally reached its appointed time. The sacrifice disappears into the testimony. The surrender disappears into the fruit. The narrow entrance becomes part of the story, but it is no longer the focus of the story. What remains is fruitfulness.

This reminded me immediately of the language of Song of Songs: "You are my private garden, my treasure, my bride, a secluded spring, a hidden fountain" (Song of Solomon 4:12 NLT). There is a garden inside you that God Himself has been tending. It has been private. It has been secluded. It has been hidden from the eyes of people. Some looked at you from the outside and could not understand what God was doing, because they could not see the garden. They could not see the flowers. They could not see the seeds. They could not see what was developing beneath the surface, but God could. He saw every flower. He saw every seed. He saw every hidden place. He saw every surrender. He saw every tear. He saw every moment when you continued believing despite having no visible evidence. He saw every moment when you thought nothing was happening. Heaven was watching an entire garden coming alive inside you.

Then comes the invitation: "Awake, north wind! Rise up, south wind! Blow on my garden and spread its fragrance all around. Come into your garden, my love; taste its finest fruits" (Song of Songs 4:16 NLT). The garden that was once secluded begins to release fragrance. What was private begins to affect the atmosphere around it. What was hidden begins to be experienced by others. And then the Bridegroom declares, "I have entered my garden, my treasure, my bride!" (Song of Songs 5:1 NLT). This is not simply fruitfulness for the sake of success. This is the fruitfulness of intimacy. This is what happens when a life belongs completely to Him.

You Are Entering a Season of Mature Fruit

I believe September carries this prophetic picture: you are in a season of mature fruit. You have passed through the narrow place. You have surrendered things that could not enter the next season with you. Some of your wings were lost along the journey, and at times you wondered how you would ever move forward without the things that once carried you. But perhaps you did not lose your wings because your assignment was over. Perhaps you lost them because you had arrived at the place they were designed to bring you. (Photo via Unsplash)

You do not need your old wings for your new assignment. You carried something from the previous season that you did not fully recognize. God deposited revelation, wisdom, endurance, faith, compassion, and authority inside you. Now what you carry is touching the hidden flowers. Gifts are awakening. Dreams are awakening. Promises are awakening. Callings are awakening. Seeds are forming. What seemed dormant is becoming fruitful. What seemed buried is coming alive.

Do not despise the hidden years. Do not despise the narrow entrance. Do not despise what had to die. And do not keep looking backward for the wings you lost. You are not going back. The wings were necessary to bring you here, but they are not necessary for what God is about to accomplish through you here.

The Lord is saying, "Look again at the fig tree." The winter does not last forever. The rain does not continue forever. There comes an appointed moment when the fig tree announces that the season has changed. What was hidden begins to appear. What was developing begins to mature. What seemed delayed reaches its appointed time.

I believe September will be a month of mature fruit. You have passed through the narrow place. You have surrendered what could not enter the next season with you. What God deposited within you during the previous season was working where nobody could see it. Do not mistake what died for what God is producing. Look again at the fig tree. The hidden work is becoming visible. The fruit is reaching maturity. You are entering the season for which you have been prepared.

What appeared to be loss was surrender. What appeared to be burial was preparation. What appeared to be hidden was development. What appeared to be death was making room for fruitfulness. And what appeared from the outside to be one small fig was carrying an entire hidden garden within it.

Your hidden garden is coming into maturity. The season of hiding was not the absence of fruit; it was the development of fruit. The season of surrender was not the destruction of your purpose; it was preparing you to fulfill it. The loss of your wings was not the end of your journey; it was evidence that you had entered the place for which the journey had prepared you.

The fragrance of the garden is beginning to rise. The hidden flowers are becoming fruitful. The seeds are multiplying. The fruit is becoming sweet. The winter has passed. The season has changed. What God planted in secret is coming into maturity, and what He developed where nobody could see is beginning to produce fruit that others will taste.

September has come, and the hidden garden is coming into full maturity.

September Prophetic Word: Your Season of Abundant Fruit Is Upon You

The Lord says, "You are crossing into a season of extraordinary fruitfulness, where the gifts I planted deep within you will awaken, flourish, and come into full expression. What I placed inside of you long ago will no longer remain hidden. The purpose for which you were born will be fulfilled.

"This will be a season of resurrection. My resurrection power will breathe upon the places that appeared dead, and the fragrance of My love will sweep through your garden. What looked buried will rise. What appeared dormant will awaken. What seemed barren will suddenly blossom. You will flourish. You will blossom. And fruit will appear in abundance—all at once.

"For I have watched your journey of love for Me. I watched when the enemy came against your wings. I watched when the old means by which you lived were stripped away. I watched the battles against your health, your strength, and the things that once carried you. Yet through it all, you never stopped loving Me. You did not turn back. You did not abandon Me. Instead, you cried out for more of Me. (Photo via Unsplash)

"You continued moving forward until you reached the place of no return—the place where you knew there was nothing behind you worth returning to, because I had become everything before you. Like the wasp that enters the fig and loses its wings, you entered into a place where the things that once carried you could carry you no longer. But what looked like loss was preparing the way for fruitfulness.

"You never counted the cost of your calling. You simply said 'YES'—yes when it was easy, yes when it was costly, yes when you understood, and yes when you could not see what was ahead. Nothing else mattered, because I became everything to you, and you became precious to Me.

"You have abided in Me, and you have allowed Me to abide in you. Therefore, the time has come for you to bear much fruit. My breath will move through your garden. My love will spread like pollen over every hidden place, and the seeds I planted within you will suddenly begin to awaken.

"For you have become My garden. I hold the keys to this garden, and now I am coming into My garden. My Spirit will breathe upon every dormant gift, every buried promise, every forgotten dream, and every seed that has been waiting beneath the surface.

"What has been hidden is about to flourish. I will cause the fruit that developed in secret to become visible. And I will invite others to come and taste the fruit that My Spirit has produced within you.

"The milk and honey will overflow. The new wine will run over. The fragrance of My presence will fill your garden until others recognize that I have been here.

"Get ready, My child. Your garden is about to flourish. Your garden is about to blossom. I will cause new fruit to grow—fruit you did not even know was inside of you. Gifts you did not know you carried will emerge. New expressions of My grace will arise. And a fragrance that many have never encountered before will be released from your life.

"The wings that were lost will no longer define your story, but the fruit that came, because you surrendered them, will. You thought you were entering a place of loss, but I was bringing you into a garden of multiplication. You thought something was ending, but I was preparing resurrection. You thought you had lost the means to fly, but I was teaching you how to abide. And because you remained in Me, what I have cultivated in secret is now ready to be revealed in abundance.

"Get ready, My child. The hidden season has served its purpose. The dormant season is coming to an end. The garden is awakening. The fruit is ripening. The fragrance is being released, for your season of abundant fruit is upon you."

Tishrei 7, 5787: Friday-September 18, 2026
Terry Friesen: It's Harvest Time

Recently, I found myself in a large meeting where an AGM was being conducted. The room had about five hundred people present and a board of about twenty were discussing various matters of industry. I was observing.

I saw an exceptionally large demonic entity carrying fear and intimidation standing behind one gentleman, and when the gentleman would speak, the enemy would stir up fear and cause him to communicate out of fear. He was being bullied by fear. The gentleman didn't appear to have the internal awareness or wherewithal to simply say no and stand down (resist the pressures he was feeling).

This demon's influence was focused on getting this man to move by fear, but the trigger within him appeared to be the fear of man. The gentleman was responding to the fear of man, so as this fear came upon him, he did things and said things which evidenced fear. Prior to the demon showing up, his communication had been balanced and appropriate.

As this was unfolding, I saw, heard, and felt the boldness of the Lord come into the room like the Lion of the tribe of Judah. I believe an angel came into the room carrying this aspect of the Lord's lion-like nature. He brought in a different message, one that came with truth and boldness. Within one minute, the chair of the board opened his mouth and communicated some truths in boldness and fearlessness. The chair spoke to foundational truths which were evident in the industry and would not allow fear to shift the room off a sure foundation.

I will return to this event, and how this unfolded will become relevant at the end of this word.

When this transaction in the spirit concluded, I caught a vision out of my right eye. I saw a vault full of gold, and I heard the Lord say, "I want to talk to you about the wealth transfer." I needed to go for a walk and engage with the Lord.

As I started to walk, I had a vision of a friend of mine. He is quite wealthy and successful. I saw this friend in the midst of a season where he was building his business. In this scene, I saw an angel come up from behind him in the spirit realm, hover over him, and release wealth all around him so he could become established.

This friend had worked extremely hard for many years and experienced several difficulties in his business as he sought to be faithful with what he was given. Then, as if something shifted, he started to become established in wealth in the middle of his business, and through wise Holy Spirit counsel, he remains established in the Lord's wealth.

I could see how the difference between wealth and lack of success, at times, could be very subtle. He worked equally hard through uncertainty and success, but subtle distinctions made all the difference.

On the heels of this vision, I then saw the Lord's arm move across His Body, and I saw wealth being established widely in a comparable way I had just seen for my friend. As His Body sought to be faithful with what He had given us to do, the Lord added the difference maker by His faithfulness, and many became established in wealth.

I believe the Lord is providing vision towards a prolonged season of shifting in the earth. I expect there to be waves of establishment; forerunners, then the broader Body.

As I see this, intuitively, I get the sense that so much of the Body won't know what to do with the resource. For some of them their joy will be full, and they'll just bring it in, be blessed, and they will glorify the Lord for what they've been given.

For others, it'll seep out of the holes in their pockets. Again, others will really cry out to the Lord and ask Him for direction, wisdom, and ask Him why they've been so blessed and what does He want them to do.

In this encounter, I saw a whole new industry emerging. There will be teaching for kingdom-minded people, and Christians migrating towards kingdom - teaching the Body the purpose of money, how to manage that money, how to invest for His kingdom and how to hear.

It appeared that the ones that are going to profit in the short-term are the ones that will be the tip of the spear leading the pack, and they will become the voice of teaching for the waves of wealth that follow. It's only going to increase over time, maybe even more gradually as society changes and the better Word of the Lord becomes established over His Body.

Financial blessing will come toward the faithful rather than away from the faithful. Some of those at the front will be highlighted. They will be made visible as they lead the charge for His cultural revolution of wealth.

As I saw this cultural revolution of wealth coming, I could also see pitfalls that would accompany it. One of the pitfalls will be ungodly comfort. The comfort we find in the Lord, and the comfort He provides, is good, but there's an ungodly comfort that produces a type of slumber that can dull spiritual vibrancy and contribution to mankind.

Another pitfall will be a type of despondency. Wealth will come upon some people, and they'll be in need of nothing, and they won't know how to go forward. It's like they won't know why they have wealth because it doesn't fit with their spiritual paradigm.

Another pitfall is ungodly zeal, thinking the wealth has confirmed their bias in some way, not recognizing that the Lord is the true source, and that He's provided wealth for His purpose.

The Body as a whole will need to be taught the expansive vision of God's plan so that they can see their placement within that plan and who they've been called to be. For many, wealth and freedom won't make sense until they adjust to His now vision.

Then, a furtherance of revelation and wisdom and understanding will go forward in many different channels, all built upon the truth of God's character and His word. But if the Body does not know their God, His bigger vision, and who they've been called to be, they won't be rooted deep enough to hit the bull's-eye of the Father's intent.

The Father's Vision

The Father's vision and plans are grand and expansive, yet deeply relevant and practical for each person. His plan is rooted in power and established in truth, and it will be expressed differently through everyone's calling and assignment.

Some expressions will include:

- Faithful stewardship
- Building and investment
- Business development
- The wise use of authority
- Responsibility and governance within society

As this revelatory realm closed, the Lord took me into an encounter that lasted about 30 minutes. I saw around myself a construct in the spirit that resembled a harvesting mechanism. I believe He gave me this vision to make sense of what is and will be taking place in the spirit realm as we live, move, and have our being in Him for this coming season. Let the imagery speak to you but know that our portion is walking forward in the simplicity of childlike faith.

Encounter:

I saw myself moving forward with a massive blade extending far out in front of me, like a large railroad engine snow plow pushing snow to both sides. (If you are unfamiliar with this type of snow plow, watching a video may help illustrate the implications.) The imagery of the snow plow was incredibly helpful in understanding what I would see next.

I then saw two spiritual entities coming towards me at great speed, one appeared like a harvesting angel, and the other was a demon. Both the angel and the demon were grappling the same box full of provision. When the provision came towards me, it hit the large blade that was out in front of me. About 75% of the provision box went right with the angel and the provision was captured in my storehouse. Twenty-five percent of the box, grappled by the demonic, was forced to the left side and cut off. As it moved past me on the left, it was thrown into a fiery furnace-type mechanism, then it landed on the ground. The place where the fiery debris landed resembled scorched earth.

It was a bit of an unsettling sight and an unsettling experience. As the angel and demon came towards me in the midst of a chaotic bluster, I realized that much of our harvesting will take place in the midst of uncertain circumstances. We need to recognize that we are waring for the provision we have been promised. (Think of the Israelites as they took ground in the promised land.) But as the harvest was being realized, the chaos turned to peace, and my storehouse was established in peace.

Once the resources harvested came into the storehouse, I saw behind me what look like planter boxes. Resources just harvested were planted in protected spaces; good space to produce blessing. The planter boxes were positioned on and in the soil to grow and mature and to provide shade and fruit.

Looking forward in a straight line to the right, all the way to the rear, and even on the left side following up behind my rear had been redeemed, fortified, and became fruitful territory of the kingdom.

The left side, which saw the demonic and his resource die like scorched earth, has a lifespan on it and is connected to the backend of this harvesting structure. Connected to this harvesting reality, on the back left side, was a deep bottom plow that turned the soil, the scorched earth, and everything the enemy carried, and turned it back on itself as fertilizer. Behind the plow, to the left, the earth started to green up again and fruitfulness found its foothold.

As I was still moving forward, the Lord drew my eyes to the high point above my head. I saw a loudspeaker pointing forward, and out of it came a loud sound and robust frequency. This speaker was calling for resources to come my way, so the angels know that to harvest the resource that they're contending for, they needed to come towards me as a sure way to bring it into the Kingdom. They also know that which is of the enemy will be separated.

It was quite an emotional sight and feeling to see it all play out. The Lord has prepared us, His children, as sons and daughters, to be the harvesting mechanism in the earth to co-labour with His angelic host. Now that it is time, they will be signaled to bring resources towards us for the purpose of harvest.

So, I call forth harvest, and call forth resources, and speak to the host governing wealth, and I declare, "Come towards me, and the resources will be shifted and harvested according to the Father's will and design."

As all of this is happening, I also see a false or fallen attempt to engage me in receiving resources that are not from the Lord. The picture I'm seeing actually is an angel of light that is an imposter. This imposter appears friendly and smiling, but when I get closer, I can see in its eyes. I see anger and vitriol as it governs a false system, and it recognizes that I will not be distracted. He will not slow me up or get me off track from the true harvest.

After all this, I asked the Lord, how would I know what decisions to make and which choices to make in terms of the deception and in terms of the practical. In answer to my question, I saw myself standing over what looks to be like a board game and there's a person on the other side of the board game as well. The person on the other side of the board game had a demon over his shoulder and I had an angel over my shoulder. They're both informing us where to move, where to put our chips, and what decisions to make. The demon is controlling the opposing side, and the angel is informing me so I can choose out of obedience to align with the Lord's directives.

Obviously, we will continue to lean on the Lord 's wisdom, His power, and the finished work of Christ, but we are going to be activated with angels in a much greater way during this harvest season. The leading of the Lord will continue to be active in our lives, but we are to welcome the assistance of the Lord's messenger angels and harvesting angels for this task.

I recognized the vital importance of this co-labouring, so Lord, "I pray that we would recognize your voice through your messengers. That we would hear them and we would have the witness of Your Spirit within us, confirming the messages that we receive and to make clear any deceptive strategies of the enemy that are not from you."

Similar to the beginning of this word, when the demon was communicating fear and trying to get the one gentleman to operate out of fear and the fear of man, and the angel brought boldness and fearlessness into the room. Both sides walked out and played out according to the pressures they both felt and yielded to.

As this encounter was ending, under the weight of what I had just seen, I sought the Lord for wisdom. I felt the Lord specifically highlight my need for angelic guides to go along with me to guide me through this transition season of wealth transfer. In this prayer time, I felt the initial wealth transfer could be summed up in four seasons of progression, each one having its own unique characteristics. As I asked the Lord for the assistance of His angelic guides, I had the distinct impression I would receive four guides, one for each season.

Regarding the involvement of angels in God's wealth transfer season, approximately 2½ years ago, the Lord gave me a dream. In this dream, I saw before me a podium type table and on it a large chart. Around the podium table stood three angels, waiting for me as they looked at the chart. As I looked at the chart, financial charts depicting the future, the angels were standing observing with me what would take place next. They were assigned to assist and guide, to partner with me to the glory of our King. I don't fully understand why the Lord would choose to communicate through angelic messengers rather than speak each direction directly to us, but nonetheless, He has chosen to operate in this way for a purpose.

Many aspects of making and growing money will begin to shift and change in the coming season, so we need to listen and follow the Lord's leading. The Lord will instruct us as we go. It must be different, because it will be stewarded under a different kingdom, and those aligned with the enemy's kingdom won't understand how the new works.

The expansive view of this new harvesting reality is to recognize this harvest atmosphere is not limited to financial resource. It is time to step into the harvest of souls, resource, education, health care, godly influence and so much more. I encourage you to see through this harvesting vision in the field of your promise and your assignments.

In recent days, I have seen this play out. I see situations coming rushing towards me in the midst of some chaos, and these situations going through a sifting process resulting in some form of separation then harvest. Sometimes, we see-through rose-colored glasses and expect harvest or kingdom realities to always take place in a sterile and whitewashed atmosphere. This isn't always the case. Some of our greatest harvests will be birthed in the midst of highly contested territory and will require the persistence and patience we have learned during our preparatory seasons.

tfprophetic@gmail.com, Telegram Channel <https://t.me/tfprophetic>

Tishrei 8, 5787: Saturday-September 19, 2026 Dutch Sheets: Exposing the "Strong Man"

I have often stated that satan's greatest weapon is his subtlety. Genesis 3:1 makes this very clear. He is far more dangerous as the serpent – through his craftiness – than he is as the roaring lion spoken of in 1 Peter 5:8, which speaks of his power. He operates as a hidden foe, camouflaging his efforts with seasoned skill.

Such has been the case with His actions regarding the Supreme Court. Roughly 30 years ago, Holy Spirit spoke to me that the "strong man" over America was headquartered at the Supreme Court (See Matthew 12:29). I acknowledge the fact that this statement cannot be proven, but I stand by it. No government entity or organization has opened the door to more evil into our nation than the High Court: the murdering of millions of babies; violating God's covenant of marriage between a man and woman; enabling the destruction of millions of children's lives through removing God's influence from schools, and much, much more.

Numerous Justices – operating through fallen and sin-darkened souls, and exalting humanity's fallen logic above God's – have empowered depravity and dignified indecency. They have allowed demons to reshape and defile America through the Supreme Court, and the damage is literally incalculable. The Lord warned us in Scripture: "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Proverbs 14:12).

It is not difficult to see satan's reasons for choosing the Court as his stronghold: unelected justices with lifetime appointments, extreme and unchecked power, and the least amount of exposure – most Americans pay them little attention unless a law important to them comes on the docket. Thomas Jefferson was right to warn that the power of this unchecked Supreme Court would result in despotism. He insisted that it would place the United States "under the despotism of an oligarchy," that giving the Supreme Court such unchecked power would eventually produce "despots." Turns out, Mr. Jefferson was pretty smart!

The umpire analogy has often been used to describe the role of the Justices. In the sport of baseball, an umpire doesn't make the rules; he or she simply makes calls based on what the rules committee of the league legislates. This is certainly an appropriate goal by judges, but many can't help but join the rules committee, twisting the words of the Constitution to fit their preferences and ideals. When a Justice on the Court feels they have the Constitutional authority to redefine marriage as being between two men or two women, or to decree the right to kill babies in the womb, they are officially a despot, and I would add, under the influence of Baal and his underling, Molech.

With the Supreme Court's power and the ability to largely remain under the radar, what better place for satan to hide? It is nearly impossible to awaken Americans to this problem. Having attempted to generate prayer for our government for over 30 years, I can attest to just how hard it is to do so for the Court. Like it or not, the White House and Congress typically remain at the top of everyone's governmental prayer list. HOWEVER, I am thrilled to tell you that this has changed somewhat over the past 2-3 decades and continues to do so. Many prayer ministries have understood this need for prayer and have begun sounding the alarm. Faithful intercessors are responding, and the Court is slowly changing.

One such intercessor is an attorney on whom God placed a burden to see the Court transformed. My good friend, Phillip Jauregui, through the organization he leads, Judicial Action Group, serves all of us by reviewing, researching, and working to place only the best judges and Justices on our courts. Phillip has worked on hundreds of judicial nominations over the past 20 years, including eight of the nine current United States Supreme Court justices.

Phillip is not only an attorney, but also a man who understands the importance of prayer. For years, God has motivated him to pray for the Supreme Court's transformation. He has also written an excellent book on praying and working to see the Supreme Court transformed entitled The Parable of the Prodigal Court. Phillip also hosts a prayer gathering in Washington, D.C., for the High Court each year, on the first day of its new session. As part of this mission, the Lord gave him the phrase "Consecrate the Court." I join him each year for this very strategic gathering, which this year will occur on October 4-5 at The Museum of the Bible. It is my honor to be the keynote speaker at the dinner on Monday night. Many key leaders will also participate in this significant event, including my friend Chuck Pierce.

I realize an event like this is not as exciting as one with tens of thousands of people on the Washington Mall. But I assure you, it is just as important. Some of the Justices on the Bench are in their 70s. Resignations and replacements will no doubt take place soon. This is a very critical season! I also realize the date of this gathering is coming up soon; there is little time to plan, and trips to D.C. are not cheap. Nevertheless, I am urging some of you to consider joining us. Churches, send a "delegate." Prayer groups/ministries, send an intercessor to help us. Not only will you/they help shift the court, which will shift the nation, but participants will grow in their understanding of the High Court and what it takes to change it. And everyone, whether you can attend or not, please pray for this event. (Visiting and touring The Museum of the Bible is worth a trip to D.C., in and of itself.)

Let's continue the prayer siege to consecrate America's Supreme Court back to the Lord. (Go to JAGF.org and click on EVENTS for tickets and more information. Tickets are required.)

Pray with me:

Father, we turn our attention today to the Supreme Court of America. Through this institution, our nation has rejected You, life, the covenant of marriage You established, and more. We have arrogantly rebelled against You, and have paid for this rebellion with the loss of tens of millions of Americans. We have also released powerful curses on our land. Today, we repent once again and ask for Your mercy. The blood of Jesus was sprinkled on a "Mercy Seat," and we ask for this mercy.

We also join our prayers today with the prayers offered to consecrate this Court to You. YOU birthed America and our government. YOU instituted the concept of government. We ask that You bring the Court back under YOUR plans, purposes, precepts, and laws. As Your ambassadors, we dedicate the Supreme Court to YOU and ask that You change all that needs changing. Fill this branch of government and its building with Your presence once again. Oversee the timing and decisions of all resignations and replacements to the Court. We ask all of this in the holy and all-powerful name of Yeshua. Amen.

Our decree:

We decree that the Supreme Court of the United States is being reconsecrated and rededicated to Almighty God, Creator and Owner of all the earth.

Tishrei 9, 5787: Sunday-September 20, 2026

NATE & CHRISTY

YOU'RE ABOUT TO STRIKE OIL ...

I had a dream last night, and I woke up this morning so stirred and with an expectation I couldn't shake, and I believe you're going to feel it too as I share this.

Firstly, here's what I know about the Lord – He will confront my faithlessness, my disbelief; He'll confront my deep places of grief with His goodness, or by revealing something He's about to do that is so opposite in nature to what I'm walking through in the moment. This is one of those words. Are you ready?

In the dream, I was walking around a barren desert-like property, praying and interceding. I was looking for something that I felt WAS MEANT TO BE SEEN ALREADY (that's the part I remembered after I recorded after video), when suddenly, I felt like I was meant to dig. In my hand was a wooden stick or rod. I barely touched the surface, when out of the ground came oil and began to create a pool of oil at my feet.

I believe that's what He's about to do in you and in US, the body of Christ.

You're about to strike oil. And I want to tell you what that oil is, because you're about to step into a season of two things happening at once - an "only God could do this" season, and a fresh spring of intimacy and revelation bubbling up on the inside of you.

Here's the thing about this oil – The oil is the fruit of your obedience through suffering. It's the fresh oil breaking over your life after a season of being hunted, pursued, pressed by the enemy. And it's your commissioning – this is God sending you out of survival and into an occupation season.

That's what the ground shaking is. That's what the oil bursting up is. It's the sign over your life that the pressing is over and the pouring has begun after NO SIGN for years.

Have you felt barren in this past season? That's the sore point for many which is why I believe the Lord is wanting to confront in us some areas where we've not been believing in God's goodness in this season because we've been in survival mode. That breaks today in the name of Yeshua!

Back to the dream – I remember thinking, "Oh my goodness, what do I do?" So, I started yelling out for help. People came with buckets and fuel cans, and we began scooping up this oil. I just couldn't give it away fast enough because the oil kept coming.

The more I was giving away, the more oil there was, and there was such joy in it.

It reminded me of the story in 2 Kings;

"A certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, 'Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD. And the creditor is coming to take my two sons to be his slaves.' So Elisha said to her, 'What shall I do for you?' Tell me, what do you have in the house?' And she said, 'Your maidservant has nothing in the house but a jar of oil.'" (2 Kings 4:1-2)

I feel like there are so many layers to this dream to look into, both corporately and personally. But first, this question comes to mind for me to ask: Is your faith in YOUR ABILITY or God's right now? Are you trying to PROVIDE and move in your might and limited vision or His?

Here's the next part:

"Then he said, 'Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbors, empty vessels; do not gather just a few. And when you have come in, you shall shut the door behind you and your sons; then pour it into all those vessels, and set aside the full ones.' So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured it out. Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, 'Bring me another vessel.' And he said to her, 'There is not another vessel.' So the oil ceased." (2 Kings 4:3-6)

The key in this story is this: As many jars as there were, there was the provision. The oil stopped the moment the empty vessels ran out.

In this season we need to keep bringing empty jars to the Lord. WE ARE THE EMPTY VESSELS.

I believe God gave me the dream because we're about to step into a season of THE OVERFLOW OF GOD'S OIL for the end time harvest. The Lord is about to pour out His Spirit without measure.

And yes, I do believe provision is a part of it, but primarily God gave me this dream because He's saying, "There is a season of fresh oil that is coming upon My church. There is a season of fresh oil coming upon My church for an hour that My church is going to need oil to combat the evil and deception invading."

This is a wise virgin season that you must seek oil, and the Lord is saying, "Don't be looking at everything else. Come and get the oil; come into My presence and seek Me while I may be found."

I believe the jars represent two things:

Firstly, hungry hearts coming before the Lord to be filled. Secondly, THE FAITH to step into a new season and a new realm with the Lord. God is requiring both of us in this season. He's requiring us to go and get as many jars as we can.

You know what else comes to mind of when I think of this? Vision for as much as I can believe that God will do what He said He would do – that's the jars. And then when I run out of that faith, there's nothing left to fill that's when the oil stops.

What do you need from the Lord? What are you desiring from Him? What are you longing for? Ask Him right now.

LET'S ACTIVATE THIS: Get some jars out in the spirit right now.

Say, God, here it is. Here's my jar. I need You to pour out Your Spirit here. I need You to pour Your oil here, God. I need You to pour out oil in my home. Lord, I need You to pour out oil with provision for the things you've called me to do.

The other prophetic thing in this story to mention is the widow's town, Zarephath, which means smelting place, or a refinery furnace, from the Hebrew word zarath – to refine metal by fire.

I believe the outpouring of oil is what always comes as the aftermath of a season of refinery – a season of being smelted in the furnace with the Lord. The Lord is saying, "On the other side of this refinery season is coming provision, an outpouring unlike anything you've ever seen before."

This is a time of provision and outpouring after the refinery and after the surrender. And notice this – it was in a season of drought. So, she thought, well, I'm going to have to make amends, figure it out, juggle."

There are people reading this right now trying to figure things out in your own strength. Let me say this: you are not attached to Babylon. You may be in Babylon, but you're not a part of it. The Lord has a different way, a different outcome. Are you under Babylon, or under the Lord's system? Under the world or His government, His reign, and His provision?

This is where the Lord's saying, "I want to pour out My Spirit. I want to pour out My provision. I want to be the answer for you. I want to be the oil that you need in a season of drought. I want to be your everything again."

What if this was a Goshen season for the Church? In the midst of all the chaos, people talk about power grids being shut down, blackouts, water shortages. I'm not saying to be foolish and ignore all of that, but I wonder if the Lord has solutions outside of what we're seeing right now.

What if this was the Lord saying, "I'm about to pour out oil, I'm about to bring provision, so that My church will be ready for the harvest at hand."

Because we've been the poor, the broke, the ones in survival mode, when we're called to occupy. What if this was the Lord saying, "You're going to go from survival to occupation?"

What if this was the Lord readying His church for harvest, readying us for the Bridegroom to come back, and He was pouring out the last of the oil, but it was going to gush forth? It was going to be the greatest outpouring we've ever seen before?

“Behold, the days are coming,’ says the LORD, ‘when the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him who sows seed; the mountains shall drip with sweet wine, and all the hills shall flow with it.’”
(Amos 9:13)

PRAY WITH ME— Holy Spirit, pour out Your oil. Pour out Your oil on my life. Lord, I thank You for the oil of healing, the balm of Gilead, the oil of a new season, a new wineskin season.

You can't have the new wineskin without the oil; you need the oil in the leather to keep it supple.

We just get our jars out right now, God. Fill every empty place. Increase our faith.

Get your jars out. Bring Him every empty place and don't gather just a few. This is the end of survival mode.

Because the oil is the fruit of your obedience through suffering. It's the sign of fresh oil after the season the enemy pursued you. It's your commissioning into occupation.

You're going from survival to occupation, and I prophesy it over you right now. In Yeshua's mighty name, you're about to strike oil!

Send this to someone who needs a miracle. Send it to someone who needs to strike oil too.

Tishrei 10, 5787: Monday-September 21, 2026

Veronika West

"MY PROPHETS ARE CALLED TO ACCURATELY DISCERN, DECLARE, AND MARK THE TIMES AND SEASONS!"

Yesterday, during my time of Prayer, I literally saw what looked like an Ancient Clock on the inside of me, and I could hear a clear and distinct Sound of "Ticking."

And by the Spirit of Revelation, I immediately understood that the Lord was speaking to me concerning His Prophetic Voices in the Earth, but seeing the Clock as ANCIENT, I submit, I felt was prophetically significant. As I looked at this Ancient Clock, I understood that it spoke Prophetically concerning the PAST, the PRESENT, and the FUTURE!

The Ancient Clock revealed something deeply significant concerning some of the vital functions and the many Spiritual aspects of the Mantle of the Prophet. The True Prophetic Voice is not only Called to Speak concerning what is YET to come; Prophets are Called to Understand and Discern the Movements and Ways of God through the Ages - what God has Spoken, what He has Established, what He has Promised, and the Covenant Purposes that continue to unfold through Generations.

They must be able to look BACK and recognize the Ancient Paths and Prophetic Patterns of God to discern what God is doing NOW and to see by the Spirit what lies AHEAD!

PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE!

The Prophet stands Prophetically at the Intersection of all three Times and Seasons: Discerning what God established in the Past, recognizing its Prophetic Pattern and Movement in the Present, and seeing where that same Redemptive and Covenant Purpose is moving towards in the Prophetic Fulfilment for the Future!

These are not three disconnected dimensions of Time, but Time being Intrinsically Woven together like a Divine Tapestry. What God is revealing in the Present often cannot be accurately discerned without understanding what He Established in the Past. And what He established in the Past becomes a powerful Prophetic Blueprint, a Divine and Supernatural Pattern, that gives greater understanding and context to what He is doing in the Present and what He is YET to bring forth in the Future.

This is why, throughout Scripture, God often Calls His People to REMEMBER - to Remember His Covenant, to Remember His Works, and to Hold fast to His Words. Jeremiah 6:16 speaks powerfully to this; "STAND in the ways and SEE, and ASK for the old paths, where is the good way, and WALK therein."

There is something deeply significant about Returning to the Ancient Paths, because God will often cause what He Established in another Generation to speak prophetically into the Generation that is standing NOW! The Prophet is not Called to manufacture something New, but to Stand within the unfolding Counsel, Covenant Promises, and Divine Purposes of the ANCIENT OF DAYS, discerning where a Generation is Standing and where it is Moving within God's Prophetic Timeline!

The Ancient Clock spoke of the God who is Eternal: the God who stands outside of Time, yet Sovereignly works within Time; the God who declares "the End from the Beginning, and from Ancient times the things that are not YET done." (See Isaiah 46:10)

The God Who Was, Who Is, and Who is to Come!

But herein, I saw something even deeper concerning the Ancient Clock: GOD DOESN'T ONLY REVEAL TIMES; GOD GOVERNS TIMES AND SEASONS!

As Daniel 2:21 declares, "And He Changeth the times and the seasons: He Removeth kings, and Setteth up kings."

The Ancient Clock therefore does not speak of Time as though Time itself is Sovereign. "THE ANCIENT OF DAYS IS SOVEREIGN OVER TIME!" He is the Eternal God who Changes Times and Seasons who Removes Kings and raises up Kings, who Establishes Appointed Times, and who Sovereignly Moves His Redemptive and Covenant Purposes through Generations!

This is deeply significant concerning some of the functions of the Prophet. The Prophet is not only Called to discern what Time it is, but to discern the Movements, the Ways, and the Purposes of THE GOD WHO GOVERNS THE TIME. We are not Called to follow the Clock; WE ARE CALLED TO FOLLOW THE GOD WHO GOVERNS THE CLOCK!

And when He Changes the Times and Seasons, His True Prophets must be in Close Proximity, Close enough to His Heart to Discern that a Divine Shift has taken place! There are Appointed Times when one Season ends and another begins, when God removes and raises up, when He closes and opens, when He uproots and plants, when He brings Nations and Generations across Divine Thresholds.

His Prophets are Called to discern these Divine Movements within His Prophetic Timeline and Declare them with Authority and Revelation that brings Clarity, Direction, and Vision! The Ancient Clock I saw was therefore like a PROPHETIC TIMELINE within me, not only Marking the passing of Time, but Revealing the Kairos Movements, the Divine Intersections, and the Appointed Times of God. This is why Prophets must KNOW the Word! We cannot accurately interpret the Present or speak concerning the Future while remaining ignorant of what God has already Spoken and Established in the Past.

THE PAST REVEALS PROPHETIC PATTERNS, THE PRESENT REVEALS PROPHETIC ALIGNMENTS AND POSITIONING, AND THE FUTURE POINTS TOWARDS PROPHETIC FULFILMENT AND MANIFESTATION!

Daniel himself gives us a powerful Prophetic Pattern of this. Daniel stood within one Generation, but through the writings of Jeremiah, he understood what God had Spoken in a previous Generation concerning the Seventy years of Jerusalem's desolations (See Daniel 9:2). Daniel looked BACK at what God had already Spoken, and through that Ancient Prophetic Word he understood where his Generation was standing in the PRESENT, and that understanding moved him into Prayer concerning what God was about to bring forth in the FUTURE!

Again: "PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE!"

The Ancient Word became a Prophetic Marker by which Daniel discerned the Present Time! Prophets are not only Called to discern the Times and Seasons, nor are they only Called to Declare the Kairos Timing of Heaven.

"PROPHETS ARE CALLED TO MARK TIME!"

They must become Living Prophetic Markers in the Earth - their lives, the Words they carry, the Movements they make, and the Signs that surround them bearing Witness to the Kairos Times and Seasons of God, so that when the Nations look for Direction and

Strategy, God's True Prophets must become those Living Prophetic Signposts, able to accurately discern and bear witness to WHAT TIME IT IS, WHERE WE ARE STANDING WITHIN GOD'S PROPHETIC TIMELINE, and WHAT GOD IS REQUIRING IN THAT TIME! Because it is not enough to know WHAT TIME IT IS, WE MUST KNOW WHAT TO DO IN THE TIME!

And this is why the Clock was ticking on the INSIDE OF ME. The Clock was not just something I was looking at as God brought Insight and Revelation, but it was something that I was Carrying, something that had been entrusted to me to Steward and to Release at the Appointed Time!

The Prophet is not only an Observer of Divine Timing but a STEWARD OF DIVINE TIMING. And herein I believe lies something deeply significant concerning the Fires of Purification that are constantly burning in the lives of those Called to Prophetic Ministry.

PURITY IS THE FOUNDATION OF POWER IN THE PROPHETIC!

There are Words that must be forged in the Fires of Purification before they can be Released by Faith and in Power. There are Revelations that must be incubated in the Secret Place before they can be Announced in the public place. There are things God reveals that are first for Fervent Prayer before they are for Proclamation and Impartation. And there is a Warning here! There are Words that may be absolutely accurate in their Content but premature in their Release because the Prophet has discerned WHAT God is saying but has failed to discern WHEN GOD IS SAYING TO RELEASE IT! And a premature Prophetic Release can bring confusion, misalignment, and cause what God intended to be rightly Stewarded in its Appointed Time to be prematurely exposed, misinterpreted, mishandled, and or even completely aborted!

Tishrei 11, 5787: Tuesday-September 22, 2026

Veronica West

Part two

PROPHETIC ACCURACY IS NOT ONLY ABOUT THE WORD PROPHETIC; ACCURACY DEMANDS PURITY, WISDOM, AND THE DISCERNMENT OF GOD CONCERNING THE TIMING OF THE WORD!

The Right Word still requires the Right Time! And I believe the KEY to Unlocking the Timing of Heaven is INTIMACY WITH GOD! True Prophets cannot accurately Mark a Time they have not first discerned in the Secret Place. Neither can they carry the Timing of Heaven without first learning to carry the HEART OF GOD!

Prophetic Timing is not only learned by carefully discerning the movements of Nations, Watching and Praying concerning Political events, or being alert to what is unfolding in the Natural. Many of those things may CONFIRM what Heaven is saying, but they must never become the Clock by which the Prophet sets the Time!

THE PROPHETIC CLOCK MUST BE SET IN THE SECRET PLACE!

It is in the place of Intimacy that the Ear becomes attuned to His Voice, the Heart becomes calibrated to His Heartbeat, and the Spirit becomes sensitive to the Movements and Timing of God. The closer the Prophet comes to the Heart of God, the more clearly they begin to hear the HEARTBEAT OF HEAVEN. It's here that we see a powerful parallel between the HEARTBEAT AND THE CLOCKBEAT. Both carry Rhythm, Movement, and Timing, and both must Remain in proper Alignment.

"TRUE INTIMACY PRODUCES ACCURACY!"

The Prophet who has laid their head upon the Heart of God in the Secret Place begins not only to Recognize His Rhythm, but his or her heart becomes Spiritually tuned and synchronized to His Movements, His Pauses, and His Appointed Moments. They know when Heaven is saying WAIT...WATCH...SPEAK, and when Heaven is saying, Advance NOW!

The closer we draw to His Heart, the more accurately we hear the TICKING OF HEAVEN'S CLOCK! THE SECRET PLACE IS THE PLACE OF PROPHETIC CALIBRATION! Because a Clock cannot calibrate itself, it must be set according to an Authoritative Standard. And the Prophet cannot be calibrated by another Prophet, the Headlines, the Political Climate, the urgency of the Hour, or the movements taking place in the Natural. THE PROPHET MUST BE CALIBRATED TO THE HEART AND VOICE OF GOD!

But there is also a Warning within this Revelation: A Clock can still be ticking and yet be telling the WRONG TIME! The mechanism can still be moving, the hands can still be turning, and from outward appearances, everything can look operational. Yet the Clock can be minutes, hours, or even an entire Season OUT OF TIME! And I believe this speaks powerfully to the Prophetic Voices in this hour. There can be Prophetic Movement, Prophetic Activity, Prophetic Platforms, and Prophetic Voices continually speaking; the hands can appear to be moving, But MOVEMENT DOES NOT NECESSARILY MEAN ACCURATE TIME!

The Spirit is bringing a powerful RECALIBRATION to His Prophets in this hour. There are those who have run ahead of the Timing of God who have stepped outside of the Kairos Time, and there are those who have fallen behind the Timing of God. Some have mistaken Urgency for Kairos Timing and Prophetic information for Prophetic Revelation.

Some have mistaken movement in the Natural for permission to Speak, and others have carried Words beyond their Appointed moment or jurisdiction because of Pride, Fear, the Opinions of men, or hesitation through a lack of Faith which has caused them to miss the Window of Release. But God is calling His Prophets back into Divine Alignment and Divine Synchronization with the Times and Seasons of Heaven – "BACK TO THE SECRET PLACE, BACK TO HIS HEART, AND BACK TO THE PLACE OF DIVINE CALIBRATION!"

The Question is not only HAVE WE HEARD THE RIGHT WORD? But ARE WE CARRYING THE RIGHT WORD FOR THE RIGHT TIME, AND DO WE KNOW THE APPOINTED MOMENT FOR ITS RELEASE?

Habakkuk 2:3 tells us, "For the vision is yet for an appointed time." AN APPOINTED TIME. The Hebrew word translated "appointed time" is MO'ED carrying the meaning of an Appointed Time, a Fixed Season, an Appointed Meeting (I like to say, "An Invitation into a Deeper Encounter."). And Prophetically, I believe there is something powerful here.

"THE VISION HAS AN APPOINTMENT!"

There is a Divine Intersection where the Word, the Prophet, and the Appointed Time come together. There is a Time Appointed to the Vision, a Time Appointed to the Word, and a Time Appointed to its Manifestation. The Prophet must therefore Steward what has been Revealed until the Clock of Heaven reaches the Appointed Moment. And this is why the Sons of Issachar carried something so significant;

1 Chronicles 12:32 says they had "UNDERSTANDING of the TIMES, TO KNOW what Israel ought TO DO."

They did not discern Time just for the sake of knowing Time. Their discernment of the Time produced STRATEGY FOR THE TIME! They understood WHAT TIME IT WAS and because they UNDERSTOOD the Time, they KNEW WHAT ISRAEL OUGHT TO DO! And I believe this is part of the Restoration coming to the Prophetic Ministry in this hour. Not Prophets who only announce what they see coming, but Prophets whose Intimacy with God enables them to accurately discern the Kairos Moment and whose understanding of that Kairos Moment brings Divine Strategy, Direction, and Instruction to the Ecclesia, while the World watches the Chronological Clock and responds to what is unfolding in the Natural.

"THE PROPHET MUST DISCERN THE KAIROS MOMENT OF DIVINE VISITATION AND MANIFESTATION!"

The Prophetic Voice cannot be calibrated by the clocks of this World, the Urgency of man, the pressure of Circumstances, the demands of Platforms, or by what appears to be unfolding in the Natural realm

THE PROPHET MUST BE CALIBRATED BY HEAVEN ALONE!

And I hear the Spirit saying again, "MY PROPHETS MUST ACCURATELY DISCERN, DECLARE, AND MARK THE TIMES AND SEASONS IN THIS HOUR OF DIVINE TRANSITION AND KINGDOM REFORMATION!"

Prophets are Called to Discern the Time, to DECLARE the Time, to MARK the Time, and to Know how to STEWARD the Time to become LIVING PROPHETIC MARKERS of the Kairos Times and Seasons of God in the Earth so that when the Nations look towards God's True Prophetic Voices for Divine Perspective, Direction, and Strategy, they do not only hear WHAT GOD IS SAYING, THEY BEGIN TO UNDERSTAND WHAT TIME IT IS, WHERE THEY ARE STANDING WITHIN GOD'S PROPHETIC TIMELINE, AND WHAT GOD IS REQUIRING IN THAT TIME! Because Prophetic Discernment of the Time must ultimately produce Divine Strategy for the Time!

GOD IS RAISING UP PROPHETIC VOICES WHO WILL KNOW WHAT TIME IT IS, WHAT HEAVEN IS SAYING, AND WHAT MUST BE DONE IN THAT TIME FOR KINGDOM ADVANCEMENT, because God doesn't only Reveal Times, GOD GOVERNS TIMES AND SEASONS!

And those who are Called to Mark the Times must remain Intimately Aligned, Synchronized, and Calibrated to the HEART OF THE GOD WHO GOVERNS OVER THE PAST, PRESENT, AND OVER ALL OF ETERNITY.

Tishrei 12, 5787: Wednesday-September 23, 2026

Veronika West

THE LION'S ROAR ON THE THRESHOLD OF THE DOOR BRINGS FORTH A DIVINE AND POSITIONAL SHIFT INTO THE NEW!

Two weeks ago, I went into my Prayer Hut in the garden. I opened the door and suddenly, the heavy Lion's Head that I had hanging on the outside of the door fell off. Now, this Lion's Head is extremely heavy, and as it fell, I was convinced it would be badly broken. But incredibly, the Lion's Head was completely UNBROKEN! As I picked it up, I realized that the whole mechanism that hooked the Lion's Head onto the door had actually come away.

So, I took the heavy Lion's Head and placed it on the INSIDE of my Prayer Hut right at the opening of the door, right on the THRESHOLD. Now, I thought nothing more of it at the time other than being greatly relieved that the Lion's Head had not been broken. But then yesterday morning, the 1st of September, I woke carrying such a deep Prophetic sense of a MEGA SHIFTING taking place, and I carried that deep Prophetic unction throughout the entire day.

Then early this morning, as I woke to go into my Prayer Hut, and as I opened the Door to go in, I looked down at the Lion's Head, still propped up against the inside of the Door. And I suddenly heard the Spirit say, "LISTEN! FOR THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDAH ROARS ON THE THRESHOLD OF THE DOOR. THE ROAR OF THE LION GOES FORTH LIKE A SHARP SWORD IN THE MOUTH OF MY REMNANT, THAT WILL STRIKE THE HEAD OF THE SNAKE, LEVIATHAN, THAT RISES TO CONTEND AND RESIST MY REMNANT FROM CROSSING OVER INTO A KAIROS TIME OF DIVINE SHIFT!"

As I heard those Words, suddenly, I realized just how powerfully Prophetic it was that the heavy Lion's Head had fallen from the Door, and that I had placed it on the INSIDE at the Opening of the Door, and now it sat ON THE THRESHOLD.

And suddenly, I heard these Words; "THE LION'S ROAR BRINGS FORTH A DIVINE AND POSITIONAL SHIFT INTO A NEW KINGDOM ERA!" I believe and submit that we are standing at a Threshold as we move into the Appointed Feast Times. I See the Remnant CROSSING OVER; there is a "Divine and Positional SHIFT" taking place in the realm of the Spirit.

As I began to meditate further, Holy Spirit quickened to me just how Prophetically poignant it was that "the Lion's Head was not broken, but the mechanism that held it in its FORMER position had come away."

What had been positioned on the OUTSIDE of the Door and held in Place was SUDDENLY being Repositioned, and was now Moving Across THE THRESHOLD and INTO THE NEW. Again, I believe this is deeply Prophetic and speaks powerfully to the hour and the Coming Season ahead.

The Spirit is saying, "The Lion of the Tribe of Judah is Roaring at the Threshold, and His Roar is going forth through the Mouth of His Remnant as a Sharp Sword against the spirit of Leviathan that seeks to resist, contend with, and prevent the Crossing Over"

But the Lion's Head was UNBROKEN! The Authority of the Lion of Judah shall NOT be diminished, His Kingship shall NOT be shaken, and His Kingdom Purposes shall NOT be delayed or destroyed. "Watch! For a PARADIGM SHIFT is NOW taking place!" Listen for the ROAR OF THE LION OF JUDAH at the Threshold, for His Roar is Announcing a DIVINE AND POSITIONAL SHIFT, A CROSSING OVER INTO A NEW KINGDOM ERA!

Tishrei 13, 5787: Thursday-September 24, 2026
Diana Blackburn Larkin

We are starting the month of September off with a BOOM!
I HAVE SLAMMED THE DOOR SHUT ON EVIL

I heard the sound of a huge door being slammed in the Spirit realm. I saw the enormous hand of the Father reach out and swing closed, with a resounding boom, a large portal of evil that had been open for a long time over the nations.

"Those who have partnered with darkness have been working for a long time OPENING A HUGE DARK PORTAL that allowed so much EVIL to enter and DEFILE the people and the nations. Darkness had reached an APEX in your day where GOOD is now called EVIL and EVIL is called GOOD.

"This open dark portal has poured into the world DEFILEMENT, LIES, DIVISION, HATRED, and MURDER. But you, My Army of Light, My righteous Remnant, have answered My call to OPPOSE the evil empire's LIES and DEATH AGENDAS and to WELCOME My PROMISES of a Kingdom of Light and love to FLOOD in and to EXPOSE and REMOVE the DARK INVASION. You have learned to walk in greater AUTHORITY and POWER as Blood-washed Sons and Daughters, and the TIDE of evil has been OBSTRUCTED and is being REVERSED back onto them. I have heard your cries for JUSTICE and RIGHTEOUSNESS to be restored, and today I AM SLAMMING THE DOOR SHUT ON EVIL."

"The flood of FILTH has been STOPPED, and you will know this has happened when you hear the LYING media PANICKING, their arguments growing WEAKER, and their justifications of evil becoming PATHETIC. It will be a very UNCOMFORTABLE time for those who RULED the airwaves for years with SLICK LIES and FAKE MORALITY."

"Your assignment will be to HELP in the CLEANUP of the DEVASTATING EFFECTS of evil on society. Release the Holy Spirit TSUNAMI of the CONVICTION of sin and be ready to share the CLEANSING POWER of the Blood of Jesus. Continue with greater CONFIDENCE and POWER to BULLDOZE the WEAK LIES and FAKE MORALITY of those partnered with darkness. Declare, 'We will not allow these lies and perversions to stand, and we counter them with a flood of righteousness and justice until the land is CLEAN and SHINING with TRUTH, NEW LIFE, PEACE, and PLENTY.' I HAVE SLAMMED THE DOOR SHUT ON EVIL and now is the time for you to join Me in the CLEANUP OPERATION. Justice and Righteousness will PREVAIL."

Tishrei 14, 5787: Friday-September 25, 2026

Nate Johnston

In this next season, you won't have to deal with the snakes that you've dealt with in this past season.

You won't have to deal with those same tests, those same battles, those same obstacles that came against you in your past season, if you learn the lesson.

If you rise up above the snake line, if you come up above the place that the enemy has been attacking you with the constant witchcraft and ground warfare tactics. If you allow the Lord to bring you higher, you won't have to keep dealing with them again, which is why I believe we've been in a level up season.

This has been a season God has wanted to retrain us in the weapons of our warfare. He's bringing us up higher in our intel. We've been foolish about warfare in the past, brushing it under the carpet, but God wants us to have a military mindset, discernment, eyes on, and our gaze fixed on Jesus.

You won't deal with the same snakes that you dealt with in the past season.

"Yet if he is caught, he must pay sevenfold, though it costs him all the wealth of his house." (Proverbs 6:31)

The enemy is a liar and a thief, and this has been a season that HE HAS BEEN CAUGHT... so many are realizing the source of so much pain and misery and wising up to the tactics and patterns.

Right now, God is shifting the tide for the body of Christ who've been feeling like they are underneath the circumstances instead of on top of them, feeling like the dog under the table, and that is why God is bringing you up higher, showing you that you are seated in Christ in heavenly places.

God is realigning you to the truth that you are the head, not the tail, above only and not beneath, because the finished work of the cross and the blood of Jesus has brought you out of that place where you are underneath the enemy. You are over him. He is under your feet.

Make this your declaration today: The enemy is under my feet!

I want to highlight three different snakes that have been trying to come after your garden this season, what they represent, and how God is bringing you up higher above them.

Firstly, your garden represents your intimate life with God. It's your relationship with Him, your formation in Christ, your sanctification, the walking out of your calling. The Holy Spirit comes alongside you as a comforter, a guide, and a gardener, and His job is to rid your garden of anything that shouldn't be there.

I want to invite you into this word rather than only reading it. You ready?

Pray with me right now: Holy Spirit, I give You permission to go into the garden of my life, my soul, and my mind, and remove anything that shouldn't be there that has been robbing me. I want freedom. I want to be honest. Guide me into truth. Finish what You started in my life, in Jesus' mighty name.

SNAKE 1 – THE FAMILIAR SPIRITS

The first snake is the familiar spirits. They're the ones in close quarters.

They're demonic spirits that attach themselves to people who are familiar to you, family, friends, because those people have given them access. That's why they're called "familiar spirits." They get into close quarters with you and begin to manage, control, and manipulate your life.

They're the ones actually inside your garden, because they're the ones who are sometimes too close to see or discern, and they hide in the places closest to you, because a familiar spirit can't hide out in a person who hasn't got access to you.

This is the snake that comes with betrayal. It's realizing you've been like a marionette on strings to people around you and you never realized it. It came in the guise of safety, protection, and love, but it was poison wrapped up in all of that, and it was robbing you.

"There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing concealed that will not be known or brought out into the open." (Luke 8:17)

Pray this: Lord, I don't know if there's any familiar access, but if there is, show me.

SNAKE 2 – THE MONITORING SPIRITS

The second one is the monitoring spirit. People ask me all the time, where are monitoring spirits in the Bible? To be honest with you, every single demon is a monitoring spirit. The enemy roams around like a lion, looking, watching to see who he can devour.

They're studying you, looking for your weak spot, watching for the right day, moment, and access point.

You wonder, "How did the enemy get in there?" He's been studying you.

Imagine your garden has big stone walls like the Secret Garden. These are the spirits sitting on the wall, or peering over it. They haven't quite got the access, but they're watching, and they don't want to be seen. They just want to get information from you and get it back to where it goes. They're assigned to watch, gather, report, and track your patterns in order to set traps for you.

These are sometimes operating in people who text you in certain moments, and you're thinking, "Why did they text me right then?" Have you ever had ten people you haven't heard from in a while all text you in one day?

People with past history, and your alarm bells go off, and in the past, you've been foolish and told them all your business. Cut off access to this spirit.

"My enemies say of me in malice, 'When will he die and his name perish?' Whenever one comes to see me, he speaks falsely, while his heart gathers slander." (Psalm 41:5-6)

They are the vultures on the side of your life, waiting for your demise. Be wary of them.

SNAKE 3 – WITCHCRAFT FROM A DISTANCE

The third snake... I'm just going to say it how it is for your benefit. They're Christians operating in witchcraft. They don't have access to you, they don't have your number, but they're still watching you, scrolling over your feed, harboring frustration.

Be careful of wounded people. I have a heart for wounded people, but when someone has given themselves over to it and doesn't want to be delivered, bye-bye. Come back when you're ready to be delivered because I'm not going to allow that toxicity around me.

So, the enemy will stir up the witches, the warlocks, the people in the church who use curses against you, even through religious prayers. It's the occult dressed up as Christianity, or sometimes just people straight up in the occult. They're coming at you from a distance, outside your garden, sitting there with their nasty, toxic words, releasing curses, warring against you.

"There is no divination against Jacob, no evil omens against Israel." (Numbers 23:23)

"No weapon formed against you will prevail, and you will refute every tongue that accuses you." (Isaiah 54:17)

A curse without cause has no place to land. You can refute it. You can wake up and feel the swirl and break it before it ever touches you.

And if you've been bitten by these snakes, you'd better deal with the snake bite. Because if you don't deal with the poison, you'll end up inflicting those same wounds on somebody else. That's why you keep coming before the Lord and releasing the pain, the woundedness, and the warfare you've been through to Him.

HOW GOD WANTS YOU TO DEAL WITH THEM

So how does God want you to deal with the snakes?

"Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, our vineyards that are in bloom." (Song of Songs 2:15)

Don't run and hide. Too many people run and hide from spiritual assignments when you need to be chasing them down, saying "no longer on my watch!"

1- The first thing is this: you're going to have to redefine access and proximity. This is a season God is wanting you to ask, who has access to your life? Who's got your phone number, and who shouldn't have it? You think, "Well, I'm an unloving, terrible Christian if I don't respond to all these people." Really? Or are you protecting yourself, protecting your anointing, protecting your family? What's more important: appeasing that person, or staying in the will of God and not being robbed? Ask the Lord: Who are my people, and who aren't my people?

2- The next thing is, don't listen to them. Think about the serpent in the Garden of Eden. If Eve hadn't listened, none of it would have happened. But a lot of the time we want to listen to the serpent because we want to know.

Here's an example: Somebody has a problem with you. You know they've got a lot of stuff going on, but they send you a long message, and you can't help it, you need to know what they're spewing at you. So you open it, and instantly you regret it, and you're in torment for days with those words resounding over and over. I've had the same thing happen to me, and the Lord said, "stop opening those messages. You know what they're going to have in them."

Witchcraft is empowered by words. Information and words are the vehicle of witchcraft. That's why the monitoring spirits want your information – because it becomes a weapon against you. Don't sit down to a meal with the devil.

"Do not give the devil a foothold." (Ephesians 4:27)

"Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it." (Proverbs 4:23)

Access and proximity is everything.

3- The last thing is in Acts 28. Paul was shipwrecked on the island of Malta, and while they were warming themselves around the fire, a snake bit him on the arm, and he shook it off into the fire.

"Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no ill effects." (Acts 28:5)

The word there is apotinasso, which means to brush off. He didn't make a big song and dance about it. The snake was on his arm, and he just shook it off it into the fire. And the people saw that he suffered no injury. That word injury means inner malice, inwardly foul, rotten, poisoned. That's what witchcraft wants to do to you, but it had no power on him. They expected him to swell up, and he didn't.

You have that same authority. That's what God is doing, bringing you into a higher level of authority in this season.

"I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy, and nothing will harm you." (Luke 10:19)

ASCEND ABOVE THE SNAKE LINE

There's an altitude snakes don't want to climb to. There's no food for them up there, it's just a certain height they won't go beyond, and when there's a snake line in your life, the higher you go, where God levels you up and brings you to a higher altitude, the old warfare can't follow you there.

It comes out of a lifestyle. During the warfare, during the pressing and the crushing and all of it coming against you, you decided you were going to worship your way through it. And right now, God is releasing that same fight and fire back onto you.

The Lord is saying, "It's time to shake off the snakes."

So many of you are feeling foggy-headed, confused, with witchcraft around you. I break it now in the name of Jesus. I break the witchcraft. Headaches, leave right now, in Jesus' name. I pray for a complete realignment, body, soul, spirit, and mind.

Lord, expose every one of those snakes. Expose the familiar spirits, the monitoring spirits, and the witchcraft around them. Every snake that's been trying to attack their intimacy, their destiny, their purpose, restore their gardens, in the mighty name of Jesus.

And to the one reading right now, that spirit of torment and lies that comes to you every morning and every late night, sometimes in the middle of the night, where you wake up in anxiety and crippling fear, cold sweats, in panic - that assignment is breaking right now.

Decree this with me: This assignment is over. Get off my life now in Jesus' mighty name. I take back my mind. I take back my nights. I take back my sleep and my rest. I renounce access and agreement with that spirit. I'm covered in the blood of the Lamb.

I'm an heir through the blood of Jesus. I'm royalty, and I will no longer bow to that spirit that I have authority over, in Jesus' mighty name.

You're not going to deal with these same snakes in the next season. You've gone from swirly and foggy one day to clear the next day, never finding consistency because there was always another snake, another fox, always something trying to rob your vineyard, your voice, your family, your peace. And the Lord says, "Enough is enough right now."

You're coming up higher. You're coming up out of that place of constant bombardment and into a place of peace and authority over the very things that were once over you.

So, say it: I'm leveling up. I'm coming up higher. The enemy is under my feet. I'm shaking off the snakes, in Jesus' mighty name.

Tishrei 15, 5787: Saturday-September 26, 2026

Rosangela Atte: The Curse Collector - The Great Reversal
It's Already There for You

I had a very interesting dream recently. In my dream, I was in my house when suddenly, a friend's daughter appeared at my table. She was much younger than she is today, probably around seven or eight years old, and she was sitting with me and eating breakfast.

She turned to me and said, "Rosangela, yesterday you made me realize that all the things we take for granted are not there because they magically appear. They are there because someone has taken the time and care to place them there while we're not watching—things like clean clothes in the drawers, clean sheets on the bed, and food in the fridge... everything we need."

I said, "That's so sweet, Cassidy. You're right! While you're at school, playing with your friends and going about your day, your mommy and daddy go to work and take care of all those things for you and your siblings so that when you need them, they are already there for you."

This Is Gold!

Then the scene changed. I was standing in a field that looked very dry. Suddenly my friend, the little girl's mother, arrived. She was pushing a giant cart that looked like one of those enormous sleds pulled by dogs in the arctic, and it was packed high with things. There was food, clothing, furniture, books, tools, plants—everything you would find in a household and more.

I asked her, "Hey, Angela, where did you go?" She said, "I went to the Curse Collector!"

I repeated what she had said with a very inquisitive tone and expression on my face, "The Curse Collector?"

She said, "Yeah. He takes all the unfruitful things in your life and plants them in His garden. Then, when those things have multiplied and produced as much fruit as they possibly can, you go and collect them from His field."

I suddenly became aware that I was dreaming, and I realized the significance of what I had just heard. I jumped out of bed, exclaiming, "This is gold!"

I knew the Lord had just revealed something to me, and I needed to write it down before I forgot it. When I looked at the clock, it was 3:58 A.M. Remember that number, because I will come back to it.

Someone Who Loves You Has Been Thinking About Your Needs

Let's unpack this dream. The little girl's name was Cassidy, which means "curly-haired." Cassidy represented to me and how God sees me as His precious little curly-haired girl, whom He loves unconditionally. But what stood out to me was what Cassidy learned. (Photo via Flickr)

She realized that the things she needed did not magically appear. Someone who loved her was thinking about her needs while she was simply going about her day. While she was at school, playing, learning and living her life, her mother and father were working, preparing, and making sure that when she came home what she needed would already be there. She understood who she was to them, and because she understood who she was, she could trust who they were to her.

She was their beloved daughter. They were her loving parents. She did not have to spend her day worrying about whether there would be food in the refrigerator when she came home, whether there would be clean clothes in her drawers or clean sheets on her bed, or how everything was going to get done. She could simply be their daughter, because she trusted that they would be her parents. And that is what the Lord was showing me about my relationship with Him.

Throughout the years, He has taught me that I am His beloved daughter. I have learned that His love for me is not dependent upon my perfect performance. I have learned that He is my Father, that He loves me, and that He knows what I need before I even know that I need it. He has been preparing things while I haven't been watching. He has already gone ahead of me. He has not only prepared what I need to live a full and blessed life, but He has also prepared everything I will need to accomplish what He has planned for me before I ever arrive at the assignment.

He reminded me of a passage in Ephesians:

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with Him and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Christ Yeshua, so that in the coming ages He might show the immeasurable riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Yeshua. For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Yeshua for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them." (Ephesians 2:4–10 ESV)

If He prepared the works beforehand, then He also knew what I would need before I arrived at them.

What Does It Mean for Something to Be Cursed?

In the dream, the dry field I was standing in represented all the dry areas of my life where I have not seen much growth. They are the places where—no matter how much I water them, nurture them, fertilize them, pray over them, fast over them, invest in them, declare over them, decree over them, or prophesy over them—they have manifested little or no fruit. They almost seem cursed.

But what does it mean for something to be cursed? To be cursed is to have something working against the blessing, fruitfulness, multiplication, or intended purpose of a person or an area of their life. I believe the Lord was showing me that some of the barrenness we have experienced has been connected to curses and words spoken against us—sometimes deliberately and sometimes out of anger, jealousy, hatred, or envy.

There are people who, like Haman, have looked at someone with resentment in their hearts and spoken against their success, their family, their marriage, their children, their ministry, their business, their calling, or their future. There are word curses that have been spoken by parents, spouses, authority figures, friends, enemies, and even people who once claimed to love us. There are curses that have been spoken in envy over what God has placed upon our lives—curses intended to discourage, diminish, delay, or destroy what God intended to make fruitful.

There are also curses we have unknowingly spoken over ourselves, with statements such as "Nothing ever works for me," "I'll always struggle," "I'm never going to succeed," "Nobody wants what I carry," or "I'll never get out of this."

There are generational curses and destructive patterns that have continued through families. There are curses that have come from inner vows made out of pain—agreements with rejection, shame, fear, scarcity, unworthiness, failure, and limitation. There are curses that have come from believing lies about ourselves, our identity, our abilities, our productivity, and what God has called us to do. (Photo via Unsplash)

There are destructive judgments that have been spoken over our future which we have unknowingly come into agreement with—things like spells, incantations, witchcraft, occult assignments, and evil intentions directed toward us. There are what I would describe, prophetically, as curses of barrenness, fruitlessness, stagnation, delay, premature loss, wasted labor, drought, devouring, obscurity, limitation, lack, and failure. There are curses that have seemed to resist fruitfulness in our wombs, marriages, families, finances, businesses, ministries, creativity, influence, purpose, calling, and the work of our hands.

Some curses have been spoken against us, some have been spoken over us, some have come through destructive generational patterns, and some have been intentionally devised out of jealousy, hatred, and envy. Some became agreements we began speaking over ourselves because, after years of disappointment, we started believing the barrenness was our identity.

There are things we have been desperately trying to make fruitful. We have watered, prayed, fasted, declared, decreed, prophesied, invested, cried and nurtured, while at the same time, without even realizing it, our own words, mindsets, fears, inner vows, limiting beliefs and distorted beliefs about ourselves—about God and about what is possible for us—have been working against the very harvest we have been praying for.

With our mouths we have declared, "God is going to do it," while somewhere deep within us we have believed, "It will never happen for me." We have prayed for increase while believing we are not worthy of receiving it. We've prayed for visibility while being afraid to be seen. We've prayed for provision while expecting lack. We've prayed for healthy relationships while believing we cannot trust anyone. We've prayed for fruitfulness while continuing to speak death over the field.

Without realizing it, we have sometimes been watering the seed with our prayers while uprooting it with our words and agreements. Then we have wondered why the field has remained dry.

He Took the Unfruitful Things and Planted Them in His Garden

However, in the dream, the Curse Collector did not reprimand or judge me. He simply took the unfruitful things and planted them in His garden.

This is where I believe surrender becomes so important. There are things we need to stop trying to fix, control, and force into fruitfulness in our own strength. We need to relinquish the fear, control, limiting beliefs, inner vows, destructive words, and our agreement with what has been spoken over us, and give Him the unfruitful things.

In the dream, when the Curse Collector received them, He planted them in His garden. And in His garden, what had been barren began to produce. It produced fruit, and it continued and multiplied until it had produced as much fruit as it possibly could. Then it was collected and returned. What was surrendered when it was barren came back carrying its harvest, multiplied.

This immediately reminded me of Deuteronomy 23:5: "The LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loved you" (ESV).

He turned the curse into a blessing. What had been intended to work against fruitfulness was reversed. This is where Haman strongly came to mind. Remember what time I woke up? 3:58 a.m.

Esther 3:5–8 tells us that when Haman saw that Mordecai would not kneel or pay him honor, he was filled with rage. His hatred became so great that destroying Mordecai was no longer enough for him. He devised a plan to destroy Mordecai's entire people, and in verse 8 he went before the king and began putting that plan into motion. (Photo via Unsplash)

Haman is a powerful picture of how hatred and envy can give birth to a destructive plan against another person. What began in Haman's heart became an intentional scheme against Mordecai, his people, their lives and their future. However, what Haman devised against God's people was reversed.

Psalm 35:8 describes this kind of reversal so powerfully: "May ruin overtake them by surprise—may the net they hid entangle them, may they fall into the pit, to their ruin" (NIV).

Haman built the gallows for Mordecai, and Haman died on those gallows. He prepared a trap for another man and fell into the very thing he had prepared. Esther received Haman's estate, Mordecai received Haman's position and authority. The man Haman wanted destroyed was elevated and the people he wanted annihilated were delivered. The plan was reversed.

I believe this is what the Lord was showing me through the Curse Collector. There are things that have been devised against your fruitfulness:

- Words spoken against you,
- Curses spoken in envy, hatred or jealousy,
- Things spoken by you,
- Things inherited,
- Things believed and agreed with,
- Things intended to delay, devour, steal, bury, diminish or prevent the harvest God intended for your life.

But the Lord is inviting His children to give Him the unfruitful things.

God Is Sending His Angels to Bring Back the Fruit Plus Interest

Give Him the barren places, the things that have stalled; the things that have been delayed, withheld, or devoured; the things that have been spoken against you; the things you have unknowingly cursed with your own words and beliefs; the assignments, dreams, prayers, books, songs, ministries, businesses, relationships, opportunities, and works that have experienced stagnation or have never produced the fruit you knew they carried the potential to produce. Let Him plant them in His garden.

In my dream, when my friend Angela came back, that enormous cart was not carrying only material things. Its fullness represented the fruit of ministry, assignments, answered prayers, books, songs, ideas, dreams, opportunities, provision, relationships, purpose, and all the works God had prepared beforehand for us to walk in—everything that had experienced stagnation, stalling, delay, withholding, or barrenness; everything that should have multiplied but hadn't.

Angela, representing an angel, was bringing it back—fruit plus interest. I believe the Lord is showing me that He is sending His angels to bring back the fruit, plus interest—everything the enemy has stolen, withheld, delayed, eaten, devoured, sabotaged, buried, blocked, denied, or attempted to make barren in your life all these years.

What Haman devised against God's people was reversed, and I believe the Lord is showing me that He is about to bring reversal and multiplication into the barren places of the lives of His children who will surrender those places to Him.

Give Him the unfruitful things. Relinquish the control, fear, striving, limiting beliefs, and agreements with the curses and words that have spoken barrenness over what God called fruitful, and allow the Curse Collector to take care of the field. Let Him take what has been barren in your field and plant it in His garden. The Curse Collector is coming to turn those dry bones into an exceedingly great army!

Tishrei 16, 5787: Sunday-September 27, 2026

Lana Vawser: I HEARD THE LORD SPEAKING TO MANY DAUGHTERS OF GOD, 'WATCH THE ENEMY PAY FOR THE DELAY'

'And I will restore or replace for you the years that the locust has eaten.' (Joel 2:25 AMPC)

Recently, I heard the Lord speaking to many daughters of God, 'Watch the enemy pay for the delay.' As I leaned into the Lord's heart and listened, I heard:

'My precious daughters, watch the enemy pay for the delay. There are many of you who have been coming up against a spirit of delay, and some of you even without recognizing it. I say unto you that I have seen the attack of the enemy, and I have seen the delay, after delay, after delay, and I say unto you; BE NOT DISMAYED, for this IS a new day and I am bringing forth a mighty REPAY. I say unto you, that I am causing the enemy to pay back for what he has stolen and delayed.

'I say unto you, focus not upon the delay, lift up your eyes to the hills – for I am where your help comes from, I am the Maker of heaven and earth (Psalm 121). I say unto you, that I am bringing forth divine comeback, a divine activation and a divine acceleration in your midst for all the delay that the enemy has attempted to bring into your midst.

'I say unto you, that I am bringing you into a divine redemption of time that you have not ever experienced before. I am causing a redemption of time and a restoration of what has been delayed to now SUDDENLY come forth in unprecedented and unexpected ways. I have seen the constant onslaught of the enemy against you and against what I have purposed and planned in your lives; and I say unto you, that I am bringing forth greater than before in a mighty restore.

'I say unto you, that the day has come, the season is here where you shall see a mighty culmination of My divine power bring forth multiplication, fortification, establishment, apprehending and ascension into all that I have purposed and planned for you. I say unto you that where the enemy has attempted to mark you with loss and brokenness, where the enemy has attempted to lure you into agreement that loss shall always be your portion, that pain shall be the expectation, that disappointment will always remain, I say unto you; I am calling you UP and OUT of the shackles. For whom the Son sets free is free indeed (John 8:36). I say unto you, look to Me, lift up your eyes. I am restoring and re-establishing strength and hope. I am restoring and expanding vision. I am bringing forth that which I have promised you and with great increase.

'My daughters, listen to Me. The enemy does NOT have the upper hand. Give not your attention to his lies and his schemes. Be vigilant and wise as he prowls around like a roaring lion (1 Peter 5:8), but do not place your eyes and focus upon him and the loss and devastation that you have felt has surrounded you. Give not your ear to chaos. Give not your heart to the meditation of loss. For I say unto you, these ARE THE DAYS OF GREAT INCREASE. For I am the God of heaven and earth and by My mighty hand I do the impossible. And I say unto you, these are the days where you shall see in ways you have never seen before, the impossible turned on its head.

'I say unto you, that I am delivering many of you from the chains of impossibility. I am delivering you from the chains of belief in the magnitude of the mountain and I am increasing your perspective on the magnitude of who I am, My power and My Glory as you look to Me.

'For I say unto you, that I am bringing you into deeper places of faith in this hour to hear, see and perceive the move of My Spirit in your midst and to learn in greater ways what it looks like to walk by faith and not by sight (2 Cor 5:7). I say unto you, that through ALL that you have walked, I have been working deeply within you to cause you to awaken to your need of Me in greater ways – that apart from Me you can do nothing (John 15:5). I have been deepening your dependence upon Me as you continue to look to Me. I am causing you in this hour to arise in a strength that is found only in Me – which will see you move forward in the days to come, unstoppable, because of the strength and power of My Spirit that sustains you.

'I say unto you, that I am branding you afresh with the fire of My love and My faith. I am branding you afresh, and I am causing a strength to come forth in you in Me that you have not known before. Watch ME cause the enemy to repay you for all the delay. I say unto you that these are the days of great multiplication. And where you have looked around and there has been a multiplication of loss, hardship and battle, I say unto you, that the multiplication of repayment shall far outweigh the delay that you have faced.

'I say unto you, that where some of you have been tormented by timing; where you have felt like you have been tormented by the bombarding thoughts of the loss of time; where you have laid awake at night in fear that you have missed My timing and My way; where you have felt intense accusation against your mind that you have caused great delay in your own lives, when you know you have been obedient to Me and heard MY VOICE tell you that you have obeyed Me: you shall see in these days the exposing of this spirit of delay that has been coming against you. That what you have been facing has been the enemy bringing forth delay in your lives, attempting to cause you to remain downcast, downtrodden and dismayed that you have missed My way.

'I say unto you, YOU KNOW that you have been obedient to Me, and you shall now see the exposing of this demonic spirit that has been violently coming against you and what I have told you and promised you, and NOW you shall see a mighty repayment for the delay that has been caused and a MIGHTY DEMONSTRATION OF DIVINE TIMING! I say unto you, WATCH the supernatural moments of My divine timing that shall manifest in your lives. Watch the wind of acceleration by My Spirit come forcefully into your lives to divinely align in but a moment of time.

'My daughters, the level of demonstration of My mighty power that is coming forth in your lives in this hour of divine repayment, alignment, activation and restoration is beyond what you can fathom. You shall know joy like you have not known. You shall know peace like you have not known. You shall know vision like you have not known. You shall know direction like you have not known. You shall know insight like you have not known as you see the revelation of My heart and nature come forth in a greater way through the demonstration of My mighty power and Spirit in your midst in this hour.

'Watch and see in these days the magnitude of the momentum of My Spirit that is coming forth. Watch where your days suddenly shift from delay upon delay, to momentum upon momentum. I am going to bring forth in a day that which cannot be brought forth in a day by the power of My Spirit. My breath is being released upon you right now to awaken your faith in a greater way. I am causing the heaviness that has been upon you to be lifted off. I am causing joy to come forth where mourning has resided (Is 60:3, Jer 31:13), and I am establishing you in your calling in a greater way.

'Not only you will you see a mighty repayment for the delay that the enemy has caused, but watch and see how I establish you in what I have called you to; and you shall step into a momentum in My Spirit of acceleration – not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit (Zech 4:6) – to do what I have called you to do. And there shall be many 'finally it's coming alive' moments where visions shall come to life. Where the provisions for the blueprints I have given you will suddenly come forth; where visions and plans looked dead and dry, in but a day, by the power of My Spirit, watch how I will suddenly bring them to life.

'Align not your heart and faith with delay, but look to Me and SEE that I am faithful, and I am bringing you through into the new things that I have for you. You are coming forth in divine strength, comeback, and strategy. I am making a way where there seems to be no way. Remember, nothing is impossible for those who believe (Mark 9:23). These are the days where I am pruning, purifying and strengthening you; bringing you into deeper days of BELIEVING AND SEEING that YOU WILL SEE MY GOODNESS IN THE LAND OF THE LIVING. (Ps 27:13)

Tishrei 17, 5787: Monday-September 28, 2026

Angie Stolba: Supernatural Strategies Released in September

"Call to Me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known." (Jeremiah 33:3 ESV)

Lean in and Listen

I hear the Lord saying, "Behold! I am releasing supernatural strategies in September. I see those who have been seeking Me for wisdom and direction amidst difficult and challenging circumstances. Lean in and listen to My still small voice in this season, for I am releasing heavenly strategies and blueprints in the month of September! Many rough places will be made smooth as you follow My leading and instructions."

"I will go before you, and I will level the mountains; the gates of bronze I will break apart, and the bars of iron I will cut through." (Isaiah 45:2 BLB)

Fragmented Faith Restored

"I have been doing a deep work in My people," says the Lord. "I am dealing with the hearts of many, though this has been painful. Everything that you have endured," says the Lord, "has not been in vain. I am working all things to your benefit and your ultimate good! I am tying knots in you, and upon these knots you will build some beautiful things. Your healing is taking place as you remain yielded to this process. I will restore your confidence and your fragmented faith. You will no longer be an easy target for the enemy to wound your heart through the careless words and actions of others. Things that once wounded you will now roll off of you like water on a duck's back. Your testimony will be that you have tasted and seen that I am good," says the Lord.

"Taste and see that the LORD is good. Oh, the joys of those who take refuge in Him!" (Psalm 34:8 NLT)

Legacy and Generational Blessings

"You are My builders of things everlasting! You will leave a legacy and be the example of generational blessings for those not yet born. Keep moving forward, keep your hand to the plow, and follow My instructions in big and small things alike. What you are building is making much more of an impact than you realize. (Photo via Unsplash)

Pioneers, Keep Going

"I am strengthening you," says the Lord. "I am bringing beauty from the ashes. Things once concealed will now be revealed as My strategies are released and you begin to walk in them. Refuse to get weary in well doing, for a season of reaping—yea, even a mighty harvest—is upon you. Your biggest areas of testing are about to become your greatest areas of blessing and victory. I am the God who restores and takes what the enemy has meant for destruction and uses it for My highest good. I am faithful!

"Watch as I take the heartache and turn it into joy! Watch as I take the loss and turn it into gain! Only I can restore and fix what looks beyond repair and bring beauty from it. My pioneers, continue to walk closely with Me. Do not lean on your own wisdom or understanding. My child, you know My voice; therefore, follow My voice and My leading into the unknown. Truly, My ways are higher than yours. Be watching! Be waiting! Have your lamp and oil lit and stay awake, for I am releasing My supernatural strategies in the month of September," says the Lord of hosts.

Tishrei 18, 5787: Tuesday-September 29, 2026

Bruce and Linda Dietler

Releasing God's Power Through Effectual Fervent Prayer

In Northern Japan recently, 1,800 people came together to begin pulling an ancient 330-ton castle keep back to its original site amid ongoing restoration efforts. The keep – a fortified tower within a castle – having been moved earlier to repair a wall that had been damaged in a major earthquake, is now in process of being relocated to its newly refurbished foundation.

Rotating teams of 80 people heaved on 100-foot-long ropes as the keep of Hirosaki Castle in Aomori prefecture edged closer to its destination. One Saturday, participants towed the building – which has been set on rails – a little over four feet, while the next day it was shifted another three feet. This laborious process of pulling the castle by hand was scheduled to continue until completion by the end of August, with about 4,100 people scheduled to move it a total of more than 16 feet.

The teams of volunteers used the ancient technique known as hikiya, a building-relocation method that has existed in Japan since ancient times, in which buildings are placed on rollers or rails and moved intact. The technique is used to preserve historic buildings that might otherwise be damaged or destroyed. More than 8000 people had applied for the chance to participate in the operation.

[Interestingly, this same technique had been applied when moving our 1880's home in 1900 a distance of three miles, though the workers in our case used horses to do the pulling. It was hauled over logs at the time, the move deemed to be a matter of survival of the little town from which it came, because the railroad, which had been scheduled to come through that town three miles east of our location, instead came through our equally little town where a river existed to supply the steam locomotives with a reliable source of water. Politics had prevailed, and they moved most of the town!]

Applying Hikiya to Prayer

Regarding the hikiya technique, is this not exactly what the Lord has called His Body to do in relation to prayer? The concept is that of synergy: that two or more individuals working together can achieve greater results than just the sum of their individual efforts. The Word tells us in Matthew 18:19-20, "Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." This same principle is shown in Leviticus 26:8, "And five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword." This is the power that derives from efforts such as Dutch Sheets' Give Him 15 podcast and others of a similar nature.

Corporate prayer or intercessory group prayer, when properly directed in alignment with the Word of God in reflecting the heart of God, works synergistically, becoming immeasurably more effectual in its working than the results of a lone prayer individual. Certainly, individual prayers are important and valuable, but corporate prayer is often exponentially more powerful. Knowing this then, what other considerations or keys exist to supercharge our prayer to make it more effectual?

Keys to Effectual Prayer

"The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."
(James 5:16b)

The Greek word for "effectual and fervent" in this verse is energeo. It is the root word for the word "working" in I Corinthians 12:10, which the apostle Paul used to describe the Holy Spirit gift we have been given for the working of miracles. Effectual prayer therefore can be interpreted as a prayer that is powerful and effective – capable of working miracles. Some commentators describe effectual fervent prayer as that which is offered with sincerity and passion. It is prayer that comes from the heart and is offered with faith in God's ability to answer it. Effectual fervent prayer is not just praying loudly or with great emotion; it is prayer that is sincere, striving to be conformed to the will of God, and that glorifies Him.

In coming days, when we may see situations and circumstances that are dark and dire, we must not be discouraged. We will be reminded by Holy Spirit that all we need is a miracle, and that every miracle begins with the effectual fervent prayer of a faith-filled Believer!

As blood-bought heirs of salvation, we are the righteousness of God in Christ. Should we not therefore automatically expect our prayers to be effectual? Ideally yes, but scripture shows that if that were a given, Yeshua's disciples would not have needed to ask for Him to teach them how to pray. They wanted their prayers to be powerful and effectual, unlike those of the scribes and pharisees, just so many words in the wind. So do we.

The prayers of the righteous avail much in an hour of confusion, tumult, turmoil, and darkness that attempts to blanket the people and nations. Effectual fervent prayer is well able to tear that covering. Yet, we can be fervent in prayer and miss the mark if we are not praying in line with the Word of God. It is His Word which is the lamp unto our feet and the light unto our path. Praying the Word is key; then speak nothing that would nullify or devalue God's Word. Never speak that which is contrary to what you believe. Don't contradict by words of doubt or dishonor that which God is birthing within you and through you.

Speak and keep on speaking; pray and keep on praying. Pray without ceasing and never let go of God's promises. Speak as Yeshua did: "It is written..." The Lord wants to remind and encourage us with Jeremiah 1:9-10. "...Behold, I have put My words in your mouth. See, I have appointed you this day over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and break down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant." When we speak the word of God in prayer, decrees and declarations, it works to pluck up and break down the things of darkness in this world, while also building, planting and establishing the things of light. That word is in our mouths.

In Acts 18:25, the Bible describes the disciple Apollos in the following manner: "This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.” Apollos was an eloquent speaker, fervent in spirit, leading many to Christ through his teaching and powerful anointing, but he didn’t know what he didn’t know! In like manner, being fervent in spirit alone is not sufficient to make one’s prayers effectual.

Effectual prayer comes from knowing, understanding, and declaring the fulness of God’s will as presented in His Word. Those sincere individuals who would ask the Lord to rebuke sickness, disease, lack, witchcraft, etc. are missing the mark. It is we who are commanded to speak to the mountain (Matthew 17:20). The responsibility is ours, not the Lord’s. Also, “Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven (Matthew 18:18).” It is not God but we who are to bind and to loose. The responsibility is ours. It is we who have been given authority over every ability of the enemy (Luke 10:19), and it has been given to us to bring forth His will upon earth as it is in heaven. We must not ask God to do what He has already entrusted us to do!

Another key is found in Matthew 17:20b, that being faith. “... verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.” Mark 11:22,24 is yet another prime example: “Have faith in God. What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.” Without faith it is impossible to please God, and without faith in God, in His Word, and in His desire to answer our prayers, it is impossible to pray effectual prayer, regardless how fervent it may be.

Additional considerations for effectual prayer:

- We must pray from above, not from beneath. According to Ephesians 2:6, we are already seated in heavenly places in Christ, and all things are under our feet, not over our head. Never forget your position in Christ, and pray accordingly.
- We must submit ourselves to God, then actively resist the devil, not ask God to resist him for us, and we must not just pray wimpy prayers in hope of victory.
- Remember that the power is God’s, but it works through you. Ephesians 3:20 notes, “Now unto him that is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us”
- When we come before the throne of grace, we are to enter with boldness and confidence in the blood. We don’t just hope the shed blood of Yeshua is enough; we know it is. Scripture says we are to enter boldly. (Hebrews 4:16)
- When we take the name of Yeshua [Jn 14:13-14], His blood, and the Word of God and mix them with faith, we have the greatest arsenal in the universe. The weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds. They are beyond more than enough!

- Prayer is not something we “try.” The prayer of faith may be short and simple, but it is the prayer of faith, not the prayer of doubt and unbelief, that will heal the sick, deliver the captives, and set at liberty those who are bound.
- We are to pray with expectancy. We pray according to the Word, in faith believing for the expected answer. If you don’t expect the desired outcome to your prayers, don’t bother to pray.
- Just as Yeshua was moved by compassion, which was a hallmark of His earthly ministry, so compassion must be a hallmark of our prayers as well. Prayers for show or ritual without true heart involvement are not effectual or beneficial.

We are heirs of God and joint-heirs with Yeshua. Every promise of God is ours. We are not to live in spiritual poverty, but as heirs exercising the authority of His kingdom. When we surrender our plans, our timing, and our will for God’s plans, His timing, and His will, our hearts will be open and more fully yielded to Holy Spirit to pray effectually in any given situation.

As we declare God’s Word and promises over situations, know that His power is being released. No word from God returns void without accomplishing its purpose (Isaiah 55:11). Each time we declare that the power and authority of satan is broken over a given situation, his hold weakens. Elijah, a powerful prayer warrior if ever there was one, prayed multiple times before the cloud appeared. In the same manner, each time we declare the power of the blood of Yeshua over an unbeliever or any other mountain in life, more of that power goes forth. Keep on praying!

If we expect to see revival, we must pray. If we expect to see victory in the family, finances, health, or your job situation, we must pray. We must pray; but we must pray effectually, fervently, in faith believing and in expectation of the performance of God’s word in the situation. God’s word is true; it is settled forever in heaven, and His Word will never fail.

May the example of hikiya prayer stir your heart to greater corporate prayer efforts, and may you be refocused, refreshed, renewed, and reignited with the power and authority that resides in you as an integral member of Yeshua’s Body and co-laborer with Him in establishing His Kingdom on earth by declaring and decreeing His Word in effectual, fervent prayer.

Tishrei 19, 5787: Wednesday-September 30, 2026

Diana Blackburn Larkin

THE NIGHT IS ALMOST OVER

"Watchmen, I want you to CALL from the walls of the cities, and I want you to SEE the horizon through Spirit eyes, and I want you to DECLARE, 'THE NIGHT IS ALMOST OVER, AND I SEE A NEW DAWN ARISING.' Watchmen, what you see are the FIRST RAYS of the SON ARISING over your nations, and He comes with HEALING in His wings and a NEW DAY of PEACE and PROSPERITY.

"As He ARISES in all the FULLNESS of His Kingdom POWER and AUTHORITY, the season of darkness will FADE AWAY, and all My PROMISES to you will be YES AND AMEN. My Sonlight will bring the EXPOSURE of all the evil of this present time and of the ages past. The whole PATTERN of history will be viewed through the lens of TRUTH, and people will see where the DARK PHILOSOPHIES and all the EVIL ACTS came from and how they were SPAWNED from the ANCIENT EVIL and those who were SEDUCED into following the enemy and kept injecting WARS, HATRED, and DEFILING SINS into your world. My Watchmen, you have CALLED on Me for help, and you have ENCOURAGED one another to take a STAND against the evil that was threatening to CONSUME your world.

You drew your STRENGTH from My heart, and you allowed Me to TRAIN you as a UNIFIED ARMY OF LIGHT to PUSH BACK the darkness. Do not listen to the DESPERATE voices of the evil empire trying to SCARE and INTIMIDATE you into BACKING OFF from the battle. Do not take any NOTICE of those FLOUNDERING in UNBELIEF and trying to get you to DOUBT your PRESIDENT and his leadership. They are NOT seeing with Spirit eyes, but with the eyes of their flesh. You take your MARCHING ORDERS and your HOPE in the future from Me because I tell you that THE NIGHT IS ALMOST OVER AND A NEW DAWN IS ARISING."

Tishrei 20, 5787: Thursday-October 1, 2026

Barry Wunsch

Urgent Prophetic Warning Dream: President Trump's Drone Threat / Prayer, Decrees and Declarations

I woke up this morning, sharply after this prophetic dream. My heart was racing and I was instantly on high alert.

I saw President Trump and his family. They were arriving at a private function. To me it seemed like it was an outdoors garden party gathering & celebration of some sort.

They were all arriving together, getting out of their vehicles, President Trump was there, lovingly greeting his family, warm hugs and kind affection all the way around.

I then saw a drone swarm coming in to attack the Trump Family.

These drones were quite small, but highly accurate high-level technology with small explosive charges on them capable of terrible things.

I saw one of these drones strike the President in the chest. He was briefly stunned but he did not drop, nor was he taken out.

I also saw that there were attacks being planned simultaneously throughout North America, and against US Embassies and assets in other nations.

This was a strong warning dream that must be stopped and thwarted through prayer, decrees and declarations.

Weaponized Prayer Decree:

"We decree, we declare and we legislate that no weapon formed against President Donald J. Trump and his family shall prosper!

"We decree, we declare and we legislate that every evil action, plot, plan and strategy to bring harm against President Donald J. Trump and his family cease and desist immediately!

"We decree, we declare and we legislate that all of the enemy's communication systems be scrambled, and confusion be released into all of their ranks and authorities so much so that they turn against one another!

"We decree, we declare and we legislate that every evil drone, drone swarm, deployed against President Donald J. Trum and his family would either lose all power and harmlessly drop from the air or be turned back like a boomerang and return to from where it came to take out the enemies that released them!

"We decree, we declare and we legislate that every rocket, missile or any other weapon to be deployed against The United States of America on American soil or abroad would either lose all power and harmlessly drop from the air rendered useless, be turned into the ocean or barren place or be turned back like a boomerang and return to from where it came to take out the enemies that released them!

"We call for and release the Angelic Hosts of Heaven, as many as are required at this time to battle for us as needed on every front to do the Lords bidding!

"We decree, we declare and we legislate that all traitors, enemy infiltrators, double agents, and enemy assets be exposed, apprehended, arrested, detained and brought to justice for their crimes and crimes against humanity!

"We release Blessing upon President Donald J. Trump and his family.

"Holy Spirit, protect and bless them and overshadow them in all that they do.

"Holy Spirit, draw them unto yourself that they would know you and your great love for them like never before.

"Holy Spirit, give them a dome of your protection.

"Holy Spirit, bring everything that is within them into perfect alignment with your perfect plans and destiny for them and Your Kingdom!

"Holy Spirit, please continue to teach them your Kingdom ways!

"Bless them! Bless them! Bless them!"

Tishrei 21, 5787: Friday-October 2, 2026
Demontae Edmonds: Accessing Your Harvest -
The Principle of Dominion First

Taking Dominion First

Over the past few days, I have asked God for a word to share with the Body of Christ for this season. I believe this is one of the most significant Rosh Hashanah (Feast of Trumpets) seasons of the last two decades.

As I was walking and meditating before the Lord one morning, I heard this in my spirit from the Holy Spirit: "Harvest will come, but tell the people they will need to take dominion first!" The word "dominion" was strongly emphasized to me.

Wait Until the Crop Has Matured

Harvest is defined as "the process of gathering mature crops" ("Harvest," Wikipedia, February 28, 2026). It is also the season when this gathering happens, or the total crop yield collected.

When I read the word "mature," it makes me think of the "fullness of time" mentioned in Scripture (Galatians 4:4; Ephesians 1:10).

Farmers not only plant seed, water the seed, and allow the crop to grow, but they must also wait until the crop has matured. I remember when I was a young boy, my grandfather grew corn, green beans, and kale in the backyard. He would always emphasize that if you picked a crop too early, it would be counterproductive.

That is how God deals with us. He is always desiring to bring us into a new and fresh harvest, but He waits until we have matured in His Word and Spirit so that we are able to steward the harvest properly.

We find this principle in Acts 2: "And when the day of Pentecost was fully come..." (Acts 2:1 KJV).

Pentecost was an intense and powerful moment. It represented both a heavenly harvest and a harvest of souls, with thousands being saved in one day.

However, we must realize that there was a forty-day period between Jesus' resurrection and His ascension, followed by a period of focused prayer and waiting leading up to Pentecost. During this season, the disciples sought God with a new intentionality and focus. They were being prepared and positioned to reap a harvest they had never experienced before. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

The Principles of Dominion and Harvest

Now, back to the principles of dominion and harvest. I asked the Lord, "Give me a Scripture that shows where dominion is needed before harvest." Instantly, the Spirit of God dropped into my spirit Paul's ministry in Ephesus, as detailed in Acts chapter 19. It was at Ephesus that "all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks" (Acts 19:10 KJV). And, "So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed" (Acts 19:20 KJV).

Ephesus became an apostolic hub of massive harvest. But before this harvest was fully actualized, Paul had to exercise and demonstrate Kingdom dominion! Acts 19:19 reveals how Paul's apostolic ministry confronted the witchcraft and occult practices that held many of the people of Ephesus in bondage: "Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver" (Acts 19:19 KJV). An enormous fortune in occult books and paraphernalia was publicly destroyed! Wow!

Ephesus was also a major center of Diana (Artemis) worship. In the face of such spiritual and cultural opposition, Paul did not back down. He stood boldly in Gospel truth and overcame by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Lord also made known the superior power of His Spirit and the dominion of His Kingdom at Ephesus through demonstrative acts of supernatural power.

Acts 19:11–12 declares, "And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: so that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them" (KJV). The evil spirits did not stand a chance against the dominion and authority of the Spirit of Christ!

When the unbelievers and those involved in occult practices witnessed the superior power and grace of a greater kingdom, many broke covenant with the kingdom of darkness. They became part of God's harvest as they embraced the Gospel and came under the New Covenant of God's grace. In this hour, we will have to exercise greater authority and dominion over new challenges and strongholds that present themselves as we take territory for King Jesus. (Photo via Pexels)

Discerning the Strongholds

We also need the eyes of the Spirit to discern the strongholds that are already present. We have become comfortable and complacent with some of these strongholds, but THEY MUST GO!

When the angel appeared to Gideon, the altar of Baal was already present. No one dared touch it. Gideon's own words revealed that he did not believe he possessed the ability to take dominion, nor did he believe his family had the strength or influence to overcome the powers of the age. Yet the Lord did not entertain Gideon's feelings of inadequacy. Judges 6:14 declares, "Go in this thy might." Notice the words "thy might!" Might had already been given to Gideon. He simply needed to use what God had already placed upon his life to take dominion.

Many of you reading this may not realize the same truth applies to you. Don't wait for an angel. Don't wait for some supernatural moment! Don't wait until you feel more powerful. God has already placed His Spirit within you and given you authority through Jesus Christ.

Go in this thy might! Take dominion, and reap your harvest! Selah.

Tishrei 22, 5787: Saturday-October 3, 2026

Recently, Yeshua spoke to a prayer group that I am a part of that HE was calling us to go into the valleys and root out, overturn and utterly destroy the encampment of the enemy. I asked HIM how such a small group of intercessors could accomplish such a task. HE replied; in the past I have kept for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal!

Romans 11:4.

"Today there are over seven million who have not bent the knee to baal; they are praying also. Yet you will need to carry four times the Glory." I said, Lord, we cannot carry one times the Glory due to the weightiness of your presence. HE said; "No you cannot. That is why I will be with you; simply hold on to the hem of MY garment and release MY Glory everywhere I say to go."WB

Andrew Towe: You Will See Victory in the Valley

The Enemy Says, "Defeat," but God Says, "Victory"!

I heard the Lord say to me, "Block out the noise and the shadows. The enemy is trying to intimidate you, but keep your eyes on Me. Keep your ear tuned to My voice. There is much noise, accompanied by terrifying shadows that are attempting to cause My people to despair and fear. But do not back up or back down. This is the hour to take ground! You will see victory in the valley! The enemy says, 'Defeat,' but I say, 'VICTORY'!"

"For I am bringing you through the valley," says the Lord. "The valley is not your destination; it is the place where I will demonstrate My power. What looked like the place of your greatest battle will become the place of your greatest victory. What the enemy intended to use to intimidate you will become the very ground where you watch your giant fall."

"Do not allow what you see to become louder than what I have spoken. The shadows may appear large, but remember, a shadow has no substance. The enemy has magnified what he wants you to fear, but I am exposing his intimidation. Keep moving forward! Keep believing! Keep declaring what I have said! The promises that I have made have not changed!"

Psalm 23 Is a Template for Where You Are Headed

Psalm 23 is one of the most quoted and beloved passages of Scripture in the Bible. However, I want you to discover a powerful truth revealed in the fourth verse:

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me." (Psalm 23:4 KJV)

Notice that David declared that he was walking through the valley of the shadow. In other words, he was prophetically declaring what God had already spoken: the valley of shadows was not his final destination. Later in the passage, David reveals where he was headed: "Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies." (Psalm 23:5 KJV)

The devil would love for you to become so afraid by the shadows you see that you give up in the valley. But God says, "Get ready! You are about to see the greatest victory of your life. There is a table prepared for you!" Moreover, He doesn't stop there. After the valley, you will come out with a fresh anointing so great that your cup will run over! (Photo via Pexels)

The Noise of the Enemy Is an Opportunity for Your Victory

Furthermore, the Lord instructed me to tell His people, "Block out the noise!" There is a lot of demonic chatter that has been sent to stop you from fulfilling His purpose for your life. However, the same frequency that causes some to run away in fear hits the ears of others and causes them to rise up and fight.

In 1 Samuel 17, we read that David was sent on a mission from his father, Jesse, to check on his brothers who were facing a battle with the Philistines. David did not realize that God had actually set him up for a battle that would bring elevation and deliver a nation.

Israel was camped on one mountain, and the Philistines were camped on another, with a valley in between them. For forty days, the giant Goliath would march in the valley, mock the God of Israel, and challenge the men of Israel to come and fight with him. His vast size and the noise of his words caused the Israelite army to tremble in fear. But when the sound of his mocking hit the ears of David, faith, not fear, arose within him.

Everyone heard the same giant, but David heard him differently. The army heard a reason to retreat. David heard a cause to advance. The army saw the size of Goliath. David saw the greatness of his God. The army heard the noise of intimidation. David heard an opportunity for victory!

Before David ever released a stone, he released a declaration: "This day will the Lord deliver thee into mine hand" (1 Samuel 17:46 KJV). David answered the enemy's noise with the word of the Lord! (Photo via Pixabay)

Even now, I hear the prophetic word of the Lord saying to you, "In this season, when the enemy is stirring up noise to cause you to back down, you will not retreat! Neither the size of the opposition, nor the shadow blocking the light, nor the sound of the noise can stop what God has promised you.

"The valley that was supposed to be the place of David's defeat, instead became the place of his victory. He entered that valley as a shepherd boy, but he came out with the anointing of a warrior, carrying the evidence that the giant had fallen. The valley became the place of his elevation!"

This Is Your Hour to See Victory in the Valley

Hear the word of the Lord: "The shadow may look intimidating, but it cannot stop My light. The giant may be loud, but he cannot cancel My word. The valley may look threatening, but it will not become your grave. It will become the place of your victory!"

"You are not fighting for victory; you are standing in the victory that I have already secured for you. So, block out the noise. Ignore the shadows. Keep your eyes on Me. Keep your ear tuned to My voice. Keep moving forward and take the ground I have promised you.

"You are coming through the valley. The giant is coming down. The table is already prepared. Your head will be anointed with oil, and your cup will run over! This is your hour to see VICTORY IN THE VALLEY!"

Tishrei 23, 5787: Sunday-October 4, 2026

Dutch Sheets: Unlocking Blessing Through the Biblical Law of Honor

The Law of Honor

There is a fundamental principle established by God that the modern world has largely forgotten or discarded. It isn't just a polite suggestion, a set of social manners, or a cultural trend of a bygone era. It is a spiritual law: the Law of Honor.

In the economy of God, honor is not just an emotional or mental response; it is a spiritual currency. If you do not understand how it operates, you will constantly find your spiritual momentum stalled, your prayers unanswered, and your destiny locked up behind closed doors. God operates within relational alignments of covenant and authority. When we align ourselves with His plan through honor, we tap into a pipeline of divine favor, protection, and power. When we break that alignment through dishonor, we disconnect from the very flow we desire to experience.

The Scriptures do not present honor as optional. From Genesis to Revelation, it is one of the primary catalysts for inheriting covenant promises. To understand this, let's look at some of God's demands regarding honor:

1. Honoring Parents: The Generational Taproot

Honor begins in the home. Exodus 20:12 instructs us: "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the Lord your God is giving you" (NKJV).

Notice what the apostle Paul says about this specific instruction in Ephesians 6:2–3; it is the first commandment with a promise. This is incredibly profound. He says that if we honor our parents, it will go well with us, and we will live long on the earth.

Why would God condition long life and prosperity on how we treat our parents? For one thing, they are our physical portal into the earth. Dishonoring our parents is an act of spiritual rebellion that cuts us off from the generational taproot. It doesn't matter if our parents were flawed, broken, or completely missed it in their assignment. Honor is not about validating their performance; it is about respecting the position God granted them in our timeline. When we extend honor to the source of our earthly life, we secure our right to generational inheritance, pulling forward the blessings of those who walked before us while shutting the door on inherited curses. (Photo via FreeGreatPicture)

2. Honoring Leaders: Releasing the Miraculous

The second dimension where the law of honor operates is in our relationship to authority figures, both spiritual and civil. In the Body of Christ, we often talk about spiritual authority but often struggle with the practical application. In 1 Timothy 5:17, Paul writes, "Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine" (NKJV). In Romans 13:1, we are reminded, "Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God" (NKJV).

When we honor leaders, we are not worshiping a man or a woman. We are recognizing and bowing our hearts to the divine delegation of authority behind them. If we cannot honor the leader God gave us, we cannot receive from the anointing on their life. This is precisely why Jesus could do "no mighty works" in His hometown of Nazareth (Mark 6:5). The people looked at Him and saw a common carpenter; they treated Him with familiar dishonor, and their familiarity cut them off from their miracles. If you treat a prophet like a regular person, you get a regular person's reward. But if you honor the calling, you unlock the full weight of the supply attached to that calling.

3. Honoring Figures from the Past: Reopening Wells

One of the greatest tragedies of our current cultural landscape is the presence of an arrogant, historical amnesia. We live in a generation that loves to dig up the flaws of historical figures while ignoring the wells they dug and altars the built with their blood, sweat, tears, and prayers.

Scripture takes historical honor very seriously. Look at Hebrews 11—the great "Hall of Faith." God meticulously chronicles the victories, sacrifices, and steps of obedience taken by Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Rahab, and others. He honored their legacy.

In the spirit realm, we do not build our destinies from scratch; we inherit and build on what has already been paid for. We are called to re-dig the spiritual wells of our spiritual forefathers (Genesis 26:18). When we honor historical figures—the reformers, the revivalists, and the Founding Fathers of our nations—we build a bridge to the roads they built. John 4:38: "I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labors" (NKJV).

When we speak respectfully of the price paid by those before us, we form a synergistic alignment across time. We link our current assignment with their unfinished mandates, triggering an accumulation of anointing that causes momentum and breakthrough in our day. On the other hand, dishonoring the past blinds us to the map for our future.

(Photo via Unsplash)

4. Honoring Others: Corporate Synergy

Finally, the law of honor must flow horizontally. It cannot just look upward to God or backward to history; it must also look outward to our peers.

The apostle Peter commands us to "Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king" (1 Peter 2:17 NKJV). Paul takes it a step further in Romans 12:10, instructing us to "Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another" (NKJV).

True Kingdom honor values individuals as image-bearers of the most high God, not their social status, income, or benefit to our personal agendas. When we walk in horizontal honor to other Believers, we are also honoring Christ in them. "The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I have no need of you'" (1 Corinthians 12:21 NKJV). When we honor our brother or sister, we value their position in the Body. This appreciation births a powerful corporate synergy that the enemy cannot fracture. And it creates an atmosphere where the Holy Spirit loves to dwell. Where there is unity, He commands the blessing (Psalm 133).

In Conclusion

Ultimately, honor is a matter of the heart. It is the physical manifestation of our reverence for God Himself. When we build a lifestyle of honor—honoring parents, respecting leadership, valuing historical legacies, and preferring one another—we create a perfectly aligned conduit through which the glory of God can pour out unhindered. Let's break off the spirit of dishonor, realign our mouths and hearts, and watch the doors of Heaven swing open over our lives, our families, and our nations.

Pray with me: Father, You place great importance on honor. You buried Moses Yourself, washed Your disciples' feet, and stood to honor Stephen when he was martyred and entered Heaven. May we follow Your example and demonstrate the same appreciation for our forefathers, leaders, families, and friends.

We thank You for the pathfinders whose road we follow. We honor the teachers and instructors upon whose insights we have fed. And we salute the cloud of witnesses whose blood, sweat, and tears have pioneered Kingdom accomplishments upon which we build today. May they find us faithful... and grateful.

May we always model the law of honor. Awaken in us hearts that prefer others above ourselves, and give us Kingdom mindsets that serve the greater good above our own. As we do, we believe supernatural blessings and power will be released, enabling us to accomplish Your purposes for our lives. All of this we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Tishrei 24, 5787: Monday-October 5, 2026
Bethany Hicks: A New Name for a New Season

Every new season requires an upgrade in identity. And there's a new season upon us. Throughout Scripture, we see men and women stepping into new seasons often marked by God giving them a new name.

One of my favorite examples is Abram. God had already promised Abram that he would have a son and become a great nation. But more than twenty years later, when the fulfillment of that promise was finally drawing near, God appeared to him again. Notice how God marked Abram's new season: "No longer will you be called Abram; your name will be Abraham, for I have made you a father of many nations" (Genesis 17:5 NIV). I find the timing of this fascinating. Abram was seventy-five when God first gave him the promise of Isaac, but it wasn't until he was ninety-nine that God changed his name. Within one year of his new name, we see the season he had been waiting for finally open up as his wife Sarah became pregnant with Isaac. Why did God wait twenty-five years? Perhaps the identity that carried Abram through one season wasn't big enough for where God was taking him next.

Abram meant "exalted father," but the name Abraham carried the new identity as a "father of a multitude." Before Abraham ever saw the fulfillment with his eyes, God changed what he would hear with his ears every time someone called his name. His new name was calling him into agreement with his new season. And Abraham wasn't the only one. We see this pattern throughout Scripture. Sarai became Sarah. Jacob became Israel. Simon became Peter. Saul became Paul.

Again and again, God revealed something about a person's identity that helped them understand the season and assignment ahead. He still does this today.

My New Name to Go with My New Calling

About eight years ago, the Lord began upgrading my own understanding of who I was. Through several different prophetic encounters, one phrase kept being spoken over me: "Apostolic mother." (Photo via Unsplash)

At first, I didn't fully understand it, but over time I began to realize that this wasn't simply a ministry title or a fancy religious function. It was Heaven giving me language for something God had already placed inside of me to unlock the new season ahead. As I began agreeing with that identity, new doors began opening. I wrote a book redefining mothering in the Kingdom of God. I've had the privilege of mothering men and women spiritually, mentoring others in becoming Kingdom mothers themselves, and even writing about the power of Kingdom mothering for an entire nation. Those assignments have been incredible honors, but a new identity itself speaks to more than assignments. A new identity also opens a new season of fresh favor, authority, and influence as we come into agreement with who Heaven says we are. I believe God has a similar key for you. There are treasures of identity hidden in Christ within each of us—unique expressions of who He is that He wants to reveal through our lives.

So perhaps the question isn't simply "Lord, what are You asking me to do next?" Maybe an even more important question is "Lord, who are You revealing me to be in this next season? Because sometimes we are asking God for a new assignment while He is trying to give us a new perspective of ourselves—one that doesn't just point to a single assignment but unveils an entire season of assignments.

A New Year: A Time of Breakthrough and Fresh Revelation

We have just entered Rosh Hashanah—the "head of the year"—marking the beginning of the Hebrew year 5787. And though we don't live by the Hebrew calendar, spiritually, Believers are often affected by it. It's often a time of breakthrough and fresh revelation. What if part of entering your next season is discovering the new language Heaven is speaking over your identity? What if there is something God wants you to stop calling yourself? What if He is expanding the way you see yourself, because He is expanding the way He intends to move through you?

May this Hebrew new year unveil a new you in Christ Jesus. Take time to ask the Father who He is calling you to be in this next season. Remember that you can never do what God says you will do until you believe you are who God says you are.

Tishrei 25, 5787: Tuesday-October 6, 2026

Terry Friesen: The Advancing Kingdom

As we entered the new year, I was hit by a concussive wave in the spirit. I am unsure how else to describe it. It was like opening an exterior door, standing in the doorway, and almost being blown over by a fierce wind that had been blowing all the time, but not felt until the door was opened. This wind was very strong and overpowering to my natural man. I felt strength drain from my soul, and I was faced with what looked like an impassible reality. I perceived a veritable minefield with so many ordinances; I couldn't see or perceive a way through.

I still cannot explain how I was able to navigate this minefield, all I know is that by the invisible hand of God, He moved me from one side to the next. I say invisible, because the enemy barrage was so strong and my soul so overwhelmed, I didn't have any resources left to discern the Father's presence. Somehow, amid this set of circumstances, the Father caused my soul to decrease, and the way opened before me by His grace. As He moved me from one side to the next, I continued to feel the clutter coming against me. It was clearly a miracle that He moved me from one reality to the next, and not something I could stir up strength for.

The next morning as I awoke, the Lord brought me into an encounter. I saw clearly in front of me that the Spirit of unity was going to break pride and independence. This would not be unity as defined by man's efforts or man's agenda. This would be a unity in the spirit, initiated and sustained by the Spirit of unity. I saw new corporate anointings being released as the Spirit of unity rested upon ecclesia groupings. As an example, I saw in the spirit those assigned to bring the Kingdom into business and finance. Though they didn't know each other, this grouping would be unified in the spirit realm across the globe. New anointings and graces were released to shatter global power structures in finance and business through their unity in Christ.

Next, I saw life trying to push through in many areas. It was like the Kingdom of God was being birthed at a new level, but the path was not simple or clear. This new Kingdom reality was being birthed into the Earth realm and doing so by violently expressing itself; this world had no choice but to make room for its coming. I could see that the Earth was filled with so many compromised structures, which frustrated the coming of this Kingdom. The fallen systems of this world were not easily nor willingly giving room to, or making way for, this Kingdom to come into the world.

But this birthing of the Kingdom was not deterred; though it faced the opposition of the ages, it continued to come forth. I saw new life associated with this new birth, and it started to flow in the channels that were prepared for it. I sensed that the Father in His grace made His Kingdom available to every area on the globe, but as this life was not welcomed everywhere, it started to pool and collect in the areas it was welcomed. It became thick in the places where it collected, and that's where it would start to grow.

Next, I saw the seven mountains of society's influence. From the throne of the Father, I saw 28 sounds or frequencies released in the spirit. Four frequencies were released to define the four corners of each mountain of influence. It was critical that the Mountain of the Lord was the first to be established in its foundations. All Earthly boundaries and influence would be defined and informed by the mountain of the Lord. The 28 mountain-defining frequencies were released so that the builders of the Kingdom of God would know the God-defined boundaries of each mountain of influence.

Currently, the mountains of influence have been perverted and taken captive by forces of wickedness. They have been deformed and misshapen due to the ungodly forces and pressure upon them. They must be re-formed according to the design of the Lord, and subject to the mountain of the Lord. They will change from vehicles of control and wickedness, and they will begin to form the structures of society that the Kingdom of God flows through to bring life and blessing to the peoples of the Earth.

I saw evil actors at the tops of each of these mountains start to burn out. The powers that have sustained them have been arrested by the declarations and authority of the saints. They are running on fumes and unaware that their platforms are burning below them, soon to crumble. I saw one after another at the top of each mountain burn out and fall like heaps of spent ash. In the place of these vacated spheres of influence, I saw the gentle breeze of fresh glory appearing. These new areas were now prepared for our Father's plans.

The Kingdom of God and the mountain of the Lord are coming forth this year and will be established in a new way, a way that we have not previously witnessed. A battle will take place, a battle for the ages. The Kingdom of God will gain a new foothold, greater than its current expression, from which it will never retreat. From this foothold, it will advance until the Earth is filled with the glory of God.

Tishrei 26, 5787: Wednesday-October 7, 2026

Chapter 14 from: "The Heart of a Seer:

MY KINGDOM is Justice. (Wade Butler)

Frances and I were seeking the LORD and pressed through into an open vision/ascension for nearly an hour. We started with repentance and communion seeking the LORD for forgiveness for our attitudes, actions, and failures from us and the body of Christ. All of us have faced the challenges of the media's coverage of everything evil that was to their benefit to show, and nothing about the horrific attacks on innocent people, property, and the nation. It is all about the rioters' rights, and nothing about those violated. I "lost it" when I saw on the local news where people were throwing bricks at a family leaving Texas Children's Hospital with their seven-year-old daughter who was just being released. They were throwing bricks and rocks at innocent children's windows. The hospital system in Houston is among the best in the nation, and the trauma and cancer facilities are sought out by sufferers from every corner of the world. My flesh wanted to put the rioters in those hospitals. Anger and indignation welled up in me like I cannot remember. I would have shown up like a Rambo with every weapon I own and would have ended up either in jail or dead for my actions.

My attitude rattled me, and I had to repent and pray for all involved. Defending my own is one thing, the world is another. I cried out, "Where is the peace and joy of the season, the abundance that was promised? Has the enemy stolen everything we stand for, FATHER?"

It was past time to meet with the LORD. We entered prayer and asked to have a visitation. The journey was profound. As we entered in after repentance and communion, we were met by an angel named "Contender," whom I have encountered on several occasions. He said we had an appointment with the LORD, and escorted us through the portals of Heaven to a place we had been before.

We arrived at the Rotunda where we had visited in 2018; the doors of Heaven and the Treasury are located there. Suddenly, the LORD appeared, and everything bowed before HIM. He showed me that all of the doors were now open due to the prayers of the saints.

As we stepped back to get a better look, I saw in a new light all of what that entailed. I saw, for the first time, that the Great Hall is named "MY KINGDOM." He said, "The time is now." It is no longer about the doors opening; it is about HIS KINGDOM BEING FULFILLED.

What our LORD said next troubled me to my core. He said, "The enemy of your souls wants his kingdom on earth to have an effect on the KINGDOM IN HEAVEN; the greatest attack is yet to come. The time is short, and what we do next is very important." Satan seems to believe if he can destroy the children of GOD and the move of God that he can reenter Heaven as victorious. He has lost everything yet refuses to give up.

YESHUA said to me, "How we pray and worship through July 2nd of 2024 would determine the direction of the nations and what President Trump would have to say on July 4th of that year. The greatest attack of the enemy is yet to come, PRAY. My children do not realize the power they have and the legions of angels that are available to be dispatched. They need to pray 'MY WORD;' it is the only thing that the Host responds to." (Psalm 103:20)

During our prayer journey, the LORD said many personal things to Frances and me, "You are forgiven, go and sin no more." HE knew I wanted to do exploits for the KINGDOM, yet He repeated to me, "Enter into that which I have already done and am doing, call upon my Host, speak MY WORD, and the angels will perform it, for they obey MY WORD, not man's commands. Send forth the legions at your disposal."

Each of Us is Called to See with Spiritual Insight
What our LORD is Showing for the NOW!

Unfortunately, we are in a season of war that has not lessened, but increased. You can see it on every front. It seems to be that everyone I know is so involved at home, at work, or in recreation, and more so the church, that we cannot "see the forest for the trees." Our enemy knows how to attack us on every front.

Thankfully, the LORD is sending HIS TROOPS to assist us. Let me tell you of a recent encounter. Several of us were praying to come up higher and allow us to see what HE was saying. Again, HE is inviting us into HIS presence. An angel appeared with this word, Psalm 91:11 For He will give His angels charge over you to accompany and defend and preserve you in all your ways [of obedience and service].

At that point, he escorted us onto the Mountain of the LORD. The angel was enormous. He carried in his right hand a flaming sword, and in his left hand, a scale which had the words "Justice" on one side and "HIS LOVE" on the other. As we followed the angel, we were led into an elaborate hall with a table looking like the knights of the round table where we were told to sit down. There was an additional circular table inside of it with a column raising up beyond the ceiling in its center. The column contained the SPIRIT of the LORD, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit appearing as if banners of color: gold, teal, and royal blue. At first, we thought the column was spinning when, in fact, we were actually circling it counterclockwise as the inner table turned clockwise. It was like a wheel within a wheel. I asked the Spirit of the LORD what did this mean?

He said, "I'M TURNING BACK THE CLOCK FOR MY CHILDREN TO RECOVER ALL THEY HAVE HAD STOLEN OR LOST. TIME STILL CONTINUES, BUT IT IS TIME TO RECOVER ALL!" Joel 3:1, For behold, in those days and at that time when I shall reverse the captivity and restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem.

Next, the voice of the Trinity came from the column saying, "I AM SENDING MY ANGELS OF JUSTICE INTO THE EARTH, YEAH, THEY HAVE ALREADY BEEN SENT. THEY WILL WEIGH THE HEARTS OF MAN TO SEE WHO WILL RECEIVE THE LOVE OF MY SON. THOSE WHO RECEIVE HIM WILL HAVE THE SWORD CUT OFF THE BONDAGE OF SIN AND DEATH AND WILL RECEIVE THE JUSTICE OF MERCY. THOSE WHO DO NOT RECEIVE HIM WILL RECEIVE THE SWORD OF THE WRATH RESERVED FOR THE ENEMIES OF THE LORD YOUR GOD AND THE JUSTICE RESERVED FOR THEM IN THE FIRES OF HELL."

Our enemy, the devil and his minions, are continually on attack trying to wear us down through discouragement, sickness, financial burdens, and more. What makes a difference is our relationship with the Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

We are GOD'S warriors who stand between the enemy and our promises. We all have been calling out those promises as we wait on GOD to do the miracles on our behalf.

Historically, during this time and season, the Hebrew people counted the days as they waited for the manifestation of GOD's promises. It started in the upper room and manifested on Simon's portico, the porch where Holy Spirit filled the disciples and 3,000 were added to the church. Acts 2:40-42 (AMPC) ⁴⁰ And [Peter] solemnly and earnestly witnessed (testified) and admonished (exhorted) with much more continuous speaking and warned (reproved, advised, encouraged) them, saying, Be saved from this crooked (perverse, wicked, unjust) generation. ⁴¹ Therefore those who accepted and welcomed his message were baptized, and there were added that day about 3,000 souls. ⁴² And they steadfastly persevered, devoting themselves constantly to the instruction and fellowship of the apostles, to the breaking of bread [including the Lord's Supper].

The Harvest is ripe, the vine dresser is doing HIS work, and it is time for the harvesters to go into the fields. Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I, Send me!" Are we ready? Have you really prayed about what is your next step with the LORD? If may just be, "Lay down everything and follow ME."

Tishrei 27, 5787: Thursday-October 8, 2026
Walking as Warriors of God's Word

From God's Glorious, Victorious Church, by Bruce & Linda Dietler

God speaks in many places in both the Old Testament and New Testament that He will shake the heavens and the earth. In Hebrews 12:27-28 He says, "Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven... that those things which cannot be shaken may remain." That shaking has now begun in earnest, with earthquakes and volcanoes, as well as in the economic realm, the political realm, the spirit realm, and most other realms to which people cling for stability in this life. As these shakings intensify, and they will, multitudes will be looking for answers. There must be a people who do know their God; those who will be strong and do exploits, and those who will show others the way out of the darkness that is overtaking the earth. May the following truths from God's word encourage and empower you to fulfill that purpose.

Isaiah 55:11 (AMP) reads, "So will My word be which goes out of My mouth; It will not return to Me void (useless, without result), without accomplishing what I desire, and without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it.”

God’s word runs, with life from Him, endowed with divine power, supplied with divine commission, and it will always accomplish that for which it was sent forth.

An itinerant evangelist in the early days of the last century, G.C. Bevington walked into a small southern town with the intention of preaching. Upon arrival, he found that another unnamed evangelist had already come to town and had services scheduled in a storefront building. At the appointed time, therefore, Bevington attended the service and found himself the only attendee besides the evangelist himself. Knowing that Bevington was also a minister, and despite the absence of anyone else in attendance, the evangelist strode to the pulpit and began to preach his heart out as if he were addressing a large congregation. At the end of his message, the minister walked over and just sat down, leaving Bevington dumbfounded. What had just happened? Shortly, an individual came into the storefront and ran weeping to the altar to give his heart to the Lord. It was as if he had heard every word that was preached, and that word pierced his heart and brought him to his knees before the Lord. The evangelist had sent forth the word of God into the spirit realm, and that word, spoken under the anointing and the authority of Christ, accomplished exactly what it was sent forth to do.

With this example in mind, it is beneficial to remind ourselves of what the Bible says about God’s word. Hebrews 4:12 (AMP) describes it as “living, active, and full of power [making it operative, energizing, and effective].” Never forget: God’s word is never without power. As members of Christ’s ekklesia, we realize the power and importance of the words we speak; this is by no means a new concept to us. We therefore choose to speak words of truth, not error; words of life, not death; God’s heart (words), not our own. God literally created the universe and all that is within it by the power of His word. John 1:1-3,14 reminds us that “In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God and the word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.” That is powerful! God’s word created it all, and Yeshua is the very word of God incarnate. When we speak His word, we bring Yeshua, in all his authority, into the middle of the situation at hand.

God has magnified His word above His name (Ps 138:2) Yeshua has delegated to us the power to bind and loose (Matthew 18:18-19); we do so with our words. He cast out spirits with His word, and healed all that were sick (Matthew 8:16); we have been empowered to do likewise. We have been delegated absolute authority over every ability of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means harm us (Lk 10:19); we exercise that authority through the blood of Yeshua and the power of God’s word. Yeshua defeated satan on the Mt. of Temptation by declaring the word of God (Matt 4:8-11). The overcomers of Revelation 12:11 overcame [satan] by the blood of the Lamb, and by the testimony of the word; we are to do likewise. In Mark 16:20, as the disciples went forth and preached, the Lord worked with them, confirming [His] word with signs following; He is faithful to confirm His word for us as well.

James 5:16 tells us, "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." So, what is effectual fervent prayer? It is heartfelt prayer which speaks, declares, or proclaims God's words in faith, believing that the answer is at hand, not in some future time. Faith is NOW (Heb 11:1), and prayers must be in the "now." The ministering angels hearken to the voice of God's word (Ps 103:20), and speaking His word puts them into action. Our authority and dominion over the powers of darkness comes not through speaking our own words, but through speaking God's words.

Many prophetic voices have, in recent days, been bringing the dunamis of these basic truths to the forefront in great force and with a great sense of urgency. Julie Green recently released a powerful exhortation from the Lord which says, in part, "This is the time when My children need to shout, and not just any words. You shout My Words. You shout My Words of freedom. You shout My Words of deliverance. You shout My Words of truth. You shout these Words, and you watch these Words come to pass.

"Take your muzzles off. You shout My Words like never before, and you believe that I am the Greater One on the inside of you. You believe that I am the One that is moving your enemies out of the way. You believe that I am the One that is removing them. You believe that I am the One that as you speak My Words, you will see your enemies' walls come crashing and crumbling down before your face.

"I am the same God that was at the walls of Jericho, and I am the same God from the book of Exodus. I am the same God who destroys the power of the enemy in a day. I just need My children to agree with it. I need My children to shout My Words. In your prayers, do not just say any words. You say Mine. You say My Words because My Words are spirit, and My Words are life. And My Words change things.

"Change your vocabulary. Stop saying things of defeat. Stop saying things that frustrate you. Stop saying things that keep you in that darkness your enemy is holding you in. You say My Words of light, My Words of freedom, My Words of deliverance. My Words will shake those shackles off and destroy the prisons, the cells, that your enemies have had you in.

"Let your enemies know that you believe My Written Word more than the thoughts in your mind, the feelings in your body, or the way things look all around the world. Because they will try to (make the world) look more confusing and desperate and (have) greater darkness and chaos. But you will not be confused.

"You (need to) believe in Me and Who I am. I am about to show you that I am the Great I AM. I am the One in My Written Word, and I am about to get the world's attention.

"But, My children, I need your agreement. I need you to speak the Words I have given to you. I need you to agree with what I say and not what the enemy says anymore. The enemy has kept you in bondage, in cages, and his torment because you are believing his words over Mine.

"This is a time of great change. This is a time when you have to believe and trust in My Written Words. Trust that I speak through My prophets. Trust that I speak and I will perform the Words I have promised through them. This is a time of great change. This is a time of great and violent shaking, but as I have said, this is not for you. This is for your enemies and their destruction, for them to be in chaos and confusion, and for the walls they have been hiding behind to come crashing down. This is that time.

"And this is the time to believe My Words over theirs. I say in My Word to trust Me, but many of My children do not. They trust their circumstances and how they feel. This is the time to have a greater walk with Me. Let Me show you Who I am, not what some people behind a pulpit said I was."

Dutch Sheets added emphasis to these thoughts in a recent Give Him 15 segment. Regarding the power of declarations in prayer, He says, "In Matthew 6:10, in the phrase, 'Thy will be done,' the two words 'be done' are translated from this one Greek word, ginomai. The tense of the verb indicates a command. Basically, Christ said we are to command or declare for God causing His will to be, to become, to be created."

He continues with, "Through [our] prayers [speaking God's words], we are to release God's light over America every day! Command the unveiling, unmasking of darkness. Release His light over the deceitful plans, the hidden agendas, and the lies of corrupt people. Release it over the elections and candidates. Declare exposure, and release God's light over the minds of unbelievers, freeing them to "see" the gospel. CAUSE these things TO BE!

Elaine Tavalacci has also spoken into this matter by saying, "The Lord is raising up a generation of believers who will become His voice. He is looking for those who will reverberate His voice, reflect His glory, and rekindle the fire across the land. In our own nation, a battle is unfolding between good and evil, and the gospel must first be preached to all nations, and then the end will come. He who has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit is saying.

"The Lord is raising up 'Sons of Thunder.' They speak with voices of victory, and voices of authority. He is calling many of you to be His voice in this hour. He is calling people from all generations from the youth to the elderly to release His word to a world in turmoil. He's calling the youth to carry His word into the schools from the elementary schools to the college campuses.

"He is calling forth believers to be His voice in this season, bringing a profound spiritual awakening. As you open your mouth and speak, rivers of living water will flow from your innermost being. Do not allow these rivers to become stagnant. Do not allow them to dry up, but go forth and trumpet Jesus' word to the nations. He desires to release His glory in an unprecedented way in this season with signs and wonders following. Sons of Thunder rise up!"

As believers, we need to fully grasp and appropriate the fulness of these concepts. Selah! Meditate on this. At the emergence of the Word of Faith movement in the early 1970's, many rushed after "naming and claiming" the blessings of God, rather than declaring His word of salvation, healing, and deliverance for individuals and for nations. Today, many run to and fro looking to seize upon the next personal prophecy from the Lord. Though it is not wrong to seek specific words of wisdom from Him, the problem comes from neglecting to act upon or rejecting the word He has already given to us.

Because King Saul rejected the word of the Lord, he was rejected by God from being king (1 Sam 15:23). Joshua and Caleb spoke what God had said and ultimately entered the promised land, whereas the remaining Israelite spies of Numbers chapter 13, by rejecting the word of the Lord, who said He had already given them the land, caused the entire generation to miss entering into that inheritance simply because they refused to receive and stand upon His word. We who desire to enter God's fulness for us must likewise take heed to His word, speak it effectually, fervently, and boldly, and act on it.

The Lord has called us to be His light bearers, faithfully stewarding His word in our lives to apply as the sword of the Spirit, to divide asunder soul from spirit and to discern the thoughts and intents of hearts. One God word, spoken through a yielded, believing vessel can change any life or any situation instantly and forever. It is incumbent upon us to be that yielded vessel and to speak that word. It will not return void (useless, without result), without accomplishing what God desires, and without succeeding in the matter for which He sent it.

Tishrei 28, 5787: Friday-October 9, 2026

Patti Finney Compton

GOD IS RAISING UP APOSTOLIC AND PROPHETIC HOUSES AND WAR-ROOM ROUNDTABLES...FOR THE DAYS AHEAD. By Veronika West (Repost from 2024)

Re: Today, I heard the Spirit say, "IT'S TIME TO BUILD APOSTOLIC AND PROPHETIC HOUSES AND ESTABLISH WAR-ROOM ROUNDTABLES FOR THE DAYS AHEAD."

I see God Reforming, Restructuring, and Transforming Nations through Apostolic and Prophetic Houses and War Room Roundtables. These Houses and War Room Roundtables will understand the Transforming power of Prayer and recognize that nothing can be accomplished without it.

I believe Apostolic and Prophetic Houses and War-Room Round Tables will play a more crucial role in the days ahead. These Houses and War-Room Round Tables will be established under the guidance of Humble Apostles and Pure Prophets who are Anointed and Appointed by God to lead and direct His people in this critical hour on the Earth.

- They will truly understand the importance of prayer and Prophetic intercession, and they will be equipped with the Spiritual gifts and End-Time Apostolic and Prophetic Mantles necessary to see Mighty Breakthroughs and Extraordinary Miracles happen...
- Through God-Fearing and Christlike Leadership, they will usher in Supernatural transformation in the spiritual realm, which will manifest powerfully in the natural...!
- By building and establishing War Rooms and coming together as War Room Roundtables, the Remnant will be rightly aligned and positioned with the heart of God where they will receive divine revelation and strategy for their Nations...
- I see that these strategic Gatherings of Prophetic Intercessors, Prophets, and Apostles is essential for breaking through spiritual strongholds over territories and releasing God's power and Authority over the Nations...
- I submit, one of the main objectives of a War Room Roundtable can be found in Daniel 2:22, where God reveals deep and mysterious things and knows what lies hidden in darkness. Similarly, Jeremiah 33:3 reminds us to Call upon the Lord, and He will answer us by revealing marvelous and wondrous things that we could never figure out on our own...!
- The Ecclesia have been given all the Authority to Govern and legislate, and we have been given the responsibility to Wage War for the Destiny of the Nations and to Decree life and Declare Victory into our Nations....
- In this Time of Radical Shifts and Greater Shakings, we must continue to seek God's face and press into His Presence, and we will see the fulfillment of His promises and the manifestation of His Kingdom Government established on the earth.
- So, let us not grow weary in doing good, but let us continue to stand strong in faith and unity, knowing that God is actively working through us, His Rising, Shining Remnant, to Reform, Restructure, and transform Nations for His glory.

- Closing

Let us heed the Clarion call to come together in prayer and seek God's guidance in all that we do. It's time to be intentional in our pursuit of God's Will and purpose being established in our Nations.

Together, we can be Agents of Change for Kingdom Transformation, and become Instrumental in bringing about a Revival and Restoration that will impact Generations to come!

Tishrei 29, 5787: Saturday-October 10, 2026

Dutch Sheets: Should Christians Vote?

When standing before Pilate, Jesus made the following statement:

"My Kingdom is not of this world: if My Kingdom were of this world, then would My servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is My Kingdom not from hence." (John 18:36)

Many people misunderstand Christ's words. If you interpret His statement as meaning His Kingdom:

- doesn't originate here on earth,
- isn't governed by or doesn't operate based on earthly laws and principles,
- isn't physically visible,
- doesn't have an earthly king,
- doesn't force its rule on people with armies and physical might, then you are correct.

If, on the other hand, you believe Christ's:

- Kingdom doesn't exist here on earth, yet,
- kingly authority isn't to be recognized here on earth, as yet,
- authority isn't to be exercised by his church on earth, as yet,
- the church should stay out of politics or government,
- Kingdom refers only to a 1000 period when He returns to earth and rules here...you are mistaken.

Very simply stated, a kingdom is the realm over which a king rules. God's Kingdom is everywhere - every place in the heavens, the earth, and even under the earth. There is nothing anywhere that doesn't belong to Him; He even possesses the keys to death and hell. While here on earth, Christ spoke of His Kingdom more than any other subject. More than heaven, hell, the church - any other subject. In doing so, He certainly wasn't teaching us how operations on earth would be conducted several thousand years from then. How utterly ridiculous. Rather, Christ was re-introducing the guiding principles of how His Kingdom operates. Given that He spoke of this more than any other subject, it makes one wonder why we hear so little in churches today about the Kingdom of God.

In our opening verse, if Christ had been stating that the authority and principles of His Kingdom were not to operate here on earth at this time, Scriptures like Matthew 3:1-2 would make no sense: "In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, and saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Then Jesus began preaching about His Kingdom. "And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel ("good news") of the Kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people" (Matthew 4:23). The message of Christ's Kingdom rule on earth is, indeed, good news.

Some would have us believe that the only means by which Christians should endeavor to release God's life-giving Kingdom principles into society is through preaching, serving, and living godly lives, all of which are certainly essential. They don't believe we should endeavor to do so through government. This makes no sense. Every law should be based on truth and morality, the basis of which is found in Scripture and emanates from God's Kingdom. This was the belief of our Founders and the belief held by every generation of Americans until the last few decades; if you don't believe me, just read our currency.

Proverbs 29:2 tells us: "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn." Sadly, the stay-out-of-politics group adds: "But don't involve yourself in any political process that could influence this; just hope for the best." Some even add, "And whatever you do, don't talk about the process when gathered as God's people. His Kingdom is not of this world."

God, however, wants His people to speak and promote truth, regardless of the context, including government. And if they have rights - as we do in America - that allow them to influence who is in government, those who make decisions that control nearly every aspect of life, He certainly wants them to do so. Teaching and implementing God's Kingdom principles on earth is how we sprinkle the preserving and flavoring salt Christ spoke of (Matthew 5:13).

The alternative, as Proverbs 29:2 above tells us, is ungodly rule, which produces mourning. Interestingly, the Hebrew word for mourn in this verse also means “to groan from pain or grief; to gasp.”

I sometimes gasp nowadays when I watch the news. Seeing innocent people stabbed to death on our streets causes me to gasp. Hearing politicians say that drag queens dancing for and grooming kindergarteners is okay, makes me gasp. Hearing of trafficked children makes me gasp and mourn; knowing that many of our leaders in government don’t care enough to rescue them or stop it makes me angry and causes me to grieve. Seeing them clap for joy over killing full-term babies makes me gasp and mourn.

And knowing that an awakened and involved church could change all of this if we all simply voted, and did so according to biblical values, makes me weep.

The midterms are coming soon. Please vote. Give. Speak up. Sprinkle some salt.

Our Prayer and Decree:

Father, again today we ask You to involve Yourself in America’s upcoming midterm elections. We realize You aren’t political, but You are very governmental. It matters greatly to You who holds positions of power. We have allowed wicked people to rule our nation, and consequently, mourn the loss of our children to abortion, human trafficking, and drug-related deaths. We also mourn the extensive covenant-breaking, immorality, violence, and wickedness in our land.

But we believe the powerful leaven of Your Kingdom is spreading in our nation and throughout the world. Your Kingdom rule is good news. It brings freedom, fulfillment, and wholeness. Awaken the church to be Your voice in every arena of life. You have taught us to partner with You, and that You work through us. Therefore, we ask You to move upon the hearts of Christians in America to vote, and to vote for those who represent biblical values. Motivate leaders to be a voice of truth to those whom they influence.

We ask You to give wise, fruit-bearing strategies to those promoting righteous candidates. Give the candidates themselves wisdom and understanding. Cause candidates who promote evil to be exposed, make mistakes, and find disfavor with voters. Give us a breakthrough, we pray, in Jesus’ name.

And we pray again regarding Iran. We declare Your words that Jesus has been given all the nations as His inheritance (Psalm 2); the earth is His and the fullness thereof (Psalm 24); the government of Your Kingdom is on His shoulders (Isaiah 9:6), and all authority in heaven and on earth belongs to Him (Matthew 28:18). He defeated principalities and powers at the Cross (Colossians 2:15) and gave us authority to exercise that victory through His name (Matthew 16:18-19). We do so now, binding the spiritual powers of that region in Jesus' name, and declaring that they have no right to further rule and control it.

Please give our leaders wisdom as they finish dismantling the ability of the Iranian regime to terrorize, and perhaps even decimate people with nuclear weapons. Free the people of Iran, send a powerful outpouring of Holy Spirit, and make that region a beachhead for the gospel into all of the Middle East. Let this begin the billion-soul harvest. This, too, we pray in Jesus' mighty name. Amen.

Tishrei 30, 5787: Sunday-October 11, 2026

A DREAM ABOUT RETURNING TO THE RAW CRY OF WORSHIP
NATE JOHNSTON, ORANGE COUNTY, CA

The following dream was posted on August 4, 2026:

Earlier in the week, Christy had a dream where she was telling me to play my harp like David. On the same night, I had a dream where I was walking through a dark forest infected by some black mold-like disease, and nothing I was doing could fix it, but somehow when I sang in tongues, it would lift off.

I woke up hearing these words: "The refinery of the Levites will produce GOLD." The next night, I had a strange dream. In the dream, I was invited to lead worship at a stadium for a big church, and as I got up, I realized I didn't know any of the songs. It was awkward, but not for me. I didn't really mind, because I had determined I was going to sing whatever was on my heart anyway.

The poor worship pastor who invited me looked absolutely frustrated I wasn't prepared. But as I was just about to start, the sound system blew up, so they cleared the stage because there was a fire. Relieved, I went to the side of the stage and stood till they fixed it. The silent auditorium started to fill with people's voices. "What's happening?" people were saying.

Then the strangest thing happened. I closed my eyes and pressed on my heart with my index finger, and a loud cry came out, like a groan or a whine. I was shocked. "What was that?" I thought. Then I did it again, and it was even longer and louder this time, and I leaned into it, playing this harp-like song to the Lord.

The people started falling on their faces in worship. The weighty glory entered the room as we simply ministered to the Lord, and the only way to describe the atmosphere is that it felt like Yeshua was walking amongst us. The train of His robe filled the temple—the fear of the Lord and His majesty all rolled in one. No one cared that there wasn't a set song; our hearts knew what to play. And each of us were playing the songs we had always longed to sing but never had been given permission to.

All of this to say, I believe we are entering a RAW CRY season, and He is inviting the Church in. The Glory is coming back to the Church, y'all.

IN CONCLUSION

I encourage everyone to go to the Elijah List website as well as each author to see a complete list of the works of each contributor. The Prayer Guide is just that, a daily devotional consisting of the WORD OF GOD as well as prophetic insight from multiple contributors reposted for HIS Glory. The Republic and Chaplain Wade Butler do not make or receive any compensation for this publication, as this work is just passing on the great insight of so many contributors. I highly recommend that you follow most of the prophetic voices available today by signing up for ELIJAH LIST email! Subscribe at this link: elijahlist.com/subscribe.

Again, I want to give special thanks to all who contributed to this devotional prayer guide: The Amplified, King James, and Passion versions of the WORD of GOD were used in this study. Words of Prophecy from: Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler, Inspiration Ministries, Judaism 101, The Elijah List, Rabbi Tziporeh Heller, Kevin D. Vincent, Rabbi Dov Ber Pinson, Rabbi Bob & Remy Koch, Nate & Christy Johnston, Veronika West, Terry Friesen, Roseangela Atte, James Nesbit, Bruce and Linda Dietler, Bible Gateway, Andrew Towe, Lana Vawser, Yvon Attia, Demontae Edmonds, Bethany Hicks, Patti Finney Compton, Ashley Hooker, Diana Blackwood Larkin, John Rockwell, Wade & Frances Butler, Dutch Sheets, Tim Sheets, with additional quotes from sermons and the book, "A Time To Advance" by Chuck Pierce with Robert and Linda Heidler.

"Study to show yourself approved."

I want to encourage everyone to read the WORD of GOD daily and set a goal to read through the Bible every year, "Study to show yourself approved."

2 Timothy 2:15 Study and be eager and do your utmost to present yourself to God approved (tested by trial), a workman who has no cause to be ashamed, correctly analyzing and accurately dividing [rightly handling and skillfully teaching] the Word of Truth. Additionally, pay attention to 2 Chronicles 20:20 (Amplified Bible, Classic Edition) ²⁰ And they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the Lord your God and you shall be established; believe and remain steadfast to His prophets and you shall prosper.

Blessings and enjoy, Wade K. Butler, Pastor, Chaplin

Bruce Dietler has written two incredible books:

When Stars begin to Fall: A Compilation of Prophetic Dreams, Little-known Historical Anecdotes, and Spiritual Insights from the Heart of God.

This book does that. When the stars begin to fall will be the worst of times or the best of times depending on one's perspective and where we place our trust and confidence. Look up, get excited, and expect great things in the days ahead. Purpose to flow in God's plan, and all will unfold in awe and wonder. The best is yet to come. It would appear that everything in our world that can be shaken is either currently being shaken or soon will be. The foundations of security for many will surely crumble in the immediate future; those who have trusted in them and not in the Lord will be desperate for escape. Yet the Lord is calling us, His Ekklesia, to be as the sons of Issachar, understanding the times and seasons and exercising great biblical discernment in every area of life. There is great hope for the future when we view life from God's perspective; when we see how He has intervened in days past and project that into our future.

Bruce Dietler, $19.99 on Amazon.com

God's Glorious, Victorious Church:
A Biblical Blueprint for Manifesting God's INFLUENCE in Society

God's Glorious, Victorious Church is a compelling, Scripture-anchored call for believers to rediscover the Church as the Ekklesia - Christ's governing body on earth, empowered to manifest the Kingdom of God in real and tangible ways. This book moves beyond theory into practical, Spirit-led application, equipping readers to live with confidence, authority, and purpose in an increasingly unstable world.

Bruce F. Dietler walks primarily in the ministry gift of teacher. Ordained into Christian ministry by the late Wilford Wright, son-in-law of John G. Lake, and later by Dr. Lester Sumrall of LESEA Ministries, he has been involved in ministry for over 45 years.

I recommend everyone to get a copy of each book as soon as you can!

Bruce Dietler, $19.99 on Amazon.com

Terry Friesens' first edition was outstanding, and Volume two is even better.

Revelations of the Kingdom Vol I and II: Transforming Your World

If you are looking to embark on a journey of discovery into what the Spirit of God is saying in this day and hour, you have come to the right place. The Revelations of the Kingdom in this book are designed to help you transform your world. Day by day, over the last couple of years, the author has been ushered into supernatural encounters for the purpose of seeing what is to come and to be transformed through those same encounters.

If you join the journey, you will experience:

- Personal Transformation
- Prophetic Revelation
- Glory Encounters
- The New Era of the Church

- The Advance of God's Kingdom in and Around You

Discover the risen Christ in the fullness of His glory and how overcoming victory can be yours as well. Within these pages, you will encounter revelations of the Kingdom of God, which will bring about your transformative process as you see Christ formed in you. This transformational process can extend into your world, affecting everything you come in contact with.

We have entered a season in time where we need to know the fullness of who Christ is and what He accomplished for us. Remaining within the comfort of past experience will serve to separate you from the new that God is birthing in the church. Say yes to the new wine skin of His coming glory and partner with the Lord in releasing Heaven on Earth in this season.

"I saw Yeshua standing as a man with hair and the face of a lion- His hair waved and flowed as liquid gold, an appeared like God's Glory. In His right hand was a tall gold scepter-Yeshua walked into the world and through the earthly and worldly systems and structures, as if they didn't exist. He thrust His scepter into the ground to stake the land and His Kingdom. The ground in the spirit was leveled and prepared for Kingdom structures to be built. He didn't wrestle with earthly structures; He simply moved through them as if they weren't there. By doing this, He pronounced and carried out judgment on the world..."

Terry Friesen, $21.95 on Amazon.com

Don't forget "The Heart of a Seer"

By Wade Butler, $19.95 on Amazon.com

The reality of "The Heart of a Seer, Ascending to See the King," is for all HIS children. HE offers to everyone the opportunity to "come up here, and I will show you what is to come." Several people I know say, "But I do not have any gifts." The gifts are not the key; your heart is. You may be like my wife, who had never seen HIM or heard HIS voice. Yet, at the same time, she has the spirit of discernment of people and seasons. When she first saw HIM, she could not look past HIS feet or robe. Yet, she knew that HE was holding her hand, and she could hear HIM speaking to her.

Friends have told me that, "I wish I could see like you do." My reply has always been, "Surrender all to HIM." I pulled back for years and missed the fullness of what HE wanted me to see. I was overwhelmed by the gifts and turned HOLY SPIRIT away. When the anointing returned to me, I could not hold HIM back any longer. The story had to be told.